REV. JAMES CRISP ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CONFERENCE

General Sessions Opened This Morning—Prayers Offered for Rev. Mr. Dobson—Other Officers Elected—Visitors Give Addresses

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., June 20.—The twenty-fourth annual conference opened in the Methodist church at 9 a. m. Rev. W. W. Lodge, in the chair, in the absence of the president, Rev. Wm. Dobson, who lies ill of typhoid fever. The conference prayer meeting was conducted by the chairman, and special prayers were offered on behalf of Mr. Dobson. On the roll being called seventy-four ministers and thirty laymen answered to their names. Rev. G. M. Young introduced Archdeacon Newman of the Episcopal church, Rev. John Tipling, Methodist, of Calais, Me., Rev. W. C. Goucher, of the Baptist church, and Rev. Mr. Edgett, Methodist, Calais Me.

As visitors to the conference each introduced spoke briefly. Rev. Mr. Dawson, transferred from the Newfoundland conference, also spoke. The election of president on the second ballot resulted in the choice of Rev. James Crisp, of Zion church, St. John. In his inaugural address, he said: "Twenty-five years ago, I was ordained in the St. Stephen church and since that time I have endeavored to do the Master's will and I throw myself in the hands of my brethren."

Rev. Mr. R. Knight was then elected secretary. Rev. Harry Harrison, chairman of the statistical committee, Rev. W. W. Lodge, chairman of the Charlottonville district, Rev. H. D. Thomas, journal secretary, Rev. F. A. Wigham, first assistant secretary, Rev. J. M. Rice, B. A., second assistant secretary.

The order of the day for the afternoon session will be the hearing of Rev. A. G. Shears, secretary of the Leitchville Alliance. Session order, hearing Rev. Dr. Huestis. Meeting adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

FORESTERS LISTEN TO ADLE SERMON

BLISSVILLE, N. B., June 17.—The Foresters of Courts Service at St. Luke's Church on Sunday afternoon and listened to an able discourse delivered by the Rev. H. E. Dibbles, pastor of Ororocton. The reverend gentleman addressed them from St. Peter, II. T. "Love the Brotherhood, fear God, honor the King." In opening his sermon, the preacher heartily welcomed the Foresters to St. Luke's Church and felicitated them upon the very successful year just closed.

Referring to the death of the supreme chief-ranger, he spoke feelingly of the esteem which was entertained for him in the United States and Canada, and paid a tribute to his character as a man of great amiable and yet of humble, simple life.

Passing on, the speaker emphasized the two great principles upon which the Order is understood as resting—its Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, and showed how the liberality, benevolence and concord, motto of the I. O. F., should make every true Forester among the best and most influential of workers for the uplifting of his brother man. He applauded the work done for the distressed and unfortunate in the establishment of the Orphan's Home at Deseronto, Ont., but offered a few timely suggestions as to

SIR WILFRID NOW VISITING GENEVA

Brodeur Inspecting Russian Ice Breakers and Fording Is at Cannes.

LONDON, June 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier is now at Geneva. Mr. Fielding is at Cannes and Mr. Brodeur is proceeding to the Baltic to inspect a Russian ice breaker. All three are returning to London at the end of next week for Dominion Day celebrations, which this year will be on an unusual scale. Lord Stratford will preside at the banquet in the Hotel Cecil, when Sir Wilfrid is expected to make the one important speech of his British visit.

The committee of British government departments is now completing a report on the last mail proposals submitted to the Imperial Conference by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It is expected it will be ready for Sir Wilfrid's return to London at the close of next week. I am informed on high authority that the report is favorable to the most important aspects of the enterprise. As one of the leading British officials puts it: "Of course a proposal of this character with Lord Stratford's name behind it is immensely different to one without it. His influence in such matters is extraordinary, though it is often felt rather than seen."

The Canadian Associated Press understands Premier Laurier arrived in Paris Sunday and will confer with M. Pichon on the subject of improving commercial relations between France and Canada.

GIGGEY-TURNER. Last evening at the residence of Mr. Turner, Hawthorn Farm, Sandy Point Road, a very interesting event took place when Miss Lillian Mabel Turner was united in marriage to Wm. Roy Giggey, the bride, who was unattended, wore a dress of cream. Friends, Mrs. F. P. that presided at the piano and Rev. R. F. McKim performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests, after which supper was served.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with apple blossoms. The large number of gifts received testified to the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Giggey will live on Sewall street.

UNEASINESS IN THE STOMACH. That's the complaint to prove the merits of Folson's Nervine. Cures nausea and indigestion at once, settles the stomach and makes you well, and all for 25c. per bottle.

how much more largely the order could make its influence felt, by turning its guns against the moral evils existent at the present day, and which are wrecking the lives of so many men, in temperance, impurity, political corruption, and dishonest dealing between man and man. The preacher called for the life of unselfish devotion to a brother's needs—and praying their success in caring for man's physical needs—he expressed his confidence that Foresters could make their order a still greater power in the community.

That's the complaint to prove the merits of Folson's Nervine. Cures nausea and indigestion at once, settles the stomach and makes you well, and all for 25c. per bottle.

After this disposal of these appellate cases his honor pronounced upon the Murray appeal case, one of a similar nature, which had also come up from the court of P. J. Magistrate Wedderburn at the last session of the county court, decision being then reserved. While his honor did not today render final judgment, he looked as though the defendant would get out through a loophole which had not been mentioned at either of the former trials, the judge deciding that the charge had not been proved, on the ground that the defendant was not certified as to all according to the act, and that the defendant could not be found guilty of giving a certificate for other than medical purposes. It is such a document as the requirements of the C. T. Act, his honor, however, said that his pronouncement was not final, and that counsel would have an opportunity of arguing the point in chambers, the case going over till next court for final decision. His honor went into the matter very fully, dealing with the facts of evidence and the law. He referred to the very extensive use of the prescriptions, there being in the Murray case upwards of 400, with fully that many more refused by the defendant.

ALBERT COUNTY SCOTT ACT CASES AGAIN BEFORE COURT

HOPEWELL HILLS, June 18.—The June session of the Albert county court opened at Hopewell, Cape at 11 o'clock today, his honor Judge Wedderburn presiding. The members of the bar present were Clerk of the Court Dixon, C. A. Peck, K. C., and A. W. Bray of the Albert bar and M. G. Teed, K. C., W. B. Chandler, K. C., A. A. Allen and C. Lionel Haltington of Westmorland. There was no grand jury, there being no criminal matter. The following composed the petit jury: Charles Hawkes, Daniel W. Stuart, Amos Turner, Thos. Downing, Major Collins, Barilla Coker, Hubert C. Wilson, Erber W. Prosser, Street, Wilnot, Mariner W. Dryden, Marvin Gifford and William D. Bennett.

The docket was made up as follows: BASTARDY DOCKET. The King on complaint of Gertrude M. Berry at the instance of the overseers of the parish of Cuperale v. Owen Ricker.

APPEAL DOCKET. John T. Lewis, M. D., appellant, and the King on complaint of Robert A. Smith, respondent.

Edward B. Randall, M. D., appellant, and the King on complaint of Robert A. Smith, respondent.

Sutherland Murray, appellant, and the King on complaint of Robert A. Smith, respondent. M. G. Teed appeared for the appellant in each case and W. B. Chandler for the respondent.

CIVIL DOCKET—NON-JURY. Enoch Milton v. Warren Duff and Crossdale Ayle—Austin A. Allen and M. G. Teed, K. C., for plaintiff, and W. B. Chandler for defendant.

Joseph B. Sleeves v. Hiel Duff—Austin A. Allen and W. B. Chandler for plaintiff, M. G. Teed for defendant. The bastardy case goes over to next term. The three appeal cases came up from the court of P. J. Magistrate Stuart and were caused against the three medical men, who were charged with violating the Canada Temperance Act by issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquors for other than medicinal purposes. M. G. Teed for the respondents held that as the Scott Act was adopted in this county in 1880, and the amendment under which these cases were brought was passed in 1882 and had never been adopted by the municipality, that therefore the amendment was not in force in the county. As the point he raised was now before the supreme court, he asked that the case go over until next term, until the supreme court should pronounce as to whether the amendments referred to were in force. In this his honor concurred.

After this disposal of these appellate cases his honor pronounced upon the Murray appeal case, one of a similar nature, which had also come up from the court of P. J. Magistrate Wedderburn at the last session of the county court, decision being then reserved. While his honor did not today render final judgment, he looked as though the defendant would get out through a loophole which had not been mentioned at either of the former trials, the judge deciding that the charge had not been proved, on the ground that the defendant was not certified as to all according to the act, and that the defendant could not be found guilty of giving a certificate for other than medical purposes. It is such a document as the requirements of the C. T. Act, his honor, however, said that his pronouncement was not final, and that counsel would have an opportunity of arguing the point in chambers, the case going over till next court for final decision. His honor went into the matter very fully, dealing with the facts of evidence and the law. He referred to the very extensive use of the prescriptions, there being in the Murray case upwards of 400, with fully that many more refused by the defendant.

The civil cases of Milton v. Duff and Sleeves v. Duff are up for trial.

Penrose Senators: Elliott R. Rodgers, William L. Crow, James P. McNicoll, John A. Scott, Charles G. Callio, Wm. H. Keyser, William C. Miller.

The three grown people were thrown out of the carriage and badly injured. The little girl, however, remained in the carriage and escaped being hurt. ### BAPTISM OF THE ROYAL BABE SCENE OF GREAT SPLENDOR

Ceremony Was Witnessed by a Brilliant Assemblage of Foreign Princes, Diplomats and Grandees of Kingdom (Special Correspondence of the Sun.) MADRID, May 19.—The baptism of the infant Prince of Asturias was performed with royal pomp and magnificence in the royal chapel at noon yesterday. Queen Christina was godmother, and Cardinal Rinaldi, the papal nuncio, represented the Pope as godfather. Cardinal Sanchez, the archbishop of Toledo and primate of Spain, officiated, assisted by more than forty other bishops and archbishops in full canonicals, and surrounded by a brilliant assemblage of foreign princes, grandees and civil and military officials.

Christening Foot of Santa Domingo de Guzman in the Royal Chapel

Opportunity of viewing the imposing procession from the gallery which leads from the state apartments to the chapel.

The chapel itself, which consists only of a small nave, was too small to accommodate all the members of the court who were entitled to witness the ceremony, but many who were unable to see the actual baptism had an opportunity of viewing the imposing procession from the gallery which leads from the state apartments to the chapel. This gallery was adorned with thirty-two splendid Gobelin tapestries, and the floor was covered with Turkish carpets. Haberdashers, in gala dress, were ranged on either side. In the chapel itself galleries had been erected on either side of the nave for the members of the diplomatic corps and high dignitaries of the court and state.

Ovation to the King on his way to the ceremony

marshaled by the chamberlain. The doors of the chapel were thrown wide open, and a moment later the chamberlain could be seen advancing slowly down the gallery at the head of the glittering procession.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS NEXT

The ambassadors extraordinary came next. They included the Archduke Esdras representing the emperor of Austria; the Duke of Oporto, representing the King of Portugal; Prince Arthur of Connaught, representing King Edward, and Prince Leopold, representing the Kaiser.

Scene outside the Royal Palace

The font which was brought especially from the Church of San Esteban de Guzman for the christening, stood on a wooden platform under a golden canopy. Cardinal Sanchez, who wore a gold-embroidered cope, covered with diamonds, stood before the altar as the procession entered the chapel, with the bishops and archbishops grouped on either side.

Immediately after the christening the baby was taken into the presbytery, where the formal investiture of various orders of chivalry, including the Golden Fleece, took place. Cardinal Sanchez then sang a Te Deum, and the prince was carried back to Queen Victoria Eugenia's apartments.

He was a school teacher, only retiring from active service a few years ago, was a noted student of nature, particularly of botany and ornithology, had a large collection of specimens, was never married, and had amassed considerable wealth, which he left for charitable purposes almost entirely. His nephew, Robt. A. Fraser of Halifax, whose locks are white with age, came to attend the funeral and returns in the morning. Mr. Fraser's mother was Mr. Moser's youngest sister.

Mr. Baxter spoke first of the Canadian confederation and the obstacles which lay in the way of its accomplishment. He then quoted facts and figures to show that this confederation had been a great success. Our population had increased, our exports and imports had grown. The C. P. R. had been built and the west had been opened up. Had the provinces remained as they were these things would have been most difficult.

not the confederation of the three Maritime Provinces would not advantageously for these provinces? The lecturer showed how the west was gaining, in some respects at the expense of the east. In the work of securing immigrants these provinces were being lost sight of, and he argued that if the three provinces were merged into one that we might be better able to induce desirable settlers to locate in our provinces instead of going west.

The greatest saving that would be effected by merging the three provincial legislatures into one was shown—once lieutenant governor, less than half the number of members and so on. There would then be uniform laws, a better system of education, a school of technology and a school of agriculture. All these things would become possible and more were three provinces to work together as one. Lastly, the representatives of the one province would have more power at Ottawa than the members now going from the three provinces, and he was able to see to it that the law province, which the speaker suggested might be called Acadia, had fair play in the distribution of favors.

The lecturer was loudly applauded when he took his seat. Senator Wood, in moving a vote of thanks, complimented the speaker very highly for the able manner in which he had presented the subject. The vote was seconded by A. B. Copp. During the evening W. S. Fisher, of St. John, also made a few remarks.

CAMPBELLTON, June 14.—While resting Constable George Sealy, who was trying to arrest him for helping assault a man near Balmoral, Peter Fontaine was shot on Thursday by the accidental discharge of the officer's revolver and died a few hours later. Andrew Fontaine, a brother of George Sealy, who took part in the struggle, escaped. Fontaine, who has handcuffs on, has not yet been captured.

On Thursday Mr. Doyle of Dalhousie, while driving with his wife and child, was attacked at Balmoral by the three men. All three men were under the influence of liquor. One of the Fontaines, where the deceased was boarding and where he had lived for many years, and the remains were interred in the old burying ground here, Rev. Geo. Howard, Baptist clergyman, officiating. Mr. Moser was a graduate of Acadia College in the early sixties and then came to New Brunswick, where he spent most of his life, the last 21 years being in Canada and Salem. He was born at Glen Margate, St. Margaret's Bay, N. S., of German and English parentage. He was a school teacher, only retiring from active service a few years ago, was a noted student of nature, particularly of botany and ornithology, had a large collection of specimens, was never married, and had amassed considerable wealth, which he left for charitable purposes almost entirely. His nephew, Robt. A. Fraser of Halifax, whose locks are white with age, came to attend the funeral and returns in the morning. Mr. Fraser's mother was Mr. Moser's youngest sister.

house for a doctor. Mr. Gallop told his story and wanted him to telephone to Dr. Ferguson and James Harquail, justice of the peace for Dalhousie, also showing how the west was gaining, in some respects at the expense of the east. In the work of securing immigrants these provinces were being lost sight of, and he argued that if the three provinces were merged into one that we might be better able to induce desirable settlers to locate in our provinces instead of going west.

Another story is, that having been wounded, Fontaine broke away and ran around the house and went upstairs, pursued by the officer. They clinched at the head of the stairs and came tumbling down. By this time constables had arrived and between them they put the handcuffs on the man.

George Sealy, the policeman who shot Fontaine, is a native of the West End and is well known here. He accepted his present position last summer, having previously engaged in a number of different positions in the West End. At one time he was the proprietor of a grocery shop at the upper end of Rodney street. He was also engaged at various times as relief man in the ferry service and as city watchman at Sand Point. He is a son of Capt. West Sealy, Charlotte street extension, West End, and he is thirty-four years of age. Capt. Sealy is at present at sea, but he is a native of Greenwick, England and there he received his early education. At an early age he came to America, and in 1890 graduated from the school of applied science, Cleveland, Ohio. He afterwards attended Harvard, where he pursued his studies for some time, and later obtained a fellowship from the University of Cambridge, where he was instructor. This year he held a Whiting fellowship of Harvard where he is engaged in scientific and practical work. Mr. Carson's recommendations were of the highest and numerous.

CONFLICTING ST. BALMOR

Body of Dead Man May be Number of Bullet Holes of the Shooting in Ourselves.

DALHOUSIE, N. B., June 17.—The inquest over the shooting affray at Balmoral opened Monday at 10 a. m. in the court house here. It was crowded with people from all parts of the country. Several newspapers were represented. The crown was represented by W. A. Trueman, the Fontaine family by R. A. Lawlor, K. C., and the constables, Sealy and Gallop, by W. A. Mott. The first witness called was Andrew Fontaine. He swore that Jalbert was the first man who met Sealy at the door. Gallop dragged him to the scene after he had been arrested and had struck Jalbert with the baton. Jalbert ran away, and he also made his escape. Before he left he saw Peter Fontaine run around the house, and both fired at him, Joseph Jalbert, who swore that Sealy came to his house, knocked at the door, pushed it in, and he ran to the door and pushed Sealy out and knocked him over with a baton of firewood. His wife then called out to Peter Fontaine to come down, and Gallop appeared and struck him on the head and he ran away and hid behind the barn. He saw Peter Fontaine run around the house and came back to go in the house crawling on his hands and feet. He heard several shots fired.

BATTERY OF FIELD ARTILLERY IN MONCTON

Transfer From St. John Will be Made Today—Dear Pleasant in Railway Town.

MONCTON, N. B., June 17.—That Moncton is to have a battery of field artillery has become a fact. Word has been received from the military council that the transfer will be gazetted on June 18, and the equipment will reach here this week from St. John. As it is the intention of the militia department to supply all the field batteries with the most modern pattern of supplies in the way of harness for draught horses, and the new colonial saddlery for the saddle horses, it has been found that the ordnance stores at Ottawa could not supply all the batteries with this kind of equipment in time to attend Camp Sussex on June 25. Therefore the Moncton field battery will not go to Sussex, but will perform its twelve days of annual training in Moncton this year, a suitable location near the city having been chosen for the camp. A detachment of the battery will attend camp at Petewawa. Great interest is being taken here in the recruiting of the corps.

John M. Beaton, aged fifty-four, died yesterday at his home here after a long illness. He was a native of Rose Valley, P. E. Island, coming to Moncton with his parents when twenty years old. He conducted a grocery business here for many years. Game is so plentiful in the vicinity of Moncton that wild animals are frequently seen in the streets. A few days ago a large cow moose came out of the woods north of Moncton, and in the early morning hours wandered down through the west end to the L. C. depot, and across the Peteticade River bridge to Coverdale. This morning deer and two young deer were seen in the streets in the west end. They were not molested and went into the woods. R. Clark, Moncton manager of the Bank of Montreal, has made an offer of fifty dollars in prizes, ten for a candidate for high school entrance and five for the best reader in Grade VIII, to be given annually in the high school. The high school entrance examinations started here today, being 105 candidates.

Moncton is to have an athletic club to keep this city in line with the athletic revival which is being manifested in athletics all over the province. A general meeting has been called for Tuesday evening at which an athletic club will be formed. There is so splendid athletic talent available in the city at the present time, but a great lack of initiative has been shown in its development.

THE DISSOLUTION OF SECOND DUMA

The News Was Received in St. Petersburg With Perfect Tranquillity
NO DISTURBANCES
Outbreak of Agrarian Disorders is Expected Later On—
Would Not Spare Bullets

ST. PETERSBURG, June 16.—The dissolution of the second Duma with perfect tranquillity, thanks to the cautious measures taken by the authorities order prevailed today in this city, and in no place in Russia, so far as is known, were any troubles. No report of disorder in the interior have been received up to midnight.
Demonstrations among St. Petersburg workmen are expected tomorrow but the authorities profess to be chiefly apprehensive over the possibilities of rioting and racial excesses in Odessa and Kiev and other cities where party feeling runs high. An outbreak of agrarian disorders in several parts of the empire is anticipated later, when the peasant's year of the dissolution but a spirit of quiet confidence in the ability of the government to handle the situation prevails in the administrative circles.

News of the dissolution reached the St. Petersburg papers too late for their latest editions, but the public were quickly informed through extras posters set out by the police at all street corners, containing the ukase announcing the dissolution and the imperial manifesto.

Little groups of readers clustered around these the whole day, attentively perusing the manifesto, the phrasing of which is calculated to appeal to the patriotism of the lower classes. Little enthusiasm or excitement, however, was evoked and many readers as they turned away spat silently on the ground as a feeling of their deepest contempt.
Though General Drozdovsky, military of police, was nominally in charge, the provisions for public safety were virtually in the hands of General Hasenkaip, the aide to Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaevich. The military was disposed chiefly in the industrial section. "Nobody, not even Duma officials, was allowed to enter the precincts of the palace. A laconic notice was posted on the gates announcing that "former deputies" would receive their salaries upon application to the chancery of the empire.

Reports were in circulation during the day that the workmen were planning a great demonstration in front of the palace, but they did not appear and only a few sight-seers visited the building.
The officer in command of the troops informed the Associated Press that he had orders to disperse any crowds collecting, without parley, and not to spare the police in case of necessity.
During the night nine of the sixteen State Duma leaders, specifically named in the government indictment, including Prince Tseretzkoff and M.
Dobrovol'ski, were taken into custody.
The other seven succeeded in eluding the elaborate precautions made for their arrest. Two secret service officers, with signed warrants, had been assigned to follow each deputy in case of necessity, warrants as soon as the ukase was promulgated. They were instructed to follow their men to the frontier if necessary, but the deputies succeeded in making their escape.

The following is the text of the Emperor's manifesto:
"We, Nicholas II, by the grace of God, Emperor of all the Russias, Czar of Poland, Grand Duke of Finland, etc., declare to all our faithful subjects that, in conformity with our order and instructions since the inauguration of the first Duma, our government has adopted a series of successive measures to pacify the country and establish the affairs of state in regular course.
The second Duma, convoked by us, was summoned to contribute, according to our sovereign will, to the pacification of Russia, principally by the work of legislation, without which the life of a state and the perfection of its administration is impossible; next by an examination of the budget of revenue and expenditure which ensures regularity in national finance and finally by the national use of the right of addressing interpellations to the government with a view to establishing everywhere truth and order.
In discharging these tasks the elected representatives of the nation placed upon them by that very trust a heavy responsibility, and it was their sacred duty to use their rights in wise labor for the labor and the strengthening of the Russian state. Such were our ideas and desires when we gave to the nation new principles for the life of the state.
"To our sorrow, a considerable section of the second Duma failed to justify our expectations. It was not with its will or desire to strengthen Russia and perfect her new administration that many of the delegates of the nation set to work, but with a manifest tendency to augment her troubles and assist in the disruption of the state.
During these periods of the Duma, which constituted an insurmountable obstacle to fruitful labor, a hostile spirit was introduced into the Duma itself which prevented the union of a sufficient number of its members desiring of working for the interests of the country. For this reason the Duma either failed to discuss important measures that were drawn up by her government or delayed their discussion or else rejected them, not even recilling from rejection of laws which punished the open support of crimes.
"The Duma did not lend its moral support to the government in the restoration of order, and Russia continues to suffer the shame of an epoch of crimes and disasters.
"The examination of the budget

A UNIQUE MONUMENT ERECTED IN MEMORY OF A GREAT WRITER created an obstacle to the timely satisfaction of many of the vital needs of the people. The right of interpellation was transformed by a considerable party in the Duma into a means of fighting against the government and enacting distrust towards it amongst large classes of the population of the empire.

"Lastly an act was committed unheard of in the annals of history. The judicial authorities discovered a plot in a section of the Duma against the state and power of the Czar, but when our government demanded the exclusion until judgment had been passed of 25 members of the Duma implicated in the crime, and the arrest of those among them most comprised, the Duma failed to carry out immediately the lawful demand of the authorities, which admitted no delay.
"All this compelled us by imperial ukase to the Senate to dissolve the second Duma, fixing September 14th as the date of the convocation of the new Duma, believing, however, in the patriotism and the national spirit of our people.
"We find the cause of failure on two occasions of activity in the Duma in the fact that owing to the work and imperfection of the electoral law, the legislative institution was composed of members who were not truly representative of the needs and desires of the people; consequently, while leaving in force all the rights granted to our subjects by the manifesto of October 17, 1905, and the fundamental laws, we have decided to modify the procedure in choosing elected representatives of the people to the Duma in order that each section of the people may have its own representatives.
"The Duma was summoned to strengthen the Russian state and ought to be Russian in spirit. Other nationalities forming part of our empire ought to have representatives of their needs in the Duma, but they ought not to appear and shall not appear in such numbers as will make it possible for them to be arbiters on questions which are purely Russian.
"Within the confines of the state where the people have not attained sufficient civic development the elections to the Duma must be temporarily suspended.
"All these electoral modifications could not have introduced in the customary legislative way by the Duma, whose composition is recognized by us to be unsatisfactory by reason of the imperfection of the procedure for the election of members of the Duma. It is only to the power which gave the first electoral law, the historic power of the Czar, that the right of abrogating that law and replacing it by a new law belongs. God has given us the power of the Czar over our people. It before His throne we shall answer for the destinies of the Russian state. Believing this we have made a firm resolution to carry on to the very end the great work begun by us of the reformation of Russia."
"We give Russia a new electoral law and order its promulgation in the notes.
From our faithful subjects we look for loyalty and vigorous service in the direction indicated by us for the country whose sons have been in all times the firm support of its strength, its greatest glory.
"(Signed) "NICHOLAS." Constitutional Democrats will prepare an address to the people. In this address they will attempt to throw the entire blame for dissolution on the government but it will in no way correspond in tone with the Viborg address—an error which the Constitutional Democrats have no intention of repeating.
The new election law is regarded as a masterpiece of sycranderism, avowedly designed to reduce to a minimum the representation on the register of those classes of the population in which hostility to the government was chiefly evident.
Among the new changes the Duma numbers 42 instead of 53. Of 24 formerly electing representatives directly to the Duma, only 7, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Warsaw, Kiev, Lodz, Odessa and Riga, retain their direct representation. The electors in these cities are divided into two classes on a basis of property qualifications, each selecting its own representatives to the Duma, the idea being to assure the presence in the Duma of a half by rich supposedly more conservative citizens.
"To increase the representation of the conservative land owners, the election of one land owner is made arbitrary, and is specially provided that peasant deputies must be house owners, personally engaged in agriculture.
The extension of the suffrage to the workmen, for which Mr. Witte was responsible, is "practically nullified, through the representatives of the workmen being retained in only six provinces, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Viadrina, Yekaterinoburg, Kostroma and Khar'kov.
The new law also gives the "intelligent classes" an advantage in the final elections, inasmuch as it increases the number of their electoral assemblies.
The "non-intelligent" has been to all the Duma, with deputies devoid of all training for the comprehension of matters of state administration, a considerable portion of whom lack even elementary education. The new Duma promises to be composed of a class of members with experience in local government and accustomed to quiet and peaceful work.
An important feature of the law is that each class or social group must henceforth elect deputies of its own class. The workmen cannot be represented by intellectuals who are not members of the Duma, M. Alexinsky representing the St. Petersburg workmen.

Uric Acid Stones in the Kidneys

CAUSED EXCRUCIATING PAIN—CURE EXPECTED SIX YEARS AGO BY
The passing of stones or gravel, as the uric acid formation is called, from the kidneys through the ureters to the bladder probably produces the most terrible pain that human being was ever called upon to bear.
Mrs. Walter Hornbrook, Cady's, Queens county, N. B., writes:
"I was a great sufferer from kidney disease, which the doctor described as the uric acid stones passing from the kidneys to the bladder. I heard of similar cases being cured by Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and sent for some. Altogether I used seven boxes and was completely cured. I have never without Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house.
Mr. Daniel Brown, English River, Ont., writes: "For three years I suffered with urinary troubles, partaking of the nature of stones in the bladder or gravel, and the pain which I endured can scarcely be described. I was unable to do any work, and frequently discharged blood. Though I spent heavy sums of money in seeking relief, and at last decided that I would never be able to work again.
"While in this condition I was advised to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and though I had no faith in them or in anything else, I decided to give them a fair trial. After using one box I felt a decided change for the better, and after taking five boxes I felt like a new man. I am entirely out of pain, and have no more discharge of blood. I can honestly recommend Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to any fellow-sufferer in doubt as to whether to buy this statement to anyone writing to me."
There could scarcely be a more severe test of any remedy than the Kidney-Liver Pills prove successful in such cases as this they can surely be depended upon in less severe kidney ailments. One pill does not cost 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates &

SHOCKING ACCIDENT AT SYDNEY MINES

SYDNEY MINES, June 17.—Shortly after midnight a shocking accident occurred on the railway of the N. S. and C. Co. at Pond street crossing, resulting in the death of Hugh McDonald, aged 20 years. How the fatality occurred no one seems to know other than he was struck by engine No. 5.
The left side of the head and face is badly scratched, a bad wound on the left hip, where the clothing is torn from the body. The left foot was crushed and crushed. A silver watch in the pocket near the region of the heart stopped at 11 minutes to one o'clock, and it is supposed that the watch coming in contact with the heart was the cause of death. The casing of the watch had a bad dent in it, which leads to the belief it was struck by the engine.

COLONEL CHIPMAN CONFIRMS THE REPORT

ST. STEPHEN, June 17.—Colonel Chipman confirms the reported organization of the United States McAdams Metal Co. to take over the United States patents and rights previously held by the Canadian parent company.
The output of the Canadian mine has stood all test, and is pronounced the strongest, lightest metal known to science today. The demand for it in the States is steadily increasing and has grown so large that the formation of the new company was necessary to meet the demands. The new company is organized under the laws of the State of Maine, but their works will be established in or near the city of New York. The company is capitalized at $600,000, of which forty per cent. is held by the old company.

NORTH SYDNEY, June 17.—Before the departure of the Empress of Ireland from North Sydney yesterday General Booth of the Salvation Army, who is a passenger on the steamer, gave out the following farewell message to the people of Canada:
"I have enjoyed my visit to Canada.
My last word to Canadians is be strong thing that counts. God bless you all, may we meet at the foot of the throne amid flowers and the music of the angels."

ELGIN TEACHER RESIGNS

ELGIN, June 17.—At the annual school meeting held Saturday 8:00 was voted for school purposes. John Garland was elected trustee in place of the retiring trustee T.R. Constantine. During the year 1906 he had been raised by the teachers through concerts, lectures, etc., and a Empire typewriter, 160 vols. for the library and several pictures for the school rooms procured. Both teachers are leaving the school at the end of the term, Mr. Hetherington to accept the principalship of the Richson to accept a position in Alberta.

ALBERT CHURCH REOPENED.

ALBERT, June 17.—The reopening of Albert Methodist church on Sabbath, June 16th, was most auspicious. The weather was all that could be desired.
Congregations very large and collections good. The interior presents a most creditable appearance. The choir, assisted by Mrs. A. O. Copp and daugh-rendered music. There were three services during the day.

OUTPUT OF CANADIAN FACTORIES INCREASED

OTTAWA, June 17.—The output of Canadian factories has increased in the last five years from four hundred eighty-nine millions to seven hundred and fifteen millions, a gain of about thirty-three per cent. The greatest gain was made by smelting which increased four fold to twenty-eight and a half million. The biggest industry in classification, is lumber sawing, the output having increased from fifty-one to sixty-eight millions. Great gains are shown by most industries.

ARMY OFFICER AND

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—Captain Horace Fairfax Morseby Browne of the British army and his fiancée, Miss Vera Hanna, daughter of the late Joseph Hanna of Cincinnati, were injured in an automobile accident late today. Both were taken to hospitals, but later returned to their hotel. Miss Hanna had just returned from abroad.
Their marriage is scheduled for tomorrow.
Mrs. Bessie Jacobs of Cleveland, who is Miss Hanna's chaperone in this country, was also in the automobile and tonight is in a very serious condition at a hospital. The machine plunged down a steep embankment while turning a sharp curve in Rock Creek Park, in the suburbs of Wash-

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 17.—After giving his father his dinner, which he had carried to the home Rubber Mill in Woonsocket today, Jacob Stern, a 13-the railroad crossing there and killed.

FIRES AT COBALT.

COBALT, June 17.—Word has been received here that townships of Smythe and James in New Silver region on Montreal River, are burned out. Camps, buildings, etc., in some cases have been consumed.
There is no word yet of any fatalibut the results will facilitate prospecting.

J. W. Mahon, barrister of Cobalt, received word that his camp in James, Northumberland, was burned, with lately escaped with clothes on their backs. Money and watches were left behind.

LONDON, June 17.—Sir Robert Bond delays his return to Newfoundland till the 21st in order to have further conference with Sir Edward Grey and Lord Elgin. It appears the negotiations have been attended with considerable difficulty, and the hope expressed by Bond in his last public utterance that the outstanding questions would be settled to the satisfaction of the imperial and Colonial Governments before he left the country, is by no means certain of realization.
It was mentioned at the opening of the new church agency in Newfoundland that the organization had already sent to Canada 4,500 emigrants at a cost of £28,000.
The Canadian Grain Commission has determined to visit Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Lethbridge, Manchester, Dub-

SOLDIERS STABBED.

NIAGARA-ON-LAKE, June 17.—Privates Piggott and J. W. H. Law of the 1st York Regiment were the victims in a stabbing affray that occurred last night. The wounds are not serious. The men were trying to get through the guard lines and were chasing Private Scott Kinross, sensitive constable, and their insular action. As a result of an altercation Irwin was cut in the face and Piggott through the hand with Kinross's bayonet. Kinross is in jail awaiting trial before the magistrate.

REMARKABLE INVENTION FOR THE CULTURE OF HAIR

THE EVANS VACUUM CAP is a practical invention constructed on scientific and hygienic principles by the simple means of which a free and normal circulation is restored throughout the scalp. The minute blood vessels are gently stimulated to activity, thus allowing the food supply which can only be derived from the blood, to be carried to the hair roots, the effects of which are quickly seen in a healthy vigorous growth of hair. There is no rubbing and no as drugs or chemicals of whatsoever kind are employed, there can be nothing to cause irritation. It is only necessary to wear the Cap three or four minutes daily.

60 Days' Free Trial!
THE COMPANY'S GUARANTEE An EVANS VACUUM CAP will be sent you for sixty days' free trial. If you do not see a gradual development of a new growth of hair, and are not convinced that the Cap will completely restore your hair, you are at liberty to return the cap with no expense whatever to yourself. It is requested, as an evidence of good faith, that the price of the Cap be deposited with the Thonery Lane Safe Deposit Company, of London, the largest financial and business institution of the kind in the world, who will issue a receipt guaranteeing that money will be returned in full on demand without questions or comment, at any time during trial period.

The eminent DR. I. N. LOVE, in his address to the Medical Board of the subject of Alopecia (loss of hair) stated that if a means could be devised to bring nutrition to the hair follicles (hair roots) without recourse to any irritating process, the problem of hair growth could be solved. Later on when the EVANS VACUUM CAP was submitted to him for inspection, he remarked that the Cap would fulfil and confirm in practice the observations he had previously made before the Medical Board.
DR. W. MOORE, referring to the invention, says that the principle upon which the Evans Vacuum Cap is founded, is absolutely correct and indisputable.
An illustrated and descriptive book of the Evans Vacuum Cap will be sent, post free, on application.

NEW STEAMSHIP LINE FOR ST. JOHN AND FLORIDA WITH CALL AT BERMUDA.

GOINSKY can be greatly developed by a direct steamship line running from St. John the whole year around. No other Canadian port is to be used.
Capt. GOINSKY claims that existing lines will not be interfered with, as they cater almost entirely to the Indian trade, merely touching at Bermuda. The capital behind the project was subscribed in England, the United States and Bermuda. No Canadian money has yet been invested, although the promoters would welcome it.
It was originally intended to name the new line B. B. Boston, Bermuda and Brunswick, the last named port in Georgia being considered as a likely terminus. The change in route has caused a change in name. The new name has not yet been decided upon. It may be New Brunswick, Boston and Bermuda.
Capt. GOINSKY is an American citizen, having been born in New Jersey, but has resided for some time in Bermuda. He has been a promoter of steamship lines he is an inventor. An invention which he patented two years ago is a new type of steamship. The kind of steamship that Capt. GOINSKY proposes to build is the "arrow-head" type. This vessel has its greatest beam at a short distance from the bows. Its sides are being a far as possible from one another suddenly approach one another to form what might be termed the shaft of the arrow and then gradually draw nearer to one another to form the stem. Aft of the shaft of the arrow is in its usual position at the stern. Captain GOINSKY claims that a vessel built on the lines described would be much more easily propelled and handled than those built on the generally accepted lines.

TRUE BILL IN EMERSON-CROCKETT CASE

FREDERICTON, June 18.—The grand jury in the case of Emerson v. Crockett returned a true bill, although the jurors only would have been necessary, the whole panel, including the various political views, were of the one mind.

After the court opened the counsel for both parties were present as at the preliminary. Hon. Mr. Emmerson, as the defence, was represented by Mr. Douglas Black, city editor of the "Gleaner," and Herbert Coulthard, the assistant editor.

At 9.35 the grand jury returned to the court room and their foreman announced that they had found a true bill. Foreman Weddall also read a bill. Foreman Weddall also read a bill.

The defendant, who arrived at noon from Montreal with a number of witnesses, including John Lloyd, formerly chief clerk at St. Lawrence Hall; Harry Dean and John Chapman, who were night porters at the same hotel.

The grand jury had chosen their foreman, the jurors were sworn in, and the court proceeded to read the indictment against the defendant.

Mr. Emmerson then stated that the defendant had been charged with a libel against the plaintiff, and that the plaintiff had been injured by the publication of the libel.

The grand jury was then dismissed until 2.30 as the prosecution did not have evidence to go before them.

The list of the petit jurors consists of the following: John C. Gilman, Kingsclear, farmer; George Armstrong, St. Marys, farmer; George L. Recker, Queensbury, farmer; Hadley Vauvart, Fredericton, grocer; James B. Campbell, Kingsclear, farmer; Albert Miles, St. Marys, gentleman; E. G. Hobbs, Fredericton, grocer; John B. Gill, St. Marys, farmer; Robert Grey, Kingsclear, farmer; Thomas W. Sanborn, Fredericton, merchant; George A. Murray, Kingsclear, farmer; Alphonse B. Kitchin, Fredericton, real estate agent; John Burnett, Kingsclear, farmer; Frank I. Morrison, Fredericton, insurance agent; Talbot Everett, Kingsclear, farmer; Albert Neill, St. Marys, farmer; Roy Sydney, Kingsclear, farmer; Balfour Hill, Douglas, farmer; Michael Ryan, Fredericton, manufacturer; E. W. Hatheway, Kingsclear, farmer; Sully Currie, Brighton, farmer. No additional jurors have been summoned.

The court resumed at half-past two this afternoon, the grand jury meeting in the jury room. The lawyers for the defence were somewhat late in arriving.

of the demurrer. It was not necessary for the defence to state by whom the libel was defaced, that would come out in evidence of which it was a part. Regarding the claim that it should be stated in what respect the women were of ill repute, Mr. Hazen said it was absolutely unnecessary to declare the respect. It was sufficient to say they were women of ill repute.

The case in question, he said, opened up an enormous field. It attempted to lay down for cabinet ministers rules of conduct not applied to others. The counsel went on to say he would file a demurrer, and to do so would require some time.

Mr. Hazen objected strenuously to further time being asked before proceeding with the case. The court granted the demurrer, and the case stood for no further trial.

From an authoritative source it was learned this evening that very little evidence might be expected to be given tomorrow. The presentation of Dr. Pugsley's demurrer was the only feature of the day's session.

At today's session of the court both Hon. H. R. Emmerson and James H. Crockett were present, sitting with their respective counsel.

Mr. Hazen complained that he had been given no copy of the demurrer, and that he was unable to prepare his defence in time for the trial.

Mr. White was followed by J. H. Berry, counsel for the complainant. At the request of Mr. Hazen, his Honor stated that he would not limit the number of counsel to be heard on either side.

The names of the women were not given out, nor was it said in what way they were women of ill repute. There were many names, however, and the names of the women were not given out.

Mr. Hazen then moved for the arrangement of the defendant, Jas. H. Crockett.

On the latter being asked to plead, Mr. Hazen at once arose and advanced the following plea: In the Supreme Court, York in the King v. James H. Crockett, as first plea to the indictment against him, says that he is not guilty as alleged in the said indictment.

And for a further plea the said James H. Crockett, purporting to be the estate in that behalf says that our said lord the King ought not further to prosecute the said indictment against him because he says that it is true that Henry B. Emmerson was elected with two women of ill-repute with whom he had been keeping company not long since, meaning thereby not long before the publication of the Daily Gleaner of March twenty-seventh, A. D. 1907, from the St. Lawrence Hall, in the city of Montreal, as alleged in James H. Crockett further says that before and at the time of the publication of the said indictment mentioned in the said indictment mentioned in the said Henry B. Emmerson was then took up the points of Chicago.

Chicago, were glutted by shipments from Prince Edward Island before the fishing season had opened. This necessitated curtailing shipments and storing clams in ice-ware and boats at Point du Chene, under regulations no claim for June and all wardens of the fishery were held back would be forfeited. This meant practically ruin of the clam shipping industry, and a very serious loss to the clam fishermen, oysters being off the market during these months. As a result of yesterday's visit, it is generally expected that the fishing season will be extended to the 15th of July, or possibly the first of August and that clam merchants will have the privilege of shipping clams which they have stored in the closed season under the supervision of fishery officers. The result is that the clam fishery is becoming very valuable, and according to competent sources, fishermen receive at the present time, an average of about $1500 a day in Shediac Bay, and are losing two hundred fishing boats averaging two men to each boat.
