PASSION VS. REASON.

The key note of the present political situation was struck at the meeting of Thursday night by one of the speakers, who asserted that appeals made to passion must in the end give way before calm, deliberate argument addressed to reason. The Clarke boom is based entirely upon passion. Clarke himself is an outgrowth of passion, and had the convention which nominated him been controlled by influences which appeal to the common sense of men he never could have become a candidate.

Clarke has given assurance to those who have been led into tendering him support, that he will prove the evil genius of the government at Ottawa. He promises to afford this people revenge for wrongs—some real, some fancied—and tells them that he will bring to terms ministers of the crown who have had charge of the conduct of affairs in this territory. It is an idle boast that he makes—absolutely beyond his power to carry into effect—and even granting his ability to do the things he threatens—there could be no good end attained for the country thereby.

With respect to the candidature of Mr. Ross, the case is entirely different. The supporters of Mr. Ross have regard to the practical phases of the situation. They direct the attention of the electorate to the fact that there are pressing needs before the community which require able representation at Ottawa in order that those needs may receive due consideration. Mr. Ross represents the great mass of enterprising, intelligent, progressive men who believe in the future of the Yukon, and who with minds alert and with muscles strained are engaged in constructing a great commonwealth from the raw material so generously supplied by nature.

WHO WILL BE THE NOMINEE?

urging him to come forward as a candidate for parliament. "I feel that I cannot consistently do it. You must remember that I was the chairman of the Joe Clarke convention. I should have made my protest then, I did not make it. I have taken no part in the present campaign and I do not intend to take any, unless, of course, the candidate himself, or his representative, should formally come and ask me to become the opposition candidate."

This means that Dr. Thompson personally will take no steps whatever to step into the political arena as a candidate for parliament. He is so straight and honest in all his views that he does not see how he could possibly live on the salary of a member of parliament. He can not afford to give up the emoluments of his medical practice for a salary so entirely insufficient, and he does not see, as Mr. Clarke does, that a member of parliament can make plenty of money "on the side."

Mr. Joseph Andrew Clarke undoubtedly has this "on the side" money in view, and although his best friends now see that he cannot be elected, it is hard for them to persuade him to withdraw in favor of a candidate who, as an opposition candidate, might possibly, because of his cleaner reputation, stand some show of being elected. If Clarke cannot himself be elected—and he is beginning to appreciate this—he will insist upon the selection of a candidate with whom, in the event of his election, he can make a "deal." For, as Clarke indignantly stated at the A. B. hall last Thursday night, he is not a Tammany man. He does not believe in a "divvy," he wants the whole of the "gate money."

Falling in Dr. Thompson's friends of the opposition this morning called upon Mr. Woodworth, and it may be said at this writing that Mr. Woodworth is wavering. Those who favor Mr. Woodworth's candidature are impressed with the fact that he would have a good show at Ottawa. Joe Clarke has not a single friend there, and is not calculated to make many. When Mr. Woodworth was there last winter he was entertained by a member of the present cabinet. It was suggested to him this morning that the one defect in the canvass of Clarke, namely, that he could not possibly obtain the endorsement of the leader of the opposition party, would in the case of Mr. Woodworth be entirely removed. A telegram to Mr. Borden this afternoon would bring an immediate endorsement of Mr. Woodworth as the opposition candidate.

This is one of the most forceful reasons that have been laid before Mr. Woodworth, and that is why he is here recorded as wavering. It is now thoroughly well appreciated in Dawson and on the creeks that if Joe Clarke should be elected to the house of commons he would be a nonentity there. He would go there with his empty boast of "impeaching Sifton," and would not have a voice on either side of the house to ask that the "honorable" member from the Yukon be granted time in which to launch his scow of personal abuse. There is another candidate who will undoubtedly—it is believed at this writing—put up his deposit. This is Martin Gately, a man who has a deep hatred of Clarke and all his works. Clarke has spoken sneeringly of the Irish and of the Home Rule question, and Martin is an Irish Catholic. He has found that there are 417 Irishmen with votes in this territory. He believes not one of these can possibly be cast for Clarke. This is a pretty large vote to go into the campaign with, and Martin believes that with the announcement of his candidature in opposition to Clarke many other will flock to his standard.

The Ross meeting at the A. B. hall tomorrow night, at which will be announced the real candidates of the campaign, will probably be one of the most interesting gatherings of the campaign. It will bring forward an entirely new speaker, the only one who in the debates of last winter was held to be a match for the ready and eloquent F. T. Congdon. This is Robert L. Grimes, who was an American and therefore not particularly interested in local politics, but who last Friday said that it would be a shame to send a hoodlum like Clarke to Ottawa and he would take out his naturalization papers just in order to vote against him. He did so. As a speaker Mr. Grimes is already well known, and there are many who will attend the Ross meeting in A. B. hall tomorrow night in order to hear him.

There is likely to be a very sensational announcement at the opening of this meeting, one which will take the wind out of the sails of Mr. Grimes himself. This will be the fact that a new name entirely has been nominated in place of that of Clarke, or that, the new candidate being too modest, Mr. Beddoe, who has never been charged with anything as serious as modesty, had put up his ticket and decided "to run for the Canadian Congress."

It is rumored that Mr. Prudhomme stated on Saturday that he would himself run as a candidate for parliament if it should seem necessary for the purpose of beating Joe Clarke. He may be a candidate

ACTIVITY IN QUARTZ

All the Conglomerate Claims Renewed

The Government Stamp Mill and Assay Office Probably be at Work Next Week.

At midnight on Saturday there were over 150 quartz claims on the conglomerate on Indian river which would have expired, but on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning they were all renewed. This made a busy time for the quartz recorder's office, as in addition to this there were during the past month no less than two hundred transfers, some of them for large monetary considerations.

The amount of work done and recorded during the past month was also unusually large, and quite a number of crown grants were applied for. The number of new discoveries of quartz for the month was over one hundred. Another thing which will be a stimulus for the prospecting for quartz this winter is the opening of the government quartz mill, which will take place in a few days. The new machinery which was ordered closed navigation, and the Mungler will near the Ogilvie bridge is to be used this winter. That is to say, the stamps of this mill will be used for all the rest of the outfit is new. It is a new building, and everything pertaining to the amalgamating and the other processes is new. Also, the appliances of the assay office in connection with the mill are all new.

It is intended to run ores through the mill and to give reliable assays of their value free for the first two months, and after that to make assays at merely nominal rates to meet the running expenses of the mill and assay office. It is likely that more ore will be received than can be treated during the two free months, and therefore prospectors would do well to deliver their ores at the mill early, as they will be treated in the order in which they are received.

Shifty Joseph. The Editor Klondike Nugget—Dear Sir.—The following paragraph in a report signed by Joseph A. Clarke will be interesting reading when taken in connection with that person's violent and base attack upon Judge Dugas at the Thursday evening meeting. The closing paragraph of the report reads as follows, and it may be of interest to any Conservative who is foolish enough to support Clarke. Clarke says: "The action of their opponents, the Conservatives, in giving countenance to a violent and malicious attack upon the one official prominent as both a just and conscientious official and friend of the people in their demand for representative government, in the person of Mr. Justice Dugas, shows that political advancement is more desirable than the interest of our territory. The honorable judge's actions throughout his tenure of office, and especially his stand on the present movement, should place him above the scurrilous attacks and remarks of a political opportunist with such a record as that possessed by the leader of the opposition who fathered this last disgraceful attack."

It would almost seem that Joseph was rebuking himself, that is, Satan condemning sin. Truly "the people's Joseph," commonly called "side door Joe" is a most amusing case. Yours, ANTI-BLATHERSKITE, Dawson, 1st Nov., 1902.

World's Fair Rapid Transit. St. Louis, Oct. 10.—It will cost $75,000 to construct and equip the rapid transit system upon the World's Fair grounds. The length of the road and its branches will be eight miles and it will enable the visitors to see the vast exposition with as little fatigue as possible. The problem in planning the intramural road has been to place it where it would not mar the beauty of the exposition. Eminent engineers have been called into consultation and all phases of the project thoroughly studied. It is believed the plan presented by Charles V. Weston of Chicago, comes nearest to a perfect solution of the difficulty. Owing to the varying altitudes of the exposition grounds the road will be at times an elevated line and in other parts built at grade or below the surface. The trip on the intramural will be one of the most delightful diversions for visitors to the exposition.

Treaty Defied. Constantinople, Oct. 4.—Excited comment has been caused by the fact that the Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia arrived here on the ironclad Georgi Pobiedozets, which, owing to the insistence of Russia, was permitted at the last moment to pass the naval forts. The warship anchored in full view of the Yildiz Kiosk. The censor suppressed all mention of the word "ironclad," but the Mussulman population was deeply impressed by what was regarded as another instance of Russia overriding the clause of the Berlin treaty, which closes the Bosphorus to foreign warships. The Sultan is showing extraordinary attention to the Grand Duke, and is treating him on the same footing as a sovereign.

Prosperous Colony. St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 3.—The revenue of the colony for the quarter ending September 30th reaches a total of $550,000, which is $20,000 more than the revenue for the corresponding period of last year. The revenue for this quarter of 1901 was the highest ever collected during any three months in the colony's fiscal history. The prosperity of Newfoundland is now greater than ever, and all branches of business are booming.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The death of Emil Zola was the indirect cause of a duel between General Percin, chief of the cabinet of the minister of war, and Gaston Poulonias, a well-known Nationalist writer, who was responsible for the statement that General Percin met Dreyfus at Zola's late residence and shook hands with him. The general in his letter replying to the question of Count Boni de Castellane on this subject, described M. Poulonias as a "renegade Jew," and also told the count he did not admit the latter had any right to judge his actions. M. Poulonias then challenged Gen. Percin and they fought with swords near St. Cloud yesterday. The duel lasted for 25 minutes, and both men fought vigorously. M. Poulonias was pricked in the arm in the first encounter. Gen. Percin's sword broke in the fifth round. The general received his wound in the hand in the seventh encounter. A vein and a tendon were severed. The doctors then stopped the duel.

St. Louis Boodlers. St. Louis, Oct. 7.—The case of Henry Nicolaus, charged with bribery, came up in Judge Ryan's court. The millionaire brewer was not present, but was represented by his counsel. The date for his trial, it was announced, would not be definitely set for a few days, but it would come soon after the Butler trial, to commence at Columbia next Monday. Judge Ryan announced that the motion for a new trial made by an attorney for R. M. Snyder, the banker and promoter, who was convicted Saturday for bribery, relative to the Central Traction deal, and sentenced to five years imprisonment, will be taken up next Friday. The case of Charles Kratz, the councilman charged with bribery in the suburban case, was called, and Circuit Attorney Volk said that Kratz was a fugitive from justice, but he understood that he was desirous of returning to St. Louis. The case was continued to the next term of court by Judge Ryan, but the continuance can be set aside if Kratz appears in the meantime. The October grand jury met in Judge Douglas' court room and organized. It was instructed to continue the investigation began early this year into municipal assembly "boodle methods."

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 2.—The steamer Mona brings news of the loss of several Australian vessels during gales in the South Seas. The schooner Sybil of Sydney, a recruiting vessel, which left the Solomon some months ago with 110 on board for Queensland, has not yet been heard of. The steamer Quirang of Sydney was lost off the Australian coast with all hands, numbering twenty. The steamer Manbare, a fine 2,000 ton steamer, belonging to Burns, Phillip & Co., of Sydney, was lost off the coast of Santos by stranding on a reef, but fortunately all hands were saved and taken to Noumea by H. M. S. Phoebé. The schooner Eclipse was lost in the Solomons, and Father Rouille, a French priest, was drowned.

Baldwin's Defence. New York, Oct. 3.—Evelyn B. Baldwin, the Arctic explorer, arrived on the steamer Germania of the White Star line. He gave a long interview, in which he defended his conduct of the recent Baldwin-Ziegler polar expedition. In many respects, he said, it had proved far more valuable than previous attempts to find the pole. The only unpleasantness was between the captain and the ice pilot.

Choral Concert. The last rehearsal but one for the concert on Thursday evening next will be held in St. Andrew's hall tonight at 8 o'clock punctually. The director particularly requests that everyone will make a point of being present. Two items of interest not already announced will be the violin solo of Mr. A. P. Freimuth (who up on this occasion will play for the first time Ovide Musin's brilliant Mazurka de Concert in D), and Franz Schuler's charming duet for soprano and contralto voices, "Fly Away Bird," which will be sung by Mrs. Edythe Walker and Mrs. Ralph Torrey.

Honor of Miss McCormick. Thursday evening the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Brimston at the corner of Eighth avenue and Princess street was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party given in honor of Miss McCormick, sister of Mrs. Brimston. A number of the lady's most intimate friends gathered informally and the evening was most pleasantly spent in games and dancing. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

New Schedule. There will be a meeting of Ross supporters this evening at 33 above on Bonanza. The committee, on speakers and meetings at their meeting Saturday evening arranged a new schedule of meetings and speakers for Hunker, Bear, Last Chance, Gold Bottom, Dominion, Gold Run, Sulphur and the city. The next meeting in the city will be held at the A. B. hall on nomination day, tomorrow, November 4. Since the meeting of last Thursday evening the supporters of Clarke have been coming into the Ross camp in shoals.

Hallow'een Party. Miss Emily Craig entertained a few of her friends at the apartments of her parents over the Northern Cafe Friday evening, the occasion being a hallow'een party. About a dozen were present, all thoroughly enjoying the games provided by their youthful hostess.

Knew Human Nature. He had called at a house in the suburbs on business, and as he rose to go he said—"I believe you were in the lake district last summer?" "Yes." "Go fishing?" "Yes." "Catch anything?" "One little perch." "Ha, ha, ha! That's what I expected. Well, good-night."

When the caller had gone the wife said indignantly—"Richard, how can you sit there and tell stories in that bold way? You know we caught over twenty fish weighing 5 pounds apiece, and that big jack weighed 11 pounds." "My dear wife," returned the husband, "nothing. You don't know human nature. That man is now willing to take my word for $90. If I had told him of those fish he would have gone away believing me to be the biggest fibber in the Kingdom."

DIVERSIONS OF SOCIETY

An Unusual Dearth of Dancing Parties

Practically Nothing in Sight Except Skating, Ice Carnivals and Hockey Matches.

Many of the younger society element are deploring the fact that so far there seems to be no indication that there will be any social life in Dawson outside of that which the athletic and skating association will afford. Last year at this time the Arctic Brotherhood had determined upon a series of dances to last through the entire season and which proved among the most sociable and enjoyable affairs ever given in the city.

The floor of the Brotherhood hall could not be better for dancing purposes, the music was always of the best, and as nothing was ever provided to make their parties a huge success it is a matter of regret that the society has not seen fit to give a repetition of their last winter's successes.

There is no evidence, either, that there will be a St. Andrew's ball this season, which is another cause for regret, as in the past they have always been the big affairs of the winter, being to Dawson what the charity balls are to the east.

The only thing in sight at present in the dancing line is the annual police ball which will probably not take place until after the holidays. Card parties are on the wane and even the deadly ping pong is becoming passé. The reason for such a dearth in social affairs can not be imagined unless it is that the leaders as well as their followers have gone daily on skating and are only awaiting the advent of ice at the rink to break away from their present lethargy.

Brother, Mr. Charles Stiff, resides in Hamilton. Deceased was well known as Major Stiff, having held that rank in an Ontario volunteer battalion. During the troubles of 1886 he was captain of the Edmonton volunteer company, raised to garrison the Hudson bay fort until the arrival of reinforcements from the east. He afterwards served as sergeant in General Strange's force during the expedition to Fort Pitt after Big Bear.

Burnt at sea - Hamburg, Sept. 30.-The Hamburg-American line steamer Pennsylvania (from New York September 16, for Hamburg, which reached Plymouth last Friday and landed the crew of the Norwegian bark Bothnia, which had been abandoned in a sinking condition September 24, and which was set on fire previous to being deserted) arrived here today. The captain reports that the crew of the Bothnia were rescued in an exhausted condition, after having worked at the pumps for seventeen days and nights. The bark was on the verge of sinking when the Pennsylvania sighted her. Captain Densen, her commander, decided to set fire to the vessel before leaving her, to avoid the possibility of the Bothnia interfering with navigation.

The Bothnia sailed from Bridge-water, N.S., August 27 for Swansea. She was formerly named the Markland. She was built at St. Martin's, N.B., in 1871, and was owned by L. Raff.

Liverpool, Sept. 30.-The British steamer Capella (Captain McKee, from New Orleans, September 10, for Liverpool), which arrived here today, had on board the crew of the Norwegian bark Winona, which was abandoned at sea after having been set on fire. The bark Winona was last reported as having arrived at Bridgewater, N.S., August 2, from Preston, England. She was built at Richibucto in 1874.

Man's Head Cut Off - Montreal, Sept. 30.-Leonide Laviolette, a street railway conductor, slipped while collecting fares on his open car this morning at the corner of McGill and Lemoine streets, fell off the front end of the running board and had his head cut off by the car wheels. He was instantly killed. The body was taken to the morgue, where his inquest was opened. Laviolette was only twenty years old and had been a conductor for about three months.

Mrs. Joseph Audette, wife of the constable of La Prairie, committed suicide yesterday with her husband's revolver. She had been in poor health for some time, and was a subject of hysteria.

Winnipeg, Sept. 30.-A private telegram from Lethbridge states that an explosion occurred in the mines at Frank, in which two men were killed, including a young man from Lethbridge named John Clark. There are no further particulars.

The remains of Mrs. Bellaire, a woman who last spring wandered away from a settlement near Edmonton, have been found.

Guelph, Sept. 30.-Malcolm Sinclair, about 60 years of age, from Erin township, fell over dead while beginning his dinner at Lee's hotel, Rockwood. He was unmarried, and worked for his cousin, also named Sinclair. They drove in to get some goods at the Harris mills, and had put up their team at the hotel and gone in to dinner. The deceased appeared to get sleepy, and was gone in a moment. A doctor was in the hotel, and was immediately called, but he could do nothing for him.

Nov 1 Life Saver - Christiania, Sept. 28.-The Norwegian Life Saving Society during a trip to Horton conducted a series of experiments with Capt. Doevig's lifeboat, known as the "Life-saving Globe." The vessel carries sixteen persons, 400 kilograms of provisions, 530 kilograms of water, an air pump, a water pump, sail and rudder. It is eight feet in diameter, and is intended to stand on deck, floating when the ship goes down. The trials were in every way successful. Capt. Doevig, the inventor, with twelve seamen and three journalists, took their places in the globe, which was then thrown overboard. It disappeared among the waves for an instant, but immediately came to the surface, whereupon those on board hoisted a flag as a sign that they were none the worse for the impact with the waves. The sailing powers of the globe were also tested, with complete success. After remaining in the water for an hour the globe and its inmates were again taken on board the steamer, which then returned to Christiania.

PEOPLE PLEASED

That Second Class Mail Will be Received

Postmaster Hartman Has Been in Correspondence With Mr. Ross.

The people of Dawson will get second-class matter, newspapers and magazines, in the next mail, as an order has been given that pending the acceptance of a contract for carrying this mail from Whitehorse here such matter will be accepted at the postoffice of the Dominion and forwarded on from Vancouver. The three tenders which have been filed for the carrying of this mail during the winter months will be wired to Ottawa tonight. One of them will undoubtedly be accepted by wire, and this acceptance is expected to be here today.

Speaking of the matter Saturday afternoon Postmaster Hartman said: "I was very pleased to read in the Nugget that the minister of the interior had acceded to our request for a second-class mail service during the winter. Governor Ross took this matter up with me during the summer, and made representation to the government at Ottawa upon it at that time. It is the only matter that I ever bothered Mr. Ross about and he took it up with great interest."

"His illness retarded the matter for a time, but since his recovery I have been in correspondence with him and he has been at work at it with the government. The result is that we are now going to get what we have been asking for."

Everyone in the city is pleased with the idea that this winter they will be able to get in reading matter and small parcels by mail, and are much enthused about it. Mr. Honn, of the Dawson Transfer, said: "It is what we have been wanting and trying to get for several winters. We have longer winters than they have on the outside, and to be deprived of newspapers was a great hardship."

J. Davison, the wood merchant, said: "I think we are entitled to second-class mail matter just as much as any other part of the Dominion. We were willing to pay for it, and we certainly needed it more than any other place. At the same time Major Wood and Mr. Hartman deserve great credit for having brought the matter about."

Major Wood expressed his pleasure at the receipt of the minister's telegram on Friday, but said the credit for it lay with Mr. Ross and Mr. Hartman.

D. A. Matheson, of the water-works, said: "I am pleased to see that the government appreciates our position. It is no more than we are entitled to."

Mr. Searelle, the organist, was pleased because it would enable him to get in more music for the Dawson Amateur Operatic Association.

C. D. Anthony, of the Canadian Yukon Sawmill, thought it a move in the right direction and that it would prove a great boon to all reading people. W. H. Fairbanks, of the N. C. Company, said: "It will be a great thing to have newspapers and magazines coming in all winter."

period of forty-eight days, he took in completing the whole distance - between 1,700 and 1,800 miles by river - and in which he carried his tinned provisions, and a small amount of clothing. He traveled by day only, and although he suffered at times from the intense heat and more especially the blistering of the exposed parts of his body at the commencement of the trip, Mr. Erving arrived at the capital in the best of health and scarcely recognizable as a citizen of the United States on account of his dark complexion, having more the appearance of a native of Upper Egypt. The adventurous young man, who is a medical student and a native of Hartford, in the state of Connecticut, left Cairo in the beginning of July, traveling to the Sudan by rail and steamer with his canoe. He left Khartoum on the return journey on July 28 and reached his destination on September 13, meeting only with one serious mishap on the way, when his frail craft sank under him in crossing the fourth cataract. On this occasion he lost most of his clothes and the whole of his provisions, and had to swim for about half an hour to gain the bank of the river. During the passage of some of the rapids he was headed by "raises" who swam on each side of the canoe to pilot him through the different channels. The boat is of American manufacture and is built of pine (cedar) with oak fittings, and is of the description used for river traveling in the United States. It cost only $75 or about $15. It was his only shelter during the entire journey, by night as well as by day, and after sunset he tied it up to the nearest suitable spot and enjoyed a good night's rest, using a small tent which he carried as a covering.

Mr. Erving informed our correspondent that at times, although the days were intensely hot and oppressive the nights were very chilly, and he would have been glad of a pair of blankets instead of his tent covering. The loss of part of his clothing and his sun helmet was a sore trial, but it was the only disagreeable contretemps he met with, and this was caused, as mentioned before, through his ugly "spill" in one of the five cataracts he had to shoot. Mr. Erving left Alexandria on Thursday by the Italian mail boat for Naples, whence he embarked on his return home. On parting he informed his interviewer that he had made many trips throughout different countries, including Morocco, since he took to leaving home during his long vacation, but there was not one he enjoyed better, or which was of more interest, than his canoe trip from Khartoum to Cairo. He had never been badly treated or molested in any way during the whole of his long journey. One advice he was anxious to give to those who might feel inclined to follow his example, and that was, "Don't attempt to do it unless you are in the best of health."

Death of Col. Morin - Welland, Oct. 7.-Our citizens were inexpressibly shocked to hear of the sudden death of Lieut.-Col. James E. Morin, registrar, at his residence here this morning at 2 o'clock. The cause of death was acute kidney trouble and uric acid poisoning. He was taken ill last Sunday evening, but was much better yesterday, and his death was quite unexpected by his many friends.

Col. Morin was born in Ireland in 1849, and came to Canada in 1851, the family settling at Port Robinson in this county. When quite young he engaged in the mercantile business with Mr. Cutler at Ridgeway, remaining for many years with him. He took a great interest in military affairs, joining the militia in 1867, and the same year was appointed captain, and saw active service at Fort Erie in 1870. He has occupied the position of township clerk of Bertie, justice of the peace and license commissioner, also acting as chairman of the school board. He was elected to the Ontario legislature in 1883, and re-elected in 1886, his ability securing for him a prominent position in parliament. He was appointed registrar of deeds for the county of Welland in 1890, which position he occupied up to the time of his death. Col. Morin was a strong supporter of the Reform party, his honorable traits of character securing for him the respect and admiration of all, including his political opponents, and his loss will be greatly deplored in Welland county and elsewhere. He leaves a wife, two sons (Frank and Clarence), and four daughters (May, Elizabeth, Jeanette and Lucy), all residing here.

For Repeal of Duty - Peoria, Ill., Oct. 4.-The second day of the National Grain Dealers' convention was more liberally attended than the preceding day. But little business was attempted in convention and the day was devoted principally to speech-making. Among the papers read was one by J. T. McCall of Minneapolis on the 'Repeal of duty on Canadian grain' and strongly advocated the measure. Consideration of amendments to the constitution will come up tomorrow, as will the selection of next year's meeting place. Milwaukee and St. Louis are prominent candidates.

Cholera in Egypt - London, Oct. 7.-A despatch to the Times from Alexandria says the cholera statistics for the week just ended were 1,800 fresh ones and 1,782 deaths. The figures show that the epidemic is rapidly disappearing. Cairo, Luxor and Assuan are now almost free from cholera, and Assuan town and province are quite free. Surgeon-General Pinching authorizes the correspondent to say there is nothing more disquieting in the condition of Upper Egypt than in that of Lower Egypt.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

London, Oct. 8.-Sir Wilfrid Laurier paid a hurried visit to Liverpool yesterday, opening the new Produce Exchange there and making a vigorous appeal for the promotion of emigration to Canada, before sailing with Mr. Fielding, the Canadian minister of finance, on the homeward journey. Liverpool honored him with an enthusiastic greeting, and the local press has handsome things to say about the first colonial premier who has ever made England a practical offer of commercial co-operation. Premier Laurier displayed reserved strength during the imperial conference in resisting all attempts to commit Canada to a costly policy of military armaments. A weaker premier might have yielded to the temptation of thus gaining popularity. He, however, has not antagonized Mr. Chamberlain on any British interest, but has pursued a sagacious policy, which is likely to strengthen him at home.

ECCLIESIASTICAL POLITICS. - With the Nonconformists challenging the government to enact the education bill under the penalty of creating a revolt against rate paying, with the Irish Nationalists weighing in secret conference the arguments of Cardinal Vaughan and Mr. Michael Davitt in opposite scales, with the Baptist Union pulling itself together at Birmingham to follow the Congregationalist lead, and with the Bishop of Leicester opening the church congress at Northampton with an appeal for liberty to teach the Bible, creed and catechism in church schools, there is no lack of ecclesiastical politics in the United Kingdom.

PREMIER STILL PLAYING GOLE - Mr. Balfour, who is still playing golf with undiminished zeal in the north, is expected in London by the close of the week, and will have an early conference with Mr. Chamberlain before calling the cabinet together. The speeches of the Liberal leaders so far have been characterized by self-restraint, and this is a good augury for a compromise of some kind between the two front benches on the line of least resistance.

BRITISH CONSUMERS SUFFER - London householders are warned that if the American strike lasts they will have to pay forty shillings a ton at Christmas. British exports of coal last month showed an increase of fully 100,000 tons, and the shipments to America are expected to have a marked effect on the export figures for October. Owing to Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's export duties the British treasury must benefit enormously, and Mr. Ritchie, the new chancellor of the exchequer, can afford to smile.

EXPORT OF COAL. - The demand from America had the effect of raising the price of coal on most of the British exchanges yesterday. The Scotch coal masters are in receipt of numerous inquiries for the prompt shipment of coal to New York and Philadelphia, and it is computed that 40,000 tons will be shipped as soon as suitable freightage can be received. All available anthracite coal has been fixed for American shipment at sixteen shillings and six pence per ton, as against twelve shillings and six pence per ton which the American buyers refused to pay a month ago. Lancashire coal, which last week was ten shillings a ton as the pit's mouth, is now quoted at thirteen shillings.

French Emigrants - Paris, Oct. 8.-The correspondent here of the Associated Press saw the secretary of the French transatlantic line today regarding Immigrant Commissioner Williams' recent strictures at New York of the company's methods. He expressed surprise at Mr. Williams' statement and said: "We carry out the American immigrant regulations to the letter and our agents have instructions to take all possible precautions to exclude indigent persons. Our immigrants come from the same class as those transported by the English companies and are chiefly from eastern Europe. Among the thousands we transport weekly it is possible that occasionally a pauper may elude our surveillance. However, in view of Mr. Williams' criticisms, I shall issue fresh instructions to our agents to exercise the closest supervision."

HALL GAIN SATISFIED - Mr. Hall Caine, who professes entire satisfaction with the prospects of his play, although it has been universally condemned by the critics here, will sail for America on Saturday.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE CZAR. - Riots are reported to have broken out again in St. Petersburg and in Pottava, while political murders have been committed at Lodez. It is rumored that several officers of the 1st Regt. of the Imperial Guard have been arrested for a conspiracy against the Czar.

IRISH PARTY'S ATTITUDE. - For three hours yesterday 52 Irish members discussed the party attitude on the education bill. It is believed that as a result of the meeting the Nationalist members will not decide on any definite line of action with regard to the bill until parliament meets.

CHALLENGE FOR AMERICA'S CUP. - Sir Thomas Lipton last night said it was perfectly correct that his third challenge for the America's cup had been despatched. He hoped that the race would take place in August. As soon as the challenge has been accepted the work of construction on the Shamrock III will be commenced. Messrs. Fife and Watson are

The Education Bill - London, Oct. 3.-The general body of the Presbyterian and Baptist independent ministers at a special meeting last evening adopted a resolution calling on the government to withdraw the education bill, and declaring: "We will do everything in our power to defeat the reactionary, tyrannical proposals of the measure, which vast numbers of loyal subjects will be conscientiously compelled to resist to the utmost, even to refusing the payment of rates."

Replying last evening to an inquiry whether it was true that the government intended to withdraw its education bill, Premier Balfour authorized the statement that "there is no foundation whatever for this rumor." A similar denial was made by Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, who added with reference to the attitude of the Birmingham Liberal Unionists that "only two hundred persons attended the meeting of opponents of the bill."

LA BELLE NOT EATING

Appetite Has Entirely Deserted Him

Has Not Taken a Mouthful Since Friday Evening Just Before His Sentence.

Edward La Belle, the condemned murderer under sentence of death, has eaten scarcely a mouthful since last Friday evening when he was condemned to suffer the extreme penalty of the law.

The regular detail for the death watch was arranged Saturday and until he is led forth to his execution he will be constantly under the eyes of either Constable Brackall, Constable Macaulay or Constable Carter, the hours being four on and eight off.

La Belle is taking his sentence stoically and causes his guards no trouble whatever. His waking hours are mostly spent in sitting on the edge of his bunk with his head between his hands, probably thinking of the past and wondering of the future.

According to the custom in Canada a man condemned to death, while awaiting the date of his execution can live on the fat of the land. He can have porterhouse steaks three times a day if he desires, a bottle of wine to wash it down with and a four-bit cigar afterward for the asking.

Mr. Doty said: "At the outset of the season I felt that the great improvement in sanitation in Cuba warranted a relaxation of the rules in former years."

Ice Running All Along the River. The Close up is a Question of Days Only.

The river is running heavily with ice today and the big drop in the thermometer has brought forward the belief that the close up will not be greatly behind that of last year—if any at all.

Reports have been received from a number of places up the river all going to show that the end of the open season is now a matter of days only.

The Hootalinqua is now spitting ice for the first time and the river at the upper end will rapidly choke up in consequence.

The steamer Crimmin, La France and Thistle are still on the river, and all are battling sturdily with the ice.

It is not likely under any circumstances that the river will again be clear of ice.
