CURRENT TRADE CONDITIONS.

ONTARIO.

Wintry weather has put a further check on the consumption of lumber. It has also caused the early closing of inland navigation and the shutting down of mills. Many mills in the Georgian Bay district have logs in the booms which under different conditions would have been sawn this year. Altogether the lumber trade is quiet, but on all sides are heard expressions of satisfaction with the business of the year now drawing to a close. The Government timber sale last week proved conclusively that healthy conditions prevail in the lumber industry, and that the hewers of the forest do not anticipate a disastrous reaction in the industrial prosperity of this country. For a month or six weeks lumber is expected to move slowly, but as light stocks are carried by retail dealers and consumers, buying for the spring trade will probably commence early. Although yet too early to estimate the volume of building which will be done next year, it may be said that in Toronto present indications point to a very active season.

QUEBEC AND NEW BRUNSWICK.

Most of the mills in the Province of Quebec are now closed down and inventories of stocks of lumber in the yards show a reduction as compared with last year. Some contracting for British deals has been done and the prices obtained were in some cases higher than for similar stock one year ago. There continues to be a good demand for spruce lumber for shipment to the Eastern States. Clapboards are slightly higher, extras being held at $44 and clears at $42, Boston delivery. There is no particular change in New Brunswick cedar shingles, which range from $3.35 to $3.45 for extras.

UNITED STATES.

There is a natural decline in the call for lumber. The East has been buying with some liberality, but in the Northern and Western States the movement is light. The pine market is strong, however, with prospects of a continuation of firmness throughout the winter months. The readjustment of prices has apparently been completed. Box and other low grade lumber is about one dollar higher than at the same time last year, while common lumber is selling one dollar less and the price of the best grades is off about two dollars per thousand. In the Lake Superior district a very hopeful feeling prevails. The feature of the situation is the large amount of No. 4 and No. 5 boards that have been sold to be cut next season. No. 4 boards are bringing $12.00 a thousand, as compared with $10.50 last year. Advance sales of No. 5 boards have also been considered at $6.50 to $7.00 per thousand, as compared with $5.00 and $5.50 last year. The stock of low grade pine is almost cleaned up. The supply of shop lumber has been reduced on account of a more active demand recently for that lumber than for other grades. Buffalo reports a very fair trade, most of the orders now placed being for January shipment. There is less activity among the hardwoods and a consequent softening of prices at some points. Quartered oak has suffered to the extent of about $2.00 per thousand, but is still in good demand. Stocks are low and inquiries are sufficient to create the hope of an active trade in the near future. There is no increase in the demand for lath and shingles. Good white pine lath are steady in price but mixed are offered at concessions.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Messrs. Foy, Morgan & Company's Abstract of Stock, Consumption, etc., shows that at the end of November the stock of deals and battens in the public docks at London, England, was 3,898,970 pieces, as compared with 9,339,754 pieces one year ago. The duration of supply at the present rate of consumption is given as 6.53 months, as against 5.96 months a year ago. It will thus be seen that although there is a lighter stock the supply will be sufficient for a longer period, this being due to lessened consumption. In 1902 the monthly consumption was 1,276,959 pieces, while this year it is placed at 1,074,092 pieces. Deliveries from the public yards have fallen off considerably of late and some reports state that the price of pine deals and sidings is weaker. There is no doubt that the high prices have curtailed the consumption. Spruce is ever firmer than pine. There is a healthy market for square and waney pine timber, the bulk of late receipts having been sold before arrival. First-class elm timber sells quickly.

GREATEST TIMBER SALE ON RECORD.

The sale of timber limits held by the Ontario Government on December 9th was the most successful on record. The receipts were far in excess of any previous sale and much greater than were expected. The attendance of lumbermen was also the largest ever known and the bidding was quite spirited. Altogether 326½ square miles were disposed of, the receipts being $3,687,337.50, or an average price of $4,461.38 per square mile. This compares with the highest previous average of $3,657.18 reached at the sale of 1892. The record for the highest price per mile was also made, when Mr. T. Mackie, M.P., paid at the rate of $31,500 per mile for 3¼ square miles comprising Berth No. 5 in the Township of Hammell, Nipissing District. The previous high price was $17,500, which was paid by the Gilmour Company in 1892.

The purchasers of berths in the Nipissing and Algoma districts are allowed to cut the red and white pine only, while in the Rainy River district the purchasers are entitled to cut the pine, spruce, cedar, tamarac, and poplar, except as to Berths G19, G21, G23, G29 and G38, on which red and white pine only can be cut. The stumpage dues on all the pine timber is fixed at $2 per thousand feet.

Several transfers of claims have been made since the sale. These are recognized in the details of the result which follow:
