German Submarine off New Jersey Coast; Several Vessels Are Sunk

FRENCH HOLD ENEMY; MAKE GAINS; BRITISH WIN ALSO

NOT SURE IF MORE THAN ONE U-BOAT IS AT WORK

From Four to Fifteen Vessels Have Been Sent Down—One Steamship Included—Believed Destroyers Are in Search of Enemy Craft—No Ships Allowed Out of New York

New York, June 3—One steamship, one schooner and two or three other vessels have been sunk off the Jersey coast by a German submarine.

Information received at the maritime exchange here indicates as many as fifteen vessels have been sunk.

Providence, R. I., June 3—Narragansett Bay was closed to outgoing vessels this morning by order of the commandant of the naval station at Newport.

New York, June 3—The ships were attacked some time during the night, according to information which was received here. Details were not yet immediately available. The port authorities barred the departure of outgoing ships this forenoon.

It is presumed here that the submarine or submarines are now being dealt with by American destroyers.

One of the ships sunk was the Edward H. Cole, a sailing vessel.

It was asserted in shipping circles that it was possible that as many as six additional vessels were destroyed, not including those known to have been sunk.

A later special despatch received by the Times says that four vessels are reported sunk.

RUSSIANS SWINGING TOWARDS THE ALLIES

Movement Increasing; Meanwhile a Protest Against Retention of Russian Troops on Western Front

London, June 3—The movement within Russia in favor of the cause of the Allies is increasing and has been strengthened by President Wilson's recent declaration of sympathy for Russia.

The Novo Vedomosti, in a long article, defends the policy of the Allies and expresses gratitude for President Wilson's friendly utterances.

Moscow, May 29—(By the Associated Press)—Foreign Minister Tchitcherin has extended to France against the further retention of Russian troops on the French front. The protest declares that Russian neutrality makes it imperative that Russian soldiers be immediately removed from France.

A division or more of Russian troops have been in France since 1916. The Russians, however, never took a very active part in the fighting and have not been mentioned in official reports recently.

London, June 3—The president of the Bolshevik commission in the Don Cossack territory has been hanged by anti-Soviet Cossacks, according to a Reuter despatch from Moscow. He was the chief organizer of the Cossack movement against General Kaledin.

Moscow, May 29—(By the Associated Press)—The Chinese government has informed Foreign Minister Tchitcherin that it regrets it is unable to admit Russian troops to China, because the Soviet government has not been recognized by China.

The Chinese government has been instructed not to discuss diplomatic matters with the Soviet authorities, but to confine itself to commercial relations. This has caused some surprise to the Bolshevik government because last January China proposed that it be instructed not to discuss diplomatic matters with the Soviet authorities, but to confine itself to commercial relations. This has caused some surprise to the Bolshevik government because last January China proposed that it be instructed not to discuss diplomatic matters with the Soviet authorities, but to confine itself to commercial relations.

Moscow, May 29—(By the Associated Press)—The Japanese foreign office announced that the recently signed convention between China and Japan is limited to joint military operations in defense against the German menace in Siberia. Notes exchanged between the two countries on March 25, were made public today by the foreign office.

The first, from China to Japan, says: "The means and conditions of the co-operation of the army and navy of China with Japan, are compatible with a common military defence against an enemy, for the realization of which plans may be decided upon by mutual agreement of both countries. They will be arranged by the military and naval authorities of both countries, who from time to time will consult with each other freely and carefully upon all questions of mutual interest, and upon approval of the governments, they will be carried into action according to the demands of the circumstances."

At the same time Viscount Motono, then Japanese foreign minister replied: "I propose on behalf of my government that the period in which the troops will remain in force be determined by competent military and naval authorities of the two powers. At the same time the imperial government is happy to declare that Japanese troops within Chinese territory for the purpose of such defensive movements will be withdrawn completely upon the termination of the war."

The third note was merely the formal acknowledgment by the Chinese government of Viscount Motono's reply.

The C. G. R. constables are today sporting their new uniforms, which were issued during the latter part of the week. The coats are of a little different cut than the others. The new style meets with the approval of the local constables.

London, June 3—Twelve of a fleet of thirty or forty fishing vessels which left Irish ports on the night of May 30, were sunk by a German submarine, says a Belfast despatch to the Daily Telegraph. The submarine suddenly appeared in the midst of the fleet, and ordered the fishermen to take to the boats and row ashore. It then sank the vessels by shelling them.

The fishermen say the submarine was interrupted in its work and submerged, which probably prevented destruction of the entire fleet. The fishermen lost all their gear, but there were no casualties.

NEWFOUNDLAND PAPER HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED

St. John's, Nfld., June 3—The government on Saturday, under the authority of the war measures act, suppressed the Daily Star newspaper on the charge of printing articles calculated to hamper the operation of the conscription act. The newspaper instituted proceedings against the police officers who carried out the government orders, alleged for unlawful entry upon its premises. The case will come before the supreme court on next Tuesday.

HUNS LOSE MORE OF THEIR AIR MACHINES

London, June 3—In air fighting on Saturday, twenty-one German machines were destroyed and four others disabled. Four enemy observation balloons were destroyed. Four British machines are missing.

GERMANS SINK IRISH FISHERMEN

London, June 3—Twelve of a fleet of thirty or forty fishing vessels which left Irish ports on the night of May 30, were sunk by a German submarine, says a Belfast despatch to the Daily Telegraph. The submarine suddenly appeared in the midst of the fleet, and ordered the fishermen to take to the boats and row ashore. It then sank the vessels by shelling them.

The fishermen say the submarine was interrupted in its work and submerged, which probably prevented destruction of the entire fleet. The fishermen lost all their gear, but there were no casualties.

MORE RESULTS OF ALLIES' WORK AT ZEEBRUGGE

London, June 3—(via Reuter's Limited)—The admiralty announced tonight that photographs taken by British aircraft at Zeebrugge show a submarine or other vessel lying on its bilge close to the mole. This vessel, the admiralty statement says, was probably sunk by a torpedo fired from the destroyer North Star on April 30. Other photographs showed a sailing vessel with deck awash at low water about 800 yards from the mole. This probably is a destroyer sunk by bombs from an airplane on May 30.

Amsterdam, June 3—(via Reuter's Limited)—During the British aerial attacks on Zeebrugge on May 30, the De Jaeger works, employed in repairing guns and sorting ammunition, were partially destroyed.

Many soldiers and a few civilians have been killed in the frequent allied raids, which have greatly delayed the work of repairing the Zeebrugge sluices, which are still out of commission.

OTTAWA TAKES HAND IN MATTER OF NEW WORKS BY MUNICIPALITIES

Ottawa, June 3—The attention of the minister of finance has been directed to the fact that, in some cases, municipalities are proceeding with new works, other than those to which they were committed prior to or soon after the outbreak of the war. The minister announces that it is necessary, in order that his financial resources may be conserved for the dominion's war financing, that fresh municipal undertakings should be going on with the consent of the federal government.

After further fighting of short duration the American and German machines separated. There was little other aerial activity today.

WAS DISAPPOINTED.

Quite a large number of citizens were disappointed this morning on going to the I. C. R. station to find that there was no nine o'clock suburban train, as some papers had announced. It will not go on until June 24.

PHILIP AND PERDINAND WEATHER REPORT

Issued by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis—An area of high pressure which is centred near the Great Lakes, covers a large portion of the continent and fine weather prevails throughout the dominion.

Forecasts.

Ottawa and Upper and Lower St. Lawrence—Moderate west to northwest winds, fine today and on Tuesday. A little cooler tonight.

Gulf and North Shore—Fresh southerly to westerly winds, fair today and on Tuesday; a little higher temperature on Tuesday.

Fair and Warm.

New England—Fair tonight and Tuesday; cooler tonight; light north-west winds.

SHIP-BUILDING AT HALIFAX ON A LARGE SCALE

Montreal, June 3—The Gazette has the following despatch from Ottawa:

Of next importance to the announcement of the government shipbuilding programme and the establishment of a steel plate mill at Sydney, N. S., is a statement authorized by the minister of marine and fisheries, Hon. C. C. Balantyne, that arrangements had been definitely concluded whereby shipbuilding on a large scale and modern scale will be undertaken at Halifax forthwith.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE TALE OF GERMAN BRUTALITY

Crew of Trawler Left Adrift; All Die But One and He Loses Both Hands

London, June 3—Another terrible tale of a German submarine atrocity is told by Joseph Mason, a Boston fisherman, regarding the loss of his boat and crew in the month of captivity. Mason lost both his hands as a result of German inhumanity.

While a trawler of whose crew he was a member was fishing on April 6, 1917, a German submarine opened fire on it. After firing forty or fifty shots, according to Mason, the underwater boat came alongside and put the crew of ten men into a boat, sank the trawler with bombs and then left the crew to live or die in mid-ocean in bitterly cold weather with half a gale blowing and a drizzling rain falling.

For six days and five nights the men packed in the open boat drifted helplessly in the heavy seas. Their sufferings were terrible, and one after another all died except Mason, who was badly frost-bitten. He was barely conscious when a second German submarine approached the boat with its searchlight men and took him off as a prisoner to Germany.

AMERICANS AND HUNS IN AN AIR FIGHT

With the American Army in France, June 2—(By the Associated Press)—During a light on Sunday afternoon between four American planes and six German planes north of Toul, one of the American pilots shot down an enemy plane.

Almost at the same time, however, one of the American machines apparently was hit by an enemy's incendiary bullet and burst into flames and crashed to earth inside the enemy lines.

After further fighting of short duration the American and German machines separated. There was little other aerial activity today.

GERMANY REACHES INTO CENTRAL ASIA FOR ALL AVAILABLE CROPS

London, June 3—(via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—The ministry of national service has authorized the enlistment of 38,500 hiberno exempted men under thirty-one years, engaged in British agriculture and certain allied occupations. These men will be sent to the front after which there will be no further recruiting of exempted agriculturists unless compelled by developments in the military situation.

STOCK MARKET SHOWS CONFIDENCE IN ALLIES

New York, June 3—Many substantial advances registered at the opening of today's stock market were accepted as an expression of confidence in latest war developments. Gains amongst steel and railway industrials ranged from one to two points, while Baldwin Locomotive equipment, rising 3 1/2 points in first few minutes. Marines were extremely erratic, the preferred advancing almost two points, then reacting three. Union Pacific and Reading were among the firm to strong falls. Sumatra Tobacco, Mexican Petroleum and Ohio Gas featured the specialties at material gains. Liberty bonds were heavy.

Huns Held Everywhere

French Break up Violent Attacks and Make Progress

Paris, June 3—The French held the Germans everywhere last night. The enemy losses were heavy. The French took prisoners, the war office reports.

The French counter-attacked along the whole front between the Ourcq and the Marne and made progress at several points. A violent attack on both sides of the road between Chateau Thierry and Paris was broken up by the French.

PREDICT ALLIED OFFENSIVE

FLANDERS GAIN.

Paris, June 3—An Allied offensive manoeuvre is predicted by Le Matin and Le Petit Factien. They express the conviction that Generals Foch and Petain, who proved themselves good offensive men in subordinate commands, will display the same qualities in the supreme commands of the Allied and the French armies.

All the newspapers, according to a Havas Agency review, believe that the equilibrium seems to have been re-established on all points of the front, and that the hostilities are growing less in extent.

The German assaults are still furious and violent, while the French resistance is fierce and energetic with numerous strong counter-attacks. On Sunday the French held the enemy in check and even forced him to withdraw from some points.

BRITISH MAKE ENEMY LOSSES

London, June 3—The British last night gained ground slightly in a local operation on the northern side of the Flanders salient. Nearly 200 prisoners were taken. The statement follows:

Successful local operations were carried out by our troops last night in the neighborhood of Vieux Berquin and Meris. Our line has been advanced slightly at these points, and 193 prisoners and some machine guns and trench mortars have been captured by us. Our casualties were light.

Successful raids resulting in the capture of twenty prisoners, three machine guns and a trench mortar were carried out by us also southeast of Arras, northwest of Lens, and west of Merville.

A hostile raiding party was repulsed south of Villers-Bretonneux.

Resistance Increases.

With the French Army in France, June 2—(By the Associated Press)—The resistance of the Allied troops is growing.

With the French Army in France, June 2—(By the Associated Press)—The Germans have accentuated their movement to the south of the forest of Villers Cotterets and in the valley of the Ourcq and at the same time are attempting to push forward to the north between the Aisne and the Oise rivers. This is indicated clearly by their concentrations of troops.

The enemy is able to command the portion of Chateau Thierry line which lies on the northern bank of the Marne, but the Allies still retain the southern portion.

French Statement

Paris, June 3—The official French statement follows:

"Our troops continued their counter-attacks during the night along the whole front between the Ourcq and the Marne and gained ground at several points. A violent German attack delivered on both sides of the road between Chateau Thierry and Paris was broken up by the French fire southeast of Boursches. Everywhere else the French maintained their positions.

"The losses suffered by the enemy in these actions were heavy. The French took hundreds of prisoners."

German Report.

Amsterdam, June 3—Four persons were killed, six seriously wounded and many slightly injured when ten British machines attacked the open town of Karlsruhe on Saturday morning, according to the Weser Zeitung of Bremen. Two of the British airmen were shot down, it is declared.

The British war office statement on aerial operations issued Saturday night reported a raid on the station and workshops of Karlsruhe. The statement said that one of the machines engaged in the raid had failed to return.

ENEMY LOSES IN POPULATION; BRITAIN GAINS

War's Effect on Man Power and in Lessening of Number of Births Severely Felt by Central Powers

London, June 3—(British Admiralty, per Wireless Press)—The drain of man power, the fall in the number of births and the loss of the population through sickness and under-feeding, is felt more severely by the Central Powers than by the peoples of the Entente. Whereas the annual gain of population in Germany, Austria and Hungary has given place to a serious loss, the peoples of the Entente have suffered a very small diminution in comparison.

Great Britain's total population has so far remained at about the same figure, gains balancing losses. As the war goes on, this growing disparity in the losses of population between the Central Powers and the peoples fighting them is likely to increase. If the war goes into next year the population of the German empire, on which reliance was placed for the enlargement of Germany's prosperity and industry and for repairing the injury to trade and commerce after the war will have lost ten per cent of the numbers and a still greater proportion of its industrial strength.

By next year the German empire will be 7,025,000 less in population than it would have been had the war not taken place. The vitality of the people of Austria and of Hungary has suffered even more.

Meanwhile, despite the losses which England has suffered in the war zone, the British population has been growing. By the middle of 1919 this population will be only three per cent lower than it would have been without war. Great Britain in 1919 will have a larger population than in 1914.

MILLS CLOSED; 35,000 OPERATIVES IN NEW BEDFORD ARE ON STRIKE

New Bedford, Mass., June 3—The textile mills of the city employing 35,000 operatives, were shut down today in consequence of a general strike called by the textile council last night.

You should join the Club today—because no better machines exist. Because the first cost is so low. Because the Club payments are so easily made. Because you will never have another chance to buy at these low prices. Because you cannot buy anything that will give you so much pleasure in your home!

In many cases music has made cures where medicine failed. Now, if you can make an excuse for not having one of the best machines in the world, come in and tell us, as we feel we have settled the talking machine problem for everyone. Remember, this is positively the last week on these prices and terms, and you may come just a day too late.

We would be pleased to have you come in and hear the music and let us explain this wonderful saving plan. Better than putting money in the bank. People of every walk in life are joining this PROGRESSIVE TALKING MACHINE CLUB and are enjoying the best music in the world. Just let each one of the family save a few cents of the money they spend foolishly every week and own a High-Grade Phonograph.

Try it and encourage the practice of saving anyway. Come in and hear the music. It costs you nothing to investigate. We will make a liberal allowance for your old machine in exchange.

SPHAGNUM MOSS.

Referring to the moss which is now being collected by the girls of the Natural History Society of St. John, and prepared by the Royal Cross for surgical dressing, the Journal of the American Medical Association says there are about forty species of sphagnum moss, known as muskeg or peat moss. It is thus described:

"Its smooth stem is densely beset with leaves, and emits a branch at every fourth leaf, often these branches are turned downward, and apply themselves more or less closely to the stem. At the periphery of the stem are one or more layers of fine colored chambers, known as capillary cells, whose thin walls have fine perforations, and are strengthened against collapse by a thickening band running spirally or in rings around the stem. The leaf is formed of a single nerve and green, form a network of feeding cells, in the meshes of which are larger, broader, colorless cells, perforated and thickened after the fashion of those of the peripheral layers of the stem. The whole construction results in a system of delicate capillary tubes, having the effect of a very fine sponge."

"The dry moss, containing as it does large cells with elastic walls, is capable of absorbing and retaining liquid better than cotton, which depends on capillary attraction between the fibers. According to Porter, of McGill University (who recently visited St. John), good specimens of dried sphagnum moss will absorb from twenty to twenty-two times their own weight of water before they begin to drip. Average moss will absorb at least twelve times its own weight, whereas absorbent cotton does not absorb more than six times its own weight of water. In the utilization of moss surgically, the dried moss is packed loosely into various sized muslin bags, which are afterward carefully sterilized either by heat or by a chemical, such as mercuric chloride."

"The emergency of the war, and the inability to get enough absorbent cotton, directed attention to this moss, but Prof. Porter says the Germans had great quantities of it in readiness before the war began, and the collection of an article by a German writer in a medical journal, long before the war broke out, caused an English specialist to look into the matter, with the result that now the moss dressing is in such demand that enough can hardly be supplied."

CONSERVING INFANT LIFE.

There has long been complaint of the incompleteness of the statistics in St. John, and it is one of the aims of the new health act to bring about a radical change, not only here but throughout the province. In the city of Ottawa recently a number of local physicians have been summoned and fined for failure to report births to the health department. There is a special reason in this city for getting full and accurate reports. It is set forth in the Journal-Press as follows:

"To successfully prosecute its work of safeguarding the health and life of babies, the health department must have prompt notice of all births within the municipality. Upon being supplied with this information, nurses employed by the department visit the homes of the babies and offer to advise the mothers in their care. The records of the department show that this advice has been instrumental in greatly lowering the rate of infant mortality in Ottawa, saving the lives of hundreds of babies."

"Surely this is reason enough for a rigid enforcement of the law. The importance of protecting the health of infants and combating infant mortality calls for no argument; and a system under which nurses of the health department visit homes, especially the homes of the very poor, and of mothers who are perhaps very ignorant of the proper care of infants, must be of the greatest value to the community. Ottawa is setting a good example. The conservation of life was never so important as in this period which is marked by such wholesale destruction of the lives of those who are his very flower of the nation's manhood."

His Majesty King George on his 84th birthday still sees his Empire locked in deadly grapple with the foe. The fight is even more strenuous than it was a year ago. But from all over the vast domain over which he so wisely rules and throughout which he is so revered and beloved, there subsists to him stout assurance that his subjects shall fight on till the victory of right has been won."

Messrs. Mutt and Jeff are with us once again, and the Times presents them with pleasure. Their creator, Captain "Bud" Fisher is now overseas in khaki, but he has his pencil and drawing board along and means to keep up his work in depicting the adventures and quarrels of the two quaint creatures of his brain.

UNSUNG HEROES—"THE BUZZER"

(By E. T. Broadson in the June Popular Mechanics Magazine.)

In our present war machine there are many spectacular parts to excite wonder in the civilian and to win his praise because of exceptional performance. An army may be likened to a racing automobile. The driver, with his hands on the wheel and throttle, is the generalissimo, seated ten or fifteen miles back of the firing line, picking the course for his million-mile-per-hour machine. The cylinders and pistons represent the artillery, giving power to the advance. The transmission, making use of that power, is the infantry. The ignition system? This is the signal corps, members of which are familiarly known as "buzzers."

In the battle of Sunken Road, at the Little Girl Had Jaundice

And All Treatments Failed to Arrest the Action of the Liver Until Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Were Used

Plympton, N. S., May 31.—This is a case in which the liver became sluggish and torpid and failed to filter the blood from the blood. As a result the complexion became yellow and muddy, the whites of the eyes discolored and the whole system poisoned by the accumulation of poisons.

Doctors were trying various medicines, but did not succeed in finding any effective treatment. Fortunately a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and cure was effected.

Mrs. Wm. E. Conroy, Plympton, N. S., writes: "My little girl was taken ill with jaundice in November, 1914, and we tried all kinds of medicines for her, but they failed. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and a few doses relieved her. She is now completely cured."

TO CURE
DYSPEPSIA
IT ISN'T NECESSARY

The sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion who has to put up with the food, is the most miserable of all mankind. Even the little he does eat causes such torture, and is digested so imperfectly that it does him little good.

For forty years now Burdock Blood Bitters has been making weak stomachs strong, and curing acute cases of dyspepsia and indigestion that other remedies were powerless to reach.

After a terrific engagement in which fourteen officers and over 200 men lost their lives, the Sunken Road objective was attained. The moment the hand-to-hand fighting ceased sufficiently to allow it, the buzzers dug out niches in the rear walls, installed their instruments, and sent out Privates Lemm and Semple with the reels. Each reel was a howler bearing 75 yards of heavy wire, proofed against heat, and made to resist explosion better than ordinary copper cables.

When released, the reels rolled a few yards out into No. Man's trench, and tumbled into potholes made by the British barrage twenty minutes previously. On hands and knees, scuffling about in the mud, the buzzers set their feet on the rim of the parapots, seized the reels and swung them, much as a bowler swings a ball that is too heavy for him.

The reason for the name electric mole is not readily apparent from the foregoing. It has reference to the usual habits of the buzzer. While on duty in an established trench he is not unlike a mole in his burrowing in the deepest, safest cave or dugout to be found, and there lives, breathes, and digests in gloom that is more than nocturnal.

He is more than nocturnal. The degree of safety of the dugouts used as signal stations is not for the safety of the man himself, however. Far from it! His apparatus is precious, so in this part of his work he is accorded certain advantages which are not isolated, though, in which whole signal stations have been buried by German "whizzbangs" (H. H. shells) or in which sudden raid on the trenches by the enemy has found the buzzer at his post unattended.

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDE

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kansas City, Kansas—"I suffered from pains in my back and side caused by a functional disarrangement. I was nervous and had headaches most of the time. So many people recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me, I tried it, and after taking six bottles I am well. I do not think the Vegetable Compound can be beaten for women's ailments."

Women who suffer from headaches, nervousness, backache, the blues and other symptoms of a functional disarrangement should give this famous root and herb remedy a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such ailments of women after other medicines have failed.

If you want special suggestions in regard to your condition, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of long experience is at your service, and your letter will be held in strict confidence.

Women's Canadian Club Hears Plea for Saving of Foodstuffs—Nation Must Sacrifice

"We've never been asked to sacrifice and we haven't sacrificed yet, but there may be a day when we'll have to, and now is the time to get ready for it," said Mrs. Muldrew of the Canada Food Board, addressing a large meeting of the Women's Canadian Club in the Masonic Temple, Toronto.

Wheat, beef, bacon, sugars, fats, cheese and butter—these are the things we must save, said Mrs. Muldrew, and, having just returned from what Dr. Helen MacMurchy, in introducing her, spoke of as "an historic trip" in the west, she brought many inspiring stories of what the westerners are doing on behalf of production and conservation. She had not heard, she said, of a high school boy over fifteen years of age, in all the west, who had not volunteered as a soldier in the soil. Four thousand girls in the province of Manitoba had started vegetable gardens; 2,000 were raising chickens and egg keeping pigs.

A Vigilance Committee.
The commercial travelers in the west have formed themselves into a vigilance committee to report any infringements of the food laws. Mrs. Muldrew said, and she told of one big milling company with forty travelers which has sent them all on to the land for four months, with the promise to make good any loss they may suffer by way of less pay.

The most precious product in all the world, the speaker said, is white flour, and urged the saving of even a tablespoonful, or even a teaspoonful, more in each home daily.

As to what the new regulations with regard to things have meant, Mrs. Muldrew told of a Toronto firm which

Lemon Juice For Freckles
Girl! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any grocer or toilet counter will supply the three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

through cutting out seed cakes, had saved 600 pounds of sugar in a week and lost no custom.

The cleverness of the Americans in changing the names of fish to get them into use was delightfully told. The dogfish, for instance, became the greyfish. A demand was created for it, and, Mrs. Muldrew added, with a twinkle in her eye:

"It's splendid, edible fish, but it's the same old dogfish."

Honor to Alberta.
"Hope for the best, but prepare for the worst" was the text taken by Mrs. Walter Buchanan of Liverpool, who followed Mrs. Muldrew.

"It pains me," she said, "when I know how many men, even in my own district, are seeking exemptions." If she had it to do, she declared, she would have them all go for "the fiercer the fight the quicker the peace." They talk about production falling down, but even if the Germans came and took it, what good would it be to us?

"Al honor to Alberta," Mrs. Buchanan said. "They have held up the hands of the government in the resolution regarding exemptions.

"Nobody knows better than I how great is the need of labor," she went on. "My husband, myself and one very small boy have worked 100 acres for the past year and a half, and I can tell you there was no daylight-saving for us. We've just worked till we were ready to drop. But in what surroundings we have worked—no sound of guns, no shell holes in the fields, no dead bodies lying about, as in the fields of France.

No Talk of Time.
"Those farmers that went to Ottawa spoke a great deal about the decrease in production if their boys went to the front," Mrs. Buchanan said, returning to the attack on exemptions. "But they never said anything about the time they lost while they were there. They must have spent two days each, 5,000 of them—that means 10,000 days' work lost."

Mrs. Buchanan thought the anti-loitering law should apply to "those loafers that are only playing baseball," and objected to the pages full of sports in the papers and also of some of the advertisements. She said the farmer knew his own business, and she did not think it fair that he should be asked to train

Be youthful looking
Keep your hair healthy, strong and trim looking. Disolve that annoying itching dandruff—that always causes baldness and falling hair if neglected—get rid of it and stop falling hair. TURNIPS
This is the week to get Swede turnips planted. They do best in good loam soil that is retentive of moisture. Like most of the root crops, they develop best during the damp, cool fall weather and the advantage of late seeding is that they make little growth during the hot summer months. They develop a succulent tissue in the fall, however. If planted before early Swede turnips are very liable to be checked in their growth during the hot weather, developing a root containing much fibre and lacking in quality.

The turnip rows should be from 12 to 18 inches apart and three-quarters of an inch deep. They should be thinned to about three inches apart. The small white varieties are sweeter for early use. The others need frost and can be stored in the same manner as carrots and beets.

ROTHESAY COLLEGE BOYS PRESENT POPULAR PLAY
The Private Secretary was presented Saturday evening by the Senior Debating Society of Rothersey Collegiate School. A large number of people were present and thoroughly enjoyed the performance. The clever work of the participants was appreciated by all and the audience were generous with their applause.

The committee, W. A. Haines, L. Diago, Edsforth, Best, Teed and McCreedy are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts. Music was furnished by the Rothersey Collegiate School orchestra under direction of Morton L. Harrison. The proceeds of the entertainment are for patriotic purposes.

The cast was as follows:—
Mr. Marshallland ..... Ralph Teed
Mr. Cattlemore ..... Roy Ings
Mr. Marshallland ..... John Taylor
Rev. Robt Spalding ..... Richard Gorham
Mr. Sidney Gibson ..... Arthur Rowan

Was Suicide.
Ben Guthrie, a returned soldier, committed suicide by drowning in the Amherst river. A search was made for his pocketbook and a farewell message was found last night on the wharf by George Barbour. A search was made for the body and it was found in the mud a couple of miles from where he is supposed to have jumped in. He is survived by his parents and one brother overseas.

All alcoholic drinks have been raised a nickel in price in New York.

Unexperienced help from the city. It was good of the city people to be willing to help, but Mrs. Buchanan evidently did not think them very useful for mixed farming. She suggested, instead, that, in view of their nearness to the city, they establish large departmental farms, with a hundred acres given to potatoes, a hundred to corn, and so forth. An expert could have charge of each section, and the inexperienced help that could be used on this specialized work better than in mixed farming.

Substitution.
"Say oats and potatoes, the available substitutes," she said. "I don't want to say fish when you think of meat; say syrup for sugar," said Miss Cartwright. Mrs. Buchanan evidently had no objection, and urged every woman to become a missionary to disseminate information among her friends.

The following resolution was moved by Mrs. F. N. G. Starr, seconded by Miss Helen Levy, and carried unanimously:

"That we, the members of the Women's Canadian Club of Toronto, have heard with satisfaction the announcement made at a public meeting in this city on May 15, 1918, by Henry B. Thompson, chairman of the Canadian Food Board, that the organization of resources committee of Ontario would forthwith issue voluntary ration cards to all women, and hereby promise to do all that is in our power to accept and use such voluntary ration cards, and help others to do the same, and also hereby request that this voluntary ration be made known at the earliest possible moment."

Catarrh or Colds Never Quickly Cured By Sneezing Drugs
Cough Syrup, Tablets, etc., to the Stomach, Perhaps Sickens It, But Don't Kill the Germs of Catarrh.

The Direct Breathing Cure is Best.

To cure an ailment in the throat or chest, to root out Catarrh or Asthma, it is essential that the medicine be conveyed direct to the affected parts. This is why no other remedy has achieved such world-wide success as Catarrhose, which alone can be breathed in one second to every air cell in the breathing organs. The healing vapors of Catarrhose, which saturate the throat and the bronchial tubes, to the deepest air cells in the lungs—all parts are saturated with the rich pinney essences that ease, heal and cure.

"No one ever contracted a more obstinate attack of nasal catarrh than I suffered a month ago," writes Mrs. E. E. Root, a well-known resident of Bridgetown (W. I.). "My head ached terribly, I sneezed about every three minutes, but still my nostrils were entirely closed and I couldn't breathe through them. Large Catarrhosee tablets, however, gave me a little relief, so I continued to use Catarrhosee every hour, and before the day was out I had improved. Catarrhosee quickly cured me, I am well ever since."

There is no remedy so certain and safe at Catarrhosee, but being a good remedy it is limited. Beware of the substitute. Large Catarrhosee tablets, two months, price $1.00; smaller sizes 25c. and 50c. At all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhosee Co., Buffalo (N. Y.), and Kingston, Canada.

Hid Barbarity From Gerard
British Prisoner Gives Account of Unspeaking Inhumanity of Germans

Deaths From Neglect—Deliberate Deception Practised on United States Minister

LONDON, May 31.—There has been in recent here in the reported proposal of the United States government to Germany, through the medium of Spain, in regard to the treatment of prisoners of war, and also to learn what the ideas of U. S. A. subjects are. As we know, thousands of columns have been written in earlier periods of the war on the subject of inhuman German cruelty to prisoners, but recently the subject has come again strongly to the front. Some papers, including the Times, are running conspicuously, as almost daily features, revealing recently secured, showing that German treatment of prisoners today is as bad as if not worse than ever.

Thursday printed the following information given by a British journalist who was for two and a half years at Ruhleben: "Owing to the fact that the prisoners receive literally no vegetables nor fats of any description, practically living only on tinned stuff, the condition into which they have fallen is appalling. In his own case, as in that of numerous others, the entire absence of coarse protoplasm of the stomach, and owing to the body commencing to feed on its own tissues and muscles, ruptures were frequent.

Wealthy Favored.
A wealthy man can, as a few did, by giving a big commission to the camp commander, get the latter to place an order for clothes, bedding, and a little furniture, with a firm of the commander's choosing. These fortunate ones pay to get their horse stall or shed cleaned out and then install their heavily-paid-for bits of furniture. These were the places carefully shown to the American ambassador, on which his earlier reports of the condition of British prisoners were based. He was carefully piloted to that part of the camp where prisoners had been allowed, by heavy payments, to make the best of their plight, and was guided away from places it was undesirable he should see.

Men Found Out.
But one day Mr. Jackson of the United States embassy at Berlin, after being carefully engineered through the show part, expressed a desire to see another part of the camp, and in spite of the efforts of the German staff to prevent this, he was shown and walked to that part of the camp which hereafter he turned away from the portion which he had been carefully avoided. He was greeted with cries of "Bravo, Jackson!" by the unlucky men imprisoned there, who shouted, "See barracks No. 5, see barracks No. 5," as the German officials again tried to get him away.

The report Jackson made to Gerard on this part of the camp brought an immediate visit from the American ambassador, who was most indignant at the state of affairs he found there, and went for the German officials. And we know it is terrible beyond description.

Misleading Ambassador.
On one previous visit of the American ambassador he had passed, carefully guided by the German commandant, close to the place where an unfortunate man was passing away through sheer neglect. Our informant was attending his comrade, who was moaning and groaning in his death agony, while the ambassador was being carefully shown the part of the camp where men were playing chess.

Our informant, in spite of the fact that he has been back for nearly a year, is still in a deplorable physical state. He has four ruptures on his body, his arms are all covered with sores and he is semi-blind. It was an appalling story he told of the brutal treatment the unfortunate prisoners received at the hands of the Germans. All deaths, including those due to neglect and ill-treatment, were set down to typhus by the Germans.

If this is how interned civilians camped home have fared, the fate of captured soldiers can hardly be imagined. And we know it is terrible beyond description.

Buried on Sunday.
The funeral of Mrs. George G. Melvin took place yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from her late residence, 171 Princess street. Service was conducted at the home of Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of Centenary church, and interment was made at Fernhill cemetery. The cortege was very long, including a great number of local physicians, public officials and citizens generally. There were many beautiful floral tributes, including a large wreath from the board of health.

The funeral of James C. Gibbs was held at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his father's residence, 118 Lancaster street. Service was conducted by Rev. W. R. Robinson, interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Pte. Adam Woods of Hampton, a member of the Depot Battalion, who died in the Pitt street hospital of pneumonia, was held yesterday afternoon. He was buried with full military honors, the depot battalion band attending and a firing squad from the 9th Siege Battery was present. Services were conducted by Rev. Archdeacon Crowfoot. Interment was made in the soldiers' plot in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of William Rowery of Hammond River, was conducted at that place yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

The funeral of James R. Barton, aged four years, was held from his parents' residence, 54 Water street, West St. John, yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The service was conducted by the Rev. W. R. Robinson and interment made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Getting Away at Last.
Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 3.—The Santa Maria, the replica of Columbus' flagship, which has been here for nearly two years, will leave on Wednesday for Chicago in tow. A crew of four men from Chicago are on board. There has been a long tie-up in the courts.

"Mother! we're SO hot! GIVE US SOME MONTSERRAT LIME FRUIT JUICE

It's just fine for kiddies—quenches the thirst and satisfies the childish craving for something cold to drink—without upsetting the stomach or affecting the digestion. Ice water is dangerous for children.

No fuss or trouble, as with lemons. One to two tablespoonfuls of MONTSERRAT in a glass of cold water, sweetened, and the children's cooling, refreshing drink is ready. MONTSERRAT is the juice of the tree-ripened limes that grow on the island of Montserrat in the West Indies.

LIVE MEMBERS FOR MANITOBA

New Representatives at Ottawa Bring Strength and Character

Strong for Winning War—Episodes in the Life of Men Now Making Bow in Federal Field

(Staff Correspondence of The Toronto Globe.)

Ottawa, May 29.—Win the war first; the tariff wait till the Huns are beaten. That is the slogan of Manitoba's members of Parliament. Hon. T. A. Cramer, the leader of the Western grain growers, was recently reported in a Toronto paper to have shaken his head and said that whether Mr. Cramer did or did not shake his head, but the Minister of Agriculture has since stated that he did not shake his head. The reporter was either "seeing things" or drawing on his imagination, because not only does Mr. Cramer deny shaking his head, but the Minister of public works clearly stated that "We are going to leave tariff matters alone till after the war." This statement in reply to a heckler, who asked, "What about the tariff?"

One Object Supreme.

It may be positively stated, therefore, that while the men from Manitoba are fully interested in the tariff question, they are primarily concerned with the winning of the war. They are prepared to stand by the Union government through thick and thin in order to support the tariff. They are not prepared to be simple opportunity to arrange domestic matters after the war has been disposed of.

The province immediately to the west of Ontario sent to parliament so few new fourteen supporters of the new Union government. This was two cabinet ministers and thirteen private members. One of the ministers is making his name in the political arena. He is a well known lawyer in Winnipeg. He did not reach the capital until one month after parliament assembled, but he has been continued to home by a cold which he contracted while attending the funeral of one of his law partners. He is said to be well off and very popular, being a raconteur, club man and golfer. This is his first experience in politics. Colleagues told the writer that while he was formerly a Conservative he is fairly independent and can be relied upon to devote himself to the public service.

Lost Three Boys in War.

Mr. Ferris Bolton, the new member for Lisgar, is a prominent farmer of southern Manitoba. He resides in Daerham. He has lived in southern Manitoba most of his life and has raised a large family. He was a member of the war soon after hostilities commenced and all three have been killed in action. Although he has been in the province for many years in the politics of the province, he is considered a retiring man. He has been nominated for Lisgar largely because of his connection with a farmer and because of the sacrifices his family has made in connection with the war.

A Democratic Grain Grower.

Another prominent grain grower from Manitoba is Mr. G. H. Henders, M. P. for Macdonald, who has a large farm at Culross, in the constituency for which he has been elected. He has been engaged in farming on an extensive scale for many years. He was formerly a school teacher in Ontario and did a bit of local preaching in the Methodist church. Always very keen about the tariff and its relation to the farmer, he believes the farmers are going to get "free" agricultural implements out of the war. He is said to be a great defender of western rights and an aggressive Brethier.

His deskmate, Dr. M. R. Blake of North Winnipeg, is known in the common as "the striking figure with the black beard and the personal smile." He is a Huron county "old boy" who made good in the west, where he attained a high position in medical circles. Dr. Blake has a rare faculty of making friends. The Union government has no stronger supporter. So genial and amiable is he that a prominent resident of Winnipeg told the writer that once having secured a grip on a constituency and the public life of the country he is pretty sure to hold it for many years. He is quiet and entirely unassuming.

R. L. Richardson's Career.

Last, but by no means least, is R. L. Richardson, editor and proprietor of the Winnipeg Tribune, who began his career as a "cub" on the Montreal Star and covered assignments on the Globe when Gordon Brown was in charge of that daily. Just after the late Hon. George Brown was shot, Mr. Richardson is the man who moved an amendment to the House in connection with the abolition of all titles, hereditary and otherwise, in Canada. He was born on a farm at Baldersboro's Corners, in Lanark county, Ontario. Mr. Richardson left the Globe and went to Winnipeg in 1882, where he joined the staff of the Sun. Later he bought the plant and changed the name of the paper to the Tribune, which has been published by him for twenty-two years as an independent journal. He is thought the plant and changed the name of the paper to the Tribune, which has been published by him for twenty-two years as an independent journal. ### ENFORCING FOOD CONTROL IN STATES

Found guilty of violating the food administration's wheat regulations, the Chatham Grain Company of Chatham, N. Y., has been permitted to pay $1,500 to the local chapter of the Red Cross instead of having its license revoked.

The company was found guilty of selling wheat flour to grocers without the required amount of substitutes, of charging retailers margins of profit in excess of regulations and of selling to individuals consumers more than one-quarter barrel of flour at a time.

Violation of food administration regulations covering the sale of dressed hens cost the Kansas City market of Des Moines, Iowa, $200. Upon paying this amount to the war fund of the Y. M. C. A., and signing an affidavit to observe rules and regulations in the future, the firm was allowed to continue its operations. The contribution was voluntarily made by A. F. Nelson, manager, Mercantile Company, a Scribner, Neb. mill, has been deprived of its food administration license for thirty days. Mill officials admitted the offense.

Furthermore, last January, the mill was cited for excessive sales of flour but was released on promise to live strictly up to the food administration's regulations.

St. North Carolina flour mills will suffer for failure to observe food administration rules and regulations. Charges brought out at a hearing before the North Carolina federal food administrator showed that they exacted excessive prices for mill feeds.

The Kernersville Roller Mill, at Kernersville, was operating without a license and will not be allowed to do further business. The Forsyth Roller Mills, at Winston-Salem, lost its license for the period of the war. The other four were closed for temporary periods. Refused Shipment of Potatoes.

Failure to accept a shipment of potatoes without justifiable reason caused the revocation of the food administration license held by the Connecticut Fruit & Commission Company of Ansonia, Conn. It was ordered by the food administration to close its business by April 16.

Clearly Marks Its Boundary.

There are some arbitrary limitations on even the wartime powers of President Wilson. At the flying field at Washington, watching the departure of the first airplane mail carrier to New York, the president posed for motion pictures. After once passing through the ordeal, he was asked to pose once more with Mrs. Wilson. The president conferred with his wife and then replied: "Mrs. Wilson says 'No,' and you know, boys, my authority stops there."

Teutons Vaunt Brutalities To Awe Neutrals

Booty Tabulated and Destroyed
Churches Enumerated

Stupidity of Belgians—Extremely Rigorous Treatment of British Prisoners Has Moral Effect, is German Boast

Washington, June 3.—Teutonic frightfulness as practiced in France and Belgium has been made the subject of a German warning to neutral nations of the fate which they may expect if they take up arms against the Central Powers. "If there are any still thinking of siding with the Allies, let them take warning from the fate of others," says the warning. It is in the form of a circular, which recites the amount of booty seized in France and Belgium, the number of churches damaged and destroyed, the money wrong from the stricken inhabitants, and, finally, the deliberate mistreatment of British prisoners of war. German propagandists have flooded Spain with this document printed in Spanish, and copies have come into the possession of the state department. Having established its German origin, the department tonight made public this translation:

"Besides an untold amount of war material captured on the battlefield, the Germans have taken possession of innumerable booty in France and Belgium, including: High grade watches, 417; average watches, 4,016; underwear, 15,079; umbrellas and women's handkerchiefs, 13,182; umbrellas and parasols, 3,705;

silver spoons, 1,876; bottles of champagne, 328,000."

"These figures show a large increase over those of the campaign against France in 1870-71."

"In Belgium, besides many art treasures they have confiscated old paintings valued at 8,000,000 pesetas."

Lesson to Catholics.

"Due to the treachery of Cardinal Mercier and other priests, who did their utmost to stir the priests against the good-hearted German soldiers, they were forced to teach a severe lesson to the Belgian and French Catholics."

"Cathedrals destroyed, 4; rendered unserviceable, 3; churches destroyed, 27; rendered unserviceable, 84. Total, 78."

"In Poland also a large number of churches have been destroyed for military reasons. The figures concerning these have not yet been published."

"As a result of the stupid stubbornness of the Belgian people in continuing the struggle after their bloody and final defeat on the battlefield, the German officers were forced, against their will to impose punishments upon many rich individuals and rich cities. This has contributed the following amounts to the German treasury: Punishments, 87,000,000 pesetas; security, 18,000,000 pesetas; reprisals, 15,750,000 pesetas; forced contributions, 4,200,880 pesetas. Total 120,071,880 pesetas."

"This amount includes a fine of 10,000 pesetas imposed on the Alsatian children who insisted on speaking the French language and refused to study the beautiful German language. These statistics are a most useful warning to the neutral countries."

"If there are any still thinking of siding with the Allies, let them take warning from the fate of the others."

Will Get Colonies Back.

"In connection with claims of the extent of territory occupied by German troops, the following foot note appears: "When it is held that the Germans have occupied no English territory, and that on the contrary they have lost all their African colonies, amounting to some 8,000,000 square kilometres, it must be remembered that the English, according to the declaration of the ministers, are not intending to secure any extension of the British Empire; that they have entered the struggle with only the aim of helping the Belgians. That is to say, the English have practically pledged themselves to return the German colonies after the war in exchange for the emancipation and indemnification of Belgium. The Germans, therefore are to recover all that they have lost in Africa."

"It is claimed in this document that more than 50,000 British have been made prisoners and in this connection the following statement is made:

"Although to these figures the English oppose 124,806 German prisoners taken by them on the western front, it must be remembered the English treat their prisoners with notable kindness (Blandura notoria), while the regime imposed on the English prisoners by the Germans is one of extreme rigor, so that the Germans, with a small number of prisoners, have secured a much superior moral effect. Besides, to the 2,264 officers and 51,225 soldiers must be added the several thousand English prisoners that have died in consequence of disease, scanty food, and other accidents in German concentration camps."

The figures regarding British prisoners, it is explained, refer to the total prior to the recent drive in Picardy and Flanders."

EMPEROR CHARLES AND ALSACE

(London Chronicle)

A curious story is told in connection with the Emperor Charles' famous letter by the Vienna correspondent of the Budapest journal Az Est, who professes to have received it from a high personage in court circles.

According to this narrative, the letter was falsified in Vienna itself. His majesty prepared the draft of it in German. It was written hastily, and to a certain extent only contained the guiding lines for the final text. The emperor, who was uncertain of his French, entrusted the translation to the French confessor of the empress. The latter, on his own authority, inserted the single word which entirely altered the sense of the letter. The emperor had written, "I will submit France's claim relative to Alsace-Lorraine to my allies, and endeavor to the best of my ability to support them." The priest, however, inserted the word "just" before the word "submit." M. Clemenceau therefore spoke in good faith, as did also the emperor.

Stands By the Joy Riders.

"I note from the papers," observes Charles H. Trapp of Topeka, "that two motor cars came together because there were houses on the corner, and the drivers could not see each other. Let the houses be removed that the joy riders may be unconfined."—Kansas Star.

AN ADDED PERFECTION ON A NEW PERFECTION OIL COOKSTOVE

THE New Perfection Cabinet is the cook's third hand. Have one attached to your New Perfection Oil Cook Stove and prove its use to you.

It provides a large and convenient shelf for heating plates and keeping food hot. Besides adding to the appearance of the stove, the back prevents the kitchen wall from being spattered with grease and stops air currents from affecting the heat in the process of cooking.

The New Perfection Cabinet is one of the most useful improvements since the advent of the Long Blue Chimney. A big addition at a small cost.

The New Perfection Oven makes the New Perfection stove complete for all year-round cooking service.

Allies Reserves Bring Change In Situation

The strength of General Foch's reserves has been felt by the armies of the German Crown Prince in the "battle for Paris." East of the line running from Soissons to Chateau Thierry, where the Germans, Saturday, in continuation of their mighty strokes, gained several additional villages and then attempted to proceed further westward, magnificent opposition was imposed by the newly strengthened lines and, with terrific smashes, the French forces recaptured Long Pont, Corey, Faverles and Troesnes, vantage points in the centre of the line leading to the forest of Villers Cotterets, which seems to be the present objective here of the enemy.

The Germans, however, still have in their possession the village of Vauzeis, lying to the west of Soissons, and further south Saconin-et-Breuil, Chaudin, Licy and Boursches, the last named directly west of Chateau Thierry. A little to the southwest of Chateau Thierry the enemy has reached the Marne.

Nowhere has there been any attempt to cross and all points east of Chateau Thierry they are hugging the northern bank of the stream. It is not improbable, however, that the tactics of the Germans have in view the fording of the river when the time is more propitious, for in the centre of the line between Chateau Thierry and Rheims, they have pushed back the allied front across the Rheims-Dormans road between Olizy-Violaine and Ville-En-Tardenois and are pressing on toward the Marne. This is the only point on their left wing, however, where the enemy has been able to make fresh gains, notwithstanding the fact that he has thrown new divisions into the battle; some of them the best trained troops in the German army.

Seek to Outflank Rheims.

Having failed in all their efforts to conquer Rheims by direct assault, it now seems to be the intention of the Germans further to widen their occupation of the territory lying south of the Rheims-Dormans road and thereby outflank and bring its capitulation. In the fighting in the immediate vicinity of Rheims the enemy won Fort de la Pompelle, but his tenure of the position was short lived, for the French troops in a counter-attack recaptured it. Taken all in all the seventh day of the new battle found the Allied line from Soissons to Rheims, although it had been bent back at various points, not so hard pressed as on previous days and seemingly more capable of resisting the enemy's onslaughts. Just how many men the Allies are opposing against the forty-five German divisions that are actively engaged on the Soissons-Rheims front has not become apparent, but the fact that on the west the enemy is being only held but driven back at points and on the southern end of the salient he has been unable to make but slight new progress is apparent evidence that a turn in the battle is not far distant. The British in the region of Arras, Lens and Bethune are keeping up their trench raiding operations against the Germans. Saturday night contingents from the Rheims area invaded a German trench southeast of Arras and took twenty-seven prisoners and a machine gun, while along the line north of Bethune similar manoeuvres were successfully carried out and other German made prisoners. There is considerable artillery activity by both sides on the northern sectors of the western front.

As yet the expected great battle has not broken in the Italian theatre. There has been only moderate artillery activity along the whole front. The Allied and Italian forces have been busily engaged in reconnaissance work and bombing attacks over the enemy lines.

Staff Officers of Camp Sussex

Lieut.-Colonel A. H. B. Powell, acting G. O. C. military district No. 7, last night gave out the names of the staff at Camp Sussex as follows: Camp commander—Lieut.-Colonel J. McAvity. A. A. G.—Major J. Hamilton. Act. G. S. O.—Lieutenant B. P. Fok. Camp engineer—Lieutenant W. B. Young. Supply and transport officer—Lieutenant Head. Medical and sanitary officer—Lieutenant C. Clegg. Ordnance officer—Lieutenant M. H. Kierstead. Musketry officer—Lieutenant J. V. Kierstead. Senior dental officer—Captain F. A. Godcoe. Lieut.-Col. A. H. B. Powell, acting G. O. C. and Lieut.-Col. A. C. Jost, A. D. M. S. of M. D. No. 7, carried out the final inspection of the summer headquarters of No. 1, New Brunswick Depot Battalion, yesterday, at Sussex. Colonel Powell said last night that the Depot Battalion is very comfortably settled in the new quarters, a hospital had already been established, the offices had been opened, and the canteen was going. The weather of late has been ideal for camp life and the men are taking full advantage of it. All the men, stated Colonel Powell, were under canvas, and the officers and privates were delighted with their summer camp. The remainder of the men from the agricultural building will proceed to Sussex today and go into camp with the main section of the battalion. A special detachment of fifty men under Major George Keeffe will be retained in the city for some time attending to matters in connection with closing up the quarters here.

The names of four New Brunswick men appeared in the midnight casualty list—Wounded, E. Trevel, Newcastle, presumed to have died, G. Sinclair, McKenzie, Fredericton; R. Miller, Newcastle; Lowry Truman, East Florenceville.

Pte. Albert Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris of Fredericton, died at the Military Hospital yesterday afternoon as a result of gas poisoning in France in October last. He returned home about two weeks ago. Two brothers have been killed in the war. A cable has been received to the effect that Capt. (Rev.) W. F. Parker, of Sussex, who was severely wounded and admitted to the Red Cross Hospital in Etaples, is now making very favorable progress and is on the way to recovery.

Lieutenant E. C. Davis is now at home with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Davis, having successfully completed his first year in medicine at Dalhousie University. He will remain at home about a month before leaving for Toronto to pursue a course with the Royal Air Force. To do honor to five of the fallen members of True Blue, L. O. L. No. 11, a large number of the members of the True Blue Lodge and many other visitors were present at the memorial service held in Ludlow street Baptist church on Sunday night. The church was thronged and the service was one that will leave a lasting impression on all who were present. Special music and hymns particularly appropriate to the occasion were beautifully rendered by the choir. The names of the five men

HEAD OF Y.M.C.A. ISSUES STATEMENT

For Every Dollar's Worth Sold Soldiers Another $1.50 Must Be Raised—Audits Regular.

Toronto, June 2—A statement has been issued by G. H. Wood, chairman of the national council of the Y. M. C. A. in view of recent criticisms, which declares that during the year 1917 the total cost of maintaining the Y. M. C. A. service to the Canadian soldiers in England and France was two and a half times as much as the net profits from its canteens. In other words, for every dollar net profits made in its canteens, the Y. M. C. A. has had to secure by subscriptions another dollar and a half to meet the requirements of its entire service overseas. Prices are governed by the military authorities and the Y. M. C. A. is not allowed to under-sell the expeditious force canteens in France. In France the canteen accounts of the Y. M. C. A. are checked monthly by the army field cashiers. These, as well as the accounts in England are audited regularly by a chartered accountant and these audit statements, now issued every six months, are sent to all the officers commanding and are posted in the Y. M. C. A. butts for the information of the soldiers. In addition to this, a combined British and French statement is issued every six months.

A complete audit statement including overseas operations for 1917, which will be published in Canada, has been delayed by the recent military operations which have prevented the auditor getting the necessary permission to cross to France. A military hearing was presided over by Lieut.-General Sir Arthur Currie, conducted an examination of the whole work of the Y. M. C. A. in the Canadian corps in France during the month of March, and reported that its financial operations were satisfactory, and that its business was efficiently conducted.

NEW ORANGE HALL AT MUSQUASH DEDICATED

The new hall of the Guardian Lodge of the L. O. L. No. 5, at Musquash, was dedicated on Saturday night with the coronation, many distinguished members of the order taking part. The hall, which is a fine two-story building of Douglas fir, both inside and out is splendidly furnished and presents a very pleasing appearance. The members of the lodge deserve much credit for having succeeded in erecting so elegant a hall. The impressive ceremony of dedication was performed by Past Grand Master Hiram, assisted by the Grand Master, who was unable to be present, and he was ably assisted by John Sweet, County Master of St. John county, West. Counsellor William Golding, the Grand Master of the P. A. B. section, Deputy Grand Master, R. J. Anderson, Deputy County Master of St. John county, acting as Grand Chaplain, was assisted by Rev. Mr. Lance, of L. O. L. No. 5, Musquash. A very large number of visitors from Fairville, Lorneville, St. John city and Carleton were present, and after the beautiful ceremony was completed, addresses were made by Grand Master John Sweet, Deputy County Master R. J. Anderson, Rev. Mr. Lance, and others. Nearly all of the speakers referred to the very large number of members of the Loyal Orange Order who were now serving their king and country overseas.

R. S. COMMISSION

The New Brunswick returned soldiers' commission met in Fredericton Friday night. R. P. Steves, of Sussex, and the chairman, Thos. Bell, of St. John, were selected as a representation to meet the commission appointed by the federal government to administer the soldiers' lands settlement act. The commission is expected to be in Fredericton or St. John. The G. W. V. A. also will be represented at the conference.

CORNS ARE LIKE KNOTS

Year by year they grow harder and incidentally more painful. Why suffer when you can be cured for 25c. spent on Putnam's Corn Extractor? Fifty years in use and guaranteed to cure. Use Putnam's Extractor, 25c. at all dealers.

In memory of whom the service was held Dr. J. L. Duval, J. G. Maxwell, T. W. Ferguson, Francis Campbell and L. Campbell. In addition to these five who have made the supreme sacrifice, this lodge has amongst its members many who have been severely wounded and gassed. Rev. W. R. Robinson preached an eloquent and appropriate sermon.

SUFFERED WITH NERVES COULD NOT KEEP QUIET

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be roused while the nerve centres may be affected. Many persons become run down and weary by household duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with their nerves shattered, and the rest section weaker. On the first sign of any weakness of either the heart or nerves, flagging energy, or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will quieten the shaking nerves, strengthen the weak heart and build up the entire system. Mrs. R. B. 211 Earl street, Kingston, Ont., writes: "I was suffering very much with my nerves, so much so that I could not keep myself quiet at all. I was recommended to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as I bought three boxes, and I must say I have derived much benefit from them, so much so that my friends have all noticed the change in me." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are for sale at all druggists, or mailed direct to you on receipt of 50c. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WEST OPPOSES COLLEGE MOVE

Presbyterian Institutions of Prairie Provinces Fight Temporary Extermination

(Toronto Globe.) Western colleges of the Presbyterian Church are making a desperate struggle against temporary extermination under the proposal to mobilize all of the colleges under the management and maintenance of the Presbyterian church, in which reasons are set forth for sustaining the colleges of the west.

It is feared that if theological colleges should go out of existence at western "where work is done" the result would be a perceptible impoverishment of the life and work of the universities themselves as well as of the noble culture that would sustain Colleges.

It is contended that the charges falling upon the church budget in connection with the maintenance and maintenance of students have no important bearing on the general financial policy of the church, these being so slight as not to be worth taking into account, as the colleges are almost self-sustaining. As a result of the conference it was suggested that for the college year 1918-19 certain arrangements might be made, it is contended that in the rapidly changing circumstances of the present time it is well not to look beyond one year. The following recommendation was made: "As with assistance given by some of the western colleges, it is proposed that three colleges at Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver could be carried on with considerable economy and advantage. Efficiency, steps should be taken to make arrangements for utilizing the services of the professors, and to strengthen the staffs of western colleges, as was done last winter in the college at Montreal and the man to present the affidavit in question will be tried on the charge of perjury.

2,200 New Class Have Registered

Probably 3,000 Nineteen-Year-Olds in Province — To Hear Class B. Exemption Claims—Perjury Prosecutions

Saturday was the last day fixed on which the nineteen-year-old class, called under the Military Service Act, could voluntarily register. Up until Saturday there had been 2,200 men of nineteen registered with the local registrar. It is roughly estimated that there are in the vicinity of 3,000 young men in the province exempted by this call. It has been learned that category "B" exemptions will be up for review on or about June 8. Men in this category were registered with the local registrar. Livelier and More Durable Spring is here. Soft breezes stir the buds on the trees and baby shoots soon will be thrusting through the warm soil in the garden. Then they'll want a gentle shower from the garden hose each day to insure the garden-glory of June and July. But what of dainty frocks water-spotted and wrinkled. And what of temper tried by bursted hose. Not if you have Good-year Cord Hose! Hose so seamlessly welded into one crack-proof, leak-proof, kink-proof unit. Hose so tug-free and tangle-free, so glide-easy and wear enduring. For the same reasons lively and more durable. Long-life makes it economical. Freedom from bursting means freedom from trouble. Pliant strength eliminates kinks. These features of goodness in Good-year Cord Hose more than offset its slightly greater cost. Built like the Good-year Cord Tire is this hose. Stoking on Battleship in War Zone

(By Lewis R. Freeman in the June Popular Mechanics Magazine.) Except for the actual life she receives from a wave, a battleship rolling in a beam sea, moves a good deal like an inverted pendulum, so that one feels a minimum of motion when he is down against the skin of a lower hold, and a maximum in the foretop. The transition had been a sudden one for me that morning, for the gunnery lieutenant, who had been initiating me into the secrets of "direct firing" in the foretop, brought me back to the main deck and turned me over to the senior circumferencer, who had volunteered to show me what rough-weather stoking was like. As we put one reeling steel ladder after another above us in our descent, the roll decreased as the tumult of crashing waves was stifled to muffled jolts, and, with a slight or two still to go, we were steady enough on our feet to have both hands free to lift the heavy air-light "top" of the boiler room. To one who has pictured the stoker as a gaunt-eyed demon steadily shovelling coal under a boiler for four hours, the first glimpse of the stokehold of a warship that is in no great hurry to get somewhere, will come as a good deal of a surprise. The place is neither especially dirty nor especially hot. Neither the letting of the coal slide down by its own weight from the encompassing bunkers nor the cracking up of the occasional lumps which are too large for even combustion, raises as much dust as the dumping of a single sack upon one of the upper decks. The running back of a sliding steel door brings a stream of coal running out of one of the bunkers, coal which, dumped from sacks into the entrance of a chute on one of the upper decks, has worked its way downward by gravity as a "skip" of steel, shaped like the half of a cylinder and capable of holding something like a couple of hundredweight. Sliding fairly easily over the gridded deck—pushing by one man and pulled by another—the skip loads are dumped evenly along in front of the twelve doors which open—four to each—to the three furnaces under the boilers occupying this half of the stokehold. Now we came to the actual stoking. A bell suddenly clanged, echoing sharply from the steel walls, and instantly two of the lounging figures quicken to the alert. One scoops up a shovelful of coal and the other steps forward and rests a hand on the lever running to one of the furnace doors. A second or two later, as a number shows on a dial on the wall, the latter pushes the lever sharply, and the door is pressed upward, revealing a glowing bed of fire running back out of sight under the boiler. The shovel is already swinging forward as the door rises, and, missing that steel plate by a fraction of an inch, its contents are discharged—with a quick "wristy" motion that scatters the coal evenly over the fire—into the furnace. It was while I was being initiated into the technique of stoking by shovelling coal under the boilers that a change of course brought the swinding sea dead ahead and set the ship rolling even more drunkenly than before. After falling to hit the "dark spots" and "hollows" two or three times as I staggered to the roll, and once even missing the furnace door itself, one of the stokers, taking compassion, relieved me of the scoop and put the trouble right with a half dozen quickly tossed shovelfuls. I was frankly glad to work over to where I could take a "half nelson" round a bar by the starboard bunker. A heavy sam-bang from the opposite end of the boiler room indicated that things were not going quite so smoothly there, and edging cautiously along, I was presently able to get some hint of the cause from the words of a volubly cursing stoker who limped out to tell me that the "blinking" skip "as took charge." Rubbing a bruised shin and glowing balefully from a blackened eye, which appeared to have been bumped against a boiler, he explained, in language more forceful than elegant, that some impractical theorist had encouraged them to experiment with wheels on the side of the skip, with the idea of making it easier to push about over the coal-cluttered deck. In the picturesque language of the sea, it had "taken charge," and so effectively that one swift, straight rush to starboard, followed by a "googly" progress back to port, put every man who, either by chance or intent, barred its way more or less hors de combat. Straight down the one-in-three incline from the port to the starboard bunkers lolloped the anatomies of the stokers to left and right as it went. Spitting blood and onths indiscriminately, one man clung to it all the way, however, and he also it was who—taking advantage of the tilt—finally rendered it harmless by pushing it over on its side, where it was left wriggling impotently like an overturned turtle.

GROWING CONSUMPTION OF JAPANESE TEA IN UNITED STATES "Tea" and "China" are almost synonymous to the average American citizen, yet the real truth of the matter is that the next time he drinks a cup of tea his chances, unless he orders a special brand, are something like 5 to 2 that he is drinking an infusion of Japanese and not Chinese leaf. Though a matter of some ten years' standing, this reversal of the position of China and Japan as the dominant source of the tea consumed in the United States is not generally known. However, there is much excuse for this, for China was the main source of supply for eighty-five years—from 1821 to 1906; even longer than that, for China was furnishing important quantities of tea to the United States long before the nation existed as such, but 1921 is the earliest year for which official returns are available. In 1921 4,975,646 pounds of tea were imported into the United States, practically all of it coming from China; Japan was not separately mentioned in the American tea statistics until 1860, in which year it was credited with 38,913 pounds as against China's 80,588,940 pounds. By 1865 Japan had increased its shipments to 1,216,864 pounds, and thereafter, barring a reversal now and then, Japan's exports of tea to the United States continued to mount until in 1906 that country and China shipped practically equal quantities here. In 1907 Japan forged ahead and has kept ahead ever since. China still is an important supplier of this market. The rise of Japan to leadership in the American tea trade is a matter of a decade or so. This rise was not a matter of sudden growth, but was preceded by years of more or less steady progress.

FEATURE OF HOLIDAY

Exodus to Country Marked and City Wears a Sabbath Air

Holiday weather of the finest quality marked the anniversary of the King's birthday and was the chief feature of the day's attractions. Since the accession of His Majesty there has been some doubt about the general observance of the day, particularly because of the fact that May 24, the birthday of the late Queen Victoria, still is observed. In recent years the observance has become more general and today almost the entire city is holiday-making. The gradual change in sentiment seems to have found the day as a general holiday and it is apparent that it will be observed as such while the present monarch reigns.

King George V. was born on June 4, 1864, and thus is fifty-three years old today. By the death of his elder brother, H. R. N. Albert Victor, in 1892, he became heir to the throne and succeeded his father, King Edward VII., on the death of the latter on May 6, 1910. He was proclaimed king three days later and the coronation took place with great ceremony on June 2 of the following year.

The birthday anniversary is being celebrated by St. John people today according to their individual ideas and plans. There is no public celebration and nothing in the way of sports or other special attractions for the amusement of the people outside of the theatre programmes. Throughout the streets a Sabbath-like quietness reigns and the flags flying from the flagpoles and from the front of some of the business buildings are the only signs of the nature of the occasion. With brilliant summer weather, the country offered the chief attraction today and the outgoing trains and steamers this morning were heavily laden. Early in the afternoon the rush towards the parks and the suburbs began and by mid-afternoon the city's population was at low tide mark.

Out of consideration for the general anxiety for war news during the progress of the important operations on the western front the newspaper men did not take a holiday and the city papers appear as usual.

ADDRESS AND PURSE

PRESENTED TO PASTOR

Welcome For Father Carleton By Parishoners at Silver Falls

Rev. Charles P. Carleton, the new pastor of St. Joachim's Church at Silver Falls, was given a cordial welcome by his parishioners yesterday morning after the celebration of mass. On behalf of the congregation Jeremiah Donovan made him the presentation of a well filled purse and an address. The latter was as follows:

Rev. and Dear Father—

The command given to the Apostles is exemplified by you, Dear Father, when, in obedience to the wishes of our good Bishop, you have come to this parish to impart to us the truth that Holy Mother Church bids us, as faithful children, to accept. And as our pastor we offer to you our welcome, an honest greeting with a singleness of aim, to assist you in the sacred duty incumbent upon you by your exalted state in life.

You, dear Father, do not come to us as a stranger, your home town is at the gateway of this parish, and there are those amongst us who knew you in boyhood, watched you grow to manhood and learn with pride and satisfaction that you have been given the tremendous responsibility and exalted dignity of the priesthood. Since then, time has written in letters of gold your record as a model priest, a thorough custodian of the spiritual welfare of your flock and singled you out as an ideal pastor for our people. And today, Dear Father, we are filled with a hope that, whether your stay here be of a short or long duration, our department and demeanor will be such as to reflect the excellent principles instilled into our very souls by your predecessor, and earn for us your blessing in everything conducive to our spiritual and temporal welfare.

And, finally, we offer this gift not for its intrinsic value, but as an evidence of a people feeling honored that you are satisfied to come to be the pastor of St. Joachim's church.

Signed on behalf of the parishioners by the following committee: Henry Lee, P. J. Jennings, F. J. Rafferty, J. E. Quina, E. L. Kline and J. M. Donovan.

SAY KAISER DEAD; ACTORS IN PLACE

"Doubles" Trained To Represent Him, Report Germans in States—Also Fear To Stop Fighting For Fear of Revolution

(J. M. Robinson & Sons' Private Wire Telegram.)

New York, June 3—We hear that it is currently rumored among Germans in this country that the Kaiser is dead. It is said that four men in Germany are "trained as duplicates" of the German ruler for safety and that one of these men is now posing under command of the German general staff. Germans here further believe that the general staff knows it has lost the war but does not dare stop offensives for fear of revolution.

It is understood to be common gossip among the Germans in this country that many spies are being shot secretly and that the secret service policy of the nation is to avoid publicity in order that the dragnet may operate better. In the gossip, reference is made to arrests almost daily at the shipping wharves where marks tinged with anything like disloyalty promptly lead to internment or worse. The policy is said to be having a salutary effect.

HUNS LOSE ZEPPELIN

Copenhagen, June 2—It is reported that a Zeppelin airship was shot down on Saturday morning off the Jutland coast by a British torpedo boat destroyer. The crew of the airship was drowned, according to the report.

REV. GEORGE MORRIS THIS MONTH QUEEN SQUARE CHURCH PASTOR

It is Decided to Discontinue Paid Church Choir and Depend on Volunteers—Church Finances

The fourth quarterly meeting of the official board of Queen square Methodist church was held on last Thursday evening. A thorough review of the year's work was made and the different branches of the church's activities were found to be in good condition.

Financially the board closed the year with a surplus, all connectional funds being well sustained with a substantial advance in missionary offerings. During the quarter $1,400 had been raised towards payment of a floating indebtedness of the trustee board. The balance of $600 needed to wipe out the deficiency has all been subscribed and in a short time will be paid in, thus freeing the church from debt.

At the pastorate of Rev. Hammond Johnson closes with June, many members of the board took occasion to express their appreciation of his work during the four years of his superintendency and their great regret at his removal. Rev. Mr. Johnson will take charge of the Wesley Memorial church, Moncton, and Rev. George Morris, now of Tryon, P. E. I., will come to Queen square.

The following officers were elected for the next conference year:

Board of stewards—F. D. Dales, J. H. Copp, Joseph Taylor, John Willet, A. B. Gilmour, C. E. Lowe and R. Duncan Smith.

Recording steward—R. Duncan Smith.

Treasurer—A. B. Gilmour.

Steward of poor funds—C. E. Lowe.

Choir committee—R. S. Stephenson, F. G. Spencer, John Willet, Mrs. LeRoy King and Miss Beadle C. Thompson.

The board decided that they would discontinue the paid choir and depend on a choir of volunteers. Mrs. Raywood has been secured as organist and choir leader. Her services will begin at once.

WEDDING OF MISS SULLIVAN AND LIEUT. SIGNORELLI, M. D.

A very pretty military wedding was solemnized on May 29, 1918, in St. Gregory's Church, St. John's place, Brooklyn, N. Y., when Miss Doris Marie Sullivan of this city was united in marriage to Lieutenant George J. Signorelli, M. D., of the United States army. Miss Ethyll M. Dooley was bridesmaid and Dr. Joseph L. Pfeifer was best man.

The bride's gown was white georgette crepe with pearl trimming and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Dooley's gown was of pale blue silk with dainty French trimmings and she carried pink roses. After nuptial mass by Rev. Bernard J. Quinn, the wedding party drove to one of the New York hotels where a very dainty wedding breakfast was served. Among those at the breakfast were Miss Margaret Sullivan of St. John and Mrs. Joseph L. Pfeifer of Brooklyn, Lt. and Mrs. G. J. Signorelli left for Atlantic City, N. J., for their honeymoon. Miss Sullivan and Mrs. Signorelli are sisters of Mrs. Mark O'Brien of 48 St. Paul street, St. John.

CANADIAN RAILWAYS WANT INCREASED RATES ON THEIR LINES IN UNITED STATES

Washington, June 3—Canadian railways today asked permission of the Interstate commerce commission to raise rates on business done on their lines within the United States to the level provided by Director-General McAdoo under the recent rate orders for American railroads.

The Canadian Pacific asked for the three cent rate on passenger traffic on its lines in Maine and Vermont.
