Brown Will Hang

Dominion Government Will Not Commute the Death Sentence.

The Peg-Leg Will Epxi- tramp of the railway watchman Ross, without the slightest provession. This ate His Crime on the Gallows.

Will Be Hanged Here on Wednesday Morning.

The Minister of Justice Carefully Scanned the Facts-The Prisoner Has Been Fairly Treated-The Circumstances Reviewed.

It is announced from Ottawa that the Government of the Dominion, after carefully considering the facts of the case, on Saturday agreed to recommend to his Excellency that no executive action be taken in the case of Marion Brown, now under sentence of death here for the murder of Police Constable Toohey. The condemned man will accordingly explate his crime on the scaffold on Wednesday morning

This is a case that has occupied good deal of attention. At the trial, the prisoner made his defense on the plea that it was a case of mistaken identity-that some other man with a wooden leg, and not he, was the slayer of Policeman Toohey-that he was hundress of miles away from the scene of the crime on the eventful evening last June when poor Toohey was shot down in the execution of his duty. The evidence, however, was as conclusive as circumstantial evidence could be that Brown was the murderer, and the jury had no hesitation in saying that he was guilty of the terrible crime.

So strongly impressed were the community with the necessity of making an example of Toohey's slayer that it to give this country a wide berth, his is safe to say that up to the trial he had very few friends. He had a few, however, among thoughtful men in the community, who were inclined to think that if it were possible that he killed Policeman Toohey, because he was under the impression that he would every type. Why should any tramp, be treated as negroes and halfbreeds without visible means of support, and are often treated in the South, without mercy, when they are suspected of wrong-doing-he should have been convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced to penal servitude for life. This conclusion was reached by many legal men, who took the ground that Brown should have been given the benefit of the doubt, when it was affirmed on his behalf that he shot Toohey either because he did not know he was an officer, and was afraid of his own life, when the policeman came upon him with a pistol in his hand, or imagined that he would be treated to that scant measure of justice so often extended to Southerners of his kind by those who capture them. We believe that the Minister of Justice took all these pleas into his earnest consideration, and when he was in the city the other day, he went over the scene of the crime, and became thoroughly seized of all the surroundings. A case for the interven-tion of his Excellency has not, however, been clearly made out, though some will believe that it might have been otherwise, had the condemned man been put in the box at the trial to make a clean breast of all his dothe life of Policeman Toohey. While there were some circumstances that led strongly to the conclusion that it may have been that Brown did not premeditate the murder of the policeman, and that he shot him because he believed his own life was in danger, and that if he were arrested justice would not be done him, there were many facts that led up to another conclusion, and it is certain that the Minister of Justice could not lose sight of them in making his recommendation to council. There was the knocking down by the

TENDERS.

Whole or separate tenders will be received at the office of the architects, until 5 p.m., FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1899, for the several works required in the erection of a boiler house at the power house of the London Electric Company, Limited. Lowest or any tender not necessarily ccepted. MOORE & HENRY, accepted.

without the slightest provocation. This was an outrage for which there could be no excuse whatever. Ross was felled to the ground in an insensible state, merely because he performed his duty in requesting the tramp not to trespass on Grand Trunk property. As soon as he had knocked down the railway watchman, Brown cleared out, apparently under the impression that he had either killed or seriously wounded him. It was while he was flying from the spot where he had committed this crime, and while he was fully aware that he was being pursued, that Brown was over-taken by Policeman Toohey, who was then shot down in cold blood.

When we remember that Toohey was one of the most careful officers in the police force—that he was probably the least aggressive, and not likely to resort to any measures but those fully justified-it can scarcely be contended that there was any reasonable excuse whatever for resistance, much less murder, by the tramp. Nor, apart from the special considerations which have been urged as palliation for the crime, can it be seriously contended that the murderer had any ground for his alleged fears that he would not have fair treatment and a just trial. It is more than probable, in fact, that the main reason for Brown's crime was his anxiety to escape from the consequences of his previous rascally conduct. At the time that Toohey came upon him he did not know how serious had been his brutal and unprovoked assault on Watchman Ross. To escape arrest the prisoner assassinated the man charged with the carrying out of the law. To escape arrest, at a later day, as was sworn at the trial, this prisoner expressed his determination to kill one or more county constables if they attempted to go near him. Brown has stated that he was a mild-mannered man, and that his past offenses had been trivial in the extreme. This may or may not have been so. We can only judge him by his conduct while he was in this country. It was not such as to win for him the very high opinion of anyone anxious to maintain safety of life and to preserve law and order.

If the fate of this man is regarded as an invitation to persons of his stamp sad end will have a useful effect. For ourselves, we have always been anxious to have the law so made, interpretwith no property to protect, be allowed to roam the country, with a loaded firearm? Surely a tramp so equipped ought to be sent for a very long term to the penitentiary, and if he should slay anyone before his arrest, there should be little delay in reaching the conclusion that the crime was murder, as such a one carries a loaded revolver for no other purpose than to kill whosoever interferes with him in his designs. Holding these views, while we have had no objection to full investigation being given to all the extenuating circumstances in favor of Marion Brown, we do not doubt that the decision of the advisers of his Excellency in this case is a just one, and that his fate will have a beneficial effect on such members of the tramp fraternity as may be tempted in future to Interfere with a Canadian police officer

In the discharge of his duty. ORDER IN COUNCIL SIGNED. [Special to The Advertiser per C. P. R.]

Ottawa, May 15.-Lord Minto signed an order in council today allowing the law to take its course in the case of the motive which impelled him to take | Marion Brown, better known as Peg-Leg Brown, the London murderer, who shot and killed Policeman Tochey in the city of London. Brown will be executed on Wednesday morning, May the 17th.

HIS LAST DAY

Brown Slept Well and Seems Reconciled to His Fate.

The final preparations for the execution of Marion Brown, the murderer, are being pushed forward, and before evening the gallows upon which the doomed man is to die, will have been erected. The black flag, which will float from the staff of the court house, has been made, and Brown has been informed that there is no hope of reprieve. Yesterday he was very much affected when he was told by the sheriff that the chances were against him. He felt better towards evening, when he knew that no decision had been reached. Brown slept well during the night, and when Sheriff Cameron informed him this morning that the law was to take its course, he received the news in a very matter of fact way. No ministers had visited the jail up to 12 o'clock today. Brown sent for Mr. McPhillips this morning, but it is very unlikely that anything further will be done towards obtaining a reprieve. Rev. Dr. Johnston is in Ottawa. The prisoner seems reconciled to his fate.

Sheriff Cameron yesterday received the following letter: "Coldstream, May 15, 1899.

"D. Cameron, Sheriff of Middlesex:

"Dear Friend,-At a meeting of the Friends' Philanthropic Union of Coldstream, held a few weeks since, we, the undersigned, were appointed a committee to influence, if possible, the press and sheriff in London against giving unnecessary publicity to the trial and execution (if execution took place) of Marion Brown, now in your charge. We believe that such publication, either through the press or otherwise, tends to increase evil and crime, and blunts the finer sensibilities of men.

Serious Charge Against Charles Birdsall, of St. Thomas.

The Man Who Was Accused of Killing His Brother Six Months Ago-Con demned Murderer Tries to Escape. Detroit, May 16 .- On April 15 a young man who gave his name as Charles Holman, of Kansas City, was arrested here. He entered the house of Mrs. Marian Adams, asked her to sit for a photograph, and then made an effort to assault her. Her cries awakened her husband, who was sleeping an another room, and he rushed out. The neighbors came to the scene, and the man made off. He was soon captured, however, and a rope was placed around his neck, but the police arrived on the scene in time to save the man from lynching. It has since been learned that the prisoner is Charles Birdsall, of St. Thomas. He was identified a few days ago by a St. Thomas officer. He is in jail awaiting trial. St. Thomas, May 16.—Birdsall, alias Holman, is a son of Mrs. Birdsall, 225 Center street. On Dec. 18, 1898, his trother Joseph, of Saginaw, Mich., a brakeman on the F. and P. M. Railway, with his wife and family, came ed and enforced, as to secure safety to life and property, and to effectively discourage visitations from lawless men of Joseph Birdsall drinking and threatening to use a hatchet on Charles and members of the family. While, it is claimed, Charles was running away from Joseph, and just at the door, the table being set for supper, he picked up a plate and threw it at Joseph. The plate struck him on the head and fractured the skull. He was removed to the Amasa Wood Hospital, where he died. An inquest was held, the jury returning a verdict that the deceased, Joseph Birdsall, came to his death by being struck by a plate thrown by his brother Charles, who, when throwing the plate, was in fear of his life.

TRIED TO ESCAPE THE GALLOWS. Winnipeg, May 16.—Gusczak, under sentence of death for murdering a family in November at Stuartburn, attempted to escape from the provincial jail on Sunday morning. He had broken his iron bedstead and used the pieces to pick bricks out of the wall, tore up the bed clothing, and got into the outer court. He was discovered after a long and exciting search, hiding in a chute leading to the prison laundry.

Quebec, May 16.-Mrs. Boute, who seventeen years ago was sentenced to be hanged for poisoning another woman at Baie St. Paul, and whose sentence was subsequently commuted to penitentiary for life, died at Kingston Penitentiary last week. Her remains were interred at Beauport.

Vancouver, B. C., May 16.—Enoch Wood, an Indian, was brought to the city from his home near Port Simpson. He is charged with manslaughter, having beaten and wounded an old tribesman named Tekquo so badly that the latter shortly afterwards died.

Imperial Government Prepared to Review the Pacific Cable Matter.

Characteristic Act of Britain's Warm-Hearted Queen-Another Search for Andree.

London, May 16.-Russia's latest demand on China for new concessions continues to agitate the Pekin author-

In the British House of Commons, the government was questioned regarding the Russian demand for a railroad concession to connect Pekin with Russia's present railroad system in Manchuria. Mr. William St. John Broderick replied that the British charge de affairs at Pekin had reported that Russia had made such a demand, and it was understood that, up to the present, the Chinese foreign office had declined to grant the full concession. Mr. Broderick added that her Majesty's government was unable to make a pronouncement on the subject of Great Britain's attitude in the matter until all the facts were known. The government was then asked whether, in view of the feregoing, her Majesty's government would take steps to have the basin of the Yang-Tse-Kiang clearly defined. dispatch from Hong Kong says: In all, 1,350 infantry soldiers, 100 ar-tillerymen, 50 engineers and 50 marines have gone to the Kow-Loon Hinterland. The greatest secrecy is observed as to the plans of the British authorities, and nothing is definitely known regarding the actual destination of the troops, but it seems evident that two detachments of troops will advance on Tai-Po-Fu and Deep Bay, cut off the rebels and drive them from the ceded territory. The gun vessels engaged in the operations have been provisioned eight days. Troops are patroling European quarter of Kow-Loon. It is reported that Chinese rebels from Tung-Lu invaded British territory yes-terday, and that two armed gangs robd the city of Kow-Loon. Hong-Kong Itself is quiet.

THE CABLE SCHEME.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain had a conference yesterday on the subject of the proposed Pacific cable with Baron Strathcona and the colonial agentsgeneral, who presented certain modifications of the original proposals. Mr. Chamberlain promised that they Replying in the House of Lords to the Earl of Aberdeen, who urged colonial governments reaching an understanding with reference to the Pacific cable, the Earl of Selbourne said her Majesty's government was perfectly prepared to review the whole matter in the light of any new representations the colonies might make, with a sincere desire to arrive at a decision satisfactory to all the governments concerned. TO FIND ANDREE. Stockholm, May 16.—An expedition for the finding and relief of Andree and his party will start for the northeast coast of Greenland within a few weeks. The relief party will be in charge of Prof. A. G. Nathorst, and it will sail on the steam whaler Antarctic, of which he is part owner. The expense of the expedition will be almost entirely defrayed by a wealthy Norwegian merchant named Hammer, of Christiania. The expedition will consist of Nathorst himself, six scientific men, and a crew of thirteen. The ship will be headed for Jan Mayen, and thence the ice edge will be followed till an opening is found through which the shore can be reached.

THE LADIES DELIGHT TO SPEAK OF DIAMOND DYES

AND EXTOL THEIR WONDROUS RENEW. ING POWERS.

Amongst the many useful and meritorious articles manufactured for home and home money-saving, Diamond Dyes are certainly first in the estimation of all women.

The beautiful and charming colors produced by Diamond Dyes satisfy the most critical of women. Let the season be spring, summer, autumn or winter, the woman of taste can select suitable and fashionable colors when she decides how to renew her old and faded dress, skirt, blouse, jacket, shawl, e or ribbons, or her boys' or husband's faded and dingy-looking suits. The Diamond Dyes work wonderful and truly delightful transformations in very line of old material, from the silk dress to rags for the making of home-thade carpets and rugs. The colors are always bright, full and never-fad-

Chemical science has proved that dye which produces a brilliant and lasting color on animal fibers or all-wood goods cannot give as good results on vegetable fibers or cotton goods.

To insure perfect success in home-dyeing, the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes prepare two special dyes, one for coloring silk and all-wool goods, and one for coloring cotton and mixed goods. No other make of dyes can boast of the same scientific achievements: no other make of dyes can so well protect the interests of home

Successful home-dyeing therefore depends on the use of Diamond Dyes at all times. Never allow your dealer to sell you untried and imitation dyes. Insist upon being supplied with diamond

Two Ordinances Vetoed-Mr. Fielding Opposed to a Canadian Mint.

Ottawa, May 16 .-- Hon. Mr. Sifton yesterday laid on the table of the house copies of the orders in council disallowing two ordinances passed by the Yukon council, of which the first was in respect of the sale of intexicants and the issue of liquor licenses, while the second dealt with the status of the legal profession in the Yukon district. Concerning the liquor question, Hom. Mr. Sifton reported to the governor in council that under the ordinance in question an unlimited supply of intoxicating liquors might be permitted to be brought into the Yukon territory, and this would result in the unrestricted and illicit sale of intoxicants in many parts of the territory, because of its great extent, its scattered population, the nature of the country, and the difficulty which would arise in watching supplies of liquor after they had entered the territory. Concerning the ordinance respecting the legal profession, which was also disallowed, the minister of justice pointed out that the ordinance provided that barristers or solicitors of Great Britain or Canada were compelled to reside six months in the territory, and engage in the office some qualified advocate before bethe importance of the imperial and ing allowed to pay the necessary fee and to enter the practice of law. Since it would operate at least to postpone the right of a man otherwise perfectly qualified to begin practice for six months after his arrival, he must recommend the disallowance of the ordi-THE TOBACCO DUTIES.

In reply to Mr. Dugas, Sir Henri Joly said that 1,480,080 pounds of Canadian tobacco has paid excise duty from July 1, 1898, the duty paid being $74.004 foreign manufactured tobacco had paid $1,175,573 during the same period; that since the customs duty of 10 cents has been imposed, duty on 16,700,845 pounds was collected upon foreign tobacco by excise, and duty on 2,016,775 pounds was collected by customs; $558,086 duty has been paid upon 93,014,455 cigars made from foreign tobacco, and $1,059 upon 533,240 cigars made from Canadian tobacco since July 1, 1898.

A CANADIAN MINT. Mr. McInnes, of Vancouver, spoke strongly in favor of establishing a Canadian mint at Vancouver, but Hon. W. S. Fielding opposed the idea. A large volume of metallic currency would create great disturbance. The gold would only find its way to the banks again, and people would continue to use paper money because of its convenience. The banks of the Pacific coast were paying for gold nearly as much as the banks at Seattle, the difference in price being a mere fraction of a point. It might be that in future the imperial government would establish a mint in Canada to manufacture gold for use in Great

SETTLERS FROM THE UNITED

Replying to Mr. Marcotte, Mr. Sifton stated that it is impossible to tell the number of Canadians who have returned from the United States, as no separate records are kept, and no amount per head is specifically allowed for their repatriation. There is a large number of agents who are paid commission on all settlers arriving in Canada, no distinction being made betwe repatriated Canadians and others. Th are fifteen immigrant agents emplin the United States, whose sala amount to $15,300 per annum, and the are thirteen salaried agents in England and a number of agents on commission. Dr. Borden stated in reply to Mr. E. F. Clarke that the Canadian general service medal, 1866-70, is to be on the same ribbon as the Northwest cam-paign medal of 1885, and that those who served in repelling the raids and also in the Northwest campaign will not receive the general service medal, but only clasps to attach to the Northwest medal, this arrangement having been made by the secretary of state

Replying to Mr. Clarke's question, Sir Louis Davies said that there had been only one prosecution at Toronto under the alien labor law, and that the government agent there has been notified to take no further steps unless instructed by the department.

PIANOS

AT BARGAIN PRICES.

If price is the consideration there can be no trouble in meeting your wish out of the large stock of new Pianos to be seen in these warerooms. Take this description of two Pianos:

-New Uxbridge Piano, in handsomely designed case, decorated panels, artistically finished; our special, $250.

-New Cabinet Grand Kingsbury Piano, made in Chicago, semi-colonial design, 71-3 octave, ivory keys, threestrings and over-strings, case colonial design, with carved panels, full extension music rest and rolling fall board, three pedals; dimensions, 4 feet 7 inches high, 5 feet 4 inches long, 2 feet 3 inches wide; our special at $275.

-We have on hand a good range of second-hand Pianos and Organs, at prices ranging from $125 to $175 in Pianos. and Organs of well-known makers from $25 up.

We will be frank in saying that these instruments will not compare with the genuine Heintzman & Co. Piano. There is only one such Piano manufactured, and no better evidence of its real worth can be given than the praises it has won from artists of the highest world-wide character.

You do not need to accept our bare statement of what these Pianos are, but when artists like Dan Godfrey, Plunket Greene, Ben Davies, Madame Albani, Scalchi, Burmeister and many others tell you that these Pianos will bear comparison with the best Pianos made anywhere in the world, you will have confidence that you are getting a high-class Piano. An instrument like these is not to be compared with the ordinary instrument made for general selling.

"I have sung to your Piano on my two Canadian tours, and at the close of my second season in Canada I feel I would be lacking in courtesy did I not congratulate you on the high character of the instrument which you produce. My recital programme involved a wide selection of songs of most varied characteristics, and required of necessity a Piano capable in the highest degree of the most delicate inflections and the widest range, alternating from fine pianissimo effects to the most powerful manifestations of dramatic force. To those demands I found your instrument most responsive. I can assure you that it was to me, as an Englishman, the greatest pleasure to find so splendid a Piano assisting in the musical prestige of her Majesty's fore-most colony."—PLUNKET GREENE.

BASEBALL. Stratford, May 15 .- Stratford dropped their fourth game by losing to London today. The weather was cold and disagreeable, and the attendance on that account was very small. The Londons came within an ace of shutting the locals out entirely, and it was only by opportune hitting in the last inning that Stratford got in their solitary run. The visitors have a good one in Cooper, and Habel gave evidence of being well up in curves and speed, but the support he got must have been very disheartening to him. while the Londons gave Cooper ex-cellent support. The inning in which the merry-go-round took place was the third. McConnell got a base on Egan's error; Cooper made a hit, and Howell was retired at first by the pitcher. Mohler got one on another error by Egan, and McFadden chased McConnell and Cooper home when Humphill missed a grounder. Carey made a hit and two more trotted in, and Babbit got a base on a fielder's choice, Carey being disposed of at second. was retired at first, and the scoring was over. CHATHAM DEFEATS HAMILTON. Chatham, Ont., May 16.-The first game in the Canadian League series here was played yesterday between Hamilton and Chatham. The mayor, having declared a quarter-holiday, the stores and offices were closed, and 2,500 people crowded into the stands and bleachers to witness the home nine defeat the visitors. The game was very one-sided. Chatham was able to hit when hits meant runs. They bunched them particularly in the third, when some hard hitting, assisted by two errors, helped to score the four runs. The proceedings opened with a procession to the grounds, headed by the McKeough school boys' band. Arriving at the grounds Mayor Smith made and address and pitched the first ball, which formally opened the season here. President Quinn, of the Chathams, was made up as a burlesque catcher, but the curves were too much for the 300-pound president. The game was well played save for the errors, but the best work was undoubtedly done by Chatham. Their fielding was wonderfully effective, and everything at all obtainable was got. The score

HUMMERS FOR KELLY.

St. Thomas Journal: Umpire Kelly by no means justifies the good reputa-tion which preceded him. His work at Hamilton Saturday was of the vilest description. It is hard to understand how a man could be so blind or in any such condition as to make some of the decisions he made in that game. balls and strikes he was frightful, and in other decisions equally as bad. He called a ball hit by Sheehan to first, and which struck a foot inside the line and rolled out a foul thus doing St. Thomas out of three runs.
A minute or two after he tried to even up by calling a clear foul a hit but that decision did the Hams no hurt. His decisions on bases were equally erratic: Hamilton Herald: Mr. Kelly again officiated with the indicator, but his work was far from satisfactory. He was away off on balls and strikes and several of his base decisions were of the Hogan alley order.

TRIGGER. Melrose, May 16.—The Melrose Rifle Club met on Wednesday, May 10, when it was decided to hold May 24 as a special shoot, to start sharp at 1 o'clock, on the club grounds. Sides will be chosen and the side scoring the least number of points pays for the refreshments. Rapid-firing and firing at moving objects will be all that will be taken up by the men. The ladies will compete for prizes. The three ladies scoring the highest number of points out of five charts at 25 yards on most out of five shots at 25 yards, on rest, will be awarded a prize each. The club will be pleased to have anyone come and join in the sport. Other enjoyments will be provided for those who do not take a part in the shooting. Everybody welcome. 200 yards, off-hand: *J. A. Clare 9 6 3 4 8-30 E. J. Shaw 2 3 6 9 5—25 C. Harrison 2 3 0 10 F. Harrison 5 3 3 8 2-21 F. Robinson 4 1 4 4 Jas. GOLF. A SURPRISE.

London, May 16.—The contest for the ladies' open gold championship, at Newcastle, county Down, Ireland, revealed a golf wonder in the person of Miss M. Hezlett, of the Royal Portrush Club, who is a girl of 17, and a native of Antrim. There was great surprise when she defeated the crack player, Miss Lottie Ord, in the semi-final yesterday, and won the championship.

ORIOKET.

SURREY VS. AUSTRALIA. London, May 16 .- One of the most important matches to be played during the tour in this country of the Australian cricket eleven, opened yesterday at the Kensington Oval, when the visitors met the Surrey eleven, one of the strongest in England. The home players went to the wicket first, and, on wet grounds, were dismissed for a total of 114, Howell, the crack Australian bowler, taking all the wickets of the Surrey men for less than three runs apiece, in the cases of those who were put out by him. At the close of play for the day the Australians had scored 122 runs for four wickets down.

FISTIC.

DIXON WINS. Buffalo, May 16.-Champion George Dixon added another to his long list of ring victories by winning from "Kid" Broad, of Cleveland, in twenty rounds in the Olympic Athletic Club last night. Broad forced the fighting at the start, and for ten rounds did fully as well as the champion. Broad's left arm was badly hurt in the eleventh round, and he could not use it to advantage thereafter. Referee McBride declared Dixon the winner, although the crowd insisted on having it a draw.

WHEEL. LAMBETH CLUB.

As the result of a meeting of a num-ber of Lambeth's enthusiastic wheelmen, held on Saturday evening, a club was organized under the distinction of the Lambeth Bicycle Club, flying colors of red, black and yellow. During the progress of the meeting the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Mr. James Routledge; president, Mr. Richard Vandermade; captain, U. Mr. Richard valuermade, espain, c. G. Van Delinder; secretary, Miss Hattie Burch; treasurer, Miss Minnie Routledge; bugler, Mr. George Routledge. About 25 wheelmen have already enlisted in the ranks, and a large in-crease is expected in the near future. A cordial invitation is extended to all wishing to enlist, particularly the "diamond frame kind," as they are rather in the minority in this instance. The first run is announced for next Wednesday evening, with Delaware for the destination. A full attendance is requested, as a good time is expected. FOOTBALL.

WINGHAM WINS.

The first game of the Western Football Association was played at Wingham on Saturday between Stratford and Wingham, before a crowd of about 600, and resulted in favor of Wingham by a score of 4 goals to 0.

Our Immigration Problem. The Globe yesterday contained a most interesting interview with Rev. Dr. Robertson, superintendent of Presbyterian missions in the Northwest, on the subject of immigration. The doctor is qualified to speak with some authority on this problem, by reason of his long residence in the Northwest and his intimate acquaintance with peoople of all classes there. He has closely watched the tide of immigration pouring into that great country and has purposely mixed with the foreigners to observe their manners and customs. In his opinion they are mostly all excellent settlers. The Mennonites are cleanly in their habits and are building comfortable houses for themselves and providing separate places for their hve stock. They are getting over the custom of keeping the stock in their Hving apartments. The Galicians, he says, are not so cleanly as the Mennonites, but Dr. Robertson believes they will be quick to imitate and to adapt themselves to the habits of Canadian people. The Galician girls make god servants, being clean, neat and tidy. Their wages invariably go to help their parents. Dr. Robertson says that the Doukhobors, though illiterate -which is not surprising seeing they have been hunted like partridges in their native land-seem to be thrifty, intelligent and very industrious and hardworking. The Icelanders have proven very satisfactory settlers. They adapted themselves very readily to the new conditions. The Swedes and Norwegians in these respects resemble the Icelanders very much. Dr. Robertson does not like the present system of "hiving" the new foreign settlers-i. e., placing each nationality together on blocks of land-although he sympathizes with the desire of these strangers in a strange land to be located side by side, where the same language can be spoken. He thought the future of the country would be better assured if there was a liberal sprinkling of Canadian and British people among the foreigners. The latter would be the sooner accustomed to Canadian habits and ideals. To promote assimilation Dr. Robertson further urges that the text books and language of instruction be in English, as is already the case.

them for purposes of their own. Dr. Robertson aptly likens the Dominion to a huge dumb-bell, the two big ends being the east and the west, and the handle being the uninhabitable strip north of Lake Superior. Unless there is a thorough assimilation, the Dominion, nationally speaking, may be in danger of breaking at Lake Superior in case of any strain or stress. Suppose any trouble were to come with the United States, how would the strain result in the Western Canada? Dr. Robertson admitted that if the Americans knew there were six, eight or ten million loyal people on the north side of the boundary ready to defend their country, they would not think of invading Canada. But if the Americans knew that a number of Canadians were disaffected, the conditions would be changed. Dr. Robertson adds:

It would be also a great help if, among these foreigners, there were ministers who were loyal in sentiment and anxious to have their flock become Can-adlans as rapidly as possible. Again, intermarriage would have a strong effect in inspiring these people with a Canadian sentiment. Dr. Robertson

advocates moving slowly in the matter of conferring the full rights of citizenship on the new settlers. They have not been accustomed to responsible government, and until they have learned our language and can understand the genius of our institutions it would be well to keep them as they are. If the franchise is conferred upon them too soon they may get into the hands of demagogues who will use

"Bear in mind another fact—that hundreds and thousands of Americans are coming in and locating where these foreigners are settled, and you can readily understand that the conditions are aggravated. Mind you, I think that the people coming from the other side loyal, and will yield obedience to our laws. I should be sorry to think otherwise; but it is not difficult to see where their sympathies would go in case of international difficulty unless there has been a real assimilation. Hence the Government should strive to create the conditions under which assimilation can go on most quickly and rapidly. When the foreigners come to understand the rights and privileges which the constitution confers, large amount of liberty they will enjoy and the fact that they are going to govern themselves—that will help them very much, and tend to increase their desire to understand English."

Dr. Robertson has talked over these matters to Mr. Sifton. No doubt the Minister of the Interior fully appreciates the situation, and will address himself to it with the zeal and foresight which he has put into every sphere of duty. The tide of emigration has at last set in strongly toward our great Northwest, and the problem of populating those vast areas is in a fair way to solution. It will remain for Canadian statesmanship to consolidate the various elements of the population by measures wisely designed to give all an improving interest in the country, and so foster the spirit of Canadian nationality.

The current London-made joke is has a point. It is to the effect that the Kaiser, having expressed the hope during Kipling's illness that the life of the writer might, in the mercy of Providence, be spared, has now, since in the interests of the aldermen, and not of the city generally. It will always be the same under the miserable ward system.

Western Ontario Tobacco. It is said the tobacco growers of Western Ontario will form a joint stock company and will pay particularattention to the adaptation of their product to the British market. This is the proper course-in fact, the only course, if tobacco cultivation is to survive at all. The experience this year has shown that the Canadian market will not absorb the whole output of native leaf, and that an outlet for the surplus must be found in the British market. There the Canadian tobacco must meet the American competition. Any further tariff advantages in the home market would be unavailing, not only because higher duties would encourage smuggling, but because the selling price is fixed in the British market, and the Canadian grower must bring his cost of production below that price if tobacco is to be a permanent and profitable crop in this country. According to the English expert, Mr. F. V. Chalmers, who visited the Essex tobacco district, the Canadian growers have much to learn. He pronounced the quality of the native tobacco as good, bad and very bad. Much of it was unfit for use, and it was not packed to suit the English market, Mr. Chalmers, however, admitted that Canadian farmers had an opportunity to raise a good class of tobacco, but it needed time. He even bought a few choice lots at 10 cents per pound, and pronounced it equal to the Kentucky or Virginia leaf. The lesson is one which Canadian farmers have had to learn in other departments, and they have learned it well. Canadian cheese, butter and other products have won their way into the British market only by careful and unremitting attention to the wants of British consumers, and if Canadian tobacco fails to do the same it will be the fault of the producers. They have the assurance of experts that a first-class article can be grown in Canada, and all it needs is proper methods of cultivation, curing and packing, to recommend it to British purchasers.

It is 17 long years since the gerrymander was perpetrated, but today its doom will be sealed.

The Bank of Montreal has announced a profit of 11 per cent for the past year. Owing to the activity of safe-crackers, bank dividends for the ensuing year are liable to fluctuate.

Three bells have been cracked during the Dreyfus debates in the French Chamber of Deputies. The number of deputies who have shared the same fate is beyond computation.

Another big steamship has grounded between Quebec and Montreal. The frequency of these mishaps is alarming. Unless the channel can be made safer we shall begin to think the transportation problem lies east and not est of Montreal.

The coal output in Great Britain last year was 202 million tons, and of the United States 178 million. The mineral productiveness of the British Isles, considering their small area and the length of time their mines have been worked, is almost incredible. It upsets all predictions of their ultimate exhaustion.

Dr. Sproule has given notice in the House of Commons for a motion calling for a Government bounty on beet sugar manufactured in Canada for the next ten years, and for the remittance for the same period of duty on machinery used in sugar manufacture and not made in Canada. There can be no serious objection to the remission of the duty on machinery, but the House should summarily reject the idea of a bonus. The principle is bad, and the sugar tax is too heavy now.

There was a striking exhibit of Britain's naval prowess in Italian waters last month. When the King and Queen of Italy sailed into the Bay of Aranci, Sardinia, they found that of the 21 first and second class cruisers assembled in their honor, 14 were British and 7 Italian, and this in an Italian harbor! The British squadron was not augmented for the occasion, but was the regular Mediterranean force, and included some of the most powerful buttleships in the world

The New England Shoe and Leather Association are unanimously asking that the duty be thrown off hides. The Dingley tariff on hides is 15 per cent, but the benefit goes not to the cattleraisers, but to the big meat-packers. The duty is rightly regarded as a tax on the leather business, but the leather and shoe interests will have to fight hard to get it abolished, as the meat packers have a strong pull at Washington (vide the embalmed beef investigations). In Canada hides are wisely placed on the free list, so as not to handicap our large and growing leather

The Board of Works, owing to the scanty sum at their disposal, had decided not to make ward appropriations this year, but to spend the money where it was most needed. Some of the members became suspicious that Ald. Douglass was grabbing most of it for No. 2 ward, so the Council last night divided the funds almost equally among the six wards. One would think that this year, above all others, the aldermen would refrain from interfering with the streets department. It is ababout the Emperor of Germany, and it solutely necessary that every dollar should be spent where it is most required, and the city engineer should be free to exercise his judgment. Now what little money there is will be spent

What Others Say.

The Expanding West.

[Nelson Economist.] The building boom in Nelson continues unabated. By autumn fully 200 new houses will have been erected.

> A Common Scold [Kingston Whig.]

Hon. Mr. Blair refers to Sir Charles Tupper as a common scold. The old man's egotism is developing with his age, and his own party is finding it difficult to stand him.

Paris Prospering.

[Brantford Expositor.] The Penman Company of Paris today employs 610 hands. In June, 1896, it gave employment to 230. After this fashion is the Liberal trade policy destroying the industries of Brant county.

Barring Married Women.

[Kingston Whig.] "Women who are married," it is announced,"are no longer eligible to teach in the New York public schools." Why? The superintendent of schools explains that "they have not yet been sufficiently evolutionized to serve God, teach school and support a husband." Evidently, in New York, the sphere of the married woman has been considerably enlarged.

> Salisbury's Diplemacy. [Simcoe Reformer.]

Bismarck on one occasion said that the Marquis of Salisbury "is only a lath painted to look like iron." The German Chancellor made a big mistake. There is no statesman in Europe today who has more iron and sand in him than the British Premier. To this is added a wisdom and prudence that puts him at the head of diplomatists. His diplomatic triumphs are notable, and his dealings with France have been marked with a skill and success not often attained.

COVERED WITH SCALES

Shed a Tablespoonful at Night. Hair Full of White Scabs. Offer $100 for Cure. Friend Suggests CUTICURA REMEDIES. Tries Them and is Cured.

Last summer I had company, - a man and his wife. The man's hands and face had dry, scaly sores on them, and his head was covered with the same, his hair being full of those white scales or scabs. His wife said, "Some mornings she would find a tablespoonful or more of them in the bed." I asked him what ailed him, and he replied "that he did not know." "Why don't you cure yourself?" "I would give a hundred dollars to be cured. I have paid out a lot of money, but don't get cured," he said. Well, I told him "I would cure him for less than that," told him "I would cure him for less than that,"
and told him to get the CUTICURA remedies and he would be cured. As he was living in Bristol, Vt., I did not see him for some time after, and then he fairly shouted to me: "I am cured.
CUTICURA has done it. The Lord bless you and CUTICURA." MRS. BARAH E. MINER,

TETTER CURED BY CUTICURA

I had Tetter on my hands for two years. My hands were all cracked to pieces, and bled so that I could not decently dress myself, and they itshed terribly. I tried everything, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried the CUTICURA remedies and they no longer bother me at all.

8 ALLIE E. COPELAND, Woodland, N. C. Sept. 17, 1898.

CUTICURA Begins with the Blood and Ends with The Skin and Scalp.

That is to say, Cutioura Resolvent, greatest of blood purifiers and humor expellers, purifies the blood and circulating fluids of lituars Greens, and thus removes the cause, while warm baths with Cutioura Soap, and genile anointings with Cutioura Soap, and genile anointings with cutics, channe the skin and scale of crusts and cares, cleanse the skin and scale of crusts and scales, allay itching, burning, and inflammation, soothe and heal. Thus are speedily, permanently, and economically cared the most torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scale, and blood, with loss of hair, when all other remedies fall.

NEW PEACH PEST

Red Ants Destroying Thousands of Trees in Berrien, Mich. St. Joseph, Mich., May 16.—Red ants are stripping the foliage of thousands of young peach trees. For years back hundreds of the trees have died, and the cause was attributed to inferior stock or soil. It is now thought to be the work of the ants, which encircle the trunks of trees by the thousands, and in a few minutes crawl upon the leaves, which cannot be seen for the pest. The pests work mostly at night. Many of the leading growers, in hopes of saving trees, have encircled the trunks within a foot of the ground with cotton, which the ents cannot crawl over.

Local Market.

London, Tuesday, May 16. There was practically no market of any account this morning, the heavy rains having kept the gardeners and producemen at home. Buyers were scarce. Some green stuffs were offered, but sales were slow. Prices ranged about the same. Little butter was offered, and eggs were at a premium. No change in prices. A few loads of hay came in, but there was no demand. Meats remained about the same. Considerable was offered.

Mass Meeting at the Grand Opera House Tonight.

Col. Levs. M.P.P., and Other Speakers Will Discuss the Situation-Charges and Counter Charges.

The street railway dispute continues, company and men each endeavoring to make out a case. The real question at issue, however, is whether or not the company will recognize the union.

The men have called a mass meeting, to be held in the Grand Opera House tonight, when the issue will be put before the people. Col. Leys, M.P.P., and other prominent men will be among the speakers.

The men claim that the company is falsifying them before the public, and the company makes a similar countercharge, complaining also that a number of the men are apsenting themselves without leave.

They also furnish the following:
This table shows the number of hours averaged by spare conductors during the same time, and shows that the average hours given to union conductors were 601/2, as against 55 2-7 given to non-union men:

THE MEN'S REPLY. In reply to these and other contentions of the company the men's committee make the following reply: The self-prepared interviews of Manager Carr would be amusing if they did not have a tendency to deceive the public. A good sample is afforded in the statement in regard to the hours worked by union and non-union men, which are entirely misleading. In that list are the names of two union men, who have not worked for the company for months. One of them, E. Magee, left the employ of the company voluntarily one week before last Christ-

The Doctor Certifies

That Mr. Major Owes His Life to the Use of

DJ. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

A Miraculous Cure After 20 Years' Suffering With Backache and KIDNEY DISEASE.

Physicians have learned to recognize the difference between patent medicines and the great private prescriptions of Dr. A. W. Chase, and do not hesitate to indorse and prescribe Dr. Chase's family remedies for the diseases for which they are recommended.

Dr. Gauthier is perfectly familiar with the marvelous recovery of Mr. Major, after twenty years of intense suffering with backache and kidney disease, and certifies that Mr. Major owes his life to the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Dr. J. T. A. Gauthier, of Valleyfield, Que., writes: "I, the undersigned, cer-tify that the contents of this letter, in regard to the cure of Mr. Isadore Major, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, is correct." Mr. Isadore Major, Valleyfield, Que.

Here is Mr. Major's letter: "After 20 years of suffering from backache and kidney disease, I owe my life to Dr. A. W. Chase. I had tried an endless va-riety of remedies to no avail, and on the recommendation of a friend began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two pills that night and two next morning gave great relief, and I continued their use, until now I am completely cured. Mr. friends are surprised and pleased to see me well again, for I spent hundreds of dollars in vain trying to get cured. Before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills my back ached so I could not put on my shoes and couldn't lift twenty pounds. My shoulders were sore. I had headaches and a bad taste in the mouth. These troubles are now entirely gone, and what I say I am ready to prove. I have told my friends of my wonderful told my friends of my wonderful cure, and many have been greatly benefited by using these pills."

mas and received a good job at the Sarnia tunnel on the Grand Trunk Railway. Manager Carr promised to send him on a recommend to Montreal. After working to the satisfaction of the G. T. R. for nearly a month, the recommend of Manager Carr was returned to Mr. Magee by the G. T. K., and he was discharged because he had taken part in the strike in this city last fail, which information Mr. Carr had included in the recommend. Manager Carr would not give Mr. Magee the document personally. If he had done so Mr. Magee would be working for the G. T. R. today. This looks like a black list. Another instance is the case of T. Cassidy, who has not worked since before Christmas. The list, which is carefully selected to suit the aim of Manager Carr, is intended to deliberately deceive the public. Even then the list has no reference to the present time worked, but refers to immediately after the late strike, when Manager Carr's policy was not to get after the association too fast. This is a fair sample of the way in which Manager Carr is telling the truth to the people. We are all well satisfied that the pub-lic will judge for themselves. Our committee are ready and willing to submit every case in dispute to arbitration, which is the way in which the Everett system treats its employes in Detroit. Why do they refuse to accord the same privilege to its employes in London? Just to state one case, though we have others, and can give names, if necessary: One of the spare men, before joining the union, received all kinds of work. But the first pay after he joined the union his wages amounted to $3 20, and out of that he was docked 65 cents on a cap, and the money ne drew was $2 55. This was for half a month's work. (Signed)

J. GARNETT. For the Committee. London, May 16, 1899. To the Editor of The Advertiser:

In The Advertiser of Monday evening, May 15, I notice an article headed "An Abrupt Standstill," publishing a letter addressed to me by a committee of street railway employes. I may say that this letter was deliv-my residence, and that we discussed the matter for nearly two hours in the presence of Mr. Lee, whom the employes brought with them. At that meeting we reviewed the alleged grievances in a general way, and they then and there promised to put them in writing and meet the three local directors at my house on Saturday evening. When they were leaving my house on Friday evening, I offered them the option of meeting the directors alone or with Mr. Carr, when they expressed a preference to meet the directors alone, so I cannot understand their statement "that they were in hopes the manager would be present." We afforded them every facility to state their grievances, and even consented that they should have Mr. Lee present. At the interview with me on Friday night the men were plainly told that they could discuss every clause in the existing agree-ment except the wages clause, which was fixed, and of which no breach was claimed to have occurred. They were also told that the demand for recognition of their union and the employment of union men only could not be enter-tained, and we were very much surpris-ed on Saturday night when we com-menced to discuss the document sub-mitted, that instead of discussing the clauses in the order submitted, they wanted recognition of the union, and when we declined to consider that question they replied "Then we may as well go." We informed them that we considered their organization of the past six months was a positive injury, not only to the company, but also to the men; that there presently existed a lack of discipline and civility amongst the men which did not exist prior to the formation of their union, and that many of the men indulged in bad language and careless behavior when on duty. Mr. Westby, a member of the committee, admitted to us at meeting that they had some bad ones in the union. When we asked them, as an evidence of their good intentions, to give us the names of such and enable us to rid the company of their services, they declined, saying they could not afford to get rid of them. We then in-formed them that until they could demonstrate to us that the union was a factor for good instead of the contrary, we could not recognize it. This plain statement of fact will, I think, convince the public that all the company desires is to conduct their business in the best interests of their stockholders, with comfort and safety to the public, and without interference on the part of their employes. Sincerely yours, T. H. SMALLMAN, Vice-President.

ARE PLEDGED

Trades and Labor Council Promise Moral and Financial Support.

The special meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, held last night, to take action on the street railway difficulty, was the largest meeting of the council ever held. Every union was represented, and Labor Hall was literally crammed. Owing to a meeting of the Bricklayers' Union, proceedings did not commence until 9:30 o'clock.

President Hunter took the chair, and stated the objects of the meeting. It might be necessary for the council to take the most decided action. The existing agreement between the street railway company and the employes had been violated systematically right along and it was no secret that the one aim of the management was to crush the union, but he felt sure that in a city like London, if the necessity arose, there was a spirit of self-sacrifice and determination, not only among the organizations of labor, but among all classes of workingmen, that would rally them to the support of a just cause. It was a question of moral and financial support, and these men, if it came to the test, must have the individual backing of every wage-earner in the city. The speaker would go without a few luxuries himself, if necessary, to sustain the cause, and if the time comes we must show that organized labor was a force that could not be ignored. Other speakers spoke in a similar strain and the enthusiasm was unbounded.

The following resolutions were passed by a unanimous standing vote: That in the event of pacific means failing to adjust the grievances now existing between the London Street Railway Company, and its employes, we hereby unitedly and unreservedly pledge the united and unwavering support of the labor organizations of London, both morally and financially, and we will stand by local division No. 97, as long as it is necessary to secure their rights as British subjects and citizens of Lon-don. The passage of the resolution was greeted with cheers. It was announced that a mass meeting would be held in the Grand Opera House Tuesday even-

DR. J. R. FLOCK IS DEAD

Well-Known Coroner Passed Away About Noon Today After a Brief Illness

Coroner John R. Flock died this morning at his residence, 346 Dundas street, after a few days illness. He was 67 years old. His has been one of the most familiar figures on the streets of London for many years.

Dr. Flock was taken ill on Friday last, with stomach trouble, and Drs. Campbell and Waugh were called to attend him; but despite the best of medical skill he expired at 11:50 to-day, the result of hemorrhage of the stomach.

Dr. Flock was born in Toronto, in 1832, studied medicine at the Toronto School of Medicine, and graduated from the Victoria University. He practiced for a short time at Lambeth, and then spent several years as a surgeon in the American army at Fort Humboldt. He returned to this city about the year 1863, and had resided here continuously every since. Dr. Flock was the oldest coroner in the county, and probably the oldest in the prov-

All the important inquests held in London for many years have been conducted by him. He officiated at the inquest on James Tuttle, the man shot at the Music Hall by W. D. Emerson, and again at the inquest on the late P. C. Toohey. He was to have conducted the inquest on the dead body of Brown after the execution.

Dr. Flock was well known as a kind and sympathetic friend and a man of very strong will-power. He was a life long Conservative. He leaves a widow, two brothers and one sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Morden, London. His brothers are Dr. C. Flock, of Bancroft, Nebraska, and James H. Flock, Q.C.,

Husbands in Police Court at Their Wives' Instance-Charges of Assault and Non-Support.

The matrimonial troubles of two unhappy couples were ventilated at the police court this morning before Police Magistrate Parke.

Ernest Sims, of 8 Center street, or 'Wilson avenue," was charged by his wife with assault. Mrs. Sims is a little woman, with a slight deformity, and has two children, one eight month, and the other three years old. On April 7, she alleged, Sims called the little giri to go to bed, and because she clung to her mother, the exasperated father pushed the little thing out of the back door. The child cried for its mother, and when the father let her in he proceeded to ply the strap. Mrs. Sims interfered, and says that Sims then gave her two blows on the face with his hand. She had been ill ever since.

Mr. Bartram defended Sims, and objected to summary trial. In his crossexamination he brought out the fact that Mrs. Sims was the defendant's second wife, and that Sims had other children of his own.

Mr. McKillop laid another charge against Sims for want of sureties to Mr. Bartram, in cross-examining Mrs.

Garrick Ciub in Vaudeville.

The Garrick Club, which comprises many of Hamilton's nicest and cleverpeople, will appear in a vaudeville performance at the Grand Opera House here Friday evening. The af-fair promises to be the very "swellest" event of the year. Many names in the cast are very familiar to London people. Among them are Miss Bessie Walker, niece of Col. Holmes, of this city, and Miss Carrie H. Crerar, sister of Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Josephine Pilkey, who is one of the sweetest soprano in the world. Misses Jeannette and Leila Lewis, the charming and versatile sisters of Julia Arthur, Mrs. George S. Papps, the well-known leader in Hamilton musical circles, Mr. Frank Firth, and Mr. W. Logan, both former Londoners, and many others, who go to make an all-star cast. **

Wheat sowing in Manitoba is now progressing favorably, a week earlier than last spring, and Hunt Bros. are now hopeful of a plentiful supply of that grandest of wheats for the manufacture of their celebrated "Diamond Flour" for the coming year.

Dr. Platt, ex-M.P., to be Warden of Kingston Penitentiary.

[C. P. R. Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, May 16 .-- An order in council has been passed appointing Dr. Platt, ex-M.P., Prince Edward county, Ontario, to be warden of Kingston Penitentiary, in place of James Metcalf who was commissioned to retire on account of ill-health.

Striking Shoeworkers. To the Editor of The Advertiser: Dear Sir,-As there seems to be some misconception as to the causes that led to the strike of the employes of the Laidlaw & Watson Shoe Company, we would like you to give space to the following true statement of the facts. We have avoided publicity as much as possible, in order that no obstacle might be placed in the way of an early settlement of the trouble; but now that the firm have stated that they will not recognize the committee or the union, we think the time has arrived to place fully before the public our side of the case. Those not acquainted with the situation are under the impression that the matter is a very trivial one, and are inclined to blame the union for taking the extreme measures they did, when, as a matter of fact, there was no other honorable course left open. To get at a proper understanding of the matter it is necessary to go back some time prior to when the strike took place. prior to when the strike took place. The present forewoman has the position about four months—not very long, but long enough to have gained the ill will of every girl in the room. Time and again some of the girls have been goaded to the point of quitting, and have only refrained from doing so through necessity. The girl whom she had discharged had been the victim of her meanness several times before the erisis was reached. It was common talk in the room that she wanted to force some of the girls out in order to make room for her relatives, and to her efforts in this direction can be attributed the strike. Some time previous to the trouble the manager expressed his desire to have the union label placed on the shoes manufactured by the firm, as there was a constant and growing demand for it. Now, in order to secure the use of the union stamp it is necessary that all hands working in the factory shall belong to the union. The men were in the union but the girls were not, and it was the wish of the firm that they should go in. It must be that the forewoman was not consulted in the matter, for, when a committee from the union waited on the girls one day during the noon hour, to explain the case of the union to them, the forewoman (who had been out to dinner) returned and seemed very much surprised at the meeting. It was noticed that shortly after she held a consulta-tion with some of the firm. Then the report was circulated by them that she (the forewoman) had overheard some of the girls say that as soon as they got into the union they would get back the ten per cent reduction they had to stand some time ago. The girls deny ever having said this; but it did its work, and after that there was no more said about the label. In fact, the idea of the girls going into the union was given a frost. However, the girls had been invited to join the union and the men could not go back on it if they would, and would not if they could. Now the forewoman is opposed to unionism, and has so expressed herself many times. Here was her chance, and she took advantage of it. For a while the manager was willing to take back the discharged girl, under certain conditions, on the morning of the day the committee waited on him. A couple of hours after having a talk with the forewoman he not only refused to take her back under any conditions, but also said there was another of the girls whom they would not take back. It so happened that the latter is the girl who was so instrumental in having the others join the union. The inference is plain. She no doubt thought if the girls were organized her system of tyrrany would come to an end. Many of these girls have worked for years for this > clty, and that this trouble is the cause of it. We do not believe the first part of the statement, and we know that the latter part is not true, for they have stated that they were looking around for a place to get a bonus. The other day one of the papers said they had a flattering offer from Leamington. Now they must think the people are fools, for it was only last summer that the papers had a very sarcastic account of the flattering offer. They said in Leamington that if the firm would give them the bonus they (the firm) could have the town. This ellipping they can

There is suffi-cient demand in this vicinity alone for union-made goods to keep a large plant going all the time. Some of the men of means in London have given the men great encouragement, and say whenever they are ready to start they are prepared to take a large slice of stock in the concern. Thanking you in advance for taking up so much Toronto, May 15.—"Yellow fever and of your valuable space, we remain, mallpox combined, do not kill as yours, etc.. GWYN

As her head sunk aginst his shoulder, he stooped, and touched the soft braids of her hair with his lips. At that instant the lace curtains separating the apartments from the inner drawing-room, were pulled back, and Marian Evlands followed by Canand Marian Rylands, followed by Captain Jack, appeared there.

As the scene above described met

Marian's gaze, with a suppressed cry she recoiled, so that the lace curtains, which she still grasped, hid her figure, while it left the officer, with white, ighast countenance, standing full in

The latter event, however, apparently gave him greater delight than even the parties most concerned.

As to Marian, she with difficulty could conceal her fury and disappointment; while Captain Darnley, to Lil's satisfaction, hastily rejoined his company in the Channel Islands. The change in her life had apparently made no alteration in Lady Mary. Yet a close observer would have found she was quieter and more thoughtful. As to Rowland, that one outburst of admiration of friendship-for it was no more-passed, and a terrible revulsion followed.

The succeeding night, when his bedchamber door shut out all the world, like the rush of a suddenly swollen tor-rent, the recollection of Gwyn had come upon him.

"Great heavens," he ejaculated, pressing his hands to his head, "I, too, have been false to love! Did thy infidelity excuse mine? No, a thousand times— no! Because thou wast false, should I have forgotten the love I laid at thy feet? I have sinned against Lady Mary and myself. I can but love thee, my sea-maiden, though thou hast spurned me for another. Hour after hour crept by, but Rowland's bed remained unoccupied. Hour after hour he paced his chamber, with the sensation of a man who had, in a wild fit of mental aberration, committed a crime that, with returning consciousness he regarded with horror.

When he slept, it was in his chair, his arms stretched on the table, encireling the mementoes of his first and only love; his head bent forward, his lips pressed on that dark tress of hair, And he was betrothed to another woman! It was a maddening idea; the more so because he dare take no confidant. In honor, it was too late to Lady Mary had given him her heart. She had allowed him, as her accepted husband, to press those maiden lips, innocent of other masculine kiss than a father's.

The fear that he had wronged her made his mental burden doubly heavy; and, to divert his brain from ideas which threatened to unsettle reason, he applied himself still more closely to his parliamentary duties.

Save a few half-hours devoted, of necessity to his betrothed, he kept incessently at work—so incessantly, that the baronet's delight began to give way to concern.

It was evident that his son's health was giving way. He was thinner, graver. paler. In vain he expostulated. In vain he hinted that not to judiciously harbor physical and mental gifts was as insane as the countryman who cut open the goose for the golden eggs. Rowland listened wearily, then rejoined, with a faint smile:

"Sir, it was you who imbued me with a love for politics; you must not blame me. therefore, if, for awhile, at, least, I take the bit between my teeth, and go according to my own will. Father," and there was expression on the speaker's face which made the baronet avert his. "If I do not work I shall go mad." "But Lady Mary," hazarded Sir Mer-

"Believe me, she will have all my attention and consideration. As far as in me lies, she shall not suffer for accepting a man without a heart."

It had been arranged that their marriage should take place in November, so that the honeymoon might be over and the town residence be arranged before Parliament assembled.

Still as the time passed, each day brought a greater change in Rowland. Concern grew into anxiety; and the baronet caught eagerly at an invitation from Edward Pensleigh, the young barrister, requesting the young M. P. to foin him in a yachting tour to the Hebrides. Howland, however, refused, and would have continued to do so had not Lady Mary interposed, and, with tender Council Decides to Buy a Gravel Pit That's Not Required.

Big Fat-Steck Show Will Be Here in December.

Water for 4,000 Soldiers in June-Breakwater To Be Repaired by Prison Labor-Ambiguous Expression of Confidence in Chairman Douglass' Division of Spoils.

In the face of unparalleled penuty, the city council last night decided to lock up $600 in a new gravel pit, while on the statement of the city engineer the old pit will do the city for two years at least. After this, an order to have a fifth wheel added to each of the wagons used in hauling the gravel may be expected. There is a ray of comfort for the ratepayers in the fact that the motion was carried by only one of a majority, the following eight aldermen voting "nay": Ald. Rumball, O'Meara, Plant, Wilkey, Parnell, McCallum, Greenlees and Winnett. All the mem-bers were present but Ald. Malloch. Ald. Douglass' claws were clipped by way of a tribute to his ward-grabbing propensities. He was accused of spending nearly half of the board of works' total street appropriation in No. 2 ward, and a motion was passed allotting a certain sum for each ward. The council was asked to grant $300, the use of the Western Fair buildings for five days, the use of the city hall for one evening, and permission to charge admission to the fair grounds for an exhibition to be given in December next by the Dominion Breeders' Association. The Western Fair board had granted $300 to the Breeders' Association on the condition that the couneil do likewise.

Col. Gartshore, president of the Western Fair Association, addressed the council in support of the petition. The Deminion Breeders' Association represents the Fat Stock Association of Canada, and the exhibition to be given would be of great importance to the community. In prizes $5,500 would be given, and a large number of people would be attracted to the city by the exhibition. Guelph had the show for some years, and found it ve 7 advantageous. Brantford had it last year, and was eager to have it there again this year. The option was open to the association to go to Brantford, and if the London council did not act on this petition the association would likely decide to go there. To make the grant would be in the best interests of the dity.

Ald. Carrothers moved to grant the

Some of the aldermen raised the "penury" cry, and Ald. Pritchard of-fered to put up $10 himself if every other alderman would do the same. It would be absurd not to vote $300 for this purpose, he said.

Ald. Carrothers' motion passed.

Col. Holmes, D. O. C., wrote informing the council that from May 30 to June 10, 4,000 men and officers would be camped on Carling's Heights, and he asked the city to provide water and electric lighting. One hundred dollars was granted. A claim by the London Rowing Club for $350 from the city for alleged damages done to a right of way leading to the company's grounds was presented by Messrs, Blackburn and Cox. Rered to the sewer committee.

C. Macdonald, of the London Mutual Fire Insurance Company, sent in a claim for $20 damages for injuries sustained by a bicycle accident on Black-friars bridge, May 11. William Scott, of Howlett P. O., also presented a claim for damages for injuries received in March. Referred to No. 2 committee. Ald. Rumball moved to have a bylaw brought in at the next meeting for the issue of $20,000 for school debentures. Ald. Graham seconded.

Ald. Douglass didn't think the council ought to encourage the school board to go on with the buildings. The debentures wouldn't be forthcoming, he The motion to have the bylaw brought in at the next meeting was lost on the following division: Yeas-Ald. Rumball, Graham, Plant, Wilkey, Parnell, McCallum and Green-Nays—Ald McPhillips, Pritchard, Douglass, Jolly, O'Meara, Carrothers, Reed, Winnett, Garratt and Dreaney. Ald. Plant called attention to the fact that if the debentures were not issued the council would be breaking faith with the school board. Ald Rumball—You simply have to put up $3,000 or $4,000 more for repairs if the debentures are not issued.

The mayor ruled that it would take two-thirds vote to rescind the motion assed by the council at its last meetng, and that the bylaw might still be

Ald. Douglass presented the report of No. 2 committee. Aid. McPhillips op-posed the filing of the petition against the construction of a sanitary sewer on Central avenue, west of Richmond street, reported to be insufficiently signed.

A. Macpherson represented the petitioners for the sewer, and put their case so ably that the centra-petition thrown out.

Ald. Douglass moved the adoption of the clause recommending the purchase of a 3-acre gravel pit at the corner of Talbot and Regent streets, from Mr. E. Weld. for $600. Ald. Parnell strongly opposed such outlay. It was wholly unwarranted. The city engineer had advised against it, saying that there is in the present plt 11/2 acres of gravel-all the city will require for the next two years, at least. Ald. O'Meara also opposed the motion. The present gravel pit was good enough for fifteen years, he said. Ald. Douglass' motion to purchase the

The Mayor-It can be done if the council wishes. Ald. Aid. Pritchard—It's just some scheme to benefit about three ratepayers. II the farmers wanted a good road they could come into the city by way of Dundas street.

The representatives for No. 2 ward each spoke strongly in favor of the committee's recommendation. Ald. O'Meara found some of the aldermen inconsistent. They opposed a necessary expenditure, he said, "after voting $600 for a useless piece of ground that they couldn't sell for $00 an acre." The motion to adopt the clause was lost 5 to 11.

Ald. Jolly was single-handed in his opposition to the clause recommending the advertisement of the proposed construction of permanent sidewalks under the new bylaw.

Prison labor will be used to clean out the bed of the river and repair the breakwater. The last clause recommended that the tender of Ben Johnson to construct a sewer in Waterloo street, between Simcoe and Grey streets, for $290, and side drains at 20 cents per foot, be accepted. Ald. Wilkey pointed out that the tenderer was at present employed by the city as a sewer inspector.

Ald. Douglass—I can assure you that if he gets this contract he'll not be an inspector any longer. This was not satisfactory to several of the aldermen, but a motion to refer the matter back to committee was lost and the contract was awarded to Sewer Inspector Johnson. For the hospital committee, Chairman Jolly reported several "extras," and announced a special meeting of the council at the hospital Thursday afternoon, when the contagious pavilion will be taken off the hands of the contractors. Regarding some granitine work, Ald. Jolly said it was done by day-work at 11½ cents, while the low-est tender for the work by contract was 19 cents per yard. Thus a considerable saving was effected by the committee. Ald. McPhillips reported for the legislation committee. The agreement pe-tween the city and the Dominion Government re the erection of a drill shed, passed by the committee, was approved of by the council, and will be forwarded to the government for ratification or rejection. Ald. McPhillips said he had the assurance of Hon. David Mills that the new armory would cost $50,000 at least. In answer to Ald. Carrothers, Ald.

McPhillips said the government's selec-tion of a site would be submitted to the eouncil for approval.

Ald. McPhillips withdrew his motion to prevent the Bell Telephone Company from tearing up the city streets with-out proper authority. He would take action against the company in another way, he said. He also wanted his motion to cancel the grant of $500 to the police benefit fund laid over. Information he had asked for he had not yet received. Chief Williams was present, and offered to furnish the information. But Ald. McPhillips said that would not give him time to "digest" it, and the notice was allowed to stand over.

Ald. Carrothers moved to divide $19,000 of the board of works' appropriation for streets and general improvements as follows: To wards 1, 3, 5 and 6, $3,000 each, and to wards 2 and 4, $3,500 each. He hinted as plainly as he could, without openly accusing Chairman Doug-lass, that No. 2 ward was getting attention at the expense of the other wards. Something had to be done to give the other wards a show. No. 2 ward got $1,000 extra for breakwater expenditure. Ald. Plant didn't approve of ward appropriation in principle, but thought there was a necessity for it in this

Ald. Douglass was in great good humor. There had been some hard knocks for the chairman of No. 2, he said, laughing. The other aldermen laughed also, when they saw what a slight im-pression the "knocks" had made. By the pleasure he got out of the fact that Ald. Carrothers' motion didn't come from any member of the board of works, it was to be inferred that he would have been very much hurt if the contrary had been the case. "Surely," he said, "Ald. Carrothers has no con-fidence in Ald. Reed's ability to look after No. 3 ward, or he would not make such a motion." Turning to Ald. Reed, he asked him if he had not got all he had asked for the ward. Ald. Reed replied that he had. Ald. Carrothers-Ald. Parnell has threatened that he will stop any over-draft, and when the money is all spen where will the other wards come in He remembered the time he had with the chairman last year, he said. Ald. Wilkey-I have confidence in the chairman, but I would like to see $3,000 placed to the credit of the ward.

Ald. McPhillips expressed feelings similarly mixed. Ald. Winnett wanted to know where the $19,000 was to come from. There was only about $7,000 left after deducting $11,000 already spent, and $600 for a

Ald. Jolly thought No. 2 and No. wards should get the entire balance. Ald. O'Meara said West London alone demanded $2,000 this year. To divide the committee's appropriation would encourage an overdraft.

After Serious Sickness

THE HEART AND NERVES NEED STRENGTHENING-THE BLOOD REQUIRES ENRICHING.

Nothing will do this like Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

After such serious diseases as Typhoid Fever, Scarlet Fever, Pneumonia, Diphtheria, La Grippe, etc., the heart and nerves are left in an extremely weakened condition, and the blood is thin and watery.

Getting back health and strength again seems slow

At this time there is nothing that will help a convalescent to health like Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They impart vitality to the heart and nerves, enrich the bloodandinvigorate the whole system. Since the recent epidemic of Grippe, thousands of people have not regained their strength—don't feel their old self yet. A few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will banish all the evil after effects of this disease and rapidly restore health and animation. Mr. T. Barnicott, with Messrs. Hutchinson & Thompson, Aylmer, Ont., made the following statement:

"About a year ago I was quite sick with La Grippe, which left my system in an exhausted condition. "I could not regain strength and was very nervous and sleepless at night, getting up in the morning as tired and unrefreshed as when I went to bed. I was very listless, had no energy, and was altogether in a miserable state of health. "Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got at Richard's Drug Store, changed me from a condition of misery to one of bright and happy healthfulness. They built up my system, strengthened my nerves, restored vigorous circulation of the blood, and in fact made a new man of me. They are a splendid remedy for all enfeebled and nervous conditions, and I heartily recommend them to any one suffering from the after effects of Grippe.' At the non-jury sittings yesterday, before Mr. Justice Meredith, the case of Elizabeth L. McGregor of Caradoc, vs. Robert Kilbourne, of Delaware, was heard. This was an action to recover three acres of land, for an order for the sale of certain lands, and to have an account taken of the rents and profits on the same, and a proper share thereof paid to the plaintiff. The judge refused the application to recover three acres of land, but found in favor of the plaintiff for $300, which is three-quarters of the rent for five years; referred to the master for administration of the estate, and sale of the farm, if the parties desire. No costs to either party, Stuart. Stuart & Ross for plaintiff; Fraser & Fraser for defendant.

OLGA NETHERSOLE TOMORROW NIGHT.

Olga Nethersole will appear at the Grand tomorrow night in her great success, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." An exchange says: "It is not paying Miss Nethersole too high a compliment to say that by her performance in 'The Second Mrs. Tanqueray' she showed Pinero's great play in a new light. It was in this role that Mrs. Kendal made the one great failure of her stage career. Miss Nethersole surprised her auditors last night, and it would be hard to imagine a more beautiful piece of acting than Miss Nethersole showed in the second act. In the scene where she entreats her stepdaughter Ellean to love her. Two or three of the later scenes-particularly the third act finale where Paula peers into the hand-glass and finds her whole life's history written in her face-were superbly done. It is a great pity that Miss Nethersole did not open here in 'The Second Mrs. Tanqueray.' Her Paula is worthy to be ranked with those really wonderful performances of Camille and Denise which she gave during her first two seasons here. The play is beautifully gallant in their bearing they were. mounted, and Miss Nethersole has produced the play in a manner to win praise from Pinero himself. No lover of a great role finely acted can afford to miss Miss Nethersole's Paula .- New York Evening Sun, Jan. 17, 1899.

LONDON PRES. COUNCIL

Drawing Power of the Cross Vs. Drawing Power of Entertainment and Sensationalism.

The regular meeting of the London Presbyterian Council met on Monday evening in St. Andrew's lecture room; Mr. A. S. Macgregor in the chair, during the first half of the meeting, until the arrival of the vice-president, Rev. Walter Moffat. Several items of business were disposed of. Among other things, a vote of thanks was passed to The Advertiser, for having published a verbatim report of the Cromwellian sermon by Rev. Dr. Parker, of London, England, thus giving the community an opportunity of judging for themselves of the opinions so strongly expressed. Secretary Armstrong and Mr. John Macpherson regarded the great sermon as worthy of every commendation.

The topic for discussion traversed the following points: Are our congregations doing all they can to reach those who may be said to be outside regular ministrations? Are our present methods perfection, as to reaching those outside? Do the times call for any change of method or of service? It was pointed out that the real subject was not merely how to draw the crowd, by sensational methods, for example, or by catch-subjects, nor even how to promote church finances by means of the crowd. It was to be presumed that if any congregation did its Wheaton was held yesterday afternoon full religious duty, God would not perfrom the family residence, corner Craig mit it, any more than the individual, and Ridout streets south, to Mount to be left without needed material supplies. Among the suggestions at the previous meeting was this, that Rev. Dr. Smith, of the First Methodist | the power of a congregation, as a drawing-in agency, would be greatly increased if it were possible to create such a warmth of Christian sympathy and equality as would level all social distinctions, at all events, within the congregational circle itself. Another view was that methods were pretty nearly right just as they are. Among other suggestions was the idea that possibly the evening Sabbath service might be capable of greater use in the way of direct ministration to and influencing of those outside; and among the other suggestions was that of all seats being absolutely free and common for that service. None of the suggestions made in any of the papers read were designed so much as criticisms of existing things, as stimulative of suggestions on the great inquiries: 1. Are our congregations too much regarded by ourselves as merely our own comfortable Pullman cars to heaven? 2. Have we any religious duties as congregations to people outside of and at present alienated from the church? The concensus of opinion in the discussion was against any congregation being too anxious to "draw" crowds by musical entertainment, fake texts, or sensationalism of any kind; but that what was needed, apart from personal influences, was an adherence to the earnest greaching of the plain Gospel of Christ, as powerfully, as alertly, as simply as possible.

The discussion was niely and earnest, and considered on the whole one of the best.

ROUTE MARCH OF THE SEVENTH

Great Enthusiasm-Companies Nearly All Filled.

The appearance of the new Seventh Battalion in its first route march last evening aroused a great deal of enthusiasm among the thousands of spectators who crowded the streets along the line of march to watch the boys go by. Very smart in their new, speckless serges, and very soldierly and Some of the lines got a little ragged now and then, but on the whole the boys marched remarkably well, and the few weeks' drill has done wonders with even the rawest of the "rookies." London has every reason to be proud of her Seventh.

The battalion fell in at the drill shed at 8 o'clock, and was marched to Richmond street, via Central avenue; down Richmond to York, west to Talbot, north to Dundas, east to Colborne, north to Queen's avenue, west to Park avenue, and north to Central avenue and the drill shed.

Col. A. M. Smith was in command, and among the other staff officers were Major J. W. Little, Major Hume Cronyn, Adjutant McCrimmon, Quartermaster Graham, Surgeon-Major Piper, Surgeon-Lieut. Ovens. The companies were commanded as follows: No. 1, Major Hayes and Lieuts. Taylor and Murphy; Lieuts. Becher and Harris; No. 3, Capt. Brown, Lieut. Screaton; No. 4, Capt. Reid, Lieut. Brown; No. 5, Capt. Campbell, Lieuts. Bentley and Spittal; No.

6, Capt. Kingsmill and Lieut. Wanless. There were 200 men in line, besides the officers and the band. The ambulance corps was thirteen strong, and the bugle band was in full force. companies are almost completed, and all vacancies are filling rapidly. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good.
