FROM WILSON'S STEAMSHIP ASIA.
The visit of the King of Sardinia has kept the British metropolis during the greater part of the present week in that state of excitement which the Cockneys love, and if it had taken place at a more genial season of the year, the impression produced on the mind of our Italian ally would have been highly favorable. As it was, the public bodies, and more especially the peasantry, being a greeting as hearty and enthusiastic as could be desired. The spirit of the address which was presented to him breathed a love for constitutional freedom, and an attachment to civil and religious liberty which could not be unappreciated to a monarch who has carried out in his own policy the noble principles which these addresses reflected. The King's replies were for the most part happy and to the point, and the visit cannot fail to bind us more closely in alliance with a State the head of which is fighting with us energetically in a common cause. The friendship and mutual self-interest thus cemented must long survive the reign of the monarch who has been crowned with Majesty left our shores on the evening of Thursday and arrived in Paris the same evening.

RETURNS OF THE BALTIC FLEET.—Nylrog, Dec. 6.—The united squadrons, with Admiral Danabas, and eleven ships of the line, have just passed the Belt northwards.

MOVEMENTS OF OTAR PACHA.—The Monitor states that Otar Pacha was at Suggid on the 13th ult., waiting for supplies before proceeding. Suggid is only about six miles from the coast. He has established communications with Heliole. A portion of his troops are marching on Kutais. A letter was expected half way on the road to the latter and the Neapolitan government are secretly circulated among all classes of people, translated in some way or other. Even the caricatures of the Chariots find their way there. Now, bands of brigands have made their appearance, and have had several skirmishes with the soldiers. I call them bands of brigands, because the government calls them so; but they are all in uniform, and have excellent arms, of foreign make. There are between 25,000 and 30,000 men in Sicily, so that if the brigands do not increase, there is no danger of a general insurrection for the present. These brigands respect private property, but are inexorable in their exactions upon government officials.

PRUSSIA.—A letter from Berlin says:—There is much talk about the arrest of two vallets-de-chambre of a general high in the confidence of the King. It is proved that these individuals have been in the habit of purloining all the important despatches and papers confided to the general, to communicate the contents to a foreign ambassador. In all likelihood, means will be taken to hush up this affair as much as possible, and it is not expected that any legal proceedings will be taken in the matter. The general alleged to be the illustrious Lieutenant General Gerlach.

THE MURDER IN REACH FOURTEEN YEARS AGO.—The trial of this singular case came off at the Assizes at Whitchy, on Friday, the 16th inst., before Mr. L. Leach, Mr. Justice Dwyer. The prisoner, a married man, named Mr. Robert Crandell, and his two sons, Benjamin Crandell and Stephen Elmer Crandell, who had been out on bail, came into court and surrendered themselves immediately on learning that the grand jury had found a true bill. The chief witness was John Elton Back, about 50 years of age, who was positively and circumstantially proved to be the murderer by the evidence of Crandell, Smith, and his two sons, an eye-witness, the details showing the most atrocious details of the crime. The prisoner, Crandell, was a wealthy farmer, and the mysterious circumstances connected with the charge, the trial excited the most intense interest, and was being crowded through to the utmost capacity. The defence was conducted by Robert Dwyer, Esq. By witnesses for the defence, the alleged murderer was pretty clearly traced, as having been seen alive over six months after the supposed date of his disappearance by the prisoner Back. After a clear and able charge from the Lord Chief Justice, the jury retired for an hour, returned with a verdict of "guilty." The announcement was received with evident satisfaction by the assembled multitude, who commenced to cheer, but were restrained by the Court. —Toronto Leader.

RUSSIA.—SUSPENSION OF PAYMENT BY THE ODessa IMPERIAL COMMERCIAL BANK.—VIENNA, Thursday evening, Dec. 6.—The Osterr. Correspondent has the following:—The Odessa Imperial Commercial Bank has suspended its hard cash payments. Unpleasant scenes have occurred in consequence. The gentleman reminded people that by refusing to take bank notes they display animosity towards the Government. The premium on silver is already 12 and 15 per cent.

AUSTRIA.—Telegraphic dispatch from Vienna. dated the 5th inst., announces the arrival at the capital of Sir Hamilton Seymour, the new British Ambassador. It was reported that the Austrian army is to be again reduced by 80,000.

POLAND.—By intelligence received from Hamburg, dated the 5th, we are informed that, by imperial command, a grand review had been held at Warsaw, to celebrate the anniversary of the victory of Russia over the Polish revolution.

PRUSSIA.—BERLIN, Dec. 6.—(Contd.) Elections, an ultra-conservative, has been elected President of the new House of Representatives by 187 votes. Count Stolwer, the liberal President of the late Chamber, received 138 votes. Lord Bloomfield has arrived.

Two subjects of a religious cast have been causing public attention during the last week. One refers to the judgment delivered by Dr. Lushington in the Consistory Court, respecting the conduct of the Hon. and Rev. R. Liddell, incumbent of St. Barnabas's Church, London, and the other to a lecture delivered last Sunday evening in the Roman Catholic Chapel, Bloomsbury, London, by Cardinal Wiseman on the Emperor recently concluded between the Emperor of Austria, and the Pope. With regard to the first Dr. Lushington decides against the Puseyite propensities of Mr. Liddell, pronounces his furniture and decorations as being contrary to the law and the practice of the Church of England, and decrees the removal, within a fortnight, of the stone communion table, the credence tables, lighted candles upon the altar, and the crosses—a heavy load and great encumbrance to a divine who has pre-eminently insisted upon these things in defiance of the earnest intreaties of his parishioners, and whose obstinacy in this respect has led to much ill-feeling amongst the congregation.—The Cardinal is a more independent agent and while defending the Concordat with the Austrian Emperor, contends that it is altogether misunderstood and misrepresented in this country. "The Emperor of a mighty nation," says the Cardinal, "which has been known about all things for the dominions of the revolution and the sense of his counsellors, has been discussing this treaty with the representatives of the Church of Rome, clause by clause for two years; and after the gravest deliberation on both sides, the whole treaty has been adopted. The document was drawn up in the peculiar phrasing of Roman Catholic ecclesiastical diplomacy, and the words have a different meaning from that which they bear when used in relation to ordinary matters." If the text of this document is misunderstood and assailed, the fault is clear, rests with the framers, who adhere to an obsolete form of expression, instead of using words in their ordinary sense. The leading jurists possess the Cardinal with extraordinary vigour, and is intent on analysing the series of lectures, which he proposes to give in connection with the Concordat.

NEW ARRIVAL.
MR. STEWART'S LECTURE BEFORE THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.
The Rev. Mr. Stewart, of the Wesleyan Church, delivered an address on the subject of "Long before the time of opening the present week in that state of excitement which the Cockneys love, and if it had taken place at a more genial season of the year, the impression produced on the mind of our Italian ally would have been highly favorable. As it was, the public bodies, and more especially the peasantry, being a greeting as hearty and enthusiastic as could be desired. MECHANICS INSTITUTE.—Much credit is due to the Committee of this Institution for its exertions to provide the public interest in its favor. They tendered to the celebrated Thackeray an invitation to visit Halifax and deliver a course of lectures, offering him $1,000. That gentleman has however declined, on the ground of pre-existing engagements. A very excellent lecture was delivered at the Institute on Wednesday evening the 12th inst., by Mr. Thackeray, of the Halifax College on the Early History of the Steam Engine.

BELOZERSKI'S FARMER'S ALMANAC FOR 1857.—A copy of this carefully compiled annual has been laid upon our table. It is enough to say of it that it sustains its character for excellence. It is in our opinion decidedly the best Almanac that issues from the Nova Scotia press, and we cheerfully recommend it to our readers. The bound and interleaved copy contains a beautiful engraving of "A Winter Scene."
