PREFACE.

In presenting our numerous and esteemed Patrons with this, the third Edition of our Gazetteer and Directory of the Southern Division of the Grand Trunk Railway we hope it will meet with their approval. A personal canvass of the Cities, Towns and Villages on the entire line by men thoroughly versed in the business has been made, and no time or expense spared to make it a first class work in every respect. The Business directory is classed with reference to business, and arranged alphabetically by towns.

The Gazetteer of Cities, Towns, Villages and Railway Stations is complete and reliable, having been obtained from reliable sources.

To our Patrons and those who have voluntarily furnished information we return our thanks.

We also thank the officials of the Southern Division of the Grand Trunk Railway for their favors and encouragement.

Respectfully yours,

NIAGARA FALLS.

A station at the eastern terminus of the main line and a thriving incorporated town in the township of Stamford County of Welland, 17 miles northeast of Welland the county seat. It contains four churches, public, high and separate schools, a bank and two weekly newspapers. Situated on the bank of the Niagara River, two miles below the famous Niagara Falls, it is a great summer resort from which the principal portion of the business is derived. The river at this point is spanned by the magnificent Suspension and Cantelever bridges by which connections are made with the American system of Railway. The M C R R also has a station here, The Canadian and American Express, C P R and G N W Telegraph and Bell Telephone companies have agencies here. Lighted by electric light. Street cars run to Niagara Falls south. Population about 3,500

TORONTO BRANCH.

FROM TORONTO TO HAMILTON

:o:

TORONTO.

The terminus of the Toronto and Hamilton line, and the largest city in the Province, is situated on a bay of Lake Ontario, which forms an excellent harbor and adds very materially to the city both in regard to beauty and commerce. The shipping facilities cannot be surpassed. The following lines of railways have stations, and connections are made with the Grand Trunk Railway main line east and west, the Midland division of the G. T. Ry north-east and east; the Canadian Pacific Railway, all divisions, for the east, west and north-west; and the Northern & North Western Railway for the north and south; and during the period of navigation with boats for all points on the great lakes and the river St Lawrence. Manufacturing in all branches are extensively carried on and nearly every branch of trade is represented. The city is making more rapid progress than any other city in Canada as will easily be seen from the increase since 1875 beingover 40,000. There are at present over 75 incorporated companies doing business in the city. Loan and Insurance Companies and Banks being included. The churches are a very conspicuous feature of the city as there is somewhere in the neighborhood of 125 places of worship in the city. It has 24 Public, and a number of separate, and Normal and Model Schools, and no less than 40 Colleges and other private Institutions. The Government and city buildings include The Government House, Custom House, Central Prison, Mercer Reformatory and Insane Asylum. The Dominion, American, Canadian and Vickers' Express Companies have offices here. The G N. W. and C. P R. Telegraph Cos, have a number of offices through the city. Population about 170,000
