GHASTLY MURDER IN CITY

Alex. Templin, 35, Shoots Down Mrs. Mary Goodall, 52, And Then Puts Two Bullets Through His Own Body

Mrs. Mary Goodall aged 52 was deliberately murdered this morning by Alexander Templin aged 35, who apparently was in love with her and wanted her to elope with him.

The Goodall family live on Carleton street and Templin boarded with them. His attentions to Mrs. Goodall had been marked, so marked in fact that last night he was ordered to leave the house.

Goodalls formerly lived in Welland and there is where he first met Mrs. Goodall.

This morning after breakfast Mrs. Goodall went upstairs to the bathroom. Templin who it appears had not come downstairs, met her in the hall and deliberately shot her down putting one bullet in her breast and the other in her head.

The members of the family hearing the shots, rushed upstairs to find the mother gasping out her life. She died in a few seconds.

Templin had locked himself in his room. The police were telephoned for and Constable Howitt, who was at the police headquarters, notified Chief Greene and High Constable Doyle.

The police made a quick run in an auto to the Goodall house at the corner of Carleton and Margery streets.

Breaking open the door of Templin's room they found him lying on the floor with a 32-calibre revolver beside him.

He had one bullet in his breast and one in his head. He was rushed to the hospital, where he is believed to be dying. It is believed the one bullet entered his heart.

Woman Feared Templin.

Thomas Moradin, son-in-law of the murdered woman, says his wife often stated that her mother was afraid of the German. The police found a hastily scribbled note on a crumpled paper, left by Mrs. Goodall, in which she said she felt certain Templin would kill her some day.

She said she had been a good wife to Goodall. Goodall apparently knew of Templin's attentions to his wife.

It developed later today that Templin was ordered to leave the Goodall house last Friday, but he did not go till Monday. Last night he came back to get his clothes, and he said he might as well stay all night. Apparently he waited all night to kill Mrs. Goodall.

Mrs. Goodall looks her age of fifty-two years, and was not what one would say as being good-looking. The bullet in her heart, which probably killed her immediately, pierced three ten dollar bills she had pinned to her chemise.

The police say they have evidence that Templin recently bought the revolver in Buffalo. It is a new weapon with four empty cartridges in it when found.

The Goodall family say when Templin boarded with them in Welland he went to Buffalo every Saturday for some errand, all through the war.

Templin is a fine looking man and he should be enamored of a woman of fifty two is a mystery. He fully admitted the shooting to the police.

He did it because I was jealous of her, he said.

That a big fine looking man of 35 years as Templin is should become acquainted with a woman of 52 years of age, is a mystery which is puzzling everybody connected with the case.

It is believed that Templin after procuring the revolver in Buffalo deliberately set his plans to kill Mrs. Goodall and himself and that is why he came back to the Goodall house last night and made an excuse for staying in the house all night.

It is thought he waited for the unsuspecting woman to come upstairs and when she appeared at the top of the stairway he asked her finally if she would elope with him and when she refused he drew the gun and shot her dead.

One bullet pierced her heart cutting through three ten dollar bills which she had pinned inside her chemise.

The Goodalls own three houses in Welland.

LABOR TEMPLE QUESTION WILL BE TAKEN UP BY T. & L. COUNCIL AT A SPECIAL MEETING

Office of Honorary President is Conferred Upon Frank Greenlaw, M. P. P.— Delegate Questions Wisdom of the Purchase of Facer Street Property For Public School Site.

The first regular meeting of the Trades and Labor Council for the year was productive of some interesting discussion. President Frank Greenlaw, M. P. P., presided over a large attendance and at the outset introduced Alderman elect M. J. Murphy, who in a few breezy remarks thanked all those who supported him on election day.

Several new delegates were seated and some interested visitors were welcomed.

A delegate drew the Council's attention to the fact that the Public School Board had approved a site on Facer Street for a school and had turned down the offer of another site in a more central position which would have saved the city approximately $1500. This he stated had been brought to the attention of at least one member of the Board who claimed the cheaper site was turned down because it is in the foreign section. This, the delegate said, is not true, as there is not a foreigner in the block and after all is said and done the school when built will be used by the children of so called foreigners.

Some discussion took place on this question which was finally handed over to the Municipal Committee.

The need of a Labor Temple for St. Catharines then took up some time but as the subject is such an important one it was decided to hold a special meeting to go into the matter, thoroughly. It was the general opinion that organized labor should take some action regarding this in the very near future.

The nomination of officers then took place, elections to be held on January 19th.

President Greenlaw intimated that much against his will, owing to pressure of parliamentary business he would be unable to accept office. However, he said, any time he was in the city when this Council is meeting if it is at all possible they will find him amongst them, he will never forget the pleasant and profitable time he had spent in this Council.

And here something unique took place. It was unanimously decided as a tribute to President Greenlaw, that a new office of Honorary President be conferred on him; also a committee was named to procure some token of esteem to present him with in remembrance of his years of enthusiastic work on behalf of the Trades Council.

In replying President Greenlaw stated that honors had come on him so fast and so thick that he hardly knew how to express what he felt. In creating a new office for him they had done him the honor that comes the way of very few men and his utmost endeavor will be to show them that he was worthy of the confidence they have placed in him.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 7.—That fifty four per cent. of the apples imported by Great Britain in recent months have come from Canada, is the statement made by J. During the month of November, apple receipts from Canada were about two and a half times as great as during September and October.

800 CASES OF LIQUOR A DAY FOR TORONTO

MONTREAL, Jan. 7.— Each day since New Year's approximately 800 cases of various kinds of liquor have been shipped to Toronto. All of it goes by express companies and none by freight.

This is not to be compared with the total rush for liquor from Toronto just prior to the order in Council of April 1, 1918, but at that time there was only a certain time in which to get liquor into Ontario, while nowadays there is no limit of time.

Only the ten importers or agents authorized by the Quebec prohibition law are allowed to ship into Ontario and only private individuals may be supplied.

Cases of That Nature Have Occurred in Toronto—No Light Yet to Mystery

TORONTO, Jan. 7.— Kidnapping has been discussed as a possibility in the case of Ambrose Small, whose disappearance has created a sensation in Toronto.

Kidnapping is not such a popular method of procuring money as it used to be in the long ago. The linking up of this continent by telegraph, telephone and wireless, the advent of the automobile and the close cooperation of the police and detective forces of Canada and the United States have made kidnapping a very dangerous game. However, in years gone by more than one prominent citizen of Toronto has had narrow escapes from forcible abduction.

SFOKING OF CIGARETTES NOT IMMORAL IN WOMEN

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Smoking of cigarettes by women was judicially decreed as not immoral.

The decision was made by Supreme Court Justice Mullin in a separation suit, in which counsel for the husband tried to show that cigarettes had been found in the wife's dresses drawer, and that this constituted evidence of "bad character."

"It is not immoral for women to smoke cigarettes," declared the judge. "Some of the best women in the country and in the world smoke cigarettes. It wouldn't make any difference if she had a thousand packages of cigarettes there. This isn't Hickville out in the centre of the farm country."

Addresses by Principal Falconer and Dr. Cody, in Which the Needs of the University of Toronto Were Set Forth— Memorial For University Men Who Fell, in the Way of Loans and Scholarships

The first annual dinner of the University of Toronto Association of St. Catharines District held at "The Welland" last night was attended by a large gathering of prominent men and women of this city and district.

Besides the members of the Association a number of invited guests were present, people who are interested in education in a general way.

The President of the Association, W. A. McKinnon, opened the toast list with "the King," and made a few appropriate remarks in introducing the distinguished speakers of the evening, Sir Robert Falconer, Principal of the University of Toronto, and Hon. Dr. H. J. Cody, late Minister of Education in the Hearst Government.

Mr. McKinnon spoke of the representative men and women out side of the University who were present, their presence indicating a healthy interest in University work and aims. The University, he said, aimed at the men and women it sends out into the world, producing something for the good of mankind and the Association which they had formed has set as its task the making useful to the country of the ability the University has developed in the individual.

Sir Robert Falconer's address was devoted to the war memorials proposed for its men who gave their lives for their Empire in the great war, in the way of loans and scholarships for returned men and the dependents of soldiers who fell in battle.

Sir Robert said he felt considerable satisfaction in knowing that many before him were not connected with the University, but were citizens at large who have taken an interest in the University's aims and objects by coming and spending an evening with those who had enjoyed a university education. He looked on this as a good sign as without public appreciation and support the University cannot properly carry on its work. He do not think there is a country which has more people at large interested in its universities than Canada, not even excepting Scotland.

The work of the universities during the war was one of the most splendid evidences of Canadian patriotism and among the finest achievements of the war. In Canada about 20,000 men and women were attending the universities and these responded to the call in a remarkable manner.

In the neighborhood of 17,000 graduates, undergraduates and former students enlisted and went to war. About 1800 fell. Nearly 6000 went from the University of Toronto from the 17,000.

Of these 600 or 700 fell in battle. The University saw very little of families holding boys back.

Much work was also done in the way of hospitals, medically and surgically, by the universities. All the tetanus anti-toxin used by the Canadian army was made in the laboratories of the University of Toronto.

Sir Robert referred to the presence on the University grounds in 1917 of men from U. S. universities drilling side by side with Canadian soldiers under a British instructor, as one of the most wonderful developments of the war and which augurs well for future relations between the two great Anglo Saxon countries.

The aptitude of the returning soldiers in taking up again his educational training, was referred to by the speaker. They have agreeably disappointed the university authorities. There are 1100 of these in the University of Toronto and 400 at least are entirely dependent on their gratuity. These men must be looked after and Sir Robert outlined the plans of the University to help them. Funds will have to be raised by the universities and the public. This fund will be used for scholarships and loans to returned soldiers or their dependents to enable them to finish their educational course and gain their professions. The visible memorial to be erected on the University Grounds has been provided for but funds are asked for the scholarships and loans. Every town is asked to subscribe liberally to this laudable enterprise.

Hon. Dr. Cody spoke in his usual vigorous and enthusiastic manner on the "Duties and Responsibilities of University Trained men." He emphasized the sympathy of all classes in the University's memorial fund. The visible memorial will take the form of a beautiful Gothic tower together with a memorial chapel. He also briefly explained the scholarships and loan plans, and then branched out with a running history of University development in Ontario. He spoke of the financial difficulties and hoped to see the provincial endowment largely increased. He believed the people of Ontario were ready to grant all that is necessary to carry on the work of the state university. If the Alumni Association will bring about the establishment of these loans and scholarship memorials they will have performed a service which will be of lasting influence in this province and country. The universities in order to do the best of service must be served by professors worth of them, and these men must be paid salaries in proportion to their worth. These men are becoming scarcer and scarcer because they are going into other lines where the remuneration is greater.

Men and women turned out by the universities should exercise an influence on the community, said Dr. Cody, taking their places as leaders of thought and fostering in the public mind an interest in and desire for higher education. Never was there a time so critical in the history of the university. More buildings are needed, more money, more interest in its affairs on the part of the public.

Constant and enthusiastic support by the public is needed and this cannot be shown in a better way than by giving money liberally.

Rev. Dr. Miller and Mrs. George Smith moved a vote of thanks to the two speakers and the National Anthem sung by the gathering about midnight closed the exceedingly pleasant and successful evening.

RICH FUTURITIES AT STAKE FOR 1920

Harness Experts Begin Sizing Up Chances of Fast Youngsters Foals of 1917. That Became Three Years Old This Month; Best Performers Expected From 1919 List

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Under the rules of light harness racing, all of the foals of 1917 became three years old on January 1. With the beginning of the new year every follower of colt racing will begin to take stock of the youngsters. Each will select the one which on public form appears to have the best chance of winning the big futurities that will be raced for in 1920.

While it is reasonable to expect that the winners will come from the group which was seen in front in the two year old events in 1919, they have not always proved the leaders, as was shown by Molly Knight this year, Mary Putney in 1915, and The Harvester in 1908. The returns for the past few seasons, however, have been on the side of those which were raced freely in their two year old form. The best evidence of this is the careers of Pedescope, Brusiloff, Nella Dillon, The Real Lady, Miss Bertha Dillon, Harvest Gale, Volga and her brother, Peter Volo, says the Times.

At present it looks as if the 1920 futurities would be another session of Peter the Great against the world in the three year old division the Laurel Hill premier will have Dystar, Natalie the Great, The Great Miss Morris, Evening Gale, and Kilo, while of his sons, Peter Volo will be represented by Voltage and Sunflash; Azoff, by the fleet filly Sister Azoff; Czar Peter, by the Michigan stake winner Alta Coast, and Peter Mozart, by Lady Mozart, that won at Readville in 2:14 1-4.

Natalie the Great carries everything before her in the two year old races in 1919, until Fr. Dudley caught her at Philadelphia and Dudette at Hartford. The Great Miss Morris showed that she had 2:10 speed, but failed to win any of her engagements.

Sickness kept Dystar among the trailers until the September meeting at Columbus. He won there and at Lexington, where he trotted a third heat in 2:10. Kilo was raced on the half mile tracks. In July, while at Northampton, Mass., she worked in 2:15 1-4 outside of another horse. This was a high class performance for a two year old over a half mile track. It was followed by a victory at Mineola, N. Y., in 2:15 3-4, and another at Monroe, N.Y., where she defeated Mr. Dudley and Lauretta Taylor in 2:16 1-4. Voltage was started in a number of events over the western tracks, but made the best showing in the Lexington Stake, where he defeated Harvest Morn, Lucille Harvester, and Sunflash in 2:11 1-4.

Cox Has Some Stars.
Of the Peter the Great group, Cox will have Dystar, Natalie the Great as well as Jane the Great and several others that have not started. It will require considerable speed and clever management to keep them out of the winning column. He will also train the Moko colt, General Knight, which was not started last season except for a time record. Prior to the sickness which put him on the retired list this colt was considered the best in the New Hampshire outfit. He is a strongly made colt with a beautiful way of going.

Kilo is now in Bitman's stable at Trenton, N. J., and will be prepared for a trip over the mile tracks, Voltage's victory at Lexington in 2:11 1-4 places him very close to the two year old king now, and Lady Mozart will not be very far behind him if she stands training. This filly is owned by C. W. Leonard of Boston, who has another string to his bow in Harvest Gale and was considered the best two year old in Murphy's stable until her work was stopped on account of lameness.

Harvester's Representations.
To meet this formidable array of racing material, Eetwah will send Dudette, with which Geers won such a splendid race at Hartford and

Hospital for Sick Children TORONTO

Keep of Big Charity Requires Few Cents a Minute.

Mr. Editor:
The 44th annual report of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, shows a notable advance in every department of its service to the sick and crippled youngsters of the province. The ward accommodation has been taxed to its capacity since the summer annex, the Lady Home, was opened for the first time since the outbreak of war. The daily average of out-patients has increased during the year from 192 to 223, including children from practically every county in Ontario. Even had the cost of fuel and labor remained stationary, a substantial increase in the number of patients would alone account for the addition to the charity's deficit of the close of the fiscal year of $109,000. This debt has become an embarrassing burden. For the year must threaten impairment of the charity's efficiency.
The Hospital is in the forefront of institutions upon this continent devoted to the care of sick children. This great sum not only maintains the service of the Hospital, but also the resources of the province, but, in addition, provides a training school for 120 nurses, an unsurpassed clinical facility for the University students who are preparing to engage in their profession throughout the province.
The income which must be found to finance this absolutely essential work figures out at $1,000,000 a year; and, as there is no endowment fund, all the cost of that amount has to be met from individual benevolence. Therefore the Trustees are making Christmas appeals to every boy and girl to foot the bills for the good of time, no matter how small it may be. A minute of mercy for churches, societies, lodges, who have more ample means with which to assist the young is suggested. A number of memorial coins have been thus issued in honor of the overseas members of fellow-members. This year's appeal is extended in recognition of $2,000 to the Main Home, $500 to the Lakeside Home, and $500 to be paid in annual instalments.
Literature, illustrative of the work of the past year's work, will be gladly furnished upon application to the Secretary, Hospital for Sick Children, Ontario, Toronto. Contributions should be addressed to the Secretary.

ospital for Sick Children TORONTO

Step of Big Charity Requires Fifty Cents a Minute. Mr. Editor: The 44th annual report of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, shows a notable advance in every department of its service to the suffering and crippled youngsters of the province. The ward accommodations have been taxed to their capacity. The summer annex, the Lakeside Home, was opened for the first time since the outbreak of war. The daily average of out patients has increased during the year from 192 to 223, including children from practically every county in Ontario. Even had the cost of supplies and labor remained stationary, a substantial increase in the number of patients would alone account for the addition to the charity's debt, which at the close of the fiscal year was $109,000. This debt has become an embarrassing burden. Further increase must threaten impairment of an enviable efficiency.

The Hospital is in the forefront of institutions upon this continent devoted to the care of sick children. It cost $335,395 to maintain last year. This great sum not only puts the service of the children of Ontario all the resources of medical science, but, in addition, provides for training school for 120 nurses and unsurpassed clinical facilities for the University students who are preparing to engage in their profession throughout the province.

The income which must be forthcoming to finance this absolutely essential work figures out at seven hundred dollars a day; and, as there is no endowment fund, all but a fraction of that amount has to be derived from individual benevolence. Therefore the Trustees are making Christmas appeal to every lover of children to foot the bills for some period of time, no matter how short may be. A minute of mercy costs only cents.

Churches, societies, lodges, who have more ample funds are invited to assist the youngsters in a fair start in life, the naming of which is suggested. A number of special costs have been thus defrayed in honor of the overseas service of fellow-members. This privilege is extended in recognition of the $2,000 to the Main Hospital Home at the Lakeside Home, which will be paid in annual instalments if desired.

Literature, illustrative of all phases of the past year's work, to be sent, will be gladly furnished on application to the Secretary, Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, Toronto. Contributions should be addressed to the secretary.

IRVING E. ROBERTSON, Chairman of Appeal Committee.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"MAYTIME."

There is much genuine sweetness, quaintness and pathos in "Maytime" the popular dramatic and musical novelty the Messrs. Shubert are to present at the Grand Opera House, Monday night, January 12th.

The action begins with the love affair of Otillie Van Zandt and her father's apprentice, Richard Wayne, in the Washington Square home of the Van Zandts in 1840. The young lovers are separated by a stern parent, and the girl married to an unspeakable cad. By an apple tree, planted before their separation, over a jewel case with their pledge of undying love, which they had buried in the ground, grows and casts its shade over the house and its influence over the story for three succeeding generations. "Maytime" reaches its climax in our own busy time when the grandchildren of the original lovers meet and marry. Because of its four acts, or episodes, are laid in such different eras, as 1840, 1855, 1880 and 1919, "Maytime" has been staged in an appealingly picturesque fashion, the chief characteristics of each period being accurately reproduced. The excellent company coming here numbers sixty five persons, including a coterie of pretty young women, possessed of real vocal and terpsichorean talents.

away by highwaymen to a cave up in the Don Valley, and held there for ransom. However, after a night in captivity Mr. Jaffray made his escape, and the kidnapers never got their ransom. Travelers by the C. N.R. can see the cave's location in the steep banks close to the railway.

"Con." Man With Cab.

Another Torontonian, a business man, who died not long since a millionaire, had a very narrow escape in New York about forty years ago at a time when the "confidence man" was at his zenith. The Torontonian with another man from this city was putting through a big deal, and was staying at the old Fifth Avenue Hotel. One morning the two were sitting in the hotel rotunda, having beside them a satchel filled with valuable papers and cash. They were waiting for a certain New York magnate to call for them in a cab and take them across to his offices to consummate the deal and hand over the securities.

Presently, a well dressed, smooth-spoken man approached them, and greeting each by name, intimated that he had been sent by Mr. — to fetch them across to the office and that he had a cab waiting. They followed the supposed agent of the financier to the curb and were just about to enter the cab, wherein sat another man, when a plainclothesman stepped up and stopped the Torontonians. With a slash of the whip the cab was off, both crooks escaping.

The detective told the Torontonian men that the smooth-spoken fellow was a notorious scoundrel, and that he had undoubtedly planned to rob them. The crook had heard about the deal, seen their names in the register and nearly succeeded in his attempt to kidnap them.

Abduction for Blackmail

A certain middle-aged Toronto business man remembers how, when a little boy in the very early eighties he and a little companion playing on the beach near a town on the shore of Lake Ontario, east of Toronto, had a close call. Plans had been made to seize the two children carry them off across the lake and blackmail their parents for a large sum. The yacht lay ready; the deed was to be done that night, when one of the gang suddenly repented, and gave the show away in the afternoon.

Mrs. IRENE KING, 105 West Campbell Street, Iola, Kansas.

In a slum district a Sunday School teacher was speaking to her class about the days and the wisdom of Solomon. "When Sheba's queen came and laid gems and gorgeous apparel before Solomon, what did he say?" she asked, at last. "One small girl, who had evidently had experience in such matters, very promptly replied, "Ow much do yer want for the lot?" "If a woman likes a man a little, it is his own fault if he cannot make her like him a lot." "Married life is a wonderful system of give and take; but until you get married you never know which to give and which to take." "There is no such bore as a really intelligent person being intelligent at the wrong time and in the wrong place."

BURGLAR KISSES GIRL AND AROUSES FAMILY
 CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—"He kept telling me he was a good man and would not hurt me and that I must not scream, but I screamed anyway as loud as I could."
 That's what little Dorothy Larmer, seven years old, told her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Larmer, early yesterday, after she had awakened them. The child said she had awakened suddenly in the night to find a man bending over her bed, fondling her and kissing her and urging her to be quiet.
 Larmer investigated. He found the man had entered and left by a kitchen window. Larmer's trousers pockets had been rifled and a watch and $10 taken out of them.
 "He did not come near the rooms in which Mrs. Larmer and I were sleeping," said Larmer. "My trousers were hanging over a chair in the parlor. The little girl's cries awakened us."

Find Giant Still in Mow Near Grimsby
 GRIMSBY, Jan. 7.—What is claimed by Inland Revenue Inspector Bandy to be the biggest illicit still ever seized in Ontario was taken here yesterday, when the Inspector, accompanied by Inspector Sturdy of Hamilton, Chief Clerk of Dundas, and Chief Konkle of Grimsby, visited the farm of Charles J. Crooks, three miles east of here, in the township of Clinton, and found buried in the haymow of his barn an enormous distilling outfit, all complete and ready to be set up and started to work.
 The still has a capacity of turning out close to ninety gallons of moonshine every twenty four hours, Crooks for years has been a manufacturer of apple cider, apple butter and other fruit products, and has on his place a large steam power boiler for running this apparatus.
 The Inspectors believe the still was also to be connected up to the boiler. The farm where the outfit was found would be an ideal one for such a purpose, as it sits on a plateau right under the brow of the mountain; cannot be seen from the top, and is faced on two sides by mountain walls. The nearest neighbors on the other side are half a mile away.
 Crooks was brought to Grimsby and appeared before Justices of the Peace Livingston and Anderson, and pleaded guilty to the charge of having the still on his property, but claimed that it was owned by a man named Rodney, who resides in Hamilton. Crooks has been a resident of the section all his life, and has always borne a good reputation. As he is at present in somewhat straitened circumstances, the Justices looked somewhat leniently on his case, and let him off with a three hundred dollar fine. Four one gallon cans filled with fluid that smelled like whiskey and tasted like most anything from carbolic acid to champagne were also found on the property. This is the second still that has been located by the revenue officers in this locality in the last four months.

BOATS LEAVING FRANCE LIGHT BECAUSE OF BAN OF U. S. AGAINST WINE
 MARSEILLES, Jan. 6.—Twenty one American freighters have been forced to leave Marseilles the last month without cargoes owing to prohibition in the United States, which makes the principal export of France contraband in America, and to the low exchange, which makes it impossible for boats paying American money to handle French cargoes to ports outside of the United States.
 There are seven boats flying the American flag in port here, waiting for cargoes, but indications are that they will have to depart light.
 Captains of these boats state that unless the United States government establishes transportation agencies in the leading ports throughout the world, the United States merchant marine will be unable to compete with Great Britain and other countries, which, they declare, owing to influential local representatives, are able to pick off the cream of the shipping business and leave what is undesirable for the United States boats.

Giertyck sustained two black eyes, his nose was bent and otherwise damaged, some of his teeth were loosened, and one jaw and his neck were swollen.

The Ontario Hydro disputes the claim, and is willing to pay only $172,000 for power supplied.
