HARVEST TIME

Every season in country life has its peculiar beauty, even the bleak and severe austerity of winter. The spring time brings its beauty of fresh promise, summer adds its luxuriant high tide of life. But the first days of fall, the harvest time, is in many ways the most beautiful of all. It has its marvelous touches of color, and also a feeling of fruition and reward for human labor. What artist ever realized transferred to canvas the intense crimson of the tomato or the smiling gold of the orange? What artificial color could ever reproduce the cheerful beauty of an apple tree dotted with its rich red fruit? Who ever painted the golden tones of a heap of husked corn or of ripe pumpkins? But the beauty of harvest goes far deeper than its mere appeal to the eye. It carries a satisfaction to the human spirit. Life is full of disappointments, and people often feel they are constantly going from one series of buffets to another. One has the feeling that the universe is against him and forever defeating his efforts and plans. Harvest comes, bringing with it a goodly showing of the products of man's toil. You look over a ripened field of grain or a well-laden orchard, and it is hard to feel that the world is very wrong. You can't help seeing that in the long run earnest work is well rewarded, and that the fertile earth makes ample provision for all its children. So a trip through the country at harvest time, not merely feasts the eyes, but it reinvestigates one's faith in the essential justice of life. It is with a more hopeful spirit that the town dweller returns to his dusty streets and hard brick walls, after the inspiration of a trip through country scenes at harvest time.

"Squibographs"

Indian harvesters in the hop fields report that their business is picking up.

In a few days we shall know whether we are to have a late "fall" or an early autumn.

English Channel swimmers greatly regret their inability to accept the invitation to "come across."

The fact that the "dog days" are over does not prevent chronic gronch-ers from growling about the weather.

Cretonne shirts for men have made their appearance. Combined with Oxford "bags" the effect is said to be startling.

Not a few are unable to accept the invitation to "See Canada First" because their creditors insist on seeing them first.

The "meanest" thief is reported in Nebraska. He stole the pocketbook of an unconscious woman pinned under an automobile.

Detroit is making war on the mosquito pest. Between dodging flyvers and swatting mosquitos, the citizens have little time for attending to business.

The weird music broadcast from the Arctic by Eskimo singers is said to be so pathetic that even hard-boiled "listeners-in" have been known to blubber.

Buglers broke into Jack Dempsey's home in Los Angeles the other night. Owing to the absence of the owner they escaped taking a ride in an ambulance.

The appearance of a shark stampeded the bathers at Coney Island the other day. The screams of the mermaids drowned the barking of the "hot dog" vendors.

A company is proposed in Florida to convert the Dismal-Swamp into a pleasure park. If the alligators can be trained to act as caddies it would be a popular resort for golfers.

The United States has one infant industry that flourishes without the protection of a high tariff wall. Five babies are added to Uncle Sam's family every minute.

Prisoners in a Michigan jail dug their way through a brick wall and picked the lock of the prison door with a can opener. Women could have performed the same trick with a hairpin.

The high cost of education is brought home to the alleged head of the house when he is called upon to outfit a large family with school supplies. There are times when even a bookworm will turn.

According to the decision of a Missouri court, making faces at a person does not constitute an offense unless there are witnesses present. It aggravates the offense when accompanied by abusive language or twisting of fingers.

A novel cure for baldness is reported. A New York man attributes a heavy growth of hair on his once bald pate to the custom of his pet cat licking his shiny dome. In the vernacular this process would be known as the "cat's whiskers."

A spectacular departure from the customary dedication exercises was recently witnessed in a German city. The mayor was called upon to open a new natatorium. To demonstrate his approval of the enterprise his worship plunged head first into the pool, wearing silk top hat and evening dress suit. His feat was loudly cheered. A precedent having been established more animation may feature these rather dull affairs in future.

WORLD EVENTS IN REVIEW

By G. A. MacBain

The Canadian people will have an opportunity of voicing their opinions upon the political affairs of the Dominion on Thursday, October 29th, it was announced by Premier King on Saturday, and the electoral machinery of all political parties is already in motion. Richmond Hill was the scene selected by the Premier for the long looked for speech, which occupied about two hours. The important national policies touched upon by the Premier, and forecasting his planks in the coming contest were those affecting the railway operation, ocean transportation rates, tariff, and senate reform. Along with the announcement of the election came the report of many changes and appointments in Government offices. Eight appointments were made to the Senate, J. J. Hughes, and Creelman McArthur, for Prince Edward Island; Hon. Jacques Bureau, and Hon. H. S. Beland, for Quebec; Hon. Charles Murphy, and John Lewis, for Ontario; W. A. Buchanan, and P. E. Lessard for Alberta. Hon. J. A. Robb is appointed Minister of Finance; Hon. G. H. Bovin, Minister of Excise and Custom; Hon. G. N. Gordon, Minister of Immigration and Colonization; Hon. Lucien Cannon, Solicitor-General. In addition there were several appointments to the King's Privy Council and to the judiciary.

Sir Henry Thornton Stays
The announcement that Sir Henry Thornton is to be retained as president and chairman of the Canadian National Railways for another three years will be greeted with satisfaction by most Canadians. His salary for the new term of office is increased by fifteen thousand a year to sixty-five thousand dollars.

H. B. C. Settlement Scheme
A new immigration movement is being set on foot by the ancient Hudson's Bay Company which has announced the formation of a subsidiary company to deal with land settlement. The company is associated with important British shipping interests and it is expected the new scheme will begin to function in the spring of 1926.

Ex-Kaiser Claims Fortune
The ex-Kaiser and his family who have laid claim to estates in Germany valued at more than two hundred million dollars, have a fair chance of succeeding in laying their hands upon this fortune, according to recent reports. This will help them considerably in their conspiracies which are said to be afoot all over Germany with the Princess Hermoine, the ex-Kaiser's wife as a ruling spirit. Recently the ban upon German imperial uniforms was lifted by President Hindenburg, and once again the streets of Berlin are aglow with the gorgeous colorings of pre-war military costumes.

Unlucky Shenandoah
Tragedy has overtaken the unlucky airship, the Shenandoah of the United States air force, and in a fierce struggle with the elements it was torn to pieces and thirteen of its crew killed. The Shenandoah was just two years old, having been in service since September, 1923, and was widely known because of its manoeuvres and adventures in various parts of the United States. It was planned to make a flight to the north pole in the giant dirigible in the near future. The fate of the Shenandoah has aroused a good deal of debate over the practicability of the lighter-than-air machines, and may lead to deeper investigation along the lines of structural strength for dirigible air ships.

Veteran Statesman Quits
The Right Hon. W. S. Fielding, whose resignation has made room for Hon. J. A. Robb as minister of finance, is one of Canada's oldest public servants, having spent forty years in public life. He retires now at the age of seventy-seven, taking with him the good wishes and gratitude of all Canadians. He has succeeded in that difficult task of emerging from the temptations of public office with an unsullied name. Ill-health has made it necessary for him to withdraw from active participation in politics, but his heart is still alive to the problems of Canada.

Canadian Heads League
Canada is flattered by the announcement that Senator Raoul Dandurand has been selected as permanent president of the Sixth Assembly of the League of Nations which is meeting in Geneva this month.

Immigration to the U. S.
The United States has 706,896 in 1923-24 to 294,314 the year ending June 30, 1925. Canada is the chief source of immigration. There is a flow of emigrants from the United States back to Europe, as for instance in the Italians, the number leaving the United States being nearly one thousand in excess of those who entered. The total course, set down the last five countries, Great Britain, Free State, Italy, Sweden, Slovakia did not fill $100,000,000 quota.

Confession is good
It is bad for the rest of the world. The Vernon News.

Arrest for Army
Great Britain now has more foreful men in the book the commander of the army is endeavoring to maintain equilibrium of the government, it is the arrest of a man concerned in the plot in the military. Afoot to hold a soldier recruit from the army.

While the ladies
Permanent waves, women favor the gentlemen's haircut shaves? From the Niagara Falls Review.

German Goat Skins for Lords
Following the report that Great Britain is to spend $10,000 a day on advertising Empire-made products throughout the British Isles, come the amazing report that the seats of the House of Lords are to be reupholstered with red goat skin from Germany. There is an uproar of protest from the press, but officials say they are interested only in acquiring their supplies at the lowest price.

New Inventions for Defence
A remarkable new machine, half airplane, half sailing ship, has just been added to Britain's defensive forces. When forced to descend to the sea, the airplane is converted into a trim sailing vessel with a thousand square feet of sail. The machine will carry four men, and will be used for reconnaissance work.

Among things that will rise again
When crushed to earth are truth and a swatted fly. From the Kamloops Sentinel.

Britain Stays in Mosul
Another contest with the Turks arose at the League of Nations council over Mosul, for which Great Britain has again been induced to accept a twenty-five year mandate. Turkish delegates charged that Great Britain was making demonstrations against them in the Mediterranean by means of naval manoeuvres, charges which were indignantly denied by British delegates. The news will be anything but welcome in Great Britain where the public regard the expenses of the Mosul mandate as productive of nothing but friction. It is assumed however, as a "moral obligation upon the Empire."

New Loan Floated in Canada
Canada is to continue to take care of a big part of her own financing at home, by issuing a new loan in long term bonds to the amount of seventy or eighty million dollars in Canada almost immediately. Heretofore such experiments have been highly successful, the issues being over-subscribed by the public, which is keenly interested in holding Canadian national bonds. Recently New York financiers were struggling for the privilege of issuing Canadian short term bonds, a Canadian issue being considered one of the plums of present day financing.

Unofficial Strike Spreading
The marine strike which is affecting Great Britain, Australia and South Africa, though an unofficial one, has made a serious situation in each of the three countries involved. In Great Britain it is possible to recruit sufficient crews from among the unemployed to keep shipping moving but in the Dominions the tie-up is a serious one.

Nowadays it is the blind pig that has nine lives.

Facing Old Debts
Some United States newspapers are now beginning to discuss the old outstanding debts which are still due by the United States to Great Britain in relation to Britain's war debt to Washington. The original debts which were repudiated after the Civil War amounted to sixty million dollars. Interest at three and a half per cent. the rate charged on the British debt, would give Britain somewhere around $125,000,000 more, and of course, at compound interest the sum would be enormously more. These were not debts for money loaned to the rebel states, but to the government of the United States after the war for reconstruction. Washington is finding it somewhat awkward just now to be confronted in the European press with this skeleton in the family cupboard, just when she is so insistent upon strict business virtue as applied to debtor nations. Some United States papers go to the extent of urging that these old debts be met and paid.

The Pirate City

Chicago, which has had severe warning from the government of the United States to regulate its supply of water from the great lakes for its sewerage system, declares that it does not recognize the authority of the warning and will continue to please itself concerning the amount of water it will use. The attitude of that city is one of the most amazing facts of international discourtesy in history. Chicago, the city of crime, is apparently not averse to maintaining its reputation as the greatest thief of international water in the world. Disregarding protests from its own and from the Canadian government, it goes on lowering the level of the lakes to such an extent that recently there was a two-day block on the Welland canal, owing to lack of water, while several ships of both nations were stuck fast.

Rev. Dr. D. N. Gordon Passes

Few men had a better chance to know Canada well than Dr. Daniel N. Gordon, Principal emeritus of Queens University, who died suddenly at Kingston in his 81st year. In 1879 he travelled from Victoria, B.C., to Winnipeg before there was a foot of railway built in the Far West, and he played a large part in laying the foundations of the Presbyterian Church in Western Canada. As Chaplain of the 90th Regiment he saw active service during the Northwest Rebellion, after having had charges in Truro, Ottawa, Winnipeg and Halifax. Dr. Gordon was a Nova Scotian, having been born in Pictou in 1845.

Monsters in B. C.

The Okanagan Valley has a new source of interest these days in the discussions, pro and con, concerning the creatures of a prehistoric race which, it is said, are inhabiting the great body of water cradled between the mountain ranges. "Long-necked, rough-skinned creatures which waddled across the surface of the earth long before man, monkeys, or evolution were heard of" are said to be living in the lake in the southern interior of British Columbia and one of the exponents of the theory, Mr. R. Leckie-Ewing, is preparing to fare forth with net and gun to bag one of them.

Labor to Extend Control

After spending the week end at Balmoral Castle as the guest of the King, Ramsay MacDonald journeyed to Scarborough to join the Trades Union Congress which has set out to achieve two purposes, central control over the conduct of strikes, with power to call out other than the affected unions in sympathetic strikes, and to put a halt to the work of "red" unions. A. M. Swales presided over the congress which consisted of eight hundred delegates representing a trade union membership of 4,500,000.

New Refunding Loan

Announcement has just been made that the Dominion Government has concluded its financial plans for the year by disposing of a new issue of $75,000,000 fifteen year 4 1/2 % bonds through a strong Canadian syndicate consisting of Wood, Gundy & Company, Dominion Securities Corporation, A. E. Ames & Company, Limited, and the National City Company, Limited. The bonds are being offered to the public through, practically every bond dealer and stock broker in Canada, and through the chartered banks.

In arranging for its long term financing in Canada, rather than in another market, the Government has followed the policy that has been almost rigidly adhered to during the last several years, the Victory Loans of 1917, 1918 and 1919 having been planned entirely for the Canadian market and the Refunding Loans of 1923 and 1924 having been offered in the same manner. Short term financing—such as one year note issues—have been placed in United States, where the demand for such bonds is so strong that such borrowing is abnormally cheap. These short term notes, however, are of interest only to the large financial institutions.

It is understood that the proceeds of the new issue will be used for refunding purposes, including the retirement of $42,000,000 of tax free bonds, which fall due on December 1st next. In this matter also, the strict policy of retiring tax-free bonds by the usual taxable issues is being followed.

The new issue should prove exceedingly attractive to Canadian investors. The maturity is fifteen years—in other words these bonds run for the same number of years as did the 1934 maturity Victory bonds which were issued in 1919 and which have become so popular. At the price of 97 1/4 and interest, the bonds will yield the investor an interest return of over 4 1/2 %, which is considered attractive.

Note and Comment

Strike in Coal Fields

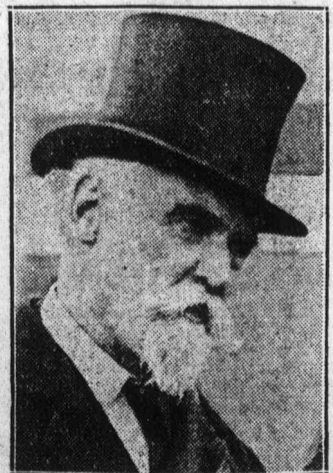

A hundred and fifty-eight thousand hard coal miners in the United States "walked out" at midnight Monday night, upon the termination of their two-year contract with the operators. The miners accept the situation as a holiday and are very merry over it, for the time being. There have been no disorders, and ten thousand maintenance men have been left in charge of the pumps and other stations at the mines, keeping them in condition for the return of the workmen. These men have agreed to pay ten dollars a month into the union's fund from their pay envelopes. A hundred thousand dollars a month will thus be contributed towards the fight. A curious phase of the strike is that hundreds of the miners are setting out with their families, in their own cars, for Florida to investigate the rumors of the land boom there, and to invest their savings. A big proportion of them, it is said will never return to the mines. The Canadian Trades and Labor Congress meeting at Ottawa have wired encouragement to the striking U. S. miners.

Premier Ferguson of Ontario, in anticipation of a coal shortage due to the coal strike in the United States is urging Ottawa to take special steps to secure for Ontario an extra supply of coal from Alberta. He points out that Canada should make herself independent of foreign sources of coal when she has large and inexhaustible supplies within her own borders, and the millions which go abroad for coal should be circulating here.

Our memory goes back to the time when people hoped it would be a girl on the ground that girls gave you so little trouble as they grew up.—Calgary Herald.

Ban Short Sleeves

In the past two weeks five thousand women wearing frocks with short sleeves have been turned away from the doors of St. Peter's in Rome by priests stationed there to carry out the decree of the Pope against what he alleges to be immodest dress.

COLONIES FOR GERMANY
Lord d'Abernon, British Ambassador to Germany who has been conducting negotiations over the security pact, has discussed the possibility of giving Germany mandates over two of her former colonies in East Africa, and Togoland.

Removing Beer Restrictions

Ontario's beer controversy seems likely to be reopened by Premier Ferguson's announcement that the Government was moving toward the removal of some of the restrictions surrounding its sale. "Hereafter permits will be issued more freely" said the Premier, "but they will be given only to people of repute and in places where a public service is to be performed." The regulation requiring customers to be seated at a table for beer service, Hon. Mr. Ferguson said, would likely come up for consideration later but was not to be removed "at the moment."

Trade Balance Improves

Canada has a better trade balance, by nearly sixty million dollars this year than she had last, according to a statement just issued at Ottawa. During the last twelve months Canada's customers have purchased from her goods to the value of $1,093,165,663, an increase of $26,860,403. During the same time Canada purchased from abroad goods to the value of $817,577,042, a decrease from the record of the previous year of $26,860,430. This means that there is an improvement in the trade balance of $59,575,374. The figures also show that Canada is purchasing less from the United States, and therefore lessening the advantageous trade balance which that country has held against Canada, and at the same time is purchasing more from the United Kingdom. In the same period Germany bought well over thirty million dollars worth of materials in Canada, but Canada's purchases in the late enemy territories was less than seven millions.

More Trouble In East

Another "delicate situation" has arisen in Europe over the Mosul question and Geneva is agog with rumors over the probable outcome of the negotiations which will be in process soon. A big part of the British people are very much averse to Britain continuing to shoulder the burden of the mandate over Mosul but the press seems to be accepting the fact that she must acquiesce in a renewal of that charge for the next twenty-five years, in spite of opposition at home. Observers feel that if Britain stays in Mosul, Turkey will show bad temper again and will be likely to cause serious trouble in that part of the world.

An Idol Topples

The baseball idol, Babe Ruth, is giving evidences of feet of clay, and Manager Miller Huggins of the New York American baseball team has recently fined the famous home runner $5,000 for misconduct and suspended him from the field. It is freely rumored in baseball circles that "Babe" Ruth is too fond of the cup that cheers, and is consequently falling down on his previous good record. Ruth admits breaking the training rules by late motor drives and festivities, but claims to have broken them only twice in the season. He made an unsuccessful attempt to appeal to Judge Landis, baseball arbitrator, against the judgment of Manager Huggins, and was equally disappointed when he laid his case before Col. Jacob Rupert, owner of the Yankees. The latter gave Babe some caustic advice and told him to make his peace with Huggins, who thus far has declined to grant him an interview.

Seamen's Strike

An unofficial strike of seamen in Great Britain which is believed to have been engineered from Moscow, is threatening to be serious. It is frowned down upon by union officials but continues to spread. It has come to Britain from Australia where there is a tie-up of shipping, and is being led by an official of the Australian union who is fighting the British union officials. So far no serious delays have been caused in British ports as there are plenty of unemployed seamen anxious to replace those who quit the ships which are outbound.

Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it as I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

Halifax Nurse Recommends

Halifax, N. S.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to hand. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN, 24 Uniacke Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

BREAD ON THE WATERS

The man who makes money in a community has a duty to perform to that community. It may be that he has made his money by superior business ability, and that he would have done as well anywhere. That should not alter the case. No man was placed on earth for the sole purpose of making money, and the man who has that sole ambition in life had better never have been born. It is not an act of charity, but the performance of a righteous duty for the man who has made money to pass a little of it on for the benefit of the community, even though he never expects to see a dollar of his contribution come back.

Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children. There is no other medicine as good and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. They are sold by all druggists or will be mailed on receipt of price, 25 cents per box, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. A little booklet, "Care of the Baby in Health and Sickness," will be sent free to any mother on request.

WANSTEAD

Members of the Wanstead Bible Study Group of last winter met last Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Elma Ramsay or a farewell dinner to Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Petter, who leave shortly for Fort Worth, Texas. Dinner was served on the lawn when about eighteen persons sat down to a delightful meal. At the close all retired to the house where a pleasing and carefully arranged program was carried out. A group of the three Ramsay children sang an original song composed on the occasion, after which a number of the members expressed their appreciation of the class and commented on the aid to Bible study they had received. Visitors from Toronto sang and played. A feature of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful hand-worked Czecho-Slovakian buffet set. Mr. Petter replied suitably and spoke of his enjoyment of the classes and the happy memories both would carry with them. After the formal part of the evening was over an hour was spent in pleasant conversation and the evening closed with the singing of "We'll never say goodbye in Heaven", and "Auld Lang Syne."

Miss Gwen Noble, nurse-in-training at the Ontario Hospital is holidaying at her home here.

MANY OBSTACLES ENCOUNTERED IN CHANNEL SWIM

Water is Rough, Cold and Changeable and Quickly Nausesates

From Cap Griz-Nez to Dover the English channel, or as the French call it, "La Manche," is only seventeen and a half miles from Calais to Dover. There are hundreds of people who can swim twenty miles, perhaps several thousands if all were tested. Yet in the past fifty years only five persons have been able to swim the channel, and when an athlete makes the attempt the whole world looks on. It is recognized as one of the greatest feats of skill, endurance and courage that a man can attempt, and a still greater feat for a woman. Why is it so difficult? Why do so many strong swimmers fail? There are several reasons, all of them having to do with the peculiar characteristics of the channel itself. It is rough and cold and changeable. Captain T. J. C. Martyn, who has crossed it fifty times, says that only once has it been smooth, and even on that occasion he was seasick. People who cross the Atlantic without qualms have been known to yearn for instant dissolution in the course of a channel crossing. Several swimmers have failed on account of the prosaic reason that they became seasick. Miss Ederle was forced to abandon her last attempt because of swallowing salt water.

Water Is Cold
The water is excessively cold, averaging about 60 degrees Fahrenheit, and rarely getting above 63 or 64 degrees. The problem is therefore, how to maintain the bodily heat. One might run twenty miles in almost any weather and the exercise would keep him warm, but one cannot swim twenty miles through a temperature of 60 degrees and not get chilled to the bone. To wear furs is obviously out of the question, and to carry an electric heater is equally impossible. The experts have come to the conclusion that only by building up the body, putting on fat, but not enough to impede the muscles, and rubbing the body with oil, can the swimmer keep from being exhausted by the cold. Captain Webb, who was the first to swim the channel, greased himself with porpoise oil, and the sailors who helped him rise to his feet when he fell exhausted on the sands at Cap Griz-Nez said that his body felt like cold tallow. If the swimmers could eat and drink enough of the kind of food and drink best suited to the purpose they could do a good deal toward ward off the numbing cold that descends on those who dare the Channel. But here again another difficulty is encountered.

Diets
The usual diets are beef tea, grapes, orange juice, coffee, tea and chocolate. But most of these come under the heading of mild, palatable and non-intoxicating stimulants rather than food. It seems impracticable to supply the swimmer with beefsteak and brandy, the traditional diet of heroes. Many of them swallow so much sea water that food nauseates them and so they go on their nerve, but this of course hastens their exhaustion.

Cheapest of all Oils.—Considering the qualities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So, being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it. al4-m

Nearing a Breakdown

A Condition That Calls for a Reliable Tonic
Many women give so much of their time to the cares of their household that they neglect their own health and sometimes reach the verge of a breakdown before they realize that their health is shattered. Often the heart palpitates violently at slight exertion, the stomach fails to digest food and discomfort follows. The nerves become weak and headaches grow more frequent. The body grows weak and they are always depressed. This condition requires immediate treatment with such a reliable tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which enrich and build up the blood, carrying renewed energy to every part of the body. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a rundown condition is proved by the following statement from Mrs. Alex. McInnes, Bowsman River, Man., who says: "About a year ago I had a serious illness which left me very anemic. I was not able to get around to do my work; in fact I could scarcely walk. I was troubled with palpitation of the heart with the least exertion. One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they had done her much good. I followed this advice and took the pills for some weeks when I felt as well as ever. I have since been able to attend to all my household duties. The dizziness and palpitation have left me and I bless the day I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are just the medicine for those who are weak and run-down."
You can get these pills from any dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Opposes Monopoly
In regard to the railway problem, he believed that the publicly-owned Canadian National Railway should have a fair show, and the privately-owned C. P. R. have fair play. He opposed an absorption of one road by the other, either to make a public or a private monopoly, but steps were to be taken to provide for the elimination of costly and injurious competition where it could be done without detriment of the service to the public. His slogan was, no monopoly on land or sea.
Concerning another problem, that of immigration, a minister had been appointed to give his entire attention to that department. Steps had been taken to co-ordinate the efforts of the government with those of the C.P.R. and Canadian National Railways. Emphasis would be laid on quality more than anything else in connection with this line of activity.
The other important issue was that of senate reform, and the prime minister dealt at considerable length on this. He said his government had been faced with a hostile senate throughout the term of the parliament. He outlined the difficulty of reforming the upper house, although his ministry were agreed that it greatly needed reforming. It could only be reformed from within, he said.
"Who appointed them?" was shouted by several listeners.
"I will come to that," the premier replied.

Waited for Strength
He then explained that instead of forcing an appeal to the people when the senate first started to throw out government measures he had waited until time should increase the Liberal strength in the upper chamber. Eight new senators had been appointed on Friday, and two more were to be appointed.
Mr. King said that while he believed in an independent senate on general questions every senator appointed by his government had undertaken

The Poets Corner

THE RAIN
The blessed, blessed rain, our profit and our gain, Refreshing and so free,
The patter of thy feet 'tis pleasant and 'tis sweet Because we've need of thee.
The moisture from above of fresh unceasing love
Our senses must respond.
The finest is the token that we are not forgotten God is very, very fond.
The clear and cloudless sky monotonous when dry Humanity is strange,
It calms the weary nerve when weather takes a swerve
And gives us all a change.
The best and rarest gifts eternally rest
I wonder if we're sane
We know we can't be static, we know we are erratic
But now we love the rain.
It cannot be refuted our blessings just are suited Just suited to our need Providence in kindness don't run this world in blindness
But gives to all their need.
Essential to get thirsty we need not be so crusty Things do not come by chance For hunger it is needy without it we get seedy Try gratitude for once.

Historical Sketch

Zion United Church, 2nd Line

WHEN the early settlers came to this part bringing with them the faith in God that inspired their hearts in the Old Land, there was no place for public worship. Their first consideration was, of necessity, their homes, which had to be hewn from the rough timbers of the dense forest pervading everywhere. But, even in these first years, they did not forget Christ's promise that "where two or three are gathered together in My name, there will I be to bless them," and their homes were used for "meeting places."

The first services were held in the home of Robert Hume who came to Warwick in 1832 and settled on Lot 23. It is interesting for us to note that he was the father of Mrs. Gault, who at present lives with her daughter, Mrs. Hamilton Taylor. In the same year came James Hume and settled on the farm now occupied by Clare C. Fuller. He was the father of Francis Hume, the contractor of our new church building sixty years ago.

The Edwards families came in 1836 and 1837—James Edwards in 1836, and Francis Edwards, father of Thomas Edwards in 1837. After this time came the Fullers, Clark's, Smith's, Hipkins', and Kersey's.

Services were held in the Hume home until Mrs. Edwards became an invalid; and then they were held in the Edwards home, then merely a log shanty in the woods until the log church was built.

The Log Church was built under the ministry of Rev. Wm. Dignam in the year 1844. It was constructed of hewed logs, and built in one day, being dedicated the same day with religious services in the evening.

An account of this is recorded thus in Mr. Dignam's own words: "So the morning came; the axe-men came, the oxen came, and the materials came. All hands to work; hewers of wood and drawers of water. And thus with one united effort our new-born temple sprang into order—as if the Creator had said "Let there be a house," and there was a house; and in the same house, the same day, the high praises of the Great Redeemer sounded."

The circuit of the early ministers necessitated much more strenuous toil than at the present time, it including for a time parts of the four townships of Adelaide, Warwick, Plympton and Brooke till about 1854 when Brooke township was taken off.

About 1850 it became known as the Warwick Circuit, and Warwick Village was one of the Appointments until the year 1884 when the Union took place of the Wesley Methodist and Methodist Episcopal Churches; and then it became known as the Watford circuit.

It seems fitting that special reference be made to the work of "Uncle Joe Little" who for a number of years was often to be seen riding through this part on his faithful "Toby." He was the friend and helper of everyone, and often preached in this church. Although he died on the Island of Anticosti, he is buried in the Methodist cemetery at Warwick Village.

Our present church was built in 1865 under the ministry of Rev. Oliver Birch. The church was remodelled and improved by veneering with brick in 1901, under the ministry of Rev. Jos. Galloway. Since then a modern shed has been constructed.

At present the congregation is in a prosperous condition but is looking for greater and better things in this Diamond Jubilee year; a year which also marks our entrance into the United Church of Canada.

So while we bow in reverent praise and thankfulness to Him for the rich Christian heritage which has been handed down to us by our forefathers of this community, who served under the name of "Methodists," we also rejoice mightily that it is our privilege to reap the benefit of their labours and to step out into wider fields of service in the United Church of Canada.

As we meditate on the history of this church, former members seem to speak to us and say: "To you from falling hands we throw the torch; be yours to hold it high" And in response we silently and reverently accept the challenge.

Breathe on us, breath of God,
Fill us with life anew,
That we may love what Thou dost love,
And do what Thou wouldst do.

The following are the names of those who helped in building our Church Sixty Years ago.

Mrs. Francis

former resi

whose husban

built the pres

in 1865, writes

interestingly in connection with informati on those early days on Warw ick Circuit.

Mrs. Hume is

years young,

very active,

has a wonderf ul memory and recalls many incidents of the old days.

She is now living with her daughter,

Mrs. W. A. Gardner,

in Port Dalhousie,

Ont.

"The first place of worship was in Mr. Edwards'

home, where we sat on the benches

and the table was in the middle of the room. In this building we had many happy

revivals and prayer meetings.

"As the country

became more settled this log church soon

became too small and a new church

was planned.

"The present

building was not built under contract as is now. The material was paid for and every one gave all they could and it took some time to pay for the work.

My husband,

Francis Hume,

with the help

of his brother

Henry.

"The land was given for this church by

Thomas Edwards,

a son of the former donor.

There was no silver trowel to lay the foundation

stone only a common spade was used to make the ground level for the frame work.

The word was passed around that a "Raising

Bees" was to be on a cer tain day to raise the frame work for the new church, which was respon ded to heart

ily. I took my two chil dren and provisions

which I had prepared and helped serve the men with their meals.

I do not just remember who the

Trustees

were. The most active

families

were: Smith's,

Fuller's

Clark's,

Edwards',

Hume's,

Wynn's,

Robinson's,

of these

Thos. Edwards,

Jno. Smith,

Geo. Fuller,

John Clark

were officials.

I am not just clear on who was the preacher,

we had

Mr. Crews

and Mr.

Howard

in both the log church

and new church,

then Mr.

Langford

which made it necessary to have the parsonage

in Warw ick Village.

We

often had "Uncle

Joe" Little

with us and he was a welcome

visitor

in the homes.

"The church

was painted white and the seats

were made by my husband

usually started

as

I

It

was stoves

"There

was not any organ

or choir;

my husband

usually started

the tunes and we used to say

"pitched

the tunes"

with a

tuning

fork.

"There

was indeed

a good old-

tea-

meeting.
