SOBERTON. MONDAY, JUNE 13.—A picnic given by the lodge of Chosen Friends, was held in Delta on Saturday last. In spite of the unpleasant weather, a number from here attended and report favorably of the proceedings. Friday evening about fifteen of our young sports gathered on the foot-ball grounds and engaged in a lively and noisy game. There is strong talk of reorganizing the team. Miss Blanche Taber, Elbe Mills, recently spent a few days at home. Mr. Wm. Longworth, Frankville, renewed old acquaintances here on Sunday last. A number of our young people spent a very pleasant time at the home of Miss Bertha Webster on Thursday evening. Mrs. E. J. Sufell and Mrs. J. E. Johnson spent Wednesday with friends in Athens. Mr. John Frye is erecting a silo. A. Follett, our genial carpenter, has the job. Messrs. Rod, Roddick and Will Frye assisted Delta in the foot-ball match against Chantry on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Chant were guests of Mr. Wm. Grey, Washburn's Corners, on Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Taylor is visiting at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Jno. Taylor. Mr. Jack Downey, Oak Leaf, whistled into town on his new bicycle on Sunday. Mr. J. Frye is engaged in Lyndhurst this week, painting for Mr. Wm. Sheffield. Mr. Albert Hicock preached his farewell sermon in the Methodist pulpit here on Sunday morning. The highest price in cash or trade paid for wool at Athens Woolen Mill.—Jas. F. Gordon.

It is published every alternate day, except Sunday, and is sold for one dollar a year in advance.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.—Local Announcement. Batted Eight Dow. There will be 71 Ontario election protests. The next meeting of Montreal Conference will be in Brockville. Rail, fence stakes, and posts for sale. Applio S. Y. Bullis, et al. Refusing to respond to enclosures in not necessarily a sign of genius. Mr. Wm. Wilson of Briar Hill, N. Y., visited friends in Athens last week.

About all the use some men have for the golden rule is to measure the conduct of others. Mr. D. C. Brown of Fairbairn, Minn., arrived home this week to spend the summer holidays. Miss Marie Reynolds of Elgin spent Saturday and Sunday in Athens, the guest of Miss Ethel Arnold. Miss Falkner is closing business for this season. Millinery goods reduced balance of month. Call and see.

Go to the Athens Grain Warehouse for bran, shorts, provender, oats, hay, &c. Lowest prices. Custom grinding. Athens L.O.L. will attend a grand celebration on the 15th, and will be accompanied by the Citizen's band. Mrs. Kinch E. Redmond and daughter, Emma, of New York, arrived here on Tuesday evening for a visit with friends. At a recent meeting of the directors of the Newboro farm a committee was appointed to arrange for a celebration on July 1st.

A ben belonging to R. W. Small, Spencerville, who is the Kemptville agent, has made her nest in a tree, 40 feet from the ground. Mr. Geo. Taylor, recently of the Brockville Business College, has a good position as book-keeper and stenographer in Boston, Mass. At the session of conference held in Montreal, Rev. Thos. Griffith, Ph. D., of Brockville, was elected president. Rev. S. G. Bland of Smith's Falls, secretary.

Rev. E. Tennant, who has been a resident of Brockville for some time, will remove again to Cornwall and resume ministerial work at Cornwall Island. A motion was introduced at the Montreal Conference with the object of preventing Methodist clergymen becoming candidates at parliamentary elections. It was defeated. As usual, H. H. Cossitt & Bro., Brockville, are running hard and fast on Quaker bread, crimped bread, French cream loaf, and other fine qualities of bread, buns and rolls. Fancy alike of all kinds.

North Augusta is a very dry town now, and especially in warm weather. The pumps are generally getting out of order, and hard water is the hardest drink that can be got for love or money. It is said the church collections have been unusually large.—Citizen. A meeting of the farmers' institute for Brockville Electoral district took place on Tuesday at Lynn. The following officers were elected:—President, William Neilson, Lynn; vice-president, C. A. Gilroy, Glen Field; secretary, treasurer, R. H. Bull, Addison. The financial report presented was very encouraging.

FRONT OF YONGE. MONDAY, JUNE 13.—Mr. James Turner was working on the house of Mr. Thomas Dickey when a piece of glass fell from the window, striking him on the back and penetrating into the flesh a considerable depth. A doctor was called who probed the wound but did not imagine it to be in anywise serious. The young man will immediately resume work. A large, representative gathering of that honorable body, the Foresters, assembled at Caintown on last Sabbath and was addressed by the Rev. J. J. Wright of the Presbyterian church. A Root and wife of Lynn attended the Foresters' meeting at Caintown on Sabbath. Mr. Root is a member of good standing in said body. The minister in Malloytown met with a great loss last week in the death of a fine horse. It is said to have been killed by a gun-wound in the head. A subscription paper is being circulated throughout the township, in order to raise funds to procure another animal for Mr. Reynolds.

CARD OF THANKS. LAKE ELIZABETH, June 11, 1898. Editor Reporter: DEAR SIR,—Allow me through the columns of your valuable paper to thank our friends and neighbors for their liberal kindness on the occasion of our loss by fire, which occurred on May 10. We would especially desire to mention the assistance from New Dublin and Spencerville. MELVIN TRICKER.

In St. Peter's church, Brockville, on Wednesday, Walter H. Overton-Powell, Elizabethtown township, was married to Miss Elizabeth Taylor, youngest daughter of the late John Taylor, Brockville. This week Mrs. A. H. Cameron and son of Boston are guests of Rev. J. J. Cameron at the Manor. Mr. Fred Blanchard of New York is paying his annual visit to relatives and friends in this section. He is accompanied by his two little boys. A combine of threshing-machine owners in the counties of Frontenac, Lennox, and Addison has been formed for the purpose of regulating prices. The B. & W. special conveying the Fullford party from Brockville to Newboro on Friday last made the run (40 miles) in one hour and twenty five minutes. The large tent used by the Holiness Movement in their evangelistic work arrived here on Monday evening and had been erected in the rear of their church on Wellington street. Mr. Fred Ferguson of Oxford Mills spent Saturday and Sunday at Mrs. H. H. Cossitt's home on Monday, accompanied by his sisters, who had been visiting Mrs. Elliott, church street. Rev. J. Scanlon will preach his final sermons in the Methodist church on Sabbath next, and his successor, the Rev. E. Orana, who comes from Montreal, will be here for the following Sunday. The county court of general session opened at Brockville on Tuesday. A large number of witnesses and others interested in the Social and local fishery cases are in attendance from this section. At Christ Church, on Wednesday last, by the Rev. Wm. Wright, Miss Martha M. Cossitt and Mr. H. W. Wain of Newboro were united in matrimonial bonds. Mr. W. A. Canning was best man. At the annual meeting of Brockville district of the I. O. F., held at Malloytown on Wednesday last, Mr. D. S. Clow of Malloytown was elected D. G. M., and Lynn was selected as the next place of meeting. If you have need of any of the following articles—doors, sash, mouldings, slabs, flooring, wood ceiling, lath, ceilings, building lumber, box-ties, stumps, whet tubs, water tanks—get prices at the Athens planing mill and lumber yard. Mr. Robert Wright, of the well-known dry goods house of Robert Wright & Co., Brockville, leaves this week on a purchasing tour which will include the manufacturing of England, Scotland, France and Germany. The semi-annual convention of the Horse Traders' Association will be held at Frankville on Friday, June 18th. Reading, arbitration and reception committees have been appointed, and they will do business under the direction of an efficient master of ceremonies. Mr. D. Dowdley is honorary president of the association. It is reported that Mrs. Chase Goff, residing a few miles north of Athens, has fallen from a considerable height by the death of a brother, Wm. Paterson, in British Columbia. The report, a few weeks ago, contained an account of Paterson being seriously hurt, and it is now ascertained that he died in the effort to quiet a row. Jonathan Frost, who has lived in the vicinity of Athens all his life, went to the House of Industry about three weeks ago. He had been in the General Hospital for some months, but as he was discharged and was taken in at the House of Industry, where he died on Saturday night. His friends claimed his body and removed it to a private cemetery for burial. The wedding of Miss Clara M. Maud of Addison and Dr. R. L. Graham of Brockville took place on Wednesday at the residence of the bride's mother, Rev. Canon Groat officiating, assisted by Rev. G. R. Beaman. Miss Beatrice Maud was bridesmaid. Miss Kate Cheekly maid of honor and Mr. John Hayes best man. The happy couple will reside in Brockville. It is reported that Mr. D. B. Reed, our popular memorial artist, has secured the moral agency for one of the largest nursery companies doing business in Ontario. He will have charge of the appointing of agents throughout the county of Ontario, and he is now in the city of Toronto, where he is in the process of organizing his force. He will be in the city of Toronto, where he is in the process of organizing his force. He will be in the city of Toronto, where he is in the process of organizing his force.

Rev. L. Blanchette conducted the service in St. Paul's church on Sabbath evening. We have pleasure in congratulating Mr. A. F. Fisher on his winning the degree of B. A. at Toronto University. Funerals can be furnished with wedding cakes on short notice by H. H. Cossitt & Bro., Brockville. On Thursday last about 7,000 cheese were offered in Brockville and the greater part disposed of at 7 1/2. Smith's Falls News: Mr. and Mrs. Preston, of Athens, were in town over Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Laying. Scrofula, hip disease, salt rheum, dyspepsia, and other diseases due to impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mr. H. Saunders has attached an acetylene gas outfit to his bicycle. It gives a brilliant, steady light, much superior to the ordinary lamp. The salmon fishing at Charlottetown has been unusually good all spring and several phenomenal catches have been made within the past few days. Bass fishing commences to-morrow (Thursday) and the indications are that a large number of anglers will open the season at Charlottetown. Mrs. Chris. Paine, a former resident of Plum Hollow, who found a home last fall at the House of Industry, died at that institution on Thursday last. It is announced that Mr. James Berney, a popular insurance agent of this district, will be one of the speakers at the big Orange demonstration to be held at Prescott on the 12th. On Friday last a special on the R. & W. conveyed Mr. G. F. Fulford and a party of friends to Newboro where they were met by Mr. Fulford's yacht and taken home via Kingston. This "round trip" is now and is reported to be a most enjoyable one by those who made the initial circuit. Last month a hive of bees in the apiary of Mr. W. H. Warren of Rockfield established a record by throwing off three swarms, all of which are strong and working well. Mrs. (Dr.) C. M. B. Cornell and daughter, Miss Geraldine, are now occupying their island cottage at Charlottetown, P. E. I. Mr. Frank Koy's wife of Hornellsville, N. Y., and a party of American friends will join them this week. A Demorest medal contest took place at Addison on Friday evening last. An excellent educational entertainment was furnished by the contestants, whose work was all of a high order. The medal was won by Miss Clara Arnold. Rev. John Holmes, a superannuated minister of the Methodist church, died in Kingston, on Sunday afternoon. He was a native of Ireland, came to Kemptville, and at one time was stationed at Newboro. He was 62 years of age. The lately elected delegate to Toronto Conference by the Ontario Methodist High School in order to receive the President holding that the rules mentioned laymen, which term he thought could not be taken to include women. The matter will probably be appealed to the General Conference. Perfumed butter is now the correct thing in England. It must first be of a superior quality. It is then wrapped in a cloth and placed upon a bed of rose leaves. The whole is put in a refrigerator where it is allowed to remain for ten or twelve hours, during which time it has become thoroughly perfumed. Everything goes with the worms and other pests in the summer. All kinds of fruit trees and many shades of trees have suffered from the ravages of the tent caterpillar, and even the black currant bushes, which have long enjoyed total immunity, are this spring attacked by the green and black sawfly. In some instances utterly destroyed. The roller shovel sold of the D. F. M. Co. of Gananoque, is a most useful wheel on the large shovel broke into several pieces and one of the largest pieces crashed into the petroleum tank covering the boiler on the engine. The tank was struck from the furnace and the whole building was soon a mass of flames. By arrangements entered into with the Masons, the court of the I. O. F. will in future be held in the lodge room of that society. This room is richly furnished, is admirably suited for the requirements of the Foresters, and they are to be congratulated upon having secured such very desirable quarters. At the sessions, now in progress, there are three criminal cases to be disposed of, viz.: Queens vs. Scovill, accessory murder in connection with the famous Portland fire case; Queen vs. Pear, manslaughter, in causing the death of a man named Scribner, near North Augusta; Queen vs. Clute, larceny of harness.

THE FIRE RECORD. Charles Fisher's summer cottage at Oakville was destroyed by fire. The loss will approximate $1,400. DEFENSELESS PEOPLE IN FORMER SLAUGHTERED IN SHEER WANTONNESS. Vancouver, B.C., June 10.—The feelings of the populace of Vancouver have been aroused by the killing of a Chinese man, and a savage butchery of innocent and helpless women and children by the Japanese soldiery in the Roman district. Pirates defeated the soldiers, who were so enraged that they returned to civilization, but that is, nevertheless, proven that germs suspended in beer may be annihilated by the rays.

Electricity for Wheels. A French firm has announced that it has devised an apparatus by which a single bicycle may be run on a speed of thirty miles an hour, and a tandem at fifty. Nerves are fed by the blood and are therefore like it in character. Nerves will be weak and exhausted if the blood is thin, pale and impure. Nerves are truly strong and steady if the blood is rich, red and vigorous. Nerves find a true friend in Hood's Sarsaparilla because it makes rich, red blood. To do their work naturally and well, the brain is unexcelled, there are no neuralgic pains, appetite and digestion are good, when you take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE MATTRESS. The mattress is the most important part of the bed. It should be made of good quality material, and should be kept clean and fresh. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good remedy for all ailments of the blood, and is especially useful in cases of nervous debility, indigestion, and general weakness. It is a pure and natural preparation, and is safe for all ages.
