MOCK PARLIAMENT SESSION OPENED

Harold Berman To Give Talks At Law School

Harold Berman, B.A. (Dart.), C.G.S. (London School of Economics), M.A. (Yale), LL.B. (Yale), Professor of Law at Harvard Law School, will be in Halifax next weekend, the guest of Dalhousie Law students.

On the last three days of next week he will deliver a series of lectures to the students as well as sit with them for discussion meetings.

Professor Berman is an authority on Soviet and Public Law and on the Sociology of the Law. These topics will be the subject of his lectures.

While in Halifax, he will be the guest of the Law students. The Law School have paid transportation expenses. It is understood that while he is here, the distinguished visitor will be guest of honor at a dinner given by the Nova Scotia Barristers Association.

It is believed that his lectures will take place at 11.00 on Feb. 21, 22 and 23. Question periods will probably take place in the afternoon.

Voting Intentions Before Tomorrow

Elections: The committee of the Students' Council brings it to the attention of all students taking affiliated courses to Articles 6, Section 5 (g), of the Constitution of the Council, which states that "any students taking affiliated course must declare his or her intention of voting in one or other department or faculty with the secretary-treasurer of the Council of Students before the 15th of Feb., immediately preceding the general election at which he or she intends to vote.

Bernal Sawyer is the secretary of the Council of Students. Phone 2-6201.

Elections Set For March 4; Student Nominations Must Be In By Feb. 19

Election day is set this year for March 4. On this day students will go to the polls and elect their Students' Council for next year, the DAAC and DGAC representative body, Delta Gamma executive and the executive of other campus organizations.

Nominations of candidates to run are made by the separate departments, faculties and societies. They must be submitted to the Elections Committee of the Students' Council at least two weeks before elections.

On the committee this year are Dave Bryson and Rusty MacLean.

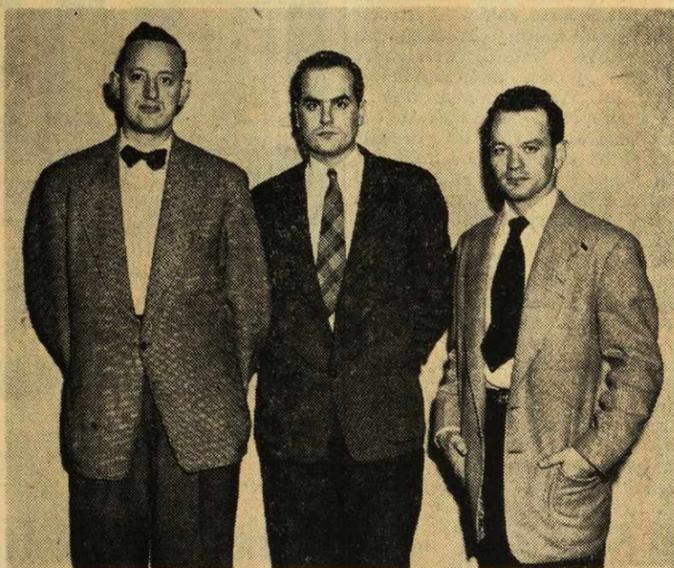

Voting is done by faculty. Three polling booths are set up at points on the campus and the respective faculties vote at the designated one of these.

If a student is registered in more than one faculty, he must inform the secretary-treasurer on the Student's Council as to with which faculty he chooses to vote.

Usually on the Tuesday before elections, a Student Forum is held at which the candidates for the positions of President and Vice-President of the Council present their campaign platforms. This will be held on Feb. 26.

Also at this meeting, it is believed that the student body will be asked to approve a consolidation of the Students' Council constitution.

Campus societies and faculties are requested to nominate their candidates for the executive position as soon as possible to avoid any last minute rush or confusion.

Student Forum Approve Of More Time For Hockey Team

A Student Forum Tuesday morning approved a motion introduced by Varsity Hockey Manager, Newt Demers, which gives the hockey team more time for their games without taking substantially from the student skating time.

Previously, the team had little over an hour for their games. As a result there was no time out for whistles and the games were very much shorter as a result.

NOTICE

There will be an important meeting of the Arts and Science faculty Tuesday at 12 o'clock in the Arts Building. The purpose of the meeting will be the choosing of the candidates for Council offices.

The motion means that the team may play time out games starting at 7:00 Tuesday and 2:00 Saturdays. These games usually last a little over two hours.

This will not interfere materially with student skating time.

The Forum itself ran smoothly. The motion was introduced by Mr. Demers. There was little discussion on it. Ron Robertson wanted to know how the team got in a second league without consulting the Students' Council. This had been an oversight.

After the motion was carried, Bill O'Hara arose to bring a serious matter to the attention of the Council President, Eric Kinsman, who was presiding at the Forum. There had been no notice of the postponed Student Forum posted in the Forrest Building within five days of the event. The Constitution calls for this.

When Bill Roscoe pointed out that there had been no notice in the Engineering Building either, Mr. O'Hara withdrew his motion of censure.

There are no more Thursday night hockey games this term with the exception of the one tonight.

After making several announcements, Eric Kinsman called for a motion for adjournment.

Students' Day Of Prayer On Sunday

Sunday, Feb. 17, is the World Day of Prayer for students. On that day, students in 40 countries all around the world meet for special services, uniting in an act of prayer and intercession. At Dalhousie, the Student Christian Movement is sponsoring a service at the First Baptist Church, at which the Rev. Denton will preach. Special services for students will be offered.

This service will be held in the morning at 10:00. All students are invited to attend.

P. J. O Hearn Delivers Speech From Throne; Debate Ensues

The nth session of the Mock Parliament started Tuesday night. Following strict parliamentary procedure and observing sincere dignity, members of the Law School filled the benches of the various parties in the Munro Room of the Forrest Building. Peter J. O Hearn, Q.C., city prosecutor, delivered the speech from the throne in which he mentioned the bills which his ministers were to introduce.

The first sitting got underway at eight o'clock. The Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, Prof. W. E. Lederman, informed the House that their presence was required by the Governor General in the Senate Chamber. Led by the music of a bagpipe, the members filed into the Moot Court Room.

Prof. Graham Murray, speaker for the Senate, asked them if they had elected a speaker yet. Replied Prof. F. W. Carruthers, Clerk of the Lower House, 'no.' So back they went.

Rt. Hon. Phil Woolaver, Prime Minister, moved F. Bissett, Q.C., be speaker. This gentleman then moved to the chair of that office. Then back to the Senate Chamber to hear the speech from the Throne.

Back in the House again, the debate in reply to the Speech from the Throne started.

B. Douglas, Grenville, Grenada, delivered the first speech which was rated as about the best of the evening. Other speakers were Bob Webster, leader of Her Majesty's Opposition, Vaughan Baird, leader of the Maritime West Party, Bob McInnes, Phil Woolaver, Neville Lindsay and Bill Smith.

Speaking in French on the debate were Jean Richard, (Lib.-Ottawa East) and Jean Vincent (B.C.-Ottawa East). There seemed to be some dispute as to which ought to be representing that constituency, but for the purposes of harmony both were allowed to remain.

No bills were introduced. These took place last night.

Bills introduced by the Liberals were An Act Respecting Construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway and An Act Respecting the Widening of the Divorce Laws. Debate took place on these last night.

Tonight the Conservatives introduce their bill which concerns compulsory military training. Maritime West are introducing a bill which calls for the annexation of the United States to Canada.

Parliament ends tonight for another year.

Carleton Approves Russ. Student Visit

OTTAWA — (CUP) — The proposed visit to Canada of fifteen Russian students was approved last week by Carleton College students.

To date, students of thirteen Canadian universities have supported the Russian visit and three camps have rejected it.

Reconsideration of the proposed posed tour of Canadian campuses will be taken in by the executive of the National Federation of Canadian University Students at a meeting to be held in Ottawa this month.

Requests Goods For Rummage Sale

The I.S.S. society are going to hold their annual rummage sale as a drive for funds. It will be held February 23, in St. George's Hall at 2 p.m.

The I.S.S. are hoping that the students will co-operate with this drive by bringing clothes, toys, or such like articles to the Gymnasium. Donors are requested not to bring their donations to the Gym until after Wednesday of next week.

No Classes Tomorrow

The body of His late Majesty, King George VI, will be laid to rest tomorrow. A day of mourning has been proclaimed in Canada. Most of the stores will be closed and movie theatres will stay shut till six o'clock.

There will be no classes at Dalhousie. No special service will be held on the campus, but Dr. Kerr has suggested that students attend the services at their respective churches.

Preparing For D-Day

Plans for D-Day are rapidly shaping up under the preparation of the Dalhousie Public Relations Board. Dal students on that day take over the radio facilities of station CJCH (dial 920).

D-Day this year is on March 10, or at least most of it is. It starts at 6.00 a.m. on that day and continues till 7.00 on the morning of Mar. 11 which, by the way is Munro Day.

The first meeting of those taking part in the program is on Monday night at 7.00 in the Chemistry Theatre. At that time they may attempt to have the auditions.

All students are eligible to take part in this operation; in fact they are more than welcome. There is work for announcers, script writers, record library work, news room work.

King's Players To Present "Male Animal"

The riotous three-act comedy, "The Male Animal" will be presented Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 19th and 20th by the King's Players in the Queen Elizabeth auditorium.

The play, chosen by King's from their annual production is an uproarious comedy of the battle of the sexes written by James Thurber, well known author, lecturer and playwright of the American stage and Elliott Nugent. It was a highly successful screen play some years ago.

In the lead roles as Ellen Turner and Prof. Turner, are Margaret Currie, first year Art's student at King's and John Farmer. Others in the cast are George Burchell as Dean Damon, John Denham as Pat Stanley, Collin Bergh as Mike O'Brien, Dave Lennerton as Ed Keller, Else Clark as Mrs. Damon, Eric Potter as Joe Ferguson, D'Arcy Puddington as Cleo, Hanson Dowell as Wally Myers and Bill Hills as Nutsy Miller.

Produced by Dave Bishop, well known King's student who has been active in many of the Players productions and Warren Nelson, the play marks the 4th year since the Players returned to activity with the highly successful "Outward Bound".

Tickets are $1.25 and $1.00 reserved and 75c general. They may be obtained at Phinneys, or the King's business office or at the door the nights of the presentation.

An Outcome And A Decision

Several decisions of the Maritime member universities of the National Federation of Canadian University Students at their conference last weekend should call forth some interesting comments and debates on the various camps and on the executive meeting of the organization to be held in Ottawa this month.

This will be particularly so in the case of the demand by the delegates that the parent NFCUS organizations move to develop a strong national program and leave international affairs to the other organizations equipped to work in the field. This feeling, it would seem, is fairly general in the Maritime universities, and is largely the result of the Russian student visit question which swept Canadian camps last fall. The Dalhousie Student Body expressed this opinion at the first student forum of the year when they showed a dissatisfaction with what NFCUS was actually doing for them. It was felt that at 20c per student more could be accomplished by the organization that had been in past years. The question arose again more strongly in the debate on the Russian student visit when several of those who spoke against the move held that it was a matter outside the sphere of NFCUS activities and should be left to organizations such as I.S.S., whose work lay in the international field.

In line with this feeling also, was the recommendation of the conference that NFCUS and I.S.S. local committees co-operate more closely in their activities on the campus and that amalgamation on this level might even be a good step.

Such co-operation is not now the general practice of universities outside the Maritimes. Dalhousie, however, in the past year, exhibited the success such co-operation could have, when the two organizations worked together on the Black and Gold Revue. The success amazed even the most optimistic. Co-operation also enabled the two groups to bring in an outside artist, Rawhide, which action would hardly have been feasible for one organization working alone.

These Maritime demands will be made to the national organization at the executive meeting in Ottawa this month. If no action is taken on them it is entirely possible that the Maritime universities will withdraw from the organization. The outcome of the conference will be interesting to watch.

Diary Of Liz Peeps

Feb. 1—Did awake early and was called by Arood Forestedge who did tell me of the great times held by all at the r1e hat weekend. Did hear that one meat-ball ike did find the spirits of the evening overpowering and did retire under the table, leaving Cable Code to the mercy of his fellows. Me thinks there were many aching heads today.

Fri.—Arose early and did wander into the refreshment booth where did see one Beich Hailot discussing at great length the theatrical attributes of one Joy In-valley and Josephor Myrrhaue and H. H. Mand-meter did interrupt the conversation by expressing his appreciation for the nocturnal scene, which started all the male attention. Me thinks the audience did find it to be most enjoyable.

Wed.—Awoke at dawn and was greatly saddened by the death of our beloved Monarch. Wandered up to Dulhousie and was attracted by great wailings from Marmalade Hovel Misses, who were saddened by the cancellation of that great "Get Your Man Week". Did accompany the dames to the Hovel and arrived in time to hear Miss Cutit using sound language with Xmas Song Hot and Buttery Bushfluer for hearty laughs from Knave McSharp and Smilie MacCoy.

Sat.—Did journey late at nite to pick up my spouse at the Lady Hamilton. On the way did meet Dirty McRelativeupon wondering his spirited way to see Strokey McSunshine. Did find my better half in the midst of a wedding with Fata Groan members, who were ending their banquet in a jolly way. While dragging afore-said piece of humanity up Souse Avenue did notice that Pigma Sty was in darkness, but did hear a shrill scream of agony coming from within. Further up the street did meet Lens Deedsdaughter and Irish Roostersdaughter.

Mon.—Arose early and did accompany my husband to the college on the hill where I was greeted joyfully by the future Mrs. Gymnasium Hander, who a few days before had received her diamond circle. Did hear tales of the marriage of Punch McSharp to be held in September. Also did hear rumours of the wishes of Supper Bellhop for such a do on the same day.

Tues.—Did sleep in this morning, but this afternoon did stop in at WOODS campus where did hear of great preparations for that annual tradition "Make-fun-of Government". After a meagre repast of the staff of life did go to the freeze to watch out Rabbit's boys lose disasterly to Percy's INLET. Did see Dr. Auto sitting on the players bench deep in conversation with Pal Waiter. Happened to linger after the game and did see the ice hockey manager engaged in deep talk with Miss Roosters. Did also see Miss Berry Give, who did tell of their victory at the Apple Knocker College in the sport of netball. Failed to see Morning Forestedge and Miss Wawnold gliding by in their usual manner. Being bored did leave the freeze to return home to meditate about the eligibles of the opposite sex who I can covort with during "Get Your Man Week" as I am getting fed up with putting the old souse to bed every nite.

Delta Gamma Has Long History

The Delta Gamma Society of Dalhousie University was organized on Sept. 22, 1899. "The object of this Society is to stimulate interest in literature, science, and philosophy; and to give practice in presentation of subjects." So reads the object as written in the constitution, but we look at its functions today, this means a bit out-dated. Every lady student of the University is automatically a member of Delta Gamma.

The Society is going to enter a play in the Connelly Shield Dramatic Competition. It sponsored the Shirreff Hall Open House which was held last November.

A few of the Sadie Hawkin's Week activities will be held at a little later date. Among them are the bridge at the Hall and the dance. These events will no doubt go off as successfully as they would have this week.

Sadie Hawkin's Week which is now Delta Gamma's main social function was introduced to the world by Al Capp. Dalhousie Daisies coming from hillbilly stock were by no means tardy in inaugurating this coveted week into their curriculum. Many lone Wolf Gal calls will be heard this Friday night on the campus. These hair-raising pells will be a vocal expression of disappointment due to the necessary of the date of the dance.

The Eternal Masculine

In the French Parliament, one of the Deputies, making a speech urging the improvement of the legal status of women, cried: "After all, there is very little difference between men and women!"

With one accord, the entire Chamber of Deputies rose and shouted as one man: "Vive la difference!"—Milton Wright, The Art of Conversation.

Debating and dramatics are both active concerns of Delta Gamma.

D.G.A.C. Hockey Notes

Do you remember what happened last year in Girl's Ice Hockey? Surely you do, but here's a reminder just in case those glorious scores have slipped your mind. When our pucksters met Mt. A., it was 14-2 and 11-0 for us, led by those hot-shots Joyce Carney and Helen McLeod. Even the Acadia Axettes felt our sharp claws when the Tigresses downed them 13-3. Windsor went home defeated, 14-6. In addition, Dal carried away the City Title, after playing two Maritime Tel. and Tel. teams, and some really rough and tumble games with the newly-formed Engineerettes.

As a result of these terrific wins, Mr. A. M. Smith of Halifax, very kindly donated a trophy to the Dal Team as the Maritime Girl's Ice Hockey Champions.

This year, the team is just as enthusiastic about the game, and confident in their ability to win the Intercollegiate Title — the chance they'll have a week from this Saturday, Feb. 23, when Mt. A. and Acadia will be here for a Round Robin Tournament. Under the capable coaching of Dave Jardine, the girls are out to do their best, so be sure to be there next Saturday at 1:00, when the games begin. You wouldn't want to miss the chances of seeing Dal win another Intercollegiate Title, now would you?

Men Beware

Well men, today is Valentine's Day! Cupid with his supply of arrows is on the loose, and it is reported that the girls are helping him to aim the darts right in your direction. These are just a few words of advice from some sympathetic females for those of you who are not quite as clever as you think you are at avoiding the wily plans of women during Co-ed Week and Leap Year.

First of all you should be aware that there are few places on the campus where the poor unintelligent male can be free from the designs of the co-eds. The rink is one of the spots where you should be sure to have your wits about you. Nurses as well as co-eds are on the warpath there! How many females will you find fallen on the ice just waiting to be "picked up"?! Joe's and the cafeteria are ideal places for a girl to wangle a free cup of coffee from a simple-minded unsuspecting male.

In fact, about the only safe place for you in the city is the tavern. No doubt this is something you do not need to be told!

Watch out for the sports enthusiasts. We often wonder if the attendance of women at hockey and basketball games is prompted by an interest in athletics or in athletes. Those of you who are swimmers take care not to be dazzled by the female pulchritude of those who don their bathing suits at Stadacona each week. Above all do not be fooled by one of the more ingenious events planned by women, D.G.A.C. night.

The apparently studious gal has almost got you hooked, men. When you next visit the library watch for the girl whose head pops up every time the door opens. You should know, too, that the female that comes to you perplexed by Chemistry has other problems on her mind.

If, unsuspectingly, you walk a girl home to Shirreff Hall you will know you are in danger if she seems to linger in front of an alcove.

And above all, men, beware of the sympathetic type who tell you how to escape the wiles of other women.

Saint Valentines Day

The two most celebrated saints with the name of Valentine are the two whose festivals fall on Feb. 14. One was a Roman priest, the other, Bishop of Terni. Both belonged to the reign of the Emperor Claudius, and both died on the same day. Until nearly the close of the nineteenth century the custom of sending "valentines" i.e. anonymous love tokens on St. Valentine's Day was fairly general. They gradually lost their original significance, and the custom, where it survives, has become completely vulgarized.

Leap Year

(Second in a series of Columns written by Harold Buchwald of The Manitoban, Undergraduate newspaper of the University of Manitoba. Ed.)

By HAROLD BUCHWALD

Winnipeg, (CUP) — After a three-year absence, emancipation of "girl" in boy-girl relationships is with us again. It is said that when they were setting up the calendar many hundreds of years ago, they discovered that fickle ole' sun preferred to remain around one day extra every four years. This day naturally had to be accounted for, and in a gesture of unprecedented benevolence, they gave this extra-day every four years to little February, the mite among months.

Being a resourceful type, woman immediately claimed this extra day as her own. Her arguments ran something like this: Man is master of every situation every day of every year. You've got this extra day, and it's just a teensy-weensy iddy-biddy one every four years. Whaddya say, big boy?

And so man gave her February 29 as woman's very own. But man underestimated his foe, and, being the resourceful type, woman drove home the thin edge of the wedge she had thus established, and now she has the whole year—officially. Soon they named it "Leap Year," upon discovering that every year in four woman was leaping at the opportunity, and man was leaping out of the way. Historical data, released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, reveals that more of the former have been successful than the latter.

At first man tried to fight against it — after all man is the rational animal. The draughtsmen of the American institution decreed that every fourth year there should be elections for the president of that great republic, hoping that the populace, both male and female, would be so absorbed with this quadriennial three-ring circus they would forget about leap year. There was also the underlying suggestion that to think of anything but elections every fourth year was un-American.

But even the members of the constitutional congress, those paragons of so many other virtues, underestimated their foe. An eternal orchid for subtlety must go to she who successfully cultivated the idea that it is only consistent of woman to run for man at the same time as man is running for office.

The hand that rocks the cradle is always careful to school her daughter for the time when the younger one must go into the world and find a mate. Consequently, technique after technique is passed down from generation to generation, with slight adaptations to particular environmental conditions. Only the blatant aspect of this purpose is revealed during Leap Year. Actually, woman's aim in life remains fixed all the time.

The late, bewiskered George Bernard Shaw (a married man himself) warned his brother men in Major Barbara, when he stated: "A man chases a woman until she catches him." Therein lies the key to the whole matter. By playing on man's vanity, by allowing man to think he is the master of the situation, woman leads man into the trap which he springs for himself when he proposes and she generously accepts. Then he spends the rest of his life blindly recounting how he wooed her.

Coyness and reluctance, with just the right degree of interest seem to be the main characteristics of the various techniques utilized by woman. Such feminine statements as "You really want little old me to go out with you" should put the would-be bachelor on his guard, but the natural line of reasoning which inevitably follows is: well, I must really be something, and here's a girl that appreciates it, at last. He's hooked.

The girl who seems distant and aloof is equally dangerous. To the average man she presents a challenge (that damn vanity again), and in the process of meeting the challenge . . . well, you know the rest.

There is the type who plays a number of her gentlemen friends off against each other until the one she wants finally comes through to keep her away from the rest.

The sneakiest trick of all, however, is utilized during Leap Year itself. This is the habit of running pictures of eligible bachelors on the society pages of the newspapers. This is as much as to say: "Here are your targets, girls." The effect on men is the desired one, for, although openly ridiculing the unfortunates selected by the society editor, they are secretly jealous and set out to show they are just as eligible as the eligibles pictured.

By being on his guard against these mixed subtle and blatant activities, the average male may yet survive 1952. Let this be the clarion call for the preservation of bachelorhood . . . oops, there goes a button off our shirt—and we wanted to wear it to the sorority party tonight.

The Cocktail Hour

Between the dark and the daylight
When most of us feel pretty sour,
Comes a lull for a lovely libation,
Which is known as the cocktail hour.

Tis then that the frat houses open,
And people appear by the score;
The bar it is merry with music,
And cig butts cover the floor.

The beer has froth like Niagara,
The gin bottle gurgles its tune,
Your nose is as red as a rosebud,
Remember that twelve o'clock's soon.

The drinks have de-frosted the frigid,
The glasses go clinkity-clink,
And when that last cocktail goes in you
It's time for a trip to the sink.

A feeling of joy sneaks upon you,
Your black and gold banner is furled;
In other words, Brother, you're plastered,
So watch where your Frat pin is hurled!

DAL DEFEATS ST. F. X. 45-43

Tuesday afternoon the girls' Varsity basketball team taxied to Acadia to meet the Acadia girls' team, last year's Maritime Intercollegiate Champions. The Dal girls, sparked by the play of forwards Joan Johnson and the Woodside twins, posted their second win in intercollegiate play, defeating Acadia 27-17. Eleanor Woodside was top scorer with 14 points, followed closely by sister Elaine, with 10 points. The return game with Acadia will be played in our gym on Friday, February 29, at 2.00 p.m. As yet, plans for Mt. St. Bernard to play our team again, have not been finalized.

The girls' intermediate basketball team plays in the Intercollegiate Round-robin this Saturday at Acadia. Kings, Dal and Acadia, are the only colleges entering a team.

In the City League, the first team plays the Blue Cagettes Thursday night in the Dal gym at 7.30 p.m. Cagettes defeated the Varsity girls by three points when they played two weeks ago, and so far, are undefeated in the league this season. Next Monday, February 18, in the Dal gym, the second team plays the Kings team at 7.30, and at 8.30 Dal's first team plays Arcade.

As a result of the Dal badminton tourney held Monday and Tuesday, in the gym, Jans Wilson, the new champion, will represent Dal in the singles in the Intercollegiate tournament at Mt. Allison next week. In the ladies doubles Ethel Smith and Sally Roper, will be Dal's entry. The tournament is being held next Wednesday and Thursday: on Wednesday the intercollegiate tourney will be played, and on Thursday, a round-robin tournament will be held. The team will leave with Miss Rowley Tuesday afternoon.

The swimming team has been practicing regularly the last few weeks under the supervision of Mr. Tripannier, and is entered in the intercollegiate meet, tentatively scheduled for March 7, at Acadia. Those already named for the team are Frances Murphy, Joan Johnstone, Eva MacMackin and Caroline Weld.

Dal did it. They stopped the St. F.X. machine. They stopped the X quintette with a 45-43 win in the Day gym, climaxing a tense, hard fought basketball game. The Xaverians were riding a 24-game winning streak which Dal broke by their narrow win.

Badminton Tournament

Vic Burstall finished up the Dal badminton tournament as a triple winner. After he and John Smallman teamed up to win the men's doubles and after Vic won the mixed doubles, he came out the victor in the men's singles final match against Alf Gordon.

The most outstanding matches of the tournament were played in the ladies' singles, men's singles and the men's doubles. The ladies' singles final was played between Sally Roper and Jans Wilson. After a long and hard fought three game match Jans came out as the victor with scores of 11-2, 11-13, 11-9. The final of the men's doubles was another of those long drawn out three game matches. John Smallman and Vic Burstall finally won the event with scores of 6-15, 15-7, 15-7. The semi-final match in the men's singles was, as was remarked, good enough to be a final. It took a match of three games for Vic Burstall to finally defeat Bud Alberstat.

The ladies doubles event was won by Sally Roper and Jans Wilson who defeated Heather Hope and Ethel Smith in the final round by scores of 15-11, 15-11. Ethel Smith and Vic Burstall won the mixed doubles by defeating Chris MacKichan and Alf Gordon by scores of 15-10, 15-11.

The semi-finals of the girls' singles was played between Sally Roper and Ethel Smith and Nita Sederis and Jans Wilson. Sally and Jans reached the finals.

The men's semi-final singles brought to its round Vic Burstall, Bud Alberstat, John Smallman and Alf Gordon. Vic and Alf went on to the finals with Vic arising as men's singles champion.

The Dal Badminton tournament was a great success and although a boys team will not be sent to the inter-collegiate tournament a girls team will be. This tournament is being played next week at Mount A.

Taking the lead early in the game on shots by guard Scott Henderson the Dal men never completely relinquished the hold they hand on the score. Tight defensive play with both teams handling the ball with care kept the score down.

The close defensive play kept Referees Alf and Snowden Johnson on their toes as they called twice as many fouls against St. F.X. as against Dal, 18 for St. F.X., 9 for Dal. The game was won on the foul line with Dal potting 11 points on their 18 chances with St. F.X. notching five points on their nine attempted.

The game seesawed up and down the floor with St. F.X. maintaining a floor supremacy but Dal the scoring potential. Close defensive work on Dal's part kept the big men of St. F.X. at bay cutting down their shooting chances, although they hooped 19 field goals to Dal's 17. Big Mike MacDonald garnered 8 points but his ability in keeping Howie McNally from scoring is evident in the fact that he only scored 7 points. A slim margin of difference but Howie McNally hindered Mike scoring while being penalized four times. Mike only scored twice. These are facts and figures that show the close edge in play.

The little man on the Dal squad, Al 'Bebo' MacKeen sparked the Dal team stealing the ball from the bigger X-men and by being a constant pest to the Xaverians offensive attack. Chuck Connelly, though definitely not one of the bigger men proved to be the difference between a Dal win or loss. Notching a 3 for 5 average at the foul line while chucking in two field goals Chuck amassed seven points among which was Dal's final basket scored with less than two minutes to play in the game. Pat Conley of St. F. X. scored their final basket with a little less than a minute to go. Pat starred for the Xaverian quintette tickling the twines for 14 points. A hook shot-specialist, Pat displayed some of the finest ball handling ability seen since last time St. F.X. played here with Hank Proper on the controlling end of the sphere.

Purcell's Cove Win 4-2 Sullivan Stars In Defeat

By FRED HOLLETT

Uninspired by their Student Forum victory and the presence at the game of university president, Dr. A. E. Kerr, Dal's floundering hockey Tigers went one down in the best two out of three semi-finals for the championship of the North West Arm Hockey League as they were dropped 4-2 by an eight man Purcell's Cove Pirates team at the South Street freeze last Tuesday night.

Although late in starting, the game kept the sparse crowd on their toes throughout the night as the teams put on a fast, but somewhat ragged display of hockey. It was in the final period, at a time the shorthanded Pirates were expected to tire, that they gained their two goal advantage over the locals.

It was obese Syd Clarke who replaced the absent Gil Banfield as Dal's public enemy number one, as the jovial gumshoe figured in three of the Cosairs four goals. Reg "Eager" Beaver, although pointless for the night was by far the top Tiger on the ice.

Big Wills Parsons made up for the twenty-minute delay in starting the game, caused by the non-arrival of the Bucs, as he caught a Cove pass at centre ice and without a Pirate defenceman back soloed in on little Hughie Mullane for an unassisted tally with the game but sixteen seconds old.

Seven minutes later Clarke intercepted a passout on a Dal ganging attack, and with White and Anglin draped from his frame beat Sullivan on a shot that never left the ice.

The second session, although scoreless was both fast and furious with both teams guilty of erratic shooting and both goalies with brilliant saves.

The locals again jumped to the fore early in the final frame as Don Murphy, sporting a headgear as a result of an injury picked up in Saturday's Tech game, banged a Scarfe rebound high into the left corner at 1:16 on a play initiated by White. That terminated the Tigers scoring for the evening, but the Cosairs, taking full advantage of a very loose Dal defence, went on to get three more tallies.

The first of which came at the 6:15 mark as Harper poked in a bouncing puck from outside the Dal crease. Seven minutes later Landry ripped through the Dal rearguard to jam an Icton rebound into the Dal cage. Then scant seconds later came the goal that only too clearly explained why the local defence could best be described as a mirage, as Icton banged the rubber behind a frozen Sullivan, the latter unmoved after his brilliant stop on a Clarke breakaway.
