GOVT ACQUISITION OF GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM DISCUSSED BEFORE BOSTON BUSINESS MEN

Prominent Railroad Man Bitterly Attacks Senators Bostock and Ross for the Attitude They Took in Opposition to the Government Bill—Accused of Making Ridiculous, Narrow-Minded and Anti-American Arguments—Sees in Acquisition of the System Benefits Accruing to Both Countries.

Boston, Nov. 14.—That the bill which passed through the Canadian House of Commons and Senate at Ottawa, calling for the purchase by the Canadian Government of the 2,000 miles of Grand Trunk Railroad lines in several states of this country, and which is receiving bitter opposition from some of the most prominent Canadian statesmen, is receiving widespread attention and considerable comment throughout New England, was emphasized by George K. Lowell, of York, Maine, one of the leading railroad authorities of this country, especially New England and the east, in an address made before the local Chamber of Commerce this afternoon.

Flays Senators.

Senators Bostock, of British Columbia, and Ross of Nova Scotia, were bitterly scored for their attitude towards the bill by Mr. Lowell, who stated that these senators had a perfect right to oppose the bill for any legitimate reasons that they might have, but they had no right to further the "ridiculous, narrow-minded and anti-American" arguments which they were so emphatically making. Mr. Lowell, who throughout the war acted as a confidential adviser to the administration at Washington, and who a few years ago refused the receivership of the Boston and Maine Railroad, said in part:

"Senator Bostock states that the Canadian government should never operate a line to build up the business of the port of Portland, Maine, in competition with the ports of Halifax and St. John. He is an Englishman with large interests in British Columbia, and we can readily realize the reason for a suggestion in his mind so adversely put forth. Senator Ross need never fear any so-called hubbly in this country which he states would occur should the case be the other way around. His other reason, his fear of the purchase and operation of these lines causing trouble between Canada and United States, or between the United States and Great Britain, is indeed ridiculous. One of the greatest causes for trouble or ill-feeling between the United States and Canada is the attitude, statements and propaganda spread in this particular case, and Senator Ross should realize that he is doing no small part in it and is causing more ill-feeling between the two countries today than there ever was or I hope ever will be.

Disgusting Arguments.

The arguments that these two men have put forth in opposition to the bill deeply touches and disgusts the true American, and in fact, all New England. Of late Canada has shown a disposition of a narrow and decided selfish policy, and it is time that the United States expressed her resentment at being placed in the position that these men would place her. Yet, perhaps, it is more logical that indeed amusing. He fears that the purchase might lead to the annexation of Canada to the United States. Yet, perhaps, it is more logical that the idea of Sir Andrew MacPhail of our slicing off 8,000 square miles of the State of Maine and giving it to Canada, that they might have all year round access to the sea. One idea is as fanatical, unreasonable and intolerable as the other, and the pure, simple business proposition, fathered by Gideon Robertson, Canadian Minister of Labor, solves the problem. The latter states that there need be no fear that the American Interstate Commerce Commission, or the various state authorities, would treat the Grand Trunk lines, after they were purchased by Canada, in any way that their competitors had been treated. The fact was that the United States was today operating 2,000 miles of railroads in Canada, and the government of Canada was operating 200 or 300 miles of the Canadian Northern in Minnesota without any trouble whatever, speaks for itself.

THE HANDLEY-PAGE BOMBER FORCED TO DESCEND

Started from Mineola on its Non-Stop Flight to Chicago—Cold Weather Given as Cause.

New York, Nov. 14.—The Handley-Page airplane, which started early today from Mineola on what was intended to be a non-stop flight to Chicago, descended at Mount Jewett, Penna., this afternoon, according to a message received by Dr. Miller Reese Hutchinson. Intense cold in the upper levels of the air forced the landing. The telegram said: "The Handley-Page plane, despatched from Mineola at 4:30 o'clock, read: 'Water trouble, probably due to the intense cold weather, necessitated landing here. Hope to continue on tomorrow. Strong head winds all the way. We are two miles from Mount Jewett.'

ENTHUSIASTIC PRAISE OF THE FASCINATING PRINCE ON EVERY LIP IN WASHINGTON

Government Activities To Be Resumed

With the Return to Ottawa Next Week of Sir George Foster Important Business May Be Taken up by the Cabinet.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—With a large number of cabinet ministers absent from the capital, there is a lull in government circles which will probably prevail until about the middle of next week. The return of Sir George Foster, acting premier, from the West may result in renewed activity and some important business may be taken up by the cabinet. It is expected that Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, will reach Ottawa tomorrow or Wednesday.

There is no further information as to when the agreement between the Government and the Grand Trunk Railway, which is now prepared, will be ready for submission to the shareholders. Hon. Arthur Meighen, who piloted the Grand Trunk bill through the Commons, is absent from the city but will probably be back early next week. The long experience of Sir Henry Drayton in railway matters will prove valuable in the drafting of the agreement which will be submitted to the Cabinet before being presented to Sir Alfred Smithers, who will take it to England. The appointment of a commission of ministers to investigate the tariff will probably be dealt with by the Minister of Finance shortly after his return.

The Popularity of Britain's Royal Hair Grows Apace, and Throngs Flock to the Capital to Greet Him.

Received With the Typical American College Cheer—Makes Speech and Plants Memorial Tree.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The Prince of Wales left Washington tonight accompanied by only his immediate personal staff, for a three day stay in a southern winter resort, where he proposes to remain in strict incognito. His next public appearance will be Monday, when he arrives in New York to remain there until he sails for England the following Saturday.

The Prince called on Mrs. Marshall, wife of Vice-President Marshall, who has been slightly indisposed. On his return from a trip to the Naval Academy, the Prince greeted by James Burns, a veteran of the Boer War, and a former trooper in the Tenth Royal Hussars, the Prince's own. Burns told the Prince that he formed one of the guard of honor at the wedding of his father and mother.

Visits Naval Academy.

The Prince discarded his military uniform in honor of his visit to Annapolis and wore the costume of a member of the United States Naval Academy. When he entered the great hall of the academy, the 2,000 midshipmen were assembled "Miles" Curley, the school's cheer leader, jumped to the platform and called for "Four minutes for the Prince." The big building shook at the roar that followed.

After a brief address to the midshipmen in which he paid tribute to the achievements of the American navy in the war the Prince planted a memorial tree in front of Bancroft Hall.

Buy Red Cross Seals.

Before going to Annapolis today to inspect the Naval Academy, the Prince purchased 100 Red Cross Christmas seals from Adrienne Mayer, the five year old health crusader who was introduced by General Pershing for making a perfect score in a children's health crusade against disease. The sale was the first made this year at the Prince in making the seals on his personal letters.

"Starting facts on public health conditions were shown by the medical examination of millions of men during the war," said the Prince in making the purchase. "These facts have demonstrated clearly the necessity of attacking harder than ever such menace as tuberculosis. I am sure this world work has the approval of every thoughtful person. The seals really represent the ounce of prevention. I wish the campaign all success."

Grows in Popularity.

Washington, Nov. 14.—(By the Canadian Press)—The British Royal, looking very fine after his sojourn in Virginia, came up to Washington yesterday and dined at the British Embassy as a guest with the Prince of Wales. Later he stood with Viscount Grey at the reception of the Prince tonight, following the latter's visit to the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

The popularity of Britain's Royal has grown apace. Hundreds of people of the American capital have been brought into contact with him, and enthusiastic praise of the fascinating Prince is on every lip. Official receptions about the Prince's movements in Washington, designed solely to prevent embarrassing big crowds and to facilitate the visitors about the city, is not preventing popular demonstrations of welcome. Crowds are increasing in size and they are eager to show their friendly interest in the Prince. The vicinity of the British Embassy last night was thronged at a late hour to see his departure after the reception.

Pussyfoot Johnson Is Popular Man

The "Hazing" Given the American Anti-Saloon League Organizer in London Proved to be the Best of Advertising for His Cause.

London, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, the American prohibitionist whose campaign in England was ruthlessly interrupted Thursday by a band of students, today, as a result of his attitude toward the adventure, is one of the most talked of and popular figures of the day. He commanded the biggest headlines in the newspapers, and the general verdict of the headlines was that he is a "good sport."

Mr. Johnson could not have desired a better advertisement than Thursday's incident for his campaign against the liquor traffic, and his future public appearances likely will command attention by reason of the fact that he has announced himself as considering the hazing he underwent a good joke. The students who marched about him yesterday, upsetting traffic in a sooty part of the West End, now propose to tender Mr. Johnson a banquet and present to him their tributes of respect.

The opposition to the anti-saloon league organizer in London, it is said, has been based on the feeling that it was impertinent for an American prohibitionist to come across the seas to lecture the English on what they should do.

HEAVY DAMAGE CAUSED BY GALES ON GREAT LAKES

Two Steamers Are Reported to Have Been Lost in Blow of Thursday.

Sault Ste. ## DEMANDS OF MINERS FOR THIRTY HOUR WEEK AND 60 P.C. WAGE INCREASE IS IMPOSSIBLE

In Opening Coal Conference, Secretary Wilson Refers to Impossible Attitude of Miners—He Declares the Public Must Carry the Burden of Any Great Change in Contracts—To Obtain Peace Secretary Proposed Three Plans of Procedure—There Are Indications of a Conflict on the Scope of Agreement to be Negotiated Involving Questions of Recognition of Non-Union Workers.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Demands of coal miners for a thirty hour week and a sixty per cent. increase in wages, and an unyielding position by the operators, alike, were declared "impossible" by Secretary Wilson in opening today the Conference called to bring peace to the bituminous fields of the nation. To obtain peace the Secretary proposed three plans of procedure.

Declaring that the Washington wage agreement still is legally in force, Mr. Wilson told the operators and miners that the people of the United States were not "shylocks," and do not want to exact "technical provisions of a bond when the conditions under which the bond was made have changed."

Bolshevik Enter Belgium From Germany

Brussels, Nov. 14.—Municipal Clerk Van Damme of the suburb of Anderlecht was arrested here today on an allegation that he had delivered bogus identification papers to a hundred Bolsheviki who entered Belgium from Germany in the guise of Poles and Czechoslovaks.

PanGerman Students In Demonstration Favoring "Hindy"

Refused to Permit Him to Enter the Reichstag Building to Testify Before Commission Investigating War Responsibilities.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press)—Pan-German students today refused to permit Field Marshal Von Hindenburg to enter the Reichstag building to testify before the sub-committee which is investigating war responsibilities, and forced the Field Marshal's chauffeur to return with the former commander-in-chief to his home.

The demonstration occurred this morning as the field marshal's automobile was being driven toward the Reichstag building, the students surrounded and declaring their unwillingness to allow him to be questioned by the sub-committee.

Von Hindenburg begged the students who clung to the running board of the machine, to allow his automobile to pass as he was due at the Reichstag. The students, however, replied by ordering the street closed, declaring that they were unwilling to allow the sub-committee to interrogate him. Again Hindenburg protested, but he was unable to quell the demonstration.

It was a Nationalist demonstration for both Von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, and for a time it assumed serious proportions. The crowd which gathered consisted mostly of students of both sexes, who carried with them an old German flag.

Cheered Generals.

When Hindenburg's automobile was waded the crowd cheered both Von Hindenburg and Ludendorff, and shouted "Down with the Jewish government."

After Von Hindenburg's protest that he be allowed to proceed were denied, but nevertheless the automobile slowly began to pierce its way through the crowd towards the Reichstag, thousands of persons followed it, singing "Die Wacht Am Rhein" and "Deutschland Ueber Alles." There also were shouts of "Brothers, we will not allow such a disgrace—for us there is only one Kaiser and Empire" and "We will not endure that our glorious Kaiser be besmirched."

Along the route was a statue of the former Emperor—the name on which was hidden under a canvas. The students tore off the canvas with cries of "Hoch" for the one time ruler of the Empire.

As the Reichstag building was reached a student again sprang on the running board of Von Hindenburg's machine and delivered an impassioned speech, dealing with Von Hindenburg's services to the fatherland and demanding of the mob that it should do its utmost to prevent Von Hindenburg appearing before the "Stupid youths" of the sub-committee.

Finally, Von Hindenburg, seeing the futility of endeavoring to calm the mob, permitted the chauffeur to drive homeward. First, however, he thanked

Linesman Makes Big Whiskey Find

Runs Upon 75 Cases Along Tracks of C. P. R. Near Winnipeg—Quenches His Thirst and Reveals Discovery.

London, Ont., Nov. 14.—Seventy-five cases of whiskey, addressed to Winnipeg, were found alongside the C. P. R. tracks just east of the city early today by the police. A linesman who discovered the whiskey, sampled it and becoming intoxicated, told of the find, causing confiscation of the entire consignment before the bottled goods, for whomsoever they were intended, could be gotten away.

In official quarters today it was announced that the students had violated the conditions imposed by martial law, and that there perhaps would be orders to suppress any similar demonstrations.

May Be Conflic.

Indication of a conflict on the scope of the agreement to be negotiated is being given by the question of recognition of non-union workers developed at the outset of the conference, and became more apparent in the two group meetings which followed.

Discussion in the miners caucus which followed the conference session, hinged on the question whether the operators representing both union and non-union fields would be included in the conference, and the effect any agreement reached by the conference might have in those fields where the miners do not have contracts with the operators. Although officers of the United Mine Workers refused to make any statement following their meeting, it was learned that the plan for a nation-wide conference was favored, but before any proposal is agreed to Secretary Wilson will be asked to make clear to the conference that the rights of organized labor are to be protected in those districts where the mining unions are not recognized by the coal companies.

The operators, however, did not look with favor on an agreement covering all fields. The Washington wage agreement, for the first time, the operators asserted, fixed the same date for the expiration of contracts between miners and operators in all parts of the country. Fear of the power this arrangement gives the workers to bring about a nation-wide strike was expressed by the operators, who indicated a desire to return to the old plan of basing all wage scale contracts on the agreement reached in the central competitive fields.

Owners of mines outside of the central competitive fields, conferred before the opening of the conference and opposition was expressed to participation in the negotiations.

Owing to the likelihood of protracted discussion of the scope of the conference before even the demands of the miners are brought into issue many on both sides of the controversy predicted today that the sessions might continue for several weeks.

SICK HEADACHES

For Last 10 Years

Headaches affect all ages and both sexes alike, but in all cases the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time.

What is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Flora Hall, Dominion, N. B., writes: "I have been troubled with sick headaches for the last ten years. I had lost faith in all remedies until recently a friend of mine advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. This I did, and found relief in a very short time. I would now recommend B. B. B. to anyone who is suffering as I did. I only took 3 bottles, and am never troubled with sick headaches any more."

B. B. B. has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PROBLEM OF RACE TRACK BETTING TO BE CONSIDERED

Government Has Promised That Parliament Will Consider Legislation on This Question at Next Session.

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—Important legislation dealing with the problem of race track betting will be introduced at the regular session of Parliament which the Government has promised the members will open early in the year. It will be based upon recommendations to be made by Dr. J. G. Rutherford, the commissioner appointed by the Government in August to thoroughly probe the whole matter, including such questions as the character and methods of operation of race tracks, the general effect of race track betting upon the community, and the effect of racing upon the production of improved breeds of horses and thoroughbred stock.

Dr. Rutherford has held sittings for the taking of evidence in all parts of Canada, excepting the Maritime Provinces. Asked when he would make his report, previous to his departure for the West with the Railway Board last night, Dr. Rutherford said it would be necessary for him to hold a few more sittings in the East subsequent to the completion of the telegraph inquiry.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Ready and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough and soon you will notice the phlegm "thins" out and then disappears altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Catarrh Does Harm

Whether It Is of the Nose, Throat, or Other Organs, Get Rid of It.

Catarrh of the nose or throat when it becomes chronic weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. It is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease and gives permanent relief. This alternative and tonic medicine has proved entirely satisfactory to thousands of families in three generations.

If there is biliousness or constipation, take Hood's Pills—they are a thorough cathartic, a gentle laxative.

James N. Gardner. The death of a well known Boston fish-merchant, James N. Gardner, took place at the Grand Hotel, Yarmouth, N. S., on Wednesday night. Mr. Gardner was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson Gardner, of Yarmouth North. He was a very extensive buyer particularly during the lobster and mackerel season, and by that business he was very widely known all along the Atlantic seaboard. He was about fifty years of age. Surviving are his wife, four daughters, three sons and one brother, Rev. George Gardner, of Rexton, N. B.; two sisters, Mrs. H. B. Durkee, Boston and Mrs. Ansel B. Crosby, St. John, N. B.

The Road—As It Is and As It Seems In Overland 4 on Three-Point Suspension Springs

UNTIL the advent of Overland 4 bad roads rode just as they looked. Until the introduction of the Overland 4 Spring-base, a road full of bumps meant jolts for the passengers and vibration that racked the car and reduced its life.

Overland 4 does not change the road, but it does change the manner in which you can ride on it. It gives you comfort instead of discomfort. It gives you a smooth, sailing sensation instead of bouncing and swaying.

This comfort achievement, the greatest since the introduction of pneumatic tires, is made possible by the wonderful cushioning ability of Three-Point Suspension Springs—exclusive with Overland.

The Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Suspension Springs at the ends of a 130-inch frame gives the road steadiness achieved by a car of long wheelbase.

Yet Overland 4 retains all the advantages—lightness, economy, and ease of handling, of 100-inch wheelbase.

Rough roads present no difficulties for Overland 4. Cushioned by its new system of suspension, which has been tested over 250,000 miles, it swings with buoyancy over good roads and bad. Shock, sway and rebound are absorbed.

Besides an altogether new standard of riding comfort this means a noteworthy reduction in the wear and tear which lessen the efficiency of the car. It gives longer life to every part and thus minimizes upkeep and replacement costs.

Tires wear longer because cushioned against hammering blows. Light weight means marked economy in gas, oil and running expense.

Overland 4's equipment is no less admirable than its construction. The list is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Demountable Rims.

Come in and see this remarkable car. Ask for Booklet, Overland 4 Touring, $1195; Roadster, $1195; Coupe, $1845; Sedan, $1995. Prices f. o. b. Toronto, War Tax included.

EAT LESS MEAT
IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

The Misses Edith and Helen Cudlip left on Tuesday evening for Montreal to reside, much to the regret of many friends in St. John. Mrs. J. B. Cudlip and children left for Montreal on Friday, last week.

NEW BRUNSWICK TELEPHONE CO.
KEEPING ABREAST OF THE TIMES

About to Undertake the Organization of a Publicity Department Made Necessary by Its Expanding Activities—Capt. J. D. Black, Well Known Newspaper Man of the Province, in Charge—Will Prove Important Factor in Promoting the After-War Development of the Company.

Capt. J. D. Black, one of the best known newspapermen in the Maritime Provinces, has been chosen by the Managing Board of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, Limited, to undertake the organization of a Publicity Department, which the expanding activities of the Company has made necessary.

Through the medium of its Publicity Department, the New Brunswick Telephone Company expect to be able to keep even more closely in touch with the users of the upwards of 25,000 of their telephones that are now in operation to improve the relations between the organization, its hundreds of employees and the public.

"Keeping abreast of the times" is the phrase which best explains the necessity for an organization of such magnitude as the New Brunswick Telephone Company having this new department, and its formation indicates the progressive policy which the reconstruction period finds the Company putting into operation. Not only will the Publicity Department be an important factor in promoting the after-war development, but it is also expected to be the means of giving the public a better comprehension of the problems and difficulties which have to be met and overcome.

For more than fifteen years past "Doug" Black has been on the News Staff of the Gleaner in Fredericton and during that time he has had a varied experience in all branches of the Editorial Department of newspaper work. He has also been correspondent at the Capital for a number of Canadian and American newspapers and was for several years Official Reporter of the New Brunswick Legislature.

He has taken an active part in Sporting activities at Fredericton. He was the executive head of the original Fredericton Baseball Club, which was formed in 1911; and organized the famous "Pete" who won three successive championships of the New Brunswick and Maine League. He was Manager of the Fredericton Trotting Park for several years, having organized the Maritime Racing Circuit when it had one of its most successful periods in 1910; and he was a member of the Executive which brought the Capitals to Fredericton in 1908, when the city yearned for a Hockey Championship.

When the McLean Highlanders were organized by Lieut.-Colonel Percy A. Guthrie in 1918, Captain Black was appointed Quartermaster of that Unit and he was in charge of the extensive publicity work carried on in connection with their recruiting campaign, both in Canada and the New England States, which resulted in the Kilites becoming one of the most widely known Units organized in the East. Since his return to Canada from Overseas and his discharge from the C. E. F. early this year, he has been occupying his former position in charge of the News Department of The Gleaner. During the next few days he will enter upon his new duties and will make his headquarters at the Executive Offices of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, Limited, Prince William Street, St. John. His family will probably not remove from Fredericton to St. John before Spring.

FARMERS TO INVADE POLITICAL RINGS OF EVERY PROVINCE

Not To Take An Active and Aggressive Part in Federal Politics.

Winnipeg, Nov. 12.—Mr. J. J. Morrison, delegate to the Canadian Council of Agriculture from Ontario, declared today that the farmers will not only take an active and aggressive part in Federal politics, but will invade the political ring in every province in Canada.

Provincial reports paving the way to political discussion featured this afternoon's session of the council. Reports from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Ontario were read. Representatives of Alberta, the Maritime Provinces and Ontario are being heard this afternoon. On information contained in reports the delegates will base their discussion on the organization's future policy.

THE CORPORATION DRIVE REACHES BOOM LIMITS

This is the Latest Date in Thirty Years That Corporation Drive Had Been Driven Into F'ton Boom.

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 13.—The Corporation drive on the St. John river reached the boom limits night before last and crews were paid off yesterday. Old time river men said yesterday that this was the latest date for an even thirty years that a Corporation drive had been driven into the booms here, it being recalled that exactly thirty years ago the Corporation drive reached the boom and, it is interesting to note, Walter Jackson, now manager of the St. John River Log Driving Company, was engaged on that drive too.

In spite of the late arrival the St. John River Log Driving Company, by carrying on rafting operations until November 3rd, have cleared up the supply of logs so that only between one and two million feet will be carried over winter in the booms.

DISCOVER CAUSE OF BLINDNESS OF VISCOUNT GREY

Hope Entertained That Discovery of the Cause Does Not Come Too Late and That Sight May be Fully Restored.

Halifax, Nov. 12.—The Canadian Press learns on the most reliable authority that the cause of the blindness from which Viscount Grey, British Ambassador to Washington, is afflicted has been diagnosed by an eminent American specialist, Dr. Wilmer, of Washington. The origin of the affliction is said to have been found in an abscessed tooth which has impaired the optic nerve. Viscount Grey, it will be recalled, was obliged to withdraw from parliament life on account of this affliction, and it was only for reason of the vital principle bound up in the appointment that he accepted, temporarily, the post of American Ambassador.

The hope is now entertained that the discovery of the cause of blindness does not come too late, and it is even believed that sight may be fully restored.

SOUTH AFRICA

The ground swell of unrest which has rolled around the world has evidently affected the political situation in South Africa, and there appears to be a possibility of a re-arrangement of parties.

Other factors which have a tendency to throw General Smuts' party and the Unionists together are the growing strength of the Labor party in the cities, and the increasingly irreconcilable attitude of the leaders of the Nationalists, who are suspected of intrigues with the German colonists in the conquered territories over which the South Africa Union has been given a mandate.

St. David's Church, which was destroyed by fire December 13th, 1917, has been rebuilt and will reopen for worship tomorrow morning. The symbol of Presbyterianism is the burning bush with the motto: "See Tannen Consummatus." "Nevertheless Not Consumed," and it will be remembered that a portion of the old church saved from the last fire which laid waste the edifice, was a carving showing the heart of the burning bush. With this as an inspiration, and with an admirable courage in the face of difficulties, the congregation of St. David's, with the pastor Rev. J. A. Mackeigan, have erected this new House of God which will be dedicated to His Service on Sunday.

At eleven o'clock on Sunday morning the Dedicatory Service will be held, the preacher to be Principal Clarence MacKinnon, D. D., of Pine Hill, Halifax. The order of service includes the singing by choir and congregation of the twenty-fourth Psalm, special hymns appropriate to the occasion, and the chanting of the 1st Psalm at the close. Miss Hilda Thompson is choir leader. A thank offering will be received.

At 2.30 a special Sunday School session will be held to be addressed by Principal MacKinnon, and at 3.45 an Inter-Church Fraternal Service has been arranged at which representatives of each denomination will be present, and a minister from each denomination will give an address on the oneness of church life and the one purpose for which all are striving.

At seven in the evening, public worship will be held, the sermon to be preached by Principal MacKinnon. Throughout the week, services will be held each evening at 8 o'clock, culminating in the Communion Service on Sunday morning, November 23rd. This series of week-night services is to be conducted by Rev. J. A. Clark, D. D., of St. Matthew's Church, who is well-known as one of Canada's strong preachers. The subject to be dwelt upon is "Greater Recognition of the Church's Responsibility to Apply the Whole Gospel to the World of Human Need." Arrangements have been made for choir of other churches to assist at these evening services among them being St. Andrew's, Germain Street Baptist, Centenary and Trinity choirs.

During the second week after the opening of the building, a fair will be held by the ladies of the church and this will give opportunities for social intercourse among members of the congregation.

The new church of St. David's is built in a substantial, simple style, but the whole effect of the granite and freestone front is very fine. The back of the building is brick, and within only the first floor of the school house is completed, plans are made so that as soon as sufficient funds are raised the upper floor can be added and many additional rooms provided. The church is a credit to the city and the fact that the congregation has so largely increased in the number of attendants showed the need of a larger building which is now secured.

A flight of steps with ornamental lights at the sides is the approach to the church proper. Entering by one of three handsome doors the worshipper finds himself in a spacious vestibule with vaulted roof. This narthex is weather-proof and large enough for members to linger after service and greet one another.

The stair-halls on either side leading to the gallery are partitioned off by doors, so that any outside dirt is prevented.

The main part of the church is built on the old foundations, the additional floor space being gained by the addition of the gallery extends over the Narthex. The pews, which are in ashwell sent in all one thousand people, and those pews near the pulpit and in the transepts, are circular in shape. At the back the floor is slightly raised.

The lighting is, wherever possible, indirect and handsome wrought metal fixtures have been used. The heating system is of the most up-to-date kind, there being under each window a radiator, separated by asbestos from the pews. In the centre aisles are radiators under which are steam coils. Ventilators in the roof supply constant currents of fresh air.

The ceiling is supported by ash trusses and at the end of each one there is a finely carved pediment. The pillars of the transepts have elaborately carved capitals, and are inset with feet of hand wrought ash in these pillars. This with the beautifully detailed panels of the divided pulpit are the work of John Rogerson. The centre panel of the pulpit bears the burning bush with the inscription in

REV. J. A. MACKEIGAN, B. A.
Present energetic pastor of St. David's Church.

Latin, and on either side of this symbol is a branch of maple and a sheaf of palm leaves for Victory. Above this are a Cross and Crown. The side panels show flowers in conventional form, all treated with a delicacy which it is difficult to praise too highly. The choir stalls will accommodate about thirty persons and the organ, a Casavant Freres, is decorated in gold.

Opening out of the church is a classroom or trustees' room. Coming into the school house from the south entrance there are vestry rooms, the library and several class rooms to be seen. On the south side is a splendidly spacious recreation room which is to be the centre of the boys' and girls' work in the church, and which is lighted from the ceiling and in every possible way fitted so that it can be used for recreational purposes. Opening out of this room is the kitchen, conveniently planned for all needs, and on the other side is the north room, which will serve as a primary department and common room for all meetings.

On this floor are lavatories, storage rooms, the organ blower's vault and the furnace rooms, where there are two large furnaces, recirculating in system. The entire building is fire-proof as far as possible, and a number of emergency exits are included in its plans. On this ground floor is the entrance to the proposed upper story which when completed is to be a war memorial, a tablet stating this ambition is to be placed on the stairway.

In the erection of the building the following were employed: J. Medley Belyea was the general contractor; subcontractors, E. Mooney and Sons for the mason work; F. H. Doody and Sons for the plumbing; James Pullen for the painting.

History of the Church.

St. David's Church had its birth in the struggle for ecclesiastical freedom, in 1843 the Church of Scotland was rent in twain on the question of "patronage," when four hundred and fifty-one ministers walked out of the Church of Scotland. In St. John there were a number of people who sympathized with the Free Church, and after holding several meetings or organized St. David's Church, and called, as their first minister, Rev. John Thomson, D. D., who began his ministry on the first Sunday of December, 1843, preaching from 2 Tim. 2:15. Rev. John Thomson remained with the church until May, 1851.

The cornerstone of the old church, the first St. David's was laid August 15th, 1849. There were at this time forty-eight communicants on the roll. An impressive service was held in which the Presbytery accompanied by the Independent Reformed Presbyterians and Methodist Brethren walked to Sydney street from St. Stephen's Hall and at the present time took part in the ceremony of the laying of the cornerstone. His Worship the Mayor (Hon. R. D. Willmot), delivered a fine address. At this time the church had no special name, being known as "Thomson's Church," "Sydney Street Free Church," "Fourth Presbyterian Church," and "St. Stephen Hall Congregation."

Old St. David's was a wooden building, 100 feet deep by 53 feet wide with galleries around the walls. The people was 150 feet high. The first stated minister was Rev. John Thomson. The first elders: Thomas Walker, D. D., James Patterson, L. L. D., Prime, Alexander Kirkland, William Stewart, David Miller, M. D., and James Milligan.

Rev. Mr. Thomson continued as minister of this church until 1851, when he resigned to take a church in New York. The Rev. William Ferris, M. A., was the next minister at a salary of $250.

In 1855, the name of the church was agreed upon and from this time on it was known as St. David's Church. From December, 1848, up to December, 1856, William Ferris was pastor, and at the close of the year 1856 a volunteer choir was organized. In 1861 Rev. Mr. Ferris resigned the pastorate to accept a call to New York. In October of this year the congregation asked Rev. Nell McKay to supply the church for six months, and in April called Mr. McKay at a salary of $800.

In 1864 St. David's was the largest contributor to the schemes of the church in the synod of New Brunswick, the collection in 1861 amounting to $769.69.

Extensive repairs were effected at this time on the church, and the new school room was erected in the rear of the church on the north side of the church lot. It was the finest sabbath school and lecture room in the city, it was a room used for all meetings, and for religious and moral objects by societies generally. It was in this room that the N. C. A. was organized and that the birth place of the present association.

On the 27th of June, 1866, the union of the Synod of New Brunswick with the Synod of Nova Scotia was consummated in this church. In 1871 many improvements were made on the church property. The church was painted inside and out, the steeple was strengthened, the walls paneled, and when completed presented a handsome appearance, being one of the finest in the city.

In 1872 morning service was dispensed with. A joint celebration at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was participated in by all the ministers and members of the Synod of the lower provinces.

Pastoral Changes.

In 1873 Rev. Mr. McKay resigned and went to Summerside, P. E. I., afterwards being called to Chatham, N. B., as their minister remaining there until his death in June, 1898. In August, 1873, Rev. Dr. Waters, then of St. Mary's, Ont., was given a unanimous call and he was inducted, fourth pastor of St. David's on the third day of September, 1873.

Destroyed by Fire.

In the year 1877, a year memorable in the life and recollection of many in St. John, the trustees of this church, determined to liquidate the debt, which was $2,000. It fell due on the 15th of July. Subscriptions were secured to meet this claim, and some had been secured every day the church and many of the dwelling houses of business houses of the congregation were destroyed by fire on the 20th of June. Only two articles were saved from the building, the sabbath school organ and the clock. Steps were at once taken to continue the public services. The congregation worshipped in the Mechanic's Institute and continued working at this place at three o'clock in the afternoon on February 17th, 1878, and also every alternate Sabbath evening. After this the morning service was continued in the lecture room of the church, and the evening service every alternate Sabbath evening in the Mechanic's Institute. At the time of the fire there was $9,600 in insurance money of which $2,000 mortgaged was due July 5th and which was paid on that date.

The cornerstone of the second church was laid the 30th September, 1877, and the church was opened on the 8th of December, 1878. The late Rev. Dr. McKnight, then principal of the Pine Hill Theological Hall, Halifax, was the special preacher. In the afternoon a meeting was assembled, being the children's service, and the meeting was addressed by Rev. Dr. Waters, Dr. Bennett, Dr. G. W. M. Carey, Rev. Messrs. Howard Sprague, William Mitchell, Rev. Cyrus Hamilton of Bangor Me., and the preachers in the evening.

The church cost $40,000, which was made up of the insurance balance, contributions and collections from the congregation, a mortgage and a loan. Dr. Waters severed his connection with the church in 1881, having accepted a call to the Reformed Dutch Church at Newark, N. J. Dr. Waters died at Halifax on the 4th of August, 1897.

In October 1882, Rev. George Bruce of the Presbytery of Hamilton, Ont., accepted a call to St. David's Church. His induction did not take place until January, 1883.

On the 15th of April, 1887, arrangements were made for the opening of the branch sabbath school in the North End and the work commenced.

Will Settle Protest Tonight

Meeting of Faculties from Acadia, Mount A. and U. N. B. to Settle Dispute Over Tuesday's Game.

A meeting of faculty representatives from Mount Allison, Acadia and the University of New Brunswick tonight to settle the protest which was filed by U. N. B. after their game at Wolfville on Tuesday. The protest is lodged that Acadia should not have started the game with a man who was not able to complete the game primarily and then remove him at a critical stage.

St. John May Get Lewiston Place

At a Meeting of the New England League Yesterday it Was Decided to Offer Lewiston Franchise to Local Baseball Magnates.

Special to The Standard. Lewiston, Mass. Nov. 12.—At a special meeting held in this city tonight, called as a smoke talk, the delegates from Portland, Lawrence and Lowell Clubs of the New England League Baseball Clubs, openly declared that the Lewiston, Maine, franchise shall be offered to the St. John interests, whom they declared would be a valuable asset to the league. Their proposal, which at first was considered by the Lewiston, Haverhill and Fitchburg clubs seriously, assumed such proportions of bitter debate that at the close, an open breach was declared with the attitude of the Haverhill Club hanging in the balance.

TO REINSTATE THREE-KENNEL JUDGES

New York, Nov. 12.—It is learned on good authority that the American Kennel Club will reinstate Charles Hopton, Vinson Breece and George Thomas before the end of the year. These famous judges lost their licenses more than a year ago for violating the rules of the American Kennel Club. Since then they have made several fights for reinstatement, but it was not until yesterday that the kennel authorities decided to lift the ban.

FREDERICTON HAS SPEED

Fredericton, Nov. 12.—"Turk" McLaughlin, veteran of almost forty years' campaigning with harness horses in the New England States and in the Maritime Provinces, was here this week, bringing with him one of the members of the Reed stable of Fort Fairfield, Maine.

ENGLAND HAS IN HILL STAR HALF-MILE RUNNER

London, Nov. 12.—One of the best half-mile runners expected to shine in the Olympic games is A. G. Hill, of the London Polytechnic Harriers, who in the recent sports of the Celtic Football Club at Glasgow, finished second in the one-mile race, covering the distance in 4:15 4-5. He was scratch man.

Family Saddle Horse As Racer

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 12.—J. E. Widener, the Philadelphia sportsman, brought out a new one yesterday which caused a mild sensation at Pimlico. This was a black gelding four-year-olds, named Tuffer, which it is said, had been used by the Widener family as a saddle horse. Tuffer proved to be something more than a family pet, for he galloped away from a field of maidens in the first race to win by six lengths. He was a 9 to 2 choice at post time, and the tip on him had been so strong that most of the others in the field were entirely neglected.

City Trapshooters Will Meet Today

Competent instructors and an abundance of ammunition at low prices are at the service of shotgun services today, when the St. John Trapshooting Association will resume their weekly sport at the Glen Falls traps. The traps will be open at 2 o'clock and continue till dark. At present there are about fifty members in the club and it is expected there will be some good scores made.

FAMOUS GOALIE DEAD

London, Nov. 12.—John Edward Doig, one of the most famous association goalkeepers of his day, died at Liverpool, aged 53. He played for Sunderland many seasons when that club was at the height of its fame, and afterwards served Liverpool until the rise of Hardy, another brilliant goalkeeper.

Where Words End, Music Begins. Words, in themselves, are but poor interpreters of emotion. Where words end, music begins. Where words only suggest, music satisfies; it utters with a clear, vibrant voice what otherwise would remain unuttered. Music will allow you to express your innermost thoughts and ideals. But how, you ask, can you create this music since you are no musician nor the master of any instrument? The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul". has stored up in its magic discs the music of the world's greatest musicians—the soul-children of the music masters. And this music The New Edison will RE-CREATE for you, in your own home, exactly as you would hear it in the grand opera houses and the famous concert halls.

Hamilton, Nov. 13.—Tigers have decided not to enquire further into the attempts of local gamblers to "fix" three of their players before Saturday's game with Montreal.
They have sufficient information,
however, on which to cause trouble
if they care.
Coach Barron stated this morning that he did not feel inclined to give out the names of the players concerned.
"We'll let the matter drop now,"
he said. "We'll have our eyes wide open in future."

STOCKS, BONDS AND PRODUCE

MARKET QUIET AND FAIRLY STEADY

(McDougall and Cowans)
New York, Nov. 14—The market was decidedly quieter and fairly steady in the afternoon. The continued strength of the Ralls had much to do with restoring confidence in the general financial situation, and there was said to be some good buying in the better class industrial which had neither advanced wildly nor broken violently, such as U. S. Steel.

Call money rates receded somewhat from the opening rate but there was no disposition to bull the market on the fact.
Time money is scarce at 8 per cent a fact which points to the conclusion that the stringency will continue for some time. The action of the market today indicated that it might still be some time before it really has found itself and that meanwhile periods of unsettlement and more or less declines are to be expected.
Sales 1,489,000.

STOCKS RECOVER FROM SETBACK OF MID-WEEK DEALS

The Most Hopeful Feature of Saturday's Trade Was the Activity and Strength of Ralls — Money Little Tighter.

New York, Nov. 14—Stocks made further substantial recoveries today from their severe declines of the mid-week, although there were occasional signs that the market had not fully adjusted itself.
The most noteworthy and hopeful features were the activity and strength of ralls, accompanied by favorable advices from Washington, and the confident accumulation of other standard issues, as reported by commission houses. Temporary reversals of relatively minor proportions succeeded the strong opening, these being ascribed mainly to the realizing for quick profits. Another setback followed the publication of the first call money rate of fourteen per cent, the latter figure ruling until the last hour, when successive offerings forced the rate down to eight per cent.
The condition of the time money market was the one serious drawback of the session. Virtually no funds were obtainable at the eight per cent bid, even for renewals, while banks withdrawing almost entirely, local interior banks continue their loans to nominal amounts for the shorter dates.
Transcontinentals led the ralls, with Union Pacific in the foreground at an extreme advance of five points. Greaters and Coalers were not far behind with Cotton Carriers, while many secondary transportation issues were higher by one to four points.
General Motors steered an irregular course, fluctuating within a 20 point radius and closing at a loss of about eight points. Related shares, also Oil, Steels and Equipments eased at the end, after having shown irregular gains.
Pools were less active in the many specialties which featured recent operations. Leathers, Tobaccos, Shipings and Food issues being comparatively inconspicuous and little changed. Sales amounted to 1,500,000 shares.
Total sales (par value) aggregated $14,650,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

When you drive on slippery pavement you want tires that will hold you safe. The tire that is skid-proof is the tire motorists are seeking. Maltese Cross Tires have the most effective non-skid tread yet devised.
When you turn off the asphalt—on to a cobblestone, clay, mud, macadam or fresh cut stone road—you want sure, dependable service. Maltese Cross Tires give it.
Many tires will stand up well under favorable conditions—city pavements, for example. But Maltese Cross Tires yield big mileage—ALWAYS—on good roads or bad. And the reason is the plain, logical reason that makes any product superior, year after year—better and better quality.

THE ROPE LADDER

A TINE WEST SECRET AGENT

BY PERCY JAMES BREBNER

The streets were crowded. Tomorrow the city would be entertaining and honoring a foreign monarch. Bunting was displayed in profusion, and men were busy boarding up windows for protection. These preparations were made an excuse by thousands of people for loitering, and in places where the decorations were conspicuous the crowd was dense and the traffic congested. It was so out- side the gates of Charing Cross, and the yard was full of motored taxis awaiting the arrival of the afternoon continental train.

A solid looking chauffeur leaning over his steering wheel watched the exits of the station as people began to pour out, and his interest was presently attracted by a man who detached himself from the crowd and came to a standstill at the edge of the curb. He was a foreigner, quick and alert in his movements, and he carried an old suitcase which he held in his right hand. For a moment he seemed appalled at the sudden roar of London, then he put down the case carefully, took off his black stock hat and tucked it under his arm while he mopped his face and head with an enormous colored handkerchief. He was evidently suffering from the heat and dirt of a long journey.

He glanced at the solid chauffeur, who almost immediately had to back his car a little to make room for the closed motor which slid silently up to the curb.

"Ah, it is you then!" the man exclaimed in broken English. "You wait, that is good."

He put on his hat, picked up the suitcase, and his motor immediately moved toward the gates. The solid chauffeur watched it thread its way through the crowd outside, toward the station church, and then became interested in the people issuing from the station exits.

The car went along the top of Trafalgar Square and by Pall Mall; tomorrow's procession was not coming this way, and the roads were fairly clear. The occupant leaned back in the corner, his luggage on the seat beside him and seemed oblivious to the fact that he looked wholly out of place in such a luxuriously appointed car, and indeed took little interest in his surroundings. His mind appeared absorbed by other matters.

The car stopped in Hill Street before the red door of a large white house with window-boxes, perhaps the most attractive house in the street. The occupant of the car did not move until the chauffeur got down and opened the door.

"Is this it? I did not know, it is my first visit," he said, but he was immediately alert, and gripping his suitcase, ran up the four steps to the door and rang the bell.

He had to ring again before the door was opened by a man who was evidently not a servant, although the foreigner did not seem to appreciate the fact. The door was open and he attempted to enter.

"Not so fast, my friend," said the man, laying a powerful hand on his shoulder.

"It is a mistake I make?"

"That depends—whom do you want?"

"I do not know who I want."

"What's your name?"

"That is easy. It is Number Thirteen."

The man showed no surprise but let him enter and closed the door.

"You can leave your luggage in the hall here and come with me."

"I think not. I take it with me. I never leave it anywhere."

"As you please."

Number Thirteen glanced around the hall and saw the wide stairs as he followed his guide. This was a home of luxury and immense wealth, but the foreigner was not the least overawed by it. He looked even more at ease here than he had done in his hotel.

The room into which he was taken was a library. Handsome bound books lined the walls, a thick pile carpet deadened the footfalls, easy chairs invited reverie, and there was a double door to keep out all disturbing sounds. The four men in the room, however, were very wide awake and alert, and they turned sharply to stare at the visitor.

His guide closed the door, seated himself at an inlaid writing-table with silver appointments and pointed out a chair to the visitor. He was a Jew, pronounced in type, yet handsome and masterful. He was evidently chief in this gathering, and the visitor, appearing the fact, shifted his seat a little so that he might directly face him. He placed the suitcase on the floor between his feet, and was not disconcerted by the keen looks fixed on him. He did not attempt to make himself more presentable by slicking off his ruffled hair, or smoothing down his wild hair.

"I make no mistake, eh? You are waiting for me?"

The man at the writing-table leaned forward.

"You have come from Milan?"

"You may say so, and it is so far away, but I seldom come direct from anywhere," was the careful answer.

"You are not a Milanese?"

"Does it matter? I am sent to you. I am Number Thirteen, that is all. I have lived in Naples, I think I was born there, but it is of no consequence. I am here."

"Do you know for what purpose?"

"I can guess, I should not be sent across Europe for nothing. I have brought my little necessities with me, and he put his hand affectionately on the suitcase.

"What were your instructions exactly? asked one man who did not

We met here to welcome our friend, there is nothing more to arrange. You know our meeting place for tomorrow, tomorrow we alter the balance of power in Europe."

The man rose and the Neapolitan watched them curiously, their every look and action, as it were, absorbed in a sudden knock—might of something fall. It would be a pity for us to miss the many so beautiful things in this house."

Again the Jew laughed.

"Do not lock the door until I bring you some food. I will bring it myself. We do not want to let any one know you are working here."

"Quite right. The more caution the better. I do not eat much, but a little wine, yes, that will be good. Then I lock myself in and eat and drink while I work. At five minutes to twelve you come for me. It is all arranged."

"Everything" was the answer.

The Jew not only brought him food and drink, but having done so, took up his position at the end of the passage to make sure his guest did not leave the room. He was thorough, this man, leaving nothing to chance. He had found his methods pay in the business and social world.

He looked over the parapet cautiously and thought of the devastation the falling bombs would cause.

He had amassed wealth enough to give him power here and on the continent, and he had become a persona grata in society.

At five minutes to the hour he knocked at the door of the small room.

"Ah, it is time," the Neapolitan called out and then opened the door.

"I am ready and eager. It is a pity there are still so many hours to wait. See, I have not marked your table for you, but I have marked yours. I am sorry if you found anything you might like to take to a clever chemist and learn my secret. That would not be good for me."

There was no light in the hall. The Jew had an electric torch which he switched off before opening the front door. A dozen yards down the street they found a taxi, and the Jew, who wore a buttoned-up great-coat and a soft hat well drawn down over his face, gave the driver directions for a low fare after the Neapolitan had got in. The latter seemed interested in nothing but the careful handling of his suitcase. Had his precious luggage been less absorbing he might have noticed that the driver of the taxi was the same man who had looked at him over the steering wheel of a car in Charing Cross station yard that afternoon.

The Jew was very careful not to touch the suitcase with his foot, and was not inclined to talk. With such luggage the journey was not a comfortable one, and a jolt over an unevenness in the roadway made him nervous.

The taxi stopped at the corner of the narrow turning off Farringdon Street.

"We walk from here," said the Jew. "Good-bye to you now. I must be careful with this, but the driver must not notice. Some one might question him afterwards."

The Jew led the way along a narrow lane and down alleys between warehouses, printers' works and the like, and stopped at a small door which he opened with a key, and carefully looked again when they had entered.

"We reach the empty Strand house this way and it is a way of escape afterward," he explained, flashing the electric torch. "This is a part of a warehouse in Hill Street, arrived. They had both spent long hours among official people and not a whisper had they heard of them from apprehensive."

"I didn't expect it," said the Jew, "and yet—his Neapolitan."

"Will he fall us?" asked one.

"No, it is the afterward, I am thinking about. Instinctively there are some men I do not trust. He is one

I think he would save his own skin at any hazard. We are in a big thing the biggest of its kind which has ever started in Europe. The secret agents of this man's career cannot be wholly unknown. One cannot tell where in Italy he was born, but he was not altogether pleased with his manner, and after you had gone he confessed to me, with some impudence that he always reserved a bomb to settle with his friends should they prove less friendly than he desired."

"Distinctly. A man like that is dangerous."

"What do you advise?"

"That we make certain," said the Jew eagerly, "that we rob him of the power to do us harm. He will come to the room when it is all over, expecting to leave with us. I propose that we leave alone. He will be found here, the last bomb in his possession. The police will find the anarchist dead and we are safe."

His companions remained silent. The idea of safety pleased them, but they preferred to do as he suggested. The Jew's arguments, however, succeeded in putting fear in them and they consented to do as he suggested. He had already worked out the scheme in detail in his own mind, never getting that a live bomb would be in the man's possession. The attack must be sudden, complete and noiseless if possible.

So the dawn came, and the day, and the growing crowds in the streets, and the Neapolitan waiting at the top of the house in the Strand did not dream of the deadly trap which was being set for him. Still he did not sleep, and when day came was conscious of many things, of the rapidly filling streets, of the moving crowd gradually growing dense and thick as progress backward or forward became impossible, of windows filled with sightseers, men, women and children. He looked over the parapet cautiously and thought of the devastation the falling bombs would cause. The anticipation seemed to give him satisfaction, for he smiled.

The three conspirators in the room off the warehouse became more impatient for the end as the time advanced. The Jew opened the window and looked at his watch from time to time; his companions moved restlessly about the room, constantly going to the door and standing on either side of it for a few seconds rehearsing how they were to seize the Neapolitan when he came. They were three men. An unexpected blow, then strangulation that was their leader's plan.

"Listen!" exclaimed the Jew suddenly. "It is cheering in the distance. Can't you hear it? The procession is on its way—as near as the Law Courts perhaps. In a few minutes—"

Before he could finish the sentence the door was thrown open and the Neapolitan rushed in. They were not prepared for him yet.

"Well!" he cried. "After all West. The police came by the Strand house. They—"

"The police!" exclaimed the Jew; and then they were in the room and the passage outside seemed crowded with them. He hesitated a moment, then turned angrily to an inspector.

"Well known to you, we think, and caught almost red-handed. You are Sir Isaac Brand, and the warrant for your arrest," said the next instant the inspector had caught the Jew's arm as he attempted to slip his hand into his pocket. "Latest type of automatic, eh? Not the kind of thing innocent gentlemen usually carry about with them."

Through the open window the sound of the cheering came more clearly. The head of the procession must be opposite the house in the Strand. In a moment there would have come the roar of explosion had not the plot been discovered. The Jew thought of it, so did the Neapolitan standing by the door, between two constables, so did every man there each in his own way. Then a sharp order was given, and a few minutes later three taxis went up Farringdon Street carrying police and prisoners.

Early in the afternoon a taxi stopped in Bruton Street and out of it stepped the Neapolitan still carrying his suitcase.

"Wait," he said to the driver, then went up quickly to the first floor and with a latch key opened the outer door of a set of chambers there.

"Amos!" he shouted.

A man came at his call, the man who had looked at him across the steering wheel in Charing Cross station yard, and who last night had driven him and the Jew to Farringdon Street, but he was no longer dressed as a chauffeur.

"The taxi is waiting, Amos. Our prisoner may as well join the rest of them. Do I look like the blackguard's

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Mr. Robert Chamberlain is drawing near his 90th birthday, yet enjoyed the motor ride without any undue fatigue. A supper in honor of the returned Sackville soldiers, who were not entertained last year was held in Cook's restaurant Friday night. Mayor Black presided and besides the soldier lads there were present, Mrs. Freeman-Lake, representing the Daughters of the Empire; Mrs. G. A. Peters, president of the Women's Civic Council; Rev. Dr. Wiggin, Rev. Mr. Vincent, Rev. F. G. Mackintosh, Rev. H. E. Thomas, the members of the committee having in charge the entertainment of the soldiers, Messrs. B. C. Rayworth and H. McCready and several members of the Town Council. After the very excellent supper had been thoroughly enjoyed, Mayor Black in calling the meeting to order, spoke briefly of the desire of the Town Council to show in a small way the appreciation of the town and its citizens to the soldier lads who had enlisted in Sackville. Short but spirited addresses were given by Mrs. Freeman-Lake, Mrs. G. A. Peters, Rev. Dr. Wiggin, Rev. Mr. Vincent, Rev. F. G. Mackintosh, Rev. H. E. Thomas, Mayor L. C. Curry and Dr. Secord. A song was rendered by Mr. Thomas Murray, town clerk, in his usual pleasing manner. During the evening Mayor Black presented recognition cards to the men who were present.

Sackville

Sackville, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Carey Robinson left last week for Wolfville, where she will spend a month's guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening, when the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sumner, Moncton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Hainnie, Miss Lou Ford, Mrs. L. Hamilton and Mr. H. A. Ford. Mrs. A. H. McCready, who has been spending a few days in St. John, has returned home.

Mr. E. Crandall of Vancouver, B. C., is spending a few days in town. Mrs. G. Doull who has been spending a few weeks in Sackville, has returned to her home in Moncton. Among those from Sackville attending the dance in Amherst on Tuesday evening, given by the Bachelor Girls for the G. W. V. A., were Mr. and Mrs. Hainnie, Miss Constance Smith, Messrs. Hainnie, Gass, Henderson and Sallivan.

Mr. C. W. Oshill spent a few days in St. John last week. On Friday evening Mr. Earle Spicer, a former student and graduate of Mt. Allison Conservatory gave a most delightful song recital in Fawcett Hall. Mr. Spicer was in excellent voice and sang a number of Italian, English and French songs. He is undoubtedly the possessor of a voice of remarkable quality, which added to a fine personality made him friends with his hearers from the first appearance. Mr. Spicer has wonderfully developed since his graduation some years ago. It is no wonder that his amonon teacher, Belgar of London, with whom he has been studying for the past three years predicts a great future for this young man, and when he returns in a couple of years from this great master's studio, we hope to hear him again.

His forte is thrilling, his piano delicious, and his singing is very dramatic. Mr. Spicer's program consisted of as good a sample of English and French songs as one could wish to hear. He was enthusiastically recalled again and again. Mr. Spicer had the assistance of Miss Grace Parquhar, a post-graduate of Mount Allison Conservatory, a pupil of Prof. Brunton. Her playing of the Chopin numbers was pleasing. It will be seen that her last number on the second half of the program makes considerable demands upon the technical powers, the endurance and the versatility of the soloist but Miss Parquhar was not found wanting in any of those particulars. Moreover, when the artistic value of an accompaniment is taken into consideration and when it is understood just what it means to a soloist, a word of commendation is due to Miss Parquhar for the excellence of her work. Her accompaniments were sympathetic and showed her at once a musician of fine artistic instinct.

Mrs. W. T. Wood who has been visiting in Halifax, guest of her mother, Mrs. Umlacke, has returned home. Miss Fydel entertained a few friends after the recital on Friday evening, in honor of Mr. Earl Spicer. Miss Madge Chapman of St. John, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. McIntyre.

Many Sackville people will be interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Isabel Geraldine Wrye, graduate nurse of Providence, N. L., to Mr. Joseph A. Cartier of 20 Lancelot Park E. L. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charman. The happy couple left by auto for Niagara Falls and the White Mountains on their wedding trip. The bride is a sister of Mrs. H. A. Cole of Sackville.

Miss Daisy Weldon of Dorchester, was in Sackville on Tuesday. Rev. J. W. McConnell of Halifax, preached to a large congregation in the Methodist Church Sunday morning. In the evening, Rev. John Linn, M.A., B.D., occupied the pulpit. Forceful discourses were delivered.

Miss Jean Piercy of Dorchester, spent Wednesday in town with Miss Mary Ross at the Ladies' College. Miss Nora Holland has returned home after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. P. G. Maloney, Melrose. At the office of the chief Superintendent of Education, it was stated that P. A. Dixon of Sackville, who has been on the staff of the Provincial Agricultural Department and was formerly acting inspector of schools, has been loaned to the education service in place of the late P. B. Mosher, who died recently at Woodstock.

Messrs. F. L. Ford and Murray Fawcett were in Truro this week for a few days. Mrs. P. Hanson is spending a few days in Amherst, guest of Mrs. Chandler Hewson. Rev. H. E. Thomas, president of the New Brunswick and P. E. Island Conference, was in St. John over Sunday and preached in the Methodist church at West St. John. Mrs. Fred George, Upper Sackville, returned last of the week from St. John, where she was a delegate to the Women's Institute. While away Mrs. George also visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ramsay in Kings Co. Mrs. David N. Smith, who has been

She will be greatly missed by her associates. Heartfelt sympathy goes out to the bereaved relatives. The remains of the late Miss Murdoch were brought to this town for burial. The funeral was held on Thursday morning at 8.30, interment in Roman Catholic cemetery.

Rosborough, of Picton, accompanied by her little daughter, Anna Kirk, is in town for a few days as a guest of Mrs. John R. Johnston. Mr. Im McDonald of this town was one of the principals in an interesting event which took place at Hardwick this week. The bride was Miss Eva McLean of that place. Mrs. W. S. Cox and her niece, Miss Gladys Arscott of London, Ont., were visitors to St. John on Thursday.

Sussex

HEALTH FOR THE BABY

The baby of today is the man or woman of tomorrow. Thus the success of the future man or woman depends upon the baby's present welfare. If the baby is sickly and ill-nourished it is not to be expected that he will grow into a strong, active man who will hold his own in the business world a few years hence. Mothers, it is a duty you owe the future to keep your little ones well now. This can be easily done if Baby's Own Tablets are kept in the house. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus make baby healthy and strong. Concerning them Mrs. W. Orser, Elginburg, Ont., writes:—"I have a fine healthy boy three years and have used Baby's Own Tablets for him ever since he was a small baby. I certainly think them a splendid medicine." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mothers' Advice. The responsibility for a daughter's future largely rests with the mother. The right influence and the information which is of vital interest to the daughter imparted at the proper time has not only saved the life but insured the success of many a beautiful girl. When a girl's thoughts become sluggish with headaches, dizziness, or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs and a desire for solitude, her mother should come to her aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities. Thousands of women reading in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of this medicine, and what it has done for their daughters. Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For 3 months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I did not know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters." Mrs. M. FIBARA, 516 Macy Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

10,000 IN GARDEN CHEER FOR RUSSIA, HISS PRESIDENT

Presence of Police Fails to Alleviate Check Abuse by the Bolsheviks.

New York, Nov. 10.—Hisses resounded through Madison Square Garden for two hours last night when a crowd of ten thousand men and women of Bolshevik persuasion—practically all of foreign birth of parentage—seized upon every opportunity to deride and ridicule the President of the United States, to sneer at the ideals expressed in his "fourteen points" and to berate the cause for which American soldiers laid down their lives on the battlefields of Europe and Siberia.

It was a mass meeting called by the Peoples' Freedom Union ostensibly to protest against the blockade of Soviet Russia, but in reality to give expression to un-American opinions and to belittle all that America is or hopes to be. Presence of scores of government Secret Service agents and police men prevented the speakers from giving vent to violent opinions with which they evidently were in sympathy. But what was lacking in the remarks of the speakers was more than made up by the attitude of the crowd.

Dudley Field Malone, Chairman.

There was a marked difference in the appearance of this crowd as compared with the "reds" which have within the last few days fallen into the net of the Department of Justice. But it was only one of appearance; for in sentiment and sympathy the crowd last night was just as un-American as any of the "reds" now under arrest and awaiting deportation. Such difference in appearance as was noticed was largely one of soap and water.

Dudley Field Malone was chairman of the meeting. He was a few minutes late in arriving, so Wilfred Humphreys, a Y. M. C. A. worker in Russia, took the floor. His statement that his main work in Russia was the distribution of 1,000,000 copies of President Wilson's speech, in which he laid down the celebrated fourteen points, was met by a gale of hisses, with a few ripples of laughter.

"I do not wonder that you laugh," remarked Mr. Humphreys. "But the so-called ignorant Russians laughed just eight months ahead of you. I found that Soviet Russia regarded Wilson's fourteen points merely as an enlargement of their own programme. No annexations and no indemnities."

The speaker was interrupted by a torrent of applause while many of those present jumped to their feet and shouted.

Idealist Without Authority.

"Wilson was an idealist without the authority back of him," continued Mr. Humphreys, as the crowd derided mention of the President's name. "Soviet Russia knew that when the time came the Allies wouldn't let Wilson fulfill his promises!" (Hisses and boos.)

Mr. Humphreys said that later he was connected with the American Red Cross in Russia and came in close contact with the Soviet organization. "I was astounded," he continued, "when I returned to the United States and found out what the American people had been told about the Bolsheviks. Seventy-five per cent of these stories are lies."

The last meeting of this size that I attended was in Petrograd. What do you suppose the subject of the meeting was—Tom Mooney, of San Francisco. (Great applause.) They took the attitude that a wrong done to a worker in the United States was a wrong done to workers all over the world, just as you take the attitude that a wrong done to workers in Russia is a wrong done to workers in the United States.

Laughter and applause greeted Mr. Humphreys' description of how the bourgeoisie of Russia in the fourth and last class as regards the distribution of goods. The crowd seemed to take particular delight in the fact that the middle class of Russia had trouble in getting food, while the Bolshevik loafers were able to get all they wanted.

Mr. Malone had arrived meanwhile and took up the gavel as chairman. He began his remarks by paying his respects to the Department of Justice agents, the Last Committee and the newspapers.

"If all of these gentlemen have their pencils sharpened," he said, "now we will proceed."

Despite this apparent disregard for the forces that he mentioned it was observed during the meeting that Mr. Malone and the rest of the speakers set their faces to get on the windy side of the Department of Justice's crusade against the "reds."

Norman Thomas Speaks.

The next speaker, Norman Thomas, addressed the audience as "comrades and friends." To the evident delight of the crowd, he ridiculed the liberal governments of Europe which have attempted to restore order out of chaos and in particular derided the efforts of Paderewski, the Polish Premier. His reference to Paderewski was met by a storm of hisses.

Speaking of the action of the United States government in joining the blockade of Russia, Mr. Thomas said: "The excuse given by the United States government—shall I say our government?"

He got no further. He was interrupted by yells of "No!" from all parts of the house. He continued: "The average government official is incapable of truth."

This pleased the crowd mightily.

It stood on its feet and cheered for several minutes, while the speaker stood and smiled.

Then Mr. Thomas sought to compare conditions in the United States and Russia, referring frequently to the action of the Department of Justice in trying to crush the "reds." His every reference to this agency of law and order was met with hisses.

Mr. Thomas closed by demanding not only that the blockade against the shipment of foodstuffs to Russia be lifted, but that the blockade against "truth and fact" also be lifted.

The chairman then made a few remarks on the American soldiers who have died in Siberia, incidentally linking up the Irish cause with that of Soviet Russia. At his suggestion the audience rose for a minute as a tribute to respect to the memory of the 100 American soldiers whose bodies a day or two ago arrived in this country. He said that they had been "murdered" by being compelled to fight in a country with which they are at peace.

Other speakers were Rose Schneidemann, who introduced resolutions protesting against the Russian blockade, and James H. Maurer, of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor. William E. Mason, representative from Illinois, sent his regrets, while Helen Keller sent a letter in which she sympathized with the women of Russia.

Atlantic Flight Wonderful Example of the Value of OXO

Interesting letter from Captain Sir J. Alcock, K.B.E., D.S.C.

"You will be interested to learn that OXO was a great help to us during our Trans-Atlantic Flight; it sustained us wonderfully during our 16 hours' journey."

"We had found out what a good thing it is when flying in France, and so decided to carry it with us on this occasion, and we can assure you that hot OXO is most acceptable under such cold and arduous conditions. OXO was the only article of its kind which we carried."

J. ALCOCK, Capt., D.S.C.

OXO steadies the nerves—keeps the brain alert—gives extra warmth to resist cold and exposure—extra strength to fortify against fatigue, and yields an abundance of energy out of all proportion to the amount taken.

Prices same as before the war, 10c., 25c., $1.15, $2.25.

To Travelling Salesmen

WHEN showing goods, the traveller's cuffs as well as his goods are brought right before the prospective customer's eyes. A soiled cuff doesn't create a favorable impression. And it draws the attention away from the article to the soiled cuff.

The alert, particular traveller, therefore, has to take a big bunch of shirts on his trips and change often—unless he carries W. G. & R. Shirts with Double Wear Cuffs with him when he needs just half the usual quantity.

Everyone knows that the cuffs—the most exposed portion of a shirt—get soiled first. And it doesn't take long for a dirty train or dusty road to soil them.

But when one side of his Double Wear Cuffs gets soiled the traveller just turns the cuffs, which soil easily and lie perfectly flat either way they're turned. He thus wears his shirt twice as long.

If he is away for a period of two weeks to a month or longer every inch in his grip or personal trunk is valuable. W. G. & R. Shirts with Double Wear Cuffs save space for him, cut laundry bills for shirts in half, and wear longer.

Gagetown

Gagetown, Nov. 13.—On Saturday afternoon the girls of the Help-Fur-All Club held a most interesting and successful sale at the home of their president, Miss Lucie Bridges, when nearly $32 was realized by their efforts, and donated to Women's Institute's fund for the Memorial Hall. Too much credit cannot be given to the little girls, who have been working all summer and autumn to make the pretty and interesting array of fancy work which was on sale, ranging from embroidered sofa cushions to tiny pin-cushions. There was also a home cooking table of attractive sandwiches, donated by older friends; and much interest was also taken in a handsome souvenir cushion which was won by Miss Hazel Ester. The little girls in charge of the sale were Lucie Bridges, Marjorie Robinson and Della Allingham.

A very pleasant and informal little affair was held on Saturday evening, at the home of the Misses Dingo, when a number of friends of Miss Julie Straight gathered to tender her their best wishes and remembrances before her departure from Gagetown, where she has spent the past three years. Miss Straight was much taken by surprise when she entered the home and found it filled with guests, and still more so, when she was ushered into the parlor, where a large and prettily decorated table stood, heaped with packages large and small, and a witty poem expressive of the good wishes of everyone was read. A happy time followed, many handsome and useful gifts in silver, china and linen for which Miss Straight expressed her thanks in a fitting little speech.

Refreshments were served by the Misses Dingo, Miss Mary Scovill, Miss Molly Oddy and Miss Freda Ebbott, after which the evening came to a close amid another "shower" of good wishes.

W. A. Kelly, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Caswell, has returned to his home in Oak Bluffs, Mass.

Miss Edith Doherty returned to St. John Saturday, accompanied by Miss Gladys Dickie, who was her guest for the week-end.

Many friends are extending good wishes to George Hendry and his bride, who was Miss Sadie MacAlpine, of Lower Cambridge, whose marriage took place last week in Boston, Mass., and who returned this week after a short wedding trip to reside at Lower Cambridge.

Rev. J. H. A. Holmes of St. John West, was here for a short visit last week, while on his way to Fredericton.

William Perry, forest warden for the parish, was successful some days ago in bringing down one of the finest moose shot here this season. About thirty moose have been captured by the hunters in this area during the season, while deer have been unusually scarce. On the opposite side of the river, however, in Cambridge, deer are reported in large numbers. Partridge have not been so temptingly plentiful for a long time, and it is not an uncommon sight for the farmers near the town to see them in the apple orchards near the house, and sometimes even spending the night in the trees.

One was seen by an early riser, in the town this morning not long ago, perched on the roof of his barn.

Reid Brothers closed their sawing operations a few days ago, after a busy season, having cut between three and four million feet since the spring, and made a number of important improvements to their plant, which employs the largest amount of labor of any one industry here. Lumbering promises to be carried on more extensively than ever in the parish during the coming winter and over 15 different concerns have been busy during the past week getting their crews into the woods, and preparing for the coming onslaught on the timber.

Beautiful New St. David's Church Replaces Edifice Destroyed By Flames

In January of the year 1891, the adjoining dwelling house was purchased for the sum of $1,800. In this year the church was repaired and the electric lights installed. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Bruce in December, 1893, preached a sermon, a tribute to the memory of the late Governor Boyd, a member of the church.

In 1897, the session of this church was increased by the addition of four new members, viz: Messrs. Jack, Malcolm, Morrison, M.D., and Watson. Ten years later a special Jubilee Service was held and a week's programme of meetings took place. Rev. Dr. Pollock presided on the 4th of December, morning and evening.

In the year 1899, Rev. Dr. Bruce resigned to accept the principalship of the Boys' College in Toronto. The next pastor was Rev. J. Archibald Morrison, Ph.D., a Canadian by birth, who continued in charge until March 31st, 1904. He was succeeded by Rev. A. A. Graham, M.A., B.D., who continued as pastor until June 30th, 1911, when on the following year the present pastor, Rev. J. A. MacKiegan, B.A., was called to the pastorate.

Second Church Destroyed. It was on December 13, 1917, shortly after noon, that fire was discovered in the church and it had gained such headway that there was no chance of saving the beautiful edifice. The building was totally destroyed, and among the things that could not be replaced were a number of magnificent carvings done by John Rogerson, one of the congregation, three splendid memorial windows, a very fine carved communion table, the marble baptismal font, and a silver loving cup, the latter presented to the church by the 69th Battalion, as a token of their appreciation of the way St. David's had entertained them while in St. John awaiting embarkation overseas.

Seeking for a building in which to hold services, the vacant church of St. John on King street East was secured and all departments of work were carried on in this place.

Energetic activity has always characterized St. David's church, both in denominational and in the cause of social and civic welfare. The people of St. David's have been noted for their loyalty and devotion to their church home, and for their efforts to advance the principle for which the church has stood. In addition to the work of the congregation the church has, during recent years supported its own missionary in Korea, Miss Jennie B. Robb.

While the various battalions were stationed in the city, previous to going overseas to take their part in the Great War, St. David's was their church home, and during the years of the war, two meetings a week were held for the entertainment of the soldiers. The church's branch of the Red Cross Society accomplished a very large amount of work.

The following tabular statement will show the past growth and the present development of the church:

WE were among the first to put up tea in sealed packages.

We were the first to use automatic electric weighing machines so as to insure accurate weights.

We were the first to make known the qualities of the now world-famous ASSAM teas.

And we are now the first to adopt a new package for the better protection of these fine quality teas.

The lead package has served its purpose well for generations, but it was easily broken or torn, allowing not only a loss of tea from the package but exposing the tea to the air, odors and dust that it was so necessary to protect the tea against.

Our new package—the waxed board carton—is stronger, more secure and more completely airtight; altogether the best container for tea that has yet been devised.

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

Red Rose Coffee is as generously good as Red Rose Tea

The Essex Satisfaction
It Comes From the Ability to Out Perform Others and in the Knowledge That it is a Fine Car Even Though it is Not Large

That is Distinctive

One thing we can't forget in buying a motor car is the price of ownership.

The automobile is a pleasure vehicle and it spoils the fun to be hopelessly out rivalled by a car that is smaller and cost less to buy.

And for the same reason there is a lot of satisfaction in having a car that, though it is small and its cost is less, does out-perform all of its class and has few rivals among the large, costlier automobiles.

That is Why You Hear So Much of Essex

Anyone who has ever driven much knows that the greatest delight, where speed is concerned, comes with the ability to beat a rival with extra bursts of speed. It is the situations which show a car's ability to out-perform others that give greatest cause for pride.

And knowing that Essex does excel most cars, even many that are larger and that cost more, there is little wonder owners speak of it as they do.

Essex Quality Didn't Just Happen

The Essex Performs as it does because it is built to the highest type of car standard. Its size and price has meant no sacrifice in quality, durability or comfort.

Every construction detail is comparable to one of the world's most famous fine cars.

That is why the Essex is so speedy, so mobile and so enduring. It is why everyone knows it as an utterly different car than has ever been offered. As well attempt to judge the capacity of a man's brains by the size of his hat, as to determine what the Essex can do merely by its type or size and the fact that it sells for only a little more than other cars whose limitations you recognize.

Note the Advantages of Such a Car

The Essex is not a large car, neither is it tiny. No space is wasted. No extra weight is used. Neither passengers or driver are crowded. They have plenty of room on the seats and for their legs. The size of the Essex gives it many advantages, including moderate cost and operating economy. And think how much more convenient to drive. It slips through traffic that a larger car can not negotiate. It can be parked in spaces that others can not squeeze into. It turns in a short radius.

So Don't Forget This Fact

The Essex in every particular, save in price and weight, is comparable to cars that cost much more. And it possesses the further advantage in economy that comes from its lighter weight.

Remember, 18,000 owners are telling of more good qualities about it than any Essex salesman can tell you. Essex owners will advise you to buy an Essex in either the five passenger touring, the sedan or the roadster models.

Some residents of City Road are talking of getting up a petition protesting against the intention of the council to pave that street with bituminous concrete on a broken stone base. The City Engineer commented that the street be paved with granite blocks.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCES HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Representatives of Shipping Companies Met Delegates from 'Longshoremen's Union and the Coal Handlers—Rates of Pay and Working Conditions Generally Discussed—Another Session With 'Longshoremen This Morning.

Two important conferences took place yesterday in the Board of Trade rooms when representatives of the shipping companies met representatives of the Longshoremen's Union, and of the Coal Handlers, and discussed with them the question of rates of pay and of working conditions generally for the winter season. Both the longshoremen and coal handlers have asked for new scales of wages and some changes in working conditions. The representatives of the shipping companies made new offers to both delegations. The coal handlers declined their offer to their union, and expect to report on Monday. The offer made to the longshoremen was submitted to a big meeting of members of that organization last night. The meeting was long, but no information as to what transpired was given out. The manner of the members as they left the hall did not, however, indicate that they were particularly satisfied with affairs in general.

Dornfontein Is Ready For Sea

Victim of Hun Pirates Has Been Rebuilt in Maine Shipyards and Will Make Her First Trans-Atlantic Voyage as the "Netherton."

The schooner Netherton is a beautiful and finely finished craft and will sail from Eastport to Norfolk, for her first trans-Atlantic voyage. It will not be the first trip the vessel has made, however, for in the schooner Dornfontein she sailed from this port on her maiden voyage, in August of last year, falling a prey to the Hun pirates while still in the Bay of Fundy. Early in June, 1918, the handsome schooner Dornfontein, built at a cost of $110,000 at this port, started on her maiden voyage to Africa with a cargo of 900,000 feet of lumber. Her total value being stated at $200,000. On August 2 when far down the Bay of Fundy she was overtaken by a German submarine, said to be No. 56. When the various instruments, over six months' supply of provisions and all stores had been stolen by the Hun sea raiders, the ship was put to the torch and left to her fate. She did not burn entirely, however, as fishermen from Grand Manan, N. B., were attracted to the scene a few days later and took the burning ship to their shores, where the fire was extinguished and about 400,000 feet of lumber was saved, some of it being that island. He was not much damaged, but today is as good as a schooner, and has attracted much attention while in Eastport harbor ready for her second maiden trip, in which there will be no lurking Hun menace.
