MEETING OF THE MIRAMICHI PRESBYTERY

A pro re nata meeting of the Miramichi Presbytery was held on Thursday afternoon in St. James Manse, Newcastle. There were present Rev. L. H. MacLean, Moderator, W. McN. Matthews, clerk, T. Harrison, F. W. Thompson, A. Firth and J. H. A. Anderson.

tion, reported the procedure in the work of the church there resulting in the moderation in a call from that congregation on May 2 in favor of Rev. J. C. Mortimer who has been stated supply for the past six months. He tabled the call in regular form largely signed by communicants and adherents. Mr. J. W. Robertson was present as a commissioner from the congregation and testified to the heartiness and unanimity of the call. Mr. William Anderson of Buro, Church, unavoidably absent, reported by letter in similar terms. On motion the action of the moderator was approved, the call sustained as a regular Gospel call and placed in the hands of Mr. Mortimer, who was present in the court for his decision. In a few appropriate words Mr. Mortimer accepted the call much to the satisfaction of both congregation and Presbytery. The following arrangements were made for his induction:—In Tabusintac Church Tuesday, June 3 Rev. L. H. MacLean to preside and induce Rev. A. Firth to narrate the steps, Rev. F. W. Thompson to address the minister and Rev. W. McN. Matthews, to people.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENED MAY 24TH

The Miramichi Baseball League was opened on Victoria Day by two games of ball between Newcastle and Douglstown at Newcastle and Chatham and Nelson at Nelson. The game in Newcastle drew a large number of fans to witness the game and Mayor C. E. Fish threw the first ball across the plate. The Newcastle Band was in attendance and before the game paraded the streets with the players of the local team. Umpires Green (strikes and balls) and Ashford (bases) refereed the game to the entire satisfaction of all. The local boys did not show up quite as well as was expected on account of lack of practise but now that the series are on, they no doubt will make a better showing in future. The Douglstown team had luck with them throughout the whole game and on three or four occasions paraded themselves out of as nasty positions as it is the ill fortune of any base-ball nine to get into. The local team were held to one score (made by Melrose in the 2nd inning) until their 9th inning, when they were successful in scoring two runs making their total 3 against Douglstown's 9. Some heavy hitting was done by both teams, with the Douglstown boys apparently getting hits when they were most needed by them.

The Newcastle Base Ball Team wish to take this means of thanking the members of the band, who gave their services and time in assisting to make the opening game a success. The following is the line up of the teams:

Newcastle	Douglstown
McMichael rf	Grant c
Murray lf	R. Driscoll 2 b
Zinck 1b	Skidd 3b
McCabe cf	G. Driscoll c
Melrose 2b	Dickens 1b
McKenzie c	Jessamin ss
Craig p	Sickles rf
Herbert ss	McCosh cf
Sullivan 3b	Gulliver lf

Score 9-3 in favor of Douglstown. Time—1 hour 20 minutes. Umpires—Green and Ashford. It is thought that this game will not be included as one of the schedule, but will be ranked as an Exhibition Game, because of the inability of some of the regular Douglstown players being unable to play in this game, and their places had therefore to be filled by other players, and the Captain of the Douglstown Team requested before the game that it be considered an Exhibition Game, but the matter will be finally decided by the Executive of the League.

The next game in which the Newcastle Team will take part will be played tonight with Loggieville at Loggieville, while Chatham will entertain the Nelson Nine at Chatham. The game on Victoria Day at Nelson between Chatham and Nelson resulted in a win for Nelson by the score of 5 to 6. A large number from outside points attended the game and some real good, fast ball was indulged in.

Now that the schedule is being played the public may be assured that an interest increases in the games by the players, snappy baseball will be shown by the different teams of the league, as each team is out to win the pennant.

DOAKTOWN BOY DROWNED NEAR CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, May 26—The boom-house at Athol was the scene of a sad tragedy last Saturday afternoon when Hugh Parker, of Doaktown, a young man of about eighteen years of age, was drowned while at work on the boom.

The unfortunate young man lost his footing and fell into the river just a few minutes after the crews had begun work after the dinner hour. There was but one man anywhere near at the time and it was several minutes before he could reach the drowning youth. It is presumed that contact with the cold water so soon after eating must have brought on a cramp which completely disabled the boy, for having once sank he did not reappear and, consequently, it was several minutes before his rescuers could locate the body.

The young man's remains were forwarded to his home in Doaktown on Monday's Limited.

Political Letter

Ottawa, May 22 (Special Correspondence). Parliament is presented every week with a new evidence as to the strange mixture of irreconcilable elements which go to make up the Government side of the Commons. Everybody knew that those ranks were full of men opposed to public ownership of public utilities, nevertheless, to hear Walter Mitchell (St. Antoine), former Provincial Treasurer of Quebec, rise in his place and denounce the very principle to which his leader and the Government is pledged to give fair trial. Then, within twenty-four hours, another Liberal, W. D. Euler, of North Waterloo, took the floor and gave the House reasons for his faith in public ownership. He made bold to criticize Mr. Mitchell's stand, and predicted success for the National system under careful management.

COULD HARDLY MOVE IN HER BED

Eight Boxes of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Completely Relieved Her.

MADAM RICHER

Labelle, P. Q., April 18th, 1921

"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me.

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months; could hardly move in bed, and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

Finally started in taking 'Fruit-a-tives' and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

Madam J. RICHER.

State, might be interesting if anyone could tell what he says. There is some hope for the Department of Trade and Commerce, where Hon. J. A. Robb seems at least willing to find out what he doesn't know. Hon. Jacques Bureau is still chuckling over a benevolent joke played upon him by the Conservative Opposition in allowing passage of his estimates without a battle. Probably the one minister who thoroughly knows his work is the veteran Finance Minister, whose influence in the regime of 1896-1911 was so well recognized that the slightly modified version of the National policy current during that period is still described by Liberals as the "Laurier-Fielding tariff." And even Mr. Fielding's great test comes on with the budget.

It is only natural that ex-ministers to the left of Mr. Speaker should be better posted than the new incumbents, and it is amusing to hear them, at times, providing information to help out the latter when questions come from the many new members in the Progressive section. And to refer again to the member for St. Antoine Hon. Mr. Mitchell, ran up against this situation in his railway speech, when some of his arguments were challenged by Hon. J. A. Steyart, late Minister of Railways, and shown to be based on entirely wrong premises. In brief, the occupants of the treasury benches are not always able to fight their own battles, let alone extend help to each other. And as for the Premier.

"Gone are the days when his heart was young and gay.

Those good old days when he followed Laurier.

Now he's in power and the arrows round him sing;

There's no one needs more pity than Mackenzie King."

Interest in the railway rates question, now before a special committee, received new impetus with the appearance as a witness of E. W. Beatty, President of the C. P. R. Mr. Beatty, in a long, prepared statement informed the members in effect that the country must cease to hope for relief from the burden of high freight rates in the event of the Government allowing the schedules of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement of 1897 to come into effect again. The effect of other concurrent rate reductions would be "too serious to contemplate" the C. P. R. is prepared, however, said its President, to put into effect reductions on basic commodities which would be of greater benefit to the country generally than resumption of the Crow's Nest agreement. All of which is a further blow to the ambitions of western Progressives. Mr. Beatty's statement strengthens a general impression that the demands of the Progressives in this regard, would serve a sectional interest, at the expense of the Dominion generally. It may be accepted, indeed, that there is a small chance of the Crow's Nest agreement, with its special low rates on a certain small list of commodities, being restored, and so, denied the wheat board in the compulsory form asked for, the Progressives have little left to hope for from the Government. With the budget proposals reflecting the will of protectionist Quebec, there remains no substantial basis for the Liberal Progressive alliance which the Government at the beginning met the 14th Parliament.

An attempt of the Government to sequester a bit of patronage and dodge the jurisdiction of the Civil Service Commission was frustrated by the Senate, when the Upper House cut out of the Defence Bill a clause giving the Cabinet power to place in new positions such officials as were affected by the amalgamation of the militia, naval and air departments. The Senators also rejected the proposal for three deputy ministers, amending the plan to provide for but one deputy and a controller of finance. We're always saving the country money," remarked Senator Fowler.

The House dividing on non-party lines, as declared against restoring the embargo against oleomargarine. Existing legislation expires on August 31st, and there is some conjecture as to who will take the necessary action. Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, whose department the matter chiefly concerns, spoke and voted against allowing importation and manufacture of the butter substitute, while Hon. W. S. Fielding, took the opposite view on the ground of personal liberty. The Finance Minister also took occasion to read his colleague a lecture on his treatment of the question, and remarked that he feared Mr. Motherwell was "a free trader in everything but oleomargarine."

During discussion of Public Work estimates R. B. Hanson, Conservative member for York/Sunbury, caused a fluttering on the Government side by allusion to pre-election promises made by the Liberal candidate in Charlotte N. B. Mr. Hanson said that W. F. Todd, who was defeated by R. W. Grimmer, Conservative, had carried on a campaign throughout the island parishes, and promised a wharf or breakwater practically every fishing hamlet in the country. Mr. Hanson described it as "a straight bid for votes on a bribery principle," and challenged by Hon. A. B. Copp, Secretary of State, to name instances, quoted specific cases at Castalia, Welshpool, Deer Island and Seeley Basin. He added that no attempt had been made by the Liberal Government to implement these promises, some of which had no doubt been made in good faith.

LURE IS VARIED

Men Have Odd Motives for Seeking Exile in South Seas.

Sometimes It is More or Less Humorous, Occasionally Deeply Tragic, but Always Interesting. I have often speculated on the motives actuating the men and women who come to the South seas—most of them of a class neither adventurous nor imaginative. Why have they left home at all, and why have their wanderings led to a place so insignificant and remote? In some cases, of course, the motives are not complex. I remember a middle-aged Californian, who did not hesitate to be frank. We were sitting on the hotel veranda, wasting an afternoon in idle talk. "Why did I come to Tahiti?" he said. "That's simple—I wanted to live in a place where I could have a drink without breaking the law. I reckon I'm a good American, but I like to be let alone. The French are great fellows to mind their own business; I found that out during the war. Yes, I was there—over age, but I got into the National Guard at the start. When I got home I took a look around and then made my partner a proposition to buy me out. We had a nice little business; my share of it, turned into bonds, brings in about three thousand a year. "When the deal was fixed, I got a map and hunted up the nearest French colony—I reckoned it would be quieter there than in France. I guess I'll leave my bones on Tahiti. My house will be finished in another month; it's close to the water and a big shady veranda where you can sit and look out across the lagoon to Moorea. "I don't want any women, or servants, or newspapers, or plantations, or business of any kind—I just want to be let alone; but any man who doesn't talk politics will be welcome to drop in for a drink. Here was one accounted for. A few moments later, on the same veranda, another man told his story in eight words, pregnant as they were brief. There was an Englishman with us—a traveler, who was stopping over on a steamer in the course of an eastward tour around the world. He had been in India, and was showing us his collection of photographs of that land. While the pictures were passed about, I noticed an elderly American, of morose and complacent mien, sitting at some distance from the rest of the company and taking no part in the conversation, though he uttered from time to time a series of nasal sounds vaguely suggestive of French and correctly interpreted by the native girl to mean: "One rum punch." In time we came to the inevitable picture of the Taj Mahal; and while we gazed at it, marveling anew, the tourist spoke of the vast expense of raising such a monument. When he had finished, the man who wanted to be let alone was the first to speak. "Just think of that guy," he remarked, "spending 10 million dollars to bury his wife!" Musing on the ancient and costly bit of sentiment, we sat for a moment in silence—a silence broken by a sentimental voice. "I'd give more than that to bury mine!" It was the orderer of rum punches who spoke, addressing the company for the first and last time. He said it without a shadow of humor—so earnestly, so convincingly, that several seconds elapsed before any of us smiled. He had placed himself. Curiosity regarding him was at an end; if he chose to spend the rest of his days in the South seas, gossip would pass him by, to whisper of others less communicative—the ever-present rumored murderer or defaulting financier. For all we knew, the morose gentleman might have been quite capable of building a second Taj Mahal—Charles Bernard Nordhoff in the Atlantic Monthly.

Backache

Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes and overlook the derangement of the kidneys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief. This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven so effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use. Mrs. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good results. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am completely relieved." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Melon-Growing in the Okanagan

There is a certain market-gardener at Summerland, a little settlement on the shores of the Okanagan Lake in British Columbia, who has made his ten acres famous for canteloupes, egg-plants and peppers. He has five acres of canteloupes from which last season he shipped 1,200 crates averaging $3.00 gross per crate. They are grown on the usual "hill" system 5 x 5 ft. apart and well-rotted mixed farm yard manure is applied in the spring. Great care has to be taken when irrigating the melons as they won't stand being chilled. The grower's "long suit" is saving his own seed and he has bred distinct strains of peppers, cucumbers and melons. The "hoodoo" canteloupe is improving every year. The seed is sown under glass in mid-April and is transplanted twice before being set out in the field between the 5th and 10th of June. It is then ready to fruit at the end of August. Egg-plants and peppers are profitable, too, in a small way, and about 1/2 acre of the first and 1/4 acre of the latter is grown and shipped regularly to certain stores in localities that have acquired a taste for these dainties. From 1/4 acre of early slicing-cucumbers the grower makes at least 3 pickings in the season, taking from 110-125 boxes at each picking. These average a clear profit of 50 cents per box, the prices varying from 60 cents up to $2.00 according to season. Another highly profitable lot followed by the same grower is early lettuce under glass. Last Christmas I saw one of the greenhouses (18 x 40) full of lettuce for the Christmas trade around Summerland alone, about $150.00 of it and this will command a sure and steady market.—E. G. W.

World Shortage In Tea Results In Higher Prices

During 1919 and 1920 the greatly increased production and unlimited shipping facilities resulted in enormous quantities of tea reaching every market of the world. A consequent drop in price was the result. To stabilize the situation, the tea growers of Ceylon and India agreed to curtail production 20% in 1921. Since that time the demand has been constantly increasing and the price rising. The recent reduction of duty on tea entering England has further increased the demand, and the price is expected to rise accordingly.

A Wide-Spread War Memorial

IN memory of the war-time efforts for King and Country, of eleven thousand C.P.R. employees and more particularly of 1,115 men who gave their lives for the cause for which the British people stood, the Canadian Pacific Railway has erected at Montreal, Winnipeg, and Vancouver a striking bronze memorial group, depicting in larger than life size an Angel of Victory bearing the body of a Canadian soldier upward towards perfect peace. These statues were simultaneously unveiled on Friday, April 28th, His Excellency Lord Byng, the Governor General, officiating at the Montreal celebration. At the same time was unveiled the bronze tablet illustrated above. Exact duplicates of this tablet were also unveiled at all important points on the C. P. R. system between the Atlantic and the Pacific, as well as at its American, European and Arctic offices. The tablets are about five feet in width, and were designed by Archibald Fyfe, of the C. P. R. Chief Engineer's Department, Montreal. The vessel on the left represents H. M. S. "Lion," Admiral Beatty's flagship at the battle of Jutland, and that on the right the Canadian Pacific Steamship "Empress of Russia," which was engaged there as a fast cruiser, and later as a transport. Beside her stands a standard C. P. R. locomotive and train as having just brought in battalions ready to embark for overseas service. The soldiers in the centre, represents all arms of the service. The base of the statues bear the same legend as do the tablets. Enlistments of C.P.R. employees totalled 11,340 men, of which 1,115 were killed or died of wounds, and 2,105 were wounded. A total of 7,573 were re-employed by the company on their return to Canada, following out the C.P.R. policy of re-instating every man who left, in as good a job as that which he had when he went away, and a total of 13,312 other returned soldiers have also been taken on the company's service. War decorations and medals won by C.P.R. employees totalled 376, and include the following:— Victoria Cross, 2; Order of the British Empire, 6; Distinguished Service Order, 17; Distinguished Service Cross, 3; Military Cross, 54; Distinguished Conduct Medal, 47; Military Medal, 180.

Newcastle, N. B.
May 29th, 1922

Editor "Union Advocate"
Newcastle, N. B.

I am an old baseball player, a has been, but still a fan. I love the game and want to see the Newcastle team win the league pennant. I watched the game on Victoria Day between the locals and Douglstown and am going to give my views on each individual local player, not by way of criticism but for the purpose of stimulating the players and perhaps my suggestions might have the effect of making a better ball team of the Newcastle boys. A baseball game is not a funeral. As soon as the game starts each player wants to be on his taps, to put vim into his actions, and keep the "Pep" going from start to finish. If each ball-player would get thoroughly warmed up, and continue that warmth, they would play much better ball, and greater interest would be shown by the fans. Fans don't like to see their home team defeated any more than the players like to get trimmed and often the trimming is the result of lack of "Pep". I am well aware of the fact that it is an easy matter to criticize, but I have often been criticized myself, and I must admit that the criticism I received made me play a better game of ball. For this reason I am throwing out a few suggestions, which I hope the boys will take in the good nature in which it is given.

I intend watching the locals in future games and may possibly have more to say later on. I realize you are all doing your best, but I want you to do better. The team needs much practise in batting. You have the material but you each want to develop your eye-sight. Listen to your Captain as he is Boss on the field. Do as you are told and let good harmony exist. The following are my comments on the individuals.

McKenzie—You played a fairly good game behind the bat, but your throw to second is weak. Practise it, get it up and put some speed on it. Arrange better signals with your pitcher.

Craig—You were up against hard luck and did not get proper support. More warming up practise and better acquaintance with your catcher will give better results in future.

W. Murray—Put a smile on occasionally. You are not in a fistie battle. You did O. K. in the pinch, but got poor support. Keep at it and wear a smile. You will see a vast difference.

Zinck—You covered first in good style, but get a little further away from the bag. Keep your head, 3 out all out. No necessity to put it out. Melrose—You play good second position, considering poor throw from home. Play further over towards first. Some nice pick-ups got by that you would have prevented, had you been over further.

Herbert—Play a little closer to second and be a little snappier. Practise picking up and throwing. When you get it, get it away from you. A snappy in-field is the backbone of any ball team.

Sullivan—Get away from third and play well over to Short's position. When fouls are struck, make for them. Never mind the crowd. Run through them. They have no right there.

McMichael—Don't play out so far. Some nice flies were missed on this account. Before starting for the ball, judge both ball and distance. Then go to it. If ball gets by you, you don't back up, turn and speed for it. This applies to the whole outfield.

McCabe—You use the stick well and play a good field position. Cover second more as you never know when the sphere will be thrown there. There is always something doing at second, the Keystone sack, watch it carefully and be on the alert.

In conclusion I might suggest that it would be good encouragement to the ball players if some interested fan would donate a trophy for some particular record such as highest number of home-runs, fewest strike-outs, or any other feature, which the donor might wish. Ball players need encouragement. Fandom is expected to give this. If I was wealthy I would do it myself. Thanking you Mr. Editor for valuable space, so kindly given me, I am,

Respectfully Yours

What Critics Thought of THUNDERCLAP

"Thunderclap" contains several thrilling racing pictures and a struggle for life in the Niagara rapids which rivals the water scene in "Way Down East". The picture is sufficiently entertaining to make you forget the heat. It is as absorbingly interesting as a child's first fairy tale. —New York Commercial

It is as entertaining as anything of the sort we ever saw. —New York Tribune

To say there wasn't a dull moment would be putting it mildly, and anybody who gets the idea the audience was bored is all wrong. The audience had the time of its life. —New York Mail

THUNDERCLAP is the Most Fascinating, Gripping, Punch Delivering Photodrama Ever Made. It Teems with Action, Sweetened by an Exceptionally Beautiful love story.

It is The Screen Event of The Season.

A thundering vigorous exposition of life in the realms of sport. A perfect picturization of that circle of society that is builded upon games of chance.

NORTH SHORE BANKRUPTCY CASE

In the Bankruptcy Court Friday morning before Francis Kerr, registrar, the examination of Swim & Storey of Doaktown, North. Co. was begun. This company made an assignment to the Canadian Trust and Credit Men's Association with assets $105,000 and liabilities $165,000. The creditors were not satisfied with the assets, and the trustee was ordered to institute an examination. The firm is heavily indebted to the Bank of Nova Scotia and the Royal Bank of Canada, both of whom hold liens on the lumber and book debts of the company.

Thin Blooded People

Need a Tonic to Enrich the Blood and Restore the Health

Some people have a tendency to become thin-blooded, just as others have an inherited tendency to rheumatism, or to nervous disorders. The condition in which the blood becomes so thin that the whole body suffers, comes on so gradually that anyone with a natural disposition in that direction should watch the symptoms carefully. Bloodlessness, or anaemia, as the medical term is, can be corrected more easily in the earlier stages than later. It begins with a tired feeling that rest does not overcome, the complexion becomes pale, and breathlessness on slight exertion, such as going up stairs, is noticed.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a home remedy that has been most successful in the treatment of troubles due to thin blood. With pure air and good food these blood-enriching pills are the correct treatment when the systems described above are noticed. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. M. Chase, of Trenton, Ont., who says:—"I can highly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all who suffer from anaemia and nervous exhaustion. For three years I was nearly always troubled with headaches, and until I began taking these pills no treatment seemed to do more than give me temporary relief. I had read of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were doing for others and finally decided to give them a fair trial and kept on taking them regularly for several months and I am glad to say have derived permanent relief. I feel that I can safely and honestly recommend this wonderful medicine."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

The May Supreme Court opens to-day in the County Court House. There are three criminal and a few civil cases to be tried.

MANY YOUNG SALMON TO BE DISTRIBUTED

Twenty-five million young salmon will be distributed in the salmon streams of the Maritime Provinces by the officials of the department of Marine and Fisheries, fish hatchery branch this spring, it was stated by S. J. Walker, inspector of hatcheries, who arrived in St. John on an inspection trip on Thursday.

He said excellent results were being obtained in sending the young fish out in the fingering stage, instead of sending out the spawn shortly after it was hatched, as formerly had been the custom.

Mr. Walker also paid high tribute to Captain Daniel Grady, the superintendent of the salmon pond at the mouth of Little River who has held that position since the hatchery was first established there. Captain Grady and his crew are now preparing the pond for the advent of the adult salmon, which are expected to be soon making their annual pilgrimage to their spawning grounds in local waters.

Mr. Walker stated yesterday that James D. Nichol of Flatlands, on the Restigouche River, would succeed A. E. Monck, officer in charge of the Silver Falls salmon hatchery, who is to return to his old position, as manager of the fish hatchery at Southampton, Ont. Mr. Nichol has had considerable experience in the work, having been in charge of the government hatcheries at Flatlands New Mills, and at the Miramichi hatchery.

FASHIONS HAVE CHANGED IN DENTISTRY

Fashions change in Dentistry, but more important, progress is constant. Judged by the papers and addresses at the present dental convention in Toronto, the return is toward natural appearance. Not long ago the run was to gold crowns, and many a man's ambition was to demonstrate his solid financial position by a row of gold-covered teeth, even in the front of his mouth. That is now out of fashion and the new order is to have no gold at all visible. The idea is to avoid covering teeth and to preserve the lifelike appearance bequeathed by mother nature.

Years ago the fashion was to save the tooth at all costs, but it is now declared that crowns are unhealthy, permitting foreign matter to reach the tooth, and thus start the poisonous operation which has led to so much ill-health, until the X-ray has revealed the seat of the trouble. Along with more careful watching and treatment, dentists now advise diet which is less destructive of teeth.

It has been a matter of impressive statement that there are 66,526 possible combinations of present and missing teeth that any dentist may have to face in ordinary practice, but a new plan recommended by one of the speakers involves only four common denominators and simplifies the problem of restoration. The war has taught the dentists much and new ways of restoring jaws that were shot away have been demonstrated. Local anaesthetics are replacing "gas" and it is said to be now possible to isolate any nerve centre and carry on a dental operation with the minimum of pain.

The dentists are facing their new problems cheerily and have done great things to lessen pain and to make their work less fearful, but the average man, courageous in every other field, is slow to lose the dread handed down from the pioneer methods and confirmed by occasional experiences which, doubtless, will soon be a rarity for even the most serious cases.

If a man wants a little below that about all he will get.

Preferred by Food Experts

The thousands of good cooks from Nova Scotia to Quebec who have tried Robinson's Butter-nut Bread and liked it better have proved right.

Twice in the past three months food experts have visited St. John. By invitation they visited Robinson's Kitchens and watched the methods by which Butter-Nut Bread is made.

Each time the verdict was in favor of Robinson's Bread as being the best—the same verdict you and your whole family will render when you taste Butter-Nut Bread.

PARTED BY WAR

Civil Strife Caused Separation of Noted Churchmen.

Missionary Centennial Recalls Affection Between Bishop McIvalne and Bishop Polk, on Opposing Sides.

A striking memory of Civil War history is awakened in connection with the centenary of the Episcopal Missionary Society, falling this year, which centers about two devout bishops of the church, Bishop McIvalne of Ohio and Bishop Leonidas Polk of Tennessee, life-long friends, whose consciences made them "enemies" when the war divided the country.

Bishop McIvalne was the elder of the two and was chaplain at West Point when young Polk, scion of the family which gave a President to the United States, arrived at the academy bent on a military career. At the end of four years Polk was graduated into the army; but so marked was the influence that McIvalne had exerted that, a few years later, the chaplain having in the meantime been elevated to the episcopacy, Polk resigned from the army and took clerical orders.

With the passage of the years it fell out that McIvalne and Polk became identified as leaders in the movement within the church which resulted in the dispatch of missionary bishops into the unsettled areas of the country, and brought about those triumphs which are being acclaimed now in the missionary centennial. Polk was made the first missionary bishop of Arkansas and later first bishop of Louisiana.

Then came the war between the states, which arrayed father against son and brother against brother; and these two devout men of the church did not escape the perplexities of the situation. Bishop McIvalne answered the call of Lincoln and went to England with Archbishop Hughes, Henry Ward Beecher and Thurston Weed to exert their influence against British recognition of the Confederacy. Bishop Polk answered the call of Jefferson Davis and became a general in the Confederate army.

Thus actively aligned on opposite sides in the conflict, the stage was set for one of the most dramatic episodes of the war. Back in the West Point days the two men had entered into a solemn compact that when they separated, wherever they might be, they would pray, each for the other by name, every Sunday morning. And now, the one fighting in the field for the South, and the other engaged in a delicate diplomatic mission for the North, enemies as to the political principle which was involved, their solemn compact was sacredly carried out until the end came with the death of Bishop Polk at the battle of Pine Mountain.

History tells of the success of the mission to England, of which Bishop McIvalne was a part.

The kind of soldier Bishop Polk was is related in the general orders issued by Gen. J. E. Johnston, commanding the army of Tennessee on June 14, 1864, the day Polk fell. It read:

"Comrades: You are called to mourn your first captain, your oldest companion-in-arms. Lieut. Gen. Polk fell today at the outpost of this army—the army he raised and commanded, in all of whose trials he shared, to all of whose victories he contributed. In this distinguished leader we have lost the most courteous of gentlemen, the most gallant of soldiers. The Christian, patriot, soldier has never lived nor died in vain. His example is before you; his mantle rests with you." There is a striking picture, too, of this warrior-bishop contained in a letter he wrote to his wife less than a month before he fell.

"You will be interested," he wrote, "in hearing that the first night of my arrival with the army I baptized Lieut. Gen. Hood. It was on the eve of an expected battle. The scene was a touching one—he, with one leg, leaning on his crutches, a veteran in the midst of his and my officers and I the officiating minister. His heart was fully in it."

A few nights later he also baptized General Johnston.

Corrosion of Metals.

The committee on corrosion of iron and steel of the American Society for Testing Materials reported that tests which have been in progress for five years in the Pittsburgh district on uncoated metal sheets are nearing completion and have reached the point where the committee definitely concludes that "copper-bearing metal shows marked superiority in rust-resisting properties as compared to non-copper-bearing metal of substantially the same general composition, from which superiority we may truly anticipate a marked increase in the service life of copper-bearing metals under atmospheric exposure of uncoated sheets." Other corrosion tests are being conducted in different parts of the country, and before very long a final report may be expected in which results of importance will be stated.

SUFFERED SO MUCH HER HAIR TURNED GRAY

Winnipeg Woman Became as Weak as a Child From Stomach Trouble. Is Now Picture of Health and Has Gained 15 lbs.

"I never would have believed any medicine could bring about such a change as Tanlac has done in my wife," said Harry Gray, of 126 Bryce St. Winnipeg, Manitoba.

"For many years my wife suffered from stomach trouble and bilious attacks which, of late, were so violent that she had to go to bed for two or three days at a time. She could hardly eat anything and got to be very thin and as weak as a child. She had such terrible headaches and suffered so dreadfully that though still a young woman, her hair had turned gray.

"But the way Tanlac has helped her is remarkable. Why she is like a new woman. She has a splendid appetite and has no trouble with indigestion, bilious attacks or headaches. She has gained fifteen pounds in weight and is the picture of health. We both think Tanlac is the finest medicine in the world."

Tanlac is sold by all leading druggists everywhere.

COMPENSATION ASSESSMENTS MUCH REDUCED

In the report of the Workmen's Compensation Board for last year there is a remarkable showing of proposed reductions of assessments of employers of labor under the readjustments made possible by the large surplus. The report says that the total assessments made upon employers in 1921 amounted to $1,092,267.58. It was found upon making adjustments of the 1920 payrolls that they greatly exceeded the estimated surplus of $237,131.02 shown in the report for 1920 actually turned out to be $538,011.29 or an increase of over $300,000.00. This increase together with the good accident experience in 1921 required a retroactive adjustment in the rates for 1921. It will result in a reduction of $305,000 on the assessments for 1921. That amount will be credited to the employers in the various industries which are entitled to a reduced rate

Victoria Day was observed as a holiday and many spent the day holding picnics in the woods and fishing. STEVEDORE TROUBLE

Some trouble was experienced last week over loading the S. S. "Canadian Volunteer" which docked at Maloney's Mill Wharf to load coal for Manchester, Eng. It is said that the contract of loading the vessel had been given to the Eastern Stevedores Co. of Montreal, a representative of which company came here to submit the contract to local stevedores. The figures offered would not permit of the payment of wages fixed by the local Longshoremen's Union and in consequence there was a deadlock. A meeting of the longshoremen was held at which they decided to stand by the local stevedores, but finally adjustments were effected and the loading was proceeded with.

What makes Beaver Boarding so simple and easy?

You can't expect Beaver Board results unless this trade-mark is on the back of the board you buy.

Of course Beaver Boarding is easy. Only three steps—nailing, painting, and panelling—and the job is finished.

For covering cracked walls and ceilings or for building interiors in the new home, we recommend Beaver Board at every opportunity. We know that the big panels will never crack or fall, and that along with the other building materials we handle, they mean a satisfying, permanent result. When you're thinking of remodeling or building, call us up. You'll find it distinctly worth while.
