THE WATCH FACTORY AT WALTHAM, MASS.

Every six minutes in the working day a finished watch movement is the average production of the above Factory. Yet, at this enormous rate of manufacture, the Company can and barely supply the demand. They have already produced almost HALF A MILLION OF WATCHES, most of which are now in the pockets of the people, testifying to their superior merits as timekeepers. They are now almost exclusively used.

ALL THE LEADING RAILWAYS.

SHIP CAPTAINS

and other officers, who are frequently absent on long voyages, prefer THE AMERICAN WATCH to any other, as they are not perceptibly affected by change of climate, and do not require frequent regulating. The story of the twenty-five dollar "Elery" watch that was carried five years by a soldier in the Army of the Potomac, and that varied ONE MINUTE AND A HALF IN THAT TIME, WITHOUT CARE OR CLEANING, could hardly be told of any other watch of the price that ever was made.

TO LUMBERMEN

These watches are of great value, not being liable to stop or get out of repair during their months of absence in the woods. They are admirably as the movements are not only reliable, but the cases in gold are rich and handsome and of guaranteed fineness. Thousands of these watches are now worn in Canada—every day they are becoming more popular. Very soon they will be the only watches sold in any quantity in the Dominion. Buyers should always require the guarantee of the Company with each watch, to avoid being imposed upon by spurious Swiss imitations. These watches may be ordered through any Jeweller in the Dominion in gold or silver cases, for ladies or gentlemen; or in districts where there are no watchmakers, we supply them to general merchants by the dozen. To the wearer they are the cheapest watches in the world!

ADAPTED FOR PRESENTATION,

There were but few cattle at the last Elora fair, but there was a marked improvement in the quality.

DR. HOWITT'S LECTURE. — In consequence of the Town Hall being engaged for Friday night, Dr. Howitt's introductory lecture on chemistry will be given on Tuesday night, the 15th inst., not on Friday as first announced.

Dr. Middleton's horse ran away in Elora on Tuesday last, and threw him out of the cutter injuring his shoulder. A young man named Fitzmaurice, of Puslinch, caught the beast and attempted to stop it, but it threw him down with violence, the cutter passing over him, so that when he was taken up he was insensible.

CHOP.—The following simple remedy for this often fatal disease, which we clip from an exchange, can be very easily tested, without any injurious results should it not effect a cure, and without interfering with any internal remedy that might be employed. The remedy which is said to be successful even when the patient is on the verge of suffocation, consists first "in applying water to the throat by means of a sponge or soft cloth so hot as to be very painful to the hand of the operator, instant relief being usually afforded. After this has been continued for from fifteen to twenty minutes, a poultice of linseed meal, rolled up in a cloth, is to be applied while very hot, and left on for some time." The remedies are to be repeated should the attack return; but the writer says that after a long experience he has never known them to fail.

LIKENESSES.—Mr. Burgess having by building made such alterations in his photograph gallery as to secure all the advantages a proper light can afford is now in a position to take pictures as true as the sun can imprint them. His rooms are exceedingly commodious and well adjusted for the business carried on in them, and the operator with his present improvements is prepared to give satisfaction to all who may desire large sized pictures. During the holidays he will offer special inducements to those who wish to secure a permanent reflection of their faces and forms, by a considerable reduction in his prices, so that when he combines in likenesses the two qualities of goodness and cheapness he may leave those who have them not without excuse. Ambrotypes or photographs, which will you have, ladies and gentlemen?—Mr. Burgess has made ample preparation to accommodate you.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.—The Observer says:—Mr. Quinlan of Salem accompanied by his son, a youth of eleven years, went on Wednesday evening with a lantern to find some of his geese, which were on the Irvine, just below the brewery. Not succeeding in their search the youth mounted the rocks to level ground, and as his father was making his way up the steep and winding bank, he heard the boy call out he was falling, and immediately after his heels struck his father's forehead, after having made three somersaults in his fall. Mr. Q. hearing the cry looked up, and was just prepared to save himself and child from what would probably have been a very serious fall, with many bruises, if not broken bones or death itself. Nothing but great presence of mind, and muscular power saved them, as the force of the son's fall would otherwise have taken the father with him, a distance of thirty feet.

SUICIDE.—On Saturday the Globe had the particulars of a case of suicide in the Shakespeare Tavern of that city, the victim of self destruction having given his name as Johnson. A phial containing some strychnine crystals had been found on the wash stand in his room, and a person resembling deceased had purchased some of this poison, under pretence of killing foxes, at a drug store, the previous day. At the hotel he said he resided about sixteen miles from Guelph, and in the drug store he said his name was Dyer and that he lived in the township of King; but there is reason to believe that his name is Arthur Oliver, pretty well known in Guelph and neighborhood. The description given of him answers correctly to that of the person named, and one of the receipts found on him confirms the supposition. Arthur Oliver purchased from Messrs. Davidson & Chadwick, land agents, a park lot on the York Road, and had given them as collateral security two promissory notes on a gentleman well known in town. They gave him a receipt for the notes, and this is most likely the document which has been found. We believe he was at one time well to do, but his declining years have been somewhat embittered by family troubles. As enquiry was being made about him this morning it is probable the body will be claimed by some of his friends.

Wellington County Council.

SATURDAY, Dec. 6th.

The Council met at 9 a.m., this morning, thirty members present. The Warden in the chair.

The Warden read a communication from Wm. Reynolds, offering as his sureties Messrs. John Hoag and John Horsman, Guelph, Wm. Reynolds, Pilkington, and James Reynolds, Nichol. Referred to Special Committee.

Mr. Mitchell presented the report of the County Property Committee, which recommended the payment of certain accounts, and the repair of certain cells in the goal which had been damaged by prisoners in an attempt to escape. Report adopted.

Mr. Melvin suggested the propriety of appointing a night watch on the goal, as a means of avoiding the continual expenses of repairs, and at the same time he condemned the present system of goal inspection and the published reports which made criminals aware of the weak points in prisons.

Mr. Mair again brought up his motion relative to the County opening an account with the Royal Canadian Bank, at Fergus, having amended it by adding that the account be opened on the 15th Jan. next. He said that the Bank would give all the accommodation required by the County at seven per cent. A lengthy discussion ensued, and the motion was finally carried on the following division: Yeas—Messrs. Boyd, Broadfoot, Connell, Cross, Dobbin, Gillespie, Gordon, Hunter, Johnston, J. Mair, Maxwell, McInnes, McManus, Saunders and Sutherland—16. Nays—Cassin, Cornock, Duffield, Massey, Melvin, Mitchell, McMillan, Pasmore, Rae, Stephenson, Sturton, Swan, and Whitelaw—14.

Mr. Sturton presented the third report of the Finance Committee. It recommended the payment of the Solicitor's account of $89.50, and suggested that he should be paid by salary in future, also the payment of the first part of the account of G. H. Todd, the remainder being provided for by by-law. The attention of the Committee had been drawn to the difficulty arising from the refusal of the local Government to pay the necessary expenses of indigent witnesses on criminal cases, as was previously done by the late Government of Canada.—They thought it was incumbent on the Government to pay this charge as any other connected with the administration of justice; but recommended that until some action be taken by the Legislature, the Treasurer pay such orders as may be issued by the Judges. Report adopted.

Mr. Jull moved, seconded by Mr. Johnston, that the account to be opened with the Royal Canadian Bank be conducted same as that of the Ontario Bank, the same to be to the satisfaction of the Warden and the Finance Committee.—Carried.

On motion the Warden left the chair, which was then taken by Mr. Massey. Moved by Mr. Mair, seconded by Mr. Whitelaw, that the thanks of this Council be due to John Smith, Esq., for his faithful, courteous and gentlemanly conduct as Warden during the past year.—Carried unanimously.

The Warden briefly returned thanks for the honour, and the Council adjourned till Tuesday, the 26th January next.

Tunnelling Detroit River.

A prominent citizen of Detroit, one well known for his business enterprise, especially in connection with railroads, is now causing to be made a thorough examination of the Detroit River, for the purpose of ascertaining the feasibility of tunnelling it. The project of a tunnel under the Detroit River has been discussed from time to time, but nothing looking to a practical investigation of its feasibility has hitherto been attempted. If it is practicable to build a tunnel, it will prove an important link in the great central route between the West and the East. It will enable this line, more successfully than hitherto, to compete with the trunk lines south of Lake Erie for the trade from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to result from the completion of the trans-continental railroads.

The work has been entrusted to Mr. E. S. Chesbrough, engineer of the Chicago Lake Tunnel, who is represented here by his brother, Mr. J. C. Chesbrough. On Wednesday the engineers began the reconnaissance of the river, in which Mr. Chesbrough is assisted by Mr. Fred Morris, a well known civil engineer in the employ of the Michigan Central Railroad, who has orders to render all the assistance in his power. The engineers procured tracings of the lake survey chart of Detroit River, but they did not represent the nature of the bottom of the river. Therefore submarine divers have been brought from Chicago, and are determining the character of the soil of the river bottom in the following manner:—

Along the Canada shore a base line is carefully measured, and at one end of it stands an observer with his theodolite. From the other end of it a boat starts, endeavoring to steer an undeviating course for the American shore. This boat contains the apparatus which furnishes air to a full-armed submarine diver, who walks along the river bottom in the same line which the boat takes on the surface. When the party leaves the shore, note is made of the character of the soil at the water's edge, and as the diver walks along the bottom of the river, it is his duty to examine the nature of its material, and at every change in the same he signals to the man in the boat, who raises him to the surface of the river. A note is made of the nature of the change, and the boat is stopped when a signal is hoisted, so that the observer on shore may determine its position. This process is slow, but will give a perfect idea of the nature of the soil, and show whether it is of such material as to permit of being tunneled.

It will be some time before this reconnaissance is completed, and until then, nothing can be known of the chances for the success of the tunnel project, nor as to its probable location.—Detroit Post.

P. Lautenschlager, Esq., member of the council of the village of Hanover, was absent from his seat at the board, without leave, for three months, and the ratepayers surprised him last week by electing Mr. Goodlove in his stead. Poor Lautenschlager never mind, the name is too hard; perhaps so is the fate of him who owns it.

A City of 7,000 Inhabitants Destroyed by Floods and Whirlwinds.

MAZATLAN, Nov. 5, 1868.

The city of Alamos, situated in the southern portion of the State of Sonora, has been swept out of existence by a visitation of nature—namely, a combined attack of the two great furies, wind and water. The terrible event occurred during the great sea storm lasting from the 15th to the 18th ult. From private letters received in this city we translate the following accounts of the destruction and loss of life:—

We have endured awful suffering. Torrents of rain for forty-eight hours inundated the city during the greater part of the 16th and 17th, followed by another torrent of forty-eight hours, so that the houses not in the immediate way of being swept off by the force of the swollen floods were crushed in by the enormous quantity and the strength of the rain falling upon them. Senor Diego Perez measured the water in a tank and found that forty inches had fallen in seventy-two hours. Alamos is no more. You may rest assured that unless some new and rich mines are discovered it will never be rebuilt. We are impoverished and ruined.

The fullest and probably the most reliable account is from a private letter:— "The agony we have all gone through within the past few days is impossible to describe. Probably you have heard ere this that the city of Alamos is in ruins; but as you may not have had all the particulars I will give you what I know. On the 15th it commenced to rain, and on the 16th a genuine wind and rain storm set in, lasting until the 18th. It seemed as if the very floodgates of heaven had opened and that a second deluge was upon the world. The wind, too, roared with dreadful fury, and all the elements seemed combined for some dreadful purpose. We little thought what was in store for our beautiful city. But soon the tale was told and the destruction complete, or almost complete. The storm lasted until late on the evening of the 18th. During its continuance it appeared as if no human being could live within its reach. The Alamos river was swollen to a great height, and its wild headwaters carried everything before it. Houses were swept away like so many straws, and whole blocks of buildings were thrown down like so many rotten trees. The wind was no less terrible than the water. Houses were unroofed and blown to shatters, tiles and like material were scattered through the air like chaff; and strong trees were uprooted as if they had been cornstalks. The best part of the city is totally destroyed. About the only buildings saved worthy of mention are the mint, the church and the old State College. They stood on high ground and this advantage saved them. Dr. Hill an American resident, had three houses carried away and is a loser to the amount of about $20,000. Mr. T. Robinson bears an American, doing a banking business here, had his banking house swept away. Others have suffered severely. The loss of life has been very large. Sixty dead bodies have been picked up. Some of them were mangled fearfully, and could scarcely be recognized. Many of the bodies were found miles down the river. Undoubtedly, the number found will be largely increased by other unfortunate ones. I write you these few lines hurriedly, but do not attempt to describe or explain this most extraordinary phenomenon of a seventy-two hours' whirlwind and deluge.

The ruined city of Alamos was the Athens of North-western Mexico, or, at least had that reputation. Its women were reputed to be the loveliest and most intelligent throughout the Republic, and its citizens were highly spoken of as contrasted with those of other populations. There was a great deal of wealth, refinement and luxury among the better classes. It was a sort of sanctified Jerusalem, where the proud Spanish blood and brain held ascendancy, and would not be poisoned with contact with Indian and negro mixtures. Alamos, as a city, had fame before the great metropolis of New York was known. It is old among the many towns of Mexico. Surrounding it have been some of the richest mines in the world, and from which the city had its chief support. At the time of its destruction it contained a population of about 7,000 souls though geographical dictionaries place the number at 10,000, which is at least 3,000 too many. Unhappily for its people, the number is lessened through a terrible misfortune, and the "City of Poplar Groves" had fallen to the dust (even as man falls) in its strength.

THE GUELPH POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Saunders Esq., Police Magistrate.

MONDAY 7th.—Andrew Berry was charged with being drunk and was fined $1 and costs or five days. As Andrews did not pay the cash he took the days, which was certainly a judicious choice.

SHOOTING FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF CANADA.—A grand pigeon shooting match is to take place at Leslieville, near Toronto, to-morrow, to decide the championship of Canada, which distinction is to be contested by numerous crack shots from various parts of the Province.—Among the entries reported are H. Cousins, Windsor; Wm. Wilson and Hiram Miller, Markham; Wm. Stewart, Niagara; James Glen, London; Thomas Dalton, Hamilton; Henry Vernon, Strathroy; William Lake, Newcastle; Dr. J. W. Elliott, George Renardson, Joseph Taylor, James Ward, Charles Birch, and Harry Ellis, of Toronto. As this will be the first genuine trial for the Championship of Canada, it has been decided that none but those who compete at the tournament shall be allowed the privilege of competing for the Championship of the Dominion for one year from the 8th inst.

CLOSE OF THE SESSION.—The Parliamentary correspondent of the Hamilton Times says: The Premier declared in his place on Thursday, that the session will positively be brought to a close immediately before Christmas, whether the business be finished or not. It is expected that evening sessions will hereafter be much more frequent than they have been thus far, and that before long three sittings will be held each day. It is always thus, and it is much to be regretted that towards the close of the session legislation is done in a very hurried manner, and therefore most slovenly, bunglingly, and imperfectly done.

Hon. Wm. McDougall has not left England, as was reported, and does not intend doing so at present.

PER ATLANTIC CABLE.

Despatches to the Evening Mercury.

LONDON, Dec. 5th, 2.30 p.m.—There are vague rumors afloat in this city of a general seizure of newspapers, and conflicts between the troops and mobs at Paris. These rumors, though not confirmed, have caused a panic in commercial circles in this city.

The Times, in an editorial on the Alamos claims argues against the government yielding to the new demand of Mr. Seward, that the question of International Law be submitted to the Commission. The Times says that American Commissioners will come committed against England, and claims that by national law the British Commissioners will be driven to the opposite view. The Times regrets that Lord Stanley has been robbed of the glory of the settlement of these International differences, but it is certain that Lord Clarendon, or whoever the new Foreign Secretary may be, will pursue the same policy.

LONDON, Dec. 5, midnight.—Telegrams from New York, announcing uneasiness in America on the reported killing of Napoleon were received here to-day. The rumor was entirely without foundation. The Emperor is not dead nor even ill.

Ministerial rumors are very conclusive. It is understood that the oldridge declines office under Collier. Sir Randal Palmer is also excluded by his anti-establishment views. Mr. Moncrieff, liberal, has been elected to Parliament for Edinburgh University.

The Observer gives the following as the list of members of Mr. Gladstone's cabinet: Lord High Chancellor, Sir C. Fagwood; President of Privy Council, Lord Kimberley; Lord Privy Seal, Earl Russell; Chancellor of Exchequer, Robert Lowe; First Lord, of Admiralty, Mr. Childes; Foreign Secretary, Lord Cranborne; Home Secretary, Henry A. Bruce; Secretary of War, Mr. Cardwell; Secretary for India, Duke of Argyll; Colonial Secretary, Earl Granville; Secretary for Ireland, Chichester Fortescue; President of Poor Law Board, Mr. Goschen; President of the Board of Trade, John Bright; Postmaster General, De Grey; Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Chas. H. Villiers; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Earl Spencer; Lord Chancellor of Ireland, O'Hagan.

Despatches from Paris to-day report that the city is tranquil.

Despatches from Constantinople state that the Sublime Porte, at the solicitation of Russia, continues diplomatic relations with Greece, but has sent to the Greek Government an ultimatum which is supported by the great powers.

VIENNA, Dec. 5th.—The Emperor Francis Joseph has made Baron Von Beust, Prime Minister, a Count, as an acknowledgment of his valuable services.

PARIS, Dec. 5th.—The panic in commercial centres here was occasioned by the rumors of the Sublime Porte's decisive ultimatum to Greece.

MADRID, Dec. 5th.—The Imperial urges the concession of every Liberal reform to Cuba, and the speedy settlement of the question of slavery, but says that Spanish honor demands the suppression at any cost of the insurrection which it declares was incited, and is kept alive by American filibusters.

The Provisional Government has invited bids for a contract to lay a cable between Cadiz, the Canaries and Cuba.

American Despatches

COLLISION ON THE OHIO RIVER.—It is reported that the mail boats America, bound up, and United States, bound down, collided near Warsaw, between Cincinnati and Louisville, on Friday night, and one hundred lives lost. It is said there were a great number of ladies on the United States, who perished.

Madison, Indiana, Dec. 5.—The following are the particulars of the steamboat collision at Kay's Landing, two miles above Warsaw, on the Ohio River:—When the America struck the United States, the latter was so cut that she sank in two minutes. The United States had a quantity of petroleum on board, which took fire and wrapped both boats in flames. Great excitement ensued, and it is supposed that 70 or 80 lives were lost. It is estimated that 33 women passengers on the United States were lost. No lives were lost on the America.

Cincinnati, Dec. 6.—Further particulars of steamboat collision yesterday, shows larger loss of life than first supposed. Both steamers were completely destroyed. About 75 cabin passengers on United States more than half of whom were lost. Reports of officers are conflicting, but as near as can be learned 45 passengers including 15 ladies, and in addition seven officers and cabin crew were lost, while only four out of 22 deck hands are known to be saved. The accident is attributed to mistakes in whistles. United States cost $230,000, insured $100,000. America cost $240,000, insured $133,000. The passengers lost are principally from river ports.

Incredible as it may appear that one compound should be adapted to the treatment of such a variety of diseases, it nevertheless is true that Brigg's Aillevator has proved of incalculable benefit in affording prompt relief in thousands of cases of painful and distressing attacks.

Its grand mission is to subdue pain and bring glad tidings to the suffering. Its capacity for doing good is unequalled, and no family should be without it, as it may be the means of saving life in those sudden visitations of disease that require prompt measures to prevent a fatal termination. It is considered to be the most valuable medicine of its class on account of its adaptation to a wider range of diseases than any other preparation, and therefore more convenient as an every day remedy.

It is valuable not only as a counter-irritant to drive pain and inflammation from the internal organs to the surface, thereby relieving deep seated injuries and organic lesions, but will be specially useful in restoring the skin to a healthy condition in all those annoying affections attended with inflammation and eruptions.

Brigg's Aillevator is sold by E. Harvey & Co., Guelph, and by druggists and country merchants everywhere. Dr. J. Briggs & Co., proprietors, 208 Broadway, N. Y. C. H. Wright & Co., Hamilton, Ont., general agents for the British possessions.

Dr. Rutley is healing the impotent folk of Brantford by rubbing them down and breathing upon them. Or rather he has not healed many, but charged them as high as if he had. Very good for them if they are so verdant.

Remuneration of Crown Witnesses.

A reference to the proceedings of the County Council will show that that body has adopted a measure none the less generous that it was necessary, for the remuneration of cases of criminal prosecution. Since the allowance to such witnesses has been cut off there have been many cases of hardship of which but few were aware. They might have been seen at Guelph during the last sitting of Court of Assizes. One in particular we noticed. A witness in a criminal case had come from the most remote part of one of the most remote townships of the County, and had been on hand when the Court opened. His appearance betokened, and his assertions confirmed the supposition, that he was not one of those to whom Fortune had been even moderately kind. We are not sure but he said he had borrowed the money which had paid his expenses up to the last day of the prolonged sitting of the Assizes, but here he was on that morning literally "dead broke forty miles from home," a perfect stranger, with no credit and no stock in trade except his plaintive story, which, we fear, availed him little. Possibly there were others as badly off as he, but this single case was sufficient to show the dire wrong of cutting off entirely all allowance to witnesses in criminal cases, no matter what their circumstances. Was that man to starve in the interests of justice, while the Government were casting about them to see what they could do with a surplus million of dollars? Or if he had chosen to evade hunger by trudging homeward before his borrowed resources were exhausted, would it not have been something bordering on barbarity to bring him back and imprison him for the crime of being unwilling to starve? Can the fulfilling of justice be supposed to be of so much more interest to the individual than to the Government (which in this instance, at least, means the country) that the former should be compelled to make all the sacrifice while the latter sits by with folded hands? Or is a witness a less important or indispensable individual than a jurymen that the latter should be paid for pronouncing a prisoner a criminal, while the latter receives not a penny for proving him so?

Thanks to the County Council, witnesses summoned to our Courts need not henceforth shirk their duty from a fear of wanting the necessaries of existence while detained here. The resolution authorizes the Judges to draw on the County Treasurer for the expenses of indigent witnesses, and from this it may be inferred that those whose circumstances are such as to admit of their taking a journey in the interests of justice without feeling the loss will be debared from remuneration until the Government shall make different provision. The Judges will investigate all appeals, and, beyond a doubt, act so as to prevent such cases of hardship as there have been already.

A False Rumour.

A rumour of a startling character was received here on Saturday night. It was reported that the Emperor of the French had been shot. Our despatch to-day, gives an emphatic contradiction to the report, and states that Napoleon is in his usual state of health. Some suppose that the story was got up by the stock brokers, others believe that the trouble between the populace in connection with the press prosecutions have given a colour to the report. The news to-day, says that Paris is tranquil, but though this is to a certain extent reassuring, it is impossible to say how far the trouble may spread, or how it will end. All this excitement or threatened disturbance need add greatly to the anxiety now prevailing in Europe.

The Whelan Case.

The Judges have announced that they will give judgment in the Whelan case on the 21st inst. In the meanwhile, the proceedings in error act as a stay on the sentence being carried out at the time named. It is not consequently required that a respite should be granted, and in case of a judgment being recorded adverse to the prisoner, he will be remanded back to the original custody to suffer the penalty of the law at a time then to be fixed. In the meanwhile, he will remain in Toronto.

The Parliament of the Dominion is further prorogued to the 16th day of January, and then not to meet for business.

ACCIDENT IN DOWNIE.—Mr. Whiffles of Downie, was thrown from his horse in Stratford on Friday evening; three ribs are broken and he is internally injured, but there are hopes of his recovery.

FIRE IN STRATFORD.—On Friday night about 9 o'clock, a fire broke out in the stables in rear of the old "Union Hotel." The whole centre of the town was in danger, but by the exertions of the people it was suppressed. No doubt it was the work of an incendiary.

A WOULD-BE ROBBER.—While Mr. McKenzie, of Hibbert, was returning from St. Mary's on Saturday evening a robber mounted the wagon and seating himself by his side, presented a pistol at his head. With the greatest coolness imaginable, Mr. McKenzie eyed the instrument with pretended curiosity, remarking, "hold it a little higher, I think I have one like it at home." The would-be robber, thrown off his guard, held "it a little higher," when Mr. McKenzie dealt him a powerful blow under the arm pit, sending the rascal reeling out of the wagon, and left him sprawling on the ground. The evening being pretty dark, Mr. McKenzie failed to identify the fellow, and he is likely to escape detection.

WOLVES.—The Barrie Examiner says: We are informed that these rapacious animals are rather too numerous to be pleasant in various localities, particularly on portions of the river Severn, and in parts of North Orillia. These unwelcome visitors have recently made frequent inroads and sad havoc amongst the sheep flocks of the farmers, who complain of the raids of the destructive creatures. The near approach to the settlement of these animals, is, according to the saying of the Wisconsin's prediction, the forerunner of a severe winter. Not long ago, a party of Potawatamie Indians, who were hunting deer on some of the tributaries of Lake Huron, not far from Sturgeon Bay, were obliged to decamp on account of the annoyance they were subjected to by the large packs of wolves that infest that locality. When the Aborigines have to beat a retreat, what will become of their white brethren?

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

It was quite dark when Andrew Howie, parched with thirst and faint with loss of blood, awakened from the swoon into which he had fallen.

'I wish they had just kill me outright,' he groaned, 'and no left me here giring wi' pain in body and anguish in soul—'

His thirst soon became so insupportable that he crawled in spite of the acute suffering the motion caused to a streamlet, and bending his face down to it, lapped the liquid with rare zest.

Speedily after accomplishing this he crawled as far as the cavern. When he reached this place of shelter, he resigned himself to the conflicting thoughts which the misfortune of his mistress and his own helpless condition inspired.

The fear which he might naturally have entertained that he had received his death wound did not afflict him on his own account at all, but the fact that he was too feeble to seek assistance for his lady distressed his faithful nature cruelly.

He was sustained only by the hope that he might live till Kirsty Hyalop should come to him, as she had done every night, to give him the tidings she regularly received from Hornie as to how things were passing in the tower.

'Are you there Andrew Howie?' the woman repeated several times before any answer was given.

'Ay, ay,' he moaned, starting to consciousness from his semi-trance; 'I am here dame, wa'e's me.'

'And what for are ye wae,' she exclaimed with some agitation in her usually cold hard voice.

'Make a fire and look at me; there's flint and steel.'

She took the articles, which with his left hand he had drawn from his pouch, and with some twigs and heather she soon kindled a fire.

'What is done?' she cried quickly.

'My leddy has been with a harsh cry, and wanted to go to Edinburgh, but Tushielaw has dragged her back till his den. If ye donna get help for her quick, heaven kens what ill may be done her, for I am not able to stir to her aid.'

'The woman clasped her hands wildly.

'Has not Hornie been here?'

'No.'

'She stood dumb staring at him for several minutes; then with a harsh cry, as if her heart were being torn—'

'Ay, now, I ken why he hasna been wi' me—they has killed my bairn as they killed his father, and as they will kill the leddy o' Halstane. An' I has been helping others to happiness while my ain flesh and blood was skirting out for help.'

'Sanna's sake, woman, what it's ye mean? Will ye no gang to Selkirk and bid them come to my leddy's rescue.'

'The hour of vengeance is at hand,' she went on with an air of sternly subdued emotion, that indicated at once the strength of the woman's character and the terrible depth of her agony.

'Vengeance,' was the sharp retort.

'Ay woe, if Tushielaw be your quarry, doon wi' him to perdition—but for the Lord's sake save my leddy.'

'The woman answered him with a strange calmness.

'She shall be saved—Spens lives.'

'The maister alive!' cried Howie, bounding on his haunches, forgetting all pain in his feverish delight.

'The Holy Mother bless ye for the word.'

'And the old man sank back exhausted, the tears of joy glistening in his eyes.'

A New York journal says the British Government has prepared for the Alabama arbitrators a bill of forty-five million dollars for damages done British subjects residing at the South during the war.

GREAT POWERS Are always neutral in small squabbles.

SO IT IS WITH PREST & HEPBURN In the leather war now going on between their opponents on the south-side of Wyndham-st.

WE do not believe in both and bunkum, but deal with facts, and leave the verdict in the hands of the intelligent people of Wellington. We are prepared to prove, and we positively affirm, notwithstanding all the puffing and blowing which has become the order of the day, that PREST & HEPBURN, Wyndham Street, Guelph, manufacture more

And employ double the number of Workmen of any other establishment in the County of Wellington. We invite the public to call and look through our Factory, and they will be convinced that we are telling the truth, and not the truth.

A great deal has been said for and against machine made Boots and Shoes. Now we believe, and we are confident that very well-balanced mind in Wellington will agree with us, that the less machinery used in manufacturing Boots and Shoes the better. All our staple Boots and Shoes are made by hand, which must be admitted is far superior to any machine made Goods. We have now on hand the largest and best assortment of Boots and Shoes ever offered to the people of Wellington, which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest. Remember that all our work is warranted, and no second price. Repairs done as usual.

A QUEER COUNSELLOR.—A queer story comes from Stratford about a councillor of that town, who, in a state of "how come, you so?" strayed into the Catholic Church on the day of its consecration, and relapsing in to a stertorous sleep, was awakened by a friend, simultaneously with the ringing of the bell used in the mass and the presentation of a tray for contributions. By an association of ideas he thought he was in a more congenial place, and said in a loud tone, "You know — what is my weakness! I'll take whiskey hot!" Stratford is a queer place.

A schooner laden with cordwood from the Bay of Quinte, ran around upon the island at Toronto on Friday night. She had a crew of seven men, two of whom remained in the rigging all night, the other five staying below. All were taken off the next morning by Wm. Ward and Berry (the well known coloured oarsmen) though at imminent risk to the lives of their preservers. The boat was twice swamped, and it was only by almost superhuman exertions that the last two men were saved. The schooner is a total wreck.

The Quebec Legislature is further prorogued to the 15th January.
