The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

A FOETICAL ESSAY

UPON

BAPTISM.*

Pedobaptist. When God made man a living soul
To people earth from pole to pole,
He made a covenant with the whole :
Infants unborn were in the roll,
Therefore they were not Baptists.

Baptist. Alas! man's woe was heard full well a
When he broke covenant and fell :
His nature changed from heaven to hell, b
And wicked children did rebel. c
Were they all Pedobaptists ?

P. When wickedness rose up its crest,
And evil ones became a pest,
Almighty wrath broke up the nest,
And infants perish'd with the rest.
What think ye of it Baptists ?

P. Again the world must peopled be,
So with the great divine decree.

* All the verses marked P. in the following Poetical Essay upon Baptism, were written by a Pedobaptist and styled "THE BAPTIST MONITOR," in answer to which, the verses marked B. were written.

a Gen. iii. 17. b Gen. i. 27, vi. 5. c John viii. 44.

The blessing comes both full and free,
 And infants share with you and me.
 Old Noah was no Baptist.

B. When men by Satan were deceived,
 Till they the Holy Spirit grieved, a
 Eight adults on God's word believed,
 And were from sudden death reprieved.
 Pray were they Pedobaptists?

B. Baptism's figure must be tried, b
 And heaven's windows opening wide,
 The broken fountains rolled a tide, c
 Above, beneath, round every side
 Of these eight faithful Baptists.

P. Next Abraham comes into view ;
 With covenants he had much to do :
 His ways were faithful just and true,
 And infant claims were nothing new.
 Mark well the word ye Baptists.

P. That faithful, great, and good old man
 Well understood the gospel plan :
 The promise in broad numbers ran,
 To infant seed—deny who can.
 Give ear ye simple Baptists.

P. The nation's father is his name
 No other man has such a claim,
 And does it not remain the same ?
 If infants fail, who are to blame ?
 It seems to be the Baptists.

P. The promise runs through ages all,
 For Jesus has the power to call,

 But God spared not the natural breed, f
 Because by nature man's a weed !
 What think'st thou Pedobaptist ? g

Are the believers' natural seed
 All members of Christ's Church ? Indeed t h
 Is this the Pedobaptist creed
 By which church membership they plead ?
 Then farewell Pedobaptist.

Here in a desert barren land,

P. Our Lord, when on the earth he stood,
 Confirmed the blessing, made it good,
 The simple ones in sullen mood
 Strove to keep back the infant brood—
 Much like the modern Baptists.

B. They who to Jesus infants brought,
 Say was it sprinkling that they sought ?
 Or was it sprinkling that they got ?
 'Twas to be prayed for. Was it not ? d
 What says the Pedobaptist ?

B. Baptism's rite was then in use, e

 Who seemed to think he should not.

B. 'Tis true, Christ sets some children free, h
 And such in Heaven will happy be ;

B. And when they're carried, can they taste ?

B. May he, who blessed some once, arise
As others grow, to ope their eyes,
And to salvation make them wise :
Thus pray, and give them good advice,
As do the Christian Baptists.

P. The Holy Spirit did descend,
To spread the word to the world's end,
The stubborn will of man to bend,
And infants' causes to defend
Against unruly Baptists,

P. When Peter preached the word of life
To win the Lamb a loving wife,
About the promise made no strife.
Infants felt not the pruning knife.
How much unlike the Baptists !

P. Peter the ancient promise knew,
And still he kept the same in view,
Miraculous gifts were for a few :
Infants with them had nought to do.
Look well and see ye Baptists.

B. The gospel promise is to all
That will believe, says worthy Paul : b
And Peter says to great and small—
As many as the Lord shall call. c
Do read it Pedobaptist.

 What say the Pedobaptists ?

a Col. ii. 14. b Luke xii. 50. c Acts ii. 41. d Luke i. 76.
 e John iv. 1. f John iii. 22. g Mat. xxvi. 26, 27, 28.

- B.* By John, Christ's way prepared they saw,
In which they quickly found a flaw,
Condemned it, for being under law,
Yet did from Moses sprinkling draw,
And railed against the Baptists.
- P.* This holy rite now let us view,
God's children take it old and new,
Are crucified and buried too,
And dead with Christ, if Paul be true,
Cross and sheet wanting, Baptists.
- B.* The christian's baptism let us view,
When dead to sin they're buried too, a
And raised to walk with Christ anew ;
But show us how this figure true
Is found in infant sprinkling.
- P.* The Baptist brood with errors rough,
At Bible truths may bark and puff,
With Munster slime, and Newlight stuff ;
But judgment comes, and that—enough.
Be on your guard ye Baptists.
- P.* The blood of bulls, of goats or rams,
Will sooner furnish saints with palms,
Than errors black, or fits or qualms,
With Jesuit-logic, or Watts's psalms
Can clear up truths for Baptists.
- B.* If it be justice to retort,
May I not ask, to stop you short,
Upon the forehead of what sort
Is "MOTHER OF HARLOTS" set by art ?
Pray tell us Pedobaptist.

a Rom. vi. 4.

- B. When angels pour wrath's vials even, a
 Will thousands sprinkled, not be driven
 Where Watts's hymns, and songs of
 Will ne'er be sung, or new names
 What think'st thou Pedo
- B. When unlike Watts a writer ro
 Must have recourse to "bark an
 With "Munster slime, and Newlight stum
 'Tis time to quit that is enough,
 To show what spirit leads him.
- P. Say O my soul how canst thou stay,
 And see thy friends thus led astray,
 To Satan's errors made a prey.
 O let me hasten far away,
 And bid farewell to Baptists.
- B. Lord, take the beam from's eye I pray,
 Restore him, for he is astray,
 And when he goes, may't be away,
 To realms of everlasting day,
 To sing thy praise with Baptists.
