VICE-REGAL PARTY CLOSE TO DEATH WHEN YACHT SINKS IN LAKE OF WOODS

Governor-General and Princess Pat Rescued in Nick of Time From Boat Owned by Brother-in-Law of Mrs. (Dr.) F. P. Drake.

From reliable sources here comes the information that the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General, and the Princess Patricia escaped drowning by the barest margin last week while summering with the Hon. Bob Rogers, at his camp on the shore of Lake of the Woods, near Kenora.

Members of the vice-regal party were the guests for the day that the accident occurred of George Carrothers, of Winnipeg, who, with his family, is summering on the lake.

The party started for a cruise in a swift yacht belonging to Mr. Carrothers. Ahead of the trim vessel raced a small speed boat, acting as guide to pick out the safest channel.

Several miles had been left behind, with the speed craft plowing through the water about one hundred feet in the lead and the larger vessel following swiftly in its wake.

Suddenly the party aboard the yacht heard a sharp, ripping sound. On the instant the craft stopped, plunged forward then stopped again. It leaned badly to port. Then it began to settle swiftly in the water.

At once there was confusion aboard. The speed boat's crew, seeing that something serious had happened, turned swiftly and came to the rescue. The yacht was settling fast, and the passengers were removed in the nick of time.

Examination showed that the keel of the yacht had struck a water-logged raft several feet below the surface. The smaller speed boat, drawing less water, had passed over the obstruction. It is stated that the entire bottom of the vessel on which the vice-regal party was, had been ripped by the contact.

Mrs. Carrothers is a sister of Mrs. (Dr.) F. P. Drake, of this city.

FRENCH GAINING GROUND IN FIGHTING IN NORTHERN ALSACE

Aviators Are Treating German Guns With Contempt—The Action of French Troops Said To Be Brilliant.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Aug. 11.—Via London 10 a.m.—It is officially announced that the French troops around Spincourt, in the department of Meuse, forced the German cavalry to retreat, although the latter were supported by artillery. The unloading of troops from trains continues in the regions of Gerolstein, but the principal landings occurred earlier, in the rear of Metz and Thionville. French aviators are constantly flying over the zones where the German troops are disposed, without paying the slightest attention to bursting shells of the enemy. The official communication concludes with the statement that the work of fortifying Luxembourg and south of Metz has been completed by the Germans.

FRENCH ATTACK FAILED.

Paris, Aug. 11.—Via London, 10:15 a.m.—A large force of Germans on Sunday night attacked the French advance guard, which had pushed forward on Cernay and Mulhausen. Before this attack the commander of the French troops had quit Mulhausen and assembled his troops in the rear of the town. He quickly placed his forces in a fighting line and stopped the advance of the Germans, who, according to French reports, were superior in number.

The actions of the French are declared to have been brilliant, and it is claimed that they remain masters of northern Alsace. There have been numerous movements of German troops toward Morhange, 20 miles southeast of Metz, and in the region of Blamont, in Meurthe-et-Moselle.

An attack on Rogervillers and Habillville was attempted by the Germans, but failed, because the French were supported by cannon from Manœuvres.

WRECKAGE FROM BRITISH MAN OF WAR PICKED UP

San Francisco Life Saver Finds Pieces Which Give No Clue to Wrecked Vessel — Three Possible.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—More wreckage from a British vessel, which today is established to have been a man-of-war, was cast up by the early flood tide in the neighborhood of the south shore life saving station. Two white wooden cabin doors were found, bearing on bright brass plates, one the legend, "Navigating Officer," and the other "Gunner."

Looks Like Explosion.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 11.—Captain Brombeck, of the South Side life-saving station reported finding late last night, a large piece of wreckage on the beach between the life-saving station and Ocean boulevard. The wreckage consists of several doors painted white and highly varnished, windows with heavy shutters also white, and a quantity of planking. The wreckage was partially shattered and has the appearance of having been in an explosion.

One of the doors bore a brass plate with the inscription, "Ship's Library." Which Can It Be?

According to records here, the only British ships in American Pacific waters are the small cruiser Shearwater, the sloop of war Algerine and the cruiser Rainbow. At last reports, the Shearwater was on the Lower California coast, and the Rainbow departed from San Francisco with coal for a Canadian port, last Friday.

The only enemy which might have been in the vicinity was the German protected cruiser Nürnberg, which had been on Mexican duty at Manzanillo, but on July 29 was reported in mid-Pacific near Midway Island, apparently steaming for the German China station. The Montcalm, a French cruiser, with Rear Admiral Yuzet, was reported further south in Mexican waters, at Acapulco. No news received here today served to identify the wreckage cast up near San Francisco.

Not the Rainbow.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 11.—At the naval department, the Canadian Press was informed that if the wreckage cast up in San Francisco is part of a British war vessel it is probably either from the Shearwater or the Algerine, two small British gunboats which had been stationed along the west coast of Mexico and Lower California. There is considerable wood in both vessels, and the wreckage described might belong to either. "It is not part of the Rainbow. Of that we are certain," remarked the official.

Rainbow West of Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 11.—No definite news can be received of the location of the Rainbow, though it is believed she is cruising somewhere west of Vancouver Island.

PROMINENT GERMAN AMONG THE SLAIN

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Aug. 11.—Via London.—Lieutenant Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, son of the Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, who was formerly German ambassador at Constantinople, was killed in a fight near Genaville in the French department of Meurthe-et-Moselle on August 5.

Belgian territory except just around and to the south of Liege was reported today to have been thoroughly cleared of German troops, with the exception of some Thians who had lost their way.

Steamship Agents Advised That River and Lake Boats Can Call at Montreal.

All steamship agents in London received reports this morning to the effect that the ports of Quebec and Montreal will remain open to the St. Lawrence River and lake steamers, and to assure the travelling public that no difficulty will be experienced if they desire to visit these cities.

The agents say, however, that there are few who are booking passage just now, and that the tourists are sticking to terra firma with a vengeance.

ESSEX CRUISING ROUND NEW YORK

Seen Heading For Harbor, But Suddenly Changed, Steering Eastward.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Aug. 11.—A British cruiser, believed to be the Essex, suddenly appeared at the entrance of New York Harbor this morning. She was sighted off the Highlands of Sandy Hook at about 10:30, apparently bound in, but, within a mile and a half of the bar, she abruptly changed her course and steamed eastward.

"STRANGE VESSEL" IS BRITISH CRUISER

Caused Order To Stop All Ships in the St. Lawrence Until Its Identity Was Revealed.

[Canadian Press.]

Quebec, Aug. 11.—News of the presence in the lower Gulf of St. Lawrence of a strange vessel, caused the federal authorities yesterday to order all ships that were on their way down to stop. Some were held at Quebec, some at Father Point, but today the order was cancelled, the nationality of the supposedly hostile ship having been established. It was found to be a British cruiser.

This morning all the vessels that were held have resumed their voyages.

FIRST CLERGYMAN VOLUNTEERS HERE

Rev. S. E. McKegney Ready To Go With Canadian Contingent.

Rev. S. E. McKegney, rector of St. David's Church, is the first London clergyman to volunteer to go with the contingent Canada will send to help Britain in her struggle against Germany. While he believes that war is a terrible evil, Mr. McKegney thinks that Britain was justified in taking up arms in the present instance, in fact that she could not do otherwise with honor, and, as he has intimated, he is prepared to take his part in defending that honor.

Germans Again Repulsed, In Attempt To Capture Liege Forts, With Terrible Loss

THE WAR SITUATION

In and around Liege, the situation was unchanged today. The Germans held the town itself, but the forts were still fighting strongly. The German main army in the north was reported entrenching itself on the Ourthe, while two large divisions of cavalry had got to Tongres, north of Liege. It was expected that a general advance was in preparation, and a battle imminent in which the Germans would be confronted by the allied Belgians, French and British.

The French at Mulhausen, Alsace, met with opposition after their occupation of that city. A superior force of Germans caused them to leave the place and take position outside, where an action was fought, details of which have not been made public. French reports are indefinite, but give the impression of a French success.

Many German spies were arrested today in Belgium, and a secret wireless apparatus was discovered in a German store in Brussels.

Fighting has evidently occurred on the Russo-German frontier, as six carloads of German prisoners were reported to have passed through Vilna today on their way to the Russian interior.

Russians have concentrated a considerable army in Finland, thus disposing of the German reports of the landing of a German army corps there.

Bulgaria apparently is mobilizing all her forces, as she announces, to prevent violations of her neutrality.

A state of war has been proclaimed in the southern provinces of Holland.

Russian funds seized in Berlin banks by Germany amounted to $25,000,000.

The German cruisers Goeben and Breslau are still at large in the Mediterranean, according to reports.

Germans are said in Belgian official reports to have lost 2,000 killed, 20,000 wounded and 9,700 prisoners in the recent fighting.

England is said by the Times of London, to have between 500,000 and 600,000 men under arms without the reserves.

Aviators are at work constantly on the frontiers of France and Germany endeavoring to observe the concentration of the respective armies.

BRITAIN HAS OVER HALF-MILLION MEN READY FOR SERVICE

Mobilization Well On and Situation May Be Viewed With Comparative Equanimity.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 11.—According to today's Times Great Britain has now well over half a million men under arms, not counting the national reserves.

"We should, therefore, view the situation with comparative equanimity," says the Times "and not be turned from any masculine resolve by the threat of an assault by the German navy."

HUSSARS CAN GO AS INFANTRYMEN

Ottawa Notifies Lt.-Col. Abbott That His Men Can Go as Dismounted Troops.

Today, there is rejoicing in the ranks of the First Hussars, the reason being that the commanding officer, Lieut.-Col. Harry R. Abbott, has been notified by telegram from Ottawa that any of the men who desire to do so may volunteer for active service if they are willing to go as infantrymen.

Directly on receipt of this message, Colonel Abbott sent out notices to all the men to attend at the Armories at eight o'clock tonight, when the names of those who desire to enlist will be taken and forwarded to Ottawa.

Up to last night, the cavalrymen were under the impression that in order to join the active service contingent they would be compelled first to secure their discharge from the Hussars and re-enlist in some other corps. Now that they have learned that this is not necessary, the men are as eager as possible to enlist, and a big rush is expected at the Armories tonight.

AUSTRIANS AT GUELPH WANTED TO GET HOME

[Canadian Press.]

Guelph, Aug. 11.—Twelve Austrian deserters applied to the Grand Trunk today for transportation to Krakow, Austria, where they would join the Austrian army. The agent here refused, under instructions not to sell tickets. They are under surveillance.

Struggle for Possession Still Continues—Besiegers Displaying Great Courage In Repeated Assaults On Forts.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 11.—4:55 a.m.—Dispatches to the Times from The Hague and to the Telegraph from Maastricht, sent under yesterday's date, agree that the struggle for possession of the forts at Liege was going on continuously and giving rise to terrible scenes of bloodshed and of heroism.

At noon, the dispatches say, the Germans were making fierce efforts to silence the forts nearest the city proper, and the defenders were gallantly holding out against almost constant bombardment.

GERMANS REPULSED.

[Canadian Press.]

Brussels, Aug. 11.—Via London, 8:50 a.m.—The Germans made a desperate attack on Fort Seraing, south of Liege, Sunday night, and were repulsed with heavy loss. It is estimated that eight hundred Germans were killed within an area of half a square mile. A bridge on which Germans were crossing was shattered by the fort's fire, which had an exact range.

GERMANS SHOWED COURAGE.

The Germans attempted the assault with great courage. Some of their dead were found directly in front of the barbican fencing that surrounds the fort. It is reported that Prince William of Lippe and his son, who were killed, were charging at the head of a hundred German soldiers. Their bodies were buried near the fort.

CITY WAS EASY.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 11.—2:30 a.m.—The Standard's military correspondent explaining the situation at Liege, says: "The withdrawal of the Belgian mobile defence, left open all the spaces between the forts, whereupon it became very easy for the invaders to get into town by taking advantage of the woods and hilly ground."

"It is unlikely that any considerable portion of the German army has entered the city. A few hundred men would be sufficient to keep the civil population under control, and would be an act of madness for the German commander to pass his entire force into what might prove a trap with no exit."

WHY THEY ARE LEFT ALONE.

"The fact that the forts have not molested them may be explained in two ways, namely: It may be that guns cannot be trained inward on the city; or, which is likely, that the Belgians are unwilling to risk the destruction of their fine city for the sake of turning out the enemy, occupation matters little from the point of view of the defence. Liege is quite useless to the Germans so long as the forts hold out."

GERMANS LOST 2,000.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 11.—10:30 a.m.—A news dispatch from Brussels says that it is officially announced there that the German loss in Belgium in the recent fighting was 2,000 dead, 20,000 wounded, and 9,700 prisoners.

GERMANS OCCUPY TONGRES.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 11.—8:05 a.m.—The Paris correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, says that a dispatch from Maastricht, the Netherlands, announces that the Germans occupy Tongres, a town ten miles north of Liege. The place had been abandoned by the Belgians.

German engineers are engaged in constructing a second bridge across the river.

KING ALBERT AT BRUSSELS.

[Canadian Press.]

Brussels, via London, Aug. 11.—12 noon.—King Albert arrived here during the night from the general headquarters of the Belgian army at Louvain, to the northwest of Liege.

His majesty passed several hours in conference with the Belgian minister of war, after which a cabinet council was held. It is reported here that all the civilian hostages held by the Germans in the town of Liege have been released, on giving their parole to remain at the disposition of the German military authorities.

HUNGER BREAKING SPIRITS.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 11.—4:55 a.m.—A dispatch to the Times from Charleroi, Belgium, describes the fighting of the day as altogether lacking in spirit. Even the officers are suffering from hunger, according to the correspondent, who adds two German officers of high rank, captured on the French frontier, said they had had nothing to eat for three days.

CAVALRY REGIMENT CUT UP.

[Canadian Press.]

Brussels, via Paris and London, Aug. 11.—An official statement issued today says that at Houffalize, in Belgium, Luxembourg, a French patrol attacked a squadron of German cavalry, sabred them and took several prisoners.

With the exception of slight encounters between noitering parties, complete quiet prevailed today in Belgium. (Continued on Page Three.)

280 RECRUITS ARE ENROLLED HERE
 7th Fusiliers and 6th Battery Have 140 Volunteers Each.
A. S. C. GOING IN A BODY
 Entire 16th Will Go as a Unit—Many Doctors Are Ready.

Although limited to 125 men, the Seventh Fusiliers sent to Ottawa a list of 140 names of men who are willing to serve in a Canadian overseas contingent, and who have been certified as physically fit. In all 170 have volunteered for active service, but 30 were selected two for one or another physical reason, by the doctor.

The Sixth London Field Battery has even a better showing proportionately. The list of men who have volunteered and been certified as physically qualified being also 140, or slightly over the full war strength. Practically every member of the battery has signified willingness to serve in the contingent, and with the exception of about a dozen have passed the doctor.

Some Are Veterans.
 Not only in the numbers, but in quality also, the battery makes a very good showing. Of the men who have volunteered, not less than fifteen have been in service previously, some in South Africa and others in Egypt and one in the Boer War. With the exception of fifteen, however, none of the corps has had training, either in the Imperial or British Territorial Force or in the Canadian militia. Four Royal Military College graduates are included, among the officers.

Almost a score of men from the First Hussars' departed from taking part in the war as members of their own corps, have been granted their discharges and have joined the battery.

Forty-five in Army Service Corps.
 The Army Service Corps, with a roll of 45 officers and men, has volunteered as a body. Major W. J. Cole, the commanding officer, received a telegram from Ottawa today, asking how many men he was prepared to offer and, after consulting the members of the Sixteenth Corps, was authorized to wire back offering the whole unit.

The offer is accepted. It means that the corps will retain its individuality and the officers in Egypt and in the Wood Leonard, commanding the Sixth Battery, is in hope that his corps may have an opportunity of going to the front as a unit.

Four Signallers Volunteer.
 The signallers, comprising two sections of Number One Company, have been able to muster only four volunteers, but the reason for this is that the unit has been organized only two months, and the members of the local company, consisting as it does of telegraph and telephone sections, must be given with a thorough knowledge of the technical side of these two branches of the service.

As it takes at least six months to train a man for this service, it is impossible to supply any considerable number at present.

Doctors Offer Service.
 The officers of the Fifteenth Field Corps (London), and a battery of the Portenian and Windsor, have volunteered for service in the Medical Corps and the hospital corps. At least a dozen of the latter are doctors, including one of the Seventh, also have offered their services.

Examination Applicants.
 The army's last night, doctors called to the Army Medical Corps to keep busy examining applicants, testing them for height, chest measurement, eyesight, hearing and general physical soundness. Many a man, fit in every other respect, found himself let out of his tent, because he was known as flat-foot. Others "fell down" on the eyesight and hearing tests, while a considerable number were simply told that they were medically unfit.

During the evening the Seventh paraded in the armories, where a tremendous crowd had gathered, and marched around the hall behind the two regimental bands to the tune of such inspiring strains as "The God Save the King," "Oh Canada," and "The Maple Leaf Still Open For Recruits."

The Signallers, the Engineers and the Army Medical Corps are still open to accept recruits for active service, but the lists for the Seventh and the Battery are closed and will be sent to Ottawa as they stand.

SAYS KAISER'S SON IS EAGER FOR WAR
 Got Out of Germany Just in Time.

[The Advertiser.]
 The Kaiser's son, Prince Wilhelm, who has just arrived and says he got out of the country just in time to escape the war, has been seen in the States. He is said to be all agog at the prospect of war, and all seems to be of the opinion that the Kaiser's son would be the first to go to the front. While he was there, they were of the opinion that the other countries would be either neutral or join with Germany.

SEVEN GERMANS TAKEN AS SPIES ON CANADA'S SOIL
 Four Held at Montreal May Be Reservists—Two Found Near Halifax.

[Canadian Press.]
 MONTREAL, Aug. 10.—Four Germans, suspected of being spies, are being held, according to orders issued by R. S. White, collector of customs for the Port of Montreal.

These four are believed to be reservists and were taken into custody in the neighborhood of the harbor front today.

Three in Nova Scotia.
 HALIFAX, Aug. 10.—Two Germans were taken prisoners this morning at Chester by three Halifax officers on the charge of being spies. The Germans got on the train at Hubbards and the officers were on the same train. The baggage of the suspects was seized. Papers and various plans found are said to confirm the suspicion that the Germans were acting as spies along the south shore of Nova Scotia. The prisoners will be brought to Halifax tonight.

A suspicious character has also been arrested at Guysboro as a spy.

The Russians have made strenuous efforts to enter Austria, but have been repulsed. The Austrian frontier troops have carried out successfully several reconnoitering expeditions.

The Reichspost says that Serbian supplies from the new Serbian territory are gradually being cut off as the surrounding of the Serbians by the Austrians proceeds.

2,000 RECRUITS FROM CALGARY IN TWO DAYS

[Canadian Press.]
 CALGARY, Alta., Aug. 10.—As the result of two days' active recruiting, the names of 2,000 Calgary men will be forwarded to the department of militia.

Lieutenant Ferguson was last night to the Legion of Frontiersmen, who have 1,700 names on their list, asking for 400 men to be entrained for the east in 48 hours. The most seasoned will be selected from those enrolled and sent.

It is also understood that the British office has accepted the city of Calgary's offer for a corps of 600 mounted men to be equipped at a cost of $250,000.

KINGSTON FINDS SHE HARBORED ENEMY'S SPIES
 Educated Germans Left There and Are Now Believed to Have Been Govt. Agents.

[Canadian Press.]
 KINGSTON, Aug. 10.—That Kingston harbored several German spies is now very clear. Two educated Germans, who occupied inferior positions here for several months, and who have since left, have been found to have been representatives of the German Government. An ex-German officer has crossed the border, and it is likely that will not be allowed hereafter to occupy his position here.

Guards on Bridges Have Orders to "Shoot to Kill"

[Special to The Advertiser.]
 OTTAWA, August 11.—"Guards on bridges, canals and similar places have been ordered to shoot, and shoot to kill, if trespassers do not obey the command to halt and give an account of themselves," declared the Minister of Militia. "The shooting of a man on a bridge in the Province of Quebec yesterday was unfortunate, but the guard obeyed orders," he said.

FIVE VOLUNTEERS HAVE BEEN TAKEN FOR NIOBE SERVICE

One Hundred and Fifty Applied, But Few Had Seen Navy Duty.

[Canadian Press.]
 MONTREAL, Aug. 10.—In Montreal during the past few days 150 men have volunteered for service on the Canadian Government cruiser Niobe, but of these only five have been accepted every one of whom had the discharge papers from the royal navy.

Most of the other applicants are men who had seen service in the mercantile marine, with first-class ratings as officers, petty officers, quartermasters, stewards, engineers, artificers, engineers and so on. These, it was stated, would get the preference in case it became necessary to go outside of men who had actually served on warships, to secure a full complement to the Niobe.

Fifty Belgians among the crew also left the steamer, and are returning to Belgium.

The Dutch steamer Alcor of 2,000 tons, has been sunk, and her crew landed at Heligoland. She was bound from Rotterdam for Cronstadt, Russia. There is nothing to show whether she struck a mine or was hit by a shell.

BRITAIN RELEASES HER HOSPITAL SHIP
 Authorities Say the Protestants Will Not Be Needed at This Time.

SEATTLE, Aug. 11.—The British steamship Protestans, which was commandeered by the British Government upon her arrival from Liverpool and taken to Victoria to be fitted out as a hospital ship, was released today, the British authorities explaining that she would not be needed at this time.

The Protestans will resume her regular run between Seattle and Liverpool via the Orient.

How to Absorb an Unlovely Complexion
 [Phyllis Moore in Town Talk.]
 The face which is admired for its beauty must have a satin-smooth skin, pink and white and youthful-looking. The only thing I know of that can make such a complexion out of an aged, faded or discolored one is a natural, not a painted, complexion—ordinary mercurized wax. This remarkable skin lotion literally absorbs the unsightly cuticle, a little each day, the clear, healthy, pinkish skin beneath gradually coming out until within a week or so it is wholly in evidence. Of course, such blemishes as freckles, moths, chapped lips, spots, blotches and pimples are discarded with the old skin. If you will procure an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, use like cold cream every night, washing this off mornings, you'll find it a veritable wonder-worker.

Another valuable natural treatment is a wash lotion to remove wrinkles, which can easily be prepared. Dissolve 1 oz. powdered salicylic acid in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Rub the face in this and you'll find it "works like magic."

HALIFAX HARBOR IS NOW CLOSED; FOG HORNS STOP

No Vessels Allowed to Clear
—Coastwise Ships and Fishing Vessels
Held Up.

[Canadian Press.]
HALIFAX, Aug. 10.—The Port of Halifax has been temporarily closed. Officials announced no ships now in port would be allowed to sail until the order has been countermanded. Any more ships arriving of the harbor will be confined to the regular examination, but once in port they will not be allowed to take their departure. Customs house officials have been ordered not to clear any more vessels. One vessel which had been given her clearance this morning was hastily recalled. Coastwise ships now in port will be seriously affected by this order. Fishing vessels and others from ports along eastern and western shores are not allowed to sail. The fog signal at Meagher's Beach will be discontinued on and after Tuesday morning, according to orders given. There are a number of steamers now in port which will be delayed by this order. Besides the big Canadian, Mauretania, there are three Russian steamers, Dwinsk, and Red Cross liner Stephano, for New York; and the Plant liner, Halifax, the sailings of which will have to be cancelled.

OUTRACES WAR VESSEL: REACHES PORT SAFELY

Liner Minnetonka, Flying Under British Flag, Was Pursued to Within Sight of Land.

[Canadian Press.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The captain of the Atlantic transport liner, Minnetonka, in today from London with 127 cabin passengers, reported that his ship had been chased by a war vessel from a point some distance east of Nantucket lightship to nearly within sight of land. The Minnetonka flies the British flag. When the pursuing warship, whose identity could not be made out, was sighted, the liner put on full speed. At nightfall, with the craft still following, all the lights on the liner were extinguished. By daylight the warship was out of sight. Not far off the coast of the United States the Minnetonka was in communication with the British cruiser Essex, which asked if any German cruisers had been sighted. In mid-ocean the Minnetonka was in wireless communication with the British cruiser Drake.

HEARD OF THE WAR WHILE ON THE SEA

American Liner Covered Most of Atlantic With Lights Out.

[Canadian Press.]
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—The American liner steamship Havford, flying the British flag, arrived here today from Liverpool with 555 passengers, having made the greater part of the trip with lights out. The steamer left Liverpool July 29 and was well out at sea when informed that war had been declared between England and Germany.

A Woman's Charm.

Beautiful hair, fluffy, lustrous, abundant and free from dandruff, is one of woman's greatest charms—it's her main delight—yet many who would be most attractive but for their streaked, thin and lifeless hair, think there is no remedy and that pretty hair is a gift of nature. Beautiful hair is a matter of care and attention. Castoria Sage, when rubbed into the scalp and applied to the hair, will work wonders—you will be surprised and delighted with the first application—not only will the hair appear abundant, soft, fluffy, radiant with life, but really doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage supplies hair and scalp needs. It surely removes dandruff with one application and cleanses the hair of all dirt and excessive oil. It is an inexpensive, scientific tonic, and contains nothing to injure the hair or scalp. It can be secured from W. T. Strong or at any drug or toilet store. Delighted users pronounce Parisian Sage the best, most pleasant and invigorating hair tonic made—adv.

ONE HUNDRED GERMAN SPIES PUT TO DEATH

More Than Two Thousand Arrested in Belgium in Two Days.

MUST REPORT TO POLICE

All Austrians and Germans Not Declaring Themselves May Be Shot.

[Canadian Press.]
BRUSSELS, August 10 (via Paris, 2:35 p.m.)—Belgium has been covered with a network of German spies. Six hundred already have been arrested, and one hundred were shot today.

Some of the Germans captured were wearing uniforms of gendarmes, civil guards, soldiers and officers of the Belgian army. Many of the spies captured were armed with bombs and revolvers, and were riding in automobiles, bearing false numbers. They also had in their possession telegrams and letters with the counterfeit signature of the Belgian minister of war.

Private Signs Discovered. Just before and after the fighting began, private signs were discovered on bridges, military works and in possession, indicating that those structures should be blown up.

Severe precautions have now been taken by the military authorities, and 40 one is admitted at the railway stations without military permits. Automobiles are halted at every mile.

Must Declare Themselves. The war minister has issued a proclamation that every German and Austrian, who does not declare himself within twenty-four hours will be considered a spy. Since the Flanders provinces were placed under martial law, two days ago more than 2,000 spies have been arrested.

Forty thousand volunteers have been enrolled and have been formed into military regiments, of 2,000 each. The train service between Brussels and Paris was resumed this morning.

CLOSING OF PORTS MAY BE SIGNIFICANT

Canada's Military Authorities May Have Heard News Not Public.

[Canadian Press.]
OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The reply of military authorities here to inquiries for the reasons for the closing of the ports of Montreal, Quebec and Halifax leaves it to be inferred that they are in possession of information that it is not considered wise to make public, though they would not say so in any way.

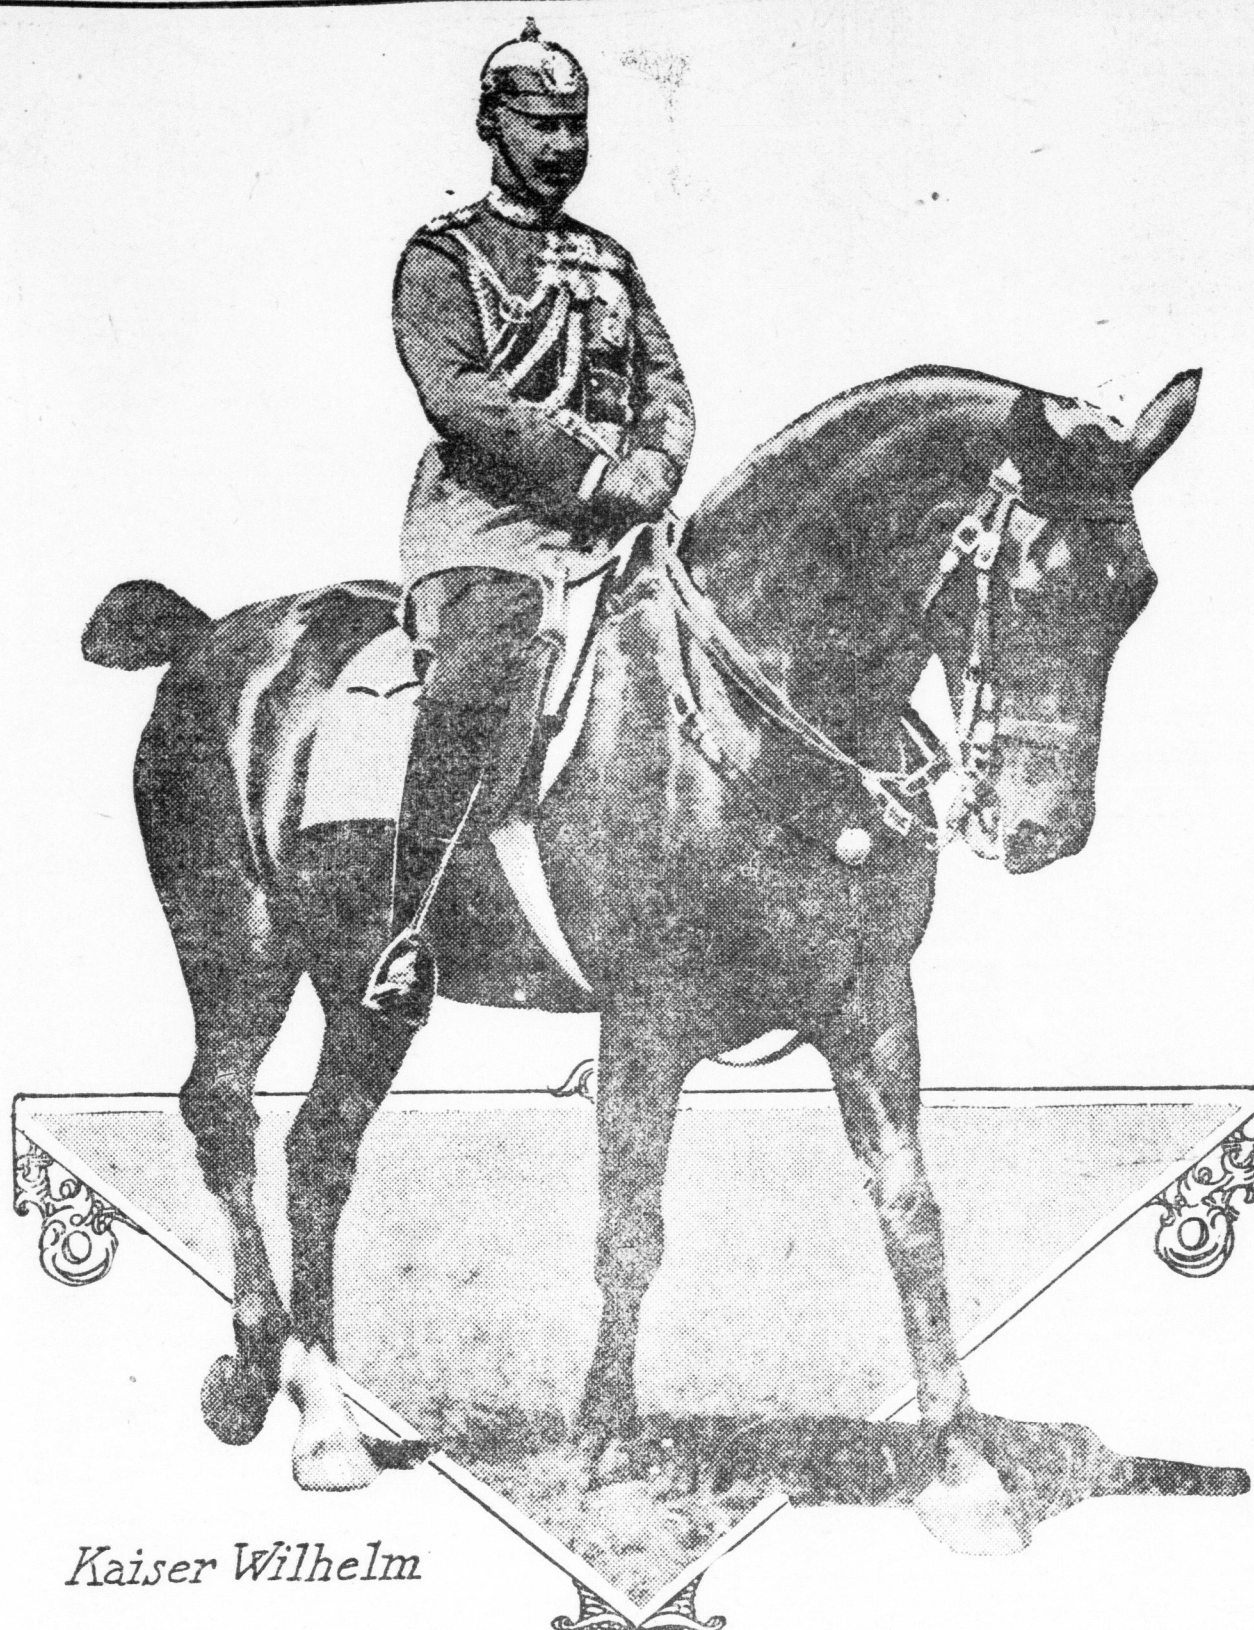

A high official said today that from time to time certain information was received pointing to the necessity of certain precautionary measures and action must be taken without giving any special reasons. The ports, he said, were not actually closed, though vessels were forbidden to sail. The order might not be maintained for longer than a few days.

Owing to the rigid restrictions on news of all strategic moves, it is difficult to obtain explanations of orders issued from military headquarters.

GERMAN PRINCE AND SON WERE KILLED

GERMANS BRING HEAVY GUNS TO STORM FORTS OF LIEGE

Firing Renewed Between Liege and Namur—Most Terrible Engagement of the War Expected To Start At Any Moment.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, Aug. 11, 3:05 a.m.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph telephones a message from Maastricht that there has been heavy firing along the line between Liege and Tongres. The Germans are placing heavy guns before Liege and Namur.

A Rome dispatch to the Daily Mail says it is reported that the Montegnins have occupied Scutari.

BRUSSELS (via London), August 11—5:40 a.m.—The lull in the fighting around Liege since Saturday appears to be the lull before the storm. There is little doubt that an engagement on a scale not yet witnessed in this war is imminent.

The people of Brussels are extraordinarily watchful against spies. There is universal belief that proofs exist of an organized system of espionage, in which German business men of the highest standing are involved.

WARNING PROCLAMATION. The Governor of Antwerp has issued a proclamation, warning all German and Austrian residents to present themselves before the police; refusal to do so will not put them in danger of being shot as spies.

German soldiers becoming separated from their regiments lose their lives continually, and are falling into the hands of the Belgians. For the most part these are cavalrymen, and they surrender without striking a blow. Apparently, they are glad to be fed and lodged by their captors. Two hundred Germans were captured in this way last night.

The Germans have destroyed the bridges and railways around Tongres.

KING CONGRATULATES ALBERT.

King George has sent a message to King Albert of Belgium, congratulating him on the splendid defence of the country by the Belgian army, and especially, against the repeated attacks on Liege, of which King Albert must be proud.

The independence of Belgium is the first to invade Belgium. In the assault on Liege last Wednesday, this paper declares the regiment lost over 2,000 men.

The Solr makes the announcement that the Germans have liberated the fashion and burgomaster of Liege, who, among others of a denomination who visited General Von Emmich, and begged him not to bombard the town, were placed under arrest. The condition of their release is that they shall remain in their own homes.

The same paper reports that a force of Uhlans have arrived at Lauenburg in a starry condition.

FIELD OF WATERLOO MAY BE SCENE OF NEXT BIG FIGHT

French Expert, Reviewing Situation, Says Present Week May Decide the Fate of Europe If Germany Loses Ground.

[By C. F. Bertell, Special Correspondent of the International News Service, who presents the news of the war from the French point of view.]
PARIS, August 10.—The most decisive week in the European war has just begun. If the French and Belgian armies continue to be victorious during the next seven days, and England's fleet is successful, Germany's doom is sealed. On the other hand, German success would have the effect of prolonging the war, without having any decisive effect on the ultimate outcome.

Germany's strategic plan as far as Liege is concerned is not altered. The German army is pouring into the lines from Cologne and Coblenz to storm the gallant Belgian forts.

GERMANY'S TASK MORE DIFFICULT. But what was difficult five days ago has been rendered practically impossible now by the tremendous activity of 50,000 skilled civilians during the last thirty hours in strengthening Liege's defence works, and by the apparent massing of the French and British troops to the westward of Liege.

Reports from the scene of conflict differ here tonight, but assuming that the Germans should overpower Liege by their overwhelming numbers, and at the expense of an incalculable waste of lives, or have already done so, the Kaiser's legions must encounter in a great battle the coalition of forces somewhere between Namur and Brussels, probably on the field of Waterloo.

MARCHING TO GERMAN TERRITORY. Meanwhile, with the tremendous spur given the French army by the occupation of Southern Alsace, the whole force now is advancing towards German territory, where the first great impact of the main armies is expected.

The triangle between Coblenz, Namur and Toul more than likely will be the scene of this epic battle.

At the same time, the victorious French legion that first entered Alsace through the gap of Belfort will probably be reinforced by troops from Ental and make a desperate effort to capture Strasbourg.

The attitude of the whole French nation continues in a tone of dignified confidence, and the French victories in Alsace are not overvalued. A temporary check would cause no surprise, nor would it shake France's firm confidence in ultimate triumph.

THUNDERSTORM STOPPED FIRES IN NEW ONTARIO
NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 10.—The heavy downpour of rain early this morning has extinguished the bush fires which have been raging from North Bay to Porcupine.

Considerable property has been destroyed along the line of the T. and N. O. Railway and Foley O'Brien mine lost its power house, and several buildings at Pottsville. Ten houses were also destroyed.

KITCHENER CALLS FOR ANOTHER ARMY OF 100,000 MEN

Indicates That Entire Available British Army is Now Under Orders.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
LONDON, Aug. 10.—Announcement that Lord Kitchener, minister of war, has directed the raising of a second volunteer army of 100,000, was made in the House of Commons this afternoon by Premier Asquith. This announcement is interpreted as meaning that the entire available British army is now under orders for service on the continent, and that a good portion of it is already there.

JAPAN AND U. S. A. FRIENDS SAYS PREMIER

Appeals to Nipponese Press To Refrain From Sensations.

[Canadian Press.]
Tokyo, Japan, Aug. 11.—Count Okuma, the premier, today in an address to the newspapers in Japan, urged them to refrain from sensational rumors and editorial articles at this critical time, saying they were calculated to excite the public and injure Japan's relations with friendly countries. The premier instanced what he termed a false assertion, that the United States was sending a fleet to Japan.

"America," concluded the premier, "has made no demand on Japan and remains Japan's friend."

NO WEATHER REPORTS; VESSELS FEAR TO SEND

Serious Situation for Ships to American and Indian Ports.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Through the failure of British and German vessels to report weather conditions at sea, because of the fear that their locations will be determined and forwarded by wireless to hostile cruisers, the weather bureau is unable to give notice of West Indian hurricanes now probably forming.

Owners of ships sailing to South American and West Indian ports and officials in the local forecasters' office declared today that the situation was extremely serious.

PARIS TELEPHONES CAREFULLY WATCHED

Paris, Aug. 11.—Via London, 6:20 a.m.—Martial law is being rigorously enforced in this city today. The authorities are particularly anxious to prevent the escape of important news, and frequently take the precaution of tapping telephone wires, calls on which can now be made only in French. This assistance in a language familiar to the police has been made necessary by the fact that suspected Germans were in the habit of telephoning in English.

AMERICAN DEALERS LOTH TO SHIP AGAIN

England Joins in Appeal to Them to Carry Out Contracts.

[Canadian Press.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Notwithstanding Belgium and England's appeal for bread, American exporters may ship no more grain to either country for some time as the result of a lengthy meeting today of the North American Grain Dealers' Association. A committee of five, to be appointed by the association's president, was empowered to take "such measures as may be necessary to protect the interests of shippers in all matters affected by the present war."

Liverpool Agent Anxious.

Whether shipments of grain should continue on contracts made before the war was the subject of a vigorous protest by the Liverpool corn trade association, which had received reports that further shipments on such contracts would not be made. Liverpool's representatives told the dealers they had the assurance of bankers that exchange would be nearly normal within a week. If all American dealers should refuse to ship grain, they said, they would be working against the common good. Nevertheless many of the American dealers felt that the unforseen conditions warranted the cancellation of their contracts made prior to the beginning of hostilities.

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Recruiting for the army is proceeding at the rate of several thousand men a day. The businessmen are organizing their employees into a fifth line of defence. A majority of the able-bodied men of the country are drilling in their home organizations.

Queen Alexandra, who started the soldiers' and sailors' relief fund, has consented to fuse her fund with the Prince of Wales' fund. Queen Alexandra and former Queen Marie Amelle of Portugal, today visited the headquarters of the Prince of Wales' fund, where they were informed that it had reached $2,500,000. The manager of the fund is C. Arthur Pearson, who is lending his great ability as an organizer to the work and with remarkable success.

VERANDAH DIALOGUES AT "TANGLEWYLD"

How Mrs. Gnocker Settles a Little Dispute About Her Husband's Health—by "The Nomad"

Scene—The summer hotel "Tanglewyld," at Pith Fork Falls.
Time—Summer of 1914.
Characters—Usual group of women and children, guests of the resort. Two men, Mr. Piffle and Mr. Dodder.
Mrs. Tanglewyld, looking herself vigorously, "Well, of course, I don't like to talk about people behind their backs, but I understand, from a letter sent me by a dear mutual friend, that Mrs. Gnocker put her husband in a sanatorium, or something, before she came here."
Mrs. Piffle (laying down her magazine)—"You don't say? Well, there's no telling what some women will do. Heartless of her, isn't it? Him to be suffering like that and her here to enjoy herself."
Mrs. Tanglewyld—Just fancy! But then, all you ladies are heartless, you know. (Gives a languishing glance at Mrs. Tanglewyld, who punishes him by a tap from her fan.)
Mrs. Tanglewyld—My friend didn't know just where he was, but there seems no doubt that she's right. Here she is, Mrs. Gnocker and daughter Mary, aged fourteen. Both seek chairs, and Mrs. Gnocker takes out a glove and commences mending it. Mrs. Tanglewyld (to the assembled group)—"Mary (presently)—Mamma, I am going down to look at the water."
Mrs. G.—No, indeed, you do not say of this veranda tonight.
Mrs. Tanglewyld—But, mamma—
Mrs. G.—You heard what I said, the group—I must confess, ladies and gentlemen, that some gossip's been at work here. If you are all so interested in Mrs. Gnocker, let me advise you that she is now in San Antonio on business of considerable importance for her firm. When I last saw him, three days ago, he was six feet two in the stockings and weighed one hundred and eighty-three pounds. His appetite was good, and he plays bowls every night. Come on, Mary, we will go down to the water after all."
(Mrs. Gnocker and Mary leave veranda quite majestically.)
Mrs. Tanglewyld—Well, don't all look at me, you fellows, and say, "Tanglewyld, you're a good one!"
Mrs. G.—(eyeing Mrs. Tanglewyld)—No, indeed. My daughter is perfectly well. She looks rather frail.
Mrs. Tanglewyld (joining in the conversation)—Yes, just what I was thinking.
Mrs. Piffle (wishing to pour oil upon the troubled waters)—She's a remarkably fine-looking girl. Takes after you, I presume.
Mrs. Gnocker (half appeared)—Yes, I think she does.
Mrs. Tanglewyld (returning to the attack)—Well, if she was my girl, I'd be very careful of her. I noticed she hadn't much appetite at supper.
Mrs. Gnocker—No, she hadn't.

Why Some People Always Want Their Own Way

Many persons who are domineering and insist on having their own way, were trained as babies in these disagreeable traits.

An infant is generally a centre of attraction in the family. This is especially true among the well-to-do and the rich, where only one or two babies to a household as a rule.

The fact that among the wealthy and those whose time is devoted to social and sporting interests, the baby is cared for and amused, is the nurses' instead of the mother's, is the principal cause of the arrogance, selfishness and expectation of obedience from others as it grows to adult age.

To keep the baby amused, to obey its slightest whims, to permit it to have its own way in all things, right or wrong, is the easiest way for the nurse, and incidentally for the parents. When the infant is brought to its mother, the family circle, or to be as a rule, by friends, its speech, its series of demands, are immediately complied with—it is an infant autocrat.

The brain cells are at this early age capable of great receptivity. The fibres connecting the various brain centres are sensitive to the kind of messages sent over them. They accept wrong impressions as quickly as right ones. Hence, if trained to demand without considering the rights of others, if developed so as not to understand or be capable of controlling desires, whims and impulses, as an adult such persons really are not to be understood, they are disliked, they quarrel, ensue, why those who will not obey their slightest demands, appear rude, vulgar and of another class.

It is the child who should be made to obey; not the mother or nurse. But it is generally the baby who is the ordering about. Through a few years of this unchained expression of demands, through the acceptance of getting what it wants by simple will, the infant acquires

CLIP THIS OUT

Give me fullness of life like to the sea and the sun, to the earth and the air. . . . Fullness of life ever brings to me the desire of soul-life.—Richard Jefferies.

The escape from all the fret and fever and hurry and unrest of the world is to be achieved by a hairbrush after the manner of the "Life-High Black."

CLEAN HAIRBRUSHES

Hair cannot be kept in good condition if the brushes are allowed to become soiled by the dust and oily substance found in the hair. Since too frequent washing is not to be recommended for hairbrushes, it is a good plan when giving the hair a thorough brushing to pass the comb through the brush at the same time, and to wipe the comb on a small cloth. It is astonishing the quantity of dust that will be transferred to the cloth when the brush is thus wiped.

By an ordinary using, a brush can be cleaned by combing it with a coarse comb, striking the bristles downward on a sheet of paper, or by rubbing the brush on a piece of bath towel or any coarse bit of cloth. Some people keep a whiskbroom for dislodging dust from a hairbrush after each using. This penetrates the bristles better than a cloth, and it is to be recommended that it is undesirable to use the brush often, as in the case of a hairbrush, it is a good plan when giving the hair a thorough brushing to pass the comb through the brush at the same time, and to wipe the comb on a small cloth. It is astonishing the quantity of dust that will be transferred to the cloth when the brush is thus wiped.

The English method is to clean expensive brushes with dry flour. The flour is put into the brushes, which are shaken out, and the bristles are worked to and fro. Then the flour is removed by beating one brush with the back of the other on a newspaper. The flour is put in if it is perfectly clean, and shaken out until the brush is perfectly clean. Then the bristles are rubbed with a cloth and the backs cleaned with polish. If silver, and soap and water, if ivory.

A Woman's View of Warfare

War Due to Man's Love of Combat, Causes Survival of the Unfit—(From "A Man-Made World" by Mrs. Charlotte P. Gilman.)

In warfare, per se, we find maleness in its absolute extremes. Here is to be studied the whole gamut of basic masculinity from the initial instinct of combat through every form of glorious ostentation with the loudest possible accompaniment of noise.

Primitive warfare had for its climax the possession of the primitive prize, the female. Without dogmatism on so remote a period it may be suggested as a fair hypothesis that this was the very origin of our organized raids.

We require to do our organized fighting, a picked lot of vigorous young men, the fittest we can find. The too old, or too young, the sick, the crippled, the defective are all left behind to marry and to father the next generation of the country, physically, are sent off to oppose the pick of another country, and kill, kill, kill!

What we call "civilized warfare" (we might as well speak of "civilized cannibalism"), this steady elimination of the fit, leaves an ever-growing standard of passing average, and makes a widening margin of what we call "surplus women," meaning more than enough to be monogamously married; and, these women, being economically independent, drag steadily upon the remaining men, postponing marriage and increasing its burdens.

The external horrors and wastes of warfare are all familiar with. It arrests industry and all progress; it destroys the friends of industry and progress; it weakens hearts and kills the combatants. It lowers the standard of the non-combatant. Even the conquering race is heavily injured; or at least absorbed by the victor. The "stern arbitrament of war" may prove one or two problems for the better fighter, but it does not kill, therefore, the fitter to survive.

Civilization's Enemy.
Conquest is the enemy of civilization. . . . When the northern tribesmen overcame the Roman culture, they paralyzed progress for a thousand years or more; at last the black and white races of Europe were at war, so long the arts and sciences sat still, or struggled in hard corners to keep the light alive. Even when a single defeat causes the physical, social and psychic results do not cease. Our whole culture is still haggard by military ideas.

Peace congresses have met, peace societies written and talked, but the monuments to soldiers and naval sailors still go up, and the tin soldier remains a popular toy.

Some day we shall have a new history written, a history of world progress, showing the slow uprisings, the development, the inter-service of the nations; showing the fairer, beautiful tone of the larger spirit of world consciousness, and all its beneficent growth.

Combat is not a social process at all; it is a physical process, a subsidiary sex process purely masculine. Intended to improve the species by the elimination of the unfit. Amusingly enough, or absurdly enough, when applied to society, it dramatizes it and leaves the unfit to perpetuate the race!

ST. THOMAS' 8 ERRORS OFFSET LONDON'S INABILITY TO CONNECT

"Doc" Reisling Gets Better of Duel With Howick and Hughey—London Won Game in the Third by Scoring Four Runs.

ST. THOMAS, August 10.—Doc Reisling's pennant-chasing team today by taking advantage of the many mistakes of the locals. The score was 8 to 2. The Tecumseh only secured four hits, three of these being more or less scratch, but the Saints' infield was very much off color. Reisling was hit quite hard, but perfect control, only one hit. The only one hit was registered off of the latter. Howick, however, was entirely blameless for the loss of the contest.

Kopp's Fielding a Feature.
Kopp's wonderful fielding featured. In the second inning, he pulled down a left centre with one hand, cutting off a certain home run and collected three clean hits out of four times up. In the third frame, the Tecumseh put the game pretty much on ice. After Nelson flew out, Dunn hit one at Gillespie. Jimmy knocked it down, but could not recover in time to make a throw. Dunn threw and took third on Laker's bad throw to second. Reisling was passed. Linnaborn pushed a single through short, and Linnaborn home. Wilcoxon fouled out, but Reisling and Linnaborn advanced a base on a passed ball. Reisling scored. Linnaborn started in, but turned and went back to third. Reisling's throw was away and Linnaborn scored, when Gillespie pegged wild to Laker to get Linnaborn out.

Two More in Fifth.
The visitors added another pair in the fifth. Biecherer got a life when Nelson failed to hold his liner. Lamy was also safe on Gillespie's fumble. Lamy was pegged out. Thomas bounced right into Gillespie's hands, but both Biecherer and Lamy scored when Gillespie was near the plate, and rolled to the dugout.

SENATORS TOOK TWO FROM PETERBORO

Won Both Games of Double-Header Quite Easily.

UMPIRE LUSH'S WORK

Was Not Satisfactory, Fans and Players Protesting Against Decisions.

PETERBORO, Aug. 10.—Ottawa went a step higher in their struggle to oust London from the top position by taking both games from the Petes today. The normal battle was between a soggy field and the Senators came out a winner 5 to 1. In the afternoon, which was a real contest, the champions won 7 to 5. The work of Umpire Lush was the worst seen here since the season. He allowed a home run to be hit to him to the limit, and the two decisions can be chalked up as less than the average run. In the first game, both free hitting contests with Ottawa having all the breaks in the battle. The umpire gave a real good umpire. During the afternoon the crowd surged on the field and police were called to control the riot.

BRAVES BRING BELATED SENSATION TO THE NATIONAL LEAGUE; PLAYING GREAT NOW

[BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.]
Boston Braves are coming, and by their wonderful work during the past month they have established what promises to be a record.

Not since the Louisville club, hopelessly last in the old twelve-club league, started a final Eastern invasion and won 19 out of 21 games, has any club done what the Braves are doing now.

After one of the worst starts in the history of baseball the Braves plugged along—never quit, kept working and fighting and during their last stay at home they rallied and Stalling got the team whipped into some sort of shape.

By the time they were ready to start the Western trip the team was working together, the pitching had improved, and the team has simply waded through the league to victory.

If Boston comes on now and wins the pennant it will be probably the most remarkable achievement in the history of the national game.

Do not think that the pennant is an impossibility for the Braves. If they had managed to get an even break during the first 50 games of the season they would be the favorites right now.

Every told me the team was playing as much inside ball as he ever saw, but that weak pitching and the break of the luck were holding it back. Now it is forcing its way forward, playing brilliantly and, in fact, the best in the league, and it ought to arrive somewhere when it returns home for a long series.

Organized baseball has met the players—bluffed, and then surrendered. The victory of the players in the Kraft case was due entirely to the Federal League. But for the existence of the outlaw league Kraft would have been compelled to submit to having $50 a month taken from his salary and would have had to go where he was sent. The same thing has happened a hundred times a year and the players had no redress. It would have been the same but for the existence of the Federal League—and regardless of the existence of the players' union.

The powers of organized baseball last winter met the players and signed an agreement. They did not intend to abide by that agreement any further than it suited their magnificent pleasure. They signed it because they thought the players would be as helpless as before to enforce its demands. Not one player in twenty would have had the courage to complain. Kraft has won his case through the intervention of Elmer, but he will be forced to give his release. The next time he is sent anywhere he will go—and that place probably will be outside the pale of baseball.

Those who order the parties to come into court with clean hands should take cognizance of the cuticle and finger nails of organized baseball.

Organized baseball is getting it hard these days. The decision in the Chase case is another body blow, and it strengthens the Federal League. The situation now existing is impossible and cannot endure.

OSKEE NEALE MAY JOIN LONDON CLUB AND FINISH SEASON

Local Club Making Big Effort to Secure the Former Left Fielder From Cleveland—Gillespie May Be Purchased From the Saints—After a Good Twirler Also.

[BY BERT PERRY.]
Although the London directors and Manager Reisling have made no definite announcement as yet, it is believed the London Club is making a big effort to secure Oskoe Neale, the former London outfielder, now with the Cleveland A. A. club. For the balance of the season, Neale is not being used regularly by the Cleveland club, and Manager Sheppard has a fine outfield without him. The London club's chances to secure him are said to be very bright, and it would not be surprising to see him in the local lineup in a few days.

Neale would be welcomed. Neale's return to this city would be welcomed by the fans. He was exceedingly popular here last season, and his hitting and fielding are regarded as one of the best in the city. He has been hitting and fielding well since joining the Cleveland club, but lacks experience. The Cleveland team is fighting for a pennant just now, and Jimmy Sheppard is using only his most tried and experienced players.

May Secure Gillespie, of Saints. The London Club is also contemplating making a move for one of the St. Thomas players. The London directors will hold a meeting this evening for the purpose of considering the purchase of Gillespie, the Saint's third baseman. Gillespie is one of the best fielding third-basemen in the league, although not as good a hitter as Mullin or Scott, of Erie. However, he is a bad man up in a pinch, as was demonstrated in the fourteenth inning of Saturday's game against the Saints, when his drive broke up the game.

Kustus Also Mentioned. The Saints are also anxious to sell Jules Kustus, the big left fielder, and some kind of a deal may be made. Kustus will come to London. However, nothing definite has been given out as yet and it is not likely an announcement will be made until tomorrow evening. Should the local club decide to make a deal for Gillespie, he will accompany the team to Ottawa Wednesday night and play in the series against the Senators.

After a Pitcher Also. "Doc" Reisling is also after another good twirler and he may be able to secure one through the Detroit American League Club. It is not improbable that a new pitcher will report to the local club in time to work one of the games at Ottawa.

Munn and Eckstein Here. Joe Munn, the former London fielder, now with Galt in the Wobley League, is in the city today. He came over to see the game with the Detroit Tigers. Munn is accompanied by Eckstein, the star outfielder, who may be given a trial with the London club. Eckstein is a fine fielder, who is making quite a hit by his playing in the Wobley League. He is a fine fielder and a good hitter and a fast man on base.

London Needs Another Good Pitcher, Says "Fan". The following letter was received by the Sporting Editor of The Advertiser this morning. In publishing it, the Sporting Editor has only one comment to make. The writer apparently does not know that the London directors and Manager Reisling are making every effort, regardless of expense, to bring the pennant to London, every weakness on the team will be strengthened. London fans have no kick whatever on the kind of ball the London team is playing just now. The only trouble is that Ottawa is traveling away beyond its speed. It isn't that London is losing but that Ottawa is playing more games than the locals and winning them. The London club is still on top of the league, though.

London, Aug. 10, 1914.
Sporting Editor London Advertiser:
Dear Sir—As the Canadian League is drawing to a close for the year 1914 and the race, especially between London and Ottawa getting keener every day, I would, if you will permit through the columns of your valuable paper, like to ask a question, also make a suggestion.

Now, last year when the London team fell down was in our pitching staff, and right at the present time that is where our trouble lies. Now, what I want to ask is do our London directors intend to try and worry along with the present pitching staff, and with the present pitching staff, Bobby with our star hurler, namely, Bobby. We have a good chance to land the old rag this year and that is what we want. There is no use in saying that we cannot get them. Any of the other seven teams can go out and pick one up any day in the week. Why can't we? Money talks. We have patented the game, good or bad, and we want to see that old pennant flying high this year. So Mr. Directors get busy and loosen up. Money is not everything. What we want is the pennant, the money will come. Back reflection on our present pitching staff, by any means, but I think any fan will agree with me that we are weak in that one spot and that is the only one. As the rest of our team cannot be doing justice to the fans of this town who pay and have paid and will pay to support our team, and a couple of will come to life and land a couple of good pitchers to have to fall back on in the home stretch of the pennant race, which I think will be one of the finest in the history of the game. I note in tonight's paper that our manager has a couple of new players coming. It does not state what they are. Here is hoping they are two pitchers, as I for one, don't see where they can improve any place but the pitching staff, by landing Barry. First on errors—Philadelphia 1, Time—1:48. BANK OF ENGLAND MAY ESTABLISH A BRANCH IN OTTAWA

Rumor in New York Financial District Creates Sensation—Move Would Be Vigorously Opposed.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Aug. 11.—The most interesting report in the financial district today was the rumor that the Bank of England proposes establishing a branch at Ottawa, Canada. Bankers here see in such a move what they call an attempt on the part of the great British institution to pile up large amounts of credit with this country, which may have to pay in gold.

Wants all the rest of the world on a non-specific basis. It is believed that such a move would be vigorously opposed in representative financial quarters.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Officials of the finance department say they have not received any intimation that the Bank of England proposes opening a branch in Ottawa, and nothing has been heard to support the rumor in the government or any other Government office or in local financial circles.

The action of the city council last night in turning back a recommendation of the board of control to authorize a debenture issue of $65,000 for completing the alterations to the college institute caused a stir in the city today. It was said at the city hall that the recommendation would again be submitted to the council at a meeting next Monday night, together with the statement that if it is not adopted the board of control will have to submit the question to the ratepayers in a special election within one month. The cost of the special election will be $2,000.

The board of education acted with the advice of the city solicitor and the board of control in the matter. An original appropriation of $30,000 for the college institute was passed by the council and when the bulk tender for $61,000 was accepted by the board for the permanent repairs that take the place of a new building, it was decided to substitute a bylaw for $65,000 in place of the one for $60,000. It is this substitution the council objects to.

The work on the institute has progressed rapidly, as it is hoped to have all the work done by September.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11.—An advance of two to five cents in the price of meat in the local retail market caused the Chicago Butchers' Association today to call a meeting to inquire into the causes for the jump in prices. The wholesale firms asserted today that the cause back of the sharp advance in meats was the small receipts of animals at the stockyards. Cattle raisers, they declared, were holding back for an expected big jump in prices.

Livestock receipts at the stockyards yesterday as compared with a year ago were:

Cattle—12,000 against 14,000 in 1913.
Hogs—16,000 against 33,000 in 1913.
Sheep—21,000 against 25,000 in 1913.

"The wholesale price of pork loins has risen ten cents a pound in ten days," said John T. Russell, president of the United Meat Traders' Association. "The present price is unjustifiable."

DANISH BANK RATE REDUCED.
Copenhagen, Aug. 11.—The National Bank of Denmark yesterday reduced its discount rate to six per cent.

Ankle Display Was Too Much For Policeman
Even Though It Was Only a Female Impersonator That Was Guilty 'She' Was Pinched.

Because a mere man essayed to be a woman for several hours and rigged himself up in the latest creations, even to the slit skirt affected by the ladies, he appeared in police court this morning, summoned to tell the magistrate all about it. He was charged with being a female impersonator.

"How was he disorderly?" asked the court, when he had heard of the masquerading stunt.

"Well," said the officer, blushing just a little, "he was with another fellow and he was made up so well I thought he was a girl. Every time young ladies passed he pulled up his skirts, high top, and I told him to stop."

"You didn't," defended Charles Annis, who was the would-be fair damsel out for a good time. "You only asked me whether I was a girl or a man."

"The officer must have been stupid not to have told the difference," was the magistrate's comment, as he gazed at the sturdy proportions of Annis and noted a pair of shoulders that a strong man might be proud of, but that would be an everlasting hindrance to a chorus girl in practicing her profession.

He was disposed to think that the young man had been disorderly because he showed his ankles to the gaze of the ladies in a feminine attire. He granted him an adjournment. It was granted till Friday.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Aug. 11.—A handful of the thousands of German reservists bottled up in New York because there are no German ships to take them home, sailed today for Naples in the Italian liner Ancona, the first German reservists to leave this port since the commencement of hostilities between Germany and Great Britain. Most of them are officers in the German army, and they are trusting to luck to find their way home from Naples.

Among the number was Count Werner von Bernstorff, who hurriedly left Canada a day or two ago. He is a nephew of the German ambassador to the United States.

COUNCIL'S REFUSAL CAUSES A BIG STIR

Rejection of Collegiate Debenture Issue May Mean a Special Election.

THE EXTRA COST IS $2,000
Board of Education Acted On Advice of Solicitors and Controllers.

The action of the city council last night in turning back a recommendation of the board of control to authorize a debenture issue of $65,000 for completing the alterations to the college institute caused a stir in the city today. It was said at the city hall that the recommendation would again be submitted to the council at a meeting next Monday night, together with the statement that if it is not adopted the board of control will have to submit the question to the ratepayers in a special election within one month. The cost of the special election will be $2,000.

The board of education acted with the advice of the city solicitor and the board of control in the matter. An original appropriation of $30,000 for the college institute was passed by the council and when the bulk tender for $61,000 was accepted by the board for the permanent repairs that take the place of a new building, it was decided to substitute a bylaw for $65,000 in place of the one for $60,000. It is this substitution the council objects to.

The work on the institute has progressed rapidly, as it is hoped to have all the work done by September.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 11.—An advance of two to five cents in the price of meat in the local retail market caused the Chicago Butchers' Association today to call a meeting to inquire into the causes for the jump in prices. The wholesale firms asserted today that the cause back of the sharp advance in meats was the small receipts of animals at the stockyards. Cattle raisers, they declared, were holding back for an expected big jump in prices.

Livestock receipts at the stockyards yesterday as compared with a year ago were:

Cattle—12,000 against 14,000 in 1913.
Hogs—16,000 against 33,000 in 1913.
Sheep—21,000 against 25,000 in 1913.

"The wholesale price of pork loins has risen ten cents a pound in ten days," said John T. Russell, president of the United Meat Traders' Association. "The present price is unjustifiable."

DANISH BANK RATE REDUCED.
Copenhagen, Aug. 11.—The National Bank of Denmark yesterday reduced its discount rate to six per cent.

Ankle Display Was Too Much For Policeman
Even Though It Was Only a Female Impersonator That Was Guilty 'She' Was Pinched.

Because a mere man essayed to be a woman for several hours and rigged himself up in the latest creations, even to the slit skirt affected by the ladies, he appeared in police court this morning, summoned to tell the magistrate all about it. He was charged with being a female impersonator.

"How was he disorderly?" asked the court, when he had heard of the masquerading stunt.

"Well," said the officer, blushing just a little, "he was with another fellow and he was made up so well I thought he was a girl. Every time young ladies passed he pulled up his skirts, high top, and I told him to stop."

"You didn't," defended Charles Annis, who was the would-be fair damsel out for a good time. "You only asked me whether I was a girl or a man."

"The officer must have been stupid not to have told the difference," was the magistrate's comment, as he gazed at the sturdy proportions of Annis and noted a pair of shoulders that a strong man might be proud of, but that would be an everlasting hindrance to a chorus girl in practicing her profession.

He was disposed to think that the young man had been disorderly because he showed his ankles to the gaze of the ladies in a feminine attire. He granted him an adjournment. It was granted till Friday.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Aug. 11.—A handful of the thousands of German reservists bottled up in New York because there are no German ships to take them home, sailed today for Naples in the Italian liner Ancona, the first German reservists to leave this port since the commencement of hostilities between Germany and Great Britain. Bell Telephone Not Authorized to Cut Trees, Says Solicitor.

Arnold Bennett

While this writer is probably best known to America by his novels, it is in the field of practical essays that he has most endeared himself to thinking men and women. In one of these essays he takes up the proposition of brain education and classifies the usual rather hazy impression of the individual concerning the possibilities inherent in well-directed mental effort along this line. The mechanical nature of his fingers, the runner his legs, the operator of a machine endeavors to fit to the best of his ability. Why not the same one's brain so that it will operate to the best of its ability?

It is true that much school effort is expended along this line. For instance, many boys and girls are taught to work out problems which they will never use in ordinary business life, simply to accustom their brains to logical reasoning and sensible deductions. But many of us neglect this variety of mental gymnastics as we grow older. We should not. We should not allow ourselves to run along in the net of our daily labors or amusements, no matter how engrossing they seem. It is by continually taking up new things and working out all manner of deductions in our minds that we keep in mental form and advance steadily onward. Such an opportunity is offered in our Summer Pastime. Of course, regular fans will need no special encouragement, but to others, who are not baseball enthusiasts, we would say: "Don't neglect this chance for some novel brain work that will prove both beneficial and enjoyable to you. No knowledge of sports is essential; any man, woman or child who is able to read and write can enter."

RECRUITING ENDS WEDNESDAY FOR THE CONTINGENT

Three Regiments Are Already On the Way to Valcartier.

ONLY ONE CAVALRY SQUAD

Alberta To Send Horse Brigade of 157 Men to Europe.

[Canadian Press.]
OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—Within a week Colonel Sam Hughes hopes to have most of the 26,000 men who will make up the Canadian contingent to go to the war on the way to Valcartier, Que., the mobilizing centre. Things down there are being rapidly licked into shape to receive the troops. As a matter of fact, three regiments are now on the way to Valcartier, these being the Royal Canadian Horse, Artillery, the Royal Canadian Dragoons, and the Strathcona Horse. It is not yet decided whether these units will go to the front.

When the main body of the troops arrive at Valcartier everything to provide for their accommodation and training will be complete. The water supply, says Col. Hughes, will be fully equal to that of any city on the continent. While under canvas the training will be thorough and severe. No major disease, however, is to be expected, and the high standard will be taken, whether such a man is an officer or not.

Recruiting Closes Tomorrow.

Recruiting will positively close tomorrow night and from the list of names sent into the militia department the 22,000 required will be picked without delay.

King George has notified the Government that the 22,000 men from Canada to fight with the British troops. In addition to this division the regiment being raised and equipped by Mr. Hamilton Gault, of Montreal, will go to the front.

There has been an idea evidently prevalent in some quarters that a large number of cavalry men will be sent to Great Britain. This idea, it is learned officially, is a wrong one. It is proposed to send one squad, and Col. Jamieson and Major Grimshaw, both of Edmonton, have been asked to raise the 157 necessary to make up the squad. Both officers are attached to the 19th Alberta Dragoons. The Dragoons are a wholly different one to the campaign in South Africa. In the present flight infantrymen are needed almost entirely. These men are in South Africa, where cavalrymen were the most valuable arms of the service.

Practically all those who have volunteered to go to the front are single men, and whatever married men are taken are going only at the consent of their wives.

Among the volunteers who applied by cable to Col. Hughes to be allowed either to join the Canadian contingent when it arrives in England, or join the British army, were Major George Washington Stephens, former harbor commissioner of Montreal, and Major Sharnam, of Ottawa. Both are at present in London. Col. Prisco, head of the Legion of Frontiersmen has offered his services.

In different parts of Canada several German reservists have been arrested, owing to their behavior promising to be somewhat menacing to British interests. Government officials in Ottawa say that German reservists who wish to avoid being arrested, might find it to their advantage to go as soon as possible to the nearest judge, magistrate, justice of the peace or other official, and state under oath what their action will be while the war is in progress. Failing to do this, they will likely be arrested and confined in a camp until the war is over, similar to the way prisoners of war in South Africa were confined. If such prisoners are taken, Petawawa military camp would hold all prisoners by used as one of these compounds.

How Canada Got Submarines.

The fact that the Canadian Government now owns two submarines, which are in service on the Pacific coast, is due, according to official information, to the prompt action and foresight of Sir Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia.

The submarines were lying in Seattle harbor, about to be shipped to the Chilean Government, for whom they were built, when the Canadian Government declared war on Germany. Just as the Great Britain declared war on Germany last Tuesday night, Sir Richard, knowing that such a declaration was probable, put up the necessary money for the purchase of the submarines, and a few hours before midnight the submarines were in British waters. Had they been in Seattle after war was declared, they would have been classified as "contraband of war," and consequently could not have been delivered to Canada.

Services Want to Enlist.

Duke of Devonshire's son, Lord Hughes has received a sheath of telegrams from Servians in the United States, offering to come to Canada and enlist for active service under the British flag. In the messages received by Col. Hughes he explained that the Servians find that they cannot get back to their own country to join their home army fighting against Austria, so they desire to help Great Britain.

A movement is on foot to raise a fund by voluntary subscription to pay all who will not be paid by their employers while they are away. This fund will be received and administered by some of the most reputable and representative financial and business men of Canada.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises All Women to Take "Fruit-a-tives."

Hagersville, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913.

"I am highly recommender 'Fruit-a-tives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as my system, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I have been taking them ever since, and I am sure that if other women may not be so lucky, they will be by reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

MRS. W. N. KELLY.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. Send for postcard on receipt of price by 'Fruit-a-tives' Limited, Ottawa.

TWO MORE ITALIANS TO LEAVE FOR HOME

Londoners Ready to Help in Defence of Italy Should It Be Drawn Into Struggle.

With the possibility that Italy will be drawn into the war, which is holding practically all Europe in its clutches, two Italians, Vincenzo Tannell, 472 Talbot street, and Gaetano de Paolo, 296 York street, are making preparations to leave London at once for their homes.

Both men have been watching the course of events keenly, since Germany sent Italy a ultimatum, demanding that she know Italy will favor in the struggle, Italians all over the country have decided that the conflict is near and are ready to leave this country to fight for their homeland.

It is expected that more London Italians will follow should Italy be drawn into the fight.

Port Stanley

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PORT STANLEY, Aug. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Folsom of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lloyd, at Prescott Cottage, Grimsby Beach.

Port Stanley experienced last night one of the worst storms this season. It came up about three or four o'clock, and raged all night. Towards morning the rain came down in torrents.

The picnic scheduled for today cancelled, and the civic holiday party had an excursion to Niagara Falls instead.

The expected excursion from Watford and district arrived today early, but it was not large. It was raining when the party left Watford, and thus most of the excursionists did not come, fearing a miserable day.

In the early afternoon large crowds came down by train from Port Stanley, and the civic holiday there. Very many enjoyed the excellent opportunity of experiencing some real bathing, while others danced and enjoyed the attractions of the board walk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kennedy and daughter, Melba, of Galt, motored to Port Stanley today.

Miss Elizabeth Tillson, of London, who returned to her home a week ago, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Stanley again today to spend a short visit.

Miss Marjorie McBride, of Colborne street, London, is stopping for a few days at friends at Willow Beach, Port Stanley.

Mr. L. A. McKenzie and family, residents of Port Stanley, spent Sunday motoring in the country.

Jack, the little son of James Ferguson, while playing at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. McPayne, fell and cut a scar in his face that required many stitches.

LOCAL RED CROSS SOCIETY ORGANIZED

Lady Beck Elected President by Acclamation at Meeting On Monday.

MRS. BOOMER HON. PRES.

National Constitution Will Be Adhered to by Local Branch.

By acclamation, Mrs. Harriet A. Boomer and Lady Beck were elected honorary president and president respectively, of the newly-reorganized Red Cross Society, at a largely-attended meeting held Monday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. Mayor Graham presided, stating that he felt proud of the women of the city, and of the active service they were willing to render, in the way of sending relief to those who were fighting for the Empire.

Other elections were: Vice-presidents, Mrs. Gordon Wright, Mrs. C. R. Somerville and Mrs. W. E. Hodgins; recording secretary, Mrs. A. T. Edwards; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bowker; treasurer, Mrs. George Brown.

In the absence of Lady Beck, Mrs. Wright occupied the chair.

Board of Councillors Appointed.

Upon the suggestion of the presiding officer, it was decided to adopt the procedure of the national constitution in the matter of appointing a board of lady councillors. A motion to the effect that the president, or other representative, from each of the local women's organizations, be upon this board, was made by Mrs. E. P. Betts, seconded by Mrs. Yarker. Other members appointed to the board of councillors were: Mrs. M. R. Graham, Mrs. J. H. H. and Mrs. Thomas Coffey, Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. Joseph Marshall, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. Yarker, Mrs. Becher, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. T. H. Small, Mrs. (Dr.) Flinders, Mrs. E. A. Mitchell, Mrs. E. M. Tilley and Miss Fiddis. The latter asked to have her name withdrawn.

Constitution Laid Over.

The national constitution of the Red Cross Society was read by Mrs. Bowker, but upon suggestion of Mrs. Wright, the matter was left over until the next meeting, for formal adoption. The only clause discussed was that relating to fees, which called for $2 a year for an annual active member, $1 for an associate, and $5 for each life member. Associates are given working privileges, but not the right to vote. The idea was advanced that it would be better to charge only 25c for a badge, and not ask for the membership fee where an individual willing to join, could not pay it, but it was pointed out that if a Red Cross Society was formed locally, it would be necessary to conform to the rules of the national body. The matter was left in abeyance.

Benefit Concert Planned.

Harold Meek announced that he was arranging for a benefit concert to be held on the evening of Thursday, August 20, in the Armories. He had enlisted the talent of Miss Ruby Brock and Angelo Cortese to assist him. Upon recommendation of Mrs. Hodgins, it was decided to divide the proceeds of this concert, half to go towards the Hospital Ship, and she hoped that London women as a whole would lend their hearty co-operation.

Wrong Impression Corrected.

Mrs. Hodgins, on behalf of the Daughters of the Empire, stated that an erroneous impression was abroad that the members of that Order alone were to equip the hospital ship. The idea, while conceived by members of the I. O. D. E., was one which every woman of Canada was asked to advance. It was to be the Canadian Women's Hospital Ship, and she hoped that London women as a whole would lend their hearty co-operation.
