MAIL ORDERS

We solicit out of town orders which receive our personal attention. The length of time taken to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the greatest care in

FIRST MEETING OF NEW TOWN COUNCIL

Councillors Sworn in by Judge McLachley and Standing Committees are Appointed

The first meeting of the new Town Council was held last Thursday evening in the Council Chambers.
His Honor Judge McLachley was in attendance, and swore in the members of the Council, all the members being present.
On being constituted, His Worship Mayor Andrew took his place, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.
A nominating committee composed of Councillors Miller, Ellsworth and Quinn, were appointed to draft out the standing committees for the year, and their report as follows was adopted.
By Laws and Legislation.—Councillors McLean, Alexander and Miller.
Finance and Auditing.—Miller, the Mayor and Alexander.
Assessment and Appeals.—Ellsworth, Quinn and Evans.
Police and License.—Evans, Goss
and Quinn.
Public Property and Streets.—Paterson, Miller and Ellsworth.
Water and Sewerage.—Alexander,
the Mayor and Patterson.
Electric Light.—the Mayor, Evans and Alexander.
Fire Protection.—Goss, McLean and Evans.
Education and Improvements.—Mc-Lean, Patterson and Ellsworth.
Public Charities.—Quinn, McLean
and Miller.
The first named is chairman of committee.

After reverting to the regular order
of business, a communication was read from the Town Planning Association and after discussion, the Town Engineer was instructed to forward a plan of the town to them, and the letter ordered filed.

Communication from W. S. Malley, asking for refund of poll tax, owing to the fact as his being over age, was referred to Assessment and Appeals Committee.

Communication read from Richard Cameron, Auburn Nurseries, with offer to supply trees to the town for decorative purposes. It was moved by Councillor McLean that a committee be appointed to look into the matter,
and arrange for the planting of shade trees on private property at a nominal cost. The motion was lost and the matter was dropped.

The offer to the G. N. W. Telegraph
Co. for electric power at $30 per horse power per annum was reaffirmed.

A largely signed petition was received from residents in Ward III, praying that a school building be provided in this district. This was referred to the school trustees, after which the Council adjourned.

IS GASPE STEAMER TO BE SWITCHED

Montreal Parties Endeavor to Procure Subsidy For Service
to Dalhousie Only

Early last week, there were rumors that a new contract was about to be signed between Montreal parties and the department of Trade and Commerce, whereby the Montreal company, which last fall bought the steamer
Canada, would run that steamer and the Gaspeste on a weekly schedule
only, touching points on the north shore of the Gaspe peninsula and Bay Chaleur points, making Dalhousie the terminus of the route.

To deal with this matter, a special meeting of the Board of Trade was called for Saturday night, and a large number of members were present.

The matter was thoroughly discussed, and it was decided, to keep the vires with Ottawa, and get as much information as possible.

It was also decided, if circumstances seemed to require it, that a delegation
composed of D. A. Stewart, M. P. P., Mayor A. A. Andrew and A. E. G.
McKenzie, would proceed to Ottawa
and look after Campbellton interests.

This delegation is now at Ottawa,
having left Tuesday evening.
It was the unanimous opinion of the Board of Trade, and we are sure of the citizens of Campbellton, that no such contract should be countenanced. This subsidy is for a bi-weekly service between Campbellton and Gaspe, touching at intermediate points, and a strong protest should be entered against any other service than the Campbellton-Gaspe one.

The arrangement whereby these steamers are to sail from Montreal to Dalhousie or Campbellton on a weekly schedule was also disapproved of.

This would not allow the fishermen of the Bay Chaleur, an opportunity of marketing their fresh fish, which is a very large portion of the trade of this district, and also the route is so long,
that it would be almost impossible for any steamer to serve the ports of call at anything near adequate time, necessitating long waits and consequent-

POPULAR BONAVENTURE REPRESENTATIVE RECEIVES MERITED PROMOTION

John Hall Kelly, M. L. A. Has Been Elevated to the Executive Council of the Province of Quebec.—His Career.

On Saturday last, Mr. John Hall
Kelly, who has represented the County of Bonaventure in the Quebec Legislature during the last ten years, was promoted to the Legislative Council of his province by the Government of the Province of Quebec. This appointment came as a great surprise to many who did not know the Honorable
Mr. Kelly personally, owing to the fact that in the past the happy recipients of the position of Legislative Council in the Province of Quebec were never men under fifty years of age.
The Honorable Mr. Kelly is only thirty-four. He is the youngest member of the Legislative Council by seventeen years. His career so far has been one of wonderful progress and advancement. Born at St. Godfrey, in the County of Bonaventure, the 15th

HON. JOHN HALL KELLY

of Sept. 1879, the son of Sarah Hall
and the late M. J. Kelly, he was educated at Memramcook, N. B., where he graduated with distinction in June, 1900, carrying off special honors for philosophy and oratory. Three years later in 1900, he graduated in Law at Laval University, being the only law student of the year, who received the degree of Licentiate in Law with the greatest distinction. The first time he appeared in Court was in the famous Murray murder trial, when he succeeded in clearing both of his clients.
He had studied law with Mr. Lane of Quebec, a celebrated criminal lawyer, and in the Murray trial, Mr. Lane was acting for the Crown, and Hon. Mr.
Kelly, his former student, for the accused.

In February, 1904, he married Miss
M. A. Dionne of Quebec, daughter of
C. E. L. Dionne, a retired lawyer. In Sept. 1904, he was elected to the Quebec Legislature with over 1400 of a majority, and was reelected again in 1908, against Dr. Verge of Quebec, and in 1912 over Mr. Beauchamp, by majorities about the same as his first elections. Although having a large County to look after, the Hon. Mr.
Kelly devoted most of his time to his profession. He loves law and his profession, and the many important judgments that he has rendered in favor of his clients in all the courts of the Province, has caused him, notwithstanding his age, as one of the leaders

thing that might benefit his constitency and the Gaspe district generally.
In 1904 he started in to fight the holders of the Robitaille limits which had been held for over thirty eight years
on mere speculation, to the great detriment of the population of the County of Bonaventure. Shortly afterwards they were sold and have since been operated.

He took an active part in the organization of the St. Lawrence Pulp and Lumber Corporations, and it is due to his efforts that the company finally decided to build its pulp mill on the Gaspe coast, thus giving employment to hundreds, who previous thereto, were without employment. Mr. Kelly has been exceptionally fortunate in several various transactions, and is considered as one of the wealthiest members of the Quebec Legislature.

To hold the position that he now occupies at the age of thirty four of Legislative Councillor, can be answered for, not only by his sound judgment and special talents, but more so on account of his great energy, his love of study and work, and his complete abstinence from liquors of all kinds, which constitute the principal factors in the success of all men, who have gained special prominence in the batt'e of life. Judging from the characters, we do not hesitate in saying that the Honorable John Hall Kelly, will be still more heard of in the future, than he has been in the past.

ly much inconvenience.

One of the directors, (Mr. Bleut) of the company which controls the Gaspe-
steamer and Canada, was in Campbellton last Saturday enroute to Quebec,
having received a hurry up call to return. In conversation with a Campbellton citizen, he admitted that the contract for the service with Dalhousie
as the terminus, was all ready for the signature of the representative of the government, and he was surprised when shown a telegram from Mr.
Hazen, to learn that this had not been signed. So Campbellton has had a narrow escape from being treated as St. John was in regard to the Empress boats.

Mr. Bleut stated that he did not think his company would have any serious objection to proceeding to Campbellton, although this port had been prejudiced in his mind by parties

not favorable to Campbellton.

He further stated that the company
owned a smaller boat than the Canada,
which could serve the Campbellton-Gaspe route, if it was necessary to place such a steamer on.

Campbellton should be backed up by every merchant and shipper on the Bay Chaleur route in its fight for an adequate service.

Dalhousie, through W. S. Montgomery, is making a strong bid to keep the steamers at Dalhousie, and a largely signed petition has been sent to the government from that town.

TOWN OF BATHURST HAS DISASTROUS FIRE

Large of Stores and Dwellings are Burned to the Ground.—Heavy Loss

(Special to Graphic) Bathurst, N. B., April 28.—Fire swept today, almost the entire portion of St. George Street, from corner of King Street to corner of Murray Street. The blaze started in the kitchen of S. Holdengraber's house, which is attached to his large store on the corner of King and St. George Streets, where an employee was boiling pitch on the stove. This boiled over, and in a few minutes the building was ablaze.
An alarm was at once given, but was responded to rather slowly, on account of the fact that the fire engine was out testing the strength of a new horse.
Before the water was turned on, the Holdengraber building was ablaze from end to end, and the Lounsbury Company building was also doomed. The firemen made a brave fight against most adverse conditions, the wooden buildings giving out a tremendous heat, beating back the firemen in their efforts to save the surrounding property.

To make matters worse, a large portion of hose, stretched along King and St. George Streets, was destroyed by the heat. The fire raged from one o'- clock until six, working its way rapidly down both sides of St. George Street, only stopping at the corner of Murray street, where the firemen made a strong stand, and in the south side of the street, the fire being conquered
by a bucket brigade, at residence of William G. White.

The fight here, and at the skating rink, whose rear was seriously threatened for sometime, was a notable one and deserves particular mention. The stores and places of business destroyed
were, The Lounsbury Company, S.
Holdengraber, S. Williamson, A. C.
Branch, Mrs. R. D. Southwood, Telephone Exchange, Masonic Hall, Miss M. Kerr and Miss Jessie Carter. The following residences were also destroyed, Mrs. M. McKendy, Mrs. William Walsh, Sweeney Hotel, A. C. Branch,
Mrs. Robert, Ramsay, Mrs. R. D.
Southwood, John Branch, Malcolm
Douglas, John Doucet, Felix Doucet,
George Windsor, S. Williamson, W. W.
Lamb, James McEwen, George Suber-land, Leo Landier, Mrs. Glazier, Albert Carter.

All these buildings were totally destroyed, not a wall being left standing.
Help was asked early in the afternoon from Newcastle and Campbellton, and about six o'clock an engine and firemen arrived from each town, which are now at work helping to drown the ruins, as a strong wind is blowing and there is considerable danger from flying sparks. As far as could be heard tonight, the loss will be $100,000,
about half covered by insurance.

Insurance held in St. John offices on the property destroyed is as follows:
Lounsbury Co.—$1,000 in the Norwich Union, $1,000 in the Anglo-American, $2,000 on stock in the Guardian,
and $1,000 on stock in the Protector.
Mrs. Lucy McKendy—$400 in the Norwich Union, $800 in the Western,
$1,000 in the London Mutual, $300 on the plan in the Springfield.
W. G. Fenwick—$1,600 in the Norwich Union.

Sarah E. Fenwick—$200 on dwelling in the Springfield.

Miss Jessie Carter—$700 in the Norwich Union.

R. D. Southwood—$750 in the Norwich Union, $500 on stock in the Springfield.

Elizabeth Southwood—$500 on furniture in the British Crown.

Masonic Hall—$1,800 in the Western.

S. Holdengraber—$2,000 in the British Crown, $1,000 on stock in the Guardian.

Mary Kerr—$600 on stock in the Home, and $600 on building in the British American.

R. Bess—$900 on building in the Springfield, and $2,100 on building and contents in the British American.

Mrs. Georgina Ramsay—$1,000 on building in the Springfield.

S. Williamson—$1,000 on store in the Sun.

Allan Branch—$600 on store in the Sun.

A telephone switchboard owned by the New Brunswick Telephone Co. was burned, but is fully insured.

KENT COUNTY BOY TAMPERS WITH GUN

Richibucto, April 27.—Ralph, the 11-year-old son of John Curwin of the south side, while tampering with a loaded rifle, yesterday, sustained a very painful injury. The little fellow was trying to pick out the cartridge with a pin, when the rifle, a twenty-two calibre, discharged, the lead going through the lad's instep. He was brought across the river on a hand-sled and a very painful injury was treated by Dr. T. J. Bourque. He is now at the home of his brother, Mil-gas Curwin, and although suffering considerably is doing as well as can be expected.

While coming from the station last week Tuesday, the rear seat of the local bus unfastened and fell backward with its occupants. The bus was proceeding at a lively gait through the village, and but for the timely assistance rendered by Mr. Thomas Stainer, a bad accident would have occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBreton have issued cards announcing the birth of a son. Mr. Bonaventure Gauthier's horse has been named "Popcorn" by several enthusiastic sportsmen of the village, who are quick to recognize blue ribbon stock.

Mr. Harold Otto Schryer of New Richmond was a guest at "The Lodge" Saturday and Sunday. He was here in the interests of the moving picture theatre which is being built and expressed himself as well pleased with the progress which is being made. He left on Monday's train for Chaleurs, where he has other business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nadeau have taken a house in town for the summer. The eastbound passenger locomotive on the Q. & O. Ry., broke down near Caplan last week Monday, and but for the quick work of Engineer McCormick, a bad accident might have occurred. It was necessary to have a locomotive come up from New Carlisle to pull the disabled train to its destination. It was quite an unfortunate occurrence, as we understand the train was running to schedule and would have reached Bonaventure on time.

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., April 29.—The concert given on Friday evening by the ladies of St. John's Presbyterian church, in the Temperance Hall here, was a great success financially and otherwise. The principal parts were taken by Mrs. Polley, Miss Hamilton, the Misses Polley, Mr. Art McMillan and Mr. Harold Polley.

There is a beautiful lesson in the article written by a former Dalhousie school girl, which appeared in "The Canadian Countryman" of Toronto, dated April 18th. The article is entitled "The Bachelor's Biscuits"—A tale of the Prairie. By Margaret Grant MacWhirter.

Mr. Frank Dugas and bride of New Carlisle, P. Q., were visitors to town last week.

Mrs. Daniel O'Keefe and her daughter, Miss Maud O'Keefe of Campbellton, were the guests of Mayor W. S. and Mrs. Montgomery on Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Stewart was a visitor to friends in Madoc recently.

Miss Lydia Duncan of Campbellton was in town last week the guest of the Misses Duncan.

Mr. E. Aker of Campbellton was here on Sunday, the guest of Mr. James Duncan.

Miss Gracie Harquail is spending a few days with friends in New Glasgow, N. S.

Mr. Joseph Sherry of Montreal, arrived here on Friday, to take charge of Mrs. Louis Allan's wholesale liquor business.

It must have been a pleasure to some of the older business men of Dalhousie when they saw our young boys in their athletic sports last summer. No doubt it brought back to them the remembrance of many days of sports that money could not bring back now, but which the fleeting moments of time have brought their sons to continue in such a manly pass time, where they left off. The question might often come up, why were such men as Lincoln, Napoleon, great in their day, and without doubt the answer would be, their physical ability to endure hardship, their courage to persevere, brought nations at their feet.

Why should not the town encourage like they do in the west, and facilitate things financially and otherwise, to such popular sport when we know of the production of such good results.

Baseball holds out to young men the chance of being intellectual, physical and capable for any noble cause.

MONTREAL IN GRIP OF THE OLD REGIME

Montreal, April 23.—The extent to which the reactionary element in the new city council has obtained control of civic administration in Montreal is the subject of strong comment. Prominent positions are taken in the arrangement of committees by men denounced as anti-administrators by Judges Cannon and Fortin in their report upon city affairs.

Mayor Martin, one of the "23" figuring in the Cannon report, has assumed complete charge of the employment and dismissal of civic employees, whose salaries total $3,500,000. This step, it is claimed, is illegal, said powers having been vested in the board of control, when it was created.

Martin's right hand man, Ald. Giroux, leader of the "23", becomes chairman of the important public works committee, and a member of the legislation, finance, tramway and exposition committees.

Ald. Larivière, also strongly censured by judicial report, is chairman of the tramways committee. The tramways company is seeking a new forty year franchise. He is also on the public library and exposition committees.

Ald. Mayrand, Bastien and Letourneau are other reactionaries who figure prominently in the committee frame-ups, the last named also being pro-mayor. Judge Fortin, in his report on civic land deals, found him guilty of having an illicit agreement and to have fallen under the criminal code.

The majority of aldermen in the council and singled out for committee power are in favor of Mayor Martin's policy of abolishing the board of control.

Messrs. Amy Harkins and Levesque were in town last week.

Mr. J. C. Levesque left on Monday, the 27th, for St. John, N. B.

Mrs. Charles LeGallais who has been visiting friends at Sayabec, has returned to her home.

Mr. F. Jean left on Saturday for Grand River, where he will take up his duties with Robin, Jones & Whitman there.

Mr. Harquail, commercial traveller was in Paspébiac on Monday.

GREEN POINT
The many friends of Alfred D. Comeau were glad last Sunday to see him out, after having been sick for over a month with the Grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludger Proulx of Rivière du Loup, P. Q., who spent the winter at their mother's, Mrs. Peter F. Godin, Elm Tree, are going back to their former residence on the 1st of May. They spent a few days last week at Mrs. George A. Fournier's, and this week they will visit their brothers Stan, Albert, Girard and John P. Godin at Drummond Mine, Bathurst.

Why He Was Late.
"What made you so late?"
"I met Smithson."
"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
"Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by all dealers.

CAPLIN RIVER
Death has visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, and taken away their oldest son, Edwin Geoffrey, on the 21st April. The deceased was in his 20th year, and had been a sufferer of consumption for the last four years.

He bore it all with Christian fortitude, ever trusting in his Saviour. He leaves to mourn his loss, a father, mother, one brother and two sisters, and many other sorrowing relatives.

To mourn the loss of a very devoted son and brother and friend. He was loved by all who knew him, and his loving disposition, endeared him to all.

The sorrowing family have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement. The funeral took place on Monday, and was largely attended. Rev. Wm. B. McCallum conducted the funeral service, both at the house and the grave. Interment was made in the New Richmond Cemetery.

We are pleased to see Mr. Rolston McColm has his new saw mill running at present, and all report her doing very good work. We wish Mr. McColm every success in his new undertaking, and hope in the near future he will be doing a rushing business.

COUNCILLORS MURCHIE AND LAWLOR FORFEIT SEATS AS REPRESENTATIVES FOR DURHAM

Evidence Taken Proved Conclusively That Bribery and Corruption Were Practised by Conservative Machine in Councillors Election of Last September.

For years we have, after each election, either Municipal, Provincial or Dominion, held in this county of Restigouche, heard serious charges against the "Conservative machine" which operated at these elections in the parish of Durham.

In former Municipal elections no notice was taken of the flagrant violations of the election act and the candidates which received a majority of the votes in the ballot box were declared elected councillors and so acted. But last year when, with the assistance of a partisan Parish Clerk a deliberate "frame up" was made to steal the election by refusing to accept the nomination paper of a candidate, although it was proven that said candidate was duly qualified to run, the Liberal party throughout the whole county concluded it was time to take a hand in the matter, and consequently by the Protest against the return of John Landry Jr. and Archibald Murchie was filed.

The matter was laid before the meeting of the Municipal Council in January last.

At that meeting a committee upon the choice of whom the two members affected by the Protest sat in their seats and had the presumption to vote, was chosen. This committee composed of W. S. Montgomery, John Dickie and C. A. Alexander at once proceeded to hear the evidence of witnesses, and although Mr. Montgomery, as Chairman was able to shut out some of the evidence, some very startling facts as to how elections are won in Durham were adduced.

One witness under oath swore that Archibald Murchie paid him money and gave him a ticket bearing the names of Murchie and Lawlor, and told him to vote that ticket.

Another witness swore that Mr. Arthur Culligan, the local representative for this county in the Legislature, who was acting as the agent for Messrs. Murchie and Lawlor paid him money and gave him a ticket and asked him to "help us out" which he did by taking their money and voting for the other candidates.

Another witness stated on the witness stand that liquor was being freely supplied.

At the investigation in January two days were spent in hearing evidence when it was discovered that the action of the two councillors from Durham in voting on the choice of a tribunal which was to try them made the whole proceedings illegal. The committee was dismissed and a new one composed of Couns. Dickie, Giroux and C. A. Alexander chose.

Then things began to happen. The fine work of Coun. W. S. Montgomery began to make itself manifest.

The two councillors for Durham were prevented from doing anything from sitting when anything pertaining to this protest was taken up. This left twelve councillors to deal with this matter. Four of these, namely Couns. W. S. Montgomery, of the town of Dalhousie, D. A. Arsenau of Balmoral, Murdoch Firth and B. F. Peters of Eildon absented themselves from the council and did not appear for the remainder of the session, except to get their per diem and mileage checks.

It requires eight councillors to form a quorum of Council. This left just eight to transact the business. Unfortunately one of these was called to St. John on business and during his absence this protest matter could not be proceeded with, but the two Durham councillors occupied their seats so long as ordinary business was transacted, but vacated them as soon as the protest was taken up.

In this way eight days were required to transact business which could under ordinary circumstances have been transacted in three days, and the county saddled with this extra expense.

According to the by-laws a session of the council can only last eight days, therefore by obstructing business the manager of this corte thought to relegate the Protest charges to the distant future.

These tactics disgusted all right thinking electors of Durham and the county at large and a demand was made to have the matter investigated to the end.

Four Councillors then signed a requisition for a special session of the Council to deal with this Protest exclusively.

The session was held last week and the evidence and finding of the special committee appointed to investigate the Protest are published herewith.

The Council was called for Wednesday at 10 o'clock. Although the call had been sent to each councillor only seven appeared at the appointed hour, Coun. C. A. Alexander having been delayed. Couns. Firth and Peters of Eildon journeyed to Dalhousie, but after meeting the "boss" they turned about and took the first train to Campbellton enroute to their homes.

Happily there were enough Councillors who could not be so influenced to make a quorum and the investigation was proceeded with.

Every step was taken to delay matters. Learned counsel for Messrs. Murchie and Lawlor exhausted every means to prolong the investigation and still the committee entirely closed down on him and placed a time for him to produce his witnesses which he failed to do.

When the report of the Committee was placed before the Council the learned counsel again endeavored to take up the time of the Council upon a matter entirely foreign to the Protest and was promptly called to order by Councillor Harquail, who distinctly gave him to understand that the Council would not be further obstructed but that if he had anything to say in reference to the Protest he could say it.

This concluded the matter and the Council adopted the report of the special committee as published herewith.

Dalhousie, N. B., April 22, 1914. Meeting of special committee appointed by the County Council of the county of Restigouche to investigate the charges contained in the Protest against the return of Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor, Junior, as councillors for the Parish of Durham.

Present:—

John Dickie, Chairman,

Louis Giroux,

Harvie Gillis.

Mr. A. T. LeBlanc appeared in support of the Protest and Mr. J. P. Byrne appeared for Councillors Murchie and Lawlor.

Mr. Byrne asked the following preliminary objections:

That this committee has no jurisdiction to hear this Protest as one of the Councillors who seconded the motion for the appointment of Mr. Gillis is not a legal member of the Council and is therefore not qualified to second the motion or vote at the Council board.

2.—There was no legal quorum present of the County Council, as one of the persons within the Council hall was not or is not a member of the County Council, having forfeited his seat by having been convicted of knowingly committing an offence against the Liquor License Act.

Mr. Byrne asked for subpoenas for the following witnesses:

Mathias Comeau, Esq., Police Magistrate for the Town of Dalhousie; the Assessors for the Parish of Durham, James E. Doyle, Robert Archibald and Frank LaPointe; and James Landry, Joseph Hachey, sworn.

I reside in the parish of Durham, county of Restigouche. Am a laborer, 34 or 35 years of age. I have voted in last two elections previous to the one in September last for county Councillors for the parish of Durham. I remember the election for councillors which took place 2nd September, 1913. I know Archibald Murchie of the parish of Durham. Archibald Murchie did not tell me he was a candidate. I saw Archibald Murchie September 2nd at the lower poll at Jacques River in the parish of Durham. Was about 12 o'clock, noon. He asked me if I was going to help him (Murchie) and John Lawlor by voting for them. I said "Yes".

Mr. Byrne.

I object to any evidence from this witness as his name is not mentioned in the Protest as one of the witnesses against Mr. Murchie and Mr. Lawlor.

He, Archibald Murchie, gave me $2.00 and a ticket to vote and said "vote that ticket". That was about an hour or two from the polling booth.

Voting was then in progress. I did not read it. I could not read. He did not tell me the names on the ticket. I remember going into the polling booth January 1st. I saw Archibald Murchie sitting in the Council room at the Court House last January. He is the man who gave me the $2.00 in September 2nd, 1913.

Cross-examined by Mr. Byrne.

Q.—Did you intend to vote for Lawlor and Murchie?

Question objected to and objection sustained.

Questioned by Chairman Dickie:

Q.—If there had been no election on that day would Mr. Murchie have given you $2.00?

A.—I don't know. Archibald Murchie did not owe me this money.

To Mr. Byrne.

I did not vote that ticket. I did not vote at all that day.

To Mr. LeBlanc:

George Harvie gave me liquor that day. He said to help me along.

Objected to by Mr. Byrne.

(Signed)

JOSEPH HACHEY, sworn.

I am 24 years old. I reside at Nasha Creek in the parish of Durham, county of Restigouche. I know Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor, Junior, Councillors for the parish of Durham. I remember a part of the 2nd day of September, the day of the election. I remember going into the polling booth to vote. Booth was at old building at Jacques River. It was in the afternoon while voting was in progress. I saw both Lawlor and Murchie. I was formerly a resident of Jacques River, parish of Durham, county of Restigouche. I think I was talking to Murchie. Talked to Murchie about election.

Q.—Who gave you the liquor?

Objected to by Mr. Byrne and objection sustained.

Q.—What was your opinion when this $2.00 was handed you?

A.—I did not know exactly. I do not know of any other money paid by Murchie and Lawlor.

By Mr. LeBlanc.

Assessment roll for parish of Durham dated March 20th 1913 and signed by Robert Archibald, Frank LaPointe and James E. Doyle, and also an additional leaf filed August 29th, 1913, and signed by Robert Archibald and James E. Doyle only placed in evidence.

Received in evidence and marked "A".

Additional list received in evidence and marked "B".

Book shows witness.

The name on page 5 on book "A" in evidence, Joseph Dion is my name.

Cross-examined by Mr. Byrne.

Q.—You knew that Frank LaPointe was one of the candidates and John Kerr the other?

A.—Yes.

I didn't know that they had agents then I could not swear as a matter of fact that I voted that day.

I do not remember Frank LaPointe or John Kerr asking me to vote for them.

Q.—You will not swear as a matter of fact that neither John Kerr or Frank LaPointe asked you to vote for them?

I do not remember.

Q.—Will you swear as a matter of fact that neither Mr. Kerr or Frank LaPointe asked you to vote for them on that day?

Objected to and objection sustained. (Signed)

JOSEPH DION.

David McGregor sworn.

I remember the 2nd day of September last. I know Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor, Junior, councillors for the parish of Durham. I voted for election of councillors for the parish of Durham at the election of September 2nd last. I voted at the upper poll Jacques River. I think Currie was chairman of poll when I voted. I was talking to Archibald Murchie that day. He asked me to vote for him and Lawlor. I said I had no vote, but he said he would have my name put down. He took me in the poll. Ebenezer McMillan was not in to swear me. They examined the list and chairman Currie of poll told me my name was not on the voters list. Mr. Arthur Culligan told me to be sure and vote the ticket. I gave evidence before on this investigation. When he gave me the money he told me to be sure and vote the ticket. The names on the ticket were Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor. I then went into the poll and voted. Currie swore and marked "C".

The signature to paper, Frank LaPointe, is in my own handwriting. I made declaration before Ebenezer McMillan, a replayer of the parish of Durham, the signature of Thomas Hayes and Alex. H. Dickie are in the proper handwriting of Thomas Hayes and Alex. H. Dickie respectively.

I know Thomas Hayes and Alex. H. Dickie who signed the declaration, they are ratepayers of the parish of Durham.

Objected to by Mr. Byrne.

They have been ratepayers of the parish of Durham for the past ten years and are yet.

I was one of the assessors for the Parish of Durham for 1913. We completed assessment roll some time in last of March.

Assessment roll marked "A" prepared and filed March 20th shown witness.

The signature Frank LaPointe to paper "B" shown witness.

I know nothing about additional list marked "B", signed Robert Archibald, and Jas. H. Doyle, filed 29th day of August. I think there are some forger names on that list. I have seen one of the notices of the names of candidates for councillors' election for the election of councillors for the parish of Durham in September last.

Saw notice at Poll house. My name was not on it as one of the candidates.

I asked him (Robert Archibald) to go down with me and together with James E. Doyle, prepare a correct list of all persons qualified to vote under the Act regarding Municipalities, as there was none made two Saturdays previous to the election. I asked Robert Archibald. He said he was busy and couldn't take the time to make same. On the 29th August I don't know if such list was prepared. As one of the Assessors I had not until the 30th of August prepared such list. Mr. Robert Archibald was chairman of Assessors. Mr. Doyle told me they prepared a list of voters in the week previous to the election. I did not examine the list they were voting on.

Cross examined by Mr. Byrne.

I went to Mr. Archibald about the list. He was chairman. I was one of the Assessors. On Thursday of the second week previous to the election Mr. Archibald said to me that he could not spare the time as he was busy making, and said he would prepare list when he had time. I will not swear that he did not tell me that he would let me know when the list was made.

On Saturday following he told me that he was going to prepare a list. He told me we would meet Tuesday previous to election and make list. I did not go as I had resigned as Assessor.

Paper "C" shown witness.

Yes that is my signature to paper. I signed it in presence of Ebenezer McMillan, Messrs. Thomas Hayes, Alex. Dickie and others were present at same time.

To Mr. LeBlanc:

I sent in my resignation as Assessor to Mr. LeBlanc on the 23rd of August. (Signed)

FRANK LAPOINTE.

Matthew McDonald, sworn.

I am a resident of the parish of Durham. Have been for last five years. I remember 2nd of September last. I was agent for LaPointe at lower poll, Durham. I saw notice containing the names of candidates for councillors for parish of Durham in September last. Name of Frank LaPointe was not published on list. Dan McAllister the Parish Clerk was chairman at this poll. I was there when he counted the ballots. He did not count ballots that had been cast for Frank LaPointe. I saw ballots as they came out of the box. There were about as many ballots for LaPointe as for Kerr.

(Signed)

MATT. McDONALD.

Alex. J. LeBlanc, sworn.

I am County Secretary-Treasurer for the county of Restigouche. Have been for the past five years.

Copy of Return as sent by Parish Clerk, Dan McAllister, to County Secretary, by consent admitted. (Copy)

"The following are the returns for the Parish election for the parish of Durham:

John Lawlor, Jr. 281

Archibald Murchie 278

John Kerr 224

And have declared John Lawlor Jr. and Archibald Murchie elected.

Yours truly,

DANIEL McALLISTER

Parish Clerk.

I received the resignation of Frank LaPointe as Assessor for the parish of Durham. It was left at my office on the 23rd of August last.

It is admitted, by consent, that the By-laws of the Municipality of Restigouche, being a "By-law to Regulate the Election of Councillors, and to try Contested Elections of Councillors" marked "D" on pages 23, 24, 25, being printed copy of By-laws, also Rules of Order No. 25 on page 3 as follows:—

"Every member shall be heard in his place touching any charges brought against him as such or any motion respecting his election, removal, or private interest, or whenever his private interest is affected, but shall withdraw before the council proceed therein," and they are hereby admitted in evidence.

I believe there was an election for councillors for the parish of Durham in September last.

(Signed)

ALEX. J. LEBLANC.

H. B. Anslow, sworn.

I am a publisher and reside in Campbellton, county of Restigouche. I know Arthur Culligan, member for the County of Restigouche in the Local Legislature. I took down the evidence as Secretary for the Committee last January, on the enquiry respect the Protest in the election of Murchie and Lawlor as councillors for the parish of Durham.

Q.—What did Mr. Culligan swear before the committee was his official connection or relation with Archibald Murchie and John Lawlor, Jr., candidates for election as councillors for the parish of Durham in the councillors' election of 2nd September last?

Objected to by Mr. Byrne.

Question admitted.

A.—He was acting as agent for Murchie and Lawlor at election at upper poll, Durham at election of Sept. 2nd last.

(Signed)

H. B. ANSLOW.

Mr. LeBlanc closed case in support of Election Protest.

I know Arthur Culligan, member for the County of Restigouche in the Local Legislature. I took down the evidence as Secretary for the Committee last January, on the enquiry respect the Protest in the election of Murchie and Lawlor as councillors for the parish of Durham.

Q.—From Police Magistrate of the Town of Dalhousie, Mathias Comeau. The Chairman asks Mr. Byrne if he has any witnesses or any evidence to offer to disprove, meet, or rebut the charges contained in the Protest.

Mr. Byrne. Yes I have. I am offering the evidence to meet the charges against Messrs. Murchie and Lawlor.

The committee now state that they will not now hear any evidence concerning an alleged charge against Alexis C. Levesque, which matter has since last meeting of County Council as it has no bearing upon the investigation and the committee has not been appointed to investigate the said charges, but only the matter of the Protest against the return of Messrs. Lawlor and Murchie and they again ask Mr. Byrne to produce any relevant evidence to rebut the charges contained in said Protest.

pointment of Mr. Gillis as a member of this committee. I know Mathias Comeau of Dalhousie, acting as Police Magistrate for the Town of Dalhousie.

Q.—Were you present before Mathias Comeau when Coun. Levesque was being tried for selling liquor contrary to the Liquor License Act?

Objected to by Mr. LeBlanc and objection sustained.

Q.—Did you know as Warden of the County yesterday that Coun. Levesque had been convicted within the space of three months previous to sitting of yesterday of having sold liquor contrary to the provisions of the Liquor License Act?

Objected to and question disallowed.

Q.—Have you not, as Warden of the County, discussed with other members of the committee and with other members of this Council or some or one of them what the effect would be of Coun. Levesque having been convicted of selling liquor contrary to the Liquor License Act while a member of the County Council?

Objected to and question disallowed.

Q.—Did not Mayor Montgomery point out to you the Act disqualifying or whereby Coun. Levesque forfeited his seat in the Council having been convicted of an offence under the Liquor License Act?

Objected to by Mr. LeBlanc and objection sustained.

Q.—Did not Coun. Levesque admit to you that he had been fined for selling liquor and did you not of your own knowledge know it?

Objected to and ruled out. (Signed)

JOHN C. McLEAN.

Adjourned until 1 o'clock. Reassembled at 1:30 o'clock. Mathias Comeau, sworn.

I am the Police Magistrate for the Town of Dalhousie, and have been acting as such for some time. I know Alexis C. Levesque. Will not swear that he is acting as Councillor.

Mr. Levesque called.

That is the gentleman.

Farm Notes
and News

Interesting Items of the Farm and Dairy.

The information contained in the Annual Reports of the Experimental Farms of the Dominion Department of Agriculture is so varied and complete as to render these yearly volumes almost worthy the name of "Encyclopedia of Agriculture." The Experimental Farms System embraces the Central Farm and twenty Branch Farms and Stations, each named by a staff of specialists. At these wide-spread, well-equipped institutions practically every phase of agriculture, from the study and suppression of plant diseases, to the breeding and raising of all manner of orchard, garden and field crops and classes of farm animals, are taken up. In addition, seven outlying sub-stations carry on and report upon work of an agricultural nature.

The report for the year ending March 31st, 1913, makes a volume of nearly 700 pages crammed with the most of what was accomplished and found out during the year. The information is so classified and treated as to be readily available to the reader in whatever subject he may chance to be interested. A large edition has been printed so as to supply for some time at least every applicant who will drop a card for a copy to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

When one listens to the discussions which come up at gatherings of men interested in agriculture, he is more than ever convinced that the statement that twelve men form a committee but one moulds its thought and action is true.

It is a simple matter to make a mistake in tying plants to stakes, either in the garden or the house. The proper method is to pass the string once around the main stem of the plant, just above a branch, and then pass it twice around the stake. This double winding of the stake prevents the string from falling down, and the branch on the stem will have the same effect, without the necessity of binding the string on the tender stem by passing it around twice.

Wild geese were bred abundantly in England until the eighteenth century, says the London Chronicle. For a long time flocks of tame geese formed the most valuable part of the stock of the dweller. It was not at all uncommon for one man to have 1,000 birds, which were driven to pasture just as sheep are. And in autumn the goose-herd would drive the flock to market at a leisurely pace, the geese generally travelling at about one mile an hour. But they are good stayers, for the flock could cover ten miles in the day.

The more a horse lies down, says "Our Dumb Animals", the longer his legs and feet will last. To give your horse a good bed is, consequently, economical as well as humane. More-over, he should be bedded during the day-time, if he is in the stable for half the day or more, as well as at night. Horses thus treated will soon get into the habit of lying down, and the slight extra expense of the daytime bedding will be saved a hundred times.

Agriculture is now coming into its own. In the prospect of continued high prices for the products of the farm we see its salvation. How else can it be accomplished? The profits in agriculture in recent times have never been commensurate with the capital or the work involved. Farmers have not been able to pay wages attractive enough to compete with city industries. With insufficient help they have been unable to apply scientific farming methods. Higher prices for their produce, providing more just remuneration and better conditions of living for the farming population is the only solution. It is the logical outcome of the present situation, and will result in the final elevation of agriculture to the position it should occupy as the premier industry.

POWDERY SCAB OF POTATOES.
Some time ago it was found that there existed in the eastern provinces of Canada, viz: Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Quebec a disease of the potato tuber known as Corky or better Powdery Scab, which had probably been present, at least in some localities, for a number of years, but not distinguished Scab.

While this disease, under Canadian conditions, has so far only in one instance given indications of being more destructive than Common Scab, it is nevertheless a very undesirable malady to have permanently established in potato growing land. As the result of the discovery of Powdery Scab, the United States authorities, through fear of introducing the disease, have enacted that potatoes shall not enter the United States except under a rigorous system of certification, which includes a certificate to the effect that the potatoes were raised in an area in which neither Potato Canker nor Powdery Scab exists. If the export with the United States is to be regulated in the future, the existing regulations the methods directed towards the eradication of the disease must be followed intelligently and in a thorough spirit of co-operation.

In order to familiarize the farmers of Canada with this disease Mr. J. W. Eastham, Chief Assistant Botanist of the Central Experimental Farm has prepared a comprehensive circular entitled Powdery Scab of Potatoes, which is Farmers' Circular No. 5 of the Division of Botany and is available to all who make application for it to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

The nature, symptoms, and preventive methods are fully outlined and the following summary of recommendations for control of Powdery Scab are given:

1. Use only "seed" from a crop free from the disease.
2. Disinfect such "seed" to destroy any stray disease germs.
3. Use land known to be free from the disease. In most areas this will have to be land not previously planted to potatoes.
4. Do not plant potatoes again in land which has shown the disease. If possible seed such land down to grass.
5. Isolate the crop from any field showing the disease, and take all possible precautions to avoid the spread of the disease from this crop scattered where they infect other potatoes.
6. Pay special attention to the cleaning, and, if necessary, disinfection of implements which may carry the disease.

ASSISTANCE FOR WOOL.

The Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture is prepared to offer practical assistance this year to Associations of Wool Growers in the preparation and display of their wool clips for market. Associations, in order to receive this aid, must be organized in accordance with the regulations of the Branch and membership is limited to actual owners of sheep. West of Fort William and Association must contain at least 3,000 sheep, or sufficient to comprise one car-load of wool; east of there, a relative number. The services of expert wool classifiers, who will take charge of and perform the grading, classification and preparation of the wool, will be provided.

The proposal represents much more than a mere continuation of the work undertaken last year, when two wool classifiers, in the employ of the Live Stock Branch, visited the Western Provinces and gave practical instruction and advice to sheep-raisers upon wool growing. Rather it means the introduction of a definite scheme whereby wool producers may be actually assisted in preparing and presenting their wools upon the market in the most acceptable fashion and thus be in a position to cater more directly to the requirements of the market. Moreover, it should prove effective in developing and improving the general status of sheep-raising and in creating an impetus to the production and preparation of an improved grade of wool and indirectly a better class of mutton.

The Branch will also provide the means for the establishment of a central bureau for the distribution of current information respecting domestic and foreign markets of wool, so that the Associations may be constantly in command of complete knowledge concerning the source of the demand and the ruling price of all grades. Reliable information of this nature will serve as an excellent asset to an Association in directing its policy and placing it in closer relationship with the demands of the trade.

Sheep-raisers desirous of taking advantage of this offer and of forming an Association should write, for detailed information and application forms, to the Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa.

SOME FARM CONVENIENCES
On the average farm there are a great many things that at a small

cost and a little thought can be made to make the work of caring for the stock far easier. Often the feeding arrangements are in such a shape that it takes twice as long to feed the stock as it should. By the building of a chute or two, the feed could be put almost where it is wanted to feed, and it would not have to be carried a hundred yards or so, only through two or three doors, thus causing a great deal of waste in both time and feed. Where it is possible it is best to build your chute straight up and down, but if this is impracticable owing to it obstructing the mow too much or some other reason, it can be built on the following plan: Suppose the top of the chute is twenty feet or more above the ceiling of the feed alley in the stable below. The first ten feet may be directly down; from this point it should slope directly to the emptying point. If properly made with plenty of room at the elbow or turn it will work as well as if it went straight down, if you put the feed down in front of each row of mangers. Instead of carrying it around in a basket, or wheeling it around in a wheelbarrow. The cost of a good feed carrier is not great, and once installed it will always be ready to use, and will last a life time. The carriers can be bought direct from the manufacturers, and erected by any one. In barns with a basement it is seldom that the delivery of grain to the feeding floor below is as convenient as it might easily be. With a hopper or two in the granary with pipes attached the grain can easily be delivered into small bins below, thus saving a great deal of heavy carrying down a flight of steps.

They again there is the cleaning of the stable, probably the most hated job on the farm, especially if it has to be either carried or wheeled out with a wheelbarrow out on the manure pile. This drudgery can be easily saved by installing a litter carrier. These, like the feed carrier, may be bought from the manufacturers, and put up by yourself, and the cost will not be over two-thirds of the agent's price.

While we are talking about manure let us go a little further, and touch on the care of it. We all know there are times when it is absolutely impossible to go on to the fields with a load of manure. If piled in the yard it is apt at this time of year to freeze so hard that it will be almost a solid pile, a shape in which it is almost impossible to do anything with it. Now this can easily be avoided by the erecting of a cheap shed. If you do not care to go to the expense of putting up a frame get a few good, big cedar posts, peel the bark off, and tar them on the end you put in the ground. It will do no harm to paint the whole of them with it, but this is not absolutely necessary. Make your shed as large as you think you require, and so that you can pile sleigh or wagon in it when the door is shut. Side it up with rough lumber, put on a roof of any kind you like as long as it sheds the rain; it is a good place to try out some of the prepared roofing. Your manure if dumped here will not freeze hard and will not waste. You can put the litter carrier track out into this shed and dump your manure right on your wagon or sleigh when the weather is so you can go on the fields. The satisfaction, comfort, as well as the labor saved, will more than repay.

GET BUSY

As a distributing centre for the business of the Gaspé Coast, Campbellton is seriously threatened with a glut out.
The famous or infamous Gutelius-St.
John-Halifax agreement has been formally brought to the attention of the people here, by the reports that Campbellton, as the terminus for the Gaspé steamer service would be abolished in favor of Dalhousie. The information gathered seemed to point towards some underhand work being done somewhere, and following the prompt action of the Board of Trade, His Worship Mayor Andrew, D. A. Stewart, M. P. P. and A. E. G. McKenzie are now in Ottawa looking after the town's interest and incidentally to find out who was at the bottom of the proposed change. The subsidy which was granted the steamer Canada, and which has yet two years to run, was for a service from Campbellton to Gaspé, and it appears very strange that in answer to question in the House of Commons, the minister replied to the Hon. Chas. MacNeil that no arrangements had yet been made regarding the service, when as a matter of fact, it would appear that the agreement was all prepared, making Dalhousie the terminus, and only awaited the minister's signature. As was seen in the St. John-Halifax business, an agreement did not require the signature of the minister to make it binding, and until we hear the report from the delegation, we can only conclude that Campbellton has received a "black eye" at the hands of some political jobbers. For years this town has been the business terminus for this line of steamers, and no reason in the world can be adduced for making change, unless it be the plea political expediency.
As the matter stands now, it puts our business houses here on a plane with the wholesalers of Quebec and Montreal for the trade of Gaspé ports, as there will be little difference in the rates between the two ports, Montreal
to Gaspé or Campbellton to Gaspé.
Under the agreement which the Company now have the Gaspesian (which is now on her way for her first run), will make her terminus Dalhousie, and if that is once done, our job will be

STEAMERS LIKELY TO LAND AT HALIFAX

Conditions in St. Lawrence May Stop Them From Going to Montreal

Halifax, April 24.—There is a possibility that the White Star-Dominion Line's 1,200 ton freight steamer Englishman, which left the other side several days ago, with Montreal as the port of destination, may be forced to come to Halifax, like the steamer Teutonic. No word was received from the Teutonic this morning and while it is not as yet announced officially that she is coming to Halifax there seems to be little doubt about it. Conditions in the St. Lawrence are such as to prevent her reaching Montreal and having many passengers to land allows no other alternative under the circumstances but to land them at Halifax, so that they may proceed to their destination by rail. In the event that the steamer Englishman comes to Halifax she will remain in the stream
until such time as conditions are suitable to get up the St. Lawrence to Montreal to discharge her cargo.

RE-BURIED

The bodies of the two Mullins children, victims of the tragedy at Protectionville, were brought to Newcastle and interred in the cemetery Wednesday. They had been buried in the Protectionville cemetery. Their murderer was buried in the same cemetery. This was so repugnant to the parents that the change was made.
The body of another child of the same
parents was also brought to the town cemetery, while the body of William Smith, a half-brother of Mr. Neil Mullins, who died this winter and was buried at Protectionville, has been taken to Trout Brook for re-burial.

much harder to retrieve what we have lost. Not only the Board of Trade, but the citizens irrespective of politics are up in arms, and if the delegation returns with an unfavorable report,
there will be some tall hustling.

Oxford, N. S., April 29.—Oxford was visited by a disastrous fire this morning when the block owned by Dr.
J. R. Gilroy was practically destroyed.
The block was occupied by Dr. Gil-roy's drug store, Lloyd Johnson's photographic studio, and P. A. Mac's tailoring establishment. The fire was discovered at 2.30 this morning between the ceilings of the store. The building was worth in the vicinity of $10,000, and the stock in the three establishments, of which little was saved, is estimated to total about $5,000.
The loss will be partially covered by insurance.

A Surprised Auditor.

A food faddist was lecturing to a large audience on the marvellous results to be obtained from chewing soap, or eating nut butter, or something of that kind. He was not an imposing person physically, but swelling out his chest he slapped it thrice with his palm and cried:

"Friends, two years ago I was a well known skeleton, a haggard, miserable wreck. Now what do you suppose brought this great change in me?"
He paused to let his words sink in,
and a surprised voice asked:

What change?"

OBITUARY

MRS. ROBERT BUTLER, JR.

It was with deep sorrow that the news was received of the death on Saturday last, of Marion E., wife of Robert Butler, Jr., after a lingering illness borne with uncomplaining patience. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Connell, and was in her 84th year. She leaves a becoming husband, and three little motherless girls, to mourn her loss, as well as one sister, Mrs. Andrew Maxwell of Boston, four brothers, Duncan, Irvine, and Clifton of this town, and Gordon of Vancouver. Her family will sorely miss her, taking as she did a mother's place to her brothers, who loved her with a deep affection. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, Rev.
T. P. Drumm officiating at the services, and interment was made in the Rural Cemetery. The floral tributes received were many and lovely, and a large number turned out to the funeral to pay their last respects to one who was held high in the esteem of all who knew her.

MR. FERDINAND FORTIN

The funeral of the late Ferdinand Fortin, who died on Monday, aged 87, was held on Wednesday morning, at the church of Our Lady of Snow, Rev.
Fr. Wallace singing the Requiem Mass.
The deceased, who was one of Campbellton's old residents, was married three times. He leaves a widow, and two daughters by a former wife, residents in the States, to mourn his loss.

MR. ADAM CROKER

The oldest resident of the County,
Mr. Adam Croker, passed away on Sunday at Maple Green in the 104th year of his age. He was born in Nova Scotia, but for many years has had his home with Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. Onge at Maple Green, having worked as farm hand with Mr. St. Onge's father for many years. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, interment being made at Campbellton Rural Cemetery, Rev. T. P. Drumm conducting the services.

What Do You Know About It?

That's what a customer asked me recently about a patent medicine I had sold for years, and I was forced to admit that in reality I knew nothing more than what appeared on the label, wrapper and advertising.

Some of the claims made were so extravagant that of course I could not take them seriously, but I concluded I had better find a line of remedies I did know something about.

DRAINING SMALL TOWNS OF CASH

Local Storekeepers Not Altogether Blameless for Growth of Mail Order Business

In former days superstitious rites were used to exorcise evil spirits, but in our times the same effect is attained and beyond comparison more effectively by the newspapers. Before the talisman ghosts, vampires, witches and all their kindred tribes are driven from the land, never to return. Nothing is so intolerable to them as the smell of printing ink.

New Element of Power.

What gunpowder did for war the printing press can do for the local merchants who are competing with the retail mail order houses, but the first step toward enlisting the aid and friendship of the editor is to understand that he is ready to boost his home town all the time and that every dollar expended with him for advertising will return a dollar's worth of benefit or more. He asks no favors of any one; he has a dollar's worth to sell, and he can deliver the goods every time.

The invention of printing added a new element of power to the race. From that hour the brain and not the arm, the thinker and not the soldier, books and not kings, were to rule the world; the weapons forged in the mind, keen edged and brighter than the sword, were to supplant the sword and the battles.

Power of the Press.

The press is not only free; it is powerful. That power is ours. It is the greatest that man can enjoy. It was not granted by monarchs; it was not gained by us by aristocracies, but it sprang from the people, and with no immortal instinct it has always worked for the people.

Not frequently are the editors themselves to blame for the general impression that the chief value of a local paper is an evidence that the town is fully alive and fully up to date.

White Space His Stock in Trade.

The publisher's stock in trade is the white space in his paper which he has to sell, the value of which the merchant can determine by his efforts to make good use of it, not by a little four or six inch ad. once a month, but by a good, large, well prepared ad running week after week.

The local merchants and towns-people who are fighting the retail mail order houses can find no more valuable aid than the local editor.

The local merchant can do business on a smaller margin of profit than the mail order house, as his expenses are less. He does not need to carry such a large stock, as he knows his people and their desires, and he knows and can prove that he can sell better goods for the money than the other fellow.

How to Get Results.

No doubt the principle reason why a few merchants say that advertising in local papers does not pay is because they themselves make small use of the space they buy. This is the day of bargains, and consequently the space in the paper attracts attention. Give a little time and thought to the preparation of your ads. The merchant who will do this will get results and will no longer have cause to complain of the local press being no good as a drawing medium.

How many of them employ modern, up to date methods in the conduct of their business? Do they advertise intelligently and consistently, telling the public what they have for sale and at what price? When there is a slight business depression in their town do they increase their advertising or do they hurry to the local newspaper and cut out their ad?

He Wouldn't Advertise.

GAGNIER RECEIVES TWELVE YEARS SENTENCE

Convicted of Two Burglary And Two Jail Breaking Charges

(From the Gloucester Northern Light) The Court House was crowded last Wednesday afternoon, when young Wm. Gagnier was brought up for trial, convicted and sentenced on four different criminal charges, before the Court adjourned sine die at 6 o'clock.

Clerk of the Peace Gilbert, conducted the prosecutions in all of the cases which were undefended. On the two charges of burglary and one of breaking jail, young Gagnier pleaded not guilty, and on the last charge of breaking jail, he pleaded guilty.

The evidence submitted by the prosecution in all of the cases was so clear and positive, that Gagnier did not consider it worth his while to say anything in his own defence, nor to call any witnesses on his behalf, and it took the jury a very short time to declare him guilty on all, with a recommendation to mercy for the last two charges of burglary and breaking jail. His Honor Judge McLatchey made a most impressive address to the prisoner before pronouncing sentence, which could not fail to touch and make a very strong impression on all who heard it. For the first charge of burglary, the prisoner was given five years in Dorchester Penitentiary; for the first charge of breaking jail one year at the expiration of the former sentence; for the second charge of burglary five years more, and for the second charge of breaking jail an additional one year, making a total sentence of twelve years.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

By constant and liberal use of the advertising columns of the local press the merchants encourage the editors to greater effort in providing more and better local reading matter, and in this way the advertising worth of the paper is materially increased, as the arrival of a paper worth while is always awaited in the homes of your consumers.

And when you come to the end of life's journey do not lie in a position to have the following inscribed upon your tombstone: And when he dies go plant him deep That naught may break his dreamless sleep. Where no rude clamor may dispel The quiet that he loved so well. And when the world may know his loss Place on his grave a wreath of moss And on the stone above, "Here lies A chump who wouldn't advertise."

TETEGOUCHE MAN MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

Blew Out the Gas And Died as Result in a Portland Hotel

Mr. Edward J. Burns, the 21 year old son of James P. Burns of South Tetegouche, met death in a particularly tragic manner in Portland, Me., on the 20th inst. The late Mr. Burns, had been working in Boston for nearly a year, since he had left his home here, and on Sunday the 19th inst., left Boston en route to Portland, on his way to the lumber drives. Arriving at Portland, he went to the Jeffrey Hotel, late in the night and was given a room. Having left no word in regard to what hour he desired to be called, he was not disturbed until nine o'clock in the morning, when he was found lying across the bed in an unconscious condition, and the room filled with gas. Every effort was made to revive the unfortunate young man, but without success, and he passed away about six o'clock Monday evening, without regaining consciousness. It was evident that he had retired to bed after blowing out the gas, and during the night had attempted to get up, but had been overcome, and had fallen on the bed where he was found in the morning.

The remains were brought here on Thursday evening's train, and the funeral held from the station to the Holy Family Church and Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Frank Lordon, Gus Lordon, Vincent Kane, Gus Brennan, Jos. Boyle and Harry Power, and a large number of sorrowing friends attended the funeral.

The deceased young man was very popular here, and made many friends in Boston during his stay there. His fellow boarders at the large boarding house where he made his home while in the Hub, sent a handsome wreath as a slight token of their grief at his sudden death, and his old home place of South Tetegouche was saddened when the news became known there.

The deceased leaves his father, Mr. James P. Burns, his step-mother, Mrs. Burns, and one sister Mary, living at home.

The Northern Light joins with the entire community, in sincerest sympathy with the bereaved family.

DEATH OF MRS. WM. E. PITRE

(From the Gloucester Northern Light)

After an illness extending over the past two years, the death occurred last Wednesday night, of Mrs. Wm. E. Pitre at the age of 67 years. The late Mrs. Pitre was one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the town, having lived here practically her whole life, which up to a few years ago, was a most active and useful one.

The funeral was held last Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and was attended by a large gathering of representative citizens. The pallbearers were Messrs. Dennis Lordon, H. G. Poirier, Henry Bishop, James Degraze, P. J. Veniot and Thos. Salter.

Mrs. Pitre is survived by her husband, Wm. E. Pitre, one son, John J. Pitre, and four daughters, Mrs. F. O. Landry, and Mrs. Martin Doucet of Bathurst, Mrs. Irene Frenette of Petit Rocher, and Mrs. Richard N. Godin of Montreal, besides a number of grandchildren and a large circle of friends.

General sympathy is being expressed to the bereaved family by their very many friends here and elsewhere.

PULP MILL NOW ASSURED

Mr. McLean Says That Construction Will Commence Soon as Possible

(From the Gloucester Northern Light) A staff of engineers under the direction of Mr. A. G. McIntyre is now busy with the plans for the new pulp mill, and we are assured that as soon as the snow leaves the ground, men will be put to work on the foundations of the new industry. It is hoped and expected that nearly a thousand men will be engaged in construction of the large buildings all summer, which will be built entirely of concrete and steel. A large number of temporary building for the housing of these men are already being planned for, and will be erected as early as it is possible to do so.

This will be good news to the citizens of Bathurst and should give the town the best year it has ever known.

10 CENT "CASCARETS"

IF BE LOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fever, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

BY

HORACE HAZELTINE

"You bally Yankee!" he was shouting. "Fancy running into me in this fashion! I was just glad to see you, old chap!"

Though my delight at seeing him was at that moment tempered by abiding interest in my mission, it rose a few minutes later to undiluted ecstasy, when I discovered that he was stationed at Fort Said, and occupied what seemed to me just then one of the most important posts in the British Foreign Service—secretary to the Governor General for the Suez Canal. "You're going to Cairo, I suppose?" he asked.

"No," I replied. "I'm going with you, and I shall not let you out of my sight, my friend, until you have proved something more than a figure-head stuck up in the Egyptian sands."

"It there's any little thing I can do," he began; but I interrupted him.

"There's a very big thing you can do," I corrected. And then I told him, "What a lark!" he cried, refusing to recognize the serious side of it. "Fancy one of your American multi-millionaires passing coal on a British freighter."

"Passing coal!" I exclaimed. "What not! Surely they wouldn't!" "Oh, wouldn't they?" he broke in. "That's just what they would do. He isn't an able-bodied seaman, is he? You can safely wager he's an experienced stoker, or at least a trimmer by this time."

"Don't, Hartley, don't," I protested. "It's too good to talk of." "Never mind, old chap," was his rejoinder. "There's a good time coming. We'll have him out and washed and dressed and sitting at table with us an hour after the old tub lets her anchor drop. And I'll wager you a tanner that there won't be a miss in any part of the programme."

When, at breakfast, I told Evelyn the good news, she, of course, with all reference to the coal-handling suggestion—she demanded that I hunt up Hartley, at once, and present him. Discretion, however, seemed to me in this instance, the better part of obedience. I did hunt Hartley up and I did present him, but not until I had a few minutes for the first flush of Evelyn's terror to cool.

He was a very good-looking young chap; Evelyn was both grateful and apprehensive, and I—was in love.

Our landing at Port Said was made on the morning of Saturday, the 18th of December, and all that day and the next, we waited in more or less constant expectancy and a boiling temperature for tidings of the tardy Glamorganian.

Hartley, meanwhile, was a model of hospitality, but Port Said is primarily a seafaring station on the sea-edge of the desert, and aside from the concrete docks, the ships, the light house, and the nearly naked Nubians that swarmed everywhere, it proved utterly lacking in objects of interest.

Sunday night brought some small relief from the intolerable heat, and grateful for the respite, all four of our little party were early to bed. Gradually we had come to believe that Hartley was likely to be prolonged. The earthquake at Malta having delayed one vessel would in all probability delay others as well, including that which we had come so far to intercept. So, utterly worn out by nervous tension and the fatigue of the tropical climate, we found rest grateful, and slept soundly. Just how soundly was contrasted when, at an hour after midnight, three resounding knocks on my hotel chamber door only roused me, dully, and left Evelyn and her maid and Dr. Addison, who occupied adjacent rooms, in deep slumber, totally undisturbed.

With what seemed almost superhuman effort, I spurred myself to consciousness and struggled up on elbow. "Who's there?" I called.

"Hartley," came the answer. "Open the door. I thought you'd died of Port Said cholera!" And when I had sleepily risen and admitted him he went on hurriedly. "Make haste, now, old chap! The bally freighter has just come in, and I don't propose to lose that tanner through dilatory methods on your part."

But I needed no urging. Wide awake at his first sentence, I was already clinging to my clothes. He still chattered on in his changing way, but I scarcely heard him. Conscious only of the murmur of his pleasant, cheery English voice, my thoughts were out in the night, across the waters of the harbor, down in the inferno of a rusty ocean tramp, where a sweating stoker was giving battle to despair—a sweating stoker who, in far-away America, owned a pleasure craft almost as big as the ship whose fire he had been feeding for forty days across two seas.

"How bout the doctor?" Hartley asked, as I slipped my arms into my coat sleeves and snatched a cap from a closet peg.

"It's too late now," was my answer. "You should have reminded me. I forgot all about him." And it was true. I had forgotten everything, except the imminence of the rescue and urgency of haste. To one in Cameron's plight every fretting minute must count a drop of torture.

The heavens were splendid with people stars, and a faint breeze from the sea gently ruffled the spangled black harbor waters, as Hartley's launch, guided by a pilot of experience, headed for the twinkling lights of the recently anchored freighter.

Silently I sat, with gaze straining, watching the indicated sparks grow larger and brighter, moment by moment, until at length their gleams reflected in the waves, and their back-swept, emerged in a great dark shadow, which illuminated itself against the less opaque sky.

"There she is!" Hartley cried in enthusiasm, as her funnel and masts pompously defied themselves above the black of her hull. "We'll be able to hail her in another minute."

Then I heard the voice of our drummer ring out, and presently there was an answering shout from above, and an exchange of greetings, succeeded by directions; and the next moment, I was following Hartley up a swaying rope-ladder to where an outboard lantern glowed overhead.

"Yes, Secretary to the Governor General," I heard my friend saying, as I put foot on the iron deck. "You're Captain Murchison, I suppose."

The captain's affirmative was more than a tall man, but broad, rugged and bearded, with long, powerful, porphyritic arms of all proportion to his stature. I could readily fancy him an ugly antagonist. Unaided by Hartley, I concluded, I should have had small chance indeed of success. But the low-born Briton's respect for official authority was evidently strong in him, and I felt that if Cameron was aboard he should be able to effect his rescue with a minimum of effort.

"I should like to see you in your cabin, Captain," Hartley proposed, and when we were closed there, he continued: "There is a report that you have among your crew a United States subject who was brought aboard, drugged, and forced to remain against his will. His government has interested itself in his behalf, and unless he is restored at once to his friends, serious complications will undoubtedly ensue."

The captain, despite his respect for authority, frowned. "There's nothing to that report, sir," he said, boldly. "I'm not shanghaiing men in these days, sir. Every month or so I've got on this boat shipped for Hong Kong, sir, of his own free will and accord."

"I dare say you fully believe that," Captain Murchison, was Hartley's diplomatic rejoinder, "but this time you happen to be mistaken. I don't suppose you have any objection to our inspecting your crew, have you? Suppose you have both the watches piped forward, and we'll settle this little business for ourselves. Mr. Clyde, here, knows the man."

Captain Murchison's glance at me was undignifiedly venomous. Reluctantly he rang for his steward.

"Send the boy on here," he directed, doggedly. "We'll begin at the bottom, Captain," Hartley suggested, when the boatswain, cap in hand, stood in the doorway. "First, I want to see every man Jack you have working in the stoke hold."

Although the master gave the necessary directions I mistrusted him. Between the boatswain and himself I felt that there was an understanding which required neither voice nor signal. And as, a little later, we stood on the forward deck, under the bridge, and by the light of a lantern viewed one after another of those swarthy, grimy laborers who had crowded up from below, I was convinced of the correctness of my intuition. For Cameron was not among them.

And then a chill fear gripped me. Could a man of his habits and training, suddenly called upon to assume such labor, survive its rigors? He was naturally robust, but he had been weakened by an illness. Might he not therefore have succumbed to the strain of it, and been buried at sea?

But one consideration sustained me. In their cunning cruelty, the Chinese who had arranged for his transportation must have stipulated that he be delivered in China alive. Otherwise their vengeance would not be complete. It was not likely that anything had been left to mere chance. The probabilities were that Murchison knew definitely what was required of him and was to be well-paid for his services.

Upon his scamed face, now, there was something of a sneer as, our examination concluded, he said: "What next, Mr. Hartley?"

But for a moment Hartley, who was standing thoughtfully with brow contracted, his lower lip gripped between finger and thumb, made no response. Before he spoke his attitude changed. Quickly he had assumed a pose of listening intently. Behind him, somewhere, a clamor had arisen. Voices, excited, hoarse, frenzied.

yet muffled by distance, echoed dully. "That man, next, Captain," he said, coolly. "The man they're trying to keep below."

It may have been that his hearing was more acute than mine, or it may only have been a guess. I don't know. But, whichever it was, it hit the mark. It scored a bull's eye at long range.

Captain Murchison's indifference gave way instantly to palpable uneasiness. His hands, which had been deep in his coat pockets, came out as though jerked by springs. One of them cast his cap from him, and he saw Hartley's eyes at long range. He scowled at his beard. And in that moment the riot advanced, the voices waned louder and more distinct; scurrying feet resounded on the metal deck.

I saw the captain start hurriedly toward the starboard rail, intent evidently on meeting the rabble which was approaching on that side, and I saw Hartley boldly block his way. And then, almost at the same instant, I saw a tall figure with naked torso as black and shining as polished ebony—black with grime and shining with sweat—come running backward around the corner of the deck house. Saw it with an iron bar held menacingly aloft against its pressing pursuers; and even in the uncertain light of the deck lanterns, recognized it at once, by its outline and the characteristic set of its head upon its shoulders, rude to the waist and soiled as it was, as the figure of the man I sought.

"Cameron!" I cried, chokingly, my fast-beating heart crowding my utterance. And all unmindful of the dirt which covered him I flung my arms about his waist from behind. "Cameron! Cameron! Thank God! Thank God!"

I heard the iron bar drop resoundingly to the deck; I heard Hartley's voice raised in anger, strident, staccato; and I heard the resounding shuffle of feet as those who had pursued now backed away. There followed then a moment of silence, while the body I had held pressed out of my arms, and having released itself, turned, and faced me—a moment of silence, only for against the sudden stillness there now rang out a wild, palpitant cry, born of unbridled emotion, as Cameron, casting himself forward into my arms, buried his face in the angle of my neck and shoulder.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

A Final Problem. It is doubtful whether in all Egypt there was ever such another period of joyous thanksgiving as that which followed the bringing of Cameron to the little hotel in Port Said. I am inclined to question, too, whether in the space of a single waking day four persons ever talked more, or with more mutual interest, than did the four of them gathered there. The heat, the flies, the poor food, and the miserable accommodations, generally, were not merely gladly tolerated, but absolutely disregarded. In the exuberance of our relieving emotions, which had loomed large on the preceding day dwindled to the imperceptible; and from early morning until late night experienced, we exchanged our old stories and speculations indulged in.

Washed, scrubbed, shaved, shorn and clad in raiment put at his disposal by the indefatigable Hartley, Cameron appeared wonderfully well-looking. Indeed I was amazed by his appearance and by his condition. I had feared to find him a mental and physical ruin. I had feared even for his life. And he had come to us, if we might judge by outward seeming, stronger, more robust, less nervously relaxed than when he disappeared.

"At first," he told us, as we sat at breakfast in a little upper room of the hotel, Evelyn close on his right, Dr. Addison at his left, and I opposite him, "I suppose I did suffer, whenever I was conscious, which, fortunately, I think, was comparatively seldom. They dosed me almost continuously with what I believe to have been some attribute of opium, so that even in my waking moments I was not wholly normal. In this way, of course, I lost all count of time. And so, too, I am unable to give events in sequence. My first conscious moment after being on the deck of the 'Sibylla' found me strapped in a narrow berth on a rapid, but rather rough-riding craft of apparently much smaller dimension than the yacht, and with a Chinese boy sitting beside me. You can fancy my startled amazement at the sudden transition. In vain I asked questions. In vain I struggled to rise. Then I shouted, and the Chinese boy lighted what appeared to be an ordinary Joss stick on a stand at the head of my berth, and withdrew from the tiny cabin. Insensibility followed quickly. After that I have a vague, dreamy recollection of eating something with a strange, spicy flavor, which seemed only to add to my stupor. Once I dreamed—at least I think it must have been a dream—that I was in a dark box, so cramped that my bones ached, and that far away above me were little holes through which the light came in luminous fleck-like rays that glowed against the black."

"I'm inclined to think it was no dream," I put in, recalling the newspaper story I had read in my brother's office, in Wall Street. "The probabilities are that you were shipped in that box from Fall River to New York, and a certain influential Chinaman, called 'Top Sigs,' knew all about it." (To be concluded.)

"Yes sir, you will get more for your money in service and satisfaction, by using

than you can get with other paint: Longer Protection, because B-H "English" is primarily an endurance paint and will successfully withstand the effects of weather longer than others;

Greater Economy, because you will not have to repaint nearly as soon as with other paints; and Greater Satisfaction, because B-H Paints retain their beauty and weather resistance for years.

The Reason, for this is that all B-H "English" Paints that can be made on a white base contain 70% Brandram's B. B. Genuine White Lead 30% Pure White Zinc.

A combination that produces paints unexcelled in covering capacity, beauty, brilliancy and durability. This formula is positively guaranteed by the makers.

COUNCILLORS MURCHIE AND LAWLOR FORFEIT THEIR SEATS IN COUNCIL

Mr. LeBlanc.
Q—Do you know anything concerning the charges contained in the Protest now under investigation.
A—I know nothing to rebut it or confirm it.

(Signed.) D. G. STEWART.

Mr. Byrne stated that some of his witnesses, Assessors for Durham and James Landry cannot appear before the committee to adjourn for witnesses.

Mr. Dickie, Chairman of Committee now states on behalf of Committee that the Committee is ready to hear all witnesses and all evidence relevant to the issue now, but that the committee will not again adjourn until tomorrow. That Mr. Byrne was told by the committee yesterday to name any witnesses for whom he wished subpoenas to be issued and subpoenas would be issued for such witnesses and further that Mr. Byrne should have all his witnesses here today as no adjournment would be allowed for procuring witnesses and no legal effort has been made, as appears to this committee, to get these witnesses here.

Mr. Byrne takes a point that this committee was illegally appointed, as no quorum was present when the committee was appointed, and therefore the Council could not deal with the matter.

COMMITTEE'S FINDING

To the Warden and Councillors of the Municipality of Restigouche, Gentlemen:—

We your special committee appointed to investigate the charges in the protest hereto annexed against the return of John Lawlor, Junior, and Archibald Murchie as Councillors for the parish of Durham, having heard the evidence under oath, and the evidence contra, now beg to report to the Council that we do find and report as follows:—

1. That the charge contained in paragraph one is not proven, but we find that up to 23rd day of August 1913, the Assessors had not prepared or furnished to the Parish Clerk of the Parish of Durham, nor to the District Clerk such correct list.

2. As to charge contained in paragraph 2 of said protest, we find the same not proven.

3. That the charge contained in paragraph 3 of said protest is proven, and we believe that the Parish Clerk acted illegally in refusing to accept the nomination and qualification papers of Mr. Frank LaPointe, as in said paragraph referred to.

4. That the charge contained in paragraph 4 of said protest is proven, and we believe that the Parish Clerk acted illegally in not posting up the name of Frank LaPointe as one of the Candidates at the election in question, with the names of the other candidates.

5. That in respect to the charge contained in paragraph five of said protest, we find that the said Archibald Murchie did pay to William E. Furlotte, named in said paragraph, money to vote for himself and John Lawlor, Junior.

6. In respect to the charge contained in paragraph 6, we find that the said James Landry did pay money to Joseph Dion to vote for Lawlor and Murchie.

7. In respect to the charge contained in paragraph 7 of said protest we find that it was not proven that James Landry gave money to Joseph Hache to vote for Lawlor and Murchie at said election, but we find that said Joseph Hache to vote for Lawlor and Murchie at said election, and that in so doing, he was acting for himself and Lawlor.

8. We find the charge in paragraph 8 of said protest not proven.

9. We find the charge contained in paragraph 9 of said protest, duly proven.

Reference is hereby made to the said protest paragraph by paragraph for more complete finding in respect of the said several charges respectively.

Hereto annexed pages 1 to 16 inclusive, are the minutes of the evidence and proceedings taken upon the enquiry and investigation on this matter.

After carefully considering all the evidence adduced before the committee we are convinced that the election of Coun. Lawlor and Murchie in September last, has not been conducted according to law, and there has been bribery or corruption in connection therewith, and we recommend that their election be declared void.

Dated at the Town of Dalhousie in the County of Restigouche this 23rd day of April, A. D., 1914.

ELECTION SOON IN BONAVENTURE COUNTY

Seat Now Vacant Through Mr. J. Hall Kelly Going to the Legislative Council

Owing to the appointment of Mr. J. Hall Kelly to the Legislative Council at Quebec, a report of which appears elsewhere in the issue, he has resigned his seat as member for the county of Bonaventure, thus necessitating an election for the vacant seat which will be held at once.

A great liberal convention for the choice of a candidate will be held on Friday, May 1st, nominations to be made on the 5th May, and polling to be held on the 12th May.

There are two candidates in the field. T. B. Clapperton, general merchant of Maria and J. F. Bugold, lawyer of New Carlisle. Mr. Clapperton has received many demands and requests to be the Liberal standard bearer of the party and is favorably known throughout the County which he has already canvassed several times for others, but he has not yet given any answer, but his stand will be made known on Friday next at the Convention. Mr. Bugold is also very popular and an able speaker.

WOMAN ORATOR IS ROUGHLY HANDLED

Marie Ganz Attacked in Park Row When She Harangued Against War

New York, April 23.—Marie Ganz, the I.W.O. speaker, attempted today from the Franklin Statue in Park Row to talk against war. The result was unpleasant for Miss Ganz, as she was pushed from the rostrum from which she was talking and roughly handled by those who were passing in City Hall Park.

Miss Ganz forgot her antipathy for the police and lustily called for their protection when she was attacked. Chief Inspector Schmittberger, who was present at the head of a force of reserves, recalled many happy memories when Miss Ganz said she was berating the police, as she was berating them at Union Square a week after the riot in which "Wild Joe" O'Carroll and Arthur Caron took part.

But Inspector Schmittberger sent the reserves to the assistance of Miss Ganz. She ran down a lane opened for her into an office building and escaped through a door opening into another street. One man who had helped to break up the meeting was helped to break up the meeting. He said he was Edward Blakeley, an iron worker. He was fined five dollars in the Tombs Court.

A young man in the crowd, who refused to give his name, was struck by a stone above the eye. The missile was thrown, according to the police, from a Park Row window. Becker, Edelson and Samuel Hartman, who were arrested yesterday after making speeches at the Franklin Monument which were interrupted by the crowd, were put on trial before the Magistrate at the Court House. Police Simms and Jeremiah Mahoney, of the Oak street station, gave the principal testimony against the defendants. It was to the effect that the two speakers had dealt disrespectfully in their remarks concerning the American flag and had referred to it as not worth defending. The defence introduced several witnesses who insisted that they had not heard references to the flag, although they had heard the speakers denounce warfare. Upon the request of Justice Sheffield, attorney for the defendants, the cases were put over until tomorrow afternoon to permit more witnesses to be summoned.

6. That one Joseph Dion was also paid some money by the said James Landry, on the said second day of August for the purpose to influence him, the said Joseph Dion, an elector, to vote for the said John Lawlor and Archibald Murchie.

7. That the said James Landry, whilst voting was in progress paid to one Joe Hache, and elector voting at said election, the sum of two Dollars and fifty cents, to vote for the said John Lawlor and Archibald Murchie.

8. That Matthew McDonnell and John Kerr aforesaid were at Jacquet River, in the said Parish of Durham, at the said election, on the said second day of September 1913, and Daniel McAllister, Parish Clerk and Chairman at said poll did not take the oath prescribed by law, to the knowledge of the said Matthew McDonnell and John Kerr, neither prior to the opening of the said poll, nor at the opening thereof nor at any time thereafter.

9. That after the said poll closed and when the votes were being counted, the said Daniel McAllister refused to call out and count the votes cast for Frank Lapointe, one of the candidates duly nominated for the office of Councillor at said election.

GETTING READY TO QUIZZ BECKER

Whitman Will Seek Facts About "Finnegan" if ex-Lieutenant Testifies

New York, April 22.—District Attorney Whitman is preparing for a cross-examination in case ex-Lieut. Charles Becker takes the stand in his own behalf on his second trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, which is to be on May 6. Assistant District Attorney Grochi is preparing the skeleton of the examination, and it appears now that there will be many references to one "Finnegan." Mr. Whitman and his aids have been looking unsuccessfully for some time for Finnegan.

Becker was convicted on October 25, 1912. Two days later, on Sunday, just before he was taken to the death house in Sing Sing, Becker became reminiscent and told reporters about the fortune which he had deposited in fifteen or more savings banks. The district attorney had traced some $70,000 in Becker's account scattered all over the city.

"How did you save all that money on your $2,400 salary?" reporters asked Becker on that Sunday.

"A man named Finnegan left between $15,000 and $16,000 to my wife," replied Becker. "My wife kept it in a little tin box in a trunk, and one day she presented it to me."

Before that the name of Finnegan never had been mentioned. Becker said that the man was John F. Finnegan, and that he had died on the night that he (Becker) was arrested. Finnegan left no will, according to Becker. If Becker now takes the stand he will be asked all about Finnegan.

Until Joseph A. Shay resigned as counsel for Becker, it was asserted repeatedly that Becker would take the stand. Since Martin T. Manton and W. Bourke Cockran were retained in the case, however, this report has not been repeated. The district attorney believes that Becker will not dare take the witness chair, but has deemed it wise to prepare for the unexpected.

Mr. Whitman admitted yesterday that he was ready for the case. The last gap had been closed on Monday afternoon, he said, when he had seen "Bridgie" Webber, one of the informers against Becker, in Webber's boxers against Becker. Sam Schepps has been discredited and will not be called by the state.

NEWS AGENT DOES "SHORT CHANGING"

Passenger on Ocean Liner Claims he was Victimized Montreal Man Under Arrest

Quite a lot of excitement was caused on the Ocean Limited, east-bound, near Bathurst Thursday afternoon. It appears that a Montreal man who was running, as news agents say, a "short-changing" business, whose nationality is German, of changing him, which is quite a common thing, is being investigated by news agents. The man, who was arrested by I.C.R. Inspector Gan of Campbellton, who was on the train, and brought to Moncton. The agent offered to pay a sum of money to the world's press the charge, but the passenger on arrival at Moncton that all he wanted was his change and if he got that he would press the charge. The news promptly accepted the compromise, gave the German his right change, and he was released. The agent's act will also cost him his job with the Canadian Railway Company, who will not tolerate dishonest among employees.

It is said that this is not the first time that this news agent has been "short-changing" passengers, but he has always up to yesterday been able to keep from getting caught.

WEDDING.

In St. Bernard's church at high noon today, Tuesday, an interesting ceremony took place, when Miss Ida Merena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLellan, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. William Seward Hinchey, of Bradford, Pa. Rev. Father E. J. Savage officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives being guests. Miss Susie Sutton played the wedding march. As the bridal couple were leaving the church Miss Gertrude MacLellan rendered beautifully the hymn "Ave Maria". The bride was gowned in a travelling suit of grey, with hat of Saxe blue. She was given away by her father, and was unattended.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, 55 Cameron street, where luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinchey left on the Ocean Limited on a wedding trip to Montreal, Toronto, Boston, New York and other American cities, after which they will go to Bradford, Pa., taking up their residence at 78 State Street in that city—Montreal Transcript.

Many Campbellton friends will join with the Graphic in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hinchey a happy and prosperous wedded life.

DOHERTY PROPERTY AGAIN TRANSFERRED

Jos. Sharpe Sold His Holdings to Three Campbellton Men

The Doherty farm property, which was purchased by Mr. Jos. Sharpe after the Campbellton fire, and of which a portion has been laid off into building lots and are built upon, has again changed hands.

Messrs. P. M. Shannon, George St. Onge and P. A. Lubert, recently of Saskatchewan, but who has returned to his native town, closed the deal last week. The price is said to be in the vicinity of $15,000.

The transfer includes the entire property, which embraces the Sharpe Cottage and woodland.

It is the intention of the present owners to lay the property off in lots and sell them on the monthly payment plan.

MARRIED CURLERS ENTERTAIN BACHELORS

Pleasant Function at Waverly Hotel Last Evening.—Officers Elected.

The married members of the Campbellton Curling Club entertained the single members to a dinner at the Waverly hotel last evening, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

A short business meeting was first held, at which the following officers were elected.

President.—Geo. F. Myles.
Vice-President.—H. A. Carr.
Sec.—Treasurer.—D. C. Firth.

Directors.—Jas. P. Jardine, R. K. Shives, H. A. Marquis, Thos. Wran, and Harry Smith.

The meeting also decided to order Club buttons, and quite a discussion arose over a suggested change of Club colors.

A very appetizing repast was served, after which toasts were in order.

GOOD RESPONSE IS MADE TO APPEALS

Fund For The Benefit of the Sufferers in Newfoundland Receives Encouragement

Since the inception of the movement by Mayor Andrew, to start a fund for the benefit of the Newfoundland sufferers, much encouragement by the townspeople has been given and the fund is now in a very healthy condition.

On Sunday last, special collections were taken in all the churches, and the response made to the appeal, exceeded the expectations of all interested in the movement.

The largest collection was taken in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, where the open offering amounted to $175.00, later increased by other offerings.

The church of Our Lady of Snows collected $88, which goes to the general fund collected by the Bishop of the Diocese.

The other offerings were Baptist church $40.00, Methodist church $20.50, Christ Church $16.50. The amount collected shows in a practical way the amount of genuine Christian feeling towards the many widows and orphans in the sister colony.

On Tuesday evening the Opera House was well filled when an entertainment was given for the benefit of the funds. In addition to the moving pictures, Miss Irene Currie made her farewell appearance to a Campbellton audience singing Danza's "May Morning" and responding to an encore with "Goodbye". Mrs. J. W. Woodside accompanied her sister. Miss Jean McLatchey made a welcome reappearance to her friends here, it being quite a long time since Miss McLatchey made a public appearance.

Her readings in light comedy were much enjoyed, and she responded to the male voice Quartette, composed of Messrs. Laviole, Ferguson, Reid and MacColl, completed the program singing "Robin Adair" and "Annie Laurie". In the absence of the Mayor, Rev. T. P. Drumm presided, and Rev. C. W. Squires spoke briefly on the needs of the sufferers. The collection taken amounted to $54.85, and there should be about sixty dollars more from the share of the receipts of the house.

The fund at the present time stands over $400, and it is hoped that it may yet be largely increased. At the request of the Mayor we hope to publish next week a full list of the money received from all sources.

BOYS ATTEMPTED TRAIN WRECKING

Three Young Lads are Arrested and Committed to Edmundston Jail for Hearing

Hartland, N. B., April 27.—Youthful train-wreckers nearly caused a serious derailment on the Edmundston branch of the C. P. R. on Sunday, April 19.

A work train was running at good speed when near Quispesic, Engineer Craig saw that a switch was misplaced. The train was stopped with only a few feet to spare from derailment.

Officer A. R. Foster was sent to investigate the case. He found that the switch lock had been broken and evidence that the mischief was that of boys. Following a clue he on Saturday arrested Paul Baulier, Cyrille and Alphonse Martin, aged 14, 18 and 19.
