ENERGETIC CAMPAIGN TO HELP SERBIA EXPECTED TO FOLLOW KITCHENER'S TRIP TO BALKAN THEATRE

INITIAL OBJECTIVE WON INVADERS FIND MUCH STIFF FIGHTING AHEAD IN SERBIA

GERMAN ADVANCE POSITIONS TAKEN

Paris, Nov. 7.—German advance positions before Andreech were captured and an attack against French positions east of the Butte Le Mesnil was easily repulsed, says the statement issued this afternoon at the French war office.

London, Nov. 7.—The political crisis in Greece, which has clouded the Balkans, has been finally overcome, M. Skouloudis having accepted and performed the task of organizing a cabinet which, being composed of all the members of the Zaimis government with the exception of the ex-premier himself, will carry on the former government's policy of maintaining neutrality.

The new cabinet is at the mercy of the Venizelos majority in the chamber, but the impression is that no attempt will be made to turn it out, thus avoiding dissolution of parliament and a consequent election, the result of which could not be predicted while the army remains mobilized.

While the allies now can have little hope of Greece aiding them in the defence of Serbia, the belief is still held here that it is not too late to turn the tables on the invaders. The departure for the east of Lord Kitchener, after conferences in Paris with Premier Briand, General Gallieni, the war minister and General Joffre, the commander-in-chief of the field forces, have given confidence that the campaign is to be carried on energetically by the men who know the east better than almost anyone else.

Advices from Saloniki and other points today show that much larger forces than were thought to be near the scene are being landed at Saloniki, and are proceeding to points where it is believed they can do the most good. Troop trains are continually leaving Saloniki, but so much secrecy is being maintained that it is impossible to compute the number of men. One report says that an Anglo-Italian army has landed at Valona (Avlona) on the Adriatic, with the purpose of crossing Albania. The Russians are still concentrating in Bessarabia, to be prepared to make a descent on Bulgaria from the east.

Serbia's Far From Being Beaten. Meantime, in northern and eastern Serbia, and on the Montenegrin frontier, big battles are in progress. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing all along the line and to have reached the Morava river, which has been crossed at some points. In their advance they are picking up prisoners, guns and war material.

The Montenegrins, like their Serbian allies, are fighting stubbornly in defence of their country, and report that they have repulsed an attempt by the Austrians to cross their border from Herzegovina, and captured four guns, a quantity of supplies and a few men. They also claim successes over the Austrians in the Sanjak (Novipazar) where they captured four more field guns and several hundred men.

In the south the French are reported to have taken several villages. It would appear, therefore, that the Central Powers, who have obtained their initial objective, the opening of the road to Sofia, and Constantinople, have a lot of fighting ahead of them, if Serbia is to be overwhelmed.

KITCHENER TO UNRAVEL TANGLE IN THE BALKANS

War Secretary has not resigned, but will Reorganize Military Personnel in near East and Organize Central Body to Control Operations there.

London, Nov. 6.—It was officially announced this evening that Field Marshal Earl Kitchener had gone to the Eastern theatre of war.

The official statement reads: "Earl Kitchener, at the request of his colleagues, has left England for a short visit to the eastern theatre of war."

The following was issued officially tonight: "The statement that Earl Kitchener has resigned his post as secretary of state for war has already been authoritatively denied. It is equally untrue to suggest that Earl Kitchener has tendered his resignation, or that his visit to the king had any relation to any such subjects, or that his visit to the eastern theatre of war in any way betokens that such resignation is contemplated."

"On the contrary, this visit is undertaken by him in discharge of his duties as secretary of state for war, which duty he has no intention of abandoning. It is generally assumed Earl Kitchener has gone to the east with the immediate object of re-arranging the military personnel at the front, and effecting, in conjunction with the allied nations, some central organization to control the scheme of military operations. To unravel the tangles in the east, with Great Britain's war partners will likely occupy his attention for some time. Whether, when his task is accomplished, Earl Kitchener will or will not return to the war office, is known to only a few, and must depend on developments. It is not thought Premier Asquith would undertake the burden of prolonged tenure of the war portfolio, in addition to his present heavy labors, and so speculation may soon set at rest.

When the vote of credit is introduced by the Premier in the House of Commons on Wednesday there will be full opportunity for debate and for the extraction of such information as the government is then in a position to furnish.

LOYALIST CITY EXTENDS ROYAL WELCOME TO OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF 52ND BATTALION

REVIEW OF THE 52ND AT OTTAWA ON WAY TO ST. JOHN.

Despite the stormy weather a very large crowd of citizens was at the I. C. R. depot yesterday morning and gave the 52nd Battalion which arrived from Port Arthur, a hearty welcome to the Loyalist City. Lieut.-Col. A. W. Hay, of Quebec, is the officer commanding, and the two special trains brought 1071 officers and men, and a finer looking body of soldiers could not be picked anywhere. While the rain and snow made matters very disagreeable it did not appear to bother the soldier boys from the West very much. As the trains pulled into the depot every car window was occupied by a couple of soldiers who appeared as happy as a lot of youngsters on their way to a picnic. As the 10th Battalion band played "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," the visiting soldiers sang the soldier's marching song with vigor.

The two special trains arrived in the Island Yard at 5.55 o'clock yesterday morning and were sidetracked until nine o'clock when the first section hauled into a siding near Pond street, while the second arrived in the I. C. R. train shed.

Not a soldier left the cars until a bugle sounded the call to assemble and in an instant the happy bunch of westerners jumped from the cars and ran to their positions in the lines. There was not a hitch and every man appeared to know where his proper place was.

Civic Officials. His Worship Mayor Frink with Commissioners Wilmore, McLeod, Russell and Potts were on hand to welcome the 52nd to St. John, while Col. Perley of the 62nd, Lieut.-Col. E. T. Sturdee, Captain L. P. D. Tilley and a delegation from the recruiting committee were also on hand. Chief George Blake of the St. John Fire Department with a large number of firemen were also present.

In remarkably quick time after the men left the cars they were standing at attention in the train shed and were addressed by His Worship the Mayor. To Col. Hay, the officers and men of the 52nd, the Mayor extended a hearty welcome to St. John. His Worship said that when he received a telegram from the Hon. Mr. Hazen minister of marine and fisheries, to the effect that the 52nd Battalion from Port Arthur was coming to St. John this news was received by the citizens of St. John with the utmost pleasure, and the speaker said that the welcome to the soldiers from the West had only commenced. They would find that they would be as welcome in St. John as in any place in the Dominion of Canada. Everything that can be done will be accomplished to make the stay of the battalion one of great pleasure. The ladies of St. John have helped greatly and have obtained suitable quarters where officers and men can enjoy themselves during their spare hours after drill. At the close of his address His Worship called for three cheers and a tiger for Col. Hay and the members of the battalion.

The stern voice of Col Hay was then heard as follows:—"Men of the 52nd, take off your hats: give three cheers for Mayor Frink and the people of St. John." The thousand men cheered loudly and followed it with a good long tiger.

Order of Parade. Lieut.-Col. Perley, Col. Sturdee and Captain Tilley, had charge of the arrangements for the procession, and it started from the train shed in the following order:

Mounted Police
Fire Department
Recruiting Committee
52nd Regimental Band.
City Cornet Band.
Col. Hay and first half of Battalion.
10th Regimental Band.
Temple Band.
Second half Battalion.
Mayor and Commissioners.

As soon as the Battalion was given the command "Quick March," the band of the 52nd started a lively march, and in an instant the citizens of St. John were given a chance to hear one fine band of musicians.

The route of procession was up Mill to Dock, thence to Market Square to King, down Charlotte street to Broad, thence to Carmarthen street and into the armory.

been at work Saturday and yesterday morning making everything ready for the soldier boys, and the eyes of the latter beamed with joy, for when they marched into the armory they saw a long table reaching from one end of the building to the other, heavily laden with sandwiches, biscuits, cake and other eatables. While on the northern side of the armory members of the recruiting committee with George Wananmaker were ready to serve out mugs of good hot coffee.

Marching in single file each soldier took his turn, and as the long procession of over a thousand men filed along each picked up a mug, filled it with hot coffee, and then proceeded to help himself to something good to eat. It was 12.30 o'clock before every man had partaken of refreshments. They proved a very happy lot and expressed themselves as most thankful for the thoughtfulness of St. John citizens in looking after their comfort, and the officers wished through the columns of The Standard to thank the ladies and gentlemen for their kindness to the members of the battalion in preparing such a hearty welcome.

ZAIMIS CABINET AGAIN AT THE HELM IN GREECE

Only Two New Men in Ministry Formed by M. Skouloudis.

BELIEVED CRISIS IS OVER FOR THE PRESENT

New Premier an Able Diplomat and Reported Favorably Disposed Towards the Entente Powers.

Athens, Nov. 6, via Paris, Nov. 7.—M. Skouloudis, commissioned by King Constantine to form a new cabinet, has accomplished the task. All the members of the Zaimis party are retained except the premier himself. The new Prime Minister has taken the portfolio of Foreign Affairs. The formation of the new cabinet, it is generally assumed will delay if not eliminate the crisis which probably would follow a dissolution of the chamber of deputies by the King.

The cabinet is composed of the following ministers who took the oath of office today:

Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs—M. Skouloudis.
Minister of Public Instructions—M. Michalidis.
Minister of Justice and Communications—D. Roballis.

Minister of Interior—M. Gounaris.
Minister of National Economy—M. Theotokis.
Minister of War—Gen. Yanakitsas.
Minister of Marine—Admiral Kountouriotis.
Minister of Finance—Stephen Dragoumis.

New Premier Reported Favorable to Allies. Besides the premier, M. Michalidis is the only new member of the cabinet. The office he takes formerly was held by M. Theotokis, who becomes Minister of National Economy, a new post. The press urges the advisability of going on without a dissolution of parliament and new general elections. M. Skouloudis is not a deputy but is regarded as an able diplomat, known chiefly for the part he played, in the London peace conference in 1913, after the Balkan war. He was Minister for Foreign Affairs in the Rallis cabinet in 1897. He is reputed to be favorably disposed toward the Quadruple Entente.

Gen. Yanakitsas, who remains in the Greek cabinet as Minister of War, is credited with having been responsible for the crisis which resulted in the overthrow of M. Zaimis. M. Venizelos who controls a majority of parliament took exception to a statement by the war minister, and when an apology was not forthcoming, brought about the vote which showed a lack of confidence in the government.

London, Nov. 7.—The new Greek cabinet will be presented to the chamber, and parliament will be dissolved, if it fails to sustain the government, says a Reuter despatch from Athens.

SGT. RYER, OF THE 26th WINS DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL

Sergt. W. C. Ryer of the 26th has been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal for bringing in a wounded soldier, under a heavy fire.

Sergt. Ryer was among the first to enlist with the now famous 26th. He is 28 years of age, a native of Middle Clyde, N. S., where his mother, Mrs. Sarah Ryer, still lives. Sergt. Ryer since leaving here was promoted to sergeant, having been a lance corporal when here.

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—Major Gen. Sir Sam Hughes tonight received the following despatch from the Canadian general representative in France:

Canadian General Headquarters in France, Nov. 7.—The period from October 30 to Nov. 5, has been marked by the fall of heavy rains. Creeks and streams have swollen into small rivers and low lying grass has been converted into swamp. The wet weather and conditions generally have resulted in a week almost devoid of unusual incidents.

At times the enemy artillery has shelled certain sections of our area more or less vigorously but in most instances prompt retaliation by our artillery has silenced the hostile fire.

On October 29 a shell from our artillery exploded a bomb depot in the German trench.

It is believed in political circles that the chamber probably will be prorogued in ten days as it then will have sat for the legal term of three months. M. Venizelos and his followers are expected to approve this solution of the problem which will make it possible to avoid dissolution and elections the result of which would be uncertain, owing to the pressure which would be exerted by the government and the pro-German propagandists.

Benevolent Neutrality, New Premier's Policy. London, Nov. 8.—M. Skouloudis, the new Greek premier, has declared his intention of observing an attitude of very benevolent neutrality toward the Entente Powers.

Sergeant C. H. der, of the 26th New Brunswick Battalion, has been awarded the distinguished conduct medal for bringing in a wounded man under heavy fire on October 13th.

Lieut. J. G. Anderson of the 5th Western Canada Battalion, has been awarded the military cross for useful and daring reconnaissances.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR RUSSIAN FORCES

When Zeppelins Dropped Bombs On Camp of Canadian Troops At Otterpool, Near Shorncliffe

Thirteen Soldiers Killed Outright, Blown Almost to Atoms — Holes in Ground Fifteen Feet in Diameter Made by Bombs.

Special to The Standard

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—A vivid description of the Zeppelin air raid on Otterpool Camp, near Shorncliffe, Kent, England, is contained in a letter from an Ottawa officer now with the Canadians in England. Thirteen soldiers were killed, the letter says, which bears out the official statement of the casualties of the raid, although one of the fourteen wounded has since been reported as dead. In addition there were thirty-eight horses lost, for one of the deadly bombs dropped on the horse lines. An idea of the terrific force of the Zeppelin bombs can be gained by the fact that the hole left by them after they exploded was fifteen feet across and anywhere from four to eight feet deep. The demeanor of the Canadian soldiers on the occasion was splendid, according to the letter. The writer was only about 120 yards from the spot where one of the bombs burst.

The letter is as follows: "Wednesday night we had an air raid on our camp and the Zeppelin came over our heads. Our trumpeter blew the call 'lights out' and repeated it. We were slow in putting them out because the regulation time is 10.15. Eventually all the lights in the huts were out, but the lights in the bath house and kitchen were still burning when there was a flash and after an interval the rolling 'bomb' cry. No more orders were necessary. All lights went out and stayed out. By counting the seconds I surmised that the bomb had landed in or near the bath house. In quick succession there were two more flashes and crashes and then silence. You could feel a silence that wrought the nerves and made one's heart jump and flutter. Only a few seconds elapsed then a blinding flash and a frightful roar sounded just behind our stables, 200 yards away. In quick succession four more followed. Then we could hear the hum of the engines and all that was left to see were five pillars of black smoke standing ghostlike in the yellow fog.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of indigestible food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store. These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

Mr. Thomas Hurt, 1 Olive Thomas, county treasurer, was painfully injured by a fall in Wall street Saturday afternoon. He was assisted to his home in Hazen street.

DIED.

REED—In this city, on the 7th inst., William P. Reed, aged 82 years, leaving three sisters to mourn. Funeral on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30. Services at 2 o'clock at his late residence, 65 Clarence street.

WATSON—At his home in the Parish of Westfield on Thursday, November 4th, 1915, after a brief illness, William Watson, aged 70 years, died. Funeral on Monday at two p.m. Service at the house, burial on the homestead.

SWANTON—On the morning of November 6, Margaret Maude, aged 14 months, infant daughter of George and Belle Swanton. Funeral this (Monday) afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the residence of her parents, 183 Waterloo street. Interment in Peralhill.

I stood about 120 yards from where the bomb fell. I heard it sing as it fell through the air and saw it alight and explode. The bombs fell in a straight line just 100 yards from the edge of the camp in a vacant field which did us no damage. Not even the fence was injured.

Victims Blown Almost to Atoms

"Alas, the other camp did not escape and as quickly as possible I got a few lads together and started for the Zeppelin. The bombs fell in a straight line just 100 yards from the edge of the camp in a vacant field which did us no damage. Not even the fence was injured. I was delighted at the general demeanor of the men. It is true that for a moment some were scared and wildly excited for a time but they were certainly wonderfully steady and ready for anything, despite the excitement. I am proud of the lads. Think of it. In the peaceful evening, then instant death to so many comrades. It was an experience to try the nerve of even hardy veterans. Thursday morning we saw the piles of the bombs. Each left a hole fifteen feet across, perfectly circular and from four to eight feet deep, depending on the soil. Many fragments of the shells were picked up. In one place a small piece of iron was thrown about twenty yards right through the side of a steel tank about three-tenths of an inch thick. A small fragment of a shell cut right through a spoke of a wheel of the watercart. Evidently the bombs weigh between two and three hundred pounds. They are filled with trinitrotoluene, an explosive about six or eight times as powerful as dynamite. They have heavy metal cases and a lead of scrap iron. So they are a dangerous weapon.

STIFF FIGHTING AHEAD IN SERBIA FOR INVADERS

Paris, Nov. 7.—An Athens despatch to the Havas News Agency dated November 6 says that an official statement issued today by the Serbian legation estimates the Bulgarian losses in killed and wounded up to the present at 100,000.

London, Nov. 7.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says that a German submarine which landed near Teshelling has been interned, with its crew by the Dutch government.

Japanese Steamer Torpedoed Near Gibraltar.

Tokyo, Nov. 7.—The Japanese steamer Yaasaku Maru, 5,118 tons gross, was sunk by a German submarine near Gibraltar Wednesday. The captain and crew reached shore safely.

The Yasaku Maru was evidently the victim of one of the German submarines which have passed safely through the Strait of Gibraltar into the Mediterranean Sea, to undertake a campaign against the merchant shipping of the Allies and already have sunk several vessels.

The Yasaku Maru sailed from New York October 6 for Oran, Algeria, and arrived at Gibraltar October 23.

Three of Crew Saved.

London, Nov. 7.—The Aberdeen steamer Alastair, 366 gross tons, has been sunk. Three members of the crew were saved.

Nish Fallen? Berlin, Nov. 6.—After battles which lasted three days, the fortified city of Nish was captured yesterday afternoon, notwithstanding the stubborn resistance of the Serbians. During the battles on the headlands 350 prisoners and two cannon fell into the hands of the Bulgarians.

MRS. W. J. STARRHURST AT NEWTON, MASS., IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Car in Which She is Riding Wrecked in Collision—Driver of Other Machine Arrested.

F. P. Starr received a telegram last evening to the effect that Mrs. W. J. Starr, of this city, was injured in an automobile accident on Saturday evening at Newton, Mass. Mrs. Starr, the message stated, is in a hospital but is resting comfortably and her injuries while painful are not serious. She has been in the States for some time undergoing treatment.

The following despatch to The Standard gives the details of the accident:

Special to The Standard. Newton, Mass., Nov. 7.—Two women were injured and two men shaken up in a collision between two automobiles at the junction of Otis street and Lowell avenue, Newtonville, last evening. Mrs. Florence Starr of St. John, N. B., and Miss Eliza DuVernet, of the Hotel Kempton, Boston, were taken to the Newton Hospital and 18-year-old Norma Weaver of Dartmouth College, a son of Ernest Weaver, of 34 Winthrop street, West Newton, was arrested charged with operating an automobile without a license. A machine owned and operated by George C. Wood, of 25 Highland avenue, Newtonville, and containing also Mrs. Starr, Miss DuVernet and H. H. Williams of Birch Hill Road, Newtonville, was proceeding along Lowell Ave. when it collided with the car operated by young Weaver at the corner of Otis street. The Weaver machine drove broadside into the other car, it is charged, throwing out the occupants and wrecking the Weaver machine.

BAD WEATHER AT CAMP SUSSEX

Sussex, Nov. 7.—The recruiting meeting which was to have been held at Havelock on Saturday evening was postponed on account of the storm till Wednesday evening.

The men of the 104th did not spend a very pleasant day in camp on Saturday, owing to the disagreeable weather. Col. Fowler visited every tent in person, to make sure that all the boys were as comfortable as possible.

There will be a recruiting rally at Norton on Monday and another at Chipman on Tuesday week.

Rev. M. E. Conroy left for Woodstock where he will spend two or three days.

RECRUITING CAMPAIGN IN VICTORIA COUNTY

Special to The Standard. Andover, Nov. 7.—M. J. Whidden, recruiting officer, has arranged for a recruiting meeting in Victoria county upon systematic lines. This week two meetings will be held, one here on Monday night and one at Grand Falls on Tuesday night. The speakers at the first meeting will be Lieut. W. H. Teed, of the 104th Battalion; Donald Monro, M. L. A., T. J. Carter, M. L. A.; and Dr. R. W. Earle, Rev. M. M. Field and others.

At Grand Falls the speakers will be Lieut. Teed, Donald Monro, T. J. Carter, J. L. White, Mayor Collins, Grand Falls; G. M. Taylor and other local men. These meetings will be the first of a series of county gatherings organized in connection with the general campaign for recruiting. It is to be noted, however, that Victoria county has already provided over 100 recruits without specially planned effort.

U.S. CHAMPIONS RIGHTS OF ALL THE NEUTRALS

Calls British Blockade Ineffective, Illegal and Indefensible.

NOTE DEALS WITH WHOLE CONTRABAND QUESTION.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The United States, in its latest note to Great Britain, made public here today, covering exhaustively British interference with American trade since the beginning of the European war, declares that the so-called blockade instituted by the Allies against enemy countries on March 11 is "ineffective, illegal and indefensible."

Notice is served that the American government "demands" submission to the curtailment of its neutral rights, and it cannot "with compliance suffer further subordination of its rights and interests."

Ambassador Page, to whom the note was sent by special messenger for delivery to the London Foreign Office, was instructed by Secretary Lansing "to impress most earnestly" upon the British government that the United States "must insist that the relations between it and His Majesty's government be governed, not by a policy of expediency, but by those established rules of international conduct to which Great Britain in the past has held the United States to account, when the latter nation was a belligerent, engaged in a struggle for national existence."

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so you can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jass Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

OBITUARY.

William P. Reed. The death occurred, yesterday morning, of William P. Reed, at his home 65 Clarence street. Mr. Reed, who was eighty-two years of age, was well and favorably known in the city, and many friends will be sorry to learn of his passing away. He was an old time volunteer in the fire service and was formerly a member of No. 2 Union Fire Company, when, in 1894, fire engines were first installed here, and retained an active interest in the work of the fire department until a few years ago. At the time of the old square rigged shipping activities in St. John the deceased was foreman for Mr. Reed, and followed this calling for a number of years. Many will remember him in connection with this work as well as because of his great interest in the fire brigade. The funeral will take place from his late residence tomorrow at 2.30 p. m. Services will be conducted there at 3 o'clock.

CANADA'S TRADE FOR TWELVE MONTHS

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 7.—Canada's total trade for the twelve months ending August 31st was $1,137,985,000 as against $1,083,908,000 for the corresponding period the previous year. Of this increase, however, $170,000,000 was in shipments of coin and bullion so that the trade in merchandise is somewhat less for the latter period. Dutiable imports show the remarkable decline from $387,000,000 to $245,000,000 and free imports $193,000,000 to $160,000,000 while the exports increased from $468,000,000 to $504,000,000. The increase in exports of manufactured goods was from $43,000,000 to $121,000,000, animal products, $41,000,000 to $83,000,000, forest products $42,000,000 to $45,000,000, other agricultural products declined from $183,401,000 to $123,912,000.

RUSSIANS TAKE ENEMY BY SURPRISE, OVER 8,000 PRISONERS CAPTURED

Petrograd, Nov. 6.—The official communication issued tonight claims the capture by the Russians of 8,500 as the result of a surprise attack near the village of Seniekowce on the Strpa river.

The text of the statement follows: "West of Riga, near the village of Uchine, we repulsed several attacks. German counter-attacks continue south of Lake Swenion. Further south, as far as the Pripiet region, there is no change. "According to supplementary reports we took twenty-two officers and 712 men prisoners and captured seven machine guns and two guns in the fight near the village of Kostoukhova, west of Babalouka. "We repulsed enemy attacks in the direction of the village of Budki, driving him back in disorder to his trenches. "The period of extremely desperate fighting in the region of the village of Bemkowitz and on the western shore of Lake Ickhove has now ended. Swift frontal surprise attacks, undertaken some days ago, including the crossing of the river Strpa near the village of Semikowice, justified all our expectations. We took over 8,500 men prisoners, besides capturing a number, not yet determined, of officers and machine guns. Our valiant troops had to overcome the greatest difficulties while sending the enormous number of Austrian and German prisoners to the rear, and across the river Strpa and Lake Ickhove. "There is no change on the Caucasus front. "The weather which has turned wintry, has not interfered with the Russian offensive along the eastern front. military and political than he. It is thought that his activities will not be confined to this theatre of the war, however, but that he will visit every part to inspect the defences of the Suez Canal against a possible German or Turkish attack; Mesopotamia, where the British expedition is doing bigger things than was expected of it, and the Dardanelles, where steps are being taken to push the operations to a conclusion. Besides this, it is understood that his duties will include efforts to coordinate the work of the general staffs of the allied armies. It is considered impossible for Premier Aquitt to hold both offices of Prime Minister and Minister of War for any length of time. The Earl of Derby, director of recruiting, has been mentioned as a possible incumbent.

KITCHENER TO UNRAVEL THE TANGLE IN BALKANS

(Continued from page 1) The London News Agency claims to have authority for the statement that Earl Kitchener intends to remain in office as secretary of war until the end of the war.

How Press Views His Departure. The Times, remarking that circumstances lately have freed the field marshal from the whole business of recruiting which had been his great preoccupation during the first year of the war, says "Lord Derby's scheme now is in full progress, and Lord Kitchener's presence at the war office cannot be dispensed with."

"He is therefore at liberty to divert his attention to other matters. Of these, by far the most urgent is the new development of the war in the near east, a theatre of which Lord Kitchener possesses long standing and first hand knowledge. It would not be unnatural, therefore, if for the time being he were to devote himself entirely to consulting with the Allies (or a settlement of that tangled problem)."

The Post says editorially: "The news that Earl Kitchener has left the war office will be far from encouraging confidence in the present government. So sudden a change can hardly be regarded except as another example of an unstable, vacillating policy."

The Evening News makes the definite assertion that Earl Kitchener will not return to the war office, and adds that his great abilities and long experience in the eastern theatres of war will be usefully employed. The Globe in its issue of today, which was seized by the police, sticks to its guns and again asserts Earl Kitchener has resigned because of "manoeuvres and machinations" of politicians. It says, however, that King George has refused to accept his resignation. The announcement that Lord Kitchener is to visit the east was made Saturday night after a cabinet council and a long audience which Premier Aquitt had with the King and did not come as a surprise. It was generally believed when it became known he was about to undertake a mission that the Balkans would be his destination, for there is no man in the British Empire better equipped with a knowledge of near eastern affairs.

IS DOING FOR THE EMPIRE

Rev. Alfred Hall points to some things people can do for navy.

ANOTHER N.B. MAN GIVES LIFE

The casualty lists issued today contain the names of the following from New Brunswick:

Fourth Battalion. Died Nov. 5.—Frank Wetmore, Dufferin, N. B. Twenty-Sixth Battalion. Wounded—Capt. Fred F. May, 151 Union street, St. John. Fourth Battalion. Suffering from shock—Pte. Cyprian Alfred Thompson, Fredericton, N. B.

Coughed Almost All Night WITH THAT DRY, TICKLING SENSATION IN HER THROAT.

How many people have lost a good night's sleep by that nasty tickling sensation in the throat? The dry, hard cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is a specific for just this kind of a cough, as it is composed of the most soothing and healthful herbs, roots and barks known to medical science.

Mrs. Joseph Hiley, Orangeville, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for me. I took a severe cold, and coughed almost all night with that dry, tickling sensation in my throat. The first bottle did me so much good I thought I would try the second one, and I am pleased to say 'Dr. Wood's' resulted in a complete cure."

There is nothing that can take the place of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. There is nothing "just as good." "Dr. Wood's" has been on the market for the past twenty-five years. It is put up in a yellow wrapper three pine trees the trade mark; price, 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. McBurn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE SOLDIERS' CLUB.

Caverhill Hall has been turned over to the Soldiers' Club, as a social centre for the soldiers stationed here during this winter. The building is especially adapted for the work and the women in charge will arrange to make the rooms as attractive as possible. Those in charge hope to receive donations for the fitting up of the rooms.

Already Mr. and Mrs. Simon Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones and Mr. Kellie Jones have contributed fittings for the writing room. Other citizens have made donations. It is expected to have the house open for the soldiers on Tuesday night.

WHAT THE NAVY IS DOING FOR THE EMPIRE

Rev. Alfred Hall points to some things people can do for navy.

An interesting address on the subject, "Our Navy: What is it Doing, and What are We Doing for it?" was given in the Imperial Theatre last evening by Rev. Alfred Hall, of Toronto, senior chaplain for Canada, and Strathcona Commissioner.

"It is firm in the minds of all that the navy is our first line of defense," he said. "A lot of people ask the question, 'What is the navy doing?' A better question would be 'What is the navy not doing?' But, then we ought to ask ourselves, 'What are we doing for the navy, and what may we do for it?' When the Apostle Paul was in the ship crossing the Mediterranean, and was overtaken by the storm, he expected to see a great showing of God's work in calming the seas, but when the sailors on the ship began to talk of deserting the passengers, Paul reminded all on board that 'Except these sailors abide in the ship, we cannot be saved.' This sums up exactly the situation today. Unless the sailors in the navy abide in the ships, we cannot be saved."

"I was glad to be here when the 52nd Battalion came to the city, and to be able to join in the welcome that the people of St. John gave to them, and I prayed that every one of them will be filled with hope and inspiration through God. This service is in sympathy with both the army and the navy, for when the offering is made the proceeds will be divided between the Red Cross and the Seamen's Institute, for the care of both soldiers and sailors."

"In connection with the work being done by the navy, Balfour said recently in his report on the navy, 'The navy, from her shrouded throne on the North Sea still dominates the situation.' Premier Asquith also said, 'The work the navy is doing in these times is unparalleled by the work the British or any other navy has ever done in all history.' Do not these statements answer the question pretty well?"

"When the war started, the navy manoeuvred into the position she now holds. It was like a dog running up a flight of steps, with a cat sitting proudly at the top, but as soon as the dog is any way near the top, the cat dashes down to the cellar."

"You say they are not doing any fighting. What of that. They are kept all the busier at work watching for the German ships to come out of the Kiel Canal. It takes two to make a fight, and how can the navy fight while the enemy stays bottled up in a canal? Suppose you got a telephone message that burglars were coming to your house during the night and were going to shoot you. You would stay up all night waiting for the burglar to come, but you would feel pretty well tired out in the morning."

"The work being done at the present time by the navy surpasses the work done by Nelson's ship at Trafalgar, and it is due to the navy that the song 'Britannia rules the waves' is not only a song, but an actual fact."

"Five times before this, Britain has been called on to protect the liberties of the world, and in every case, it has been the navy that she has turned to to do the most effective part of the work, and in each case she has finally won out. This is the sixth time, and by the help of God, she will win out again, and save the world's liberty again."

"But, some of the worst work being done against the navy is being done right here in Canada. When the sailors come ashore on leave, there are always people who are ready to take him to places where he should not go, and to fill him up with liquors till he gets drunk, and becomes a helpless nuisance. Now, the British and Foreign Sailors' Society is raising a fund of $75,000 to build and furnish a building at Halifax where sailors will go when they are ashore, and where all will be done to keep them out of all snares and vice."

"Here in St. John the people should take a deeper interest in the Seamen's Institute, and do more to help it along."

"An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of the famous Bethel flags to the different Sunday schools of the city by Mayor Frink, on behalf of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society. These flags are used throughout the world as the signal for divine service aboard ships. Several of the local clergymen assisted in the service."

THE MOST REVOLUTIONARY PIANO PROPOSITION IN CANADA'S HISTORY

50 Absolutely Brand New $400 and $500 Amherst Pianos to be Sold Direct from Factory at Actual Jobbers Prices And This is Not All—Every "Mason & Risch," "Gerhard Heintzman," "Sherlock Manning," "Kauffman" Piano in This Store Must be Sold at Actual Cost

A Gigantic Undertaking

The Board of Directors of the Amherst Pianos Ltd. unanimously agree to the plans of the sales department, namely: That We Sell Brand New Amherst Pianos at Direct from Factory to Home Prices in a desperate drive to keep the factory working and the men employed. The people of the Maritime Provinces are face to face with one of the most trying times in the History of the Dominion. The Amherst Pianos Ltd. are Pulling their Pound; we are doing our "Bit." We must keep our factory going; it is up to the sale department to keep the factory running. The Board of Directors comprised of some of Canada's financial giants have given us a free hand. Our proposition in a nut shell is just this. Brand New Amherst Pianos at Direct Jobbers' Prices.

AND THIS IS ONLY A SMALL PORTION OF OUR PROPOSITION! We are going to discontinue all other makes of Pianos during the present war and concentrate our entire time and attention on the sale of Amherst Pianos. This means that we must get our money out of the other lines that we have on hand. Therefore we are not splitting hairs on prices. But we have gone to the heart of the Pianos here on our floors and cut and slashed prices right and left. We want to sell every "MASON & RISCH," "GERHARD HEINTZMAN," "SHERLOCK MANNING," "WILLIAMS," "KAUFFMAN" Piano in this store and we are not going to let a few paltry dollars stand between us and the sale of these Pianos. Come here to this store. Go through this stock, select a Piano. Make us an offer for any of these Pianos and if it is within reason we will do business in the flash of an eye.

An Open Letter to the Public by the President of Amherst Pianos Ltd.

We have weathered the storm of criticism that has been fired at us since the inception of our piano factory. The wise ones predicted dire things, but today The Amherst Piano, a domestic product in every sense is cheerfully acknowledged by all to be the Premier Piano of the Western Hemisphere. This is not idle talk or the dream of some enthusiast. But is a hard cold fact that must be met and acknowledged. When such seats of music and learning as Mt. Allison Ladies' Academy, Sackville, N. B., Ladies' College, Halifax, N. S., St. Mary's Convent, Moncton, N. B., St. Anne's Convent, Shediac, St. Anne's College, Digby, Notre Dame Convent, Summerside, P. E. I., Mt. St. Vincent Ladies' Academy, Halifax, Sisters of Charity Convent, Dalhousie, Brunton School for Music, Amherst, take the Amherst Pianos and use them to the practical exclusion of all others it is the highest tribute that can be paid to the artistic merit of now world famous Amherst Pianos. Remember these institutions bought the Amherst Pianos in open competition with the best known makes in the Dominion. This is but another tribute to the superb quality of the Amherst Pianos.

THE FLORENCEVILLE RED CROSS SOCIETY. The Florenceville Red Cross Society was organized on the 18th day of last August. Previously the ladies of this place had made their patriotic donations chiefly through the Ladies' Institute and Missionary Society. The society has a membership of twenty-two. Ice cream, socials and other sources of funds have been realized. A large attendance, when supper was held, was held in John Smith's hall on Saturday evening, October 30th. All the provisions were donated. Despite bad weather and muddy roads there was a large attendance. When supper was held over a number of chickens and other provisions being left, were sold at auction. Several persons unable to attend sent cash donations. The proceeds for the evening were $83. The ladies of the society wish to thank those outside, especially the people of Greenfield, for their generous contributions of provisions, and also Mr. Smith for the free use of the hall.

The Commercial Travelers' Patriotic Fund is due November 15th. Have you paid?

WELCOME TO THE 52ND.

His Worship the Mayor spoke truly, yesterday morning, when he told the officers and men of the 52nd Port Arthur Battalion that they were very welcome to St. John. The 52nd comes here with a splendid reputation. Their commanding officer, Col. Hay, is regarded as one of the best qualified military men in Canada and the battalion itself has won high praise for its efficiency on more than one occasion.

There is no doubt that the men of the 52nd will enjoy their sojourn in this city, or that the citizens will do all in their power to make it pleasant for them. Arrangements are already under way for the establishment of a Soldiers Club in Caverhill Hall, and the aim is to make it a homelike, pleasant place where the men will be provided with reading matter, writing materials and other conveniences and comforts not usually found in barrack equipment.

Another suggestion is that the men should be admitted to membership in the Y.M.C.A. at a nominal fee. This was done in Port Arthur shortly before the battalion left that city and was widely taken advantage of by the men. It would be a graceful action if the local Y.M.C.A. authorities could see their way clear to follow suit.

Other ways in which the visitors can be made to feel that St. John appreciates them will doubtless suggest themselves to the various organizations particularly interested in the soldiers' welfare and when the call comes for the regiment to go overseas it is hoped the men will carry with them the kindest recollections of this city.

A GOOD SIGN

Earl Kitchener, British Secretary for War, is to visit the eastern front, according to an official announcement made in London last night. Presumably his destination will be the Balkan frontier where the British and French troops assisting the Serbians have a serious task confronting them.

The announcement that Earl Kitchener will leave the war office for a time is the best possible indication that the duties of that office are now well in hand. Since his appointment the Secretary for War has given much attention to the question of recruiting but this, it is believed, is now being well worked out on lines proposed by Earl Kitchener. The supply of munitions has also been organized systematically and the output of the British factories is now greater than at any time since the opening of the war.

That Kitchener can be spared from the war office long enough to enable him to pay a visit to the eastern front and study conditions there is an encouraging sign. It shows that Britain's organization is completed and in good working order. There is a favorable augury for the future success of the allied operations on the various fronts.

WAR COMMENT.

Operations in the near East hold the centre of interest in the war news. The belief in London is that the departure of Lord Kitchener for the near East will mean the inception of a more vigorous campaign there, practically under the direction of Britain's greatest military expert. Whether Kitchener will permanently direct operations in the Balkans is unknown, but the fact that he has even temporarily undertaken the personal supervision of that campaign is indicative of Britain's determination to drive the fighting to the limit.

The Russians continue to successfully prosecute their advance. It is well established now that they have completely checked Hindenburg's movement, and that the Germans are gradually being driven back. This will be sad news to Berlin for Hindenburg is the greatest of all German army leaders and had been regarded as invincible. In fact so high was the esteem in which he was held in Berlin that a great wooden statue in his honor was erected and the people of the city undertook the task of converting it into an iron memorial by driving nails in it at a price of so many marks per nail. The purpose of the campaign was that the statue would in time be so thickly studded with nails that the original wooden figure would become iron-cased. It was Hindenburg who initiated the Russian drive and his success from day to day was accepted by Germany as a matter of course. That he would go through to Petrograd was the firm belief of the Teutonic people. But, suddenly, the Russians turned. Lacking munitions and smarting from the sting of a long retreat, they, nevertheless, made a stand with the result that for six weeks Hindenburg was held up in the district between Dvinsk and Riga. Still more recently the Russians commenced to advance and now Berlin is forced to admit that Hindenburg has withdrawn over a wide area.

The general impression has been that the Russian campaign would not reach the high tide of success until the winter season was well advanced. This is still likely to prove correct. But if Russia, this early in the winter season, can make such an impression on the enemy as to cause them to withdraw there is every probability that before spring the idol of Berlin will be given cause to hate Russia and the Russians with a hatred as deep as that held by Napoleon after the disastrous events incident upon the retreat from Moscow.

The campaign in the West has not shown appreciable change. In fact, during the last two or three days, there has been little fighting except in the way of isolated engagements.

BUTCHERING OF MISS CAVELL

A scorching arraignment of Germany as the result of the murder of Miss Edith Cavell, the English trained nurse, who was executed in Brussels, is contained in the London Chronicle just to hand. The Chronicle, after reviewing the case, says:

"The facts and papers speak for themselves. Comment is wasted on them. Only less amazing than the fact of the cruelty of the thing is the series of lies and subterfuges, whereby it was sought to trick the American Legation and to secure that Miss Cavell should be dead before they could finally protest. Of Miss Cavell herself no one will dispute, that if any death in this war has been heroic, hers was; one cannot say less, and no one could say more. The sense of the whole civilized world can be left to judge between this helpless woman and her murderers. To the diplomatic representatives of the United States and Spain Sir Edward Grey has expressed his gratitude in terms which every countryman of Miss Cavell will most emphatically endorse. Yet these neutral diplomats acted as they did, not in the cause of our nation, but in that of humanity. They sought in the interests of the German good name itself to save it from being branded with an indelible infamy. They failed utterly; and their failure affords one of the most eloquent proofs that the world has set had of what German militarism, German duplicity, and German blood-lust really mean."

The people of Germany are to have one "mattress day" in each week. That provision if continued should speedily bring to the German people a more complete realization of the hopelessness of their case for it will strike them in the most vital spot—the stomach.

Armand Lavergne of Quebec has declined the offer of a regiment. Armand is probably operating along the lines of "safety first."

REMEMBER THE BOYS OF FIRST CONTINGENT

St. John, Nov. 7. To the Editor of The Standard, Sir,—In a letter from a brave and well known non-commissioned officer of the 1st Can. Divisional Ammunition Column, British Expeditionary Force No. 3 Section, France (which section is mostly composed of our St. John boys), attention is directed to the fact that they have not received any of the comforts sent to the Canadian overseas forces. There are many St. John lads in this contingent, and they feel sore that they seem to be unrecognized ed in the distribution that they hear is being made from time to time. They were through the battle of Ypres and the other later actions and deserve to be thought well of by St. John friends.

The writer writes this as personal, and thinks if gifts are sent addressed to some responsible party in each section of their column such would be then fairly distributed.

I feel I am acting for the best in bringing this corps to the attention of the ladies concerned.

I am, sir, Yours sincerely, EDWARD SEARS, Postmaster.

Napoleon and the Kaiser

(Canadian Courier) Every day the resemblance between Emperor William and the Kaiser grows stronger. In 1810, France stretched from the confines of Naples to the Baltic, Holland and the Hanseatic towns having been the latest additions. It was possible to travel from Lubek to Rome without passing outside the boundaries of Napoleon's domain.

Shortly it may be possible to travel from Hamburg to Constantinople without passing outside the area controlled by the Kaiser's soldiers. Austria is virtually a vassal kingdom of the Prussian, and Bulgaria will shortly be dominated by the same impudent power.

Another comparison lies in the inevitable end of this attempt at world conquest. Napoleon's final defeat was inevitable from his first campaign, and so is the Kaiser's. Napoleon attempted the impossible, and so did the Kaiser. Napoleon's Russian expedition of 1812 has been much discussed in comparison with the Kaiser's Russian campaign of 1915. It remains to be seen whether the results will be the same, but at present it seems likely. The campaign in Bulgaria has its counterpart in Saxony in 1812. Napoleon's great victory at Dresden in August of that year only postponed the great defeat at Leipzig in October. The Kaiser may occupy Nish and join hands with the Turks, but his Leipzig will come sooner or later.

Between Napoleon's last great victory at Dresden in August, 1813, and the occupation of Paris in March, 1814, there was only a period of five months. The downfall of the Kaiser may be less swift, but it is equally certain. Will it be Elba or St. Helena?

Johnnie Poe's War Plunge

(Johnnie Poe, the famous Princeton football halfback, was killed in France recently, while serving with the British forces.)

You've quit the game at last, Johnnie. The game that all men play. A ball by hatred passed, Johnnie. Has dropped you in the fray, but in your last run, your hottest once, you hit the battling backs.

But Fate, that flyer fast, Johnnie, Has downed you in your tracks! Your interference failed, Johnnie; You had no brothers' shield When toward the goal you sailed Johnnie.

Across a broken field, You pounded holes through maddened souls; You smashed the reddened row; But you are down and nailed, Johnnie, With life's best yards to go!

Oh, how you hit the line, Johnnie, As when, in olden days, Upon the Captain's sign, Johnnie, You started deadly plays!

A world's crossbar you saw afar And toward it sped and sped. But Death has cracked your spine, Johnnie.

Where the white lines are red; For flukes you did not look, Johnnie, You played it fast and free, And cheerfully you took, Johnnie, The Empire's penalty.

O forward pass that stains the grass: O deadly plunge, old friend, That proves by hook or crook, Johnnie, You cannot dodge the end!

Yet on another green, Johnnie, On God's gridiron great, You skim the sward serene, Johnnie, And oh, this run is straight!

Hear the Timekeeper's call! Hear the Timekeeper's call! You've tallied fair and clean, Johnnie, The Last Great Goal of All!

The preliminary hearing in the case of George Lunerger, charged with stealing rope valued at $200, from the Norton Griffiths Co., was continued in the police court Saturday morning and the prisoner was remanded. S. A. M. Skinner appeared for the defendant Abram Jacobson, a junk dealer, told of being asked to buy some rope by a man whom he recognized as the defendant. The rope was at the Strait Shore and Lunerger said he got it by grappling in the harbor. He paid accused $8 and defendant gave the name of Charles Johnson. Accused wrote the name of J. Tibbits on the witness book. The rope was in four, five and six foot lengths. J. Quinn, of the Norton Griffiths Co., testified that he lost some rope on a hoisting scow lying at No. 7 berth, West St. John, about two weeks ago. He notified the police an hour after the loss was discovered. The rope was on the slanting roof of the scow and it was an outside chance that it might have fallen overboard, but he did not think that such a thing had happened. The rope he missed was of different sizes, the principal being eight inch hawser. He thought some of the rope looked like his, but was not sure. The case was stood over till Monday morning.

The case of Walter Cottrell and Roy M. Grey, reported for soliciting members for an automobile league for the purpose of supplying auto accessories, was stood over till Monday morning, as the Dominion charter from Montreal, which they claim they were working under, had not arrived from Montreal. W. J. Mahoney, K. C., appeared for the defendants.

Andrew Irvine appeared in the police court for the 153rd time and, as usual, the charge was drunkenness. He was remanded for further consideration.

The sailor who was beaten up so that he had to be taken to the hospital was also charged with drunkenness and was also remanded.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTER.

After the tragic death of John Amesbury, his devoted wife, one of America's greatest beauties, died. At her death Prof. Stilliter, an agent of the interests, killed her in a paralytic stroke who sees no man, but thinks she is taught by angels, who instruct her for her mission to the world. At the age of eighteen she is suddenly thrust into the world where agents of the interests are ready to pretend to her.

After the death of John Amesbury, his devoted wife, one of America's greatest beauties, died. At her death Prof. Stilliter, an agent of the interests, killed her in a paralytic stroke who sees no man, but thinks she is taught by angels, who instruct her for her mission to the world.

Mary, smiling disclosed a string of pearls.

"But she doesn't seem to have impressed you favorably?"
"Me! Hush! I don't say she hasn't got good looks of a kind, but what a man can see in a manny panny, goody-goody like that gets me. Well, I'm going to move on—So long!"

"You think a woman in this town, Mrs. Gundorf resumed, 'who'd be willing to lie down and let him tramp on her, No, I don't mean Celestia. She likes him well enough in her nobby panny too-busy-to-think-of-love kind of way. I mean another woman with red blood in her veins. Well, she made all made out that he—Oh, got too fresh with her. He yelled at her, and her husband and some friends came, and they were going to lynch Tommy Barclay, had him on a ladder with a rope around his neck, when along she came—"

"The girl from heaven, and she talked, and pretty soon she got hold of the woman, and made her own up."

The Serial Beautiful Presented By this NEWSPAPER IN CO-OPERATION With The VITAPHONE CO. OF AMERICA finer on the new basis of self initiative and she had more power on the issue of those who listened to her.

If Stilliter could have been entirely eliminated from her life, her life at least for a time, must have gone on very much as it was going on. She believed firmly in what she preached. She believed that she came from Heaven and that she had come to make the world better, safer to live in, cleaner and happier.

Tommy argued with her so incessantly and often so intemperately that if she had been in love with the mere sound of his voice, she couldn't have stood it.
Late one afternoon she came home to her little city of tents, very tired and lay down in a hammock under a shady tree to rest. In spite of her Celestian origin, Celestia was very human, and just as attractive to a sticky house fly as any other human being. Such a house fly made a dead set for her, and she found it impossible to rest. So she went into the headquarters tent which was the biggest and coolest, and the day's work being over and the secretaries gone, tried to rest there and couldn't. She was tired and discouraged. She was tired because she had been reading too much, and she was discouraged because she was tired. Tommy had an uncanny faculty for dropping in upon her when she most wanted to be alone.

"Celestia heard his voice and called out to him, a little petulantly perhaps, Tommy poked his head in through the door of the big tent, and greeted her loudly and in a friendly way. The moment she saw him she felt a little rested. Meanwhile, Professor Stilliter, in his tent, reading a deep and thick book on the Psychology of Government, heard the two voices—and couldn't stand another word."

"Celestia," said Tommy, "you look so little and helpless and unprotected, curled among those curtains, that I'm tempted to pick you up, put you in my pocket and take you somewhere where you can't get into any more mischief."

LONDON GLOBE SUPPRESSED BY AUTHORITIES

London's oldest afternoon paper silenced because of attacks on Ministers and defiance of wishes of Official Press Bureau.

London, Nov. 6.—The printing plant of the London Globe, together with copies of the issues of yesterday and today, were seized by the police this afternoon.

The authorities acted presumably because of the article appearing in the Globe today, containing a bitter attack on Lord Haldane and declaring that Kitchener had offered his resignation, which was declined. The Globe said the appointment of Lord Haldane to succeed Lord Kitchener would "jeopardize the life of the government."

The following official statement was issued: "This afternoon Chief Inspector Fowler with other police officers, acting under the authority of Sir Francis Lloyd, K.C.B., a competent military authority, entered the premises of the Globe newspaper and seized all copies of the newspaper for yesterday and today, together with the printing plant and type."

The Globe had been having trouble for some time, virtually during the authorities to take official notice of its disregard of some of the wishes of the official press bureau and of its unrestricted denunciation of members of the cabinet who incurred its wrath. An attack yesterday by the Globe on certain ministers in connection with the administration of the war office, and its positive reiteration today that Secretary Kitchener had resigned, notwithstanding official denials, seem to have decided the authorities on the suppression of the paper.

The Globe is controlled by Cecil Harmsworth, brother of Lord Northcliffe. It is the oldest afternoon newspaper of London. A despatch from London today said the Globe again asserted War Secretary Kitchener had resigned, because of "manoeuvres and machinations." Official denial was made yesterday and again today that the war secretary had resigned. It is possible that the Globe in this way may have incurred the displeasure of the London authorities.

The Globe while one of the oldest papers published in the country and for long considered a staid and conservative organ, has lately lost that character, and has been chiefly noted for its violent attacks on public men during the administration of the Liberal government. It has been one of the government's bitterest opponents, and has, since the war attacked virtually all of the members of the government. On Friday it bitterly attacked Sir Frederick E. Smith, the new attorney-general, whom it had heretofore supported, and who the evening before had defended Premier Asquith against what he described as "discreditable personal attacks."

The Globe published a brief announcement of a morning paper that a change of the utmost importance was about to take place in the conduct of the war. The Globe is edited by Charles Palmer, formerly ex-parliamentary representative.

First Anniversary.

About forty-five members of the Trinity Church Badminton Club gathered in their rooms Saturday to a supper after which the Rev. L. R. Sherman was presented with a splendid Badminton racket by the well-wishing members, to mark the first anniversary of his appointment to the church. Mrs. H. R. Sturdee made the presentation to which Mr. Sherman replied in a few words of appreciation.

GRAND DIVISION SONS OF TEMPERANCE IN ANNUAL SESSION

Reports show much work accomplished during year —Rev. W. R. Robinson re-elected Grand Scribe.

Point de Bute, Nov. 5.—The Grand Division Sons of Temperance of New Brunswick, met in annual session here yesterday afternoon and continues today.

G. W. P. Rowley gave an encouraging report, urging temperance workers to take a more active stand in enforcing all liquor legislation. It was the dismissal of an efficient inspector and appointing of a fire-head that caused the loss of local option in Kent County recently. We must deal with men and measures rather than with political partyism, and demand of candidates a pledge to introduce and work for prohibition and see that they keep it.

The Grand Scribe reported there were 81 divisions in good standing, 35 of which were paid up to Sept. 30, 1915, 30 were in arrears, 7 were apparently dead.

During the year there were:
Initiated ..... 617
Reported ..... 45
Joined by card ..... 29
Renounced ..... 701
Withdrawn ..... 85
Suspended ..... 206
Expelled ..... 42
Died ..... 12
Total ..... 345

Net gain ..... 356
Total membership, Sept. 30, 1915 reported ..... 2,066
In divisions not reporting but in good standing ..... 586
In divisions recommended for suspension ..... 335
39 divisions report $4,204.72 on hand, 22 make no financial report.

A fine public meeting was held in the evening with hall crowded. A. J. Colpitts presided. Election of officers resulted as follows:
G. W. P.—S. C. Alward, Moncton.
G. W. A.—Geo. A. Fawcett, Middle Sackville.
G. Scribe—Rev. W. R. Robinson, St. John, (re-elected).
G. Treas.—James Falconer, (re-elected).
G. Chap.—Rev. B. H. Thomas, (re-elected).
G. Con.—A. J. Colpitts, Point de Bute.

G. Sentinel—James Godfrey, Black River Bridge.
Grand Worthy Patron of Young People's Work—Ald. Henry Harvey Stuart, Newcastle, N. B.

Officers elected were installed by Most Worthy Patriarch of North America, Rev. R. H. Staver.
Meeting then adjourned.
Grand Division resumed at 1.30. Following representatives were elected to National Division: P. G. W. P., L. P. D. Tilley, Rev. C. Fleming, Rev. W. J. Kirby, E. S. Hennigar, Rev. R. H. Staver, S. B. Bustin, P. G. Moore, E. W. Rowley.

LOYALIST CITY EXTENDS ROYAL WELCOME TO OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF 52ND BATTALION

As soon as each company received refreshments they were marched off to the quarters allotted for them in the armory and the Exhibition building and all appeared to be well pleased. There was no mismanagement of affairs and the men were handled in an efficient manner.

During the day Col. Hay and the officers of the battalion were the guests of Mayor Frink at luncheon in the Union Club. The first train to arrive was in charge of Major Thompson, while Col. Hay with the other half of the battalion was in the second train.

A Fine Showing.
As the 52nd Battalion marched through the streets, it did not take a military man to observe the fact that the men are well trained, and in fact they presented the appearance of a body of men who are at present quite fitted to go overseas and rush right into battle with the Huns. They are certainly a sturdy looking lot of soldiers.

It was learned yesterday by The Standard that every company commander in the 52nd has seen active service and knows the business from start to finish. The matter of war is nothing new to these officers; some of them have seen service in Africa, India and Egypt, and on the breasts of each officer can be seen the ribbons of honor.

The following is the complete list of officers in the battalion:
Lieut.-Col. A. W. Hay, second in command.
Major G. M. Thomson, officer in command.
Major E. A. C. Wilcox, third in command.
Major E. O. Reed, company commander A Company.
Major J. H. Hughes, company commander B Company.
Major A. Young, company commander C Company.
Major J. W. Allen, company commander D Company.
A Company Captain H. J. Horan.
B Company Captain G. M. Thomson.
C Company Captain J. C. Cauchon.
D Company Captain A. L. Saunders.
Company Lieutenants, R. E. Stone, W. B. Grey, J. D. Young, R. Cook.
B Company Lieutenants, J. D. Grant, N. A. McCaghey, E. R. C. Wilcox, K. B. McKenzie.
Company Lieutenants, J. H. Craig, Friday of November next; and semi-annual session on first Thursday and Friday of July next.

Tobacco Heart CURED BY Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Tobacco does not seem to affect all alike. Many men enjoy their smoke, live to a good old age and apparently suffer no ill effects from the use of the weed.

There are others, though, on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart and irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, and the breath becomes short.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy that equals Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco.

Mr. Nelson Young, Brampton, Ont., writes: "I have had, up to about a month ago, a very rotten heart, which I suppose came from smoking cigarettes. When I heard of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as a cure, I immediately gave up smoking, and started using them. It does you just to be the founder of such a great remedy. They made me feel like a new man."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

all, but these are mostly brass instruments, so that there are openings for several men playing reed instruments of all kinds, clarinets, oboes, bassoons, and saxophones, as well as cymbals. There is an E flat saxophone with the band that has no player. The band is the equal, if not the peer, of any band around the city. It is under the able direction of William Hoskins-Sara, who has been in charge of military bands for over twenty-five years. In that time he has organized several fine bands, among them being the Port Arthur City Band, the Veterans' Band, of Winnipeg, the 22nd Rifles Band and the 52nd Battalion Band. The band he now conducts is a fine sample of the work he can do, and while there are vacancies in it, any men who wish to go to the war as bandmen could not find a better set of men to go with. All are fine steady men, and good players, and it is a band that any man ought to be proud to belong to.

FOR USE IN THE SICK ROOM

Your family physician will tell you that there are times in our lives when an invigorating tonic is not only desirable but necessary. This is particularly true of persons who are recovering from a serious illness.

For this purpose RED BALL ALE and PORTER are recommended as excellent tonics.

Around the City

Detained. Thomas Martin, a private in the 104th Battalion, was in the city on leave Saturday and during the afternoon he was located by Detectives Barrett and Briggs in a moving picture theatre and was heard by the officers to use some pro-German talk to a friend. The private was escorted to police headquarters by the officers and is detained there pending an examination by the military authorities. Sergt. Blair on Way Home. George A. Blair received a telegram yesterday from his son, Sergeant Kenneth Blair of A Section, No. 1 Field Ambulance 1st Contingent, to the effect that he had arrived in Quebec and would be in St. John today or Tuesday. Sergeant Blair has seen some heavy fighting in France, having been with the late Captain Duval who died from wounds. Sergt. Blair has been ill in a hospital in England for some time and owing to his illness has been sent home. Presentation to N. B. Man. The nine years' service of Frederick C. Harper, Seattle, as collector of customs in the State of Washington, brought an expression of appreciation from his former associates recently, when he was presented with a beautiful gold watch and fob by the 150 employees, embraced in the customs service throughout the State and also included the Treasury Department employees of Seattle and Collector R. M. Drumheller, successor to Mr. Harper. Mr. Harper is a native of Bellefleur, Westmorland Co. Baxter Trophy Presented. The Royals of the Fairville Baseball League, who won the Baxter Cup during the season just closed, were presented with the trophy at a meeting held in Fairville on Saturday evening. Councilor John O'Brien occupied the chair and the cup was given to the winning team by Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, the donor of the cup. In making the presentation he spoke of the good resulting from clean baseball and other athletic pursuits, and he congratulated the winners on their work for the season. The remainder of the evening was given over to other entertainment features and a pleasant time was spent. Soldiers Entertained. Over three hundred soldiers of the 52nd Battalion were present at the evening service in St. David's church. After the service they were the guests of the brotherhood of the church, at a song service and social hour, at the close of which coffee and cake were served. A cordial welcome was extended to the soldiers by Bruce S. Robb, on behalf of the brotherhood, and this was responded to, on behalf of the soldiers by Bugler Sergeant Taylor of the 52nd. On Thursday evening, throughout the season, while the soldiers are in the city, the Young People's Association will entertain the soldiers with singing and a general good time, at the close of which refreshments will be served. Opportunities will be given for letter-writing, reading, games and entertainment of all sorts on these evenings. Throughout the season the brotherhood will entertain the soldiers every Sunday evening, at the close of the evening service. All soldiers are cordially invited to the church on both evenings, and it is hoped that as many will be present every time as where there is the first time.

PERSONAL.

Hon. George J. Colter, at one time Commissioner of Public Works of New Brunswick, is seriously ill at his home at St. Marys, York Co. Dr. Lefleur, the Montreal specialist, has been summoned. Mrs. Hugh O'Neil, who has been in the city for several weeks, the guest of Mrs. Joshua Ward, Dorchester street, returned to her home in Fredericton on Friday. Rev. George Steel left Saturday for Fredericton. Miss J. M. Charlton, Charles street, is to leave this morning for a three weeks' visit in Boston and New York.

SOLDIER DIES SOON AFTER HIS ARRIVAL HERE

Pte. James Stewart Brown a victim of pneumonia — Funeral Tuesday.

Members of the 52nd Battalion, and especially those in D Company, learned with the deepest regret of the death of Private James Stewart Brown of that company who died during the afternoon at the General Public Hospital. Private Brown contracted pneumonia shortly after the battalion left Port Arthur but his condition was not thought serious until the battalion had nearly reached St. John. The ambulance was summoned and the soldier was conveyed to the hospital at three o'clock yesterday afternoon and three hours after he was admitted to the hospital he was dead. The deceased was a Scotchman and only 41 years of age. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock from Brennan's undertaking parlours and the soldier will be buried with military honours.

UNITED STATES LOSING A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Rev. Dr. Morison speaks of advantages American people are losing.

Rev. Dr. Morison delivered a splendid address last evening on "Britain, the Servant of God," in the First Presbyterian church, West St. John. He first mentioned the sacrifices we are making in giving our boys to this great cause, because it is God's war or, otherwise termed, the powers of evil against God. Quoting Goldsmith, he told of the preparation and material prosperity of Greece through the words, "Ill fares the land to hastening ills a prey, where wealth accumulates and men decay." His next point brought out the actions of the United States in respect to their silence by saying, "The time will come when the citizens of America will see to their shame that this reserve and caution of the Wilson Administration has forever lost to them as a nation, the grandest opportunity ever afforded to a great and influential people to strike a blow for humanity that would have echoed and re-echoed throughout the world and down the ages, adding glory to glory."

Next he spoke of the intrigues of the Germans in the foreign courts of Europe. The king of Greece is acting under instructions from his wife, the Kaiser's sister, but as to how long the people of Greece will stand for this remains to be seen. Their treaty calls them to give aid to their allies, the Serbs, and when the people of Greece learn that kings are made for the people and not the people for the kings, likely a great wave of patriotism will be shown. The king of Bulgaria has also proved a traitor to his people and representatives of the Kaiser have been found in the employ of the Russian government.

Suspected of Stealing. Ernest Northrup, a teamster, was arrested on Saturday night by Detectives Barrett and Briggs on suspicion of having broken into the warehouse of Jones and Schofield, of Nelson street. A hole had been broken into the warehouse and near the hole ready for removal were several tubs of butter. About this time a year ago a large quantity of butter had been stolen in the same manner from this warehouse.

Fowler in St. Andrew's Rink. Big public rally.

COMFORTABLE QUARTERS FOR THE SOLDIERS

Exhibition building being fitted up for sleeping — Housing 500 there now.

The quarters for the 52nd Battalion in the southeast wing of the exhibition building are rapidly nearing completion. The ground floor has been fitted with about five hundred berths and by Tuesday night the upstairs and floor will be ready to accommodate the balance of the battalion. A and B companies have been assigned their quarters in the portion of the building already completed. The other two companies, C and D, are temporarily occupying the armory. They will be moved into the exhibition building as soon as the carpenters have finished. Contractor Bates has a large crew of men at work and the operations will be carried out with despatch. He expects to complete the work by Tuesday night. A Standard reporter visited the quarters of A and B companies last night and found the men very comfortable and well satisfied with the provision made for them. The building has been sheathed inside and there were nine large self-feeders doing business there last night. The room was warm and dry and the men were making themselves at home in their new quarters. When the balance of the work is finished there is no doubt but that the boys of the 52nd will be as comfortable as could be desired.

REV. MR. HAUGHTON STRONGLY CONDEMNS SOCIAL SNOBBERY

Forceful sermon on a matter of great importance — A few comparisons.

The aristocracy of manhood versus social snobbery or the kingdom of democracy, was the subject of an interesting and timely sermon by Rev. Ralph J. Haughton in Congregational church last evening. The church was well filled and the preacher's words were heard with deep feeling by those present. He took his text from Matthew which says: "And they were astonished and said, Whence hath this Man this wisdom and these mighty works?" He told of the greatness of Christ and pointed out that Jesus had been born in a stable and was cradled in a manger. This Jesus, whom men revere and love and adore, was once a poor ordinary boy, the son of a humble carpenter in the little town of Nazareth.

The same snobbery exhibited concerning Christ is often manifest today. There are still persons who believe that by reason of a special dispensation of God's favor they and theirs are the chosen people. Rev. Mr. Haughton made special reference to the work of the men of the 26th Battalion, who had cut themselves off from home and friends to fight for us. These had been referred to as "common boys," but he thanked God for the common boys, who did not fail to respond to the call of duty when it came to their hearts.

Mr. Haughton referred to many great men, who had come of lowly birth. He told of many instances where snobbery had been brought to his attention. "Many of the boys who marched away last June with the 26th Battalion, were not society pets perhaps," said he. "They did not mingle in select drawing rooms, but I tell you that those fellows, who, when asked to go forward to that German crater on the thirteenth of October last to do a necessary and perilous work and responded as one man, offering to lay down their very lives if necessary to save your home and mine from the iron heel of German despotism, those fellows are infinitely nobler than many a society fop."

"In Jesus Christ we have the aristocracy of manhood. That is the real and true aristocracy."

Twilight Recital. A very pleasant twilight recital was held in Centenary Church Saturday afternoon under the auspices of "Lend a Hand Circle" of King's Daughters, in aid of the poor of the city. The following programme was carried out: Solo (instrumental) Miss Alice Hea; solo, vocal, Mrs. Murray Long; quartette, Messrs. Skelton, Nobles, Guy and Currie; solo (instrumental) Miss Alice Hea; violin solo, Mrs. Gunn; solo, Miss A. Pierce Crockett; duet, Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett and Mr. Alphonso C. Smith; solo, Mr. Guy; solo (instrumental) Miss Alice Hea. Mrs. Chas. A. Clark is president of the Circle and Mrs. H. Colby Smith chairman of the musical committee. The recital will be repeated on Saturday afternoon, November 20th.

EDGAR MARCH AMONG THOSE IN HOSPITAL

His brother Dudley writes of injuries to Lieutenant March on Oct. 13.

The first intimation that Lieut. Edgar March of the 26th Battalion had been wounded while in the trenches was received in a letter from Private Dudley March of the 6th Mounted Rifles on Saturday. Dudley March stated in the letter that he had learned that Lieut. March had been wounded on the 13th of October and had been taken to a hospital in France where he was being treated for a wound on the shoulder. No official news has been received by Mrs. March, the Lieutenant's mother, nothing more than the news received in the letter is known in the city. It was rumored some days ago that Lieut. March had received a slight scratch on one of his arms while in the trenches, but that the injuries were not of a nature that would oblige him going off duty.

FAMOUS SWORD FOR COL. FOWLER

Was carried on march of Old 104th from Fredericton to Quebec.

Of all the meetings held in this city in the last few months in connection with the splendid recruiting campaign, the somewhat formal function planned for next Friday night in one of the big meeting places of the city, promises to stand out as most interesting, particularly as to its historic value. A few days ago in a cleverly conceived window decoration in M. R. A.'s establishment, the sword carried by Lieut. William Barry Phair of the old redoubtable 104th Regiment, was placed on exhibition along with many other relics of that intrepid band of volunteers.

This sword has been purchased outright and will be presented to Lieut. Col. George W. Fowler, M. P. of the new 104th New Brunswick Battalion in perpetuation of the battalion number and of the spirit which impelled the men of this loyal province to take up arms in defense of their home and flag. Lieut.-Col. Fowler feels pleased and complimented that such a time-honored and illustrious relic should be bestowed upon him and his regiment, and a promise to wear the weapon throughout the career of the new 104th in the present struggle.

Friday's affair will also take the form of another recruiting rally with the sword presentation as central idea. Arrangements are being made for speakers of more than local repute and those who are familiar with the plans of the meeting are enthusiastic about it. The sword which has been secured for presentation to the commander of the 104th Regiment was carried by Lieut. Phair on the famous march of the 104th Regiment from Fredericton to Quebec in 1813. This was during the regime of bias in the United States and Canada and although New Brunswick's population was less than 50,000 it raised that splendid old regiment. Afterwards, it offered its services to the British government as a regiment of the line at which time it received its number. It was in the latter part of February, 1813, that the 104th left Fredericton for Quebec. Indian scouts proceeded to the regiment, the trails and the meeting shelters for night stops. During this memorable march one of the bitterest storms in the history of the country overtook the brave New Brunswickers, bringing about great suffering.

Seven More Travellers. At a meeting of the commercial travellers held in the Board of Trade rooms Saturday night seven travellers enlisted for overseas duty and will soon don the uniform and join their brother Knights of the Grip who have already got into uniform. Those who enlisted Saturday night are: Adam Gray, Clyde Avery, G. B. Osgood, H. C. Simmons, W. R. Mullin, F. W. Campbell and W. V. Owens. Another meeting will be held at eight o'clock next Saturday night in the Board of Trade rooms when all commercial travellers in the city are requested to be in attendance as business of the great importance is to be transacted.
