News That German Armistice Commission Has Gone to Front Hopeful FIGHTING NEAR END

By Courier Leased Wire. MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—The local newspapers here this afternoon announced that Germany had quit. The city began celebrations, crowds collecting in the streets immediately, shouting and cheering.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A strike of dock workers at Hamburg, involving 10,000 men is reported by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Amsterdam.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(Bulletin)—The entire German navy and a great part of it is in the hands of the Revolutionists, according to reports received in Copenhagen from Kiel, and transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(Bulletin)—Kiel is governed by the mariners, soldiers, and workers council. All the workshops have been occupied by red troops. The street car line and railways are under the control of the Workmen's Council. There have been no disturbances.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—(Bulletin)—Naval cable censors reported today that an unofficial message had come through from abroad announcing that the Germans had signed the armistice terms delivered by Marshal Foch. No authority was given for the statement, and while it added to the air of expectancy everywhere, officials said nothing except an official dispatch could be believed.

Neither the American Government nor any of the Allies' embassies or war missions had been advised even that Marshal Foch actually had presented the armistice terms. It was assumed, however, that the German envoys had been conducted through the French lines some time during the day.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 7.—(Bulletin)—Continuous demonstrations are taking place in Berlin, according to the Social-Demokraten. Twenty thousand deserters from the army are marching through the streets of the capital.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(Bulletin)—After a conference between Secretary of State Houseman, and Deputy Noske and Deputy Neske and the Workmen and Soldiers' Council, the following proclamation was issued: "Comrades: "For the first time political power is in the hands of the soldiers. Great work lies before us. But in order that its realization can take place the organization of our movement was necessary. We have formed a council of workmen and soldiers, and it will be responsible for the preservation of order."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—It is officially announced at the State Department at 2.15 o'clock this afternoon that the Germans had not signed the armistice.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Along the entire French front the pursuit of the retreating Germans was taken up again this morning, according to to-day's war office announcement. The French have thrown cavalry into the action on their right, where the mounted forces are continuing their progress along the Franco-Belgian battle line.

Further south the town of Angre has been taken. Southeast of the Mormal forest, the British have captured Moncau-St. Vaast and Doupiere, three miles northwest of the railway junction of Avesnes.

ITALIANS HAVE TAKEN A MILLION PRISONERS

By Courier Leased Wire. Italian Headquarters in Eastern Italy, Nov. 7.—(By the Associated Press)—The Italian army is gathering in the booty of its great victory. The value of the captured material will eventually reach five billion dollars, it is estimated. It now includes 200,000 horses and 6,000 guns. By a rough count one million Austrian prisoners are now in Italian hands.

WHAT AUSTRIA MUST GIVE UP The Map Appearing Above Indicates by Shading, the Austro-Hungarian territory that the armistice calls on the enemy to evacuate. British Capital Does Not Celebrate, However, City as Dark as Ever

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Wednesday night, Nov. 6. Reports that German delegates have started from Berlin to meet Marshal Foch are considered here as an assurance that fighting will be over in a few days.

The last days of the war have been so crowded with enormous events that there is no capacity left for surprises or sensations. The terms of President Wilson's note to Germany dealing with the freedom of the seas and compensation to the Allies are endorsed by all newspapers here.

Even the best informed men here are unable to arrive at a clear judgment, from the many conflicting reports as to the magnitude of the revolt against war among the German people, or how strong is the demand for the Emperor's abdication.

From a British viewpoint the greatest humiliation Germany will suffer will be in having her fleet surrender or pass out of her hands without one great fight to the death.

Even the best informed men here are unable to arrive at a clear judgment, from the many conflicting reports as to the magnitude of the revolt against war among the German people, or how strong is the demand for the Emperor's abdication.

SIMCOE TO LIFT BAN TOMORROW

Theatres, Schools and the Churches to Open Once More
MUNICIPAL WOOD

Simcoe, Nov. 7.—From Our Own Correspondent.—At a meeting of the Board of Health held last night, it was decided to lift the ban which closed churches, schools, theatres, pool-rooms, the public library and all public meetings. The order goes into effect at 10 a.m. to-morrow after having been in operation for twenty days less 16 hours.

Questioned as to whether pupils and other members of families, in which the epidemic still existed, would be permitted to attend school or other public meetings, the secretary informed your correspondent that the point had not been discussed and after his further consulting the Board, we learned that this body expected that the public would take necessary precaution under the act as in the case of other diseases. The public schools will re-open on Monday morning, Nov. 11th, after having been closed since Oct. 8th.

Victory Loan Progress.
With half of the time gone the Victory Loan last night was $37,000 behind the schedule but $70,000 ahead of last year's corresponding date; and the amount actually raised last year was approximately the same as this year's objective.

Woodhouse and Port Dover have been jockeying with Middleton and Delhi for first place in percentage of allotment. Tuesday night found the latter ahead and last night the two were neck and neck. The tabulated standing up to Tuesday night follows:

District	Amount	Percent of allotment
Townsend and Waterford	$ 87,850	39.05
Simcoe	109,150	45.59
Woodhouse and Port Dover	91,200	60.66
Windham	69,250	39.25
Middleton & Delhi	78,900	65.71
Charlottetown	23,150	38.83
Port Rowan and S. Walsingham	40,700	42.84
Houghton	6,250	31.25
N. Walsingham	4,250	10.63

Finness of canvassing in Walsingham accounts for the situation here.

The total last night was $517,400 from 1093 investors.

The eighth death at the hospital and the fourteenth death in town from "flu" took place early yesterday morning when Benjamin Cooper, who was admitted for the second time on the previous evening, succumbed to pneumonia. Deceased was a son of John W. Cooper, teamster and gardener.

Erest Leflar, son of George Leflar was admitted to the hospital yesterday afternoon.

It is possible that buzzing corporation wood will be commenced on the market square to-morrow morning. If so there will be employment for six or seven able bodied men. It will be no losers' job for the committee is bent on supplying wood at a fair price and is taking care that the employees give a fair service for their pay.

To-day, with fair weather three or four teams will be hauling down wood from the lot. Next week, if the road stands up, there will be room for all comers. For as only a small percentage of the wood is dry, it is desired to get it all out and drying out as soon as possible.

The British Canadian in yesterday's issue inadvertently misquoted the remarks of a member of council who claimed that residents in the business section, especially those living upstairs, had no way of getting rid of garbage.

A Misunderstanding.
Several members of council have knowledge that there are many citizens who are of the opinion that it is unlawful to dispose of kitchen garbage by digging it into the garden. This is not so. The printed instructions are clear regarding the disposal of this and other forms of refuse.

FINLAND GERMAN-MADE MONARCHY

Native Leaders Desired to Establish Republican Form of Govt.

Copenhagen, Nov. 7.—(Correspondence of The Associated Presses).—Finland became a monarchy instead of a republic solely because the Finns yielded to German domination, according to a communication from Finnish sources published in the Berlin Vorwaerts. The correspondent asserts that up to April last the Finnish leaders were determined to organize a republic, but in May the Government withdrew the measure for its organization and advocated a monarchy, giving as its reason the fact that Germany desired it. The Vorwaerts asserts that although the German Government pretended to be neutral on this question, the political section of the German general staff supported a monarchy in Finland.

"In reality we were not free," writes the Finnish correspondent. "German troops were quartered throughout Finland and warships lay in Helsingfors harbor. The Finnish foreign minister announced in the Finland Diet in July that the German Government wanted a monarchist government in Finland. The Finnish communication asserts that some of the Finns refuse to recognize a German prince as a king of Finland."

The Vorwaerts predicts that a time will come when the German rulers of the new Baltic countries will be packed off home bag and baggage. It asserts that the German people have been kept in ignorance of the developments in Finland and that this has created a dangerous position for Germany in the east.

HUNS SURRENDER TOWN OF LE QUESNOY

British Surrounded Walled City on Monday, and Its Garrison Yielded

With the Allied Armies in France and Belgium, Nov. 5.—(By the Associated Presses).—Fighting yesterday centred around the walled town of Le Quesnoy and in and about the great Mormal forest, a stronghold of the enemy. Early in the day the British pushed their lines forward on either side of Le Quesnoy and it was plainly seen that its fall was a matter of only a few hours.

In order to avoid fighting in the place the British during the forenoon sent an airplane message to the defenders, demanding their surrender. This message was ignored and the battle continued. Later it was reported that two captured German officers, accompanied by two New Zealand officers entered Le Quesnoy and again demanded its capitulation but the garrison refused. After that the British left a small body of troops about the town and pushed on, leaving it behind their lines.

When nightfall came the Germans, realising the hopelessness of their situation, surrendered. About a thousand of the enemy were taken prisoner.

Within the neighboring forest of Mormal, the British pushed forward rapidly despite many machine gun nests. Several tanks were sent in with the infantry and rendered great service in mopping up batteries of rapid fire. By evening the British had worked half way through the wood and this morning continued their advance.

The country south of the forest was admirable for the German defence because the enemy had the Sambre canal and several small streams behind which he could make a stand. This advantage was partially offset by the presence throughout the region of hundreds of farm fences, which offered excellent screens for bringing up pontoon bridges. These pontoons were worked forward close to the line on Sunday so that they were ready for instant use when the advance began.

The town of Cattillon, on the western side of the canal, offered considerable resistance, but the place was captured at an early hour. With this town as a foothold, the British cut some pontoons across the canal. Handicrafts was protected by the canal and a flooded area to the north and it was necessary to outfit the place.

The British, the east of Valenciennes was not heavy. Enemy forces began on Sunday night to withdraw toward the Annullie River and the British troops pushed forward rapidly ly over the evacuated territory. The first British army was opposed by seven German divisions with two in reserve along the Valenciennes sector and the desperate condition in which some of these enemy units had fallen was startling. The total strength of the 11th Reserve Division, for example, was only 211 rifles. One entire Baden regiment was captured near Prescan. These troops had been sent in for a counter-attack, which they carried out and then surrendered in a body. One officer was most bitter in his denunciation of the Prussians, especially General Ludendorff, because regular army officers have been sent back from the fighting line, while civilian officers have been sent in to lead the men. He said: "Emperor William will have to go. We will have no more of that breed on the throne."

CANTEEN LUNCHES HELP EFFICIENCY
Have Been Vital Factor in Strengthening War Work in the Old Land
(Associated Presses.)
London, Nov. 7.—Canteen lunches in war munition factories have been a vital factor in improving the efficiency of workers, say officials of the Ministry of Munitions. Instead of eating unappetizing food from his workbench, the employe sits down in a well-lighted, clean dining room and for less than 25 American cents obtains a three-course meal that would be the envy of a city business man. One noon-day menu, for example, will be green pea soup, roast beef, baked potatoes, spring cabbage and ginger pudding—all for 22 cents.

A committee concerned with the health of munition workers finds that cheap foods such as bread, margarine, porridge, milk, herrings, cheese, beans, onions, cabbages, turnips and the cheapest cuts of meat provide all the requisite nourishment. A big advantage of the canteen, according to one factory manager, is that it draws employer and men more closely together.

HOLD-UP MEN ON TRIAL.
By Courier Leased Wire
Toronto, Nov. 6.—John Lett, Walter Lett, and Gordon Douglas appeared in police court to-day in connection with the theft of $20,000 from the Canadian Express Company's car when two messengers were held up on the Buffalo Grand Trunk Railway express. Plea and election were reserved for one week and the prisoners remanded without bail.

the journey of a ten dollar bill

I am a Ten Dollar Bill.
I may also add that I am a Canadian Ten Dollar Bill and naturally doing all I can to help our fighting boys win this war.

About a year ago when I was only a few days old, I was handed out by one of our chartered banks to a storekeeper named John Doe. I was crisp and clean then, with a bright yellow back.

I have spent a mighty busy year, and faded out a lot, but, believe me, my usefulness is as great as ever.

When I first started out in life the Victory Loan Campaign of 1917 was on. In fact, my very first job in life was to help pay for a Victory Bond. John Doe had bought. Together with millions of other bills, large and small, that answered the 1917 call, I was sent to Ottawa. But I didn't stay at the Capital long.

The very next day I went to pay a lumber dealer in British Columbia for some spruce he had sold the British Government for aeroplanes. The lumber dealer immediately put me in the bank.

But just as I was getting used to my surroundings I was taken from the bank and soon found myself slipped in a small yellow envelope with some other bills and handed out one Saturday to one of the fumber company's employees, who carried me home with him, where I remained all night.

The next day in he goes to a storekeeper: "Here's the ten dollars I owe you," he said to the storekeeper, who immediately "rang me up" in his till.

But my stay there was brief. Next day the storekeeper totalled us up, and I heard him say to his assistant: "Collections are splendid again. I can pay all my accounts this month."

Shortly after this I came into the possession of a commercial traveller, and I next saw the light of day in a small restaurant in a grain town away out on the broad prairies. No sooner had I got comfortably settled in the safe when in comes a farmer with an elevator receipt which he had received for a load of wheat. "Cash this for me," he asked, and I passed into the farmer's wallet, but only for a few minutes—for on his way home he spent me at the hardware store in town for gasoline to operate his threshing outfit.

I am not going to take your valuable time going into details of the different hands I passed through in my trip east—through Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, until I found myself in the services of a firm in Montreal engaged in making munitions. Here I took another trip to the bank.

It was very peaceful and quiet in the bank vaults. But I was glad they did not keep me there long. I don't want to be idle when there is so much war work to do. And I wasn't, for on Friday I once more found myself in a pay envelope. The man who got me said to his wife that evening: "Here is the money for the household expenses."

The following Monday I was traded for shoes for the man's children.

The shoe dealer almost immediately sent me to a leather firm. They turned me over to a tannery. The tannery passed me on to a farmer to pay for some hides.

The farmer bought a tractor and sent me to the city. Here I was once more enclosed in an envelope and handed to a workman on pay day. He used me to help buy a suit of clothes. The tailor sent me away down east to square his account with a cloth maker. He turned me over to a coal dealer. He spent me for fish, and I took a short trip on a fishing boat and heard the men talking about U-boats and I looked anxiously around the horizon. But we got safely home with a fine catch. The fisherman needed some new tackle, so once more I started inland.

He carried me home with him.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He spent me for fish.

I came into the possession of a traveller.

He got safely home with a fine catch.

I am a Ten Dollar Bill—that's my face value. You can see I am plainly marked "Ten Dollars."—But the strange thing is that during this year I have bought hundreds of dollars worth of goods, paid hundreds of dollars worth of debts on my journey from place to place in Canada. And what I am doing, forty-two million other ten dollar bills who volunteered to serve their country at the last Victory Loan, are also doing.

Older bills I have met—bills that were in circulation before the war—tell me that Canadian people don't use us for the frivolous purposes they once did. This, of course, is as it should be, because we must defeat the Germans. We must maintain our boys at the front, which we could not do if my efforts and the efforts of my fellows are ill-spent.

Now, Canadian ladies and gentlemen, I am going to bring my talk to an end by telling you the queerest thing of all about my travels.

My present home is in the bank, the officials of which gave me permission to come here and address you in the interests of the Victory Loan 1918. I am at this very moment lying at the credit of the same John Doe, storekeeper, where I was last year. I heard him say when he handed me to the bank: "Put that ten dollars in my credit, please. I am going to buy some Victory Bonds next week."

So, I presume, I am destined for another trip to Ottawa, and another busy year going up and down the country—keeping factories, farms, lumber camps and stores paid for their goods and their labor. And I am proud to be of such service to my country.

Just one thing more and I am through: I hope each Canadian will do everything he can to defeat the Germans, because, if he does not, I, as a Canadian Ten Dollar Bill, will not be worth much—and German money, which I understand, is called "marks," will travel up and down Canada in our places, and my race will disappear from the face of the earth.

Thanking you greatly for your attention, ladies and gentlemen.

THE WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS, AUTHOR OF "MARGARET GARRETT'S HUSBAND," AND OTHER NOTABLE STORIES.

Ruth is again obliged to go away. Brian objects at first. CHAPTER LXVIII.

These occasional conversations with Mrs. Curtis about the "woman question" gave Ruth much food for thought.

"You can go?" Mandel asked, after explaining what was needed. "Certainly," Ruth recognized the call on her as a business woman.

The train she was expected to take for a town in Northern New York left the Grand Central Station at five o'clock.

"Who's going with you?" she asked. "No one," she answered.

"That's right! play the innocent! Of course you don't know he is in love with you."

"No, Brian, I never have. It you could see just how Mr. Mandel is with me, you would not say such untrue and such unkind things."

"Oh, Brian," she said again. How could she go and do the work expected of her and leave him in this mood?

"good bye." Then decided she would surprise him. So she jumped into a taxi and gave his office address to the driver.

"I have to go away at five, so I came down to say good-bye," she said as brightly as she was able.

"Furnishes you with taxis too, does he? I suppose all the rest of his clerks are sent around in taxis at his expense."

"I love you with all my heart, dear," he said, kissing her. "I thought to anyone else."

She was hard to resist, when in this mood of hers. Then he took her in his arms, and told her he was a brute, and several other things.

"I am not that, I suppose," she said. "Oh, Brian," she said again. How could she go and do the work expected of her and leave him in this mood?

A. von Winterfeld, former Military Attaché in Paris, Admiral Meurer, and Vice-Admiral Meurer, former Secretary of Foreign Affairs, have been appointed members of a Commission to deal with the Allied powers on armistice negotiations.

Scarcely had the decision of the Supreme War Council at Versailles regarding a cessation of hostilities with Germany been made public than Germany was speeding emissaries to Foch to learn what the Commander-in-chief's terms are to be.

Meurine, in France, and Flinders the enemy forces are being given no rest. Along the whole battle line in France the British, French and American troops have made further gains.

Along the Meuse the Americans continue steadily to push forward, and at last accounts were almost at the gates of Sedan.

Truly there exists the right to ask how the delaying tactics of our adversaries can be reconciled with the speediness of the Entente's leaders, who recently reiterated that it would be a crime to prolong the bloodshed one hour longer than was absolutely indispensable."

THE SITUATION
 While Teuton delegates are reported to have reached the Allied fighting front in order to ascertain the Foch terms for an armistice, the Allied forces in the western area still continue, with unabated vigor, to smash the armies. Field Marshal Haig, in his report of yesterday's operations says: "We progressed along the whole battlefield to-day in spite of a heavy continuous rain," and then in further detail he records the taking of more towns and territory, and also possession of "the important railway junction of Aulnoye." The French report is equally cheering, chronicling, as it does, an advance at some points of more than six miles.

With Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria out of it, the Allies have now only a single front with which to deal, and the ultimate finish of the Hun is just as certain as the fact that a German pledge is not worth the paper it is written on, but Major-General Maurice, the British critic, points out that the enemy has not yet suffered a military collapse and will still have to be reckoned with as long as he decides to keep up the struggle. Of the end, there cannot be the slightest doubt, but the approximate date thereof is still only guess work.

An indication of how John Bull feels upon the subject is contained in a despatch from Chicago which states that a number of British war contracts of importance and value have been cancelled by cable.

Even in defeat, the Hun falsehood factory continues to work overtime. German officers are telling the soldiers that Great Britain has broken faith because she had given the pledge that there would be no fighting during the evacuation of Belgium and Northern France, and an official statement issued in Berlin complains of the delaying peace tactics of "our adversaries," while Britain and her associates have all along declared that "it would be a crime to prolong the bloodshed one hour longer than was absolutely indispensable." Well, if the Hohenzollern outfit are so anxious for it to stop, why don't they get on their knees without any more ado?

In the British House yesterday Hon. Mr. Macnamara, Parliamentary Secretary of the Admiralty, announced that since the commencement of the war to Sept. 30th, 8,946,000 tons of British merchant ships had been sunk by submarines. Of this number 5,443,000 tons had been replaced by new construction, the purchase of ships abroad and the use of enemy captured ships. The net loss was therefore over four million tons.

USE YOUR SAVINGS.
 Among some there may be a disinclination to invest all their savings in Victory Bonds. This backwardness may be due to their not wishing to invest their last dollar for fear they might need it for personal use.

The plan under which the bonds are sold provides for this contingency. Either 5 or 15 year bonds can be purchased. Better than this provision is however the indubitable assurance that Victory Bonds are as good as cash.

Experiences in other countries which have floated war loans goes to show that after a war such bonds increase in value.

Taking the American civil war as illustration, the bonds of the Northern States were in 1861, the first year of their war sold at 86. This means that a $100 bond was purchasable for $86. In 1864 when the war ended they sold at $102 and in 1869 at $121.

The reason for this increased value of a war bond is not far to seek. Of all bonds or debentures offered for sale in any country, a government bond has the best security. Every rood of land and every brick on it may be said to be behind them. And all of the country taxing powers as well.

During a war, money rates are higher than in peace times. Whereas in peace days the Canadian government could borrow at 3 or 4 it is now obliged to pay 5 1/2 per cent. Later on, the country will be able to borrow at lower rates. Then people with money to invest and desiring gilt-edged security, will be willing to pay more than par for Victory Bonds.

Following up the thought of disinclination to withdraw savings, it should be recalled that in doing so you are not "spending" your money. Instead you are lending it to your country at 5 1/2 instead of the three or four per cent. you are receiving. This benefitting Canada and yourself by the step.

Your banker will encourage you to do this. He clearly recognizes that this appeal to the people to loan of their savings and earnings to the country has served the good purpose of more widely inculcating thrift among the Canadian people.

The facts buttress him. Since August, 1914, the Canadian people and banks have loaned the Dominion $950,000,000.

One might wrongly infer that this has been dropped into the cauldron of war and disappeared for keeps. It has not, for the reason that the money so loaned has been expended in Canada. Factory and farm products on an unprecedented scale have been purchased. Everyone has been busy and remuneratively employed.

The bank reports show that at the end of September there was $206,000,000 more money on deposit than at the same period last year. The increase in the savings of the people was $69,000,000 and demand deposits $137,000,000.

The wage earner is like unto the owner of a good sheep. This year he clips its wool. But the wool will again grow. So the thrifty employee using the "wool" derived from his position to buy a Victory Bond, will, by continuing to save, get another clip next year. He will still have the sheep and a bond to represent the value of his wool.

A SPLENDID DEMONSTRATION.
 Brantfordites last night indulged in a double-barreled demonstration of enthusiasm with regard to the glorious news from the front and on behalf of the Victory Loan. The citizens of this good-burg certainly know how when they undertake anything of this kind and the event in question proved no exception to the general rule.

The one cause of criticism with reference to the Drill Hall gathering is that Hon. Mr. McGarry should have been left as the last speaker on the program. It was after ten o'clock before he was called upon and under the circumstances he naturally shortened the address which he was prepared to make. Mr. McGarry is one of the best platform speakers in the Province and in the time which he saw fit to use he fully demonstrated that fact.

The demonstration was certainly all right and well carried out, the next thing is for those who have not yet subscribed to Victory bonds to translate some of their fervor into a purchase of the same up to the limit of which they are capable.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
 Some splendid floats in that parade last night. Now see to it that you do your part in helping to float Brant County's share of the Victory bonds.

Airplanes to-day scattered literature upon the people of Brantford. In your imagination just substitute bombs for these harmless missiles and then go buy a Victory bond.

During his eloquent address last evening Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., made the warranted criticism that despite their arduous achievements in other directions Canadians fall lamentably short in the cheering department. Subsequent responses demonstrated that they can certainly do it when they only half try.

Most Canadian theatres are running again, but the Hun would give a great deal if the Allied program in the theatre of war could be stopped.

Announcement comes from Ottawa that Canada's new cent coin will be smaller than the present one. It is to be hoped that the decrease in size will enable it to travel further.

The announcement in the Drill Hall that the Germans had signed the peace terms of Foch was a premature statement of the same brand and source as when Mayor Bowley when in office had bells ring and whistles sound for an event which never took place. A little common sense would have shown that Teuton delegates could not have signed up before they knew what was offered.

Dr. Linscott in this column will help you solve your heart problems, religious, marital, social, financial and every other anxious care that perplexes you. THAT TOBACCO HABIT—I am sorry Mrs. S. that your husband smells so strong of tobacco as to be a nuisance to you. Seeing however, he is your husband, you should conquer the romance of which you complain. The use of tobacco is a bad habit. That a great many good men have formed the habit does not do away with the fact that it is one of the many bad habits which the world would be better without. If you allow your husband to see how repulsive tobacco is to his wife, that may drive him from it, and I advise you not to do it. Fortify yourself with some strong argument against the tobacco habit and try and persuade him to give it up.

BE HOPEFUL—"Troubled One" asks, "How can I prevent having evil forebodings? Have faith in God, and love your fellow creatures. Don't brood over your troubles; think of the troubles of others and do what you can to relieve them. Eat sparingly and avoid everything in the nature of stimulating drink. Out of all bad habits, engage in religious and social service, read solid literature and quit reading sensational novels."

WAR COSTS CANADA
 WELL OVER BILLION

That Sum Exclusive of Recent Expenditures Made Overseas

By Courier Leased Wire
 Ottawa, Nov. 6.—The war has cost Canada well over a billion dollars up to date. This comprises accounts which have actually passed through the Finance Department. It does not include recent overseas expenditures, which accounts have not yet been presented.

War expenditure by the Dominion since August, 1914, has been for the different fiscal years, approximately as follows:
 1914-15, $60,750,000.
 1915-16, $166,197,000.
 1916-17, $360,483,000.
 1917-18, $343,835,000.
 Seven months to October 31, 1918, $169,574,000.
 Total, $1,046,844,000.

The expenditure for war purposes last month was $68,510,000, as compared with $44,481,000 in October, 1917. It is explained, however, that the figures for last month include some overseas accounts which had been delayed in the mail.

Revenue on consolidated fund account continues to increase. Last month it was $23,431,224, in comparison with $13,241,155 in October, 1917. During the seven months ending October 31, 1918, revenue was $164,414,136. This compares with $145,719,060, the revenue for the equivalent period last year. Expenditure on consolidated fund account was in October, 1918, $19,685,497; in October, 1917, $16,459,966.

The total net debt of the Dominion on October 31 last was $287,035,509, an increase during the month of $62,897,616.

PLANES TO CROSS OCEAN.

 Montreal, Nov. 6.—"I am confident that airplanes will fly safely across the Atlantic soon after the end of the war. Undoubtedly peace will open up boundless possibilities for aircraft," said Lieut.-Col. Bishop, V.C., D.S.O., Canada's most brilliant aviator.

Lieut.-Col. Bishop, who arrived in the city a few days ago, accompanied by his wife, will leave this morning. He declined to make any comments on the war and would express no views concerning military flying, but spoke with enthusiasm about the possibilities of aviation after the war.

RESISTANCE STIFFENS.

The village of Beaumont, where there are more than 400 French civilians, is the particular target of the Germans. At last night they deluged Beaumont with poison gas.

Getting Back Three Million Dollars

THE PAPER CONTROLLER for Canada a few weeks ago added $12 to the price of news print paper—the kind used in printing the Courier. This addition, following closely upon several previous increases authorized by the Paper Controller, has meant to Canadian newspaper publishers a total increased publishing cost, in the matter of paper alone, in the past eighteen months, of three million dollars. This very considerable sum Canadian publishers must recover from their customers, their readers and advertisers.

In connection with the earlier increases the readers of many daily newspapers have been required to pay $1 or more per year for their newspapers, while the subscription price of very many weekly newspapers has been increased from 50 to 100 per cent. In many cases still further increases will be necessary.

But all the three million dollars increase in paper costs cannot be loaded on readers; some of this sum must come from the advertisers—this in the form of increased advertising rates. Advertising rates in Canada are, generally speaking, much lower per thousand in circulation than in the United States. Speaking on this point the editor of Marketing, a Canadian advertisers' newspaper published in Toronto, says in his last issue: "In meeting the Canadian publishers' calls for higher rates, advertising buyers should not fail to recognize that for years they have benefited by the publisher's undervaluation of his space, and should be the more willing on that account to recognize the present necessities." To all of which The Courier agrees.

That smile bespeaks confidence, the quality that has made the Canadians the spearhead of the great British offensive. APPLY FOR GRANT

An application has been received by the city concerning the action taken at the recent meeting of the public library board. There were no appeals granted in the class of Realty, a very remarkable occurrence that has not happened for over fifteen years. Any changes made were on income assessment.

ARMORIES DECORATED

Credit for the decorations in the armories, which were a blaze of patriotic color last night, is due to Messrs. J. G. Liddell and Harry Funtor, who were in charge of the work and who spared no pains to achieve, as they did, a true gala effect. Ald. J. Y. English also gave valuable assistance to the above mentioned gentlemen.

SENDING FRUIT

A circular has been issued by the Association of the Express Companies of Canada in regard to the sending of perishable fruits during the winter months. The companies ask that senders take better precautions in the preparing of fruit and vegetables for shipment in order to prevent waste of food at this critical time. SPEAKER NOT HERE

Considerable regret was expressed at last night's mass meeting, that Mr. John McF. Howie of Buffalo, who was to have been one of the principal speakers, was unable to reach the city. Mr. Howie spoke at a Rotary Club luncheon last spring, and those who heard him then realized what they were missing last night. He has done good work speaking for the Liberty Loan in all parts of the United States.

"HUMAN FLY" COMING

The Stunts Committee of the Victory Loan organization promise Brantford citizens another thrill on Saturday morning, when "The Human Fly" will give a performance in the city. "The Human Fly" is one of the best known acrobats in the United States, a man who can climb a perpendicular wall with his hands and feet alone. THE PARENTS OF STANLEY STUART

Receive a Letter of Condolence From Minister of Militia

Mr. and Mrs. T. Stuart, 142 Alfred street, to-day received the following letter from Hon. Mr. Meowburn:

"I desire to express to you my very sincere sympathy in the recent decease of your son, Private Stanley Stuart, C.E.F., who in sacrificing his life at the front in action with the enemy, has rendered the highest services of a worthy citizen.

The heavy loss which you and the nation have sustained would indeed be depressing were it not redeemed by the knowledge that the brave comrade for whom we mourn performed his duties fearlessly and well as became a good soldier and gave his life for the great cause of human liberty and the defence of the Empire.

Again extending to you in your bereavement my condolence and heartfelt sympathy, I am Yours faithfully,

S. Meowburn, Minister of Militia and Defence for Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart have had five sons in khaki. Stanley, spoken of above, John in hospital in England, William in hospital in England, Albert a private in Germany, and Charles discharged because of injured hand.

New Secretary At Y.W.C.A. Here

The new secretary of the Y.W.C.A. has arrived in the city to take up her duties. Miss Nina Hume before accepting the position here was in company with Miss Mabel Jamieson of the Montreal association, and there had prepared herself for her present duties. Having spent a great deal of time in the Y work and having been a special course to prepare her for her work among the young women, Miss Hume is well capable of taking charge of the work. A graduate from the Methodist Training School at Toronto, she will make a specialty to extend the association to the working girls of the city. The girls have been asked to give their hearty co-operation in the work of organizing and promoting girls' clubs and under this partnership success must follow the great work. Already plans have been made for the spending of the winter of three of the clubs and more are busy considering their project. Miss Hume expressed herself as being perfectly satisfied with the conditions when she arrived and she was well pleased with the building and the attitude taken by the girls.

PLANES FLEW OVER THE CITY

Squadron of Airmen Dropped Victory Loan Literature at Noon

Brantford received a thrilling first-hand in modern aviation at noon to-day, when a squadron of five airplanes from the aviation camp at Beamsville flew over the city, dropping Victory Loan literature profusely, and landing on the Paris road. After being entertained to luncheon, the fliers returned to camp this afternoon.

The arrival of the planes, scheduled for 11.30 or thereabouts, was delayed until 12.30, by which time hundreds of keen eyes were scanning the horizon expectantly. It was just half-past twelve when the first birdman here in sight, appearing from almost due north, flying at remarkable speed and at quite a height. He made his way to the centre of the city, and there held an audience of thousands from streets and windows and roofs spellbound while he looped the loop and executed most dives in the most approved fashion. A few moments the four other planes were in sight, and also made for the centre of the city, flying remarkably low, they circled round and round, scarcely a hundred feet above the tree tops. Handfuls of Victory Loan cards were tossed from each plane, shimmered like silver in the sunlight for a moment, and then fluttered like snow flakes to the ground. The planes continued their manoeuvres as close to the ground as was feasible, until after one o'clock, and then came to earth on the Paris Road.

Lieut. Jack Orr, M.C., has been seriously wounded in action according to word received this morning by Mr. E. B. Orr, Abbot St. Lieut. Orr went overseas with the 125th Battalion, and had been awarded the Military Cross for bravery.

Pte. T. J. EDWARDS, of the 125th Battalion has been wounded by gunshot through the lungs, according to word received in the city. He is reported as doing well. His home was at 15 Foster street.

THE CROPS

The following is a summary of reports made by Agricultural Representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture:

Full wheat has done so well during the latter part of October that in most instances it will be ready for winter with a good top and a thrifty appearance generally. From Essex comes the only complaint of insect injury, the Russian fly having appeared in some places in that county.

Potato digging is practically over. Rot has already done much injury in Dundas.

The week has been most favorable for sugar beet lifting. Some remarkably good tonnage are reported from Lambton.

Turnips have done better than was expected. A farmer in Peterborough reports 45 tons to the acre. Prices for turnips have fallen in Brant; only from 15 cents to 18 cents a bushel, now are being paid and dealers forecasting a shortage of turn for shipping during the winter.

Oxford reports that apples are being marketed freely the inferior fruit going to the evaporators and cider mills, with but little waste. Pastures up to very recently have been good, but are now well eaten off. Live stock are being stabled in good general condition. About the usual number of stockers are on hand, but Lincoln reports that many young stock than usual will be fed this winter. It is stated from Grey that sales of live stock have been rather unsatisfactory this fall, as

(with the exception of pure-bred thoroughbred) cattle, sheep and hogs have been selling at low figures compared with sales held last year. On the other hand, a herd of grade Holsteins were sold in Brant last week at an average of $15.5, including an old cow which went at only $10 while some spring calves brought forty dollars each. Dairy cows have continued in fair milking condition.

Hogs have been going to market in good numbers despite falling prices. Small pigs have not been so much in demand during the week. Marketing of grain has been slower which some attribute to the epidemic hitting both buyers and sellers. There is in much demand, but comparatively little is now changing hands. It has been selling at auction in York at from $25 to $25 a ton.

Podder supplies otherwise are fully sufficient for the winter, the clean straw making up for the scarcity of hay. The crops are plentiful and there is a good supply of ensilage. Fall plowing is nearly completed in Western Ontario, but winter weather has prevailed in the eastern portion of the province, and work there is more backward.

Corn husking has been very active in Essex and Kent and the recently extended leave of drafted men is said to have helped materially in this work. The effects of the influenza are still being felt in many rural sections.

FOOD IN FRANCE France, so far as food is concerned, is in a bad way; worse than in 1917-18.

The total nutrition value for the 1918 crop of cereals, beans and potatoes is below that of last year. The French food controller is authority for this statement that the wheat crop is large and of better quality, but the maize, barley, oats, beans and potato crops are much smaller.

The potato situation is particularly grave for this year; the crop is not more than 7,500,000 long tons, as compared with an average for the best five years of 12,000,000 long tons. According to private estimates, the total wheat crop in France for 1918 will be about 180,000,000 bushels, an increase of about 25 per cent over last year's production. For the three years preceding the war the average production was $24,137,000 bushels. In 1914 it was 232,839,000 bushels, while for the years 1917 and 1918 it dwindled to 144,149,000 bushels.

It is seen that France is "up against" it as regards the food question.

After publication of this notice, payments in advance on subscriptions will only be accepted to December 1st at the old rate; after that at the new rate. By this one item alone thousands of dollars are added to our annual cost of production, and in addition, labor, presses, stereotype supplies, type and all other items of expense have enormously advanced in price during the last few years. Even at the new rates the Brantford papers are only now charging prices which have been in force for some time back on almost all the other daily newspapers published in this section of the Dominion. In many cities the subscription rates are very much higher. (Signed) THE EXPOSITOR. THE COURIER. November 1st, 1918.

GERMAN PLENIPOTENTIARIES HASTENING TO BATTLE FRONT

Anxious To Negotiate With Foch As Allied Forces Continue Work of Smashing Last Remaining Hun Lines; Enemy Is Near Surrender

By Courier Leased Wire New York, Nov. 7.—The Associated Press this morning issued the following: Germany's hold on the Alsace from Rehel eastward to above Vouziers, which has remained firm while the rest of the enemy's frontier line was broken yesterday. French troops have thrown bridges across the river and are in pursuit of the foe, who is abandoning vast quantities of munitions and material of war as he flees toward the ever narrowing gap that leads through Belgium to comparative safety.

Vervins has been captured. Rehel has been evacuated by the Germans, while the French are rapidly approaching the vital railroad centre of Hirson from the west. British forces are moving up toward Maubeuge from the south-west and the Americans in the Meuse sector are within four miles of Sedan, where, on September 1, 1917, the decisive battle of the Franco-Prussian war was fought and Napoleon III. was taken prisoner by the Germans.

While the military forces of the Allies have thus been virtually crushing the last vestige of enemy resistance in eastern France, German emissaries have been rushing from Berlin toward the battle front to meet Marshal Foch and receive at his hands the conditions upon which the Allied nations will agree to a cessation of hostilities.

The German plenipotentiaries crossed the battle front last night and were to meet the commander-in-chief of the Entente legions at dawn this morning. The approach of the German plenipotentiaries, did not bring about any abatement in the pressure against the enemy. Everywhere along the front the converging forces of the Allies seemed, rather, to increase the weight of their sledge-hammer blows and the past day, it seems, has brought confirmation of the statement made a few days ago that the contending armies were locked in a battle which promises to be decisive.

Sailors of the German fleet at Kiel are reported to have mutinied and to have seized the battleships and the weight of their sledge-hammer blows and the past day, it seems, has brought confirmation of the statement made a few days ago that the contending armies were locked in a battle which promises to be decisive.

Entente troops have crossed the Austro-Hungarian lines at several points to take the places of the troops of the dual monarchy so that the latter can be transported to their homes in groups. This is the first actual step toward carrying out the terms of the armistice between the Allies and Austria.

A critical situation has arisen between Germany and Russia. Diplomatic representatives of both countries have been recalled and it may be that hostilities will be resumed.

German Socialists are demanding the abdication of Emperor William. The financial situation of the German Empire is said by experts to be desperate and that the breaking point is near.

So far as known Ghent has not fallen, but the place is closely invested by the Allies and news that it has been captured may be received at any time.

MAJORITY OF 11 FOR REPUBLICANS

They Have Secured Control of the U. S. House of Representatives

SENATE VERY CLOSE

Outcome Depends on Final Returns from Michigan and Idaho

Washington, D.C., Nov. 6.—Congressional election returns still were incomplete late to-night, but it was apparent that the Republicans had taken control of the House of Representatives by a majority of at least 11, probably more.

The Senate was very close with the outcome depending on final returns, in Michigan where Henry Ford was running a close contest with Truman H. Newberry, and in Idaho and in New Mexico.

On the returns available 25 Republicans had been elected to seats in the House now held by Democrats, and seven Democrats had been elected to seats now held by Republicans.

In the Senate one Democrat had been elected to a seat now held by a Republican, and six Republicans had been elected to seats now held by Democrats.

On the returns at hand the House figures were: Republicans 229, Democrats 196, Socialist 1, doubtful 9. A majority of 238.

In the Senate the returns showed: Republicans 47, Democrats 46. Roosevelt on the Victory. Oyster Bay, N.E., Nov. 6. Col.

Public is Warned against using dangerous Hair Preparations

Recent research on the part of hair specialists reveals the fact that many disagreeable and obnoxious scalp diseases are caused and rendered incurable by the indiscriminate use of shampoo preparations.

Chemical analysis proves that most liquid preparations for shampooing contain an excess of alkali (a harmful irritant), which eats its way into the pores of the scalp, rots the roots of the hair, thus causing it to fall out.

The surest, safest and easiest way is to make your own liquid. Buy a carton of Velnor at any drug store. Dissolve one of the small packets into half glass of fresh water and you will have an abundance of pure non-injurious liquid that, aside from cleaning the hair thoroughly, will relieve itching of the scalp, falling hair and dandruff, also improve the natural color of the hair. Velnor being in concentrated form, never spoils and will keep forever.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY. She kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy, with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At Mitic crest you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all grey hair disappears and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Gray faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine; it is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BRANTFORDITES CHEERED FOR VICTORY LOAN AND VICTORY

Monster Parade And Mass Meeting Last Night Drew Crowd of Record Proportions; Hon. T. W. McGarry, Provincial Treasurer, Principal Speaker

If you have ever seen two thousand people brought to their feet by one common impulse, and heard two thousand throats cheer their lustiest at slogans of victory, you will have some idea of the spontaneous enthusiasm which ran riot at last night's monster Victory Loan rally in the Armories.

The vast building was crowded to the doors, and the spirit of victory was in the air, animating the hearts of all from the outset, and carrying them along to a pitch of effusive demonstration which a cold blooded Canadian audience seldom achieves. All in all, it was a big night, and one which will live long in the memories of those who took part in it, and if there is anyone who after hearing the speakers of the evening was not moved to dig down in his jeans and cough up to the extent of his last remaining bit for Victory Bonds, it must be because he has slipped one over on the billiard ball makers, and grabbed a chunk of their material for a head piece, or that something even harder for a heart.

The Speakers. Confidence, courage, determination, were the keywords of the meeting, subscribed to by the crowd in roars and rounds of applause. The chief speaker of the evening, Hon. T. W. McGarry, Provincial Treasurer, laid bare before all the wonderful opportunities presented by the present Victory Loan, the greatest, and the last in the history of the Dominion. Mr. McGarry addressed himself in part to the farmers, who, he declared, were at the height of an unprecedented wave of prosperity to-day, and who accordingly should buy bonds to the limit of their ability. He also delivered a plea in the interests of Canada's returned men, whom he declared deserving of the highest consideration and worthy of our best at all times.

Other speakers of the evening were Mayor MacBride, chairman, W. P. Cockshutt, M.P., and A. K. Bunnell, chairman of the county organization. Capt. the Rev. C. E. Jenkins opened the evening with prayer, and expressed thanks for the victories achieved by the allied terms, and hoped for the conclusion of an early and righteous peace. The Masses of Canada and the W.V.A. led in the singing of popular and patriotic choruses during the evening.

Record Crowd Out. From seven o'clock in the evening the streets of the city were crowded as they have not been for years past. Not since the Old Home week in 1914, it indeed then, had such a happy, cheerful, cosmopolitan throng been gathered together in the Telephone City. Traffic along Colborne, Dalhousie and Market streets, following the route of the parade, was almost completely blocked. Whistles, whooters, horns, fire crackers, torpedoes, were in evidence among the younger enthusiasts, and kept up a continual melody of sound. By eight o'clock, when the parade started, the central streets were but one dense sea of eager faces.

The Parade. Starting at the G.T.R. station, the procession swept down Market street to Darling, thence to King, along King to Dalhousie, and Dalhousie to George, George to Colborne and thence to the Armories. At the head of the procession marched John Bull, Jack Canuck and Uncle Sam, bearing the banner of their countries. Then came the C.O.R. Band and a quota of mounted troops, and following them, the floats and decorated cars which formed the main body of the parade. To describe some of the displays made would appear partial, to give all the praise they merited, exhaustive. Perhaps the exhibit which attracted most general attention was the huge wooden cage in which a very subdued Kaiser stood, the target for hooting and catcalls along the entire route of the parade. Another effective display was that made by the Whitaker Baking Company and C. J. Mitchell and Son, representing a soldier in his lonely dug-out, penning a letter home, and behind a kiddy at home in Canada confident that Victory Bonds would strengthen their hero in his battles. A number of appropriately decorated

"Let a rope of Victory Bonds stretch from the Atlantic to the Pacific," urged His Worship, "let it enter into every home in Canada, and when that rope is fully woven let us ring the bells of peace with it. The singing of 'Rule Britannia' followed.

W. F. Cockshutt, M.P. "I thank the Lord that Canada was in the war from the time the first gun was fired," declared Mr. Cockshutt, the next speaker, "and she is going to be in it still, the last. To-day ever fifty million souls were pitted against one another, but among them were no better fighting men than Canadians. While we might deplore the war, we must pride ourselves upon the manner in which our sons had acquitted themselves.

"Great as has been the sacrifice of life and money, the issues that are yet at stake are worth every man and every dollar that has gone into it. It was to decide whether the barbarian was to rule, or whether the precepts of our Lord and Savior were to be upheld on the earth." By land, sea and air, death, destruction and desolation had held sway for over four years, but above the carnage, human sacrifices had stood out as never before. Canada had taken a noble part, a great part, in the conflict.

At Ypres, 20,000 Canadians had saved the situation at the cost of more than half their number. Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, Cambrai, were other places where Canadian valor had been signalled. "But don't let us forget the others," urged Mr. Cockshutt, "don't forget Tommy Atkins. A salvo of uproarious applause swept the entire gathering. Scotchmen and Irish, Australians, New Zealanders and East Indians, all were given a word of praise by the speaker, as were also the allied nations.

"All glory and all praise to the chivalrous land of France for her heroism," he declared. Nine million Frenchmen and seven million Belgians had never once in four years and three months been beyond the sound of the big guns. Italy had done her share, and largely as a result of her exploits Austria to-day was out of the fight. Austria had been initially responsible for the war. Poland, Rumania and Montenegro, had laid more than their share of sacrifices on the altar of freedom.

The victory we have achieved is the most marvellous ever known," declared Mr. Cockshutt, his statement bringing forth another salvo of applause. He predicted peace on the Allied terms before Christmas. "The Victory Loan is the last battle we have to fight," he continued. "You've never failed yet, don't fail now." He paid a glowing tribute to Mr. A. K. Bunnell, county chairman. There was no better security on God's earth than the Dominion of Canada, and Canadians could not better show their thanksgiving for victory than by putting their hands into their pockets for the loan. Mr. Cockshutt closed his remarks with another expression of thankfulness for the victories attained and those imminent.

After a well applauded selection by the Sad C. O. E. band, Mayor MacBride called for cheers for Gen. Foch, which were given with a will. Mr. A. K. Bunnell was next called upon. A. K. BUNNELL "Possibly never before have a few months seen so many momentous changes as have those of this summer and autumn," declared Mr. Bunnell. The period he named had seen the minds of the allied people change from the fear of defeat to the certainty of absolute victory. Last July our hearts were heavy, and the prayer of every loyal Canadian was that the allied forces might be able to hold the Teutonic forces at bay until the United States could throw her full weight into the struggle. Then, the Kaiser had boasted of his shining sword and of the brightest hour in German history. What a change in the past few months, the Hindenburg line had been shattered, the Teutonic alliance destroyed and Germany, repentant, was begging a peace without humiliation. The plea was put forward that Germany to-day was being made as democratic a nation as the most democratic. Mr. Bunnell warned his hearers that Germany might not yet be beaten, but that, even if driven back within her own borders, she might fight for a long time with what remained of her once powerful army. We must give ourselves courage to carry on until a righteous peace was assured, and could only do so by giving to the utmost of our ability for the cause of the allies.

As chairman of the Victory Loan organization, he declared himself proud of the showing made last year, when Brant County had one of the greatest records in Canada. This year, in the hour of thanksgiving, the district was asked to take on an additional burden, and although the objective had been fixed at $5,000,000, the county was expected to raise $4,000,000. Mr. Bunnell gave credit to the Canadian Order of Foresters for its subscription to the loan. A spirit of self-sacrifice should animate everyone to-day, everyone should invest even if higher rates of interest were obtainable elsewhere. The larger interests of the county were looked to raise $1,250,000, and that sum was already nearly subscribed. The remaining $1,250,000 must be contributed by private citizens. General sentiment was in favor of the loan, but many had not yet subscribed who could afford to do so.

Up to the time of the meeting Mr. Bunnell announced, $438,000 had been subscribed by private citizens. This was exclusive of the subscriptions from the shops and factories, which were expected to yield the highly creditable sum of $500,000. But this left $500,000 still to be raised before the end of the campaign. It was the duty of everyone to see that the Victory Loan total was made up and running over before the end of the campaign. Mr. Bunnell emphasized the fact that money invested in Victory Bonds was not given, it was merely loaned, on substantial security and a splendid rate of interest.

The speaker quoted the words of King: "Lord God of Hosts be with us yet, Lest we forget, lest we forget." "Let us not forget our duty to ourselves and to the men who have gone," he urged. In closing, he pointed to the honor flag hanging above the platform, explaining that one would be awarded every minute of the day, passing his assigned objective. "Is that flag to float from Brantford's city hall on the night of Nov. 18?" he demanded. "It is for you to say."

"Yes," came the stentorian chorus from the massed gathering. Mayor MacBride rose to a still greater pitch of enthusiasm by reading a telegram from Montreal, stating that Germany had decided to accept the allied terms. "If this remarkable good news is true," he continued, "what are you going to do about it?" "Buy a bond," came the chorus from the crowd.

His Worship announced that the G.W.V.A. had subscribed the sum of $25,000 to the Loan. He then introduced Hon. T. W. McGarry, Provincial Treasurer, who on rising to his feet, was greeted by hearty cheers and the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "The Maple Leaf Forever."

T. W. McGarry, after paying a tribute to the people of Brantford and Brant County, contrasted conditions to-day with those circumstances under which the first Canadian war loan had been launched. Asked on that occasion for $200,000,000, the people of Canada had raised $400,000,000, and the speaker expressed confidence that the present loan would be similarly over-subscribed. Then, Germany had been at the height of her power, the Kaiser flaunting his power in the face of the civilized and uncivilized world. To-day, what a change! A change due in no small part to the men of Canada, who had responded freely to the call, many of whom had given their lives. If there was need of $400,000,000 last year, there was still greater need for $500,000,000 this year. No people would reap greater benefits from victory than would these of Canada; so they should prepare to pay their shot. Every branch of service in Canada had reaped immense benefits from the war since its earliest days. Canada owed her prosperity to Great Britain and the British fleet, a fleet which had proven itself equal to the demands made on it by the whole civilized world. He reviewed the splendid achievements of the British army, from the original "contemptibles" to the vast force of 8,000,000 men mustered to-day. From every corner of the earth they had come at the call of the empire. To-day the Canadian troops were the spearhead of the British forces, less than twelve miles from Mons. Where the battle raged fiercest, the Canadians had many times driven home the fact that Canadian bravery and initiative are infinitely superior to German discipline and training. Our every thought at home, should be to do all within our power to strengthen the hands of those men overseas. There would never be another such splendid opportunity for investment as the present one. Mr. McGarry went on to lay emphasis on the many advantages of the Victory Loan. He predicted that the normal rate of interest would drop to 4 per cent with the signing of peace.

"It will take years of discussion and statement before the world begins to realize what sufferings have been endured in Europe and Asia during the past four years," declared the speaker. "And when that realization does come, we will see how little, in comparison, are the sacrifices we have made."

Mr. McGarry in conclusion expressed the hope that the Province of Ontario would continue to lead the Dominion in subscribing to the Bonds.

Are You Helping to Defend Your Own Freedom

OR LETTING SOMEONE ELSE DO IT FOR YOU ?

Canada's Victory Loan 1918

LAST YEAR over 800,000 people helped to defend their freedom through the Victory Loan 1917. If you were one of these you will now be one of the million or more patriotic Canadians who will help to oversubscribe Canada's Victory Loan 1918. The same principles, the same love of your country, and the same anxiety to do your share, however small, towards the great work, will guide you now as it guided you then.

It is the privilege of every Canadian man and woman to help to provide the means by which our gallant boys are enabled to finish their great fight for freedom.

Money has been and is the greatest asset in the greatest war in the history of the world.

Your money is needed.

We will do our best also to see that others come forward, we will tell them of the security of the investment which Canada offers to us, of the 5½ per cent. interest their money will earn, and the absolute certainty of the repayment of their loans. But above all else, we will ourselves each and every one of us, buy to the extent of our ability.

Thus shall we be able to look our boys in the face when they come home again and show them that we did what we could to help while they fought for us.

Plan to take all the Bonds you can possibly pay for.

The payments are as follows:

10 per cent. on application.
20 per cent. December 6th, 1918.
20 per cent. January 6th, 1919.
20 per cent. February 6th, 1919.
31.16 per cent. March 6th, 1919.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untrifling research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, eat, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour, fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness, others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

NEW REPUBLIC

Geneva, Switzerland, Sunday, November 3.—A new republic came into being when the conference here of Czecho-Slovak leaders ended yesterday. Dr. Karf Kramarz, former leader of the Hungarian-Czech party, who spent several years in prison on the charge of treason being released in July 1917, was chosen first president of the new republic.

A majority of the delegates left today for Prague where a Czecho-Slovak national parliament will be formed at once. The Czecho-Slovak government, a Vienna dispatch says, has placed in circulation new stamps bearing the design of the lion of Bohemia.

LADY'S ONE PIECE GATHERED SKIRT.
By Anabel Worthington.

The advantage of this graceful evening skirt is that it may be made in various different ways. The foundation skirt has a straight lower edge, and it is gathered all around the slightly raised waistline. The tunic is in two sections, and it is cut so that it falls in graceful ripples to a long point at the front, while the back develops into a pointed train. There is an inverted plait at centre back. The back tunic is also perforated for skirt length.

The lady's one piece gathered skirt pattern No. 3610 is cut in five sizes—26 to 34 inches waist measure. As on the figure, the 26-inch size requires for the tunic 4 1/2 yards 36-inch or 3 3/4 yards 45-inch; the skirt requires 2 yards 42-inch flouncing. Price, 10 cents.

OLD HOME WEEK.
It's Old Home Week in Germany, the boys are coming back! They're sore and tired and verminy, and high they do not speak. No smiling maids are meeting them with laurels for their brows; no glad voiced sires are greeting them, and no rejoicing Frau's. But "Blizen!" and "Gee-whellikens!" the sad eyed people say. "You blamed stab-sided pelicans, why did you run away?" It's Old Home Week in Germany, but every one looks sour; the weary soldier Herman, he has made twelve miles an hour; the guns behind him hammering, the allies on his trail, triumphant toeman clamoring, he scoured o'er hill and dale. But in his native villages the ice tongs are his prize; they love the Hun who kills; but not the one who flies. They love the Hun victorious, to him at any cost, they'd welcome give apropos—the loser gets a frog. No orators are thundering a lot of phony fine, no village bands are blundering through "Watches on the Rhine." "Our noble boys are here again," no loyal voters cry; they weep and order beer again, and drink it with a sigh. It's Old Home Week in Germany, for warriors who quit; no kaiser, tinsel, ermine, extends the cordial mit. No kaiser, windy, sermony, is there to read a poem; it's Old Home Week in Germany—but what a welcome home!

Music and Drama

"FURS AND FRILLS."
Richard Carle in "Furs and Frills" is announced as the attraction for Monday, November 11th, at the Grand. This is a production which can be especially recommended for theatre parties. The name of Carle is always a guarantee for the fitness of a production and in "Furs and Frills" there is no exception. There is plenty of good, sparkling Carle comedy, there is a typical Carle beauty chorus, there is a beautiful musical score, and all that goes to make a musical show of the highest order. Mr. Carle has a role which shows him in a slightly different line from any heretofore essayed by him and he is proving an even greater laughing success than ever before. The cast of players includes besides Richard Carle, Harold Burr, Martin Craver, Hattie Fox, Jay Elwood, George Bogues, Milt Dawson, William Wolff, Edward Meredith, Joseph McNamee, five violinists and the Carle Alceste chorus. The demand for seats to see Carle increases day by day at the sale, which is being held at the box office of the Grand. Only a few of the choicest seats remain.

MONEY NOW ALL RECOVERED

That Which Was Taken in the Express Car Hold Up

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Covered with leaves of gold containing $9,000 in bills was found by detectives yesterday afternoon in the yard at the rear of a house on Garden avenue. With this find in hand the police recovered all but $150 of the $20,000 stolen in the Buffalo express hold-up on October 23. The remaining $150 is alleged to have been spent by John Lett in travelling expenses.

Shackled with handcuffs, John Lett was taken by detectives through the residential section of Hyde Park yesterday to try and locate the spot where he left the money. Before leaving headquarters he drew a map of where he thought he had gone after jumping off the train at Sangaree. This diagram took the officers to Garden avenue, and after a lengthy search they found the spot. The bag had been thrown over a fence, and was lying between the fence and a chicken coop. It had not been disturbed, and the leaves that partly covered it from view had been blown over by the wind.

John Lett, his brother Walter and Gordon Douglas, held by the police in connection with the robbery, appeared in police court yesterday morning and were remanded for one week.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend a few cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out. Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an adorable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter. For a few cents apply a little as directed every ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

HALIX CATARRH MEDICINE "FATHER OF VICTORY"

French Premier Cheered When He Reads Deputies' Terms Given to Foe

Paris, Nov. 5.—M. Clemenceau, the Premier, was accorded a wonderful ovation by the Chamber of Deputies to-day as he read to Deputies the terms of the armistice with Austria Hungary. He also said terms had been submitted to Germany.

"The terms to Germany," said the Premier, "are what President Wilson himself recommended to us for security of our troops, the maintenance of our military superiority, and the disarmament of the enemy in an armistice that is necessary to prevent a resumption of hostilities."

M. Clemenceau declared that peace might not be so near as some might think, but that he would, however, assure the chamber that "the fate of the people's henceforth was fixed." There was prolonged cheering when the Premier announced that the allies had obtained the use of all means of transport in Austria-Hungary.

M. Clemenceau declared that peace "father of victory" as he mounted the tribune to announce the terms of the Austrian armistice. The Deputies all stood. The ovation lasted several minutes.

GLORY OF FRANCE:
During an address following the reading of the armistice terms there was intermittent cheering, especially when the Premier spoke of the approach of full victory, the defeat of Austria-Hungary and the complete glory of France. The usual interruptions occurred, but the Premier remained unperturbed, defiantly smothering the taunts of the opposition. The Chamber passed a resolution providing that the armistice terms should be posted throughout France.

"What I have done" said M. Clemenceau "is France that has done it. I have only made the best use I could of the instruments which were placed in my hands. The Superior Council at Versailles has drawn up the terms of an armistice with Germany. These were sent yesterday to President Wilson, who if he approves them will make them known to the Imperial and democratic governments."

At this point the Hon. Lurata lurched. "It will then be time enough for Germany to address herself to Foch," the Premier added.

To prevent Resumption of War. It was here that the Premier deflected the terms to Germany which were inspired, as were those imposed upon Austria, to prevent a resumption of hostilities in case Germany should break her word.

M. Clemenceau referred to himself as "the little man in the Berdeux' protest against the dismemberment of Alsace-Lorraine, the House rose and cheered him. He paid a tribute to Gambetta and then dealt with after 16 o'clock. "The pill of peace" would have to show himself worthy of the pill of war.

"Without allies in this war we should not have triumphed," said the Premier. "Our allies would have triumphed. Our ancestral enemies, the English have become our indestructible friends."

Before the Premier read the armistice terms, Deschamps, President of the Chamber, paid a eloquent tribute to the victorious allied armies.

"After Bulgaria, Turkey, after Turkey, Austria," said M. Deschamps. The Franco-American armies are delivering the Argonne; Anglo-Belgian armies are delivering Flanders; the Italians are at Trent and Trieste. The whole Chamber then arose and turned toward the Italian Ambassador, sitting in the diplomatic gallery, and the Ambassador stood and bowed his acknowledgment. A similar scene was enacted when Deschamps referred to the Serbians.

Interpellation Voted Down. M. Mayeras, Socialist, asked the Government to fix a date for an interpellation as to whether the Government was in accord with President Wilson's fourteen points for peace. Foreign Minister Pichon replied that such an interpellation would be in complete and contrary to national interest, being intended to create the belief that there was disagreement between President Wilson and the French Government. The question of the interpellation was voted down 430 to 57.

Pierre Renaudel, leader of the majority Socialists, said he desired to offer an interpellation that the Government should make a declaration on all negotiations, thus ending secret diplomacy. M. Pichon made the matter a question of confidence in the Government, and the House supported the Foreign Secretary by a vote of 419 to 57.

"SAVE THE BABY" IS CRY FROM BELGIUM

The "maternity canteens" in occupied Belgium endeavor to improve as much as possible the food conditions for mothers and prospective mothers. Unfortunately, the value of the meals in these canteens has decreased owing to the continuing increase in the price of food stuffs, and the diminution of help from individuals who are less and less able to divert anything from their own already scanty stores.

The Communities of Greater Brussels are trying to remedy this situation and some of them have already granted the "maternity canteens" a subsidy of 40 centimes (8 cents) a meal.

The cry in Canada and America has long been "Save the Baby" and if it be true here, then what must it be in Belgium, not only in the occupied regions but the regions devastated by the hand of the German and now gradually being reclaimed by the Allied armies.

"Save the Belgian Baby" is a cry that the people on this side of the Atlantic, whose homes and families know nothing of the horrors of war, might well heed, for should the cry of those suffering Belgian mothers and little children fall on deaf ears, their last state would truly be worse than their first, and their liberation an empty and useless thing.

Many Belgian families to-day are without a shelter of any kind and even for their food they are dependent upon the charity of the other allied peoples, whose soldiers want to fight to right their wrong and if help is refused them now liberation will be worse than subjugation and starvation must be their portion.

"They shall not starve," cried the French at Verdun. "They shall not starve" should be the cry of all who, throughout the four years of war have known what it is to enjoy the comforts of home, and who have never for one moment had to go hungry even for a day.

Belgian women and children need help and need it in the worst way. There is a specially appointed commission, who are looking after the needs of the Belgian people, the Belgian Relief Commission, whose funds are all voluntary contributions and who know how and where money can be spent to the best advantage in Belgium to starve off further sufferings. There may be a local committee in your locality, but if not any donation you can give of your plenty may be sent to the Central Committee, 63 St. Peter Street, Montreal, Que.
