CONSCRIPTION DEBATE OPENS IN THE SENATE

Sir James Loughheed Strongly Censures Stand Taken by Laurier.

REPLY GIVEN SIFTON

Senator Bostock Disagrees With Statements Made in Letter.

By a Staff Reporter. Ottawa, July 31.—The debate on the national service bill began in the senate today, and while it could not be said to have stirred up so much interest as the debate on this measure did in the commons, the presence of a number of members from the lower house indicated that it is attracting considerable attention.

The expectation is that only two or two French-Canadian senators will vote against the principle of conscription. The amendment is that there should be a general election before conscription is put into force. With the new appointments to the senate recently, the government will be able to defeat the amendment by a narrow majority.

LOUGHEED'S APPEAL. Ottawa, Ont., July 31.—Sir James Loughheed in the senate today moved the second reading of the military service bill.

May Move to Hamilton. Col. Bob Low, Toronto: Cable me what Church, Harris, O'Neill are doing to get decent pavement and street car service on Yonge street for my thousand fivers in two aviation camps in that city, on which I am spending several millions a month. May have to move them to Hamilton. Have Tom Humble post up general alarm on bill boards. King George.

King George, London: Landmark says Church is loyal, but is protesting taking royal salutes. Please command me to put your crushed stone and hot bit tar on Yonge street and authorize Hearst to take over Metropolitan Railway, and I'll lay down double tracks in fifty and make Colonel Fleming run cars. Colonel Harris busy at Ottawa on lobby and coal commission. He hasn't time even to fix up Billy's viaduct. He has great deliberation. Hamilton will build two lines of railway for your men if you will move them up there. Bob.

King George, London: Mercy, kind King, and don't move your royal flying camp to Hamilton. Am putting on Ford jitney service if Bradshaw will authorize. Cable William Mackenzie to hurry up and say what he'll take for Metropolitan. Nunkey John sore because Doherty puts likker-ed peas in his boots. Tom Church.

OFFENSIVE PROMISES TO RESULT IN GREATEST STRUGGLE OF WAR

Anglo-French Forces Strike Hard Between River Lys and Boesinghe, British Occupying Enemy's First Three Lines, While French Cross Marshes Between Dixmude and Point Near Boesinghe---Allies' Casualties Are Surprisingly Light, Tho Germans' Resistance is Desperate at Nearly All Points.

By R. T. Small, Staff Correspondent of Associated Press. BRITISH Front in France and Belgium, July 31.—An epoch-making offensive launched by the British and French against the German lines between the River Lys and Boesinghe at daybreak has, with few exceptions, accomplished all that had been planned for the first day of the battle, which, in its early stages, gives promise of being the greatest conflict of the war.

Roughly speaking, the British penetrated positions held by Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria between Boesinghe and Warneton, and at the time of the filing of this despatch were in possession of the first three lines of the German trenches at most points throughout this front. Reports received from the French troops which are attacking on the difficult territory between Dixmude and a point near Boesinghe say that they have forced their way across this marsh-studded and partly inundated ground and captured the first two lines of enemy trenches.

The casualties of the entente allies have been surprisingly light and the morale of the men continues at the highest pitch. The contact between the British and French armies has been constant and excellent. Germans Resist Fiercely. One of the most striking and spectacular events of the day's fighting occurred at the so-called Menin Tunnel, an underground fortification constructed by the Germans on the Menin road opposite Hooge. The British preliminary bombardment had forced the Germans to hold the French line thin here, and the British division which was to attack at dawn lay all night in shallow holes within twenty-five yards of the German line, waiting for the signal to advance.

When the time arrived for the charge, and the British gunners had dropped a protecting barrage on the German front trench ahead of the British troops, it was seen that the Germans had taken to their heels and were fleeing. The British, seeing their prey escaping, went mad and charged directly thru their own barrage, fortunately without heavy casualties. The Menin Tunnel, which was expected to be occupied by several hundred Germans, was found to be held by only 41, the rest having retreated. It was only at the second line that the British met resistance, and here, after sharp hand-to-hand fighting, they forced the Germans to withdraw.

Stream of Prisoners. No check has yet been made on the number of German prisoners captured, but they are flowing in a steady stream back of the British lines. Many of those captured at the Menin Tunnel and other points are mere boys. The tanks again played a prominent part in the opening of the battle, and reports from all sections of the British front say that their work has been most satisfactory. Large numbers of these monsters were employed, and in many cases pursued their destructive and uncheckable way to a distance far within the German lines.

Enemy Demoralized. Further information obtained from German prisoners concerning the effects of the British preliminary bombardment indicates that the effects of this unparalleled expenditure of ammunition were disastrous in the extreme, both in damage and to the morale of the German troops. Within the past few days six Bavarian divisions were withdrawn from the line and replaced by fresh troops, because they were so thoroughly demoralized by the inferno of fire which they had undergone. Photographs taken by aviators back of the German lines show that there was scarcely a square yard of territory along their front which was not devastated by the high explosives. It is small wonder, then, that the Germans were holding their front line thinly, and were swept back when in-

OFFICIAL BULLETINS OF GREAT OFFENSIVE BRITISH

The official report from British headquarters in France, issued last evening, reads: "The operations of the allied troops, begun this morning in the neighborhood of Ypres, have been continued with success during the day, despite unfavorable weather. The enemy's positions have been entered and our line has been advanced on a front of over fifteen miles, from La Basseville, on the River Lys, to Steenstraete, on the River Yser. Both of these villages are now in the hands of the allies."

"On the extreme left the French troops, acting in close co-operation with and protecting the left flank of the British forces, captured the Village of Steenstraete and rapidly penetrated the German defences to a depth of nearly two miles. Having gained their objectives for the day at an early hour, they continued their attack with the greatest gallantry beyond their original objectives and captured Bixschoote and the enemy's positions to the southeast and west of the village on a front of nearly two and a half miles, including the Kortekert Inn."

"During the afternoon a hostile counter-attack was successfully repulsed. "In the centre and on the left centre British divisions penetrated the enemy's positions to a depth of two miles and secured crossings on the River Steenbeek, which constituted their final objectives."

"In the course of their attack, our troops stormed two powerful defensive systems and carried by assault the Villages of Verlorenhoek, Frezenberg, Saint Julien and Pilkem and many strongly-defended farms, woods and organized localities. "Further south, in the right centre of our attack, after gaining the whole of their first objectives, which included the Village of Hooge and Sanctuary Wood, our troops fought their way forward against very obstinate resistance from the enemy in a difficult country in the neighborhood of the Ypres-Menin open road and carried the Village of Westhoek. In this neighborhood, where heavy fighting has taken place throughout the day and still continues, we have penetrated the enemy's defences to a depth of about a mile. A number of powerful counter-attacks have been successfully repulsed."

"On the extreme right, south of the Zillebeke-Zandvoord road, our troops gained the whole of their objectives early in the day, capturing the Villages of La Basseville and Hollebeke. "In addition to heavy casualties inflicted on the enemy, over 3500 prisoners have already been brought in, but no accurate estimate of our captures can yet be made."

FRENCH

The French official report last night reads: "Having crossed the Yser Canal during the night our troops attacked, at 4 o'clock this morning, in conjunction with the British armies on their right. The formidable artillery preparation had completely leveled the German organizations and inflicted heavy losses on the defenders. "At the end of the morning, our troops had carried two enemy positions, and in their dash had spontaneously gone beyond the objective which had been assigned to them. They advanced on the road between Lizeux and Dixmude, and captured the Village of Bixschoote and Kortekert Inn. "Our losses were exceedingly small. We captured important material and took prisoners, not yet counted. The battlefield is covered with German dead, showing the magnitude of the enemy losses. "On the Aisne front, the artillery fighting was particularly violent. Reports up to the present concerning the operation carried out south of La Koyere emphasize the splendid attitude of our troops. On the entire front of the attacks the objectives assigned having been exceeded, we have been able to clear out the advance trenches, which we found filled with enemy dead. The number of prisoners taken exceeds, up to the present, 210. Our losses were slight. "About 11 o'clock in the morning the enemy made a counter-attack against our trenches west of L'Epine de Chevregny, which was repulsed. "The Germans, after an intense bombardment of our lines at Cerny and Hurtebise, attacked our positions east of Cerny on a front of about 1500 metres with three regiments. Our counter-attacks, immediately carried out, drove them back and permitted us to advance along the whole front. "The day was relatively calm on both sides of the Meuse."

GERMAN

Last night's official Berlin report read: "The first assault of the English army, delivered in Flanders on a 25-kilometre front on both sides of Ypres, has been repulsed. "After changeable, bitter fighting on a large scale the enemy, who attacked with superior forces many ranks deep, had to content himself with the possession of a crater position in our defensive zone. "On the Chemin-des-Dames (Aisne) front, an energetic attack put us in possession of important height positions near Cerny and resulted in the capture of more than 1500 French prisoners."

RUSSIANS GIVE BATTLE ALONG ZBROZ RIVER

Resistance Further Develops to German Attempt at Invasion.

FIGHTING IN BUKOWINA

Enemy Presses Back Ally—Rumanians Makes Further Progress.

London, July 31.—In east Galicia the Russians along the Zbroz River continue to give battle to the Teutonic allies, who have crossed the stream and gained a footing on Russian soil. At several points enemy detachments have been forced out of captured positions, which have been retaken by the Russians.

To the south the Russians have attempted to make a stand also in western Bukowina, but were compelled to evacuate positions along the Chernomosh River and retreat eastward. The Town of Zala-Szcsyky and several portions blocking the road to Czernowitz, the capital of Bukowina, have been evacuated by the Russians. "On the Rumanian front and in the wooded Carpathians the Germans have gained a little ground against the joint armies of the Russians and Rumanians, except in the Casin and Putna valley regions, where the Russo-Rumanians still hold the upper hand, and the Rumanians make a further advance. "Beat Russia in Two Months. A Petrograd despatch via British admiralty per wireless, says: "An official statement issued today says: "According to reports of secret service agents, the present German offensive was undertaken as the result of detailed testimony concerning internal conditions of the Russian army which had been placed in the hands of the German chief of staff. Field Marshal von Hindenburg, it appears, had promised Emperor William that in two months he would put Russia out of action."

North of Husiatyn on the Russo-Galician frontier, the Russians yesterday restored their position on the east bank of the River Zbroz, says the official statement. Austro-German efforts to force a passage across the Zbroz in the region of Puklyany and Podpile were frustrated. The Teuton forces pressed back the Russians in the region of Doroshouk, Zastavna, Uverenszanka and Orochopy. South of the Kimpolung road, on the Rumanian front, the Austro-Ger-

BRITISH ARMY TAKES FIELD FOR BIGGEST BATTLE OF WAR

London, July 31.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—Telegraphing from the headquarters of the British army in Flanders today, Reuter's correspondent says: "The tension of the past few days snapped at three o'clock this morning. The whole world has been guessing that the tremendous artillery duels, of which the German communiques have been making so much, could portend nothing else but a British offensive. But what they could not guess was just when and where this offensive was coming. This secret had been well kept, and the Hun, writhing under the terrific blows that were launched the minute the darkest hour that precedes the dawn set in, may yet well be guessing. The only thing I can say as yet is that the British army has taken the field in what I believe will prove to be the biggest battle of this war on the western front. From the River Lys to Boesinghe the front is blazing and booming as I write. The country in which the heaviest fighting is developing may be likened to a vast saucer, of which the German positions form the rim. Nowhere is there any real ridge to tackle, such as Vimy or Messines, but a steady incline often scarcely appreciable to the eye, rendered difficult by stubby growth and sparse trees to which, farther north, it merges into the Yser swamps. The final hurricane of bombardment, which reached its maximum shortly before the infantry went over, was the heaviest I have yet experienced, although it has become quite a matter of course to write this in connection with each latest British attack. Many Hun Boys. Under the drumlike tempest produced by the big guns, the attack opened. The night was damp and the visibility very low. The Huns were expecting attack somewhere and some time, and they put down their barrage with great promptitude. The enemy which is bearing the brunt of the British offensive is the fourth army group of the Crown Prince Rupprecht; several divisions of which are known to have been very much knocked about, so much so that some of them have recently been withdrawn to the reserve. It is certain that an appalling proportion of these troops consisted of mere boys. As an instance in point, one regiment, whose normal establishment should be about 2,400, recently received a refit draft of some 600 lads of the 1918 class. This gives a pretty fair indication of the extent to which Germany is now feeling the drain upon her man-power. Our artillery is moving up in support with wonderful promptitude and the tanks are said to be doing deadly work among the smashed trenches which still conceal machine gun posts. Owing to the character of the soil, there are deep dugouts hereabouts, but also many concrete cupolas which form miniature forts.

PLOWING CAMPAIGN TO BOOST ACREAGE ONTARIO CROPS NOW LOOK WELL

Government Will Operate Fifty Farm Tractors Until Frost Comes. Weekly Government Report Shows All Grains Are Promising Well.

DEMONSTRATION GIVEN Resources Committee Saw Machines at Work on Neilson Farm.

Members of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and of the organization of resources committee witnessed an interesting demonstration of plowing by means of tractors at the Neilson farm, Daves road, yesterday afternoon. Two machines were in use under skilled operators and demonstrated to the satisfaction of all the efficiency of the tractor in this particular branch of farm work.

The Ontario Government introduced the tractor in the early spring in an effort to enable farmers to extend their work of production to the utmost, and so successful were they that beginning next week the government will have in operation sixty such machines, which will work in various parts of the province until frost harkens the ground in the late fall.

The demonstration was held yesterday in a field on which a hay crop had been recently cut. The ground was hard and dry, but despite that drawback the machines were able to turn two furrows, each ten inches wide and six deep with ease, and even when a third plow was added the work was continued without difficulty, despite the added strain placed upon the engine. The machines traveled at the rate of approximately two and one-eighth miles an hour, and under favorable soil conditions can plow five or six acres in ten hours. Kerosene was used as fuel for the engines about one and one-half gallons being required for each acre plowed.

More Land Cultivated. Dr. G. C. Creelman, commissioner of agriculture, stated that as the result of the use of farm tractors in plowing the land there was more land under cultivation this year than a year ago, although he was unable to state the exact acreage. But still in Ontario we were 500,000 acres short in our land cultivation. Farmers, he said, had chosen the same method of putting the land to use and had converted it into pasture, but the live stock of the province had not been appreciably increased.

"The government desires," he said, "to get as large a percentage of this land ready for fall wheat as possible. Fall wheat is a profitable crop in Ontario now. We further desire to reclaim this land for cultivation, and we are endeavoring to do this by the use of the farm tractor."

Tractors serve two purposes. They enable farmers to get a large amount of land ready for wheat this fall and in a measure make up the shortage of land. Tractors also demonstrate the possibilities of the tractor to farmers in various parts of the province.

Tractor Clubs. He added that it was hoped that farmers, realizing the possibilities of the tractor, would purchase them individually or by clubs of four or five. The machines now in operation are under favorable conditions from eight to ten acres in a day as compared with one and one-half acres, which is the capacity for one man and a team.

Following is a summary of weekly crop reports made by district representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture: Some fields of winter wheat and rye have been cut and are yielding well. Spring wheat is also promising a good yield, and like all the spring grains will have plenty of straw. The midge has been doing injury to the growing wheat in a few of the counties in the western half of the province, more especially in Welland and Haldimand, the damage to the crop ranging from 5 to 25 per cent. in some fields, although not averaging more than 7 per cent. in any one district. Barley is ripening rapidly, and will give a high yield. Oats are also doing well. Peas at present are looking better than for years; but the hot, dry weather will be their testing time. In the heavy bean raising County of Kent that crop is likely to turn out well.

The week of clear sunshine has been ideal for haying. Both clover and timothy have been got in under ideal conditions, and will be of much better quality than last year's cut. Prospects for clover seed are said to be promising.

Roots, where properly cultivated, are looking fine, and all classes give promise of at least an average yield. Early potatoes are doing well, but blight is threatening some of the later varieties. Sour cherries have yielded well, and raspberries are plentiful. Early field tomatoes are now on the market. The plants have made vigorous growth.

Live Stock Good. Live Stock—Live stock, especially young animals, are reported to be in excellent condition. There has been a decline in values, running about 75c per cwt. in the case of market cattle. The week of intense heat has told upon the pastures, and the flow of milk has slowed up. It is now better than the average for the time of year. The fly is becoming very tormenting to cattle. Hogs have slightly decreased in price; marketing is about as usual.

Farm Labor—The frequent rains of the latter part of spring and early summer, which delayed the planting of corn, roots and other late field crops and prevented hay cutting at the normal period, have been followed by a week or more of torrid weather which is hastening the ripening of grain, and is causing the overlapping of the haying and harvesting seasons to such an extent that farmers are almost in despair of securing adequate help to get in the crops at the right time and in the best condition. Much disappointment is being expressed at the slow response so far of men from the towns and cities to the help that was expected on the farms during vacation. In Halton women are working in the fields, driving horses on rakes and mowers, and also on corn cultivators.

A TERMINAL STORAGE WAREHOUSE HERE NOW Large Building Opened on West King Street for Storage of Merchandise.

The Terminal Storage Warehouse Company, of which Col. W. S. Dinnick is president, has opened a large warehouse at 588 West King street, which extends thru to Adelaide street, a depth of 220 feet, with a frontage of 150 feet, and has a total floor space of over 4,000 square feet. The company undertakes to store goods in bond for the Canadian Customs, Toronto manufacturers and business men. This enables larger quantities being bought and stored at very reasonable rates, until such times as they can be disposed of. Already the place is being filled with merchandise from all parts of the world, embracing printing machinery, automobiles from the United States, wool from England and Australia, musical instruments, etc. The premises are absolutely fireproof, with sprinkler system and fireproof doors to all the rooms of the building.

Toronto, it is claimed, is the least equipped of all the large cities with storage facilities. The railway warehouses not begin to handle the accumulation of freight that arrives daily, and in consequence there is a congestion that can only be eliminated by such a storage warehouse. C. Vall, the stated yesterday of the warehouse, smaller than Toronto have as great a storage space and it is no mean factor in the growth.

Montreal, up to the present time, has had the cream of the storage business, but the new company proposes to mean by which the Toronto merchants may in larger quantities and resp additional profits. Vall considers the terminal warehouse expansion of the city. The officers of the company are: Lieut.-Col. W. S. Dinnick, president; Mr. J. L. Bowes, vice-president; Mr. C. Vall, general manager; and Messrs. W. H. Despard, James Leslie, Cameron Husband, and R. Ewing, directors.

THE T. EATON CO.

You were Inquiring?

Theodocia. — May every wish be granted and every dream come true! If only it were possible for me to become your fairy godmother for a time, you could be certain of success! However, of one thing you may be assured, and that is that someone especially interested will be in your audience when an opportunity comes for Toronto to hear you. To get down to business—as you will be doing soon—you will be glad to know that the cards you wish may be obtained here. For engraving plates the cost is estimated per line, and in different kinds of lettering the prices are as follows:—Plain script, 50c; plain Old English, $1.25; shaded Old English, $1.50; Spanish lettering, $1.25; or shaded $1.50; block lettering, $1.25. A charge of $1.10 per hundred is the rate for cards made from these plates. Printed cards cost about 75c per hundred. When you decide what you wish, it would be advisable for you to have your order filled through the Shopping Service. Books which you might find helpful would be the Canadian Almanac, price $1.00, or the Canadian Woman's Annual and Social Service Directory, special at 15c.

Chic. — Whether those snow-white hairs may not yet be a crowning glory is a question. However, at seventeen they are rather a trial, aren't they? I hesitate very much to recommend any hair restorer, for the difficulty is that if one begins the use of such a preparation it is then always necessary, and as time passes the constant use would be irksome, do you not think so? However, Morden's Hair Restorer has a very large sale, which would seem to prove that many people find it satisfactory. It is a patent preparation, so the contents are unknown, except to the manufacturers. Price, 78c per bottle.

Isabel. — A collar almost exactly like the one on the figure in the illustration you enclosed may be bought for $3.00; it has the high shirred band around the neck and the very full jabot falling in two points down the front; it is of cream embroidered net. A cascade effect at each side and lace edging and French embroidery characterize a similar collar at $2.50. Applique lace distinguishes another at $2.00, and at $1.50 is a pretty collar hemstitched and having a guipure medallion in each corner of the doubly pointed jabot. Any of these should be charming as a finish for your mother's mauve muslin dress.

Political Situation in West

A Winnipeg special despatch to The Toronto Star says:

Judging by reports appearing in the western press the last few days, there will not be unanimity at next week's great convention of Liberals. The Norris government and the Martin government leaders are more closely allied in their aims than any other element that will be present, but the rank and file show a desire to "kick over" any defined line of policy of action. Norris is for win-the-war first and repudiation of Laurier. In this he is backed up by his members and by Hon. James M. Calder and by The Free Press.

Premier Martin is not so warm on this policy, being new to the premiership and having close personal friendship for years with Laurier when he sat in the commons. The mass of the grain-growers are against conscription of man-power. They are looking for a leader, and will no doubt find him amongst the men of their powerful organization. They are against British Columbia Liberals being placed on the same footing at the convention with the prairie delegates. That province is keen for high duties on lumber and fruit. There is not so much affinity of interests with grain growers. Then there are a large number of Liberals who desire to see the Borden Government defeated before any new win-the-war plan is tried out. Oliver will be their leader.

Hon. Charles Cross, attorney-general of Alberta, is heart and soul with Norris and Calder. He is a personal opponent of Oliver, and his presence with Oliver at the convention will introduce lively titles. Oliver is backed up by R. L. Richardson with his paper, The Tribune, which has wide influence with the grain growers.

Sir Clifford a Puzzle. What part Sir Clifford Sifton intends to play is a puzzle to the rank and file. He arrived early on the scene, and while he took no part at the conferences held to arrange for the convention, attended by premiers and cabinet members of three prairie provinces, yet he saw them all individually, and no doubt pressed his views home. He left the impression on those he conferred with that he desired to take a large part in the coming convention, was thoroly in sympathy with the idea of the convention, and wished to have something to say on who shall be leader. Sir Clifford was not received with cordiality by these provincial leaders, and, after addressing the Canadian Club here yesterday, he left last night to address meetings at Moose Jaw and Regina, which will be largely political in character. How much of a following Sir Clifford will command is problematical. At the present outlook it will be small, although some of the delegates already named are his personal friends and old political associates.

An Amazing Puzzle.

A Winnipeg special despatch to The Toronto Telegram says: It is an amazing political puzzle that is developing over the approaching convention of western Liberals. So many angles and so much intrigue are being disclosed that any attempt to analyze motives and possible combinations is useless. Unquestionably, Sir Clifford Sifton has created a ripple, and his rooms at the Fort Garry Hotel resemble a central political machine in a well-oiled working condition. Prominent Liberals from all parts of the west have been entertained there day and night for a week, and some prominent Conservatives. Local factions have sent their representatives, and the query is heard on every side: "What is Sifton driving at?"

Resentment Shows. It has been stated that there is some resentment over the presence of Sifton. A new angle of this phase developed when Hon. A. R. Hudson gave out his interview yesterday to both The Tribune and Free Press, asserting that "this is to be a western convention, and western men and women are quite capable of doing their own thinking and their own acting. We will welcome eastern press representatives, but they are the only easterners we expect or want to see at any stage." Political circles are buzzing over the suggestion that the statement is a calculated rebuff to Sir Clifford, and perhaps it is, for Hudson is a pretty big figure, and he and Norris, the Manitoba premier, would be dominating factors in the convention with Sifton out of the way. Norris is holding forth in a suite of rooms at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, and there is a constant stream of visitors and messengers between the two hotels.

Keynote of Convention. Another Winnipeg special despatch to The Toronto Telegram says: Regarding Premier Norris' Winnipeg deliverance yesterday as the keynote of the coming Liberal convention. There is a disposition here to regard Premier Norris' Winnipeg deliverance yesterday as the keynote of the coming Liberal convention. The Manitoba leader repudiates Sir Wilfrid Laurier, but simultaneously attacks the Borden government, and declares for a national administration, with conscription as a vital plank. It is believed that this, along with bold declarations for tariff revision, will be the central idea of next week's gathering in Winnipeg.

Martin's Statement.

A Regina special despatch to The Toronto News says: Premier Martin's general attitude on the Liberal political situation was set forth at a meeting of the Regina Liberals last night, held to nominate delegates to the Winnipeg convention. He defended on general grounds, the refusal to grant an extension of the life of parliament, and declared that he would rather see Quebec under Laurier than under Laverge. "Looking back over the situation today, Premier Martin questions whether it was the right policy, judging by the events of the past year, to allow the extension. "There is cry for a national government. It is well to remember that there is no question at all in the minds of the people of Canada that the Dominion Government's method of recruiting has resulted in bungling. I have ever since the war began favored a national government, but the Conservative party, up to a short time ago, never offered to ally Liberal in Canada a position in a national government. Why was not a national government asked for two years ago? The management of the war so far as Canada is concerned would have been on a better basis if we had had national government two years ago. "Since the war started there has been favoritism from one end of the militia to the other. No one in this country questions for a moment the fact that the military organization so far as the province is concerned, has been nothing more or less than a political machine. Profiteering has been allowed to run rampant in Canada. The stand the Liberal party has always taken, and she still takes, is that we are in the war to the very end. I would rather see Quebec in the hands of Sir Wilfrid Laurier than in the hands of Bourassa or Laverge. In the west, our proper course, as I see it, is to favor the mobilization of money, men and materials for the purpose of winning this war. That is my own personal view. If a pro- port effort were put forward by a national government in the way of recruiting we would get the men without the necessity of enforcing conscription. "At the convention next week many important problems will come up. There will be many questions of a distinctly western kind to be discussed, and it may be that we may have a distinctly western policy and group of men selected at the next election."

WORK IS FALLING OFF IN MUNITION PLANTS

According to the vice-president of a large munition manufacturing concern in Toronto practically all its female employees have been discharged owing to the necessity for curtailment of production, and for the time being the plant will only be operated five days a week with all the work being done by men. He declared, however, that the step had not been deemed necessary on account of the distressing effects of the heat, neither had the question of the length of hours anything to do with it. In correcting the impression that munition manufacturers could work their employees more than ten hours a day, Dr. Riddell of the Ontario Government Trades and Labor Department said: "Sixty hours a week is the legal week. Ten hours a day is the most they can work them. It is true that a permit may be granted for 24 days only in a year for munition firms to work their employees at most 12 1/2 hours. We have closed up some munition plants that have been making their employees work 12 hours a day and there have been some prosecutions. I think that ten hours a day is too long for the women to work in these plants and would gladly see the hours much shorter."
