HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

THE RAILWAY PETITION DEFEATED IN THE HOUSE—AN ELECTIVE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL!

Monday, April 22.

The House went into Committee on a Bill to provide for the opening of Roads and construction of Bridges in the Province.

The Hon. Mr. Partelow rose and said, he held in his hand a very important petition signed by 1417 of the most intelligent, respectable and wealthy inhabitants of the City of Saint John, praying that measures be adopted to encourage the construction of a Rail Road from Saint John to Shediac.

Hon. Mr. Partelow said, he had a Resolution which he intended to move, and which he hoped would pass. He believed that 14,000 could be found to sign the petition as easily as the number who had signed it.

Whereas this House has passed a Bill giving facilities to construct that part of the contemplated Railway from St. John to Shediac, lying between the Bend of Petico-diac and Shediac, which Bill has been carried in the Legislative Council, and whereas that part of the line comprising these sections of the said Railway commencing at St. John and extending into King's County, from the City twenty-eight miles, as per Report of the Civil Engineer, should also be commenced with the least possible delay.

Therefore Resolved, That so soon as £62,000 be subscribed towards the last men- tioned part of the line being one half the estimated cost thereof, the Province should take Stock in the same to the same extent of £62,000, which sum shall be raised by the issue of Scrip, payable with interest, at a rate of six per cent. per annum, redeemable in thirty years; such Scrip, or the monies arising therefrom, to be appropriated towards the erection of the said road in sums of £2500 to every £2500 that the Shareholders of the said Railroad may subscribe, raise and pay up towards making the said road.

Mr. Ritchie felt much pleasure in second- ing the Resolution. It went to carry out a measure which he had the honor to submit on a former occasion, and which met the view of hon. colleagues. He was sorry however that while he and his hon. col- leagues were doing all they could in the House to further the construction of the Rail Road, their constituents had not shown more ac- tivity at an earlier period. He believed the same would apply to the other constituencies, who were deeply interested in the matter.

Mr. Vail also spoke in favour of the Resolution. Hon. Mr. Rankin next spoke against it.

Mr. End would go against the Resolution, first, because there was no money to spare, and secondly, because he did not think the line would pay. The country had a heavy Civil List, Roads, Bridges, and Schools, were too important to be neglected for any other consideration. This Rail Road was only to extend to King's County, and he could not see what there was to create a paying trade. The women might have a few pairs of socks, a few dozen of eggs and a tub of butter to send to market, but that was sufficient to pay. The hon. member spoke at some length and expressed his intention to vote against the Resolution.

Messrs. Brown, Thompson, Street, Gil- bert, Wark, and Fisher, made speeches against the Resolution.

Messrs. Jordan and Hannington contended for the Resolution, and expressed their con- viction that the Line would pay and be of great importance to the Province; the Resolution was then put and negatived.

The following is the division: Yeas—Hon. Messrs. Partelow, Hanning- ton, and Wilmet; Messrs. Jordan, Ritchie, R. D. Wilmet, Ansley, Woodward, Landry, Seave, Vail, S. Parle, and Botsford—13. Nays—Hon. Messrs. Rankin, Fisher, and

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The wreck of the Royal Adelaide Steamer of Margate.—Margate, Tuesday, April 2.

The wreck of this fine steamer, and the awful loss of life consequent thereon, has occasioned a painful degree of excitement in this place. Intelligence of the catastrophe only reached the authorities about noon on Sunday last, though the wreck took place at 11 o'clock on the preceding night, within 15 miles of the harbour. It now appears that the signals of distress fired from on board the unfortunate ship were observed by the coast guard men anchored to the Westgate station, about one mile westward from this town on the cliffs. As they were repeated only two or three times, however, the men did not give any alarm to the pilot boats, and the signals not being observed from the port head or harbour, no boats put off during the night. Yesterday morning, about half-past 7 o'clock, a signal gun was fired from the Tougue lightship. The signal was not repeated, but there was something sufficient- ly unusual in the circumstance of its being fired at all to induce the crew of the lugger called the Nelson, under the command of William Parker, to put off, with the view of ascertaining what was required. The Nelson left the harbour shortly after eight o'clock, and bore towards the Tougue Sand. On nearing the lightship they signalled her crew, who inquired whether they were come out in consequence of having heard a gun fired. The crew of the Nelson said they had, and asked what was the matter. The captain of the lightship said they feared a large steamer had gone ashore on the Tougue Sand, about three miles off. The men on board the light vessel reported that when the Royal Adelaide passed their ship a dreadful sea was running, and their opinion is that having first struck the edge of the bank she became unmanageable, and was driven further on to the sand, where she now lies. They also consider, from having seen so few signals fired, that the vessel filled with water very shortly after she struck, and then of course no more signals could be fired. That the vessel must have had a very heavy shock, and soon went to pieces, appears evident from the fact that the larboard quarter from the bulwarks down to the keel broke right adrift, and has been discovered buried in the sand near the Red Sand buoy, two miles from the wreck, in 23 fathoms of water. The copper sheathing and fastenings on this portion of the wreck are entire. The poop was also discovered floating on the "Black Deep," on the other side of the Girdler Sand, about four miles from the wreck.

The spot where this wreck took place is one of the most dangerous in the British Channel. It was within a few cables' length that a German emigrant ship went to pieces in October last, when nearly 200 lives were lost. The prudent course, in weather similar to that which prevailed on Saturday night, would have been to bring up in these days, owners are not satisfied when time is lost, and accordingly captains will brave the dangers of the Prince's Channel, which is bounded by the Tougue Sands on the north, and the Girdler Sand on the south; the Tougue lightship shows a steady white light higher up the channel, a revolving light. There is great reason to fear that Captain Batty never sighted the tower light at all, and hence his frightful misadventure.

New Provision in the Law of Bankruptcy.

The following provision in the Bank- rupt Law Consolidation Act (12 and 13 Victoria, cap. 106) will take effect from and after Tuesday, the 11th inst.:—That if any bankrupt shall be taken in execution after the refusal of protection, or after the refusal or suspension of his certificate, he shall not be discharged for such execution until he shall have been in prison for the full period of one year, except by order of the court; provided always that this enactment shall not take effect until after the expiration of six months from the commencement of this act, and then only against such persons as shall have been adjudged bankrupt under this act, and for offences committed after the commencement of this act. That act came into operation on the 11th October, and the six months will consequently expire on Thurs- day next.

Scene in the U. S. Congress.

In the Senate on the 17th inst., Mr. Foote made some personal reflections on Mr. Benton, when the latter rose, much agitated, and throwing his chair from him, proceeded by the narrow pas- sage outside of the bar towards Foote's seat. Several members endeavoured to detain Ben- ton at his seat. Overcoming all resistance, he continued towards Foote, who, leaving subscribed to meet the expenses of the indus- trial exhibition of 1851, estimated at £150,000.

After a space of more than three hundred years, Nuns are again stationed in the univer- sity town of Cambridge! On Monday, the 11th ult., the schools of the Roman Catholic mission were re-opened under the superintend- ence of two Nuns of the order of the Infant Jesus, from the convent of Northampton.

We copy the following biographical sketch, from the N York Albion, written by its Lon- don correspondent:

London, 22d March, 1850.

The name of our late celebrated engineer, Stephenson, is, I am certain, familiar to your readers; and they will read with interest, the following brief memoir of a man who raised himself from a low station by his genius and industry—it is in his own words as communi- cated to an acquaintance of mine, and has never been in print, is my reason for sending what would otherwise appear an unusual communication.

"I was the son of a very poor man, who with his dying breath charged me (then but 10 years old) to do the best I could for my mother and my two sisters, who by the death of my father were left destitute. I was very fond of my mother, and I got employment to empty ships of their ballast; and in various other ways I earned from eighteen pence to two shillings a day, and thus supported my mother and sisters till I was about fourteen years old. I had taught myself to read and write a little, and about that time I met with a little book which set me thinking, and I thought, why should a man get his bread through the exertion of his muscles when he has got brains. I had a great taste for me- chanics, and borrowed from my uncle an old watch that never went well, because I wanted to examine its works. I took it to pieces and put it together three times, having by that time made myself acquainted with its me- chanism. I then wrote in large characters on a piece of pasteboard, which I placed in my mother's window, 'Clocks, Watches, and Jacks cleaned here.' I soon had plenty of work, which I could do of an evening, and was enabled to add greatly to the comforts of my mother, and put my sisters to school.

One evening a gentleman called to enquire if the man who cleaned watches was at home, and upon my saying, 'Yes Sir, I am at home' he looked at me with some surprise and some contempt, as I thought, and said, 'You? I can- not leave my watch with you.' Well, I did not wonder at this, for I was always an ill- looking boy; but I said, 'do as you please Sir, but I am honest though poor.' The gen- tleman, who was a Commercial traveller, left his watch, and he said would call for it on his return in a few days from that time—I took the watch to pieces and found it wanted what is called a new hair spring, which I put; but this watch baffled my endeavour to go well. I got frightened, fearing the gentleman would think I had spoiled his watch. In the night whilst I lay awake thinking what I should do I thought that in a town some miles off there lived a watchmaker, who was said to have great skill in his trade—I got up early, and went to him with the watch, and drawing it out of my pocket as if it had been my own, I said, 'pray, Sir, can you tell me what is the matter with this watch?' He looked at it and said, 'some precious idiot has put on a new hair spring without redrawing it.' What is that?' I enquired.—'Why, replied he, I was doing one when you interrupted me.' It is done thus, said he, continuing the work which my arrival had interrupted. I asked him to do mine immediately, as he wanted to return home. This he could not do, being busy; but I did not care, for I caught the idea, and went home, and soon made the watch go to the satisfaction of the gentleman who had entrusted it to my care. Some time after this I went to see a Colliery, and the pit was so deep that it was difficult to get up the coals, and they were then raised by manual exer- tion. I thought a bit, and then I said—if you will find the money, I will soon make you something which will soon bring up the coal without all that labour expense.' 'Will you,' said the proprietor? 'Yes, that I will, I replied,—he did find the money, and I found him the engine, which, though made forty- five years ago, is still at work in that colliery. By this time I had saved fifty old guineas, which I sold to a Jew who came to our town, for twenty seven shillings a piece, and this, gentlemen,' said Mr. Stephenson, was the foundation of my fortune. I am now wealthy; this place is my own property; I have given my son a scientific education for an engineer, and he has the honour to sit in Parliament for Whitley."

his place, stepped down the main aisle and took possession in the area, just in front of the sergeant-at-arms' seat, at the right of the vice-president, drawing a pistol from his bosom, and cocking it.

The scene which ensued is indescribable—Many persons rushed from the galleries and out of the chamber, in apprehension of a general melee. Several senators surrounded Mr Foote, among whom was Mr. Dickson, who, securing the pistol, lock it up in his desk, Mr Benton, meantime, while struggling in the hands of his friends, bitterly denounced Foote as an assassin, who dared to bring a pistol in the senate to murder him. He said, 'I have no arms, examine me, I carry nothing of the kind—stand out of the way, and let the second- and assassin fire!' In uttering this sen- tence, Mr. Benton threw off from either side those who held him, tore open his vest, and invited the fire of his antagonists.

The vice-president, after repeated and vi- gorous efforts, succeeded in restoring a com- parative state of quiet, and a committee was appointed to examine into the affair.

The largest Suspension Bridge in a clear space in the world, is that now being built across the Niagara to connect Lewiston and Queenstown. It will be 1,042 feet between the points of support, the roadway will be 75 feet above the water, 19 feet wide, and will be capable of sustaining a load of 800 tons. The towers of support are to be built of hydraulic masonry, surmounted with cast iron caps, which are 76 feet above the roadway. The natural advantages of the locality are so great, that it is estimated to cost much less than so large a work would be almost any other locality. It is proposed to have it so far completed by September that it may be opened for the travel going to the Provincial Fair.

Another Inter-Oceanic Route.—A new plan has been formed for a railroad connection between the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans. A company has been organized in Mexico with extraordinary privileges, for the purpose of constructing a railroad from Mex- ico, with the ultimate design of extending it to the Pacific. The company is composed of Mexicans and Englishmen, and among them are men of influence and capital.

QUEBEC CANADIAN TELEGRAPH LINE.—A move in the right direction.—We understand that the public have become so com- pletely disgusted with the trickery of P. O. J. Smith and other managers of the present telegraph Companies in New Brunswick and New York, that great encouragement has been held out to the Company that was organized some two years since, at Quebec, for building a line between that city and Halifax; and little doubt is entertained but that the company will immediately proceed and accomplish that enterprise, should the Legislature of this Province grant them a free charter, untrammelled as to the route to be chosen through New Brunswick, and as to where the Directors shall reside. We cannot doubt but that the Hon. Mr. Wilmet, who, we understand, has the matter in hand, will lose no time in bringing it before the Assembly, and that that body will promptly and favorably respond to the wishes of the Canadian Company. With two distinct lines leading from Halifax to New York, the public might feel some confidence that they would be promptly served and fairly and honourably dealt with,—which now they are not, and never have been—the whole business, at present, being a monopoly—a downright imposition.

Three cargoes of Port Wine, of all 900 pipes, arrived at New York last week. About 700 pipes are destined for the London Market, having been shipped to New York to save the export duty at Oporto; their being a heavy discriminating duty against ship- ments to England, and in favor of the United States.

The Young winter now on a visit to this region, affects our farmers seriously. Hay is very scarce, and in the interior towns in this country, readily sells for 15 to $16 a ton.—[Bangor Whig.]

ITALIAN WOMEN DESIRE TIGHT LACING.—It is astonishing that our ladies should per- sists in that ridiculous notion, that a small waist is, and per se, beautiful. Why many an Italian woman would cry for vexation if she possessed such a waist as some of our ladies acquire only by the longest painful process. I have sought the reason of this difference, and can see no other than that the Italians have their glorious statuary continually before them as models and hence endeavour to assimilate themselves to them; whereas, our fashions have no models except those French, suffering figures in the windows of milliner's shops. Why, if an artist should presume to make a statue with the shape that seems to be regarded by us as the perfection of harmonious pro- portion, he would be laughed out of the city.—It is asserted that a French milliner understands how they should be made better than nature herself.—Letters from Italy.

CANADA.

From the Amherstburgh Courier, April 13. The following letter has been addressed by Colonel Prince to his sublime poe... Lord Elgin, and it intended, perhaps, as a tonic, to relieve his stomach of the task of digesting the replies to the first letter "by command" demanding the fathership of the Independence Letter:

THE PARK FARM, 9th April 1850.

My Lord.—On the 26th ultimo your Secretary, Mr. Leslie, asked me, by your Lordship's command, whether I was the author of my letter to Mr. Rankin. On Good Friday I told him that I was; and on the following day I wrote to him again and proposed to relieve your Lordship from cogitating much about removing the "Silk Gown" from off my shoulders. This last letter has been for some days before your Lordship; but the silk gown still remains where it has been for the last eight years. But, My Lord, I have no relish for holding rank or office under any government which, by tyranny or otherwise, would check the free expression of opinion upon important public matters, or would by threats seek to intimidate or curb an independent mind. I consider your Secretary's letter as a sort of threatening one, and the threat points towards my silk gown. It is the only commission I hold under the Crown of England. I long ago resigned the Colony of my militia regiment, and also the Commission of the Peace; and I now inform your Lordship that I am too happy to resume my staff gown, and I will no longer act as one of her Majesty's Counsel under such a Government and such a Government as those who now rule Canada.

I remain, Your Lordship's humble servant, JOHN PRINCE.

To the Right Honorable Earl of Elgin, &c. &c. Governor General, &c. &c. Toronto.

Trade with Nova Scotia.—The Toronto Correspondent of the Niagara Mail gives the following information:—Several vessels have been chartered by mercantile houses in this city to take freight to Halifax. This is a new trade, which, it is thought, will be very profitable, and open up a good market for our agricultural products; it has hitherto been monopolized by the Americans.

Population of Quebec.—A census has been lately taken of the City of Quebec, which gives its population at 37,000, of whom 22,000 are French Canadians, and only 6,000 English Canadians, 6,000 are Irish, and the remainder from foreign countries. Only 13,000 of the population are married.

First arrivals from Sea at Quebec.—The ship Montreal arrived at Quebec from Liverpool on the 17th inst. in a passage of 28 days. The John Bull is said also to have arrived at Quebec from London. The first arrival from sea at Quebec last year was the Albion, on the 28th of April. These are the earliest arrivals from sea since 1831—on that year, a vessel arrived on the 16th April.

The Old Assyrian Throne has been recovered according to the following note from a late London paper:

NINEVEH DISCOVERIES.—Very late and highly satisfactory accounts have within these few days been received from Mr. Layard, in Assyria, giving intelligence of new and important discoveries in the Nimroud mound. He has made fresh and extensive excavations in parts of the eminence not yet explored, and the result has been the finding of nothing less than the throne upon which the monarch, reigning about 3,000 years ago, sat in his splendid palace. It is composed of metal and ivory, the metal being richly wrought, and the ivory beautifully carved. It does not appear in what part of the edifice this discovery has been made; but it seems that the throne was separated from the state apartments by means of a large curtain, the rings by which it was drawn and undrawn having been preserved. At the date of his discovery (the beginning of last month) Mr. Layard was pursuing his researches with renewed ardor in consequence of the astonishing success that has hitherto attended his exertions. No human remains have come to light, and every thing indicates the destruction of the palace by fire. It is said that the throne has been partly fused by the heat.

Washington, April 23.—The treaty with Mr. Bulger, the British Minister, in regard to Nicaragua affairs, was signed yesterday. It stipulates that England shall not occupy, settle or fortify any part of Central America, or of the Mosquito ports; it likewise secures to us the construction of the Ship Canal, and a preference to the American company; it liberates Central America from British bondage; it admits all nations to enjoy the use of the Canal on equal terms; it establishes a guaranty of its protection; it establishes the Monroe principle effectually; it secures the profession of England to the Panama and Tehuantepec routes; and is in short a treaty of commerce and civilization. The Treaty correspondence will be sent to the Senate in a few days.

A Wrecking Expedition.—The Boston Daily Mail of the 23d ult. says:—The schooner Rio Grande, Captain Thurlow, and Hydrographic, Captain Josiah, sailed yesterday forenoon for the Bay of Fundy, for the purpose of recovering property from several ships which were sunk or shipwrecked there some years since. The Challenger states that this expedition is got up by two enterprising young men, John E. Green and Thomas F. Wells, who have gone to great expense in importing machinery, submarine armor, and men (as-divers) from England. The same party were at work last season, recovering property from the British brig of war Plumper, which was wrecked some thirty-seven years ago, and were pretty successful in raising a considerable amount of silver dollars, iron, &c. This season they have gone into the business with all necessary "fixings" to make a successful business of it, and we hope they will succeed.—(Boston Daily Mail, Apr. 23)

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

From the New Brunswick Reporter. DEBATE ON THE SALARIES. Tuesday, 23d April.

The House went into Committee on the further consideration of the state of the Province.

Hon. Mr. Rankin rose and said, the resolution of the Hon. Attorney General now under consideration having for its object to reduce the salaries enjoyed by the present Judges, and which he considered highly objectionable, as a breach of public faith, and if carried into effect must make the salaries of the Judiciary not permanent, but subject to be annually discussed. This must necessarily have a tendency to destroy the independence of the Bench, and be fraught with consequences highly injurious to the best interests of the Province. He could not withhold the expression of his regret that his colleagues in the Government should feel themselves called upon to propose such a measure. He could not concur in their views. The law of the last session, which provides for a reduction in the salaries of future judges, does not admit the principle that the salaries of the present judges remain during their tenure of office. He was unwilling to interfere with the salaries of judges when fixed, and that when fixed they should be permanent and free from annual discussion. This measure opens the subject, which he regretted, and in differing from his colleagues, he had no desire to embarrass the Provincial Government; and although willing in minor matters to defer to the opinions of his colleagues, yet on this important subject he could not consent to an act which in his conscience he believed to be wrong.

Mr. Ritchie followed in a long, dry, and eloquent speech. He repudiated the course taken by the Master of the Rolls in coming before the House as he had done. He considered that the Master of the Rolls had descended from the high position in which the dignity of the office had placed him, by appealing to the House in such a manner, and he strenuously supported the Attorney General's Resolution.

Hon. Mr. Hanington succeeded in a speech of considerable length, and on a similar strain. Next came His Honor the Speaker in a lengthy and able speech. He went on the principle of reduction to prospective.

Messrs. Wain, Gilbert and Barbicé next spoke in order; after which, Mr. Gilbert's attachment to the Attorney General's scale of salaries was put and lost. Mr. Gilbert alone comprising the minority.—On the salary of the Surveyor General coming up, Mr. End asked if it was the intention of the Government to make that office a political one, and if so, when the Government intended to take action in the matter. He would like the Attorney General to explain.

Hon. L. A. Wilnot said, it was indispensably necessary that the Surveyor General should be a political officer, and a member of the Government, and that he should take the whole responsibility of his office.

Mr. End was not for making the office a political one. Under such circumstances, if the Surveyor General should lose his seat in the House, he would lose his office with it.—The office ought to partake more of a judicial character.

Hon. L. A. Wilnot said, it was too late in the day for the Hon. Member for Gloucester to tell the people of this country, that the Surveyor General ought not to be a political officer. The Hon. Member had killed his own argument. He (Attorney General) would ask the Hon. Member if the Attorney General and Provincial Secretary ought to be political officers? The argument of the Hon. Member went to show that neither of these offices should be of a political character.—He would again repeat, that the Surveyor General should be a political character, and that officer should stand or fall with the existing administration. Hitherto the Surveyor General, while he was the best paid officer in the Province, had been free from all responsibility. He could sit in his office a few hours in the day quite at ease, and in the enjoyment of a high salary, while the Government were responsible for all matters connected with the office. By throwing the responsibility on his own shoulders, the business of the whole department would go on well and the Country would get more general satisfaction.

Mr. Wark would fix the salary of the Surveyor and Attorney General at £500.

Mr. Carman moved as an amendment that £400 be the salary of the Surveyor General, which motion was lost.—Year, Messrs. Carman, Cranby, Gilbert, Connell, J. Earle, and Barbicé.—6 Yeas, 22 Nays.

After some remarks, Mr. Wark said he would withdraw his motion. Hon. Attorney General's Resolution was then put and carried by a large majority, and the whole scale of salaries adopted is that proposed by the Attorney General. The House adjourned after 6 o'clock.

Trespasses upon Timber Lands.—The last Royal Gazette contains an Act which has just become one of the laws of the Province, for the better prevention of Trespasses on Crown Lands and private property. The first section of this Act provides, that whoever shall wilfully, and without legal authority, cut and carry away, or cause to be carried away, from any lands granted or ungranted, any trees, logs, or timber of any kind, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to imprisonment in the Common Gaol, for a term not exceeding one year, or fined in any sum not exceeding fifty pounds, at the discretion of the Court. The other sections of the Act provides remedies against persons who shall trespass upon Crown Lands held by other persons under licences.

This measure has long been greatly needed in this Province, where the "taking" of standing timber from another man's land has not been considered "stealing," or treated as a criminal offence. Hereafter, this offence will be one of an infamous character, whether the timber be stolen from granted or ungranted lands, and there can be but little doubt that this Act, in its operation, will promote a greater regard for rights of property, and prevent such scandalous and barefaced proceedings as have heretofore taken place.—(Courier.

From the Amaranth, April 23.

Banking Speeches.—The resolutions lately introduced by the Attorney General, as a Government measure, in favour of retrenchment has already furnished occasion for two days' talking to the constituents, and the vote up to last night had not been taken; another day will therefore probably be consumed in this childish discussion. We say childish, not because retrenchment is not necessary—not because some of these salaries are not too high, but because the proposed reductions are based on a "trifling light as air," and because there is not a member in the House but is perfectly aware the resolutions can produce no effect whatever. The case stands: Mr. Wilnot has chosen, as the first legal adviser of the Crown in this Province, to construe some vague expressions in a non-official speech recently delivered by Lord John Russell, into a repeal of our written constitution, contained in numerous official despatches received from time to time from the several Colonial Secretaries; and upon this absurd decision the House pretends (for every member knows better) to have power to reduce the salaries secured to the incumbents by law (the Civil List Bill) during their respective lives! Acting upon this assumption—an assumption the veriest simpleton in the House knows to be false—he has spent two or three days in making bombastic speeches, at a cost to the Province of one hundred pounds a day! On Saturday evening when the Attorney General introduced three Bills founded upon his resolutions, the House was convulsed with laughter—at least two-thirds of the members joined; and what think you reader, they were laughing at? Why at the force! What will the people think of their members who will spend their time and the public money thus, in raising a baseless fabric just for the purpose of giving the Legislative Council, or the Imperial Government, the pleasure of knocking it down! What must they think of the Government that could lend itself to play the principal part in the ridiculous farce! By the bye, we consider the introduction of the Bills as presumptive evidence of the Government's insincerity, for if they had been sincere, they would not doubt have acted upon the bare resolutions of the House, and grasp the salaries in defiance of law and equity, as they did the £500 from Mr. Balffe last year.

[These resolutions have since passed the Assembly.]

Consistency.—On Thursday last the House of Assembly passed three resolutions, the first in favour of annexation (or free trade with the United States, which is tantamount to it), the second declaring the free trade policy of Great Britain "unalterably fixed," and the third begging for a million of money in favour of the Great Trunk Railway, as a national work! We would not like to bet much whether the people of Great Britain are more surprised when they hear that their trade policy is "unalterably fixed" by the Legislature of a petty Colony, or at the assurance of that Legislature in asking for £1,000,000 sterling towards a "national undertaking" when in a previous resolution they indicate their intention to go over to the Yankees! At all events our Solons will astonish the world! We hope they will adjourn before the ice runs, or they will surely set the river St. John on fire.—(Idid.)

An Official notice was published by the Post Office department at Washington on the 16th April, announcing that the Steamship Atlantic, had been inspected by the Secretary of the Navy and accepted by him into the service of the Government, under a contract made on the 1st November, 1847, for the transportation of the United States mail between New York and Liverpool, and that the United States mail-line of steam-packets, called Colan's Line, will go into operation on Saturday the 27th April inst. On that day at twelve o'clock, noon, said steamship the Atlantic, will leave New York for Liverpool, and convey the mails between the United States and Great Britain, under the Postal Treaty entered into between the two countries.

COMMUNICATION.

On Friday last Mr. Brown declared in his place in the most positive terms that this is the last Session he will ever sit in the House of Assembly.—We interpret this to mean that the hon. member has been offered a subordinate office under Government.—(Fredericton Amaranth, April 23.)

Mr. Editor.—From the foregoing extract, it appears that Mr. Brown has determined to retire from public life. There is no man without faults, and considering Mr. Brown's long course of Parliamentary duties, we cannot but admit he has done as well as most men; and on his withdrawal from the Legislature, I trust there is not a heart in Charlotte but will wish him every prosperity.

Mr. James Boyd at the last Election declared, that he would not again offer as a Candidate. No doubt both these gentlemen will keep their words, and in that case, two new members must be chosen—indeed I may add, it would be just as well to let the "old four" stay at home, and send four new members. The people should be considering who to choose, as I presume the Election will take place within two or three months. I will write you again on this subject.

Yours, A VOTER.

THE LEGISLATURE was closed on Friday last—being the last Session of the House.—Much was expected, but little has been done. The Press generally censure the acts of the late Session. The Temperance Telegraph says:—

The present Session of the Legislature it is said, will close his work. It opened in gloom—it will terminate amid despair; for if any hope existed of a change in our social or commercial condition, it centered in the House of Assembly; but up to this hour it must puzzle any person to point out one measure of importance calculated to subvert and promote the future interest of the Province. The subject of its present condition has been before them repeatedly, and was to have been discussed again on Monday; but we very much fear that nothing will come of it. Bills have been introduced to reduce certain salaries, including those of the Judges and Master of the Rolls, but, as yet, they remain unshorn. One thing our Representatives are quite competent to do, and that they have no doubt performed with perfect satisfaction to themselves—appropriated the anticipated revenues for 1850, with some £10,000 to boot. But when we speak thus generally, we would not be understood to pass indiscriminate censure.—Doubtless, some among them have striven manfully in the public behoof, but what are they among so many? He would be a Hercules who would clear the Augean stable.

CANADA.—Colonel Prince's Letter.—We copy to-day from a Canadian paper, another letter from Col. Prince; and observe that some of the Colonial journals denounce these letters as favourable to annexation. Notice they advocate a union of the Colonies independent of the Mother country, "not to overthrow England or fight against her, but rather to be aiding and assisting unto her." He does not seek to increase the strength of a rival nation, nor to transfer his allegiance—but to be free. And is it to be wondered at, that many of the people would be disgusted at the anti-British doings of the Canadian Ministry? Is it to be supposed that the people will sit quietly by and fold their arms, while the Government were passing unjust measures, notwithstanding the strongest remonstrances from those whose privilege and right was to remonstrate against them. Ill treat and punish good men, and they will become bad men. The present Ministry of Canada are known to have entertained similar opinions to those for which they cause their political opponents to be punished.—Colonel Prince is a man of undoubted loyalty—with him loyalty is a passion—with the Canadian Ministry it is a necessity.

OUR RAILROAD.—We are happy to state, that Mr. Myers, the gentleman who has contracted for the grubbing and grading of the first section of our Railroad, from the eastern end of this Town to Waweg, will be here to-morrow, Thursday, with his men, horses, carts, and such implements as are required for the work. We understand that he will commence operations immediately and carry on the work with vigour. We congratulate the inhabitants of this Town on the prospect of employment for our artisans and laboring population.

We observe in the Royal Gazette an Act relating to Highways. The most important alterations is in the scale of days for statute labour, and the amount leviable when such labour is not performed. The scale now goes up to sixty days—and the rate per day in money, in lieu of labour, has been reduced from 2s 6d to 1s 3d. One great benefit which will result from these alterations is to relieve the poorer classes of society,—persons having large incomes and owning much property, will now contribute more than under the old law.

Great Exhibition of 1851.—Preparations for this Royal Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations are in active progress, and the various Colonies of the British Dominions have been invited, to join in this great undertaking; over £20,000 has been collected towards defraying the expenses. The St John Courier very properly recommends our Province to send as a contribution, a Model Ship made of the productions of the country.—The only other article recommended to be sent from this Province, is clarified Maple Sugar, as a specimen of the produce of the forests of New Brunswick.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—We learn from the Review, that the extreme backwardness of the season is severely felt by many farmers throughout the island; numbers of cattle are dying for want of food, and others are merely holding on to life by means of a little straw, which is sold at the rate of 2s. and 6d. a hundred, after travelling in some places from 10 to 15 miles for it. The roads throughout the country are still covered with snow, as in the depth of winter.

The steamship Cambrin arrived at Halifax on Monday afternoon, but no report of the news had been received at St. John on Tuesday morning.

The first steamer for Fredericton, this spring started on Tuesday morning.

Two Bad Legs cured by Holloway's Ointment and Pills, after more than Seven Years' suffering.—Mrs. Elizabeth Humphey's of York-street, Hull, had been most painfully afflicted for upwards of seven years with averted sores in both legs. Her sufferings, at times, were dreadful. She had tried almost every remedy, and received the advice of several of the first surgeons in Yorkshire, yet all failed to effect a cure until she used Holloway's invaluable Ointment and Pills, the astonishing powers of which soundly healed every wound. She is now in the enjoyment of the best of health, and enabled to walk about with ease and comfort.

Holloway's Ointment.
EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A CASE ABANDONED BY DOCTORS. THE METROPOLITAN, KING'S COLLEGE, AND CHARING CROSS HOSPITALS, LONDON.
This Affair was seen to before the Lord Mayor of London.
WILLIAM BROOKE, of No. 2, Union Street, Southwark, London, Messenger, maketh Oath, and swears that his (the deponent) was afflicted with FIFTEEN RUDDISH BUBLES on his Left Arm and Ulcerated Sores and Wounds on both Legs, for which the deponent was admitted an out-door patient at the METROPOLITAN HOSPITAL, in April, 1841, where he continued nearly Four Weeks. Unable to receive a cure there.
THE DEPONENT sought relief at the three following Hospitals—KING'S COLLEGE HOSPITAL, in May, for five weeks; at GUY'S HOSPITAL, in July, for six weeks; and at CHURCHING CROSS HOSPITAL, at the end of August, for some weeks more; which the deponent left in a far worse condition than that in which he had quitted GUY'S when Sir BRASSY GOODE, and other medical Officers of the Establishment had told the deponent, "that the only chance of saving his life was to lose his Arm."
THE DEPONENT, thereupon, called on Dr. BRIGHT, chief Physician of Guy's, who, on viewing the deponent's condition, kindly and liberally said, "I am utterly at a loss what to do for you, but here is a half sovereign, go to Mr. Holloway, and try what effect his Pills and Ointment will have, as I have in my own person witnessed the wonderful effect they have in desperate Cases. You can let me see you again."
THIS UNPREJUDICED advice was followed by the deponent, and a PERFECT CURE was effected in THREE WEEKS by the use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, after THREE HOSPITALS had failed. When Dr. BRIGHT was shown, by the deponent, the result of his advice and charity, he said, "I am both astonished and delighted, as I thought, that if ever I saw you again, it would be without your Arm—It can only compare this cure to a charm."
Witness at the Mansion House, Wm. BROOKE, of the City of London, this 8th day of March, 1842. Before me, J. PRIE, Mayor.

This extraordinary Ointment will cure the most Dangerous Wounds and Ulcers, Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sore Nipples, Sore Throats, Chieftoo, Yaws and Coers-Bay, or Achanias, King's Evil, Stoney and Ulcerated Cancers, Piles, Tumours, Swellings, Contracted and Stiff Joints, Scrofula, Ringworms, Burns, Scalds, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, G. at Rheumatism, and almost every other External Disease.—The Bite of the Mosquitoes, and Sand Flies.—Sold at the Proprietor's Establishment, 24, STRAND, LONDON, and by almost all respectable Vendors of Medicines throughout the Civilized World.
