The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Ralph Pickard Bell Library
Mount Allison University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Ralph Pickard Bell Library
Mount Allison University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

HAIL TO THE DAY.

Words by Hon. Joseph Howe.

Music by J. B. Norton

All hail to the day when the Britons came over,
 And planted their standard with sea foam still wet ;
 Around and above us their spirits will hover,
 Rejoicing to mark how we honor it yet.
 Beneath it the emblems they cherished are waving,
 The rose of old England the roadside perfumes,
 The shamrock and thistle the north winds are braving,
 Securely the mayflower blushes and blooms.

CHORUS.

Hail to the day when the Britons came over,
 And planted their standard with sea foam still wet.
 Around and above us their spirits will hover,
 Rejoicing to mark how we honor it yet,
 Will honor it yet, will honor it yet,
 The flag of old England,
 The flag of old England,
 The flag of old England,
 We'll honor it yet.

Then hail to the day ! 'tis with memories crowded,
 Delightful to trace thro' the mists of the past,
 Like features of beauty, bewitchingly shrouded,
 They shine thro' the shadows time o'er them has cast.
 As travellers track, to its source in the mountains,
 The stream, which far swelling, expands o'er the plains,
 Our hearts, on this day, fondly turn to the fountains
 Whence flowed the warm current that bound in our veins.

Hail to the day, etc.

MY COUNTRY'S PLEASANT STREAMS.

Words by Hon. JOSEPH HOWE.

Music by J. B. NORTON.

In joy and gladness on ye go!
 My country's pleasant streams,
 And oft through scenes as fair ye flow,
 As bless the poet's dreams,
 From hills where stately forests rear
 Their heads the breeze to brave,
 From dark morass or fountain clear,
 You roll to ocean's wave.

The noble lakes your strength supply,
 And now the crystal spring,
 Where, undisturbed, the wild birds fly,
 Or bathe the weary wing.
 Through narrow gorges here you foam,
 There down the valley rove,
 Like youths who leave a quiet home.
 The world's delights to prove.

A thousand ceaseless hymns of praise,
 With music in each tone,
 In mystic harmony you raise,
 And heard by God alone.
 But though to us it is not given,
 The blended song to know,
 Sweet sounds, that have the air of Heaven,
 Delight us as ye go.

And there the graceful elms are found—
 Your own peculiar tree;
 And there stout hearted men abound—
 The happy and the free.
 And childhood's merry laugh is heard
 Along the hills to float,
 As by the gentle breezes stirred,
 You waft his tiny boat.

Where youthful forms at eve repose,
 And tales of passion tell,
 While beauty's cheek more beauteous grows,
 And snowy bosoms swell;
 In joy and gladness there ye go,
 My country's pleasant streams;
 And oft through scenes as fair ye flow,
 As bless the poet's dreams.

CITADEL HILL.

Words by J. A. Bell, Esq.

Tune—"Lang Syne."

The Old Flag waves on tower and steep,
 Above th' embrasured wall,
 In every land, or on the deep,
 Still prompt at duty's call.
 Time-honored Flag! beneath thy folds,
 We fain would long repose,
 The tie that loyal subjects holds,
 With years but stronger grows.

We glory in Old England's fame,
 The theme of poet's lays,
 Her deeds of arms—her arts that claim
 A world's emphatic praise:
 With all her faults we'll love her yet,
 Great mistress of the main,
 Pray we her sun may never set,
 Its splendour never wane!

The blustering airs from Ocean blown
 A healthful clime ensure,
 The British laws that mould our own
 Our liberties secure.
 Then let us join—Long live the Queen!
 May Britain flourish still,—
 And may her banner long be seen
 To wave above the Hill!
