- Wholly unpaid letters for or from the United Kingdom or other countries are charged double postage on delivery, and insufficiently prepaid letters double the deficiency.
- Letters addressed to mere initials, to fictitious names, will not be delivered unless a street address, the number of a box or some other definite direction is added.
- Letters bearing mutilated stamps or stamps so soiled and defaced as to make it impossible for the sorting clerks to decide whether they have been used before or not will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.
- Postal Cards—Nothing whatever may be attached to a postal card, nor may it be cut or altered in any way. A previously used post card, bearing a one cent stamp will not be accepted as a post card.

Useful Hints about Mailing Letters.

- Transmit money by Money Orders.
- Make complaints and enquiries in writing.
- Preserve and request correspondents to preserve envelopes of mis-aent or delayed letters.

- Business men should be careful to authorize but a limited number of persons to receive their letters and only those in whom they have full confidence.
- Report promptly to the Postmaster or at the Enquiry Office undelivered letters or other mail matter.
- Letters and papers should be addressed to the street and number at which they are to be delivered.
- Notice of change or residence should be promptly given to the Postmaster in writing, and renewed at the end of three months or it will then lapse.
- In addressing letters, add the name of the county in which the Postoffice addressed is situated; if to a city, add street and number.
- Letters to the United States should be addressed to the State as well as to the Postoffice
- A letter addressed to a particular street will be taken out by the letter carrier and not delivered at the wicket unless returned by the letter carrier.
- A letter or packet once posted becomes the property of the person to whom addressed, and must be forwarded to its destination. On no application, however urgent, can it be delivered back to the sender.

Victoria Gardens—A pleasure resort on the Gorge road.

Cordova Bay }

Cadboro Bay }

Mount Tolmie Park—Probably the finest view of Victoria and surrounding country can be had from the top of Mount Tolmie, and the drive there is a delightful one.

Rock Bay—On the road to Esquimalt.

Esquimalt—No visitor should fail to pay a visit to the British naval station, where the Dominion Government have built an immense dry-dock, 400 feet in length, 28 in depth, and 90 wide at the entrance. There are always several men-of-war lying in Esquimalt harbor, and visitors are not only allowed on board, but every attention paid to them in showing them over the ships. It can be reached in fifteen minutes by tram car, but the drive by hack will also be found most enjoyable.

Outer Wharf—Where ocean steamers land will repay a visit.

Indian Reserve—A large number of Indians are generally camped on this reserve, which is situated on the west side of the harbor.

Agricultural Grounds—Contain a fine exposition building. The electric cars run out to the grounds.

Caledonia Park—Is used daily during the summer months for athletic sports.

Shawnigan Lake—Is a delightful spot on the E. & N. Railway, and is well worth a trip. There is a hotel, pleasure boats and good fishing in the lake.

Duncan's—Is another place worthy of a visit, there being excellent fishing in the neighborhood. In fact, a couple or three days can be well spent in visiting one or two of the beautiful places on the E. & N. R. R. line. The scenery along the road at several points is grand.

Goldstream—Also on the E. & N. R. R. line, where there is a comfortable hotel and good fishing.

Saanich (North and South)—The drive out the Saanich road is one of the most beautiful in the neighborhood of Victoria.
