

C. BRUCE McDOUGALL MET VIOLENT DEATH AT SYDNEY

Neck Broken in Fall Down Stairs After Being Terribly Beaten Two Days Previously.

Called to Sydney to Defend Cases Against Vindicator Dealers—Victim of Own Acts.

Special to The Standard. Sydney, Nov. 16.—C. Bruce McDougall, editor and publisher of the Vindicator, published at Moncton, N. B., fell from a flight of stairs in the Windsor Hotel here tonight, and broke his neck. He lived about five minutes after being found and was dead when physicians arrived.

McDougall was here in connection with the defence of several newboys arrested in Glace Bay for selling the Vindicator. He was to have left for Moncton on Monday night when on his way to the train he was assaulted and terribly beaten by several persons and left on the road.

Sketch of Career. Moncton, Nov. 16.—Bruce McDougall, whose tragic death is reported from Sydney, is a son of Peter McDougall, a cooper, of Prince Edward Island, who resided in Moncton for many years, being employed at the sugar refinery. He figured frequently in the police court and had a checkered career. He conducted several publications known at different times as Mohawk, Plain Dealer and Free Speech.

It was the publication of the latter paper that resulted in his prosecution and conviction in St. John for printing obscene literature. After serving his term in St. John, he returned to Moncton and commenced the publication of the Vindicator, which was very little known here, but appeared to have been circulated principally in Sydney and Glace Bay, where most of the kind of news it gave currency to came from.

McDougall for a time was employed in the I. C. R. general offices, in the auditors department, but apparently abandoned his position to devote his time more fully to the publication with which he was connected. He had several brothers, two or three of whom are employed in the I. C. R. at Moncton, and another is proprietor of a restaurant here. He was unmarried and was about 50 years of age. At one time, some years ago, he was prosecuted on a criminal charge in the Westmoreland county court, Judge Wedderburn presiding. The Mayor at that time was the complainant at the instance of some of the leading women of Moncton, but the prosecution failed to secure a conviction.

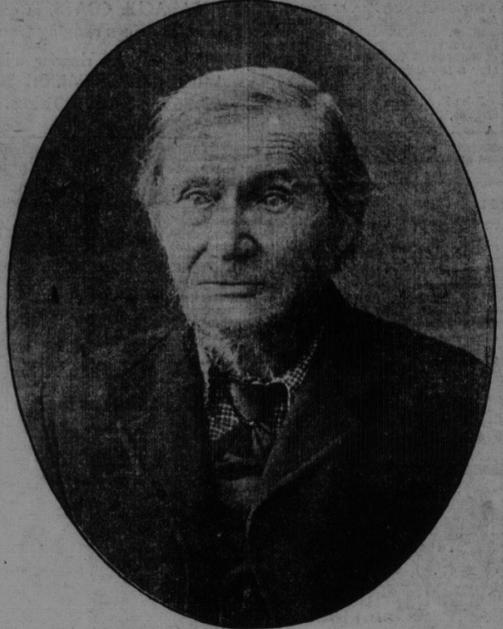

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Nov. 16.—The Str. Dominion, of the Dominion White Star Line which arrived today reported that shortly after the vessel left Liverpool on Nov. 6th, the wireless operator, F. Sharpe mysteriously disappeared.

It is supposed that he committed suicide by jumping overboard. Owing to the disappearance of the wireless operator, the customary signals could not be given.

SWAN HUDSON RIVER ON ELECTION BET John Gear Thought Stimson Would Win And Had To Take Dip On Coldest Morning Of Season.

New York, Nov. 16.—In the cold, gray dawn of the early morning—it was about the coldest morning this fall—John Gear, who thought that Henry L. Stimson would be elected governor of New York, took off his clothes, put on a bathing suit, and jumped into the river today. With a rowboat following close behind, he swam across the river to Randall's Island, carrying on the provisions of an election bet. A crowd watched and cheered his plucky performance.

CENTENARIAN IS CANOE BUILDER

PETER CAMPBELL, WHO EARNS HIS LIVING AT 101 YEARS OF AGE. Remarkable Career of Resident of Ford's Mills, Kent Co.—Remembers Miramichi Fire.

Richibucto, Nov. 16.—There are certainly few places in this mundane sphere that are so conducive to a healthy vigorous old age as Kent Co. It was here that Senator Wark—at the time of his death, the oldest legislator in the Empire—spent the prime and vigor of his manhood and developed the life conserving energy that kept him in active life, long after those of his own age had given up the struggle. It is within two years that Mrs. Patterson, of Kouchibouguac died at the age of 107, the oldest person in Canada at the time, and now at Ford's Mills, Peter Campbell in his one hundred and first year—while perhaps not the oldest man in Canada is certainly the most youthful and vigorous for his age—and is willing to meet all comers in a ploughing, chopping, rowing or walking race, or even a modern Marathon.

Mr. Campbell is a shingle maker by trade, not a modern shingle sawyer, but one of the good old-fashioned shingle shavers, who put up an article that lasts on the roof of the house as long as the house endures. He has made 7,000 shingles this summer, besides a canoe for sale, which he has nearly completed, being seven he has made in the last few years. For the past few months he has been walking five miles a day to and from his work. He goes alone into the woods with an axe and crosscut saw, digs out old pine trees and cuts them in shingle lengths, which he has hauled to the roadside, where he splits and shaves them. There is a ready market for all the shingles he can make, and he takes as much interest in his work as any of his younger neighbors.

Special to The Standard. Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 16.—Vancouver Conservatives have decided to proceed at once with their ten story headquarters building to cost $50,000 on a site worth $150,000. Geo. H. Cowan, M. P., headed the subscription list with $5,000. Part of the building will be rented, netting an annual surplus. The club has nearly one thousand members.

COUNT TOLSTOI PASSES CRISIS OF HIS DISEASE

Report That Aged Russian Had Died Discredited By Latest Report From Bedside—May Recover Now.

BULLETIN ON HIS CONDITION

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The report of the death of Count Leo Tolstol at Astapova was received here last night by the various newspapers and agencies. The Novo Vremya's Moscow correspondent first telegraphed that Tolstol was dead, but at an early hour this morning he sent a further despatch saying that a message had been received from Astapova that Tolstol was living and that the crisis of the disease had passed. At 4:15 o'clock this morning the Vestnik news agency reported that the death of Tolstol was not confirmed.

The reports emanating from Astapova where Tolstol has been lying with a high fever for two days, have been conflicting throughout. The official diagnosis as given by the attending physicians Tuesday night was that Tolstol was suffering from an inflammation of the lower lobe of the left lung, but that no immediate danger threatened. His heart action at that time was said to be good and his temperature was practically normal.

Only the day before, according to the doctors, Tolstol's temperature was 104, and he was in a delirious state. On Wednesday the attending physicians confirmed the original diagnosis, but added that inflammation was spreading and that the condition of the patient was critical, although not hopeless. His temperature during the night rose to 103, and he had an attack of bleeding from the lungs. Some time later it was reported that his temperature had fallen to 98.5. Then came the report of his death, and finally a message from Astapova that he had successfully passed the crisis of the disease.

PLACE GUILT ON DEAD MAN

Yeggmen At Lynn Deny Planning Of Hold-up And Murder Which Followed—Fired Shots To Scare People.

Salem, Mass., Nov. 16.—Andrei Ipsen, one of the two Russians who are on trial in the superior court charged with killing Thomas Landregan, a Lynn manufacturer and Patrolman James H. Carroll of the Lynn police force, after having robbed Landregan of $4,000 last June, took the stand in his own defense today following the completion of the government case. His examination and cross-examination occupied the attention of the court until the hour of adjournment. Ipsen in his testimony denied that he fired the shots which killed Landregan and Carroll, declaring that these shots were fired by Joe, the third member of the party, who was killed. He declared he knew nothing of any plan of robbery, and that his first intimation was when he heard shots fired. Then he drew his own gun and fired several shots to scare people away so that he might escape.

LORDS AWAKE TO SITUATION

London, Nov. 16.—Pending Premier Asquith's official statement before Parliament on Friday, small hope is entertained of clearing up the involved situation which has resulted from the sudden change caused by Lord Lansdowne's call for the veto bill. The feature which stands out in the present position of the parties is that the House of Lords finally has awakened to the absolute necessity of undertaking self reform. The Radical leaders regard this late repentance with the utmost suspicion, and it remains to be seen whether it will eventually result in an agreement which the abortive veto conference failed to achieve.

ROBINSON VS. SHAW. Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Nov. 16.—The appeal of the equity case of Robinson vs. Shaw was still before the supreme court on adjournment this evening and will be continued tomorrow. M. G. Teed, K. C., concluded his argument this afternoon and Solicitor General McLeod was presenting his argument on adjournment.

CONSERVATIVES IN TRIM FOR FIGHTING SESSION

THE CANADIAN HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT.

MAJOR SHARPE ONTARIO WHIP

Name Of Young Politician Added To Mr. Borden's Galaxy Of Brilliant Leaders—Move Alarms The Government.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 16.—When telegraphic communication reached Ottawa today from St. John conveying the information contained in The Standard that a complete re-organization of the Conservative party had been effected, the most intense surprise was expressed. While there was surprise generally, there was the greatest consternation in governmental circles. This reorganization is looked upon as the last vital blow to the administration. The government is fighting for its life handicapped by the fact that it is going the way of all human flesh. It has become a shadow. In addition to the names of the new officers of the Conservative party published in The Standard this morning, that of Major Sam Sharpe, of North Ontario has to be added. He was offered the position of Ontario whip today by Mr. Borden and accepted.

Major Sharpe has only been a member of Parliament for about two years but he is already one of the most effective men in the House. He has done excellent work in the public accounts committee. He is a youth as politicians go. Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 16.—George H. Perley, the chief Conservative whip, stated tonight that there would be no change in the sitting of the members. Therefore Hon. George E. Foster will occupy his old place on Mr. Borden's left hand.

FRIGHTENED ITALIANS WORK UNDER GUARD

Bandits Who Took $20,000 From Paymaster Make No Further Attempt To Molest Workmen Of Company.

Great Barlington, Mass., Nov. 16.—Protected by a dozen armed guards, the Italians employed by the Worocno Construction Company, whose paymaster was held up by three masked bandits and robbed of $20,000 in cash and checks on Saturday night last, worked away unmolested today. Yesterday several Italians were fired upon while at work. They refused to return to work today unless protected. Martamilli, who was wounded yesterday will undoubtedly recover. The shooting of Martamilli gave new life to the hunt for the bandits and their booty. One party headed for Mt. Washington, where it was reported that three men had been seen in the woods Sunday. The only clue found was evidence that an old wood chopper's cabin had been occupied within a day or two. Tonight the majority of the out-of-town searchers left for their homes, and the search was practically abandoned.

ABANDON HOPE OF WOLVERINE COMING TO PORT

Eighty Persons On Board Lake Winnipeg Steamer Overdue Two Weeks—Starvation Or Drowning.

Special to The Standard. Selkirk, Manitoba, Nov. 16.—The steamer Wolverine, with a crew of fourteen, and a passenger list of sixty-six, which has been missing for about two weeks, is now believed to have been lost in Lake Winnipeg. A native runner brought here today a report that the ship had foundered and that possibly all on board had perished. The runner declared it was possible for some of the survivors to have taken refuge on some of the small islands which stand in the lake. Woodmen from the lake region declare that if the ship foundered, those on board who escaped to the islands in the neighborhood of the disaster would die of starvation before they could make their way to the mainland.

SAYS TRUSTS CUT PRICES

Washington, Nov. 16.—Manipulation of prices by the interests is responsible for the political so-called reduction in the prices of meats. This was the statement made today by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the Department of Agriculture. He added that the interests had sent the prices down just as before they had sent them up and that developments would show they were getting ready for a fresh grip on the throats of the consumer.

DR. H. W. WILEY

Washington, Nov. 16.—Manipulation of prices by the interests is responsible for the political so-called reduction in the prices of meats. This was the statement made today by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the Department of Agriculture. He added that the interests had sent the prices down just as before they had sent them up and that developments would show they were getting ready for a fresh grip on the throats of the consumer. "The interests which manipulated the prices upward, temporarily have released their hold on our throats for the purpose of getting a fresh grip. The so-called reduction in meats is fictitious. Its manipulation was deliberate, just as the increase in prices was unjust, unreasonable and uncalled for, for conditions prevailing throughout the country. The prices were fictitious at the top notch because they were forced there arbitrarily by the interests. Developments will show that the interests are after some one. It may be some independent movement they hope to drive from cover."

SPEECH FROM THRONE MEAGRE

Little Prospect Of Important Legislation During Coming Session—International Freight Bill Will Be Held Up.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 16.—The speech from the Throne tomorrow at the opening of Parliament will be more than usually barren of notice of prospective legislation. After the usual reference to the bounties bestowed by Providence, the death of the King will come in for a sympathetic paragraph. The arrival of the warships Niobe and Rainbow will be mentioned as implementing the legislation of last session. The Hudson Bay railway; the deepening of the Welland Canal and Mr. Fisher's copyright act will be referred to. Regarding the bill creating a commission to regulate international freight between Canada and the United States, it was stated tonight that as such would be of no avail without similar legislation on the part of congress, Mr. Graham will take up the matter with the Washington authorities with a view to arranging a conventional treaty respecting this traffic.

RIFLES PURCHASED FOR OPPONENT OF DIAZ

Firearms Seized At San Antonio, Texas. Property Of Madera's Friend—Secret Service Men Watching.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 16.—It developed today that the high power rifles which were found here by federal officers were purchased by Iliza Griesenheik, a friend of Francisco I. Madero, anti-re-electionist candidate for president of Mexico. Griesenheik says he bought them for speculative purposes and denies they were intended for any revolutionary movement. Madero denies having any connection with the purchase. A. G. Garcia, secret service officer of Mexico is here with 60 men watching the movements of Madero and his brothers. Another lot of rifles and ammunition was discovered today by the Mexican officers.

BRAKEMAN KILLED ON MAINE CENTRAL

Waterville, Maine, Nov. 16.—Edward J. Doupois, aged 26, a brakeman employed on a Maine Central work train, was killed in the yard here this afternoon while coupling cars. No one witnessed the accident, the first that was known about it being when Doupois staggered out from between the cars and fell. He had been caught in such a way as to break his spinal column and crush his left side and lived but a few minutes. He is survived by a widow and one small child.

Loved Clerk; Tried to Murder Husband

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 16.—John O. Schenk, millman and work packer, is in the hospital here, slowly recovering from the effects of poison which almost killed him.
 His wife, a poor girl when he married her 12 years ago, has been arrested and awaits a preliminary hearing on a charge of attempting to poison him.
 Their two children, ignorant of both facts, are being cared for by Schenk's brother.
 Detectives employed by Schenk's suspicious relatives unearthed the evidence which led to Mrs. Schenk's arrest. It is charged that systematic doses of arsenic administered in food or drink, gradually brought Schenk to death's door. Samples of lily water in the Schenk home were analyzed and shown to contain considerable quantities of arsenic.
 One detective, disguised as a nurse, is said to have been offered $1000 to put arsenic in Schenk's medicine, even after he was taken to the hospital. Another, acting as chauffeur, is said to have been offered $1000 to take Schenk out in his auto and run him in a ditch. The same chauffeur will testify to several trips taken by Mrs. Schenk to Belaire, it is said.
 Another arrest, that of "the man in the case," is predicted by the prosecutor. This man and the desire to prematurely acquire Schenk's millions, are the motives alleged for the crime.
 Mrs. Schenk denies all the charges. When told, on his hospital cot, of his wife's arrest, Schenk broke into sobs. "Oh, Laura, Laura," he cried, turned his face to the wall and absolutely refused to talk.
 Following Mrs. Schenk's effort to end her life, precautions to keep her from self destruction were redoubled. A watch is always with her and no one is allowed to talk to her except in the company of a third person.
 Mrs. Schenk's cell has been fitted out with furnishings taken from her palatial home.

NEWS OF THE WEEK FROM SACKVILLE

Fire Breaks Out in University Residence—First Debate of Season Held—$135 Realized at Tea.

Sackville, Nov. 14.—The death of Edwin O. Chapman occurred at his home in Minnesota recently at the age of 85 years. He was a native of Point St. Barthelemy, a member of the first class of the University of New Brunswick at Sackville. A widow, two daughters and one son are left to mourn. The funeral services were in charge of the I. O. O. F., the deceased being a member of that order since 1851.
 C. H. Martin, accountant at Dorchester penitentiary, has been granted a month's leave and is returning to his place in Sackville. Mr. Martin is a member of the department of Justice, Ottawa.

The marriage of Miss Lettie Silliker, daughter of the late Edward Silliker, Port Elgin, to R. S. Scott, of Medford, Mass., was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Knox, at Medford recently. They were the first couple to take advantage of the special act in Massachusetts removing a barrier on youthful marriages. The bride is over 17, but the groom has not yet reached that age. Rev. Edward Vandemark was the officiating clergyman.

Miss Ethel Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Casey, Amherst, left last week for Calgary and on her arrival there will be united in marriage to Roy C. Buckley, a Halifax young man, formerly assistant pastor of Trinity Methodist church, Amherst, now of the customs department, Calgary.

David Turner, who has been in the employ of the Rhodes Curry Company, Ltd., for the past 26 years and for 12 years as superintendent of No. 1 factory, has resigned and left to accept a position in Toronto. Tuesday evening the officials and office staff of the company met at his home and Mayor J. M. Curry, secretary of the firm, on behalf of those present, presented Mr. Turner with an address, and a purse of gold. Much regret was expressed at his departure from Amherst. Although completely taken by surprise, Mr. Turner gratefully acknowledged the address and its accompanying gift.

A company of Boy Scouts has been formed at Port Elgin and has a promising outlook. The members number over 20 and Saturday morning they have their games and drill.
 The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church gave a tea and fancy sale on Friday evening in the basement of the church. Ice cream and home-made candy were also for sale. The proceeds amounted to over $135.00. A very pleasant evening was spent by those present.

Rev. Ross Jones, Episcopal minister of Mount Whately and Port Elgin, yesterday linking the names of Mrs. Schenk and a young ($20 a week) clerk in a local piano store, Wilson, the chauffeur, made a statement to the authorities which told of extreme affection between the clerk and Mrs. Schenk.
 Had Run of Garage.
 Wilson told the police that the clerk had run of the Schenk garage and that he and Mrs. Schenk frequently made long automobile trips together. He said the conduct of the couple on these trips was always loving. The office of the prosecuting attorney, J. B. Handian, is said to be searching for a mysterious woman. What part she plays in the tragedy is not known. It is reported, however, that they started to look for her after Wilson had made his statement.
 According to Wilson Mrs. Schenk wanted to marry the clerk. The chauffeur said that she told him up on one occasion that he would not have to work any more if he would run his car over an embankment when it contained Mr. Schenk. The clerk is known as the best dressed man in Wheeling. Recently he appeared in a $100 fur overcoat and his clothes are masterpieces of the tailor.
 Following Mrs. Schenk's effort to end her life, precautions to keep her from self destruction were redoubled. A watch is always with her and no one is allowed to talk to her except in the company of a third person.
 Mrs. Schenk's cell has been fitted out with furnishings taken from her palatial home.

POLITICAL ISSUES IN GREAT BRITAIN.

With the prospect of a general election in Great Britain before the close of the year the politicians are making hurried preparations for a campaign which, if short, bids fair to be more strenuous than usual. The champions of Tariff Reform appear to have decided that the time is not opportune to again press this issue upon the electorate and the forces of the Unionists are concentrating for an attack on Home Rule which, with Mr. Redmond and his friends holding the balance of power has become once more a burning question in British politics.

The attitude of the Observer, one of the most aggressive Unionist journals, and the editor of which is Mr. J. L. Garvin, indicates the line of attack. It says:—"What is the vital word in this struggle? It is that John Redmond landed in Queenstown last night with $200,000 in his pocket for the purpose of tearing down the British Constitution. He comes to provide, if he can, with his Transatlantic subsidies and nothing else, another majority for his kept ministry. He comes with the money of Patrick Ford to wipe out the political interests of England, to hand over England to the domination of Socialism, to keep free imports fastened on the back of the British masses, to make a final end of the old dignity, honor, and estate of the Mother of Parliaments. Above all, he returns with his Republican cash to extort from the British Crown his guarantees, and if he can not get them for forty thousand pounds, let us concede that he would be dirt-cheap at the price."

"In a word, he comes once more with his freely-imported pelf to resume the evil work that hurried King Edward to the grave. He reappears to effect a conquest more shameful, more ignominiously fatal, than could be effected by foreign arms. We not only tell him that he will never succeed until the very soul and patriotism of England are dead; we tell him that from the judgment of England he shall not escape. The nation recognizes the emergency—recognizes that this is like nothing else ever known in our politics or in the politics of any great people. Within a week throughout the length and breadth of Great Britain a blaze will be lighted that no efforts of the kept ministry and of the men with American money shall put out. It will consume them. The price of the great betrayal of every permanent interest of the Constitution is $200,000. It will be as suicidal a sum as the thirty pieces of silver."

A similar, but milder, tone is adopted by Mr. F. E. Smith, M. P., who recently raised the Unionists to great enthusiasm by a speech at Brackley. After referring to the fighting spirit of the Conservative party he continues:—"Never did a great army attack an enemy embarrassed by such open humiliation. Premier Asquith is inarticulate; no cabinet decision on any point is possible. He will take no decision until the uncrowned King of political mendicants, his pockets bulging with American gold, appears from the sea, like Aphrodite, but less lovely, to give insulting directions to the successor of Chatham. The Liberals, supreme a year ago in the House of Commons, are today no more than equal to the Unionists. If this was achieved in January, before the Budget was nailed to the counter, what is possible in December?"

The Liberals on the other hand will make their appeal to the people on the question of Reform in the House of Lords. Mr. Lloyd-George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, is emphatic on this point. "Having in vain," he says, "used every endeavor through conciliatory methods to win equal political rights for all Britons, we are now driven to fight for fair play in our native land. We repudiate the claim put forward by the Peers that they were going to control the destinies of 45,000,000 of their fellow-citizens and to trample upon their wishes for the good government of their own country."

The Daily Chronicle gives as a watchword—"Strike Now! Strike Hard!" It calls Mr. Garvin's article a "wild Dervish dance of inflammatory rhetoric, and says his suggestion that King Edward was hurried to his grave by the government's policy is a cruel calumny for which there is not a shred of justification."

The Daily News vehemently declares that the nation will not be dragged by appeals to national and race hatred, and adds:—"The sole issue is, Shall the Lords or the People Rule?"

It may occasion some surprise that Tariff Reform should be suddenly relegated to the background. But it must be remembered that two recent elections at South Shields and Walthamstow, necessitated by the promotion of Sir William Robson to the bench and the acceptance of the office of Solicitor General by Sir John Simon, had results which were not inspiring to the Unionist party or the tariff reformers. If a majority is to be gained for Tariff Reform by the Unionists, it must be done by carrying the great industrial towns whose vote was cast for the Liberals at the last election. Both South Shields and Walthamstow were such constituencies, and a comparison of the figures of the recent elections with those of the general election scarcely tends to give hope at present of any shifting of public opinion.

At the general election, in January last, Sir William Robson was returned for South Shields with a majority of 423, out of a total vote of 12,944. On the recent occasion Mr. Russell Roa, the Ministerialist, defeated Mr. Vaughan Williams, the Unionist, by 3019 out of a total of 12,839. It is true that this shows a decrease of 1200 votes in the Liberal total, but it has to be remembered that Mr. Roa was a stranger to the constituency, whereas Sir William Robson had represented it for fifteen years and was deservedly popular. If, however, Mr. Roa's poll decreased by some 1200, that of Mr. Vaughan Williams only increased by some 50 votes, as the result of all the efforts to return him on this occasion. Such a result was no cause for gratification to the Unionist managers.

If the result of the South Shields election showed little signs of a tariff reform reaction, that in the Walthamstow division of Essex showed even less. Here the government was at no disadvantage with respect to candidates, as both the Ministerialist and the Unionist had contested the division at the last election, while the Ministerialist had sat for it during the last four years. In spite of this, circumstances had made the position of Sir John Simon a distinctly difficult one. As a law officer of the Crown, the attitude of the Trade Unionists towards him, in respect of the Osborne judgment, was a dangerous one, and had resulted in a disagreement which had led the Trade Union Council to direct all the members in the division to vote against him. In a division in which the voters were to an enormous extent working men this was an extreme course. Out of a total poll of 33,257 at the last election, Sir John Simon's majority had been only 2195. If, therefore, the Trade Union Council had been able to exercise any serious authority, Sir John Simon's seat was as good as lost. As a matter of fact, when the figures were declared, it was found that he had increased his majority by some 600 votes, from 2195 at the last election to 2795 in the present instance.

The inference is inevitable that, even when directed by their leaders to vote against the Liberal candidate, the Trade Unionists not only refused to vote for Tariff Reform, but even to refrain from voting for the Liberal. The total decrease in Sir John Simon's poll was only 1053, while that in his opponent, Mr. Johnson's, was 1681. It is difficult to draw any conclusion other than that the great industrial constituencies in England are not yet ready to accept Tariff Reform. The shifting of the battleground to more live issues tends to strengthen this view.

ABNORMAL WHEAT.

A British agriculturist has just produced the most rapidly grown wheat crop ever known, and sees no reason why land should not yield two crops a summer—regardless of winter sowing. The new crop—two acres of it—appeared five days after the seeding, instead of after the usual three weeks. The entire crop was in full head eleven weeks later. The seed was planted and cultivated in the usual way, without especially favoring conditions and without undue stimulation of the soil.

The cause of the accelerated growth is in the treatment of the seed itself. A secret process affects the germ, trebling the life force. The "new" wheat will no longer come in stalks but in "bushes"—not only in quicker time but in larger quantities. The experimenters think that an active farmer might get in two crops the season—one sown in March, the other in June. The conservative cultivator, satisfied with one crop, might still derive benefit from the opportunities of the new order. He could postpone his single planting until May, or even later, thus selecting his weather and minimizing all risks.

Though the process of treating the seed is still a secret, it can scarcely remain so. If this agricultural miracle is a practical actuality it involves a matter too vital to remain private. Nothing is said about the probable ultimate effect of this rapid growth on the soil itself.

(Hamilton Herald.)

A Toronto petition has been forwarded to the British Home Secretary, asking that Dr. Crippen be not hanged. Three reasons are given for this request. One is that it is not certain that Mrs. Crippen is dead. But the jury decided that point. Another reason is that Crippen has some good qualities. If that reason were a sound one, then no man would be executed, for "there's a good in the worst of us." The third reason is that capital punishment is wrong anyhow, and ought to be abolished. Ay, there's the rub. Whatever may be thought about capital punishment, however, British law can not be changed, on the petition of these Toronto folks, in time to save Crippen.

One Toronto Liberal paper, dealing with the political composition of the Senate, wants the Government to fill all vacancies not only with Liberals, but with Liberals who are young and healthy and good life insurance risks. Recent events have evidently set the Government's friends to thinking of the future, when Liberals will be in opposition, and under the working of their own practice can only hope for such enjoyment of place as is got by looking from outside at the warm fire through the office window.

Secretary of State Murphy reports that maladministration and graft have marked the management of the Printing Bureau at Ottawa. As a result of these evils the country has lost an amount of money that cannot be estimated. Here we have an admission from within of the charge of impropriety that has been so freely made in the country and in Parliament. What has happened in the Printing Bureau would never occur under an Administration that is awake to its duties and honest in the conduct of business.

To make the process of securing justice so costly as to drive men and women in poor circumstances to accept injustice rather than face the expense of an appeal to the courts, is subversive of the most important of all tenets upon which society is built. Justice is neither free nor equal when we so overload it with fees and expenses as to make it, for practical purposes, only available for those with long purses.

A state-owned cable between Great Britain and Canada would result in each country getting a comprehensive daily news service of the happenings in the other. The news would not be colored as it is when it comes through foreign channels, as was that dispatch from Teheran relative to the trouble in Persia.

Mr. Emmerson is reported to have intimated to Mr. Brady that his time would be short on the Intercolonial. Mr. Brady is reported to have replied that he might be still on the Intercolonial Board after Mr. Emmerson had been retired from public life. Time will tell which is the stronger power.

A BIBLE STUDENT LOOKING FOR TRUTH

Criticism of Present Day Theological Dogma of Resurrection and Final Judgment—Wrong Conclusions.

In this letter I propose to discuss that special feature of orthodox theology, viz: the resurrection, the mortal bodies the spirits are to assume and the judgment which is to follow. Christian theologians tell us as a portion of their teaching that when the body dies the spirit goes to Heaven, Hell or Purgatory and some say it rots or sleeps, until the morning of the resurrection. The Apostle Paul puts this plainly when he says, "All that are in their graves shall hear His voice and come forth, while those who are alive on the earth, shall be caught up to meet the Lord in the air." According to this view there is to be a general resurrection, and all the spirits are to receive new bodies, or the old ones resurrected after their ten thousand times ten thousand transformations into different forms of matter.

Supposing our world has been inhabited a million years with human beings, and will be inhabited a million years longer, and all the spirits that have passed through are re-embodied and come to judgment. The books are opened according to Christian theology, and all are being judged for the deeds done in the body and a verdict given that will seal their fate to all eternity.

Where will the court be held? This world would not be large enough to hold them. I will suppose a place is found large enough to hold them, and the judgment begun. How many thousands and years would the last ones have to wait before it came to their turn to be judged? While those judged would enjoy thousands of years of the happiness in store for them, while others would have thousands of years of misery as the case might be, while the last to be judged would be waiting for their turn. Those conclusions are certainly a legitimate outcome of the promises laid down by Christian theologians in their teachings upon this subject.

But it would not stop there. The mind naturally goes further. The subject is boundless. The theology I have been discussing deals with the spirits, but it must be countless millions of worlds with intelligent beings upon them, under the same infinite guidance and control, pouring out human spirits into space in numbers that would set figures at defiance, going on from all eternity past, and continuing to all eternity to come. We can conceive of worlds, some billions—virtually dead, as far as animal life is concerned. That such changes have ever been going on, and will continue to go on, cannot be doubted. Would those which had intelligent beings upon them end with a similar consummation to what theologians give ours, with similar resurrections and judgments?

Those are vast problems naturally growing out of Christian theology. And do they not throw grave doubts as to whether the great being we call God ever inspired such a theology? Surely, the best explanation could be found of what they call a divine plan made for human beings in connection with this world of ours. I cannot avoid the conclusion, that, instead of showing the infinite wisdom of a wise and loving Father, they insinuate reflection of a very different nature, which I am confident Christian theologians never intended.

Mr. Tanzman has made many friends while in business in this city and they will regret to hear of his decision to remove to the west. On account of the heavy stock carried in his store at 223 Union street and the short space of time left in which to dispose of it, Mr. Tanzman will offer some exceptional bargains at his big sale which will open on Friday, Nov. 18.

Life-Time Watches

A watch is usually a life long companion. The pleasant associations and memories that gather around the time piece you carry increases its value to you far beyond its intrinsic worth. So in watch buying you should select one that will endure for a life time. Such a watch need not necessarily be very expensive. It may require a little more money perhaps than you had intended to pay, but for the few dollars extra you get a watch that has "class" in its construction, in its design and in its finish, and that gives you better service all the time you carry it. Let us show you some of these life-time watches and explain to you the difference in value.

WHY PEOPLE REFUSE

TO COME TO CHRIST

Dr. Torrey Gives Reasons Why Invitation of Christ is Refused—Large Attendance at Meetings.

In spite of the weather there was a large attendance at the meetings in Queens Park last evening. The musical service was of the usual high order, and the after-meeting was well attended.

Dr. Torrey preached a powerful sermon based on the text of John v. 40, "Ye will not come to Me, that ye might have life."

Those words contained the explanation why any man is lost, he said.

If any man is lost it will be because he will not come to Christ.

Why Men Will Not Come.

But why will not men come to Christ? There are many things that keep them from coming.

1. The first one is sin. I believe that sin is keeping more men and women from coming to Christ than almost anything else.

There are a great many men in this world who know their need of a Saviour, who long for a Saviour, who have a deep desire to take the Lord Jesus Christ, but they know if they come to Him they must leave their sins.

2. The love of money keeps many men from coming to Christ. Many a man knows that if he came to Christ he would lose money by it.

There are things in his business that would need to be given up. But he is not willing to sacrifice the profits he gets in crooked ways. He is deliberately choosing a larger income and eternal life instead of Jesus Christ and eternal life.

How many a young fellow has come to me and when I have urged him to come to Christ he has said, "I believe it is a good thing, but I should have to give up my situation if I did."

Two young ladies said to Mrs. Torrey at one of our services in Australia when they seemed to be very near decision, "We cannot come to Christ. We are employed in a large shop, and our employer requires us to misrepresent the goods."

3.—Love of pleasure is keeping many a man and woman from coming to Christ. How many men and young women there are in St. John who know they need Christ, but they do not come to Christ, but they say if they come to Christ they will have to give up this or that pleasure—the dance or the card party or the theatre. I can never do it, they say, and they are choosing the dance or card party or theatre or some other form of worldly amusement and death instead of Jesus Christ and eternal life.

4.—The fear of man is keeping many a man and woman in St. John from coming to Christ and obtaining eternal life. How many there are who when the invitation is given would like to stand up, but they say if I should do it my friends in business or society would hear about it, and what would they say? You keep your seat and you reject Jesus Christ, they fear, what would they say. In Proverbs XXII. 25, we read: "The fear of man bringeth a snare." It is bringing a snare that is leading many a man that leads to eternal ruin instead of to Jesus Christ and life eternal.

5.—An unforgiving spirit is another thing that is keeping men and women from coming to Jesus Christ. They know that they cannot come, and bring a heart full of hate, and so they choose bitterness and hatred and death instead of Jesus Christ and life.

6. Self-will stands between many a person and Christ and eternal life. There are a great many people in this world who are not willing to surrender their wills to anybody, but they render their wills to God, they are bound to have their own way. A woman told me on Friday night, she said, "I cannot give my will up to anybody, but the devil is hellish! Who is this God to whom we ask you to surrender your will? God is love. Is it not wisdom to surrender our wills to infinite love and wisdom? Oh, the folly of those who will not surrender their wills to God and His love!"

Pride also keeps people away. Pride operates in another way. Oh, pride by the help of God I could tear these awful scales from your eyes. Pride makes people set themselves not to do certain things which they are asked to do. "I am not coming to the meeting," or "I am not going to the front seats," or "I am not going to the inquiry room. A person can be saved without these things, and beyond a doubt, but if you make it a point that you won't do something of that kind, you won't be saved until you do."

IN CITY STREETS

Arboricultural Society Take Advantage of Fine Weather—Col. Jones Tells of Healthy Influence of Trees.

The Arboricultural Society has been taking advantage of the fine weather recently to plant trees in different sections of the city. About 60 trees have been planted so far, and a number of others will be planted on King Square.

The association has planted trees around the square at the foot of In-dian-street, on the square at the foot of Garden street, and on Waterloo, Wall, Coburg and Duke streets. Owing to the inability of the association to secure iron guards this fall, the trees already planted have been protected by wooden guards, but it is the intention of the association to place iron guards around all trees planted in the streets.

Col. Geo. West Jones, president of the society, last evening was asked about the tree planting.

"It's going along fine," he said, "The only thing that bothers me is that it is going to take some time for the trees to grow. What we want is a society to encourage tree growing."

Importance of Tree Growing.

"We are just beginning to realize the importance of trees. Not long ago the New York County Medical Society adopted a resolution to the effect that one of the most effective means for mitigating the intense heat of summer, and diminishing the death rate among children was the cultivation of an adequate number of trees in the streets. The sanitary value of trees is further illustrated by the fact that the act of the New York legislature giving the Park Commission control of the street trees was drawn up by a physician and a member of the Board of Health."

"The large percentage of ozone," continued the Colonel, "in forest air and the scarcity of it in the treeless streets, where crowded dwellings abound, demonstrates that this tonic and recuperative element of the air is due to the presence of trees and the lack of it to their absence. Streets well planted with trees invite the out-of-door life, and the out-of-door life brings no more disease. It greets the grim specter of tuberculosis, now so serious a menace to every individual in our city."

WEDDINGS.

Waddell-Partison.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Partison, Forest street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Laura Mary, was united in marriage to Roy St. Clair Waddell, proprietor of The Willows hotel, on the Kennebecasis river, Ven, Arch-deacon Raymond officiated. The bride was given away by her father and was attired in a travelling suit of blue with hat to match, and carried a large bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by her sister, Grace, while Eugene Waddell, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. The wedding was witnessed by Mrs. W. and Fred. Smith. Only relatives and immediate friends were present at the ceremony. After a dainty repast the happy couple left in an automobile for their home at the Willows, where a reception was held in their honor last evening. Both are popular and many beautiful wedding gifts testified to the esteem in which they are held by their friends.

Keating-Wilson.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Peter's church yesterday morning after 6 o'clock mass. Rev. A. J. Delaney officiated in marrying Charles Keating of Randolph, to Miss Ella Wilson of Millidge Avenue. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Wilson, and groomed by Tim Delaney. The bride wore a beautiful dress of old rose silk, with lace trimmings and hat to match. The bridesmaid wore a pale blue silk dress and carried a large bouquet of cream roses. The bride received many beautiful presents of cut glass and silverware. A reception was held at the home of the bride last evening.

Harding-Miller.

The wedding of Charles Edward Harding of West St. John, to Miss Vinay Eitta Miller, also of Carleton, took place yesterday evening at the home of Rev. David Hutchinson, 41 Douglas avenue. The bride and groom were attended. They will reside in Carleton.

Belyea-Robinson.

St. Stephen, Nov. 16.—A clergyman came from Maine today and carried away a fair bride from the border town. The clergyman was Rev. Samuel B. Belyea, pastor of the Baptist church at East Machias, and his bride was Miss Jeannette Robinson, youngest daughter of Mrs. J. B. Robinson and sister of Mrs. W. G. Gange. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Goucher at the bride's home, at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends. The drawing rooms were beautifully adorned with roses and carnations, embedded in smiles and tears. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride was very welcome in a dainty gown of white embroidered chiffon and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was given in marriage by her brother, Edgar M. Robinson of New York city. After the ceremony congratulations were extended and the wedding supper enjoyed.

The bride has been a valued work-er in the Union street Baptist church and the eatery in which she is held by all classes was manifested in the banquet and variety of the presents received.

Rev. Mr. Belyea is a native of New Brunswick, but has held pastorates in Maine for several years.

Portland, Maine, Nov. 15.—In a handicap match tonight, Dr. Stanislaus Zyzsko, the Polish wrestler, failed to throw Frank Lemm, of St. John, twice in 45 minutes. He did not gain a fall, and the match was awarded to Lemm.

PRESBYTERY COMMITTEE

VISIT ST. ANDREWS

Series of Conferences to be Held With City Churches With Object of Aiding Progress of Work.

The committee of the Presbytery of St. John appointed to visit the churches in the city, paid a visit to St. Andrew's church last evening, and held a conference with the church elders and board of management as to the progress being made in the schemes of the church. There was a fairly representative gathering and an especially good representation of elders.

Rev. H. R. Read, of the Carleton Presbyterian church, presided, and the members of the committee were Rev. D. MacOdrum of Moncton, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Rev. L. A. McLean, Rev. Gordon Dickie, of this city, and elders T. H. Scriver and Thomas Graham. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. Read and Rev. Mr. MacOdrum. The conference lasted until 10 o'clock, which was participated in by all present.

Fairville church will be visited to-night. On Tuesday evening the committee visited the Carleton Presbyterian church.

IS CANOE BUILDER

As his picture indicates, Mr. Campbell looks younger than some men at 60. His movements are not at all faltering or feeble, but active, vigorous and decisive. He is in possession of all his faculties. His mind is alert, his eyes bright and sparkling. His sight is like a boy. He reads the finest print without glasses. His hearing shows no defects.

Born in P. E. Island.

He was born at Lot 16, Grand River, Prince Edward Island, March 4th, 1850 one of a family of eight boys. His parents died when they were quite young, the youngest only six weeks old. He is now the only surviving one.

Mr. Campbell's ordinary walking gait when not rushed is a mile in 20 minutes. He can easily walk a distance of 5 miles without being tired.

When Mr. Campbell first came to Fords Mills there were no roads from Mill Creek to Bass River. All went in canoes on the river.

When asked why he thought had most to do with causing his long life, he said he really didn't know. He always took things as they came, rough or smooth. He has never taken any special care of himself and had worked hard all his life. Only twice in his long life has he been sick and each time the doctor attended him and he thought he would not recover.

The centenarian remembers the Miramichi fire of 1825. He was a young ferryman at the time and remembers the canoe being so slick he had to keep blowing the horn as people could not see his boat.

He is fond of music and can sing a song very well. Through over 50 years he has regularly shaved himself, and with no new fangled safety razor at that.

In religion, Mr. Campbell is a Presbyterian, and is quite decided that is the best church.

Eschews Tobacco.

When asked if he had used any particular kind of food more than others he replied, "Nothing particularly. Everything that came my way. He has always used tea, but never tobacco.

He went only three months to school. His teacher was Henry Dewter. He says his children had a longer time than they have now.

He was married to Miss Esther McKenzie, who died some years ago. He has no children.

Mr. Campbell does not take much stock in the increased cost of living. The cost might be increased to the non-producers, he insists that in his experience the difference between the producers is more apparent than real. "Usually if the articles you buy are higher, labor and the things you sell are also of more value, and they generally even up," he said.

Certainly the present time is not the worst in his experience. He remembers when he paid $16 for a barrel of flour, sugar, tea and other necessities were equally high, and at the time 50 cents was a day's pay for a laboring man.

Mr. Campbell was in St. John four years ago and attended the exhibition there. His first visit to Moncton was when the I. C. R. was first started. At that time there were only a few houses in Richibucto.

Water Conference.

The city's system of water supply and fire protection will be the subject of discussion at a joint meeting of committees from the Water and Sewerage Board, the Board of Fire Underwriters and the Board of Trade this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Board of Trade representatives, Messrs. W. H. Thorne and W. H. Barnaby, recently took a trip to Loch Lomond to inspect the work there and Messrs. Peter Clinch and H. B. Robinson, representing the insurance men, took part in the recent inspection of water pressures in the city.

As the result of these investigations neither party was satisfied, and Aid. Likely, chairman of the Water and Sewerage Board, admitted that he was puzzled by some of the discrepancies met. The whole situation will be considered. It is expected that some active steps towards putting the service on a more satisfactory basis will be urged.

Scow Stranded.

A scow loaded with soft coal was stranded in the Market Slip yesterday morning. It had been loaded by the Dominion Coal Company from the steamer Dominion at North wharf, and hauled to slip. It was towed into the slip and grounded to save it and will be emptied at low tide.

First Bank in District.

The Bank of British North America yesterday opened a branch on Haymarket Square. It will be a sub-branch of the branch at the corner of Union and Sydney streets, and for the present is in charge of Courtland Robinson.

ACADIA PLAYS TIE WITH MT. A.

Intercollegiate Football Season Ends With Two Teams on Even Terms--May be Played Off--Neither Team Scored Clean Touchdown--Acadia Tallied on Penalty Kick.

Acadia 3, Mt. Allison 3. Wolfville, Nov. 16.—Thus ended the great football game for the intercollegiate championship this afternoon. The two thousand spectators who witnessed the contest received full value for their money, as it was a struggle crammed full of excitement from the beginning to the end.

This game was looked upon as the most important football game of the Eastern Canada, and over two hundred strangers were in town for the occasion. The Mount Allison team brought almost a hundred rowers with them, and old Acadia students were present from all parts of Nova Scotia. Acadia played with the same team that trimmed U. N. B. Her halves were faster and more aggressive than the Allison backs, but they did not have as many opportunities to rush matters as their opponents for the Mount Allison forwards were better blockers than the garnet and blue. Especially in the second half was this very evident.

Mount Allison's quarters are good, but they found their equals today. Acadia made a change in her formation, playing three quarters instead of two. Buckley of the Allison's was easily the star of that aggregation, but he was watched so closely by the Acadians that it was impossible for him to indulge in his usual plays. Acadia's halves did not have an opportunity to try any of their trick plays, nor did they get away on any of their usual long combination runs.

The Mount Allison halves were always in the right place at the right time. First Half. Mount Allison kicked off to Acadia's ten yard line. Reid started off for a run but was tackled. From a scrimmage on the garnet and blue's quarter line Richmond got the ball and after making a short gain passed to Kaiser, who made a beautiful run for thirty yards. In a few seconds Macdonald punted into Mount Allison's ten yard line. From a mix-up the Allison's were awarded a free kick. Cochrane sent the pignskin to Acadia's quarter line and from there it was kicked to the garnet and blue's ten yard line.

From a mix-up on Acadia's quarter line Macdonald attempted a drop kick for goal, which was unsuccessful. Macdonald kicked the ball over the dead line. Reid kicked a long drop from the twenty-five yard line and Trappell returned the compliment.

From a scrimmage on Mount A's ten yard line the garnet and blue were awarded a free kick, making a gain of forty yards. Play was now carried on between Mount Allison's twenty-five and ten yard lines and the Allison's were working like demons to prevent Acadia from scoring. From a mix-up the garnet and blue were awarded a free kick.

Score on Penalty Kick. It was at a very difficult angle dead against the wind and few there were who thought that Reid could succeed in sending the pignskin between the poles, but with one of the prettiest kicks ever seen here he sent the ball flying over the cross bar drawing

HARDWARES AND OH YOUS WIN

Close Games Played in Y.M.C. A. Basketball League Last Evening--Hardware Led by One Point.

Last night in the Y. M. C. A. there was a double header in the senior basketball league. The players were watched by a large number of the members of the association. The first game was between the Clerks and the Hardware and the players lined up as follows:

Clerks: Forward, Thorne; Centre, Latham; Guards, Smith; Backs, Elliott, Wetmore. Hardware: Forward, Wilkins; Centre, Polkins; Guards, Stone; Backs, Burton, Laskey.

The score was 14 to 13 in favor of the Hardware.

The referee of the game was Fred Finley. Oh Yous, 4; Bankers, 2.

The second game was between the Bankers and the Oh Yous, and the lineup was:

Bankers: Forward, McLeod; Centre, Finley; Guards, Humphrey; Backs, Simpson, Jamieson. Oh Yous: Forward, Knodell; Centre, Paterson; Guards, Harper; Backs, Macaulay, Macaulay.

Goals from the floor, Knodell 1. Goals from fouls, Jamieson 2, Barbour 2. Score, 4 to 2 in favor of the Oh Yous. Roy Willett was the referee.

away on a nice combination run, gaining 39 yards.

Acadia was awarded a free kick on the half line after which both full-backs indulged in an exchange of long punts until field goal was attempted on touch at Allison's quarter line. Buckley was working hard now, but Acadia's quarters scarcely allowed him to gain five yards at a time. Play was kicked to the side of the field where Acadia almost scored. Several punts took place until the Allison's kicked the ball off touch on Acadia's quarter line.

From a throw-in the Allison's dribbled to Acadia's 5 yard line but Macdonald saved the situation by kicking the ball off touch.

From Acadia's quarter line the New Brunswickers were given a free kick and Macdonald tried to drop for goal. The ball went under the crossbar and rolled to the side of the field where it became mixed up with the spectators. It remained there several seconds, knocking from one person's legs to another's until the referee whistled what had happened. Cochrane dropped on it and Mt. Allison had scored.

Acadia protested, but the referee said that in cases where the ball becomes mixed in with the spectators and a try is scored, the visiting team has to be given the benefit of the doubt.

Cochrane's attempt to convert was unsuccessful.

The Wolfville boys worked like tigers now and set a pace which fairly took the visitors off their feet. From the kick-off they carried the ball to Mount Allison's quarter line. The half-backs participated in some sensational long passes and Kaiser dribbled all Mount Allison's ten yard line and almost scored.

During the remainder of the game play was mostly at centre field and between Acadia's quarter and ten yard line. Despite the determined efforts of both teams no score was made and the great struggle for the intercollegiate championship resulted in a tie.

Mount Allison wanted to play off but Acadia declined. It is quite probable, however, that the game will be played off on neutral grounds. Kaiser of Acadia played against the doctor's orders.

Captain Robinson, who hurt his ankle in the U. N. B. game, was out with the garnet and blue today, and "Bear" certainly did work hard. Macdonald of Mount Allison played with a sore ankle and put up a plucky fight. Buckley of Mount Allison hurt his head in the game and is under the care of the doctor. Taking the game as a whole one team had equally as much of the territory as the other, and it would be hard to find two more evenly matched football teams in the world. Dr. Destredes of Halifax refereed satisfactorily.

The visitors were given a reception by the A.A.A.A. tonight. The lineup was:

Lawrence, Brooks, Spurr, Spencer, Eaton, Robinson, Pincus, Moore.

LAW STUDENTS TRIM INDIANS. Veterans of Half a Dozen Colleges Came Back and Defeated Carlisle by Score of 3-0--Philbin a Star.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 16.—The ability of former football players to "come back" under the new rules was demonstrated on Soldiers field today when a number of players on half a dozen college teams last year, now students at the Harvard law school, with only a week or two of practice, defeated by a score of 3 to 0, an aggregation as the Carlisle Indians. New football, in the minds of those who saw the game, was fully vindicated.

F. B. Phillips, the fleet Yale half-back, of last year, was the whole show. Supposed to play quarterback on the law school team, he ran the eleven-yard line position where he repeatedly took direct passes either for a dash around or to hurl a forward pass. When in the first period he had driven Carlisle back to the 15-yard line he dropped a pretty field goal for the only score of the game. Hamilton Fish, the former Harvard captain, who led the law school team today, was as strong on the defense as Philbin in the offense and nearly all the Indian onslaughts were stopped by the tall rangey crimson player.

The Indians played out on the defensive except for a brief spurt in the fourth period when they reached the law school 28 yard line.

A fumble ended their chances for victory or a tie. The law school was several times within field goal distance of the Indian base line, but could not seem to aim to their points.

JUNIOR GAME WON AGAIN BY EXMOUTH JRS. A very fast game of basketball was held in Exmouth street Y. M. A. last evening in which Exmouth street Jr. defeated St. James by the score of 34-7.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 16.—George Cotton, the negro protégé of Jack Johnson, was badly beaten last night at the end of six rounds in the Union club, where he met Al Kubiak. Death Results. Augustine Johnson, a Swedish sailor, died at the General Public Hospital at ten o'clock last night. On Saturday afternoon last he fell between Starr's wharf and the schooner J. Arthur Lord and was struck back broken. He was 24 years of age.

Schooner Mineola Safe. The report that the St. John schooner Mineola was lost with all hands while on the passage from Restigouche to New York, was without foundation. Capt. Forsyth put into Hawkesbury, N. S., last Monday and proceeded on the voyage to New York on Tuesday.

Trainsmen arriving in the city on Tuesday night brought the information that at points along the C. P. R., between this city and Vancouver, there was sleighing. Even as far down as Westfield some venturesome ones were seen with the runners.

Foot Went to Sleep. There was a girl in Charlotte St. last evening. Girls are not a curiosity in Charlotte street in the evening. But this girl managed to excite considerable curiosity. She did not have a hobbie skirt, but she started to hobble and presently sat down on a door step. "Gracious, Bertie, what's the matter?" cried in alarm the other girl with her. "My foot's gone to sleep," said Bertie. Passersby stopped to stare, and presently a policeman hove in sight, whereupon Bertie's foot woke up and she got up and hobbled off.

Jack the Huggler. A Jack the Huggler case is reported from the vicinity of Dorchester street, and the effrontery of the individual may be imagined from the fact that he operated in the early evening and within a few yards of where many people were passing. On Tuesday evening a lady resident of that vicinity was returning to her home after a visit to a neighbor and when on the street near her home she was accosted by a man who attempted to embrace her. She screamed and the rascal at once took to his heels. On returning to her home she told her story and her husband and some friends started in search but could find no trace of the man.

St. Peter's Y. M. A. Reunion. The St. Peter's Y. M. A. held their annual reunion in their rooms Douglas avenue last night, and there was a large attendance. A. P. Delaney, the president of the association, presided, and the presidents of other Catholic societies made speeches. There were a number of selections by the orchestra. Joseph O'Brien gave a step dance, and vocal solos were given by W. Higgins, C. Olive, M. Morris, and Harry McQuade. M. Hurley gave a comic sketch; William Ryan and A. Conlon gave readings; Messrs. Colburn, McCafferty, Murphy and Delaney were heard in a vocal quartet. The affair was greatly enjoyed.

FEAR CHARLES MURPHY SUICIDED IN HARBOR

Family Have No Clue to Missing Man and Circumstances Indicate He Took His Own Life—No Word Since Sunday

It is thought by the friends of Charles B. Murphy of 102 Waterloo street, that he has probably met his death by drowning in the harbor. He has been missing since Sunday evening and the circumstances surrounding the disappearance point to that of a probable suicide. There is little hope held out by his friends that he will ever be seen alive.

Mr. Murphy was a young man of good habits and a very industrious employe at Phillips and Co's tobacco store on Charlotte street. He worked in the store until about 11 o'clock on Saturday night and went to his home.

He remained in the house all day and was very quiet. During the afternoon he devoted his time mostly to reading the papers. He also took what money he had and gave it to his sister, requesting her to call on a downtown tailor and pay a bill that was due them from him for clothing. When the others went out in the evening he was left in the house and when they returned he was absent.

Family Became Alarmed. In his room he left his watch and the keys of Phillips and Co's store. When he did not return home on Monday morning and had not put in an appearance at his work his family became anxious. Inquiries were made about the city and no person could give any tidings of his whereabouts.

Last night John Glynn stated that he met him on Waterloo street Sunday evening walking towards home and when asked if he was going home, Murphy stated he was not going there for a while.

Later on in the evening a Mr. Armstrong met him walking down King street near the Royal Bank of Canada and spoke to him. He was then walking towards Market Square. Up to late last night that was the only word that the missing man's brother heard of him since he left the house. When he left his home he was without money and the fact of his leaving other articles in the house is looked on most seriously. He has a great many friends in the city who learned with regret of his disappearance.

LAST BLOCK LAID ON SMYTHE STREET

Mayor Frink Officiates at Final Touch to Paving—German Street May be Finished This Week

The Hassam Company finished work on Smythe street yesterday. Mayor Frink laid the last paving block.

Later, Ald. McDougall, chairman of the Board of Public Works, inspected the street. He said it appeared to be a good job so far as he could see. When asked whether the block laid by the mayor was all right, the worthy alderman grew non-communative, and intimated that the mayor's work might become the subject of a civic investigation.

The Hassam Company will finish their work on German street Friday evening if the weather man is propitious; completing the job one day sooner than they agreed to do by the terms of their contract with the city. Mr. Low proposes to have pictures of the street before and after taking the Hassam method published in the papers in order to show that in the Hassam process is no bad as some people represented it to be.

It is probable that when the street is opened for traffic the event will be made the occasion of a grand parade of the apparatus of the city's street department.
