

DEATH OF BISHOP ROGERS.

The Dean of the Canadian Hierarchy.

And One of the Most Highly Esteemed Prelates in the Maritime Provinces.

Passed Away Full of Years—Beloved by All Who Knew Him—A Brief Sketch of the Bishop's Career.

CHATHAM, March 22.—Bishop Rogers died at five o'clock this morning. He was about seventy-nine years old and had been in failing health for some months. A surviving sister, a Sister of Charity residing at Halifax, visited him during his last illness. The deceased prelate was much esteemed by all classes in this district, where he had resided upwards of forty years.

His lordship Bishop Rogers was a native of the county of Donegal, Ireland, dating his birth at Mount Charles on July 11th, 1824, being the eldest child and only son of John Rogers and Mary Britton. Both parents were born in that part of Ireland. The family emigrated to Halifax in 1831, when the late bishop was in his fifth year. There he grew to manhood and received his general and classical education in St. Mary's College, completing his theological studies at the Sulpician Seminary, Montreal. His lordship was ordained priest in 1845, and was promoted in orders as follows: To tonsure and minor orders at the Cathedral, Halifax, on the 23rd of August, 1850; to subdiaconate on the 10th of May, 1851; and to the priesthood on the 10th of May, 1852.

He was appointed secretary to Archbishop Connolly of Halifax, and at the same time to a professorship in the St. Mary's College, in which institution he was made a lecturer on the following subjects: Canon Law, the Grand Seminary, Montreal, on June 1st, 1857; by Bishop Poirer, and priest at Halifax on July 2nd, 1857; by Archbishop Walsh, as vicar general and priest in the arch-diocese of Halifax, in various missions in the county of Digby, Annapolis, Cumberland, and West. He also held a similar position prior to his ordination.

After his return to the province he was appointed to the newly erected diocese of Chatham, Nova Scotia, in 1858. He resided in that town, P. E. I., August 1st of the same year, when he entered immediately upon the duties of his office. At that time he had a small Catholic population in the province, and especially in the diocese of Chatham, and he endeavored to increase the same by his personal example and by his pastoral visits. He was a zealous and energetic pastor, and his pastoral visits were made with regularity and with the most successful results. He was a devoted and successful pastor, and his pastoral visits were made with regularity and with the most successful results.

While making his sacerdotal duties and the work of administering the affairs of the diocese his first and principal care was to visit the parishes and to see that the faithful were properly instructed in the faith, and to see that the ministrations in spiritual life were not neglected. He was a zealous and energetic pastor, and his pastoral visits were made with regularity and with the most successful results.

FREDERICTON.

Two mild cases of smallpox in the same family made their appearance in the city today.

The board of health officials at once established a quarantine, although after consultation several city physicians expressed doubts as to the nature of the disease, believing it to be an aggravated type of chickenpox.

The board decided to call in Dr. T. B. Morris, the St. John expert, who arrived in the city last night, and pronounced the disease smallpox in its pustular stage. In view of this report the board promptly measures to guard the infected house, where for the present the patients will be located under care of a nurse.

The high school and model school, where the patients had been located, will be closed temporarily for the purpose of disinfection. A leading city physician, seen by the Sun's reporter, stated tonight, with respect to the decision that the cases were not smallpox, while another scouted the idea that there were any cases nearer than the Kingsclear. It is thought by the citizens generally that the disease is not smallpox but chickenpox, as a boy in the same family three weeks ago had that disease and was pronounced by the attending physician cured over a week ago.

J. N. HARVEY, Men's and Boys' Clothier, 199 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

IS JAMES H. McELROY, MONCTON.

Dedham's Unknown From St. Stephen, N. B. Found Wounded and Drugged Last Tuesday in Westwood—Well Known Lumberman With a Sister in Littleton.

DEDHAM, March 19.—The man arrested as a vagrant in Westwood, and subsequently found to be suffering from his life wounds, and giving evidence of being under the influence of some powerful drug, has been positively identified today as James Henry McElroy of St. Stephen, N. B.

His identity was established by a letter found on him and addressed to Mrs. H. H. Hamdell of Littleton, Mass., who proved to be a sister. Other friends were communicated with at his home and a well-to-do lumberman, whose residence is at what is known as the Meredith settlement.

Mr. Hamdell had arranged to meet him upon his arrival at the Boston Maine station in Boston Saturday night, but he was detained and did not reach the station until some time after his train was in.

Of his subsequent movements little is known, but there is reason to believe that he was drugged, assaulted and robbed. When discovered by an officer at Westwood, he was in a pitiable condition, unable to give any account of himself or how he came to be where he was found.

Today for the first time since his arrest he has been able to take a little nourishment, but he does not seem to be in any better condition and spends his time in his sleep. As soon as he is able to be moved he will be taken to the home of his sister at Littleton.

BOSTON, March 23.—Medical Examiner Draper found today that Joseph McElroy of St. Stephen, N. B., died from injuries by falling out of a train. He was not drugged, assaulted or robbed. The mystery thus collapses.

LATE CANON CARTER, First Dean of St. James Church, Chief Justice of New Brunswick.

The Oxfordshire, England, News of March 4th records the funeral in the village of Church of the Rev. Canon Carter, first canon of St. James Church at St. John, who took a prominent part in the mortuary services were Mr. Hawker of Chalmers, Norton Junction, and Mr. and Mrs. Patin of Biddington. Mr. Hawker is an immediate relative of W. H. Hawker of St. John, who knew the Carter family in the old land. Sir James Carter, who was a member of the British army and Edward Carter of the British navy. Col. Carter has visited St. John on many or three occasions as the guest of his old schoolmate, the late Sheriff Sturdee, who with one or two other old Frederictonians sat in the same form in the Fredericton school.

KEEN EYE TO BUSINESS. Sir Richard Farrar told an interesting story at the annual meeting of the Bowyer House, Limited. During the smallpox epidemic the men in one of their houses were strongly urged to be vaccinated. Only six men met the vaccination officer. The others formed a deputation and waited on the medical officers with the following proposition: "Look here, you get five shillings for vaccinating us. Give us a shilling each and we'll agree to be vaccinated." The agreement was come to and they were vaccinated. The remainder, who were a keen eye to business, raised their price to 2s. each.—London Mail.

BUILDING COLLAPSED. The one story brick building on Paradise Row, which was formerly the old power house, partially collapsed on Saturday night and is now in a bad condition. The building which is owned by the Street Railway Co., was used as a storehouse for salt and was filled to the roof with loose salt. On Saturday evening the whole rear of the building fell outwards, a large quantity of salt going with it. Then a rain storm came on, but in spite of this very little damage was done to the salt. The roof is still intact, but is sagging some at the back.

GOOD HEALTH FOR CAPITAL. Maintaining good health is to the majority of people the most vital question in the world, and nature affords no more efficient strengthener for the system and restorative for the nerves than Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Naturally, gradually and certain, it forms new, red corpuscles in the blood, creates healthy nerve cells and puts into the system the energy and vitality that defies disease.

LONDON, March 23.—The course of the epidemic in the house of commons today Sir Walter Foster expressed the hope that a very liberal bill would be introduced in the House of Commons. He said that the bill would return with large interest. He spent the day in the House of Commons, and in addressing Sir Walter Foster, Mr. Fisher said that he had only a preliminary grant. The bill was not asked for had not been determined upon.

BRITISH NAVY.

This Year's Estimates Break All Past Records.

LONDON, March 16.—Admiralty Secretary Arnold-Forster introduced the estimates for 1903, providing for an expenditure of £113,000,000, in the house of commons today. In the course of an explanatory statement the secretary remarked that the estimates were unparalleled in the history of the navy, and as a private citizen he could not regret that the great competition and rivalry in the matter of naval armaments continued to make this enormous and unproductive expenditure necessary. After mentioning the various classes of ships, the secretary said the admiralty proposed to build this year six new battleships, four new armored cruisers, and one second class cruiser, two sloops of war, four torpedo boats, eight torpedo boats, and three sub-marine boats. He also mentioned the proposed sanction of the commencement of three battleships of a very formidable type, four first class, and three third class cruisers, four very fast vessels to be used as scouts, fifteen torpedo destroyers, and ten sub-marine boats. The increase in the gun power of the ships, he said, was a very important feature, while standardization is assumed to be the efficiency of all the work. He also mentioned that twenty-one obsolete vessels had been disposed of during the year 1902-3, the largest number on record, and said that the number of ships will be under construction, namely: Eleven battleships, nineteen cruisers, two second class cruisers, four third class cruisers, four sub-marine boats, eight torpedo boats, and three sub-marine boats.

BRILLIANT WEDDING AT BUC TOUCHE. One of Kent's Popular Ladies Wedded to a Popular Bathurst Man. (Bathurst Review.)

On Saturday evening, March 14th, at seven o'clock, a brilliant wedding ceremony was celebrated at Liss, Cotswolds, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ross, Butehouse, when their niece, Miss Florence Johnson Curran, was united in marriage to Dr. Robert Gordon Duncan. Miss Curran is the daughter of Mr. Abbott, who was a manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, Ottawa, formerly of Moncton and of Keston.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. LaPage. The bride couple were unattended. The bride was given away by her uncle, J. C. Ross. The bride looked charming in her traveling costume, with pretty hat to match, and carried a large bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held and breakfast served. About fifty guests were present. Immediately after the bride couple left in the Hotel Savoy tonight that he had never met an intelligent chairman who expressed any desire to embrace the Christian religion.

The general declared that he believed there was a better field for missionaries in the Philippines, but said that the fact that few missionaries speak Spanish, to say nothing of the jargon of the provinces, would make the task a hard one.

RECENT DEATHS. Isaac Woodward Jettett, a member of the large grocery firm of Cobb, Bates and Yarka, Boston, who died in that city on March 11, was a native of York county, N. B. Deceased was a cousin of L. A. Jettett of Fredericton. He was a native of Douglas, York Co., and went to Boston with his young boy. At the time of his death he was a leading member of the firm of Cobb, Bates & Yarka and achieved considerable success.

The death took place Thursday morning of Sarah Mercy, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Henry Jettett, of the firm of Thomas Holloway and Sons, Halifax. The deceased had been in failing health for some time, and for the last five years has been confined to the house.

HONEST, BUT STARTLING. A story is told of a youthful minister who, when he preached his first funeral sermon over a woman in a small Scotch town, praised her so highly that the poor bereaved husband, sitting there listening, could not recognize her by the description. Finally, in a glowing peroration, he pictured God and the archangels and the angels and all the hosts of the redeemed joyously forming a parade to welcome to Heaven this "one of the very best of all women." The patient husband, who had never been able to rule his household, could stand it no longer, and, leaping up, interrupted the preacher with a beckoning hand, gasping out: "No, no, minister, not quite that! She was but middlin'!"
