DRINKS QUART OF WHISKEY BOY HAS CHANCE TO LIVE

John McKellar, Aged Nine, Finds Bottle Floating in Bay — Minor Mention.

HAMILTON, Nov. 20.—(Special)—This evening before dark, John McKellar, aged 9, son of John McKellar, 8 West Burlington-street, found a bottle floating in the bay, and he and a couple of companions fished it out. Seeing that it contained liquor, he broke the neck off the bottle and drank its contents. Scarcely had he done so when he began to stagger about, and then fell to the ground unconscious. His companions becoming alarmed, ran away and left him. He was found short time afterwards by a man, who, recognizing the lad, took him to Dr. Dwyer, who called him to his office and ordered the boy's removal to the City Hospital, where a stomach pump was used. Nearly a quart of liquor, which contained alcohol, was drawn off, and this will be analyzed. The boy had not regained consciousness when a doctor came to the hospital. The Oshawa business men are congratulating themselves that no change will take place in the policy of the bank. The head office is in Toronto, the controlling stock is held in Oshawa, and the directors are all from the town. The bank does 90 per cent of the Oshawa business, and chiefly, it is said, because reference to Toronto has not been necessary when a transaction required a quick decision.

A general strike has occurred in contracting out the operation of the American local bank system to the Canadian method, and it is freely stated that Oshawa owes its industrial importance to the direct and intelligent interest taken in local business by the Standard.

Building Up Oshawa.

In a few years after its opening eight of the branches have been established, and much money began to come in to the head office to enable the bank to take care of Oshawa business. The result was to build up many industries, and to acquire that hold on the business community, which is now readily acknowledged by all as thoroughly justified.

JUDGMENT FOR THE BANK.

Mrs. May of Weston liable for debt under guarantee bond.

In the non-jury assize court yesterday Justice Clute gave judgment for $375 and costs to the Bank of Hamilton against Mrs. Eleanor May of Weston, whom the bank sued for the balance of money due under a guarantee bond.

William May & Son, who operated a saw mill at Weston, applied to the bank for a line of credit for $3000. This was given them only after Mr. May had given a considerable property, had signed a guarantee, which she thought only covered $1000, but which the bank says referred to the entire loan. The $1000 was repaid, and she contended she was free from liability.

There was considerable friction between the husband and wife. Mrs. May, husband of the defendant, was on the stand yesterday. John Jennings, counsel for the bank, asked him if he considered his wife a truthful woman, and if what she had told him was true. His lordship directed the witness not to answer the question and ruled it out. The lawyer then asked the lawyer that he had never heard of a case where a judge refused counsel permission to attempt to break down a witness' testimony. The judge answered him by the assertion that never in his experience, either at the bar, or on the bench, had he heard counsel ask a man whether he believed his wife to be a truthful woman.

In giving judgment Mr. Justice Clute pointed out that Mrs. May had admitted tearing the bond over twice before attaching her signature. She had not alleged fraud or misrepresentation in her defense, so no other cause was open to him.

Suit for False Detention.

WINDSOR, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Miss Jessie Alexander, formerly a maid in St. Thomas, has filed suit for $25,000 damages against Dr. Albert Thompson of St. Clair, Mich., and ex-Sheriff Moore of the same place, alleging that she was falsely imprisoned in the London Insane Asylum.

PROTECT CANADIAN CATTLE.

So heavy have been the ravages of foot and mouth disease that in all cattle breeding countries regulations of the strictest kind are in force to prevent an outbreak among the home herds. Some days ago The World published an exclusive announcement that the Buffalo yards had been closed for quarantine purposes. At first ignored, the information then given has since been abundantly confirmed by the denunciation of New York and Pennsylvania as affected states, altho it is uncontested that the real locality of the outbreak is as yet unknown. Immediately on the matter becoming public the British authorities, always nervous on the subject of cattle disease, prohibited the importation of cattle from the port of New York and strengthened the inspecting staff at all import points.

The Canadian authorities, it is reported, have brought into force quarantine regulations against the State of Pennsylvania and the order was later extended to include the State of New York. This in the circumstances does not appear to be either effective or sufficient for protective purposes. All that it means is that cattle known or suspected to come from these states will not be admitted into Canada until their freedom from disease has been assured. But as the real danger point in the United States has not been located, partial prohibition cannot be considered as in any real sense a safeguard. Besides, it has been clearly shown that foot and mouth disease may be conveyed otherwise than by infected animals themselves, and no protection can be regarded as complete which does not include hay and straw and other fodder and bedding stuffs which may be instrumental in the spread of disease.

Canada at the present moment is undoubtedly free from infection and the immunity has continued for a number of years. The healthy state of Canadian cattle has been constantly urged as a reason for the removal of the British embargo on the importation of live animals, and the slightest ground or suspicion on that point will be eagerly seized and used by its supporters. For protective purposes the states of the Union cannot be considered as independent countries, since, apart from special and temporary regulations, cattle move without let or hindrance from one state to another. And more particularly when the source of the outbreak cannot be traced is it essential that Canada should be absolutely protected, not only from actual infection, but from suspicion that any taint exists or has been allowed to enter, or that her ports are being used as shipping places for United States cattle. Dr. Clarence Marshall of Philadelphia is reported to have said that the United States Government might find it necessary to quarantine every cattle state. Much more has Canada need to extend her quarantine regulations to the whole of the United States. In a matter of this nature absolute safety should be the first object and nothing that can secure it should be omitted by the responsible authorities.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

Prince Edward Island delights in surprises. When the country was swept by the Laurier landslide of 1904, it was the independent islanders who saved Ontario from splendid isolation. They returned three Conservatives and one Liberal. These gentlemen, especially Messrs. Martin and McLean of Queen's, never allowed the house to forget either the rights or the wrongs of Prince Edward. The Liberal member was naturally the least aggressive, and great hopes were entertained of his defeat, but even the "forecasters" in his own party conceded that there would be no Conservative loss in Prince Edward Island. Both parties made a surprise on Oct. 26. Mr. Hughes indeed was beaten, but all three Conservatives members—including Mr. Legge—were also defeated. The result of 1904 was reversed entirely. Hardly less surprising is the recent election, which has all but overturned the present provincial government.

Prince Edward Island has helped to make history. Originally the French colony of St. Juan, it passed to the British crown when invaded by a detachment sent by General Wolfe as part of the long campaign which culminated on the Plains of Abraham. Soon after this, the colony, then thoroughly British, sought to change its name to New Ireland. This was not confirmed by the colonial office, and, after a long discussion, the island was christened Prince Edward in honor of the Duke of Kent, the father of Queen Victoria.

For years a troublesome land question perplexed the colony, but, when this was disposed of, the people bent their energies to the formation of a maritime union. The arrival of the Canadian commissioners, headed by Sir John Macdonald, adjourned the Charlottetown conference to Quebec, and led to confederation. Prince Edward, however, remained aloof until 1872.

Our baby province has a shrewd notion that she must be insistent to get her share at the table, surrounded, as she is, by so many long-armed sisters. We might be misled into thinking that she is in quite a distressed condition, but her neighbors down by the sea assure us that this "Garden of the Gulf" is literally overflowing with milk and honey. Her people have not made much progress in getting their tunnel to the mainland, and, just now, it may seem costly enterprise; but certainly something ought to be done to place them on the main line of the I.C.R. As matters now stand, a private corporation takes toll upon their freight, as it passes from one government railway to another.

However, this fertile province has some consolation. There is always plenty to eat; and, if there is not always plenty to drink, it is because she prefers prohibition. Prohibition, by the way, in this province, is not limited to liquor. The automobile is also prohibited.

AN APPRECIATION OF CANADIAN ART IN STAINED GLASS.

A large memorial window has lately been executed by Robert McCausland, Limited, representing "The Angel's Announcement to the Shepherd." The numerous figures comprising the group are in full size and are admired for their beauty and drawing ability.

The following letter has been received from Messrs. John Scott & Co., architects, 515 Moffat Building, Detroit, Mich., the donors of the work:

"Detroit, Mich., November, 1908.
To Robert McCausland, Limited,
515 West Washington Street,
"Toronto, Canada."
"Dear Sirs.—The memorial window is now installed and is entirely satisfactory to my brother, my sister and myself, and we desire to thank you for the very fine piece of work and to compliment you on the strong, artistic interpretation of a very beautiful story."

"The day of dedication was fine and clear; the beautiful effects of the window, therefore, showed to good advantage. The window is greatly admired by the visitors to our city and all the congregation. It will certainly remain a credit to you and a lasting source of pleasure to the people of All Saints' Church."

"I shall be happy to forward a New York draft on receipt of your bill."

"Very sincerely yours,
"Arthur H. Scott."

In addition to the large number of important commissions for memorial windows of the highest class recently executed by Messrs. McCausland, they have undertaken the construction of many interesting works of the kind, including three large windows for the University of Toronto in honor of students who fell at Ridgeway in 1866.

125 MILES IN A ROWBOAT

REMARKABLE STORY FROM MISSION CITY.

Mr. John R. Wren, late Reeve of Mission City,

B.C., is now 66 years of age and tells the following remarkable story: "Some years ago I was given up by the Doctors. I was so weak I could not walk across the floor, and was patiently waiting for death. I had paid as much as $25 a visit for a specialist who said I could not get relief. In this condition I sent for a sample of PSYCHINE. The first night PSYCHINE gave relief. The bleeding of the lungs ceased and in three weeks I was able to walk three miles before 7 o'clock a.m. and take the oversight of a crew of men." This was in 1894, just 14 years ago. Since that time Mr. J. Wren has been Reeve of Mission City, and on August 17th, 1908, wrote: "I am now in my 66th year and weigh 296 pounds and do considerable business. Last week I travelled 125 miles in a row boat and slept out every night, and feel no bad effects from it. I owe this new lease of life to Dr. T. A. Slocum and his remedies."

No wonder Mr. Wren is grateful for PSYCHINE, for it transformed him from a weakling into a sturdy, hardy man, and this at a time of life when most people are expecting the reverse.

PSYCHINE is a wonderful Tonic and Life Giver. Living witnesses prove this statement for PSYCHINE cures are permanent. THERE IS LIFE IN EVERY DOSE. We want you to test its power and send for a Trial Bottle at our expense.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

ELEANORA.

As precious gems are not for lasting fire, They but perfume the temple and expire; So was she soon exhausted and vanished from me; A short, sweet odor of vast expense. She vanished, we can scarcely say she died, For but a now did heaven and earth divide; She passed serenely with a single breath. This moment perfect health, the next was death. One sigh did her eternal bliss assure, So little penance needs when souls are almost pure, As gently dreams our waking thoughts pursue. Once one dream passed, we slide into a new; So close they follow, such wild order keep, We think ourselves awake and are asleep; So when death succeeded life in her, She did but dream of heaven, and she was there.

John Dryden.

The formal opening will take place Monday evening, after which the galleries will be open to the public.

Madame Calve

There have been many great singers, but the great singers who have also been great actors and actresses have been few and far between.

Among those is Madame Emma Calve. Even if she were not endowed by nature with one of the most glorious voices of the last century, she could still have attained as great fame as she now enjoys on the operatic stage. She possesses that most essential of all the attributes of the great actress, temperament. Coupled with this she has in a very large degree that evanescence and indefinable something called "mystery" for want of a better and more expressive term. The technique of acting she has at her fingers' ends, a resourceful technique which enables her to mirror with astonishing clearness and certainty the emotions she is seeking to portray. Even on the concert platform, away from the glamour and the illusive atmosphere of the operatic stage, she is still the great actress, as well as the great singer.

Her concert method is not the conventional and coldly reserved method adopted by most singers. Calve is too emotional, too temperamentally, too volatile, to permit herself merely abstract praise. She wants to reach the hearts of her listeners, whenever she sings, and that she does so is attested by her amazing popularity.

She is to appear in concert in Massey Hall on Tuesday evening next.

SALVATION ARMY BAND.

Some Interesting Facts About This Prominent Musical Organization.

Commissioner Colman of the Salvation Army may be justly proud of his territorial staff band, which, altho' a comparatively young organization has already won for itself a front rank place in the Canadian musical world, and in this instance of a difficulty that does not confront any other musical combination, namely, the limited supply of the music to be played.

While the world's market of compositions is open to other bands, the music at the disposal of the territorial staff band is limited by the arrangement of the production of some member of the army, and which has passed the critical ear and scrutinizing eye of an expert musical board, which sits in regular periods in London, England, and which considers only such pieces as suitable and fitting with the methods adopted by the army for the prosecution of its work.

The marches are inspiring and the selections often include old and familiar hymns and tunes, which form the ground-work for brilliant and attractive arrangements.

The members composing the territorial staff band with one or two exceptions are officers of the Salvation Army and are attached to the territorial headquarters in Toronto in various capacities, such as departmental heads, assistant managers, accountants, cashiers, architects, secretaries, clerks, etc.

"Not only does the term 'made' by the Salvation Army apply to the music played by this organization, but the instruments used are manufactured at the army's own factory, and even the players themselves have been trained since entering into the ranks, and great credit is given to Brigadier H. Morris, the bandmaster and conductor of the band, whose object is purely evangelistic, no monetary consideration being received by any of its members.

Since the inauguration of the band, it has put itself in readiness to respond to the invitation from even the smallest town.

On the occasion of the visit of General Booth to Canada last year, the band was privileged to accompany him to Montreal, Quebec and the Maritimes Provinces.

The composition of the territorial staff band is purely brass and along similar lines to the "Besses of the Barn" and "Black Dyke" bands. It also includes a corps of marchers. The officer directly responsible for the territorial staff band is Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Howell, who will be the speaker in connection with a special service to be conducted by the band at the Masey Music Hall on Sunday night.

Everything She Ate SEEMED A BURDEN TO CARRY.
HAD STOMACH TROUBLE
FOUR YEARS.

When your food has not been properly digested, your body has not received the benefit it should. The exertions of the gastric juice have been confined entirely to removing the unassimilated undigested portions of food which they cannot properly digest as speedily as possible from the body, thus causing a great deal of unnecessary waste of nervous energy with which to feed the tissues. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the bowels, promotes perfect digestion, makes pure blood, tones the stomach, and thus restores perfect health and strength to the debilitated system.

Mrs. D. A. Francisco, Roslindale, B.C., writes: "I was suffering from stomach trouble of the worst kind for about four years. Everything I ate seemed a burden to carry. I always awoke in the morning with a sickness and feverish taste in my mouth. There was also trouble with swelling in my hands and feet which the physician said was due to the disordered state of my stomach. I tried everything that was purchasable, and also consulted two or three physicians, but could find no relief until one of my neighbors told me of a wonderful cure by Burdock Blood Bitters. I used altogether ten bottles and am now perfectly cured. I wish to recommend B.B. to anyone who may be so unfortunate as I was."

Pastor Russell's Sermon

FOSTORIA, Ohio, Nov. 20.—Pastor C. T. Russell, of Pittsburg, Pa., preached twice here in the Opera House to large and intelligent audiences. We report one of his discourses from the text, "Now, the end of the commandment is love, because it is a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: from which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling" (1 Tim. 1: 5, 6). He said:

In our text, and in other passages of the New Testament, the translators have used the word charity instead of the word love, whereas usage to-day gives a slightly different significance to the word charity. Let no one therefore say that the principle of the end of the commandment is charity. In the sense of benevolence alone giving, but understand the text as we have quoted it: "The end of the commandment is love." Rightly understood and thoroly accepted and acted upon our text would point to one of the most important in the Bible to the Lord's consecrated people. If we were called upon to shoot at a mark it would be important to us to be rightly informed as to what object constituted the mark. If we were to run a race for a prize it would be very important for us to know the route, the conditions and what would constitute the end of the race, the mark which we must reach in order to be declared winners. God reveals to us in the Bible that he is now selecting a special class, a "little flock," which is to be the instrument to be associated with the Redeemer in the glories and work of the Millennial age.

He points us to the world of mankind, declaring that "the whole world in the wicked one" and that the God of this world has blinded the minds of men to ignorance and superstition and sinful pride. We note that he has arranged the thousand years of Christ's Millennial kingdom for the opening of those blinded eyes and the uplifting of mankind out of present sin and degradation and death conditions. He speaks of that the Millennial will be "times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all the holy prophets since the world began." (Rev. xx: 6; Acts. iii: 19, 21), and that the light of that glorious epoch will be clear that "the wayward man need not err and that only the unwillingly disobedient resistances of God's grace, will fail to profit by the opportunity and be destroyed in the second death." (Acts. iii: 23). He tells us that the work of this Gospel age is to select the "little flock," the "royal priesthood" of God's chosen ones, who will administer to mankind the blessings of that golden age.

But while we are rejoicing in these privileges and hearkening to the Master's words: "Blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear," we are not yet informed for these great honors and privileges as such are not arbitrary. We are admonished that God has established certain standards of fitness for those who aspire to this "high calling." This "heavenly calling" is:

The apostle speaks of the mark of the prize of our high calling in Christ Jesus." It is perfectly true that a great prize is offered to those who are now called according to the Divine purpose during this Gospel age, but it is equally true that there must be a mark of character development, nothing short of which would be acceptable to our Heavenly Father and bring us the great reward promised to the overcomers in His church of glory as members of His bride class. With this mark or standard of character is the Scriptures set before us in various terms, each of which carries its own force (meaning), but all of which seem to be necessary to fit us for the mark of character development, nothing less than the merit and aid of our Lord. We are told that such shall share in the first resurrection as the blessed and holy and shall subserve His cause in the ages to come.

Amongst the lessons given us in the School of Christ are some which instruct us respecting our mortal bodies; that "sin must not be allowed to reign in them, but must be fought and overcome." Others tell us that we should "clean ourselves from all uncleanness and filthiness of the flesh, purifying holiness in the reverence of the Lord." (2 Cor. vii: 1.) Others tell us that the pure in heart shall see God; that the pure in heart shall inherit the earth; that only the innocent shall be called the children of God; that God and holy will all those who have repented of their sins for deliverance; and that for purity of heart which will make them fully acceptable to the beloved. The pure heart is wholly devoid of everything opposed to love. It has not the love of money, nor of flattery, nor of pride, nor of lies, but of the lies; not of evil creatures, but of the slanders; not of the contentious, but of the contentious. And of course one who has this purity of heart in which love has full control will guard his heart, thoughts and word and act, that he may not do evil. We are told that the will of God may be done in him perfectly. And if inadvertently he finds that he has violated these principles he must have that good conscience which would be even more ready to confess the wrong in him than to his master, and by it, he must hasten to make good the wrong to the best of his ability.

Our Master laid emphasis upon the fact that the spirit's significance of the ten commandments is to be apprehended in the word of God; that especially we must love God with all our heart, mind, soul, strength; and above all else we must love our neighbor as ourself; otherwise we could not have divine approval. On the other hand we are assured that we are not being judged according to the flesh, with its hereditary weaknesses and blemishes, but according to the spirit of the man in meekness, with which we have been begotten, and with which we have received the message of God's grace. We are sure that the Lord looks upon the heart.

When the Lord looks upon our hearts, then with our real intentions, and tests these in this our judgment, our test, our trial. No wonder the apostle says, we should give diligent heed, for we may be found of the Lord in peace, without spot and blameless. Oh! what a heart-searching these consecrated ones.

A matter of the greatest importance, he said, was, getting to notice things as one passed along; and, in a wider sense, events that came along in one's life.

The man who notices things," he said, "is the man who is being noticed." Among the host of nothing should go the wisdom of learning lessons from events, and of imparting helpfulness to those with whom one was associated.

"Let us get our business into ourselves," said Mr. Eaton, "then put ourself into our business." Also, "if you cannot put the Bible into your business, then the Bible is of no use to you."

Peter and Paul came up to the Gate Beautiful where was a man who wanted the children of Abraham, Isaac, and Moses. But the great man, repaid the school room, and was pained to be taught of the poor, the wisdom of this world to that which cometh from above. Only Israelites indeed, in whom was no guile (the honest-hearted) were properly ready for the school room and preparation for the kingdom. The apostle, like early Christians, entering this school, "endured a great fight of afflictions, partly made a gazing stock both by reproaches and afflictions and partly by becoming companions of those who were so used." (Heb. xi: 33, 34).

AT THE THEATRES

Chauncey Olcott, in Augustus Pitou's splendid production, "Ragged Robin," will be the attraction at the Princess Monday evening.

"Ragged Robin" stands at the head of its class as an Irish drama. To begin with, it has that very desirable element, a characteristic atmosphere. Then we have a delightful little love story of Irish life, the charm of which is enhanced by the presence of a host of music, of folk and fairy love. Least of all, least, it is a typical Pitou production, and that means a wealth of fine scenery, costumes and a splendid company to give life to the characters.

Mr. Olcott plays the part of Ragged Robin, and his wife, Mrs. Olcott, his attendants, who having been driven from home thru the machinations of a jealous foster-brother, Martin Darcy, ramble about the country as a wandering minstrel. In the opening scenes, the play comes to the conclusion of Auguste Grattan on the morning of the wedding day of Margaret Grattan to Martin Darcy. There is an enchanted well on the farmer's property, the waters of which unite for life any couple drinking from it. Robin quenches his burning thirst from the well, and shortly afterwards Margaret unwittingly, also drinks. The fairy spell is then woven around the lives of the pair, who are drawn irresistibly toward each other. Robin accompanies the wedding party to the church wedding, and the spell begins to work actively. Martin perceives with jealous rage the fascination Robin has for his intended bride and has the minister driven from the house. There is a host of scenes, many between the second and third acts. In the meantime, Martin has died, but on his deathbed has made a confession exculpating Robin from the misdeeds of which he charged him to his father. The latter has been made blind and deaf, and become Sir Robert Harcourt, and the possessor of vast estates. Robin relieves the distress of many old friends and then looks for Margaret, who has been made poor by the death of her husband, a friend, who, however, guides him thru the gloom and as dawn breaks over the hills the lovers are united.

While the story is simple in its construction, it is admirably told.

HUSBAND AND WIFE

Both Restored to Health by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"Both myself and my wife can truthfully say that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been of great benefit to us, and we heartily commend them to all who are suffering from the same trouble. About a year ago my wife began to complain. She seemed to be completely run down; was very pale and weak; she could not walk up stairs without stopping on the way to get breath. Her complexion was greenish so weak she could not sweep a floor without resting. She tried several tonics, but received no benefit. Then I persuaded her to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She took a half-a-dozen boxes. After she had used a couple of boxes, her appetite began to improve, and the doctor to return to her face. She continued using the Pills until she had taken the six boxes, and to-day she is perfectly well, feels stronger and looks better than she has done for some years. While she was taking the Pills she gained twelve pounds in weight."

Italian Grand Opera. Italian grand opera is announced for the Princess Theatre for four performances, Nov. 26, 27, 28. Ivan Abramson announces that he will bring to Toronto productions compete in every detail, a full orchestra of 32 men, a chorus of 50 good singers, a ballet of 18 dancers and a double set of principals for the different operas to be produced.

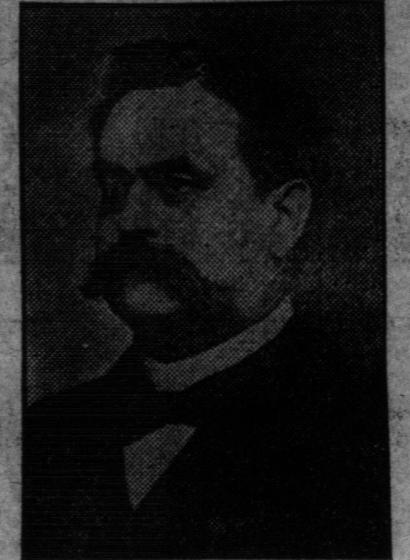

Thursday evening the engagement will be opened with Verdi's "Aida," which is the classic among the best works in the repertoire of modern opera. It affords opportunity for the spectacular and its dramatic story and sorrowful ending give scope for the powers of at least five artists. The cast for this work in Toronto by the Abramson company will include Mme. Helene Therry, as Aida; Mlle. G. Stoenes, as Amneris, Mlle. E. Davis, Mme. Radames; M. A. Pacini, Amonasro; M. G. Gravina, Ramfis; M. A. Oteri, the King. Mr. Abramson has given this opera nine times the present season in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, which indicates its popularity and drawing power.

The second opera, Friday evening, will be Donizetti's "Lucia Di Lammermoor," one of the old masterpieces, made famous by Paul Gerster, Semper and Mother. It appeals to lovers of melody and those who appreciate the tuneful and music of the opera of former days, and yet its drawing power is such that it is heard even today both at the opera houses in New York and elsewhere. An Italian opera company gives repertoire, throughout this country or abroad. Miss Julia Ellen Torre has the title role, Lucia; M. Eugene Torre is Edgardo; M. Zara is Alfonso, and M. Zara as the "Torador."

For the Saturday matinee another Verdi favorite, "Il Trovatore," will be given, the cast including Mlle. Therry, Mme. Strauss, M. Bari and M. Pacini. Saturday evening the singer, the English corner King and York Sta. Room 60, where he will remain for a few weeks, to cure Stammering, Stammering and all forms of speech impediments.

ART SALE.

One of the most attractive and interesting art sales that have taken place in Toronto will be held in the gallery of Messrs. C. M. Henderson Co., 87-89 East King-street, on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 24. It is almost entirely composed of a private collection selected with exceptional taste and discernment, the remainder including other choice paintings by foreign and Canadian artists. There are close on one hundred pictures catalogued and among them are numerous examples of craftsmen whose names are household words among all lovers of the beautiful in art.

The Canadian list are F. M. Bell-Smith, R.C.A., of whose work there are several of high quality, notably his water color "Near Tower Bridge," a city study in the style which has secured him so marked a vogue. Others in oil or similar effect are "The Thames at Limehouse" and "Waterloo Bridge."

There is also a large collection of his own special appeal. There are, too, excellent landscapes by Homer Watson, R.C.A., typical of his rich color and his power of reflecting in the scene the harvests of the artistic eye. L. B. O'Brien, R.C.A., well represented, and there are special fine specimens of the work of John A. Fraser, R.C.A., Allan Edson, R.C.A., and other well known Canadian artists of repute are also to be found in the catalog, which contains also three examples of the brilliant art of Frank, R.C.A.

Of special interest are the British numbers, including a fine marine study by Edwin Hayes of the Royal Institute of Water Color Painters and one of England's greatest sea painters.

Claude Hayes of the same institute is represented by his "Fisher Girl," "Saint Peter Day, Sussex, England," and John Bromley, also of the institute, has some bright and taking subjects.

Altogether the sale is of unusual importance and the collection is well worth a visit from all who are interested in Canadian and British art.

The collection will be open to view to-day and Monday, and on Tuesday the day of the sale.

Yours to win and success.

Dear Doctor, During your stay in Buffalo, in 1907, I took treatment for you for stammering. During the last 32 years have heard nothing from you until now, and am glad to express my gratitude in the following few lines:

You know, I spent three years in "At the Finish." Most men would have rested there, but not he. With an earnestness of purpose, he began to overcome his big defect, and he has gone his auto race one better in the exciting train-engine race in "At the Finish." A giant type of locomotive chases a fast moving freight in full view, and the excitement it produces will be seen in the two hours when with deafening roar hissing vapor, clanging bells, fairly lift from the rails as they speed along at breakneck speed. During the week at the Majestic a matinee will be given every day.

I CAN PROVE IT.

MONEY SEEKING PASTORS UNDER CURSE OF HEAVEN

Methodist Ministers and Laymen
Exchanged Criticisms Yesterday at West Toronto Conference.

A special spiritual conference of the Methodist pastors and five delegates from each Methodist Church in the West Toronto district was held yesterday afternoon and evening at Wesley Church. At the afternoon conference, Rev. John Locke, president of the Methodist Pastors' Association, speaking of the pulpit from which the church members' standpoint, declared that the pew demanded that the pulpit should live up to the teachings of its own preaching.

Dr. A. H. Thornton gave an address on "The Pulpit as Seen by the Man on the Street." The man on the street, he said, has a right to expect the preacher to be a better man, a better type of Christian than the Christian man in the pew. A man should be good up to the measure of his knowledge and ability. The man on the street hears a sermon on "self-denial" and almost unconsciously asks himself: "Do ministers practise self-denial?" Preachers have been known to have been led by the spirit to accept a call to a higher salary.

The牧师's assertion, that a man is called of God to the ministry has had the effect of making of the ministry a "class apart." He believed the power of the pulpit would be enhanced if the "special call" were dropped and preachers discarded their distinction.

There is an opinion very widely held, and very openly expressed, that many men in the pulpit to-day have a very decided preference for the people "who far sumptuously and dress in purple and fine array."

One criticism, very frequently heard, is this: "Why cannot the men in the pulpit be natural in their manner of address?" There is not any great amount of platitude in a lugubrious voice.

The average pulpit is not disposed to limit the scope of the pulpit, and, as the themes discussed have some relation to the activities of human life.

To convert the pulpit into a cheap show meets everywhere the severest condemnation. A monkey and a handorgan in the pulpit would fill a church, but I do not believe they would add to its effectiveness.

There is perhaps nothing in the pulpit which does not find its counterpart in the pew. But spiritual stock-taking can be made a profitable exercise, and the work of the church will command more regard to correct standards if pulpit and pew will reason together.

Rev. R. P. Bryce, speaking upon "Reaching the Men of the District," said this should be done by personal contact. In Birmingham this was realized in the organization of a men's meeting every Sunday afternoon, attended by men who had previously stood aloof from the church. In addition to the moral benefits this men's meeting contributed one-eighth of the total amount raised at the church.

Rev. Dr. E. N. Baker's topic, "The Church Member and Adherent," elicited the statement that the man who enters or stays in the ministry for the money there is in it is under the curse of heaven. If the man wanted more spiritually minded Christians, the pew should relieve them of personal and church business cares to the greatest possible extent.

Rev. J. E. Sanderson, as a senior minister, expressed the view that the pulpit of the present needs to become more direct in its preaching, with greater concentration in the cardinal truths of the Gospel.

ST. ANDREW'S BROTHERHOOD

25 Years Since This Active Organization Was Launched.

Those who are interested in Christian work among men mark with pleasure the reaching of its quarter century mark by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Few organizations for work among men have had such success in the time as has this one. Founded on St. Andrew's Day, 1883, by the banding together of a dozen young men in a Bible class in St. James' Church, Chicago, who pledged themselves to do what they could for the spreading of Christ's Kingdom among men, this has been the single aim which has guided its efforts and gained its results ever since.

That these results have been of no mere name may be judged from the fact that in the short space of time it has extended all over the United States and Canada, has taken firm root in England, and has gone to the ends of the earth in South Africa, Australia, India, and Japan.

Its members pledge themselves to the observance of only two rules—the rule of prayer and the rule of service; first that they shall pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men, and second that they shall, at least once each week, bring some young men within the hearing of the gospel. The secret of its power has been the man-to-man touch of personal work, each one gaining his man and sending them out in an ever increasing army of workers on a quest the richest in the world, as "Fishers of Men." In each country the affairs are controlled by a national council elected at the annual convention. The Canadian council is made up of thirty-six representative men. Two travelling secretaries, F. W. Thomas and G. E. Marshall, of Birmingham for the west, are continually at work reinforcing the chapters already formed, and extending the work to new fields. A. G. Alexander of Hamilton has been the Canadian president for the past year.

In Toronto the chapter of All Saints' Church is observing the occasion by holding special services to-morrow, when His Lordship the Bishop of Ontario will be the preacher. The especial feature will be the service for men only at 3:15, to which all men are most cordially invited. Bishop Mills is a preacher of great power.

Sherbourne Young Men's Club.
A very successful social of the Sherbourne Young Men's Club solo was contributed by Mr. Marshall. A. Parlow contributed an interesting paper on "Current Events," after which a crokinole tournament took place, in which Garnet Hopper came first with Mr. Sandercock a good second. Refreshments were served.

This Company Holds 22 Timber Berths, Aggregating 52 sq. Miles (33,280 Acres), all Carefully Selected, Containing Over 800,000,000 Ft. of Finest Timber, Bought by This Company at the Exceptionally Low Figure of 26 Cents per Thousand Feet

All of this timber is located in the Willow River District on solid level ground, lies close beside good water for logging, and is mostly White Spruce of a superior quality. It averages 30 inches in diameter and ranges from 90 to 160 feet high. The limbs commence half way up. There is some good tall Pine and Balsam. The Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern surveys both cross the Willow River lower down than our limits.

British Columbia White Spruce is infinitely superior to the Ontario variety, and makes the finest finished lumber for interior work. It also makes splendid lumber for general use. Ends of logs and logs too small for lumber can be utilized for pulp, as White Spruce is universally acknowledged to be the finest material in the world for pulp for fine papermaking.

The limits were cruised by James M. Anderson, of Sutton West, an Ex-Crown Timber Agent, and the company has on file at its office a number of letters from some of the most prominent business men in Canada in recommendation of his capability and integrity, and from settlers in the Cariboo District verifying his report of the timber.

The company has also issued in pamphlet form the report (dated Oct. 31, 1908), of Mr. H. P. BELL, M.I.C.E., member Am. Soc. C. E., at present the Superintending Engineer on the Government Staff on the Trent Valley Canal at Campbellford, Ont., who was employed by the British Columbia Government in 1874-5-6 to make a survey up the Willow River Valley for the proposed route of the British Pacific Railway, and who cut the Government Pack-trails through the Willow River District in 1895. His report substantiates Mr. Anderson's in every detail, and in view of Mr. Bell's pre-eminence among the Civil Engineers of America, among whom there is no higher authority on the topography of the Cariboo District, his report will be universally accepted as being entirely correct. Mr. Bell was recommended to this company by Mr. Colvingwood Schreiber, Consulting Engineer to the Dominion Government and Chief Engineer of the Western Division of the National Transcontinental Railway.

GOOD TIMBER well located, and best Investment in the world to-day.

FIRE DOES NOT DESTROY MATURED TIMBER It kills and stops the growth, but if cut down within two years after the fire, this timber will make first-class lumber. But fire does destroy the young growth of small saplings, thus depriving the coming generations of their timber supply. ANY RELIABLE LUMBER DEALER WILL VERIFY THIS STATEMENT.

The C.P.R. holds several limits in British Columbia, and after reserving the best, is selling the second-class timber at $2.00 per 1,000 feet on the stump. If we sell our selected timber at the same figure in three years, on a basis of $224,000 paid-up capital,

Each $100 Invested To-day Will Bring a Return of $859.42

This is not exaggerated; $2.00 per thousand for good timber is a ridiculously low price. In Ontario Spruce is now worth from $7 to $9 per thousand feet on the stump and is rapidly increasing in value

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Exactly what Emperor William said on world politics to Dr. William Bayard Hale, distinguished clergyman, traveler and writer, on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, at Bognor, England, July 18, in the famous interview which was suppressed, is now being given out.

The emperor talked to Dr. Hale for several hours. He was very bitter against England and full of the "yellow peril." He declared that England was a traitor to the world's cause. He predicted she would ultimately break some of her colonies thru her treaty with Japan.

The emperor declared Japan was forming an insurrection in India. This Little Nip., Temiskaming and La Rose Are Active—Early Upward Movement Expected.

World Offer, Friday Evening, Nov. 20. Trade in Cobalt experienced a general up-to-day that resulted in greater activity, and the advancement in price of some shares.

Buyers are apparently taking advantage of the slight depression in the market, waiting the time to be taken in. Some few of the newer flotations lost a few points, but at the present time is not regarded as a serious state of affairs.

Little Nip. was actively engaged in distribution during the entire session on the Toronto curb. Some 18,000 shares were dealt in around $5, an advance of nearly 50 cents. On the Standard Exchange 18,000 shares were traded in.

The increased activity was said to be due to a report of valuable finds on the Peterson Lake lease.

A private wire to Valences and Eastwood stated that the new vein was fourteen inches wide, showing some excellent qualities of silver.

Peterson Lake was asked after to some extent, and Right-of-Way sold higher up on the report of new finds on their property adjacent to the Shire Queen.

Temiskaming had an advance to 7½ with plenty of bids. This movement was influenced by an order from Montreal for 5500 shares, and a current report that the next quarterly dividend would be increased from 4 per cent. to 6 per cent.

Cobalt/Lake shareholders were more than likely overjoyed to-day over the despatch from Cobalt to the effect that a player had been stricken underneath the player had been stricken underneath the La Rose experienced many moves on the Toronto Exchange, selling off at $7.36 £8.36 7-8 and $6.37. At the opening $6.35 was offered and at that price 25 shares were sold. Altogether 500 shares changed hands.

Kerr Central Capital was dealt in to the extent of 20,000 shares while the dealings of all the Cobalts listed on the New York curb amounted to 37,300 shares.

Brokers' report the markets as in general position. Buying orders are received with difficulty, owing to a lack of offerings, while in stocks where the market is left entirely to itself sales are made only on concessions. The impression exists that a strong upward movement may develop at any moment.

FIRST SHIPMENT SOON.

Some $20,000 Worth of Ore in Store at Victoria Mines.

Messrs. T. H. Brush and Geo. W. Vassar, directors of the Victoria Silver Cobalt Mines, passed thru' Toronto to-day after a two weeks' stay at the mine, where progressive development is going on steadily and satisfactorily.

They report about $20,000 worth of ore in the ore bins, and the time taken out, while doing preliminary work. It has not been finally decided where the permanent shaft will be sunk, in connection with the new discoveries, and it is quite probable that several carloads of ore will be taken out while this preliminary work is going on.

It is fully expected that the first shipment will be made about Dec. 1, and as the ore is said to be high-grade, ranging in value from 1100 to 2000 per ton, the company will soon be in a position to pay regular dividends.

Shaft No. 2 is down 245 feet, and values appear to be improving.

CIRCULAR ON CONIAGAS.

None Able to Pay 25 Per Cent. Dividends

Usher, Strathy & Co. in a circular say: "The annual meeting of the Coniagas Mines, Limited, Company has been called for Nov. 30. It is not expected that the annual statement will differ from the usual practice of this company, and that there will be a bold statement of the company's operations. This, however, is not disadvantage, for statements of fact, so made without any attempt at exaggeration, and having behind it the reputation and moderation of this company, are entitled to more than ordinary credence, and the inferences from these statements of fact will easily be drawn."

The facts already known of this company are: That it has now in sight at the 72 foot level more than sufficient to pay the whole capital stock; that the dividends and the heavy expenses incidental to the installation of concentrators and smelters have already been met to date out of the profits of development work; almost no stoppage or loss-making ore reserves has taken place to date. Judging from 1907, the company's output for 1908 will be in the neighborhood of three quarters of a million dollars, and with the increased capacity mentioned above, its output during

DEMAND FOR SILVER EXCEEDS THE SUPPLY

Silverware Factories' Requirements
Running Ahead of Supply for Prompt Shipments.

Ninety-six per cent. of the refined silver is used in the United States, British, French and German markets for consumption by silverware factories during the period from Oct. 1 until Dec. 15 has been claimed. The price of silver is 15 per cent. above the so-called "official" prices. Owing to the quick recovery of the silversmith trades in the domestic countries, the demand for the high-grade silver needed by makers of fine goods has been running a little ahead of the supply for some time past. Two large domestic silver-making corporations that employ 15,000 hands are running overtime in the United States. The demand for silver is running at a number of the larger silverware factories of Europe, whose consumption of silver is at present much above the normal amount consumed in the United States.

In the United States the consumption of silver for flat and hollow ware and jewelry has done well. The largest degree of increase is to the credit of Germany. The consumption of silver in the factories of the North and elsewhere in Europe is larger for this season than during the boom. For the month of October alone the number of men employed will be up 15 per cent. over those of the United States will be more than double that of all the silver coined by the United States mines in the past quarter.

THE THREE PIONEERS OF GOWGANDA LAKE

Remy Brothers and C. H. Burk of Dorset Explored the Country in July, 1907.

Perhaps it is not generally known that the first claim-makers in the Montreal River district were Messrs. John A. Remy, J. F. Remy and C. H. Burk of Dorset, Ont.

These men were the first to make a find of cobalt bloom, silver, smaltite and niccolite, and also found a vein of silver in the Gowganda Lake the last week of July, 1907. Shortly before that time Ed. O. Kelly and E. M. McCracken made a similar finding. At this distance between the operations of both prospecting parties from eight to ten miles, and during that time none of the claims located were rich enough to be worked. The prospectors kept hard at it, and on the last afternoon, when chances of a good find appeared to be disappearing, one of them located a vein which yielded about 20 pounds of mineral nuggets, some of them weighing two and three pounds and carrying high silver values.

On the latter part of October in the previous year, a rush commenced. The Montreal River became dotted with canvas, and three or four-score men sought entrance into the Gowganda and Moose Lake country to make claims as rapidly as possible. The excitement was so intense that a lot of the prospectors were frozen in and had to return to Charlottetown and Elk City to lay up for the spring rush.

Among the lucky ones of the first rush to the new territory were the Taylor brothers, George Stoneman and Chief of Police R. Morrison of Latchford. These men made some valuable finds, and about Gov. F. McIntosh and Sam McCallum also some staking that turned out to be valuable.

After Prospector Remy made his big find in Gowganda in August, 1908, the rush commenced in earnest, until at the present time the country is dotted with prospectors seeking the hidden treasures of the earth.

Since 1907 several properties have been exploited, and machinery for development is being installed, and the outlook is that the future is bright.

Experienced mining men and others claim that the Montreal River country is a veritable treasure house of silver and bids well to be a second Cobalt.

FARMING AND LIVE STOCK PAGE

VALUE OF ENTHUSIASM.

It is easy to write up farm enthusiasm, but is there really any money produced by being enthusiastic? That is the question that confronts the average farmer as he struggles with crop returns and bank accounts.

The farm returns from the Southern States this year show a production of two and a half billion dollars. This is more than the total output of the United States in 1880, and nearly the same as the production of the whole of the States in 1890, only 18 years ago.

In other words, the production has grown from $287 per capita in 1890 to $318 per capita last year. Everyone who has kept an eye upon events has noticed the steady increase in the valuation of farming lands in the south and the plains, and this is just what the country's increasing production and consequent increase in profits. A few years ago cotton was almost the sole crop of the southern farms. Now they are diversifying, and fruit growing, cattle raising, dairy, vegetables, horticulture and poultry raising for the city market are giving extra profits. A fine cattle, sheep, milk, butter, fowl, eggs, fruit, hogs, wheat, corn, alfalfa, sugar cane, etc., intelligently produced, are yielding big returns.

And why? The evangel of higher agriculture has been preached in the south. Talented men have given of their services and they have caught the ear of listening farmers. Improved methods of culture, enthusiastic fighting of pests, a host of new inventions, good telephones, rural mail delivery, good roads, electric car lines, are the hymns that have been sung. The refrain is echoed in the figures quoted above.

Again, then, let us look for a moment at C. G. James' picture of Ontario agriculture. Only 17 per cent gross returns on our farm capitalization tell the tale of modern methods in Ontario. Of course, figures are used to prove almost anything, so some remarks, but never mind, so you get a gross return means a very slight net return to the average farmer. In fact, it means that yearly many farmers are going behind and losing their capital.

The situation is almost startling in many respects. With all our agricultural education, we are not producing from our land that exuberance that the richness of Ontario soils would warrant.

We have here the answer to the whole question: why do the Ontario boys leave the farm? There is no money to keep them there. What Ontario wants is an evangelistic service in agriculture, a shaking of the dry bones of old reform and a something real to be done to start up and maintain a rural enthusiasm that will double our production of grain, roots, alfalfa, hogs, poultry, cattle, vegetables, fruits and other productions.

Those who have been working upon this problem in the west have adopted a rough formula to indicate the three-fold character of the constructive work which was needed for a complete solution; viz., better farming, better business, better living.

These three sum up the situation well. The reason why our scientific institutions are doing much for agriculture, but perhaps some improvement can be had in the means of translating the research work of the field laboratory into a everyday experience of the farmer.

Ontario farmers as a rule know how to live better, but lack the energy necessary to produce dollars to attain their ends. Better methods with methods, at the same time properly adjusting their living expenses to their present means, constitute the individual's share of the uplift. The government has a serious duty after this. The individuality of production stands with a poor market. The government should lift its eyes to the hills.

Cattle Receipts Treble Toronto Stockyards During Ten Years

Ten Short Years Show a Big Increase in Live Stock Operations on Ontario Farms—Drift Cityward of Young Men and the Labor Question Largely Responsible.

The big runs at the city and Union Stock Yards this week of live stock strike a reminiscent mood in the onlooker. How do our present marketing compare with a similar week one year ago? With five or with ten years ago? Are there any striking changes in cost and results? Man's memory is apt to be treacherous, and unless we can refer to figures, opinions count for very little.

This week has seen a very heavy run of stock at both markets, and the wonder grows where all the bovine and ovine wealth of the country can find such moneys! The majority of the cattle are of a nondescript character, totally void of all breeding according to Hoyle. Dairy blood is evidenced in the celebrated "Wedge" shape ad infinitum, and the ring stakes and mortised hins.

Shorthorns, Angus, Galloway and Hereford, pure breeds, are the best types for this country and when a carload of choice feeders of any one strain arrives buyers are tumbling over one another to get them. But hogs have remained almost stationary. There is a story in this. Ten years ago prices were down around the $4 hewitt mark and yet numbers almost equal to the present day were coming on to our markets. Then was the time when big firms as Davies, Gunn, and others, were making money by shipping our hogs to the old land markets. Now the supply from Canadian sources is not much greater, and it is extremely doubtful if the farmers are making a great deal more to-day than the high price of feed and the higher standard of living into account.

The great increase in the cattle receipts shows that Ontario is developing enormously in cattle production. These weekly may be taken as conclusive for this week's new outlet of marketing of cattle to date, as the corresponding week did in last year's trade. We are raising more cattle, and less hogs. We are farming with less help, for hogs take time, help and extensive care. Cattle can run at large and develop a crop of feeders with little cost for labor. The Ontario continues along this line, exports in products will soon cease, a thing which farmers will find has been an unwise move.

FIELD CROPS OF 1908 WHAT ONTARIO YIELDED

Figures in Various Grain and Vegetable Crops—Live Stock Statistics.

The following gives the areas and yields of the principal field crops of Ontario for 1908. The areas have been compiled from individual returns of farmers and the yields by a special staff of correspondents in each township.

Fall wheat: 579,642 acres yielded 16,420,476 bushels, or 24.2 bushels per acre, as compared with 15,545,493 and 23.0 in 1907.

Spring wheat: 142,124 acres yielded 2,197,716 bush, or 15.5 bush per acre, as compared with 2,473,651 and 17.1 in 1907.

Barley: 724,029 acres yielded 20,838,569 bush., or 28.5 bush. per acre, as compared with 19,718,332 and 28.3 in 1907.

Oats: 274,359 acres yielded 96,526,419 bush., or 34.8 bush. per acre, as compared with 83,524,301 and 28.5 in 1907.

Rye: 87,908 acres yielded 1,453,615 bush., or 15.5 bush. per acre, as compared with 1,039,621 and 15.5 in 1907.

Buckwheat: 140,608 acres yielded 3,235,287 bush., or 23.6 bush. per acre, as compared with 2,546,468 and 22.5 in 1907.

Peas: 396,642 acres yielded 7,401,336 bush., or 18.7 bush. per acre, as compared with 7,365,696 and 21.6 in 1907.

Beans: 46,385 acres yielded 783,757 bush., or 16.9 bush. per acre, as compared with 790,320 and 18.6 in 1907.

Potatoes: 166,974 acres yielded 18,157,642 bush., or 111 bush. per acre, as compared with 20,057,875 and 113 in 1907.

farmers will want to take advantage of Mr. C. G. James' statement the other day, that the value of Ontario's farms had doubled by the general adoption of improved methods. The first step is to learn more, then put knowledge into practice, says The Regina branch of the Dominion of Canada.

The fine large stallion, Royal Benedict, was sold last Friday at the annual sale to D. E. & W. L. Isaacs of Greenbank, Canada, for $215. says The Butler, Indiana, Herald. He was considered one of the finest horses in these parts and a great bargain at that price. The stallion will sell well, the lowest price being $68 and the highest $211. Not a note was taken of the sale amounting to over $500, all of which was paid in cash.

Afalfa is in great use by pig growers in Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska and other states. Prof. Burnett of Nebraska found that afalfa leaves had a little more value as a pig feed than wheat straw. The Kansas Experiment Station has done much work with afalfa and pigs. Experiments indicate that afalfa is a splendid maintenance ration, especially for brood sows; that for growing pigs a limited amount of corn should be fed with it and that in general its use greatly cheapens the production of pork, besides making a superior type of bacon.

Pumpkins as a feed are of a bulky nature because they contain a large percentage of water, hence a pig could spare his ends. The man who hastens pays dear for it. The man who hastens strikes a reminiscent mood in the onlooker. How do our present marketing compare with a similar week one year ago? With five or with ten years ago?

Are there any striking changes in cost and results? Man's memory is apt to be treacherous, and unless we can refer to figures, opinions count for very little.

A look at the market totals for this week, this week ten years ago, five years ago and last year will prove of interest:

	1908	1909	1907	1906
Cattle	2,850	4,411	5,355	3,224
Hogs	5,600	4,950	6,132	5,240
Sheep	4,850	6,612	8,172	6,165
Calves	150	161	380	235
Totals	12,750	15,834	20,180	19,865

Care: 176 284 348 450

1908 figures are for four days only.

It will be seen that the cattle receipts at Toronto have more than tripled in ten years. Sheep and lambs have about doubled in size. But hogs have remained almost stationary.

There is a story in this. Ten years ago prices were down around the $4 hewitt mark and yet numbers almost equal to the present day were coming on to our markets. Then was the time when big firms as Davies, Gunn, and others, were making money by shipping our hogs to the old land markets. Now the supply from Canadian sources is not much greater, and it is extremely doubtful if the farmers are making a great deal more to-day than the high price of feed and the higher standard of living into account.

OUTBREAK OF SMALLPOX CLOSES HIGH SCHOOL

Markham Trustees Shut Down for Two Weeks—Newsy Notes From County.

MARKHAM VILLAGE, Nov. 20.—(Special)—An outbreak of smallpox among the third form pupils of the Markham High School has led to the closing for two weeks of this big educational institution. The first pupil to take ill was James Connolly of Box Grove, who was subsequently seen by Dr. McDonald of this village. At that time the symptoms did not indicate the presence of smallpox, and as the disease was then seriously ill, and in fact appeared to be getting better, Dr. McDonald was not called in again for ten days, when he at once diagnosed the case as smallpox.

The fact that a number of pupils were absent from school around the time of the outbreak caused the board of health in the different municipalities in which the pupils lived to be advised to keep a sharp watch out, which was done, with the result that four others in widely scattered districts are affected with the disease. In fact, it is believed that Mr. John Tools of Mt. Albert, W. Jackson, and Louis Phipps of Mt. Joy, and Bessie McMillan of Woodville. Another pupil, Nettie Haines of Whitevale, is ill, but the disease has not as yet been definitely diagnosed as smallpox.

In the Township, medical officer of Markham Township, has placed all the houses in his jurisdiction under strict quarantine, while it is presumed the other officers in the outside municipalities have taken similar action.

In the case of Connolly, who lives with his uncle, Anthony Graham, at Box Grove, considerable uneasiness prevails, as the latter is caretaker of the Box Grove Public School.

Consequently, most of the pupils attending Markham High School come to and fro on the Midland Railway, and it is not known just how far the danger zone has spread. The disease is said to be of a mild type, and with the precautions taken it is hoped that will soon be stamped out.

EAST TORONTO, Nov. 26.—The date for the annual game supper held under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. has been fixed for Thursday, Nov. 26, and as in former years, will be held in the Y.M.C.A. Councillor T. H. Phelan, who for the past two years has done splendid work as one of the representatives in Ward 2, has definitely decided, in view of the action of the city and town, not to offer himself as alderman in Ward 2.

The prompt action of the board of control in furthering the work of annexation in York Township has given rise to much favorable comment throughout the area in question, and with the good work being done by the petitioners, the success of the movement seems almost assured. The self-imposed task assumed by a few New York Towns and rayed out in for the third time, covering the districts between Greenwood Avenue and East Toronto, while a heavy one, is meeting with fine success.
