Princess Patricia Is Bride Today; Married in Abbey

Now Wife of Commander Ramsey, R. N.

ARCHBISHOP OFFICIATES

London Out in Many Thousands to Greet Bride—King and Queen and Others of Royalty at Ceremony in Westminster—Bouquet From Her Soldiers

London, Feb. 27.—Princess Patricia of Connaught and Commander Alexander R. M. Ramsay, R. N., were married in Westminster Abbey at noon today. No other social event since the outbreak of the war has created such public interest. Crowds assembled early in the day along the route over which the princess drove with her father, the Duke of Connaught, from St. James Palace to Westminster Abbey, about which throngs waited patiently for a glimpse of the popular bride.

The ceremony was performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Dean of Westminster Abbey and other noted ecclesiastics, in the presence of King George and Queen Mary and a great assemblage of members of the royal family, distinguished officials of the British and foreign governments and friends and visitors from abroad. The Prince of Wales made a special visit from the continent to attend the ceremony.

In the fashionable gathering in the great nave of the abbey seats were found for some of the many friends of the princess among the plain people, and also representatives of charitable organizations in which she was interested. The abbey was not crowded, the princess asking that no attempt be made to supplement with flowers the classic beauty of the ancient edifice.

Her Dress. The bride entered the abbey by the west door, which is used only on occasions of importance. Her gown was of a white brocade pattern over silver lace, the outer gown being trimmed with silver lovers knots. She carried a bouquet presented by the Princess Patricia's Canadian Regiment and tied with the regimental colors.

The procession was led by a choir singing "Praise, My Soul, The King of Heaven." The gentlemen ushers, Colonel Sir Douglas Frederick Ramsay, Derek William Keppel, Viscount Sandhurst and Viscount Farquhar, followed, and then came Princess Patricia with her father. They were followed by the Earl of MacDuff, eldest son of the Duchess of Fife, and Hon. Simeon Ramsay, as pages, bearing the princess' train. Then came Lady Jean Ramsay with Princess Ingrid of Sweden, Lady Ina Ramsay with Lady Mary Cambridge, Princess Maud with Princess Mary and Lady Helena Cambridge with Lady Victoria Cambridge.

The bride was given away by her father. During the service the choir sang the sixty-seventh psalm, the hymn "O Perfect Love," and the anthem "Who is Like unto Thee, O Lord?"

After the ceremony the register was signed in the Chapel of Edward the Confessor. Then, as the principals proceeded toward the door, the Mendelssohn wedding march was played. A procession of the royal family and peers and peeresses followed, led by the Duke of Connaught and Queen Mary, King George and Queen Mother Alexandra and former King Manuel of Portugal and his wife, who was formerly Princess Augustina Victoria of Hohenzollern.

A guard of honor of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Regiment was stationed at the door, sharing honors with seamen from H. M. C. S. George V.

Court mourning over the death of Prince John was waived for the occasion and the elegant gowns of the ladies lent a festive air to the assemblage. The Presents. The wedding presents, which are still arriving, number nearly 700 and range from homey market baskets to princess diamonds. Princess Patricia presented to Commander Ramsay a bust of herself, while his gift to the bride was a Chinese lacquer cabinet.

It is estimated that 6,000 persons were in the Abbey. The bride and groom drove back to the Duke of Connaught's residence in an open semi-state landau drawn by four horses and escorted by scarlet-coated outriders. Princess Patricia was bareheaded, but was wrapped in white furs. As the party drove along, the chiming in nearby all the churches were playing forth appropriate melodies. Only the weather marred the occasion, the day being gray and chilly.

Bourassa Scolds Them. Ottawa, Feb. 27.—In St. Anne's Hall last night Henri Bourassa, in an address on "Our traditions and their origin, and why they should be preserved," gave a sound scolding to his compatriots who have departed from the old maxims and are various questions which the reconstruction period is forcing to the front. This morning's session was largely devoted to the receiving of credentials and organization. The remaining sessions will be devoted to the discussion of resolutions, including one calling for the formation of a provincial Labor party.

Commander Ramsay is the second brother (and not the heir, as stated in some Canadian papers) of the Earl of Dathousie. He won the D. S. O. by his services as flag commander to Admiral de Robeck in the Dardanelles.

MINING HORROR IN NOVA SCOTIA RESULT OF CRIME?

Halifax, Feb. 27.—The Evening News of New Glasgow states that an investigation recently undertaken by the police of that place in collaboration with two federal detectives has strengthened a view held for some time that the explosion of last year in the Allan shaft entailing the loss of eighty-eight lives was not the result of an accident and that important and highly sensational developments may be expected soon.

Chief of Police Francis states that the evidence which convinced him that the explosion was deliberately planned is now in the hands of the proper authorities at Ottawa.

NEW BRITISH MINISTRY

Halifax, Feb. 27.—In the house of commons yesterday, in introducing a bill to establish a ministry of ways and communications, Edward Shortt, secretary of home affairs, said that hitherto there had been no co-ordination between the various means of transport, and transport had depended largely upon private efforts.

The new ministry, under the bill, would take over control of railways, trams, canals, waterways, roads and, finally, power.

TOTAL IN SAVINGS BANKS NEARS BILLION

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—Unemployment has not so far made any serious drain on savings deposits in Canadian banks. They continue to increase. In September, 1918, before the last war loan was reached on the market, savings deposits totaled the high level of $1,039,000,000. Payment of war loan subscriptions brought the total down, but it is now again climbing towards the billion dollar mark.

During January there was an increase of $31,500,000, bringing the total at the end of the month to $990,000,000. During the whole year period, from August, 1914, to January, 1919, savings deposits increased about fifty per cent.

Bank returns for January also show a decrease in demand deposits; a decrease in deposits outside Canada and a decrease in call loans both in and outside Canada.

LABOR CONVENTION WAS OPENED IN HALIFAX TODAY

Halifax, Feb. 27.—Upwards of 100 representatives of organized labor in Nova Scotia opened a three days' convention here today. It was arranged by the Nova Scotia executive of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, under the chairmanship of Ralph Eisner, president of the Halifax organization, and is being held to define the attitude of organized labor in Nova Scotia regarding the various questions which the reconstruction period is forcing to the front. This morning's session was largely devoted to the receiving of credentials and organization. The remaining sessions will be devoted to the discussion of resolutions, including one calling for the formation of a provincial Labor party.

POLICEMEN HOLD THEIR CHARTER; BACK PAY FOR THE MEN DISMISSED

Conciliation Board's Report in Dispute Here Accepted by Common Council; Recommendation as to Constitution and Police Manual; City Taxation and Other Matters

The city's acceptance of the recommendations of a board of conciliation appointed to investigate the matters at issue with the St. John policemen was formally recorded this morning when the board recommended that they be permitted to retain their charter, with the provision that the constitution should be approved by a committee representing the police and the city, with an independent chairman; that the police manual be revised to bring it into conformity with the city charter in the matter of appointments and dismissals, and also that the men who were dismissed should be paid the full amount of wages which they would have received if they had remained on duty, less earnings meanwhile.

The committee devoted considerable time to hearing a complaint regarding the application of the local improvement tax. Other members would not support Mr. Fisher's proposal to undertake the laying of curbsides alone under this act, and he would not approve the application of a general paving plan as no agreement could be reached, the entire matter was dropped.

The mayor and all members of the council were present.

R. M. Olive, chairman of the board of assessors, reported on the protest of H. G. Currie regarding assessment of $1,500 on his leasehold property in Protection street, while the adjoining property owned by Thomas McCaffrey was assessed at $700. He explained that the value of the Currie property had been listed at $140 until 1918 when it was reported at $270, paid by three tenants. The adjoining property was occupied by the city and he gave the rental value as $110. The chairman then submitted a report by Edward Bates on the values. He reported the Currie property was worth $800. He explained that he found the McCaffrey property, if repaired, would be worth $140 rental and the value as $800.

Mr. Currie called upon W. T. Colwell who informed the council that he had examined the Currie property and found it worth $800. He reported nothing of the rentals and did not see that they had anything to do with the value. Mr. Currie said he paid $600 at auction in 1914 for the property. Dealing with City Road property owned by Mr. Currie, the chairman reported that the property was assessed at $1,500; last year the rentals were $456 and this year $648. Mr. Colwell testified that this property was worth $800. He explained that he had examined a great number of houses for the Sterling Realty Company and Mr. Earle and the ways, but found that he thought they were worth more. Mr. Currie protested that the city was forcing him to raise the rent on poor men by increasing his assessment. After Mr. Currie had withdrawn the commissioners decided that they should take no action.

The common clerk presented to the council the report of the board of conciliation on the police matter. It was as follows:

ROBERT HARRIS, C. M. G., CANADIAN PAINTER, IS DEAD IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—Robert Harris, C. M. G., one of Canada's best known artists, died at his home here this morning. He was born in Wales in 1849, but spent his youth in Charlottetown, where he will be buried. Mr. Harris was president of the Royal Canadian Academy in 1908 and held the office until 1906. He was probably best known as a portrait painter.

She will dock at Pier two on Saturday morning. Of these on board, there are three officers and 103 other ranks for the N. B. district. The steamer also has some civilian passengers.

The Belgic is expected on Sunday and the Megantic on Wednesday of next week.

COURTS TO SECURE EQUITABLE RENTALS

One Feature of New Legislation Proposed in Nova Scotia

Halifax, Feb. 27.—The third session of the thirty-sixth general assembly of Nova Scotia was opened this afternoon by Lieut-Governor Grant. A guard of honor and band from the Sixth Battalion, Canadian Garrison Regiment, were in attendance. The speech from the throne forecasted legislation to make important amendments to the workmen's compensation act, the mines act and to provide for the establishment of courts to secure equitable rentals, where such courts are deemed necessary. A measure to provide for the expenditure of housing monies placed at the disposal of the province by the federal government is also forecasted.

SEVENTH BRIGADE TO LEAVE ENGLAND FOR HOME TOMORROW

London, Feb. 27.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The seventh brigade of the Third Canadian Division sails for home tomorrow.

ESTIMATE ABOUT $5,000 FOR BACK PAY FOR POLICE

It is estimated roughly that the city will have to pay upwards of $5,000 to the members of the police force who were dismissed on account of their attitude towards labor affiliation. The recommendation of the conciliation board adopted by the council this morning provides that the men shall be paid the amount they would have received if they had remained on duty, less the amount which they since earned at other occupations. Thirty men were dismissed on Sept. 12 and were reinstated on Jan. 4 and all others were on broken time. Although he was not in a position to say definitely, the chief of police estimated this afternoon that a loss of half their time would be an outside figure for the entire body of men, taken as a whole. If this estimate is approximately correct, the city will have to show about $5,000 among the men to make up for the loss of earnings.

NEGOTIATIONS AT SPA SUSPENDED?

Swiss Report of Sudden Crisis and German Commission Leaving Berlin

Geneva, Feb. 27.—Last evening's Swiss newspapers printed a Berlin despatch stating that owing to the sudden suspension of armistice negotiations, the German commission left Spa yesterday morning for Berlin. The reason for the reported suspension was not given. General Ludendorff is expected to arrive in Berlin today and Field Marshal Von Hindenburg will go there soon.

Negotiations between Allied and German financial, economic and military missions have been in progress at Spa for some time, but there has been no information from Allied sources that in the nature of a crisis had developed there. In the absence of definite information it would seem probable that the meetings, if they have been broken up, as reported, have suspended only temporarily. On Feb. 14 Marshal Foch presented to the German armistice commission at Treves the provisions for an extension of the armistice between the Allies and Germany. These provisions he received from the supreme council of the peace conference. They were accepted by the Germans, after being referred to the national assembly at Weimar, and were signed by the German delegates on the evening of Feb. 16.

ROUMANIAN ARMY BEING RE-ASSEMBLED

Hasty Preparations to Resist Bolshevik Attacks on Frontier—Much Suffering in Country

Paris, Feb. 27.—(By the Associated Press)—J. H. Baker, of Troy, N. Y., representing the supreme council in matters of food relief has just returned to Paris after a tour of Roumania and Serbia. He says that the Roumanian army, numbering 200,000, which had been partly demobilized, is being re-mobilized hastily to meet Bolshevik attacks along the border between Bessarabia and the Ukraine, where the Bolsheviks are massing troops. The Roumanians fear these forces will become active with the opening of spring. Mr. Baker reports that there is extreme suffering in Roumania, owing to the lack of food and clothing. Thousands of women and children, he declares, are compelled to walk barefooted in streets covered with snow. He says that complete paralysis of the Serbian railways prevents relief work and the suffering in Serbia is intense.

FRANCE AGAINST SINKING SHIPS

Delegation at Peace Conference in Energetic Opposition—Needs Them in Recuperation

Paris, Feb. 27.—The French delegation to the peace conference will energetically oppose the general sinking of the German fleet, says Stephen Lausanne in the Matin. Other powers, of course, he says, may do what they like among the Allies in proportion to the losses each suffered during the war. Continuing, M. Lausanne says: "Georges Leygues, minister of marine, clearly explained the reason for this attitude to the navy committee of the chamber of deputies recently. He showed how France gave up her dockyard plants to make munitions at the beginning of the war, stopping all shipbuilding. She lost fifteen per cent of her naval tonnage and comes out of the war with a weakened navy which she has been unable to keep in repair for five years. "France needs a navy to police the seas and protect her colonial empire. The most pacific nations in the world would the country say if, a year hence, the chamber asked for a vote of credit to build ships identical with those sunk? The most pacific nations in the world have navies and the United States has just drawn up the most important programme ever voted by the American congress."

M. P.'S WANTING $1,000 YEAR MORE

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—There is a movement on foot amongst the members of the house to have the seasonal indemnity increased from $2,500 to $3,500 per annum, and it is understood that the matter was mentioned at the first government caucus of the session held today. Members say that with the cost of living doubled throughout the country, and accentuated at the capital, for temporary residents by the shortage of accommodations, they are unable, if a session is prolonged, "to make both ends meet."

SCHOOL RESOLUTION

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—Dr. Edwards, member for Frontenac, has given notice of the following resolution: "That in the opinion of the house it is desirable that the British North America Act should be amended so as to secure the establishment of non-sectarian national school systems throughout the dominion."

BOLSHEVISTS WITH RED CROSS PASSES

Warsaw, Feb. 27.—(By the Associated Press)—That Danish Red Cross passes are being furnished Moscow Bolsheviks has come to the knowledge of the inter-Allied mission here. It appears that this has been practiced for the last two months. The immediate cause of the complaint was the arrival here from Moscow of three persons who bore such passes. These persons had 60,000 roubles, but they said that if the British, American and French and also the International Red Cross Societies, all of which are represented here, would accept funds they were prepared to secure in Moscow eighty million roubles. They insisted, however, that they be permitted to have control of the expenditures.

IN PARLIAMENT.

Yesterday's session of parliament at Ottawa was made notable by the speeches of Hon. Messrs. Carvell and Calder. Touching the question of Liberal and Unionist, they made it clear that while they are and will remain Liberals they believe mere questions of party at the present moment are overshadowed by the grave questions calling for the best judgment of an united parliament.

Mr. Carvell spoke with earnestness of the financial situation and the burdens imposed by the war. In addition to the estimated revenue from present sources it will be necessary this year to raise another hundred millions. Mr. Carvell leaves the fuller discussion of this to the finance minister, but expresses his own view that the income tax should be extended both upwards and downwards, to yield a larger share of the needed revenue. He says it will be impossible to spend all of the $50,000,000 to $75,000,000 asked for in the country generally for public works. Soldiers' pensions will probably call for $50,000,000 and soldiers' civil re-establishment $25,000,000, and these requirements must be met. Canada's additional annual expenditure as a result of the war he places at $175,000,000. The government must have regard to the problems of unemployment, and the expenditure of the public works department must be planned with special reference to the great need. Mr. Carvell, while emphasizing the gravity of the financial situation points out that Canada is in perhaps a better position than any other of the warring nations, and with her great resources should be able to recover quickly, always assuming that her expenditures are guided by wisdom. With regard to the expansion of trade, he puts it up to the business interests of the country to do their share and not expect the government to do what they themselves should do; and adds that firms who grew rich in the war should now assist in solving the problem of unemployment. The minister spoke with gravity and earnestness, and as one who feels keenly his own responsibility in dealing with great national problems.

Hon. Mr. Calder also dwelt upon the gravity of the problems confronting parliament, made more grave by the fact that the great machine built up during four years of war must be dismantled as quickly as possible. He pointed out that the government had not been idle, but that extensive preparations for demobilization were already under way before the armistice was signed. Mr. Calder bluntly asserted that the greatest menace to the country is the politician seeking votes, and made a strong plea for a united Canada seeking a platform for conflicting interests and standing for higher ideals of citizenship. The minister declared his belief that Canada had as good an organization as any other country to deal with the problem of repatriation, but like Mr. Carvell, he laid emphasis upon the serious nature of the work to be done before normal conditions can be secured. It is not a matter for this year or next, but for a number of years to come. So far as the present session of parliament is concerned, there should be no display of partisanship, but a common desire to serve the country's needs.

LEST WE FORGET.

The constant complaints on the part of Germany that harsh terms are being imposed by the Allies prompts Bradstreet's to direct attention to some of the things Germany did when she had the power to do it. We quote:

"A commission which has been investigating the damage done by them in Belgium says that out of a total of about 2,600 miles of railroad, nearly 690 miles have been completely destroyed and about 260 miles rendered useless. The Germans took 2,814 locomotives out of a total of 4,534, or about 57 per cent; 9,062 passenger coaches out of 10,869, or 83 per cent, and 80,568 out of a total of 94,737 freight cars, or 86 per cent. The principal bridges have been blown up or otherwise destroyed, and it is estimated that 100,000,000 pounds of steel will be required to rebuild them. It is a circumstance not without interest that 70 per cent of the destruction was carried out in the month and a half preceding the armistice. The damage done to railroads, material, bridges and equipment is put at over $1,000,000,000. Some striking statements regarding the devastation done in France have been made in the Senate by the Minister of Industrial Reconstruction, M. Loucheur. He estimates that the rehabilitation of the important coal and industrial districts of the departments of the Nord and Pas de Calais will cost about $15,000,000,000, and that the repair of the coal mines alone will cost over $400,000,000 and cannot be accomplished in less than ten years. So thoroughly have the Germans dismantled the factories there that, according to M. Loucheur, it will require several years and 40,000 freight cars to take back the machinery removed to Germany. It is little wonder that with such records of their ravages brought to light, the Germans shrink from the application of the principle that 'he who breaks, pays.'

It is worth while also to quote at this time a paragraph from a German newspaper, the Kolnische Zeitung, which appeared in 1914, about a month after the war started. The jubilant German editor said: "There will be no such country as Great Britain at the end of the war in existence. In its place we shall have Little Britain, a narrow strip of island territory, peopled by loutish football-kickers, living on crumbs that Germany will throw to them. Whatever this war may bring in its train, certain it is that the laughable and childish military system of Britain will shortly fall to pieces. Then the once-mighty Empire, with her naval strength represented by the few old tubs which Germany will have left her, will become the laughing-stock of nations—a scarecrow at which children will point their fingers in disdainful glee."

Whenever Germany complains her attention should be directed very pointedly to her own record.

TAXING CHURCHES.

The taxing of religious institutions is a live question in Quebec province, and that policy appears to be growing in favor. A Quebec letter in the Montreal Gazette says:

"Permission to impose a special tax on the religious institutions of the city of St. Hyacinthe, where their property value amounts to $1,500,000, was granted today by the private bills committee of the legislative assembly, as asked for in the bill introduced by Mr. Bouchard, member for St. Hyacinthe. The measure asked for follow up what was passed last session, but about which there was some legal dispute. Only the refuge is to be exempt from taxes, according to the amended bill passed by the committee, and churches, including the cathedral, parsonages and cemeteries, will have to pay for opening and maintaining streets, sidewalks and sewers and water courses, the cost of street lighting, as well as for the use of water. The original bill of St. Hyacinthe asked that a tax of 50 per cent of the cost of paving be placed on all the property, but the religious bodies asked that instead of being liable to this tax they pay the full cost of pavements opposite their own frontages, and Mr. Bouchard accepted this compromise. The institutions felt that if they were called on to pay 50 per cent of the cost of all pavements, under a general special tax for pavements, the cost would be much higher than to pay for the one hundred per cent of pavements in front of their places, especially if the municipality decided to go in for a wholesale paving programme."

It is stated that the passage of this bill adds an annual revenue of $6,500 to St. Hyacinthe, and with the other special taxes imposed on exempted things last year, and which are now confirmed, the total additional tax secured from exempt property will be about $20,000 per year. The Gazette correspondent adds that with the powers granted St. Hyacinthe in regard to religious property, the city of Montreal could obtain over a million dollars additional revenue per year. We do not hear that any active movement is on foot to secure legislation affecting Montreal, but the example of St. Hyacinthe will doubtless set a lot of Montreal people thinking upon the subject.

German monarchists are said to be planning a coup d'etat. They are riding for another fall. Today's news from Germany shows very disturbed conditions.

The crimes of the Bolsheviks continue to shock the world. The atrocity of Trotsky and Lenin is worse than that of Germany under the Kaiser.

There was a slight chill in the air this morning, but think of that forty-nine below at Saskatoon.

Enormous Food Value of BOVRIL

Proved by World-Famed Scientists at instigation of British Government Department

The great body-building power of Bovril does not admit of argument. It is proved, just as the circulation of the blood is proved, or the law of gravity.

The independent experiments carried out by an eminent physiologist under the most complete scientific control, proved the notable body-building powers of Bovril. The experiments were conducted with human subjects, on a standard diet, and the increase in weight was never less than 10 (and it actually in some cases reached 20) times the amount of Bovril added to the diet.

This tremendous fact, tested and proved in every possible way, has given Bovril a unique place as one of the most precious food substances in the world.

London, Feb. 27.—(Canadian Press despatch from Reuter's Limited)—The king held a dominions investiture at

THEY'RE GETTING IT COLD IN WEST

Buckingham Palace yesterday and conferred more than 250 decorations on officers and men of the overseas forces. These included Victoria Crosses, Companionships of the Bath and of St. Michael, bars to existing decorations, Distinguished Service Orders, Royal Red Cross and Military Crosses. There were many cases of multiple decorations. A military band played during the ceremony, which took place in the ball room where a court official read the records of the deeds for which the orders were conferred. The king shook hands and said a few cordial words to each recipient.

Winnipeg, Feb. 27.—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are experiencing severe cold weather. In Winnipeg yesterday morning the thermometer registered 30 below, the lowest this winter. At Saskatoon it was 49 below, while at Moose Jaw it registered 25 below. Calgary reported between 20 and 30 below.

RECENT WEDDINGS

The wedding of Lewis W. Elmer to Miss Mary Theresa, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Robb of 10 Sydney street, was solemnized yesterday by Rev. A. P. Allen in the cathedral. Mr. Elmer, who went overseas with the 4th Siege Battery, will take his bride to northern Alberta, where they will make their home.

Simion W. Whelpley and Mrs. Mary Etta Barker were united in marriage in Trinity church by Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong yesterday.

The members of the Union Jack Lodge, No. 35, F. A. P. B., held a successful pie social last evening in their hall in Simonds street.

CHURCH WELCOMES RETURNED MEN

The good fellowship gathering of the men of Stone church last evening was a success, about 115 men attending. Rev. G. A. Kuhring delivered an address of welcome to the score of members who had returned from the front, after which addresses were given by Judge Armstrong, Captain Eber Turnbull, Hon. W. E. Foster, George L. Warwick, L. P. D. Filley and George Kimball. A pleasing feature was the presentation of a rifle by Premier Foster on behalf of members of the congregation, to Eldon Merritt, the church's missionary to the Arctic regions. During the evening a bounteous repast was served.

The ladies' committee in charge of the supper consisted of Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, Mrs. George Warwick and Mrs. J. E. Secord; the ladies in charge of the tables were Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. C. S. Francis, Mrs. J. W. McKean, Mrs. H. C. Paterson; in charge of the supplies, Miss Anna Kaye, Mrs. James Manning and Miss Celia Armstrong. Members of the Girls' Association acted as the waitresses.

V. A. D. WORKER RETURNING.
Miss Marion Flaglor, who has been engaged in V. A. D. work in Burdor Hospital, Weymouth, Eng., has cabled her father, J. S. Flaglor, assistant postmaster, that she is to leave for home on the Tunisian on March 12. Miss Flaglor is the first of the V. A. D. girls who went overseas from St. John to return and in her case her release has been necessitated by illness in her home.

The Kipawa Company, Limited, now has under construction at Temiskaming, Quebec, a Bleached Sulphite Pulp Mill, with a capacity of 30,000 tons of Bleached Sulphite Pulp a year; together with electrolytic plant, bleaching, acid plant, etc. The Company is also installing the initial unit, with a capacity of 3,500 h.p., of a hydro-electric development with an ultimate capacity of over 25,000 h.p. The Kipawa plant, it is expected, will be in operation December, 1919.
RIORDON COMPANY
Complete prospectus, copies of which will be furnished on request, contains a letter from Mr. Carl Riordon, Managing Director of the Company, from which we summarize as follows:
RIORDON COMPANY is one of the oldest and largest producers in America of Unbleached Sulphite Pulp for sale. The business has been in successful operation for over 60 years.
PULP WOOD AVAILABLE, 3,000,000 cords, together with wood purchased from neighbouring districts, estimated to be sufficient for many years' operation at present capacity. Arrangements have been made to largely increase Company's wood supply.
COMPANY'S (and Subsidiaries) ANNUAL OUTPUT, adding output Kipawa plant available December of this year, 119,000 tons Bleached and Easy Bleaching Sulphite Pulp, Soda Pulp, Book Papers; and 20,000,000 feet b.m. lumber.
NET CURRENT ASSETS, as at 30th November, 1918, after deducting all Current Liabilities, amounted to $2,250,491 exclusive of proceeds of this issue—equivalent to over 37% of Bonds outstanding.
PROPERTY VALUES by which these Bonds will be secured, show net value of the properties of the Riordon Company, and its net equity in the companies which it controls, to be in excess of $15,000,000 or two and one-half times the total bonded debt of the Company, including this issue.
EARNINGS. Average net earnings of the Company for the three years 1916-1918 inclusive, before de- ducting depreciation and interest, amounted to over $1,600,000, or over four times interest on all Bonds now outstanding. For the past six years, 1913-1918, inclusive, before deducting depreciation and interest, average net earnings amounted to more than $1,000,000, or about three times the interest on all Bonds now outstanding.
Based on normal prices and costs for pulp and normal value of power, it is estimated that the NET EARNINGS OF KIPAWA COMPANY, LIMITED, for the year 1920, should be not less than $750,000, which would permit the payment of substantial dividends on the Common Shares of the Company.

Minister of Public Works Discusses National Finance Problems; Declarations of Liberal Faith

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, which got off to a somewhat listless start yesterday, developed a greater interest today because of the subjects touched upon and the declarations of faith by two of the Liberal Unionists members, Hon. Frank Carvell and Hon. James Calder.

The minister of public works in a straight-forward and frank way discussed the big problems of revenue and expenditure ahead. He emphasized the need of strict economy in every department of administration, reviewed the government's programmes in regard to public works, good roads, pensions, etc., and warned the house that about $100,000,000 to meet the legacy of war.

He estimated that additional annual expenditures, directly due to the war, would amount to $175,000,000. Total receipts from customs excise and business profits and income tax, would total $195,000,000. Further, ordinary administration of the country's affairs could not be carried on with less than $125,000,000 a year.

He outlined the government programme in respect to public works, ship building and highways. The work thereby provided, he argued, would materially assist in reducing unemployment.

past-war period and squarely faced the tariff issue which must, he said, come up this session. He urged the east to pay heed to the strong feeling in the west on tariff matters and expressed the hope that a fair settlement of divergent views between east and west might be reached, thus avoiding a national cleavage fraught with far-reaching and disastrous national consequences.

As to the invitation from the opposition ranks to "come out from among them," Mr. Calder declared: "I joined it (the government) as a Liberal. I am a liberal today. No person can make me anything else or drive me out of the party."

He concluded by saying that the appointment of Hon. P. E. Blondin to the senate, thus enabling him to retain his portfolio after he had been rejected by the people, was without a precedent in British or Canadian parliamentary history.

HER FIVE CHILDREN Had Whooping Cough At the Same Time.

Whooping cough is one of the most dangerous diseases of childhood, especially to those under five years of age. It first starts with a fever and cough, sneezing, watering of the eyes and an irritation of the throat.

On the first sign of whooping cough we would advise the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. This famous remedy will clear the bronchial tubes of the collected mucus and phlegm, and in his way ease the racking cough, and in short time make it disappear entirely.

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so be sure you get the genuine by insisting that the package is put up in a yellow wrapper; these pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. and manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In The Senate Two Opponents of Prohibition Legislation

Senator Dandurand Says There Are Some 50,000 Out of Work in Canada—Government Leader Replies to Address of Criticism

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—The debate on the address was continued in the senate today by Sir James Loughheed and Senator Dandurand and Casgrain.

Senator Dandurand said that while he was in favor of temperance, he was strongly opposed to prohibition, and he would resist with all his power any legislation which sought to bar French wines from the country or which aimed to deprive people of the use of light beer.

He concluded by saying that the appointment of Hon. P. E. Blondin to the senate, thus enabling him to retain his portfolio after he had been rejected by the people, was without a precedent in British or Canadian parliamentary history.

Sir James Loughheed, who replied, said there was unrest throughout the country but this was not surprising. The war had meant an upheaval of human relationships, and conditions all over the world.

In the old world, powers and dynasties and thrones which for centuries had represented the liberties of the peoples, were crumbling, and it was not surprising that the shores of the new world should be touched by the spirit wave of revolution now sweeping over Russia and the nations of Central Europe.

Senator Casgrain, who followed, rejoined over the forecasted disappearance of the war times election act, expressed opposition to the proposed prohibition legislation, wanted to have more information about the Canadian Northern Railway and the situation in respect to mail clerk on the Bangor-Vanceboro run

Women as Brave As the Men

THEIR STRUGGLE SHOWS A REMARKABLE SPIRIT. Talk of the bravery of men, but where can you find a finer spirit than among the half-sick women who are fighting and struggling to do their duty against the terrible odds of ill health, and who will not give up.

One woman in every three is struggling against weakness. Most of them are not exactly sick, but, oh, how miserable. The burden and misery of it all has its foundation in the blood which is thin and watery. The red cells are too few. The very stream of life is reduced in vitality. Weakness and inevitable ill-health are the certain result.

Every ailing or weak woman can quickly regain her health in this very simple way. By filling the system with the nutritious food that change for the better will result. To accomplish this, take two chocolate-coated Ferronose Tablets after each meal. You'll feel better immediately for the simple reason that Ferronose renews the blood. It gives you vim, vigor, endurance, restores a tired, worn-out system very quickly.

You'll feel like new all over once you get Ferronose working through your system. It puts color into faded cheeks, brightens the eye, quickens the step, brings back that wonderful feeling of youth.

One of the finest things Ferronose does is to make you eat and digest it as well. With keen appetite, sound sleep, strong nerves and lots of nourishing blood you're bound to regain robust health. EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; make a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

ARE YOU AWARE OF THESE FACTS?

GREAT BRITAIN After March 1st of this year, practically all manufactured goods from other countries will be barred from the United Kingdom, except those imported under special licenses, which at present are difficult to obtain. This regulation amounts to almost total prohibition of imports of manufactured goods, except those purchased directly by the Government of the United Kingdom. The object of this prohibition as announced by the British Government is: To have British goods manufactured in British factories, and thus give employment to the rapidly demobilizing British Army and the war workers.

FRANCE The tradesmen of France, generally speaking, are not permitted to buy manufactured goods from other countries except under special licenses. France is determined to keep her own factories busy and thus furnish employment for French soldiers and war workers.

The industrial systems of Britain and France are disorganized by the transition from war to peace. Consequently, they are being given the greatest measure of protection ever known in history. They are erecting encircling walls to shut out goods manufactured by other countries.

CANADA During the war, Canada scrapped many peace industries for war industries. The reverse is now being carried out. Canada must provide positions for over 200,000 soldiers who are not yet demobilized. When the armistice was signed, there were about 700,000 people employed in Canadian manufacturing establishments. This number included a considerable percentage of the 300,000 soldiers who were discharged during the course of the war, and also the makers of munitions and war material. Canada must use her utmost efforts to retain these in employment or to find them new employment.

Canadian industry during readjustment is not safeguarded by an almost impassable wall similar to those now being erected by Britain and France. Exclusive of the special war tariff, levied generally on imports, both dutiable and free, by the Government for the purpose of raising war revenue, the Canadian Customs tariff in the fiscal year 1918 imposed an average rate of only twenty-one and two-fifths (21.2-5) per cent. on dutiable goods coming into Canada.

Yet, at this critical time, insistent demands are heard from certain sections of Canada that sweeping tariff reductions must be made immediately without any preliminary study of the probable result on commercial and financial conditions. If these demands are met other countries will be encouraged to dump their surplus manufactured goods into Canada and increase unemployment here.

Shall we tear down even what safeguards we possess, at the very time that older and stronger countries are so greatly increasing theirs?

Death of Lieutenant W. Buddell, One of The First Members of 26th Comrades Lay Him at Rest in Taminnes, Belgium SUGGUMBED TO PNEUMONIA

Caught Cold on Freight Train Trip from Cologne and Died Within a Week - Impressive Scene at Military Funeral

"We buried poor old 'Billy' Buddell yesterday, one of the most popular among our officers, an original member of the battalion, and of late our adjutant."

"He was an Englishman, born near London, and had travelled considerably. He had not only become a veteran of this war, but had also fought through the South African campaigns. He represented in Canada an English carpet and tapestry house with headquarters, I think, in Halifax, and was well known throughout the maritime provinces. Just a few days before his death he told me he was looking forward pleasantly to his return home and his renewing his business and social acquaintances in the east."

"The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Capt. Stewart, M. C., chaplain with the 26th. The brass band played a hymn, the pipes sounded a lament, the bugles blazed out with the 'Last Post' and the firing party fired a parting volley. Then all the officers in turn saluted the grave and beautiful wreaths were placed upon it from the men of the battalion, headquarters, and each of the company officers' messes, as a tribute to the respect in which he was held. Every member of the 26th who could possibly attend was present in the cortege, and formed a column through which the procession passed. In addition there were present officers from brigade headquarters and the other units of the brigade."

BAND OF THE 26TH STIRS BELGIANS

People are so Pleased With Good Playing in Streets That Concert is Given

"Our fine new brass band is making a splendid impression," writes an officer of the 26th Can. Battalion, in a letter to a friend here, "and is adding considerably to the prestige and popularity of the unit. Everywhere we go it attracts attention, and praise as it stands out so far ahead of other regimental bands."

"During the week we have been having our daily parades and, of course, the band and pipes would alternate in playing for inspection, marching, etc. The boys are just to listen, and, seeing how interested they were in the music, the band decided to give a concert for them. They did so on last Sunday night, and I guess it will go down in history as the greatest musical event from which all the officers in the brigade were present. The concert was given, was crowded—Marie Louise, Marie Antoinette, Marie Therese, all were out in their gaiters, 'madame' from almost every soldier's billet, and 'mère and gran' pees, boys and girls—all the old place never held such a crowd nor a more appreciative audience."

All the World recognizes the Pathephone as the Greatest of all Phonographs. Pathephone. Listening to one TO-DAY, to the other a week LATER, the untrained ear might not always note the great difference;—but hear them together and the superiority of the Pathephone will be immediately apparent: it is like setting up dress against GOLD! The Pathephone, built with ideals of ART and TRUTH, renders the art and truth of MUSIC at its BEST! The wonderful inventive genius that brought the Pathephone to its perfection and has maintained it ever in the lead, has manifested itself in several remarkable devices, such as the Sapphire Ball, which not only greatly improves the tone, but also does away with needle changing and ensures long life to the Record, and the tone modulator, permitting you to augment or decrease the volume of tone at your pleasure. Then, there is the ingenious device which makes it possible to play ANY make of Record! You must hear the Pathephone to realize what a wonderful and artistic Music Maker it is. It is splendidly built in modern as well as in Period designs. They are exquisite examples of the Furniture maker's art, and still they cost LESS than ordinary Phonographs and are sold on terms of payment which make buying convenient. THE British are noted as great tea drinkers and are naturally good judges of tea. So when we learn that over 70% of the tea used in Great Britain is Indian tea we can be sure that Indian tea is of the very best quality. In Canada the preference for Indian tea has become just as strong, as evidenced by the success of Red Rose Tea which consists chiefly of ASSAMS—the richest and strongest of Indian teas. Red Rose is always sold in sealed packages. RED ROSE TEA is good tea. Red Rose Coffee is as generously good as Red Rose Tea.

STRUGGLED AND SCREAMED WHEN FORCED TO LEAVE THE JAIL

Boston Suffragists Objected to Payment of Fines by E. H. Howe Boston, Feb. 27.—Three of the suffragists who were sent to the Charles street jail because they refused to pay fines imposed as a result of a demonstration while President Wilson was here on Monday, were forcibly ejected from the jail last night after E. H. Howe had paid their fines of $5 each. The state law provides that prisoners must be released immediately after fines are paid. When Sheriff John A. Kellher announced that their fines had been paid the women declared they would not leave their cells. Two deputies were summoned for each suffragist and the women were carried out, struggling and screaming, and placed upon the sidewalk. They announced they would picket the jail today and would consult an attorney if an injunction could be brought to restrain the sheriff from accepting payment of their fines without their consent. Mr. Howe, who paid the fines, is unknown to the women.

AWNING REGULATIONS.
As the time for the use of awnings over store windows is approaching, and some merchants already are getting them in order, the commissioner of public safety has been giving the matter some attention. A civic by-law requires all such awnings to clear the sidewalk by eight feet. In the past this rule has not always been observed but the commissioner intends that it shall be enforced.

The announcement that William Gilman, nephew of Mrs. William Quigley of Renforth, whose home is in Rumford, Me., and who went overseas with the 103rd U. S. Infantry, won honors in the field is contained in a Maine newspaper received here. She leaves to mourn besides her mother, four sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Henry Ewart of West St. John, Mrs. Percy Sears of North End, Elsie and Agnes at home. The brothers are Percy and Herbert at home. The funeral will be on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 from her late residence, 84 King street, West St. John.

CONSIDERING MILK REGULATIONS.
A committee of the Board of Health, consisting of Dr. J. H. L. Brown, district officer; Dr. G. G. Melvin, chief medical officer for New Brunswick; W. H. Gold, health officer for St. John, are engaged today in considering the new regulations governing the inspection and sale of milk, meals and foods of various sorts. The regulations are quite lengthy and in their final compilation will be a composite of the best rules used in various places, as well as some retained from former legislation.

THE PORTLAND REPORT.
Montreal Gazette: "The arrangements have been made for the diversion of shipping to Portland, Maine," was the information given to the Gazette at headquarters of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Steamships in regard to the rumor which has been published that Portland will be selected as a terminus shortly. At the same time, it was admitted that there is always a possibility of a change, the reason being that St. John as a port is costly, the chief items being labor and port dues. This scheme, of course, applies only to the winter traffic, and as the period of open navigation is already getting near, it would scarcely appear likely that any change will come this year. As regards Montreal and Quebec, no alteration will be made in the arrangements. The C. P. O. S. boats will continue to come here, with the exception of two big boats—the Empress of France and the Empress of Britain.

Y. W. C. A. HOME IN TEN DAYS.
It is hoped to have the Young Women's Christian Association home, King street, ready for the reception of lodgers in about ten days. There may be some unforeseen delays but with steady work and no hitches this should be the date. The old Revere House, which used to be the name for the Sears building in its days as a hotel, has been practically rebuilt inside. It has been brought up to date as to plumbing and other conveniences and with paint, whitewash, carpentry and other fruits of the tradesman's skill is now a large, cosy and attractive home. It might readily be thrown open as a commercial hotel enterprise, so neat and inviting does it look. Therefore the young women in whose interests it has been acquired may congratulate themselves upon their good fortune in having so nice a place. It is understood that the home will be opened with some function suitable to the occasion and that the public will be allowed the privilege of seeing the result of their generous cash donations as converted into living quarters for girls working in the city where protecting influences will be thrown around them.

PRaise CAPTAIN OF RAMORE HEAD

Skillful Work in Picking up and Towing Disabled Tanker to St. John's

In a recent issue of the St. John's Daily Star, published in St. John's, Nfld., was a lengthy article lauding the skillful navigation and clever feat of Captain H. S. Kane of the S. S. Ramore Head, who successfully towed a disabled all-tanker, the J. M. Guffy, through a field of ice to St. John's. The article in part follows: "The feat of the Ramore Head is one of the finest of our maritime records and Captain Kane and his crew have been warmly congratulated for, under adverse conditions, the Guffy has been safely towed to port, and under the direction of a man whose knowledge of ice conditions was extremely limited. "The J. M. Guffy, Captain Lonsdale, was twenty-five days out from Inverness, bound to the Hampton Roads, and had bolterous weather nearly all the time. Heavy gales with tremendous seas prevailed for seventeen days, and to make matters worse, she ran into slob ice. For two days she was battered about and was unable to 'head up' to the sea, owing to her boilers being out of condition. Her S. O. S. call was picked up by the Ramore Head, but the position of the steamer could not be located. About midnight the captain sighted a rocket and an hour later was alongside. The Ramore Head was en route to Dublin from this port with general cargo. While at St. John's she took on 300 tons of bunker coal.

NO SIGN OF WRECKAGE

Carquet Reports By Wireless on Inquiry About the G. M. Cochrane

Word received by the marine and fisheries department this morning was to the effect that there was no sign of the wrecked schooner George Melville Cochrane and there was no doubt that she was the one which sank yesterday off the Lunenburg light following an explosion. This morning the wireless operator at the Lunenburg got in touch with the S. S. Carquet which is en route here, and learned that they had not sighted any wreck and had not seen any wreckage. Shipping men about the port are of the opinion that some of the rigging gear gave way and the masts were overboard. They did not attribute the accident to storm.

LARGE NUMBER AT THE FUNERAL OF ROBERT L. JOHNSTON

The funeral of Robert L. Johnston, one of the victims in Tuesday's tragedy on the Kennebecasis, held this afternoon, was a striking tribute to the esteem in which he was held by the whole community as well as a mark of sympathy for the left bereaved. Assembly at the home of Mrs. Horncastle, 36 Sydney street, the cortege, which quite fully represented the family and business life of St. John, proceeded to St. John's (Stone) church. There were no formal pallbearers, the coffin being borne by relatives and intimate friends. At the church Rev. G. A. Kuhring read the service, while a full choir sang the chosen hymns "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "O God, Our Help in Ages Past." D. Arnold Fox rendered an appropriate postlude on the organ. The edifice was filled. Profuse floral tributes covered the coffin and were carried in closed carriages. At Fernhill Rev. Mr. Kuhring offered the final prayers, as he did also at the Horncastle home before the body was taken to the church.

TALKED OVER "GREETINGS" WORK

A representative body of patriotic women workers, delegates from fifteen organizations in the city, met in the Grand War Veterans rooms, Wellington block at seven o'clock this forenoon and discussed informally the work which has been going on for some time. Sun Point, the meeting and assisting of soldiers' wives and children disembarking there from the continuous run of steamships. Many practical remarks were made and a general discussion of value entered into.

This was the third of a series of similar meetings as a means of co-ordinating and systematizing the winter port relief work so far as the women are concerned. There are already several bodies engaged at the docks, but the mixed body of women is specializing on the dependents of the soldiers, the women and little ones. Miss Perry of the Y. W. C. A. presided this morning.
