

The Weekly British Colonist AND CHRONICLE.

AND CHRONICLE.

AND CHRONICLE.

Saturday, May 30, 1868

European and Continental Echoes.

The Wigan colliers' strike threatened to be at one time a far more serious affair than stated by telegraph. The masters sought to reduce wages 15 per cent. which was firmly maintained by the majority of masters, though a few compromised with the men for 10 per cent. and resumed work.

The Wigan colliers' strike threatened to be at one time a far more serious affair than stated by telegraph. The masters sought to reduce wages 15 per cent. which was firmly maintained by the majority of masters, though a few compromised with the men for 10 per cent. and resumed work.

French Academy and the Academy of Sciences. The ceremony is an impressive one, and the candidate for the annual reward always selected from the poorer classes. In 1866 the prize, a medal valued at 500fr., was awarded to Jeanne Dessite, who became a domestic to a M. de Besse at sixteen.

Editorial Correspondence—No. 2. SAN FRANCISCO, May 19, 1868. A decade of years has flown since I last visited this city. I find it greatly improved in appearance, population and wealth.

Municipal Council. Tuesday, May 26, 1868. The Council met at the usual hour in the evening. Present, the Mayor and Councilors Allatt, Gibbs, Jeffery, Lewis and McKay.

FIRE DEPARTMENT. Communication from the head of the Fire Department, with enclosure of the Hon Colonial Secretary, was read, in relation to the aid sought by the Fire Department.

Communication from J J Jacobs and H F Heisterman in relation to sanitary matters. Read and referred to the Sanitary Committee.

Vice Admiralty Court. [Before His Lordship Chief Justice Needham.] WEDNESDAY, May 27, 1868. In the matter of the Ship Ellen.

Wz observe by late numbers of the Army & Navy Gazette, that two senior lieutenants of ships lately here have been promoted to the rank of commander; Mr Kinahan of the Malacca and Mr Nicholls of the Mutine.

The Sparrowhawk is expected to leave sometime during to-day. She will go to Nanaimo to coal, and then proceed round the Island. Admiral Hastings, C. B. and staff leave in her on an official inspection.

The steamer Enterprise arrived last night from New Westminster having made the round trip in the same day. She brought a small Cariboo mail and a few passengers. The British Columbian did not come to hand as usual.

British Columbia needs to open up her splendid and inexhaustible resources. I met with frequent inquiry from these new-comers—some of whom have called upon me desiring information—as to the best and cheapest modes of reaching the Colony.

Cariboo. By the Sentinel received last night, we find the Theatre Royal was reopened on Monday evening, 11th inst., at Barkerville, and a favorable criticism given of the performance of the local Amateur Dramatic Association.

Mining Operations.—In another week we will be able to give a fuller and more detailed account of the mining operations on the several creeks. Day after to-morrow—the 20th—the time will have expired to which the claims were laid over last fall, and it will be necessary for all parties holding claims to have them represented consequently.

Commerce.—A good prospect has been struck in the "Moonshine" on Red Gulch, situated just above the Tipton Sluabur. Several new claims have been taken up immediately adjoining.

Kootenay Mines.—The Wells Walla Statesman has news from Wild Horse creek to April 1st. The winter had been mild and spring weather had already commenced. The big ditch would be ready for service on April 8th.

The Life of the Flesh is in the Blood, was said by inspiration long before Harvey's discovery of its circulation had brought to light its purposes and uses. How we know not only that "life is in the blood," but that disease inhabits it also.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

By the Sentinel received last night, we find the Theatre Royal was reopened on Monday evening, 11th inst., at Barkerville, and a favorable criticism given of the performance of the local Amateur Dramatic Association. We also gather the following mining news from the same source.

Mining Operations.—In another week we will be able to give a fuller and more detailed account of the mining operations on the several creeks. Day after to-morrow—the 20th—the time will have expired to which the claims were laid over last fall, and it will be necessary for all parties holding claims to have them represented consequently.

Commerce.—A good prospect has been struck in the "Moonshine" on Red Gulch, situated just above the Tipton Sluabur. Several new claims have been taken up immediately adjoining.

Kootenay Mines.—The Wells Walla Statesman has news from Wild Horse creek to April 1st. The winter had been mild and spring weather had already commenced. The big ditch would be ready for service on April 8th.

The Life of the Flesh is in the Blood, was said by inspiration long before Harvey's discovery of its circulation had brought to light its purposes and uses. How we know not only that "life is in the blood," but that disease inhabits it also.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

The system of education in force here is the free secular. Our Island system which is likely soon to be extended over the whole colony, approaches it very nearly. The Lincoln is the largest free school building in this city. The site on which it stands is a fine one, but the building itself impresses one with the idea that a great deal of good material was spoiled in its erection.

