REMISSION OF FINES FOR O.T.A. BREACHES AROUSES CURIOSITY

Attorney-General Declares He Does Not Personally Interfere.

MAGISTRATES' ORDERS

There was a lively little breeze in the legislature yesterday, when T. Herbert Lennox moved for an order for a return of all correspondence with the government and the Ontario license board relating to all convictions made under the O.T.A. since November 15, 1919, when applica- tions have been made for remission of fines and reduction of terms of imprisonment imposed by the con- viding magistrates or justices of the peace.

The intimation was that there was speciality shown in the matter of the remission of fines. Mr. Lennox took occasion to refer to the case of a man named Siler, said to be worth $100,000, who had been fined for a breach of the O.T.A. $1,000 and sent to jail. Everybody at the time thought the sentence most lenient. However, he served only 10 days of this sentence and was released. The man admitted he had also committed perjury and Police against any interference with his sentence, but this had been ignored. In another case a poor man was fined $1,000 for a comparatively trivial O.T.A. offence and his lawyer had told him that he could not im- pose a smaller fine, as he was acting in the matter under instructions from the attorney-general.

Does Not Interfere. The attorney-general said the applica- tions for remission of fines did not come before him personally. (Continued on Page 7, Column 2.)

CANADA'S BUSINESS KEEPS IMPROVING

With Opening of March Ad- ded Impetus Is Pro- phesied.

Winnipeg, Feb. 25.—(Can. Press).—Business conditions thruout Canada continues on the upgrade, and with the opening of March considerable im- provement is likely to be noticed in the movement, states the weekly report of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Asso- ciation.

Quebec and Montreal advices indicate a general improvement in whole- sale conditions, particularly in boots, shoes and ladies' costumes. Manufac- turing houses in the same lines confirm the movement, also little of any moment is reported in retail circles. Collections, while still on the slow side, show a little improvement and failures are declining.

Better in the West. Winnipeg and the west had noticed a considerable improvement since the middle of the month. Wholesale boot and shoe houses, following a slow win- ter, have been busy for the last two weeks with custom orders, and expect a revival on the retail side of winter. Heavy snows, also, are ex- pected to have a beneficial effect on agricultural conditions, and following the open fall of 1920 which enabled a lot of ground to be placed under cul- tivation an optimistic view is taken of near future conditions.

ICE BLOCKADE LIFTED; RELIEF STEAMERS FAIL

St. John's, Newfoundland, Feb. 25.—Steamers with food for Newfound- land's northern bay settlements, cut off from the outside world by recent blizzards, sailed today with the lift- ing of the ice blockade. Milder weather, which brought heavy rain last night, increased the troubles of the railroad service, as tracks were flooded. Fears of a change in the wind and freezing weather, which would encase the roads in ice and block the seaports again, were gen- eral tonight.

RAILWAYS TO CHANGE TIME. Montreal, Feb. 25.—Canadian rail- roads will probably operate on day- light saving time from May 1 to Oct. 2, according to an announcement by the Railway Association of Canada today.

LIBERAL AMENDMENT TO RECEIVE SUPPORT OF FORMER MINISTER

Hon. A. K. Maclean, Who Resigned From Unionist Government, Approves an Early Election—Voted Against Similar Amendment Last Session—Grain Companies in the West Are Again Under Fire—Elec- tion Amending Bill Passed.

By TOM KING. Ottawa, Feb. 25.—In the debate upon the address in the house this afternoon, Hon. A. K. Maclean declared his intention to vote for the King amendment. At the last session he voted against a similar amendment to the address, but informed the house that he could, when called upon, explain this inconsistency. Mr. Maclean, who served as a member of the Union government from 1917 to 1920, declared that the people of Canada had a right to limit the term of the Union government to the duration of the war and a reasonable time thereafter. He, personally, as a minister of the crown and as a candidate for par- liament in 1917, had given the assur- ance that parliament would be dis- solved within reasonable time after the winning of the war. He did not be- lieve that a general election should be deferred until after redistribution. A redistribution would give additional representation to the west, but would reduce the already small representa- tion of the Maritime Provinces.

Colonel Lang, Unionist member for Humboldt, seconded the demand made yesterday by R. C. Henders for a sweeping investigation of the way in which the western wheat crop was handled. He did not single out Mr. Creer's company for attack, but said that an unfair profit was taken by the middleman and that the farmer did not receive for his grain anything like the price paid by the consumer. Messrs. Reid (Mackenzie) and Gould (Assiniboia), members of the Farmers party, had little to say about the He- rald charges beyond stating that Mr. Creer's company, the United Grain Growers Limited, and the other co- (Continued on Page 7, Column 3.)

Province Has No Rights Over Dominion Companies

London, Feb. 25.—Consolidated ap- peals concerning Dominion companies being subject to provincial legislation as a condition of their exercising cor- porate powers in the Canadian prov- inces, were up before the privy coun- cil today and the appeals were allowed declaring that the provisions of the companies acts of Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan which applied to these companies were ultra vires. Their lordships' judgment states that these companies are not precluded by reason of not having been licensed or registered under those acts, from con- ducting business in these provinces. Having regard to the character of the questions raised, there will be no cost either here or in the courts below. The judgment by Lord Haldane is

DISARMAMENT BOARD WILL BE APPOINTED BY LEAGUE COUNCIL

Will Be Composed of Prominent Men, Experts and Labor Representatives. LITTLE PROGRESS MADE.

Paris, Feb. 25.—The council of the League of Nations, laying aside the objects of the Polish-Lithuanian controversy, the United States man- date note and the question how to satisfy the league assembly's wish for greater publicity for its proceed- ings, took up the question of dis- armament today.

The council will ask the powers which signed at St. Germain at the same time that the Austrian treaty was signed, the convention relating to control of traffic in arms and munitions to ratify this convention, declaring that until this is done no progress can be made in this direc- tion.

It was decided to nominate a tem- porary commission to consider a re- duction in armaments. This body will be composed of prominent pub- lic men, together with technical ex- perts and representatives of labor and of industries and some members of military and economic commis- sions.

Rene Viviani, former premier of France, has been asked to accept the chairmanship of this commission. A recommendation by the assembly of the League of Nations that an organization be set up to verify mili- tary information supplied by its members, was provided for in the League of Nations, cannot be carried out without an amendment to the covenant of the league. The council has decided to leave to a permanent military commission the task of in- vestigating this subject further.

The council still is guarding as the close secret its deliberations on the American note concerning the man- dates. Speculation consequently is rife as to several possible eventualities. All guesses on the subject are being de- nied as fast as they are made. Arthur J. Balfour was particularly vexed today by a report that he had been charged with drafting a reply to the United States note. The in- formation obtainable this evening on the situation is that nothing whatever has been decided on.

RED TROOPS QUELL STRIKE IN MOSCOW

14,000 Men Demand Increased Rations and Constituent Assembly.

Riga, Latvia, Feb. 25.—A report re- ceived here from Moscow today says a strike was begun yesterday by 14,000 employees of the government works and in various industries, in- cluding printers. The men are de- manding an increased bread ration. The government has called a con- stituent assembly and the right of free trade. During the disorders which followed, troops were called out to disperse the strikers, several of whom were killed or wounded.

When the report was despatched shooting was still in progress. Some members of the red army had joined the strikers, and the government has mobilized communists who were guarding government offices.

New York, Feb. 25.—An ordi- nance providing tax exemption of $5,000 a year for the next ten years on all new dwellings in greater New York was passed today by the board of estimate. The measure provides exemption of $5,000 on one-family houses and $5,000 for each apartment in a tenement house.

Hon. Manning Doherty Off to Fight Embargo on Canadian Cattle.

Hon. Manning Doherty, Ontario's minister of agriculture, is on his way to England, there to fight a campaign against the Canadian cattle embargo on Canadian cattle re- sulting from the government's good wishes, but it cannot be said that the opposition, both Liberal and Conservative, went out of their way to wish him bon voyage. In fact, his trip was very much objected to, principally on the ground that it was decidedly im- proper for a Canadian to interfere with a matter that was at present an issue in the by-election being fought out by the Ontario government and the Ontario Conservative party. ## TURKS THINK CLAIMS VIRTUALLY ADMITTED

Nationalist Envoy Asks Time to Communicate With Angora—Proposes That Acceptance of Commission Be Subject to Certain Conditions—Greeks Oppose Revision of the Treaty.

London, Feb. 25.—Bekir Samy Bey, chief of the Nationalist delegation, who has taken the place of the head of the Turkish delegation to the near- east conference, reiterating this after- noon acceptance by the Turks of the allies' suggestion for the appointment of a commission to determine what disposition is to be made of Thrace and Smyrna, asked for time to com- municate with Angora respecting other parts of the treaty of Sevres affect- ing the economic life of the country. He said he hoped to obtain a reply by Monday, and the conference ac- ceeded to the request.

Mr. Lloyd George assured Bekir Samy that the allies would carry out the investigation with complete fair- ness and impartiality, and decide the questions at issue between Greece and Turkey on principles of justice.

No reply was received from the Greeks with respect to the proposal by the allies for revision of the Sevres treaty, to be based upon the findings of the Thrace and Smyrna Investi- gation Commission. It is expected, how- ever, the reply will arrive by Monday evening, by which time it is be- lieved the Turks also will give their answer.

At this morning's session Bekir Samy expressed thanks to the supreme council for admitting the principal Turkish claims, which, he declared, led him to hope that the other claims of the Turks would receive equal con- sideration.

No Claims Admitted. Mr. Lloyd George explained that no claims had been admitted, and to this Bekir Samy replied that the Turks regarded the suggestion for the in- vestigating commission as tantamount to admission of the claims. He an- nounced that acceptance of the con- ference's proposal was subject to the following observations:

That an international administration in Smyrna and Thrace be substituted for the Greek system; the inquiry, in this case, it was hoped former officials might be reinstated.

That in the event of the admission of Turkish claims, the allies would agree to a cessation of hostilities with Greece and an exchange of prisoners. That Greece send no new forces or move troops now in Thrace and Smyrna.

That the Turks would give guar- antees regarding minorities provided the same conditions were exacted from the Greeks.

That the investigating commission conclude its investigation in two months and take into account the number of Turks compelled to emi- grate since the Greek occupation.

Mr. Lloyd George told the Greeks, whom he received after the departure of the Turks this morning, that the allies' idea was that the allies should be successful in their negotiations.

BAR IMMIGRATION TO U. S. FOR YEAR

Will Use Best Efforts in Con- gress to Introduce Substi- tute Bill.

REPEAL OF TRUST LAW

Washington, Feb. 25.—Organized labor will endeavor to prevent the final passage of the pending Dilling- ham bill restricting immigration to three per cent. of the number of aliens of each nationality in the coun- try in 1910 as the first move under the new legislative program adopted here by representatives of the national and international unions affiliated in the American Federation of Labor.

Announcement was made today at the federation headquarters that the legislative representatives of the or- ganization would attempt to obtain substitution of the Johnson bill, virtu- ally prohibiting immigration for one year, for the Dillingham proposal. The latter was passed by the senate and an agreement on it by senate and house conferees is now pending in the house. Legislative representatives of organ- ized labor also have been instructed to press their efforts to obtain in- ternational investigation into conditions in the strike areas in West Virginia.

Whether labor will attempt to bring about introduction of a bill at the extra session of congress for the repeal of the Sherman anti-trust act will depend, according to information to- day, upon what action is taken to exempt labor organizations from lia- bility under that law.

To Legalize Union Organization. Counsel for the United Mine Work- ers and other international organiza- tions were said to have begun prepa- ration of final details of a bill to be introduced in the extra session that would legalize union organiza- tion work in all lines of industry, despite any individual contracts made between employer and employ- ee to join a trades union.

Plans for the new publicity cam- paign to be waged by the federation were being completed today, when the executive council was in session discussing means for raising the money necessary for the campaign.

A proposal made by representa- tives of the Typographical Union at the labor conference yesterday that a fund of several million dollars be raised for propaganda work, it was learned today, was voted down and it was decided that no special fund would be advisable for such work.

The executive council of the fed- eration was in session here all day, but made no announcement as to its work, except that it had considered several jurisdictional disputes.

THREE MEN KILLED BY A SNOW-SLIDE

Tragedy Occurs on C.N.R. Near Jasper—One Man Badly Hurt.

Edmonton, Alta., Feb. 25.—Three killed and one seriously injured in result of a snow-slide on the Canadian National Railway forty-six miles west of Jasper at Mount Aspidochelone, Thursday night at 10 o'clock. The dead are: Operator Mauler and Fireman Berry of Jasper and Roadmaster Willis of McBride.

The injured man is Brakeman Fortin of Jasper. The first slide occurred on Thursday afternoon and a rotary plow left Jasper to clear the line.

A Second Slide Occurs. The plow had only penetrated the pile of snow a short distance when a second slide occurred, burying the plow and workmen under a mass of snow and ice.

The three men mentioned were dead when removed from the wreckage and Brakeman Fortin so badly injured that he was rushed to an Edmonton hospi- tal. The train arrived here at five o'clock this evening. He was found to be suffering from a broken leg and dislocated shoulder.

ROTARY SCHOOL OF REAL FRIENDSHIP

Reputation to Be Closely
Guarded, Says Speaker at Anniversary Gathering.

The influence of Rotary as a character builder and a school where the meaning of real friendship and service were taught, were a few of the points touched on in his address before the Rotary Club yesterday, at their 14th anniversary weekly luncheon, by Frank H. Littlefield, who reviewed the history of the club and said that the impetus received during the war was still felt.

Rotary, Mr. Littlefield said, had a reputation which had to be closely guarded and Rotarians should be thankful that they were permitted to have such a reputation. He believed there was an unseen force in the world, the working of which Rotarians had only a slight conception. There was always a danger in misplaced energy, and he believed that Rotary should not take up every proposition that was put before it, but to stand firmly behind the ones considered worthy of attention, to insure success. Since classification as a means of maintaining a high standard in membership and the ethics of unselfish service, upon which Rotary rested, were the two primary principles of the organization, he believed.

James R. Milne was heartily applauded for his maritime solo, "The Curfew," Rotarian J. H. Terry again brought to the attention of Rotarians the need for immediate arrangements for the proposed trip to Ottawa in April, 97 members having already made application.

On Sunday night next, Rev. W. A. Cameron will preach a Rotary sermon in Loew's Uptown Theatre.

POPULARITY OF NEW DICTIONARY GROWS

Lawyer Praises Book — The Money Well Spent, He Declares.

Appreciation of the offer of The New Universities Dictionary being made by The World to its readers is shown in the steady increase in the distribution. The popularity of the book has become more wide-spread, as those who were among the first to secure a copy have told their friends about the dictionary or have shown it to them. Each day the distributing clerks have been besieged by crowds of coupon-holders. Many comment on the work in terms of highest praise. "I never spent one dollar and twenty-eight cents to better purpose in my life," a well-known lawyer declared. "I have long been wanting just such a dictionary. It is thoroughly up-to-date, gives a simple, accurate definition of a lot of new words, and the illustrations are both interesting and instructive. Its convenient size and practical style of binding further recommend it." The New Universities Dictionary was designed to serve as a guide to the correct use of today's English. It is accurate in its definitions and contains the latest and newest words whose general usage warrants their incorporation into a dictionary designed as this one was, primarily for everyday folks who want to speak and write the English language correctly and well.

DECLARES BARNES WRONG
DISOBEYING SUBPOENA

In the case of Rex vs. Barnes the finding of Chief Justice R. M. Meredith, second divisional court, is that the appellant was wrong in disobeying the coroner's subpoena. He may be examined as to the guilt of others so long as the examination does not encroach upon his rights as a person charged with crime.

The appeal, which was dismissed, attempted to secure immunity from attending a coroner's inquest into the death of William Rossiter, killed by a motor car on the Hamilton highway.

Since the appellate hearing, and before the judgment, Barnes has appeared before a grand jury, which returned no bill, has testified at the inquest and has been summoned to appear at Port Credit next week, also on a manslaughter charge.

CHESTERTON'S WORK ON JEWS ATTACKED

Rabbi Brickner Scathingly Criticizes Aspersions on Hebrew Race.

Scathing as a commentary upon the attack of that master of paradox, Gilbert Keith Chesterton, the address of Rabbi Brickner, delivered last night before a large congregation at Holy Blossom Tabernacle, proposed a piece of oratory. Not only was G. K. C. a master of paradox; he was also the greatest of paradoxes in himself. The speaker prefaced his remarks with a quotation from Artemus Ward, "It isn't ignorance which does harm; it is the saying of things which are true." Indeed, Chesterton says rightly, the ignorance of the educated is appalling, and says "the ignorant is the subject of one might go one step further, and say 'the ignorant is the subject of Chesterton's.' Let us never forget that this man, Gilbert Keith Chesterton, was a very successful publicist and journalist, and like all successful journalists writes upon those topics of wide public interest. He is read because he is the greatest exponent of public opinion. In his most recent work upon the Jews he says: 'Notes gathered hastily here and there. Perhaps, indeed, too hastily gathered, have never in my life read a work dealing with so large and sympathetic a subject so justly and with such bigoted prejudice.'

Rabbi Brickner traveled thru the offering work and spent from quotation to quotation. What does this man say about the Jews? He says that they have tried to put a great camouflage over the world, in other words, since they have been granted a fuller liberty they have grasped more than they were ever entitled to. The Jew, he says, has tried all these years to make Canadians, Frenchmen, Britons, Americans, peoples of all nations believe that he was a Canadian, Frenchman, an American, and says this man, "It is time to call a halt and to proclaim that the Jew is not a Canadian, not a Frenchman, not an American, but an alien, but an alien of the Gypsy, alien to the Jew, alien to the adopted country of the Jew. Continuing, he says the Jews might die for a country but never with a country. In short, Chesterton is voicing not only his own but numberless minds of Pharisees the world over, not nearly as well known as his is."

Rabbi Brickner then scathingly ran over the gamut of anathemas thrown at the head of his race by the paradoxist. Chesterton had made it clear that in his belief the Jew was not merely a trader, but a usurer, not a worker but a parasite upon the worker, an international power wielding money, the force, granting loans to munition industries in that he might control the world thru financial channels. The religion of the Jew was bizarre. Let the Jew become the lord chief justice of Britain, an exalted verily, for the post, let him be archbishop of Great Britain if that were possible, but even so, the Jew is a law whereby the Jew is dressed, not a religion, but a religion of distinctive alienism. This was the substance of Chesterton's book upon the Jew, when we went to the bank yesterday, and we were told that Bart Cronin yesterday afternoon. "As to who took the money and how it was taken, it's all as mysterious as ever."

Sergt. Cronin went over every phase of the case yesterday with the people who handled the money last, who worked about the teller's cage, pressed to give an opinion, he said: "I am still satisfied it was an inside job, and I still look for some results yet."

Lestovitch managed to free himself and summoned a police officer, but the two highwaymen had time to make their getaway. Detectives and neighborhood men scoured the neighborhood, but without success. To the police Lestovitch stated that he was alone and working on some jewelry when the men entered his store. Both drew revolvers, he said, and ordered him into a room at the rear of his store. ### SOLDIER'S IDENTITY TO REMAIN SECRET

Precautions Taken Preclude Possibility of Secret Ever Being Revealed.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—There is not the slightest possibility that the remains of the empire's unknown soldier now resting in Westminster Abbey, will ever be identified. Rev. M. Mullin, M.P., now at the Chateau, made this very clear when he explained to newspapermen today how the body had been chosen from the hundreds of thousands of unknown who gave life for the cause.

Precautions were taken in this direction and the consequence is that any mother or wife, whose son or husband was numbered among the unknown dead on the battlefields of the fighting front, may cherish the hope that the ashes of her hero rest beside those of England honored dead and be subject of reverence and respect for generations yet unborn.

Captain Mullineux is a member of the directorate of the graves registration and inquiries board, whose function it is to check the graves of soldiers.

The selection of the unknown soldier whose body rests in Westminster Abbey, was made from a number of bodies of unknowns, one taken from each fighting front. These were assembled at a camp in France and confined in the coffin which is now in appearance. From the eight selected bodies, three were chosen, and one of these was selected to be the central figure of London's mournful, but impressive pageant.

NEXT WEEK'S BILLS AT LOCAL THEATRES

"Way Down East" at Royal "The Storm" for the Princes.

With its multiplicity of scenes, strikingly beautiful and spectacular, D. W. Griffith's master effort, a picturization of "Way Down East," is announced for presentation for the first time in this city at the Royal Alexandra Theatre on Monday evening, and continuing twice daily for a period of one week. In announcing that he has elaborated upon the famous stage play as originally written by Lottie Blair Parker and Joseph R. Grismer, the genius of the screen has made a greater significance upon his patrons. As might be expected of Griffith, he has provided pastoral scenes of the most infinite grandeur, has taken, as the play could not, his audiences to scenes of splendor and luxury in city mansions; made the most of the rural folk, the simple folk; enlarged the scope for the rare comedy of the tale, and effected it all in a climax of snow-storm and crashing thunder which as befits his reputation. But what Mr. Griffith is most pleased to call his work is the significance of the potential theme of "Way Down East." He has brought forth more strikingly a woman's soul weaving into the woof of trust and devotion a story of love that is followed with a fidelity of feeling as true as the reception of these truths, intent upon making "Way Down East" the supreme contribution in the screen hall of the producer assembled an array of interpretative talent never before equaled in the history of the theatre, including Lillian Gish, Richard Sherman, Mary Kay, Lowell Sherman, Mrs. Morgan Belton, Mrs. Helen Hale, Viola O'Brien, George Neville, Florence Short, and others.

PROVINCE CANNOT PREVENT BETTING

Question of Federal Jurisdiction, Is Decision of Ontario Court.

In a decision handed down yesterday in the second divisional court at Osgoode Hall, the chief justice, Hon. R. M. Meredith, presiding, held that the province of Ontario had no power to stop betting on tracks, the question being one for federal jurisdiction.

The chief justice, in his written judgment, said: "In almost all parts of the world horse racing is, and always has been, a pastime and business of much importance; it is less so in Canada than in England and Ireland, but it is the same thing in all its qualities."

"Relief from importunity, not to take into account condemnation or contemptably has its uses; it is a gain to those in provincial office to be able to say to those who would drown the cry of the betting machines, 'never venture, never win,' with the cry of 'never venture, never sin,' but that can be done only in the matters of parliament—the parliament of Canada or the parliament of Great Britain and Ireland."

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks straggled, it is just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this recipe to use preparation, because it darkens the hair naturally, besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

ACTORS APPRECIATE SERVICES OF Y.M.C.A.

Chas. W. Bishop, general secretary of the National Council of Y.M.C.A.'s, was pleasantly surprised yesterday when he was waited on by Captain M. W. Plunkett, manager of the famous "Dumbells" Company, who presented a cheque for $1,000 towards the funds of the National Council.

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now there's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes away soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

The World's Weekly Novel THE MAN FROM TALLBER

By THOS. W. HOLMES. (Copyright, 1919, by George Sully & Co.)

(Continued From Page 6.) No time was the cabin within reach of the shore. He leaped to a timber floating nearer to the bank. Above the pool was a huge tree with limbs that spread far out over the water. Its branches, tough and wiry, drooped almost within reach of the drifting cabin.

Up to the biggest drooping limb the timberman climbed. Then out upon this and, hoisting himself along a branch of it that almost touched the cabin. "Ready, Gypsy?" he shouted, dangling the strap.

"Yes, John." "Then grab hold and I'll lift you. You can climb back over my shoulders and get upon the limb above. Then I'll follow you and the ground."

"And the mills ain't all he's lost," declared Killock. "Great Godfrey, man!" whistled Stetter. "don't you call that enough—him leavin' a half a million dollars' worth of timber?"

"I never did know what Crukshank had up his sleeve," admitted Crane. "Why, his testimony, and more than that, he didn't ever own a piece of maple wood and Paradise Knoll that was the property of the timber corporation. He was helped Gypsy much—not just his name, but the deed, Stafford might have hollered 'Blackmail' and got away with it."

"Ouch! Lame Back Rub backache, Lumbago, Soreness and stiffness away—Try this!"

CHAPTER XV. BRINDLE river had subsided to its usual summer bed, and slept in it. A stranger would never have dreamed that only by the high water marks along the banks could one understand the power and depth of the flood that would have been remembered by the people of Tall Timber.

Business institutions, like people, sometimes become "under the weather." And, as people in such cases benefit from experienced medical counsel, so the business institution finds much of value in the intelligent suggestions of its financial adviser.

Long, and closely-personal, relations with many of our clients has enabled us at times to place our finger on financial methods in their businesses where a change would be beneficial—with better results to all concerned.

This personal service is not something for which you pay. It is given fully and freely; but its application to every phase of Banking business has had results which cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

RESENT ATTEMPTS TO TAX POWER

On motion of Mayor Fred Newman of Picton, the association reiterated its previous requests that the government give the members of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission a certain tenure of office and grant the municipalities the right to elect a representative to the commission.

The main counts cited in the resolution against the proposed tax were: That the report of the committee of the legislature was based on inaccurate information; that it was a violation of municipal rights; that the whole Hydro-Electric system was based on contracts, and if those contracts were not kept the millions of dollars put into the enterprise by the municipalities would be in jeopardy; that a large amount of power developed at the commission was exported under contracts and that the power not exported would have to carry the whole weight of the tax; that the power was being sold under a department of the government which would take Hydro into politics.

In addressing the association, Sir Adam Beck said that one of the first principles underlying Hydro development was the supply of power at cost. The flat rate that he had proposed would have been a violation of that principle. The government was not responsible for the report suggesting the $2 tax and he was almost convinced that they did not intend to adopt it.

Mr. Burgess said he was disgusted with the way Hydro was being developed in eastern Ontario. Questioned by the chairman, Mr. Burgess admitted that he had been in the power development business himself once, but had been closed out by the Hydro commission.

Winnipeg Cattle Receipts. Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 25.—(Dominion Live Stock Branch.)—Receipts today were 105 cattle, 75 hogs and 51 sheep. The market opened steady to strong in spots, the trading being mostly in butcher cuts.

Market opened steady to strong in spots, the trading being mostly in butcher cuts. Top choice steers made $8.75, good heifers, $6 to $7.25; choice butcher cows, $5.25 to $7.

Helping the Farmers. Con. Hiltz said he was opposed to the tax and wondered what the purpose of the government was. He presented the first purpose was to get revenue, and perhaps they were also trying to do a good turn for the farmers.

Secretary T. J. Hannigan gave a few figures to show how deeply the municipalities were now involved in the Hydro enterprise. The city, he said, had commitments up to $47,000.00, and as far as the sum only about $8,000.00 had been guaranteed by the provincial government.

Mr. Hiltz, mayor of Midland, was decidedly opposed to the tax. He suggested that the back townships should have better representation on the provincial commission. The chairman pointed out that two members of the commission lived within 25 miles of Mr. Dudley's town, while Toronto and other thickly populated municipalities had no representative on the commission.

Sam Carter, of Guelph, did not believe the government was proposing a tax because they were opposed in any way to Hydro development. They were, he thought, actuated by a desire to provide electric power for the farmers. "Let us suggest to the government," said Mr. Carter, "that they find a reasonable way of getting power to the farmers, and I think the province will stand behind them."

Mr. McHenry, of Walkerville, said: "I am not opposed to the tax, but I am not getting it in the way the report suggests. We in Walkerville have requested the government not to put the report in until it had been discussed by the experts. The industrial section of this province is hard enough pushed now for taxes."

J. V. Buchanan of Ingersoll took up the cause for the farmers, and suggested a conference with the government. "We do not withdraw that resolution and see if we can't reach some amicable agreement. Let us not pass any resolutions of defiance. While I am not a member of the U.F.O., I have to admire Mr. Drury for what he will do to do right, and if you want him to do so much more, fight this unfairly."

Mr. Adams, of Niagara Falls, said: "The resolution concluded: Therefore be it resolved that the Ontario Municipal Electric Association, on record as being entirely opposed to recommendations in this report, and in this connection, the committee Hydro and would have to accept the responsibility. They could not delegate their responsibilities to committees and commissions. It is believed that the tax idea was another effort to load the system up with charges in order to discredit public ownership and Hydro industries."

Mr. Adams said that one of the first principles underlying Hydro development was the supply of power at cost. The flat rate that he had proposed would have been a violation of that principle. The government was not responsible for the report suggesting the $2 tax and he was almost convinced that they did not intend to adopt it.

SINN FEIN ABUSE AT GIBBS LECTURE

Three-Quarters of New York Audience, However, Resented Hooliganism.

New York, Feb. 25.—The civilized code of law and order scored a decided victory over hooliganism as demonstrated by an organized party of Sinn Feiners, who endeavored to break up a lecture on the Irish question, given by Sir Phillip Gibbs, British war correspondent, at Carnegie Hall tonight. It was the third time Sir Phillip had been subjected to public abuse since his arrival here.

Rev. Francis P. Duffy, chaplain of the 50th Infantry division, took the platform five minutes after the inception of the disturbance and temporarily quieted it. Besides the outbreak in the hall, women picketers paraded outside displaying anti-British posters, and distributing Sinn Fein propaganda. Sir Phillip declared that the British people were ready to give Ireland dominion home rule as possessed by Canada, and other dominions, "who are strong and satisfied with their absolute liberty."

OFFICIAL OF G.T.R. IS CROSS-EXAMINED

Montreal, Feb. 25.—W. D. Robb, vice-president of the Grand Trunk Railway, was today under cross-examination by Pierce Butler, K.C., for the government, before the Grand Trunk arbitration commission, which is sitting to ascertain the physical value of the system prior to its acquisition by the Dominion government.

Rails, ties, locomotives and other property were gone into and a prolonged and technical examination followed as to the length of trains, their weight, car loading, and other questions which Mr. Robb stated were outside its jurisdiction.

Lorn Bond, chief engineer of the Grand Trunk, was then examined and described the road as a first-class condition and a well-seasoned road in every respect. It was better supplied with ties than any road in Canada, he said. In regard to bridges, he said that the present structures were designed to stand four times the strain imposed by engines and trains in the way of weight, impact and speed strains.

TORONTO MAY LOSE SOCIAL SERVICE CENTRE

Montreal, Feb. 25.—If the members of the social service of the province of Quebec have their way, the headquarters of the Dominion council will be transferred from Toronto to Montreal. A resolution in favor of this move was introduced and adopted at a meeting of the executive of the provincial council held in the Central Y.M.C.A. on Thursday evening, when Dr. J. G. Shearer, general secretary of the Dominion council at Toronto, was present, with the Rev. Gordon Dickie, provincial secretary.

INDIAN MISSION ON ITS WAY

London, Feb. 25.—An unofficial mission is on its way to London, prepared, if the opportunity affords itself, to present to the near east conference of the Indian Moslem League, which is being held at Calcutta, according to The London Times. Prince Aga Khan Chotani, a well-known West Indian Mohammedan, and Hassan Iman, late judge of the Calcutta court, are reported to have departed from Bombay for London.

HAMILTON

Hamilton, Feb. 25.—It was intimated tonight that the policemen of this city would be heard from again shortly regarding the salary matter. The refusal of the police commissioners to grant them an increase as requested will not end the matter, for the men, it was learned, are going to try again.

May Day might see some interesting developments here, especially in the building trades, where the men have been, or will be asked to accept a cut of 10 per cent. The men are not going to have their salaries reduced, they state, as long as the other cities not many miles from here are getting more at the present time with no use of reduction. Officers of the Hamilton secretariat, looked favorably upon several proposals of this city in connection with the administration of affairs. F. R. Waddell, K.C., city solicitor, announced tonight on his return from Toronto, where he took these matters up.

SUBURBAN AND COUNTY NEWS

NOT DOLES BUT WORK HERE

J. ROSS ROBERTSON SCHOOL IS OPENED

Distinguished Citizen Honored When Modern Building Dedicated.

NORTH TORONTO

"We have gathered here not only to witness the formal opening of the John Ross Robertson School, but also to do honor to the late distinguished citizen after whom the school has been named," declared Chairman Trustee J. Wantless at the formal opening of the school last evening. In dealing with the latest addition to the system of education of the city, he stated that the children of that section had now a wonderful opportunity offered them with the opening of the Home Circle and the Art League for the work they had done. He said that the present board of education stood for the best of British ideals more than any former boards, and to do the great work they had set out to do they must have co-operation.

Following the dedicatory prayer by Trustee Rev. F. E. Powell, D. R. Franklin, the architect, formally handed over the keys of the building to Trustee John McClelland, chairman of the board of education.

School Finest in Dominion. In accepting the keys, Mr. McClelland declared that the John Ross Robertson school represented the latest in school buildings and was the finest in the whole Dominion. He outlined briefly the history of the school up to the present time, and said it had cost $196,850, contained eight class rooms, a kindergarten department, as well as a manual training room and a domestic science room. He gave a very broad hint regarding the recent split between the two associations, the Home Circle and the Art League, and said he would ask for unity.

"Some of you here know what I am hinting at," he said, "and I will not say any more. Speaking directly to Dr. G. H. Locke, he said he thought there should be a branch library in every school, and he hoped that Dr. Locke would let the John Ross Robertson School be the first to receive such a library."

Acting Mayor Maguire Speaks. Controller Maguire, acting mayor, felt that the residents would agree with him that the school was one of the finest in the whole Dominion. He was glad to say that a spirit of co-operation now existed between the board of education and the Home Circle and the Art League, and he hoped that the future would be a happy one.

Dr. Locke's Eulogy. Dr. Geo. H. Locke said it had been his privilege to assist in the unveiling of portraits of three men, whom he considered the outstanding men of the city: Sam MacAllister, the well-known head master of Ryerson School; Mr. Bulsey, and now the gentleman after whom the school had been named, John Ross Robertson, who had been a personal friend of his.

Chairman McClelland unveiled the handsome life size oil painting of the late John Ross Robertson in the absence of Irving E. Robertson, who he said what he had to say was a memory portrait of a gentleman whom he loved. "Would you not say that he was a senatorship and a knightship?" he asked. Mr. Robertson had given more than a man's life to the Hospital for Sick Children, the greatest monument that any man could have. He likened Mr. Robertson to Theodore Roosevelt, inasmuch as he could not do only one thing at a time, but rather he did several things at once. "It is only fitting that his picture should hang in a school of this description," he said, in conclusion.

SUCCESS ASSURED NEW ASSOCIATION

Co-operation Slogan of Bloor-Bathurst Business Men Shows Good Results.

In an interview with The World yesterday, President M. A. Standfield of the Bloor-Bathurst Business Men's Association said "the members of the association are looking forward to their next gathering, which is to be held on March 16. Members will have to apply early for tickets, as accommodation is limited. These gatherings combine both the social and business—getting more into hearty co-operation, which has become the slogan of the association. Individual self has been eliminated. What we can do has been taken this year."

The formation of these associations cannot help but have a good effect on the city in general, and on the confidence of our city fathers, as everywhere that is beneficial will be assisted and that which is not will be vigorous.

Laughingly, Mr. Standfield remarked, "This is not a threat, but a promise." Another idea that he has affects the city in general. His proposal is to change (with the coming change of street car service) the great cross-town thoroughfares from various to numbered avenues, as example: Change King street to First Avenue, Queen street to Second Avenue, Dundas street to Third Avenue, College street to Fourth Avenue, Bloor street to Fifth Avenue, St. Clair Avenue to Sixth Avenue, Eglinton Avenue to Seventh Avenue. In this way in this rapidly-growing city the question of location can always be definitely explained to an engineer.
