Notes

The Sunday School is sometimes called "The Nursery of the Church," which means—"Ground for raising fruit, flowers, &c." This afternoon you can attend the Mission Band exercises, and you will there see the "ground" which requires devoted, prayerful, self-sacrificing consecrated labour, from which we hope to develop rich fruit-bearing qualities. Are you deeply engaged in this Nursery; are you training little plants to live right; does your prayers go up to God for rich dews of heavenly grace; are you longing to see the fruits of righteousness develop in this soil? "Go, labor on, spend and be spent," and you will "come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves."

Pastor Fash has been visiting Prof. Williams. All well. Expects to be home and preach next Lord's Day.

Rev. E. T. Miller preaches to-day.

Rev. J. H. MacDonald gave us two very practical sermons last Sunday. We should all profit by them.

B. Y. P. U.—have you noticed the Messenger and Visitor this week? You will find the work cut out for this winter. Bible reading, Christian conquest, and sacred literature courses are referred to. Shall we undertake this work? Here is an item for the executive to report upon.

Bloomfield Mission is our Mission, and any good work going on there should be known by the Church. Our workers engaged there are rejoicing over the deep work of grace in the hearts of many who attend. Thursday evening was largely attended, and the presence of the Lord was manifest. Come, see and enjoy.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people, that is to say, every member of this church is covenanted voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in their power to give, and shall so inform the Financial Secretary, and from him receive envelopes for that purpose. All bills or accounts are to be sent to A. E. Soulis, 119 Robie St. All monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to N. L. McDonald, Fin. Sec'y.

CONVENTION FUND offering the second Sunday of each month. W. M. A. S. OFFERING the third Sunday of each quarter beginning with August.

Families having cases of sickness or distress will please send word at once to the Pastor, or one of the Deacons. You are urged to use the information cards in pers.
