CLAIM THEY THROW KISSES

A SHOCKING PRACTICE COMMON ALONG THE RAILROADS.
Employees of the Two Great Trunk Lines Held to be in the Habit of Insulting Residents Whose Homes Border on the Tracks Through the City—Feminine Complaints.

It is not often that complaints reach a newspaper of insults to ladies by the employees of a railroad company. The World has received a letter, however, from a lady living along the Esplanade which indicates the qualities in the employes of the two railway companies, the cultivation of which should not be encouraged. The letter is printed as follows:

EDITOR THE WORLD: The practice of employees of the Great Northern and Great Western Railway Companies in throwing kisses to the ladies who live in the houses bordering on the tracks through the city is a shocking and disgraceful practice. It is not only a violation of the laws of decency, but it is also a violation of the laws of morality. It is a practice which should be immediately stopped.

READING, Pa., Aug. 11.—A remarkable story of somnambulistic adventures comes from Ridgewood, a sanitarium three miles from this city. Joseph B. Tomlinson, a drummer for a grocery house in Milwaukee, took up his quarters there last Wednesday. He told Dr. Stewart, the proprietor, that he was a somnambulist.

He Sowed His Feet With a Rusty Nail.
Shortly after midnight Friday piercing cries were heard coming from the sanitarium. The doctor found that while under the influence of medicine Tomlinson imagined that his great toes had been severed. He had secured a rusty nail, and with this he began to saw his toes together. He had already sowed his right foot full of needles, and was in the act of sowing the left when the pain became so great that he was awakened. Dr. Stewart removed the stitches, but the wounds were so severe that blood poisoning set in and he will die, it is believed, in a few days.

SAYS HE HYPNOTIZED HER BOX.
A Young Man Spirited Away From Home by His Mother's Request.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 11.—James M. Holden, a hard-core youth of 18 years, of Providence, R.I., was arrested here this afternoon at the residence of his mother, Mrs. J. M. Holden. She claims that he had been spirited away by Rev. Henry E. Howland, an evangelist, about a year ago and has since been traveling with him over the United States. She says he hypnotized her box.

After a month ago they came to Woodbury, a suburb of Baltimore, and went to housekeeping. They drew immense crowds and lived well. Howland left the town immediately after learning of the boy's capture in a borrowed carriage. He has a wife and child in Providence. Mrs. Holden wants her boy to return with her and he will probably comply.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Edward DeCobain, who was expelled from Parliament on serious charges, did not exhort at the Gospel tent erected by a few of the earnest brethren on the site of the Fourth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, last night.

It was expected that he would take part in the services, but the publication of the fact that a person against whom grave charges were pending had been called upon to officiate in the name of the Methodist Episcopal Church had caused the pastor of the Fourth Avenue Church to assert his authority, and Mr. DeCobain did not put in an appearance, to the great disappointment of a considerable audience.

BLAKE WAXES ELOQUENT.

RECALLS THE LIBERAL MAJORITY 'A SUBSTANTIAL ONE.'
Advice Irish Protestants to Join Hands With the Catholics and Banish Forever From the Arenas All Religious Questions—Democracy Now Being Pushed to Its Severest Test.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Hon. Edward Blake, who was elected in the recent campaign to represent South Longford in Parliament, addressed a meeting of the Home Rule Union of London last night. He spoke in the same general manner as he did during the speech he delivered at the Eighty Club dinner given in his honor on Thursday last.

He pointed out the necessity of continued work in order to ensure all possible by-elections for the Home Rule cause. Viewed in the light of a curious tendency to equality in popular opinion, he said, the Liberal majority was a substantial one.

Conservative advocates of unity had analyzed and cut the majority into sections, declaring that the majority had emanated from Ireland and therefore did not count. Would they have said that if the circumstances had been reversed and Ireland had declared against Home Rule?

The Liberal majority was prepared for exaggerated accounts of Irish outrages in the Tory papers. That was part of their game. If the Protestants in the various parts of Ireland were to combine—he hoped that they would not—they could get what they liked from either of the divided majority.

He recommended to them an altogether different policy—namely, to banish forever from the arena all religious questions and to join hands with the Catholics and to discuss intelligently differences with regard to the character of their creeds or the color of their hair.

He did not idealize democracy. He believed it was being put to the severest test as to whether would the perpetration of the Gandhi act. This is the second case of such a character in the country this summer. Some time ago Mr. Winn had several horses poisoned in the same manner.

"August Flower"

What is This in the query pertually on your little boy's lips.

And he is no worse than the bigger, older, bald-headed boys. Life is an interrogation point. "What is it for?" we continually cry from the cradle to the grave. So with this little introductory sermon we turn and ask: "What is August Flower for?" As easily answered as asked: "It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver. Nothing more than this; but this brings.

We believe August Flower cures

Dyspepsia. We know it well. We have reasons for knowing it. Twenty years ago it started in a small country. To-day it has an honored place in every city and country, and possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country and sells everywhere. Why is this? The reason is as simple as a child's thought. It is honest, does one thing, and does it right—it cures

Dyspepsia.
