TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

THE SINGLE TAX PLAN IN VANCOUVER

Mayor Frink Gets Letter From Western City's Chief Magistrate

A GREAT BOOM

Marvellous Result in Building up of City—Not Even Wealthy Land-Owners Wish Return to Old System—Some Statistics to Demonstrate Working

In view of the criticism being levelled at the assessment system in this city, the following article prepared by Mayor T. D. Taylor, of Vancouver, B. C., and sent to Mayor Frink of timely interest.

The taxing of the "unearned increment"—a term used to express the increase in land values unearned by the efforts of the owner—no longer is an experiment in Vancouver. Fifteen years ago the city government concluded to encourage building by reducing the improvement tax fifty per cent. The effect was immediate. Huge buildings began to rise where shacks had stood.

In 1906, as a result of the success of the first experiment, an additional decrease of 25 per cent was made in the improvement tax. At once building operations showed another startling increase that when compared with the increase shown in the statistics of other cities was wholly out of proportion to the increase of population.

Practice, Not Theory

From the beginning of the Canadian West have taken the initiative in promoting the single tax policy by putting it into actual operation while other municipal governments have not reacted beyond the theoretical. Vancouver's policy of valuing land at full capital value and improvement at fifty per cent has been by taxing buildings only half as much as sites, was adopted long before the single tax leaders had begun their campaign of education that today reaches around the world.

BALLOON PASSENGER SERVICE IN ENGLAND

Mail and Express Also Between Liverpool and Wales—A Flight to Paris

Washington, Nov. 5.—Encouraged by recent success in the operation of dirigible balloons, a project has been launched in Liverpool, Eng., for a passenger and mail and express service between that city and North Wales, according to a consular report received here.

Corbelen, France, Nov. 5.—Cristie Will, the young Welshman who succeeded in his dirigible airship at Wormwood Scrubs, London, at 3.25 o'clock yesterday afternoon for a flight across the English Channel and to Paris, arrived here safely this morning and proceeded for Paris.

JUVENILE COURT

The usual week-end session of the Juvenile Court was held this morning by Judge Ritchie. Wm. Stone, of Acadia street, aged 15, was fined $5 on a charge of tearing the shutter from the window of Isaac Selig's shop corner of Acadia and Chapel streets, and also of being a member of a disorderly crowd.

THE WEATHER

East and north-east winds, unsettled with occasional rain; Sunday, showery and partly fair.

LIKE TO WHIP HIM

A Temperance Lesson in Police Court—Struck Wife, Kicked Little Son

"You are fined $20 or two months in jail," said Judge Ritchie this morning to John McMullin, charged with assaulting his wife, "and if I had the power, I should like to have you whipped. A man who would act as you have done, must be a worthless character."

McMullin's wife said she had been receiving no help from him for several months, as he had been drinking. Yesterday he had come home and struck her with a belt, besides kicking his little three-year old child, because he did not close the door quickly enough to suit him.

SETTLEMENT OF BIG STRIKE IN ENGLAND FAILS

Boilermakers Reject Proposal and Lock-Out Will Continue—May Vote Again

London, Nov. 5.—It was hoped that a settlement of the shipyard dispute would have been arrived at when the ballot was taken among the members of the Boilermakers Trade Union, as to whether the York settlement should be accepted or rejected. It is to be regretted that the settlement was rejected, and the lockout will therefore continue.

It is pointed out that, since it appears impossible to reopen negotiations with the union, the only alternative is that the executive of the Boilermakers Society might adopt the course of having instructions that a vote shall be taken by all the members not directly affected by the dispute.

Preliminary examinations for the outside service will begin at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning and the qualifying examination for the outside service at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

London, Nov. 5.—Dr. H. H. Crippen must hang on Tuesday, for the murder of his wife, who was Belle Elmore. His appeal to the Criminal Appeals Court from the sentence of Justice Ridley, was today denied by the higher court. His lawyer, A. A. Tobin, made a strong presentation on three points in connection with the recent trial, but on each point their Lordships ruled against him.

The first point was that one of the jurors, being taken ill during the trial, had been taken from the court room by a physician, without being in charge of a sworn bailiff. His second point was that the evidence given in rebuttal in reference to the pieces of pyjamas found in the collar, had been improperly admitted, and his third contention was that it had not been shown that the remains found were those of Crippen's wife.

The judges who sat on the appeal were Justices Channell, Darling, and Pickford. The crown lawyers were Messrs. Muir, Humphreys and Oddie. Messrs. Tobin, Jenkins and Roome were for the defence. The limited accommodation for the public was fully occupied.

Mr. Tobin submitted that the sick juror was not sworn for the particular purpose, the juror never went into the street. The witness said that as evidence was to be given by the prisoner was entitled to be present.

Crippen entered the dock in charge of lines wardens. He seemed little worse for his incarceration and preserved the impassive air that characterized his demeanor during the trial.

Justice Darling: "Do you say this is a case of a juror who was taken from the court room without being in charge of a sworn bailiff?"

Mr. Tobin: "Yes." Continuing, Mr. Tobin said the juror must not be allowed to separate in a case of this kind, without the presence of a sworn bailiff. The juror was taken from the court room without being in charge of a sworn bailiff.

Justice Darling: "There is no case that deals with the exact point whether a bailiff should be present when a juror is taken from the court room."

London, Nov. 5.—Anent the Drummond by-election, the News says the Canadian navy scheme sprang directly out of the navy scare. One of the objects of the navy scare was to frighten the colonies into giving assistance before the people of the colonies had time to appreciate the need or cultivate the attitude of response.

The Maritime Post says the Tribulists are inspired only by the idea of racial separatism and seem to feel that, though in the empire, they can never be of it, because the greater part of its self-governing population is of different race, with English for its mother tongue.

The Westminster Standard says that the Post asks if this variety of "Nationalism" is to be distinguished or encouraged in the interest of civilization in general and the United Kingdom in particular, and if in Canada it has been checked on the northern side of the border.

The Westminster Standard says that the Post asks if this variety of "Nationalism" is to be distinguished or encouraged in the interest of civilization in general and the United Kingdom in particular, and if in Canada it has been checked on the northern side of the border.

The Financial News says that the statement that shipbuilders are prepared to build 25 knot steamers for the Canadian service with guaranteed delivery, says that if they would also guarantee the absence of fog in the Straits of Belleisle during the winter months.

The Times, apropos of Cape Union, says Lemieux's speech on Thursday night dwelt eloquently upon the value set on the deal might be considered closed.

Melbourne, Nov. 5.—Notwithstanding the protests of the Labor League the ministerial party in the Australian parliament are determined to accept the British invitation and send a delegation to the coronation, believing that the presence of eleven Australian laborites in London will be of immense advantage to the entire Labor movement.

Honolulu, Nov. 5.—The first case of yellow fever in this port has been discovered aboard the Japanese cruiser which arrived here on Oct. 30.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Wm. Smith of New York, famed as an imperator of the Engle Sam from his remarkable likeness to cartoons, died here yesterday, aged 91 years. He died in poverty.

TO DORCHESTER

Judge Ritchie Sentences George Marshall for Theft of Watch on I. C. R. Car

A sentence of two years in Dorchester was imposed by Judge Ritchie this morning on George Marshall, when the latter pleaded guilty to robbing George Pooley, of Sussex, of a watch, valued at $15 on an I. C. R. car several weeks ago.

The prisoner went to the car and offered to sell Pooley a watch, and when the passenger said he had one, Marshall asked to see it. He took the watch in his hand, and Pooley thought he put it back into his pocket again, but a little later found it missing. He accused Marshall but the latter denied the theft.

A man named Foster said that Marshall told the watch to him in exchange for another and with $2.50 thrown in. Later he learned the watch was stolen, and gave it to the police. Pooley recognized it this morning. The judge advised Marshall that when he got free, he had better stop drinking.

STABBED BY HIGHWAYMAN

Toronto, Nov. 5.—(Special)—J. H. Vier, of Brampton, was the victim of an assault by highwaymen near Dundas. He was taken to the hospital with a severe wound on his chest, and is now recovering.

JAKE STAHL A BANKER

Chicago, Nov. 5.—J. Garland Stahl, known baseball circles as "Jake," the Boston American first baseman, has quit baseball and gone into the banking business with a south side National Bank. His father-in-law has been connected with the institution for several years.

Justice Darling then said that, regarding the separation of the jurors there was absolute evidence in this case that there was no tampering with the jury. It is proved conclusively that there was no opportunity and there had been no suggestion that there was tampering. There was no evidence to raise any sort of presumption of tampering. Therefore, on that point, the appeal failed.

Mr. Tobin then addressed the court as to the next point of the appeal which was that the evidence of Childers, buyer for John Brothers, was wrongfully admitted in giving that evidence. You may take it from me that Crippen in his evidence in chief said nothing whatever on the point.

Mr. Tobin then proceeded to address their Lordships on his last point—identity of the remains found. First, he asked, was the identity sufficiently established that the remains were those of a woman at all. Next was it sufficiently established that if the remains were those of a woman, were they the remains of Belle Crippen?

He submitted that what was found in the collar did not solve the question; it left everything to doubt. Taking the remains themselves, Prof. Pepper said it was impossible on anatomical grounds to tell the remains were those of a woman at all. Next was it sufficiently established that if the remains were those of a woman, were they the remains of Belle Crippen?

Mr. Tobin said he seriously complained of the chief justice, in his summing up saying: "Gentlemen, he says they are the remains of a woman in now not seriously disputed." Throughout the case he had fought this question as hard as he could fight it. Such a statement coming from the lord chief justice had serious weight with the jury.

LONDON FILLING UP AGAIN

The Holiday Season Ends; Winter Activities Are Now Beginning

MATTERS POLITICAL

Troubled Session for Government When Parliament Opens—Emigration to Canada—Million and a Half Pounds for Bridge Across Thames

London, Oct. 22.—With the close of the holiday season and the departure of summer weather, London streets are filling up, and the winter activities are beginning. But it is as yet a season of preparation merely. Until parliament opens some three weeks hence, London affairs and British politics, of which, the metropolis is the 'hub' of necessity remain dead dull.

Today the Navy League is making its annual effort to whip the patriotic, hard-working London public into something like enthusiasm about the navy and the heroic exploits of its past history. The man in the street is crowding in his usual self-confidence round the statue of the great Nelson in Trafalgar Square to gaze on the floral decorations which the British Navy League has hung out, and if the "John Bull" working citizens of London were responsive to the appeal of the jingo-political organization, they would cheerfully and offer to spend their last shilling on Dreadnoughts.

ONE MORE PATNETIC SCENE IN COURT

Mrs. Connelley and Her Son Bid Tearful Farewell—Wanted Man to Go With Him

The police court has from time to time, seen the sight of many pathetic and sorrowful scenes have been enacted in the drama of life, but it is seldom that such a touching incident is witnessed as occurred this morning from the arrest of Mrs. Connelley, aged 42, and her little seven-year-old son, Frank, on a charge of living in a house in a bad way.

At the head of the staircase leading to below the court, the woman and her child tearfully kissed each other several times and then were separated. Still the little boy begged and entreated the judge to let his mother go with him, but His Honor in kindly tones advised the little fellow to cry no more, but to be thankful that the good mother in the home would care for him, clothe him, and educate him.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

WHAT a lot of obliging and generous folks there are in the world! I am convinced anew of that fact by the splendid way in which my readers are responding to my request to pass along any interesting news item they may have heard of, to unusual occupations in which women can make good.

Do you want to be included in that complimentary category? Write me a line! I am sure you deserve to be, so please give me an opportunity to do so by sending along some item. You surely know at least one item of the sort. Several readers have sent me two or three.

Here are some of them.

"A lady who was so fond of dogs and other animals that she was able to handle them under almost any circumstances, stop their fights and cure their wounds and bodily ailments, conceived the idea of making a living by taking care of cats, dogs, etc., when they were ill. She also boarded animals while their owners were away from home. She put up a sign in front of her house, and has made so much money, she has been successful in her art that she has built up some splendid kennels."

That a fondness for babies could be made as profitable as the above mentioned penchant for animals, is shown by a letter which came to me in the same issue.

"I have been out of my ordinary occupations for girls. I am not speaking of myself, as I am a most ordinary busy mother of youngsters. But I have left a need in my neighborhood of a girl who could entertain youngsters, or at any rate keep them from killing themselves until they were old enough to know better. I have talked it over with some of the women in the neighborhood and have found that there are children enough to give a girl $2.25 a day, at the rate of $4.25 which I am sure the mothers would pay. The hours would be short. The girl would have to be an intelligent, refined person, as none of us would be willing to trust an ordinary nurse girl."

Do you know how to buy a silver baking dish with three dollars when they cost almost twice that sum? Here is the story of a lady who solved that problem. A dear little bride, who had just married, had a check for $3.00 from an aunt, with the instructions to get anything she wanted. She wanted a silver baking dish, but there wasn't enough money.

After due deliberation she purchased two settings of white leghorn eggs, for $1.50 a setting, and a kind neighbor loaned her two setting hens. She began to inform herself on chicken culture, and she went to Manhattan and Washington for fresh pullets which are so readily supplied on almost any subject. She raised to maturity thirteen pullets besides having about that many fry. To make a long story short, she took care of these hens the very best she knew, kept an egg calendar, raised over a hundred fry each summer for three years, and when she moved away at the end of that time she had sold $100 worth of eggs above the cost of feed, and she had a neighbor for $8.00, with which she bought her silver dish and three solid silver spoons.

Daily Hints For the Cook

COCONUT JUMBLIES.
Cream half cup butter, add gradually a cup of sugar, tablespoon milk, two beaten eggs, one cup coconut, two teaspoons baking powder in two cups flour. Roll thin. Cut with doughnut cutter. Sprinkle with sugar and coconut and bake in quick oven. Some times you may use less flour.

SPONGE CAKE.
Mix three well-beaten eggs, two cups of sugar, pinch of salt and one cup of flour. Then add one more cup of flour, a heaping teaspoon of baking powder, one cup of hot milk and flavoring. This makes two small loaves, or one good large one.

TWO EGG CAKE.
Separate two eggs and beat half cup of sugar into the yolks and half cup into the whites. Put the yolks and whites together after sugar has been stirred in. Add salt and a heaping teaspoon of baking powder and flour. Then beat half cup of milk and two tablespoons of butter together and mix this into the mixture. This will make a very thin batter, but it will be all right. Bake in a loaf, or in

To Make Ironing Easy

When a woman does her own ironing she should first make sure that she is dressed comfortably. A looser and thin, but light than usual, much advantage in the warm work. When the work is completed it is best to change to the regular apparel. It is especially in the work it is wise to have an old cushion upon which to stand. No one knows how much it will rest the tired feet, unless she has tried it.

The irons should be clean and smooth. The board should be covered with a cloth in which there are no seams or patches, as these make shiny creases and streaks in any garment. The cloth should be something especially undesirable in fine linen or woolen goods.

An old flannel sheet is a very good thing to tack on the ironing-board, with a light cotton one for the removable one, as it can be easily washed. A piece of bicast tied up in a rag to rub quickly over the bottom of a basket, will keep it smooth and insure its gliding over the clothes regularly. Especially if they are starched ones. If seams are pressed over a bromide or any rounded edge, care being taken to keep them straight, there will be no shining streak to mark their length, as is often the case when the pressing is done upon a flat surface. The iron can strike the wood but the point of the seam.

New Beaded Stocking

Paris has adopted the beaded stocking and from there it has been imported into this country. The new ideas are indeed stunning and most unusual. The beads are placed on the lace insertions or put directly on the plain silk stocking, according to the wishes of the wearer. They are also embroidered in any color to please the wearer, or to match the color of the gown. The beads are both large and small, silver, steel and gold being used. Others are made of the colored woods and jet is much used in the darker decorations.

Many of the patterns are light and delicate designs. They last a long time, as all the work is done by hand. Plain silk stockings, black, of a fine quality are embroidered in imitation pearls, the little beads being put on in straight lines, five or seven rows up and down the instep. Small brilliants are occasionally added to the embroidery, either at regular intervals or at the end of a row. A great deal of gold and silver is used on the colored stockings, put on in rows of insertion or in a single large piece over the instep.

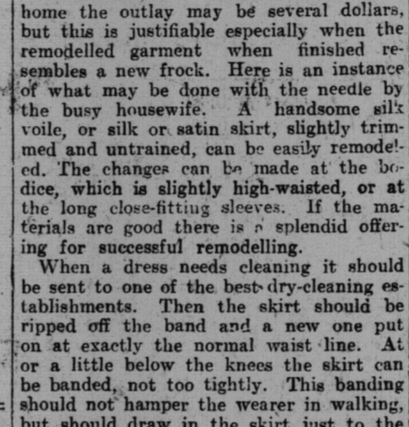

An Old Alarm Clock

In the Black Forest there is a little town of Schramberg and the village is a queer alarm clock that has been in operation since 1680. The clock is divided into remarkable pieces of workmanship. In form it resembles a lantern wherein is a lighted candle, the work of which is automatically clipped every minute by a pair of scissors.

The candle is slowly pushed upward by a spring which controls the mechanism of the clock; and at the required hour of waking an alarm is sounded at the same time the movable sides of the lantern fall and the room is flooded with light. Large sums of money have been offered the residents of the village for their wonderful clock but they have refused to part with it. The clock has been in constant operation since it was first installed.

REMODELLING OLD CLOTHES FOR WINTER

The remodeling and changing of winter clothes is often a necessity with many women, especially where the material is in good condition. This work very often repays the industrious sewer who is adept with the needle, as it can be accomplished at home without expenditure of the expenses are of the smallest variety. Of course, new materials and trimmings cost, but these are nothing when compared to the purchase of an entirely new outfit.

In the event of remodeling a very fine suit or frock, when the work is done at home the outlay may be several dollars, but this is justifiable especially when the remodelled garment when finished resembles a new frock. Here is an instance of what may be done with the needle by the busy housewife. A handsome silk voile, or silk or satin skirt, slightly trimmed and untraced, can be easily remodelled. The changes can be made at the bedside, which is slightly high-waisted, or at the long close-fitting sleeves. If the materials are good there is a splendid offering for successful remodeling.

When a dress needs cleaning it should be sent to one of the best dry-cleaning establishments. Then the skirt should be ripped off the band and a new one put on at exactly the normal waist line. At or a little below the knees the skirt can be banded, not too tightly. This banding should not hamper the wearer in walking, but should draw in the skirt just to the correct lines. The band is first pinned all the way around and the fullness is properly adjusted before it is sewed on, for if it pulls to one side or the other the effect is bad. Often new facing or braid is needed about the bottom.

Rip the sleeves and yoke out of the bodice. Press lightly on the wrong side with a warm iron and shirr the fullness into the shoulder seams instead of plating it. At the same time allow the shoulders to pressure as long as the back will allow. Shirr the fullness just below the bust line into a smooth-fitting space of about three inches and then cover with a band matching the rest of the skirt. But the latter should be narrower and have the puffing all the way around the neck. The neck should be finished with either a yoke or standing collar.

If the skirt is cut out a little too low set a piece of lace in underneath at the bottom, so that it comes up from the point of the bust to the point of a pair of scissors. Every single thread should be picked out and pains should be taken with the neck look to come out with the use of the stiletto. The garment should be thoroughly brushed, shaken and cleaned. When there are only a few soiled places the attempt can be made to remove them at home, but where there are a number of such spots the garment should be taken to the dry cleaner.

When the bottom of a white or light-colored skirt of any woolen material is soiled try placing it in a large earthen bowl and covering the soiled places plentifully with white cornmeal or flour. Rub

In Air-Tight Tins until it reaches your home. Why?

Because coffee, after it is roasted, whether bean, ground or crushed, must be kept in absolutely air-tight packages. Otherwise it quickly loses flavor and strength. This is one of the reasons why we never sell coffee in bulk to be ground in the store when you buy it. It must be protected from the air from the very start.

Our tins are double sealed. First there is a band put on the seam where the cover joins the tin, and over this band the label is placed, doubly sealing it and making it absolutely air-tight.

this in gently on both sides and cover with additional meal. Then shake in powdered borax and allow it to stand overnight or longer. Then rub gently as though washing in water, shake out thoroughly and brush in the open air.

When cleaning jet—a favorite trimming on dresses at the present time—remove all the dust with a soft brush and where the surface is large enough to warrant the trouble take a piece of cotton dipped in a little sweet oil and touch up the places. Then rub lightly with a piece of old bed glove to give added lustre. Jet is often quite brittle and care should be taken in the work. A study should also be made of the weaves and the ways of handling the different kinds of cloth when it is desired to make over a suit of a fine material.

A Busy Promoter

In the Yiddish theatre of New York the promoter is the busiest person in the place. Yiddish actors never take the trouble to memorize their parts, and for this reason the promoter's words are often heard above those of the actor. The promoter is generally located in the front box of the theatre in order that he may be easily heard by the actors when they forget their lines. Many of the Hebrew plays are written without words, and the actors are supposed to make them up as they go along.

MODERN MARTYRS!

The age of martyrs is not passed. There are thousands of men all over the country enduring physical torture and mental anguish almost beyond description.

These ladies, as a rule, are women and girls of refined and sensitive temperaments. Knowing that their sufferings are due to a disorder of the condition of the female system, they do not consult a physician, they usually get some drug mixture to take internally, which is not more effective for troubles of this kind than a toothache, a bruise, or any other trivial ailment.

ORANGE LILY as a remedy for these ailments, as well as for lumbago, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., is a most effective and safe remedy. It is a natural product of the earth, and is used by thousands of people all over the world.

NEWSPAPER IN FORM OF A REVIEW

New York Publisher to Try Experiment With Daily Next Month—It Will Be Called the News Letter

New York, Nov. 4.—A daily newspaper, giving the news of the world in the form of a daily review, is to be issued, beginning about December 1. It will be named the News Letter and will appear about 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The purpose of the News Letter, it states, will be threefold. First, to condense the news of the world for the benefit of the busy man of affairs, supplementing it by the best news of importance up to the hour of going to press.

The News Letter will carry the 'digest' of its ultimate conclusion—a daily edition. It will rest upon the thought that with the multiplication of periodicals the time has come for a daily which will condense and digest the weeklies of the world, but the daily newspapers themselves, and not only for the benefit of the reader at large, but as a matter of historical reference for public and individual libraries.

It is his intention that the News Letter shall appeal distinctly to thinking people in New York city and the country at large, and to readers of the Review, in this character, although issued daily, will be on account of its peculiar features, of special interest to readers of the Review, especially in the metropolitan belt in all parts of the United States, though sold in Chicago twenty-four hours late, and in San Francisco on five days after the day of publication.

The News Letter will not pay the usual attention to newspaper questions, as its readers, it is supposed, will get the details of such things in full from the present newspapers. The paper will create a habit of its own, rather than attempt to invade any field served by any present publication, or to compete with anything now published.

SOCIALISM IN ENGLAND

Toronto's Chief Librarian After Trip Across, Says He Saw No Decadence

Toronto, Nov. 4.—"England is changing her masses are being brought more and more into government power, but it is not a decadence," said Dr. George H. Locke, chief librarian of Toronto, after his return from a tour of the United Kingdom.

"This change in the people of England is the result of rapid development of Socialism," Dr. Locke explained. "The type of Socialism that is coming to the front there is what may be termed the constructive type. The destructive type which flourishes in the primary stages of Socialism, is becoming obsolete. The constructive type is forcing the will of the people into the government and at the same time lessening the power of the old-time governing class."

"This condition applies to Scotland and Ireland as well," the doctor declared, "and to be reckoned with in the future form of government of the United Kingdom."

In Europe organization is imperfect. It does not appeal strongly to the people. In England over-organization is noticeable everywhere. So highly organized are the institutions in England the people have been afraid of innovations. But they are now losing that fear," said Dr. Locke, "and waking up to the necessities of national existence."

All over the United Kingdom liberal aid is given to the erection of little cottages which are rented for a shilling a week. These comfortable homes at very low rental are inducing people to live on small holdings of land, and the farming industry is reviving. Tenants are also buying their holdings of land. This is producing a middle class in the country that promises better value to Great Britain than the middle class in the cities.

"I saw no signs of a decadence of the British people," the doctor declared. "In fact, I saw numerous signs of healthy growth of practical betterment of social and industrial life. If the large landholders are selling their property it is because their land may be readily sold at higher prices than ever before offered."

"A spirit of social helpfulness dominates everywhere in Great Britain. The paternalism shown by the titled landowners to their tenants will not cease with the purchase by tenants of their land holdings for manufacturers are adopting the same responsibility for tenants of homes in the model cities that have been erected by the built for owners of large industries. With the working class better housed and with the employing class doing its utmost to provide work for the unemployed of the British nation is very improvable."

YES, SOONER OR LATER. "A woman in a Boston restaurant last night ordered baked beans. When they came she covered them with ketchup (ketchup, catsup). Then she covered them with sugar," says the Boston Globe. Our contemporary does not do it. "Paternal no lie later," but that is understood, we suppose.—Richmond Leader.

SINGLE TAX PLAN IN VANCOUVER

That single tax is attracting the attention of economists and municipal governments everywhere is demonstrated by the large number of letters that come into the mayor's office daily inquiring as to the success of the "Vancouver experiment" which, indeed, no longer can be regarded as an experiment at all, since the single tax has resulted in such a rapid upbuilding of the city that no one, not even extensive land owners have any desire to return to the non-progressive former scheme of taxation.

The land owners as a matter of fact, receive greater benefits from the single tax than even the builders and building owners themselves, for while the tax on improvements has been abolished, the land tax has not been increased, and still remains twenty-two per cent of the dollar, just as it was before the single tax was adopted. With the tax remaining the same, whether a site is improved or unimproved, it is really $200 a year that owners would rather have their property improved and bringing in an income. It is simply a question of which is the best policy, to have a dollar lying idle in an old sock or to have it working, bringing in an income, at a bank.

Figures to Demonstrate

The municipal building statistics during the last fifteen years clearly demonstrate the value of the single tax in hastening the substantial upbuilding of a city. The figures show a 50 per cent reduction in the value of building improvements was voted in the year 1895, building operations in the city of Vancouver represented approximately $300 per capita. In the year 1909 the per capita value of building improvements increased to $245, and in 1908—the end of the ten-year period during which the fifty per cent was in operation—the per capita value of improvements had increased to $284. A similar increase was shown immediately following the further reduction to twenty-five per cent. In 1908 the per capita valuation of building improvements was $302.06, and in 1909 the figures were $289.40, and yet these statistics, striking as they may seem, do not half tell the story for the reason that the population of Vancouver increased from 17,000 in 1891 to over 100,000 last year, and in the last five years has been trebled. That Vancouver's building operations have exceeded those of any other city in the Pacific north-west is clearly shown by a comparison with the building figures presented by the statisticians of the other municipalities. A glance at the following table shows the steady increase since 1895 and also the reduction in the assessable property in proportion to the amount of money spent in improvements:

Table with columns: Year, Real Property, Assessable Property, Total Property. Data points for years 1895-1909.

For buildings have been applied for at a more rapid rate than at any other time since the incorporation of the city, and it is estimated that over a million dollars worth of handsome private residences are either under construction now or will be before the end of the year. Since the first of the year six steel sky-scrapers have been projected, two of them are already under construction and plans for four more have been drawn. Modern steel apartment buildings are going up in every section of the city, and frame and brick buildings that for years have stood untouched on Granville street are now giving way to steel structures. The effect of the single tax on building operations has been immediate, but nowhere has the beneficence of the system been more fully felt than among factory workers and wage earners. In Vancouver 75 per cent of the workers own their homes. This estimate is conservative, and is based on figures prepared by the employers of labor.

WAS REDUCED TO A SKELETON

GIVEN UP BY THE DOCTORS AND PREPARED TO DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HER LIFE

The days of the miracle had not passed away. Every day—almost every hour—"Fruit-a-tives" is performing miracles of health in some part of our country! One does not ordinarily think of miracles in connection with fruit juices—and yet it is fruit juices that are changing sick, helpless, and sometimes dying, people into happy, healthy men and women. Here is just one case in which the cure made by "Fruit-a-tives" was nothing short of a miracle.

MADAME ARTHUR TOURANGEAU.

During digestion, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from one end of the stomach to the other, and then the food is not dissolved properly and indigestion and Chronic Dyspepsia results.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Indigestion, Sour Stomach and Chronic Dyspepsia because the fruit juices act on the muscular coat and ensure the Gastric Juice being full strength and abundant. If you have any Stomach Weakness or Trouble of Digestion, by all means take "Fruit-a-tives." 50c a box—6 for $3.00—trial size, 25c. Sent on receipt of price, if your dealer does not handle them, by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Here is her letter—read it—study it—profit by it. Riviere, A. Pierre, Co. Portneuf, Que., May 6th, 1910. "I look upon my recovery as nothing short of a miracle. I was for eleven years, constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia and Indigestion with Constipation. The last two years of my illness, I was confined to my bed nearly all the time. I was treated by several doctors and they simply did me no good. During the latter part of my illness, I was so thin that I weighed only 20 pounds, and I vomited everything I ate. Even water would not stay on my stomach.

The doctors gave me up to die, as the stomach trouble proved beyond remedy. I was frequently unconscious. I received the Last Rites of the Church and looked forward to death in a short time. I was treated to a skeleton.

At this time, I fully intended strongly urging me to try "Fruit-a-tives." I did so. When I had taken one box, I was much better and after three boxes, I was able to get up and had gained 20 pounds. I had taken 13 boxes in all and now weigh 120 pounds and am absolutely well—no pain—no indigestion—no constipation—my heart is sound—and complexion clear.

For the sake of my sufferers, I give you permission to publish my letter and photograph."

MADAME ARTHUR TOURANGEAU.

The stomach is a bag about a foot long and six inches wide, covered by a muscular coat and lined with delicate membrane. This lining membrane should pour out for each meal about a pint of Digestive Fluid called Gastric Juice, which dissolves or digests the food.

For the sake of my sufferers, I give you permission to publish my letter and photograph."

Other cities of the west, making efforts to attract capital to them, have discovered that land owners instinctively "boost" prices to the outside purchaser and thus stand in the way of the city's progress. With the single tax in force, no property owner is going to set up a claim that his property is worth twice its real value, when he knows that such a claim will make him pay twice the amount of taxes he is now paying. Under the single tax as it is operated in Vancouver, a new sky line of tall, substantial buildings of stone and granite, and under the single tax, not only is the man who builds benefited, but also the land owner, the tenant and the man who works with his hands in the city's factories and saves his money to build his family a place they can call home.

Rheumatism and Kidney Troubles

ARE QUICKLY, SURELY "FATHER MORRISCY'S No. 7" CURED BY

It is doubtful if any other form of disease causes so much acute suffering as does Kidney Trouble, with the Rheumatism which results from it. In treating the sick of his parish Father Morrissey soon found this out, and he set himself at once to find a safe and certain remedy.

He succeeded, and has left us a prescription, known as "Father Morriscy's No. 7," which has already relieved and cured thousands.

The Kidneys have been called the "sewers" of the body. Their work is to take out of the blood the worn out tissue and other impurities which it gathers up from different parts of the body.

Campbellton, Dec. 6th, 1903. FATHER MORRISCY MEDICINE CO., LTD. Two years ago I was that with kidney trouble that six hospital doctors told me that it was not possible for me to live. I was bed-ridden so that I could scarcely walk, my usual weight being one hundred and sixty pounds and I was bed-ridden so that I weighed two hundred and thirty. I went to see Father Morrissey and after using his medicine for eight days I went to work and have been at work ever since, and I am glad to say that at present I am in perfect health.

Respectfully,—DAVID FAHEY. Chatham, N.S., Feb. 9, 1908. THE FATHER MORRISCY MEDICINE CO., LTD. I took Father Morriscy's Prescription for Inflammatory Rheumatism. I had suffered every day for three weeks with the most excruciating pain, but in three weeks after starting Father Morriscy's Prescription was able to get up and work and I am highly recommended to any sufferer with Rheumatism.

Rev. Father Morrissey

YOU CAN STOP THAT COUGH

It promptly clears the air passages and lungs—stops the cough and inflammation—rebuilds and strengthens the delicate cells and membranes, so that they can resist future attacks. It cures Croup and Lung Tonic.

TRIAL SIZE, 25 CENTS; REGULAR SIZE, 50 CENTS. Terra Nova, Cape Breton, N.S. FATHER MORRISCY MEDICINE CO., LTD. During the Fall of 1903 I contracted a Severe Cold which settled upon my Lungs. After being treated by two Physicians of high standing my condition was not any better, but in fact getting worse. My friends began to have serious doubts about my recovery. I had heard of Father Morriscy's remarkable career as a medical adviser and wrote him explaining my case. In a few days I received an encouraging letter from him, and some of his "Lump Tonic" and immediately I began to improve, gaining fourteen pounds in two months.

I am, Yours sincerely, ANNIE McDONALD. These are exactly the same remedies as were prescribed by Father Morrissey himself. They are set up by the same druggists, from the original prescriptions left by the priest-physician. Each of these prescriptions has been thoroughly tested—by the original—and has a record of hundreds of cures. Get them at your dealer's, or from FATHER MORRISCY MEDICINE CO., LTD., CHATHAM, N.S.

ACHES AND PAINS DISAPPEAR

BEFORE FATHER MORRISCY'S LINIMENT.

Pains and aches, due to accident or disease, are all too common in every family, and there is a vast amount of needless suffering among those who do not know Father Morriscy's Liniment.

Father Morriscy prescribed this Liniment regularly in his practice, and with most satisfactory results. It is mild and pleasant, and most effective in getting right in to the seat of the trouble and curing it.

Father Morriscy's Liniment, as it makes the skin very soft and smooth, and does not blister. Moreover, it feels and smells clean. In Rheumatism it gives valuable assistance to the "No. 7" prescription in promptly relieving the pain. In Sore Throat and Cold in the Chest, the Liniment, well rubbed in, with a few drops more applied on a piece of flannel wrung out of hot water, will help "No. 10" (taken internally) to break up the cold and stop the cough.

For Backache, Toothache, Earache, Sprains, Strains, Sore Muscles, Chapped Hands or Chilled Feet, Burns or Frost Bites, Cuts or Bruises, Father Morriscy's Liniment gives quick and certain relief. 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

WHERE WOMEN RULE

Picturesque Conditions Among the Beautiful Natives of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec

Woman dominates the city on the torrid Isthmus of Tehuantepec. Here the great cities are recognized and undisputed. The fact that the women do 90 per cent of the business. A striking characteristic of these Tehuana beauties is their commercial enterprise. In the market place, where most of the bartering is done, they reign supreme. The wife owns the property, she holds the family purse strings, and she must even vote for the husband before he can obtain credit.

PROMOTES APPETITE

The delicious roast beef flavor of SOVRL pleases the most capricious appetite, and its nutritive qualities tone up and strengthen the digestive system thus bringing back the desire for ordinary food and the power to assimilate it.

COTTON REPORT

The Situation Analyzed in Weekly Letter for the Times

(Supplied by J. M. Robinson & Sons, St. John)

New York, Nov. 4.—We have had a continued nervous and unsettled market with slight fluctuations; thirty point movements being of almost daily occurrence. It seems to us that the market has reacted on the one hand, a fall in spot demand following the completion of October engagements and a tendency to increase estimates of the crop, while on the other it has shown the influence of general killing temperatures in the south and a renewal of support from some of the large southern interests who are still active in having been so successful on the bull side last season.

A NEW WAY TO ADVERTISE

The Retail Stores Observe Retail Week

Something entirely new in the way of advertising goods will be tried here next week, when Oct. 27 to Nov. 2, inclusive, King street, and other leading retail stores will observe Retail week. It is done in the municipalities of the United States and Canada. There are about 1,000 Retail agents in North America and from Nov. 7 to Nov. 12, next, they will devote to advertising and retail preparations along lines similar to the way, advertised today in this paper. The Retail week, because they are really a co-operative company, are able to secure many practical and interesting ideas at just what costs to manufacture them. These articles they give away absolutely free of charge with their preparations. The plan is to sell the goods without profit and some actual loss in order to have people acquainted with the line. Retail agents believe that if the goods are once used, they will be always used and the guarantee of company and agent makes the customer perfectly safe, for he knows that the medicine or toilet preparations will cost him nothing unless it cures and gives satisfaction. Mr. Mackenzie's advertisement on page today is of special interest.

MORNING LOCALS

Madame Marie Narelle, who is to be married in the Opera House Monday night, arrived in the city yesterday. She is registered at the Royal Hotel.

The fire department was called out about 8:30 o'clock last night to extinguish a blaze in the roof of John Dean's house in Elliot Row. The damage was very small.

Another patrol of Boy Scouts was organized yesterday by Malcolm Bradley, in St. Paul's church. The Y. M. C. A. last night training exercises were conducted for the scouts by W. H. Moor.

The St. John Tuberculosis Association was very successful and their efforts were highly commended. Mr. Mackenzie's advertisement on page today is of special interest.

Yesterday was children's day at the Temple of Honor Fair. Harold Beverly, the boys' door prize, and Miss Greta Akers, the girls' door prize. The ladies' board prize was won by Mrs. Miller.

Marshal Armstrong won the shooting gallery prize and Dr. Nase won the boys' door prize. Ticket 224 was the door prize, a paper. The fair will close this evening.

THE CANADA MONTHLY

"Put him down in the middle of an unrepresentative section," says Augustus Brown, "Dan" Mann in Canada Monthly (formerly Canada West) for November, and he'd build a railway and a canal out in a Pullman, or a hand-car if necessary. And, judging from what the Dominion knows of the man, the combination of the two is a shrewd one.

Arthur Stringer in the same number tells how Michael J. O'Connell, a wooden leg and pulled off a miracle, Katherine Hughes recites the adventures she had while traveling alone by steamer and truck board and game among the fur posts of the Peace River. W. D. Eaton tells another Old Creole-Man story, this about "how Danny Grogan got his from the snake lady," and Mae Harris Anson goes adventures "In search of a Breakfast and beautiful but not nourishing scenery." Bessie Cameron, "The Triumph of Koominkoo," "The first one-eyed, nine fingers, a bald spot and a shirt." W. Lacey Amy continues the commercial adventures of his jewelry saleswoman, and Bonnyvale Ed explains the pleasures of farming among the islands of British Columbia. The illustrations are by Frederick M. Grant, Ellsworth Young, Charles Maclellan, S. H. Risenberg, F. D. Schwalm, H. H. Stuart, Campbell and others. The cover design is a striking portrait of Dr. W. Mann.

A French physiologist has discovered what he calls "aviation sickness," which he believes to be a new kind of motion sickness. It is due, he says, to a depression of the diaphragm caused by the rarity of the air at a certain height above the level, the speed and vibration of the aeroplane, beside producing a disturbance of the brain centers in which is localized the sense of equilibrium. He hopes that science will find a means of counteracting these effects.

New System of Fat Reduction

The saying that "there is nothing new under the sun" does not now apply to fat people. Here is something new for them—a new system, a new pleasure, a new and graceful cure, easily found by anyone who is passing beyond the limits of amputation. Everyone has heard of Marmola's Prescription, that famous remedy for fat-fat-defying diet, discovered by one of our foremost physicians. Now, from the same high authority, there comes another idea—the new system of fat reduction, a new, harmless, and pleasant little tablet. Taken after eating and at bedtime, this holy-tablet, will dispose of all the fat, converting them into compact, soft, muscle, and energy, without dieting or exercise, and without any of the usual evils of dieting—no loss of sleep, no loss of appetite, no loss of strength, no loss of health, no loss of life. Marmola's Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists or sent post paid by the Marmola Co., 1179 Monroe avenue, Detroit, Mich. A large case—sufficient to bring lasting benefit—is but 75c.

SUDDEN DEATH OF POLICE SERGEANT ROSS OF CARLETON

Sergt. Jacob Ross, for thirty-four years a member of the police force, and one of the most widely known members of the department, died suddenly at his home in West End last night. His death came as a great shock as he had been on duty during the day and it was only in the evening that he complained of feeling ill. A little after 10 o'clock he suffered severe pains in the heart, and Dr. F. L. Kenney was hastily summoned but the veteran policeman was dying when he arrived.

My doctor gave me medicine but it did me no good, so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends."

BALL PLAYERS' SALARIES DOUBLED IN TEN YEARS

The Pay Roll Shows the Advancement in the Game—Some of the Big Men of the Diamond and the Salaries They are Paid.

Probably nothing better illustrates the advancement of baseball than the manner in which salaries have increased in the major leagues, and, comparatively, in the southern and all other minor circuits. Ten years ago, for instance, no player in the world was receiving more than $5,000 and but one, Jimmie Collins, then the kingpin of the Boston outfit, drew that amount.

KOREA'S REAL NAME. Most of the newspapers and many of their readers have denominated the Japanese not only for annexing Korea, but for changing its very name. In the treaty of annexation Korea is called (ho-seu), which has been the name of the country for the last five hundred years or more.

SAYS HE SAW GHOST ON ROAD NEAR FAIRVILLE

Carleton Man Reports a Scare While Driving Home From Lorneville Last Night

Here is a real ghost story. The alleged spirit was seen by John Galbraith of King street, West, St. John, in what is known as the haunted district near the old Shives house on Manawagonish last night.

The house, a very old one, is three or four miles out from Fairville, and has been unoccupied for many years. Many stories are told of the manner in which some former occupants met death, and this has been responsible for ghosts; and this is not the first time that visitors from another world are alleged to have been seen in and about the old house.

Mr. Galbraith says that he was passing the place about 8 o'clock last night on his way home from Lorneville and when opposite the house suddenly he heard "some thing floating through the air" beside his horse. It became more distinct, and he says that he had no difficulty in making out the outline of an aged woman. The horse became frightened at the white specter in the darkness and Mr. Galbraith was much alarmed and plunged so that it became unmanageable. He called out to the apparition and it faded away as mysteriously as it had appeared. Arriving at his home he was much wrought up and those who heard his story have been impressed with it.

ST. PETER'S HIGH TEA

All Ready for Opening on Monday Evening—A Scene of Beauty

For some time the committee in charge of the annual high tea and fancy sale of St. Peter's parish have been busy in making preparations for the event, and the result is apparent on entering the large hall in King street, where on Monday evening the affair will open. The appearance of the interior of the hall has undergone a vast change, and those responsible for the transformation are to be congratulated.

A magnificent color scheme has been well developed, and a blaze of splendor greets the eye. The colors blend very nicely, the pink and white and green and white of the long supper tables, the red and white of other booths, with stretches of greenery, and innumerable electric bulbs, uniting forces to display to advantage the artistic tastes of the ladies in charge of the fair.

The ladies having control of the supper tables have with each other in their endeavors to have the table they represent considered the most attractive but it is difficult to make a choice and when a berry of pretty waitresses are seen hovering about each of them next week, the truth of these statements will be more forcibly realized.

The decorations on the pink table, are tastefully arranged and are very pretty. Hundreds of pink chrysanthemums, with ivy and leaves, contrasting with an abundance of white, are used in the decorations forming a pretty lattice work. Over the centre of the table is suspended a large oriental umbrella, glowing with electric bulbs and casting a radiance over the surroundings.

The green table also has been carefully looked after and presents a charming spectacle. The trimmings used are green and white, with a profusion of poinsettias, which adds to the prettiness of the table. Green and white strippings are used as in the other supper tables to form a lattice work, separating the table from the outer part of the hall, while inside, swinging above the long and tempting supper table, is seen a large green and white bell, trimmed with dainty white poppies, and embedded in which are peeping electric globes.

The decorations in the ice-cream parlor are orange and white, and are very nicely arranged. The name tree of the fancy table, doll booth, chance booth, and the whole affair reflects great credit on the managing ability of Rev. M. Maloney, C.S.S.R., who has been supervising the arrangements.
