ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 4, 1905.

RUSSIA'S FIRST PARLIAMENT.

With the work of the peace conference over the attention of the world will again be drawn to the internal affairs of Russia, where the centre of interest for the next few months will be election of Russia's first representative assembly, provided for by the Czar's rescript of August 19. What the effect of the first concession of the autocracy to the growing demand for representative government will be it is too early to forecast. Though in itself the concession will certainly not be satisfactory yet it possesses such possibilities of future growth that it may cause the support of the more conservative of the reformers to be withdrawn from the revolutionists at least until it is seen what it will accomplish.

While the new assembly—the Duma will make a constitution possible. The body will be merely a consultative body, the Czar not conceding any of his autocratic power, there are provisions in the document setting forth the organization and powers of the Duma which will make a constitution possible. The body, declares the rescript, is established for the preliminary discussion and study of legislative propositions "which, according to the fundamental laws, will be submitted to the supreme autocratic authority by the Council of the Empire." Members of the Duma, which will represent all Russia, are to be elected for five years, although the Emperor may dissolve the body at any time and order new elections. The expenses are to be defrayed from the imperial treasury. The president and vice-president are to be elected annually from among the members, who will enjoy absolute freedom in expressing their opinion on matters "within the competence of the Duma." As to the authority or competence of this body, the rescript says:

"The competence of the Duma shall extend (a) to all questions relating to new laws and the modification of existing laws; also to making or altering appointments to the posts of the ministers and to the expenditure thereby involved; (b) to departmental, ministerial and national budgets, and to other expenditures not provided for therein; (c) to the financial report of the comptroller of the empire; (d) to the expropriation of any portion of the revenue or property of the state; (e) to the construction of railways by the state; (f) to matters submitted to the Duma by imperial decree."

Among the powers of the new body, which will meet some time in the month of January, 1906, are: (1) jurisdiction in the matter of taxes in provinces where there are no zemstvos; (2) initiative in the proposing or modification of old laws and the adoption of new laws (no power, however, to touch the fundamental law of administration); and (3) the right to interpellate ministers and chiefs of departments and call their attention to infractions of existing laws. Measures passed by the Duma go to the Council of the Empire, and the combined conclusions are submitted to the Emperor, whose decision is final.

Elections for representatives are to be held in only twenty-six towns, which are named. In all others, and in the provinces and territories, election is to be brought about by an electoral college, members of which will be chosen by the landowners, city electors, and delegates of the peasants. The last will have the right to choose two delegates from each canton. The voting qualification is based on a property holding,
and the only persons barred are women, men under twenty-five, soldiers and sailors in active service, officials exercising their functions, and persons not acquainted with the Russian language.
"Special measures" are to be applied in the cases of Finland and Poland.

Another proof of the success of municipal ownership, intelligently and honestly applied, comes from Kingston, Ontario. Eleven months ago the civic corporation took over the plant of the company which had been providing light for the city. Since then the revenue from the sale of gas has been $31, $46, and from electricity $11,240, with net profit over operating expenses, interest, taxes and insurance of $1,152.
This showing is made despite a reduction in the price of electricity from 14 to 12 cents, and of gas from 23 to 18 1/2 a thousand. It is also noted that during the year repairs to the amount of $2,400 were made to the plant.

Apparently the weather man is allied to the capitalist foe of labor. Why else would he save up rain for a month and dump it all on the only day in the year reserved for the working man as his own?

Twenty of Portsmouth, September 4, 1905, while we may bless the day, think of the millions of school children in the generations to come who will smash their teeth at it as we used to do over 1683, 1183, 1814 and similar dates of wretched memory.

SEPTEMBER.

Who doth not love the soft September days.
When summer lingers lovingly, and Would say farewell? But with her train
Of winged subjects, in the golden haze She vanishes so silently, we raise No cry of anguish, for no parting Disturbs our bliss,—our loss we count Not gain.

Yet 'tween dear September's name we praise.
The swallow tempts his wings to soar right;
The grasses fade; the brown leaves flutter down;
Full ripe, the thistle-tops and milkweed blows
Sail far aloft on airy pinions light.
And hastes to catch at fading summer's day.
Stay!—Hath she gone? The faint wind sighs—
'Who knows?'

SERMONS ON THE LABOR PROBLEM.

Before a large congregation in the Tabernacle Baptist church last night Rev. Perry J. Stackhouse preached an eloquent sermon on the labor problem, taking as his text, "Is not this the carpenter's son?"

The great problem of the present century is a social one—the proper adjustment of the relations between capital and labor, Jesus Christ, said the speaker, is the best friend of the workingman. He was not a walking delegate.
He laid down two or three great principles that were all powerful in his own life. One of these great truths was the equality of men in the sight of God.
This means that wealth is not the standard by which men are to be judged. In conclusion the speaker said that he wished he could get the laboring people of this city to accept His leadership.

The evils resulting from labor discontent was the subject of the Rev. W.
F. Fritchard's sermon in the Congregational church last night. The text chosen was Numbers xxi-45. "The soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way, and the people spake against God and against Moses."

The reverend gentleman dwelt upon this discontent which existed among both capitalists and laborers. He made three suggestions. Both sides need to have a faith in God's wisdom and God's ruling power; again when discouraged let us do all in our power to improve our own conditions; and lastly, let us have faith in an over-ruling God.

Hiram Donkin, chief engineer of the Dominion Coal Co., was in the city on Saturday making an inspection of the new pier and unloading towers which the company have under construction here. Speaking to the Sun he said that excellent progress was being made with the work, and that he anticipated its completion by the middle of October.

The funeral of the late Thomas M.
Burns was held yesterday afternoon from his home on Brittain street and was largely attended. Among those present were many old friends and admirers of Mr. Burns on the baseball field. Service was conducted by Rev.
Fr. Gaynor and the body was interred in the old Catholic cemetery.

The resignation of Rev. W. R. Robinson from the pastorate of the Baptist Church at Charlotte was by instrumental in bringing about the union of Baptist and Free Baptist Churches at Gibson. At least sooner than the union would otherwise have taken place. It is altogether likely that the Baptist and Free Baptist churches there will unite, as the Baptist congregation do not feel inclined to bring another pastor there to take Mr. Robinson's place.

The authorities of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick are very anxious to capture a former Dorchester convict named Thomas Argles, a halfbreed in appearance, who has been travelling over the two provinces of late under the name of John Thomas. He is wanted on a charge of stealing a number of horses, six of them from Londonerry, N. S., and disposing of them in various parts of the province. The case has come up very prominently at Fredericton owing to the arrival there of Henry B. Latton and Henry Blaney of Great Village, N. S., who have been tracking Thomas and incidentally correcting some of the horses for their owners. Detective Power of Halifax and Detective Roberts of Fredericton are also at work on the case.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ORATORY.
(Washington Post.)
—One of the most wonderful men in the United States Senate is John T.
Morgan, of Alabama. He is eighty-three years old, and two years from this time he will complete thirty years' continuous service in the Senate. During the recent short session he spoke for more than four hours for two successive days. The physical effort of speaking for four hours on one day is more than many senators care to attempt. On every foreign subject he knows all there is to know, and has the knowledge at command without reference books or documents. No other man knows so much about the Isthmian canal. Once some one asked how long he could really talk. "It depends upon the subject," he replied;
"if it were a matter that I know nothing about, I could talk for two or three weeks."

STRANGE PROFESSIONS FOR POETS.

France has discovered another color of poet; and the discovery has impelled a French contemporary to make a list of the unlikely professions which French poets, from time to time, have followed. Among the singers whose works have been published are included a baker, a street sweeper, a furniture mover, a piano tuner, an engine driver, a cabman, a costermonger, and a tramp. The most interesting, and the most talented, and the best known was the costermonger. His name was Jehan Sarrazin, and he was, until lately, a familiar figure at Montmartre, where he sold olives, which it was his habit to wrap up in copies of his own sonnets. The originality of the idea, and the fact that the sonnets were really good, brought him much custom. He saved money and started a cafe chantant; and it was in his establishment that Mme. Yvette Guilbert made her debut—at three francs a night.—The Academy.

A LITTLE POEM ON HART DECEASE.

A former assistant secretary of the Interior who lives in Washington, is of the same name as a poet who writes and lives in Pennsylvania. The official has a letter he received a time ago which he considers the most remarkable epistle he ever had. The writer contended him with the poet and wrote:

"Dear friend and statesman: I write you the earliest date to be so kind as to do me a great favor. I have tried all kinds of patent medicine for heart disease and no avail. I read your little poem on Hart disease."

"The heart which tumultus beats, With throbs of keenest pain Will oft recover its defects Thro' nature's sweet refrain."

"I have never tried an injun doc, but half took all kinds of erbs. I now sat you to send me by return mail 2 bottles of your medicine nature's sweet refrain. Sen to Alex K., G., post-office, Penn."

"P. S.—I will en prise by return mail."

SIMPLEST POEM OF FARMING.

Perhaps the simplest and most profitable form of agricultural pursuit is ostrich farming. It's necessary that the runs should be well enclosed with a good fence, but when once a farmer has his farm enclosed, ostrich farming is simple, and required very few hands. All that is necessary is to keep one good servant to walk around the boundary fence every morning to see that no ostriches have fallen out through the fence, which they often do if frightened during dark nights by jackals or other wild animals. If there is much vivid lightning they are apt to stampede at night. From 100 to 200 a large camp of about 2,000 acres. The farmer may run cattle with the ostriches, but not sheep or goats, as they trample and eat out the smaller weeds upon which the ostrich principally lives.

REMINDED HIM OF HIS HOME.

A Kansas crossing the Atlantic in rough weather went out on deck when a big gale was blowing. Nobody was in sight except the captain.

"Go below there!" the captain shouted.

The passenger looked around to see whom he was talking to.

"You mean me?" he yelled back when he saw there was no one else in sight.

"Of course I do; go below," and the captain came alongside.

"Well, I guess not," protested the Kansas. "I'm up here to see how one of your mountain-high waves and terrific gales compare with what we have in Kansas in the way of cyclones. This ain't a patch to what I've seen out west."

A big wave broke over the deck, sweeping the Kansas. The picked him up with a broken leg, a twisted shoulder, a sprained wrist, and his face looking as if it had been dragged backward through a briar patch. When he came to he saw the captain.

"By gravity, Cap'n," he said, feebly, "that reminded me of home, only it was a darn sight wetter."—Kansas City Journal.

J. Fred Shaw left Saturday evening for Boston and New York. He will be away about two weeks.

WITH MASTER MINDS.

Happiness does not consist in doing what we like, but in liking what we do.

Those who seek the praise of men often miss the approval of God.—Archdeacon Sinclair.

I have discovered the philosopher's stone that turns everything into gold. It is—"Pay as you go!"—John Tinsley.

Life is a reckoning we cannot make twice over. You cannot mend a wrong subtraction by doing your addition twice over.

Each of us is born into a world full of duties and responsibilities which we can only discharge by the strenuous and unremitting use of every waking hour.—W. T. Stead.

Every man's actions form a centre of influence upon others, and every thought, every deed, every habit, has some weight in determining the future destiny of the world.

Where you are is of no moment, but only what you are doing there. It is not the place that enables you, but you the place; and this only by doing that which is noble.

Men are, and ever will be, what their wives and sisters and, above all, their mothers, tend to make them. By influence which begins at the cradle and ends only at the grave.

MANY COMPLAINTS.

Several complaints have been made of late in the way the gates at the railway crossing at Gilbert's Lane are being operated. Carelessness on the part of the man in charge has also caused at least one serious accident. This crossing is used frequently by ladies, who enjoy the quiet park and drive, and the greatest precautions should be taken as the trains pass there at a very fast clip.

TRAGEDY OF A BATHING SUIT.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" (Translated from the Sanskrit.) Miss Firlitilla Peacock got a bathing suit in town.

Quite an airy-fairy-heiress-made-in-Faris sort of gown.

Well adorned with tuck and pleat, By her friends pronounced "too sweet."

Of ethereal materials, which half showed and half hid.

The figure of Firlitilla on a manner is when the modiste made the garment for Firlitilla she observed,

"This is the finest of the season—'Tis the finest of the season."

See the fans of alabaster trimming and the fairy contour curved—

"Ah, man's life, it is exquisite!" (She was Irish) "Tis charming!"

serviceable garment, light and durable—and yet,

Though it will not shrivel or tear with a reasonable wear;

I must warn you to be careful, for you must not get it wet!"

Miss Firlitilla Peacock sat upon the teeming sand.

Her creation the sensation of the idlers by the strand,

As she gazed and gazed and gazed, And a supercilious air

At the shrieking bathers freaking as they danced among the billows,

Like a group of somewhat dragged nymphs among their foamy pillows.

And she criticized each figure, spare and curvaceous as a lath.

That along the beach were skimming. "How the breaker came and dripping Like a sick Angora kitten just emerging from the bath."

"Merry me!" she softly said, "How can women be so careless as to sit on the beach!"

"In their rather boyish haste— For a bathing suit's quite ruined if you ever get it wet!"

But the gods are swift to sandbag Once Firlitilla came to sit In a cooling game of wading with J. Clarence van der Nitt.

And their talk was so engaging She forgot the billows raging

And a breaker came to take her, and with seething, spiteful spurt They a quart of ocean water right On that tragic situation, oh, permit me not to dwell.

For the scene surpasseth painting; How Firlitilla tumbled ranting In the arms of poor J. Clarence, and was borne to her hotel.

So a moral here I'll hasten, Other rather maid to chasten; If your bathing suit "becomes you" wear 'em, girls, and don't you fret.

Put 'em on to suit your fancies For receptions, lectures, dances, Anywhere in rhyme or reason—but you mustn't get 'em wet! —Wallace Irwin, in New York Globe.

NICHOLAS SENDS
WORD TO THE ARMY

Cession of Sakalin is a Case of Sour Grapes.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 3.—The emperor on Friday last telegraphed the following to Gen. Lanevitch:
"The negotiations at Portsmouth led on August 19 to a refusal of the demands of the Japanese government regarding the cession of the Island of Sakhalin, the payment of a war indemnity, the surrender of our ships lying in neutral harbors and the limitation of our forces in the water of the Pacific ocean. Against further negotiations Japan on Aug. 29 yielded all our conditions, but asked for the return of that portion of Sakhalin occupied by Japanese troops, which is the part held by Japan until 1875, and then ceded by treaty to Russia.
"The self-sacrificing army so dear to me without the assistance of a number of superior officers in Manchuria, step by step, during 18 months, obsti-nately repelling his advances. Under your leadership the army was reconstituted and strengthened by the arrival of troops from Russia, and it is now greater in numbers and stronger than before. It was not only prepared to ward off the enemy, but also to inflict upon him an important defeat.
"I and all Russia believe in the strength of my glorious army and in its readiness to sacrifice itself for the good of the fatherland, but my duty to my conscience and to the people entrusted to me by God commands me not to again put to the test the valor of Russian men so dear to my heart, and not to expose them to fresh and endless horrors of war in order to retain half of a remote island which Japan ceded to us in 1875, and I have therefore accepted the preliminary peace conditions.
"The Russian troops have repeatedly proved during this sanguinary conflict their valor and self sacrifice.
"Convey this to my dear army. May it know that I and Russia value the sacrifices which it has made in this war."

BOMB EXPLOSION IN SPAIN INJURES MANY.

BARCELONA, Sept. 3.—A bomb exploded with terrific force this afternoon on the "Marine parade," which was thronged with holiday makers. A panic ensued and the air was rent with the shrieks and groans of the victims who numbered between 30 and 40, including one woman killed and five seriously mortally wounded. The bomb was conical in shape and was covered with cement. The perpetrator of the outrage is unknown. One witness states that early this morning a child was seen to deposit a bomb at the foot of a tree, while another version is that the engine of destruction was placed at the foot of a tree this afternoon, and that a man who was seen to place it there was injured by its premature explosion.
After the explosion, panama hats parasols and wearing apparel were found scattered about, and here and there were pools of blood. The detonation was heard throughout the city, and the force of the explosion threw a coachman from the seat of his carriage fifty yards away. The bomb was filled with nails and scrap iron.
A workman covered with blood while running away from the scene, was pursued by a mob, which believed him to be responsible for the outrage, and being lynched, was nearly lynched. The man was taken to a hospital, where he denied that he had exploded the bomb.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE
TO C. P. R. PROPERTY

In spite of the many and extensive forest fires which prevail in this province and Maine, there has been scarcely any damage along the line of the C. P. R. Gen. Supt. Downie said last night that this division had so far suffered less this summer than for some seasons past. There has not been any destruction to speak of, and the only trouble caused to the railway was in having to watch certain fires for a few days. At McAdam last week it was necessary to send out a gang of men to check one fire which was approaching too near the C. P. R. property.
Mr. Downie says the loss occasioned by the burning of the Presque Isle roughhouse on Friday last was between seven hundred and two thousand dollars. This fire was not due to forest fires, and in fact the origin of it is not known. The roughhouse was only a two stall affair and there were no engines in it at the time of the fire.
The Bangor News states that the sparks from the roughhouse set fire to the neighboring woods, and a number of men have since been constantly at work trying to overcome the flames.
The water supply at Presque Isle is very low. Wells heretofore unfauling have either gone dry or the water is unfit for use. Rain has been very scarce. There is a proposition now before the people for the striking of a 20 ft. artesian well, which it is believed would furnish a never failing three inch stream.

FOUR WOMEN DROWNED.

HUDSON, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Four young women were drowned in the Hudson River today, when the small pleasure steamer Young America, on which they were passengers, was run down and sunk by the ferryboat George H. Power.
The dead: Jennie C. Bedell, New York; Jennie L. Bedell, New York; Sarah Brown, Brooklyn; Margaret MacKay, Coxsack, N. Y.
The bodies of Miss Mary Bedell and Miss MacKay were recovered.
The two boats were attempting to pass in a narrow strip of deep water between the lightship just below this city and the edge of the flats which the ship marks. The swift current threw the two boats together heavily and the lighter craft sank almost immediately. There were three other persons on board the Young America, including the captain and engineer. These men succeeded in keeping afloat until they could be pulled out of the water.

WANTED TO CASH A
CHECK FOR $40,000,000

The man arrested at the depot because of his failure to secure a ticket, and subsequently ordered by Magistrate Ritchie to leave the city, was not the "Cashier of Canada," as stated by several of the newspapers, but another and far less important individual. The "cashier" is still in the city, and is still a conspicuous figure on the streets.
On Saturday he appeared on Kings street wearing a silk hat, smoked glasses and a tan colored moustache.
His regalia on Sunday was more sumptuous, and it was noticed that the hirsute adornment on his upper lip had undergone a process of regeneration, being a beautiful glossy black. Under his arm he carried an unostentatious roll of music. The cashier is dissatisfied with the manner in which the financial institutions of this city are being conducted, one of them having the temerity to refuse to honor his check for a paltry $40,000,000, and he intends making some changes when he gets time.

SEVEN THOUSAND
HOUSES BURNED

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 3.—Fire at Adrianople damage. Seven thousand houses were destroyed in the Greek, Armenian, Bulgarian and Jewish quarters. There were many victims.

CRUISER SQUADRON
LEAVES QUEBEC.

In Three Divisions the Ships Will Visit Different Maritime Ports.
QUEBEC, Sept. 3.—The second British cruiser squadron left here Saturday

Berwick to Pictou, N. S., and Essex and Cumberland to Sydney, C. B., of the month, reaching Halifax on the 18th for a ten days' stay. Following comes a short stop at Annapolis, the squadron leaving for New York on October 2nd.

J. A. TURNBULL
DEAD IN HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.—J. A. Turnbull, general manager of the Acadia Sugar Refining Company, died this evening.
Mr. Turnbull came here from Greenock 24 years ago to become manager of the old Nova Scotia refinery, and when the change was made to the Acadia he was appointed general manager. He was 62 years of age.
VAUDEVILLE AT YORK THEATRE.
Lucier's Vaudeville Stars, which came to the York Theatre week Sept.
18th, will be headed by Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Lucier, whose act made one of the greatest successes here in this popular theatre last season. They have added new features to their most excellent sketch, until it now is one continuous roar of laughter. They have surrounded themselves with a most capable and varied company, each act a head-line and a feature in itself. Mr.
Lucier has aimed in his selection of the acts to please all from the children to older people, and a galaxy of talent and wit should easily prove the event of the season.

MAINE MILLER BURNED
IN HIS OWN MILL.

TURNER, Me., Sept. 3.—Overcome by smoke while vainly endeavoring to save his mill property from destruction by fire, Frank T. Faulkner perished in the flames today. The monetary loss is $40,000.
Mr. Faulkner discovered the fire at about 10 o'clock this forenoon in the gear above the wheel-pit, where oily waste is supposed to have caused spontaneous combustion. Hastily ringing the mill bell, he gave the alarm to the townspeople. Wallace Bray, who lives near the mill, was the first to arrive. The two men rushed to the second floor to make an attempt to operate the sprinklers with which the mill is equipped. By this time the villagers had reached the scene in force, with the meagre fire apparatus of the town. The flames swept through the oil-saturated shrap, and the smoke became dense. Faulkner and Bray ran toward the stairs. Faulkner fell, overcome by the smoke, and he was not seen again. Bray had barely reached the stairs when he, too, lost consciousness and fell on the top step. He was rescued by members of the protective company, who had scarcely reached the ground floor before the staircase was in flames, so that it was impossible to go to the rescue of Faulkner. Bray was not seriously affected by his experience.

SPRINGS AND WELLS
ARE RUNNING DRY

The work on Messrs. Mooney's sections 3 and 4, of the water works extension is progressing favorably, and the construction work on the dam is assuming its final outline. In the tunnel near Lake Latimer the men have worked in 100 feet on the western end and nearly as far from the other end.
The worst ground has been passed and the gasoline pump is easily holding its own with the water. One day last week a shut down occurred owing to a want of knowledge of the pump, but everything is now working smoothly.
The ground is exceedingly rich in springs, and a curious result has arisen from the tapping these underground sources of supply. The springs and wells in the vicinity that used to be used by the farmers for many cases dry, and the farming people have to hunt up other water supplies. At the dam the construction is proceeding speedily. There is now a sufficiency of men, using mallets and the work is assuming a definite shape.
The foundations for the core walls of 12 feet diameter, to be placed at a height of eight feet. The foundations for the fish and waste ways are being constructed, and the main dam has risen about three or four feet above ground. Only a third of this, however, has been laid, but the work is at such a point that rapid progress is possible, and Messrs. Mooney are pushing the work up to time.

FIVE LIVES LOST
IN LAKE SUPERIOR

By the Breaking in Two of the Steamer Sevonia.
ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 2.—By the breaking in two and beaching of the steamer Sevonia in Lake Superior Friday evening five lives were lost, eleven persons, including four women, were forced to drift about all night on the lake, while a half dozen sailors, including the captain, were still on the wreck tonight when news of the disaster reached Ashland. The Sevonia was one laden from Aloues to Erie, Pa., and ran ashore on Stork Island at 6 o'clock Friday night in a heavy northeaster, afterwards breaking in two at the fourth hatch and sinking.
Two boats were put off. One boat was in charge of the first engineer and contained besides him Miss Jones, Mrs. S.
F. Spence of Erie, Pa., Mrs. Cluckey of West Bay City, Mich.; Mrs. Wm.
Phillips, Adam Fiden, Nick Fiden and C. H. Cluckey, two fishermen and one deckhand, all of Buffalo.
Battling waves all night, the occupants of the boat suffered terribly from cold and exposure. When day broke with land in sight the party was in an exhausted condition, but after several futile attempts to land reached shore at Little Sand Bay, where homesteaders took them to a farm house two miles away. The engineer, with a homesteader, set out with a team for Bayfield, where they arrived at 4 o'clock today, after butting a way through the forest, and reported the accident.
The tug Harrow, in command of Captain Anderson, with a party of volunteer life savers on board, immediately set out from Bayfield for the wreck to rescue Captain S. McDonald of Eastport, Pa., two mates, two wheelmen and one deckhand, who were left on the forward end of the partly submerged vessel.
The second boat, containing five men, has not been heard from, and it is be-

REPRIMAND FOR A MAYOR WHO WAS DRUNK.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 1.—The city council in executive session tonight adopted resolutions condemning Mayor James G. Woodward for his conduct at the recent meeting of the league of American municipalities at Toledo.
The resolutions were passed by a vote of 12 yeas and 10 nays. The resolutions declare that while Mayor Woodward was attending the convention at Toledo, he was seen to be on the floor of the convention in a state of partial intoxication, that he made a spectacle of himself and that his conduct upon this city and outrag-ing the feelings and sentiments of the people; that this conduct is not typical of Atlanta and that it was most severely condemned and disapproved. It was directed that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the mayor of Toledo, the officers of the League of American Municipalities and through the Associated Press to the leading journals throughout the country. Mayor Woodward appeared before the council and declared that he had been greatly wounded, that he had no apologies to make to Mayor Dunn of Chicago for his attacks upon him in his talk at Toledo and while admitting that he drank a little beer said he was not intoxicated.

WELL KNOWN MINSTRELS COM-ING.

Gorton's Minstrels will appear at York Theatre for three nights commencing Sept. 11th with Wednesday matinee.
Gorton's Minstrels are by no means strangers in St. John, as they have appeared here on many occasions, their performances having always been classed among the best. The addition of this season of many high class specialties of a novel and interesting character insures a performance satisfactory and pleasing in all details. Among the notable features is the stage setting of the "first part," representing a tropical scene in Florida, with the magnificent Ponce de Leon Hotel in the background. Rich and elegant costumes add still further to the beauty of the incomparable stage picture. The entire company is composed of capable performers, each one selected with special reference to his ability. The comedy, music, and various specialties are said to be of high class and every responsible opinion in the various cities where this organization has appeared, are of a very favorable character, and there is every indication that the performance is all that it is represented to be.

Extract of Wild Strawberry,

The medicine with a record of cures extending over 60 years. You don't experiment when you buy it.

Miss MARY STRONG, Strongville, Ont., writes: "I feel it a pleasure to tell of what Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has done for me. I have had Summer Complaint several times and have never had to take more than 3 or 4 doses before being cured."

Mrs. ELIAS A. MORINE, Hortonville, Ont., writes: "I could fill a whole column citing the virtues of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has been my firm friend for years, and once it saved the life of one of my little ones. I would not be without it."

NEWS OF SPORT.

Littlejohn and Bailey to Meet a Digby Tonight—McEachern too Much for the Presque Isle Players.

BASEBALL. ST. JOHN'S, 8; PRESQUE ISLE, 0. 6-0 is the tale of Saturday's game between the St. Johns and Presque Isles in a nuthall. The Presque Isles, as they lined up for the Victoria grounds without Goodie or Gallagher, should have no license to play the locals, who outclassed them in every stage of the game.

FOOTBALL. BRITISH FOOTBALL TEAM ARRIVES. MONTREAL, Sept. 3.—The Pilgrim Association football team of England, reached here on the Allan line steamer Bavaria. They are scheduled to play a number of games in Canada and United States cities. Included in the team are a number of leading players of England. Sir Charles Kirkpatrick is in charge.

THE RING. LITTLEJOHN AND BAILEY TONIGHT. Digby sports are to witness tonight a round bout between "Dick" Bailey, the boxer who recently arrived here from England, and the redoubtable "Mike" Littlejohn, Jack Power, who took the pair across with him this morning on the Prince Rupert, will act as referee.

THE JUDGE'S DILEMMA. (Boston Herald.)—One of the first cases which the late Gilman Marston of New Hampshire had after being admitted to the bar was a civil suit involving a somewhat complicated question of inheritance. In no way daunted, young Marston tackled it, looked up authorities all the way back to Julius Caesar, and prepared an argument of a few hundred pages, which seemed to him more than unanswerable. His only fear was that it might be beyond the comprehension of the court.

FOR PHILATELISTS. A postage stamp has just been discovered in Roumania which is believed to be unique in the world. It dates from June 1, 1913, and is Wallachian, for Roumania had then no extensive stamp, which is blue, is round, like a sealing wafer, with indented edges. It bears the arms of Wallachia, an eagle with outstretched wings and a cross in its beak. The bird rests on a sphere inscribed with the initials of the "epoch" of the epoch. No value is marked upon the stamp, the postal service of that date being made by postillion and paid for by distance.

ROYAL ARCANUM MAY

PUT-IN-BAY, O., Sept. 1.—The supreme council is in a receptive condition and if sufficient conclusive arguments are shown the supreme council is ready to rescind. The supreme council is anxious to make its ultimatum decidedly absolute.

LATE SHIP NEWS.

Domestic Ports. HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 3.—Artd. str. Halifax, from Charlottetown, Port and Hawkebury, and for Boston; str. Barleigh, from Barbados. CHL. str. Mackay-Bennett (cable), for Canada.

NO LIAR.

(New York Sun.)—The ingenuity of a Newark cop in the neglect of duty is hard to beat. A jewelry shop had been entered the very eyes of the cop. On trial the following conversation took place between the accused: "Why didn't you see the man?" "He didn't see me," he answered. "Well, he did," he roared the store. "Well, your honor, even if he was a thief, he was no liar."

STORIES, ETC.

JEWELER AND GOLDSMITH. A fine selection of jewelry of all description can be seen at the store of W. T. Williams, Jeweler and Goldsmith, 125 King Street, North, St. John's. Visitors requiring souvenirs of the town cannot do better than call on Mr. Williams.

ICE CREAM.

For dessert can be had without trouble and at slight expense by sending your order to T. J. Phillips, 213 Union Street. "Phone 124." Your order will have prompt attention. Any quantity, but only one quality—the best.

ROYAL DAIRY LUNCH.

A plate of Royal Baked Beans and a mug of steaming hot Boston Coffee, 10c. A 21-Meal Ticket for $3.00 or a meal for $1.00 (good till used); or a hang-up Dinner for 25c. These are a few of the good things you get at the most popular lunch room in the city.

HAIR RESTORER.

If your hair is falling out, or you are troubled with dandruff, Dr. Jack's famous hair restorer will positively grow your hair and cure you of dandruff. It has been thoroughly tested in this city for months past and there are hundreds using it and recommending it.

BOY SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 3.—This is the season for gunning accidents, and the indications are that the crop will be quite up to the average. Douglas Coburn, the thirteen year old son of Mrs. G. H. Coburn, is the first victim in this locality, having shattered his left arm this morning by the accidental discharge of a shot gun.

WHEN CROPS ARE INJURED.

Record of July as Month of Damage—History in Spring Wheat and Corn. As a rule if grain crops do not show signs of damage by the third week of July, they are reasonably safe. But this is not the rule without exceptions.

A MONTH'S RAIN HAS FALLEN THIS MORNING.

Almost as Much Up to Ten o'clock as Fell During August—It Was Greatly Needed.

The long expected rain has at last reached us and its arrival is likely to do immense good throughout the province. Its appearance, however, has not been so welcome in the city and the holiday programmes have been rather disarranged.

At ten o'clock this morning nearly as much rain had fallen as in the whole of last month. The total rainfall for August was two inches and the rainfall this morning had already reached 1 1/2 inches, with a fresh breeze blowing from the southeast. This is an excessively heavy fall.

Although rain commenced falling about midnight yesterday the whole of the fall has been since five this morning. At times this morning during short periods rain fell at the rate of over an inch an hour, which is unusually heavy.

The season has been altogether an unusually dry one. Especially in the interior there has been an unbroken period of clear skies except where obscured by the smoke from the forest fires. The total rainfall for August was two inches, just one-third of the average for that month.

Reports from the province show that this rain is putting out the fire in every direction. Rain was perhaps never so much needed as it has been lately. Splendid lumber lands have disappeared and villages in almost every county have been threatened.

The fires are particularly bad along the North Shore, and especially in Carleton county. At Perth and Bath, the smoke hangs dense day and night, and in every direction for fifteen miles fires were in progress. A good many of many cases through the negligence of farmers while clearing their lands.

SMALL BOYS FIENDISH ACT. HANOVER, N. B., Sept. 2.—Charles Christian, 11 years old, son of Lee Christian, was roasted alive in Union street here, last night, by another boy named McLain, who dashed a can of gasoline over the clothes of young Christian and then applied a lighted match.

Christian was playing with several other boys when McLain walked up swinging a gasoline can. He unceremoniously cap of the can, rushed upon Christian and drenched him from head to foot with gasoline. Before the unpowered child could get away he touched a lighted match to his trousers, which were soaked with the gasoline. Instantly the boy was enveloped in flames. He fell to the ground screaming in agony and fighting the fire.

Nine persons have died from the disease and many suspicious cases are under observation. The legal and medical machinery for dealing with this invasion of the Asiatic bacillus is now working at full pressure.

Prof. Edward Sonnenburg said tonight that no one need fear an epidemic such as that of 1892-1893, because the health authorities since that time had built up an organization quite adequate to grasp the beginnings of cholera and to put down the disease with precision and firmness.

RUSSIA FIETING CHOLERA. BERLIN, Sept. 2.—Forty-three cases of cholera in all have been reported. Nine persons have died from the disease and many suspicious cases are under observation.
