

ROOSEVELT'S THREATENED RIOT HAS FAILED TO MATERIALIZE;

Governor of Missouri the Centre of a Terrific Demonstration at the Republican National Convention, and Is Talked of as Compromise Delegate.

BEAUTIFUL CHICAGO WOMAN LEADS PARADE AROUND HALL

She Tried to Stampede the Convention for Roosevelt, But Taft Scores Again and Seats All His Delegates.

Special to The London Advertiser and The Toronto Star By H. F. Gadsby.

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—And the morning and the evening were the second day. Again the fight failed. Again the rough-house that did not come off. Both the Taft chiefs and Roosevelt chiefs are whispering third candidate. It is not that they love their respective leaders more, but that they love death less. They are like Napoleon's generals—they will support their man only so long as he has a chance of winning. There is no great difference between Theodore Roosevelt and his most ardent supporters. He wants the presidency of the United States for himself. They want it for the Progressive Party. Cummins would be just as good, so would La Follette. Taft's followers are probably in the same frame of mind. A man like Judge Charles M. Hughes might suit both sides. The platform is no obstacle. The committee on resolutions can make it vague enough to fit any candidate.

RIOT BUILDERS.
Sensational newspapers are forever building riots out of a dark look between Boss Flinn and Chairman Root. If the chairman threatens to have a nervous breakdown it means red head lines.

As a matter of fact, no missiles, harder than names, have been hurled, and the chairs in the Coliseum are not nailed down at that. The Roosevelt delegates have passed up two perfectly good chances to bolt. The first occurred Tuesday, when Elihu Root was elected chairman of the convention by 558 to 502, and the second happened yesterday when Governor Deneen's motion to "purge" the convention of the seventy-eight tainted delegates before the credentials committee was rejected, defeated on a vote of 564 to 510. This was a gain of two for Roosevelt, but at that rate it would take him four weeks to wear down Taft's margin of safety.

A TAME SHOW.
As a rough-house, the Republican convention is a tame show and a rank disappointment to people who have travelled hundreds of miles to see violence and war. Instead of raw meat they are getting marshmallows and angel food. The coup d'état is being strung out to such a length that it ceases to be a coup d'état, and becomes a bore. When stifling a yawn, somebody says to a Roosevelt man, "When are you going to pull the blamed thing off?" He shrugs his shoulders and answers, "Tomorrow—perhaps." The only consistent all-the-year-round coup d'état in the bunch is Teddy himself, and he takes it out on the furniture. The colonel has a bias toward prompt action, which is not shared by his field marshals. They sit on the lid, and then his language is unfit to print. Riots? Well, not any that you can notice at the far end of the hall. A little noise, yes. Some quarrelling over marbles, but nothing serious.

CAUTIOUS ADVISERS.
Roosevelt's cautious advisers want to wait until the last moment before bolting or forming a separate convention. That last moment was not after the election of Chairman Root. It was not after the motion to purge the convention was defeated. It will not be after the credentials committee has brought in a report sending the delegates as they are at present. It will be only when William H. Taft has been nominated and between now and that catastrophe something may happen which will give them an acceptable candidate, and then they will leave Theodore Roosevelt in the lurch. They are "playing the game according to Hoyle," which means that they are going to stick until the points are counted. There are signs of compromise in the air in the signs hung out by the Roosevelt party. The ambition of Colonel Roosevelt will not be allowed to wreck the Republican party. Forah was withdrawn as temporary chairman and McGovern was put forward as a sop to the La Follette crowd. The dark horses of the Progressive Party have all been warned not to deny that they are candidates. If Roosevelt bolted he could not carry with him delegates from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

MEN OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH GIVEN A ROUSING WELCOME

Crack Middlesex Regiment Has Made a New Record in Its Big Sixty-Mile Tramp—Liquor Regulations Being Rigidly Enforced—Cavalry Training a Feature of Interest.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Goderich, June 20.—The Twenty-sixth Middlesex Regiment arrived outside the town at 11:30 o'clock, and a short rest the men marched into the town, where they were the guests of the daughters of the Empire at a reception in the town hall. After a short rest, the men proceeded to camp, arriving there about two o'clock. On arriving in the town the soldiers were officially welcomed by Mayor Charles Reid.

"We haven't a single tired or footsore man in the crowd," said Captain Hugh Stevenson. "We could march twice as far if occasion required." Today is a "good day" at the big camp on the heights, and when the men swung into the camp parade ground, the dusty marchers made a welcome to remember. The whole camp, both officers and men, has shown with interest and enthusiasm the regiment's long march, the first of its kind ever undertaken by a Canadian regiment. When they reached camp they were met by the regimental bands, complimented by the officers, greeted by the men, and generally made to feel the appreciation of the whole division for the splendid way in which they have demonstrated the ability of Canadian militia to negotiate a long, hard march, over country roads. Friends of the men of the EXTENSION SHOULD GO ON VICTORIA AND MAITLAND STS.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell Says It Is the Fairer Route for North End.

North End Extension.
The Editor of The Advertiser: I have just heard there is to be a special meeting of the city council this evening to decide upon the street railway extension in the north end. Permit me to say that I hope the matter will be settled with a view to the interests of the whole section. I do not, that not only will the present needs be considered, but also those of the future. I have travelled over this district at least the last half dozen years, and perhaps I may be permitted to suggest what seems to me the best arrangement. In the first place, I think the present Wellington line should be removed to Richmond street. This would expedite the movement between the north and the south. Then the cross-line should proceed along Victoria street rather than along Cheapside, and down Maitland to Oxford, rather than by way of William. Such a plan would place every part of the northeast within two blocks of street car accommodation. I see no argument at all for Victoria and Cheapside streets in preference to Maitland and Victoria; when the change is being made it ought to be done fairly. Why should we bring the cars within a block and a half of some of our people and only within three blocks of many others, when all may be treated equally? Truly yours, THOS. H. MITCHELL.

WILLIAM ST. LADY HURT IN RUNAWAY

Mrs. Charles T. Paul Thrown Out of Her Buggy On King Street.

HORSE ON A RAMPAGE

Animal Got Away From Its Driver and Locked Wheels With Mrs. Paul's Rig.

Mrs. Charles T. Paul, who resides at the corner of William and Oxford streets, was rather seriously injured in a runaway accident on King street, near Richmond street, this morning, when a horse owned by William Gray, a West London market gardener, took a fright, and ran away, upsetting the buggy in which Mrs. Paul was seated, and throwing her violently to the pavement. She was attended by Dr. George H. Watson, who ordered her removal to her home in the police ambulance.

Mrs. Paul, who was waiting in the buggy in front of Elliott Marr & Co.'s wholesale, had been accompanied by her son, Mr. Paul, who left the rig but a moment before.

Mr. Gray, in the meantime, drove out of a lane from a blacksmith shop across the road, and put in behind Mrs. Paul's buggy. As he did so his horse became unmanageable, and as he was also trying to lead another horse on a halter behind his wagon, he could do nothing to avert an accident.

Wheels Were Locked.
The wheels of the two vehicles locked, the buggy being turned over in an instant. Mrs. Paul alighted on her head, and while she was very badly bruised she recovered after a time and was removed to her home.

Mr. Gray's horse continued its race westward on King street to Richmond, overturning and smashing a couple of bicycles, and in passing the Bank of Toronto wrecked a couple of others.

Not an Accident.
Col. Robinson reports that not a single accident has occurred to mar the trip. Among the most enthusiastic marchers is Major (Rev.) Robinson, the regimental chaplain.

Much gratitude was expressed by the officers for the kindness of A. E. Somerville, of London, whose automobile was placed at the service of the quartermasters' department along the route.

WILD RUMORS AT CHICAGO; CONVENTION TAKES A RECESS

Given Out That Roosevelt Had Released His Supporters From Obligations, But Later He Denies the Story—California Delegation Decides to Withdraw.

[Canadian Press.]

Convention Hall, Chicago, June 20.—The Republican National convention was called to order at 12:02 p.m. by Chairman Root. Mr. Watson, leader of the Taft forces, moved a recess be taken until 4 p.m., and it was carried.

It was the understanding just before noon that the convention would go into recess immediately after 4 p.m. At that time the credentials committee had reached only the first case.

Conflicting reports came from the Roosevelt headquarters today that Col. Theodore Roosevelt had released his delegates from all obligation to vote for him. At 11:50 a.m. the colonel issued a statement which was variously interpreted. It said:

Statement by Colonel.
"The time has come when I feel that I must make certain statements, not only to the honestly-elected members of the Republican national committee, but to the rank and file of the party, and the honest people of the entire nation. I went into this fight for certain great principles. At the moment I can only serve the principles by continuing to bear the personal responsibility which their advocacy has brought me."

Former Governor Regis H. Post, of Porto Rico, earlier had announced that Col. Roosevelt had released his delegates, but would remain in the race, and this statement was accepted by a number of Roosevelt leaders. The colonel's own statement was so interpreted.

Colonel Denies.
O. K. Davis, of the Roosevelt headquarters, however, said he was authorized by the colonel to say the statement as to the release of delegates was absolutely false.

LAKE ERIE COAL CO. IS WILLING TO ALLOW CITY TO HAUL ITS COAL

Company Asked for an Answer to Its Proposition to Lease the L. and P. S. R., But at a Special Meeting of the Board Today Nothing Was Done.

At a secret meeting of the London and Port Stanley board, held this morning in the city hall, the question of leasing the railway to the Lake Erie Coal Company was brought up, but no definite action was taken, the matter being held over until a meeting to be held next week.

For some time the coal company have been urging Mayor Graham to give a definite answer, if possible, to their proposition to lease the road. It is some months now since they came with their proposition, and they are anxious to make other arrangements in case the city does not wish to listen to their scheme. The present lease has a year and a half to run, and this will not give the company any too much time to get the question settled.

Coal Company Are Anxious.
His worship explained the situation to the aldermen, and also informed them that the Lake Erie Coal Company were willing to make terms with the city for handling their coal, provided the council decided to operate the line as a municipal enterprise.

No definite information was given as to the terms, but it is understood that the arrangements will be similar to those between the coal company and the Pere Marquette at the present time.

His worship wanted the directors to settle the question at once as to whether or not the road would be operated as a municipal enterprise or leased to the coal company or some railway.

RIDOUT ST. CHURCH
PASTOR IS DEAD

Rev. W. H. Butt, of South London, Passed Away at His Home This Morning.

Minister Was Ordained in 1871 and Had Been Stationed in Many Places in Western Ontario.

Rev. W. H. Butt, pastor of Ridout Street Methodist Church, died at his home, 222 Ridout street south, at 5 o'clock this morning. Rev. Mr. Butt, who was in his 64th year, had been confined to his bed for the last four months, but during that time his condition had been such as to warrant hopes of complete recovery, and as late as last Saturday he was progressing as well as could be expected. On Sunday, however, he took a turn for the worse and gradually sank until his death occurred this morning.

Rev. Mr. Butt was born in Bowmanville, Ontario, on Sept. 14, 1848, shortly after his parents had moved there from Cornwall. He was educated at the Clinton Grammar school, and entered the ministry in 1871.

Four years later he was ordained in the Bible Christian conference in Bowmanville.

Since that time he has been stationed in Palsfleeton, Port Hope, London, St. John's, Glencoe, Chatham, Centralia.

POOR COAL DEALER AND SCHEMING PUBLIC

In Convention at Toronto to Discuss Ways and Means of Protection.
[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, June 20.—The Ontario coal dealers held a meeting here today to discuss ways and means to protect the poor coal dealer from dishonest and scheming public. J. M. Daly, of London, Ont., put in a good word for coal men, denying that he was a robber baron. In fact he carried on business on a smaller margin than any other merchant.

Mayor Graham announced that the report would be ready within the course of two weeks. It was practically completed now, only a few changes being necessary before it is finally made public.

The other aldermen were of the same opinion as Ald. Wright, with the exception of Ald. Wright, who wanted the London and Port Stanley board to decide definitely at once to double-track the line to Port Stanley and electrify it.

Ald. Wright also suggested in a general discussion on Port Stanley matters that it would be a good thing to annex Port Stanley to London.

"The city owns the right of way to the Port," said Ald. Wright. "I think we could annex the village, and then we would have the situation well in hand."

Not Ready to Annex.
However, the aldermen present were not in the mood to annex Port Stanley, and thus put London on the lake, and the matter was allowed to drop.

ROWELL RALLY TO ABOLISH THE BAR

Two Bands Have Been Secured For Big Meeting in Queen's Park On Dominion Day.

Accommodation for all.

Further details of the arrangements for the Dominion Day meeting at Queen's Park were announced today by the committee in charge of the demonstration for Leader Rowell. While the meeting proper will not commence until 2:15 p.m., it has been thought advisable to have a programme of music during the previous hour for the benefit of all those who may wish to come early and secure the seats nearest the platform.

The capacity of the grandstand is so large that there will be no difficulty in seating all, but the committee desire that as many come as early as possible so that it will be practicable to start the speaking sharp on time.

Two Bands.
In order to carry out these arrangements, the committee has engaged two bands, that of the Seventh Regiment and Mr. Roscoe Pooch's city band. One of these will be at the grandstand at Queen's Park at 1:15 o'clock and will give a pleasing selection of popular music for one hour.

At 2 o'clock the other band will parade down town, and, with the speakers and others connected with the arrangements, will leave for the grounds in time to reach the park and have the chairman open the meeting at 2:15.

Abolish the Bar.
The principal speaker will be, of course, Mr. N. W. Rowell, M. P. F., whose policy to "abolish the bar," has aroused widespread interest, and who is one of the foremost orators of Canada.

LONDON, THURSDAY, JUNE 20.

THE REPUBLICAN RUCTION.

In the vote for the temporary chairmanship of the Republican convention, the Roosevelt faction acquiesced (though verbally protesting) for the nonce in the composition of the committee, so far as settled by the convention, on credentials, of which the Taft party is in control. This acquiescence indicated that the Rooseveltians were not yet decided to bolt, trusting still to make some few gains at the hands of the Committee, and perhaps larger gains by stampeding Taft delegates. An analysis, however, of the vote for and against Mr. Root, followed by the effects of Taft's second victory over the Roosevelt protest, made the prospects of conversion far from rosy, and soon afterwards the Roosevelt minority in the Committee, giving up all hope of any concessions whatever from the Taft members in control, withdrew in a body.

Here was a beginning of disintegration. The Roosevelt Pennsylvanians in the convention followed up the action of the Committee men by a formal vote for secession. There are reports that Mr. Roosevelt can hardly muster out more than two or three hundred of his braves from the convention, in such an event, no nominee could stand against President Taft.

If Mr. Roosevelt is either to win for himself, or, at least, to beat the President for the nomination, he must carry with him practically all of his supporters, at any rate the men of the great Republican states, Pennsylvania, Illinois, etc. Otherwise he is lost, and the cause of progressive Republicanism, of which he is so equivocal a leader, is in the present convention lost. Perhaps Mr. Roosevelt's men may be persuaded to secede in a body on the understanding that he himself will step aside for a nominee who may be accepted by the Taft forces.

Justice Hughes, the former governor of New York, would make a strong candidate. As a judge of the Supreme Court he has stood aloof from the unpleasant struggle which has so evenly split the Republican party. He has not, like Governor Hadley, rendered himself hopelessly obnoxious to the President's supporters. If the Rooseveltians stick to their guns, and recede rather than be a party to the nomination of the stand-pat candidate, the Taft leaders cannot but feel that their man would have no chance whatever with almost half of the Republican convention, representing probably somewhat more than half of the Republican electors, dead against him. Having accomplished their purpose of vindicating the President against his demagogic assailant, they might think enough done for glory and for "Big Bill." They might prefer Hughes to a Democratic president. On the other hand, Justice Hughes is known as a clean, efficient administrator, an exceedingly able man, and sympathetic towards the new ideas of the Republican party. He should be acceptable to the Roosevelt wing. It seems to be a choice for the convention between chaos and debacle on the one hand, and on the other a compromise choice of someone like Justice Hughes.

THE RISE IN PRICES.
The Edmonton Capital propounds an economic puzzle in this fashion:

"For instance, everyone who has lived within sight of a main line railway will remember that fifteen or twenty years ago the average freight train consisted of twenty-40-ton cars, whereas today it consists of forty-60-ton cars. But the train is the same, a conductor, head and rear end brakemen, a fireman and an engineer. So that the same five men who in 1897, or thereabout, moved 800 tons of freight over a division in a day, today move 1,600 tons over the same division in the same time, or less. But the farmer at the other end pays 40 per cent more for the goods when they are delivered to him now than he did in 1897. On the other hand, the farmer who in 1897 plowed his land with a yoke of cattle or at best a team of horses, was capable, at the very best, of preparing two acres and one-half to three acres of land a day for seed, whereas at the present time there are in the west hundreds of thousands of steam plow outfits, with which three men all told prepare from 25 to 40 acres of land every day. In this there is an obvious saving of seven men's labor on 25 acres. Yet the wheat, when it reaches the artisan, who, at the other end, makes the farmers' plows, costs more now than it did before the steam plow was invented."

It is true that the cost of hauling freight is much lower than fifteen years ago. Perhaps the railway companies have not reduced their charges proportionately; still, freight rates are lower to some extent, so that the causes of the increased cost of goods to the farmer must be found elsewhere.

There has been a universal rise in the price of nearly all products, natural and manufactured. Although many economists contend that a large factor is the enormous increase in the output of gold, there is no agreement in the commercial world as to the principal cause. President Taft proposes that an international commission be appointed to go to the root of the problem.

The higher price of wheat, in spite of the lower cost of producing it, is partly brought about by the world-wide conditions which have resulted in a rise in the prices of all commodities, and partly by the growth of cities and towns at the expense of the country. The area of cultivated land has grown amazingly in Western Canada, but this is not the case in many parts of the world, certainly not in Eastern Canada or the Eastern States. The demand for wheat and other foodstuffs has undoubtedly increased faster than the supply.

The puzzle as to the mounting price of food is therefore relatively simple. But it is not so easy to understand why there has been so rapid an advance in the price of manufactured goods, seeing that the greater the output of these the less the cost per unit. President Taft's proposed commission could serve a useful purpose. A diagnosis might suggest a remedy.

ANOTHER BLOCKADE FEARED.

The inability of the Canadian railways to secure delivery of their orders for new cars and locomotives is causing grave concern.

Both in Canada and the United States the manufacturers of rolling stock are behind in their orders. The C. P. R. alone is prepared to spend $19,000,000 on new equipment, but cannot get delivery this year.

This is disquieting news, taken in conjunction with the promise of a record crop in Western Canada. The blockade last autumn caused a loss of many millions to the prairie grain-growers, which they hoped to retrieve to some extent this year. Relief would be provided, of course, if Canadian grain could be sold freely across the line. The defeat of reciprocity has closed the southern outlet against the prairie farmers, or compelled them to lose 10 to 15 cents on every bushel of wheat they send there. Practically they will be tied down to the three tracks which run to the head of lake navigation, and to one track after navigation closes.

The congestion of last autumn aroused an angry spirit among the grain-growers against the interests which defeated reciprocity. A repetition of the blockade this year will swell the protest, and not all the oil that Mr. Rogers can pour out will smooth the troubled waters.

The cement duties would not have been cut if there had been no election in Saskatchewan.

The Titanic disaster filled the mind of the world a few short weeks ago. Today the evidence in England is scarcely read.

The Taft steam-roller may not be rolling a road that leads to victory, but the efficiency of the machine is beyond question.

Joe Martin opposes home rule. It is impossible for him to shake his life-long habit of being "agin the Government" when he isn't the Government.

Calling names is not the highest form of argument, but the New York Sun rings the bell when it dubs Roosevelt "The Play Boy of the Western World."

The Canadian tour of the Ringling Bros. circus seems to have been timed to avoid competition with the Republican and Democratic conventions across the line.

SHOULD THE SPIRIT OF MORTAL BE PROUD?
[Toronto Globe.]

The panner dress is all the rage in Paris, and is heading westward. The ass has been wearing panniers for centuries, but has never displayed undue pride in them.

THE SUPERFLUOUS FARMER.
[Farmers' Sun, Toronto.]

The trouble with farmers is that they do not grow two blades of grass instead of one. They are afraid to use their savings in their business. Mr. Flavelle says, and they let the weeds grow over them. They have had too much education of a sort which unfit them for submission to the lot in which they ought to be content. Dr. Pyne is bringing up the next generation properly on a diet of geology, economy and Disraeli's triumphs of diplomacy. It is true that the farms of the older provinces have been depopulated, but machinery is doing away with the need of farmers of whom there are too many now in Ontario. An average of seven or eight acres of land will support a hundred acres is too high. When Mr. Beck has his plans worked out, you will press a button and the harvest will grow and reap themselves, the cows will make their own butter and hens will lay their eggs in the lap of luxury.

A BALL PLAYER.
[Lippincott's.]

Teacher (in geography class): "John, you may tell the class what a league is."

John (promptly): "Eight baseball clubs is a league."

A NEW TIME TABLE.
[Lippincott's.]

"When does this ferry run, Uncle?" asked the would-be passenger.

"Dis ferry, Marster," said the old man, "she runs at quarter arter, half arter, quarter to and at."

AN ENGLISH VIEW OF THE TAFT-ROOSEVELT FIGHT.
[The Nation, London.]

There is something almost incredibly thin and academic in this whole Roosevelt-Taft controversy. The tendencies which each represents are linked on to no specific problem of national moment. And an infinity of personal retort, and much windy discussion of theories, neither of the two protagonists ever comes to grips with a really tangible issue, or submits a definite policy to the judgment of the electorate. Each wanders over an illimitable field of speculation and half-baked metaphysics. There are four great unsettled American problems that a commercial community, one would think, would pre-eminently desire to see rationally solved. But neither on the currency question, nor the banking question, nor the fiscal question, nor the compendious question of the trusts, can one gather from Mr. Taft's or Mr. Roosevelt's speeches the policies and measures that either could recommend to Congress. Nearly all the issues which they have dealt with are state and not national issues, and will not be affected one way or the other whatever be the result of the presidential election, and of these local issues, the one that has aroused the greatest interest and discussion is Mr. Roosevelt's proposal for the popular revision of the decision of state courts on matters of constitutional interpretation. One has only to contrast such a trumpety issue as this with the living, intensive problems that dominate political thought in Europe to realize the comparative hollowness and make-believe of American politics.

NOT THERE FOR POINTERS.

[Hamilton Herald.]
There is sure to be much curiosity on this side of the border as to what the Hon. Bob Rogers' mission in Chicago during the Republican convention may be. He doesn't have to go to Chicago to learn new tricks.

ROOSEVELT IN A PHRASE.

[Ottawa Free Press.]
"I'll tell you what I do when I do it." Could any single sentence better picture the real Roosevelt than this one coined by himself? How often we know what he is going to do until he has done it, if the bull may be pardoned?

THE DIFFERENCE.

[Toronto Globe.]
The colonies favor an Imperial preference because to them it means a tariff reduction. This they see more or less clearly is beneficial. The United Kingdom is opposed because it would mean a new obstruction, and the people knew it would be injurious.

AT THE CIRCUS.

[Toronto Star.]
When some people go to a circus they cannot conceal their indignation over the fact that so many other people have come, too.

"LA FEMME DE TRENTÉ ANS."

[Montreal Herald.]
In London it is said that the charms of a woman of thirty or thirty-five are beginning to be realized. Anybody who has read Balzac's famous roman, "La Femme de Trenté Ans," will wonder less at the phenomenon than in the lateness of its discovery.

WHERE THE TARIFF SHOULD BE

[Toronto Star.]
At the next session of the Dominion Parliament, the Opposition ought to place on record its adherence to the principle of Parliamentary and great principle of the tariff, to the popular control over the tariff, to the liberties which were won in England in 1688, and in Canada about three-quarters of a century ago.

Departure from these principles means not only a corruption and debauchery of the electors. For the present, we rely upon the freedom of Saskatchewan to defeat the scheme and resent the insult to their manhood.

BOY ON BICYCLE

FELL BEFORE AN AUTO

Car Was Stopped Just in Time to Prevent a Bad

Accident.

One of the entrance pupils of the Lorne Avenue School was nearly the victim of a serious accident this morning, while wheeling to the Collegiate, where the examinations are being held.

The young lad, in company with several others, was riding slowly near the corner of Waterloo street and Dufferin avenue, when an auto, in which two men were seated, sharply turned the corner.

The driver of the car apparently became rattled and he drove straight at the lads on the bicycles. One of the boys did see the car and it was almost upon him before he heard the shouts of his companions. He went to turn quickly out of the way, but his wheel slipped on the freshly-watered pavement and he fell in the path of the auto.

The motor was stopped just as the front wheels were about to run over the boy. The lad was badly shaken and frightened, and the driver of the car offered to take him to a doctor. However, he was not seriously injured and was able to proceed to school. The bicycle was not damaged.

INSPECTOR APPOINTED

BY HYDRO COMMISSION

Will Travel About to See That

Wiring Regulations Are

Carried Out.

Toronto, June 20.—Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the provincial hydro-electric power commission, in the course of a speech at the closing session of the Ontario Municipal Association yesterday afternoon, formally announced that he had appointed Mr. H. F. Strickland, formerly chief electric inspector of the Canada Fire Underwriters' Association, an inspector to travel from place to place to see that the rules and regulations now being drafted by the commission to govern wiring in the various municipalities throughout the province are carried out. The enforcement of these rules, Mr. Beck believed, would result in safety to life and property. Mr. Beck said he did not think they need fear any increase in the prices of electricity during the past year. The total estimated cost of the scheme, when completed, would be $4,455,417; but this would be $4,455,417, and not $27,000 in excess of the estimates. But this expenditure included $221,000, extra cost of right-of-ways, $185,000, additional equipment, and $29,417, being interest charges paid up to No. 1, 1911.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Four Young Seaforth Men Were Dealt

With Very Leniently.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Goderich, June 20.—Four young men arrested in Seaforth for burglary and sent to jail, who were employed by Sanger's circus, were up before Judge Doyle this morning, and were let off on suspended sentence. Sheriff Reynolds having procured situations for three of them in the Goderich Organ Company, and the other is waiting for money from home to return. Their previous good character was considered by the judge in passing sentence.

There Are No Dead,
Says Dr. Grenfell[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, of the Labrador Mission, is achieving fame as an author of little books on religion. His latest effort, "On immortality," has just been published in dairy style, (McClelland & Goodchild, Toronto). In this essay he discusses this great theme, which has been treated in thousands of bulky, dry-as-dust tomes, in the easiest, simplest English, so that a school boy could follow his thought.

Ang in spite of the oft-repeated way in which he expresses himself, Dr. Grenfell shows that he has thought over this question of questions long and seriously. He has thought to such purpose, however, that he is able to give his views with extreme simplicity and clearness. Tennyson spent seventeen years of toilsome thought and laborious writing before he published "In Memoriam," in which he has gathered up the arguments pro and con for the immortality of the soul. You get about the same conclusion in Dr. Grenfell's short essay that you obtain in Tennyson's long and difficult poem. Both poet and surgeon sweep the toilsome cobwebs of arguments of philosophers and theologians aside, and rest their hope of a future life on intuition or feeling. "We feel we were not born to die," cries Tennyson falling back upon simple faith, and Dr. Grenfell says, "I should say that intuition brings me into most direct and most reliable relationship with what is most vital and true. Any man who, to my mind, is worth while worrying with, believes in honor and love and truth, and that it is better to be unselfish than selfish, to be purer rather than impure, and that virtue is better than vice. It is best to believe it. I was taught it was true at my mother's knee, and there I learned of immortality. I took in one with the other, and I mean to cling to both of them."

But while Dr. Grenfell relies chiefly upon instinct or intuition, he is not blind to other facts which argue for the survival of the soul of man after death. He cannot believe, for instance, that man, the crown of creation, is to perish after only a few score years on this earth, while things far less important, such as trees and rocks and even other animals survive him. This idea also gave comfort to Tennyson. I remember that Goldwin Smith once said that, to his thinking, the theory of evolution was the greatest argument for the immortality of the soul, for man, when he dies at the age of twenty or seventy has not completed his development and the process of growth according to nature's great law, must go on in some other sphere. On this same point Dr. Grenfell says, "How often have I resented the idea that, though a parrot on a tree or a crab should outlast my body, it should also outlast me. I could not believe it. It makes me laugh to suppose it to be true. That would be the economy of a madhouse."

Dr. Grenfell thinks that the past word of science in its declaration that the elements are interconvertible goes to prove that there is no such thing as a life except that of the spirit, and that the human body is as much a piece of mechanism as a box. Death, he thinks, is no argument against life. In a striking passage he observes, "The dissecting room was never for a moment more to me than a deserted village, where we students were pulling down the walls of abandoned houses to enable us to see better, later on, to keep occupied ones in repair. More than once in the hospital I would have hastened what is called 'death,' out of pure charity, had I dared." He concludes his essay with this suggestive figure, "If I have just poked a black, dead-looking fire. A fresh draught of air has poured through it, and it has sprung up to new life and usefulness. I cannot believe that there are any dead."

MEN OF TWENTY-SIXTH

BOOSTERS INVADING

PROVINCIAL CAPITAL

Will Tell of New Ontario Advantages and Demand Aid of Government.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, June 20.—The advance guard of the boosters of New Ontario, who will storm Toronto with an army here at noon tomorrow, arrived here at noon today to complete arrangements for their campaign to press the claim of Algoma, Rainy, River, Kenora and Fort William districts for a portion of the five million dollars voted by the Ontario Legislature, and to demonstrate to Toronto manufacturers the possibilities for them that lie in the development of the great lay belt of upper Ontario. The real invasion starts tomorrow, when a procession of the delegates marches to Queen's park to interview the members of the Provincial Cabinet.

Tomorrow at 12:30 the city council and the Board of Trade will lunch the big delegation at the new arena on Mutual street, and in the evening a public meeting will be held at the same place, when north country orators will tell of the possibilities of the country, and the advantages to accrue from the development of its resources.

Defence in Chiniquy Libel Case

Springs Surprise On

Court.

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, June 20.—The defence in this morning's libel case, in which the $10,000 libel suit brought by Mde. Rebecca Morin, daughter of the famous ex-priest, Charles Chiniquy, against the Rouleau-Croix family, was heard, which said that as Chiniquy took vows of perpetual chastity, the woman he married was not really his wife, but his concubine.

Gustav Lamothe, the lawyer for Joseph, publisher of La Croix, died an affidavit from these Montreal people who contended that they knew Mde. Morin was not the daughter of the ex-priest, Charles Chiniquy, who was really the father of Mde. Morin, who had been adopted by the Chiniquys. If this was so she could not be a concubine, but a legitimate wife, but his concubine.

Justice Greenfield said he has the marriage certificate of the birth of their daughter, Rebecca. In the latter the father, who had acknowledged her as his child, was named as Joseph Lamothe, and she was present in the court.

Justice Greenfield said that as the affidavit had been made he would give the witnesses signing it a chance to be examined.

The judge then turned to Mr. Beggs, the defendant, and said: "And let me admonish you to refrain from commenting on this case until the proper time. There is law which can reach even La Croix."

The court was adjourned for the production of the new witnesses.

VANDALS AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, June 19.—Local antiquarians are indignant over the failure of the police to apprehend anyone for the vandalism which has occurred in connection with the old military burials on Papineau road. The destruction of monuments over the graves of old soldiers occurred on May 19, and a complaint was then laid before the police, who seem to have ignored it. The antiquarian societies have now complained to the Minister of Militia.

What They Are Wearing at the National Convention

Shirtwaist Notes

The strictly tailored shirtwaist as a rule has the high collar and long sleeve, but there are youthful looking models this summer made of linen, lawn or silk, with sailor collar or flat Dutch collar and short sleeves. These are good for sports and country wear though not suitable for traveling and street use. The collars and cuffs of such blouses may be effectively trimmed or bordered by a hem of striped material.

There are smart tailored blouses of the latest of linen, finely tucked, having the front opening, the long sleeve with wristband, cuff, shirt collar band and no trimming. The contrast between the fineness of material and severity of design gives pliancy to such blouses. They may be worn with separate stocks and jabots, with collars of embroidered linen and cravats, or with tucked stock of the material, and, if the waists are being made to order, several of these plain tucked, well-fitted stocks to match will be found a good investment and save one's finer stocks of lace and embroidery.

The Modern Petticoat

Despite the fact that the panner seems to promise a greater width in women's skirts, there is no appreciable difference in the petticoats intended for wear with summer costumes. They are as slim and narrow as ever about the feet and only the least possible bouffancy in the way of frills and flounces is permitted. Some of the messaline petticoats have pleated flounces at the foot, but these petticoats are very soft and never measure more than a yard and three-quarters around. Changeable taffeta petticoats are very different from the old style taffeta models laden with frills at the foot. The modern petticoat may have a full only four inches deep, or it may be slashed at the bottom to permit of easy stepping within its narrow width. Even lingerie petticoats are much chastened in design, the dainty lace flounce being mounted entirely without a drop, or foundation ruffle, and all petticoats are quite short—falling only to the top of the high buttoned boot.

A Lace-Trimmed Suit

Black cloth is here rendered strikingly effective by being combined with brilliant green satin and ecru lace and embroidery. The satin is used for the facings and to cover the buttons. A square medallion of heavy ecru is applied on the front of the bodice and around on the embroidered scroll designs. The lace is in color, the buttons are decorated with stitches made of the thread and are fastened by loops made of the dress material.

The skirt is plain with high girdle and some flare at the foot.

Three of the most stunning women attending the Republican national convention at Chicago are Mrs. William Hayward, of New York, wife of the secretary of the national committee; Mrs. R. E. Williams, wife of the member of the national committee from Oregon; and Mrs. Harry S. New, wife of the chairman of the committee on arrangements. These women were prominent among those attending the D. A. R. reception given to the wives of convention delegates.

Mrs. Williams wore a pale blue charmeuse with overdress of cloth of silver, and Mrs. Hayward a white chiffon embroidered in pink and pearls, trimmed with exquisite lace. Mrs. Harry S. New wore a white charmeuse made rather plainly, the bodice edged with bands of rhinestones and the tulle caught in front with an ornament of rhinestones.

These women are among the best dressed at the convention and coming from different parts of the country they show that the well-dressed American is universal.

Mrs. Harry S. New.

Cynthia Grey's Many Answers

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn as they are received.]

Loaf Cake Recipes.

Dear Miss Grey.—Give recipe for plain loaf cake.

HOUSEWIFE.

A.—Cream half cup butter with two cups granulated sugar, four beaten egg yolks, one teaspoon vanilla and a little grated nutmeg. Beat this mixture together thoroughly, add three cups flour, sift twice with three teaspoons baking powder, add one cup milk and fold in carefully the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Add, if liked, a cup chopped raisins, currants or nuts.

To Destroy At.

Dear Miss Grey.—What will destroy little ants about the house?

E. L. D.

A.—Mix equal portions of powdered cloves and borax, and sprinkle all crevices where the ants enter. Put a layer of the powder under the pantry shelf papers. Whenever possible, trace them to their nests. If in the house, saturate with boiling water or with kerosene. If in the ground, press a stick into the nest, remove quickly and pour hot water mixed with coal oil into the hole.

Birthday Flowers.

Dear Miss Grey.—1. What are the flowers and stones for March, June and July? 2. How long should a girl of 13 wear her skirts? L. G.

A.—1. Bloodstone, violet, pearl, rose, ruby, daisy. 2. If she is large, nearly to the shoe-tops. If small, half-way between knees and shoe-tops.

Chocolate Creams.

Dear Miss Grey.—1. Give recipe for uncooked chocolate creams. 2. How can I make my very straight hair wavy? A READER.

A.—1. Whip white of one egg very light with a pinch of salt, add a teaspoon flavoring and enough confectioner's sugar to make a soft mass which may be rolled into balls. Spread on a cold platter to set. Cover with the following coating: Sweeten chocolate which has been melted in double boiler, and dip each cream ball into it until thoroughly coated. Put on waxed paper to dry. 2. Naturally straight hair cannot be made curly except with the curling iron or other methods of curling.

Aids for Two Maids.

Dear Miss Grey.—Will you kindly answer the following questions by next Friday if possible? 1. What will make a white taffeta ribbon with satin dots as white as if it were new? 2. What will clean dirt and perspiration marks off white lisle silk gloves? 3. What will take the tan off my neck, face, arms and hands? 4. What is the cause of large red pimples? How can I get rid of them? With kind regards.

"SPICK AND SPAN."

A.—1 and 2. To wash the ribbon and gloves in gasoline will probably give the best results, although you cannot expect them to look like new. 3. Squeeze the juice of a lemon into the face several times a day. Chamberlain's peel is also an excellent remedy for tan. 4. Impure blood is doubtless the cause of these blemishes. You should take a remedy prescribed by a physician. Also get him to suggest a line of diet for you, as you have probably been eating too rich food.

"Pinks" for Cut Flowers.

Dear Miss Grey.—Please tell me if it injures or weakens peony bushes to clip the blossoms for cut flowers? A. MORGAN.

A.—An authority on floral matters assures me that it does not harm them in the least. In the autumn the tops of the bushes should be trimmed down, and a light fertilizer scattered over the roots.

The woman of today who has good health, temper, and good sense, bright eyes and a lovely complexion, the result of correct living and good digestion, wins the admiration of the world. If your digestion is faulty, Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct it. For sale by all dealers.

THREE RECIPES.

Strawberry Pudding.
Scald one pint of milk. Mix together three tablespoons of cornstarch, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and two tablespoons of sugar; add sufficient cold milk to mix to a thin cream, turn quickly into the hot milk and stir until thick. Cover and cook for half an hour. Separate the whites and yolks of three eggs, whip the whites to a stiff froth, add to the yolks two tablespoons of sugar and beat for a moment, then stir into the cornstarch. Cook and stir until the egg begins to thicken, add the whites, and mix lightly. Continue to cook for three minutes longer, flavoring with a few drops of vanilla. Rinse a mold with cold water and line the bottom with the finest berries. Fill the alternate layers of berries and blanc mangle and set aside until icy cold. Serve with whipped cream and more berries.

Fruit and Pimento Salad.
Separate into sections four oranges. Skin the sections to eliminate the indigestible inner skin, and cut into pieces. Add the contents of a large can of pineapples, and the contents of a can of pimentos. Sprinkle with English walnut meats and serve with a heaping spoonful of mayonnaise dressing on the inner leaves of crisp head lettuce.

YEARNING FOR MOTHER-LOVE

[By Winnifred Black.]

[Copyright, 1912.]

A little girl, twelve years old, killed herself in Louisville the other day because she had no mother like other little girls.

She had a comfortable home, good clothes, plenty to eat and nobody was cruel to her, and nobody taunted her with her dependence upon relatives. And yet she could not bear to live because she had no mother like other little girls. So she crept away to a lonely outhouse and died, like a sick dog, alone.

Poor little thing! Little lonely, heart-sick thing! She could not live without love.

I wish I lived near where she lies now. I'd make a pilgrimage to her forlorn little grave and cover it thick with roses, and at the head of the grave I would put a thinking plant, and all along the sides of it should grow pansies. And whenever I saw a woman unkind to her little thoughtless, helpless, needless girl, or hard to her clumsy, awkward, hobbledy of a boy, I'd take her out in your little triumph, how she would grieve with you at your disappointment. If you could just forget all you have taken so much time and trouble to learn and just creep right into that mother's arms again and tell her all about what it is that hurts you so. She would find some way to help you, some way to soothe the dull aching of your heart, if she only held you in her arms again and sang to you the old songs she loved.

"By Cool Siloam's Shady Hill"—was that it, the old song she always sang to comfort tired little souls?

"How Fair the Lily Grows"—Oh! fair and fair the lilies grow in many a shaded place. "And tall and white they stand."

"How fair the lily grows"—the hills of Sharon's dewy rose. "Did your own heart ache, wonder, when you sang, oh, loving singer of long ago. And did you hold your voice by the steady effort of your loving kindness test in the tired, puzzled little child in the shelter of your brooding love should hear and guess that you, too, were sorrowful."

"Sharon's dewy rose. Oh, mother, mother, if I could hear that old song in your sweet voice the whole world would change for me, and I would hold up my tired head again, comforted and sustained."

She died because she had no mother like the others did—she, poor little girl.

Pansies, forget-me-nots, little, sweet old-fashioned roses. I hope someone who has known the love of a real mother will plant these humble flowers on the grave of the little girl who died alone, and water them and help them to sprout into grateful bloom, know and be grateful when she is at rest with the mother who bore her.

The screened-in porch may be a blessing, not only in day, but any by night. Its roof, if slanting, may easily be built up level and provided with a board or canvas roof. It should then be screened in like the lower story. The advantage of such an outdoor sleeping place for a delicate child or older person might be very great.

Summer Comforts

Most of the advantages of camping out may be enjoyed at home by those who live in houses with grounds about them. When the family owns a tent it may be pitched in the yard early in the summer and the children may be allowed to sleep there whenever they wish, weather permitting. The bedding should be brought in whenever it rains, and kept well and dry. An old bed spring and a mattress or old cot provide satisfactory sleeping accommodations. Dark outing flannel pajamas are the best sleeping garments for camping out, and they should be provided for all the children regardless of sex.

The next step is the screening of the back or side porch. An ordinary kitchen table should be moved out there and there the family may eat their meals in comfort at hot weather. They may even spend the evening there in comfort. In the morning the mother may do most of her housework there.

The mother should spend every moment she can out of doors. It is easy to keep a rocking chair on the screened porch, and the baby will be safe there all the time provided the door is fastened. As a matter of fact he should take his nap out there all the year round except in rainy or very cold weather.

The sewing machine may be wheeled out for afternoon use, and hand sewing should also be done in the open air. There is no particular virtue in the camping tent. The outdoor air is just as necessary at home as in the woods.

The Abuse of Make-Up

It does seem a pity that the women of various cities in America are obliged to call a halt to the too conspicuous use of powder and rouge by school girls.

Why do parents allow it? Have they no power over their girls, or do the girls put paint and powder on their faces after leaving their homes and on the way to school?

It is an abominable sight to see any young girl with paint and powder on her face. A judge in New York, who

BUSY BEES BUNCHED BINGLES AND WON OUT FROM TECUMSEHS

Furrsedon Was Hit Freely When Hits Meant Runs—Nichols' Batting Features the Game, Two Doubles and a Triple Being His Total in Three Times Up.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
Berlin, Ont., June 19.—Berlin bunched their eleven hits off Furrsedon here today and won by a score of 7 to 6 in the first game of the series, with the London Canadian League leaders. Last year's champions played light-edged ball, and gave Connelly perfect support. The ex-Brantford pitcher kept the hits of the Tecumsehs well scattered, with the exception of the fourth and eighth innings. Connelly, who is reported to be a cousin of Hugh Jennings, of the Detroit Tigers, was given a try-out in left field, and provided the sensational catch of the season by capturing Burns' hit after a long run. Nichols was the batting hero of the day, getting a triple and two doubles and a base on balls in four times up. Shortstop Schwind fielded in phenomenal style for the Busy Bees. Umpire Cancelli took charge of the indicator and some of his decisions were vigorously objected to by the visitors. The score:

DETROIT LOSES TO NAPS

Boston Wins From New York and Chicago Beat St. Louis Browns in Eighth Inning.

Detroit, June 19.—Some dark and evil spirit of jinxlike form must be hovering over the Tigers, for when George Moriarty, who possesses what one might call the premier wing of the American League, makes a quick and quick succession, and by those acts throws away a perfectly good game of ball, it must be concluded that a first-class hoodoo has been wished on Detroit by some person or persons unknown. Willett should have had a shudder. As it broke, Cleveland defeated the Jungle band by a 3 to 1 score.

EX-SHERIFF JIM BURNS COMING TO IRISH PICNIC

Genial Detroit Irishman Will Be Invited to Be Judge of Baby Show.

The Irish picnic is coming, and already the greatest outing of the year is being planned for. Among the visitors will be ex-Sheriff James Burns, of Detroit, James Singely and others of the City of the Straits, and there will be something happening when these chaps get started. The invitations will be forwarded at once, and there is no doubt of their acceptance. Frank Bowerman is going to insist that the bunch come. He is particularly anxious that Jimmy Burns be judge of the baby show, and is making arrangements with the baby show committee to have him place the ribbons on the prize youngsters at the Port. This is a nice, handy guy for a big, strong man, and Burns will fit in nicely. The Detroiters have heard of this famous picnic, and are willing to come and enjoy a real good time.

CLASSIC SHOE 4, HOBBS 1.

Walden's great pitching enabled the Classic Shoe team to win from Hobbs in a Commercial League game at Teumseh Park last evening by the score of 4 to 1. Hobbs could get two hits off Walden. Clark pitched a good game for the hardware men, but was touched up for six hits. He worked eleven innings, and had his support better would have had a closer score. Ling's sensational catch of Robert's sacrifice fly was the feature of the game. The score:

ENGLISH GAME GAINS FOOTHOLD IN STATES

Soccer Becoming Popular on Pacific Coast.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, June 20.—Soccer football is slowly but steadily gaining a foothold in the east, according to a statement by officers of the Association Football League.

"Already soccer has crowded out the American game on the Pacific coast," the statement asserts, "and while it has not yet supplanted the eastern game on the Atlantic coast, a league has been formed with six colleges as members, and indications are that two more will join for next year."

Princeton and Brown have been formally invited to join the Intercollegiate League, whose membership already comprises Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Columbia, Pennsylvania and Haverford.

A STORY OF "HEK"

Man Who Wrote Epitaph on a Friend Soon Follows Him.

A year ago the bit of verse printed below appeared in The London Advertiser. It was written by Hugh E. Keough ("Heek"), of the Chicago Tribune in memory of George Siler, who had died just a year before. Mr. E. S. Murray, of the Canadian Express, a company of this city, who knew both men, clipped the poem from The Advertiser and it was brought to his mind the other day by the death of Keough himself. Keough was a Hamilton boy, who went to Chicago in early manhood and made a reputation as one of the brilliant writers in the country on sporting topics. His tribute to Siler, which might well serve as his own epitaph, was as follows:

"A man whom I knew, and a clergyman, too, who guarded his flock without thanks.

Once took up his pencil a tribute to pay to a pal that he knew in the ranks.

And here's what he said, if my memory serves (and I'm not banking much on the same).

The words may take wings, but the thought that remains is ninety per cent. of the game:

"I have listened to all of the speeches they speak and all of the sermons they preach.

They are building up monuments as high as the sky to lift a few souls out of reach.

But I will pass from this age of renown, this anarchy of commotion and strife.

From the place where the bronzes and marbles look down at their fast-frozen gestures of life.

Out, out to the place where he lies 'neath the shade of the plying cypress and pine.

Your man is the man of the sword and the plume, but the man with the musket is mine.

"It may be a queer little trick of the mind that calls back this schoolboy refrain.

And makes it apply to a pal that I knew that lived and went out without stain.

This man was all man, and he acted his part and he lived for all time, not a day.

He would not have us say what we meant to us all, but we're lonesome since he went away."

"I know Siler well," said Mr. E. S. Murray of the Canadian Express Company. "He was a square man, and a company."

THE RING

"GUNBOAT" SMITH WINS.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, June 20.—"Gunboat" Smith, of California, outwitted "Sailor" White, of Newark, at every stage of their ten-round bout in Brooklyn last night.

The Californian gave away twenty pounds, but despite this handicap he won all the way, knocking White to the mat five times and putting him through the ropes an even half dozen times.

MCCARTHY'S WORK DISAPPOINTING.

[Canadian Press.]

Philadelphia, June 20.—Luther McCarthy, the Springfield, Mo., heavyweight, had the advantage of a six-round bout with Tim Logan, the Irishman, before the National Athletic Club last night. Logan, who is a novice at the pugilistic game, gave McCarthy a good fight. The critics were somewhat disappointed as they had expected to see the conqueror of Carl Morris finish his lighter opponent inside the limit.

AD. AND ABE IN AUGUST.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, June 20.—Ad Wolgast and Abe Attell will fight here early in August at 135 pounds weight. Bill Nolan, manager of Attell, says he will post a side bet of $10,000.

Lexington, the brother to Uthan that could pull a wagon in 2:16 before the black gelding became a champion, is to be trained this season.

The weather has been ideal for the whole of the 60-mile tramp, and the nights exceedingly cool. The whole detachment is looking forward with no little pleasure to the coming training at Goderich.

SERIOUS RABIES OUTBREAK IN GODERICH TOWNSHIP

Four People Rushed to Toronto for Pasteur Treatment and Many Cattle Have Been Killed—Government Inspectors Now on the Scene.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Goderich, June 20.—As a result of the most serious outbreak of rabies that has yet occurred in this district, the board of health has issued a proclamation that all dogs must be chained or muzzled for 30 days. In Goderich Township a number of cattle have died in great agony. Two weeks ago a steer on the farm of Mrs. Joseph came home acting most peculiarly, as if affected with some form of paralysis. A local veterinary was immediately summoned, but did not consider the trouble serious. However, the affliction of two more of the cattle a day or so following lent grave fears that something serious was wrong. Government veterinarians from Toronto and Ottawa were summoned, who, on investigation, pronounced the disease as rabies. Some six cattle on the farm have since suffered most agonizing deaths. Two rushed to the lake and were killed as they hurled themselves over the bank. Two sons and a daughter of Mrs. Sakel, who had assisted in treating the cattle, have gone to Toronto for the Pasteur treatment. Further east in the county, Reginald Sturdy, aged 18 years, was attacked by a dog yesterday, and, in attempting to fight it, received several bites, the flesh of one hand and arm being literally torn off. The dog escaped, and several search parties have failed to locate it.

CHIEF FYSH SCORES AGAINST GAMBLERS

Keeper of House and All Frequenters Convicted and Heavily Fined.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ingersoll, June 20.—The conviction by Magistrate Paterson yesterday, afternoon of Charles Ryan, sen., on a charge of keeping a common gaming house, and Robert Redhead, Isay Ueller, Melburn Reaveley and Wm. Duke, all local men, of being frequenters, was a signal triumph for Chief of Police Fysh. It was under the leadership of the new chief that the raid was made at 1:15 Sunday morning on rooms occupied by Ryan, and in which were found Ryan and the four men charged with being frequenters. Cards were seized, a flask containing a small quantity of "firewater" confiscated, and the men placed under arrest. In the course of the chief's evidence he told of listening for upwards of fifteen minutes, while the game was in progress, and of the wild scramble on the part of the men at the table when he entered, followed by other constables. Duke told of having played poker on the night in question and of contributing 15 cents to Ryan. The evidence of Duke was corroborated by Reaveley willingly, both of whom materially assisted the prosecution. The evidence of Redhead and Geller was also corroborative in the first case, which was against Ryan.

After hearing all the evidence in this case, and which also was consented to cover the cases against the witnesses themselves, Mr. S. G. McKay, of Woodstock, counsel for the accused, made an earnest plea for dismissal of the case against Ryan, and in the event of Ryan being found guilty, urged the magistrate to suspend sentence on the frequenters. The magistrate imposed the following fines: Charles Ryan, $80, or two months in jail; Duke and Reaveley, $20 each, or one month in jail; Redhead and Geller, $30 each, or one month in jail.

A game of baseball between the Noxon works and the screw works will be the attraction at Victoria Park on Saturday afternoon. The game is creating much interest among the followers of the two teams, and a large attendance is expected. The contest will no doubt be a lively one, as three of the Sismocks are identified with each team.

In the Highest Degree Profitable

Some men figure that as the mercury climbs up sales will fall down. And figuring that way, fate is kind and does not disappoint them.

So there has grown up a commercial superstition that Summer is a dull season.

No greater fallacy has ever gone so long unchallenged.

Summer is a dull season for many lines—but there is no fundamental reason why it should be.

For instance, take a typical case—that of the Canadian wallpaper manufacturers.

They wished to secure their placing orders from the retailers before the early Fall—when American lines are offered. Through education by Advertising, they advanced the season to start the middle of June, instead of the end of August, and they now beat their foreign competitors to the market by nearly three months.

Perhaps you face a selling problem that education by Advertising will solve. Perhaps your Summer business needs the tonic of Summer Advertising.

As the mercury climbs up to its highest degree, increase, rather than slacken, your Advertising and selling efforts. You will find it profitable—in the highest degree.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 505, Lansden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

RUBBER FROM STARCH
RAMSAY'S DISCOVERY

Will Eventually Oust the Natural Product, Says British Scientist.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 19.—Sir William Ramsay, in this morning's Post, discussing the announcement by Professor William H. Perkin that he and a group of other chemists have discovered a process whereby rubber may be placed on the market at twenty-four cents a pound, says:

"The problem of how to prepare synthetic rubber is one on which a group of us have been working for two years and a half. Professor Fernbach has succeeded in finding a bacterium that transforms starch into one-third part acetone and two-thirds butyl alcohol. This discovery is of the first importance, as the cost of acetone is $150 a ton, and that of butyl alcohol $50 a ton.

"Moreover, acetone is essential to the manufacture of smokeless powder, which at present we derive from Germany.

"The greatest advantage of the discovery is that starch cannot be cornered.

"There was a race between the English and the German chemists, but we won by three months.

"I am confident that synthetic rubber will eventually oust natural rubber, but it will be a long time before it can have this effect."

Professor Perkin said last night: "Synthetic rubber can be produced at twenty-four cents a pound. It is obvious that this can compete with natural rubber at sixty-two cents a pound, but it may be well to say that there is so great a demand for rubber that it will be a considerable time before the natural product is affected."

The morning Post's financial editor says the attitude of brokers toward the announcement is one of respectful attention with an inclination toward skepticism.

BIG FIGHT SEEMS LIKELY FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Bryan Sends Word That He Objects to Judge Parker as Temporary Chairman, and Tammany Chief Murphy Declares That He Will Fight It Out.

[Canadian Press.]
Baltimore, June 20.—Members of the arrangement committee meeting today to name the temporary officers of the coming Democratic convention, feared the opposition of William J. Bryan to the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, for temporary chairman, who had been practically agreed upon. Several committees openly asserted this morning that a majority of their number were determined to name Mr. Parker, notwithstanding the attitude of Colonel Bryan, who yesterday sent word over the telephone from Chicago that he is opposed to Judge Parker on the ground that he is a conservative, and that as the party was progressive in spirit a progressive should be chosen to make the keynote speech.

Tammany For Parker.
Charles Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, telephoned here early today that the New York delegation had put forward Judge Parker's name, and that they wanted a fight made to select him. It was generally accepted that should Judge Parker be named by the committee, the fight would be carried on the floor of the convention.

Theodore A. Balton, of California, a friend of Col. Bryan, was talked about today as likely to be named as permanent chairman of the convention.

Just what candidates, if any, the Clark and Wilson forces will put forward for temporary chairman was not learned early today. Suggestions were made that the Wilson people will seek to have either Senator Culbertson, of Texas, or Congressman Henry, also of Texas, named and that the Clark leaders were looking to Senator-elect James, of Kentucky, Senator O'Gorman, of New York, sent word that his name must not be presented for temporary chairman.

Some of the national committees favoring Judge Parker were outspoken against the opposition of Mr. Bryan, and declared that if a question of whether Mr. Bryan was to control the convention or not was to come it would be better decided now than later.

National Committee-men Daniels, of North Carolina, urged his fellow-committee-men this morning that harmony must be maintained and conferred with his associates in an endeavor to find some way of bringing about a solution of the temporary chairmanship problem.

Theodore A. Balton, of California, a friend of Col. Bryan, was talked about today as likely to be named as permanent chairman of the convention.

POLE WAS FINED FOR USING PITCHER

Cut Open the Head of Another Foreigner on Adelaide Street.

A lively row at 84 Adelaide street, in which Clement Wolotka had his head badly cut by another Pole named Seder Hootnick, was aired in police court this morning.

John McKizel, who also boards with Clement Wolotka, got into a row with Wolotka over a sugar bowl, and Hootnick, wishing to help his friend, took a dish from the table and hit Wolotka over the head with it. A very bad gash was inflicted, and Wolotka had to be taken to the hospital to have the wound dressed. McKizel was discharged, but Hootnick was fined $10 or a month in jail.

THEODORE DODGES

Not Yet Ready to Join the Woman's Suffrage Movement.

New York, June 20.—Theodore Roosevelt has declined to join the New York men's league for woman suffrage. Immediately after the recent announcement by the colonel that he was for woman suffrage, the secretary of the league, Mr. Beadle, called at the former president's office and left a membership blank for him to sign. The secretary has now received his answer. It says that Colonel Roosevelt "at the present time does not wish to avail himself of your kind offer."

There will be a meeting in the Auditorium on Saturday night, when the play-ground movement will be discussed again, and arrangements will be made to further the scheme in this city. That the people are impressed with the importance of taking the children off the streets is shown by the liberal donations of the above list, and in addition to the amounts given in this article, there are many subscriptions which will be handed over to Mr. Hill within a day or so. All workers are expected to attend the meeting in the Auditorium on Saturday night, and all citizens are invited to be present. More money is needed. Have you given to the play-ground yet?

WILD RUMORS AT CHICAGO

Early Dispatches.
Chicago, June 20.—When the credential committee of Republican convention assembled this morning to take up the contests, Roosevelt men unexpectedly appeared to take part in the proceedings.

Only 32 of the 52 members of the committee were present when the doors were opened to the newspapermen.

Hugh T. Halbert, of Minnesota, and L. N. Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, were the two Roosevelt men first to appear in the committee room. Francis J. Henery, and the majority of the other Roosevelt men were not present when the committee met.

Got Fair Rules.
Mr. Halbert and Mr. Mitchell joined in making the following statement: "We feel that the action taken last night by the minority members of the committee has resulted in giving us a fairly good set of rules, and free and open discussion; with the presentation of any new evidence that may not have been heard by the national committee, we are going to stick to the committee. We forced the adoption of fair rules."

The session opened with a protest from H. E. Sackett, of Nebraska, and Mr. Halbert, that notice ought to be served on all contestants. For a time this threatened another break, for Mr. Halbert appealed from the chairman's decision. He later withdrew this appeal.

The roll call showed the following Roosevelt men absent: Henery, California; McCormick, Illinois; Harris, Kansas; Covington, Maryland; Cowley, North Carolina; Norton, Oklahoma; Ray, South Dakota; Cady, Wisconsin.

Mr. Halbert declared seven of the men who left the room last night were still absent. He asked for a delay until they could arrive.

Chairman Devine said the meeting hour already had long passed, and that contestants were ready and waiting to be heard.

Delaying Tactics.
George R. Malby, of New York, and P. W. Estabrook, of New Hampshire, demanded the delaying tactics of the Roosevelt men be stopped.

"Oh, I know you are going to use the steam roller methods," said Mr. Halbert.

"Not at all," returned Malby, "we want to do business and you want to prevent its being done."

Mr. Halbert said he wanted "only fair play."

"Oh, yes," shouted several committee members, "you acted like it last night!"

The committee room at 10 o'clock contained twelve Roosevelt men.

The Alabama case, the contest over the ninth district, was first taken up.

Finn Quite Committee.
William Finn, national committee-man from Pennsylvania and one of Colonel Roosevelt's chief lieutenants in the nomination fight, confirmed early today a report that he had left the Republican organization after the all-night conference with Roosevelt leaders.

"I am done with that committee," he said. "That's all there is to it."

Wanted to See Colonel.
A big crowd of delegates besieged Roosevelt headquarters this morning, waiting to see the colonel. He was closed with Governor Johnson, of California, Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, Everett Cobb, of New Jersey, James R. Garfield, and was not to be seen. A flood of gossip, with a third candidate as the solution of the situation, swept the hotel corridors. Governor Bradley, of Missouri, following his long conference with Roosevelt, spent an hour in consultation with former Vice-President Fairbanks.

Extra Police.
In anticipation of an exciting day people began closing the doors of the Coliseum at nine o'clock. An additional detail of policemen was added to the regiment of them already on duty.

All doorkeepers and policemen were shifted around today following complaints that a number of people had been admitted to the two previous sessions of the convention without the necessary credentials.

"I do not know whether the policemen, or the doorkeepers are responsible," said Assistant Chief Schuetler, who is in charge of the convention police, "but it has been decided to check all door attendants."

SEVERAL REFORMS IN ASSESSING

Suggestion By Executive of the Ontario Municipal Association.

WANT STRICTER RULES

Ask That Street Watering Rate Be Levied on Assessed Value of Frontage.

Toronto, June 20.—The Ontario Municipal Association will urge the Provincial Government to consider the question of taking over the debentures of all municipalities. This decision was reached by the passage of a resolution, submitted in the report of the executive committee, at the concluding session of the association yesterday.

"Very few assessors are complying with the present act. This is a big question," said Mayor Thorpe, of Quebec, regarding the questions of taxation on improvements which the association's executive committee has had under consideration for some time.

City Solicitor Doherty, of St. Thomas, did not think the Government would allow one municipality to adopt the principle and another to have a different system of assessment. The delegates decided to leave the matter to the incoming executive committee. Meantime, the municipal council will be asked for their reports relative to the question. A special committee has been appointed by the Legislature, to deal with the revision of the assessment act, and the executive was authorized to present the views of the association and the municipalities when this committee meets.

Also, the executive committee was instructed to deal with the amendment asked by the city of Toronto, in connection with arrears in taxes, that city auditor having pointed out that where collectors' rolls are not returned, and taxes are in arrears for five years the indebtedness for the property owners is being carried by the city at a trifling over 1 per cent annum.

Would Shift Expenses.
Instructions were given the executive committee to endeavor to obtain legislation to provide that the expenses of registration under the manhood suffrage act be paid by the collector, and if that is not procured, to obtain an amendment to the act to make it clear that ex-officio registrars are not entitled to be paid for the days they reside at places for registering voters.

Resolutions were also passed, asking for authority to enable councils to regulate and prevent the erection of signs and signboards within the municipality, and for prohibiting spitting on sidewalks and pavements and in other public places.

An amendment will be asked to the municipal act to make the clause permitting the holding of the election of mayor, aldermen and controllers on New Year's Day apply to all municipalities; also, an amendment to the local improvement act to allow of the street watering rate being levied on the assessed value of foot frontage.

It was decided to take no action regarding affiliation with the Canadian Union of Municipalities at present.

The next annual meeting of the association will be held during the first week of the Canadian National Exhibition, 1913.

LABOR MEN ARE ASKED TO HELP ALONG WORK

Principal Beal and Mr. E. R. Dennis Gave a Talk on Technical Education.

Principal Beal, of the new Alexandra school, and E. R. Dennis, of the board of education, addressed the members of the Trades and Labor Council at their regular meeting in the Albion block, Wednesday evening, both gentlemen speaking on the advantages of technical education.

The progress made in this new department in London is especially pleasing to those who have taken an interest in technical education since its inauguration here, but in order that the scheme may be carried out with even greater success, especially in the day department, the co-operation of all members of the Trades and Labor Council was solicited. A resolution was also extended to the council to visit the new school for an official inspection on July 3.

Hyman's Tannery Is To Be Connected With Mill Street Sewer.

Hyman's tannery will be connected with the Mill street sewer, and the waste water formerly turned into Carling's Creek, will be taken care of through the sewers.

For some years there have been complaints about the insanitary condition of this creek, and City Engineer Wright was asked to report on the trouble. After an investigation it was found that the sewer on Mill street could be utilized for taking care of the water and arrangements were made at once for this purpose.

Piano Excellence

Do you know the basic principles of piano excellence? Few people do. The multitude who buy pianos every year know little about the real reasons for piano perfection. If you are thinking about buying a piano you should go to Callaghan's and play your favorite airs on the Martin-Orme, or have them played for you. The tone of this superb instrument is flawless. Hear it before you invest a dollar in any piano. Northeast, corner Victoria Park. Belt cars pass the door. Telephone 708.

BOARD OF EDUCATION ENGAGE SUPERVISOR

To Put the School Grounds Into Shape for Playgrounds.

At a special meeting of the board of education held on Wednesday afternoon it was decided to engage a supervisor of playgrounds for the city at $125 a month for a period of six months.

A deputation from the Playgrounds Association, consisting of Messrs. Geo. S. Gibbons, Sheriff Cameron, E. T. White and W. J. Hill, were present, and urged upon the board the necessity of this action. The members of the board were heartily in favor of the proposition, and by a unanimous vote it was decided to engage an expert for the work. The appointment will be in the hands of No. 1 committee, who will report to the board at a special meeting to be called for that purpose.

SUMMER SKIN TROUBLES

Sunburn, blistering and irritation are the commonest form of summer skin troubles, and Zam-Buk ends these very quickly. It works in two ways. As soon as applied, its antiseptic powers get to work and kill all the poison in a wound, a sting or a sore. This generally ends the smarting and the pain. Then Zam-Buk begins the healing process, and fresh healthy tissue is built up. For sore, blistered feet, sore hands, heat rashes, baby's heat spots, sore places due to perspiration, etc., you can't equal Zam-Buk. It also cures cuts, ulcers, abscesses, piles, and all inflamed and diseased conditions of skin and subcutaneous tissue. Druggists and stores everywhere sell Zam-Buk, 50 cents box. Use Zam-Buk Soap also, 25 cents per tablet. All stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

ACTION BEGUN FOR $3,000 DAMAGES

Miss Hattie Rooney Sues the Mitchell Garage and Sales Company.

PINNED UNDER A CAR

Local Elocutionist Was Hurt in an Accident When Auto Ran Into a Ditch.

Miss Hattie Rooney, who was injured some weeks ago when an auto in which she was returning to this city with the members of the Conservatory Dramatic Club, that had given an entertainment at Alisa Craig, upset in the ditch on the Proof Line road, has brought action for $3,000 damages against the Mitchell Garage and Sales Company.

According to the plaintiff the car was in charge of a "green" driver who proceeded in the darkness without headlights and being unable to follow the road at a turn ran into the ditch ahead. The car turned over, injuring several of the occupants slightly, while Miss Rooney was held beneath it so great that her eyes protruded and were seriously affected.

Miss Rooney, who is well known as an elocutionist, had been to Alisa Craig with a number of others to give a concert there, and it was on the return trip that the accident occurred.

CIRCUS TOMORROW

Sensational Performance Begins With Spectacle of "Joan of Arc."

Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows will arrive in London during the small hours of tonight on their five long trains. They will give two performances here. The parade will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow forenoon.

The first train, bearing the hotel and the kitchen outfit, will arrive in the city shortly after midnight. The other four trains will follow as closely as railroad orders will permit. As soon as each train arrives its strange cargo will be unloaded and whisked away to the grounds. By the time the local milkman has completed his morning rounds, fourteen acres of real estate will be under canvas. Hundreds of flags and banners will be tossing in the breeze that blow over Kinglingville. The city will be increased in population by 1,250 people, to say nothing of 650 horses and over 1,000 wild and semi-domestic animals.

Early in the morning a downtown ticket office will be opened at "Circus & Lawrence's," 216 Dundas street. Reserved seats and admissions can be bought there at the regular prices. The afternoon show will begin at 2 o'clock. The night show will begin at 8 o'clock. The doors will open an hour earlier to give visitors an opportunity of seeing the finest menagerie in the world. During this preliminary hour Ringling Bros., famous military band will give a popular operatic concert. This is one of the finest bands in America, and a thousand.
