NO UNIONS WANTED

International Fire Engineers Say No Unionist Can Be a True and Trusted Fireman.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 11.—The International Association of Chief Fire Engineers recalled the paper submitted by Chief A. J. Harris, of Tampa, Fla., entitled: "Should firemen become members of labor unions," which the board of directors shelved on account of its severe attack on unions, and was recorded upon the minutes, thereby gaining the approval of the convention.

Chief Harris said: The moment the fireman becomes a labor unionist, he ceases to be a true and trusted fireman. Consider the fireman bound by the strict rules of organized labor. The result is horrible to contemplate. Our hazardous experience in Tampa taught all those who watched the conflict with unprejudiced eyes that the limit of labor unionism had been reached when it seeks to enter the fire service.

There are many reasons why a fireman should not be unionized. Politics in a fire department is bad enough, but labor unionism is infinitely worse.

GOODSPEED WILL GET THE LIMIT

Will Probably Serve 5 Years at Dorchester

Sentence Delayed So He Can First Be Put in Penitentiary on Old Charge

His Honor Judge Landry called into court this morning the prisoners convicted during the circuit and pronounced sentence.

Joseph Carr, for escaping from the G. P. squad at the park was given four months in the county jail in addition to the time left from his previous sentence, making about six months in all.

Becket, the only one of the "Torry-burn" prisoners to be convicted, was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

The passing of Goodspeed's sentence was deferred until Sept. 29th. It is understood that this postponement is made in order to bring Goodspeed under the workings of the act recently passed, allowing refractory prisoners under sentence at the reformatory to be transferred to the penitentiary.

The sentence which can be passed upon him for assault and attempted escape will not at its maximum be very heavy. He has yet two years to serve at the reformatory and were his new sentence to be pronounced now he would be freed from that much of his original penalty. But if, under the new law, he can be transferred to the penitentiary now, the new sentence can be made to take effect after he has served out the old one, thus giving him two years more than would be possible if the sentence had been pronounced.

As the maximum sentence for the offences of which Goodspeed is found guilty is three years, it is probable that the total time he will have to serve at Dorchester will be five years.

MR. WILSON'S SHORT SPEECH.

It was a very short speech that Mr. Uriah Wilson made in the house of commons the other day, but short as it was, there was much in it.

"God knows," replied the member for Lennox.

RIPE FOR RECIPROCITY.

American Leader of Movement Says Canada Is Not Following Chamberlain's Proposition.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 11.—Eugene McCarthy, leader of the American movement for reciprocity, who has been the guest of the chamber of commerce here, said yesterday in the course of a brief interview: "New England, like the middle west, is alive on the reciprocity issue, and it only needs some occurrence as the expected re-assembly of the joint high commission to bring the reciprocity sentiment to the front. Canada is by no means unresponsive to reciprocity, and just now she is absorbed in the consideration of her great railroad struggle. Nevertheless I am sure that neither the government or a sane majority of the people have been led astray by the Chamberlain proposition. In my opinion Chamberlain's plan is only an extension of the principle which we advocate. He believes in reciprocity with the colonies, and so do we, and whether or not he succeeds in converting his own country, it is just as important that the United States should make reciprocity a treaty with Canada as it was before."

ENGLISH WORKMEN DEPORTED

Cotton Spinners Brought From England Sent Back by American Government

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—For the alleged violation of the United States contract law, five persons, one of whom is a woman, are under arrest and will be deported. The prisoners are experienced English spinners who had been employed in the Neponset woolen mills at Canton. The arrests were made by detail of immigration inspectors from this city, who allege that the mill hands were brought to this country and given employment under contract made across the water. They all come from the manufacturing centre of Morley, England, and it is alleged, were engaged by an agent of the Canton mills.

A peculiar feature of the case is that the same party came over on the Cunard steamer Saxonia on July 24 and were deported from landing, because of the statements made that they had been promised employment at Canton before leaving England. They were returned to Liverpool on August 15th, but it is claimed that they had hardly landed at Liverpool when they were met by an agent of the Neponset mills who made an agreement with them to work in the cotton mills at Canton. The British home government, they were given passage to Montreal on an Allen line steamer, at which port they landed on August 26th. The officials here learned of their appearance in Canton through Montreal officials.

BRITISH FLEET WILL VISIT U.S.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The Press Association today announced that the British home squadron would be sent to the United States on a courtesy visit in return for the visit of the United States squadron to Portsmouth.

The home squadron is commanded by Vice Admiral Sir Arthur K. Wilson, and has just returned from a successful participation in the naval manoeuvres. It will sail Sept. 16 for a six weeks' cruise around Scotland. Shortly afterwards, according to the announcement, the squadron will sail for America. The British home squadron consists of the first-class battleships Benbow, Empress of India, Hood, Revenge, Royal Oak, Royal Sovereign and Sanspareil, the second-class battleship Anson, the first-class cruisers Edgar and Hawke, the second-class cruisers Dido, Mercury and Venus and several other powerful cruisers.

CASE SETTLED.

The case of Stockton, executrix, vs. Jones, which was to have come up in the circuit court this morning, was settled by counsel out of court. The action was brought by the executrix of the estate of the late Charles A. Stockton against the estate of the late Thomas R. Jones, for the recovery of fees for services rendered by Charles A. Stockton, K. C., represented the estate of Charles A. Stockton, and C. J. Coster, K. C., the estate of Thomas R. Jones.

THE BERMUDA BAND.

The Bermuda band, in charge of Bandmaster Shumway, and composed of fourteen colored Salvationists, who are now touring the provinces, came to the city this morning and are being entertained at the homes of different members of the army. The band marched up the street this morning and attracted considerable attention. They will give a concert in the Charlotte street barracks this evening and leave for Yarmouth tomorrow morning.

DICKENS' BIRTHPLACE.

House at Portsmouth Where the Novelist Was Born to be Disposed of at Auction.

The house in which Charles Dickens was born on February 7, 1812, at Portsmouth, England, is to be sold at auction on Tuesday, September 29. The house, which is No. 38 Commercial road, is to be disposed of by direction of the trustees of the will of the late Miss Sarah Pearce, its last owner, and the sale will take place at the auction mart of Messrs Penney & Clark, King's road South.

The historical value of the residence, it is said, is greatly increased by the fact that no other memorial to the great novelist exists in Portsmouth, and the auctioneers call attention to the fitting opportunity that is afforded for the formation of a Dickens' museum, which would prove a great attraction to his numerous admirers from all parts of the world.

Eight-year Old Boy Accidentally Shoots Elder Sister Through the Heart.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Stewart Johnson, aged 8 years, shot and killed his sister, Mabel, 16 years old, at their home last night. NEW SHELL ARRIVES.

Neptune's New Boat is a Beauty—It Came on the Calvin Austin Today.

The new racing shell ordered a very long time ago by the Neptune Rowing Club from Davy at Fairville, arrived in the city this morning by the Calvin Austin and is now lying in the Eastern S. S. Co's warehouse. Judging from appearances the shell is a fine one, and should set well in the water. It is forty-three feet long and nineteen inches wide and is fitted with the most improved outriggers and sliding seats. The shell is built entirely of Spanish cedar, three-sixteenths of an inch in thickness, and while evidently not as light as some, it is none too heavy. The estimated weight has not yet been ascertained, but the shell will weigh this afternoon before being taken to Rothesay, where the crew are now in training for the October regatta.

The new shell was built for $250. The crew cost $24 additional, $105 was paid for duty and about $20 for freight and expressage, bringing the total cost to about $420.

STREET RAILWAY QUILTS WORK.

The street railway company have practically quit work on the West Side extensions and it is not yet decided what will be done during the next few days. On Wednesday evening some of the men working on the Carleton line were laid off, while the remainder remained at work yesterday filling in the trench. Today only a few are employed cleaning up. The track has been completed to city line, and will not go any further until some settlement is arrived at with the common council.

It was thought that the men would be at once put to work on the Fairville branch, but this has not been done as yet, although the few remaining laborers may be sent there when they finish what little remains to be done on Prince street.

The matter will be discussed at the directors' meeting on Monday.

Harris—Right field.

THE PASSING JEST.

A little boy was asked by his Sunday school teacher why a certain part of the church was called the altar. "Because it is where the people change their names," he promptly answered.

Stout old gentleman (in crowded train to slim young man next to him)—I say, young man, if you had good good luck, would you give up and give the lady a seat? If you got up your self, sir, said the slim young man, you would give her two seats.

"Papa," asked a four-year-old youngster, "are all little boys made of dust?" "Yes, my son," was the reply. "Well, then," continued the little fellow, "I wish you would make sure dust stopping me with that clothesbrush, I'm afraid she'll brush me all away."

"When," shouted a day when every man shall get all he earns?" "It'll come along about the time," fiercely answered the man in the crowd, who was there for that purpose, "it will come when every man gets all he gets!"

"Well, yer wurship, the prisoner was causing a disturbance outside O'Ryan's public house, and I told him to desist." "And did he?" asked the J. P. of the court. "No, your honor, but immediately turned round, and lifting the bandage—"he gave a black of which O'Ryan produced."

A lawyer once said to a countryman in a smock-frock, who was undergoing his examination in the witness-box: "You in the smock-frock, how much are you paid for telling untruths?" "Less than you are," was the reply, "or you would be in a smock-frock, too."

The lady of the house entering finds the good-looking young house-painter kissing the housemaid, and stands aghast. The house-painter—"It's all right, madam; Edith has promised to be my fiancée." The lady—"Your what? The house-painter—I should have said my fiancée."

"Now, Mary," said a mistress to an imported maid, "in the kitchen there is a pet tortoise, and I hope you will be kind to it. Do you know a tortoise when you see one?" "No, mum, sure, and what lot is it?" After having explained it to her, the girl went and brought it forth. "Is that it, mum?" "Yes," "Shure, and that is what O' was using to break the coals with."

A CANNY SCOT.

A sheep farmer in Perthshire, the owner of a fine collie dog, was visited by a gentleman who took a fancy to the dog and bought many pounds for the dog and bought him. Afterwards the gentleman asked the farmer if it would not be more profitable to breed such dogs instead of sheep.

"No, no," said the farmer; "I can aye get merchants to buy sheep, but I canna aye get fools to buy my dogs."

Mrs. John McDonald, Jr., and Miss Annie McKinney returned by the Calvin Austin this morning from Boston, Charlestown and Lowell.

THE McLEOD WHARF MUDDLE.

Alderman Baxter Tells an Interesting Story.

Council Was Urged Not to Let Contract by Days Work—Fair Trial For Cushing.

Ald. J. B. M. Baxter, talking to the Star today, gave his views on the McLeod wharf muddle and briefly reviewed the stand he took in the affair. Mr. Baxter said:

"The McLeod wharf has caused a great deal of trouble since the very inception of the project. The purchase was made for the express purpose of increasing deep water facilities on the east side of the harbor. Soon after the purchase, when considering plans for building, the board of works received reports from its officials that the existence of rock prevented the building of a deep water wharf at that place. I felt from other sources of information that this could not be correct, and was fortunate enough to induce the board of works to entrust the harbor master with the making of soundings. His report was that there was no rock in a position to prevent the building of a deep water wharf and the performance of the work has proved his investigation to have been correct. In this way an expenditure of $40,000 was prevented from being rendered practically useless."

"The next question which arose was that of contracting for the wharf building and dredging. Having obtained considerable information, as I thought, concerning dredging contracts and the performance of that kind of work both when a member of the council at the time of building the first Sand Point wharves and also in my capacity as one of the counsel in the Mayes-Connolly suit, I tried to impress the board with the view that it was not advisable to make a contract for dredging by day's work. I felt that it would be much safer to have a maximum estimate of the quantity to be removed and pay by the yard for all in excess of that quantity actually taken out, the contractor thus being limited as to the sum which he could possibly get for the performance of the whole work. In this view, as I recall the facts, I stood practically alone. The board determined to let the work by the day and themselves fixed the terms of the contract, that is, the terms were not made by the officials. I remember very clearly on one occasion when I had just finished speaking on this matter that an alderman, who now claims to have tried to get the council to take some interest in the work, followed me by saying, 'What's the use wasting time on this? Let's get down to business.' The business which this extremely intelligent representative was anxious to get at then was a patch of asphalt or some equally important matter."

"The McLeod wharf dredging was estimated to take about thirty days. At a meeting of the board of works held at about the expiration of that time I asked Director Cushing how near the work was to completion. He replied within a few days and wanted two or three days. At this answer I naturally felt that the board had not made any mistake in making the contract the way they did and that my anxiety had been groundless. You may imagine my surprise when, a few weeks later, almost by accident, I discovered at a meeting of the board that the 30 days had lengthened out to 48. The director told the board that he did not consider it was any part of his duty to inform the board from time to time that the contract was over-running in this way. Both Ald. Millidge and myself took strong ground on this point adverse to the director, and I must say that the incident seriously weakened the director in my judgment. We then found that the Navy Island dredging had over-run and the dredge was being put in Sand Point slip. I again got the dredging in the hands of the harbor master and he at once put a stop to the work. When you reflect that the city could only get value at all under the contract when the dredge was able to operate at all times of tide, you will appreciate how monstrous a thing it was to put her at the same price to work in this slip where she could only dredge for a short time before and after low water. However, the harbor master could not do this. Next came the difference between Mr. Connolly and the city as to payment. As one of a sub-committee on the matter I felt that the city should litigate the claim for no other purpose than by getting sworn evidence to fix the responsibility for this blundering somewhere. I found that the contract meant one thing to the director and something else to some members of the committee. There is no reflection on any one. It was just the difference of view between an engineer and a lawyer or two. The further we went into the matter the clearer it became that a thorough investigation was necessary. Upon the result of the trial I have nothing as yet to say. I intend to get the stenographer's report of the evidence and make up my mind from a civic standpoint, irrespective of what the findings of the jury may be."

"For the present I desire to say that it is not fair to score any official for the making of the contract. That is the work of the board and not of the engineers. I am not an apologist for Mr. Cushing, but I want him tried fairly upon the record of what he has done or omitted to do. As to the cheap talk of these big game doctors and lawyers in the council, which appeared in your paper as the expression of some unknown member's opinion, I may say, that notwithstanding any differences of opinion which I have had with Ald. Christie in the past, if I doubt there is a mechanic at the board whose general judgment on practical matters is as sound as that of the doctor, who is chairman of the board of works. Such cheap flings are commonly indulged in by men who contribute nothing of value to the discussion, and themselves and who are always ready and willing to see that the wishes of private companies and contractors are complied with, whatever may be the result to the city. I think that as a result of this case the whole council should carefully go over the evidence and then make such, if any, changes in either the men or the system by which contracts are carried out, as the testimony shows to be necessary."

BLIND, SHE THOUGHT TRIED TO END LIFE.

Tiny Salsberg, Opening Her Eyes in Darkened Room After Operation, Inhales Gas.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Tiny Salsberg, seventeen, tall, dark and pretty, lies in a cot in Gouverneur Hospital, whither she was taken from her home, No. 330 East Houston street, Sunday evening. This morning she may be taken to Bellevue Hospital, a prisoner, because she tried to kill herself when she lifted a bandage from her eyes and thought she could not see.

Tiny's eyesight began to fail her soon after she came to this country. At the hospital it was said she had cataracts growing over the pupils. A few weeks ago an operation was performed, and the growths removed. Then Tiny was taken home, her eyes tightly bandaged, and she was kept in a darkened room for a few days.

Sunday night Tiny became impatient, and, lifting the bandage, tried to see. The room was dark, but Tiny did not know that. She thought it was still daylight. When she found she could not see the girl fell to the floor in an agony of despair.

Then she resolved to kill herself. Groping her way to the kitchen she took the tube from the stove and put it into her mouth. She turned on the gas and lay down on a sofa. When her mother came in from the street the room was filled with gas. She called Tiny, but heard no answer. Then she ran into the street. Neighbors then sent for an ambulance and Tiny was taken to the hospital. All night the physicians worked over the girl, using tanks of oxygen to revive her. Last night it was said she was likely to recover.

"All the world does love a lover—I'm sure of that," said he; "Bees loves me, I discover, stoves and she's all the world to me."

CANADIAN IMMIGRANTS.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Pilot says that the immigrant to Western Canada is compelled to work at difficult and tedious tasks that demand all his energy and patience. His goal, however, is property and independence.

Sir Gilbert Parker lectures on education and the Empire at the commercial education session of the London Chamber of Commerce, commencing in October.

Of the cotton trade union leaders interviewed with regard to emigration operations in Canada, two stated they knew of none going. Another said that the emigration of single individuals is going on constantly to the United States, but not to Canada. A fourth stated that he had received application for operatives some time ago from Canada, but wages were not high enough to induce Lancashire people to go. If Canada wants Lancashire labor it will have to pay more than has yet offered.

The Globe says emigrants tempted to Canada by bogus proffers emanating from various so-called societies, are acting like people generally do when they are taken in, and have looked round for the nearest person to abuse, which has generally been the Canadian government. If emigrants act the fool and pay for false information when they can get the best for nothing, the fault does not lie at the door of the Canadian government. The Canadian emigration department, it says, is, on the whole, admirably organized.

The London correspondent for Yorkshire says that the company which has organized the new direct cable service between Canada and Great Britain is being strongly supported.

The trades union congress today, by an overwhelming majority, passed a resolution in favor of the 8 hour day.

DANGEROUS MUSIC.

Through the dust raised by the hot dispute on Chamberlain's tariff scheme we, who are distant from England, see but little of the struggle being made against the enforcement of the new education act by the English non-conformists. No enactment for many years has aroused such a determined opposition as is being presented to this law which virtually taxes every religious denomination in that country for the support of schools controlled by the Church of England. Almost every attempt to carry out the law where it is not approved is met by refusals of the old Puritan stubbornness. The government is face to face with the phenomenon of "passive resistance" against which other governments and rulers in days past have striven with to their own undoing.

At a recent trial of some of these "passive resisters" it is reported that a crowd collected outside the court and disturbed the proceedings by the singing of hymns. If the government is not blind they will think several times before they ignore this symptom and proceed with the pushing of the obnoxious law. Music of that kind is dangerous. The old Covenanters used to march to battle to the singing of hymns and Cromwell's Ironsides sang psalms as the tightened the straps of their cuirasses. A Kentucky mob with shotguns is a thing to smile at compared with a body of English puritans singing hymns.

PUBLIC OPINION AND THE G. T. P.

In condemning the persistent opposition presented to the G. T. P. bargain by the conservative party in parliament some of the subsidized journals have the hardihood to assert that the absence of any public clamor against the bill proves that it is acceptable to the people.

In the name of good government, how do they expect the people to show their disapproval; what do they mean by "public clamor"? We are not a people and this is not an age for red riot even in protest against the misdeeds of an unwise and corrupt administration. Even if conditions were ripe for any such display this measure under discussion is not one to influence public passion one way or another.

It is a matter of business. A government proposes to spend $150,000,000 unnecessarily and with criminal waste at the bidding of financial interests under the power of which the leaders of the government are held. The people consider, listen to the arguments pro and con and when the chance is given them will pronounce their verdict. It is a matter where hard-headed common sense is brought into play, not the elemental passions which a violation of individual rights might arouse; and common sense does not go thundering with dynamite bombs at the doors of state houses. When the people get their chance the clamor of adverse ballots will arouse the government to an appreciation of public sentiment.

But though no general verdict has been given practically all expression of opinion from societies, corporations, newspapers and individuals which are not blinded by self-interest nor partisanship, has been strongly against the measure. Not an independent journal of any standing in Canada but opposes it. The conservative party is a unit in its fight against the scheme.

Will not these be accepted as a partial substitute for that "public clamor" in the absence of which the government finds great encouragement.

The Toronto Mail and Empire calls attention to the stringency of the oath demanded of members of the Typographical Union. It binds those taking it to a duty which "shall in no sense be interfered with by any allegiance that I may now or hereafter owe to any other organization, social, political, or religious." A Roman Catholic priest has pointed out that the oath places the union higher than the church, so that no good Roman Catholic can take it. An inspector investigating the Chicago Postoffice has declared that men who have taken the oath cannot, without perjury swear to support the constitution of the United States. Certain labor movements undoubtedly are aiming at the creation of an imperium in imperio highly disadvantageous to the general welfare.

A western liberal paper avers that Mr. Tarte was referred to by conservative journals, in 1896, as a turncoat, in 1897 as beneath contempt, in 1898 as tricky, in 1900 as a villain, and in 1901 as a spendthrift. Then, according to the same liberal authority, the same conservative journals, in 1903, say Mr. Tarte is too good for the Laurier government. Is there in the latter statement anything inconsistent with the former ones?—Montreal Gazette.

In reply to the liberal organs which are still protesting against the use of the phrase "Cox can't wait" in the G. T. P. controversy, the Montreal Star recommends that the best way to stop the trouble is for Senator Cox to rise in his seat in the senate and definitely announce that he can wait.

The Telegraph is still boycotting the member for St. John city, "the man from New Brunswick," and has forgotten all about the "criminal blunder." But the Telegraph job establishment is extended to provide for more government printing.

It is understood that Mr. Blair is sorry that he did not allow the Tweedle-Pugley government to be beaten last winter. He finds that the combination was hardly worth saving.

Just think of how many new ferry boat models that $6,500 that M. Connolly is now chuckling over, would have bought.

Will some one please make a new joke for the Telegraph's funny man. The news in that one about the I. C. R. newboy is getting rather worn.

The report that the city laborers will pass a resolution of condolence to Director Cushing is semi-officially denied.

Won't Freddy and Frank Higgins have a nice time in Dorchester talking over old times?

The aldermen are hard losers.

MOTHER.

I wish I had said more. So long, so long About your simple tasks I watched you, dear;

I knew you craved the words you did not hear;

I knew your spirit, brave and chaste and strong,

Was wistful that it might not do the wrong;

And all its wistfulness and all its fear Were in your eyes whenever I was near.

Oh, you always went your way with song,

Oh, prodigal of smiles for other eyes I led my life. At last there came a day

When with some careless praise I turned away

From what you fashioned for a sweet surprise.

And now it is too late for me to pour My vase of myrrh—would God I had said before.

A FIGHT WITH A BEAR.

Michael O'Leary, of Newcastle, Queens county, had an encounter with a large black bear on Sunday night last that nearly cost him his life. The conflict took place in the field adjoining Mr. O'Leary's residence, where Mr. O'Leary with shot gun was lying in wait for the intruding bear. The bear came and was upon Mr. O'Leary before he had time to defend himself. The bear closed with him and man and beast rolled on the ground in a deadly struggle. Mr. O'Leary's cries for help attracted a number of men who were in the house, and their timely assistance saved his life. When they arrived on the scene of the conflict the bear had Mr. O'Leary down and was practically clawing clothes and flesh from him in strips. The bear was beaten off and Mr. O'Leary in an unconscious state, carried to his house. Medical assistance was summoned and the injured man's wounds dressed. He will recover.

Her husband died some years ago. The late Elizabeth Nice who died on Tuesday, was the deceased's grandson, and the late Rev. Dr. Richey was her uncle. Mrs. Nice was seventy-eight years of age.

Mrs. James W. Upham. The death of Mrs. James W. Upham occurred at Upham yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock, typhoid fever being the cause. The deceased was only twenty-one year of age and had only been married five months. Miss Beattie Jack. The death of Miss Beattie Jack, eldest daughter of R. Melville Jack, C. B. of Sydney, and sister of Du Vernet Jack, M. D., occurred at Montreal on Tuesday. The deceased was a professional nurse, and was attending a tedious case at St. Stephen where she contracted typhoid fever. When her illness was realized as serious she was removed to St. Andrews, where professional nurses attended her. Not becoming improved in health, she was taken to Montreal, where she died in spite of the best medical care. The mother of the deceased was a daughter of the late Alexander Grant, for many years collector of customs at St. Andrews.

The funeral will take place at St. Andrews this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

FRANK HIGGINS IS UNRULY.

Young Tobin, one of the boys who has been in Dorchester for the past year, came home yesterday. He has been sick for some time. Tobin says that he wants to get a job and be honest. He is tired of imprisonment and states that he was treated roughly. According to Tobin, Frank Higgins is an unruly prisoner and on account of his conduct has been on several occasions been put on bread and water diet.

GOODSPEED GUILTY.

The trial of Fred Goodspeed, indicted for murderous assault upon his guard at the reformatory, was begun and completed yesterday, and resulted in finding the boy guilty of only two minor offences.

Mr. Justice Landry in his charge to the jury said that Goodspeed was committed to the reformatory, and while there assaulted one of the guards. He certainly did it with some intention. While it was impossible to give direct evidence of his intention, yet they could apply any knowledge they might have to determine upon the intention.

The conduct of the officers of the institution could only be used to determine upon the intention of the prisoner. The fact that he had secured a bar of iron in his cell moments was strong evidence that he premeditated the assault.

There was evidence that he was not treated like the other boys. But the jury must consider that the welfare of 16 other boys had to be looked after. Did the officers of the institution act in the interests of the other boys through malice? It was their duty to look after the 16 boys even if the 17th had to suffer.

If the prisoner did that which was his duty in death he recklessly he would certainly be guilty of intent to murder. Did the use of an iron bar repeatedly show that he simply wanted to get the guard out of his way that he might make his escape, or did he do it recklessly of whether he died or not from the blows?

The prisoner's first intention was to get away. It was for them to judge whether he assaulted with intent to kill or to commit grievous bodily harm, or to escape.

The jury after being out about half an hour returned a verdict, finding the prisoner guilty on the second and fourth counts of the indictment, of assault with intent to commit grievous bodily harm, and to escape.

Joseph Carr was tried and found guilty of escaping while a prisoner at work in the park. He was remanded for sentence.

BODY BROUGHT HOME FOR BURIAL.

The body of Samuel R. Mayes, who died from injuries received in an electric car collision near Pelham, N. H., last Sunday afternoon, reached here on the Boston express yesterday.

The body was accompanied by John Mayes, a brother of the deceased, and the St. John Railway Company, was at the depot to meet him.

The accident in which Mr. Mayes met death was a head on collision between the electric car and a stagecoach at a twenty-five mile rate. The list of injured ran as high as thirty. Mr. Mayes, who bore the brunt of the collision, did not return to consciousness. He was forty-four years old, and leaves a wife and daughter.

The body was taken up river yesterday afternoon for interment at Queens-town, Queens county.

The meetings on King Square are attracting ever increasing crowds and much interest is being manifested in them.

HAROLD BORDEN MEMORIAL.

Halifax papers state that the opening day of the exhibition was the most successful and largely attended on record. The list of exhibits is more than ordinarily large, and the outside attractions unusually good. The horse-show was a grand success.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—In the house this morning Mr. Barker called attention to the refusal of the auditor general to issue cheques for the payment of the seasonal indemnity of members. The tie-up is the result of a dispute between McDougall and Fielding over the Martineau defalcation. Mr. Fielding promised that if a settlement was not reached in a few days legislation will be introduced to straighten matters out.

A strong protest has been received from the Farmers' Association of Ontario against the action of the senate in dropping the cattle guards section of the railway commission bill.

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—In the commons today Mr. Hackett was assured that a searching inquiry would be made into the charges of fraud in connection with the issue of fishing bounty checks by government officers in Prince Edward Island.

In reply to a question by Mr. Carleton, the minister of public works said it is the intention of the government to proceed with the erection of a mint in Ottawa as soon as the estimates of the present session are passed.

Mr. Monk inquired if any railway subsidies were to be brought down, intimating that possibly in view of the G. T. P. scheme there might be no subsidies this year.

Laurier answered that on the contrary the development of the country made it more than probable there would be railway subsidies. They could be brought down in good time, Mr. Monk read a letter, intimating that at the conclusion of his term the admiral of the Pacific squadron would be replaced by a commodore, thus reducing the importance of the station. He asked that the government protest against the change.

The redistribution bill was then taken up in committee and the contemplated changes in Ontario were discussed at length. Many unfair features as it applies to that province were brought out. The government positively refused to accept any suggestion from the opposition. Laurier was asked on what principle Peterborough, with a population of 30,000, with two members, while Hastings, with a population of 64,000, will only have a like representation. It was explained that certain rules were followed, but when they were called for they were not forthcoming.

Mr. Ingram observed that it was not rules, but the political complexion of the constituencies, which governed the government's course.

In the house tonight the representation of a number of Ontario constituencies, concerning which no protest had been raised, was concurred in. When Nova Scotia was reached, Mr. Bell protested against the reduction of Pictou's representation. He did not make his protest very vigorously, in view of the fact that the population of Cumberland was now larger than that of Pictou.

Mr. Monk asked that consideration of the changes in Cape Breton be postponed until the return of the leader of the opposition, who wished to move for the union of Richmond and Pictou. Instead of the division of Cape Breton and Pictou into two constituencies, Mr. Matheson said that the Richmond-Victoria proposal was ridiculous.

It was decided to allow Mr. Borden to discuss the question on his return. Mr. Hackett then introduced a resolution calling for the retention of P. E. Island's present representation.

Laurier objected to this, because the supreme court had decided that the island was only entitled to four members. The chairman ruled the resolution out of order.

Mr. Hackett gave notice that he would place his motion before the house in the form of an amendment on the third reading of the bill.

New Brunswick's case was not dealt with owing to Mr. Fowler's absence. On Wednesday Mr. Monk asked to have the railway subsidies and further supplementary estimates brought down before the Grand Trunk Pacific bill was again taken up.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he could fix no day for bringing them down.

BOY OF TWELVE ADMITS MURDER.

Little Negro Lad of Baltimore Confesses Killing Woman Clerk in Candy Store.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 10.—The mystery attending the death of Caroline W. Link was solved today, when a negro boy, known as "Charlie" Jones, admitted he had murdered the woman. The boy is twelve years old, four feet tall and weighs eighty pounds. His purpose was to rob the till of the candy store in which Miss Link was employed, but he compromised on a piece of peanut taffy.

The police had been struggling with the case for ten days when an accident enabled them to discover the murderer. Two boys who had been arrested for robbing a bakery denied their guilt, but said "Charlie" Jones had acknowledged killing an old woman.

"When 'Charlie' was arrested he parried the questions put to him in the sweatbox with great skill, but after four hours he broke down and confessed."

"I went to a banana cart in Diamond alley the night before I struck this woman," said the lad. "I unscrewed the nut from off it and secured the club. The next morning I went to Miss Link's house, tried the rear gate and then climbed over the fence. Miss Link was busy in the store. She was washing windows. She heard me when I entered. I saw her coming. When she passed the table where I was hiding I reached out and struck her with the club, that-I had wrapped in a piece of paper. She got up, she came to me and grabbed me by the coat. I reached up with my club and struck her again. She dropped. I entered, I picked up a piece of taffy, tried the till, but could not open it, and then I ran."

Miss Link was found dying on the floor of George Hoffman's store, in West Baltimore street, on August 28, and the police first thought her condition was due to an accident. A club covered with paper, found on the floor, led the marshal to suspect foul play and every detective was set at work. Young as he is, "Charlie" Jones has a police record. He was in the House of Refuge for stealing, and about a year ago tried to murder a comrade.

TEN EYCK MAY COME.

James A. Ten Eyck, the famous Worcester oarsman, will likely compete in the professional single scull race in St. John in the carnival sports, and he will likely also bring down a four-oared crew. This news came last evening in a letter received from the Worcester sculler by John F. Gleeson, secretary of the carnival and horse show, and it will give more zest than ever to the preparations being made for the aquatic sports of October 9, for the presence of Ten Eyck in the professional scull race, an agreeable to a strong card. For the four-oared professional race the Belyea crew and the Clark McCormick crew will represent local oarsmen; Halifax will probably have a crew over, and Ten Eyck's four would make matters even more interesting, throwing in something of an international rivalry.

Correspondence with Ten Eyck will be continued by Mr. Gleeson, who thought last night that the big oarsman and the four-oared crew can both be counted on as carnival features.

HALIFAX EXHIBITION.

HALIFAX, Sept. 10.—The races at the exhibition track today were attended by 2,500 people. The weather was perfect and the conditions excellent.

The free-for-all was taken by Rock Farm Grace, S. A. Fowler, Springfield; Stirling, Halifax, second, and Robert W. Amherst, third. Time, 21:4, 21:4, 21:4.

The 240 class was won by Ada Mac, of Moncton, Harry M., Moncton, second, and Daisy Dewitt of Bridgetown, third. Time, 21:2, 21:2, 21:2.

The running race did not fall. Showery of Moncton went over the course and was awarded the prize.

EXCHEQUER COURT.

In the case of Wm. Vroom, trustee of the estate of the late R. L. Simonds, v. the King, the evidence has all been taken. P. B. Archibald, C. E. of the I. C. B., who was called as an independent expert and who has been taking soundings and measurements at intervals since the May court finished his evidence Monday afternoon. The argument of counsel will be heard at Ottawa in November.

The case of the King on the information of the attorney general of Canada, the City of St. John, the evidence of Chas. Fawcett and Bridget Looney was taken up yesterday. It arose over the expropriation of land by the government for a light house at Swift Point and a right of way thereto. After several witnesses were called the city as owner of the land accepted the government's offer upon the crown undertaking to file a consent that all aspects of interest should have the right to cross and recross the land expropriated. C. N. Skinner, K. C., appeared for the city; Stewart Fairweather and J. H. A. L. Fairweather for Mr. Fawcett and Mrs. Looney; E. H. McAlpine, K. C., for the crown. Court adjourned sine die.

MILITARY VETERANS MEET.

The military veterans of New Brunswick met last evening in Foresters' hall and spent an evening which will long be remembered by the members of that association. About thirty-five of these old defenders of the nation were present and the enthusiasm which prevailed gave evidence of the fact that the national spirit has not yet been dampened by age.

After many pleasant reminiscences had been recalled, reports were received from the mayors of Montreal and Toronto concerning meetings which have recently been held in those cities. Letters were also received from military associations in different parts of Canada. It was decided that a notice of the next meeting be sent to all members of the association in the province, so that as large a number as possible may be present.

A GOOD MAN GONE AWAY.

A happy presentation took place last evening at Charles Danery's to Percy McL. Stevens, the retiring clerk of the Grand Union hotel, who has accepted a lucrative position in a St. Louis, Mo., railway office.

Stevens was a very much surprised man when Bart. E. Murphy read a handsomely illuminated address from Mr. Stevens' many friends, bidding him farewell in endearing tones and wishing him the voyage and success in his new abode. The presentation was that of a handsome dressing case. The recipient made a touching reply. On his departure at the depot his friends gathered in great numbers to see the train roll off, crying with it the cheers of St. John boys and their farewell to their comrade who was leaving for the land of Uncle Sam.

THE FURNACE LINE.

There will be five sailings within the next two weeks of the vessels of this line for London via Halifax. The arrangements as now fixed are as follows: St. John City sails from St. John Sept. 15; the Loyalist on the 19th; the Florence on the 26th; the Gulf of Annapolis on the 28th, and the Gulf of Venice on the 30th. The Gulf of Annapolis left Cardiff yesterday for St. John and on her way she calls at Halifax and goes to London via Havre.

The reason why these steamers are put on this route is the demand for Halifax for space for apples is great. Some of these steamers will sail for London with almost full cargoes of Annapolis valley apples taken in at Halifax.

CUP PRESENTATION AND SUPPER TONIGHT.

The Franklin, champions of the St. John Amateur Baseball League, will tonight be presented with the McKeown cup, which they won in their recent series.

The presentation will take place at the home of the H. A. McKee, making the presentation. All the baseballists and other guests, numbering about sixty, will sit down to a bountiful repast, which the solicitor general is offering to the baseballists. The hour set for commencing the supper will be 8:30. There will be selections, vocal and instrumental by the Harmony Club Sextette. An enjoyable evening is in anticipation.

LAWN TENNIS.

In the local tournament on the Morven Club's grounds Thursday afternoon ten sets were played, resulting in the Y. M. C. A. and Trinity clubs slightly increasing their lead on the Morven team.

The standing of the teams now is: Club. Played. Won. Lost. P. C. Y. M. C. A. 15 11 4 76. Morven 15 11 4 76. Trinity 15 11 4 76.

THE BATTLE LINE.

Str. Alberca, Capt. Grady, sailed yesterday afternoon for Cardiff. Str. Himera, Capt. Lockhart, sailed at 6 p.m. yesterday from Sydney, N. S. W., for Brisbane.

MR. CHAPMAN'S TRIBUTE.
W. R. Chapman, musical director of the festivals to be held here, in speaking of the talent engaged for the McCleaskey concerts, remarked that it was exceptionally good. With Mary Hisam DeMoss, soprano; Julian Water, basso, and Kate Stollis, contralto, the concerts to be given at the Opera House on the evenings of September 30th and October 1st will be unusually attractive. Mr. McCleaskey's many friends and admirers look forward to again hearing him, and predict for him two crowded houses on the above evenings.

Plan of seats opens at the Opera House on Thursday morning the 24th inst.

ROMEO AND JULIET.
Simvel's elaborate scenic revival of Shakespeare's immortal Romeo and Juliet at the Opera House this and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon should prove a great attraction to lovers of the pure high class drama in this city. The play will be given in a magnificent manner by a first class company that has scored a big success in all the leading theatres of the United States. There is already a large advance sale of seats for these productions and there is no doubt but all who attend will enjoy a rare entertainment.

SMUGGLING ENGLISH CLOTHES.

U. S. Custom Officials Catch Well Known New Yorker in the Act—Sharp Lookout.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—All along the Canadian border line United States customs officials are keeping a sharp lookout for importers of London made clothes, intended for wear in the United States. It seems that several of the large New York tailors, being struck with the clothes worn by some of their customers, upon enquiry were told that they had been brought over by friends of the wearers, who had returned to the United States by way of Canada. The customs house officials were notified and word was sent to the customs officials along the Canadian border line to be on the alert and scrutinize any doubtful traveller. As a result a few days ago a certain New Yorker, whom the customs officials admit to be well known, although they will not divulge his name, lost about $500 worth of London made clothes. His valet got the articles safely across the Canadian border when the customs officials seized them. The owner did not care to pay the regular duty and the clothes were sold at auction.

TO THE SUPREME COURT.

The case against John Martin for enticing seamen from one of the ships in the harbor will be carried to the supreme court. When the matter was before Magistrate Ritchie a week ago sentence was suspended, but the case came up again today. H. S. Puddington asked that sentence be imposed, but Mr. Baxter stated that he wished to have the whole matter argued before the full court in November. It was decided that a statement of the case be prepared, to be agreed upon by both parties, and in the meantime Martin remains at liberty. The case will be argued on points of law alone.

The draft agreement between the city and the Imperial Dry Dock Co. has been printed and copies have been submitted to the aldermen for consideration. The matter comes up at the next meeting of the council.

A missionary meeting will be held in St. John Presbyterian church this evening. Addresses will be delivered by Mrs. Morton, of Trinidad and Miss Robb, missionary designate to Corea. A brief programme will also be rendered. A silver collection for missions will be taken at the door.

LUMBER CUT

WILL BE BIG.

Big Crews Already at Work in the Woods.

Men Are Scarce This Year But Wages are Higher—Prospects are Good.

W. H. Murray returned yesterday from a trip around the upper waters of the St. John river and is very hopeful of a good season's lumbering. Talking to the Star Mr. Murray says that this present week has seen a promising start made in the cutting. Crews have been going to the woods every day and while by no means all are in yet, quite a number of camps are now busy. Donald Fraser & Sons have several big gangs at work on the Tobique, and in addition to this R. A. Estey will cut five or six millions on that river and Rockaway. His men are now in the woods. On the Little Tobique James Murchie & Sons will cut large amounts and have already started. Hilyard Bros. are also doing some work on the Tobique and have part of their crews engaged.

On the other hand, the men are scarce and wages are higher. The great trouble this year is scarcity of men, and if the cut happens to be a small one this year it will be on account of this scarcity and not from any want of timber on the part of the operators to reduce the output.

With reference to the prospects for a big year, Mr. Murray thinks that on the whole conditions are favorable. Provisions are about the same as last year, with two exceptions, pork is five dollars a barrel lower and oats are just a shade higher, but as a rule the prices of provisions are quite reasonable. Men are scarce, but there are still some to be had and the operators are offering from one to two dollars a month more than in previous years.

This is on account of the large proportion of work which has to be done in burned woods. The fires have damaged hundreds of miles of timber and it is expected that very large quantities of these burned logs will be brought out. In this work much less swamping will be required as the underbrush has been pretty well burned away, but the work in so much charcoal will be extremely dirty and there is some doubt as to whether the men will be able to keep at it during the entire season. For this reason the increased pay is being given.

Mr. Murray estimates that the cut will be a big one. Last year between eighty and ninety millions came out. This includes the rafting at Fredericton and Springhill. In addition to this fully forty million were hung up. During the present season Mr. Murray believes that if men can be found the cut will be bigger than last year's total.

A BANTAM WEIGHT FIGHT.
BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 11.—Harry Forbes, of Chicago, the ex-bantam weight champion, knocked out Kid McFadden, of Chicago, in the tenth round of their fight here last night. It was a good fight but Forbes had to force matters all the way through.

FORTY-FIVE BUSHELS FROM ONE.
W. H. Bell, of this city, is the owner of a farm in Titusville, Kings Co., where, under the management of R. H. Coulthard, a phenomenal crop of oats was raised this year.

Last spring Mr. Bell received a two pound sample of oats from the Experimental Farm. These were sown and from them one bushel was harvested last fall. This spring this bushel of oats was sown on a half acre of ground, and yesterday the crop was threshed, yielding 45 bushels. Returns like that are unusual in this province.

ENTRIES FROM HALIFAX

Prize Horses and Crack Oarsmen

Will Complete in St. John's Autumn Carnival

Peter Clinch returned this morning from Halifax, where he has been seeing the exhibition and horse show and incidentally interesting Halifax people in the St. John show.

Mr. Clinch is loud in his praises of the Halifax display and says that both interior and outside exhibits are really fine. The live stock especially are good, while the cattle and horse exhibits are magnificent. There are some very fine horses shown, one splendid pair being owned by D. Mullins.

Mr. Clinch spoke with quite a number of Halifax exhibitors about bringing horses over to the St. John show and he is assured that a party will be made up to come to St. John. These exhibitors will bring with them two, and possibly three, carloads of horses to enter the show here. There will be at least one four-in-hand turnout, several pairs of harness horses, and a number of single horses. On the whole, Mr. Clinch is of the opinion that the Halifax show was highly creditable for a town of that size, and much of the success is due to the entries from the Halifax Riding Club.

Mr. Clinch also talked with quite a number of oarsmen and has received satisfactory information. Mr. McGuire, of the Lorne Club, says that the Lorne senior crew is not in training. The members of it are men who are busy all day and have not much time to train now. They will not come to St. John, but the Lorne junior crew may be over. This, while probable, has not been finally settled.

Mr. Gowen, of St. Mary's Club, who was over here last year, assured Mr. Clinch that he would do all in his power to come again, and would probably enter a crew.

Mr. Goff, of St. Joseph's Club, said he would enter one amateur crew for sure and probably a professional four, which latter is made up of three of the Halifax crew of 1898 and a new man.

Mark Lynch is training hard for the single sculls and will be over without fail. Two other single scull men, amateurs are coming, but Mr. Clinch did not learn their names.

A KICK FROM QUEEN SQUARE.
Water Supply Cut Off and Tomorrow is Bath Day.

Residents of Queen Square are up in arms today against the unaccountable conduct of the water department officials. Recently a new pipe has been laid and this is popularly supposed to have something to do with the trouble. But whatever may be the cause, there has been an attempt made to throw Queen Square to the low pressure water system, and it has been a failure. A couple of days ago the change was made, and since then the occupants of the houses in this, one of the best residential sections of the city, have been unable to obtain any water.

None of them knew of the change, and when each householder and don't know just what to do. There is no water for Queen Square and the people are naturally mad, the more so as this is fish day, and tomorrow evening is tub night.

lans, both residents of Broad street. From the evidence taken it seems that Mrs. Sainsbury gave a cap to her illegitimate nephew, Mrs. Williams' son. Mr. Williams tore the cap up and ordered the child not to go to Sainsbury's house any more. Mrs. Sainsbury went to Williams' house to ask why the cap had been torn and Mr. Williams slammed the door in her face. Then Mr. Sainsbury went to enquire why the door had been slammed in his wife's face. This thirst for knowledge shown by the Sainsbury family led to trouble, for after Mr. Williams slammed the door it again and soaked Sainsbury in the right eye. It must have been a nice punch, judging from the eye. Then Mr. Sainsbury applied to police court to find out why he had been hit. This morning Williams was fined twenty dollars.
