"German Syrup"

A Farmer at Edom, Texas,
says:
"We are six in family. We live in a place where we are subject to violent Colds and Lung Troubles. I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pain in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles is —Try it. You will soon be convinced. In all the families where your German Syrup is used we have no trouble with the Lungs at all. It is the medicine for this country."

GENERAL NEWS.

A reign of terror has been inaugurated at Homestead, Pa., since the troops were withdrawn. The strikers are blamed.
—Prof. Saunders, the Canadian Commissioner at the World's Fair, who has just returned from Chicago, says that Canada has been allotted two and a half acres of floor space.
—Tired of courtship lasting 15 years, 44-year-old Widow Beaubien, at Monrovia, Mich., has wed William Rossan for $20,000 for trifling with her young affections.
—Major-General Herbert has reported adversely to the formation of a highland company at Victoria, B. C. He thinks it would be better if the brigades were strengthened rather than a new one formed.
—M. Maxin Lecomte is about to introduce a bill into the French senate providing a maximum penalty and a year's imprisonment and a fine of 2,000 francs for engaging in a duel. If the duelists should have killed his man the maximum penalty will be three years imprisonment and 10,000 francs fine.
—Since the outbreak of the cholera in the Russian dominions there have been 150,000 cases of the disease and 65,000 deaths. In Saratoff there have been 31, 000 cases and 11,000 deaths, making in these three districts alone a total of 150, 000 cases and 767,000 deaths. Three weeks ago the disease broke out in Warsaw and since that time twenty deaths have occurred.
—During the agitation in England for new legislation concerning accidents to workmen on public works it may come out that of 12,000 men employed on the Manchester ship canal, 1,100 have been killed outright and 1,700 permanently injured, making a total of 2,800 who have met with accident in the progress of the works, and for whose reception no less than three hospitals were necessary. This list of killed and wounded equals if not exceeds that of a sanguinary campaign in time of war.
Mr. Gladstone has promised to take up the question in order to find out where the blame lies and what means can be taken to prevent such wholesale slaughter.
—The town of Tomochie, in Western Chihuahua, Mexico. The town has been in rebellion against the federal government for some time on account of excessive taxation, extortion by federal officials and government interference with the people's religious practices. Two months ago a battalion sent to subdue the unruly Tomochies was repulsed by the latter and forced to retreat. Two weeks ago the government sent 1,800 men to Tomochie and on Monday they made an attack upon the town. The slaughter was terrible. The soldiers lost 368 of their number and many were wounded. Not a man of the Tomochie was left, except those who happened to be in the mountains. The village day presented a frightful appearance.
The streets were filled with dead bodies and blood seemed to have flowed in torrents.

An African Ballet.

When we arrived at Mashoupa a dance was going on—a native Sochuana dance —in consequence of the full moon and the rejoicing incident of an abundant harvest. In the kolla some forty or more men had formed a circle, and were jumping round and round to the sound of music. Evidently it was an old war dance degenerated; the sugar cane took the place of the assegai, many black legs were clothed in trousers, and many black shoulders now wore coats; but these still survive as relics of the past the ostich feather in the hat, the fly-whisk of horse jacket, or other tall, the iron skin scraper round the neck, which represents the pocket handkerchief among the Kafirs, and is used to remove perspiration, and of the flute with one or two holes, out of which some men seem to produce a different sound, while around the group of dancing men old women still circulate as of yore, clapping their withered hands and encouraging festivity. It was a sight of considerable pic-turesqueness amid the beehive huts and all trelanking rocks.
Mashoupa was once the residence of a missionary, but the church is now abandoned and falling into ruins, because when asked to repair the edifice at their own expense the men of Mashoupa waxed wroth and repudiated it. The God rightly repaid his own house; and one old man who received a blanket for his reward for attending divine service is reported to have remarked; when the dolo was stopped: "No more blanket, no more hallelujah." I fear the men of Mashoupa are wedded to heathendom.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative; and if the father or mother be sensitive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Needed a "Guardian."

I was the only passenger in the car.
Midway of a block another came in.
His hat was crushed and his clothing drenched with mud. For a long time he sat in gloomy meditation. Then he running loose in this town at the present time.

"What Did Bill do?"

"Yes, sir. I ain't got sense enough to be let go without a 'yarden.' See that car up ahead there?" I did. It was half a dozen blocks away.
"Well, sir. I run like 60 for more'n a block to catch that car."
"Couldn't catch it, eh?"
"Yes, I could. That's the trouble.
I did catch it, an' I gin the conductor a kick on the hind platform an' he gin me a nickle change. Then somehow I up an' dropped the nickle overboard.
I throwed to the conductor to stop the car, but he wouldn't do it, so I up an jumped off backwards. Look 'at my clo'se. When I got up that car was o'reach, so I had to wait for this one."
"Did you find your nickle?"
"Oh, yes; found that right enough.
Lost my car, spilt my clo'se and skint my back jest for the gratifyin' privilege of pickin' up that docteen nickle an' givin' it to this conductor. I used to think Bill Thompson was the dingiest foul 'n' that I guess I'm close onto him."

A Neglected Cold in the Head leads to catarrh, perhaps consumption and death. Why neglect with such a safe, speedy remedy as Nasal Balm at hand? Dr. Derbyshire, president of the Ottawa Dermatology Association, says:

"Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the first application. All dealers or by mail, post paid at 50c. small and $1 large size bottle.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.
Syrup of Figs is for sale in 750 bottles of all leading druggists.

WOMEN'S COLUMN.

Conducted by the Ladies of the Sackville W. C. T. U.
Our Special Functions.
Has the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of to-day a raison d'être?
The question is constantly common to use in one or another form. It is a question, the frequent repetition of which is one of the characteristics of our age.
The time when individual, party, organization, or even the church itself could live upon a past record, be the record never so glorious, has long since gone by. "Act as if the living present," is the motto by which, consciously or unconsciously, all things are to-day gauged. "What have you done?" fades into a absolute insignificance before the transcendent importance of the correlative question, "What are you doing?" The world no longer defines the dead past; it has turned that for its weal or woe, it must look to the living heartthrobs of the present. Again and again much more frequently as the years go on, must our great organization confront this question.
The causes contributing to our first being are unhesitatingly conceded. The good we have thus far accomplished is universally acknowledged; "but" and here comes in that ominous pause—"is not the work done? If so, why continue the form of the organization?" Or, if not done, are there not other forces, other agencies, some of them evolved since the W. C. T. U. came into being, capable of carrying on its work more efficiently? In country unions especially do we meet this problem, and find that it is a constant temptation to dissolve the organization of the union and unite with the Relief Corps, the Home Missions Society, the Christian Endeavor, King's daughters, the Daughters of Rebecca, Sons of Temperance, or kindred societies.
We gladly concede the good in each and all of these organizations; we question not the motives which called them into being, nor the work accomplished by them, and yet we can but feel that that one of the dangerous tendencies of this age is that which leads to a multiplicity of organizations; that if one organization can be found which combines the best elements in all the others, that organization, especially since "the time is short" is the one which comes to all with the strongest claim for attention.

What do the forty-three distinct departments mean except that it is carrying on, quietly and persistently, every known line of reform? Starting with the two fold idea of reforming the individual drunkard and abolishing the saloon, it had not gone far in its march towards victory before it learned that each evil is related to all evil; that in striking a blow at one form of sin, we are met straightway by all other forms of sin; and that the successful reform movement of the future must be made up of countless movements; a new pluribus vitem. In no other single organization can the mere fact of membership all one with so many of the forces making for righteousness all over the world. And that, too, not merely with those forces which bear their outward manifestations, but with those deeper lying forces so seldom recognized because working so far beneath the surface.

"Because it is easier to see a drunkard" than a principle," was the answer of a well-known suffragist, when asked at the Boston Convention why such crowds came to our meetings, and so few, comparatively, to the suffrage gatherings.

It was a profound saying, but its application to the W. C. T. U. was a false one. Whatsoever may be the causes contributing to W. C. T. U. popularity the fact that it does only the "drunkard," is a type, is surely not one.
Indeed another class of critics is inclined to rebuke us because we have clung to the old form of the "drunkard." Our fight for the "principle." We do not believe the rebuke is merited.
Our women, we are sure, have never gotten away from their thought for the individual in their struggle for the universal; but if it were true is not the universal more than the individual? Must our reform work be always less than our work of building up the "new heaven and the new earth, within shall dwell righteousness"—the establishment of a society in which reform work shall be henceforth and forever unnecessary?

Our great object is preeminently the John the Baptist of this age, crying, "Repent in works but deeds as well." "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his path straight." We have really caught the Master's interpretation of his own prayer—"They will be done on earth as it is in heaven." "The kingdom of Heaven has come so near to us that we can reach it in faithful effort, a concrete lives by those in whose hearts and lives the abstract principle has long lain a ger-minating seed.

Some day when the "Philosophy of the Kingdom of Heaven" shall be written it will be found that, unconsciously to themselves, the women of the W. C.
T. U. have been working out this claim from the beginning.
