CHAPTER XIII.
MAY'S UNHAPPY FLIGHT.

"True as Gospel, every word on't! She's got a baby, and I'll bring it along at any time, if you'll take it. The thing is such a nuisance I want to get rid on't. Then perhaps Goldie and I shall get married."

"You may wait here a while, and I will think about it."

"Give me something to eat, then. I'm hungry as a missionary," cried Tim.

A bountiful repast was carried in for Tim, who ate with a relish until the last morsel before him had disappeared.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Whitney again entered the room where she had left Tim.

He was still there owing to the fact that Mrs. Whitney had taken the precaution to lock the door, after having seen a substantial dinner set before her guest.

She had thought deeply and rapidly and finally decided in reference to Goldie's child.

After locking the door where she proposed to enter into a compact with Tim in reference to the child, she seated herself close beside him and in a low tone said:

"If I consent to take this child, you must first swear eternal secrecy in regard to it. Are you prepared to do it? Let me tell you what I mean. You must first promise that you will never reveal to any living being what was done with the child—not even to its mother."

"I will swear to that."

"Then, repeat after me whatever I tell you."

"Go on—I'm good for it!" shouted Tim.

"Speak low," cautioned Mrs. Whitney. "Now we will commence. You repeat the words."

"Now we will commence. You repeat the words," echoed Tim.

Mrs. Belle Whitney muttered "Fool" under her breath. Tim's quick ear caught the sound, and he repeated "Fool" aloud enough to be heard all over the house.

Seeing how utterly useless it was to make him understand anything else, Mrs. Whitney continued:

"I solemnly swear that I will never reveal to any living person where I take the child of Goldie Mellen."

Tim paused a moment, and then repeated every word correctly.

Mrs. Whitney continued:

Now I want you to take the child when its mother is asleep, put a warm blanket in a basket, and lay the babe, well covered, upon the blanket, pin this folded paper upon the child's clothing, then bring it in, in the night, and leave it upon the front doorstep. You may bring it to-morrow night."

"All right, I'll be here," said Tim. "And be careful that no one suspects that you are engaged in the work."

"I'll be careful," he replied.

"You had better go now, Tim. They will need you at home. And by the way, after you have left the child here you must never come again. Folks would suspect you if you did."

The cruel woman took from her purse a handful of silver and a bank-note, which she gave Tim for his services in bringing Goldie's child to her, and which he received with eager delight. And then she followed him to the side door, where his horse was waiting, by her orders.

She waited upon the piazza until the simple fellow had disappeared from view, then turned and entered the house.

In her own room she reviewed her action, and her thin lips were firmly drawn as she muttered between them: "Frank Whitney shall receive his punishment through his child. The time will come when he will visit his uncle and his brothers here. Then my revenge will be my joy. Goldie, too, shall suffer through that child. They shall both learn that it is no easy thing to trample upon a heart like mine!"

Life Was A Living Death For This Man

Doctors from all over Ontario failed to cure him—he would not be without Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills now.

Lock Box 52, Penoka, Alta. The Bovel Manufacturing Company Montreal, Que.

Dear Sirs:—

"I was a sufferer for years with this impoverished blood, being bothered with faint and dizzy spells, palpitation of the heart, loss of ambition, and being a great sufferer from headaches.

I have doctored with Doctors from nearly all over Ontario with but very little effect. Last winter I was stricken with Typhoid Fever. I was in the hospital for ten weeks. When I came out I was nothing but a skeleton. I was advised to go to the Great North-West, the Doctors said it would be the makings of me. So I came.

After being here about six months not being able to do but very little work I became discouraged and felt almost like giving up when my son saw the advertisement of Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills.

We read the circulars which came with the Pills and my wife advised me to try them. I have taken three boxes and an now taking the fourth. They have done me the world of good, and I can't praise them too highly. Those dizzy spells have gone and the palpitation of the heart stopped, also the headaches have disappeared, and I am able to follow my daily occupation.

My son is writing you for some more of your Dr. Bovel's Iron Tonic Pills, as I cannot be without them now."

Yours truly, W. H. SMITH.

Iron Tonic Pills are perfectly prepared from the very purest ingredients the market affords. They are recommended for all rundown conditions of the system, when the vital forces have become weakened, the nervous system played out and the blood thin and of poor quality.

Dr. Bovel's Home Remedies are sold by all dealers. Ask for them. If not obtainable through your dealer within a reasonable time, send 25c (in stamps) to us for any article you require. Bovel Mfg. Co., St. John's, Nfld.

wherever she was. So he allowed her to have her own way about everything, and it followed that the child was called Ernest, and kept at Laurel Glade. It was however, adopted in proper form by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Whitney.

CHAPTER XV.
Again a Homeless Wanderer.

When Goldie awoke the morning after May's last visit to the garret, it was with the feeling of having overslept herself and neglected her child, to which she had become devotedly attached. She wondered why May had not been there as usual, and then reached her hand over to where the infant boy usually slept.

"How sweetly the darling sleeps," she murmured.

Falling to find the child, she partly raised herself upon her humble bed and an expression of alarm swept over her features as she saw that her child was not there.

"Oh, my poor little baby, what has become of you?" she cried. "Oh, I may have only come last night; somebody must have stolen my child, and who, who would want the little waif?" she moaned.

Hastily dressing herself, she set down and tried to collect her thoughts.

"What could it mean? May had not been to the old house since the previous morning, and now her child was missing.

"Perhaps they have taken the little innocent and mean to discard me," she said.

As she passed an old clock frame, she moved it. A slight jingling sound attracted her attention. She repeated the movement, but failed to produce the sound.

"What could it mean?" she murmured.

"What do you make of that?" asked Grant.

"Nothing at all. But we will keep it," she replied.

"Keep it? Surely, Belle, you do not mean to keep the child!" he exclaimed.

"Unless I alter my mind, I shall do so," was the calm reply.

Although Grant Whitney had been married but a short time, he had learned that his beautiful wife was decidedly the stronger minded, and had also learned that she would rule

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

This truth is sound as virgin ore, so salt it down as such: The man who talks forevermore is bound to talk too much. The silent man has many friends, who think him smooth as grease, and if in sea-talking you unbends, and starts to speak a piece, they listen to you much as they would to a sage, and say: "He is a looloo-bird, the wonder of this age!" The talksmith has no friends at all; folks hate to see him come; they say to him: "Go hire a hall-address the deaf and dumb!" I know a hundred idle men who once were drawing pay; they limbered up their jaws and then talked their jobs away. I've known some dames, in other days, who talked their husbands blind, until they sought more pleasant ways and jumped the beastly grind. I know a churchyard where the stones that dot the windswept heath are piled above the crumbling bones of fellows talked to death. If all the time we waste in talk were used in ice, no homeless men the streets would walk—all men would have the price!

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"She was far too good and honorable a woman to care a particle about truthfulness as a means to an easy conscience; she did not mind how much she suffered if it was necessary to the happiness of others that it should be so."

De Morgan.

"I know nothing on earth would please her so much as to have me sign this letter 'With love,' and I really wanted to, but it wouldn't have been true, so I didn't."

The speaker folded her letter with an air of conscious rectitude. She is a young school marm. She was writing to one of her little pupils who is devoted to her. The little girl was seriously ill with a disease that threatened to blind her for life.

I wonder if the Recording Angel put down a very big and shining white mark for that display of rectitude.

Do you think he did?

The little married lady who has been wearing her trousseau for three years acquired a new gown the other day. She has been saving for and planning and thinking about this gown for months. And when it came, it was a MESS—no other word could possibly describe it. For some unknown reason the dressmaker had selected that particular gown of which to make the worst both of the season. Furthermore, the features which made the gown impossible were things which could not be altered.

Can you imagine anyone who would care so much about exact truthfulness "as a means to an easy conscience" as to tell the little married lady who has been wearing her trousseau for three years that her first new gown was totally impossible?

So you won't misuse any doctrine that way, will you?
Ruth Cameron

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as strictly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

Fads and Fashions.

All kinds of laces appear in different parts of new dresses, and there is a tendency toward the biggest lace vogue known for some time.

Fringe will be seen on nearly all of the new costumes for afternoon and evening wear, on house gowns, negligee, parasols and even on hats.

The early fall tendency in tailored suits is strongly toward suits having trimming on the collars, cuffs and revers and occasionally on the skirts.

Buttons are very prominent. Evening dresses show button trimming or the simulated buttons made of rhinestone.

Be Warned by Headache

It tells of Serious Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys—Try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

You can stop a headache with powerful drugs. But it is not generally wise to do so. A headache almost always warns you of derangements of the digestive system, the liver, kidneys or bowels.

Awaken the liver to healthful action by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you not only free yourself of headache, but remove the cause which will soon lead to more dangerous results than headache.

Pain is the result of poison in the system and whether you have headache, backache or aching limbs you can be almost sure of relief and cure by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

They are wonderfully prompt, as well as definite and thorough in action. You can depend upon them, no matter how long-standing or complicated your case. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box; all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Makes Stomach Trouble Vanish.

No Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia in five minutes.

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and indigestion? A distended stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and Dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and, besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now, you can get relief in five minutes.

Sometimes the sleeve is set in several inches below the shoulder line, but in every case it is made sufficiently large for the garment to be easily slipped on or off.

One of the new millinery shapes is called the gable, because it is shaped just like a gable house. Its two sides slant down sharply from the top of the head to below the ears, and the trimming is usually a daring and defiant bow perched on one side.

Ermine, seal, musquash, baton martin, blue fox, shunk, black lynx and white lynx, Australian opossum and yellow fox are all exploited in the new stoles, peleries and muffs. Some of the long stoles are particularly graceful, being fashioned on the fuchspelierine effect.

Some of the new fall waists show the eizemone effect. This is acquired by the use of embroidery edging below the shortened waist line, narrow laces being employed to finish off the bottom edge of the embroidery in some of the models.

The vogue for fringe on outer garments has tended to stimulate interest in fringe trimming for petticoats. While this form of finishing was attempted last season, it was not featured to any extent, but there is now a large showing of ruffles edged with fringe.

Trimings are lavishly used on all except the most practical and serviceable of street frocks. Narrow and wide bands of fur, lace veiled with chiffon or net, silk embroideries, gold and silver galloons and laces, founcces and bandings of both black and white chintilly are all modish.

The woman who has pumps and who does not wish to get high shoes until late in the fall can now use her cloth gutters and be very much in style. White ones are quite the fashion and their rivals are pearl gray. These are worn with the black shoes with all kinds of gowns that are short and for the street.

Daughters of Empire

At the British Hall on Saturday last the annual meeting of the Daughters of the Empire took place with Mrs. W. C. Job presiding. Mrs. L. Miller, who is in charge of the Hospital at Blackmarsh Road, reported that six patients had been treated there and they all had gained in weight and improved in health. Nurse Campbell reported that the work at the camp had progressed well so far but that next year another would be needed to store and disinfect clothing and linen. There will be erected also some shacks. The Government will furnish the Hospital with a large quantity of blankets. The camp was now closed for the season and the patients had been removed to their homes where Dr. Macpherson was attending them. Dr. Rendell addressed the meeting and spoke of the benefits received by the patients at the Hospital. He hoped that the building would be opened at an early date as possible next year. Votes of thanks were passed to the city doctors for visiting the Hospital the past summer, and to Nurse Campbell, who gave her services free of charge, and to Mrs. Miller, who had done such valuable service. A vote of thanks was passed also to Mr. W. D. Reid for a donation of $400, and to Messrs. R. G. Reid and H. D. Reid, and Miss Nellie Reid, for $100 each for the upkeep of the camp. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Lady Horwood; Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. C. Job; Asst. V.P., Mrs. Geo. H. Emerson; Secretary, Mrs. Macpherson; Treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Cuff; Standard Bearer, Miss Goodridge. The Secretary made known to the meeting that Princess Louise had consented to act as President of the Imperial Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire in London. Several improvements were outlined for next year, including the enlargement of the verandah and the Few Deer Passing.

Very few sportsmen are now up the country after deer, and as a matter of fact little or no caribou are coming south. By Saturday's express people who arrived say no deer have yet crossed at Quarry, Hynes Plain or Howley, and when the train was going west a few were seen swimming across George's Lake. The cause of this is that the fine weather is keeping the animals later than usual grazing on the northern grounds.

AT GEORGE STREET CHURCH.—"In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth". Acts 3 part of 6th verse. The Rev. J. W. Bartlett preached to a very large congregation at George St. Church last evening from the above text, his subject being the "Gospel of a Living Wage." The preacher claimed for the artisan fair remuneration for his labor, the right to organize, decent habitations, and a fair show in all matters pertaining to their daily toil.

For Deaf Children.

Mr. Faron, Principal of the School for the Deaf at Halifax, would be grateful to any persons who would let him know the names and addresses of the parents of any deaf children who may reside in their neighborhood. There are throughout the Maritime Provinces many children, not totally deaf, but yet so hard of hearing that they cannot take due advantage of the instruction offered in the ordinary hearing school. Such children should be sent to the school in Halifax where their speech as well as their hearing would receive the most careful attention and be improved. This school offers free board and education to all deaf children in the Maritime Provinces, the parents being only called upon to provide clothing and pay the travelling expenses.—Com.

How He Was Killed.

The remains of the late Robert Finch arrived here by the express on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Finch, mother of the deceased young man, his sister, Mrs. Moulton, and another brother came with the body to the city. Robert, who was a fine athletic young fellow, was employed by the Railway Co. at Point St. Charles, Montreal, and was engaged shunting cars when the accident which cost him his life occurred. He was at the rear end of a car which he had ordered out on the main track and which when being pushed forward rebounded and caught him between it and another car. The poor fellow was terribly crushed about the chest, had a leg and arm completely severed from the body, yet despite these terrible injuries he lived 24 hours. The remains were enclosed in a handsome casket accompanying which were numerous wreaths of floral offerings. The funeral took place at 2:30 p.m. yesterday, Undertaker N. J. Murphy having charge of the arrangements. A large number of citizens of the West End attended. Many floral offerings were tendered by private citizens and clubs of which Mr. Finch was formerly a member. Interment was at Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

TOO STRENUOUS.—In the C. L. B. band yesterday during the parade, Private Lush, who beats the bass drum, did full justice to that necessary adjunct to the musical corps. Going up King's Road, however, he wielded the sticks so strenuously that he beat one of them into the drum, the sound of which was much missed, while the band was playing in going towards the Armoury.

MILNARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIS-TEMPER

Bull Took Charge.

While the s.s. Bonavista was coming down the shore shortly after 12 Saturday night, when the ship took a sudden roll a large bull, which was one of the four-legged passengers on board, got clear of its fastenings and for fully half an hour had charge of the deck. It jumped up on the main hatch, cavorted about the space which the sailors had to pass and repass, and whenever it caught sight of a seaman, made for him with head lowered. Seven of the crew tried to capture the animal, and some narrowly escaped being gored to death. The bull tossed one man onto the roof of the pens which covered the rest of the cattle and he narrowly escaped being pitched overboard. Taurus had matters all his own way until he found himself between two winches, when the sailors lassoed him and after a fierce struggle trussed him up and eventually secured him. He was by far the largest animal on the vessel and an ugly customer to deal with.

Hit With Stone.

At 10:30 Saturday night a boy named Piercey, who is a messenger with Mr. S. E. Garland, was proceeding over Cathedral Hill, he was hit in the eye with a stone hurled by another boy, whose name he says is Hayes. The boy's screams could be heard a long distance and people who hastened to his aid found his eye closed up. The wonder is that he did not completely lose the optic. The lad was advised to summon the boy who threw the stone.

Found Cheque for 1,000 Dollars.

Saturday night as Mr. Thomas Woods, driver, was passing down Water Street he saw a piece of paper on the street, and stooping picked up a cheque drawn on the Royal Bank of Canada for $1,000. The cheque, however, was made payable to the order of the person in whose favor it was drawn, but was not endorsed. However, the party who lost it must have experienced an uneasy half hour.

Bonavista Here.

The s.s. Bonavista, Capt. Fraser, arrived here at 2:30 a.m. yesterday from Montreal and Gulf ports. She left Montreal Thursday morning week and had splendid weather to Summerside, where she arrived on Sunday week past, and also to the Sydneys. She brought a two-thirds cargo, including 72 head of cattle and 150 sheep. Her passengers were Mr. Davis, Mrs. Galishaw and 4 steerage.

Is Doing Well.

Though the injuries he received at Grand Falls recently were of a terrible character, one arm having been torn from the socket, the young man Allan is doing as well as can be expected, and the doctors now believe they will save his life. He is in hospital at the Falls and will be here for several months, to come.

Attempted to Break Into House.

Saturday night last somebody tried to force an entrance into a house on Pennywell Road. He was frightened off the premises before he had time to make a haul. The owner of the house is now prepared to receive him. The place is very dark and there should be a light placed there.

Carthaginian Here.

The Allan Liner Carthaginian arrived here at 1 p.m. yesterday from Philadelphia and Halifax. She had fine weather on the run from the former port and made a good voyage. Saturday night, however, was the exception, when dense fog was experienced. She brought 230 tons of cargo, 3 bags of mail and as passengers: Miss Mahoney and E. Brien. She sails for Glasgow this evening.

Death of Inventor of French Heels.

New York, Oct. 7.—Robert Ewing Smiley, known as the inventor of French heels for women's shoes, is dead at the age of one hundred years. Mr. Smiley was born in St. Sylvestre, Que., Canada, on July 12, 1811 of Scotch extraction. He came to the United States when he was twenty-one. He learned the shoe business in Quebec and continued it in Boston. Women's shoes being without heels, he conceived the idea of nailing a heel to the shoe. The innovation proved popular and revolutionized the making of shoes. He was one of the pioneer shoe merchants of Manhattan, and following his retirement from business, twenty-six years ago, took up his home in Ozone Park, Long Island.

GOWER ST. CHURCH.—Rev. Dr. Rogers preached again very acceptably at Gower Street Church last night to a very large congregation. Mrs. Wakefield sang "Pennyroyn's 'Crossing the Bar'" with great feeling at the conclusion.

Sneak Thieves.

Last week a policeman from the town. On board of every craft went down; He boarded every "berry boat" With a circular on which they wrote— Sneak thieves.

His cheeks were pale, his waist was slim. The wage he gets it troubles him; It falls to make him smart or strong; But still this was part of his song— Sneak thieves.

He warned each skipper, stout and bold. To watch and guard their hard-earned gold. To keep an envious eye each day. For, said he, perhaps they'll drop your way— Sneak thieves.

The sturdy men from Notre Dame, They smiled and said we know the game; He told the Western men, so stout, The warning rang from mouth to mouth— Sneak thieves.

Next day a sailor cut a shine. On board the craft A. B. Morine. The crew they grabbed him unawares. The policeman's words rang in their ears— Sneak thieves.

They split his coat tails fore and aft. They fired him from on board the craft. His face they painted black and red. Now in his sleep he shouts, 'tis said— Sneak thieves.

Solway Returns.

The s.s. Solway returned from Labrador at 1:30 this morning. Capt. Parsons left here on the 6th October and went north to Davis' Inlet, having had beautiful weather the whole trip north. Returning the weather was summer like, except during one day. The ship brought up a load of whale oil from Hawke's Harbor which is being discharged at Shea & Co's wharf. The Solway called at Harbor Grace, Carbonara and Brigus and landed the crews of Jerrett, McKee and Hiscock. A very enjoyable concert was had on the way south Saturday evening while crossing Bonavista Bay, under the leadership of Mr. Jerrett. The programme, which included many of the old favorite songs, was successfully carried out. The passengers voted the trip as one of the most pleasant they ever made and all highly appreciated the many kind acts done by Mr. Grills, the chief steward, and his assistants to render the trip enjoyable.

At last a remedy has been discovered that will stop a cough, cure a cold, relieve asthma in a few seconds it is called "108 Nox a Cold." Just try it. 25c. a bottle. Sold by McMurdo & Co.

Church Lads' Brigade.

Yesterday at 9.30 the C. L. B. mustered in full force and paraded to Divine Service at St. Michael's Church, where the Chaplain, Rev. J. Brinton, officiated and also preached a very eloquent sermon on the Holy Communion. The battalion, which was headed by its fine band under Capt. Snow, presented a very pleasing appearance and hundreds of citizens reviewed the companies as they paraded through the streets. The commanding officers were Lt.-Col. Rendell and Capt. Adjt. Goodridge, and the line of march was across LeMarchant Road to Church, down Casey Street to Water Street, up McBride's Hill, down Duckworth Street to King's Road and by way of Military Road back to the Armoury.

Understated the Area.

We find that we understated the total area of land which it was proposed that Councillor Martin should give up under the Casey Street Widening scheme. He was to give up two parcels of land 200 square feet for the new street, and 195 square feet to be transferred to Mr. Cooney. He was to give up therefore 395 square feet altogether, and of course his house property. In return he was to get 195 square feet from Cooney and a monetary consideration.

FANCY FAIR.—Rev. Fr. Curran's people will have a Fancy Fair and Concert at Pouch Cove on the 23rd and 24th of November. The first day will be given exclusively to the Fair, and on the second evening there will be a dramatic entertainment and concert. Messrs. L. C. Murphy and J. O'Grady will give the one-act play—"Those Who Wait," after which there will be a concert.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES COLD, BRUFF.

Sidewalk Sketches.

By H. L. RANN.

THE GAS METER.

The gas meter is a neat household utensil which descends in a straight line from the main gas pipe and the Forty Thieves. Careful research has demonstrated the fact that the inventor of this device was a charter member of a church which was so crooked that it had to employ a one-armed elder to pass the collection box. The only man who can lay a gas meter on its back and take its pulse without offering up a fervent prayer for forgiveness is a sin-hardened employe of a soulless corporation whose favorite hymn is "A Charge to Keep I Have." A meter which is hilted broke and sharp shod can spring a leak in a bulging bank account faster than father can dam it with profanity and wheat margins. We don't know of anything that will corrupt the morals of a law-abiding citizen quicker than a gas meter which takes the bits in its teeth and runs faster than a sheared shepherd dog who sits down with careless grace on a male bumble bee. A meter which has been wound up by an embittered plumber with a chatte mortgage on his bedroom furniture can gouge more coin out of a hopeful breadwinner than he can earn by trying to back up the cash register. The man who takes the word of a gas meter which has been installed without the presence of a notary public is credulous enough to believe that Joshua held the patent rights of an emergency brake on the solar system. After a sportive husband has gone up against the returns from a meter which trips itself faster than a stoungirl on roller skates, he will look a set of loaded dice in the eye with calm and trustful mien. The only way to beat this device is to join the board of directors.

Banker Huron Here.

The banker Huron, Capt. W. Martin, Jr., arrived here from New Orleans yesterday. She fished at Whit Bears on the Labrador for five weeks where she secured the good fare of 600 qts., and has to date over 1,800 qts. for 9 dories. She found fish very plentiful while down the coast, but the weather during the latter part of the stay was cold and stormy. Capt. Martin is sick and his son took charge of the vessel while on the trip. The crew will make good wages. The vessel is at Bowring's wharf, has her Labrador catch on board and 400 qts. belonging to Mr. Blundon. She will lay up here until next summer.

Wedding Bells.

FAOUR-DANIEL. A pretty wedding took place at the Deanery, St. Patrick's, last night when Mr. Simon Faour, who keeps a store on Water Street West, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Amelia Daniel. Both are natives of Syria. Mr. Faour being very popular in St. John's where he has resided for several years past. Rev. J. McDermott officiated, and the bride who was attired in a handsome costume of silk was assisted by Mrs. C. Sapp, while the groom was attended by Kalem Noah, Esq. When the nuptial knot had been tied the newly wedded pair and a number of friends drove to their future residence, Water Street, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served, a very pleasant time spent and the health of the bride and groom heartily honored. Both received many valuable presents. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Faour many happy years in the matrimonial state.

Who Wants to Be a Prince.

Soft Jobs Offered by Willy Advertisers. The bogus advertiser—the man who fleeces the public by specious advertisements, offering hundreds a year for little work and no qualifications—has long been with us. Periodically his tricks are exposed in the Law Courts, but he usually reappears in some new guise and with a more ingenious scheme for gulling the public and emptying their pockets. One of his latest dodges is to advertise in Continental papers offering a princely title—of course, to a man of means. The following advertisement, for instance, has appeared at intervals in German papers for the last two or three years:—"Princely family is desirous of adopting a young man, not more than thirty-eight years of age, on whom the title of Prince will be conferred. Replies to be addressed, but only by very wealthy applicants, personally to the office of this paper."

Princess Looking for a Husband.

Evidently the game of catching the wealthy parvenu with this bait is a very profitable business. Judging by the fact that the advertisements also frequently appear in American Journals. Sometimes there is a variation, and the advertisement runs as follows:—"Princess, young, beautiful, fond of gay life, is driven to look for a husband by this means owing to the solitude of her life in the country. Only very rich candidates need apply."

Another Trick.

Frequently one sees offers made by ladies and gentlemen of position to introduce young men and women into the best society. The majority of these offers are doubtless quite genuine, but a case came to light about six months ago which shows the danger of such lures. In a certain paper an advertisement appeared offering to take in, as paying guest at a nice country house, a young man of means who wished to get into good society. A young Frenchman replied to the advertisement, and although the terms seemed exorbitant he willingly paid them, as the advertiser seemed in such a good social position. After a while, however, the latter began to borrow money and win large sums from his proteges at cards, and at the end of six months decamped, having fleeced the young fellow of between four and five thousand pounds.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS.—Mrs. Pitt, of the Goujds, who has a bad case of eczema, and Mrs. Franzelle, of the same place, were both taken to the Hospital Saturday last. The latter is suffering from a chill in the legs.

Schooner Towed In.

Yesterday morning the schooner Jessie M. Capt. Kirby, of Burin, was towed into port from Griquet by the tug Inghram and dropped in the stream off Bennett's wharf. It will be remembered that the schooner was caught in the big storm of a couple of weeks ago while coming from the Labrador fishing grounds, had both the foremast and mainmast carried away below the cross trees and received a deal of other damage. The sails and rigging were cut away and under improvised sails she was worked up to Griquet. The Jessie M. has on board about 500 qts. of codfish which will likely be put on board another schooner and sent to Burin while she is undergoing repairs here.

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 12.—Edwin H. Risley, a prominent lawyer of this city forty years, was today found guilty of having taken a document in the office of the county clerk, which he had been filed, and inserting words in the context.

The words materially changed the meaning of the document, which was an important paper in a suit against the French Manufacturing Company New York. Risley was the attorney for a client who claimed that the company was infringing upon a patent held by him.
