Varsity or Montreal To-Day? The great Rugby battle for the cham-plonship of Canada between the premier clubs of Ontario and Quebec takes place to-day in Montreal. Varsity reached that city early last evening, and will have a good rest. Although handicapped by the absence of Capt. Barr and Half-back Har-graft, everyone here expects them to win. Their brilliant wing and scrimmage play should more than counterbalance Mont-rel's strong defence work, and a defeat to Toronto's student klekers will be a great surprise in this city.

Ned Crane and Sullivan. Ned Crane, Toronto's ex-pitcher, of check-ered reputation, tells an interesting story of ex-Champion John L. Sullivan. The two sports were brought up together in Bos-ton, and it was Sullivan who assisted "Do you know that Sullivan came very near being a baseball player instead of a "Do you know that Sullivan came very near being a baseball player instead of a "T's a fact, but the big feilow has al-ways been very refleent about the matter. In Rochester last Monday he told me that when he was under 20 years of age he was offered a position as third baseman on an amateur team in Boston. At that time Sullivan was a great admirer of the game, and was ambitious to get a berth with one of the big teams. Fate was against him, though, and on the first day of his engagement he was shifted for a play-er named Burke. This made Sullivan mad, and he quit the baseball business right there, and then took up boxing. He told me that if Burke hadn't beaten him out of that job he would have become a baseball player instead of a pugliist. In his early days as a fighter Sullivan was not con-sidered a first-class man. I know of sev-eral athletes who could conquer Sully at that time, but he improved rapidly, and then his boxing friend's gave him a wide berth." <text><text><text><text><text> Trotting Horses Under the Hammer.

Negotiations for the revision of the treaty with Germany have made no progress. The Jews in Vladivostock, will be</li> </ul>	mentary term, should grant a subsidy to a Canadian line of steamers is a most momentous matter. It is an in- dication that Great Britain and Great- er Britain are to be knit together with bonds as well of money as of affec- tion, and everybody in this Canada of ours must rejoice that so material a proof of the mother country's regard and intentions should have been given. Indeed, we are of the opinion that proof of the disposition dictating this new policy is quite as beneficial as the act- ual assistance rendered. For it is not absolutely certain, though probable, that even with both subsidies, in all exceeding a million, capitalists will be found to carry out the project. On 28th May, 1891, Mr. Andrew Allan of Montreal wrote to Sir John A. Mac- donald, "If the Canadian Government still favor a speed of say 20 knots an hour, I think I, with my friends in Glasgow, Liverpool and London, would now be willing to contract for the re- quisite number of such ships for a subsidy of f5000 sterling a voyage." That sum amounted to one million three hundred thousand dollars, or only one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars more than the two subsidies now promised. If Mr. Allan can hold his friends to their undertaking, we may regard the matter as now within the range of practical possibilities, leaving Mr. Huddart out of the ques- tion. That gentleman is not likely to obtain the capital required to avail	them the best talent that money could induce to come over to this country- and they and several star American teams, will give the performances in this city. One team alone is said to keep an audience laughing for 33 minutes, and their names are Smith and Campbell. The Manhattan Four are really as good as their predeces- sors, but their comedy is of a differ- ent type. The four Tivoli dancing girls are all pretty and very nimble of foot. Walter Stanton and his troupe of genuine fighting roosters create no end of fun. The great New- ton is fine as a ventriloquist, and has line of comedy. Callahan's Production of "Faust" That Mr. Joseph Callahan's produc- tion of "Faust" shall be complete in every detail, the clever young actor has not only presented the play with wonderful scenic and electrical ef- fects, but has proved his excellent jvdgment by having a double quar- tette of ladies and gentlemen of high distinction on the operatic boards. The exquisite vocal numbers rendered by the artists adds greatly to the intense interest of the work. There should be a crowded house on Monday evening and the rest of the week at the Grand Opera House, to see this great pro- duction of Geothe's masterpiece. Miss Wallis as "Fanchette." The St. Louis Chronicle recently said: "If anyone can find fault with Gladys Wallis' presentation of "Faust"	tal in this city. Coughs and colds will soon be pre- valent, so every household should procure in advance a bottle of Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine. Re- member! a stitch in time saves nine. A Bragoon Sentenced. Kilsby, the ex-Canadian dragoon, who was stationed in Toronto about 18 months ago, and who was arrested here and convicted on a charge of stabbing a woman one night in the vicinity of Westminster, was to-day sentenced to one year's imprisonment. ISS YOUL Blood Out of Order? Dr. Radford's Red Pills for the Blood are a puick and sure cure for all disorders of the blood which cause a pale, muddy or sallow com- lexion, pimples on the face, weamers, loss of	stand, the captain stating that he would push the prosecution to the end. An adjournment was got by the cap- tain to show that the young man when served by a non-commissioned officer with a notice to attend drill had used filthy and violent language. Jarvis' defence is that he had to work on Wednesday night and could not attend. David Mason, a colored man, got 30 days in Jail for having collected one dollar from R. Rattray for a load of wood which he did not deliver. Mason had some difficulty in recollecting the fact that he had served a term in the Central last winter. The wife of Fred. D. Barnavalt ob- tained an order for protection against her husband. The couple had quarrel- ed when they lived together in Eng- land and Mrs. Barnavalt came to this country to live, but her husband, who appears to be a worthless character, followed her. Thomas Sullivan and John Finn, who were charged with being implicated in the firing of the hotel at George- street and Esplanade on Nov. 5, were remanded until Tuesday. Lorenzo Toomes, George Shanaman, William Nugent and William Henry were each fined $5 and costs or 30 days for having enticed a Hebrew named Herschorn into a statile in Dundas- street. Herschorn swears that the boys took $2 from him, but this was not proven. For breach of the liquor law, Mrs. Catharine Fitzgerald, at Queen and Simcoe-streets, was fined $20 and costs or 15 days.	ware, now being carried a within the walls of this large wholesale warehouse.
