Immense Development of Oil Shales Property in Albert County Under Consideration by British and American Capitalists

There is every prospect of an early development of the oil shale properties of Albert County. For many years these valuable deposits have been exploited by different parties and at one time were operated with some success.

An investigation made by authority of the dominion department of mines, which included a practical test of Albert county shale in a Scotch refinery, revealed the fact that the New Brunswick shale was richer in oil than the Scotch shale.

There are at least two large companies in which prominent local men are interested and within the past four months representatives of outside capital have visited Albert with a view of seeing for themselves the extent of the deposits.

REDMOND AND THE POWERS OF THE LORDS

Irish Nationalist in New York Sees Lords' Downfall

QUARTETTE ARRIVES

T. P. O'Connor, Joseph Devlin and John Boyle Accompanying Redmond—Going to Convention at Buffalo—Interview on Affairs in the Old Country

New York, Sept. 27.—The House of Lords has got to vote to curtail its own powers. When they refused once before here Sunday on the White Star liner Baltic, made this statement at the Hoffman House. With him at the time were three other Irish members of Parliament, T. P. O'Connor, Joseph Devlin and John Boyle, and they all acquiesced in Mr. Redmond's words.

Without the slightest excitement, but with every evidence of meaning exactly what he said, John E. Redmond, the distinguished Irish Nationalist, who arrived here Sunday on the White Star liner Baltic, made this statement at the Hoffman House. With him at the time were three other Irish members of Parliament, T. P. O'Connor, Joseph Devlin and John Boyle, and they all acquiesced in Mr. Redmond's words.

The four men are delegates from the Nationalist party to the convention of the United Irish League which will be held in Buffalo this week. They have been the leaders in the Irish home rule fight, and their object in coming to this country is to collect funds to continue the fight after the opening of Parliament on Nov. 15. Two years ago they took back $100,000 with them, but they expect a much larger sum this year.

Meetings Throughout the Country At the conclusion of the Buffalo convention Mr. O'Connor will go to Canada for a series of speeches, while the other three will go to New York to address a meeting at Carnegie Hall next Sunday night. Messrs. Redmond, Devlin and Boyle will also speak in Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh, Chicago and St. Louis. They will then meet Mr. O'Connor on their return from Canada and the rest of the country, as much of it as can be covered in the limited time the Irishmen have, will be visited.

Mr. Redmond was selected as spokesman for the party when an interview was asked for and throughout his talk Mr. Redmond made it clear that he and his associates fully expect violence if the House of Lords does not yield to the Home Rulers. Mr. Redmond said:

The object of our coming to this country is to put the exact question of the Irish movement before our countrymen here. We are the delegates of the National Party in Ireland, and the prospects were never more favorable than now to curtail the power of the House of Lords. This power is rapidly decreasing. It is the only obstacle to home rule. The House of Commons favors home rule, and there is a contest going on between the House of Lords and the people of England, through their representatives in the House of Commons for popular legislation. The one question before the public is the question of home rule for Ireland.

Looking Forward to Election "There is a conference now sitting in England which is arranging matters of which home rule for Ireland is one, but if this leads to nothing they will probably be an election in January which will lead to something. The curtailment of the House of Lords is in the hands of both the Liberal and Unionist parties. This conference I speak of is one which started before the death of King Edward, but which will be renewed this Fall.

The power of the House of Lords is the question under discussion, and it involves progressive methods. Home rule for Ireland is one question, the disestablishment of the Church of England in Wales—a great question in that part of the empire—is another, the extension of suffrage is a third.

The last convention held in America resulted in our obtaining sufficient financial and moral support to bring about the granting of the great land grant to obtain large sums for the development of the West of Ireland, and the obtaining of $500,000 to build laborers' cottages. The whole movement now is for Home Rule.

"We will achieve the curtailment of the House of Lords very soon, indeed. The great bulk of the English people has been on record for some time as in favor of this. The House of Lords is made up of the great landed class. They hate to give up their powers but this question in debate will, I feel, cause them to commit suicide to save themselves from slaughter.

Want Return of Irishmen "We have no objections of our continuing to occupy ourselves with social functions, but the House of Lords, in its present condition, is as dead as a herring. I will say a red herring, because stinks in the nostrils of the British people.

"What we want is men to come back to Ireland. Irishmen will come back if their country is free, and it will practically be free if we have home rule. We realize that our people are among your best citizens, but we feel that you ought to be able to spare some of them. We want a few who have made their pile in the United States to come back to us, live in peace and bury their bones in the land of their ancestry. The population of Ireland is one-half of what it was six years ago. Something must be done to remedy this evil.

"The failure of the House of Lords to pass the budget last year threw the country into confusion and raised a frightful storm against that body. It was finally passed in spite of them."

Mr. Redmond would not discuss the growth of the woman's suffrage movement in England.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

HIRAM BECOMES A BOOSTER "Say," said Mr. Hiram Hornbush to the Times reporter this morning, "I wish I was about forty or fifty years younger. It ain't that I'm going back on what I've been or done, but I'd like to have the chance the young fellows of today has got in this country. An' I ain't talkin' about the west, neither. It makes a feller proud to read about the new country they're openin' up about north of Albany," said Earl Grey, findin' such a climate an' country they told Hudson Bay, an' all the stories they round about the riches 'o' the west an' the north—but I'm talkin' now about New Brunswick. There's that iron up in Gloucester county, an' that coal in Queens an' Sunbury, an' that oil an' gas an' them oil shales in Albert county, an' that copper in a hull lot o' places—all been found out in the last few years. Then there's the railroads. There's the G. T. P. an' the International, an' the Valley Road, openin' up new territory fer farmers an' lumbermen—why it ain't no more like it was twenty years ago than I am like it was then. Talk about young fellows goin' out west—I wouldn't do no such thing. This old province of New Brunswick is good enough fer Hiram. I s'pose they'll be pipin' oil right over my farm to St. John some day soon—an' gas too. I call late times is just gone jump around here afore we're much older. Hey, what? Hiram said that he had made a successful experiment with alfalfa on his farm this year, and that in his opinion the farmers in New Brunswick were waking up all along the line.

"Why," he said, "I know a man out our way bought a farm afore fifteen hundred dollars a few years ago, an' re-fused nearly three times as much fer it last week. We're a comin', young man, we're a comin' all the time."

THE FIGHT FOR CONTROL IN NEW YORK

Progressives and the Old Guard Ready for the Fray

ROOSEVELT CONFIDENT

He Authorizes a Statement This Morning Charging Trickery—Cleanliness and Honesty vs. Baseness in Political Management, the Issues He Says

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt will be elected temporary chairman of the republican state convention which is scheduled to meet at noon today, according to the admission of Wm. Barnes, Jr., leader of the old guard. In a statement to the Associated Press, shortly before 10 o'clock today, Mr. Barnes said:

"Vice-President Sherman may have 400 votes out of 1,000 which will be cast on the floor. That is my guess. It may be that a few of the last counties in the roll are seeing the way things are going, will switch over to the progressive side."

Though Mr. Barnes concedes the defeat of Sherman for temporary chairman he indicated that it would be a warm fight on the floor of the convention. State Chairman Woodruff will make a statement defining the position of the old guard with respect to the selection by the state committee of Vice-president Sherman and it is not unlikely that Barnes will also have something to say. Former state Senator, Elsbury and Comptroller Prendergast of New York, are slated to speak for Col. Roosevelt.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—This, the opening day of the Republican state convention, which was to determine whether the progressives under Theodore Roosevelt or the old guard should control, found leaders and delegates early in evidence. The former expressed the most absolute confidence in their supremacy, claiming that Col. Roosevelt, on the vote for temporary chairman would receive more than a hundred majority over Vice-President Sherman, candidate of the old guard.

NOT DECIDED YET ON WORLD'S SERIES

Baseball Magnates Trying to Have Leagues End so That Series May Commence October 13

Chicago, Sept. 27.—C. W. Murphy, president of the Chicago Nationals, has agreed to advance the game with St. Louis set for October 15, one day thus closing the National League season October 14.

"The National League schedule was adopted last February and ends on Saturday, Oct. 15," said Murphy, "and we were willing to move the last scheduled game to Oct. 14, an open date, so that the post-season series might start that much sooner, provided we were in those games."

At the American League headquarters, President Johnson reiterated his ultimatum that the championship must be set in motion not later than Oct. 13. That something definite as regards the dates will be known soon is the news passed around by Johnson. August Herrman, Chairman of the National Commission, wired yesterday from Lynchburg, Va., to the effect that a meeting of the baseball tribunal would probably be held here Monday, at which time the problem would come up for final discussion.

"Hereafter the Commission will see that the date difficulties are eliminated," said Johnson. "The world's series, the biggest event in baseball, should start Oct. 15 and the American League will insist on this point. Our circuit schedule will be so arranged that next season the final game will be played not later than Oct. 3. The National League should contribute its share to the welfare of organized baseball by making a like arrangement."

NO FUNDY FERRY PLANS FOR LEVIS DOCK FILED TODAY

Officials on Return to Montreal Say However That Practicability is Being Discussed

(Montreal Star.)
For the present there will be no ferry across the Bay of Fundy in connection with the through freight service which the Canadian Pacific will establish immediately between Montreal and Halifax via the Dominion Atlantic Railway.

This was the announcement which was made today by Mr. McNeill, the vice-president of the Canadian Pacific, who with Mr. G. M. Bowditch, has been on a trip of inspection over the Dominion Atlantic, now about to be merged into the Canadian Pacific system.

Mr. Bowditch supplemented this statement of Mr. McNeill's by saying that the same system would be adapted to the route between Owen Sound and Fort William. The freight would be transhipped at St. John, and taken to the coast by the Dominion Atlantic to Halifax.

"We have spare steamers that we can use on the route," said Mr. Bowditch, "and we have no doubt that this system will answer well."

Mr. McNeill, however, admitted that the question of putting a ferry on this service was one of the matters which had been looked into but no decision had been taken on this question pending a report from the engineers. The high tides in the bay, he said, offered no very great obstacle to a ferry. The more important question was whether the channel was a good one or not.

That the Dominion Atlantic would become an important feeder of the C. P. R. system Mr. McNeill frankly admitted. He never saw such a big area of splendid orchards as that between the line, he said. "A very healthy sign, and that many new orchards are being planted, and prosperity is everywhere in evidence. It is a charmingly picturesque country, and my only regret in regard to it is that there are not more people there. How ever, time will doubtless remedy that and certainly the C. P. R. will do what it can to advance its traffic, and developing as well as for tourist traffic. There is not the slightest doubt that the country is capable of supporting a much larger population than at present."

POLICE WORKING ON PETTY THEFTS

Robinson's Bakery Offices and O. H. Warwick's Store Entered.

The local police are busily engaged in working on two robberies of a petty, yet rather daring nature, one from the store of O. H. Warwick, King street, and the other from the offices of Chas. Robinson, baker and confectioner, of Celebration street. In the former case, it has been learned that only a small amount, about $5 was taken, but in the case of Mr. Robinson, while the latter would not say so directly today, it is understood that the amount is far greater.

Mr. Robinson's place was not forcibly entered after the regular manner of burglars, and the theft of the money is somewhat of a mystery.

LIUET. GOVERNOR OF NOVA SCOTIA IS DEAD

The death of the Hon. J. B. Macdonald, president of the Alumni association and no governor of the Ladies' College, Halifax, was announced at the residence of Pictou, N. S., and commissioner of public accounts in the House of Commons. He was also Grand Master of the Free Masons.

Lieut. Governor Fraser had many friends in St. John. The "giant of Guysboro" was one of the best stump speakers of his time. He was a man of great energy and ability. He was a member of the Nova Scotia Club, and was a member of the famous party of Canadian curlers who went to the old country a couple of years ago, and made a good impression upon all whom they met on the other side, because of his ready wit, his stories, and his fine address to the public occasions. The news of his death was heard with universal regret, this morning. It was known that he had been very ill, but the end was unexpected.

Stirred by the action of the Republican committee, which had been elected by a vote of 22 to 15 to that do not or fraud had been practiced in the selection of Mr. Sherman as temporary presiding officer, Col. Roosevelt early today authorized the following statement:

"The conduct of a majority of the state committee last evening put into the clearest light what this contest really is. The statements of Messrs. Grisco, Krieger, Krieger, Krieger, Krieger, and Krieger, proven conclusively the trickery that was used in the effort to win a majority and to make the management of the party under the control of the men who have discredited it by their actions."

"There has never been a state convention to which it was better worth going than this, for never before has the issue been so clearly drawn between cleanliness and honesty in public life and that peculiar baseness in political management which makes the very word politician odious to the people."

"Our fight is squarely against corruption and the unclean bossism which has bred corruption. The men who try to keep control of the state committee and who now come here in the effort to nominate the convention are the very men who are responsible for the corruption which produced Aldred and for all that has been discreditable in the party management and those deeply discredited bosses represent the effort of the people, the effort of the plain people who make up the great bulk of the Republican party to rescue that party from the factions which have used it only to further their own base and selfish purposes."

It was named by the progressive leaders to name United States Senator Elinor Root as permanent chairman of the convention in the event of their winning today's battle in the convention, which was scheduled to begin at noon.

Frank Hicks, of Nassau, a delegate from the ex-president's home county, was elected to place Col. Roosevelt's name in nomination for temporary chairman and that of Lloyd C. Grisco, chairman of the New York county committee would second it. The fight for control quite overshadowed the main business of the convention, that of making nominations for governor and other state officers. It was expected that the resolution committee when appointed, would spend the greater part of the afternoon in debating the various plank in the platform, of which chief interest centers in the fight over direct nominations.

New York, Sept. 27.—Foul play is suspected by the police and the family of Joe Richards, a rich manufacturer of Washington heights, who was found unconscious on a sidewalk in West street early today. The bad scalp wound and a fractured skull from which he was suffering, were believed to have been sustained when he was violently thrown from a passing automobile. Residents of the neighborhood reported that they had seen a party in an automobile moving at a rapid rate through West street, "toss the man from the tonneau of the car. Richards had not recovered consciousness when taken to St. Vincent's Hospital and may die.

He is believed to have had about $100 and to have had a valuable watch and chain with him when he left home early in the evening. When found only some small change remained in his pockets and his jewelry was missing.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By BUTH CAMERON

THE eternal length of a rainy Sunday spent with a crowd of people who were comparative strangers to each other, impels me to a few remarks on the art of general conversation.

If you want to be welcome on rainy Sundays and similar occasions when conversation is the chief amusement, let me suggest that before you start to tell any anecdote you ask yourself: "Is it intrinsically interesting? That is, if it has no connection with myself or my friends, will it still be worth telling?"

And if you can't say, "yes," don't tell it.

I've often heard a bore defined as a person who talks about himself continually, but I don't think that's right. I know people who talk about themselves perpetually, but who are nevertheless very delightful companions.

The point is they have had such interesting lives that what they tell about themselves is intrinsically interesting, that is, would be so even if it had no personal connection.

Try also to lose the idea that a bare statement, that you or some of your friends had to some particular place or done some special thing, is a good conversational coin.

For instance, if a bright story about newspaper life is told, there is always someone to pipe up: "I have a friend who was a newspaper man once. He wrote the political news" or, "I have a picture of some beautiful spot in being situated the same vicinity of here volunteers the absorbing information, "I was near there once when I was traveling for a shoe factory, but it was our busy season and I couldn't get the time to go over."

Remarks like that go well enough with people who have reason to be interested in you and your friends, and where you have not been, but as general conversation with comparative strangers - well, they're certainly counterproductive, whereby which the obligation of politeness ever makes people accept as the real thing.

Stories involving their comprehension much knowledge of any sort - of some business or sport, or locality, for instance - and told to people who do not possess that knowledge, are another variety of bad conversational coin. No one except a "conversational genius" can give brief explanations that really explain, and many a story or incident that is perfectly good when told to the right person, becomes an unmitigated bore when loaded down with explanations and foisted off on people who haven't the ghost of an idea what it all means, but who smile and say, "Yes, yes, I understand," just to get the story over with.

There is plenty of mutual ground on which even complete strangers, if they have average intelligence, can meet.

There are enough personal anecdotes in most of our lives that are intrinsically interesting enough to be told even to strangers.

There is almost always some special common interest that any two or three people can find to talk about.

If people would realize these possibilities and limitations, and try to live up to them, and within them, it seems to me there would be far fewer bores in the world.

REPORT OF ROYAL WEST INDIES COMMISSION

Favor Preference to Canada - Recommend Faster Steamers, With One Line From St. John - Cheaper Cable Service

London, Sept. 26 - The report of the royal commission inquiring into trade relations between Canada and the West Indies was issued today. It is signed by Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Hon. Messrs. Fielding and Paterson, Lord Islington and Sir Daniel Morris. It comprises sixty pages besides voluminous appendices.

The commissioners strongly represent that the preference granted the West Indies by Canada for some years has been of great value in furnishing a favorable market for West Indian sugar, just when the United States, through the development of their own colonial policy, ceased to require West Indian sugar as largely as formerly.

The West Indies are strongly urged to make reciprocal concessions to Canadian goods, so that the advantage already obtained may be continued.

Considerable attention is paid to the controversy between the West India shippers and Canadian refiners as to the existence of a West Indian combination to obtain excessive prices, and the special concessions made to the refiners a year ago respecting the importation of a limited quantity of foreign raw sugar at preferential rates, it recommended in any scheme for the betterment of trade relations that may be proposed the special concession to the refiners be withdrawn, inasmuch as the West Indies would regard this step as essential, but that the percentage of preference allowed by Canada be reduced, made definite and unqualified.

The West India colonies, generally, are reported to favor reciprocal arrangements with Canada, except Jamaica, which was influenced by a fear, which the commission think is not justified, that making such arrangements would provoke retaliatory tariff legislation by the United States.

The commission advise that any preference to be granted to Canada by the West Indies should take the form of a reduction in the duties on Canadian goods, leaving the duties on foreign goods as at present.

Each colony should be free to make its own tariff policy. Canada, it is pointed out, cannot be expected to make an arrangement with the smaller colonies only, but several larger ones are ready to enter into the proposed agreement a preferential scheme might be adopted and a reasonable time allowed the other colonies to come in.

The existing steamship service is pronounced unsatisfactory, and they recommend that with the co-operation of the British post office, if possible, a faster service be established, one branch to run from Montreal and St. John, the other from Halifax.

The need for cheaper cable communication is emphasized. It is suggested this might be brought about by a consolidation of the several cable lines with government assistance, or the acquisition of the cables by the several governments concerned, and the utilization of a wireless for communication with the smaller islands.

The Standard thinks the results of the Canada-West Indies commission is fair and equitable. The whole report appears to be a recognition of the fact that closer political relations can only result from more intimate commercial arrangements.

The Morning Post says common sense has been vindicated without any inconsistency on the part of the government's free trade representatives and hopes that some arrangement between Canada and the West Indies on the lines of the report will be effected without delay.

The Times says the report of the commission is of high value and consequence. The recommendation of a uniform preference by the West Indies testifies eloquently to the breadth of mind wherewith the free traders, Balfour and Islington, approached their task.

GOING PENNIES A PROFITABLE BUSINESS FOR UNCLE SAM

Thirteen Cents Worth of Copper Yields a Dollar Worth of Coins

Washington, Sept. 26 - Notwithstanding the Philadelphia mint coined 146,000,000 pennies last year, and many other millions in years before, the mystery of where the little coppers go still is unsolved, and Director Geo. E. Roberts estimated the big plant will turn out another 100,000,000 this year. Pennies, more so than any other sort of coin, disappear from circulation very mysteriously.

The government does not mind coining them, however, for they yield a fine profit. A pound of copper costing now about 13 cents, will make a dollar in pennies. The big stamping machines in the Philadelphia office will begin work too, next month, and several million dollars in gold bullion will be turned into bright new coins. The Denver mint began coining gold two weeks ago.

BRYAN CHARGES ROOSEVELT WITH STEALING HIS CLOTHES

Says ex-President's "New Nationalism" Has Been Democratic Platform for Years

Pueblo, Col., Sept. 26 - Wm. J. Bryan, in an address before a mass meeting today, charged Col. Theodore Roosevelt with having advocated old time Democratic principles in many of his recent addresses on his western tour. Referring to Col. Roosevelt's Ossawatimie (Kas.) speech on New Nationalism, Mr. Bryan said: "The Democratic party has preached this doctrine fourteen years, and in 1900 it stated it in its platform, quite in contrast with the distinguished gentleman who appears to have just made the discovery that this doctrine is correct and progressive and just."

In his expressions regarding railroad regulation, the income tax, swollen fortunes, and publicity of campaign contributions, Mr. Roosevelt has merely followed a well-established Democratic lead. For years Democrats have been clamoring for legislation in this direction.

ADDRESS TO JURY

Judge Landry Suggests That Business Men Who Object to Serving on Grand Jury Ask Legislature to Abolish That Body if They Think Justice Would be Served

The September sittings of the Circuit Court opened this morning at 11 o'clock in the court house. His Honor Mr. Justice Landry presiding. Attorney General Hasen appeared for the crown.

After his honor had charged the grand jury, that body retired at 11:30 and at 12:30 sent in word that they would adjourn until 2 o'clock. It is understood that the Rossi case was engaging their attention.

In opening his charge to the grand jury his honor thanked them for the large attendance. He said it was especially gratifying to see practically the full panel present, as last night he had been approached by a number of the panel who requested to be excused. "It pained me," said his honor, "to refuse business men who I know are telling the truth when they say their business needs their entire attention." His Honor pointed out that it was the duty of every good citizen to assist the court in carrying out the administration of justice. Continuing, he said that those who have obeyed the Sovereign's summons to come deserve the warmest thanks of the Crown. He advised the public if they thought that the administration of justice would not suffer by the abolition of the jury system they had better apply to the legislature to enact a law along that line. He then observed that those who were absent today would be fined.

Referring to the case against Rossi, charged with the murder of a compatriot, Siracusa, His Honor thought that there was sufficient evidence to indict the accused. He said they could, if they came to the conclusion that the evidence warranted, find a bill for manslaughter.

In regarding the case against Robert J. Armstrong, John C. Hooley and Charles Denzinger, charged with exhibiting the Jeffrey-Johnson moving pictures which "tend to corrupt public morals," his Honor said that there were cases of fact not of law, and therefore must be decided by the grand jury. His honor observed that this case was not brought for the purpose of punishing those charged but to deter others from committing the offence.

The grand jury retired at 11:30 and at 12:30 sent word to the court that they would adjourn until two o'clock this afternoon.

Following is a list of the grand jurors: William S. Clayton, (foreman); Edward J. Armstrong, (secretary); Charles D. Jones, (absent); Clarence B. Allen, Chas. S. Christie, Chas. H. Flewelling, Thos. L. Bowes, Miles E. Agar, Charles A. O'Neil, Joseph Rodolph, John M. Edmore, J. Pope Barnes, (absent); Frank White, Samuel C. Drury, J. Herbert Crockett, James E. Quinn, John Ross, (absent); Harry G. Ross, John Lachue, (absent); Edward A. Milton, Louis Smith, Frederick J. McSweeney and William H. Warm.

Petit Jury—Marshall D. Austin, Chas. Robinson, Sydney R. Paterson, R. H. Sims, Thomas M. Ward, Frederick S. Bonnell, Enoch O. Parsons, David B. Pidgeon, Leonard G. Belyea, William J. Neale, Walter H. Lewis, Waldemar Peterson, H. Fielding Rankine, Samuel H. Sherwood jr., Gilbert C. Jordan, Charles H. Knudsen, George W. Polking, Neelham S. Spinger, George Dick, Alexander Corbet, Thomas J.
