5285 INSPECTIONS PER CAR

The faithfulness of performance so universally remarked in Dodge Brothers Motor Cars, is due, in no small part, to the thoroughness with which each unit is inspected during the process of manufacture and assembly.

A trained staff of 1100 experts is employed in this work alone, and approximately 5,285 inspections are made on each car.

So exacting and rigid are the standards applied to these inspections that the slightest variation, either in workmanship or material, is sufficient cause for immediate rejection.

Dodge Brothers are almost over-scrupulous in their constant aim to make each car as sound and perfect as is humanly possible.

TELLS OF DEATH OF BRAKEMAN

Conductor Recites Events Leading to Killing of Harry Bagley

Woodstock, Jan. 23.—The inquest into the death of Harry Bagley, C.P.R. brakeman, who was killed at Stickney Brook yesterday afternoon, was held in the court house this evening before Coroner Foster. The witnesses were Oliver Vandine, conductor of the freight train, Supt. J. B. Gilland, Superintendent of this division Dr. McIntosh, Hartland, upon whose arrival at the scene Bagley was dead; the resident engineer at this point; E. M. Bird, the engineer of the train, Ray Murphy, sectionman, Thomas McLean, car inspector, Moses Holmes, foreman. The inquiry was a thorough one, inasmuch as the relatives of the deceased are entitled to $5,000 under the Workmen's Compensation Act, and $1800 under a railway policy.

The story of the accident of Oliver Vandine, the conductor was endorsed by the other witnesses. It follows:—

"I reside in Woodstock. I went with on extra 3376, with me, were M. Bird, M. Holmes, H. Bagley, Roy Grant and Roy Murphy. We hauled in to Stickney siding at 1.15 p. m., to let No. 151 pass, going north. She went by at 1.30. Bagley threw the switch. He pulled the pin behind the car we were going to set off. We had 16 cars. There was one car at Hatfield's potato house and 15 cars on the main line. We hung on to three cars.

"Bagley threw the switch at the north-end and came down to the siding. Bagley was riding the third car on the west side and south end of car. The car he was riding ran off the track and the car side-swiped 58200, standing on the main. He was crushed between the two cars. He was carried by Messrs. Holmes and Murphy to Clark's store and died on train No. 152 leaving Hartland for Woodstock."

The jury through its foreman, John S. Leighton reported as follows: "The said Harry Bagley came to his death at Stickney on the 22nd Jan. 1922, by being crushed between two freight cars on the Canadian Pacific railway, one of the cars standing on the main line and the other car on which said Harry Bagley was riding being derailed by snow and ice over the rails, while being shunted on the siding, causing car on the siding to side-swipe the car standing on the main line."

QUEEN OF SHEBA

The ancient kingdom of Sheba groaned under the usurper's heel. Armud, the tyrant, taking the throne by treachery, held it by ruthless deeds. The maidens of Sheba shuddered at his name, and men who had wives or daughters muttered in impotent rage.

Sheba the beautiful, the rightful ruler, dwelt with her father in their tent by the seashore. Proud in their poverty, she and her sister, Nomis knew that in their veins flowed the blood of kings, and prayed for the day when the people, aroused to fury by Armud's cruelties, would rise and dethrone him.

Thinking to deal a death blow to his enemies, Armud seized Nomis and carried her off to his palace. Scorning his embraces, she drowned herself in a pool. Sheba swore to avenge her sister and lay the usurper low.

By woman's wiles she won him. In marriage to Sheba he saw his opportunity to strengthen his throne and win the people's acclaim. But on the wedding night, before all the feasting guests, while the slave-girls danced and the minstrels sang, Sheba stabbed him to the heart. Then Sheba brought forth the ancient crown of Sheba, which, in fulfilment of the old prophecy, had been thrown up by the waves of the ocean before her eyes.

Sheba won the hearts of the people by her wise rule. The ancient glory of the realm returned, and its fame spread to all the nations of the earth. But more glorious than all the treasures of the kingdom was the beauty of its queen. Of this men spoke everywhere, so that its renown reached the ears of great King Solomon himself, far away, across the deserts of Arabia and the burning plains of Egypt.

To him Sheba went, with a glittering caravan of elephants and camels decked with gold and silver and precious stones, and Solomon himself was dazzled by the treasures of the land of Sheba and the beauty of the queen. All his wisdom and all his power he laid at her feet and Sheba herself looked into his eyes and knew she loved him. But they knew they must part.

Adonijah, brother to Solomon, saw now for his chance to seize the throne. Prompting by the jealous ambition of the Princess Vashti, who saw that she had lost Solomon's love, he plotted with her against the king; but he found Sheba always a stumbling block to his plans.

The time came when Sheba must depart and the heart of the King Solomon was heavy as she bade farewell. Sheba visited many lands and her beauty received the homage of many kings, but she heeded none of them, remembering Solomon. When, after much wandering she reached her own land, she brought as a gift to her people a baby prince, whom the people hailed as their king to be.

Sheba, more glorious than ever now with the beauty of motherhood, and a wiser ruler now with the faith that Solomon had given her, made her people happy. Her love endured, and when the little prince was five years old she sent him as an envoy to Solomon—who received him with great joy.

The traitor Adonijah saw in the boy a new peril to his plans. He must strike now or not at all. He called Vashti to his aid, and Vashti sought help from Egypt, the land of her fathers. Solomon warned of the plot, banished Adonijah from the realm. Adonijah raised an army and stormed the palace and the temple, while Vashti by a trick seized the little prince and had him locked in the vast Tomb of the Kings.

Assault after assault by Adonijah brought him nearer to victory. Many times his men entered the gates of the palace, only to be driven forth again. The women of the court took refuge in the great spiral Tower of David that stood in the middle of the city.

Adonijah and Vashti had reckoned without Sheba. When she learned of the loss of her son, she despatched a great army across the desert to Solomon's aid, herself leading. She and her mighty host arrived at the crucial moment; Adonijah's army had entered the gates and was storming the Tower of David. Sheba's army fell upon the attackers with great slaughter. Adonijah himself was killed and Solomon wounded.

It was one of Adonijah's fallen soldiers who revealed to Sheba the hiding place of the prince. She brought him out of the Tomb of the Kings and Solomon wept for joy when he saw him.

For the second time Sheba turned her face to the South, and she and her prince, the fruit of her love, journeyed night and day, across the desert of Arabia and the burning plains of Egypt to the land of Sheba.

THE REPORT OF TOWN AUDITOR

In accordance with the report of the chairman of the town finance committee for the Town of Hartland, wherein he promised the publication of the Auditor's report for the year 1922, the following may be of interest to the rate payers. It may also be well to state that this report is the first real Auditor's report since incorporation, due to the fact that under the old method of record keeping it was rather a difficult task to obtain. As an explanation to the figures found below we wish to point out the reason for an assessment balance sheet and one for cash receipts and expenditure. In order to keep a record of the amount of taxes assessed upon the Town it was necessary to charge the treasurer with the entire assessment, giving him credit for taxes collected, cleared by the council and arrears. This renders it possible to know exactly what is being done with the entire tax list. In the balance sheet for receipts and disbursement it is necessary to show receipts which are not covered by the assessment as levied by the town, such as licenses, rents, etc. I trust with this explanation the figures below will be of real value to the public:

DEVELOPMENT OF HYDRO POWER

Sixty Thousand H. P. Easily Available
—Necessary to Arrange For Water Storage In Maine to Secure Full Capacity.

While the full development of the Grand Falls, near the head waters of the St. John river, will likely involve international considerations, it is possible to develop some 60,000 horsepower at an eight per cent. load factor or without having to tap any of the storage area which lies in the State of Maine, so C. O. Foss, chief engineer and member of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, recently said. Storage capacity from the tributaries lying wholly in the counties of Temiscouata and Kamouraska in the province of Quebec would be sufficient to produce this amount he said.

The possible development at Grand Falls, Mr. Foss added was between 130,000 and 150,000 horsepower with a load factor of sixty per cent, but to get this development storage areas in Maine would have to be tapped. He anticipated no difficulty in the making of arrangements with the Maine Government as he pointed out that the importance of hydro development was as keenly felt on the other side of the international boundary, as it was in New Brunswick. While it might not be possible for the Maine Government to make a deal to allow the development of storage dams in the New Brunswick Commission, he felt that the simplest way this could be overcome was to prevail upon the Maine authorities to build the storage dams and charge the commission for the amount of water taken.

As nearly all parts of New Brunswick are within a radius of 150 miles from Grand Falls, it is felt that the development of that power should prove of great benefit to the industrial attractions of the province.

WEST SIDE NOTES

(Intended for last week)

Items of news are scarce as one dollar "Williams" over here, and not half as interesting. Colds have continued to prevail through good reports and evil, and the little germs seem to attack all alike. Just where the chicken of the axe, to use an old colloquialism.

The farmers are quietly waiting for potatoes to "come and they continue to keep gradually coming down. Some few are handling a little lathwood. Shaw Bros. will cut about a million. Havelock Hoyt has considerable of an operation going on, as have also Wm. Currie and Fred Grey, who has the Albright-Clark crew cutting and yarding on his Pole Hill limits. Walter Cook has had a crew and team at work all winter cleaning up the logs on the Shaw place for Hayden's. Others are busy at work incidental to farm life and all manage to find work enough to keep them out of devilry at least.

Things are taking on a more prosperous look of late around the J. W. Boyer Co's premises. Being practically idle for some time, it looks encouraging to see the crew gradually getting back to work and to see the finished product accumulating in the role of the plank. He came store rooms.

Henry Elliot, who might be called the "miracle man," is again able to walk about upright and square on his own two feet. Many readers will remember this man's experience with the diving plank during the last hours of closing work on Hartland bridge last winter which left him incapacitated for work for months. Several weeks ago he again attempted the diving stunt, but this time with himself in the robe of the plank. He came through a scaffolding in his barn head on and made a straight drop to the ground. Naturally he was unconscious for some time but coming to himself he was able to get into the house. On examination it was found that he had seriously injured his spine and must necessarily lay just as the doctor ordered for some weeks. These were tedious and anxious weeks, but skill and care have got him going again. Mr. Elliot is a hard working man and these two accidents coming in the one year make the situation doubly severe. Friends of the family have given tangible evidence of sympathy and good will and for these both he and his wife are grateful indeed.

Pastor Lester got switched off at Victoria Corner Sunday afternoon when he was trying to make the drive from Brighton to his appointment at Waterville, and the unexpected message to the Victoria church was the inspiration for a rarely spiritual meeting.

The Mission Band of the Reformed Baptist church holds regular meetings on the third Monday in each month at which a well prepared program is arranged as the principle vehicle for entertainment. The last meeting of this band was well attended and there is evidence of increased interest in this little society of the church.

Friends of Harold K. Bowser are receiving marks of remembrance from that prince of good fellows in the shape of an artistic calendar depicting in fine artistry a youngster just awakening to the fact that H. K. Bowser is a young and rising "general merchant" at Fairmount, Sask. Harold deserves all the success that no doubt will come his way.

Miss Frances Boyer is a most recent loss to the younger element in West side society, she having joined the Fredericton Business College as a student in quest of higher knowledge along commercial lines—Nico-demus.

"Let there be light," is the byword of all the citizens of Bath. Moonshine and sunshine do not fill the bill. We want electric lights and therefore hope that the Grand Falls power will be developed.

Mrs. McManus and son, Mathew, have returned to their home in Washburn, Me.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. John Dugan and Mrs. William Brennan are confined to their homes by severe colds.

Among those who registered at Day's Hotel during the past week were Messrs. Christie, Seely, "Don" Campbell, Maunsel O'Neill, Harry McDonald and Walter Shaw.

Frank Farley has returned from a business trip to Fredericton.

We are glad to hear that Mr. G. S. Larlee is convalescing after his recent serious operation at the Fisher Memorial Hospital at Woodstock.

The friends of David O'Donnell sympathize with him on the death of his youngest child, which occurred at his home on Sunday.

St. John Telegraph—"Many here are interested in the news from Detroit, Mich., of the marriage of Miss Irene Margaret Bell to Joseph Almie Gauthier, which took place in Detroit on Jan. 3. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas F. Tulley and the witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keown, relatives of the groom. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell of this place (Grand Falls). After completing her course at the High School here, she took a business course at Chatham, Mass., where she has since been employed. The friends of the family join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier every happiness." Mrs. Gauthier has many friends in Bath who also join in wishing her many years of happy wedded life.

We have read with interest in last week's issue, a sketch prophesying Carlton County's great growth destined to take place in the near future and especially so, the union which will inevitably result when Bath and Bristol will unite under the one name of "Gladstone" in honor of our representative who so ably leads the County Council. Like his predecessor in the British House of Commons, we must admit that he has done his duty faithfully in the past, and that should such occur, it would be only rendering honor where honor is due. Nevertheless the name of "Monquart" which has been handed down from past generations, and which is famous both in song and story, and still warm in the hearts of the present generation, will without doubt give our worthy representative a swift race for first honors.

Since the Boards of Trade of the different towns through the province are passing resolutions demanding of the Provincial Government recognition of the wonderful electrical energy which is going to waste over the Grand Falls and which, if developed, would make prodigious changes in our economic life. We of this community believe that public opinion a strong factor in the life of any government, will ultimately see, New Brunswick's Niagara, supplying light and power to the St. John river valley—my the long promised bridge over the St. John river at this point be then able to stand the year around and not be dependent on "Jack Frost," as it is at present—may it also be lighted by Grand Falls current.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday at high noon at the home of Robert J. McCrea, when his eldest daughter, Ethel, became the bride of Amos Ingraham of Southampton. Rev. H. S. Mullen and Rev. J. P. Trafton performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the family. The bride looked charming in a gown of grey canton crepe. They were unattended. After a wedding dinner the happy couple left on the south bound express for the groom's home, carrying with them the best wishes if all for a bright and happy life. Mrs. Ingraham was one of Perth's fairest and most popular young ladies and has been a very successful teacher for the past few years, having taught a school in Woodstock last term. She also took an active part in church work. The groom is an ex-service man, being one of the few who passed through Vimy Ridge. He is engaged in the milling business at Southampton.

FRED H. STEVENS, Editor and Manager,
HARTLAND, NEW BRUNSWICK

HARTLAND, N. B., JAN. 26, 1923

"DAY BY DAY IN EVERY WAY"

Dr. Coue, a Frenchman, who recently arrived on American shores, is making fame for himself by his theory that all fleshly troubles may be overcome by auto-suggestion induced by repeating over and over again words that reiterate the desired results. The theory has taken America by storm and half of the population of the continent upon retiring at night repeat for twenty times the words "day by day in every way I am growing better" and make the same repetition aloud, before rising each morning. It is said that the result is the restoration of bodily vigor without having to have faith. The same method is being applied to everything. The Observer suggests that all the people repeat for twenty times after retiring and for twenty times before arising these words, "Day by Day in every way the times are growing better."

It seems strange that a great many people resent being told that times are improving. Some people seem to believe that the soft times of 1919 and 1920 should return and remain permanent. They will not return.

To enjoy the full conviction that the times are growing better the people must learn to work and work hard. The people who are making the most doleful cry of hard times are wearing more patches on the seats of their pants than on the knees. This implies that the people have not got down to hard work as in the pre-war days. And hard work is not disgraceful. Idleness is. Hard work makes the body tired, but it gives peace to the mind and gives the man the right to walk among his fellows with his chin up.

During and immediately following the war the people fell into awful extravagance. They should return to more frugal ways.

To fully appreciate good times the people must reconcile themselves to the passing of the soft times.

Right at the present moment times in Carleton county are better than they have ever been. Business was never on so solid a basis. With the exception of potatoes, the prices of produce averages about 100 per cent higher than ten years ago and the lath and lumber industry is distributing in Carleton county alone from $75,000 to $100,000 each and every week. This means from $15 to $20 for every family in the county. The times cannot be hard while such an inflow of hard cash continues, but every man has got to work to get his share. And there is work for every man.

It is most unfortunate that many farmers still owe for fertilizer and owe for automobiles and paying for these is indeed very much like paying for dead horses. The fact that they are so heavily in debt for these things is the result of the really hardest times that Carleton county ever saw. That was the period when potatoes brought $10 per barrel.

DEVELOP GRAND FALLS POWER

All up and down the St. John valley there is great interest in the rumors affecting the developing of the Grand Falls water power. There is no doubt in the world that if the provincial government or any corporation went ahead with the development of the power and built a transmission line from Edmundston to Fredericton and elsewhere that great quantities of electricity would be sold all along the lines. The proposal of the International Paper Co., which is that they will develop the power if sufficient purchasers can be secured in advance, is not a sound or reasonable one. There are thousands of people who will use small quantities of electricity for light, heat, cooking and small power requirements after the supply is available. Of course these people will have to be sold on the proposition when there is something to sell. Even if large demands for power are not available at the present time there is a thousand times greater chance that Grand Falls power developed would yield a greater return than the Valley Railway or National Transcontinental, and both of these were built without guarantee of traffic.

The provincial government will not make a mistake if it proceeds with the development of the Grand Falls power and proceeds without delay.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

Elsewhere in this issue there appears the report of Secretary W. R. Belyea to the Edmundston Board of Trade in which he recounts the activities of that body during the last year which was also its first year. Readers of The Observer who live in the St. John valley towns may read with a great deal of profit of what the business men of Edmundston are accomplishing through their Board of Trade.

Read the story of the "Queen of Sheba" elsewhere in this issue.

RICH IN VITAMINES

MAKE PERFECT BREAD

MORE FOR BRAINS
LESS FOR HORSES

The following letter to the editor—a letter which will be read with intense interest—is from the pen of the principal of the Centreville school:

Will Dan Hedgewood pay a dividend?

In view of the fact that the sum of $4000 has been invested in a race horse by some parties, resident in this county, the above is a question that undoubtedly is agitating the minds of not a few.

Not only has that sizeable sum been paid to another, but the expensive services of a foreign trainer have been secured to enable this horse to worthily compete next season in a series of races, the ultimate result of which certainly will be to pay more money across our borders and to produce nothing but a distinct economic loss to this county.

Woodstock has also a park to which a kind nature endowed a pre-eminent picturesqueness and on which its patrons unsparingly apportioned pretty purses. That is not the end. These thousand dollar stakes have been offered repeatedly every cent of which went directly out of this province. Nor does this finish the tale. The time lavished on this business has been a total waste for there has neither been any commodity of economic concern produced by it, nor is there even a pretense of any return having been, or likely to be, made to the horse raising industry or any other industry, walk, calling, practice or profession that makes for a lasting good to the community. This should not be interpreted as a rap at harness racing, or any other sport, nor is there any aversion to a race or contest of any kind where in the rights of the participants and spectators are not prejudiced by an illegal pre-arrangement, nor even a humble desire to deny any enthusiast of his or her share of enjoyment obtained from the "Royal Sport." But the case of Woodstock and our county is indicative of the growing craze in this province for two minute races and the tolerance of decrepitude in draught horses and the neglect of some of the first factors in social welfare.

That craze is not yet defined, nor will it have been until the five hundred dollar Pomeranian pups have been mentioned and cases of luxurious spending have been enumerated until the ordinary mind is staggered and the sober intellect shudders.

Reflect on that if you will—then pick up the last copy of The Observer and read Mr. Kyle's letter. Read the conditions under which the local school is being conducted. A. W. Kyle speaks out, not only of conditions in his own locality, but his remarks are relevant of conditions that prevail in almost every community in this province.

We would ship a university out of this province because of an alleged scarcity of money. We leave our student teachers (without any housing accommodations) to suffer a miserable nine months in Fredericton garrets and the fact that education has never merited a provincial minister of the crown establishes the premises for the statement that the faults and failures in the high places greatly and miserably transcend those of the districts.

Of the students in Grade I of our provincial schools, only 8 per cent reach Grade IX. Out of 14,730 children in Grade I in June, 1911, only 380 reached Grade XI in June 1921 and 180 of those failed to matriculate. All because they are smoked out, frozen out, and because in regard to education there is a flagrant lethargy in our legislature and a criminal lassitude in many localities.

Small wonder that "Mr. Kyle Speaks Out." In an admittedly limited experience among students, some of the brightest minds I have met have come from Carleton County and a scant experience in teaching has revealed the fact that our supply is not exhausted, but when there is money for everything else a niggard dispensation of fortune has and will force to be medicrannies those who might have become pre-eminent citizens and masters in producing economic goods. Probably a Mr. Kyle will again "speak out" and advise that the practice of gloating over horse's muscles may be scrapped for one of giving, if not a bonus, at least a fair opportunity to human brain and instead of a stake of $3000 for a horse race that the same amount be raised to institute a race of intellect that might mean giving to the nation a leader and the certain dividends of which will be pleasanter pages in the history that the hand of the future insists on writing for us.

Can Get Around Like a Young Man Since Taking Tanlac, Says Hansel Citizen

"You don't often see a man as spry as I am at seventy-two, but judging from the way Tanlac has fixed me up, I'm sure it's fine for everybody," declared Thomas Palmer, Sr., well-known retired farmer of Hansel, Ont., while on a visit in London, Ont.

"At the time I got Tanlac I could hardly walk at all, and hadn't been down town without my walking stick since last September. But I have put away my old walking stick now and last Thursday I went down town twice without it and got about as good as many younger men. I suffered terribly with constipation the last ten years, had no appetite and was bothered a great deal with my kidneys. Some times every joint in my body ached, I was badly run down and seldom got a night's sleep.

"If I had Tanlac last Spring it would have saved me money, for I took medicine two years without any relief to speak of. But Tanlac and the Tanlac Pills have put me in fine shape, and I stand ready to praise it to the limit. Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists.

Over 35-million bottles sold.

ADDRESS BY SEC. W. R. BELYEA

(Edmundston Observer)

The following is the retiring secretary's address to the Edmundston Board of Trade. Walker Belyea has been the efficient secretary of the Board since its inception and the success of the Board during the past year has been most largely due to his untiring efforts. We very much regret that he is leaving Edmundston, about which we shall have more to say later. We hope this address will be read by all the citizens of Edmundston, and we trust that the suggestions made therein in regard to market facilities will gain not only the attention, but the action, of those interested in the welfare of the town:

THE ADDRESS

As secretary of your Board I beg to submit my first annual report.

Your Board was organized about one year ago with a charter membership of forty. During the year one member has resigned, two have deceased while we have added twenty-six members to the Board since receiving our charter from Secretary of State at Ottawa, making a membership of sixty-three to date.

During the last year seven general meetings and five meetings of the executive have been held in addition to several impromptu committee meetings called by the President of Secretary.

I am pleased to state that the attendance at the various meetings has been comparatively good. We have only once found it impossible to get the required number present to form a quorum. This was in July during very hot weather.

The object of a Board of Trade is to further the interests of the Town in which it exists in the matter of securing industries broadening of trade, assisting in bringing about public improvements and to afford an opportunity for citizens to discuss matters which affect the interests of the Town and to approach governments and corporations through non-political channels. A further function of a Board of Trade is to assist in the entertainment of distinguished guests who may be visiting within its jurisdiction.

During the past year the Board has endeavored to further the interests of the Town in many respects and I am happy to say that its efforts have met with some degree of success. I shall take the subjects up under the various headings.

RAILWAY MATTERS. Early in the Spring of 1922 the management of the Canadian National Railways moved from the Edmundston Division the fast freight service which had been in effect for several years thus throwing out of employment upwards to seventy-five railway men resident in Edmundston. The Board immediately took the matter up with railway authorities and a delegation of members of the Board, at a sacrifice of valuable time, proceeded to Montreal and Ottawa, where they interviewed the President of the C. N. R. and other officials as well as the Minister of Railways from whom they received assurances that the railway situation would be immediately adjusted on this Division. The fast freight service has not yet been reinstated, but it is not because the Edmundston Board of Trade has not continued its efforts. In October last, when it was learned that there would be a large movement of grain to the ports of Halifax and St. John, the Board immediately took the matter up with acting Minister of Railways, requesting that a portion of the traffic moving to these ports should be sent over to the Edmundston Division. We received a telegram advising that the management was giving the matter consideration.

CAMPBELLTON TRAIN. The Board of Trade drew the attention of the management of the C. N. R. to the advisability of bringing the Campbellton train through to Edmundston instead of coming only as far as St. Leonards, and the Town is deriving a benefit from this new service which will undoubtedly become more popular in the future.

C. P. R. When the summer timetable of the C. P. R. was issued, it was noticed that the hour of arrival of the express was somewhat late, so the Board took the matter up with Superintendent who arranged the schedule making the time of arrival forty minutes earlier than was proposed, thus materially assisting hotels and others catering to the travelling public, as well as benefitting the citizens in the matter of getting their mail at an earlier hour. Efforts were made to have the Winter schedule altered to allow of a more early arrival, but it was found impossible, owing to connections from Halifax at St. John being much later than in former years.

Appearance of Railway Properties. Last Spring the untidy appearance of the C. P. R. grounds was called to the Superintendent's attention by your Secretary and a few weeks later a start was made toward making it more pleasing to the eye, and I am pleased to note that materials are already on the grounds for more extensive improvements in the Spring when we trust the company will arrange to give their buildings a new coat of paint as the impression, a new-comer gets when alighting from a C. P. R. train at Edmundston is not the most favorable. The C. N. R. Superintendent is entitled to congratulations for the great improvements he has effected in the appearance of the grounds and buildings here under his charge.

New Public Building. The much-needed new public building to accommodate Post Office, Custom House and Armory was one of the first subjects taken up by the Board. Correspondence was carried on direct with the Minister of Public Works at Ottawa, as well as through our Federal member, Mr. Michaud placing before the Government the grave necessity of the immediate erection of a Public Building. While the House was in Session a delegation of the members of the Board interviewed the Minister of Public Works and the Minister of Finance at Ottawa placing before them the claims of Edmundston for a Public Building. The Minister promised to give the matter sympathetic consideration. We note with regret that during 1922 nothing was included in the Public Works' estimates for the purchase of land or erection of a Public Building for Edmundston, so it behooves the Board of Trade to at once make plans to bring the matter before the Government as soon as the House of Commons assembles.

Fire Insurance Rates. Early in the year the Board communicated with the N. B. Board of Fire Underwriters requesting a reduction in the existing rates in this Town, and resolutions were forwarded to the Town Council requesting that they take the matter up vigorously with the Underwriters, seeing that improvements demanded by the latter were affected without delay. Early in December the Underwriters' inspector made a new survey of the Town and his report is now being awaited with much interest by the Town Council and Board of Trade. It is necessary that the Board should take immediate action in regard to this important matter, should the inspector's report not be favorable to a material reduction.

Visitors. During the past year Edmundston has entertained many important people and delegations. On June 5 and 6, the Maritime members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association which is one of the largest Newspaper Associations on the American continent, together with the officials and members of the New Brunswick Tourists and Resources Association were entertained by the Board. The majority of the members of these parties were paying their first visit to Edmundston, and from their personal expression, as well as those written in their various newspapers, we believe they were favorably impressed with Edmundston and its citizens. The most important event of 1922, was the completion and formal opening of the International Bridge, which took place on Labor Day, September 4. The Board co-operated with the Town Council and general committee in making this event an unqualified success. Included among the visitors on this occasion were Public men, officials and business men from both sides of the International border, whom we feel sure carried away good impressions of our Town. The New Brunswick Grand Council Knights of Columbus convened here during the Summer and although the Board was not concerned in any way in the entertainments of the delegates, Foot Saved in 4 Days!

"The flesh was terribly bruised, blackened and inflamed, and I fainted away with pain. When it was quite impossible for me to move about, my husband's mother got me to try Zam-Buk. It was surprising! Within TWO DAYS all swelling and discoloration had disappeared and pain was banished. In FOUR DAYS, through this timely use of Zam-Buk, I could get about as usual; the injured foot was thoroughly healed."

ZAM-BUK For Healing!

It appreciated the favorable publicity which the Town received through the delegates.

The New Brunswick Union of Municipalities held its annual meeting in Edmundston in August, and from the remarks of the delegates made at the banquet tendered by the Town Council I feel sure that they carried away a favorable impression of the Town and the treatment they had received. Edmundston is much better known and Maine today than it was a year ago, through the fact that so many have visited it during 1922. The amount of good derived through publicity of this kind is difficult to estimate. When people in high places speak well of a town and its people, the value of such publicity is far greater than any which may be procured through advertising or other mediums.

During the past two years the business of the entire world has been below par. Edmundston has had its dark days during this period but on the whole it has enjoyed greater prosperity than most industrial towns and with the lumber situation looking brighter, it seems only reasonable that Edmundston should look forward to a brighter and more prosperous 1923.

Expansion. What is needed to make Edmundston grow, is industrial expansion and development of Agriculture in the surrounding country. Industries, it is necessary to have some special facility or inducement for industries to locate in that Town. What has Edmundston to offer? It is true that we have railway facilities which are unexcelled, a limited amount of raw material and a population of willing workers, but the great drawing card for industries namely, cheap power, we have not either, does the Town control any favorable factory or mill sites? The future of Edmundston's industrial expansion depends upon the development of Hydro Electric in this end of the province. We note with interest that officials of the new Brunswick Power Commission are gathering data at Grand Falls and the time seems opportune that the Board of Trade, Town Council, County and every worthy citizen of Madawaska County should become interested and take an active part in seeing that our Government takes immediate steps to provide this section of the Province with Hydro Electric power, either by harnessing a portion of Grand Falls or developing the various falls on Green River. Hydro development takes a large amount of capital and considerable time to complete so it would seem advisable that while working for industrial expansion we should not lose sight of the more minor things that will increase the volume of business in our Town.

I have mentioned the encouragement of agriculture in the country surrounding

CARELESSNESS CAUSES FIRES

Take heed where you place burning cigarette stumps. It may seem like a little thing, but a fire loss of over $8,000,000 was caused by cigarettes in one year.

ADDRESS BY SECRETARY W. R. BELVEA

organized a race track built, and a combination grand stand and exhibition building, co-constructed with assistance of the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the F. A. County Fair was held, the agricultural exhibits of which would have done credit to any County in the Province. This is a step in the right direction, but I believe that the merchants of Edmundston could improve their business by encouraging a Country Market and sell direct to the public.

The City of Fredericton is an outstanding example of what a Country Market means to a Town. Fredericton had a Country Market long before it had population as large as Edmundston's is today and the amount of trade that the Fredericton merchants do with the country people is amazing. On Wednesdays and Saturdays the farmers come to the market, which is merely the square about the City Hall, sell their produce to consumer or dealer for cash and proceed to spend a large portion of the cash in the stores before leaving the City. This Town now owns a splendid site for a Country Market—the lot adjoining the Town Office.

To secure co-operations of the farmers from the start, it would require that a committee be appointed to go to the rural communities, hold a few small meetings with the farmers, explaining the whole proposition. I feel confident that the Provincial Minister of Agriculture can be relied upon to support the movement.

A Country Market would provide the citizens with a medium to procure vegetables, poultry, butter, truck garden produce, firewood, hay, etc., which to the average citizen are often hard to locate, while there may be quantities in the country awaiting a market. On the other hand it provides the farmer with a market close at home where he immediately realizes cash for his goods. It is human nature to want to do shopping in the larger centers. This is where the Edmundston merchant would secure the farmers' cash business. If this suggestion meets with the approval of the Board, I would suggest that a committee be appointed to meet the Town Council with a view to getting the movement started at once so as the Farmers may be prepared to cater to the requirements of our citizens next Summer and Autumn.

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the officers, executives and members for their co-operation during the past year, and I very much regret that I am soon to leave your happy Town, but I feel confident that the members of the Board will carry on the work in such a manner that they will make Edmundston one of the most progressive Towns in Eastern Canada.

yours respectfully,
W. R. BELVEA, Secretary

Edmundston Locals

If you have any news send it along—telephone or mail. It helps us give you the news when it is news.

Miss Phyllis Hall will leave on Sunday to resume her studies at Mount Allison University.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Henderson of Campbellton were in town on Wednesday.

Aaron Lawson had the misfortune when cutting some wood on Tuesday morning to severely cut his hand, making a large and ugly wound necessitating a visit to the doctors and some stitches.

It is expected that Mrs. Hutchison who has been in Moncton recuperating from a surgical operation and from typhoid fever will soon be home. A large circle of friends will be glad to see her again and wish for her speedy recovery and renewed strength.

Edmundston still brags that whilst other parts of the province suffer from severe snow storms, our climate is such that we get along with reasonable and healthy weather. The sun shines on the just and the unjust alike, but the snowstorms leave the just people of Madawaska county alone.

We all appreciate the work of the Hon. J. E. Michaud, who has accomplished much in reducing the cost of fire insurance here it being reported in last week's St. John papers that the surtax is soon to be removed by the Board of Fire Underwriters of New Brunswick.

The fire department with its new equipment is meeting with unqualified approval. The inspection at frequent intervals is praiseworthy in the extreme. We have a good fire chief, and it will not be his fault if there is ever a disastrous fire as there was in Fort Kent and Grand Falls last week.

There should be a record attendance to hear Mrs. Pankhurst on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Pankhurst is one of the outstanding women of the world. Whilst we may not all of us have approved of some of her methods in days gone by when she was fighting for the ballot for her sister women, we must all of us support her in her present campaign for social hygiene.

Mrs. Burgoyne, 21st Ave., has been indisposed this week, but at the time of going to press was reported to be improving.

W. R. Belyea who is soon to leave Edmundston, will be greatly missed in the business and social circles of the town. He has been indefatigable in his efforts; his outstanding work being in the Board of Trade. Next week we shall have more to say in regard to this.

The people of Edmundston heard with a great deal of regret of the tragedy of the fire in Grand Falls last week. Fire is terrible at all times when not under control, but it takes its toll of human life, there is an accompanying horror. The sympathy of many people go out to the bereaved father and mother.

Next week's issue of The Observer will be a "Grand Falls Development Number." We hope to print the views of business men in regard to the development of these most valuable water rights and at the same time give some data in regard to them. The editor solicits letters on this subject. Let us hear your views.

The ball given under the auspices of the Edmundston Driving Club in Fournier's Hall on Monday evening was a great success. The attendance was large and dancing was enjoyed by all those present until an early hour. The management wishes to thank all those who contributed to its success; to those who donated refreshments, cigars and cigarettes, decorations, and assistance in many ways. The Hall was decorated, the music was provided by Roy's Orchestra of St. Leonards and was of a high quality.

Vanished After Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Branchton, Ont.—"When I wrote to you for help my action was mostly prompted by curiosity. I wondered if I, too, would benefit by your medicine. It was the most profitable action I have ever taken. I heartily assure you, for through its results I am relieved of most of my sufferings. I have taken six boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and I can honestly say I have never been so well before. I had suffered from pains and other troubles since I was fifteen years old, and during the 'Great War' period I worked on munitions for two years, and, in the heavy lifting which my work called for, I strained myself, causing pelvic inflammation from which I have suffered untold agony, and I often had to give up and go to bed. I had doctored for several years without getting permanent relief, when I started to take your medicine."—MRS. GOLDWIN MISENER, Branchton, Ont.

HELP HELPLESS BLIND BABES

A Dominion Charter, without stock subscription, was recently obtained for the establishment in the city of Ottawa of a Home, Nursery, Hospital and Kindergarten for the blind under six years of age free to all from many provinces in the Dominion. So far nothing has been done for those poor unfortunate. According to reports received from various Provincial authorities, there are at present nearly 250 in the Dominion. The late Sir Arthur Pearson, before his death, claimed that "Sunshine Home," at Chorley Wood, England, was "the only home in the Empire for blind babies." It is hoped shortly to have the SECOND in Canada. To this end money is urgently required. Help us with your generous gifts. "Least we forget: Do it now! Cheques should be made payable to the Canadian Blind Babies Home Association. Remittances will be promptly acknowledged.

Johnny Walker and Edna Murphy shot lots of pep in to "What Love Will Do," on Tuesday night—a Fox feature in five reels. The play began in a humble blacksmith's home, with a good-natured husband, a happy little boy, but a discontented wife, ripe for a little love affair with a good looking stranger, with whom she ran away to the city. The husband's death left the lad to shift for himself when at maturity he fell in with his father's betrayer, after having deserted his mother and posing as an agent for social uplift. The boy, joined the movement, and at a meeting one evening he gave such a vivid portrayal of his early life that his mother, who all the years had been diligently seeking him, was made inordinately happy in the fact of locating him. A pretty little love affair with the daughter of the church warden made the story most attractive. Added to this we got a Fox News reel and the third episode of "Bride 13." Saturday's picture was of an altogether different type, and was all the more interesting in having all the scenes laid in and around Calgary and up in the Peace River District. "Bring him in" the slogan of the North West Mounted Police was the title of the piece, and centred around a man hunt for Dr. Hood, played by Earle Williams, a famous surgeon, wrongfully accused of a murder, by a mountie sergeant, played by Bruce Gordon. Fritzie Ridgeway played the chief feminine role. A comedy, "Dubs and Dry Goods", lightened up the bill. The door prizes given by the management have already begun to bear fruit in augmented crowds, every one being interested in taking the lucky chance. The pictures as elsewhere advertised for this week will be of the usual sterling quality with a Famous Players Film on Saturday. On Tuesday "Blind Wives" will be put on with the 5th episode of "Bride 13" and on February 8, the Giant Super Special, a most spectacular film, "Queen of Sheba."

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Chesley Stevens played host to the members of the St. James Guild, and a number of the male backers of the cause at the supper hour. One of the usual wonderful suppers was indulged in by all present. After a hurricane battle with the knife fork and spoon, an informal bridge party was pulled off until the midnight hour.

Although the Centreville five got defeated on Thursday night by the basket ball team from Bridgewater they went down fighting gloriously. The latter team has been playing together over a term of years and had a decided advantage in mass and combination plays over the local boys who have had but little practice. Despite the weather, a number of Bridgewater rooters followed their team over. The line-up was as follows:

Bridgewater: Whitehead Smith, Niles, Shaw and Everett. Centreville: Burt, Eric Brown, Cyril Brown, Baird and Reid. White substituted for Reid in the last half. D. R. Bishop acted as referee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bruce entertained at four tables of bridge on Wednesday evening at their home on Main street. During the course of the evening an array of delicious refreshments was served by the hostess. The guests included Dr. H. W. Peppers, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bruce, Mrs. Alice White, Dr. E. R. McClintock, J. B. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevens, Miss Irvine and Miss McKinnis.

A telegram to close friends on Sunday, conveyed the sad news of the sudden death on Monday at New York city of Willard L. Carr, one of Woodstock's leading business men. Mr. and Mrs. Carr left about a month ago to spend the winter in New York, when he was in an excellent state of health. His death resulted from acute indigestion. Mr. Carr was well known as a lumber and mill man, holding valuable farm and lumber land in the parish of Northampton. He is survived by his wife, daughter of the late R. W. and Mrs. Balloch of Centreville, one sister, Mrs. A. D. Holyoke of Woodstock and two brothers, Stewart of Boston and Sabine of Bellingham, Wash. The body will be sent to Woodstock for burial.

The evangelistic services in the U. B. church are being most assiduously attended and are fraught with much good. With good music and good preaching each night the crowds have been good despite the most unfavorable weather conditions. Meetings every night this week and the usual Sunday services: Centreville at 11 a. m. and 7.30—Lakeville at 3.00 p. m.

Mrs. Alice McCall has gone to Boston for a visit which includes Fitchburg, Mass.

Miss Laura Burpee spent Tuesday in Woodstock.

G. F. Burpee spent last week in the lumber camps of Hayden and Burpee.

Mrs. Alice White is spending a few days in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy T. Lee entertained at a very pleasant bridge party on Monday night. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Lee, Miss Dora Lee, Miss McKinnis, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Peppers, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown, Dr. E. R. McClintock, Jas. B. Lee, A. H. Baird, D. H. Burt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevens, Miss Faye Burt, Miss Dancy Burt, Miss Addie Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. R. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gamble, Mrs. B. R. Field. A delightful array of refreshment was served by the hostess during the course of the play.

A NATIONAL INSTITUTION

A journal that for over fifty years has grown in public esteem until it has acquired the largest number of readers of any journal in the country in which it is published may without exaggeration be said to have grown into a national institution.

By the testimony of its readers, by the testimony of the press of Canada, by the testimony of vast numbers of the thinking population and by the admission of capable journalists and other onlookers in other countries. The Family Herald of Montreal, based on its independence and on its devotion to the welfare of the country, has come to be regarded as one of the National assets of the Dominion.

For the year 1923 the publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star promise their readers better value than ever in the past, with more valued contributors and more resources in all departments. The plans involve heavy outlay for new features, but the subscription price will remain at $2.00 per year, the extra expenditure being undertaken in absolute faith, upheld by the confidence and practical cooperation of more than half a million readers.

The New Year has opened with a rush of subscriptions that has smashed all previous records. Judging by the stacks of subscription orders that at times have threatened to choke the great Montreal Post Office, it would appear that half of Canada had selected The Family Herald and Weekly Star as the best all round journal for 1923.

WHY BABIES CRY

It's often hard to find the trouble—It may be teeth—it may be stomach—but oh! so often it is just a chafed irritated skin on which poor Soap has been used.

The remedy for this is so simple! Hours of suffering—night after night of disturbance—have been avoided by mothers, who have insisted on—Baby's Own Soap.

Of course it costs a little more, a very little more, however—than what is often bought and used—but four generations of Canadian Mothers are there to vouch for its purity, for the soothing healing effect on Baby's delicate skin, for the lovely pure flower fragrance it leaves when Baby fresh and clean is taken from his bath.

Don't you think, Madam, it's worth paying the 15c a cake, a little less if you buy a box (3 cakes) which your dealer asks for Baby's Own Soap. Adv.
