The First Sign Of failing health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restor-ing the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching,

and vitalizing the blood. Failing Health. Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Aver's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion scribe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. To-day my health is completely restored.—Mary Harley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 883 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Aver's Sarsaparilla, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass,

For "worn-cut," "run-down," debilitated school teachers, milliners, seamstresses, house keepers, and over-worked women generally. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all restorative tonics. It is not a "Cure-all," but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpoce, being a most potent Specific for all those Chronic Weaknesses and Diseases peculiar to women. It is a powerful, general as well as uterine, tonic and nervine, and imparts vigor and strength to the whole system. It promptly cures weakness of stomach, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, debility and steeplessness, in either sex. Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists under our postate general sex between the control of the property of the standards. But there's danger in delaying,
And the sweetness may forsake it, So, I tell you, bashful lover,
If you want a kiss, why, take it.

Never let another fellow Steal a march on you in this; Never let a laughing maiden See you spoiling for a kiss; There's a royal way to kissing, And the jolly ones who make it Have a motto that is winning, If you want a kiss, why, take it.

Any fool may face a cannon. Anybody wear a crown; But a man must win a woman If he'd have her for his own. Would you have the golden apple,
You must find the tree and shake it; If the thing is worth the having
And you want a kiss, why, take it.

AT SARATOGA. Madam Sylvester went to the White Mountains with her party, as she had planned to do, while Mr. Dalton, congratulating himself upon the success of his manauvre—the reason for which he supposed no one but himself knew anything about was enjoying the brilliant society at Saratoga to the full.

I flatter myself that I have played my little game very nicely," he said many times to himself, when thinking of their hasty flitting from Newport; and those soft white hands of his were rubbed together in the most approving manner, accompanied by a most approving chuckle. He insisted now that Editha was well enough to join in the gayeties of the place and accomplany him to the different places of amusement and pleasure.

"Madam Sylvester!" exclaimed Editha done." could not matter much what she did, she yielded for the sake of peace, although she did not really feel able to bear the excitement as yet.

The result was highly gratifying to Mr. Dalton, for Editha at once became a star of no small magnitude. Her delicate, almost ethereal beauty instantly attracted a his hands in a nervous way and gnawned you cannot mean most ethereal beauty instantly actions.

She was "new," and his under lip.

"I am tired out now, papa, besides having no heart for anything of the kind," she said, wearily, when Mr. Dalton began to talk of the details of her dress, about which he was very particular for a man. "Pshaw!" he returned, impatiently: "you have been moping yourself to death, and need waking up. This is to be the finest occasion of the season, I am told, and I shall take no pleasure in it unless I can have you with me."

It was not Editha that he particularly wanted for the sake of the pleasure he would take in her society, but a handsomely dressed lady by his side, to be admired, and to help him pass the time agreeably.

Of course Editha yielded rather than to have any words about it, and gave her attention, with what interest she could command, to the wearisome business of

When the night arrived, and she appeared before her father in the finest of Black Brussels net, embroidered in rich golden-hearted daisies, and gracefully looped over rose-colored silk, from which here and there flashed superb ornaments of diamonds, and above which her delicate face rose like some pure, clear-cut cameo, Mr. Dalton was for a moment speechless with admiration, and Editha," really felt paid for the effort she had
