The offertory, as is usual at this time of the year, is quite inadequate to meet the current expenditure. The Treasurer hopes that those who are not absent from town will bear this in mind and do their best to keep it up.

The Bishop has appointed the Rev. Canon Sweeny to be his Domestic Chaplain.

The Rev. Canon Macnab is enjoying a vacation, but not of the sort which is idle and creates a necessity for that most wearisome occupation—"killing time"—but a change of scene and a change of occupation so far, at least, as regards the conditions and manner of the occupation. He is taking temporary charge of the Sunday duty at the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago. From a letter which he has written to us, we learn that he is enjoying the change greatly, and that Mrs. Macnab is benefiting in health. They are to remain there over Sunday, 16th August, so that on the following Sunday we will hope to see them again at St. Alban's.

The formation of a Cadet Corps in the School has been authorized. Mr. Matthews is to be Captain, and the Lieutenants are to be Charles Flint and Bryan Chadwick. Edward Porter is to be Color Sergeant, and Herbert Lovell, Garrett Tyrrell, and Beverley Robertson, Sergeants. The uniform is to be khaki with facings of either dark blue or rifle green with red pipings. Arrangements are being made for sending a team to compete at a Rifle Match at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges, which is to be held shortly.

No Choir Boys' Camp having been arranged for this year, Mr. Matthews has gone for a trip down the Severn River. He is accompanied by a small party of the older boys of the school.
