BELIEVE FIRE WAS CAUSED BY BURGLARS

Robertson, Foster & Smith, Estey & Co. and J. H. Poole & Son Suffer Heavily - Sensational Features Mark Double Fire

Doing damage which it is estimated will amount to nearly $300,000, a fire, which is believed by both the fire department and the police to be of incendiary origin, early yesterday morning, practically gutted the building in Dock street owned by Robertson, Foster & Smith, Ltd., wholesale and retail hardware merchants; Estey & Co., dealers in steel, metal and rubber goods, and J. H. Poole & Son, warehousemen and manufacturers' agents. Peculiar circumstances surround the blaze, as some time after the department had been first called out, extinguished the fire, and returned to the station, it started up on the same floor and did a great deal more damage than was suffered by the first outbreak. There is evidence that the fire was started by a person, or persons, who entered the building from the rear for the purpose of robbery, as the means of their entrance was found early Sunday morning. Saturday night between 11 and 12 o'clock John Travis, who has recently favored several times in police court proceedings, was arrested in Pond street for wandering about and not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself. One of the reports that was current about the city last evening was to the effect that a postal card addressed to him had been found in the burned building.

JAPANESE DEMAND WAR AGAINST CHINA

Tokyo, Sept. 7.—The assassination of Morihiro Ape, director of the political bureau of the Japanese foreign office, has inflamed the masses, and today a dramatic chapter in the history of the New Japan was written. Fifteen thousand persons gathered in mass meeting in Hibiya Park, calling for military action against China. A majority of these marched to the foreign office and demanded the dispatch of troops to China to take such measures as necessary to get satisfaction for the killing of Japanese at Nanking, or, failing this, the resignation of the minister of foreign affairs, Baron Nobusuki Makino. The speakers denounced the emptiness of Japanese diplomacy in connection with California and China, and insisted that the insult to the Japanese flag at Nanking should be wiped out. Manifestation was clearly an explosion of popular resentment against the ministry in its treatment of the California and Chinese questions.

SAMUEL A. BELDING OF MILLSTREAM IS MISSING

Inquiries are being made regarding the whereabouts of Samuel A. Belding of Head of Millstream, Kings county. The last record which his family have of the man was on August 12 when he called at the office of the Canada Permanent Mortgage Corporation on August 12 to make a payment. While in the office of Canada Permanent Mr. Belding spoke of family circumstances which made him anxious to get back to his home and it was thought that he intended to return immediately. Before coming to St. John he had been away from home working in another part of the province and it is possible that he has gone away again seeking similar work but his family have become alarmed over his prolonged absence. Mr. Belding is described as a well-to-do farmer, about 45 or 50 years old, of medium size, clean-shaven and of alert manner.

A Weak Heart

"An interesting British report suggests that science has prolonged the lives of very young city folks, but not of the middle-aged. A series of tables compiled from reports of the Registrar-General and covering seventy years shows that for males between five and ten years of age the death rate has declined sixty-four per cent, while for those between forty-five and fifty-five years of age it has declined only three per cent—and for the next decade there is an actual increase of mortality. For both men and women between the ages of forty-five and sixty-five there is no decrease in the death rate. Doctor Newsholme finds that for both men and women in this period of middle life diseases of the heart and blood-vessels were registered as the causes of about one-third of the total deaths. "Apparently then, for those who reach middle life in fairly good physical condition the heart is the chief source of danger. Fortunately everybody knows that excessive use of intoxicants and tobacco and coffee weaken the heart. "At this season, when New Year's vows are falling like leaves of autumn, we abstain from urging anybody to stop drinking or smoking or overindulging in coffee. Go ahead—if you think your heart will stand it!" —Saturday Evening Post, Jan. 18, 1913. (Tea is just as injurious as coffee, because it contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.)

TIME TO WAKE UP

We are now into the second week of September, and uncertainty still prevails regarding the construction of the needed grain conveyors at West St. John.

When this whole matter was discussed at a public meeting last spring, it was stated by representatives of the steamship companies that more wharf accommodation would be needed during the coming winter, to relieve the congestion which became very serious during the closing months of the last season. It was strongly urged that all possible pressure be brought to ensure the completion of the wharf now being constructed. There seemed, however, to be very little prospect of getting this wharf completed, and it was suggested as an alternative that another wharf be straightened out in such a way that it would practically provide an additional steamship berth. This suggestion was apparently deemed impracticable, for it was said that surely some arrangement would be made to provide at least this much additional accommodation, in order to place the port in a position to handle as much of the grain trade as might offer.

Nothing, however, has been done. It is said that there would still be time to rush the construction of these grain conveyors, so that they would be of some use by mid-winter. If that is not done, there will be greater congestion at the port during the coming winter than there was early last spring. Mr. Hazen has returned to Ottawa. Other members of the government are also at the capital. Why does not the board of trade take some action in this matter? Are its members content to see the interests of the port of St. John sacrificed? Are they content to have Canadian grain passing through American channels when it should come to a Canadian port? If any action is to be taken, to be effective, it must be taken without delay.

There is also the question of terminals for the Grand Trunk Pacific. It will take a considerable time to construct wharves and the grain elevator, and have other provision made to handle the traffic of the new transcontinental. There is still uncertainty as to whether the line will come to St. John by way of the Valley Railway, or whether there will be no connection except by way of Moncton. The longer this matter is delayed, the worse it will be for the trade of St. John. If the people are apathetic, their interests will be sacrificed. There is now no one at Ottawa with the ability and determination to guard their interests. They must fight for their own hand. The people of Quebec are up and doing, and have sent a vigorous communication to Premier Borden. It is time for similar action on the part of the people of St. John.

OUR NOBLE RULERS

An Ottawa despatch to the Standard announces that "An order in council has been passed changing the name of the dredge Sir Wilfrid at Toronto to P. W. D. No. 117."

There can be no further doubt of the capacity of the Borden government for great and notable acts of administration. Mr. Borden and his colleagues have no stomach for trivial matters. Quebec has been shouting to them about terminals. St. John has been asking for grain conveyors. Halifax has been seeking expenditure on terminal facilities, and from all over the country there have been demands for this or that public work said to be called for in the interest of Canada's trade. Nothing, however, can rob the Borden government of its sense of proportion. Here was a dredge at Toronto—Tory Toronto—bearing the name Sir Wilfrid. How could the affairs of this country progress while that name remained on that dredge? Every time a tory would go down to the water front and read the name on the dredge, he would throw fits, and there would be a case for the ambulance and the emergency hospital. The moment the condition of affairs was made known at Ottawa, and as soon as the cabinet could be got together, a cabinet council was hurriedly called and an order in council passed, to have that name expunged from the record and the title P. W. D. No. 117 inscribed on the dredge.

There is a dredge in St. John harbor called W. S. Fielding. Obviously it must now become a P. W. D., and unless this is done P. D. Q. there may be trouble and hurry calls for the local ambulance.

We are informed that the change of the name of the dredge at Toronto is in the interests of navigation. Presumably this dredge is in the habit of carrying freight and passengers up and down Toronto Bay, or up and down the lake, or perhaps, bearing the name Sir Wilfrid, it has refused to throw mud.

At all events the nation will breathe more freely, knowing that it has at Ot-

THE VALLEY RAILWAY

The Victoria County News says it is reported that the Valley Railway is to run over the Canadian Pacific rails from Andover to Grand Falls. The Harland Observer says it will not surprise anybody to learn of any scheme that will have a tendency to merge the valley road with the Canadian Pacific. It declares that the provincial government does not favor a totally independent and competitive line from Grand Falls to St. John, operated by the I. C. R., for which Messrs. Pugsley and Carvell so vigorously fought. The Observer intimates that it would not be at all surprised to see the "all-consuming C. P. R." eventually take the Valley Railway as a gift, along with the Central and Pinder roads. This is the Hasen-Fleming scheme at the start.

The Observer is able to make suggestions of this kind, because Mr. Hasen and Mr. Fleming have not yet fixed the route of the Valley Railway beyond question, and nobody knows by what route it will enter the city of St. John, or whether the section from Andover to Grand Falls will ever be built.

The presence of Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes with his retinue on the German frontier must have caused no little speculation in Berlin. It is perfectly clear that if the German peril ever shows itself again, our war lord will know where to strike.

A robbery, followed by an incendiary fire which destroyed property worth $70,000 or $80,000, offers an interesting field for investigation by the authorities. St. John is happily free from great crimes, but there has been entirely too much incendiarism during the present year.

While the number of new settlers entering Canada in the first four months of the current fiscal year was greater by 40,000 than during the corresponding months of the previous fiscal year, the proportion of other than British and American settlers also shows a large increase. However, since more than 150,000 of the 251,000 who came in the four months were British or American, the difficulty of assimilating the 90,000 who came from other countries will be less serious than if those speaking foreign tongues formed a larger proportion of the new arrivals.

In Halifax, dock accommodation is a live issue, and the board of trade is taking active steps to get increased facilities for handling traffic. In Quebec there is great uneasiness because of delay in providing terminal facilities for the new transcontinental railway. Mr. Borden, it is announced, will visit Quebec, and also, it is expected, make an announcement which will allay the fears of the people. In St. John there is greater need of an expansion of terminal facilities than in either Halifax or Quebec. What will Mr. Borden, and especially Mr. Hazen, do about it?

Shy
"The bride was very shy."
"Very. She was even shy ten years when it came to giving her age."

Dr. Henry van Dyke, some years ago, appeared before one of the copyright hearings being conducted by the congressional committee on patents in Washington. The list of speakers was a long one, and in an effort to conclude the session at a reasonably early hour the chairman was allotting time sparingly. Thomas Nelson Page, who had been granted ten minutes, talked so entertainingly that half an hour elapsed before his hearers took note of the flight of time. It was then Dr. van Dyke's turn. "How much time do you need, doctor?" inquired the chairman, consulting his timepiece a trifle anxiously.

"Ten minutes—by Mr. Page's watch," replied Dr. van Dyke, and amid the merriment which followed he was invited to talk as great a length as he desired—Lippincott's Magazine.

Q By reason of its central location, Prince George will be the natural distributing point for the extensive territory comprised in the Pacific Province of the Dominion, and it has therefore long been the expectation of the general public that upon the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, Prince George will early become a large and important centre.

Q Having purchased what was known as the Port George Indian Reserve No. 1 for the purpose of locating a townsite thereon, the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Company Limited has caused the same to be surveyed and platted and will offer lots in this townsite for sale by public auction at Vancouver, British Columbia, Wednesday September 17th, 1913, and at Edmonton, Alberta, Wednesday, September 24th, 1913.

Happiness
No one ever yet found happiness by running after it. It may look only a little way ahead—in the new house you are building, in the higher position you are seeking, in the wealth of which you are hoping to secure—but it is in none of them. When you reach the place where you seemed to see it, like a will-o-the-wisp it will still be dancing a little beyond you, just out of reach. The only way to be happy is to stop trying. Forget whether you are happy or not in trying to add a little to the happiness of those about you, and some day you will find that life has grown very sweet.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Richard Smerdon Edgcombe, only son of John and Edith Edgcombe, occurred yesterday at his late residence, 10 Sydney street, in the forty-sixth year of his age. The deceased was a failing in health for more than a year but was confined to his home but a short time.

The late Mr. Edgcombe was widely known. In his early days he was employed in the office of W. H. Bowman, and afterwards with Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd. He left that position to assume the management of the City Bicycle Company in which capacity he received the highest premium awarded the different agencies for efficiency in management. In later years he has been in the office of his father.

The funeral is to take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

A considerable period an active member of the club, which added very materially to the interest in the Sunday evening meetings and in the entertainments given from time to time. During the fatal illness of one who had been a member of the club, Mr. Edgcombe was particularly attentive, and did a great deal to brighten the closing months of the young man's life. Many persons have reason to remember him because of kindly acts, for his was a very generous nature.

The last days of August and the first of September have given ideal weather for the maturing of crops and harvest. Potatoes are turning out a more bountiful crop and of better quality than for years. The early shipments so far as heard from have reached the city markets in better condition than did the shipments of last year. The buyers have not been open to receive potatoes this week, preferring to let the city-ward markets adjust themselves and recover from the overflow of last week. No price can be given this week. THE "CHOCOLATE KING" IS DEAD

It was in 1898 that M. Menier purchased Anticosti, which is 185 miles long and forty miles broad, lying at the mouth of the St. Lawrence River. He acquired it from the Island of Anticosti Company, and the price he paid was only $125,000. The company had bought the island from its former owners, who had failed to make it pay, and they in turn had found it a white elephant on their hands. Seafarers called it "the Mariners' Graveyard," and "the Isle of Shipwrecks."

M. Menier at once began to carry out an elaborate programme of improvements, and these have added to from time to time ever since, the development of the island. The soil is fertile, and the fishing invaluable; the spruce forests covering the island are said to be ample enough to supply the world with paper pulp.

M. Menier's plans for Anticosti, part of which have been carried out, included the building of towns, the clearing of land, the construction of roads and railways, the building of a deep sea port, and the development of the natural resources of the island, such as agricultural products, fisheries and paper pulp.

The improvements contemplated and now under way include the building of a deep-sea port at Ellis Bay, the making of roads, and the construction of important lobster canneries at Fox Bay. The latter industry is one of the best on the island. Anticosti is considered the greatest lobster-producing fishery on earth. The immense forests of spruce and fir are now being cut and shipped to the island are now being erected a large pulp factory, exporting the product to Great Britain, France, and the United States.

COMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS, GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. When ever her hair fell out or took on the dull, faded or straggled appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply daub a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT MEETING
A meeting of the provincial government will be held in the government building in Prince William street, commencing this evening and continuing tomorrow. Premier Fleming arrived in the city at noon today to preside at the meetings and other members of the government are expected this evening.

CITY'S HEALTH IS BETTER
The health situation in the city is now proving to be more satisfactory than it has been for some time. No new cases of typhoid have developed recently and, beyond the one case in the isolation hospital, there have been no more cases of small pox. The latter case is of a mild type and the patient has been improving. The sudden necessity for using the isolation hospital caused an interruption to some extensive repairs and improvements which were being made and which will have to await the discharge of the patient before they can be completed.

In Danger
A person who was recently called in to the county court for the purpose of proving the correctness of a doctor's bill was asked by the lawyer whether "the doctor did not make several visits to the patient?" "No," replied the witness; "I consider" other application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

The Welch-Ritchie Match: Sam Langford is a Hitter

FROM T. S. ANDREWS. Milwaukee, Sept. 4.—It is on again. The Freddie Welsh-Willie Ritchie match, which has been hanging fire for several weeks due to disputes over terms, referees, etc., and then an injury to Welch, has finally been set for Sept. 20 at Vancouver, B. C., and from present indications there will be no further hitch in the proceedings. Both men have agreed to have Jim Griffin of San Francisco as referee, although Eddie Grady had been Ritchie's choice. It will be an international affair and should attract attention over the country. Ritchie has been in Vancouver for the last two weeks training under the direction of Harry Lewis, so it may be taken for granted that he will be in fine shape when he does step into the arena. The bout will draw a big crowd, too, as the club will have Seattle and many cities thereabouts to draw from. Ritchie is getting a straight guarantee of $15,000 for his bout, which is not bad for some two hours' work. It should be a good, straight boxing match to watch and will no doubt go the full distance, with Ritchie having the edge for a verdict. Freddie will hardly be at his best after having his ankle sprained only a few weeks ago, while Ritchie will be better in every way than when he faced the Brit-isher before.

Dan (Porky) Flynn, a Boston light heavy-weight, is now convinced that Sam Langford is a hitter. Twice Dan has taken the count from the dusky Samuel, the first time at Melbourne, Australia, when he was given the K. O. in the fourteenth round of a hard battle. Previous to that Dan had had a training with Langford, but they had a dispute and as a result a match between them developed. When they both landed in Boston recently there was talk of another match and the Boston A. A. succeeded in getting them together for a second meeting. Dan was in good shape and in his first round put Tar Baby to the floor with a hard right hand smash. It did not stop Sammy, however, for he came back in the second with a look that boded no good for punches that he handled out some straight wins. Again in the third he demonstrated that he was Flynn's master, and in the fourth he put Dan to sleep with a straight short arm blow to the jaw. It was Sam's first fight since his return from Australia and he showed that he is still there with the kick in either hand. Sam said after the match that his one ambition was to get Jack Johnson into the ring with him, but that John Arthur had kept his distance so successfully that he had about given up hope of ever getting him into the ropes for an evening's entertainment.

The Matter of Police And Adequate Protection Brought to City By Detective Today

NOT ENOUGH POLICEMEN HEARING TOMORROW

Force Smaller Than Ever, Says Chief—Statement of Losses and Insurance in the Dock Street Fires of Saturday and Sunday Case at Eleven O'Clock—Recalls New York Experiences in Chat With Friends in Police Station—The Charge Against Him

The police are investigating the matter of the fire in the Robertson, Foster & Smith warehouse on Saturday night and again yesterday morning. Commissioner McLellan hinted in an interview yesterday that there might be another "investigation" as well. Chief Clark when asked concerning the matter this morning by a Times reporter, said that the men on duty there were fully doing their duty, but the truth of the matter was "if there was anything to investigate it was why the section in question was about three men short of the number needed to patrol the district.

"This is a very important district in the commercial centre of the city," said the chief this morning, "with business warehouses, banks, stores, and valuable real estate which have to be protected and it is the duty of the police to afford such protection, particularly when the taxpayers are assessed for it. But it is hard to do much when the number of men is inadequate. The force is now smaller than it has been for some time. Since the withdrawal of some of its members their places have not been filled.

There is really no evidence to connect John Travis with the fire. Chief Clark this morning denied that a post-card bearing Travis' name had been found in the building burned. The charge against the young fellow on the police books is "slandering about Pond street without being able to give a satisfactory account of himself." To this he pleaded not guilty this morning and was remanded.

The insurance

The insurances carried on the properties affected by the fires on Saturday night and Sunday morning are as follows:

Small estate, building, insurance $10,000, Phoenix of London, S. S. deForest, agent; loss, estimated, $10,000.

Robertson, Foster & Smith, stock; insurance, Royal, $15,000; Union of Paris, $7,000; Liverpool & Manchester, $4,000; Connecticut, $4,000; Guardian, $2,000; Fidelity Underwriters, $2,000; York-shire, $1,000; Calcutta, $1,000; total, $86,000; Machum & Foster, agents. The loss will probably be greater than the amount of insurance.

Estey & Co.—Stock and fixtures, St. Paul, $3,000; New York Underwriters, $2,000; White & Calkin, agents; loss about $10,000.

J. H. Poole, building, insurance, Sun, $2,000; Anglo-American, $1,000; total, $3,000; total $7,000; loss about $800.

In addition to these, loss to the extent of about $1,000 was suffered by various owners of goods stored in the Poole warehouse, most of which is fully covered by insurance.

E. L. Philips will arrive from Halifax tomorrow morning to adjust the losses for the companies represented by Machum & Foster and C. E. L. Jarvis will act for some of the other companies interested.

Commissioner Inquiring

Commissioner McLellan is making an investigation today into some of peculiar features of the Dock street fire. He announced yesterday that, if the story that the fire was burning for nearly an hour on Sunday morning before an alarm was rung in was found to be correct, he thought it would justify an inquiry into the whereabouts of the police at the time. So far he has not completed his inquiry into the facts, and until this is complete, he cannot say whether an investigation will be necessary.

HEARING TOMORROW

Case at Eleven O'Clock—Recalls New York Experiences in Chat With Friends in Police Station—The Charge Against Him

Richard D. Isaacs at last reached the city today, in custody of Detective P. R. Killen, into whose charge he was given on Saturday. The case will come up for hearing in the police court tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Isaacs, whose age is given on the police books as forty-one years, has been arrested on a "warrant charging him with uttering forged documents, committed within the jurisdiction of Canada," according to the police records at central station. He was brought before the court at twelve o'clock today and remanded until tomorrow.

When asked how he was feeling after his imprisonment Isaacs replied this morning "fine and dandy," both to police officials and to friends, some of whom called him on the telephone to inquire as to how he was. He complained of a slight cold, caused by his all night ride sitting up on the train. He spoke quite cheerfully concerning his experiences in the states, and laughed at some of his reminiscences while in the Tombs, where he had as neighbors, Myrugh, Mcweeney, and the other two police inspectors who were sentenced to ten months in connection with the graft investigation in New York, and as his cell-mate no less notable than Senator Stillwell, who was charged with lobbying.

The case against Isaacs has to do with certain deeds for land lots in Alberta, to which the accusation is that he forged documents, committed within the jurisdiction of Canada, according to the information against him is laid by men. Isaacs was not asked to plead this morning. When brought into court he was very neatly and well dressed. J. A. Barry has been engaged to act for him as counsel, while Baxter & Logan will conduct the prosecution, with G. F. Fenwick attending in the interests of the Alberta provincial government.

KEEP BACK I. C. R. MEN'S PAY TILL MIDDLE OF MONTH

St. John Employees Have Another Grievance Against Tory Management

More evidence of lack of regard for the convenience of patrons and employees is displayed by the Tory management of the Intercolonial Railway. The latest grievance is caused by an arbitrary announcement that the men will have to wait from three to six days longer for their pay.

At every convention of the railway men and at almost every conference between the men and the management one of the grievances aired has been that the men were unable to get their monthly pay envelopes until from the ninth to the twelfth of the month after it was earned. Present requests have been made for the adoption of a system which would permit the regular employees at least to secure their pay more promptly.

Instead of improving the situation the men have been surprised by notices that the delay will be extended. The notices reads as follows:—"The management advises that, in future, the I. C. R. employees at St. John will be paid their monthly salaries for the preceding month on the fourteenth of each month. When the fourteenth comes on Sunday payment will be made on the fifteenth.

In the past the delay in receiving their pay has been a serious matter to many of the men, especially those with families to support on moderate salaries. Most of the employees find it necessary to stand off the merchants with whom they have accounts for the extra fortnight and in many cases where pressing payments must be met, the delay has been productive of profitable business for money lenders. In other departments of the public service this delay does not seem to be necessary, and the railway men do not see why they should be singled out for treatment of this kind.

It was said today that it is probable that there will be a vigorous organized protest against the new rule by the men affected.

GLING TO PLEASURES OF THE RIVER AS LONG AS WEATHER MAN PERMITS

The announcement that the steamer Oonoo would make an early trip down river this morning resulted in a rush of the summer folk back to river points on Saturday. Quite a number went up on the Champlain at noon, but a greater number went on the Oonoo at four o'clock. She had a large passenger list coming down this morning, and landed them at Indiantown before half-past eight o'clock. The Oonoo will make another early trip next Monday morning.

Yesterday was a perfect day in the country, with warm sunshine, and all day sailing craft and motor boats could be seen moving up and down the lower reaches of the river. Three sailing yachts and four or five motor boats spent part of the day at Public Landing. There is hardly a trace of autumn in the appearance of the woods, which still have the vivid green of summer. The summer people at Public Landing had another enjoyable dance at their pavilion on Saturday evening. Throughout the evening bonfires blazed on the beach at different points along the river on both sides. It is with keen regret the people note the coming of the colder nights, and the approaching end of their pleasures along those beautiful shores.
