WHEN YOU ARE READING

Does the print run together?
Do black spots appear before your eyes?
Do you have to place the light between yourself and the print?
Do you find it necessary to hold the book further away in order to see distinctly?
If you observe any of the above signs it means you are no longer able to adapt your eyes to focus rays of light coming from different distances. A contest with failing sight is hopeless. You should wear properly fitted glasses. Consult us.

We Guarantee Satisfaction.

"Tell Him I Loathe Him."

CHAPTER I. LOYD-MOSTYN'S THREAT.

HERE was an animated Galatea standing upon the broad balcony of the grand old hall that marked the centre of Beaufort Park.

It was not the crinkled, white-robed Galatea of stage picturing, but the heart was as unawakened as the one that lay in the breast of Pygmalion's stone maiden.

She wore a riding habit of dark-green cloth that fitted her slight figure to perfection; a silk hat sat gracefully upon the imperially poised head, and a riding whip was clasped by the gauntleted hand.

She was absolutely motionless, her dainty chin elevated, her superb eyes open wide as they gazed with dreamy, unconscious pride over the estate that had been inherited in her family.

She was Miss Virginia Beaufort, of Beaufort Park, known by the country folk for miles around as 'the Duchess,' and no offspring of royal blood ever wore the title more gracefully than she.

In truth, St. John Beaufort boasted a lineage beside which the general Dutch claim of new American sank into utter insignificance; for while younger sons are debarred possession of titles and baronial estates in England, the blue blood flows in a straight stream as to the more fortunate scions; and St. John Beaufort was a descendant of the Beauforts created Duke of Somerset away back in the seventeenth century.

His father and grandfather, and great-grandfather, however, were younger sons, and as the minor estates that came to them were seriously impoverished by a scapegrace, who had no worse fault than being a spendthrift, old Sir Hal Beaufort had come to America to revive his fortunes.

He succeeded, and, in turn, his possessions descended to his son, to be divided according to the justice of American customs.

The elder returned to England, the younger, St. John Beaufort, remained in the country of his father's adoption, increasing the wealth that came to him by inheritance, and perhaps also increasing his pride of birth at the same time.

The latter point had been inherited by Miss Beaufort, and further nurtured by her father, until the one germ of arrogance in the child's nature burst into flower.

But for that, no young woman in the whole country would have been so well beloved as the Duchess. She was superb in her beauty, princely in her charities, royal in her entertainment; but her pride was such that her associates could be counted upon the fingers of one hand. She never seemed to feel her isolation, however. Her delight was in her books, her dreams, her father had married early in life, a terrific girl with a history which, it is a little less ancient than his own, was nevertheless that of a family by

EVENING TELEGRAM FASHION PLATES.

The Home Dressmaker should keep a Catalogue Scrap Book of our Pattern Cuts. These will be found very useful to refer to from time to time.

A DAINY LINGERIE BLOUSE.

Cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 will require 2 1/2 yards of 24 inch material. Embroidered flouncing was used with charming results in the carrying out of this design. It would also be pretty made of lawn, chiffon, taffeta and pongee. Tucks at the shoulders throw a graceful fulness across the front and the use of the vest gives scope for individuality in the way of trimming. The sleeve may be full length or shorter.

A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A Practical Garment for the Small Maiden.

Girls One Piece Over Blouse Dress, to be worn with or without a Guimpe.

In planning for a dress to wear for school during warm weather or during the days heat in vacation time, a simple little design such as is here shown will at once appeal to every mother. The garment is cut in one piece and the fulness is held by a belt. The neck is cut out square and finished with a shaped band that may be omitted. The sleeves too may be made without the band, so that the sewing can be greatly simplified. Chambray, gingham, linen or percale may be used for this model. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 30 inch material for the 6 year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

Ladies of Culture and Refinement Use Salvia Hair Tonic. It Makes the Hair Beautiful.

At last a remedy has been discovered that will positively destroy this pest.

That Dandruff is caused by germs is accepted by every sensible person. Dandruff is the root of all hair evils.

SALVIA will kill the dandruff germs and remove Dandruff in ten days or money back.

McMurdo & Co., guarantee it. It will grow hair, stop itching scalp, falling hair, and make the hair thick and abundant. It prevents hair from turning gray, and adds life and lustre.

SALVIA is a hair dressing that has become the favorite with women of taste and culture, who know the social value of beautiful hair. A large, generous bottle costs only 50c. at leading druggists everywhere, and in St. John's by McMurdo & Co.

The word "SALVIA" (Latin for sage) is on every bottle. Refuse all substitutes.

"Duchess," he said at last, "I have told you that I love you so many times of late that the story must have become wearisome to you!"

"Very!" she exclaimed, with slow anger.

"I am, nevertheless, going to tell it to you again!" he said, his face paling with a wrath he made no attempt to conceal. "In spite of the insults you have heaped upon me, I love you, and I am determined that you shall be my wife!"

"I think you forget yourself, sir," she said, coldly. "Take your hand from that bridle."

"Not until you have heard what I have to say. I warn you that I am not the right man to choose of whom to make an enemy. My disposition is not of my own creation, but an inherited one, and over it I have no control. I have asked you to be my wife, and you—"

"Have refused!" she interrupted emphatically.

"Exactly! But that refusal you must reconsider. If you do not—"

"Listen to me, for the last time, Lilford Loyd-Mostyn, and know what I say can never be recalled. I have treated you with courtesy since you have been my mother's guest—because you are, unfortunately, her relative. But I shall have the servants turn you from the door if you ever presume to speak to me upon this subject again. It has grown hateful to me. Have you your answer now?"

"No! Now more than ever I am determined that you shall be my wife, or I will have upon you a revenge so bitter that—"

"For all the insult that your words convey, they are positively amusing," she exclaimed, with an audacity that was maddening to him. "Do you think that I am a woman to be frightened, Mr. Loyd-Mostyn? Do you think that there is any revenge that you could take upon the daughter of St. John Beaufort? One of my servants might as well threaten me in the same way because of discharge. I should feel it just as sensibly."

Her pride blinded her to the expression that filled his eyes, else she might have been warned in time; but the insult of threatening a Beaufort caused her to forget all else.

Her eyes held his defiantly, but did not see the hideous intention that lay smouldering there.

"Do you know what you are saying?" he demanded hoarsely. "You shall pay for it, every word, in sackcloth and ashes. Do you hear that, Miss Beaufort, of Beaufort Park. There is a legend in our family that says—"

"I care not for your legends. Take your hand from that bridle!"

To be continued.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Letters of a Successful Business Woman to Her Niece.

possibly can. Don't be too ready.

Of course, I know you are anxious to begin using all that newly acquired knowledge, but a few weeks or a month or two spent in resting and taking your time about getting a really good position, isn't going to send you to the poor farm.

And by the right position, I don't mean the one where you'll get the most money immediately. There are several things more important than your initial salary. One of them is the salary you can get later.

There are lots of places where the business simply can't pay a stenographer over a certain amount. If you know a girl who went to one of these places eight years ago at ten dollars a week. She was a good stenographer and a very clever business woman. With her ability she ought to be getting at least twenty or twenty-five dollars a week now, but she's getting just fourteen. She has learned a good deal about the details of the business and is almost invaluable to them, but they can't pay her more because the money simply isn't there. There wasn't a great deal of dictation so her stenography has gotten rusty, and the business details learned there would not do her much good elsewhere, so I imagine if she took another position she would hardly get more than ten or twelve dollars.

That's the kind of place to keep out of, niece, no matter if the initial salary is pretty good.

I have two stenographers and one clerk working for me now, Joan, so maybe what I'm going to say next will sound rather queer, but I'm going to say it just the same. Don't get a place where you have to work for a woman. I don't like to go back on my sex, but honesty compels me to admit that women are usually about half as pleasant to work for as men. A man boss never thinks of being jealous, because no matter if you do three quarters of his work, he's too conceited to even consider you as a rival, but a woman boss is perpetually afraid you're going to creep up on her, and so she has to be perpetually showing her superiority. As you value your peace of mind and your chances of success don't get a position where you have to work for a woman.

Don't take a position without inspecting the material conditions under which you are to work. I know a girl who refused a good position with chances for advancement, for just one reason—artificial light. I think she did right. Obliging anyone to work by artificial light ought to be forbidden by law, just as making girls stand up all the time at their work is prohibited in some states. But as long as it isn't, make that your own law.

See what kind of a typewriter you're going to have. There's no worse handicap than a poor machine. And last, if you are to work for one man, pick that man carefully.

In some ways, business man and stenographer is a closer relation than man and wife. It can't help but be. Many business men see their stenographers eight hours of the day, their wives four.

Wish I could lend you my experience for this important performance of getting a position. Then again, maybe it would make you too cranky and critical and you'd get along better without it.

Here's hoping anyway. But whatever kind of blank or prize you draw in the lottery, niece, be sure to write straight off quick about it to.

Your Absorbingly Interested Old Aunt.

Ruth Cameron

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be imagined to a size equal to its terror it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 30 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

Fads and Fashions.

Mesh bags continue popular.

Very large muffs are predicted.

Soutache is not much seen in fall fashions.

The empire gown is coming back with a rush.

More buttons appear, but they are generally small.

October brides will carry muffs as well as flowers.

Black velvet bags, belts and pumps are used together.

Dog collars of jet—one, two or three strands—are in favor.

Separate blouses have regained all of their old-time prestige.

Plain colored silks are much used for simple tailored blouses.

Hair line striped fabrics will be popular for tailored suits this fall.

Skirts are still rather scanty, but the scarer of the "hobble" is over.

White crepe collar and cuff sets are being much used for deepest mourning.

Fashionable lockets are almost large enough to serve as "vanity boxes."

Pippins and handbags of black will be used much this fall on colored gowns.

Crepe de chine, lavishly embroidered with silk, is great favor for evening wear.

High-draped girdles of black velvet on white gowns are among the fancies of the hour.

Rich cashmere shawls will be made up into muffs as well as scarfs for winter fashion.

A twist of rose pink tulle, wound through the coiffure, is very pretty for younger women.

Trimmings of beaded nets are galore—beaded insertions, edgings, motifs, large and small.

Venice lace is used upon many of the handsomest jabots and neck frills in place of Irish lace.

Sailors and turbans of felt, trimmed with delfty draped scarfs, will be worn this autumn.

Tiny bands of fur appear nearly everywhere—on hats, shoulder capes, wraps and corsages.

Valenciennes lace, dyed to match the hat, is used extensively on much of the early autumn millinery.

Crepe in the Paisley patterns is one of the most fascinating of the materials for evening gowns.

Black velvet hat facing will be even more popular on autumn hats than it has been on summer millinery.

A variation in the popular Dutch collar is the collar with a point in back instead of the simple curved edge.

Dainty lingerie jabots, frills, bows, etc., fare better at the cleaner's than in the hands of the average laundress.

Many autumn and winter frocks will be adorned with gold buttons; but gold buttons must always be used with discretion.

Ostrich plumes for evening fans are now in order. They have beautiful decorated handles and swing from jeweled chains.

The heavy fringe, whether of beads or silk, will be used for a finish on many of the dressy tunics, especially those in black.

Stripes, beads, short jackets, the Oriental and the Directorate influences are guiding posts along the way of fashion just now.

Some of the new dressy frocks of satin or mousseline are effectively trimmed with wide bias bands applied in some striking fashion.

A very pretty belt is the one of white linen, embroidered in dainty colors and further embellished by the addition of a few jewels.

The new high waist line will be generally outlined by either wide or narrow girdles, and in some instances merely by a well-defined seam.

The sleeve made without a shoulder seam, but cut in one with the body of the garment, continues in vogue, according to the early fall styles.

Buckles probably will be as popular as ever on gowns and hats this fall. The satin-covered ones of unique shapes are being shown in some of the shops.

The two-toned plaids are occupying a strong position among the new materials and offer many possibilities with plain fabrics for the first costumes.

The Simple Life.

"I weary of the whirl!" quoth she: "Henceforth the simple life for me. Methinks it would be very wise I to take my breakfast ere I rise—Or coffee just a single cup." (N.B.—Her mother brought it up)

"And when I'm dressed," thus spoke the maid, "I'll tie me to the elm tree's shade. And with a book there I will find Sweet rest and comfort for the mind." And so in sylvan shade she read. (N.B.—Her mother made her bed.)

"A dainty lunch will suit me best—Salad with oil of Lucca dressed! No steaming soup, nor heavy roast, But jolled spring chicken served on toast."

She ate it all and found it good. (N.B.—Her mother cooked the food.)

Then when the day at last was spent Her mind was filled with sweet content She donned a dainty gown of white With rosy ribbons all bedith And looked as fair as any rose. (N.B.—Her mother iron'd her clothes.)

"I love the simple life," quoth she: "My heart from care is ever free. A good night's rest I'll have I know. For prompt at nine to bed I'll go. True to her word retired she then. (N.B.—Her mother worked till ten.)

L'envoi. Oh ye who live the simple life. Escaping care and toil and strife, Evading paths where duties lurk. Mark ye! Some one must do the work.

A Confirmation.

In further confirmation of what we wrote on Saturday relative to the intention of the Government to send twenty teachers or so to Canada for training, we had sent us by to-day's mail the Montreal Gazette of the 20th inst. containing the following item:

"Dr. Robertson said that Sir Edward Morris and all his colleagues are determined to do their power to promote a more elevated taste for agricultural pursuits amongst the people of Newfoundland. Scientific training is also to be introduced into the present school system of the colony; all denominations taking great interest in the movement. In a very short time he says the Government will be in a position to send twenty or more teachers of both sexes to Guelph, Truro and to the Macdonald College, where they will be trained so as to carry back to their island home the most valuable notions possible touching the development of agriculture on every hand. In fact, he thought that the authorities would be soon ready to offer scholarships, so that the knowledge obtainable at the Canadian institutions may be placed at the disposition of the young men and women who will soon be coming up from the Ancient Colony."

A New Athletic Club.

A new club called the Terra Nova Athletic Association was formed on Saturday night last with rooms on Beak's Cove over Mr. M. A. Barrow's, including reading room, music room, and boxing room and general gymnasium. Mr. Leo Murphy was elected President, Mr. W. J. O'Neill, Vice President, Leo O'Dea, Secretary, and T. Walsh Treasurer. The personnel of the society includes several old St. John's boys, oarsmen, runners and walkers. We wish the new club every success.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

A disorderly and drunk in charge of a horse were each fined to-day $4, or 14 days.

Another disorderly was fined $5, or 14 days and a drunk the third time this season, $1, or 5 days.

A third disorderly was fined $5, or 10 days; a drunk conveyed to the station in a cab, $1, or 7 days and two drunks $1, or 5 days each.

PARTRIDGE IDENTIFIED.—Over 200 brace partridges arrived here by the Portia and were quickly disposed of by grocers. Where they sold for 80 cents last week they are now retelling for 90 cents the brace. Messrs. I. Simms and H. LeMessurier, of Bowring Bros. office are doing well at Western Bay, and sent in 50 brace on Thursday last.

Tinsmiths' Wages.

Mr. W. J. Clouston's Side of the Question.

The tinsmiths are asking for $2 a day, and if not given this wages on October 1st they say they will go out. It is well always to hear the side of the employers as well as that of the men. In an interview with Mr. W. J. Clouston on Water Street we find that he employs five men and already is paying $9.50 a week and gives them a $20 bonus at the end of every year. On half holidays and other holidays he allows their pay to go on, the total coming to $25 for each man during the year. He also gives a Xmas box of $5 every year to each employee. He is often at his wit's end to find work to keep the men employed, such as making up tinware that is not needed by the trade and which will lie on hand for years. If all the journeymen in the city were treated like Mr. Clouston's men we do not think that they would have much grounds for complaint. He could close down his journeyman shop to-morrow and make a living and do a good business in selling imported tinware. He has always treated his men the best he could and they should consider before doing anything that would not be square and for which they would be sorry afterwards. Mr. Clouston will have the sympathy of his customers and friends in the struggle that he is up against and we hope he will arrange matters satisfactorily with his men.

McMurdo's Store News

MONDAY, Sept. 26, 10.
In many cases of rheumatism pains, sciatica, lumbago, rheumatic sore throat, and neuralgia, a counter-irritant will be found of great value. One of the most effective things of this class is Chilly Paste, which is easy of application and prompt in action, often relieving by rubbing. This is a handy thing to have in the house, and its early use after the onset of a deal of suffering. Price 25c a bottle.

We are offering the Darwin Lat. Tulip at the introductory price of 45c a dozen, or 5c each. The Darwin Tulip gives one of the largest blooms of the tulip family and its colors are exquisite, scarlets, and dark reds, violets and blues. This tulip is very robust and thrives in all light soils. It ought to become very popular when once it is known.

Married at Brooklyn.

Mr. Austin P. Canning of St. John's, Nfld., chief engineer of the S. S. Fordham and formerly of this city, was married to Miss Catherine McClunni, of New York City. The groom was assisted by Mr. Charles E. Davis, and the bride by Miss Mary McClunni. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, First Place, Mr. and Mrs. Canning then left for Washington, where the honeymoon will be spent.

At Wesley Church.

Wesley Church was well filled last night while Rev. J. K. Curtis preached on the church and amusements. It was a splendid plea for the church to separate itself from the world, as far as accepting the world's line of amusements, directly damages the influence of professing Christians. The choir rendered splendid music and singing, and over 300 people remained to the prayer-meeting which was a service of blessed influence.

Attacked Supt. Grimes

Because he ordered his arrest for drunkenness at 12.30 today on Water Street, a drunk fiercely attacked Supt. Grimes and made several blows at him which the officer deftly parried. Sergeant Byrne and others soon overpowered the inebriate who fought against his captors till placed in the cells.

Sick People Arrive.

A young man named Fudge, of Pass Island, arrived here by the Portia yesterday suffering from cancer of the face. She was in the hospital some time ago and was taken there again to have the cancerous growth removed.

Mrs. Sarah Kelly, a very old woman, who is ill of a dangerous internal ailment, also arrived by the ship and was taken to hospital. So ill was she that she could not walk and had to be lifted to a cab.

A woman named Hayward, a resident of Bonavista, also came along in the Portia. She is suffering from a running sore under the left ear and will undergo an operation at the hospital.

A Splendid Vocalist.

At the request of the Methodist Guards Mrs. King, wife of Mr. F. J. King, the organist at Gover Street Church, sang a solo at the service for the forenoon and enthralled all who heard her magnificent soprano voice. At the evening service Mrs. King again rendered with her usual high appreciation by the large congregation present. This is the first appearance of this splendid songstress in public and she will undoubtedly prove a leader in musical circles in this city.—Com.

Worst Case Of Eczema

Cure only came when doctors gave up and DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT was used.

Mrs. Wm. Miller, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—My daughter Mary, when six months old, contracted eczema and in three years the disease baffled all treatment. Her case was one of the worst that had ever come under my notice, and she apparently suffered what no pen could ever describe. I had three different doctors attend her all to no purpose. Finally I decided to try Dr. Chase's Ointment and to my surprise she immediately began to improve and was completely cured of that long standing disease. That was four years ago when we lived at Cornwall, Ont. and as not a symptom has shown itself since, the cure must be permanent. The record of cures which Dr. Chase's Ointment has to its credit have placed it alone as the standard cure for eczema and all forms of itching skin diseases. Do not be satisfied with imitations or substitutes, 50 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Assyrians Sent Back.

Nine Syrians—five men and four women—who would not be allowed to land from the Bruce at Sydney last Friday night came back to St. John's by the express to-day. The case of these people is pitiable. They told the reporters at the R. N. Co. station today that the reason they would not be allowed to land at Sydney was because they had not money enough, and that an inspector said their eyes were not up to requirements. They also said that they had been charged $5 each here by their agent for purchasing tickets for them at the R. N. Co.'s office. They don't know what to do now. Mr. Anthony Tooton looked after them and accompanied them to a boarding house to get a meal.

Dillon Collection.

Mr. W. J. O'Neill, the tobacconist, is taking up a collection for the family of the late P. Dillon, among the customers who frequent his store. He will hand the amount over to Messrs. Kennedy and Bennett as soon as the list is closed. To-day he collected $6 from the people who visited his store.

Hint to the Police.

The police should visit Cabot Street and Lime Street occasionally and prevent the boys from doing mischief there. Recently they knocked down an old woman who was bringing a bucket of water from a tank.

A Fine Parade.

The Methodist Guards, 160 strong, paraded to Divine service at Gower Street yesterday forenoon. They were commanded by Lieut. Col. Pitts and Major Hutchings, and headed by their fine band playing lively airs, they were much admired by citizens who lined the route to and from the church. Rev. Dr. Cowperthwaite held the service and preached a fluent sermon.

Here and There.

CAPTURED 2 WHALES.—The whalers Puma and Lynx captured 2 whales in Placentia Bay last week. The fish are scarce there.

CONFIRMATION.—The Lord Bishop administered confirmation to the C. of E. children at Broad Cove and Portugal Cove yesterday. A large number received the rite.

"HARVEST HOME."—A Harvest Home celebration will be held at Gower Street Church basement on Wednesday next in aid of Mission Work. The vegetables and fruit will be sold afterwards at Buchanan St.

TYPHOID INCREASING.—A woman suffering with typhoid at Torbay was taken to hospital to-day. Suffering from the same disease a young woman was removed from Monkstown Road Saturday, and a girl suffering from erysipelas was also taken to the Hospital.

ALMOST BROKE LEG.—While repairing Shea's wharf this forenoon a roller slipped from under the steam piler and over used here and fell on the right leg of a man named Dooley. He was so seriously hurt that it was thought the leg was broken, a doctor was called and he was sent home in a cab.

BRUCE PASSENGERS.—The Bruce arrived at Port aux Basques at 7.20 a.m. yesterday bringing: W. H. Taylor, Miss A. F. Soper, G. R. Wortley, F. Forward, Miss I. Forward, W. J. O'Keefe, J. A. Wallace, E. R. Darken, A. D. Brown, W. Crossman, Dr. T. E. and Mrs. Green, Miss B. Byrne, Miss M. Russell, E. Aiken, A. Rodgers, H. Berry, J. J. Guinane, C. H. Whitney, G. P. Mercer.

SHOP AND CONTENTS DESTROYED.—By the schr. Gladys we learn that a few nights ago at Chapel Arm, T. B. Thomas Smith's shop and all its contents, groceries mostly, were destroyed by fire. The shop was completely gutted and groceries to the value of $300, on which there was no insurance were destroyed. Mice which nibbled the matches on the shelves caused the blaze and the loss to the owner is a heavy one.

KEEPING AHEAD OF THE TIMES.—During the past three months I have spent much time among the best Opticians of England, France and Germany, and have had the privilege of examining all that is useful by the use of instruments for testing the eyes for defective sight. Now I am in a position to give you the benefit of this information. I can offer you as thorough an examination with as good results as though you spent hundreds of dollars in going abroad. My method of examining the eyes is quite on a par with the best, and with my fifteen years' experience and having tested the eyes of thousands of people enables me to offer you the best services. Having also the finest machinery for grinding compound lenses, your glasses can be had at once. If you have lost an eye altogether I can fit an artificial to match the other. R. H. TRAPNELL, -sep26,m,w.

The Church Ship Fair.

The grand fair in aid of the Church Ship Fund will be opened to-morrow at 3.30 p.m. by His Excellency the Governor and will continue for three days and nights. It will be a fair and no mistake. Why, the very decorations of the C. L. B. Armoury, where it is being held, is worth the admission fee, 20 cents; 10 cents for children. The artistic get up of the whole affair exceeds everything of the kind ever seen in this city. Mrs. Gosling, Lady Horwood and the other ladies associated with the fair have been working hard all summer to achieve a success, and there is no one who will dare to say that they have not done so. The stalls and tables would require a special artist in order to decorate them. England and all the British Colonies beyond the Seas are typically represented in the paintings, flag and shield designs and general exhibits. The C. L. B. band will furnish the music.

Train Notes.

The west bound express left Grand Falls on this morning. The incoming express arrived here at noon today with the local from Carbonear, bringing the Court on Circuit, viz. Judge Horwood, W. J. Carroll, S. Butler, J. A. W. McNelly; Mr. Strong, W. J. McDonald and bride, Miss Bates, Mrs. Baxter, J. J. Murphy, Mrs. Jenkins, Miss Jenkins, J. Brown, W. Willis and wife, R. Jeans, A. H. Seymour, Mrs. Graham, Rev. Mr. Hackett and wife, Mrs. White, J. Whelan and nine Syrians, who were turned back at Sydney.

The Old English Prize Ring.

In the latter days of the English prize ring innumerable expedients had to be devised to bring off a fight. A favourite plan was to pitch the ring on the borders of two countries, so that the question of managerial jurisdiction might be rendered difficult. Another plan was to charter a steamboat and proceed down the Thames to some lonely police forsaken spot in the marshes of Essex. For the memorable contest between Sayers and Heenan in 1860 a special train was run from London bridge to a secret destination. But the passengers, who comprised members of parliament, peers, pickpockets, publicists, clergy and it is said, a few bishops, cheerfully took tickets simply marked "excursion." They presently found themselves near Farnborough, in Surrey, where the fight occurred—London Chronicle.

In Attendance.

We draw the attention of the Minister of Customs and Finance, the Hon. M. P. Cashin, who is also a member of the Executive Council, to the "personal" we quote from the Trinity Enterprise of the 24th:—
"Mr. W. D. Reid, attended by Mr. Cashin, came in his private car from St. John's to the end of the rails at Goose Cove on Monday."
The black type is ours, and serves to bring out the delicious point to which we direct Mr. Cashin's attention. "He knows I s'pose" might be the unenlightened be applied to the editor of the Enterprise. But does he? Until Mr. Cashin confirms the statement we shall not believe that he was in reality in attendance on Mr. W. D. Reid.

Train Notes.

About 50 passengers went out by the shore train at 6 p.m. Saturday. The local arrived here at 10 p.m. Saturday bringing F. O'Neill, F. Mercer, A. Herder, T. Fitzgerald, D. J. Greene, Const. Power, Miss Cooper, Supt. Dunne, D. A. and Mrs. Ryan, A. and E. Donnelly and 30 others.

By the Bruce express at 6 p.m. yesterday there went J. White, Miss Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Chesman, Mr. and Mrs. Angell, Mr. St. Hill, Mrs. J. T. Nelder, Mr. and Mrs. Bohana, Miss Palfrey, H. H. Frazer, R. Comerford and 50 others. The private car "Terra Nova" brought out Mr. W. D. Reid.

New Boats For Steel Company

The Dominion Iron and Steel Company are having two new steamboats constructed in the old country and it is expected that both will arrive in Canada about the first of next May. The new steamers are each 10,000 tons capacity, and will steam 13 knots an hour. They will thus be the largest and fastest in the service of the company, and will be employed carrying ore between Wabana, Newfoundland, and Sydney.

SICK PEOPLE ARRIVE.

Three sick people arrived by train to-day to go to hospital. One is Mrs. White, of Alexander Bay, who is very ill.

Escaped Serious Injury

While breaking down flour in C. F. Bennett's store Saturday, Mr. Thos. Kennedy, of Flower Hill, narrowly escaped having his arm broken in several places. He pulled out the under barrel of five tiers of flour when the whole came down and caught his right hand between the barrel on the ground and the next to it. The hand was badly mashed and the flesh was torn. But that Mr. Jas. Fitzgerald took the weight off by using a crows bar the arm would have been terribly injured. The man had to go to a doctor for treatment.

PHOTOGRAPHED OFFICERS.—Saturday afternoon Mr. Jas. Vey took some excellent photographs of the officers of the Laborers' Union at his studio. They will be enlarged and hung in the rooms of the Union.

Lost All His Money.

A poor fisherman who was paid off his small summer's wages Saturday afternoon, lost it all on the street while going from the Royal Stores to Scott Street. He has a large family and no other means to support them. It would be a great act of charity as well as honesty on the part of the finder to return the money.

HELD GARDEN PARTY.—On the grounds surrounding her residence, Waterford Road, Mrs. Garrett Byrne and other ladies of St. Patrick's Women's Association held a successful children's garden party Saturday. A large number of little ones attended and the affair was an enjoyable one in every respect. A substantial amount was thus realized for the building fund of St. Patrick's Church.

Coopers' Stock Stolen.

Since the death of the late Mr. Robert Moore, his son Mr. John Moore has discovered that some person or persons unknown entered his cooperage on Moore Street, off Barter's Hill, and stole therefrom staves, heading and other material to the value of at least $40. The door was forced open by the thieves and it is believed that stock stolen was sold. If the parties are discovered they will get well deserved punishment.

Captured Two Whales.

Passengers by Saturday night's train say that whales were very plentiful in Conception Bay Saturday, and that the Port Saunders captured two large hump backs and towed them into Harbour Grace. Since starting to work there she has killed eight fish. The hump was seen in the Bay and it is believed she also has done well.

Had Him Arrested.

Saturday night a teamster of the West End went home to his house while under the influence and "raised Cain" with his wife and children. Fearing that he would begin smashing the furniture his wife had to call in Consts. O'Flaherty and Whalen who placed the man under arrest. On getting to Adelaide Street he attacked the officers who had to handcuff him, and then putting him in a cab he was driven to the station.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cole desire to thank the following persons for their kindness and sympathy and also for wreaths and flowers sent to adorn the coffin of their darling child: Mr. and Mrs. J. Baptized in Odd Place.

Two years ago a 'crypt christening' took place in Great Britain's Parliamentary palace, at which Archdeacon Wilberforce, chaplain of the House of Commons, officiated. This christening (by virtue of a privilege granted originally by the Pope to Edward III) took place in the Parliamentary crypt chapel.

The infant baptized was the child of Mr. Bradshaw, the resident engineer, and was born within the precincts of the royal palace of Westminster. It was this fact which brought the baby within the privileges of the old papal grant (still preserved in the record office) by which the Pope presented a college of priests for his 'new chapel of St. Stephen' and also a font, in which the children of the royal family, as well as any other children born within Westminster palace, might be baptized.

The last case of the kind was a christening in the family of Viscount Selby when he was Speaker; indeed, there have been only three cases within the last century in which the privilege has been exercised by virtue of birth within the precincts of the Parliamentary palace.—The Strand.

Canadian Representative at Washington.

Special to Evening Telegram.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The State Department officials believe that the appointment of a representative of Canada at Washington, to which post Geo. W. Gail, has just been appointed, will materially expedite negotiations between the Washington and Ottawa Governments. While the State Department has not yet been officially advised of Mr. Gail's appointment, the creation of such an office was determined upon with the knowledge of the United States Government. The title which such a representative will have has not been made known to the Department, but he will be the mouthpiece of the Canadian Government, with wide discretion in his intercourse with the State Department, but of course any such things as Treaties can be signed only by the usual diplomatic officers. The substitution of direct arrangements through the permanent representative here instead of through the British Embassy is expected to save a great deal of time in the handling of important business.

"How to Come Down Safely."

Special to Evening Telegram.
PARIS, Sept. 24.—The old problem of how to come down safely is yet to be solved by navigators of the air. This is emphasized by the accident to Chavez yesterday. The French aviators and constructors are intensely interested to discover the exact cause of the Peruvia's mishap, which, they consider, is proof positive of a weakness of construction in aeroplanes, which must be corrected according to the accounts of experts printed here. Today a wire snapped permitting the wings to collapse, as Chavez restrained his motor later having planned down a distance of half a mile. His speed as he approached the aerodrome is estimated at fully 68 miles an hour. The constructors agreed that the glide earthward after the motor had been stopped subjects the stays of the wings to a tremendous strain and they believe that Chavez's machine gave way when suddenly put to the extra tension caused by the re-starting of the motor.

Fatal Garage Fire.

Special Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Eight persons were injured and 2 perhaps fatally in an early morning fire which destroyed $200,000 worth of automobiles, at a 41st Street garage here to-day. Most of the cars were the property of wealthy residents of the nearby avenues and were waiting to be overhauled for use in the Vanderbilt Cup Race meet next week. One of the garage employers, a foreigner, is missing and is believed to have been burned to death.

Dissolution of Finnish Diet

Special to the Evening Telegram.
HELSINGFORS, Finland, Sept. 24.—The dissolution of the Finnish Diet appears imminent. The President had declined to submit two Imperial Bills on the ground that the measures are the direct proposals of the Russian Ministerial Council instead of the Emperor. The Bills relate to the rights of Russian subjects in Finland and to a tax in lieu of personal military service. The attitude assumed by the President was decided upon at conference of the Finnish leaders.

Abandon Loan Negotiations.

Special Evening Telegram.
PARIS, Sept. 24.—It is understood here that the English syndicate headed by Sir Ernest Cassel has abandoned the negotiations for a loan of $50,000,000 to Turkey, in deference to the objections of the French and British Governments.

Chavez Cheerful.

Special to Evening Telegram.
DEMODOSSALA, Italy, Sept. 24.—Chavez the aeronaut, who flew across the Alps yesterday, and was seriously hurt in landing here, is doing nicely at his hotel, although weak he is in a most cheerful mood.

Ancient Building Imperilled by Ants.

The Castle of Wakayama has been found to be in a state of ruin due to the attacks of African white ants. The main supporting pillars have been entirely hollowed out by the insects. On examination it has been discovered that the barracks in Awa and the Miyama fortresses in Kii district are also being ruined by these harmful insects.

The Military Department has despatched an expert to undertake the extermination of the pests. He says that should the authorities fail in exterminating the insects all the fortresses along the Kii and Awa rivers will be ruined, and should the insects once reach Kioto the temples and other ancient buildings would be lost in a few years.—From the Japan Advertiser.

Const. Power arrived here by Saturday night's train. He had three weeks' leave of absence and spent a very pleasant holiday with his relatives at Trinity.

TWO YOUNG GIRLS Leave by the Rosalind Under Circumstances That Alarm Their Friends.

Pauline O'Reilly and Katie Tremblett, cousins, of Placentia, who had been in this city in domestic service all summer, are now on board the S. S. Rosalind on the way to New York. Pauline was in service at the Presentation Convent, and Katie, her cousin, had a nice place with Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Queen's Road. Both girls appeared to be quite happy and contented till last Wednesday when a young "gentleman" appeared at the Convent saying that he was from Placentia, and wanted to see his cousin, Miss O'Reilly. The girls were out together that evening, and when they returned home both informed their employers that they were going to leave. On being questioned as to what they were going to do and where they were going they would give no information. Mrs. Mitchell happened to be out of town at the time but her sister who was at the house in charge knew that Katie had no wages "counting to her." The other girl, Pauline, made a bold demand for five dollars that would not be due her till the end of the month, and made such a rumpus that the Rev. Mother was constrained to give her the money and let her go. Neither Pauline nor Katie would answer any questions as to where they were going. Enquiry was made on Friday and it was found that the girls had purchased tickets to New York at Harvey & Co's, and had gone off in the Rosalind as steerage passengers. They had only $5, and the tickets to New York would have cost them five times that amount. Their employers regard all the circumstances as being so suspicious, and knowing the girls to be good and innocent they informed the police. Inspector General Sullivan has been informed and is now doing some cabling to Halifax and New York, while Detective Byrne is about the wharves and schooners seeking information about the mysterious cousin who gave his name at the Convent as Mr. White. The circumstances of the case recall those of the White Slave Traffic, excite suspicion and call for the enquiry which is being made. Some people believe there is an agency in this city doing the devilish work and furnishing the funds to send innocent girls away to their ruin. All this goes to show the necessity of having a Working Girls Home established in the city where girls could get the protection they now so badly need, and where ladies who want girls or help would be able to get them. Hundreds of poor and innocent girls come here from the outports every year, and many of them go out of the Colony to destruction. We understand that the Rev. Mother of the Presentation Convent has a fund of $3,000 on hand for the erection of a Home for Working Girls.

MARSHALL BROTHERS.

Another Awful Tragedy.

Little Hazel Moore Terribly Burned Saturday Night, Dies Six Hours After Accident.

It would seem to be a gruesome coincidence that the tragic death which overtook the unfortunate man Dillon of the South Side on Saturday night last when Little Hazel Moore, aged 12 years, of 55 Goodview Street, was burned so badly as the result of an accident at her home that death ended her sufferings at the General Hospital 6 hours afterwards. Shortly after the horrible affair had happened, a Telegram reporter was on the scene and learned the facts of the case from the broken hearted mother, who could not realize that her child was so terribly injured and whose cries and lamentations would move the most callous hearted. Just before the accident, which caused the child's death, occurred, about 7.45 Saturday evening, her mother left the house to go to a ball of water from the fountain. When Mrs. Moore left the little one, who was at her lessons, was heard to ask her little brother where her father was. The lad answered that he did not know, and the little one knowing that kindling was required for the morning prepared to go into the cellar to cut some. Her father, Mr. John Moore, and his brother, Diamond, had gone into the cellar without the children's knowledge to cut some wood. The cellar is under the floor of a room at the rear of the kitchen and is reached by going through a small square opening in the floor. The cellar is about 6 feet deep and is reached by means of a small ladder which stands almost upright. When the father and his brother went down in the cellar they left the hatch off the aperture above. The little girl not knowing of their presence took a lighted lamp from the table and walking into the room did not notice the open hatchway. In this she walked and fell head foremost, striking pretty heavily on her head and side. The lamp was smashed in pieces and burning oil saturated the child's clothing, which were instantly in a mass of flame. Terror-stricken at the sight, her father and uncle ran to her aid and taking up some mats that were near, after great difficulty succeeded in quenching the blazing garments, but not before the little creature had sustained terrible injuries. Most of the hair was burnt off her head, her face, arms and legs were roasted, the flesh peeling off them, while the abdomen was in a terrible state, being literally baked by the fire. Mr. C. Moore, a neighbor, immediately phoned for medical aid from Mr. M. Duffy's grocery store near and Dr. Macpherson responded with commendable promptness. The mother had by this time returned, and though terrified and saddened by the sight of the sufferings of her little daughter, did everything to alleviate her sufferings, as she reclined on a couch, until the doctor came. He also did everything possible for the poor little sufferer, who bore her agony with wonderful fortitude. By the ambulance, which was quickly on the scene, the little one was conveyed to the hospital, where she died at 2.30 a.m. yesterday. Besides the injury caused by the fire, the child was dangerously hurt about the head by the force of the blow received when she fell. Both her father and uncle in trying to quench the flames which enveloped the child were burned about the face and hands and they had to be attended to by the physician before he left the house. The remains of the dead child were confined and brought from the hospital to her home at 4 p.m. yesterday. The parents are grief-stricken as a result of the tragic death of their little girl, and the sympathy of the whole community will go out to them in their bereavement.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DISTEMPER.

Steamers Arrive Here.

S. S. TOBASCO.
The Furness Liner Tobasco, Capt. Voerman, arrived here from Liverpool at 7.30 a.m. yesterday. The ship left there Saturday evening last and had fairly good weather until making this coast when a gale of wind with heavy sea and rain was encountered. She brought 475 tons cargo for this port and 28 bags and 9 baskets of mail matter. She had no passengers for here, but has a couple in transit for Halifax.

S. S. FOGOTA.
The s.s. Fogota, Capt. Baxter Barbour, entered port from the Northward at 10.15 a.m. yesterday. The ship which left here at 4 p.m. Tuesday last had rough weather all the trip, and going north met a S. E. gale and heavy rain but not much sea. She made all her ports of call, and reached Change Islands Friday morning, being compelled to harbour at Fogot all Thursday night in a gale of N. E. wind with a high sea and rain. She had stormy weather on the return, and brought 500 packages of freight, including 300 barrels of partridge berries, shipped at Bonavista and Elliston. Her passengers were:—Miss B. Young, Miss G. Young, J. F. Smith, D. Roberts, Capt. George Barbour, Miss J. Parsons, S. Abbott, Robert Walsh, Mrs. A. Diamond, Rev. Mr. Moody, Mrs. Harris and 13 steerage. She carried 70 passengers on the round trip.

S. S. PORTIA.
The S. S. Portia, Capt. T. Fitzpatrick, arrived here at 10.30 a.m. yesterday from the Westward. She left here on Friday, the 16th inst., and had excellent weather up till Sunday, the 18th, when on leaving St. Lawrence at daylight she had a S. W. gale with heavy rain until evening set in. It then remained fine until Tuesday morning when she left Port aux Basques when she was overtaken with a S. E. gale and heavy rain. The ship, however, was on the other side of the land where it was comparatively smooth. At 9 o'clock that night she reached Bay of Islands, and at 3 a.m. Wednesday she reached Bonne Bay and left at 9 a.m. She had fine weather to port. She brought a full cargo of fish in casks and cod oil, with one hundred barrels of partridge berries from Fortune Bay. Her passengers were:—Messrs. L. Barlett, P. Ryan, H. Lamer, Capt. Mission, Masters H. Bishop, V. Cluett; Misses J. M. Kelley, Walsh, A. Johnson, M. Lambert; Mrs. Bohanna and 42 second class.

Husband and Wife Are Reunited.

Mrs. Bohanna, who eloped with a man named Summers from St. John, N.B., to this city about two weeks ago and then accompanied him to Trepassy, arrived from the latter place by the Portia yesterday forenoon. Quite a number of curious people who knew she was expected were on the pier to see the woman land. She was met by her husband, who boarded the steamer immediately she tied up at the pier, and taking his arm she was escorted to a carriage by him and quickly driven to his hotel. Both left for their home at St. John by the Bruce express yesterday evening. On the voyage down in the Portia the woman seemed to be afflicted with remorse and cried the whole way. She expressed deep regret for her conduct towards her husband and said she was glad a reconciliation had taken place. Her paramour, Summers, is at Trepassy still.

Portia's Fishery News.

The Portia reports that six American tankers were at Burgeo in the outer harbor when she was there, all looking as if they had decent catches of fish. Squid, however, is scarce right along the coast. Thursday and Friday last the fishermen got plenty of squid for the first time in a month at St. Lawrence and down along the coast, and in that lengthy period, not 10 qts. of cod has been taken by the small boats. There has been no fall fishing to date at Law, L'Anse-au-Fort, or Burin. At Cape St. Mary's no-boats have been out the past week, and this fishery will soon come to a close. It has been rough there all the week with gales of S. W. wind.

From the Barrens.

Fire Supt. Michael Dunne who was out on the Colinet grounds shooting partridge, arrived here by Saturday night's train, having captured 20 birds in two days.
Messrs. Frank and Arthur Donnelly also came back by Saturday night's train. They were out on the Witless Bay line near Holyrood, and captured 60 birds between them in two days. They found birds very plentiful, and report Mr. Bob Strang doing good work.

Typhoid Abating.

We learn from Magistrate Fitzgerald, who arrived in town from Grand Falls, Saturday, that typhoid fever is on the decline there. There are now 20 cases which came in principally from the shacks which are being destroyed as quickly as possible. Several wells in the town have also been closed up. Every precaution is being taken to stamp out the disease which the doctor hopes to accomplish in a few weeks.

Father and Son Missing.

Mr. Hutchings, K. C., Deputy Minister of Justice, had a wire from the magistrate at Trinity, Saturday evening: Adam King and son aged 15 of White Point, Bonaventure, while fishing out in the bay with trawls Friday, sheltered under Ragged Island. Leaving there for home, boat not seen or heard of since. Fishermen believe boat swamped owing to increased sea and occupants drowned. King leaves a wife and five children.

The excursion train which left here at 2.30 p.m. yesterday took out over 100 passengers.

The Johnson Shield

WON BY ST. BON'S.
The lads of St. Bonaventure's College won the Johnson Shield on Saturday. Boys from the four city colleges under 12 years of age participated in the cricket competition. The other events of the programme were as follows:—
Hurdle Race—1st, Curran (Meth. Coll.); 2nd, Eagan (St. Bon's); 100 Yards Dash—1st, Eagan (St. Bon's); 2nd, White (Bishop Field); 175 Yards Dash—1st, Eagan (St. Bon's); 2nd, Kieley (St. Bon's); Throwing Cricket Ball—1st, Canning (St. Bon's); 2nd, O'Driscoll (St. Bon's); distance 61 yards.
High Jump—1st, Kieley (St. Bon's); height 3 feet 8 inches.
Relay Race—1st, Bishop Field; White, Winter, Goldstone, Coen and Bennett; 2nd, St. Bon's.
Walking Match—1st, Chafe (Bishop Field); 2nd, Goldstone (St. Bon's).
Football Final—St. Bon's defeated Bishop Field by two goals to nil.
The Victor Ludorum medal was carried off by Master C. Eagan of St. Bon's. St. Bon's team is now the owner of the Johnson Shield, having won it two years in succession. Judge Johnson, the donor, who was present, congratulated the boys on their success. The prizes will be presented at a later date. A celebration in honor of the victory was afterwards held in the College and speeches were given and refreshments served.

Inquiry Answered.

Editor Evening Telegram:
Dear Sir.—In reply to a letter from Mr. Fred. W. Ayre published in your paper of 22nd inst. I am instructed to inform him and the public the samples of water sent for analyses were taken from Winsor Lake as follows: One sample from inside the Breakwater, and one sample from about 900 feet outside the Breakwater, opposite Nearn's house.
Yours very truly,
J. L. SLATTERY,
Secretary-Treasurer.

A Close Race.

The steamers Ethie and Fogota had a close and very interesting race on Tuesday last between Bay de Verde and Catalina. The Ethie on leaving for Catalina was followed exactly five minutes afterwards by the Fogota, and going down the 30 mile stretch of shore it was a case of "diamond cut diamond" between them. The passengers crowded the decks to witness the contest, and all the steam the ships could carry was put on the boilers, and the firemen worked with a will on the Fogota. Capt. Barbour did not disdain to go into the stokehold to help fire up. It was a neck and neck race for miles, but the Fogota got into port about three minutes ahead of the Reid Co. ship. The distance was covered in 2 hours and 45 minutes.

Berries in Demand.

Almost every craft coming from the northward and westward bring shipments of partridge berries, and the Portia yesterday brought 100 barrels from Fortune Bay and the Fogota 300 barrels from Elliston and Bonavista. The price paid for the Fortune Bay fruit was $4. These berries are being sent to New York in constantly increasing quantities as the years go by. They are highly relished by Europeans in the States for making jams and preserves, and the industry progressing in the same ratio as at present will soon be an important one and should engage the earnest attention of our outport people. It is said that last year one outport firm cleaned up $3,000 in dealing in these berries.

Takes Crew Here.

All the crew of the big four-masted schr. Gypsum Emperor, with the exception of the mate and a Norwegian sailor, have left the vessel here, and she will take 6 men of a crew from this port. The mate on board will go as engineer on her, and Captain William Kennedy, the former commander of the Jessie L. Smith, will go as mate on the vessel. He was on her before for 18 months, and sailed south in the vessel from New York. She sails during the week for Bedford to load lumber for South America.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Dear Sirs,—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disgraced for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

Yours truly,
W. A. V. R.

Plant That Blooms Once in 70 Years.

At the London Zoological Gardens, says a correspondent, near the eagles aviary, visitors may now see the rare sight of an aloe in bloom.

The specimen, which stands about 24 feet high, and is shooting upwards rapidly, is a plant of symmetrical growth, with huge fleshy leaves, furnished with large spines, and disposed naturally in the shape of immense rosettes. The leaves contain a strong fibre, which is valuable for rope making, and the expressed juice may be used as a substitute for soap. It may also be manufactured into a liquor like cider.

It has been called the "century plant," from the belief that it flowers only once in 100 years. It is a fact that it takes many years to come to maturity, in some cases extending to seventy years. It flowers but once, and then dies. The Zoo is fortunate in having a second example of this very rare flowering plant, for it is just four years ago since a similar occurrence took place there.

A specimen of the aloe bloomed in Victoria Park ten years ago, when it was found necessary to remove a pane of glass from the roof of the house in which it was growing, so that the stem might have space to grow upwards. The crown of blossoms in this instance towered above the roof. At Kew Gardens, about twenty four years ago, a similar method had to be adopted when the aloe bloomed there.

The flowers when in full bloom will be a sight worth going a long way to see not only on account of the magnificent golden blossoms, but also because of the rarity of blooming in this country.

FELL THROUGH WINDOW.—At 9.30 Saturday night a drunk passing down Water Street fell through the window of Phalen's saloon, at the corner of Adelaide Street, breaking a pane of glass valued at $1. The fellow got out of the neighborhood in a hurry and it is not known who he is.

WABANA MINE.

The Mining Capital of Newfoundland.

The extent of developments at Wabana Mine are known only to a few, and it is disappointing that in the summer season just passed very few visitors, either local or foreign found their way to this interesting mine. The loss is entirely theirs and it is to be regretted that so many have let an opportunity like this slip by. The majority of St. John's people know very little about Wabana, in fact most Newfoundlanders know that it is situated at Bell Island, Conception Bay (not Belle Isle, as some would have it), and no more; while not alone is Wabana Mine a feature of Newfoundland, but even a feature of all North America, and we are not going to extremes in saying that it is a feature of the world.

The facilities of reaching Bell Island are good, and after enjoying a refreshing drive to Portugal Cove, and a short trip across the Tickle, the visitor a few hours after he has left St. John's finds himself with torch in hand wading around the immense Dominion No. 2 Dominion Slope, or the Nova Scotian submarine Slope, which extends far out in Conception Bay. These are the two principal mines to be visited, and here, underground, under water, we see hundreds toiling for their daily bread.

Here with the waters of Conception Bay roaring overhead we have an immense mine, not a mine, but a town, similar to the little town in the main

Biliousness

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and I find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family."—Edward A. Marx, Albany, N. Y.

I. & S. Co. pier for dipping the ore in the pockets is quite an invention, while the method of loading a steamer with 7,000 tons of ore in a little over two hours is one of the wonders of Wabana. To see for the first time the trips of ore coming from underground is quite a surprise, while to see the Marion steam shovels eating away the huge stockpiles of ore, some of which at one time this year contained over 200,000 tons, and loading the cars for transportation to the pier is something worth viewing. There are also many surface mines, where the rock is stripped off the ore, the latter then being ready for shipment. The D. I. & S. Co. have at present four surface pits working. Truly, then, Wabana Mine is worthy of a visit, and next summer when the N. S. S. & C. Co. have their million dollar electric plant installed, and the D. I. & S. Co. have two ten thousand ton steamers plying between Wabana and Sydney, this little iron rock, lying placidly in the middle of Conception Bay, will be a much greater hive of industry than it has been in the past.

EUREKA.

Wabana, Sept. 23, '10.

Why He Fired him.

"He wouldn't do for me," this man was heard to say in the comparative lull as the train slowed down for a station in the subway. "I tried all I could, nursed him along and was good to him, but he wouldn't work, and I had to let him go. Why, he was too lazy to laugh, and when a man gets as lazy as that, why, there's nothing—" but the rest was lost in the rumble of the train.

You Blame the Stomach

But chronic indigestion will disappear when the liver, kidneys and bowels are set right by DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS.

You are skeptical. For you have tried many medicines and still suffer from indigestion with all its annoying symptoms. Take a new line. Leave the stomach alone, for the source of trouble is in the intestines and healthful digestion can be restored by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. Mr. C. D. Bennett, Maple Grove, Megantic Co., Que., writes:—"I had dyspepsia very bad. The food would sour, my stomach would swell up, I suffered a great deal and could not sleep. As the result of using Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, I am now entirely cured and can eat any kind of food. They have made a new man out of a younger man of me and I cannot say too much in their praise."

Carl Richards Arrives.

The schr. Carl E. Richards, Capt. Hilton, arrived here from Mulgrave at 6 p.m. Saturday with a cargo of produce including 40 sheep and 97 head cattle. She left on Saturday, the 10th inst., and from the beginning had head winds. She took shelter at St. Pierre on the following Monday and did not get an opportunity to leave until Monday last, and again experienced head winds and sea with rain and fog, and again had to take shelter, this time at St. Lawrence which she left Friday morning. A fine bullock perished on the voyage down, but all the rest of the stock are well.

Has Important Position

Mr. Richard Campbell, butcher, who played here with the Collegian football team, and who has been several months past working at his trade at Grand Falls, has an important position with the A. N. D. Co. Some time ago he was selected by the Company to purchase cattle for the place, and is now up in the Provinces on this mission in which he will be engaged for several months each year.

Fogoto's Fishery News

The Fogoto reports that owing to stormy weather last week the boat only got on the ground one day, Tuesday, at Fogo and Cat Harbor, and then had fair fishing, each boat getting an average of 4 qts. At Newtown, B. B., they had two days fishing during the week, and the same at Greenspond. There is still a fair sign of fish on the ground but squid is scarce. From Fogo, Newtown and Greenspond when the boats get out there is a slight improvement, and it has been plentiful good results would follow.

Is Being Rebuilt.

The barq. Mfnnie, now on the Dry Dock, has been stripped to the waters edge and will be practically rebuilt. She will be reclassified. Capt. Wakeham is superintending the work of repairs which it will take several months to complete. Capt. Wakeham will go in charge of the vessel when repairs are finished.

Burned With Molten Iron Saturday

While Thomas Antle, a moulder at the Foundry, was at work Saturday forenoon, some molten iron he was using boiled over from the ladle and going over his right forearm burned it severely. After oils, etc., were applied to the burns at the works he proceeded to Dr. Cowperthwaite's surgery and was given attention.

He Went Overboard.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday evening as Thomas Fleming, of Notre Dame Street, was working on the floating stage repairing Shea & Co's. premises he slipped and took a header from the floating stage on which he stood into the waters of the harbor. He was quickly pulled out by men near, but was chilled from his immersion and had to hurry home for a change of clothing.

Newfoundlanders in Mexico.

Mr. Peter Williams who for years was in the employ of the late Mr. Robert Johnston, of this city, and who left here two years ago to seek his fortune, is now in the Republic of Mexico, and is in the employ of the Mexico North Western Railway Co. His brother, Ernest, is also there. He was employed here for several years with the Horwood Lumber Co. Now he is located in a country which has an altitude of 8,000 feet above sea level, and is a great resort for health seekers. Immense pine forests are located there, and the company which Ernest is working with is utilizing the wood, and cuts millions of feet annually. Peter is cashier of the railway in the district in which he works; Ernest has a responsible position also, and both are receiving good salaries. They are brothers of Mr. John Williams, Supt. of Knowing's West End dry goods establishment, and both are delighted with Mexico and intend settling down there permanently.

SCHOONERS ALL HOME.—The Fogota reports that all the Labrador schooners are home at Newtown, Greenspond and Wesleyville. All with one or two exceptions did very poorly and the fares run from 150 qts. to 300. It is the worst Labrador voyage in Bonavista Bay for many years past.
