Street Fighting Follows Seizure of Town Hall In Germany

FRANCE ACCEPTS HELP FROM U. S.

SEPARATIST FORCES ARE IN CHARGE

Several Wounded in Street Fighting at Aix La Chapelle.

SHOPS PLUNDERED

Raiders Help Themselves to Supplies After Smashing Stores.

(By Canadian Press.) Cologne, Nov. 2.—The town hall at Aix La Chapelle and the government building where the Rhineland republic was proclaimed twelve days ago, are again in the hands of separatist forces, according to word received here shortly before ten a. m. today.

Men under Leo Deckers, separatist leader, reinforced by separatists from Coblenz and Duren, seized the buildings this morning, the advance state.

According to word telephoned here, the seizure of the town hall was accompanied by street fighting in which a number of separatists were wounded.

An unverified report said the separatists were plundering the shops in Aix La Chapelle which refused to open, the raiders helping themselves to the supplies they desired.

Building Defended. Aix La Chapelle, Nov. 2.—Fifteen hundred separatists, who arrived from Coblenz, Crefeld and Duisburg yesterday, are besieging the town hall, which they surrounded early today.

A force of firemen, military police and Communists defended the building, hurling bombs containing sulphuric acid at the separatists.

The separatists used dynamite, destroying several doors of the town hall. A lively fusillade was kept up. The situation as the morning wore on seemed to be growing more favorable to the separatists.

One German was killed and several others wounded by a Belgian officer during a disturbance at Erkelenz, a Rhineland town about 25 miles northeast of this city.

SAYS CANADA IS FLOODED WITH SCUM

Brigadier Gen. Hughes Claims of the Class of Immigrants Here.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—Canada was being flooded with the scum of the central European countries and something had to be done at once, if this country was to remain British, Brigadier Gen. Hughes, superintendent of penitentiaries in the Dominion told the Sons of England last night. The resources of Canada were the birthright of those whose forefathers had labored to build it and that birthright was now being usurped by foreigners. He was not an alarmist but knew the need for action existed after a careful survey of conditions.

The flying of the Union Jack on all public buildings should be made compulsory, he declared. There were towns and districts in the northwest where there was not an English speaking family for miles and where the flag was unknown.

Steadily the Latins and Slavs in Canada were getting an upper hand and forcing the British-born before them. The institutions of the country were filled with them, but there often for vote getting purposes and sections were being populated with them for political purposes. It was a serious question that must be faced. Canada needed British immigrants and politicians must be found for them here.

Not Excited About Countess Warwick

London, Nov. 2.—If the long famous society beauty, the Countess of Warwick, had been the pioneer statesman of England, the British newspapers would have been excited over her platform appearances in her campaign for a labor seat in the House of Commons. However, three women already hold seats in Parliament, and the candidacy of the Countess has aroused hardly more interest than if she were a male politician.

This publication observes that the committee's report finds the use of chemical agents was more humane and less dangerous than other methods of combat.

SCIENTISTS ARE RIVALS FOR PATENT

Stake is International Prestige and Betterment of Mankind.

NEW DIAGNOSIS PLAN

Western Ont. Univ. Doctor Perfects His; Michigan Man Speeds Up.

(By Canadian Press.) London, Ont., Oct. 2.—A race of stakes of which are international prestige and the betterment of mankind—is to be staged in the laboratories of two neighboring universities, one in the U. S. and the other in Canada. The former is the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, and the Canadian university in the University of Western Ontario here.

Dr. R. Waud, of Western University, has been successful, it is said, in perfecting an appliance and method of diagnosing diseases of the circulatory system of the body and also other diseases indicated in that system.

A patent has been applied for at Ottawa and steps are being taken to secure a patent in the U. S. When that is accomplished, if it is, the full details of what will work a revolution in certain phases of disease treatment will be published.

It is also definitely known scientists of the University of Michigan, backed by wealthy and long established institutions, resist, are working along similar lines in order that they may perfect a method similar to Dr. Waud's and secure the U. S. patent.

NOT A CEMETERY IN FRANCE FORGOTTEN

Canadians, as Well as Poles, Remembered on All Saints Today.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Commemorative services were held in the cemetery of the French in the town of Lachaux, a few miles from the town of Lachaux, on the occasion of All Saints Day, when the names of the fallen soldiers, and continuing to be remembered on the day of the war.

The Canadian war dead were not forgotten by the French, and many graves in the Canadian cemeteries were decorated.

Dynamite Calm In Railroad Smash

Joplin, Mo., Nov. 2.—Dashing wildly and unguided, three cars of dynamite careened along the track near Carl Junction, Mo., toward a St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train. Leaping from the cars the engine and passenger, as he applied the brakes, decided it would be a merry life while it lasted, which wouldn't be long.

The dynamite cars and the passenger train crashed. The engine, as the engine and train jumped, turned over in a ditch, and the dynamite cars tipped over. Before the flames, which wrapped the cars as they were ignited by the engine, reached the dynamite, the passenger train was pulled out of danger. It was very calm dynamite—almost philosophic.

WILD BILL SLAIN IN NEW YORK

Notorious Gangster, Bullet in Neck, Head Beaten In, Found in Shack.

KILLED IN SLEEP

Girl Wife of Outlaw Leader Seeks Him at Police Headquarters.

(By Canadian Press.) New York, Nov. 2.—"Wild Bill" Lovett, one of New York's most feared two-gun gangsters, who, though under arrest a score of times always escaped capture, died yesterday with a bullet wound in the neck and his head beaten to pulp. A policeman, prowling around a squalid, weather-beaten tenement in the factory region under the shadow of Brooklyn bridge, found the gangster in a rear room where he had camped for the night to sleep off a drunk. Apparently the leader of the "White Hand" gang that for years had worked in the Red Hook district of Brooklyn, had been done to death in his slumber.

The police made no secret of the measure of relief brought them by the passing of the notorious gangster in the last few months. With the slaying of Lovett was recalled the dramatic end of "Kid" Dropper, shot to death by an enemy recently when he was leaving a court house under heavy police guard after being arraigned in a gangster's case. But with Mrs. Anna Lovett, 37-year old wife, it is different. For some time, a few months ago, she had been told in headlines that she had married Lovett in one of the brief intervals when he was not being guarded by the police and just after her mother, Mrs. Mary Longan, had been arrested yesterday he was staying in Brooklyn overnight with a friend.

She refused to name the friend or say how she received a hint that anything was wrong with her husband. Bursting into police headquarters, her first question was: "Is my husband, Bill Lovett here? Is he in trouble?"

The suit states that March 8, last, Mrs. Gould deposited the $1,000,000 in the trust fund, subject to his orders. Since then Mrs. Gould alleges interest coupons have matured and should have been collected by the trustees.

A series of affidavits was read during the first session of the trial. Affidavits by Mrs. Helen K. These affidavits were signed prior to Mrs. Steele taking court action, it was said.

Another affidavit sworn to by E. J. Jones, former cashier of the Klan, charged that Dr. H. W. Evans, Imperial Wizard, purchased fourteen carloads of one issue of a newspaper published by Mayfield in Texas, and had copies mailed to Klans throughout the nation. COMMISSION ASKED TO PROBE WHEAT DUTY WITH VIEW TO INCREASING IT

Washington, Nov. 2.—Formal application to the United States tariff commission for an investigation looking to an increase in the tariff duty on wheat as a means of aiding producers of the northwest was made yesterday by Representative Anderson, Republican, Minnesota, who is president of the wheat council of the U. S.

"In view of the facts with respect to the Government here and in Canada," said Mr. Anderson's letter to Mr. Marvin, "it does not seem to me to be necessary to extend an investigation. The unusual conditions existing this year necessitate prompt action by your commission if the unusual differences in the cost of production are to be covered by adequate duties."

INSISTS ON REPARATION PAYMENTS

France Determined Inquiry Shall Bear On Capacity to Pay.

RESERVE RIGHTS

Reply to British Note was Handed to Embassy Yesterday.

(By Canadian Press.) Paris, Nov. 2.—France accepts with cordiality the contemplated collaboration of the U. S. in a conference of experts to study Germany's capacity to pay reparations. She demands, however, that it should be clearly understood that the proposed inquiry should bear solely on the "present" capacity of Germany and that it should respect all the rights held by the reparations commission under the treaty of Versailles.

This is the substance, it was learned today, of the reply which France has made to the British note of October 31, asking her to join Italy, Belgium and Great Britain in a collective invitation to the U. S. to be represented at the proposed conference. The reply was handed to the British embassy yesterday. Its text was not made public.

Four Countries Invited. Brussels, Nov. 2.—As soon as the British, French, Belgian and Italian Governments have agreed upon its text, a joint invitation to the experts for an inquiry on reparations is to be delivered simultaneously at Washington by the diplomatic representatives of the four inviting countries. This probably will be Saturday morning.

Confidence Increases. London, Nov. 2.—Increasing confidence is felt in Government quarters here over the prospects for the early opening of a meeting of a special reparations committee on which an American economic expert will sit. In the exchange of views which is proceeding between London and Paris, respecting the terminology of the collective Allied invitation to the U. S. Premier Poincare, it is learned, shows a perceptible desire to soften some of the restrictions he has already set forth.

LAWYERS HAVE OWN CASES REVIEWED

Bring Auto Speeding Matters Before Judge Barry in County Court.

Three interesting items of review of cases in which convictions on auto speeding charges had been secured in the police court of the city and Lancaster, came before Judge Barry in the County Court this morning.

The first case was that in which William R. Scott asked for a review of the decision of Magistrate Allingham, who had fined Mr. Scott $10 on a charge of exceeding the speed limit in Rotherly avenue on Sept. 2. Mr. Scott in his affidavit said that the magistrate had refused to hear his defence and that he was not guilty of the charge, as he was not in Rotherly avenue on the day in question.

W. M. Ryan, representing Magistrate Allingham, took objection, arguing that the return of the court showed the note "No defence" and the defendant had no right to attack this by affidavit.

After some argument it was decided, with the consent of all concerned, that the case would go back to allow Mr. Scott to present his defence. Tonight at eight o'clock was agreed upon.

In the second case, Mr. Scott appeared in behalf of Oliver W. Wood, who asked a review of his case, in which a fine of $10 had been imposed by Magistrate Allingham on a similar charge. The case was postponed for a day to allow Mr. Scott to procure an affidavit to the effect that a full and true copy of his case, in which a fine of $10 had been imposed by Magistrate Allingham on a similar charge, was presented to the court.

Mr. Ryan said that he had cautioned Mr. Scott about making the affidavit, but that he had prepared it the proper service had not been made and therefore dismissed the case.

Conviction Quashed. S. H. Hutton conducted his own case in the matter of a review of a case of exceeding the speed limit in city streets in which he had been convicted by Magistrate Henderson and fined $10. The charge he asked for a full and true copy of his case, in which a fine of $10 had been imposed by Magistrate Henderson on a similar charge.

FLORIDA CITY FIGHTS CROKER WILL

West Palm Beach Renews Claim for Alleged Civic Bequests.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Nov. 2.—Another fight is in prospect for Mrs. Bula Edmondson Croker, widow of the former Tammany chieftain, if she would hold the estate which she has successfully defended in suits brought by the Croker children, who were ignored in the document which the politician signed just before his death in Ireland.

This is prompted by the filing of a petition by Joseph Mendell, Mayor of West Palm Beach, and W. E. Mager, treasurer of the local Y. W. C. A., who obtained an order from Probate Judge Robbins instructing the First National Bank of West Palm Beach to hold an alleged trust will and testament of Richard Croker, with other papers which are in a safe deposit box within the bank, until the second week in November, when they are to be opened in court.

The will is alleged to contain a $50,000 bequest to St. Anne's Catholic Church, which is to be used for the purchase of a pipe organ with silver pipes; $100,000 to the National Democratic Club of New York City; $100,000 for the building of an auditorium on the lake front of West Palm Beach; several bequests to servants and friends here, and the residue to be equally divided among the Good Samaritan Hospital of West Palm Beach, the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

It is believed here that Mr. Croker loved West Palm Beach as much even as he loved "dear old Ireland." His investments here have been profitable, and when he died in Ireland this community felt that it had lost a friend and counselor.

The short will, dated in Ireland, which contained no provisions for institutions here in which he had always shown an interest, and also ignoring servants in his employ for many years, caused great surprise when it was filed for probate here three months after his death. A contest was instituted, but it did not reach the point of taking any testimony. The contest was suspended, it is said, because of the fight between the Croker children and the widow, local people interested in desiring to suspend action until that affair was settled.

WAIST LINE IS AGAIN IN STYLE

"Flare" Skirts Decried by London Experts of Women's Fabrics.

London, Nov. 2.—(Associated Press)—Smartly dressed women must wear "flare" skirts, modified leg-of-mutton sleeves, well defined waist lines, and must make up in "doll" fashion, according to London fashion experts.

The ultra-long skirts, so much in vogue during the last season, will be abandoned. The new circular, "flare" skirts are shorter in length than last year.

With the return of the flare to the dress, the waist line, so long ignored by fashion, reasserts itself, and the effect produced by skirt draperies that flare is further accentuated by the tendency of the upper portion of the blouse or corsage, to pouch slightly over the waist.

The leg-of-mutton skirt, an old style in which the upper part is large and the skirt close fitting, has been brought back to London dress-makers, and another effort will be made to popularize the high collar in being made.

Olive green will be predominant color this winter, say the fashion men-tors, with an autumnal shade of brown as second choice. Some dress-makers incline to soft Persian reds and vivid hues. Extraordinary embroideries, landscapes, zoological and carpet-like designs will be worn.

Decorations for some gowns. The new autumn and winter hats are made of moire satin, panne velvet, crepe, tulle, and felt. They may be trimmed with ribbon, feathers, ostrich tips, long ostrich plumes, or cock's feathers that sweep the neck.

There will be much black millinery brightened by trimmings of silver, gold and grey colors, but trimming will not be overdone. Neatness is a foremost quality of modern millinery, but it may develop into hardness, and then a well worn scarf of tulle, velvet or soft satin is a desirable corrective. Hats will not be light.

FERRY FIGURES. The ferry receipts for October were $65.45 in advance of last year despite a falling off in the number of passengers. The figures are: Passengers, 1922, $1,983.70; 1923, $1,957.99. The decrease in passengers was 5,105 all boats in October. Teams in October, 1922 were, $996.88; 1923, $778.04; increase of 998; in revenue $81.16. The total amount expended to date in 1923 is $85,184.48, as compared with $82,764.19 for the same period of 1922.

Deny Crown Prince Returns to Germany. Berlin, Nov. 2.—Reports that former Crown Prince Frederick William, called in Holland since the war, had returned to Germany, were in circulation this morning, finding publicity through the columns of the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung.

Inquiry, however, quickly brought out denials. Members of the Hohenzollern family at Potsdam declared there is no truth in the rumors, while at Oels, Upper Silesia, which he was reported to have reached, it was declared Frederick William had not arrived.

Frederick Star May Go To West. Fredericton, Nov. 2.—Fred McLean, former Fredericton policeman and hockey player, will probably sign a contract during the next few days to play for the Saskatoon Crescents in the Western Canada Hockey League.

"Nevev" Lalonde, who pilots the Saskatoon team, sent "feeler" to McLean recently, and since then negotiations have progressed to such an extent that it is probable a contract will be signed during the next few days, calling for a salary and bonuses, which will make more generous remuneration for the big fellow than he would have received for a whole year's work as a policeman here.

FIRPO GETS INVITATION TO FIGHT A GIANT

Out of Bolivia Comes Camacho, an Indian Seven-foot-two High.

Buenos Aires, Nov. 2.—Luis Angel Firpo has been invited to fight a Bolivian Indian giant who in make up is declared to resemble the descriptions given by the naturalists of the "ape man." With height of seven feet two inches and an arm spread of eight feet together with a formidable punch and great agility, the giant is said to be a perfect specimen of the natural fighting man.

According to a despatch to La Nacion from La Paz, the capital of Bolivia, the newspaper published a challenge from the trainer of the giant, who is an Indian named Camacho. He offers to fight Firpo six rounds when Firpo arrives in La Paz on his way to his home in Buenos Aires.

Camacho is 23 years old and speaks only the language of the Quichus Indians, to which tribe he belongs. In height he is 7 feet 2 inches tall, weighs 250 pounds and has a reach of 8 feet 2 inches. He is said to be a perfect specimen of the natural fighting man.

FOSSIL DUST USED AS DRUGS IN CHINA

Bones of Prehistoric Animals Ground and Sold As Medicine.

How Chinese "mine" the 2,000,000-year-old fossilized remains of prehistoric animals for use as medicine, to supply Chinese drug stores with "dragon's teeth" and "dragon's bones" is described in a report made public by Professor W. D. Matthews, curator of the Department of Vertebrate Paleontology at the American Museum of Natural History, on the fossil specimens collected by Walter Granger, the paleontologist of the Third Asiatic Expedition, which returned to America last Monday. The report says in part: "China is one country where fossil teeth and bones have a considerable value, quite aside from their scientific interest. Fossils have been used as fertilizer, it is true, where they occur in cave deposits or rich pockets, and have been ground up and used for phosphates. But in China they have quite another use, as medicine, and have been mined for centuries to supply the Chinese drug-shops with 'dragon's teeth' and 'dragon's bones'."

There are, it appears, four ways of manufacturing them. One is to grind to powder in a mortar and eaten raw. Or they may be ground and fried with oil in a skillet. Or the powder may be stirred up with wine and either drunk off fresh or the mixture left to settle, decanted and the clear liquid drunk. They are specific for certain nervous diseases, heart troubles and disorders of the liver. With out recommending the remedy for adoption in this country, it is perhaps permissible to point out that the use of such fossils would result in a consumption of bicarbonate and acid phosphates of lines that might really have some medicinal value, just what may be left to physicians to decide.

The Granger collection covers a series of skulls and innominate jaws, bones, teeth or other fragmentary material of many kinds of animals, probably of late Pliocene age. Stegodon, an extinct proboscidean intermediate between mastodons and elephants, is the largest animal present. A rhinoceros related to the living Indian species; a gigantic tapir, about the size of a horse; a buffalo, related to the Gaur of India; a large pig, larger and smaller deer and antelope of various kinds, are the chief hoofed animals.

The carnivora are represented by a tiger, a hyena, a "particolored bear" (setonipus), a sun bear, sand badger, a wild dog (cyon), and a civet; the primates by a langur and a new genus allied to the gibbon, while a large bamboo-rat, very abundant, is the sole representative of the living mammals. There are no horses and no true dogs, and other animals of the open plains are conspicuously absent, so that the collection is believed to represent the fauna that then inhabited the forests and foothills of South China. Some of the animals of their descendants still survive in South China, some have retreated to India or the Malay States, while others have become extinct.

According to the views held by some of the best authorities on the ancestry of man, it is in just such a fauna as this that we might expect to find his ancestors. The possibility of such a discovery was well understood, but as yet nothing of the kind has been found in China.

A further feature of the sale or drive is the continuance during the sale of the 5 per cent. morning credits. Every cash purchaser not only gets a bargain in the way of the sale, but 5 per cent. of all spent is further allowed in a credit slip redeemable in any goods at the month end.

1000 EGGS In EVERY HEN

If You Keep Chickens CUT THIS OUT

"The great trouble with the poultry business has always been that the laying life of a hen was too short," says Henry Trafford, International Poultry Expert and Breeder, for nearly eight years Editor of Poultry Success. "The average pullet lays 150 eggs. If kept the second year, she may lay 100 more. Then she goes to market. Yet, it has been scientifically established that every pullet is born or hatched with over one thousand minute eggs germs in her system—and will lay them on a highly profitable basis over a period of four to six years' time if properly cared for. Every hen who gets 1,000 eggs in every year; how to make the old hen lay like pullets; how to keep up heavy egg production all through cold winter months when eggs are highest; triple egg production; make slacker hens bustle. These and many other money making poultry secrets are contained in Mr. Trafford's '1,000 EGG HEN' system of poultry raising, one copy of which will be sent absolutely free to any reader of this paper who keeps six hens or more. Eggs should go to a dollar or more a dozen this winter. This means big profit to the poultry keeper who gets the eggs. Mr. Trafford tells how. If you keep chickens and want them to make money for you, cut out this ad and send it with your name and address to Henry Trafford, Suite 621 D, Herald Bldg., Burlington, N. Y., and a free copy of 'The 1,000 EGG HEN' will be sent by return mail."

OLD ACADIAN TALES BY A NOVA SCOTIAN

(Montreal Herald) A recently published book of Canadian tales entitled "Stories of the Land of Evangeline" by Mrs. Grace Dean McLeod Rogers, bears the same title as a volume written by the same lady some thirty years ago.

"But," said Premier Baldwin, "that will not be sufficient. In my judgment we shall have to have a tariff in order to protect our home markets, and although in this next session we may do something by means of alteration and extension of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, to really meet the difficulties we are under we have got to get further power from the electorate.

THE PORT OF VANCOUVER

Aid. Crone of Vancouver predicts that more than fifty million bushels of wheat will be shipped from the Pacific port and via the Panama Canal this year.

Naturally the reader asks what Mr. Baldwin's attitude toward the rest of the Empire would be, and we are told he gave the assurance that "the Mother Country had no intention of bargaining with her own kith and kin, and whatever duties she imposed would put on a substantial preference as a free will offering."

"The speaker went on to refer to England. He said that although England had a preferential tariff on the importation of English goods had steadily declined. He considered it was bad business to grant England any preference since the preference only displaced goods of Canadian manufacture and lowered the wages of Canadian employees.

LECTURES ON FIJI ISLANDS

The St. John High School Alumnae had a very interesting programme at its meeting held last night at the home of Miss Dorothy Sinclair.

"Try This. It's Great!" "Chilly mornings? Shucks! They're all the same to me! 't switch on the heater, fill up the bath and jump in."

Quebec Chronicle—"Geography is with Quebec, and the facilities are made and ready for use. If advantage is taken of these opportunities, of its exceptional position as being the nearest seaport to the prairie wheat fields, Quebec will regain its importance as a shipping port, will help to direct the winter trade to Halifax and St. John, and will regain a portion of the Western trade which has been diverted to New York."

MARRIAGES ARE ON THE INCREASE

408 Here in Last 10 Months—Only 377 Last Year.

Just how exactly marriages are a barometer of the community may be a matter for the learned to decide, but it is generally conceded that with greater prosperity the number of marriages is greater and that in times of hardship the number of marriages drops.

In 1920 there were 397 marriages in the first ten months of the year, that is, up to the end of October. For the same period in 1921 the number had fallen by more than 100, there being 478 marriages reported.

The falling off in the number of marriages in 1921 was more rapid than in the present increase, but the increase is sufficiently noticeable to indicate greater prosperity.

If you could stand by the sorters at the New System Laundry you surely would have fun noting how much laundry Mrs. So-and-So gets done for a simple 60c. One you'll see pack as many as eighty pieces into a 15 pound bagful and at 4c. the pound it only totals 60c. Another will have up around ninety and some of them pretty heavy ones, so her wet wash figures out around 80c. A big wash, but a big saving. Up till a few months ago all paid at least a dollar, but now 4c. the pound we have let ourselves in for a lot more work at less money. Did Some Labeling Themselves. Young Mrs. X is a very fine housekeeper. Everything in her little apartment is immaculate. It was with some misgivings, therefore, that, on going away for a couple of weeks with her husband, she turned over the apartment to her rollicking young brother and a bachelor friend. She was particularly proud of her bathroom, which had recently been done over, and as a hint to the boys she hung a piece of Turkish toweling on the door with a tag attached which read: "This cloth is to be used for washing out the tub after you bathe."

SCIENTIST FINDS SHIPS LIGHTER WHEN GOING EAST THAN WEST

London, Nov. 2.—In the course of experiments to discover the origin of mountains, Professor W. G. Duffield, who occupies the Chair of Physics at Reading University, has found that ships traveling east are lighter than when going west. He found that a 2,000-ton destroyer was four hundredweight lighter traveling east than when going west, because everything traveling east is going in the same direction as the earth is revolving and the centrifugal force is greater than when it is traveling west.

VISITORS URGE CO-OPERATION FOR TOURIST APPEAL

Montreal Officials Say Many Interested in N. B. as Vacation Land.

"You have a great opportunity in New Brunswick to develop tourist business," said George A. McNamee, secretary of the Tourist Bureau of Montreal, who, with J. R. Douglas, president, and Harry Hatch, a member of the bureau, is here to investigate thoroughly the possibilities of the province along this line.

"Is not the liquor law in Quebec largely responsible for the large number of tourists who go there?" he was asked. He was emphatic in declaring that the good roads were mainly responsible and believed that only a very small percentage really came to Quebec to obtain liquor.

ness, raised an annual fund which was expended on advertising in the newspapers throughout the United States the advantages of Quebec as a tourist playground.

"The Tourist Bureau of Montreal was started four years ago," said Mr. McNamee. "In 1918 less than 3,500 American cars came into Quebec. The traffic has grown rapidly every year, and by 1922 the number had increased to 95,168. We set 125,000 cars as our objective for 1923 and up to Sept. 28, 114,909 cars, not including cars from other provinces of Canada, which we have no accurate means of checking but which are placed at about 10,000, entered the province. We have no doubt that before the close of the year our objective will be reached. We reckon an average of 3.1-3.2 persons to a car—a very conservative estimate—and we figure on each person spending $10 a day, according to statistics which we have gathered. This will mean that the tourist business for 1923, based on our objective, will have brought about $17,000,000 to Quebec.

"We feel confident that this can be greatly increased. Within a day and a half," said Mr. McNamee, "of Montreal, there are several million motor cars and during 1923 we had cars from every state in the United States, from Honolulu and Panama, as well as from every province in Canada with the possible exception of Prince Edward Island, which was not checked."

Mr. McNamee said that the Tourist Bureau of Montreal was a voluntary organization; that practically all the money received from the merchants went for advertising in the United States.

Asked how such a complete check was kept upon the number of automobiles entering the province, he said this was obtained by the Customs.

Making the sheep, "the goat!"

Facts are facts. But clever press agents can make them turn somersaults. For instance:

It is absolutely true that raw wool in present clothing stocks brought higher prices than the wool in last year's garments.

The rise in raw wool cost, by itself, was quite steep. And the clothing maker's conscientious press agent told you so plainly. But did he tell you that the total increase in the raw wool market could not make a difference of more than 50 or 60c on the actual production cost of any suit or overcoat? Now nail the raw wool bugaboo to the wall with this pointed question: What right has anyone to alibi a ten dollar price boost with a 50c cost boost? Why should you pay eight or ten dollars more for a suit because a maker paid 50 or 60c more for the wool before it was woven?

Robinson has no desire to spoil anybody's fun, but making the sheep the goat is a little bit more than the poor lamb's back should stand.

I do not blame the increased cost of clothing onto the wool growers, or onto the maker, or the wholesaler—or anyone else—but am answering them all with a general

Increased Volume and Cash Buying is the Answer!

Robinson's own factories have absorbed the increased cost of woollens—they have absorbed much more than that—they have entirely eliminated the wholesaler's profits (the biggest item of expense everywhere between the manufacturer and the wearer). They have made good clothes at so low a price this season that I have been able to announce a reduction of from $2.50 to $4.50 below Robinson's own low prices of last season.

I have matched tremendous gains in sales against the rise in raw materials. I have added thousands of garments per month to my factory production. 800 FLEE SMOKE WHEN BLOW-OUT STALLS SUBWAY Woman Overcome in Rush for Doors, and Service Delayed.

New York, Oct. 31.—Application of the brakes on a Sea Beach B.M.T. subway express train before the power was shut off is said by the police to have caused the blow-out of a fuse at the Pacific street station of the Fourth Avenue line, Brooklyn, on Sunday, resulting in 800 passengers.

The blow-out occurred on the second car of the train just as it was rolling into the station. Immediately the car was filled with smoke, and there was a mad rush for the exits. One passenger, Mrs. Elizabeth Cantor, fell to the floor and was overcome by the fumes from the burning insulation and ties. She was carried to the street before the arrival of an ambulance from the Jewish Hospital.

Fire apparatus was summoned by Patrolman Hugh Kelly, who helped the passengers out of the train and up the stairs to the street. Small fires which broke out in the undercarriage of the second car and on the ties were quickly extinguished, by sand, and a B.M.T. wrecking crew speedily repaired the damage.

A half hour later the train was able to proceed under its own power, but in the meantime south-bound express traffic was tied up.

MONUMENT TO WHITNEY.

Steps are to be taken by the Ontario Government to erect a suitable monument to the memory of the late Sir James Whitney. As soon as a sculptor is secured a commission will be given him to proceed. The correspondence would indicate that the proposal was dropped in July, 1920, but the present Government feels that public recognition should be given in this way to the services of Sir James. It is stated that the monument will in all probability be erected on the east side of Queen's Park, Toronto.

MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMEN OF EAST AT JAVA'S COURT

Sultan Surrounds Himself With Flawless Specimens of Hindu Beauty.

"The Sultans in the East are nominally still sovereigns, by the grace of their Dutch or British conquerors. The Sultan of Yohore, Ben Abu Bakar, for instance, enjoys complete freedom. He appears to be a faultless gentleman, but has been excluded from the British club in Singapore on account of dishonorable gambling. His dignity as sovereign seems unimpaired by that fact," writes Alice Schick in Ceylon and Meer, as translated for The Milwaukee Journal.

"Far less civilized is the Sultan of Djokakarta of Java, who must call the Dutch minister his 'elder brother.' The Dutchman accompanies the Sultan at all public performances. The Sultan's bodyguard marches behind him, but Dutch soldiers go at their sides with sabres and revolvers. The Sultan has many daughters and daughters-in-law whose picturesque court costumes look charming at the court festivals.

"A vast three-sided hall, just like a stage, is the place where these Javanese court festivals are held. Opposite that hall again like a theatre, another court room is built, in the form of an open temple surrounded by pillars. The place between these two halls lies somewhat deeper and is paved with white marble. This palatial court room is where receptions for the Javanese nobility are held.

"The entire hall is splendidly illuminated, so that the huge state bed in the foreground of the hall four small square tables of white marble with golden feet are placed. Around each one of these four princesses squat,

The noble purity of their features is a heritage from their Hindu ancestors.

Tourists and other visitors to Montreal this summer have spent hundreds of thousands of dollars, and the coffers of various firms and individuals have been considerably enriched by the great influx of visitors, said to have been greater this season than ever before.

With the large numbers of visitors, variously estimated at from 250,000 to 300,000, hotels have been filled to the roof, theatres have had a busy summer, railroads have been operating special trains, and many other lines of business have been prospering.

THE AUTOMOBILE TRAFFIC

(Montreal Herald.) Judged by all indications, Canada has been experiencing during 1923 an unprecedented invasion of touring motorists from the United States, likely to run to over a million cars. All along the international border visiting cars have been reported as crossing in numbers surpassing those of previous years, and the roads leading up from the border to Canadian centres have borne greater traffic than they have ever before known. This traffic is attended with considerable profit to the Dominion, and whilst it is not yet possible to determine the actual number of visiting cars or their probable revenue, an approximate idea of what this traffic is worth to Canada may be gained by the fact that in the year 1922, according to the Government Department of Railways and Canals, Canada played

It is highly probable that U. N. Mount Allison's protest is, it is believed, the result of a conference at Fredericton yesterday and the faculty representatives of Acadia and Mount Allison, Professors Wheelock and West, respectively, agreed that the players concerned should not figure in the U. N. B. lineup. Chancellor C. C. Jones, the U. N. B. representative, when Mount Allison reached the capital last evening, the issue regarding Gibson and Seelye was not raised by either U. N. MRS. REID, IN TORONTO, FIGHTS DRUG TRAFFIC

Widow of Wally, Movie Star, Himself a Victim, Brings Striking Message of Horrors of Habit and Its Ravages

The photographs of Mrs. Wallace Reid, widow of the famous and ill-starred movie actor, have, to a certain extent, misreported her. To begin with, she is not a brunette but a blonde—a "positive" blonde, with ruddy bobbed hair, a very pale complexion and hazel eyes. She is also much prettier than her photographs have indicated, slim to fragility, and with pleasantly and ingeniously rounded features.

She wore, when interviewed, here, the Toronto chair—scientific research costumes—a black skirt and a black beaded blouse, her only ornament a slender platinum chain. She was wearing a miniature of her husband, set with diamonds and turquoise. In spite of this, however, and of the noticeable lack of cosmetics, she retains the air of the theatre. Her face is round and childlike, but the widely-set eyes and her well-marked eyebrows are—tragic, perhaps; certainly expressive.

With her is her mother, Mrs. Davenport, and her little son, "Wally" junior. "Wally" junior was wandering about the room with a dozen roses which had just arrived, in his hand. "I am going to put them in water for you, mummy," he said. He is a very charming little boy.

Mrs. Reid said that she was shocked when she learned that her husband had been a victim of the drug habit. She had been a member of the drug habit, and she had been a victim of the drug habit. She had been a member of the drug habit, and she had been a victim of the drug habit.

She is not the Carrie Nation of the fight against drugs. Her methods are not militant and aggressive, but moderate and persuasive. She dislikes sensational methods of attack, she is a realist. Her own attitude in the matter is realistic, and she does not make any dramatic applications of her own experience to the general public.

Six Canadian and Fleet of New York Liners With Last Immigrants

Mother Takes Daughter to College With Her

Mrs. Louise Keller and her co-student daughter, Loretta.

Loretta Keller, seeks to outdo the maternal years of Mrs. Louise Keller in friendly competition.

The arrival at the portals of higher education was fraught with countless hardships and discouragement. But holding fast to "Mother" Keller's abiding faith in the philosophy that every cloud is lined with silver, the twin never veered from their course.

Today they look backward over the long, long trail which led them over mountains and Indian reservations to the college classroom.

At an early age, their father and husband died, when life was still young, out on the plains where he sought to "strike it rich" in his profession as a mining engineer.

The blow left the mother quite desolate, with Loretta on her hands and a still younger daughter who has come to Berkeley to enter high school.

Through uncertain years, Mrs. Keller, with her face turned ever forward, worked as teacher in a host of towns and once came almost to the point of telling her little brood good by forever, when the grim white plague laid hold of her.

Doctors said she would die. But light reignied her, unconquerable soul. From a sick bed she rose and continued on.

And now victory and the dream goal of years are hers.

Her daughters are to be educated. Her health has returned to 100 per cent. efficiency as attested by examining physicians of the university.

Mrs. Keller is sublimely happy.

Catarrh Of the Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh. With the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breaks down the system and the stomach's walls draw the blood to the stomach, while the Bismarck Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and weaken its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bismarck Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Do not confuse Bismarck Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milk, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure Bismarck form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

NOVA SCOTIA FORESTRY.

(Moncton Times.)

A correspondent of The Times while commending what his journal has written in regard to the forest menace, suggests that the time will come soon when the provinces of Canada will be obliged to take up in earnest the work of reforestation. The late John A. Humphrey of Moncton thirty or forty years ago, when in provincial politics, frequently urged the importance of conserving our timber resources and he practiced as he preached. Mr. Humphrey bought logs for his mill and allowed the timber to grow on his own lands. As a result he left a very valuable property. Dr. Myers of Moncton some years ago set out a small nursery of trees which he set out on his farm but apparently he received little encouragement from the provincial authorities. The Dominion Government has for some years been raising tree seedlings which are planted mostly in the prairie provinces and the Government of Ontario has been pursuing a similar policy. The State Governments across the line are taking up the work on an annually increasing scale, while many European countries, Germany perhaps most notably, have for a long time carried on reforestation work.

Mr. Barrington, whose letters to The Times have attracted much attention has at his own expense engaged a practical man, O. Schlerbeck, to study the conditions and possibilities in the neighboring province. Mr. Schlerbeck is a native of Denmark and it is his intention to visit Copenhagen, and for some years before coming to Canada was connected with the Danish Government's Forest Service. Mr. Schlerbeck has been eight years in Canada, and during the last two years he has been in the service of the Price Bros. Company of Quebec, having full charge of fire protection and conservation on their extensive timber lands. He resigned his position with Price Bros. to accept Mr. Barrington's offer and it is his intention to start a nursery at Annapolis Royal for the benefit of the farmers and land owners of Nova Scotia so that they may be provided with transplants and seedlings free of charge for the reforestation of their own land on their farms. And in order to demonstrate the benefit to be derived from proper conservation of the waste land on the woodlot, a demonstration area in the vicinity of Annapolis Royal will also be set aside for the purpose of interested visitors will be welcome.

Mr. Schlerbeck is said to be very much impressed with the possibilities for forestry in Nova Scotia, and thinks that with adequate fire protection measures and proper cutting methods the future of the province's timber supply would be assured. Mr. Schlerbeck, it may be noted, was the winner of the five thousand dollar prize offered by Mr. Barrington for the best method of suppressing and controlling the bark worm, bark beetle and borer.

HER CHILDREN HAD WHOOPING COUGH

This is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It starts with fever and cough. The cough is at first dry and sharp, but gradually increases in severity and occurs in sudden spasms, vomiting follows, and the child turns livid in the face, the eyes appear as if they would burst from their sockets, and suffocation seems imminent till relief is brought on by the "whoop."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the best remedy for whooping cough. It is a natural, non-toxic, and in this way ease the racking cough, and in a short time make it disappear.

Mrs. L. Ambrose, Sarnia, Ont., writes: "My little ones were afflicted with whooping cough. I read where Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was good, and I only used two bottles and they were better. I had chronic bronchitis for three years and tried everything until, finally, I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It would not be without this remedy."

Price 35c a bottle, large family size 60c, put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE ROOSEVELT BIRD REFUGE

(New York Tribune)

In the exciting days that preceded the Roosevelt bird refuge in 1912 Republican convention the Colonel was receiving at his headquarters in Chicago at unbroken line of Governors, Senators and political personages asking what he was going to do.

The answer was "Great heavens, Colonel, why talk about house wrens now?"

"Because they rest me. Give me ten minutes of house wrens and I can talk to seventy Governors."

The love of birds was an inherent part of the many-sided character of Theodore Roosevelt. A fitting thing in giving eleven acres of wild land for a "bird refuge" around the tomb of his cousin at Oyster Bay. The Colonel would enjoy it as keenly as his feathered friends.

SHIPS SEED POTATOES

From his farm in Lincoln, T. H. Estabrooks has just shipped to United States buyers seven carloads of seed potatoes, which speaks well for the success of the potato crop this year, the quality of Mr. Estabrooks' produce and the demand for New Brunswick seed potatoes.

Mrs. Reid, In Toronto, Fights Drug Traffic

"We have to turn the sun-lights of common-sense upon it," she said. "Bring it up to the light and let us stop talking about it with bated breath. We have one to two millions, each of nucleus of a little home, out in the dark, fighting it alone. Don't class them all as 'dope-heads.' Help them back to the normalcy which every man and woman craves."

Conditions Here.

The speaker was introduced by the pastor, Dr. W. R. Mackay, who gave a short sermon entitled "Villains and Victims of Dope." Dr. Mackay stated that during the last three days he had been giving his time to a study of the drug situation, and his findings had appalled him. He characterized it as the supreme vandal of the ages, attacking the temple of the body, ruining brain and heart and nerves.

"There are dance halls in our city that are cured with this evil," he said. "There are places where, when youthful dancers get tired, a little white powder — the 'snuff' of their hands, and they sniff it and regain for the time-being their vigor and strength. Ask the social servants, the police officers and neighborhood workers of the city if this is not the truth."

Dr. Mackay declared that there was an enormous illicit importation of drugs into the country. It came in packed cigars, in cakes of soap, in hollow dolls and the French heels of shoes, which were accommodated with a little trap door for holding virulent poison.

"There is no known drug yet to combat the effects," he said. "The victims are treated as criminals and sent to jail to get cured. Whoever got cured in jail? We must open the eyes of the blind to this great evil, warn the unwary and prevent by every means in our power the use of this drug for illicit purposes in Canada."

NEW SYSTEM OF FAT REDUCTION

Here's a new way for all fat people to laugh together at that old bugaboo—Obesity. The saying that "there is nothing new under the sun" does not now apply to fat people any more. Here is something new for them—new ideas, new pleasure, a new and graceful figure, easily found by anyone who is passing beyond the limits of slimness. Everyone has heard of Marmola Prescription, that harmless combination of fat-defying elements perfected by one of the foremost physicians. Now, from the same high authority, there comes another idea—the idea of combining these same pure, harmless ingredients into a pleasant little tablet. Taken after eating and at bedtime, they help the stomach to dispose of all the fatty foods, converting them into compact, solid flesh, muscle and energy, without dieting or exercise. Marmola Prescription Tablets regulate the entire system—do for you what bodily exertion and self-denial cannot do, and the fat, once routed, is gone for good. You can prove all this at a trifling cost. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists or sent postpaid by the Marmola Company, 4612 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich. A case—sufficient to bring results—is but one dollar.

Floating Specks Before The Eyes Means Liver Trouble

When specks start to float before the eyes, when everything seems to turn black for a few seconds and you feel as if you were going to faint, you can rest assured that your liver is not working properly.

The essential thing to do in all cases where the liver is slow, lazy or torpid, is to give it up by the use of Miller's Laxa-Liver Pills and clear away the accumulated mass of waste and poisons which have clogged the system.

Mr. Chas. Ayland, Frankfort, Ont., writes: "I used to be awfully bothered with indigestion, constipation, eye, headache and sickness to my stomach. I took just half a vial of your Miller's Laxa-Liver Pills and in a few days I have felt as well as I ever did. Now I always keep them on hand."

Miller's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WOMEN OF THREE GENERATIONS

The daughter, mother, and grandmother, have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from roots and herbs in 1875 by Lydia E. Pinkham, of Cobourg, Ont., for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from shore to shore until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for women's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy to hold.

Healthy Liver Healthy Life

Your liver—healthy or clogged, active or sluggish—makes all the difference between a vigorous, cheerful and energetic life, and a life of spirits and failure. To subdue stubborn liver, overcome constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache and blues there is nothing on earth so good as Carter's Little Liver Pills. Purely vegetable.

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had it.

In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely, and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden, some of them seventy to eighty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

St. John Is the Pioneer City Of Dogdom In the Dominion

First Dog Show in Canada Under A. K. C. Rules Held Here 1886

Some interesting anecdotes on the history of dogdom in St. John are contained in an interesting article by Robert B. Laskey, a well known local fancier. Mr. Laskey writes: While dog shows were first exhibited in St. John in 1882 and 1884, it was not until 1886 when the sanction club was formed that the local fanciers applied to the American Kennel Club, New York, for rules and classifications to conduct a recognized dog show. This was the first official show in Canada and I am informed the first application used for conducting an official or recognized dog show in America. It is a long look back to '86 when Charles H. Mason, now of Port Washington, Long Island, N. Y., judged that show. He officiated again in more recent years—in 1914 when he put up that very fine pointer Ch. Betty owned by Miss Winifred Ross and acclaimed her best in the show over such good dogs as that celebrated Irish Terrier bitch International champion, Aroostook Brenda Bell and Co. Aroostook Historic, both owned by L. H. Powers, Houlton, Me., also best over the international champion Montrose Shamis O'Brien, the big New York winner an Irish Setter, owned by J. C. Hanna, of Montreal. "Charlie" knew what he was doing, too!

bred locally. Such broadcasting by these able writers speaks well for the future of our dogs which are being exhibited more and more in United States as well as in upper Canada where more than one has made its international championship.

city: Ch. Bonne Kelso, cocker spaniel, owned and bred by J. Leble, Hampton, N. B., and Ch. Betty, pointer, owned by Miss W. Ross, city. It would take a column now to name and describe all the local champions that have come and gone, died or sold. There are very few fanciers now showing who exhibited in St. John forty or so years ago. Dear old Col. Blain was a keen fancier those days and was up to the time of his death a few years ago, active in the care and preparation of dogs for showing. For most of them, the one and only show was St. John. Now, like this last month, St. John, Fredericton, Halifax and next in November Pictou Co. N. S. This gives Nova Scotia as well as our own province two shows in one season. It is only fair to say here that the New Brunswick Kennel Club is the Maritime parent of these eastern dog shows as members from this club really supported these new clubs that are now making a dream come true—a Maritime dog show circuit and all under Canadian Kennel Club rules. In closing one might ask is their any other sporting association or club that has kept together in peace and through wars with one purpose, fancy or hobby in our city that has lived up to its duty and endeavored to help those who could not help themselves—man's best friends, the horse and the dog. Well! They helped the little fellow, noisy perhaps, some of them. The motor may some day or some way displace the horse, but you always have the dog—then let us have good and better ones. The Alps have been at the bottom of the sea two or three times, according to scientists.

Get health—Keep health—Feel fine by eating Kellogg's Bran regularly!

Constipation and the toxic poisonings that come from it not only take the enthusiasm out of life, making you depressed and physically and mentally dull—but they lead you into diseases such as Bright's, diabetes, rheumatism, etc. You can actually rid yourself of these dangers if you will EAT KELLOGG'S BRAN REGULARLY!—at least two tablespoonsful daily; in chronic cases with every meal. Kellogg's Bran is nature's most wonderful food. It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that as no other food can! Don't take a chance of "getting away" with constipation—IT WILL GET YOU! Don't ruin your health with pills and cathartics—they are as dangerous as constipation itself and give but temporary relief, at the very best!

POWER COMPANY LIGHTS OUT. The New Brunswick Power Company street lights south and east of Union street were out last night owing to the fact that the lighting of this section of the city has been taken over by the city and only the hydro lights were burning.

My Experience is that DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPSIN Is just what you need

This Will Make Digestion Easy WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Laxative Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves. Mr. E. N. Gagné, 338 St. Patrick St., Ottawa, Ont., Mrs. Urrish Stewart of Coombs town, N. S., and hosts of others will verify this. World Acclaims Success Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well-known physician of that name who practiced successfully for 47 years. It is the greatest selling liquid laxative in the world. Thousands of families have it in their medicine chest ready when any member shows signs of dyspepsia, constipation,

PRaise INTARVIN IN DIABETES CASES

Prof. McKee Says Now No Reason for Anyone to Die From It.

New York, Nov. 2.—Professor Ralph H. McKee, head of the chemical engineering department at Columbia University, declared at the monthly meeting of the medicinal chemicals section of the Synthetic Organic Chemical Association that there was no reason in the world now for anyone to die of diabetes.

Tracing the history of the discovery of intarvin and telling the part he had played in bringing the remedy within reach of the poorest, Professor McKee revealed the statistics showed that in New York 100,000 die annually from the disease and in the whole of America the deaths exceed 1,250,000.

"The medical world," said Professor McKee, "has taken vast steps in the preservation of child life, but has done comparatively little for adults. Intarvin approaches the disease in a different direction. Diabetes has been known for 400 years. No remedy was known, much less a cure, until work on insulin and intarvin were commenced within the same year."

"Accordingly, we have two remedies. Each are life-savers. Neither are cures. Insulin is taken from the cattle pancreas and injected into the human blood to supply what the sick patient's own blood does not give, while intarvin approaches the disease in a different manner. It furnishes a food which does not need the pancreatic fluid to digest it."

"The honor for insulin, of course goes to Canada. The honor for intarvin goes to New York City."

Professor McKee told of how he had reduced the cost of intarvin from $100 to $9 a pound. An average patient requires one pound every one to three weeks, so that the cost works out at about $8 to $9 weekly.

"Intarvin and insulin are equally good," he said. "Intarvin is likely to become the more popular remedy, since it may be taken without inconvenience whereas insulin has to be administered by means of a hypodermic syringe."

TO ENTER NEW AFFILIATION

Marine Freight Handlers Decide to Join With Railway Brotherhood.

At a largely attended meeting of the Marine Freight Handlers, held last evening in Temperance St. Market Place, West Side it was decided to break away from the affiliation with the International Longshoremen's Association and to affiliate with the International Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and Steamship and Station Employees.

The claims of the latter organization were placed before the local organization by Mr. Hall, official organizer, and after listening to him and discussing the matter carefully it was decided to link up with his organization.

At the next regular meeting of the new charter will be on hand the number of the local announced. The officers elected last Sunday will carry on under the new affiliation.

SHORT TERM LEASE NOT ACCEPTABLE

Government Engineer Writing Council re Potato Warehouse.

A. J. Gray, engineer in charge of the Department of Public Works, informed The Times this morning that the city's proposal of a seven-year lease of the property on which the department proposes erecting a potato warehouse was unacceptable to the Government. He said he was notifying the city to that effect, as the department did not intend to spend sixty or seventy thousand dollars on a property leased only for seven years.

Commissioner Bullock, when asked about this matter, said that it was customary for the city to give leases for a term of seven years, but that they were willing to give the Government any kind of a lease it wanted, but that he had received no intimation that a longer term lease was wanted.

CHOIR AND GUESTS HAVE REUNION

Main Street Baptist Event Much Enjoyed—Two Presentations.

A reunion of the of the Main Street Baptist choir, held last evening in the ladies parlor of the church, proved very enjoyable. Among the guests were former members of the choir and members of the music committee. After choir practice a social hour was held and games and music made the time pass all too quickly. Solos were sung by Miss Ethel Parlier and Miss Jessie Amerson, and there were still time choruses, with Miss Hazel Flewelling and Mrs. Lee Hunter at the piano as accompanist.

A delicious supper was served by the ladies at the conclusion of which W. H. White, chairman of the music committee, in a neat speech welcomed the guests and expressed the hope that some of the former members of the choir would be found assisting this winter. He also presented to two former members, who have become brides during the summer, Mrs. George A. Cameron, (Miss Greta Belyea), and Mrs. Roy Logan, (Miss Marjorie McAlary); pictures and best wishes from the choir.

SAYS INCIDENT IN CAFE ACCIDENT

Ellis and Proprietor Arrange Matter After Court Proceedings.

Percy Ellis appeared in the police court this morning on a charge of willfully damaging personal property in the Ideal Cafe, King Square, last evening. When asked as to whether or not he was guilty he said he had damaged some property, but explained that it was the result of an accident. He said his foot caught at the foot of a table and he upset it. He said he would make good any damage.

The complainant, F. W. Daley, said that it might have been an accident and was informed that the defendant should not have been arrested if that was the case and the matter should not have been brought before the court. On the advice of Magistrate Henderson the men got together and a satisfactory settlement was reached.

R. L. JOHNSON GOES TO TORONTO BRANCH

Charles Meredith of Toronto, has arrived in the city to take charge of the local branch of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, Prince William street. He succeeds R. L. Johnson, who has been manager of the branch for the last two years, and who will leave at the first of the week to take charge of the Toronto branch. Mr. Johnson has made many friends during his stay in St. John, and his departure will be regretted.

The California fruit crop, according to reports, Mr. Johnson said today, was expected to be the largest in history, and his company had made provision for the shipment of some 70,000 cartons from California State next year. FOUND PLACES FOR 357 N OCTOBER

Dominion Employment Service Believes Outlook for Work Brighter.

A report from the local branch of the Dominion Employment Service Office for October shows that 837 placements were made, 191 men and 166 women receiving various forms of work. William J. Ryan, superintendent of the office, explained that there is lots of work offering for men experienced in logging operations, and that in the women's department there are many applications for house maids. With reference to general laboring conditions he said that the month of November is usually a slack one due to a fact that many contractors have finished their season's activities.

The opening of the winter activities at the port towards the end of the month, he felt would better conditions and many now out of employment would be placed. He said he still finds that skilled artisans are leaving St. John for the States and as a result there is a scarcity of help in some lines. Prospects look good for plenty of employment in the spring, Mr. Ryan said, as there was talk of the large new hotel being started, the Negro Point breakwater being extended and every indication given for increased activities at Courtney Bay.

IS SENT UP IN TICKET CASE

Edgar Bertrand Committed for Trial in Union Depot Matter.

Edgar Bertrand was committed for trial in the police court this morning on a charge of stealing a railway ticket from Ralph Comeau. The case against the accused was conducted by James Ryan, special agent of the C. P. R. The ticket was a second class ticket to Montreal for $12.75. He told of being approached in the Union Station by a man that resembled the defendant and was asked to show his ticket. He said he had not taken the ticket and went in search of the man as he wanted to get his ticket back, but he had been unable to find him. William Nickson said he knew the defendant. He told of meeting him and that on request he took a second class ticket to the Union Depot to get a refund. He explained that the accused had been too easy to look after the matter himself. He said he saw Special Agent Ryan at the station and accompanied him to the Hamilton Hotel and pointed out the accused as the man from whom he had stolen the ticket.

Herbert W. Jones, ticket agent at the Union Station, told of the previous witness asking for a refund. C. N. R. Constable Ross said he saw the accused stop and speak with Comeau at the station and that he made some remark about a ticket. Later Comeau had made a complaint to him.

Special Agent Ryan said the accused told him he had purchased the ticket from a man for $12.75. Thomas P. Ritson, of the C. P. R. Investigation Department, corroborated his evidence.

The defendant was informed that it was merely a preliminary hearing and that he was not on trial, whereupon he said he had nothing to say. He was then committed for trial.

"Who's gonto look after the things that orte be done in a town like this to make it fit to live in?" queried Hiram.

"Oh, that doesn't trouble me," said the reporter. "I believe in a good time. I do the things that suit myself. Let other people do the same. That's their affair."
