Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

The editor's name appears on the title pages of vols. 4-20 as "H. Ternaux-Compans." Volume numbers appear only in the signature marks.

On the title page of each volume is given a subtitle of the work contained therein, followed, in vols. 1-8, by the place and date of its first publication. Vols. 9-20 consist of translations from Spanish manuscripts, which, with the exception of three articles in vols. 10 and 20, were previously unpublished.

Vols. 1-10 are usually referred to as the first series, and vols. 11-20 as the second.

The several works composing the set have been entered in the Dictionary under their respective authors, with the exception of vols. 10 and 16, whose titles are given above.

Nov.- 1801. Chillicothe: N. Willis. 1802. NVP.

Photo-facsimile reprints of the laws passed 1788-1791, 1792, 1795, and 1798, were published by the Robert Clarke Co. of Cincinnati, the first three being advertised in their catalogue of July, 1897. According to a letter from the W. H. Anderson Company of Cincinnati, dated June 7, 1918, pasted in the NVP. copy of one of the facsimiles, the remainders were purchased by them from the Robert Clarke Company, when that firm went out of business.

For bibliographies of the laws of the Northwest Territory, see State Library of Massachusetts, "Hand-List" of statute law, 1912, pp. 392-393; Thomson's "Bibliography of . . . Ohio," 1880, pp. 211-212; Rauch and Armstrong's "Bibliography of the Laws of Indiana," 1928, pp. 1-7; and Pease's "Laws of the Northwest Territory," 1925, pp. 555-556, which forms vol. 17, law series vol. 1, of Ill. State Hist. Lib. "Collections." The last contains reprints in modern type of the original editions, including the title pages, of the laws passed 1788-1791, 1792, 1795, 1798, and 1799.

A Table of the variations in the Laws of the Territory, as printed by W. Maxwell, and the books of Laws in the secretary's office. Compiled by Thomas Goudy. Cincinnati: Printed by Samuel Freeman and Son. July, 1796. 94883

The account, pp. 1-7, signed: Elijah Montague, Moderator, Ezekiel Terry, Clerk. Statement of committee of the church, signed and dated, on p. 11: Benj. Rid<sup>g</sup>. T. nos Newland, Elisha Sturtevant, Committee for Chh. and Society. Hardwick, June 8 1815.

TERRY. A Candid Opinion given of the Nature and Tendency of Universalism. Also, a System of Truth pointed out. By Ezekiel Terry, Elder in the Church of Jesus Christ. . . . Palmer: From E. Terry's Press. [1810-1815?] 12mo, pp. (2), 5-21.

AAS., WATKINSON. 94891

Possibly a half title is lacking in both the above copies. The AAS. copy lacks pp. 11-21, and the Watkinson copy lacks a final leaf probably blank.

According to Temple's "History of the Town of Palmer," 1889, pp. 279-280, Terry located in that town about the year 1805, and issued some small books. As early as 1809 he set up a printing press of his own. "He wrote in prose and poetry, was a preacher, a teacher . . . a printer, a blacksmith, a shoemaker, and a clock-maker."

TERRY. A Divine Poem, on Pharaoh to Jacob: . . . By Ezekiel Terry. Springfield: Printed by Ashley & Brewer. [circa 1801.] 16mo, pp. 18+. AAS. 94891A

The AAS copy ends with a comma on p. 18.

TEXAS.

In the preparation of the titles to be entered under Texas, the editor is under especial obligations to Thomas W. Streeter of Morristown, N. J., in whose library most of the entries have been compiled and checked. Mr. Streeter has placed at our disposal, not only the books in his Texas collection, but also the bibliographical material, which he has spent years in assembling in preparation for an exhaustive bibliography of works relating to Texas, which is to cover the period from 1795 to 1845.

Mr. Streeter wishes us to record his debt to his friend, Henry R. Wagner of San Marino, California, for his extensive notes for a Texas bibliography; and to Ernest W. Winkler, librarian of the University of Texas, who has supervised researches carried on for Mr. Streeter at Austin, and who has been most generous in sharing his knowledge of Texas printing. The editor also wishes to express his appreciation of further invaluable assistance furnished by Mr. Winkler.

During the preliminary work on this section the editor was helped by bibliographical notes on early Texas printing loaned by Douglas C. McMurtrie.

The following entries are divided into two groups, Public Documents, and Miscellaneous Publications. In both groups the material is covered through the year 1845, the date of the admission of Texas into the Union as a state. The treatment is not intended to be exhaustive. No attempt has been made in either group to include the numerous interesting broadsides and four page folders issued during the period.

The location, GRAND LODGE, after an entry, stands for the library of the Masonic Grand Lodge at Waco, Texas, and is not used unless very few copies of a title are known. In such cases, and many others, the University of Texas has photostats of the pamphlets if not the originals. Copies in the Bancroft library, now at the University of California, are designated simply UCAL. The location, TWS., indicates the Streeter collection, and is only used for items not located elsewhere.

1. Public Documents.

These are subdivided under the headings: Coahuila and Texas (Mexican State); Texas (tentative Mexican state, not recognized by Mexican government, never in operation); Provisional Government (Republic of Texas); and Republic. At the end under State, we give early editions of the Constitution.

Because of the inadequacy of our former treatment of the Mexican state of Coahuila and Texas, we include here the state constitutions, and compilations of laws, but not in general the separate publications of individual laws, nor with one exception, small groups of laws.

For the republic, and the transitional period which preceded it, we give the constitutions, journals of legislative bodies, session laws, and a few of the more considerable laws published separately, messages of the presidents, reports of heads of departments, etc. We omit the large body of reports of congressional committees which will be covered later in Mr. Streeter's bibliography. As noted above, official broadsides and four page folders are in general omitted.

The documents of Coahuila and Texas are arranged chronologically.

In the case of the other governments the arrangement is first alphabetical, under the body, department, or official responsible. Exceptions are entries under Constitution, and under Laws, Statutes, etc.

Some bibliographical difficulties have been presented by the reproductions of early Texas documents included in the Gammel Book Company's edition of the "Laws of Texas, 1822-1897," compiled by H. P. N. Gammel, with an introduction by C. W. Raines, Austin, 1898. These reproductions, which are often found separately, are said to be an "exact reprint of the originals or copies, verbatim et literatim." The various documents are prefixed with title pages giving what appear to be the places and dates of printing of original editions. This is in fact a correct impression in some cases. In others, however, the documents are evidently reprinted from newspapers, or taken from MSS., and we have been unable to locate contemporary editions. As the Gammel editions are often found separately, they frequently appear in library catalogues as if they represented rare issues, but on examination are readily distinguished as modern printing.

2. Miscellaneous Publications.

These include works relating to Texas not elsewhere more properly entered under individual or corporate author, or title, i.e. works published anonymously, or by state organizations, together with a few other corporate entries. The arrangement is alphabetical by title or by corporate author.

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

As an introduction to the official documents, the following proclamation of Stephen F. Austin, the first leader to obtain special recognition from the federal and state Mexican governments, is of interest:

To the settlers in Austins settlement. Fellow Citizens, After an absence of sixteen months I have the pleasure of returning once more to the settlement which it has been the labor of the last three years of my life to establish in the unsettled deserts of this province . . . I . . . now have the satisfaction of announcing that every necessary power relative to the formation of the colony is granted to me by the Supreme Executive power and Sovereign Congress of Mexico . . . [Signed and dated:] Stephen F. Austin. Province of Texas, July, 1823. [San Antonio. 1823.] Folio broadside.

TWS. 94938

Contains a sketch of the plan of organization authorized by the Mexican government for Austin's colonies.

The above copy contains ms. corrections in the handwriting of Stephen F. Austin. The last eight lines of this copy are supplied from a newspaper publication of the proclamation.

COAHUILA AND TEXAS (MEXICAN STATE).

Constitution and Laws.

Because in several cases the constitution and laws are both mentioned on the titles, it has seemed better to arrange them all chronologically.

Constitution of the United Mexican States; the General Colonization Law, and the Colonization Law of the State of Coahuila and Texas. Translated from the original Spanish by C. Chaplin, Esq. Natchez: Published and Sold by Grissam, Moss, & Co. Booksellers and Stationers, Main Street, Natchez. Sold, also, by D. Hotchkiss, New-Orleans: and Sold in most places in the states of Mississippi and Louisiana. 1826. 8vo, pp. 51. TWS. 94939

Political Constitution of the Free State of Coahuila & Texas. Sanctioned by the Constitutive Congress of the said State, on the 11th of March, 1827. Printed at the Courier Office, Natchitoches. 1827. 12mo, pp. 48. TWS. 94940

Another copy is listed in the catalogue of the collection of the late H. V. Jones, "Adventures in Americana," 1928.

A photostat copy is located at NYPL.

Constitution política del estado libre de Coahuila y Tejas, sancionada por su Congreso constituyente en 11 de Marzo de 1827. Mexico. Imprenta de Galvan a cargo de Mariano Arevalo— 1827. 12mo, pp. 107. HEH. 94941

Title supplied by Willard O. Waters.

Constitucion política del estado de Coahuila y Texas. Saltillo. 1828. Folleto in 8vo. 94942

Title from V. A. Robles' "Bibliografía de Coahuila," 1927, p. 51.

A fragment at UTKX, possibly from this edition, has the caption: "Primera parte de la Constitucion política del estado de Coahuila y Texas," and consists of 22 pp. Another edition of this year is included in "Colección de constituciones de los Estados-Unidos Mexicanos," vol. 1, pp. 195-273. c., NYP. See our no. 48349, vol. 12.

The Constitution of Coahuila and Texas. Chillicothe: Printed by R. Kercheval. 1829. 8vo, pp. 34. TWS. 94943

Probably issued with the Constitution of the Mexican United States, Chillicothe, 1829, with which the above copy is bound.

Laws, passed by the Legislature of the State of Coahuila and Texas. [Colophon:] G. B. Cotten, Print, Austin, Texas. [1829?] Folio, pp. 12, in two columns. TWS. 94944

Caption title.

Possibly the first pamphlet or book printed in Texas. Also published in the "Texas Gazette," nos. 1-5, Sept. 25-Oct. 31, 1829.

Militia Law, pp. 1-5. Executive Law, pp. 6-12.

Translation of the Laws, Orders, and Contracts, on Colonization, from January, 1821, up to this time, in virtue of which Col. Stephen F. Austin, has introduced and settled foreign emigrants in Texas, with an explanatory introduction. San Felipe [sic] de Austin, Texas: Printed by Godwin B. Cotten. November, 1829. 12mo, pp. 70, errata (1). NYH., NYP., UTEX., Y. + Columbia: Re-printed by Borden & Moore, Public Printers. 1837. 8vo, pp. 81.

BA., C., H. (LAW), NYH., UCAL., UTEX., Y. 94945

Either this compilation or the preceding title was the first book or pamphlet printed in Texas.

The introduction to the first edition, pp. 3-24, is addressed "To the Settlers in what is called 'Austin's Colony,' in Texas," and the advertisement, which is signed and dated, S. F. Austin, San Felipe de Austin, 1st November, 1829, states that the "translations have been carefully made by Mr. S. M. Williams, and myself." The errata leaf contains a "Translation of an Official Letter from Governor Martinez, to S. F. Austin, which was omitted by mistake—it ought to have come in after No. 1, on page 29."

The Constitution of the Republic of Mexico, and of the State of Coahuila & Texas. Containing also an abridgement of the laws of the general and state governments, relating to colonization. With sundry other laws and documents not before published, particularly relating to Coahuila and Texas. The documents relating to the Galveston Bay and Texas Land Company; the grants to Messrs. Wilson and Exter, and to Col. John Dominguez. With a description of the soil, climate, productions, local and commercial advantages of that interesting country. New-York, Ludwig & Tolefree, Printers. 1832. 8vo, pp. 113. C., NYP., UTEX. 94946

Improved title of no. 16084, vol. 4.

Preface signed and dated: A. L. New-York, December 30th, 1831.

According to a note in a contemporary hand in the Streeter copy, "A. L." was A. Longworthy.

Prospectus for translating into English and publishing a Compilation of the Laws in force in the State of Coahuila and Texas . . . to be interwoven with a Compendium of the Spanish Code: the whole to be illustrated with notes and references. Session, Nov. 5, 1838-Jan. 24, 1839.

A copy of the first issue was recently advertised for sale by Fred Lockley, of Portland, Ore.

This edition is not that cited as vol. 3 in the "Alphabetical Index" to the first five volumes of the Laws, entered below.

The index, pp. xiv, given in the above collation is found in few copies. It is bound with the Worcester Law Library copy, the HEH. copy, and with one of the UTEX. copies, but is probably a separate publication. A copy of the same index is bound with one of the UTEX. copies of the following edition, printed by the Telegraph Power Press.

Laws of the Republic of Texas, passed at the First Session of the Third Congress. In one volume. Houston: Telegraph Power Press. 1839. 8vo, pp. (2), 145, verso blank, index v, with additions on slip pasted on verso or at foot of page. B., CU.(LAW), H.(LAW), HEH., NYBA., NYP., UCAL., UTEX., WHS., WORC.LAW, Session, Nov. 5, 1838-Jan. 24, 1839. Y.(LAW).95000

Many copies are without the slip of additions perhaps issued later.

This edition of the Laws of this session is that indexed as vol. 3 in the "Alphabetical Index" to the first five volumes of the Laws, entered below. It is also cited in the "Alphabetical Index" covering the first three Congresses, prepared by a Member of the Bar.

... The Annexation of Texas. By the Editor. [Richmond. 1844.] 8vo, pp. 12. NYP. 95066

Caption title.

With heading: "Southern Literary Messenger. May, 1844." B. B. Minor was the editor at the time.

Annexation of Texas. Opinions of Messrs. Clay, Polk, Benton & Van Buren, on the immediate Annexation of Texas. [Washington? 1844?] 8vo, pp. 16. whs. [Another edition from different type, and with an additional letter.] [Washington? 1844?] 8vo, pp. 15. AAS., UTEX., UTS. 95067

The first edition includes letters and speeches dated from April 17-June 15, 1844, and the second, a later letter from Clay, dated, September 23, 1844.

The Annexation of Texas and Separation [sic] of the United States. [n. p. 1844?] 8vo, pp. (24). H., M., NYH. 95068

The signature, "Lundy," at the foot of the second page, is evidently a pseudonym, as Benjamin Lundy had died in 1839.

A note states that the subsequent pages were published eight years previously, and that their reprint will be appropriate at the present crisis. Some of the same extracts are reprinted which are also found in the "Legion of Liberty," 1843, and the "Anti-Texas Legion," entered below.

The Anti-Texas Legion. Protest of some Free Men, States and Presses against the Texas Rebellion, against the Laws of Nature and of Nations. [Woodcut.] . . . 1844. Sold at the Patriot Office, No. 9, Exchange st. Albany. . . . 12mo, pp. (72). B., BA., C., H., NYP., UTEX. + [Same imprint and collation.] 1845.

B., BA., C., HEH., NYP. 95069

A collection of extracts from speeches, articles, documents, etc., the first of which, "Texas and Mexico," is by Benjamin Lundy. This fact explains Cushing's attribution of the work to him. Lundy died in 1839.

For the first and later editions, see below, "Legion of Liberty. Remonstrance . . ."

AAS., B., BA., BM., CU., H., HEH., M., Y. + [Same imprint and collation.] 1726. BM. 95228*

The NYH. catalogue lists a Boston, 1727, edition, but the copy is not now available. For other sermons by Thayer, see Evans.

THAYER (Elihu). A Funeral Discourse, delivered at the Interment of the Hon. Josiah Bartlett, Esq. late Governor of the State of New-Hampshire; who departed this life May 19, 1795, in the sixty fifth year of his age. Together with an Eulogy, delivered at the Grave. By Elihu Thayer, v.D.M. Pastor of the First Church of Christ in Kingston. Printed at Exeter: by John Lamson, and sold at his of[f]ice. 1795. 8vo, pp. 20.

AAS., BA., C., H., JCB., M. 95229

Thayer printed other sermons and prepared a "Summary of Christian Doctrines and Duties: designed principally for those Inhabitants of New Settlements, who have not the opportunity of procuring many books upon Religious Subjects," first published anonymously for the New-Hampshire Missionary Society, Exeter, 1813, and later with the author's name, Concord, 1817.

After the editions in the English language, the translations are entered in the following order: French, German, Latin, Portuguese, Spanish. The arrangement is chronological under each language.

For further information, see Percival Merritt's "Bibliographical notes on 'An Account of the Conversion of the Rev. John Thayer,'" in Col. Soc. of Mass. Trans. "Publications," vol. 25, 1924, pp. 129-140, to which we are indebted for valuable aid in compiling the following list.

For editions published in connection with accounts of other conversions, see Merritt, p. 437.

THAYER. An [A]ccount of the Conversion of the Reverend Mr. John Thayer, lately a Protestant Minister, at Boston in North America, who embraced the Roman Catholic Religion at Rome, on the 25th of May, 1783; written by himself. To which are annexed Several Extracts from a Letter written to his Brother, in answer to some objections. Also, a Letter from a Young Lady lately received by him into the Church, written after making her first Communion. . . . The Second Edition. London: Printed by J. P. Coghlan, No. 37, Duke-Street, near Grosvenor-Square: And Sold by P. Byrne, Grafton-Street, Dublin. M DCC LXXXVII. Small 8vo, pp. (2), 66.

We have located no copy of the first edition. M. 95231

THAYER. An Account of the Conversion of the Rev. Mr. John Thayer . . . To which are annexed Several Extracts from a Letter written to his Brother, in answer to some Objections. Also, a Letter from a Young Lady . . . written after making her first Communion. With the Addition of two Letters, extracted from the Life of Benedict Joseph Labre. THAYER. An Account of the Conversion of the Rev. Mr. John Thayer . . . Fourth Edition. [Dublin?] J. Boyce, Inn's-quay. 1797. 12mo, pp. 53. 95238

Finotti, the authority for an edition in this year, in his "Bibliographia Catholica Americana," 1872, pp. 246-247, wrote that in "1797, J. Boyce, b. Inns-Quay, London, published a Fourth Edition . . . pp. 53, 12mo." Merritt, in his bibliography cited above, points out that a "comparison of this record with the imprint of the Dublin, 1809, edition . . . suggests the possibility that this was a Dublin and not a London edition," and that Father Finotti may not have seen a copy, himself. Merritt adds that Kings Inn Quay is the quay adjoining Arran-Quay in Dublin, the latter being the address of J. Boyce in 1809. Since the Eighth Edition, London, 1800, was published by successors of J. P. Coghlan it seems probable that a London edition of 1797 would have been from his press.

THAYER. An Account of the conversion of J. Thayer, who embraced the Roman Catholic Religion . . . 1783. Written by himself. To which is added a Letter to his Brother in answer to some objections. The Eighth Edition. London. 1800. 12mo.

BM. 95239

Merritt, in his bibliography cited above, gives the imprint as follows: London: Printed by Keating, Brown and Keating, (Successors to the late Mr. J. P. Coghlan), No. 37, Duke Street, Grosvenor Square, M, 1800.

THAYER. An Account of the Conversion of the Reverend Mr. John Thayer . . . To which are annexed Several Extracts from a Letter written to his Brother, in answer to some objections. Also, A Letter from a Young Lady . . . written after making her first Communion. . . . The Fifth Edition. Kilkenny: Printed and sold by John Reynolds, High Street, 1805. 95240

Title from Finotti's "Bibliographia Catholica Americana," 1872, p. 243.

Avec Approbation. 16mo, pp. 4, 58, "Approbation" (1). NYH. 95247

Merritt, in his bibliography cited above, notes that the letter to Thayer's brother in the French editions appears to have been printed in full.

THAYER. Relation de la Conversion de Mr. Thayer, Ministre Protestant, écrite par lui-même. A Quebec: chez Louis Germain, No. 3. Imprimé à la Nouvelle Imprimerie. [1791.] 16mo, pp. 63. MONTREALPL., U.LAVAL. 95248

Title supplied by Aegidius Fauteux, of the Montreal Public Library, who states that contemporary account-books show that this edition was offered for sale in 1791.

A letter of the Rev. F. C. Nagot, Superior of Le Petit Séminaire of Paris, in this edition, takes the place of the letter to Thayer's brother, and that from the English convert. M. Fauteux states that the letter is unsigned, but that its authorship is shown by internal evidence.

Theatre. [Verso of title:] Argument. The Town being collected in Faneuil-Hall, Resonus addressed them on the subject of a Theatre, greatly disapproving of one; and is answered by Musacus. Parties growing high, Crites gets up, with an intention to settle the affair, when Jove hangs out his scales, to balance the parties, and both parts uprising, the multitude saw nothing but a blank. [Boston. 1792?] 8vo, pp. 7. AAS. 95280

by John Watts, corner of Eleventh and Walnut-street, for the Editor; and sold by John Phillips . . . At the close of the season, a Title-page and Index will be given gratis: so that the Numbers when bound together, will make a handsome pocket-volume. [1805.] 12mo, pp. 8. AAS., B., BM., C., CORNELL. 95285

Caption title. With heading: No 1.

Continued through no. 17, dated March 3, 1806, pp. 129-134 (i. e. 150-154). This number began with a statement that its publication had been delayed. It followed no. 16, which contained criticisms of performances on March 17 and 19, pp. 141-148. There were other pp. 129-134 at their proper place.

There were two editions of the first two numbers, see p. 29.

No. 11 should contain a plate. See p. 108.

On p. 47: "With the next number of this work, which will be published the week the Theatre closes, will be given the general title, &c. and a Prospectus of the plan for publishing the Theatrical Censor next season." These and the plate are lacking in the AAS. set described above.

The promised continuation was published the following season as "The Theatrical Censor and Critical Miscellany," no. 1 of which appeared Sept. 27, 1806, and which ran at least through no. 13, Dec. 30, 1806. An allusion on the cover of no. 5 shows that it is the same periodical. Complete sets are at Cornell, and the New York State Library, according to the Union List.

For what is apparently a reissue of the first four numbers of the "Theatrical Censor and Critical Miscellany," see the following title:

The Theophilanthropist; containing Critical, Moral, Theological and Literary Essays, in monthly numbers. By a Society. . . .

New-York: Printed for the Proprietors, and sold by H. Hart, No. 117, Chatham-Street. 1810. 8vo, pp. 384.

AAS., BA., BM., C., CU., NYH., NYP., PRINCETON, Y. 95315

On the title page of the NYH. copy, in the handwriting of William Kelby, a former librarian of NYH.: "(Edited by Col. John Fellows)."

Includes a few items of American interest: Character of John Marshall; Character of James Monroe; Debtors' Prison; Osage Indians, etc.

On p. 382 it is stated that this is the concluding number of the publication. On the following page the proprietors announce that they "propose uniting to the work, Thomas Paine's examination of the Prophecies, and his essay upon the origin of Free Masonry, which will extend the volume to 482 pages. These pamphlets may be obtained where the Theophilanthropist has usually been sold." Pp. 370-372 contain passages from the latter pamphlet which were omitted by its publisher, and are supplied here because of the editor's "intending to bind this tract with the Theophilanthropist." AAS. has a copy with this latter pamphlet, only, bound at the end, c. and NYP. copies have both pamphlets, and C., CU., and NYH. copies have neither.

Apparently the demand for the publication was beyond that expected when the first number was issued. One of the copies at AAS. has, after the volume title, prospectus, and introductory address, 4 pages preceded by the following note: "The proprietors . . . finding a deficiency of the first number, have been induced to reprint a few copies of the first letter of Mr. Jenyns . . . that being the only article of importance . . . which has any connection with the succeeding numbers." This is the only part of the first number found in this copy.

Imprint of the first 1687 issue given here supplied by Elsa R. Nordin, and that of the second, taken from HARRISSE's anonymous "Notes pour servir à l'histoire, à la bibliographie . . . de la Nouvelle-France," 1872, no. 158.

A copy of a 1689 issue, Paris. I. Moette, is noted by Thwaites as bought by Henry Stevens, at the Sunderland or Blenheim Library sale, 1883, pt. v, item 12409 of the catalogue. See the "Jesuit Relations," vol. 59, 1900, p. 295.

These later imprints and dates are pasted on the title pages of copies of the 1682 edition. A copy of the 1682 edition with the second of the 1687 imprints pasted on the title was sold at the Anderson Galleries, May 1-2, 1929, lot no. 90.

As the work is made up of several items with separate signatures, the order of binding varies in different copies. See for this and other variations, the "Voyages of Thévenot," 1879, no. 3 of "Contributions to a Catalogue of the Lenox Library," p. 19. See also, Church no. 672.

Contents: Avis. pp. 16, including the contents of the "Relations," so far as published at the time.—Decouverte de quelques pays et nations de l'Amérique Septentrionale. pp. 43.—Voyage d'un Ambassadeur que le Tzaar de Moscovie envoya par terre à la Chine l'année 1653. pp. 18.—Discours sur l'art de la navigation. pp. 32.—Les histoires naturelles de l'ephemere et du cancellus ou Bernard l'Hermite décrites & représentées par figures par M. Swammerdam. pp. 20, 14, 8.—Le Cabinet de Mr. Swammerdam . . . ou catalogue de toutes sortes d'Insectes, & de diverses préparations Anatomiques. pp. 16.

The chief American interest lies in the fact that the compilation includes the first printed account of the explorations of Marquette and Joliet, together with a map of the discoveries. This account was taken by Thévenot from a manuscript, probably prepared by Dablon from a narrative of Marquette, which had been sent by the former to Paris. Another copy of the manuscript was preserved in the College of St. Mary at Montreal. Thévenot's map has the title, "Carte de la découverte faite l'an 1673. dans l'Amérique Septentrionale," and the inscription, Liebaux sculpt. It was discovered by Parkman to have been derived, though with some changes, from a manuscript map now in the Bibliothèque nationale. Copies made from this are in the Harvard College Library (Parkman no. 5), and in the Parliamentary Library in Ottawa. With the Montreal manuscript is an entirely different holograph map acknowledged to be by Marquette. Because of the differences between the two ms. maps Parkman discredited the one used by Thévenot. See his "La Salle and the Discovery of the Great West," 1879, p. 452. However, L. P. Kellogg, in "Marquette's Authentic Map possibly Identified," Wis. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," for 1906, pp. 183-193, comes to the conclusion that the holograph map in Montreal was one made merely in preparation for the journey, and that the other used by Thévenot was the authentic work of the explorers. See also Alvord's "Illinois Country," 1920, p. 63, note.

Rich reprinted the Marquette section of the Recueil as "Voyage et Découverte de Quelques Pays et Nations . . . par le P. Marquette et Sr. Joliet," Paris, 1845. An English version was added at the end of Hennepin's "Continuation of the New Discovery of a Vast Country in America," London, 1698, pp. 318-349, and another was included in French's "Historical Collections of Louisiana," pt. 2, 1850, pp. 277-297. A Dutch version was printed by Pieter vander Aa in 1727 in the octavo edition of his voyages, and also in the folio edition from the same type, which was reissued in 1727, with a new title page.

For various printings from the Montreal mss. see the "Jesuit Relations," vol. 59, 1900, pp. 297-299. See also, our nos. 44665, vol. 11, and 80002, vol. 19.

As L. C. Wroth states in the Catalogue of the John Carter Brown Library, vol. 3, 1931, "this is the first issue, Part I, of the Thévenot collection of voyages. Part II was published in 1664, Part III in 1666, Part IV in 1672 and Part V in 1696. At three different times during this period the "remainder" sheets of the parts that had already appeared in print were reissued with new title-pages and with variant leaves and plates. This occurred in 1664, 1672, and 1683. In 1696, after Thévenot's death, a final issue appeared containing Part V, not previously printed. It will be understood from this that there really was only one edition of Thévenot, and as that edition was completed only in 1696, the issue bearing that year on its general title-page is ordinarily regarded as the standard for collation." [See the "Avertissement" of the 1696 volumes for a note as to the necessity of reprinting missing leaves, and in fact some of the relations in entirety, at that time, as well as engraving new plates to take the place of missing ones.]

"Bibliographers have expended great pains on the collation of the Thévenot collection. The standard authority on the work as a whole is still the Mémoire sur la Collection des grands et petits Voyages, et sur la Collection des Voyages de Melchisedech Thevenot, by A. G. Camus, Paris, 1802. Brunet gave a collation in which he added two pieces not recorded by Camus. A Supplement to the first John Carter Brown Catalogue of 1865-66, pages 251-261, contained collation and notes of the Thévenot collection in this [JCB.] Library. This material was incorporated in Part II of the second catalogue published in 1882. In the mean time in 1879 had appeared The Voyages of Thévenot, No. III of the Contributions to a Catalogue of the Lenox Library. None of these added appreciably to the list of essential pieces given by Camus, although the Lenox study noted in detail all variations that appeared in the four sets belonging to that Library. An even more detailed collation occupies columns 8830-8841 in Volume IV of the Bibliotheca Lindesiana." For further information as to JCB. copies, see the new Catalogue, under dates of 1664 and 1666.

As no simple standard arrangement or collation can be given which will be found in all sets of Thévenot, we refer here merely to those authorities cited above. The titles of the various publications between 1663 and 1796 are similar to that of the first part given above, with slight differences and with various imprints.

The American interest lies chiefly in the fourth part, first published in 1672. This includes beside other items, not relating to America, an account of the voyage of Acarette up the La Plata, and to Peru, see our no. 88, vol. 1; and an abridgement of Thomas Gage's travels in Mexico and New Spain, see nos. 26298-26316, vol. 7.

The title of the final issue of 1696, which contains the fifth part, not previously published, is as follows:

Because of the elaborate problems connected with the issue of the sets of Thévenot's voyages, we have not attempted to differentiate the copies located in the following libraries: AAS., B., BA., BM., BODLEIAN, FAC.ADV., HEH., JCB., NYH., NYP., PEAB., PRINCETON, WLC., Y.

Information concerning the issue published by Chaudiere supplied by Elizabeth B. Steere.

One of the issues is in the Bodleian Library.

Divided into four parts, with a folded map preceding each part. In vol. 1, leaves 1-148 relate to Africa, and 149-467 to Asia. In vol. 2, leaves 469-914, 912-936, relate to Europe, and 903-1025 to America.

There are woodcut illustrations in the text.

In some copies of vol. 1 a portrait of the author appears on the verso of the sixth leaf of the first signature, the recto being blank. C., HISP.SOC.AMER., NYP., WLC. In other copies this leaf is entirely blank. JCB. It is lacking in the Chaudiere issue at WLC.

The "table des matieres" which forms the final twelve leaves of vol. 1 is bound with the preliminary leaves in the JCB. copy. The last leaf of the "table" is lacking in the NYP. copy.

In the JCB. copy the second-fourth preliminary leaves of vol. 2 are bound preceding leaf 149 in vol. 1, and the fifth-eighth preliminary leaves of vol. 2 are bound at the end of vol. 1.

The NYP. copy lacks all of the maps except the one of Africa in vol. 1.

The HISP.SOC.AMER. copy lacks vol. 2.

"To the right honourable Sir Henrie Sidney, Knight," signed, Thomas Hacket.

A translation by the latter, of Les Singlaritez de la France Antarctique, below.

According to the Church Catalogue, no. 113, the running headings of the dedication to the Cardinal of Sens, which precedes the Preface to the Reader, read "The Preface to the Reader" in that copy. In the c., n., HEH. (Britwell copy), JCB., and NYP. copies the running heading is corrected to "The Epistle." HEH. sold the Church copy in 1917.

In the JCB. and Lothian copies leaf 76 has the signature mark Liiij. The c., Church, n. and NYP. copies are without the signature mark on this leaf.

[London?] Printed for the Author. MDCCLXXXVIII [-M,DCCXCI.] 3 vols., 8vo, pp. xvi, subscribers' names (8), 326; (6), subscribers' names continued (3), 3-326; (2), ix, 189, frontispiece portrait. BM., CU., HEH., JCB., NYP., P., PEAB., Y. + Dublin: Printed by Graisberry and Campbell: for William Jones, No. 86, Dame-Street. M,DCC,XC. 8vo, pp. xii, (3), verso blank, 421, advertisements (3). DERENNE, NYH., P. 95343

Contains accounts of experiences in Georgia and Jamaica.

The first edition was probably printed in London like many other works of the author, but might also have been printed at Bath where was his home.

Many of the located copies lack vol. 3, of this edition, published after the first two volumes, and the HEH. copy lacks vol. 2 also. The P. copy is complete, except for a few pages in vol. 1.

In some copies the lists of subscribers' names are both bound at the end of vol. 2. NYP.

According to Diet. Nat. Biog., J. M. Adair, an old enemy, to whom Thicknesse addresses a derogatory dedication, published in 1790 "Curious Facts and Anecdotes not contained in the Memoirs of Philip Thicknesse."

Concerning a decree against Thicknesse in the courts of Chancery, see no. 7 of the Crisis, an opposition paper published in London, in 1775, our no 17516, vol. 5. For American editions, see Evans, nos. 13953-13959.

vue de Chapelle St. Jean. MDCCLXXXVII. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. (4), cxliv, 261, (1); (4), 263-436, (2), 94, (2). 2 folded plates.

A.M.L., B.M., BOWDOIN, C., FAC.ADV., H., HISP.SOC.AMER., JCB., NYP., P., PRINCETON, WHS., Y. 95349

It is evident that the first volume at least was originally issued with a title page dated 1786. Editions of that year are listed in the printed catalogue of the Bodleian Library, and in the catalogue published by the New York State Library in 1861. The latter copy was destroyed in the fire of 1911. The JCB. copy of the work begins with a title of this date, but also includes a title dated 1787. This copy and that in the library of the Hispanic Society contain an "Avis au Relieur," which makes clear the differences between the first and second issues. The binder was ordered to substitute the 1787 title for that of 1786, this [evidently including a half title] to form a "carton" or "cancel" of four pages. In the same volume Riii, containing p. 261, was to be cancelled, and a page 261, with a table of contents on the verso, and the "Avis," four pages in all, substituted. In vol. 2 a title page and one other leaf, evidently a half title, were to be added at the beginning, and the table of contents, pp. 437-439, was to be cancelled, while after p. 436 a title page for the "Supplément au Voyage de Guaxaca" was to be substituted. The last leaf of sig. F was to be cancelled in this volume, and the "carton" G with the table of contents put in its place.

The directions to the binder appear to have been carried out in the collation given above, except that the "Avis" is not included. The JCB. copy on the other hand, in which the directions have not been fully carried out, has the collation: (2), cxliv, 439, (1), (6), 94, (3). The collation in the NYS. catalogue for the 1786 edition gives pp. cxliv, 439, 36. A following entry describes a "2d ed.," 1787, with "nine plates not in first edition, and other additions." This copy also was destroyed in 1911.

Some copies lack the "épitre dédicatoire," pp. i-iv, in vol. 1. NYP., PRINCETON.

The work was published posthumously, and an "Éloge de M. Thierry de Menonville, prononcé par M. [Charles] Arthaud" forms pp. xcix-cxviii of vol. 1.

For a German translation of the "Voyage à Guaxaca," see the preceding title.

An English version of the "Voyage" appears in Pinkerton's "General Collection of the best and most interesting Voyages and Travels," vol. 13, 1812, pp. 753-876.

THOMAS. Catalogue of Books.

The following list of titles and cross references is arranged chronologically.

THOMAS. Catalogue of Books to be Sold by Isaiah Thomas, at his Book-store in Worcester, Massachusetts. Consisting of many celebrated Authors in History, Voyages, Travels, Geography, Antiquities, Philosophy, Novels, Miscellanies, Divinity, Physick, Surgery, Anatomy, Arts, Sciences, Husbandry, Architecture, Navigation, Mathematicks, Law, Periodical Publications, Poetry, Plays, Musick, &c. &c. MDCCLXXXVII. Printed at Worcester by Isaiah Thomas. 12mo, pp. 26, (1). AAS. 95400

THOMAS. The Friends of Literature, who wish to encourage the Art of Printing in America are respectfully informed that American Editions of the following Books, (all of which were printed in the United States) are now selling by Isaiah Thomas, in Worcester, and by said Thomas & Company, in Boston, viz. [Worcester? 1789.] 8vo, pp. (4). AAS. 95401

Caption title.

The catalogue may be dated by the fact that it contains the title of the Boston Directory, 1789, and also because the name of the Boston firm was changed during that year to "Isaiah Thomas and Ebenezer T. Andrews."

THOMAS. Catalogue of Books to be Sold by Isaiah Thomas, at his Bookstore in Worcester, Massachusetts. . . . November, MDCCXCII. Printed at Worcester, Massachusetts, By Isaiah Thomas and Leonard Worcester. 12mo, pp. 42. AAS. 95402

[Thomas.] Communication from the President of the American Antiquarian Society to the Members, October 24th, 1814. . . . Together with the Laws of the Society, as revised. Worcester, (Mass.) Printed by William Manning. [1814.] 8vo, pp. 12, 8.

AAS., BA., BM., M., NYH., NYP. 95404

Improved title of no. 1052, vol. 1.

Signed on p. 12 by Isaiah Thomas. The pages at the end are the Laws mentioned in the title.

Additional pp. 13-27, on different paper, containing lists of officers, and of articles presented to the society, were apparently not included in the first copies issued, as many of those located are without them. However, a copy at M. in contemporary blue paper wrapper, has these lists sewed in the original stitching following the 8 pp. of Laws. The AAS. copy of these pages is not sewed with the Communication.

THOMAS. The Friends of Literature . . . are . . . informed that American Editions of the following Books . . . [1789.] See above, the chronological arrangement of Thomas's catalogues.

THOMAS. The History of Printing in America. With a Biography of Printers, and an Account of Newspapers. To which is prefixed a concise view of the Discovery and Progress of the Art in other Parts of the World. In two volumes. By Isaiah Thomas, Printer, Worcester, Massachusetts. . . . Worcester: From the Press of Isaiah Thomas, Jun. Isaac Sturtevant, Printer. 1810. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. 487, 3 facsimiles, one of which is folded; 576, 2 plates, one of which is folded. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., CU., H., HEH., HSP., JCB., JOHNCRERAR, M., MINNHS., NYH., NYP., P., PEAB., PRINCETON, UTS., WATKINSON, WHS., WLC., Y. 95405

Originally issued in printed board covers, dated 1810, and with a general index to the two volumes appearing on both back covers. As thus issued the work contained no portrait.

Joseph Sabin in the Catalogue of the Menzies collection, 1875, states that "Shortly after its issue [but more probably shortly after Thomas's death in 1831] the remainder of the edition was purchased . . . by the late W. Gowans and an associate, at twenty-five cents per volume in the sheets, and an arrangement made with a bookbinder to put the stock into boards, the whole of which, with the exception of a copy that Mr. Gowans had retained for himself, was returned cut down almost to the head-lines; an incident to which Mr. Gowans never referred without an emphatic expression of indignation." The Menzies copy was this uncut copy reserved by Gowans for himself.

Although Gowans' first catalogue was published in 1842, he appears in the New York directories beginning with that for 1829-30, and could easily have put on sale the reissue of the History soon after Thomas's death.

Many copies of the work contain a portrait of the author, taken by Marchant from the painting by Greenwood executed in 1818, and with the imprint of Pendleton's Lithography, Boston. It can be dated by means of the Boston directories somewhere between 1825 and 1837. It seems probable that the copies containing this likeness were those bound for Gowans. Two copies at AAS. which have it are severely cut as noted above, being nearly an inch shorter than another AAS. copy in contemporary printed board covers.

THOMAS. The History of Printing in America, with a Biography of Printers, and an Account of Newspapers. In two volumes. By Isaiah Thomas, LL.D. Printer, late President of the American Antiquarian Society, Member of the American Philosophical Society, and of the Massachusetts and New York Historical Societies. Second edition. With the Author's Corrections and Additions, and a catalogue of American Publications previous to the Revolution of 1776. Published under the supervision of a Special Committee of the American Antiquarian Society. . . . Albany, N. Y.: Joel Munsell, Printer. 1874. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. lxxvii, 423, frontispiece portrait; viii, 666, (2), 47, folded plate. AAS, BM., C., CU., DERENNE,

HEH., M., NYH., NYP., PEAB., UTS., WLC., Y. 95406

Half title: Archæologia Americana. Transactions and Collections of the American Antiquarian Society. Volume V. [-VI]. Printed for the Society. 1874.

Special Committee: Samuel F. Haven, Nathaniel Paine, Joel Munsell.

In general the alterations and additions in the revised edition follow the plan of the author disclosed in his interleaved copy of the first edition, now as AAS, although the history of printing in the old world, upon whose revision he had spent some time, is omitted. The notes unless otherwise indicated by initials, etc., are by Thomas.

The most important additions, beside those of the author, are a Memoir of him by Benjamin Franklin Thomas, vol. 1, pp. xvii-lxxxvii; an essay on printing in South America, by John R. Bartlett, vol. 1, pp. 365-380; and Haven's "Catalogue of Publications in what is now the United States, prior to the Revolution of 1775-6," vol. 2, pp. 309-666. The last, which had its nucleus in notes by Thomas, was also issued separately and is usually known as "Haven's list." The death of the latter in the Civil War prevented its final revision.

THOMAS. A Specimen of Isaiah Thomas's Printing Types. Being as large and complete an Assortment as is to be met with in any one Printing-Office in America. Chiefly Manufactured by that great Artist, William Caslon, Esq: of London. Printed at Worcester, Massachusetts, By Isaiah Thomas. MDCCLXXXV. 8vo, 47 leaves.

AAS., B., BM., H., HEH., NYH., NYP. 95414

Thomas's copy at AAS., in contemporary binding, and with his bookplate, has a note in his hand on the last leaf, "50 pages in all." However, even counting the folded sheet of music as two leaves there are but 48.

The collation of the above is complicated by the fact that in all the copies examined there are inserted leaves dated 1787, which are arranged slightly differently in the various copies. In the following collation these will be mentioned after the part which was probably printed in 1785.

Collation: title, verso blank, dedication, verso blank, leaves numbered 3-29, unnumbered leaf including a form for a bill of exchange, 31, 32 (misnumbered 30), folded sheet of music, 34, 36, 36, 38-42; 6 inserted leaves dated 1787, the last two numbered "[41]" and "[42]." In most copies these are inserted in pairs between leaves 20 and 21, 22 and 23, and those numbered "[41]" and "[42]" between 41 and 42.

One of the copies at AAS., formerly the property of Dr. C. L. Nichols, is slightly imperfect, and is evidently of an earlier issue, as leaf 27 is numbered 42, and 31 is numbered 13. The former page lacks a dash at the end, found in copies in which it is numbered "27."

The following note is pasted on the verso of the blank leaf preceding the title page in the B. and NYP. copies: "As the following sheets are designed only to shew the various sizes of Printing Types, no attention has been paid to the correctness of the matter which they contain; and the judicious observer will readily perceive that it was entirely unnecessary."

Also: ... The Diary of Isaiah Thomas, 1805-1828 ... Edited with an Introduction and Notes, by Benjamin Thomas Hill. Worcester, Mass, The [American Antiquarian] Society. 1909. 2 vols., 8vo.

Isaiah Thomas was printing almanacs as early as 1772, and began the publication of the main series bearing his name with "Thomas's New-England Almanack; or, The Massachusetts Calendar" for 1775, of which two editions were printed. The best set of these almanacs and of those bearing the name of Isaiah Thomas, Jr., is at AAS. They should not be confused with R. B. Thomas's series of Farmer's Almanacs of which the first was published for the year 1793.

Parts 1 and 2 of the Worcester Collection of Sacred Harmony, compiled, edited, and printed by Isaiah Thomas, were first published in 1786, and part 3 in 1787. It was one of the earliest specimens of music printed from type in this country. The first to eighth editions are located at AAS., the latter printed in 1803. The sixth to eighth editions were edited by Oliver Holden.

See Thomas's History of Printing for his connection with various newspapers including his well-known "Massachusetts Spy," and with the "Worcester Magazine," the "Royal American Magazine," our nos. 73781-73782, vol. 18, and the "Massachusetts Magazine," no. 45870, vol. 11.

THOMAS (Isaiah), Jr., b. 1773, d. 1819. THOMAS. Zollikofer, on the Dignity of Man. Proposals of Isaiah Thomas, Jun. for publishing a new and very celebrated work intitled, Fiftytwo Sermons on the Dignity of Man, and the Value of the Objects principally relating to Human Happiness. From the German of the late Rev. George Joachim Zollikofer . . . By the Rev. William Tooke, F.R.S. In two large octavo volumes. [Worcester. 1803.] 8vo, pp. (16). AAS. 95416

Printer's notice on p. [9] dated: Worcester, January 1, 1803.

Thomas continued the series of almanacs begun by his father, the issues for the years from 1804 to 1820 bearing his name in the title. The best file is at AAS.

With heading: (No. 1.).

AAS., B., C., HEH. 95447

Improved title of no. 23844, vol. 6.

This series has been continued until the present. As the issues for various years were printed for sale by numbers of booksellers there are many variations in the imprints. AAS. has a practically complete file, containing at least one issue for each year, and for many years several issues. Beginning with the issue for 1848 the title changed to "The Old Farmer's Almanack."

See Kittredge's "Old Farmer and his Almanack . . . Suggested by reading the earlier numbers of Mr. Robert B. Thomas's Farmer's Almanack," 1920.

THOMAS (R[obert] S.). A Statement of the Trial of Isaac B. Desha. See Desha (J. B.), no. 19734, vol. 5. C., H.(LAW), M.

[THOMAS (Sidney A.)]. The Southern First Spelling Book. In Two Parts. Stereotype edition. Charleston: W. R. Babcock & M'Carter & co., 1856. 12mo, pp. 180. C. + [Same imprint and collation.] 1860. Y. 95448

Preface signed: S. A. T.

Information concerning the 1860 edition supplied by Anne S. Pratt.

The above title, of a later period than that now covered by this Dictionary, is included because of a cross reference from Southern Spelling Book.

[THOMAS (William)]. The Enemies of the Constitution discovered. See Defensor, pseud., no. 19264, vol. 5. AAS., B., C., CU., H., HEH., MINNHS., NYH., NYP., PRINCETON, UP., UTS., WHS.

THOMAS AND ANDREWS. Thomas and Andrew's Catalogue of Books, for Sale, Wholesale and Retail, at their Book and Stationary Store, Faust's Statue, No. 45, Newbury Street. Boston. Consisting of a very extensive Collection . . . in Divinity, Law, Physick, Surgery, Chemistry, History, Biography, Voyages, Travels, Miscellanies, Novels, Poetry, Musick, Arts and Sciences, Philosophy, Navigation, Astronomy, Geography, Architecture, Trade and Commerce, Mathematicks, Bookkeeping, &c. &c. . . . Printed at Boston, by Thomas and Andrews, Faust's Statue, No. 45, Newbury Street. MDCCXCIII. 12mo, pp. 60. AAS. 95449

The firm was composed of Isaiah Thomas and Ebenezer T. Andrews. See above nos. 95400-95403 for others of Thomas's catalogues, also below, nos. 95450-95452.

THOMAS AND GALATIAN, compilers. Indian and Pioneer History of the Saginaw Valley. See Saginaw, no. 74901, vol. 18.

Copies of an 1866 edition are located at BM., HEH., and NYP. Probably the date 1867 in our previous entry was an error.

Thomas and Margaret Minshall who came from England to Pennsylvania in 1682. See Minshall (T.) and (M.), no. 49327, vol. 12. AAS., B., C., NYP.

THOMAS, ANDREWS & PENNIMAN. American Publications. Catalogue of Books, for Sale, Wholesale or Retail, at the Bookstore of Thomas, Andrews & Penniman, Albany. [Albany. Printed by Barber and Southwick. 1796.] Folio broadside. NYH. 95450
Imprint and date supplied from Evans no. 31293.

THOMAS, ANDREWS & PENNIMAN. Catalogue of Books for Sale either by Wholesale or Retail, by Thomas, Andrews & Penniman, at the Albany Bookstore, No. 45, State-Street . . . Albany: Printed by Loring Andrews & Co. For Thomas, Andrews & Penniman. [1797?] 12mo, pp. 35. AAS., NYP. 95451

Loring Andrews & Co. were the printers of the "Albany Centinel" from 1797-1798, after which date the paper was printed by Andrews alone, although the bookstore still carried the names of the other partners, Thomas and Penniman. See Brigham's "Bibliography of American Newspapers," in Am. Antiq. Soc. "Proceedings," vol. 27, 1917, p. 182, and advertisements in the "Albany Centinel."

For others of Isaiah Thomas's catalogues, see above, nos. 95400-95403, 95449-95450, and below, 95452.

Six issues were printed in 1846. The note of the edition was apparently given on the cover titles of copies issued in printed paper covers. A cutting from the front cover of the "sixth edition" has been seen dated 1846. Other copies examined are in original cloth and are without edition note. That there were at least two printings with some changes in the plates has been shown by W. O. Waters from a comparison to two HEH. copies dated 1846 both in original binding. Evidently later issues were without the leaf of dedication following the title, as one of the HEH. copies dated 1846 is without it, and it is also omitted in the 1847 edition.

[THOMPSON (William Tappan)]. Major Jones's Chronicles of Pineville: embracing Sketches of Georgia Scenes, Incidents, and Characters. By the author of "Major Jones's Courtship," "Sketches of Travel," etc. With twelve illustrations, from original designs by Darley. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson and Brothers, 306 Chestnut Street. [Collins, Printer.] [cop. 1843.] 12mo, pp. 186. 12 plates. DERENNE. 95542

Title from the De Renne Catalogue, vol. 2, 1931.
2 plates included in the pagination.

First edition. Frequently reprinted, our no. 12963, vol. 4, and a title in note following no. 36529, vol. 9, being imperfect entries of editions of the work.

[THOMPSON]. Major Jones's Courtship: detailed, with other Scenes, Incidents, and Adventures, in a Series of Letters, by himself. Second Edition, greatly enlarged, with illustrations by Darley . . . Philadelphia, Carey & Hart. 1844. 12mo, pp. 200, including plates. C. 95543

The Cambridge Hist. of Amer. Lit. lists a Philadelphia, 1840, edition, and the work was frequently reprinted.

The above title, of a later period than that now covered by this dictionary, is included because of a cross reference from Jones (Major Joseph). Although the latter was the pseudonym used by Tappan, three of the author's works are erroneously entered in this dictionary among those of John B. Jones, see no. 36529, vol. 9.

The second part of each edition has a separate title page as follows: New Guide to Health . . . To which is added a Description of several cases of Disease attended by the Author, with the mode of treatment and cure . . .

The imprint date of the second part of the third edition is 1831.

Several editions of the second part were also published separately. See the Surgeon General's Catalogue. These were evidently intended to accompany corresponding editions of the Narrative. See note on that title. The twelfth and apparently the thirteenth editions were edited by the author's son, John, and printed by Munsell at Albany in 1841, under the title: The Thomsonian Materia Medica. AML., C., NYF. See also the Munsell Catalogue, 1872.

A German translation of the second part, "Neue Anweisung zur Gesundheit," was published at Lancaster, Ohio, in 1828. NVH.

The narrative in the 1835 edition was reprinted in the Lloyd Library "Bulletin," no. 11, reproduction series no. 7, 1909.

A number of periodicals were issued at various times in defense of the "Thomsonian" system. See the Union List of Serials.

Signed: J. H. Thornwell.

Attributed to James Henley Thornwell in English and Kennedy's "Author List of Caroliniana," 1923.

Reprinted, Charleston, 1885. B., C., NYP.

The above title, included because of a cross reference from South Carolina, is of a later period than that now covered by this Dictionary. Other late works by this author are not included.

THORNWELL. Our Danger and Our Duty. See South Carolina Tract Society, no. 88049, vol. 22.

c. has three other editions.

[THORNWELL]. Semi-Centennial Celebration of the South-Carolina College. See South Carolina, no. 87991, vol. 22.

Most of Thornwell's works were published after 1840, and are therefore omitted here.

THOROWGOOD (Tho[mas]). Digitus Dei: Nevv Discoveryes; with Sure Arguments to prove that the Jews (a Nation) or People lost in the world for the space of near 200 years, inhabite now in America; How they came thither; Their Manners, Customs, Rites and Ceremonies; The unparallel'd cruelty of the Spaniard to them; And that the Americans are of that Race. Manifested by Reason and Scripture, which foretell the Calling of the Iewes; and the Restitution of them into their own Land, and the bringing back of the Ten Tribes from all the ends and corners of the Earth, and that great Battell to be fought. With the Removall of some contrary Reasonings, and an earnest desire for effectual endeavors to make them Christians, whercunto is added An Epistolicall Discourse of Mr. John Dury, with the History of Ant: Monterinos, attested by Manasseh Ben Israel, a chief Rabby. By Tho: Thorowgood, B: D. . . . London, Printed for Thomas Slater, and are to be sold at his shop at the signe of the Angell in Duck-Lane. 1652. 4to, pp. (40), 136, (3). a-e, B-S in fours, T in two. BA., JCB. 95650

A reissue, with a new title, of the sheets of Iewes in America, 1650, below. The BA. copy is without both the preliminary leaves [*] and [**] found in some copies of the 1650 edition, and which contain the approbation and contents. The JCB. copy has the table of contents, "Jewes in America," making the collation of the preliminary leaves pp. (42).

THOROWGOOD. Iewes in America, or, Probabilities that the Americans are of that Race. With the removall of some contrary reasonings, and earnest desires for effectuall endeavours to make them Christian. Proposed by Tho: Thorovvgood, B.D. one of the Assembly of Divines. . . . London, Printed by W. H. for Tho. Slater, and are be [sic] to sold at his shop at the signe of the Angel in Duck lane, 1650. 4to, pp. (44), 136, (3). [*] in one, a-e in fours, [**] in one, B-S in fours, T in two.

AAS., B., BM., C., H., HEH., JCB., NYP., P., UTS., WLC. 95651

Some copies lack the approbation leaf, which precedes the title, and the contents leaf, which is the last of the preliminary unnumbered leaves. In some copies these two leaves are bound at the end of the volume.

For a reissue, see Digitus Dei, above.

For a reply, see L'Estrange (H.), no. 40231, vol. 10. Thorowgood continued the controversy with the following:

THOROWGOOD. Jews in America, or Probabilities, that those Indians are Judaical, made more probable by some Additionals to the former Conjectures. An Accurate Discourse ispremised [sic] of Mr. John Elliot, (who first preached the Gospel to the Natives in their own Language) touching their Origination, and his Vindication of the Planters. . . . Tho. Thorowgood S. T. B. Norfolciensis. London, Printed for Henry Brome at the Gun in Iwie-lane. 1660. 4to, pp. (10), 30, (8), 28, 67. *, A-E, A-C in fours, D in two, A-H in fours, I in two.

BM., C., H., HEH., JCB., NYP., UTS. (MCALPIN), WLC. 95652

In the JCB. copy the title leaf is not apparently the first leaf of sig. A, but a cancel on different paper. In this copy Eliot's discourse is bound at the end.

Concerning the dedication, see the new JCB. catalogue.

Eliot's discourse forms pp. 1-28 following pp. (8), and pp. 25-28 of it are misnumbered as follows: 19, 18, 23, 22.

For an enlarged edition, see the following title.

T[HOROWGOOD]. Vindiciæ Judæcoram, or A true Account of the Jews. Being more Accurately Illustrated than heretofore. By T. T. B. D. . . . London, Printed for Henry Brome at the Gun in Jvic Lane, 1660. 4to, pp. (10), 30, (8), 32, 67. 95653

[THORPE (Thomas Bangs)]. The Big Bear of Arkansas, and other sketches, illustrative of characters and incidents in the South and Southwest. Edited by William T. Porter. With illustrations by Darley. . . . Philadelphia: Carey & Hart. 1845. 12mo, added engraved title and pp. 181. Plates. c. 95662

Frequently reprinted.

The above title, of a later period than that now covered by this Dictionary, is included because of a cross reference from Porter.

[THORPE], incorrectly supposed author. Life on the Lakes. See nos. 38923, vol. 10, and 57814, vol. 14, also wrongly entered under Lanman (C.), and Ossoli (S. M. F. de), respectively. AAS., BA., H., NYP.

The work is erroneously credited to Thorpe by Foley, and his attribution followed by Halkett & Laing. The author is correctly given as Chandler R. Gilman in S. J. Buck's "Travel and Description, 1765-1865," 1914, no. 287, on the authority of H. R. Schoolcraft's "Personal Memoirs," 1851, p. 523.

Foley also incorrectly ascribes to Thorpe the authorship of Gliman's anonymous "Legends of a Log Cabin."

[THORPE]? The Master's House. See Logan, pseud., no. 41819, vol. 10. B., C., NYP., PRINCETON.

THORPE. The Mysteries of the Backwoods; or, Sketches of the Southwest: including Character, Scenery, and Rural Sports . . . Illustrations by F. O. C. Darley. Philadelphia, Carey and Hart. 1846. 12mo, pp. 190. Plates. c., NYP. 95663

THORPE. Our Army at Monterey. Being a Correct Account of the Proceedings and Events which occurred to the "Army of Occupation" under the command of Major General Taylor, from the time of leaving Matamoros to the Surrender of Monterey. With a Description of the Three Days' Battle and the Storming of Monterey: the Ceremonies attending the Surrender: together with the Particulars of the Capitulation. Illustrated by a View of the City, and Map drawn by Lieut. Benjamin, U. S. A. By T. B. Thorpe . . . Philadelphia, Carey and Hart. 1847. 8vo, added engraved title and pp. 204. 2 plates and folded map. BM., C., HEH., HSP., MINNHS., NYP., PEAB., PRINCETON, UCAL. (BANCROFT), UTEX., WHS. 95664

Some copies have the engraved title dated 1847, c., and others, 1848, c., NYP.

THORPE. Our Army on the Rio Grande. Being a Short Account of the Important Events transpiring from the time of the removal of the "Army of Occupation" from Corpus Christi, to the Surrender of Matamoros; with Descriptions of the Battles of Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma, the Bombardment of Fort Brown, and the Ceremonies of the Surrender of Matamoros: with Descriptions of the City, etc. . . . By T. B. Thorpe . . . Philadelphia, Carey and Hart. 1846. 12mo, added title, and pp. 300. Plates and plans.

BM., C., HEH., P., UCAL. (BANCROFT), UP., UTEX., WHS. 95665

Some copies were issued without the official reports, pp. 197-300. c. and WHS. have copies of both issues.

[THORPE], incorrectly supposed author. The Slaveholder Abroad. See Slavery, no. 82069, vol. 20.

For attribution to the author, Ebenezer Starnes, see note on cross reference from that author.

Thorpe was the author of the "Taylor Anecdote Book," no. 58025, vol. 14, which he published under the pseudonym of Tom Owen. AAS., C., NYP.

The works of this author were almost all printed after the period now covered by this Dictionary. The above list covers only a few of the earliest editions.

THOSE WHO KNEW, pseud. Olden Time in New-York. See [De Forest (T. R.)], no. 19293, vol. 5. c., NYP.

Thou shalt do no Murder. On Thursday, December 16, Sentence of Death was passed in a most solemn and impressive manner, by the Hon. Judge Sewall, upon Livermore and Angier, after a Conviction of the Murder of Nicholas John Cruay, an Indian, on the night of the 23d. November. [Boston. 1813.] Folio broadside.

AAS. 95666

The AAS. copy is one of a collection bought by Isaiah Thomas from "a Ballad Printer" [Nathaniel Coverly] in Boston in 1813. The trial took place in that year, see no. 41558, vol. 10.

Thoughts about the City of St. Louis. See [Hogan (John)], no. 32420, vol. 8. AAS., C., CU., HSP., MINNHS., NYP., UTS.

Although the title page is dated 1854, there are letters at the end dated in 1855. Some copies have the cover title dated 1854, NYP., and others, 1855, NYP.

Thoughts about Water. See Boston, note following no. 6785, vol. 2. AML., C., NYP.

Hildeburn and the catalogue of the Philadelphia Library Company list a Philadelphia, 1771, edition. This, however, is an error. See Adams's account of the pamphlet in his Autobiography, "Works," vol. 2, 1850, pp. 507-508, in which he states that it was written in opposition to Paine's suggestions on the subject in his
"Common Sense," 1776.

Thoughts on Inland Navigation, &c. By a Friend to National Industry. 1805. 8vo. 95678

Title from the catalogue of the Albany Institute Library, 1855, p. 53. Possibly an error for our no. 5959, vol. 2, also by a "Friend to National Industry," [William Blodget].

According to Dict. Nat. Biog., the first tract was written by Charles Lloyd, secretary of George Grenville, but much of it was dictated by Grenville himself. Winsor notes that Charles Jenkinson, Earl of Liverpool, has also been mentioned as the author, and the work has been ascribed to Lord Temple by the editor of the Grenville Papers, W. J. Smith.

The second tract is attributed to Grenville in the BM. Catalogue.

All of the tracts were also published separately. For editions of the first and third tracts, see nos. 15202-15203, vol. 4, and 25704, vol. 7.

Three Tracts respecting the Conversion and Instruction of the Free Indians, and Negro Slaves in the Colonies. Addressed to the venerable Society for Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. [London. 1768?] 8vo, pp. (2), 5-41.

BM., BODLEIAN, NYH., NYP. 95751

The three tracts have separate title pages, and are also found separately. See Penn (W.), no. 59682, vol. 14; Barclay (Robert), no. 3363, vol. 1; and for other editions of Pike's Epistle, no. 62825, vol. 15. The title of the 1770 and 1783 editions of Pike is as follows:

An Epistle to the National Meeting of Friends, in Dublin, concerning good Order and Discipline in the Church. Written by Joseph Pike. [Imprints as on the general title pages.]

Some copies of the 1770 edition of the Three Treatises have at the end two leaves containing a list of books sold by Benjamin Ferris, in Wilmington.

The NYP. copy of the 1783 edition lacks the title page.

Information concerning the 1770 and 1783 editions supplied from Hildeburn, and by Elsa R. Nordin, respectively.

For earlier British editions of Barclay's and Pike's tracts see the BM. Catalogue, and J. Smith's "Descriptive Catalogue of Friends' Books," 1867.

THURSDAY EVENING CLUB, BOSTON. Proceedings . . . on the occasion of the death of Hon. Edward Everett. See no. 23275, vol. 6. AAS., BA., C., NYP.

Thursday last (25th May) Capt. Chads arrived here from England in the Cerberus Frigate, and has brought papers to the 18th of April, from which the following articles of Intelligence are extracted. . . . Printed by Mills and Hicks, in School-street. [Boston. 1775.] Folio broadside. M. 95770 Internal evidence dates the broadside in 1775. Evans does not give the inprint of Mills and Hicks after that year.

Thursday, September 20, 1770. At this juncture, when measures are pursuing to dissolve the union of the Colonies, every subscriber to our non-importation agreement, who wishes well to the liberties of his country and the reputation of this city, it is hoped will attend the meeting at Davenport's Tavern, this afternoon, at three o'clock, to deliberate and determine what is best to be done. [Philadelphia: 1770.] 4to broadside. C. 95771

The prize essay, "The Error and the Duty in Regard to Slavery," is by Thurston.

The above title, of a later period than that now covered by this Dictionary, is included because of an incorrect cross reference from title to Thurston (E. B.). Other works by this author are not included.

THURSTON (Stephen). Letters of Lillian Ching, a native of the island of Loo Choo, to his brethren upon that island, while a resident in the United States; in which is shown, the inconsistency [sic] of all wars and fightings, with the principles and spirit of the Christian Religion. To which is added the Apology of Stephen Thurston, a minister of the Congregational Society, in Prospect, Maine, to Joseph Ames, an officer of the militia, who had been instrumental in procuring for him, the commission of Chaplain; showing that the duties of a christian minister, are entirely incompatible with all war-like principles and practices. It seems probable that there was no edition earlier than the "fifth."

NYP. has also a variant issue of the fifth edition from different type. The border on the title page differs; there is an acute accent in "Cinquième" instead of grave; a comma instead of a colon after "A la Haye"; the second line of the imprint ends with "Plati" instead of "Borze by de"; and the date is marked off by periods instead of tinnas.

Copies of one or other issue of the fifth edition located at BA., BM., HEH., JCB., WLC. Relates to the American revolution, and the Franco-American alliance.

For an English translation, see The Green Box, below. Another English translation was published, with the same title, by C. F. Heartman in New York, 1916. c., NYP., PRINCETON, WLC. This Heartman edition contains a facsimile of the title page of the variant issue of the fifth edition of La cassette verte, described above.

The "Advertisement," pp. iii-v, is signed, "The Proprietor," and reads in part: "Traversing the city on the evening of the 21st inst. . . . I observed and picked up the work which is now in possession of the world, enclosed in a despicable covering. The first part appeared to be most correct, and in a condition ready for the press; the remainder seemed more hurried and unconnected. However, the nature of the work coinciding exactly with my own inclination, a little attention was not withheld in order to render it more worthy the public eye. I have retained the author's address to the Editor . . ."

Signed on p. vi, which contains the address to the editor, and on p. 23: "A Philadelphian."

WATKINSON 95819

Information as to the second edition from Evans.

Ruth A. Kerr, in describing the Watkinson Library copy of the third edition, states that the lower part of its title is imperfect, and that it may have included a date. This has been supplied from an advertisement of the issue, as "just published," in the "Connecticut Courant" during January, 1764.

Reprinted in "Historical Magazine," vol. 3, 1859, pp. 328-330; 359-362; vol. 4, 1860, pp. 7-9.

Extracts are reprinted in Duyckinck, vol. 1, 1855, pp. 429-430.

For an unpublished poem by the author, and his Christian name, see "Historical Magazine," vol. 4, pp. 72-73.

TILESTON (Thomas). Funeral Elegy Dedicated to the Memory of His Worthy Friend The Learned & Religious Mr John Foster who Deceased in Dorchester the 9 of Sep<sup>r</sup> 1681. [Cambridge? Printed by Samuel Green? 1681.] Broadside? 95820

Title from S. A. Green's "John Foster," 1909, p. 38.

This poem, together with another on the same subject by Joseph Capen, was apparently advertised in Brattle's "Ephemeris" for 1682. This bears on the title the imprint of Samuel Green, Cambridge, 1682. However, the Samuel Sewall copy of the almanac at m. has the following note: "The last half Sheet was Printed with my Letters, at Boston. S. S." The Advertisement on the last leaf states: "There are suitable Verses Dedicated to the Memory of the Ingenious Mathematician and Printer Mr. John Foster. Price 2d. a single Paper, both together 3 d. The Psalter also . . . will shortly be finished: both to be sold by John Usher of Boston." On Dec. 26, 1681, Samuel Sewall was surety on the town's book for Samuel Green, printer (Diary, vol. 1, 1878, p. 57), and it seems likely that the Tileston poem was either printed by Samuel Green in Cambridge, or by the same for Samuel Sewall in Boston. The latter had undertaken the management of Foster's press in Boston in October of the same year. See Diary as above.

The two poems are both printed in T. C. Simonds' "History of South Boston," 1857, pp. 34-39, and in S. A. Green's "John Foster," pp. 34-42. Simonds does not make it clear that they are taken from manuscript, but Green says that he borrowed from Thompson Baxter of South Boston, a collateral relative of Foster, the "same manuscript copies of the Elegies, which were without doubt contemporary with the original printed ones." At the end of Capen's poem is appended in both cases the following note in the hand of the copyist: "Mr Foster I am very Happy to have it in my Power to Send you this Copy I have long intended it but want of leisure is the Cause, that this may meet you & Children in Health is the Wish of A. Shores". There are slight variations in the two printings. Green suggests that the copies were made from the printed sheets, because certain words were written in large capitals.

Anonymous and pseudonymous titles beginning with the word "To" and addressed to the inhabitants of a given American locality are frequently entered in this Dictionary under the name of the locality, or under the pseudonym with which they may be signed. Though the usage has been inconsistent, no attempt has been made to list such titles here, even though omitted under the locality or pseudonym, nor have we made

A note preceding the letter, addressed "Fellow Citizens," and signed "A Republican," says in part: "The style and principles of the writer strongly mark it as the production of the independent and patriotic John Quincy Adams." However, W. C. Ford, who, in the "Writings of John Quincy Adams," vol. 3, 1914, p. 224, says that the above was reprinted from the "Independent Chronicle" for March 17, 1808, thinks "there is . . . no evidence that Adams had any share in the 'Marcellus' contributions, of which this particular article was No. 25."

The work includes unpublished plays by Tobin. "The Indians, a play, in five acts," pp. 229-298, based on the adventures of "Gen. Bowles (the accredited ambassador from the Creeks and Cherokees to his Britannic Majesty), who had spent the winter of 1791 in London."

TOBLER (John).

Almanacs by Tobler, with varying titles, were printed in the latter half of the eighteenth century. A series calculated for the Carolinas and Georgia began with the "South Carolina Almanack" for 1752, which according to M. L. Webber, was advertised in the "South Carolina Gazette" of Dec. 6, 1751, and continued through that for 1792. The earliest issue of Tobler's Pennsylvania series of which we have located a copy is the "Pennsylvania Town and Country-Man's Almanack" for 1755, at AAS. and HSP., and the latest, the issue for 1777 at C. and NYH.

In the almanac for 1755 Sower, the printer, speaks of the favourable reception "my last Year's Almanack met with." It seems probable that he refers to an English almanac, possibly by Tobler, rather than to his "Hoch-Deutsch Americanische Kalender" which had been running for some years.

See H. A. Morrison's "Preliminary Check List of American Almanacs," 1907, M. L. Webber's "South Carolina Almanacs" to 1800, in S. C. Hist. and Gen. Mag., vol. 15, 1914, pp. 73-81, also Evans, and Hildeburn's "Issues of the Press in Pennsylvania." The combination of the collections of the South Carolina Historical Society and of the Charleston Library Society, housed in one building, gives the best file of the southern issues by Tobler. See also the general collections at AAS. and C., and the Pennsylvania almanacs at MSP.

AAS., B., H., IND.U., M., MINNHS., NYP., P., PRINCETON. 96065

The two parts were issued together, New York, 1841, as the "Fourth Edition, revised and corrected from the Eighth Paris Edition." AAS., BU., H., HSP., NYP., PRINCETON.

We have located 16 later American editions of the complete work, with the same title, the last having been published in New York in 1912, a copy at CU.

In 1862 the work was published in Cambridge, Mass., with "the translation revised . . . and the additions made to the recent Paris editions now first translated, by Francis Bowen." AAS., BA., C., CU., NYBA., NYP. This was reprinted in New York in 1898, with an introduction by Daniel C. Gilman.

At least six additional editions were published in New York, 1849-[189-?], with the title: The Republic of the United States of America, and its Political Institutions, reviewed and examined.

Hart's letter was not published until later, with title: "A Few Remarks," no. 30647, vol. 8. Trumbull, in his "List of Books printed in Connecticut," 1904, p. 189, quotes from the "Connecticut Gazette" for May 12, 1759: "It being found necessary to publish this [Mr. Todd's] Narrative before Mr. Hart's Letter and the Appendix can be completed, this may inform the Public that they are now in the Press, and will be published as soon as possible."

Edward Eells published "Some Serious Remarks in reply to Rev. Mr. Jonathan Todd's Faithful Narrative," New Haven, 1759. BU., CHS., H., UTS., Y. Todd followed with "Reply to the Reverend Mr. Eells's Serious Remarks," below.

The Token.

No attempt has been made to include the many gift books with this title published for about thirty years beginning with 1828, most of which were edited by S. G. Goodrich. For a list of these, see Faxon's "Literary Annuals and Gift-Books," 1912. The set at AAS. not described by Faxon is probably one of the best and includes a few additional items. It should be noted that many of Hawthorne's tales were first published anonymously in these annuals.

A Token for Children. See Janeway (J.), no. 35754, vol. 9.

First published, London, 1671; second part, London, 1672. Reprinted frequently in England; and often in America during the eighteenth century together with Cotton Mather's "Token for the Children of New-England." First American edition, Boston, 1700. AAS. See Evans for other editions.

A Token for Mariners, containing Many Famous and Wonderful Instances of God's Providence in Sea Dangers and Deliverances, in Mercifully preserving the Lives of his Poor Creatures, when, in Humane Probability, at the Point of Perishing by Shipwreck, Famine, or other Accidents. Much Enlarg'd, with the Addition of many New Relations; Mostly Attested by the Persons themselves. Also The Seaman's Preacher, being a Sermon on the Right Improvement of such Mercies. And Prayers for Seamen on all Occasions. London; Printed for H. N. and Sold by the Booksellers, 1708. 12mo, pp. (6), 147, (13). Plate. AAS., BM., c. 96107

There are several titles in Medina's Bib. hisp. amer., vol. 2, relating to Toledo's victory.

TOLEDO [Y DUBOIS] (José Alvarez de). Contestacion á la carta del indio patriota, con algunas reflexiones sobre el dialogo = entre el entusiasta liberal y el filosofo rancio = y sobre las notas anonymas con que ha salido reimpresso el manifiesto de D.<sup>n</sup> José Alvarez de Toledo. Filadelfia, en la imprenta de A. J. Blocquerst, en la esquina de Spruce, y de la Quinta Calle, 1812. 8vo, pp. (2), iv, blank leaf, 25, (2), 6.

T. W. STREETER. 96117

Improved title of nos. 977, vol. 1, and 16159, vol. 4, supplied by T. W. Streeter.

The caption title which follows the blank leaf reads, "Toledo al indio patriote," and is dated, Philadelphia 28 de Febero [sic] de 1812.

The following "carta" had been published relating to critics of Toledo: Dedicada a los nuevos refutadores del manifiesto de D.<sup>n</sup> José Alvarez de Toledo, aparecidos en las margenes del Delewarre. Por un indio patriota. [Washington. 1812.] 12mo, pp. 28. T. W. STREETER.

For the other works to which the Contestacion relates, see below, note on the Manifiesto, and Objeciones.

An improved entry of this author's works is made here because until 1811 he used only the name "Toledo," instead of "Alvarez de Toledo." See Trelles' "Un Precursor de la independencia de Cuba: Don José Alvarez de Toledo," 1926, p. 17.

[TOLEDO Y DUBOIS]. Manifiesto ó satisfaccion pundonorosa. See Alvarez (José), no. 978, vol. 1. B., C., H., T. W. STREETER.

The collation should be corrected to read: 8vo, pp. (2), 83, verso blank, errata (1).

Dated at the end: Philadelphia 2 de Octubre de 1811.

Reprinted with a facsimile of the title and other pages in Trelles' work cited above, pp. 14-15, 20-21, 50-87. The following "Objeciones" in criticism of the Manifiesto include a reprint of the same.

For another reply, see: Diálogo sobre la independencia de América española entre un Entusiasta Liberal y un Filósofo Rancio. Philadelphia: Imp. de T. J. Palmer, 1812. 8vo, pp. 181. Title from Trelles' work cited above, p. 133. Toledo answered in the Contestacion, no. 96117.

A reprint of the preceding Manifiesto with the "Objeciones" in footnotes.—C. For Toledo's answer to the notes, see Contestacion, above.

T. W. Streeter, to whom we are indebted for information as to the preceding titles, states that in the pamphlet volume which includes his copy of the Contestacion is bound another following it which might have been written by Toledo. The title is as follows: El Amigo de los hombres: a todos que habitan las islas, y el vasto Continente de la America Española. Obrita curiosa, interesante, y agradable, seguida de un discurso sobre la intolerancia religiosa. Philadelphia, en la imprenta de Andres José Blocquerst, en la esquina de Spruce y la Quinta calle, N.º 123. 1812. 12mo, pp. 25, (1).

TOMKINS (John). Piety promoted, in a Collection of Dying Sayings of many of the People called Quakers. With a Brief Account of some of their Labours in the Gospel, and Sufferings for the same. By John Tomkins. London: Printed and sold by T. Sowle, in White-Hart-Court, in Gracious-street. 1701. 12mo, 10½ sheets. 96142

Title from Joseph Smith's "Descriptive Catalogue of Friends' Books," 1867.

Followed by a second part in 1702, BM., and a third part in 1706. The three parts went through several editions. JCB. has a copy of the fourth edition, 1759, of the first part, and third edition, 1765, of the second part. NYP. has imperfect copies of the three parts, all of which lack title pages. They are probably early editions because between parts 1 and 2 are four leaves containing a list of "Books Printed and Sold by T. Sowle, in White-Hart-Court in Gracious-Street, 1702."

Many of the accounts relate to Quakers who came to America.

The work was continued by others after Tomkins' death in 1706. See the BM. catalogue.

For a list of the editions, several of which are in BM., see Smith's Catalogue cited above.

A translation of Dernieres Decouvertes, below.

Montauban's Adventures form the final 44 pp., with a separate title page as follows: A Relation of a Voyage made by the Sieur de Montauban, Captain of the French Privateers, on the Coasts of Guinea, in the Year 1695. With a Description of the Kingdom of Cape de Lopez; and an Account of the Manners, Customs and Religion of the Natives of that Country. London: Printed in the Year 1698.

Reprinted in N. Y. Hist. Soc. "Collections," vol. 2, 1814, pp. 217-341.

TONTI, supposed author. Dernieres Decouvertes dans l'Amerique septentrionale de M. De La Sale; Mises au jour par M. le Chevalier Tonti, Gouverneur du Fort Saint Louis, aux Illinois. A Paris au Palais, Chez Jean Guignard, à l'entrée de la Grand<sup>e</sup> Salle, à l'Image saint Jean. M. DC. LXXXVII. Avec Privilege du Roy. 8vo, pp. (4), 333, (21). [*] in two, A-Z, Aa-Ff in eights and fours alternate, Gg in one. BA., BM., C., H., JCB., NYP., WLC. 96172

In some copies pp. 185-188 are cancelled and replaced by one leaf, printed in smaller type, and numbered in the upper corners of the recto 185-186, and on the verso 187-188. The portion omitted related to pearls. The nyp. copy has the original pp. 185-188 and a photostat copy of the substitute leaf at the end.

Tonti disclaimed the authorship of this publication, but it was probably based in part on some of his papers. Charlevoix in his "Histoire . . . de la Nouvelle France," vol. 2, 1744, p. 260, states that Tonti "protesta qu'elle n'étoit point de lui, mais d'un Aventurier Parisien, qui l'avoit composée sur de mauvais Mémoires, & la lui avoit attribuée, pour lui donner cours, & gagner de l'argent." See also Margry's "Relations et Mémoires inédits," 1867, pp. 1-5, and Winsor, vol. 4, p. 240.

A reprint with the title, "Relation de la Louisiane," is included in vol. 5 of Bernard's "Recueil de Voyages au Nord." See nos. 4936, vol. 2, and 69299, vol. 16.

For an English translation, see Account, above.

Tonti's own memoir was translated by Thomas Falconer from a copy of the original ms., which is preserved in the Archives of the Marine in Paris, and published in his "On the Discovery of the Mississippi," 1844, pp. 47-99 of the appendix, as "Memoir sent in 1693, on the Discovery of the Mississippi and the Neighbouring Nations by M. de la Salle, from the year 1678 to the time of his death, and by the Sieur de Tonty to the year 1691." It is reprinted in French's "Historical Collections of Louisiana," vol. 1, 1846, pp. 52-83, and in Ill. State Hist. Lib. "Collections," vol. 1, 1903, pp. 128-164. Margry published the French text in his "Relations et mémoires inédits," 1867, pp. 5-36.

An earlier memoir by Tonti, dated at the end "De Québec, le 14 Novembre 1684," was published by Margry in his "Découvertes et établissements des Français," vol. 1, [1876], pp. 571-614. It was translated into English by M. B. Anderson and published by the Caxton Club, Chicago, 1898, under the title "Relation of Henri de Tonty concerning the Explorations of La Salle from 1678 to 1683," with the French and English versions on opposite pages.

[TOOKE]. The Trial (at large) of John Horne, esq. upon an information filed ex officio. by His Majesty's Attorney General, for a libel. Before the Right Hon. William earl of Mansfield, in the Court of King's Bench, Guildhall, on . . . the fourth of July 1777. Published by the defendant, from Mr. Gurney's short-hand notes. . . London: Sold by G. Kearsly, N<sup>o</sup> 46, Fleet Street. M DCC-LXXVII. Folio, pp. (4), 69, advertisement (2). BM., WLC. 96175

Title supplied by Elizabeth B. Steere.

Horne did not add the name of Tooke to his own until 1782.

In June, 1775, a Society for Constitutional Information, of which he was a leading member, passed a resolution which was published in the newspapers, and which "directed that a subscription should be raised on behalf of 'our beloved American fellow subjects' who had 'preferred death to slavery' . . . at the Lexington skirmish . . . Horne was to pay the money to Franklin."—Dict. Nat. Biog. The trial relates to this episode. In 1778, after his conviction and imprisonment, Horne brought a writ of error. The Case of the Crown, and the Case of the Plaintiff, in this suit, were printed, each, folio, pp. 3. c. See also, "Memorial to John Horne Tooke unveiled by the New England Society of Brooklyn," 1920, p. 19.

Also: Further Proceedings on the trial of John Horne Esq. upon an information filed by his Majesty's Attorney General for a libel, the 19th and 24th of November. Published by the Defendant from Mr. Gurney's short-hand notes. London. 1777. Folio. 2M.

Title supplied by Elizabeth B. Steere.

An effort was made to identify Tooke with Junius. See J. A. Graham's "Memoirs of John Horne Tooke," New York, 1828, and "Posthumous Works of Junius," New York, 1829. Leslie Stephen in Dict. Nat. Biog. calls it an "absurd attempt."

Title from English and Kennedy's "Author List of Caroliniana in the University of South Carolina Library," 1923, p. 289. R. M. Kennedy states that the name of "John Horne Tooke" appears on the half title and at the end of the publication, but that he is inclined to think the name an assumed one. "The author speaks of himself as born and reared in Barnwell District."

TOOKE (Samuel Carpenter). Island of Prince Edward, formerly called Saint John's, in the Gulf of Saint Lawrence, North America. To be sold, one of the most fertile and well cultivated estates in that beautiful island, consisting of 40,000 Acres of Land, less or more, which there is little doubt of: with an elegant Mansion-house, Coach-house, Barns, Stables, Outhouses, and other convenient Buildings standing thereon; for £20,000 all together, or Five Thousand Pounds for a Fourth Share thereof. For farther particulars inquire of Samuel Carpenter Tooke, Whitehall, London, where and where only a plan of the estate is to be seen. [London. 1804.] 8vo, pp. (2), 5-33. NYH. 96178

BM., C., JCB., NYP. 96253

The title of the Venice edition of 1604 begins "Breve relatione" instead of "Relatione breve."

"La Lettura annua dell'Isole Filippine" is signed by Francesco Vaez.

Fumagalli lista a Venice edition of 1603 in his "Bibliografia degli scritti italiani o stampati in Italia sopra Cristoforo Colombo," 1893, no. 1222, but does not note that of the following year.

Although it seems probable that Torres wrote his narrative originally in Spanish or Latin, no copies of an edition earlier than the Italian versions of 1603 have been located, while the titles of the Latin and German versions entered below expressly state that the account was first printed in Italian. This throws doubt on the Latin edition printed by Zannetti at Rome in 1603 listed by Antonio in his "Bibliotheca hispana nova," vol. 1, 1783 [i.e. 1788], p. 319. Medina also gives first a Latin edition printed at Rome in 1603, with Ternaux and Carayon as authorities, while Sommervogel's edition of Backer on the other hand questions the existence of such an edition. Medina also mentions an early Spanish edition on the same authority, while Sommervogel's Backer lists no Spanish version earlier than 1604.

TORRES RUBIO (Diego de). Arte de la lengua Aymara. Compesto por el padre Diego de Torres Rubio de la Compañia de Iesus. Con licencia del Señor Principe de Esquilache Virrey destos Reynos. En Lima, por Francisco del Canto. Año de 1616. Small 8vo, pp. (4), 97 numbered leaves, 1 unnumbered leaf. A-M in eights, N in four. BM., HISP.SOC.AMER., JCB. 96267

See Viñaza's "Bibliografía española de lenguas indígenas de América," 1892, no. 144, for another issue of the same year without continuous pagination for the various parts.

According to Medina's "Imprenta en Lima," vol. 1, no. 69, a copy of the issue we describe, in the Biblioteca Nacional in Lima, was issued with "Catecismo en la Lengua Española, y Aymara del Pirv," Seville, 1604. He thought that as the signatures were "correlatives" the Catecismo was probably a Lima reprint of a work originally printed in Seville.

TORRES RUBIO. Arte | de | la Lengva | Qvichva. | Compvesto por el | Padre Diego de Torres | Rubio de la Compañia | de Iesvs. | Con Licencia del Señor | Principe de Esquilache Virrey | destes Reynos. | . . . | En Lima, | Por Francisco Lasso. | Año. 1619. | Small 8vo, 4 unnumbered, 44 numbered, 16 (of which only 2, 4, 6, and 8 are numbered), 24 unnumbered, 15 numbered, and 1 unnumbered, leaves. ¶, A-E in eights, F in four, A-B in eights, A-F, a-d in fours. The catchword at the foot of the "Tabla" on leaf 44 is "Voca", indicating that the "Vocabulario breue" was intended to follow it.

Information supplied by Catherine C. Quinn.

For the sake of convenience, we shall refer to this issue as A and the following as issue B.

A facsimile of the title is included in Medina's "Bibliografía de las lenguas Quechua y Aymará," in Museum of the American Indian, Heye Foundation, "Contributions," vol. 7, no. 7, 1930, no. 26.

TORRES RUBIO. [*], A-Z, Aa-Bb in fours. c. 96269

Collation: 4 preliminary leaves with same contents as issue A; Arte . . . —leaves 1-41; De los Nombres . . . —leaves 42-44, recto; Tabla—leaf 44, verso; Vocabulario breue en la lengva qvichva, de los vocablos mas ordinarios—leaves [1]-[24], verso blank; Breue Bocabulario que comiença por los uocablos Quichua al trocado del pasado—leaves [1]-[15]; Confessionario [sic] breue—leaves [1]-[12], recto; Orden de celebrar el Matrimonio . . . —leaves [12], verso—[13]; Para administrar el viatico—leaves [14]-[16], recto; Acto de contricion—leaf [16], verso; Fiestas de precepto para los Indios—leaf [17].

To distinguish this edition from the preceding entry we shall call that issue A and this issue B.

A facsimile of the title is included in Medina's "Imprenta en Lima," no. 85.

The first copy described in Medina's "Imprenta en Lima," no. 85, agrees with issue A, except that leaf 8 of the "Confessionario" is unnumbered.

The last copy described in Medina's "Imprenta en Lima," no. 85, is like issue B, except that the "Confessionario" apparently has only 11 leaves.

For three additional descriptions, each with varying collation, see Medina's "Imprenta en Lima," no. 85, Viñaza's "Bibliografía española de lenguas indígenas de América," 1892, no. 152, and LeClerc's "Bibliotheca Americana," 1867, no. 1478.

An issue of 1619 is located at BM.

Joseph Torruba . . . Novena Parte. Roma MDCCLVI. En la Oficina de Generoso Salomoni Con todas las licencias necesarias. Folio, pp. (40), 496, (2), xxiv, index xxv-xliv. NYP. 96308*

According to Palau y Dulcet's "Manual del librero hispano-americano," vol. 2, p. 297, the first four parts of the "Chronica" were published by Damian Cornejo, Madrid, 1682-1689, and the fifth to eighth parts by E. Gonzalez de Torres and Torruba, Madrid, 1719-1737. Palau also states that the eighth part was reprinted in Rome, in 1756.

The appendix, pp. (2), xxiv, has a separate title page, as follows: Catalogo de los Arzobispos, y Obispos que ha tenido la Seraphica Religion en las Indias Occidentales, y en las Yslas de los dominios de España desde su descubrimiento hasta el año presente de mil, setecientos, cinquenta, y cinco. . . Por el M. R. Padre Fr. Joseph Torruba . . . Roma año de 1756.

The title page of the appendix is lacking in the NYP copy. Medina had a copy of the appendix only in his library, and there is also a copy in BM.

For extensive notes, see Medina's "Biblioteca Hispano-Americana," nos. 3804-3805. He locates another copy of the complete ninth part at the Convento de San Francisco de Concepción de Chile.

A Tory Medley. [Philadelphia. 1780.] Folio broadside.

P. 96314

Though this broadside has been assigned to the year 1777, Hastings, in his "Life and Works of Francis Hopkinson," the author, 1926, p. 305, notes that Hopkinson's ms. of the poem, now in MS. A., has the title: "A Tory Medley Written in the Year 1780." The P. copy of the broadside has ms. notes identifying the "Broker," the "Printer," and the "Quaker," with William Smith, James Rivington, and Samuel R. Fisher, respectively.

Evans suggests John Dunlap as printer.

A satire on a fight which took place in the House of Representatives between Matthew Lyon of Vermont and Roger Griswold of Connecticut, on February 15, 1798. For an account of the affair, see the "Historical Magazine," vol. 8, 1864, pp. 9-12.

The New York edition was reprinted in the "Magazine of History . . . Extra Number—No. 104," 1924, pp. 5-21.

Some copies of the poem have inserted as a folded plate a caricature illustrating the affair, but it was probably not issued with it. At least two contemporary caricatures of this encounter were published, both in AAS.

The second part was also issued separately. See above, Description of Kentucky. However, the signatures are continuous. "This is a compilation from various sources, with added matter by the author."—Church, no. 1258.

Reprinted with a facsimile of the title page of the "Description" and notes on the author, to whom it is generally attributed, and his other publications, in Jillson's "Transylvanian Trilogy," 1932.

It is not certain that Toulmin was author of the "Thoughts," but Jillson, pp. 4-5, thinks he was responsible for that compilation as well as for the "Description."

Toulmin compiled a "Collection of all the . . . Acts . . . of Kentucky," Frankfort, 1802, and a "Review of the Criminal Law" of that state, Frankfort, 1804-1806; a "Digest of the Statutes of the Mississippi Territory," Natchez, 1807; and a "Digest of the Laws of the State of Alabama," Cahawba, 1823. He also published technical legal works, and a 4th of July Oration.

B., BA., BM., C., CU., H., HEH., MINNHS., NYH., P., UP., WHS., WRHS. 96381

For an English edition, see Sporting Excursions in the Rocky Mountains, below. For notes on the expedition, see Wagner's "The Plains and the Rockies," 1921, pp. 44-45.

Previous to the preparation of the Narrative, there appeared in Waldie's "Select Circulating Library," 1835, part 2, pp. 427-432: "Extracts from a Private Journal, kept by Mr. John Townsend, during a Journey across the Rocky Mountains, in 1834." According to the foreword, "[These] are presented as . . . specimens of what we hope will form a volume of travels . . ."

Reprinted in Thwaites' "Early Western Travels," vol. 21, 1905, pp. 107-369, "from the original Philadelphia version, omitting both the now unessential appendix, and that portion of the narrative which deals with Hawaii and South America."

TOWNSEND. . . Narrative of a Journey across the Rocky Mountains, to the Columbia River; and a Visit to the Sandwich Islands, Chili, &c. By John K. Townsend, Member of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. Second Edition. The following pages have been corrected for the "Philadelphia Saturday Museum," by the author, and are here presented in a size corresponding with the extra new form quarto edition of that popular mammoth sheet, with which it may be bound. Some slight misarrangement will be noticed in the first few pages, which may be readily obviated by following the folios as numbered . . . *Philadelphia: Published at the Office of the Saturday Museum, 101 Chesnut Street. With heading: Saturday Museum Extra.

Originally issued in four numbers, the title page forming the first leaf of no. 4.

The first number is of special interest as it contains the prospectus of the Stylus, a magazine which Poe proposed to issue, but which never materialized. The same number also contains a statement that the services of Poe have been secured as an assistant editor of the Museum. Poe in a letter to Loweli in March, 1843, called the announcement premature, and just what his connection with the magazine was is uncertain. See H. Allen's "Israfel," 1927, vol. 2, pp. 550-552, and 563.

To Townshend is sometimes attributed the compilation of all of the English memoirs in the "Mémoires des Commissaires de sa Majesté très-chrétienne et de ceux de sa Majesté Britannique, sur les possessions & les droits respectifs de deux couronnes en Amérique," nos. 47546-47547 and 47741-47742, vol. 12. However, according to the verso of the second preliminary leaf and a footnote on p. 195 of "All the Memorials," Hague, 1756, (our no. 774, vol. 1, and note preceding no. 47741, vol. 12), only the "Reply of the English Commissaries," which is dated Jan. 23, 1753, and occupies pp. 193-349 in this edition, was written by Townshend.

The others were drawn up by the members of the British Board of Trade to which Townshend belonged, and "by them transmitted to the British Commissaries, who presented them to the French Commissaries." A separate edition in French of the reply has the title, "Réplique des commissaires anglois," La Haye, 1756. c.

The Traveller and Monthly Gazetteer. . . This Publication is arranged under two departments, the one Miscellaneous, the other containing (in successive monthly numbers) a Complete Gazetteer of the U. States. Which can be detached and bound separately. Philadelphia—Published monthly, by D. Hewett. . . June, 1828. Gazetteer No. 1. Continued. 8vo, pp. 29, 12, and (4) of printed covers. AAS. 96481A

On the printed covers is an advertisement of Carey, Lea & Carey, probably the printers of this periodical.

This is the only number which has been noted with title as above. Later numbers have titles beginning "The Universal Traveller."

Contents: Geographical and Statistical Department, 12mo, pp. 12, including an article on the Public Press, which explains that the editor has by means of a circular addressed to editors and publishers, obtained what he believes is with few exceptions a correct list of all the newspapers and periodicals published in the United States, with the names of the publishers, entered as fully as the "size of the pages (enlarged to an octavo form for this purpose) would admit;" Newspapers & Periodicals, published in the United States—1828, 8vo, pp. 13-29; "Gazetteer of the United States, concise and comprehensive: in which the states are considered under four general divisions . . . Vol. I, containing the Eastern, or New England States. By D. Hewett. Published in successive Monthly Numbers of 'The Traveller.' Philadelphia: 1828," 12mo, pp. 12.

The Gazetteer contains only the first sheet of the gazetteer of New England. The same sheet forms the first twelve pages of the "Gazetteer of the New England States," published by Hewett in the following year with the imprint: New York: Charles S. Francis—252 Broadway. 1829. See our no. 31634, vol. 8.

The special value of the publication lies in the lists of newspapers and periodicals included. This is reprinted in Amer. Antiq. Soc. Proceedings for October, 1933.

TRAVELLER IN BASARUAH, pseud. The History of the Kingdom of Basaruah, containing a relation of the most memorable transactions, revolutions and heroick exploits in that Kingdom . . . Collected from the amost antient records of that country, and translated into our language . . . Written in discharge of the trust reposed in the author by his Majesty, for the discovery of foreign things. By a Traveller in Basaruah. Printed, and sold by the Booksellers in Boston, 1715. 8vo, pp. (6), 160. HSP. + Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by Andrew Bradford. 1723? 96482

Pp. 158-159 are misnumbered 157-158.

"The Kingdom of Basaruah is the kingdom of Man, or the Human Race ('Flesh and Spirit'). The author of this very curious allegory, in his address 'to the Reader,' says: 'It having pleased our Gracious King (in the year of our Redemption, 1701,) to send me into that part of Basaruah which lies toward the North of America, in order to transact for his Majesty in some of his important Affairs in that Country, I . . . began to learn the Language,' etc. . . . I conjecture that the first edition . . . though 'sold by the booksellers in Boston' was printed by William Bradford at New York."—Brinley catalogue, no. 7556.

Hild. urn notes that the Philadelphia edition was advertised in a list of books printed and sold by Andrew Bradford, at the end of Leeds' Almanac for 1724, and preceding another list of books to be sold by him.

The Travellers. A Tale. Designed for Young People. By the Author of Redwood. . . New-York: Published by E. Bliss and E. White, [etc.] 1825. [Verso of title:] J. Seymour, printer. 18mo, pp. 171. AAS., BA. 96483

Improved title of no. 78806, vol. 19, entered under the author, [Sedgwick (Catharine Maria)].

The Traveller's Breviat. See [Johnson (Robert)], no. 36287, vol. 9. BM.

Johnson was the translaior of the work, taken from the "Relazioni universal" of Giovanni Botero, first printed in 1591.

The Short Title Catalogue locates another copy in the library of Captain Jaggard.

Frontispiece, 2 folded maps, and folded plan.

AAS., B., C., NYP. 96488

The folded plan of New York city is found in a copy at B., in original binding, which has but one plate, the frontispiece. A second copy at B., which has been rebound, and one at AAS., in original binding, have two plates, but not the folded plan. Probably the plan was omitted in these copies because of an inset plan of the city included in a folded map of the state.

TREATIES.

The following list includes editions of early treaties of importance in the history of the American countries, the first words of whose titles begin with the letters "Tr.," e. g. Tractatus, Tractat, Traité, Tratado, Treaty, etc., and which would for this reason be entered in this section of the Dictionary. The latest date covered will be 1800, except in the case of United States treaties with the Indian tribes, as to which see below.

Our list should not be considered an attempt to give a complete bibliographical treatment of all treaties, sections of which are of vital importance to students of American history, e. g. many general treaties of commerce and navigation which are not included.

For special collections including the texts of important treaties the student is referred to F. G. Davenport's "European Treaties bearing on the History of the United States and its Dependencies," 1917-1929, Carnegie Institution of Washington, Publication no. 254, which covers the period through 1697; George Chalmers' "Collection of Treaties between Great Britain and other Powers," 1790; Hunter Miller's "Treaties and other International Acts of the United States of America," now in process of publication by the Department of State, three volumes covering the period to 1835 having appeared since 1931; W. M. Malloy's "Treaties, Conventions, International Acts . . . between the United States . . . and other Powers," 1910-1923 (U. S. 61st Cong., 2nd sess., Senate Doc. no. 357, and 67th Cong., 4th sess., Senate Doc. no. 348), covering the period to 1923; and vol. 2 of C. J. Kappler's ". . . Indian Affairs. Laws and Treaties," 1903 (57th Cong., 1st sess., Senate Doc. no. 452). The collections of Davenport and Miller include historical notes on each treaty.

See also, D. P. Myers' "Manual of Collections of Treaties and of Collections relating to Treaties," Cambridge, Harvard University Press, 1922, for the general collections which should be consulted for the treaties of importance in the history of the United States and the other American countries.

The titles of editions of treaties entered below will be divided into four groups:

1. Treaties between European powers bearing on American history.
2. Colonial treaties with Indian tribes.
3. United States treaties with European powers.
4. United States treaties with Indian tribes.
5. We include at the end a treaty between the white and colored inhabitants of Santo Domingo, which would not fall in the preceding groups.

In each group the collections will precede the separate treaties which will be arranged chronologically according to the date on which the treaty was concluded.

Traité de Paix entre la France et l'Angleterre fait à Westminster le 3 novembre 1655. 1689. 96521

Title from Dionne's "Quebec et Nouvelle France, Bibliographie," vol. 2, 1906, no. 222. As the title is given in this brief form it seems possible that it may refer to an extract of the following: Mémoire présenté au Protecteur d'Angleterre. Par le Marquis de Leyde, et D. Alonse de Cardenas. Ambassadeurs du Roy Catholique en Angleterre. Le vingt-unième de May 1655. Traité de Paix entre le Royaume de France et La République d'Angleterre, d'Escosse, et d'Irlande. De l'Imprimerie de Frederic Leonard, Premier Imprimeur ordinaire du Roy. & seul pour les Finances. [Paris.] 1689. 8vo, pp. 16. CAN.ARCH. Title from the printed catalogue of pamphlets in the Canadian Archives, 1931.

In 1654 the English had captured the forts of St. John, Port Royal and Pentagoët. According to article 25 of this treaty a commission was to be appointed to settle the question of restoring them to France.

The BM. Catalogue mentions two editions with the same imprint, date and collation.

Of the collection of treaties between various European nations concluded between 1713 and 1715 which brought to an end the War of the Spanish Succession, and which are usually designated as the Treaty of Utrecht, the most important for American history is that of peace and amity concluded between France and Great Britain, by the terms of which France ceded Hudson's Bay, Acadia, and Newfoundland to Great Britain. A treaty of commerce and navigation between France and Great Britain was also signed on the same day.

2. COLONIAL TREATIES WITH INDIAN TRIBES.

ENGLISH.

The bibliography of these treaties has been covered in H. F. De Puy's "Bibliography of the English Colonial Treaties with the American Indians including a synopsis of each treaty," 1917, which see for full descriptions, including facsimiles of titles, collations, and locations of copies.

The usage of the Dictionary as to entry of such titles has been inconsistent. Most of the items given by De Puy may be found in our previous entries, either under title, the name of the place where the conference was held, the name of the official in charge of the negotiations, the name of the province whose government was a party to the treaty, or under the subject "Indians."

For titles in this group beginning with the word "Treaty," previously entered, see Clinton (G.), no. 13740, vol. 4; Hopson (P. T.), no. 33004, vol. 8; New Jersey, no. 53242, vol. 13; and Pennsylvania, nos. 60733-60740.

"Du Simitière says the Treaties were not published until January 9, 1779."—Evans, no. 16146.

The Philadelphia edition of 1778 has the following contents: title, 1 leaf; title to Treaty of Alliance, 1 leaf [lacking in the NYP. copy]; text, pp. [3]-10; title to Treaty of Amity and Commerce, 1 leaf; text, pp. [11]-34.

The NYH. copy lacks the leaf containing King Louis' proclamation of the treaty of alliance, but has instead a duplicate of pp. [11]-12, which contains his proclamation of the treaty of amity and commerce, the only difference being that the leaf as it appears preceding the treaty of alliance has the signature mark "A" and is numbered "4" on the verso. The leaf in its correct place has the signature mark "C" and is numbered "12" on the verso.

In the NYP. copy the leaf containing Louis' proclamation of the treaty of alliance is misnumbered "12" on the verso.

Probably some copies were issued without the extra titles. JCB.

4. TREATIES BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND INDIAN TRIBES.

Because of the rarity of the items in this group the period covered has been extended through the year 1840. Titles of treaties belonging in this section are given here even if not beginning with the words "Treaty" or "Treaties." However, the treaties as printed in later years in the numbered series of House and Senate documents will not be included.

Information concerning most of the Indian treaties from 1825-1840 supplied by Wilberforce Eames from copies formerly in his possession.

A Treatise of gardening. By a Native of this State. Richmond: Printed by Thomas Nicolson. 1793. 96739

Title from Evans.

By John Randolph, Jr. See "A Treatise on Gardening by a Citizen of Virginia, John Randolph, Jr." edited by M. F. Warner, and reprinted by Appeals Press, Inc. for the William Parks Club, Richmond, 1924. In the introduction to this work it is suggested that the Treatise was probably written in the decade between 1760 and 1770. An edition "supposed to be published in 1793 . . . was among the books bought from Jefferson in 1814 to form the Library of Congress, and was destroyed by the fire of 1851," and is the only one printed in the eighteenth century of which a copy has ever been located.

A Treatise of Military Exercise, calculated for the Use of the Americans. In which every Thing that is supposed can be of Use to them, is retained, and such Manœuvres, as are only for Shew and Parade, omitted. To which is added Some Directions on the other Points of Discipline. Philadelphia: Printed by Styner and Cist, in Second-street, near Arch-street. M DCC LXXVI. 8vo, pp. viii, 91, "Directions to the Bookbinder" (1). 9 folded plates.

The above, which is part of the Ebeling collection acquired by Harvard College Library in 1818, was wrongly described in the 1830 printed catalogue of that library, as printed in 1637.

We have been unable to discover a copy of the earlier edition. Wilberforce Eames suggests that the reprint was probably made not later than 1650, and notes that it is an early piece of promotion literature not mentioned by Winsor.

[TREZIULNEY (—)]? A Letter to George Washington. See [Duane (William)], no. 20989, vol. 5. AAS., BA., C., CH.LIB.SOC., HSP., JCB., M., NYH., NYP.

Attributed by Evans to Treziulney on the strength of the following quotation from Mathew Carey's "Autobiography," printed in the "New-England Magazine," vol. 6, 1834, see p. 105. Carey had described an "association" in Philadelphia, of which Duane was one of the members, which in attacking the treaty, decided to assail the character of Washington, in the "Aurora" and in pamphlets. "A Pole, of the name of Treziulney, who acted as book-keeper for Mr. Duane, wrote a pamphlet, the object of which was to prove the utter incapacity of General Washington, as displayed during the revolution." Evans locates copies of two different issues at HAR. but four copies examined at that library are all alike.

For a later edition, see the following title:

TRIALS.

Reports of criminal trials have as a rule either been entered in this Dictionary under the name of the defendant or of the author of the account, and those of civil suits under one or other of the parties to the suit. Arguments of counsel and opinions of judges may be found under the name of these lawyers. Where the opportunity to enter as above is past, certain criminal, civil, and ecclesiastical trials, also courts martial, especially if the word trial either begins the title or is prominent in it, are arranged here alphabetically by the name of the defendant in criminal and ecclesiastical actions, and of the plaintiff for the most part in civil suits. In this way, several publications relating to one trial will be found together.

A few accounts of trials of several persons, and trials in whose titles no name is mentioned, are arranged alphabetically by title at the end.

See also the printed Catalogue of the Library of the Law School of Harvard University, vol. 2, 1909, entries under Trials, pp. 987-1246; and the catalogue for the sale at Bangs', Feb. 7-11, 1893, of the Edmund B. Wynn collection of trials.

Abbot, Joel. Trial of Lieutenant Joel Abbot, by the General Naval Court Martial, holden on board the U. S. Ship Independence, at the Navy Yard, Charlestown, Massachusetts, on Allegations made against him, by Capt. David Porter, Navy Commissioner. Reported by F. W. Waldo, Esq. one of his counsel. To which is added an Appendix, containing sundry documents in relation to the management of Affairs on the Boston Station. Boston: Printed by Russell & Gardner. 1822. 8vo, pp. 164, 72, postscript (1).

Troy: Published by John Disturnell. Tuttle & Gregory, Printers. 1829. 16mo, pp. (16) advertisements, (2), xv-xviii, 19-70. AAS. 97072

Until 1844, the Troy Directory was issued with title similar to that above, but with slight variations in title and imprint. From 1844/45 to 1846/47, it was called Tuttle's City Directory. Beginning in 1847/48, the title read Prescott & Wilson's Troy City Directory, and continued thus until 1850/51, when it became John F. Prescott's City and Business Directory. In 1851/52 and 1852/53, it was C. L. MacArthur's Reliable Troy Directory, changing to MacArthur's & Wilson's Troy City Directory in 1853/54, and C. L. MacArthur's Troy City Directory in 1854/55, which title continued until 1857 when it again became The Troy Directory.

The directories described in the above note form a series, all but the first ten volumes bearing the volume number on the title page. The numbering continues in recent issues.

We have located no copy of a New York edition of 1836, as in no. 79064, but a second edition was printed at Providence, with the same imprint and collation as the first. Both Providence editions located at c., and DERENNE. See the printed catalogue of the latter library for a note regarding the frontispiece.

A True and Authentic History of His Excellency George Washington, Commander in Chief of the American Army during the late War, and present President of the United States. Also, of the Brave Generals Montgomery and Greene, and the celebrated Marquis de La Fayette. To which is added, an Ode on General Washington's Birthday, by the Reverend Mr. Thomas Thornton. Philadelphia: Printed by Peter Stewart, in Second-street, ninth door above Chesnut-street, for Robert Stewart, Travelling Bookseller. 1790. (Price nine-pence.) 8vo, pp. 23, (1).

c., HEH. 97086

According to the catalogue card for a copy formerly at NYP., now missing, the work is a reprint of the sketch in Jedediah Morse's "American Geography," Elizabethtown, 1789, pp. 127-139, with the addition of Thornton's ode.

A True and Candid Statement of Facts. See no. 32642, vol. 8. H.

The above entry was erroneously made under John Baker Holroyd, Earl of Sheffield. According to J. R. Bartlett's "Bibliography of Rhode Island," 1864, the work is said to have been written by John Holroyd, of the class of 1802, Brown University.

A True and Complete Narrative of all the Proceedings of the Philadelphia Presbytery, and of the Philadelphia Synod, in relation to the case of the Rev. Albert Barnes. . . . Philadelphia: Printed by Russell & Martien, No. 22½ Walnut Street. 1830. 8vo, pp. 48.

NYP. 97087

The "Advertisement," pp. 3-4, signed by Wm. M. Engles, reads in part: "The first part of this Narrative was published several months since, in reply to an anonymous publication which was intended to impeach the conduct and motives of those members of the Philadelphia Presbytery, who had resisted the reception and installation of Mr. Barnes . . . The latter part of the Narrative is now published, to counteract the effect . . . produced by a pretended history of the late proceedings of the Philadelphia Presbytery, published by the Rev. Dr. Ely in the 'Philadelphian,' of which he is the Editor."

Probably a title page is missing in the n. copy.

Title from caption of p. 7.

A True and Faithful Account of an Intire and Absolute Victory over the French Fleet in the West-Indies, by Two East-India Ships, and other Vessels, at Barbadoes, made into Men of War. With the Number of those Taken and Sunk in the Engagement, together with the Taking, Sacking, and Burning several of the French Plantations in those parts. [Colophon:] London, Printed for J. C. near Fleet-Bridg[e]. 1690. Folio, pp. (2). B., HEH., NYP. 97089

A True and Faithful Account of the Island of Veritas; together with the forms of their liturgy; and a full relation of the religious opinions of the Veritasians, as delivered in several sermons just published in Veritas. London: Printed for C. Stalker, Stationer's-Court, Ludgate-Street. [1790?] 8vo, pp. viii, 171, (2). BM., H. 97090

A Utopian religious work.

According to the preface by "Nilekaw Freeman," the author was a friend of his, "Jasper Richardson" by name, who had "sailed the beginning of last year from Boston, in America," and who was shipwrecked on an island in the southern hemisphere.

Joseph Sabin in a ms. note writes that "Benjamin Franklin is supposed to have had a hand in it."

A True and Faithful Account of the most Material Circumstances attending the Mysterious Disappearance of Samuel Field and Francis C. Jenkerson, (generally believed to have been murdered.) Together with an Account of the Discovery of the Bodies, as detailed in the Examination before Justices Aplin, Staples and Patten, of Joseph Antoine, Johan Fransoeis Wohlfahrt, and Joanna Susan Wohlfahrt, who were suspected of the Murder of these Unfortunate Boys. Providence, H. H. Brown. 1830. 12mo, pp. 36. C., H., NYP. 97091

An attack on Joseph Galloway. A ms. note of P. L. Ford in one of the NVP. copies of Hildeburn suggests William Goddard as the author. L. C. Wroth also notes the same probability. For the feeling between Goddard and Galloway, see Wroth's "History of Printing in Colonial Maryland," 1922, pp. 126-127. Goddard's "The Partnership," another attack on Galloway, was published in 1770, and the above Narrative in 1771. Franklin in a letter to William Franklin dated, London, Jan. 30, 1772, writes: "I cast my eye over Goddard's Piece against our friend Mr. Galloway, and then lit my Fire with it." See the "Writings," vol. 5, 1906, p. 380. Franklin might refer either to the "Partnership" or the Narrative.

A True and Faithful Narrative of the Proceedings of the House of Burgesses of North-Carolina, Met in Assembly for the said Province at Newbern, Feburary [sic] 5th 1739/40. On the Articles of Complaint exhibited before them against the Honourable William Smith, Esq; Chief Justice of the said Province, for high Crimes and Misdemeanors done and committed by the said William Smith in the execution of his Office. Published for the Justification of the Gentlemen Members of that House, who voted the said Articles sufficiently proved for the said Chief Justice to be charged therewith. Addressed to the Freeholders of North-Carolina. . . . [Williamsburgh: Printed by William Parks. 1741?] 8vo, pp. 52. M. 9, 992

As there was no printing in North Carolina at the time, the printer was probably William Parks of Williamsburgh, Virginia. The pamphlet was reprinted by William K. Boyd, with a facsimile of the title-page, in the "North Carolina Historical Review," vol. 2, 1925, 35-82, also in his "Some Eighteenth Century Tracts concerning North Carolina, with introductions and notes," 1927, one of the "Publications of the North Carolina Historical Commission." In his introduction Professor Boyd sums up the known facts relative to Chief Justice Smith gathered from the "Colonial Records of North Carolina," and the pamphlet itself.

A true and genuine Account of the Result of the Council of Fourteen Churches met at Watertown, May 1. 1722. Together with what the Reverend Doctor Cotton Mather sent by way of Apology to Ireland, for their Proceedings there. The Spanish work, a translation of which forms part of the above, was the "Individual y Verdadera Relacion de la extrema ruyna que padeciò la Ciudad de los Reyes Lima," Lima, 1746, our no. 42590, vol. 10, entered under [Lozano (Pedro)]. For additional notes on the attribution, other editions, etc., with references, see Medina's "Imprenta en Lima," under 1746. The anonymous translator was Henry Johnson. See Dict. Nat. Biog. Johnson states in his preface that because the Spanish author's account of the cause of earthquakes, and his description of Lima and Callao, were too brief, "the Bookseller, by the Advice of his Friends, hath gotten the Deficiency supplied by another Hand."

Contents: "The Translator's Preface," pp. iii-xx; Contents, xxi-xxiii; "A Description of Callao and Lima . . . and the Cause of Earthquakes," pp. 130; "A true and particular Relation of the dreadful Ruin in which Lima . . . was involved," pp. 131-199; "A Description of Peru," pp. 200-326; "Appendix. A full Account of the late dreadful Earthquake at Port-Royal in Jamaica," first printed in 1692, pp. 327-341, for the first edition of which see note following no. 64185, vol. 15.

Hildeburn describing the HSP. issue has the following note:

"This tract contains the judgment of the Philadelphia Monthly Meeting in favor of Thomas Fitzwater; the mild condemnation of William Stockdale by the Meeting of Public Friends, on charges brought against him by Keith; and the Condemnation and Disownment of Keith by the last named meeting. These, with the title, occupy six pages, four of which are filled by the "Judgment" against Keith. The two replies, the second of which was also printed separately, occupy the remainder of the fifteen pages, and the last page contains besides a list of "Books to be Sold by William Bradford in Philadelphia, 1692;" the errata noticed under the third edition of "The Appeal from the Twenty eight Judges," and the following: "And whereas it is reported, That the Printer being a favourer of G. K. he will not print for any other, which is the reason that the other Party appear not in Print as well as G. K. These are to signify, that the Printer hath not yet refused to print any thing for either Party; and also signifies that he doth not refuse, but is willing and ready to print any thing for the future that G. K's Opposers shall bring to him." Reprinted in "The Judgment given forth by Twenty-eight Quakers," London, 1694."

Volume I only, no more published.

Note on p. xii of second Boston issue: "The first volume of the work above described, was published nine months since, during the absence of the friend, to whom the Author entrusted his manuscripts. By an unfortunate mistake, it was published without the preface and the concluding chapter. In this imperfect state a number of copies have been sold . . . The only method of correcting this regretted mistake is adopted, and the concluding chapter, with the Preface are published, and will be added to all the copies, which remain unsold; and may be had in a pamphlet, by all who have purchased the imperfect volume . . ."

The omission of the words, "In three volumes," from the title in this issue seems to show that any idea of completing the work at this time had been given up. One of the errata mentioned in the preceding issue was corrected in this.

Issues of 1774 are located also at LINA. and v.

According to Dexter's Yale Graduates, vol. 2, p. 624, the above was Trumbull's "first extended attempt in historical composition. To this, more than to any other single influence, is said to have been due the allowance of the claim of Connecticut to the Western-Reserve lands. The first draft of this had appeared in the numbers of the Connecticut Journal for March 25, April 1 and 8, 1774; and the pamphlet was published in June."

TRUMBULL. Proposals for publishing by subscription. A Complete History of Connecticut. From the time of the emigration of its first planters from England, in 1630 to 1712. By Benjamin Trumbull, A.M. Hartford: Printed by Hudson & Goodwin. April, 1796. Narrow folio broadside. 97190

Title from Evans, no. 31318.

A posthumous work of the historian, printed from a manuscript found among his papers, was issued in an edition of 400 copies, with the following title: A Compendium Of The Indian Wars in New England More Particularly such as the Colony of Connecticut have been concerned and Active in, New Haven, August 25th anno 1767. By Benjamin Trumbull. Edited by Frederick Berg Hartranft. Hartford, Connecticut. Published for Charles Archibald Goodwin by Edwin Valentine Mitchell. 1924. 4to, pp. (4), 9-62, (1). Frontispiece portrait.

On p. 9: ". . . this essay is a collection of all such authorities as were available, with an attempt at critical comparison. These sources were Increase Mather, Hubbard, Hutchinson, Callender, Mason (or Allen), Church and Prince. Secondly, it will likewise be apparent that it was the author's intention to revise the whole."

For other works of Trumbull of less historical interest, see the list included in Dexter's Yale Graduates.

TRUMBULL (David). The Death of Capt. Nathan Hale. A Drama: in five acts. Written by David Trumbull . . . Hartford, Press of E. Geer. 1845. 8vo, pp. 32. C., NYP. 97191

[TRUMBULL (Henry)]. History of the Discovery of America, of the Landing of our Forefathers, at Plymouth, and of their most remarkable Engagements with the Indians, in New-England, from their first landing in 1620, until the final subjugation of the Natives in 1669 [i.e. 1679.] To which is annexed, the Defeat of Generals Braddock, Harmer & St. Clair, by the Indians at the Westward, &c. By the Rev. James Steward, D.D. . . . Brooklyn, (L. I.) Printed by Grant & Wells, for J. W. Carew. (With Privilege of Copy-Right.) [1810.] 8vo, pp. 176. Folded frontispiece.

AAS., C., H., HEH., NYH., NYP., WHS. 97192

Wegelin in his "The Brooklyn, New York, Press," in Bib. Soc. Amer. "Bulletin," vol. 4, nos. 3-4, 1912, calls the book a "bibliographical mystery." He considers the Rev. James Steward a myth, as he has not traced any clergyman of that name in any work of American biography. Trumbull's name appears as author either in the copyright notice or on the title of other editions. NYP. has a prospectus of the work gotten out by Trumbull in 1810, with a ms. note that subscriptions should be turned in not later than January 1, 1811. See Indian Wars, below. He suggests that possibly the printers of the Brooklyn edition are as fictitious as the author, as the imprint of Grant & Wells has not been seen in any other work printed in Brooklyn or elsewhere. The typography of this edition, though not identical with, is similar to that of the first Norwich, 1810, issues without a printer's name, even the same printer's ornaments being frequently used. It may be that Grant & Wells were also responsible for that edition. The text, however, differs, and the preface of the Brooklyn edition is omitted.

Only the earliest editions of this inaccurate work, usually called Trumbull's Indian Wars, will be fully entered here. Variations in title of issues later than 1812 will not be noted in detail, a brief list of imprints and collations being given.

For information as to the source of the list of Indian nations included, see our final note on J. F. D. Smyth's "Tour in the United States," no. 85254, vol. 21.

[TRUMBULL]. History of the Discovery of America . . . By a Citizen of Connecticut . . . Norwich: Published for the Author, (With Privilege of Copy-Right.)—1810. 12mo, pp. 176. Folded plate.

B., BA., BM., C., HEH. 97193

Wilberforce Eames calls attention to the fact that there are two issues as above. In one the "s" in "Discovery" is the long "s," also the case in the title of the Brooklyn issue of the first edition, and the date "1810" is in the second line of the imprint preceding the words "(With Privilege . . .)." HEH. Possibly this is the earlier. The second issue as above has the modern "s" in "Discovery" and the date "1810" in the third line. Both issues are at HEH. The other copies located are of the second of the two issues described in this note.

AAS., C., M., NYP. 97194

On the verso of the title is the copyright of Henry Trumbull as author dated in the same year.

This is the second Norwich edition. The preface is omitted in this and later editions, but there are additions in the text and a plate, Death of General Butler, is added at p. 155.

+ Norwich: Published for the Author at his Office. 1811. 8vo, pp. 184. 2 folded plates.

Stephen Sewell was the printer of the Boston, 1819, edition of Trumbull's History of the Discovery of America. There is no Boston directory for 1819, but as the name of Sewall or Sewell is not found in the directories for 1818 or 1820 it seems probable that he was only printing in Boston for about a year. By 1823 he had a press in Taunton, and was drowned when intoxicated, Oct. 26, 1824. Information from Clarence S. Brigham.

"Scene, the State of Connecticut."

J. H. Trumbull, in his "List of Books printed in Connecticut," states that the paper and type are the same as in the first edition of "M'Fingal" printed by Hudson and Goodwin in 1782, and that the Epilogue is either by the author of the "Modern Epic" or an excellent imitation of his style.

The work was written in the fall of 1775, and actually printed in January, 1776. See notes taken "ex ore John Trumbull, May 14, 1788," in President Stiles' ms. Itinerary. These were printed in J. H. Trumbull's "Origin of M'Fingal," 1868.

The nucleus of the poem is found by the latter writer in a burlesque by the author, of a proclamation by General Gage, dated June 12, 1775. The parody was originally printed in the "Connecticut Courant" of Aug. 7, and 14, 1775, see also below, A New Proclamation. In the autobiographical Memoir of Trumbull, prefixed to his "Poetical Works," 1826, it is stated that he wrote the first part of M'Fingal at "the solicitation of some of his friends in Congress . . . which they immediately procured to be published at Philadelphia, where Congress was then assembled. He had also formed the plan of the work, sketched some of the scenes of the third Canto and written the beginning of the fourth . . . at which point, not being gifted with the prophetic powers of his hero, he was obliged to leave it then unfinished."

The first part was divided into two cantos in the revised and completed edition of 1782.

Title supplied by Charles Evans.

Because of the similarity of the style to that of Freneau it is attributed to that author by V. H. Paltsits in his "Bibliography," 1903.

Trumbull has been reputed to be one of the contributors to "The Echo," 1807, our no. 21778, vol. 6, but according to C. W. Everest's "Poets of Connecticut," 1847, p. 94, "Judge Trumbull never wrote a line in it."

AAS., BM., C., CU., H., HSP., JCB., NYP., WLC. 97270

Extracts from the "Aurora" are dated in June, 1798.

Probably written by William Duane, the above being an improved title of the entry in our note following no. 20994, vol. 5. Evans no. 33648 attributes to him.

The pamphlet has also been attributed to Benjamin Franklin Bache, the editor of the "Aurora." In the prefatory remarks the sentiments of the "Editor" are given throughout in the third person, and as Duane was associated with Bache on the "Aurora," either of the two might be the author. Information from Clarence S. Brigham.

There are two issues, one having a type ornament at the foot of p. 12, not found in the other. AAS., C., and NYP. have both issues.

Printed for John Stockdale, | opposite Burlington-House, Piccadilly. | MDCCLXXXVII. | 8vo, pp. 96. AAS., BA., BM., H., NYP. 97331

"Although the 'Advertisement' claims this to be a reprint of the third edition, it is really an abridgement, and contains only about half the original pamphlet. Only pages 1 to 53 are devoted to Tucker's essays, the remainder containing three of Hume's essays on trade. See P. L. Ford's "Josiah Tucker and his Writings," 1894, p. 4.

There are two issues in NYP., sheets A, B, and H, being from different settings of type. In issue A, the eighth line of the "Advertisement," p. [3], reads: "fore satisfactory." In issue B, it reads: "and therefore satisfactory." There are other typographical variations.

[TUCKER]. The | Elements of Commerce, | and | Theory of Taxes. | [Bristol? 1755.] 4to, pp. 174, Postscript (1).

BM., NYP., ULOND. 97341

Caption title, on p. 9. The recto of the first leaf is blank, the author's Advertisement appearing on the verso. Pp. 3-8 contain a Preliminary Discourse.

Signed and dated: Josiah Tucker, Rector of St. Stephen's in Bristol. Bristol, July 10, 1755.

The Advertisement states that "The present Impression of this Treatise is not designed for public Use," and that the author hopes that readers will "oblige him with their Corrections . . . as soon as possible . . . it is proposed, that after a general Revisal, the Treatise shall be . . . printed, and published with Expedition." This was to form a first part and the first chapter of a second of a projected work on national commerce, which was never completed.

The NYP. copy has in the wide margins, copious ms. notes by both Tucker and Dr. Secker, Archbishop of Canterbury. Tucker has struck out the title and substituted for it "The Moral and Political Theory in Trade, and Taxes."

Relates in part to the South Sea, the Hudson's Bay Company, and American trade.

Reprinted in Schuyler's edition of Tucker cited above, pp. 51-219.

With heading: "Tract V." A continuation of the "Four Tracts," entered above.

"In Tucker's 'Tract V.' he advertises as 'Preparing for the Press. Tract VI. An Expostulatory Letter addressed to the Ministers of the several Denominations of Protestants in North-America, occasioned by their preferring and inculcating the Principles of Mr. Locke, instead of those of the Gospel, relative to the original Titles of Civil Governors.' In the preface of his Letter to Burke he states that 'The present critical Juncture obliges the Author to postpone his Animadversions on Mr. Locke's Theory of Government for some time longer.' In the preface of his published Treatise concerning Civil Government Dean Tucker writes: 'The long preliminary Discourse which I had printed in the Specimen dispersed among my Friends, is now totally suppressed'; and in the body of the work he states: 'When I first undertook the Task of answering Mr. Locke . . . I caused the Press to strike off about 50 or 60 Copies of the principal Parts of the present Treatise. My View therein was to consult the Learned and Judicious both far and near concerning the Plan of the Work, and the Nature of the Undertaking,—likewise to entreat the Benefit of their Corrections and Amendments, in Case they should judge so favourably of this Specimen as to encourage me to proceed.' These quotations are the only traces I have found of this 'Specimen.'" See P. L. Ford's "Josiah Tucker and his Writings," 1894, pp. 13-14.
