While working on a Canadian National Railway's water tank at Hamilton yesterday afternoon, Harry Toovey, 196 William street, fell to the ground and suffered severe injuries. His back was broken in two places. The injured man was rushed to Hamilton General Hospital where he lies in a critical condition. Mrs. Toovey left for Hamilton last night.

It rained almost continuously yesterday. Western Ontario Day, but neverthless 12,000 people were reported to have attended the Fair. Such an attendance, with weather conditions as they were, encouraged the directors, placing the Fair as it did only 3,000 behind the attendance figures for the first two days last year.

Harry Toovey was employed by the year.

WEATHER IMPROVES

Spite of the Showers-R. H. Dowler Luncheon Speaker.

Today is Farmers' Day at Westers Fair and 50,000 people are expected to attend the big show. From the crowd which had passed through the turnstiles by noon time it appeared almost certain that last year's figure of 43,000 people would be easily surpassed.

With the weatherman in better humor than yesterday, J. H. Saunders, president, and his fellow directors, are inclined to be more cheerful. Officials are confident this morning that the desired records for this year will yet be achieved, despite the set back suffered earlier in the week. R. H. Dowler, president of the London chamber of commerce, was the guest of honor at the directors luncheon today. Mr. Dowler, in brief speech, brought the fraternal greetings and best wishes from the chamber to the directors in their uphill fight to make the Fair the success which they are aiming at in

SPEAKS AT HALIFAX

By a Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.

Halifax, Sept. 15 .- Maritime province problems, notably those which have to do with transportation of the products of the Atlantic provinces to the central markets of Canada, found prominent place in the opening speech of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, here tonight.

Mr. Meighen revealed to an audience of 5,000 people in the arena the method which he proposed to adopt if returned to power for assisting the maritime provinces' shipper. His policy in the matter of railway rates was summarized as follows: "The rates fixed should be fair to the roads and fair to the public, but, having done that, then there should be a portion of those rates paid for the benefit of the outlying parts of the country from the general treasury of the nation. By that you will the the maritime provinces closer to the union, and the dominion as a whole will share the geographical burden, which, under present conditions, the maritimes and western provinces share themselves. And, in my humble wented from bringing dependents, defectives and delinquents in to the service. But I do think that, with respect to large numbers of appointments, the government should have the responsibility and be held responsible." The commission might have the say in regard to whether the appointee had the necessary qualifications, but the naming should be by the administration which was held responsible for the work it did.

Mr. King, as in earlier speeches, judgment, the maritimes' share is even more than the west, more than any portion of our country. This will bring about that feeling of mutual help and mutual interest sadly wanting in those days, without which the country cannot hope to succeed.'

Mr. Meighen charged the government with adopting a method which was utterly indefensible "in legislating for reduced rates on grain and flour in the west." This had been granted at the expense of other parts of Canada, and as a result the high rates prevailing were "riveted" on the maritime provinces. While low rates were desirable all over the country, they should not be obtained Says East Suffers. a majority in the House, Mr. Meighen had said there was only one question before the electors, the tariff. "High tariff is the smallest of the questions

Mr. Meighen told his hearers that H. J. Logan, who was this afternoon, for the seventh time, chosen Liberal candidate in this county of Cumberland, declared that the natural Mr. Meignen told his hearers that he did not come to them with a solution of the problems which confronted the Maritime provinces. His hope was to indicate the lines which should be followed in finding a solution. "I'm not going to promise what market for the Maritimes was in export trade. For 45 "mortal" years the country had been trying to lift itself up by its bootstraps under a policy which had drained the lifeblood of the Maritimes. Mr. Logan pressed the West Indies as an outlet for Canadian trade. In the West Indies, he thought, Canada could do another $25,000,000 worth of trade, and in that the Maritimes would market for the Maritimes was in ex-

He reviewed the situation of the Canadian National Railways, claiming that they had been saddled with a debt of $234,000. 000 since the government had taken office. He advocated withholding money for further capital expenditure and the institution of "careful as scrupulously honest management."

HUNDREDS HONOR MEMORY OF SLAIN TRAFFIC OFFICER

Clergyman Offers Tribute To Courage of Man Killed While Performing Duty.

OFFICIALS ATTEND

A beautiful floral wheel lay on the casket of Jack Waddell yesterday. It bore the tribute "duty" upon its broken spikes, marking the sorrow of the county of Middlesex at the untimely death of the popular motorcycle officer, slain in the execution of his duty late Saturday afternoon. A brave officer, and popular amongst his fellow constables and citizens alike, Officer Waddell was honored in death, and hundreds gathered at the Logan Funeral Home, where burial rites were observed.

More Physicians Pro Rata Than Any Other City in Dominion.

FAME IS WIDESPREAD

London, a city of doctors, has a practicing physician for about every 125 families, or 500 persons. There are more physicians in London for its size than any other center in the dominion, according to Victoria hospital records, although Windsor runs a close second.

But London's plethora of doctors, specialists in all types of disease, has brought a certain amount of fame to the city. From coast to coast London is known as a medical center, being the seat of one of the foremost medical schools in the dominion and the home of six exceptionally large hospitals. Graduates of the University

EGGS FOR JAIL MENU ON SUNDAY

Chickens Act As Rising Bell and Then Pay For Keep.

Prisoners at the county jail don't have to be awakened by turnkeys at the first gray streaks of dawn. Eighty chickens, with a plentiful sprinkling of roosters, act collectively as a rising bell, so much so that residents in the vicinity of the jail declare that they are losing their beauty sleep as the result of the early morning racket produced by the 100 birds being held

RATES CUT NOT AS GREAT AS WESTERNERS EXPECTED

Canadian Press Despatch.
Calgary, Alta., Sept. 16.—The new export rates on grain and flour moving westward to the Pacific coast, which were announced yesterday, do not provide as great reductions as had been expected. The difference in Calgary is only one cent and a half per hundredweight on flour, the new rate being 22 cents as compared with the old rate of 22½c.
Canadian Pacific railway and Canadian National railway freight officials here will receive the new tariff schedules Wednesday morning from Winnipeg. These are effective immediately.

There is nothing in the situation that could not be settled by fair negotiation and a desire on both sides to arrive at an equitable decision at once. A new bridge is necessary, and the city tribute to the cost of construction. The new bridge should be built large enough to carry the street railway tracks and all other traffic over one structure. Such a building would be larger than one on which there would be no tracks; it would have to be stronger, and would, in consequence, cost more money. The reasonable solution is that the excess cost growing out of having to provide for the street railway tracks should be borne by the company, and the remainder become a charge against the city.

Gumdrops and Liver

Why should we not recall the days when life was happy for a man, when we got liver for the cat and gumdrops on the coal-oil can.

Some folks they flay the chap who talks about the good old days that was, and say that for such vaporin' he has no good and truthful cause. Why we are living right today in times that blank the days of yore, we're seeing sights and hearing things like what they never had before.

And so they bade him hold his tongue who sings about the days that were, they name him a fossil gent and boot him as a flea-bit cur.

But why forsooth should we begin to slam the times that used to be, and bounce upon its advocate a limb carved from a bass-

For as I'm lookin' back a spell upon those days what's past and gone, it seemeth how there were some things ten fathoms off from bein' all wrong. I mind when we was young back there we took the oil can after four, and went to do the shoppin' then, we dealt at Kelly's corner store. The coal oil can it had a spout like all good oil cans ought to do, and there was danger in them days about the oil come spillin' through.

So when old Kelly filled the can, to keep the oil from sloppin' out, he used to take a gumdrop then and stick it on the oil can spout. When we got just outside the store we always ate that gumdrop there, and willingly we took the chance of cartin' home the oil with care.

Likewise when at the butcher store we purchased cuts from near the hoof, and also kept suggestin' then of other stock beneath our roof. There was a cat, likewise a dog, and so the butcher man would throw a bone to feed the dog upon, some liver for the cat

So of those days now let us sing and pitch our verse in happy key, and let's make merry as we think about these things what used to be .- ARK.

British Delegation Leads in Opposition To Peonage and Slavery.

Associated Press Despatch. Geneva, Sept. 15 .- The elimination of the peonage system, as it is known in some of the Latin-American countries, will be the outstanding object of one of the six committees of the assembly of the League of Nations during the present session.

Foremost in the work to eliminate the system is Viscount Cecil of Chelwood, head of the British delegation, who has taken the stand that the regulations the league commissions now propose do not go far enough toward reducing forced labor by natives in colonies and mandated natives in colonies and territories. Lord Cecil yesterday disapproved a Portuguese suggestion for drafting a "charter for forced labor," saying it was a matter for the international labor bureau. He laid stress on his belief that forced labo for public improvements always should be adequately paid for and that it never should be allowed to degenerate into slavery. Also he said forced labor should be resorted to only when all means of recruiting colunteer labor had been exhausted.

WOMEN BORN 1873 TO 1881

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"A Blessing To Suffering Women," Writes Mrs. McPeak

Louisville, Illinois.—"I certainly thank you for the great benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I first learned about it from my step-mother who got so much help from it. Several years ago I took it for inward weakness, and since then I have taken it dwaise, the Change of Life and weakness, and since then I have taken it during the Change of Life and it has been a great help to me. It certainly is a blessing to suffering women and I take pleasure in recommending it. My health has been better this summer than it has been for five years. I am now able to do all my work and have canned 340 quarts of fruit and vegetables this summer."—Mrs. KATE McPEAK, Louisville, Illinois.

Wants Letter Used As Proof Frankford, Pa.—"I am sure if women who suffer through the Change of Life as I have, with hot flashes, nervousness, and other weaknesses, would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would be benefited as I was. My nerves were so bad that every little noise made me jump but now I am not made me jump, but now I am not bothered that way at all. My hus-band says he really hated to look at me I looked so miserable. I hope you will use this letter as proof of the help the Vegetable Compound is giv-ing me."-Mrs. ABBIE HARVEY, 5701 Leonard St., Frankford, Phila., Pa.

Forced To Remain In Bed Carlyle, Illinois. — "During the Change of Life I suffered with severe nervousness and with disturbances of the entire system. These continued probably two years before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I could do none of my work and was not always able to be up. For ten days at a time I was forced to remain in bed with my hips propped higher than my head and the pains were terrible. The doctor helped me some, but each time I was forced to go over the same suf-fering. I had taken the Vegetable Compound in 1910 after my twins were born and it had helped me so I decided to try it again. I became better and gained in strength. I have taken it for about three years now, but not steadily. I am able to do my housework, but I avoid all heavy lifting, and washing and ironing, as I know I am not strong enough yet. I give the Vegetable Compound to my daughters and recommend it to my friends."—Mrs. Louisa B. Brand, 450 Fairfax Street, Carlyle, Hay Fever Will Be Topic of Address Given by Dr. Harkens.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. This sound doctrine is being greatly emphasized by the Layman's Osteopathic association, of which the Western Ontario branch is holding its eleventh annual meeting in the city today. Dr. D. R. Merrill is the secretary of this association, and Dr. R. B. Henderson, of Toronto, president of the board of regents, will be a guest of honor and address the meeting.

The morning session is being held at Dr. C. W. Coles' offices in Hayman Court, with a business session, in-cluding the election of officers, start-ing at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. E. J. Gray, ing at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. E. J. Gray, of St. Thomas, will be in charge of this portion of the convention.

Following the morning session there will be a luncheon to those attending, numbering about 25, at the Bungalow Tea House, Springbank. The afternoon session will be held at the Bungalow Tea House, and will begin at 2 o'clock, when Dr. H. E. Illing, of Kitchener, will speak on "Radiation." At 2:30, a talk on "The Upper Dorsal Technic." will be given by Dr. C. H. Sauder of Brantford, and at 3 o'clock, Dr. E. S. Detwiler, of this city, will address the gathering on "The Heart After 40." This will be followed by a 15-minute discussion, after which Dr. 15-minute discussion, after which Dr. Elsie M. McDermid, also of this city, will conduct a round-table question

An interesting address will be given At 4:15, by Dr. Rebecca Harkins, of London, who speaks on "Hay Fever." Her talk will be one of the features of the convention, as it is very much in season. Dr. M. Sherriffs, of Guelph, will then deal with "Whooping

The beautiful oil portrait of Mrs. John Burns of Detroit, which is part f the Ed. Glen collection in the Art Building at the Western Fair, ha been attracting great attention. The gown is of flame-colored velvet and the fan a lovely green, against a background of pastel tones. A second portrait in this exhibit, which carried off first prize, is of Mrs. Lloyd Grinnell of Detroit. This study is not so modern as the first, the artist's ove of color being shown in the cloak of blue and silver cloth, with its cerise lining and in the peach-colored gown.

Help Children When They Are Young and Need It.

Parents seem to run to extremes. Of the common, or garden, variety of fathers and mothers there appears o be two types.

is the overindulgent, which lavishes too much money, too many fine clothes, too many motor cars on its offspring, and that brings up its children to be idle and worthless wasters and spenders.

The other type of parent is the Spartan one that is as hard as nails, unsympathetic, close-fisted; that denies its children every indulgence, and that holds to the theory that the harder it makes life for the young the better it is for them. Both schools of thought are wrong.

Undoubtedly, parents make a very great mistake when they sacrifice everything to their children and make doormats of themselves for their children to walk on. They weaken their sons and daughters by nampering them too much and by standing between them and the struggle that alone makes muscle of body and soul, and they do their children a cruel injustice by cultivating in them extravagant tastes and habits that perhaps they cannot later on give them the money to

Certainly it is an unedifying spectacle to behold, as we often do a mother in patched and made-over clothes, while her daughters fare forth in the latest imported Parisian models, or a seedy father riding on the street car while son burns up the road in a speedy sports car and wears the latest in Klassy Kut Kollege Klothes.

Also we can but deplore the folly of the parents who skimp, and slave, and deny themselves every comfort in order that their daughters can make a splurge in society, and that their sons may loaf through college courses, where they acquire nothing but feel bitter resentment toward the parents who stand callously watching their struggles without holding out a helping hand.

A large number of parents have an idea that it does young people good to be deprived of pleasures, to be reared to no indulgences, to know hardships. And so even when they have plenty of money they deny their children pretty clothes and the advantages of education and travel, and when they get married they let them scuffle for themselves. They do not give the girl a dowry nor set the boy up in business.

It seems to me that this is a cruel and an inhuman thing to do, and that it serves no purpos but to kill in the child's breast every particle of affection it had for its father and mother. For t dooms the children to years of struggle and self-sacrifice. pinching economies and anxieties that it might so easily have escaped. And God knows that life is not casy enough for any of us that we can afford to have any of the pleasure taken out of it.

It also often shuts the door of opportunity for the child or puts off success for many weary years. The few thousands of dollars that father might have invested in the firm that would have raised Tom from being a clerk to a partner would have car ried him on to fortune.

If father would have financed the extra course of study in his profession for John, he would have achieved success and began big at the Western Fair this year are a money making years before he did. "That's cheering news. I've been in doubt ever since I gave him my promise last night." Madelon laughed teasingly.

Madelon laughed teasingly.

"So that's where he was while we were trying to locate him—" she broke off and bit her lip vexedly. She didn't want to think of Julian Barton this morning in the face of Ann's new-found happiness.

"Who were 'we'?" Ann demanded.

Madelon hesitated.
"Julian Barton," she admitted.
"Ah-ha!" Ann's voice triumphant. "So Julian was taking advantage of the cat's absence?...
But that's a foolish precaution. couldn't gainsay him after Stephen couldn't gainsay him after all he did for him in that Maitland case."

Madelon went back to her chair.
"You're quite mistaken. Mr. Barton's call was purely professional...
He left some papers with me that required Uncle Stephen's signature." Ann leaned over, and taking her chin in one hand, turned the downbent face up to hers.
"Now, out with it! What's the matter between you and Julian? "Nothing," Madelon insisted stub-bornly, her eyes avoiding Ann's. "How could there be? We've met only twice since his retun." slowly, "that he hasn't to he's still mad about you"

"Hardly. On both occasions On both occasions has been painfully and freezingly

"Of course," Madelon went on bett. proudly, "it doesn't matter in the least. It would be—er—awkward if he did care at all in view of my decision to take the vows." Ann's eyes flew wide with amaze-

"The vows? You can't mean you're really serious about that?" Madelon smiled quite calmly. "It's so fortunate that you are going to marry Uncle Stephen. That releases me from any further obligation to him. And little Stephen will adore . I dare say Fate knows what

BRINSLEY NEWS.

Brinsley, Sept. 15. — The young people's guild of the Brinsley United church held a social evening recently on the church lawn. After playing games for a while, Rev. D. McTavish asked James Trevithick and his bride to come forward. An address was read by Miss Eva Lewis, president of the guild, and a presentation made by David Moriey of a wicker fera stand and a large pot of ferns to them. Although completely taken by surprise the groom made a very suitable reply.

WOMEN and THE HOME

Invites Whole Empire To Entertain On Its 60th Anniversary.

Londoners are given a chance with the rest of the empire to help in a tea-party fund for the women's hospital in Old London, known to thousands of poor as the Elizabeth Garrett Anderson hospital.

The appeal for 10,000 tea parties comes from the old land to the children of the empire. The hospital is not in debt but extensions are badly needed. Over 250 poor souls are on the waiting list, longing to get into this cheery "human" hospital, staffed solely by women. A recent legacy of £10,000 has enabled the committee to purchase the freehold of the present hospital and vacant sites adjoining have been given by

And to secure this it asks that every woman in the empire whose heart is touched by the appeal of the "Old Lady of Euston

Road' (pet name of the hospital), invite a few friends to tea and collect a shilling from each.

The appeal comes directly to the press of Canada, to be passed on.

Becomes Bride of Major Kenneth Ingram of This City.

GARDEN WEDDING

Hazelden, stately country home of Mrs. J. W. Little, London township, was the setting for a pretty autumn wedding this afternoon, when her grand-daughter, Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Little, this city, became the bride of Major Kenneth Ingram, youngest son of Mrs. Ingram and the late Mr. L. H. Ingram, also of London.

Simplicity marked the whole event, which took place in the garden. Never did flowers at Hazelden bloom so riotously as for these important nuptials. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. Bruce Hunter, took place before a bank of chrysanthemums and lilies, so arranged as to form an effective background for the bridal party. Autumn flowers everywhere lent their beauty to the event

The bride was lovely in her nuptial gown of cream chiffon, fashioned with long sleeves and deep bodice, from which fell a full short skirt of Chantilly lace. Fine silver thread embroidery marked the waistline, which was also distinguished by a which was also distinguished by a narrow girdle of braided pearls and pearl tassels. A Juliet cap of pearls and orange blossoms crowned a bridal veil of cream net, which fell simply to the hem of the gown. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of testels.

bridesmaid, wearing an attractive gown of ceil blue georgette, girdled with French flowers. The bodice was made sleeveless, while the skirt, plain at the back, was flared in front by means of godets, into which the French flowers were introduced. Her Miss Gweno Williams acted as French flowers were introduced. Her hat, of medium size, matched the blonde tone in her shoes and hose, socks were white. Each carried a basket of pale blue delphiniums and Sweetheart roses. Mr. William Duffield acted as best man. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Cora Brennan, violinist, with Mrs. Harris Elliott at the piano, and during the signing of the register delightful violin numbers were rendered by Miss Brennan.

Following the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served, buffet style, from a marquee on the lawn.

Mrs. J. W. Little grandmother of the bride, received with the bridal received wearing a handsome ensemble pair, wearing a handsome ensemble costume of black crepe with gray trimmings, while Mrs. Arthur Little the bride's mother, was modishly gowned in an ensemble of brown sill bengaline, a becoming hat of brown panne velvet and corsage of orchids. Sandquist Makes Good Impression With Fred Hunter, Card Scout.

Mike Baker improved the hours that refused to give off any sunshine yesterday by selling Third Baseman Wai-Sandquist to the St. Louis Car-Scout Fred Hunter, who manager Kalamazoo last season, succeeding Marty Becker, witnessed the first game between Hamilton and London in the little world's series Monday, and the deal was concluded yesterday. No definite figures were given out, but it is known that the local club had refused several previous offers for Sandquist, and the Cards' scout must have met the ante.

The conclusion of a deal for Sandquist apparently does not mean that the Cards have lost any of their interest in Klein, but the bidding is apt to become spirited for the center fielder, and whether the Cards will meet the resulting prices is something nobody knows. meet the resulting precs.

The athletes were up bright and early yesterday, and watched the dismal downpour get thicker and bounce nigher on the pavements as the hours went on. Long before noon it was definitely known that there'd be no game yesterday.

definitely known that there a be no game yesterday.

It was decided to play the games according to schedule, regardless of whether it rained again today. Hence, the two teams will depart for Hamilton tonight whether it rains or not. That means they will be back here next week, unless the Hams do the miraculous and sweep the next three games. Hopes for a game today were not any too bright. The best the probs Hopes for a game today were not any too bright. The best the probs could hold out was "local showers." Unless a strong sun comes out this morning, it is doubtful if the field could be the strong sun comes out the morning, it is doubtful if the field could be strong sun comes out this morning, it is doubtful if the field could be strong to the strong strong to the strong strong to the strong morning, it is doubtful if the field could be dried out in time to stage a game, and the probs are all against that, as they predict cloudy weather.

But "it's an ill-rain that doesn't blow the cover off somebody's bank-roll," as Mike Baker would paraphrase it.

If it would rain a few more scouts it would rain a few more scouts. boys could perhaps manage to put the time. Hamilton, of course, the boys could perhaps harries to the time. Hamilton, of course, hasn't much interest in scouts, as most of the Clippers have already been sold off the block by Auctioneer Wetzei.

The Tecs were not downhearted over their first loss. They figure they can't have already in the next game.

George Smith and "Hoot" Gibson, the "Slamese twins" of the Toronto club, are well named. They were with the Asheville club of the South Atlantic league last year when they attracted the attention of Manager Howley, who advised their purchase. With that club, which was a chronic tail-ender, they each won 17 games. With the Leafs this season Gibson has won 19 games and Smith 17. Now it is announced that they have been sold to Detroit, and for the third season in succession the "inseparables" will be together on the same club. This is rather a unique circumstance in the annals of baseball. In height and ability there is little to choose between the pair. Gibson, who is 24, is six feet, two inches, while Smith, who is a year younger, is six feet one in height. The former is a canny curver while feet one in height. The tornier is a pro-canny curver while Smith is a pro-nounced speed-ball hurler. The palm for consistency must be awarded to Gibson, although when right Smith is Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Sept. 15 .- "Negotiations be tween the New York hockey club and the Hamilton hockey club for the purchase of the Tiger professional team chase of the Tiger professional team and franchise are ended," said T. J. Duggan, chairman of the New York board of directors, today. Mr. Duggan, who is in Toronto, added: "We made an offer to the Hamilton club which they accepted Monday. We were to purchase all their hockey interests for $15,000. It was arranged that we should return today to sign the agreement. On arrival in Hamilton William Yates informed our solicitor, J. L. Counsell, that the Hamilton club and piayers had been sold to other parties for $85,000. We therefore decided to make other arrangements to secure a team.

"We are not concerned," concluded Mr. Duggan, "because the Hamilton club is not in a position to deliver its players nor to have their suspension lifted by the N. H. L. We learned that Mickey Roach has decided to retire, and that Billy Burch is under contract to coach and manage an amateur team in Pittsburg.

"Moreover, President Caider informed us tonight that he had no intention of reinstating the Tiger players for Hamilton, New York or any other club." and franchise are ended," said T. J.

EAR! EAR! The Pessimist's a doleful chap With an ever-ready tear. The Optimist, you'll know him by His grin from year to year. STILL HOPE.

The fact that Bobby Jones, youthful Atlanta golfer, has turned down offers which would total around $100,000, so that his amateur standing cannot be smudged in any way, is a dazzling gleam in the murk of commercialism that surrounds sport in this continent. finest traditions of amateur sport have been no more unselfishly upheld in any country. Jones has given up financial success to maintain a very fine distinction. The distinction is still good in England today. Hobbs, greatest cricketer of the game, is plain Hobbs or 'obbs, with all his glory of achievements. But the most clumsy amateur is addressed as Most people would prefer to have the Mister left off and said in JUDGES. Judges at boxing shows have been done away with by the Ontario boxing commission, and local fans will see the new ruling in operation tonight. Judges were usually superfluous. They were not paid and while many judges brought conscientious work and great knowledge to their voluntary work, more often than not they were considered as merely fillers.

THE WONDER MAN.

Bobby Eber's come-back stamps him as the wonder man of the Local fans who saw Jackie Johnston as an amateur will recall that he seemed the perfect fighting machine. Since then he has met many of the best men in the division, gained much experience, and yet he lost to Bobby Ebor, who for years has occupied himself with defying all the known rules of health, let alone training, and then fighting himself out of what seemed sure certain oblivion.

The modern ring has no parallel, except probably Abe Attel, who once reigned as king of the feathers. Attel merely did such unorthodox things as sitting up in a poker game until 5 a.m. on the morning of a night he was to fight, and taking the odd peep to see if the wine was keeping its normal red color. Attell seemed a marvel even in the days when the strictest of training would nowadays be considered as a mild sort of jamboree.

Ebor, at his best condition, looks little of the fighter, and yet after enough slips to have done for a heavyweight for all time, he once more proves himself to be one of the greatest little fighting machines ever developed in Canada, and possibly the continent. Even the world's crown is still possible for Ebor.

There is a ruling in the intercollegiate football union that a student taking a post-graduate course is not eligible for football, which means that Leadley cannot play with Queens. While Leadley was not counting on taking what was really a post-graduate course, both Varsity and McGill will protest against his being allowed to play. In fact, a man connected with Toronto university claims that if Queens attempt to play Leadley, the Presbyterians will be dropped and the union will carry on with two teams. Leadley is anxious to play football for another season and if he cannot play with Queens he has intimated that he will remain on his job here and take the course later on.

Frank Shaughnessy will arrive in Montreal today to take charge of the practice of the McGill team. "Shag" will have all of last year's players to select from except Dr. "Bones" Little. half back, and Alex. Moore, quarterback, both of whom graduated last spring. Several new players are eligible and the foxy old coach looks for a good season.

ch make him wish to withdraw from base-ball. Fournier has a contract for next vear at $12,500, but says he will cancel it.

Speaking of his treatment by the Brooklyn fans Fournier said: "Every vile name has been hurled at me over and over again because I made the ordinary run of errors, or had not done something which foul-mouthed persons in the stands had expected me to do. These fans have no respect for the women around them or for themselves, and think that by paying the price of admission they have acquired the right to throw unlimited verbal filth upon a professional baseball player.

"I have become ashamed in Brooklyn of a profession to which I was once proud to belong. My wife long since stowed."

Bedward T. Herndon, former Prince-ton tennis star, also provided the gallery with a thrill when he took a set from Jean Borotra, the French flash, but the Frenchman won the match. 6-4, 6-3, 7-9, 6-4.

James O. Anderson, the Australian star, Manuel Alonzo, the Spanish entant, and Rene Lacoste of France also won their tilts today, and will be seen in the third round tomorrow.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—After a sharp dip during the early part of the session wheat prices on the Winnipes grain exchange recovered in a hurry on late buying by export interests and shorts today. October delivery reflected a gain of %c from the previous day's close at $1.33%. The deferred months were relatively strong, with December in the lead with an advance of 1½ to $1.30%.

Deliveries at western elevators continued heavy, and this factor was a salient influence in the trading generally. The Canadian visible wheat supply is placed at $0.24,000 bushels, with figure represents a gain of more than 2,000,000 bushels for the week. Cable advices reported a light demand, with cash premiums lower and Canadian of ferings heavy.

CHICAGO

Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, Sept. 16.—Although wheat prices opened lower today the market quickly scored gains. Active buying to one part of houses with eastern to connections had much to do with the upturn in values and so likewise, did reports of decreased arrivals from the domestic spring crop northwest. On the other hand, unexpected weakness of Liverpool quotations together with an estimate that the French wheat crop is 46,000,000 bushels arger than last year's total was more or less responsible for the initial decline here. Chicago openeing prices, ½c to 1½c lower, were followed by a rise that lifted December to $1.51½ and May to $1.54½.

Corn was easier, influenced by advices that the high with the high with the high with the second of the control of th St.544.

Corn was easier, inthenced by advices that the bulk of the corn crop is safe from frost. After opening at 14c off to 14c up the corn market underwent a mederate general sag.

Thornton Refuses To Comment On Political Statements Regarding C. N. R.

Special to The Advertiser. Montreal, Sept. 15.-Asked to comment upon statements concerning the Canadian National Railways made in political speeches during the week-end Sir Henry Thornton, on his return here today, said: "With the various officers of the company, I have been responsible for the working of the Canadian National Railways since the autumn of 1922.

"The people of Canada have had ample opportunity since that time to determine the character of the service rendered by the system, the zeal and diligence of its employees, the fidelity of its officers and the general administration of the enterprise from both a financial and operating point of view. The efforts of the management are sufficiently absorbed in ment are sufficiently absorbed in attending to their duties, and it is my opinion that it would be detrimental to the welfare of the enterprise, and likewise unreasonable, to expect the executive of the National Railways to deal with accusations and statements made in the heat of an election campaign.

The display of the Canadian Shredded Wheat Company, on the upper floor of the Manufacturers' Building, is one of the most interesting i nthe building. The products of the company, Shredded Wheat and Triscuit, are shown in different packages and make an attractive display, and one that is popular with the pub-

In addition to the display of the finished products, an interesting process display is shown, in which the actual making of shredded wheat is carried on. The machine used is a miniature replica of the actual commercial equipment, and the process of shredding the wheat and laying it into layers, and also the compressing into biscuit form is shown.

Thousands of Canadians breakfast each morning on Shredded Wheat, and it is immensely interesting to see one's breakfast food being made form the wheat kernels.

Toasting-Triscuit, a new product of the company, is offered in sample

WATERPROOF RUGS.

On a larger scale than in former years, the Congoleum Rug Company have arranged a particularly attra tive display of their world-famous waterproof rugs in the Manufacturers' Building. In this exhibit one may see Congoleum Rugs of every kind. size and description, and in a wonderful range of colors and patterns from which to choose.

The modern trend in building tends towards the bungalow type of home, and in such a house the use of Congoleum Gold Seal Rugs makes a splen did floor covering, made as it is in rug form.

An interesting feature, and one that spells a saving of dollars and cents for the householder, is the fact that Congoleum Rugs are entirely waterproof, having a backing of asphalt in place of the old-fashioned canvas-used in the rugs of other makes. This backing gives great flexibility to the rugs, accompanied with freedom from cracking.
Cleanliness, and reasonable first cost, are features in Congoleum products, which accounts for an evergrowing popularity.

Crowd at Fair-To Be Heard Again Today.

An interesting half-hour at the Mason & Risch exhibit was provided yesterday afternoon by Earl T. Kalani. This popular violinist gave four selections that charmed an audience which crowded the aisles to capacity. Building conditions were not perfect, but the section where Mr. Kalani played was separated from the rest of the exhibit to give an appropriate setting to the beautiful Mason Risch grand used by the accompan-

The opening number was Chanson du Coeur Brise (Moya), which gave scope for the artist to bring out the beauties of the violin. At the same time the beauty of tone of the Mason Elime the beauty of tone of the Mason & Risch was revealed by Mr. "Deury" Thompson in his accompaniment, Pale Moon (Logan) came next, and then Cavatina (Raff) and Farewell to Cucullain (Kreisler). In the latter two particularly Mr. Kalani played with brilliancy.

STAR CHASSIS IS FEATURE. A remarkable chassis placed on a arge reflector, by means of which every moving part of the chassis is seen in action, is one of the features of the motor show. It is in the Star nd Durant exhibit.

The chassis, which has half of the The chassis, which has half of the moving part cut away so that the principle on which the engines and transmission work, and can be clearly seen even by the most uninitiated, rightly forms one of the most unusual things in the building. The motor is running all the time, and every detail of operation can be clearly appreciated. One can understand after seeing this, why the Star car has so rapidly come to the front in the field of quality light cars.

It combines all the advantages of the heavier car, and the most modern engine design with the flexibility of a light car. But all the attention on the Star is not paid to the chassis and engine. The coach work on the open and closed models is worthy of cars selling at much bigger prices.

GRAFTON'S NEW STYLES. Featuring all that is new and stylish n clothing and furnishings for men nd boys Grafton's exhibit in the and boys, Grafton's exhibit in the Manufacturers' Building is a center of interest to all. Straight from the hands of Canada's forement clothing craftsmen employed in the Grafton factories, the styles show a freshness in design and tailoring that is unusually attractive. The English attractive which will predominate this styles, which will predominate this fall, are just a little different when tailored in the Grafton shops, and this explains the decided preference so many men show for Grafton Clothing.

But clothing alone will not make a well-dressed man; furnishings of dis-tinction and good taste are just as essential. In the Grafton exhibit are displayed the latest in fall accessories in men's clothing. The finishing touch for a well-dressed man is often found in the proper necktie or hand-

But Grafton's attention is not all for men. Here mothers will find clothing that combines durability with styles boys like to wear.

DEXTER'S FLOUR FAVORITE. An old-established London industry, whose product today finds more general favor than ever, is the flour mill of T. Dexter & Son. An attractive display of their goods can be seen in the Crystal Palace at the Western Fair

The leading bakers of London use the flour. Its fineness of texture ac-counts much for the finished bread. Neal's and Brighton's are two of the largest buyers in the city who use Dexter flour in the making of all their bread.

The housewife too will find that the flour is the best for home baking, whether for pastry or bread. Housewives who have tried it, invariably declare that they would use no other, so great has been their success with it. Only a product of real merit could vin such popularity.

COMMUNIST SCOUTS IDEA OF BEING BARRED

S. Saklatvala Will Enter U. S. With No Restrictions, He Declares.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Sept. 16.-S. Saklatvala, communist member of the house of commons, today told press correspondents that he had not the slightest intention of attacking United States institutions while in the United States as a delegate to the inter-parliamentary union congress. Mr. Saklatvala will sail on the steamer Caronia Sept. 19.

He scouted the idea of being refused admission into the United States on account of his political beliefs and pointed out that he had had no trouble in getting his British Relation of the political beliefs and pointed out that he had had no trouble in getting his British Relation of Briti had no trouble in getting his British

Mr. Saklatvala has no set speeches prepared on any subject, but he declared he would not hesitate to raise his voice when opportunity offered against imperialism and the economic exploitation of colored subject races, of which he has charged the Union Jack is the symbol. He claims this viewpoint was supported by the British workers at the recent Scarborough trades union congress. This will be the first visit of the communist member of parliament to the United States and he is looking forward to meeting there two of his Union Jack is the symbol. He claims this viewpoint was supported by the British workers at the recent Scarborough trades union congress. This will be the first visit of the communist member of parliament to the United States and he is looking forward to meeting there two of his brothers, one of whom is in the oil business in New York and another who is in Pittsburg, a metallurgical chemist. He has not seen them in fifteen years.

Aside from the sessions of the inter-parliamentary union at Ottawa and Washington. Mr. Saklatvala plans to visit Winnipeg to study labor conditions in Western Canada. He will also visit a number of cities

LEWIS OPPOSED TO ARBITRATION

Claims Men Have Never Got Adequate Increases in Past.

Associated Press Despatch. Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 16.-President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, in an address before the Kiwanis club here yesterday, voiced strong opposition to arbitration as a medium of bringing "permanent peace" to the coal fields. The hazards of mining and the laborious task of the toilers, of which a neutral arbitration board would be entirely ignorant, Mr. Lewis declared, made satisfactory adjustment of the issue an impossibility. Collective bargaining is the miners' mest consistent method of gaining recognition for their demands, Mr. Lewis said, and he added that when the union conceded to arbitrate in the past only one-third of the workers were granted an increase in wages.

In defining the awards of the conciliation board, a judicial body that consists of representatives of both miners and operators, Mr. Lewis stated that this body functions successfully "because the questions submitted to it are only of a minor nature, and in no way affect the wage agreements of the miners."

Campaign Manager Declares There Will Be No Third Ticket.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Sept. 15.—Mayor John F. Hylan, stormy petrel of New York politics for the last seven years, was defeated for renomination in today's primaries by State Senator James J. Walker, Tammany designee, by a waiker, taminary designed, by majority of over 60,000 with about two-thirds of the vote counted. Walker gained steadily all night, and metropolitan newspapers predicted his plurality would finally reach 100,000.

Hylan's defeat was conceded by John H. McCooey, manager of the Hylan campaign, who also issued a statement declaring that there would be no third ticket. Mayor Hylan himself could not be reached for a statement.

The Republican contest proved a walkaway for Frank Waterman, pen manufacturer, the regular organization candidate. He was leading William M. Bennett and John Lyons, insurgent candidates, by an eight to

Associated Press Despatch. Detroit, Sept. 15 .- Mrs. Margaret Vright of Nashville, Tenn., was released from police custody today, and is on her way to Canada with the baby she obtained from a maternity baby sne obtained from a maternity home in London, Ont., to obtain legal adoption papers for the child. Mrs. Wright was arrested last week when suspected of kidnapping the child, which she steadfastly maintained was her own.

A letter was received today from Chief of Police Birrell of London, stating that he was satisfied Mrs. Wright had obtained the child in a regular manner. The child, he said, was born in Victoria Hospital, Toronto, May 25 last, but the parents were too poor to care for it.

Mrs. Wright intends to take out formal adoption papers and return to Nashville, Tenn., her fromer home. She is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Webb, who came to this city when she was advised of this city when she was advised of her daughter's trouble here. Mrs. Wright is separated from her husband.

Heavy Snowstorm Halts Prince In Crossing Andes

Royal Train Stopped by Slides Twelve Miles From Summit.

START AGAIN TODAY

Associated Press Despatch. Los Andes, Aconcagua, Chile, Sept 15 .- A storm raging in the Cordillera prevented the Prince of Wales from crossing the Andes this morning. He was on his way to Argentina, but had to turn back.

The prince left Valparaiso last night after some delay, owing to heavy snow in the mountains, and reached Los Andes, the Chilean terminus of the trans-Andean railway, about 6:30 this morning.

Rain was falling heavily, but the line was reported clear. As soon as the special train began to take the grade the rain changed to snow, and at Juncal station, on the Argentine border, 6,750 feet altitude, which was reached about 10 o'clock, it was evident that the train was not going to get through without considerable difficulty. It proceeded, however, and about twelve miles from the summit about twelve miles from the summit of the pass a gang was sent ahead to clear the road, while the train was backed into one of the numerous shelters constructed on the mountainside as a protection against blocked lines by the fall of masses of snow. Shortly after, the train returned to Juncal with the idea of attaching a grounder, but it was finally decided.

Juncal with the idea of attaching a snowplow, but it was finally decided to go back to Los Andes, in the hope of making a fresh start tomorrow morning. Snow had been falling steadily all morning, and the pilot train, which set out a short time before the royal one, got through, but snowslides blocked the road between the two trains. Los Andes was the two trains. Los Andes was reached at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The prince witnessed a thrilling incident while walking in the streets of Los Andes after the return of his train. He was passing a shop, but stopped to watch an affray between two men. One of them drew a knife and stabbed the other. The wounded man fell to the ground but, rising man fell to the ground, but, rising quickly, hurled a large stone at his assailant, then collapsed and was taken to a hospital. The man with the

Reduced Transportation Costs For Westbound Wheat Now in Force.

Canadian Press Desnatch Ottawa, Sept. 15.-Reduced rates on grain and flour moving westward to Pacific ports for export came into effect today. The new tarlffs, which became operative today in accordance with the order of the board of railway commissioners of Sept. 2, are the same rates, proportioned to distance, as grain and flour would carry if moving eastward for export.
While up to a late hour tonight the new tariffs had not been filed with the railway commission by the Can-adian Pacific and Canadian National railways, it is understood these printed tariffs have been actually son, transmitted from Winnipeg, and should be received here in the course of the next day or two. The delay in filing the new tariffs is believed to be due to the short interim which has due to the short interim which has elapsed since the issuance of the board's order in which to prepare the necessary printed tariffs. The new rates, however, automatically come into effect today, it is definitely stated at the railway commission irrespective of the fact that the new tariffs have not yet been filed.

Meeting at Alvinston Decides To Call Convention For September 25.

Special to The Advertiser.

Petrolia, Sept. 16.—A three-cornered fight is assured for East Lambton in the coming federal election, as a result of an enthusiastic meeting of the East Lambton Liberal association in Alvinston yesterday afternoon.

It was decided by a unanimous vote to call a convention in Alvinston on Friday afternoon, September 25, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest the riding in the interests of the Liberal party. President I. Greenizen, of Petrolia, had arre also busy, and a convention has been called for Monday afternoon at Alvinston. W. B. Fansher, the president member, it is popularly supposed, will be the farmers' choice, but Warden Haggard, of Lambton, is also mentioned.

38-Inch Factory Cotton, 5 Yards For $1.00

Here is a clear saving for all who share in the value offered for tomorrow's selling. A thousand yards in the lot, bought at a special price and offered as an exhibition feature line, at a much closer mark than we can usually do. Three points to observe—the extra wide width, the very low price, the excellent quality. A cotton made very fine in weave, guaranteed pure, free from specks. It will easily bleach at this season of year. Compare the value. Buy all you need at 5 yards for $1.00

72-INCH FACTORY SHEETING, 49c

A most notable value, and at this season the heavy dews or light frosts make it easy to bleach. Then, too, factory sheeting will always thicken in washing, and is much warmer on the bed than a bleached cotton. This make has good weight, a nicely woven cotton, absolutely pure. Unusual value 49c yard

ENGLISH FACTORY COTTON, 4 Yds. $1

We secured a special concession from the mill, when making our cotton purchases for this fall on just one bale of beautiful, evenly woven cotton. It is as clean and nice in weave as a good quality longeloth, and a soft cream shade, ideal for fancy work, curtains, table covers, aprons, etc., or will bleach quite easily for pillow cases, sheets or underwear. Extra quality 4 yards for $1.00

Percale, Lingerette and Plisse Make These Lovely Garments

In connection with the presence of Mrs. Smith of the Designer Patterns Co., we have had some dainty garments made from material in the store, and by the Belrobe method on display in the Wash-Goods Department.

Step-In Set is Lingerette, that new sheer fabric so well adapted to this use. Designer Pattern No. 8126.

Pyjamas are of plisse, shadow printed, and this creamy yellow color trimmed with black makes an alluring set. Designer Pattern No. 4311.

Child's Bloomer Dress is of the prettiest of Mayflower Percales, trimmed with plain goods of the predominating color. Easily washed and always smart. Designer Pattern No. 8259.

Ladies' Novel Slip-On Apron, also of Mayflower Percale, is a useful article, made of another pattern percale suitable to its usc. Designer Pattern No. 8386.

These materials are in many designs and patterns, in the newest of shades, and all are washable. Main Floor.

Instead of meeting the winter in sombre tones this year, fashion chooses colors that are deep without being vivid-subtle yet definite hues that are as flattering to maturity as they are to youth.

THE WEARING OF THE GREEN is not only chic, but because fashion has chosen her greens wisely from soft forest shades, they're becoming as well, green has always been a favorite color for auburn and Titian heads, and now women with dark coloring and those with a blonde fairness are finding their own particular shades from this fashionable new range. OLD WINE IN NEW COSTUMES, if not in new bottles, is another darkly brilliant color of the new mode. Of all the shades of red this is the one which the older woman can choose with the greatest assurance. IN THE NEW, WARM-TONED BLUES again fashion has chosen wisely. Two or three shades lighter than navy, these tones have all the dignity and practicality of navy but with more life and greater individuality. It's a blue with youth in it, and a blue that belongs to a new season and a new
