

NORTH MIDDLESEX NOMINATION DAY

Messrs. Mitchell and Doyle Were Named by Large Gathering at Ailsa Craig.

LOOKS LIKE CLOSE RACE

Much Resentment Throughout Riding Over the Gerrymandering by the Whitney Government.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ailsa Craig, Nov. 29.—A very large throng of electors gathered today at the nomination meeting to elect a successor to Mr. Duncan C. Ose, who retired to contest West Middlesex in the Dominion House.

Every section of the riding was represented, and the town hall was crowded to capacity when the nominations were being made.

Only two names were placed in nomination—Mr. James W. Doyle, of Bidduldulph, farmer, Conservative, and Mr. John Mitchell, of Parkhill, grain merchant, Liberal.

Hon. A. G. Mackay, Liberal leader, spoke on behalf of Mr. Mitchell, and Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, addressed the electors on behalf of Mr. Doyle.

The campaign has been a very quiet one so far, but both men have done effective canvassing work. From all indications the fight will be close, with the odds in favor of the Liberal candidate. The gerrymandering is a source of complaint among the Conservatives, and a large number will show their resultant at the polls. Party Organizers Inwood and Carstairs were present.

EXPLORER COOK HAS DISAPPEARED

Relatives Declare That He Has Not Sailed For Europe.

IS NOW ILL IN NEW YORK

Walter Wellmann Charges Him With Faking in Claim of Having Reached Pole.

New York, Nov. 28.—A combing of Manhattan today to find further information about the movements of Dr.
Frederick A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, who disappeared yesterday, and if possible something definite as to whether or not he had secretly left America, brought no results. But over in Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, Wm. L.
Cook, the explorer's brother, told everything worth while about his distinguished brother except the exact street number.

"Dr. Cook is right here in New York City," said Wm. L. Cook, "and I could talk with him today and I could call him up and get him on the telephone at this minute if I wanted to do so; but I don't want to disturb him again today."

It was suggested that the doctor's health had become impaired, and a statement he made to a friend to the effect that "if this thing keeps up a few months longer I will be in the insane asylum," tended to strengthen this theory.

On Verge of Collapse.
Although some of his friends maintain that he has been badly under the strain of lecturing and preparing his data, an intimate associate said tonight that the explorer appeared to be on the verge of nervous breakdown.

Those who had taken sides against him in his claims contend that it proves their contention that he was mistaken in saying he reached the pole on April 21, 1908.

While the doctor's brother talked tonight at his home of his brother's "persecution by conspirators," his telephone was ringing steadily, but Mr.
Cook let it ring until it got tired, and paid no attention to it.

These conspirators, according to Mr.
Cook, first drove the doctor to the Hotel Grammat at Bronxville and later into deeper seclusion.

"But H. Wellmann," he said, "it was suggested to Mr. Cook, 'Send out a statement today that the doctor had sailed to Europe on the Caronia.'"

"He is my brother's lawyer, isn't he?" asked Mr. Cook. "Well, I don't know anything for sure, but he thinks Dr. Cook went to Europe, he's wrong."

Called Cook Fakir.
Washington, Nov. 28.—Walter Wellmann, whose preparation for a conquest of the North Pole in an airship recently were abandoned, issues tonight a statement in which he analyzed the narrative of the two claimants of polar discovery, declaring that of Peary, "precise, workmanlike, consistent, credible in every particular," and denouncing that of Dr. Cook as "self evident and even deliberate imposture."

The gist of Mr. Wellmann's findings is that with his meagre party and equipment Dr. Cook could not possibly have accomplished the feat for which he claims credit, that his astronomical data are too minutely precise to have been made under the claimed conditions in the field, and that the explorer's daring for lecture platform and his acceptance of "crowns of flowers placed upon his head by innocent women and children" before submitting his field records to scientific examination, all conspire to discredit him.

"That which he claims to have done," declared Mr. Wellmann, referring to Cook, "with his equipment and organization, was physically impossible."

"Mr. Cook's narrative is to the trained eye and ear a story of counterfeit presentment."

BIRTLE VOTES LIBERAL

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—Mr. Malcolm Birtle, Liberal, was elected by a majority of 163. This is the first election in which the Roblin Government has been defeated. Mr. Birtle has been previously to this Conservatives in Manitoba were considered impracticable, in by-elections especially.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

School Boundaries, Collegiate Institute Work and Relieving Principal.

A special meeting of the board of education will be held tomorrow afternoon to consider a number of important questions.

Among them are the closing of the King street school, changing the school boundaries of the city, inquiring into Collegiate Institute affairs, and the abolition of the relieving principal's position.

It promises to be a long session. A number of the teachers are in favor of doing without a relieving principal, and a number are also in favor of closing the King street school, which, of course, necessitate the rearrangement of the school boundaries.

It is understood that the results of the departmental examinations will be considered.

SPECIAL SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

City Daddies Will Make Another Attempt to Settle Street Lighting Matter.

THAT GARBAGE BYLAW

May Be Rejected in View of the City Solicitor's Opinion in Regard to the Debentures.

There will be a meeting of the council this evening to consider the London Electric contract and the garbage system bylaw.

The communication from the London Electric company refusing to accept the terms offered by the city will be read, and then there will be a debate.
It is not considered likely that a settlement will be arrived at today.

It will be remembered that last year the same question came up, and it was six months before a solution was arrived at.

The company will insist upon a simple contract, which the council will not sign what the company want.

Will Light the City.
The company will continue to light the city streets, and the argument will be used as to whether or not the payment of any money to the company will involve the city.

A compromise may be arrived at,
but it is very hard to see where it will come in.

As for the garbage system bylaw it is probable that it will be rejected.
To issue debentures for ten years to cover the cost of the system will make it somewhat expensive to maintain, say some of the aldermen, and they will reject it until such a time as the economical spirit is not abroad in the council.

MEDALS PRESENTED TO

which all enjoyed a short programme given by the pupils.

TO VOTERS' LIST

Session of Judges' Court of Revision
Was Held Today.

A session of the Judges' court of revision held this morning, at which Judge Macbeth presided, 114 names were added to the voters' lists of the city.

There were a large number of appeals consequent to the number of renewals during the spring and fall," said City Clerk Baker. "Their appeals were heard by Judge Macbeth, and a large number, 114 to be exact, were added. It will be impossible to give out the official list for a few days, but I will make it public as soon as I can."

Rev. E. Fessant Dead.

tired Methodist clergyman, passed

Monday evening. Mr. Fessant came to this country at an early age from England, and for 40 years was an active minister in the Methodist Church.

LIBERAL CLUB'S OFFICERS CHOSEN

Enthusiastic Crowd of Voters Thronged Hyman Hall on Saturday Night.

WARD REPRESENTATIVES

Who Will Direct the Club's Affairs For the Year.

There was great enthusiasm at the election of officers at the Liberal Club on Saturday evening, and one of the largest votings in the history of the club was cast.

In every ward there was a decidedly good contest, and spirited canvassing marked the election.

There was plenty of excitement, and the election proved to be the most interesting held in some time.

There were many hundred votes cast during Friday and Saturday, and the clubrooms were thronged each evening.

The Officers.
As a result of the voting, the following executive will conduct the affairs of the club for the following year.

NEWEST DREADNOUGHT GIGANTIC AND FAST

A Battleship Lion Will Carry Huge Battery and Sail 27
Knots an Hour.

London, Nov. 28.—The keel plates of two new warships, the Orion, the improved Dreadnought battleship, and the Lion, the cruiser battleship, were laid today at Portsmouth and Devonport. The bulk of the material for both vessels is ready and all arrangements have been made for their completion within two years.

The construction of the Lion will mark a notable step in the evolution of the cruising battleship. She will have 70,000 horsepower, while her immediate predecessor had 45,000.

She will displace 21,000 tons, and her length will be 700 feet, constituting her the longest man-of-war ever laid down. What is technically known as "her" run of deck indicates an intention to equip the cruiser battleship with ten 12-inch guns, thus placing her as regards armament on an equality with the latest battleships. She will have a nominal speed of 27 knots an hour.

STILL NO WORD OF TRACK ELEVATION

Mayor Stevely Says It May Be Expected Any Time.

Nothing has been heard concerning the probable action of the Dominion railway commission regarding track elevation.

Mayor Stevely expected word to be received in the city hall before this, but nothing has been received from the commissioners.

"Something will be done within a short time," said his worship. "Word may be expected almost any time."

SHOP SCHEME A GREAT SUCCESS

Men Attended the Auditorium in Large Numbers on Sunday.

There was a great success in the meeting of the men's meeting in the auditorium Sunday afternoon, which is not only unique in itself, but gives evidence of being a scheme worthy of weekend.

A week ago in was suggested at the meeting that representatives from the various shops and manufacturing concerns, advertising matter was gotten out in the names of the different shops, and a number of interest was taken by the men, to see what would not only fill their section, but would also be a success in the winning shop. This money to be expended in the sick benefit fund of the shop men.
Those entering into the competition yesterday were G. T. shop, Wortman & Ward, McPherson's foundry, McPherson's shop, D. S. Perrin & Co., McCormick & Sons. The attendance was based on the number of men employed. Wortman men, and much interest is being taken in the move. As a result of this move yesterday the Auditorium was crowded to the doors.

WALL COLLAPSES THREE MEN INJURED

Woodstock, Nov. 28.—Three men were injured by the collapse of a wall in the newly-completed factory of the Tobin Arm Co. late Saturday afternoon. The roof was being completed and the men were working near the top, when about fifteen feet of the wall fell out and a portion of the roof caved in. John Scott, one of the workmen, fell through the two storeys with the debris and was taken out unconscious. He was hurried to the hospital, where his injuries were found to be of a serious nature, although he will probably recover. W. Book fell to the first storey and escaped with some minor fractures, and a third workman was able to walk home himself.

The collapse was probably due to the softening of the mortar, which had been frozen.

KING EDWARD ASKED TO PLAY MEDIATOR

United States Requests Great Britain to Settle Controversy With Chili.

London, Nov. 28.—A request that King Edward mediate the Alsop claim dispute between the United States and Chile was made by the United States through the foreign office today. His majesty had been communicated with informally on the subject before, but at the time he gave a non-committal reply.

WAS DISCUSSED

But Baptist Meeting in London Took No Action in the Matter.

THE HIGHER CRITICISM

Which Has Worried the Friends of Orthodoxy in the Queen City, Came Up in London Today.

Dr. Elmore Harris, of Toronto, was present at a gathering of the Baptist ministers of this city and vicinity, which met in the Adelaide Street Baptist Church this morning.

The meeting was a secret one, and the press were not admitted, but it is understood that it was held largely to consider the attitude, teachings and behaviour of Professor Mathews, of McMaster University of Toronto, who is being criticized for his views on the Bible.

Dr. Harris has all along been the strong champion of orthodoxy. When from what could be learned this morning from those who were present at the meeting, Dr. Harris had not come to any conclusion, but simply to fulfill a private engagement.

The purpose of the discussion, the other matter came up and there was some talk regarding Mr. Cranston's
"The Higher Criticism" in Toronto Star, and Dr. Harris' reply to it.

The members at the meeting expressed their opinions freely, but no action was taken.

The meeting did not even definitely state of opinion regarding the merits of the question.

The other business of the morning was largely connected with the business of the church in this vicinity.

FIRE ABOARD SHIP IN DOCK AT SARNIA

Flames Started in Crews Quarters of S. S. Lake Michigan Sunday Afternoon.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Sarnia, Nov. 28.—The wooden steamer Lake Michigan, lying at Gardiner Brook, wharf here, awaiting to load with baled hay for the upper lakes, was discovered to be on fire about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The fire, which had started in the crew's quarters at the back part of the boat, had gained good headway before the city brigade was summoned.

Considerable damage was done to the engine room as well as to the upper works and deckhouse. Temporary repairs will be made at once.

The ship's officers could give no explanation as to the cause. The room in which the fire originated was unoccupied.

Mr. F. E. Pares, M. P., is reported as doing well although there is still cause for anxiety.

IN LOCAL HOSPITAL

Taken From St. Joseph's and Sent to the Isolation Hospital.

Two cases of smallpox were discovered at St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday and both were removed to the isolation hospital.

The building is not yet ready and the patients were placed in tents.

The disease is a mild type, and no fear of serious results are anticipated.
The hospital ward has been placed under quarantine, and no further outbreak is feared. Both cases belong to the city.

No explanation can be made as to where they contracted the disease. The man affected formerly was in the asylum, but he has been out of there for some time, and it is not thought that he carried the germs from that institution.

The woman has been employed in the hospital but a short time.

SINGLE SESSIONS

In an Interview With The Advertiser She Gives Out Some Interesting Information.

EFFECTS ON THE PUPIL

Head of the Kindergartens Says if the Vaccination Rule Was Wiped Out Attendance Would Be Increased.

Now that the board of education, after looking more closely into the question of single or double sessions for the kindergarten pupils of this city, are still very much divided, the opinion of Miss R. Laidlaw, supervisor of the kindergarten system, is of considerable interest. Miss Laidlaw has, in her teaching capacity, naturally made a close study of the matter and her opinion on the question from all sides, is very strongly in favor of the single session.

Care of the Child.
"Take, for instance, the child's case," she told The Advertiser today.
"A two year course usually means 18 months of school attendance, leaving out the time taken in holidays. If you take an hour out this every day you would have course to 12 months in the kindergarten. In these days when the value of hand-training is insisted upon it is cutting off one percent of hand work every day. If as a result the child is not as well trained, his range of interests less broad, his power to employ himself less, and his hand and eye not so quick, the primary teacher must take time to make him, and in consequence the whole grading of the school will be lowered.
When he is well prepared he finds that work can be mastered, and progresses steadily. It is the discouraging child that drops out in the lower grades."

"Is the three-hour period too long?"
she was asked.

"It is the one in general use," she said. "Educational and medical authorities, James L. Hughes, for instance, contend that with the variety of exercises in the kindergarten, and the alternating of quiet and active periods there is little opportunity of strain for a normal child. A good teacher watches that the fatigue point is not reached."

The Double Sessions.
"One of the first changes in planning a double session system is to put the older children in the morning classes, because the teacher is freshest. Our idea here is that the younger a child the more important it is that his first steps be taken right. A 4-year-old child ought to have an afternoon sleep. It is a frequent complaint in an afternoon kindergarten for these little people to go to sleep on the circle."

"The statement has been made that the cost of our system is higher by far than that in any city in North America. The estimated cost here was $30 per pupil per annum. The cost of elementary education in New York was quoted recently as $32, and as long ago as 1901, the average cost for kindergarten pupils was about $25, the average number of children per teacher being 21. The cost is probably greater now, as there has been a general advance in salaries."

The Attendance.
"As to the average attendance, it is a simple matter to raise it by removing the vaccination regulations for the kindergarten. The attendance at a kindergarten is not compulsory, many parents keep the children home.
It is within the mark to say that at any time within the past ten years there have been two hundred children absent from the kindergarten, and seven kept out of the kindergarten on the account. Dr. Teasdale is in favor of relaxing the regulation, as are many of the best people. I have spoken to about it, but when I urged that regulations be relaxed the inspector said it was 'out of the question.' These children, scattered through seventeen classes, would materially increase the average attendance, which, of course, would lower the average cost per pupil."

"From the parents' standpoint the objection is often raised that it is not worth the trouble to dress the children for a two hours' session," continued Miss Laidlaw. "As to other things, Boston leads American educationally. There they have insisted on morning classes for all children, and only now are introducing afternoon classes in four or five crowded districts. There are different children and different teachers."

Single Sessions.
"Miss Aborn, the supervisor of the Boston kindergarten system, writing me recently said, 'You surely do not mean that they propose to have two classes for the same teacher?' Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh are among the cities that maintain single-session kindergartens. As I said in my letter to the board, no man or woman ranking as an educator believes in double sessions. You may find, in fact, that the best is to discourage double sessions, and to encourage single sessions."

"As to the teacher, there is no doubt that to take a fresh class is much harder than to take the same class in the afternoon. The idea of reducing the primary teachers' hours is to be considered. But why at the same time impose upon the kindergartners conditions that the primary teachers say would be harder than theirs? A teacher who contributes nothing to the community but the classroom hours narrowly interests and lacks in enthusiasm. An interesting person is one

MANY CANDIDATES BEFORE ELECTORS

Big Field Is Assured for All Offices in Gift of People.

SLATE ON WEDNESDAY

It Is Said Mr. Gibbons and Others Will Give Their Answer to Board of Trade and Real Estate.

Municipal slates were discussed at the city hall this morning, and the prediction was made that there would be large fields of candidates, making at least eight or ten slates.

It can readily be seen how great the field will be for the council. There will be at least eight of these three or four present council seek re-election. Of these three are on the municipal slate against Sunday cars, leaving one candidate for that section.

The civic committee will have a full state of twelve candidates, making at least 24 candidates.

When there will be a number of persons who will run independent of any slate.

Mr. W. A. Wilson, one of these, and from what it can be learned there will be several more.

A number of slates will not be less than 40 candidates, rather an imposing array. Of course this is a contingent upon the people who will be elected to run for a successful issue.

Answer on Wednesday.

WORKMAN TAKEN VIOLENTLY ILL

Supposed To Have Been an Attack of Ptoimaine Poisoning.

George McAdams, of 421 English street; I. Shaw, of 713 Elias street, and William Gillespie, who boards on Rectory street, were taken violently ill while at work in an East London factory late Saturday night with what is supposed to have been an attack of ptoimaine poisoning.

McAdams was the only one of the three attended by a physician. The men are all at work again, although they are still suffering from the effects of the poisoning. Dr. J. B. Campbell, who attended McAdams, stated today that the men were certainly suffering from ptoimaine, which his patient may have developed as a result of eating sausage at the evening meal. How the other two could become ill at the same time and suffer from the same effects is what is puzzling them. They were all at work in the factory, and were compelled to go to their homes. McAdams being in the worst shape. He refused to have a physician, but when his condition became serious, Dr. Campbell was called. He suffered from violent pains in the stomach, and the others were in the same condition. Well water is used in the day time at the factory, where the men were working, and the city water at night. Something may have gotten into the lines to cause the trouble, but this is considered hardly possible.

DON'T BE ROOTED TO THE END SEAT

Priest Asks His Congregation To Be Considerate and Move Up.

The street car and church "end seat" has attracted quite a little attention about the city. The priest has been receiving the customary amount of abuse on all sides, and a number of complaints have reached the outside seat. The methods followed in Detroit and other cities would probably work well here. Thousands of tickets upon which were printed a picture of a hog were placed in circulation in that city recently.

Any person who takes possession of the end of a seat and allows others to stand or scramble over him now runs the risk of being handed one of the cards by a fellow-passenger. Few people take the chance of being shown up before a crowd, and the evil has practically ceased to exist there. The same trouble is frequently experienced in the churches. Many who arrive early take possession of the outside seat and refuse to move in or make room for others.

At St. Mary's Church Father McKoon has asked his congregation to be more considerate and move up, as there are dozens of seats on the inside when the church is apparently filled owing to people taking possession of a seat at the end.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. James Schofield, widow of the late James Schofield, wishes to thank the employees of the London Rolling Mills for their kindness in raising the subscription for her and her children, which she received on Thursday, the 25th. It will come in very useful.

THE SCHOFIELD FUND.

Rev. A. J. Bowen, of the Egerton Street Baptist Church, has received $7 more for the Schofield family, bringing the total up to $11.25. The late subscriptions are: A friend, $1; commercial traveller, $5; and a widow, $1. Mr. James Schofield, who resided on Hamilton road, died after a very short illness a while ago at Victoria Hospital, and the money is being subscribed for the family.

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR OVERDUE TAXES

Major Hays Is Determined That Citizens Shall Pay Up.

City Tax Collector Hays is busy sending out warrants for arrears in taxes.

Today he issued 54 distress warrants and he expects to have all arrears paid up before the end of the year. He has collected practically all of the taxes for the present year, and there only remain about $2,000 from 1908. "I expect to have all this ready by the end of the year," said Major Hays. "We are busy issuing warrants for the payment of all arrears, and I expect to have the most of it."

Miss Ferguson Dead. Miss Alicia Ferguson, of this city, died yesterday. Miss Ferguson was a daughter of the late Henry Ferguson, who was at one time a very well known London Township. Miss Ferguson had been an invalid for about 20 years and her death was not unexpected. The funeral, which will be conducted by Rev. Canon Hays, will take place tomorrow to Woodland Cemetery at 2 o'clock, from the residence of her nephew, Mr. H. J. Ferguson, 288 Princess street. Mr. W. H. Ferguson is a brother, and Mrs. Matthews, who died very suddenly in Detroit a short time ago, was a sister.

Removes Poisons of Catarrh and Rheumatism From the Blood.

For catarrh of the head use a teaspoonful of salt and a quarter teaspoonful of borax dissolved in a pint of warm water. Snuff this mixture through the nostrils twice daily and immediate relief is experienced. To cure, a constitutional blood remedy must be used. Catarrh and rheumatism are both due to accumulated poisons in the system. These poisons must be eliminated. The following simple home mixture effectually acts on the kidneys, the bowels and the skin, causing them to resume their functions quickly and properly.

Get one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one ounce compound fluid Balmwort, and two ounces syrup Sarsaparilla compound. Mix and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at retiring. Many cases of catarrh, rheumatism, and kidney trouble have already benefited by this treatment.

Store Opens at 8 a.m. and Closes at 6 p.m. Daily

The Merchandise at This Store Is Especially Interesting Now . . .

In the newspapers each day an exact report of the news events of this store is published, as far as space will permit.

"WHAT'S THE NEWS TODAY?" is the question in the minds of hundreds of men and women when they pick up the daily paper and turn to this page to see what is going on at the Smallman & Ingram store. As a lady recently remarked, "If I miss reading the ad. one day in a month, an opportunity I have watched for is sure to pass."

We don't make news when news is scarce, but at no time of the year is news more plentiful than at this season, and a whole newspaper might be filled with interesting store news daily. Show windows, too, reflect the character of a store.

We believe there is a greater money's worth to be had in more directions here today than has ever been in the past (which means many lines of merchandise brought to the quick-selling point). We therefore commend this store to your shopping with especial earnestness during the next few weeks. READ OUR ADVERTISEMENTS and WATCH OUR WINDOW DISPLAYS. PINNED UNDER ENGINE Peculiar Accident Causes Death of a Farmer Near Plattsville.

Plattsville, Nov. 28.—Isaac Battler, a well-known and highly-respected farmer, residing three miles south of Plattsville, met death while returning from New Hamburg tonight with his traction engine.

While crossing the wooden bridge on the Wilmet and Blenheim town line, just east of the bridge gully, precipitating Battler and his son, William, with the engine to the river below, a distance of about 15 feet. William fell into the water, and was pinned to the bottom of the river.

The accident happened at 7:30 p.m., and soon a large crowd of workers rescued the body. When found life was extinct.

The water in the river was about five feet deep, and it is supposed death was caused by drowning.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Case of Mr. Lane.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:—Dear Sir—I am not a sufferer, but I desire them and their methods, but during the last few weeks I have wished that members of the school board and teachers through their children in the kindergarten, and I feel who are training my children are my friends. I have felt very much the injustice done Mr. Lane. If the teachers who are doing the work, why not have gone to him quietly and told him so, and allowed him to get another school? My heart aches when I think of a man with a family being sent adrift at this time of the year, blighted of profession. I hope it may not be so. But that is past and the past is irrevocable. The present case is in our hands, and the question of our kindergarten teachers is still to be decided.

mothers and the wage-earners in their homes. I know three of the members of the school board personally, and know them to be conscientious men, and I have no doubt the other members of the board are equally conscientious, and I would ask them to consider before they vote. Is it only through our schools that we can economize in London? In my mind the board have done a grave injustice to a lot of young girls by sending them out into the world with the blight of inefficiency upon them.

LONDON, MONDAY, NOV. 29.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER AND THE LITTLE CANADIANS.

Sir Charles Tupper has written from his English retreat a vigorous letter to the Montreal Star in defence of his views on imperial naval defence.

The old War Horse of Cumberland has been always a robust imperialist, but he has no use for the anti-Canadian brand of imperialism, which is being paraded by certain journals and politicians in this country. He repudiated the Imperial Federation League when it began to drift toward the policy of levying tribute upon the colonies for the support of the imperial navy. Once he exceeded the bounds of fair political warfare by attributing this design to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and by his declaration, "Laurier is too British for me," which was obviously intended for consumption in Quebec.

Sir Charles has consistently taken the view that the development of Canada, particularly the construction of the C. P. R., constituted the most effective aid to Great Britain that a small country could be expected to make. He is still of that opinion, though he agrees with the Canadian Parliament that the time has now come to go a step further. He is incensed by the attitude of some Canadians who hold their country up to the contempt of the British people, and he rebukes the Montreal Star for describing as "nonsense" his assertion that Canada had done more to promote the defence of the Empire than any other part of the British Empire. He says:

"I can afford to bear your gibe when I am sustained by so great an authority on this question as the distinguished Governor-General of Canada, who, at the Dominion Day banquet on July 1 last, declared that the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway had done more for the defence of the Empire than the gift of twenty Dreadnoughts could do."

"Allow me to say that in my opinion your journal is making a serious mistake in attacking the deliberate judgment of the Canadian House of Commons, who have unanimously pledged themselves to proceed vigorously with the construction of a Canadian navy, and on the lines that the Imperial Government has decided is better calculated to provide for the security of the Empire than the construction of Dreadnoughts."

In a letter to the London Times dated Nov. 29 Sir Charles reiterates his approval of the Canadian navy idea, and says he cannot understand the demand for Dreadnoughts. The old warrior is making good use of his controversial powers in castigating the Little Canadians.

A WORLD'S AGRICULTURAL RECEIVING HOUSE.

When the work of the International Institute of Agriculture in Rome is thoroughly established it is expected to give a world-wide stimulus to agricultural science. The object of the institute is to collect information from the different countries, which will be available in concise and complete form. The information sent from Canada to Rome comprises statistics and report on various departments of agriculture, and on the work of the different provinces. Canada will get a direct return in data from other countries.

The Minister of Agriculture pointed out in committee of supply a few days ago that in joining the institute, Canada takes her position among other nations whose interests in agriculture are large. We shall get information from and give information to an organization of an international character, which has been started for the purpose of acting as a sort of receiving house for the agricultural information of the world and the redistributing of information in connection with the production of the world to all the countries taking part in the institute. One of the chief aims of those who instituted this organization was to be able to get authoritative and accurate accounts of the crop production and condition of crops in the several countries. At the present time many of the published reports, and even some of the official statements of great corporations, are tinged by a desire sometimes for personal gain, or to affect the market in regard to the great staple products. It is hoped that the reports of the institute will be of a sufficiently authoritative character to counteract that sort of thing. There will also be an interchange of information regarding scientific research into agricultural problems going on the world over. The farmers of Canada who at present know little of what is being done in other lands, will be kept thoroughly posted. Hon. Mr. Fisher is convinced that when the institute is in complete working order the results will be worth many times the cost.

GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY.

A Toronto newspaper, which is fomenting the German war scare, made the assertion a few days ago that Germany had for many years dumped her wares on Great Britain while debarring British goods from her own market by higher tariffs. Germany's minimum tariff on a wide range of products is stiffly protective, but trade has a way of laughing at such barriers. The president of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce, in proposing the health of the German ambassador, who visited Manchester a fortnight ago, pointed out that in the three years, 1905-07, when trade was in full swing, the money value of German exports to the British Empire averaged £64,000,000 annually, and Germany's imports from the British Empire amounted to £75,000,000 annually. The United Kingdom alone exported to Germany £41,000,000 worth, and imported from Germany £52,000,000 worth. In ten years the imports from Germany into the United Kingdom increased 36 per cent, while the exports of the United Kingdom to Germany increased 86 per cent. The British Empire is Germany's best customer, and Germany is the best customer of Great Britain, next to India. Commenting on these facts the president said:

"Commercial rivalry should be no more a barrier to amity between nations than it is between individuals in trade circles. Those responsible for conducting the vast established industries of Britain are only stimulated to fresh efforts by honest competition. They do not merely sit down and repine if things are not going all in their favor."

"No two civilized nations have stronger national claims to mutual regard and sympathy. We have a racial affinity; there is a blood relationship between our royal families; our national religions are fundamentally the same; we have the same aspirations for liberty and freedom, for the spread of knowledge and advancement of science, and for the general betterment of mankind. In her wonderful industrial development during the last thirty years Germany has learned much from England, and we in our turn have profited by the discoveries and adaptations of German scientists and inventors. So far as an ideal unanimity of sentiment is lacking, I think it is due in great measure to misunderstandings, which unfortunately, some writers and portions of the press, in both countries, have injudiciously fostered."

The view that the progress of one country is necessarily achieved at the expense of another is short-sighted. Germany has reached out for the world's markets, but through this development has become a greater market for British wares. The interests of both countries are so interlaced by commerce and industry that war would be suicidal.

The Lords will throw out the budget this week. It looks as though the budget will throw out the House of Lords in January.

A clergyman is heard, but not seen by his congregation these days. The new topic presents more surface than the Merry Widow hat. There is some hope that the absurd extreme to which feminine headgear has gone will bring a reaction toward common sense.

In Great Britain the religious leaders have a commendable habit of getting together to promote a good object. The Anglican Bishop of Birmingham, Father Bernard Vaughan, and Dr. Clifford, the Non-Conformist leader, unite in an appeal for funds to carry on the work of the Anti-Sweating League, of which they are officers.

The suggestion is made that the feeling on the navy question might be tested in North Middlesex. Let Mr. Doyle declare for the gift of two Dreadnoughts to Great Britain, costing £24,000,000, in addition to £20,000,000 for a Canadian naval unit. That is what the Conservative press of Ontario is clamoring for. What would the farmers of North Middlesex say to it?

One E. Alexander Powell writes in a magazine that Germany is preparing to make war on Great Britain. He has caused the Toronto News to throw two fits in Long Primer type during the past week. Who is E. Alexander Powell and what are his sources of information? Has he seen the plans of the German war office? Probably he knows no more about the subject than the Toronto News.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain says the Unionists would put a duty of two shillings a quarter (eight bushels), on wheat, with a preference to the colonies—probably of one shilling. Will the British farmers be satisfied with a duty of three cents a bushel against Canadian wheat? We know that Canadian woolen makers are not satisfied with 30 per cent protection against British competitors. Human nature is the same on both sides of the Atlantic. Once a tax is clapped on imports from Great Britain there will be a cry for more. The prospect for the Canadian farmer, even with a preference of three cents a bushel over non-British wheat-growers, is not enticing.

The election of a Liberal at Birtle, Man., Saturday was a heavy blow at the Roblin-Rogers machine. In this connection the Winnipeg Free Press makes a serious charge against Mr. Rogers, the minister of public works. Mr. Rogers told the electors of Birtle that Laurier was endeavoring to compel the province to permit separate schools in the vast new territory which is to be added to Manitoba. All the while Mr. Rogers had in his pocket the boundary proposals of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which make no mention whatever of the school question. These proposals have been in Mr. Rogers' hands since February last and have been kept a secret. The charge is too grave to be ignored.

NIAGARA.
[A Prose Poem by Walt Mason.]
I gazed upon that mighty flood, that writhed as though in pain or woe, and fell with dull and sickening thud, into the chasm far below. If there's a man with soul so dead that he unmoved can view that scene, he surely has a basswood head, and had it carved when it was green. O noble fall! Stupendous sight! Dame Nature's most emphatic fact! The gods were on their job all right when they designed that cataract. All other wonders are a dream, a foolish, feeble, fantasy. The pauper falls of Europe seem absurd when they're compared with thee. Had I but seen thee in thy prime, when this proud nation had its dawn, in that fair, distant, golden time, before they strapped thy harness on, then I'd have written thee an ode, to make thy waters pause a while; but go and drag along thy load, since beasts of burden are in style. Alas! that two such handsome falls, that should be kicking up their heels, come forth like horses from their stalls, to turn a million greasy wheels. To grind up glue, make lightning rods, and furnish cheap electric light—no wonder that the nine great gods look down in anger at the sight.

Constipation.

No one need expect to be healthy if the bowels are allowed to become clogged up. A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule with everyone who aspires to perfect health.

Costiveness or constipation clogs the bowels, chokes up the natural outlet of impure matter, and retains in the system the poisonous effete waste products of nature, causing bad blood, dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, foul humors, pimples, boils, blotches, piles, etc. Burdock Blood Bitters has built up an unrivaled reputation as a cure for constipation and all the diseases which arise from it.

Mr. Burns Woodcock, Nashua, Bridge, N.S., writes: "For over two years my wife was troubled with constipation. She tried several physicians, but could get no relief, but after taking three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters she was completely cured and is to-day in good health. My wife and I cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters."

MADAME'S WARD

BY PAULINE BEVERLY.

Nothing more was said on the subject. Yorke made me take one of the deep, shabby arm-chairs on one side of the big fire, and get out my pipe, while he hunted for the ingredients for some whiskey and water. It was mixed and smoking in the two tumblers, and he was standing at the table filling his own meerschaum, when he asked, suddenly:

"And what was it that brought you here today, Ned? Anything very special?"

"Well, yet, it was!" I answered, with an effort, recalling my resolution. "I wanted to speak to you rather particularly, Roger, and that's the truth. In point of fact—and I hesitated—there's something I've been anxious to say to you for some time now."

I stopped, for Yorke had wheeled round quickly, and was looking at me fixedly. The blue of the fire shone full upon his face, and revealed two things—first, that Alice Deeping was right in asserting that he was changed, and, second, that he was half afraid of what I might say next.

CHAPTER XIII.

I suppose that deliberately to make an opportunity, and then to back out of it when made, is a thing which all but the most unpleasantly strong-minded have been weak enough to do at some time or other. It is very stupid, of course, but very natural. I am afraid. And it was so with me on the present occasion. I backed out ignominiously as I met that unusual look in Yorke's eyes, and came to the conclusion that I would not mention mademoiselle this time. I mumbled out something or other—goodness knows what—concocting the first fib that came into my head, and then rattled off into a string of gossip about nothing in particular. It had the desired effect, for Yorke, although he looked at me doubtfully once or twice, regained in a minute or two his ordinary expression, and, taking the chair opposite to mine, began to puff his meerschaum peacefully.

It was a long time since I had a down-right good talk with my friend, and, in spite of that reservation of mine, which pricked my conscience now and then, I enjoyed it thoroughly. The whiskey and water was out, and the pipes were nearly so, when, in a pause in our talk, I asked Roger what he thought of the recent news. My belief in that of Whittesford table which had mixed Yorke up with the rector's daughter had never amounted to much; but still I felt anxious to hear what he would say of the engagement, and, of course, he must know of it. But, to my astonishment, he simply stared at me.

"The rector's news?" he repeated, blankly. "What do you mean?"

"Oh, you haven't heard then?" I said.

"I've heard nothing from there but Mrs. Deeping's last account of her last symptoms, and I suppose you don't mean that. I wasn't there for more than five minutes. What is it?"

"Guess."

"Can't," said Yorke, puffing stolidly. "The old boy hasn't got a canonry, I suppose?"

"Not that I've heard of. Try again."

"Not I. You must tell me if you want me to know. What is it?"

"The rector's news? Think so."

"At any rate, Miss Alice will have to leave off flirting forever and a day."

"Oh," said Roger, staring at me. "What do you mean?"

"She is engaged to Major Constable—all signed, sealed, etc."

With a stifled sort of exclamation, Yorke swung round in his chair, and sat staring straight at the fire, but he said nothing. It was true, after all, then, poor old boy—he was in love with Alice Deeping! That was the conclusion that I jumped to in my breathless second. While I waited vainly for him to speak, but he did not so much as stir, and before I knew it, I was blundering out some awkward words of consolation and sympathy. But their effect was not at all what I anticipated. Yorke wheeled round again in his chair, took his pipe out of his mouth, and stared at me with such a blank countenance, that I faltered and stopped involuntarily.

"What—on earth—are you driving at?" he said, separating the words for emphasis.

"Why—I—well, you see, I—" I stopped, and Yorke grinned.

"Have you got it into that head of yours, Ned Chavasse, the questioner with a rather uncomplimentary stress upon 'that head,' that I am in love with Alice Deeping?"

"Well, I—that is, I didn't know. I thought it might be," I stammered.

"Ah, well, make your mind easy, Ned, my boy! It doesn't chance to be the case, you see."

"Well, I'm awfully glad of it," I returned, relieved.

"So am I. Constable is a lucky fellow. He has got one of the best and sweetest girls in Christendom; but I don't want to stand in his shoes for all that."

"And wouldn't it if you could?" I suggested.

"Just so—and wouldn't I if I could. So you see, old fellow, I don't need your sympathy. Don't know what could have put such a notion into your head, for my part. But you are always brimming over with fancies, Ned."

"Well, you looked queer enough when I told you!" I said in self-defence. "As to what put it into my head, Whittesford has been marrying you and Alice any time this past six months."

"Looked queer, did I?" Yorke repeated, picking up his pipe again, and turning away for a match to light it.

"Oh, was I?" I asked for a minute. I'll go over and tender my congratulations to Miss Alice by and by, if I'm not called out. So the rector is pleased, is he?"

"Rather!"

"And Mrs. Deeping?"

"Takes it pretty much as she would take a new set of symptoms, I think," I said, recalling Alice's account of how her mother had received the news.

"I suppose so. What's the opinion at Chavasse?"

"Oh, Madame is delighted! Alice has a prime favorite of hers, and she likes the man, Miss Nat began to cry, for some reason best known to herself."

"Cry?" Yorke repeated.

"Yes, and snapped my head off when I asked her what it was about."

"Isn't she well?" he asked, quickly and sharply.

"I suppose so," I answered, though remembering at the same time that I had fancied more than once of late that the little delicate dark face was less rounded than it had been, and that Nat's saucy speeches and laughter were less ready. "I think she feels the cold a good deal," I supplemented.

"Never been used in Jamaica to anything like the weather we have here, you know."

Yorke nodded, apparently absorbed in his pipe. When he spoke presently, it was without looking round at me.

"Ned, that fellow at Holme-deane—is he often at the Mount now?"

"Froude, do you mean?"

"Why, he is the only man there is at Holme-deane, isn't he?" Yorke repeated.

"Whom else should I mean?"

"Yes, Fraser Froude—I say, is he often there?"

"Yes, pretty often—four or five times a week, I dare say."

"Oh!" With that monosyllable, he jerked out of the dark window as he puffed, and said nothing else.

I knocked the ashes out of my pipe, and hesitated as to whether I should fill it again. I had just made up my mind that there would be time for a whiff or two more, when Yorke started me by turning round and asking, suddenly:

"Ned, do you recollect what you once said to me about that fellow?"

"What—Froude?"

"Yes."

"Do you mean that I didn't like him?"

"Pooh, no! It wasn't that. What a fellow you are, Ned! You said that something took him to Chavasse, you know."

"Took him to Chavasse?" I repeated, all at sea.

Yorke's blue eyes flashed an impatient glance at me.

"You're uncommonly dense today, are you not?" he said. "Yes—took him to Chavasse. You ought to remember it if you don't."

"I did remember it then in a flash, and wondered at my stupidity in not remembering it before. Of course, when the admiration of Fraser Froude for Nat had been little more than a careless suspicion, I had told Roger Yorke of it, and had in consequence aroused his incredulous astonishment and spleen. Recalling his manner then, I felt an uncomfortable twinge. I began to think that I did really see daylight in good earnest at last, I said, awkwardly enough—

"Oh, yes! I remember now."

"I thought it nonsense then," Yorke said in a restless, unhappy voice, again looking at the fire. "I thought it a question of yours, which perhaps even you yourself hardly believed in. But I don't know now. What do you think?"

"Why, I think as I thought then!" I answered, promptly and plainly.

"That he goes as Natalie Orme's suitor?"

"Her would-be one, at any rate; Madame has begun to see it lately, I fancy."

"And she permits it?"

"How can she help it? He has said nothing. She can't well turn the man out."

"Then can't you?" cried Yorke, turning upon me with a suddenness which made me jump. After all, you are the master of the Mount, and have no other purposes. Haven't you influence enough to keep that fellow out of it?"

"Why, I can't kick him down the steps, I suppose?" I retorted, a little injured. "It's more than you'd do yourself."

"Is it, by Jove! I know that one of these days I shall send those blessed shining teeth of his down his con-founded throat. The more I thought—Bah! There—hang it all!—and with something like a half-checked groan, he got up, and, going over to the window, stood there with his back to me, looking out."

I sat quite still, saying nothing at all. There was no mistake about it. Roger was hit, poor old fellow, and, judging from the symptoms, rather badly. I wondered that I had not had the sense to see it all plainly long before this; no doubt I should but for having my wits muddled by that mis-taken notion about Alice Deeping. No things were on another tack, drifting the Fates only knew whither. And what on earth would Madame say? This last consideration was enough to chain my tongue, and I remained the attendant perplexities. Presently Roger gave a half laugh.

NO LAWS CRACKED BY EUSAPIA PALADINO

Neither Is She a Fraud, But Exhibits a New Form of Motion.

New York, Nov. 28.—Dr. James H. Hyslop talked about Eusapia Paladino this morning to the men's class at the Calvary Baptist Church on West Fifty-seventh street. Dr. Hyslop said that too much fuss was being made over Eusapia, and he added, that he could not see that there was any contrivance or trickery in her movements. "I've no criticism to offer as to Eusapia Paladino," said Dr. Hyslop. "In my opinion she deserves careful investigation. She is no fraud, and whatever she does when she is in the so-called trance, she is not responsible for."

"It strikes me that all the excitement which has been aroused over her is uncalled for. I cannot see that there has been any contrivance. When I speak of excitement, I don't mean merely popular excitement, of the sort that you've doubtless observed among your associates, but the excitement among scientific men, who imagine that a new principle of nature has been discovered."

"One does not have to think very far to see three instances of motion, the causation of which is at a distance from the object acted upon. One is magnetism, another is electricity, and a third is gravitation. The particular form of motion which Eusapia Paladino appears to have exhibited has been known to psychologists for some time past. It is called telekinesis. The one thing over which we should be exercised is the matter of evidence. Eusapia actually accomplishes all that she appears to do. It is that which is the chief point for scientific examination."

"Then Dr. Hyslop spoke of the laws which may underlie the phenomena of the sort which Paladino apparently exhibits. He said that if one pre-supposes for the moment that Eusapia really does make the table move, that such activity does not for a moment mean that John or any other spirit force is behind it. Before one can readily come to a conclusion as to the causation of the phenomena, one must, he said, be sure of the facts associated with the appearance of the phenomena."

"I'm sorry," he said, "of all this talk about illusion and hallucination. It is possible that there may be instances of illusion and hallucination in the witnesses of Paladino's demonstrations, but I think we are prepared to conclude that such is the case."

PATRICK APPEALS AGAIN

Claims That the Commutation of Sentence Was Contrary to Law.

New York, Nov. 28.—Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, convicted of the murder of the aged millionaire, Wm. Marsh Rice, will appear in the Supreme Court to argue an appeal for release on habeas corpus before the appellate division of the supreme court. He will conduct his own case, and will bring forward other things, that the commutation of a death sentence to life imprisonment was contrary to law, and that he should have been executed or pardoned.

In his cell at Sing Sing today Patrick expressed confidence in the outcome of his appeal.

SCARCITY CAUSE OF COST OF FOOD

So James J. Hill Says, Repeating His Former Analysis of the Situation.

St. Paul, Nov. 27.—While not entirely agreeing with the recent statement issued by Bradstreet's, which intimates that the scarcity of food products in this country has caused an increase in price, James J. Hill says that the point has been nearly reached and that we are so close to it that there is reason to fear that it will be reached.

"It is a matter which should be seriously considered," said Mr. Hill today. "Our present balance of trade is an indication that the margin between our production and consumption is becoming narrower. A comparison of the figures of ten years ago and those of today shows that our enormous balance of trade has been divided away. We are not exporting foodstuffs as we were. We are consuming them ourselves."

The increase in price this year over last year is a matter of supply and demand.

THE ANDES TUNNELLED.

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 28.—The tunnel of the Trans-Andino Railway was pierced Saturday, and the event was made the occasion of a great celebration.

The Trans-Andino tunnel is five miles long, and the highest in the world. The railway project was approved by the Chilean Congress in 1903, and the first section from Arica to the foot of the Andes, where the tunnel begins, was opened a year later. The Chilean section was completed March 15, 1908, and the work of piercing the Andes Mountains has progressed rapidly. The line now reaches to the summit of the Cordillera, and will join a railroad from Mendoza. The Trans-Andino line will continue on the La Paz, Bolivia. The completed line from Arica to La Paz will be about 300 miles long, and will cost in the neighborhood of $15,000,000.

Had Weak Back. Would Often Lie in Bed for Days Scarcely Able to Turn Herself.

Weak back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know of the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles.

They begin by helping the kidneys to flush of all the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and all the urinary passages and carrying away the uric acid, the chief cause of rheumatism, from the blood.

Mrs. Arch. Schnare, Black Point, N.B., writes:—"For years I was troubled with weak back. Oftentimes I have lain in bed for days, being scarcely able to turn myself. I had doctors attending me, and using two boxes of Kidney Pills, and after using two boxes I am now able to do my work. I am positive Doan's Kidney Pills are all that you claim for them, and I would advise all kidney sufferers to give them a fair trial."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers. The T. M. L. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TREAT THEM LIKE BRYAN

Cannon Lines Up the "Insurgents" With the Democrats.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 27.—When Senators Cummins, La Follette, Brewster and the so-called "progressive" following join hands with Mr. Bryan in making war upon the Republican members of Congress who passed the tariff bill and upon the President who signed it, in that contest I know of but one way to treat them, and that is to fight them just as we fight Mr. Bryan and his following.

Such was the declaration of Speaker Cannon, who delivered the principal address before the Knife and Fork Club here tonight. Mr. Cannon said Senator Cummins had read himself out of the Republican party. He defended the rules of the House, saying they will remain substantially the same, and that he is as long as there is a Congress.

"Ever since history began," said the speaker, "the man in the minority has been seeking some device by which he could overcome the will of the majority."

Mr. Cannon asserted that while the Payne tariff law is not perfect it is the best ever passed under Republican leadership. He declared the enactment of the new law production in this country and imports from foreign countries have greatly improved.

The "insurgents" and their followers, he said, are seeking to hinder the progress of prosperity by criticism and by making long statements of the tariff law. Only such agitation can halt the prospective era of prosperity, said the speaker.

BRIAND TO PRELATES

Declares They Will Sometime Prefer Nation to the Church.

Paris, Nov. 27.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday, Premier Briand made reference to a speech of Abbe Giraud, member for Finistere, who had defended the action of the Episcopate concerning the public school question and voiced the sympathy of Catholics for the Pope.

M. Briand said the time was rapidly approaching when, as had several times been the case in French history, bishops and priests subjected to the control of the Vatican would prefer to do their duty as Frenchmen rather than as Catholics.

"You have been holding an attitude which has become so harmful to this country at home and abroad that your conscience as Frenchmen should speak louder than your conscience as Catholics," the Premier declared. "Warfare seems to be essential with some peoples. It is now a war of the schools. You speak of the possibility of arriving at a peaceful compromise, but do you think the present attitude of the Catholic leaders is conducive to this end?"

FILLED ELEPHANT TOOTH

And Huge Animal Did Not Take An Anesthetic.

New York, Nov. 27.—When Gunda, the elephant of the Bronx, refused to eat hay and shied at water he was radically wrong, for she can stock away enough hay at a meal to stock a barn.

Gunda was suffering from a racking toothache. The discovery was made by Walter Thumann, keeper, who detected a swelling on her jaw. Dr. W. Reed Blair, veterinarian, with the aid of "Dick" Richards and John Bayreuther, keepers, forced her jaws apart with crowsbars and a searching dental examination was made.

One of the lower molars, four inches in diameter, was decayed. There was a cavity two inches wide and three inches long. It was decided to remove the cavity and fill it. Gunda was bound down to the floor with great chains and belts and her trunk was secured.

But Gunda was not in a fighting mood. She seemed to know her pain was to be relieved, and she courted dental attention rather than repelled it. So after an hour's hard work the cavity was treated with chisels and mallet, the jaws being held apart meanwhile with large wooden blocks. The cavity was sprayed with a cooling solution and filled with amalgam.

FATAL KICK FROM HORSE

Men Scuffling Fell Near Animal and Accident Followed.

Niagara Falls, Nov. 28.—Edward Lowrey, the wealthy proprietor and manager of the Queenston Quarry Company, St. David's, has been unconscious since last Monday from the result of a supposed kick of a horse, he received in his stable at the quarry.

Mr. Lowrey has not been conscious long enough to say how he received the blow, and the doctors hold but little hope for his recovery.

The story told by John McGee, who was in the employ of Mr. Lowrey, is that there was an argument started between Mr. Lowrey and himself over some work he was to do. McGee refused to do this work and the refusal resulted in a scuffle during which both men slipped to the ground. Lowrey fell near the horse's feet, and while attempting to rise was kicked by the horse.

Robert Orr, another hired man, confirmed the story of McGee.

Both these men were arrested. They made lengthy statements to the Rev. Dr. McGee, who was allowed to go, but Orr was held on a charge of assaulting Mr. Lowrey with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

One of the doctors does not believe that Lowrey's injuries were caused by a blow struck with a hard, blunt instrument.

JOHN D. AND RELIGION

Is Accused of Trying to Undermine Christianity.

New York, Nov. 28.—John D. Rockefeller's most needed contribution to religion, according to the Rev. Dr. Oscar Haywood, of this city, is words not money. Such an expression of his, Dr. Haywood contends, would do more than anything else to equalize religious differences and establish a broad bond of brotherhood.

"Rockefeller has the brain of Caesar, and unlimited moral influence," said the clergyman during his sermon at the Church of the Covenant today. "Then let our most conspicuous man of wealth define his position with reference to evangelical Christianity."

WARNING

Since its introduction into Canada the sales of Parisian Sage have been phenomenal. This success has led to many imitations similar in name. Look out for them; they are not the genuine. See that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. You can always get the genuine at W. T. Strong's.

Parisian Sage is the quickest acting and most efficient hair tonic in the world.

It is made to conform to Dr. Santerbon's (of Paris) proven theory that dandruff, falling hair, baldness, and scalp itch are caused by germs. Parisian Sage kills these dandruff germs and removes all trace of dandruff in two weeks, or money back; it stops falling hair and itching scalp and prevents baldness.

And remember that baldness is caused by dandruff germs, those little hard-working persistent devils that day and night do nothing but dig into the roots of the hair and destroy its vitality.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and any woman who desires luxuriant and bewitching hair can get it in two weeks by using it. 50 cents a large bottle.

BRIDE'S VICTORY DUE TO CONSPIRACY

Scandalous Methods of Conservative Machine Also Helped a Lot.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 27. — The Meridian Government, as a result of its victory in the general election of yesterday, has got an unwelcome surprise. It is not in the best interest of the country that the Opposition has been practically wiped out. There will be only five members of the Opposition, three Liberals and two Socialists. Many prominent Conservatives express the view that there is no guarantee that ill-digested legislation will not be passed.

Mr. John Oliver, leader of the Liberals, who went down to defeat, will robably retire from politics. He says that such an overwhelming victory for the Conservatives is the result of a huge conspiracy which has been hatching for months to hand the province over to the tender mercies of railway corporations, who stand to benefit from Mr. McBride's policy as announced.
The Conservative machine resorted to scandalous methods in herding the vulnerable voters to the polls. The theory that the C. P. R. conspired at McBride's triumph in co-operation with Mackenzie & Mann, and that the Canadian Northern deal was entered by the C. P. R. is now universally accepted.

CREWE ON SUFFRAGETTES

Says Those Who Have Suffrage Show Little Interest in Politics.

London, Nov. 27.—Speaking to a deputation from the Forward Suffrage Union, which waited on him at the blossom office recently, Lord Crewe admitted he had never regarded the expansion of the franchise to women as constituting a public danger. But his personal belief was that, so far as general politics were concerned, the necessity would not have any great effect. From the point of view of the liberal, he thought that many social and moral causes, such as temperance, could be definitely strengthened. On the other side causes which he did not himself favor, such as clericalism and denominational education, would lose some considerable access of strength. Yet in countries where women's suffrage had been granted little interest was taken in politics by the women qualified to vote.

"Speaking for myself," he continued, "I do not believe it is possible to make this question a definite issue at the next general election, even though the Government were unimpaired in their desire to do so. As you know, there are sharp differences of opinion within the ranks of the Government on the subject, and these differences are reflected by equally sharp divisions in Parliament."

Lord Crewe went on to say that he was convinced that if the question were put to the House of Commons it would stand the cause of women's suffrage would be beaten by a very large majority. Those holding office now, he was afraid, would say that women suffrage was a matter of importance, and would involve a distinct loss of strength to the Liberal party.

THE VERUNAS CREW.

Southampton, England, Nov. 27.—The crew of the tugboat "Verunas," which was recently wrecked off the Island of Madeira, arrived here today, with the exception of the captain, who is remaining in the vicinity of the wreck in the hope that some of the valuable board may be recovered.

TOO EASY FOR COMPANY

Detroit Council Says Street Railway Has Much Better of Contract.

Detroit, Nov. 27.—After a two weeks' trial of the scheme, by which the Detroit United Railway pays the city a rental of $300 per day for the use of certain streets over which the car lines are run, certain aldermen have reached the conclusion that the rental proposition is entirely "too easy," and an arrangement is now being perfected by which a new species of warfare will be inaugurated against the railway company. At next Tuesday's meeting of the city council, an ordinance will be introduced entirely rescinding the rental plan and substituting a straight "light-for-a-quarter" arrangement, which would put nearly every main artery of traffic in the city on the same basis as the present three-cent lines, the franchise of which have yet several years to run.
In the event of the Detroit United Railway refusing to operate cars on this basis an attempt will be made to force the company to pay $2,000 or $3,000 per day rental, or deny it the right to bring its interurban cars over the city lines where franchises have expired. This latter proposition will be offered as a temporary arrangement, pending a final settlement. The new flank movement is headed by Ald.
Glinn, backed by City Clerk Nichols.
Glinn says he has already been promised a safe majority vote by the council on the question.

The gross earnings of the Detroit United Railways for the city year of 1909 were in the close vicinity of $1,000,000 more than the gross of 1908.

AVIATION PILOTS

Glen Curtiss and the Wright Bros.
Represent Aero Club.

New York, Nov. 27.—The board of directors of the Aero Club of America has named Glen H. Curtiss, Orville Wright and Wilbur Wright as the aviation pilots of the club. In order to prevent indiscriminate flying as members of the organization, a set of rules and regulations has been framed governing the issuance of licenses to aviation pilots. In order to be eligible applicants must be over 21 years of age and must prove to the satisfaction of the board of directors that they have made three flights of at least one kilometer each. Flights must be made under the general supervision of the contest committee, and the board of directors will have discretionary powers in passing on all applications.

Application may be made in writing to the board of directors for a license as aviation pilot by any member over 21 years of age. The board of directors will, without assuming any responsibility for themselves or for the Aero Club of America, issue a license as aviation pilot on such application when the applicant is fully qualified, and when they are satisfied that his methods of flight are reasonably prudent and safe, and that he is a person of such sound judgment and discretion as to entitle him to assume such responsibility; or they may in their discretion refuse to grant such license.

RYCKMAN—KING

Interesting Social Event at Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King, Lambeth.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 24th inst., a very enjoyable social event transpired at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King, Lambeth, the occasion being the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Marian Bertha, to Mr.
Heber Ryckman, of Delaware. By special request the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. John S. Fisher, an old friend of the contracting parties, assisted by Rev. A. C. Tiffin, pastor of the Methodist Church. The wedding March was played by Miss Gladys Vandermarde, of London.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of white batiste trimmed with French Valenciennes lace and Swiss embroidery, and carried a shower bouquet of ferns, roses and lilies of the valley, and a wreath in her hair. The couple were unattended. The bride's going-away dress was a taupe, with black hat and trimmings. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl bow-pin and to the bride's gift to the groom was a pearl necktie.

About fifty guests were present from London, Galt, St. Thomas, Tillsonburg, and other places, most of whom were relatives. Ample justice was done to the choice viands, and the evening invitingly spread on the tables. A very pleasant social evening was spent in conversation, interspersed and enlivened by music, and many choice and mirthful numbers on the graphophone by Mr. Frank Dore, of Westminster.

The many gifts, both useful and ornamental, including a check for $100 from an uncle, testified to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

BROKE LIQUOR LAWS.

Bowmanville, Nov. 28. — Lena B.
Crawford, through her lawyer, D. B.
Simpson, K. C., pleaded guilty today to selling spirituous liquor Nov. 20 in violation of the liquor laws, and was fined $60 and $7.75 costs or two months at hard labor. Provincial Officer Rev. John A. Aycarst, was the prosecutor. W. J. Martin pleaded guilty to a charge of unlawfully keeping intoxicating liquors for sale. The case was adjourned for a week.

TARIFF PROBLEM TO TEST

President Realizes Importance of Decision on Maximum

MAY REPEAL CLAUSE

Executive Promises He Will Take No Action Until He Hears All Sides, and at Last Moment.

Washington, Nov. 28.—With each arriving member of congress from the districts lying adjacent to the Canadian frontier, or in which the inhabitants are especially interested in the foreign trade of the country, President Taft is receiving additional information of the fear of a tariff war with Canada.

It is not too much to say that many of the business interests dealing with Canada are afloat over this question, and that the anxiety runs across the country from Boston and New York to Seattle.

Taft is listening with great patience to all the members who submit information on the subject, and he is promising that he will not say his final word as to the application of the maximum rates to Canada without exhaustive investigation.

May Favor Repeal.

Some have urged him to stand for the repeal of the maximum clause, and nothing else. These he has not discouraged. On the contrary, he has promised to give that form of remedy the fullest consideration, and he has thus raised the hope that this is what he will do in the end.

But he has also said that he would not make up his mind until he had an opportunity to look at the matter from every possible angle.

If he can find a reasonable way to avoid inflicting the maximum rates on Canada it will not be necessary to repeal the maximum clause, of course.
But it is feared by many—and he himself fears it—that he cannot do this.
The pending treaty between France and Canada, if consummated, will be the chief stumbling block. On the other hand, if the maximum rate of 25 per cent ad valorem is added to the regular rates of the Payne act, the duties will become so high that practically all shipment of Canadian products to this country will cease, or at the best be very greatly restricted.

Lumber Source of Worry.

Thus, much of the Canadian hostility toward the Dingley law was due to the $2 rate on rough lumber. What, then, will be the Canadian frame of mind, if it is asked, if the maximum rate is applied and the duty on rough lumber is made to range from $4 to $15 per thousand feet? If the $2 duty carried by the Dingley law is added to the Canadian provinces to prohibit the export of savings it is feared that a greater duty will lead the same province to prohibit the export of all unfinished products of the forest, and the Dominion Government at the same time will accede to the popular demand for reprisals by raising the duty on American products of every name and nature.

Trade Increasing.

It is conceded that the solution of this question will thoroughly test the statesmanship of the President.

In the meantime the trade between this country and Canada is fast increasing on the high speed, after the occasional dip of the depression of 1907.
The imports from Canada during October were $3,924,452 as against $1,616, 128 for the same month last year. For the ten months ending with October they were $70,107,698, and for the same period of 1908 they were $57,743,537. The exports to the Dominion show the same vigorous increase. During October they were $19,000,000, and for the same period of 1908 they were $13,328, 852. For the 10-month period this year they reached the figure of $200, 260,759, while the same period last year stood at $128,035,962.

A FAIR BUDGET

Made to Relieve Galled Taxpayer, Says Mr. Birrell.

London, Nov. 27.—Speaking at Llandudno on the budget a few days ago, Mr. Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, said the budget had emerged from the House of Commons supported by a huge, unprecedented and gigantic majority. By the ancient law and custom and constitution of this country that budget was already the accredited law of the land, and all it waited for now, if the constitution was properly regarded, was that the non-representative chamber should register it as the will of the people and allow it to take its place upon the statute book.

The budget had undergone many changes in order to ease the galled back of the taxpayer. Wherever he had winced and groined under the weight of justice, he had been relieved. Cartloads of straw and tons of cotton-wool had been applied to the sore places. The budget had come out of a fiery and prolonged ordeal.
It had received the confirmation of the representatives of the people, and if the law and custom of this country were not to be ruthlessly regarded it would and it must become law.

"Who are the House of Lords? At present the House of Peers are permanent non-elected members of the Tory party."

"I have no objection to a Tory if he is elected, provided he has not adopted violent methods in securing his return. We will take our chance of any Tory majority in the House of Commons, but the House of Lords are permanent Tories, who are there, and whom you cannot turn out."

MANN FEARS TARIFF WAR

Will Present Several Measures on the Subject to Congress.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Congressman Mann, who was chairman of the special committee on wood pulp and print paper of the last Congress, but who was overruled by Congress in the final passage of the tariff law, takes the position that the country may well be alarmed at the danger of a tariff war with Canada, growing out of the new rates on wood pulp and print paper.
Mr. Mann has prepared for introduction to Congress next month several measures relating to the subject. One is a joint resolution to postpone the application of the maximum tariff from April 1 next to January, 1911. Another resolution provides that the maximum tariff shall be held not to apply to wood pulp and print paper imported from Canada.

MUST PASS BUDGET OR LOSE COLONIES

Ure, Lord Advocate, Says Canadians Would Lose Respect For Britain Otherwise.

London, Nov. 28.—Mr. Ure, the lord-advocate, in speaking at St. Paul's, said that if the people stood for the rejection of the budget they would lose the colonies, for the colonies would only cling to the mother country as long as they had respect for her. They would have none for the mother country which surrendered control of its own finances.

EXPRESS STEAL SUSPECT ARRESTED AT DETROIT

Was a Ticket-of-Leave Man and Was "Burning" Up a Lot of Money.

Detroit, Nov. 28.—In the arrest here of James Wilson, alias Samuel Spencer, the police believe they have captured one of the men who robbed the depot express office in Niagara Falls, Ont., of $14,000, three weeks ago.

The description of the man wanted at Niagara Falls tallies with Wilson, and a photograph of the prisoner who was sent to the Canadian city in an effort to establish complete identification. Wilson, or Spencer, confessed yesterday afternoon that he is a ticket-of-leave man from the Kingston penitentiary, and should nothing else be fastened on him he will be sent back to Canada to serve another year, as he was carrying a concealed weapon, a big revolver, when arrested here. "For God's sake, don't send me back to Canada," pleaded the man. "Let me plead guilty to carrying a gun in the Detroit courts and I will pay my fine."

Wilson sprinkled his money around Detroit like water. One of the women he met owed a $20 bill in a Woodward avenue jewelry store. He not only paid that, but bought her a diamond ring to boot, and then wanted to marry her. She declined, and he flourished the gun, declaring that she would have to.

Detectives Wells and Smith, of Toronto, and a clerk in the express office at Niagara Falls named Dobson, who was struck down by one of the thugs, was in Detroit yesterday. Dobson could not positively identify the prisoner. The detectives did not recognize him as the man whom they were seeking.

Information received by the police yesterday, stated that Wilson enlisted in the British army under the name of Spencer. He owned some land in Ontario which he sold. He was released from prison Nov. 10, having served two and a half years for larceny. Because Wilson fought desperately when arrested, he will be held pending the continuance of an investigation into his past.

TEMPERANCE SUNDAY IN THE QUEEN CITY

Sermons From Scores of Pulpits and Platform Demand the Abolition of Bar.

Toronto, Nov. 28.—"The barroom has gone," this was, in effect, the proclamation delivered from scores of pulpits and platforms in the city today, the world's temperance Sunday.

Locally it was the field day of the Dominion Alliance, the local body of declarations of continued unflinching warfare against the liquor trade. There were not wanting, however, plain intimations from a number of speakers that they who war on the liquor trade must take steps to assist in substituting for the barrooms as a social gathering place, with liquor as its real stimulus, places where tired toilers may gather for mutual recreation, help and social discourse.

A feature of today was Mayor Oliver's opinion that the provincial Liberal convention in 1910 should adopt as one of the planks of its platform the abolition of the bar, and his statement that otherwise he would give his allegiance to a party that would adopt such a plank.

Among the places where temperance sermons were preached and temperance addresses delivered from the pulpits or platforms were 28 Anglican churches, 25 Methodist, 25 Presbyterian, 22 Baptist, 12 Salvation Army barracks, and in 18 churches of other than the denominations named.

OLD LAND ENTERS ON CRITICAL WEEK

General Elections Campaign May Be On Within Few Days.

IF ASQUITH PROROGUES

Viscount Morley and Lord Curzon to Carry on the Budget Debate Today.

London, Nov. 28.—The coming week will be memorable in the parliamentary annals of Great Britain. A majority of the Lords, despite the warnings of such experienced politicians as Lord Rosebery and Lord Balfour of Burleigh, have decided to withhold their consent to the budget, and it is a foregone conclusion the finance measures will be carried by a large majority. But while the result is foreseen, interest in the debate remains undiminished, and the speeches to be delivered on Monday and Tuesday preceding are eagerly anticipated.

Viscount Morley, secretary of state for India, will reopen the discussion when the House of Lords convenes tomorrow, and he will be followed by Lord Curzon, formerly Viceroy of India, providing the latter has recovered then from his illness. Then the financiers will have their say, Lord Rothschild speaking on behalf of the Unionists, and Lord Swaythling for the Liberals. Earl Cawdor and the Earl of Crewe will make the principal speeches on Tuesday.

Burleigh's Amendment. With all the leaders out of town for the week-end, there have been no further developments in the situation, and the discussions in the press and about town are confined to conjecture as to what course the Government will take. It is certain that Premier Asquith the day after the Lords have decided on the question, will give notice of a motion affirming the uncontrolled right of the House of Commons in respect to financial matters. There is a possibility that Lord Balfour of Burleigh will reply to this with an amendment proposing that a change in the system of taxation of such importance should be referred to the people.

The premier's motion, of course, will prevail, and then it will be up to the Government to decide whether the House shall be prorogued or merely adjourned. The decision of the Government in the matter will be of the greatest importance so far as the finances of the country are concerned, as the only authority now existing for the collection of the income tax, the duty on tea and the increased duties on spirits and tobacco rests on the resolutions passed immediately after the introduction of the budget. If Parliament is prorogued these resolutions will come to an end, and the collection of taxes will have to stop. If adjournment only is determined upon, resolutions will continue in force, and taxes can be collected up to the time of dissolution.

The campaign throughout the country will be begun in earnest as soon as the chambers have been adjourned. Great meetings of both parties have already been arranged at all the big centres, and thousands of speakers and canvassers are prepared to start the work, which will be continued, except during the Christmas holidays, until the last vote has been polled.

Hot Water Bottles replaced the warming pans and foot stones of our grandparents; now even the old-fashioned cemented water bag is out of date; they won't stand hot water anyway. The WALPOLE HOT WATER BOTTLE, newly patented, all one piece of rubber, is the only one sold which will stand boiling hot water. They are guaranteed for two years. Sold by all first-class druggists.

THE N. S. MINE STRIKE

Strike at Glace Bay Reported Broken, But No Change at Springfield.

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The deputy minister of labor, who investigated conditions in Nova Scotia, relative to the coal strikes at the coal mines, says: "That the strike at Glace Bay appears to be practically broken, but military force is likely to be retained for some time to come."

"At Inverness the strike is still more definitely broken, and military protection is still considered advisable. There is a considerable number of men on the United Mine Workers' relief lists. "At Springfield no attempt is made to work the mine, and operations are apparently at a standstill for an indefinite period, with the promise of worse results to the industry and community concerned."

We Cannot Improve It

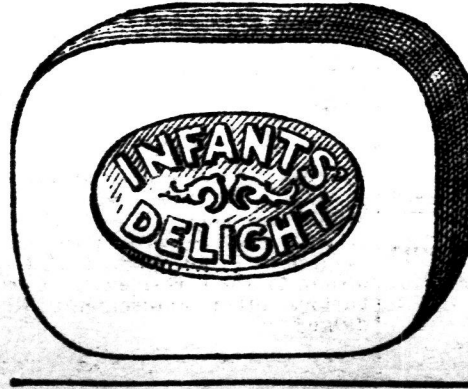

Taylor's Infants' Delight represents over forty-three years of constant effort along one line—the effort to make a perfect soap.

A liberal reward is waiting for any one who can tell us how to improve it in the slightest. We ourselves believe it to be perfect and can conceive of no way of improving it. The choicest oils from the Orient enter into its composition—olive oil from the first pressing of selected fruits—cocoanut oil, the best the market affords, and that refined with extra care—and with all this just sufficient otto of roses—that choicest perfume from the Sultan's Domain—to impart a delicate, wholesome fragrance to the skin. In

we have produced a soap so mild and soothing—so wonderfully cleansing and healing, that it is universally used in homes of wealth and refinement where the best is considered none too good for the toilet.

We ask you to try at least one bar and know that we have not exaggerated its goodness.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

LONDON PRICES AND TORONTO'S COMPARED

With the Result That Living Is Shown To Be Very Fair Here.

While London housewives are spending a lot of valuable time complaining of the high prices on the local market, Toronto people have adopted a grimmer and more realistic attitude. In this fair city the price of food is reasonable in comparison, the farmers extracting but due to a dozen.

Poultry in the Queen City is higher all round than in London, while apples are going at a price much higher than in the local square.

Any person here with one in his clothes can buy a lot of "spuds" and may get a nickel change, but not so in Toronto by the lake. The 7c is what the work farmer demands.

Some say that short measure is the rule in London, but the men who do business in the Provincial capital probably know a few tricks of the trade, too.

Chickens, dressed, per lb. 15 to 17
Ducks, dressed, per lb. 15 to 17
Geese, dressed, per lb. 15 to 17
Pigeons, dressed, per pair 20 to 25
Butter, per lb. 25 to 27
Eggs, per dozen 25 to 27
Apples, all kinds, per bushel 15 to 20
Potatoes, all kinds, per bushel 15 to 20
Sweet potatoes, small basket 25 to 30
Cranberries, 2 quarts 25 to 30
Spanish onions, per lb. 15 to 20 Citrus, each 15 to 20
Grapefruit, 4 for 25 to 30
Oranges, per lb. 15 to 20

The above table shows that London is not such a bad place to live in after all, without Sunday car.

On the market, this morning, live hogs were purchased from $7.49 to $7.59 per cwt.

Annual Reunion.

The annual reunion of the young Scotchmen of the city was held Friday evening in Cullis' Hall. Over 50 couples thoroughly enjoyed a splendid programme of Scotch and Canadian dances. At 12 o'clock a splendid lunch was served. The Scotch selections of the piper in Cowie's Orchestra, Mr.
James Hamilton, were greatly enjoyed.
The committee who had charge of the successful affair were Jack Grant, G.
Ferrier and A. Chivas.

Farewell to Mrs. Squires.

A number of friends gathered at the residence of Mr. T. D. Geary, Base Line, to say farewell to his sister, Mrs.
Squires, on the eve of her departure for England, after a pleasant five months' visit in Canada. The presents she received showed the esteem in which her friends held her during her visit here. After supper the party enjoyed themselves with cards, games and music, the latter being furnished by Mr. Frank Tilbury. A pleasant number was a saxophone solo "I Dreamed a Dream" after which Mr. Tilbury played "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Mrs. Squires sails on the Empress of Britain Dec. 3.

Lamb—Headley.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Headley, 148 Charles street, Stratford, on Wednesday, Nov. 24, when her youngest daughter, Evelyn Victoria, became the bride of Mr. Walter Joseph Lamb.
Rev. W. T. Cluff presided over the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. H. Chip-penden, of St. Thomas, was prettily gowned in her travelling dress of taupe grey with extra waist and train to match, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was Miss Mabel Bateman, cousin of the bride, while Mr. Marvin Patton supported the groom. At the close of the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner, after which the young couple left on the 5:25 train for St. Thomas. Guests were present from London, St. Thomas, St. Marys and Waterloo. The couple were the recipients of many beautiful tokens of good-will and esteem.

Sermon on Strength.

Rev. Canon Brown, rector, of Paris, preached to young people at St. Paul's Cathedral last evening from the text,
"The glory of a young man is his strength." Strongly, he pointed out, is an attribute of youth. The child does not possess it nor do the old. Success in life depends upon physical, moral and spiritual strength. No young person should waste his or her Hennessey—Glavin.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Peter's Church, Mel-bourn, 23, when Miss Gertrude, second daughter of Mrs. John Glavin, became the bride of Mr. Augustus Hennessey, a prosperous young farmer near Centralia. Promptly at 10 o'clock, to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lo-henrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, advanced to the altar.
Miss Clara, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Cecil McIlhenny, of Lucan, and the ushers were Mr.
Thomas Nagle, of St. Marys, and Mr.
Alphonsus McIlhenny, of Elginfield.
After the ceremony the young couple repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous repast was partaken of. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful fur-lined coat, with muff to match, and to the bridesmaid a ring, set with topaz, and to the groomsmen and ushers gold cuff links, with monogram inscribed.
Mr. and Mrs. Hennessey left on the 5:20 o'clock train for Niagara and other points, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm.

casions. Hueston's Livery.

JOE PALADINO DEAD
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Popular Theatre Man Succumbs to Effects of Injury Received Years Ago.

The death of Mr. Joseph Paladino occurred at 7:30 yesterday morning at his home, 510 Talbot street. Mr. Paladino had been ill for some time, and for nearly five months had been confined to his bed. Mr. Paladino was born in Italy 43 years ago, and came to this city with his parents when he was 6 years of age.

While in Cleveland, some years ago, he received an injury to his knee, from which complications arose, eventually causing his death. In 1892 he became the treasurer for C. J. Whitney at the Academy of Music, now the Princess Theatre, which position he held for that and the following season. On the death of Mr. Whitney he entered the employ of E. J. Stair as treasurer of the Lyceum at Detroit. He remained in Detroit five years, and later spent nine years in Cleveland. Three years ago, when Bennett's theatre was opened, Mr. Paladino became the treasurer, and remained in that position until ill-health forced him to resign. Later he conducted a tobacco store on Talbot street, until he was compelled to take to his bed.

Mr. Paladino is survived by his wife and mother, his brother Lou, of this city, and five sisters, Mrs. Frank Penech, London; Mrs. Gui Lombardo, London; Mrs. J. J. Steffens, Cleveland; Mrs. Caravella, Buffalo, and Sarah, at home. Miss Grace Paladino, who died very suddenly a short time ago, was also a sister.

The funeral was a member of the Theatrical Mechanics' Association of Cleveland and of the Elks' Lodge, No.
30, Detroit.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. from his late residence to St. Peter's Cemetery, and at 9 o'clock a requiem high mass will be celebrated in St. Peter's Cathedral.

THE PIANO FOR THE HOME

New Scale Williams Piano is especially suited to the home.

How long a piano will last, should not be the only question to be decided, but it should be carefully considered.

As a rule, only one piano is bought in a lifetime, that durability and permanency of tone and action, are even more important than design and finish.

The New Scale Williams Piano has a national reputation for its unequalled durability of tone, touch and finish.

If you are going to buy a Piano, at least see the new designs of New Scale Williams at London Branch, 261 Dundas Street.
