ARMS WERE LANDED IN FISH BARRELS ON KERRY COAST

Intended to Ambush Crown
Forces on Way to Dublin
Prison.

AN ATTACK PLANNED

Dublin, March 27.—Reports made to the authorities in connection with the capture of the large quantity of arms and ammunition found by government forces in Dublin last Friday, said to have been the greatest quantity of such material so far taken, show that the arms and munitions were landed on the coast of Kerry in fish barrels a few days previously. They were then sent to Silgo, partly by train and partly by motor cars, reaching Dublin Tuesday night and arriving in Dublin the next morning. The bombs and shells were packed in boxes and addressed to an English firm, well-known bicycle manufacturers, in St. Stephen's Green. This firm, it is explained, had no knowledge of the shipment, and the goods never reached it, being intercepted, according to officials, by Sinn Féin agents and taken to the stables in Mountjoy Square, where the materials were discovered.

This large consignment of ammunition, it is declared, was intended for use in connection with a plan to ambush the crown forces on their way to relieve the guard at the Mountjoy jail Easter Monday, and if this proved successful, it was intended, the authorities declare, to attack the prison in the hope of rescuing the Sinn Féin prisoners.

A well-laid mine containing several hundred pounds of explosives and fuses was discovered by auxiliaries in County Kilkenny recently, according to information from official quarters today. The mine, which was laid under a large bridge in the neighborhood of the headquarters of the auxiliaries, was found just in time to avert a disaster to several lorry-loads of cadets.

The authorities declare that great assistance to the crown forces is being rendered by the inhabitants of various localities, who have begun to come forward in large numbers to denounce attempts by Sinn Féin to commit outrages. Several ambushes have already been frustrated in this way, it is stated.

CLOSEST ALLIANCE SINCE ARMISTICE

Poland and France Agree to Co-operate for Defence and Economic Restoration.

Washington, March 27.—France and Poland in their agreement concluded Feb. 19, mutually pledged themselves to concerted action for defence in case either of the two countries should be attacked without provocation according to a summary of the pact received here today in official circles.

Provision for a defensive alliance the agreement provides for mutual assistance in the economic restoration of the two countries.

Both Poland and France further promised to act in close agreement on all questions affecting their internal affairs and each agreed to consult the other before entering new agreements concerning their policies in continental and eastern Europe.

BRACEBRIDGE MAN HAS DISAPPEARED

Efforts Being Made to Locate
William Stubb, Missing
Since Friday.

Bracebridge, Ont., March 27.—Efforts are being made to locate William Stubb, accountant with G. W. Ecclestone, Limited, of this town, who has mysteriously disappeared. He had undergone an operation at the local hospital several weeks ago and was making a good recovery. He went out for a short walk on Friday evening and has not been seen since. Today parties searched all the surrounding country and have been unable to locate any trace of him.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS FROM ESCAPING GAS

With the gas jet turned on Mrs. Jenny Lidesley, aged about 50, was found unconscious in her room at 227 McCaul street last night by other roomers, who detected the odor of gas coming from the room. The woman was removed to the General Hospital where, at a late hour last night, she was reported still unconscious. Her condition is regarded by hospital authorities as critical.

Athens, March 27.—The government has ordered the mobilization of all the employees of the state whose military service had been suspended. About seven thousand persons are affected.

WORLD'S AMATEUR CHAMPION HOCKEYISTS WELCOMED ON VARSITY CAMPUS. The Allan Cup, emblematic of the highest honors in amateur hockey, is truly a cup that cheers, to judge by the happy expressions of this group on the improvised platform on Saturday afternoon, after the triumphal procession had reached its end. In the front row on the extreme left is Carson, the star center player of the team. Then come President Falconer, Mayor Church, Dr. Macdonnell and Brig. Gen. Mitchell. The big athletes standing behind the cup is Captain Ramsey. The other members of the team with Manager West and Coach Dafeo are also seen on the platform with a sprinkling of admirers, including Eric Armour, K.C., the crown attorney, who is immediately behind Brig. Gen. Mitchell.

TOKIO DEVASTATED BY TERRIFIC FIRE; 1,000 HOUSES BURN

Panic Caused Among Population Over a Wide Area.
MANY ARE INJURED

Tokio, March 27.—The whole city of Tokio was imperiled last night by the greatest fire with which it has been visited in a decade. The conflagration destroyed 1,000 houses in the western part of the city, involving a loss estimated at twenty-five million yen (normally about $12,500,000). Thousands of persons were made homeless, and 133 persons were injured. The burned buildings included three hospitals, a bank and several large business houses.

For four hours during the night a violent, biting wind drove the flames in the direction of the heart of the city, causing a panic among the population over a wide area. Four thousand troops aided the firemen in combating the blaze, but it was only when the fire broke the wind subsided that their efforts to control the fire were rewarded with success.

Scenes of terror were witnessed in many sections as the course of the flames threatened widespread destruction. The streets were choked with masses of despairing refugees from the districts already stricken. Furniture, the confusion being added to by the flocking in of sightseers from other sections.

Many of the half-frozen fugitives fleeing from the flames had conferred with the leaders of the Menshevik and Socialist Democrats with a view to the formation of a coalition government, as had been reported.

SWITZERLAND EXTENDS HOURS IN SOME TRADES

Berne, Switzerland, March 27.—The Swiss government has authorized the extension of the working hours in certain trades from forty-eight to fifty-two, regardless of the socialist protests. This action has been taken in accordance with the economic crisis. Woodworking and brickmaking plants are included in the new order.

SEEK TO CONCILIATE OPponents OF SOVIET BUT RETAIN CONTROL

British Miners May Quit
Work in Mines Thursday

London, March 27.—Stoppage of work in British coal mines on Thursday, the day when the government will pass control of the mines back to their private owners, is viewed as a possibility here. Conferences on the subject have failed to suggest a compromise, but owners and miners have submitted separate reports to the government. It is expected that renewed negotiations will begin on Wednesday.

Heinsinger, March 27.—The Moscow and Petrograd Bolshevik newspapers of March 22 and 24, which were received here today, paint in official announcements a vivid picture of what appears to be a serious attempt to conciliate the opponents of the Soviets without the latter surrendering political control. A part of the apparent effort, comprises an appeal by the Soviet government to Russian refugees abroad, in the course of which this passage occurs:

"Russia in her reconstruction work, must rely not only on her workmen, but also upon her peasants and her intellectuals. Therefore her new international relations oblige Russia to alter her former stand regarding emigrants. The question of the moment is to utilize the forces of these Russian refugees abroad, as their aid is most important in the work of reconstruction."

An editorial in the Pravda of Moscow bemoans the failure of the government to care for the property of intellectuals at home, and it promises that they will have better treatment and that good resolutions have been taken as to their future.

It is, however, denied that the Soviet government had conferred with the leaders of the Menshevik and Socialist Democrats with a view to the formation of a coalition government, as had been reported.

No Hope of U. S. Resuming
Commercial Relations With Soviet.

Washington, March 27.—Conditions laid down by the state department as pre-requisites to any resumption of trade relations between the United States and Soviet Russia, while dealing exclusively with the economic frailties of the Soviet system, were regarded today as striking so fundamentally at its entire structure as to have ended practically all possibility of an early resumption of commercial intercourse between the two countries.

Register Today For
Vote on Referendum

Sittings for the revision of the voters' lists in Toronto and York county in connection with the forthcoming referendum will commence this morning, and those who are not registered or who may desire to notify any change of address will thus be afforded an opportunity to qualify. A list of the places at which the sittings will be held was published in The World on Saturday. Some confusion has been caused by the diversity of views expressed by Judge Coatsworth and Colonel Biggar, but in order to obviate any possibility of being left off the lists, those who are desirous of exerting the franchise on the referendum should register in person without delay.

CHILDREN ARE TOLD OF MOTHER'S ARREST

Breaking of News That Daniel
Hastings Is Thought Poisoned
Is Sad Feature.

Mitchell, Ont., March 27.—(Canadian Press)—The result of the analysis is awaited all thru this district with keen interest. It will determine whether the confession Mrs. Hastings made is correct, or whether her mind was so deranged from grief that she was irresponsible for the statements she made to the police, and her signed confession, which features in connection with the case, was the breaking of the news today to Mrs. Hastings' two little daughters, Mary and Lorette, aged 15 and 11. They believed that their mother was ill in a hospital in Stratford. Coming so closely after their grief over their father's death, this new blow was a heavy one.

Neighbors' Faith.
It was equally hard on the aged mother of Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. Lambert. She is about 90 years old and had made her home with the Hastings'. She also believes her daughter will be released, and she believes that she has made the statement while in a state of mental aberration.

Paris, March 27.—A general revision of the present dances, looking to the elimination of the tango, the fox-trot and the one-step, is on the program for consideration by the congress of dancing professors of France, England, Belgium and Holland, which opened its sessions in the Paris Academy of Dancing today. A majority of the delegates, it is said, are advocating a return to the waltz.

SAILORS ARE EXECUTED FOR KRONSTADT REVOLT

Heinsinger, March 27.—Twenty sailors from the battleship Sebastopol, including sub-captain Denierin, were executed immediately after they had been sentenced by a revolutionary tribunal in Petrograd on March 26, accused of having taken part in the Kronstadt episode, and of having caused thousands of casualties, it was declared.

SCIENCE TO SOLVE SOCIAL PROBLEMS

Dale Says Social Evolution Is a Continuous Process.

It never reaches a point at which it can rest, but must always be in a state of evolution, according to Professor J. A. Dale of the University of Toronto, who gave an address at the labor forum at the Labor Temple last night on "The Evolution of Society."

A scientist solved a problem by the analysis of what has been learned through the experiments and experiences of the past, the problems of society would have to be solved in a scientific way by the collection of information and facts brought forth by the experiences of the past and the interpretation of their true relationship, declared the speaker.

In the indomitableness of man in his desire for better things from the undying flame from which came the hope of the future of society. Although in the history of man successes have been far outnumbered by failures, society has steadily progressed towards its goal by the determination of man that his lot should be improved.

Society differed from the state in that the state was moving and revolving while the state was a petrified force of authority which only progressed as its restricting tendencies were broken down. The word community far better expressed what was known as society than the word state.

The speaker further asserted that the fact of men living together in groups or communities was primarily due to instinct, the foremost of which was the instinct of self-preservation. The gathering together of men into community was as much due to self-interest as to co-operation. In the beginning man had to contend for a living on earth against animals which were much better equipped than he in the struggle for existence, and it was due to the fact that his fellow men that man survived. Society could be said to mean the coming together for a common purpose.

Instincts at first had free play, and the growth of society has resulted in the control and modification of instincts for the common good. Instincts controlled by reason were the first step towards the real progress of man from the level of animals, said the professor, came with the discovery of fire, as through it the inventive genius of man had become possible, and man had become the master of nature, where hitherto he had been but a slave.

The idea of education was to teach the combination of initiative with co-operation, but in practice it had not yet reached any degree of perfection. Society had not yet reached the stage when its members would unite in sacrificing self-interest for the good of the community as a whole. The struggle between competition and co-operation was never more apparent than it was today.

POLICE ROUND UP CHINESE GAMBLERS

Celestials Scramble to Escape, But Nine Are Taken Into Custody.

When Plainclothesmen Clarkson and Mulholland raided the house at 26 Elizabeth street last night the clatter of money and hum of subdued voices were quite audible thru the closed door. Both of the officers threw their weight against the door, but it withstood the shock. Another and still another knock was withstood, which gave a number of the Chinamen within time to make their escape thru a rear window onto a woodshed and thence to the street.

When the two police officers finally broke in the door Celestials were disappearing thru the window. Nine, however, were unfortunate enough to be last in line to the path of safety, were taken in custody and locked up in West Dundas street station on a charge of gambling on the Lord's Day.

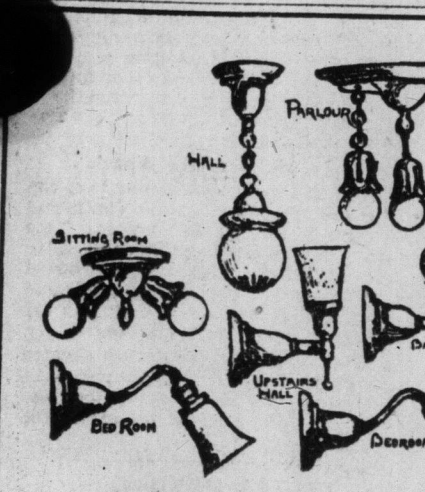

CANADA STEAMSHIPS MAY REDUCE WAGES

That the Canada Steamships Company contemplates making a general cut in its wage lists was intimated today by the resident manager, Percy Grant. Mr. Grant stated, however, that the company has not yet fixed a scale for all ratings of its employees.

The rumor that the company is putting a thirty per cent cut in wages into effect has no basis in fact," said Mr. Grant.

He could not say whether there had been any reduction or not so far as the captains and engineers were concerned.

"I do know, however," he added, "that the company headquarters at Montreal feel that a general reduction in wages is in order, although what this reduction will be has not yet been definitely decided."

Paris Purchases Radium To Fight Cancer Ravages

Paris, March 27.—Purchase of two grams of radium for 2,500,000 francs has been voted by the municipal council of Paris. The radium will be used in fighting the ravages of cancer.

Deaths from this disease have increased from 2,973 in 1910 to 3,619 in 1919, since that time the death rate from cancer has been growing.

FUEL CONTROLLER'S OFFICE WILL CLOSE

Half a Dozen Employees Are Affected and Cost Was $30,000 Year.

There will be no office of fuel controller for the province of Ontario after Saturday, April 9. Mr. Harrington, present fuel controller, confirmed this news on Saturday afternoon. He expressed the opinion that this action on the part of the government was a mistake. Four of the large companies in Toronto had reduced the price of coal 60 cents a ton but this was due to the clemency of the weather.

Dominion fuel control was in the hands of the Dominion railway board, and this was a good thing for the country. In due course there would be a rush for hard coal which was not moving in large quantities at present.

An official of the government stated that it cost the government $30,000 a year to maintain the fuel administrator's department. However, the office was self-sustaining since it received license fees from coal companies ranging from $10 to $100, according to tonnage.

BUILD NEW CHURCH FOR TORONTO DEAF

Evangelical Body Report Marked Progress With Subscriptions for Edifice.

The 21st annual conference of the Evangelical Church of the Deaf, held on Friday, Saturday and yesterday, was replete with exceptional features. In this institution where eyes serve ears it is not to be wondered at that the walls are lined with appropriate texts. The outstanding one which a visitor encounters is "The Deaf for Christ" which is noteworthy in that the institution has made marked progress during the past year. Mr. Harris of the Ontario mission told of the activities of the organization and gave the cheering news that 75 people had subscribed $4000 to help build a church in Toronto. The financial department reported a balance on hand of $306.95.

An Easter sermon was preached yesterday afternoon by Rev. W. A. Byrne, who has been closely connected with church work among the deaf since its inception in the city.

UNVEIL MEMORIAL TO FALLEN IN WAR

At Centennial Methodist Church, Dovercourt road, two memorial tablets were unveiled yesterday morning to the honor of men who lost their lives for the great war.

The inner tablet at the rear of the auditorium, was dedicated to the memory of the 24 men from the congregation who fell, while the outer tablet was a tribute to all Canadian soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice.

An appropriate service was held. The address was delivered by Capt. Rev. W. B. Caswell, while Rev. J. R. Patterson, who was the pastor when his services were killed overseas, read the scripture lesson. The first prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada.

ATTACKED BY SIX MEN, LOSES GOLD WATCH

One man against six has little chance and it was thus that William Simpson, whose home is in Caledon, Ont., but who is staying at the Suburban Hotel, Keele street, West Toronto, lost a gold watch at Wellington and Bathurst streets at 1.15 a.m. on Sunday.

Out of breath and very much excited, Simpson reported the hold-up to the police of Claremont street station. He stated that he was going home when six men, four of whom were wearing returned men's buttons, approached him and, without speaking, threw themselves upon him. So surprised was he at the sudden assault that he was unable to offer resistance. Luckily he did not have any money on him at the time.

OVERLAND NAMES BRANCH MANAGER

Mr. H. E. Brasier to Succeed Mr. H. D. Scully at Toronto Branch.

Willis-Overland, Limited, announce an appointment that will be of special interest in automobile circles. It is the selection of Mr. H. E. Brasier as Manager of the Toronto Branch to succeed Mr. H. D. Scully who has resigned to take up other important work.

Mr. Brasier has been Service Manager for Canada for some years and is widely known throughout the whole Canadian Overland organization. When changes in personnel were made at the beginning of the year he was appointed Ontario Sales Manager. He has been successful in his work and himself was congratulated on the promotion. His further advancement will be gratifying to his numerous friends everywhere.

WILL KEEP FAITH TO BRITAIN'S CROWN

Canada Self-Governing, Declares Justice Riddell, Addressing Travelers.

"In 1760 Canada was conquered for Britain," declared Justice W. R. Riddell, when he addressed the monthly meeting of the Commercial Travelers' Association on Saturday on "Canada, Past and Future." He reminded his hearers that in early days the governor of a colony governed the country from Britain, but that today the people of Canada, actually governed themselves and that they intended so to do. The part the United Empire Loyalists played in the history of Canada was stressed by the speaker, who had brought to this country their great faith, and "we with them will keep the faith to Britain's crown." He declared that all treasured the free-born right of every Britisher to govern himself.

APPOINTMENT OF GOVERNOR

Justice Riddell explained the manner in which a governor for the Dominion was appointed. The King made the appointment of a governor on the nomination of the house of commons. He classified this act as "democratic monarchy as contrasted with a republican appointee, who rules by the consent of the governed." The speaker also dwelt on the activities of the late Lord Salisbury who resulted in colonial conferences which brought about closer empire ties. In 1907, the speaker said, Canadians got tired of being called colonial, and the result was the Balfour Declaration which proclaimed "imperial" resulted, and "the word 'imperial' denotes everything that is tied on the map," opined his lordship.

THE KING REIGNS

"The King reigns," declared the speaker, "but he leaves the ruling to the people and their representatives. The beauty of our constitution is that we can build new institutions upon the old foundation."

"Some of these days there will be a meeting of the great men who are trying to systematize all the changes that have taken place in recent years. I hope to heaven that they do not make it a long document."

RAILWAY WATCHMAN WARNS MOTOR DRIVERS

He Has Seen Many Close Calls Owing to Carelessness of Men in Charge of Cars.

A gateman at a railway crossing has time to observe the habits and manners of the people who cross the railway track and his observations often contain a valuable safety lesson for these guardians of public safety has written to the Ontario Safety League, telling a partial story of his own particular crossing, with special emphasis on the light operation of automobiles. He says that hundreds of motorists cross his "beat" between 7.30 and 11 a.m., and that scores of these cars have no tail light or a tail light that is out of order, and again saw the regiment after the close of the service, when it marched upon long street back to the Yorkville Armories.

CLERGYMAN STRUCK; MOTORIST IS HELD

Rev. William McKinley Injured by Auto Driven by Mimico Man.

Struck by an automobile at Yonge and Wellesley streets on Saturday night, Rev. William McKinley, 19 Linden street, was injured about the head. He was removed to the General Hospital, where his injury was at first thought to be serious, but late last night The World was informed that he was doing nicely and that his early recovery was anticipated.

Ernest Everett of Mimico, Ontario, driver of the auto, reported to the police of West Dundas street station Detective George Tuft investigated the case after which Everett was locked up on a charge of criminal negligence.

CHURCH PARADE OF YORK RANGERS

Reorganized Regiment With Great War Record Makes Fine Showing.

To the good old war march, "Westward," and undaunted by weather conditions, the York Rangers, half a thousand strong, marched from the Yorkville Armories and swung down Yonge street Easter Sunday afternoon on the first church parade of a militia regiment since the war.

Easter Sunday was a fitting occasion to mark the reorganization of church parade in this city, and the York Rangers were a most worthy body of soldiers to hold such a march.

Led by Col. F. H. Holdsworth, with Major W. F. Orr, M.C., second in command, the fine old regiment, with 573 officers and men in line, made a gallant appearance, as well might such an organization, whose war record is not surpassed by any other regiment in the Dominion. Major J. H. Craig led No. 1 Co.; Major A. J. Flood, No. 2 Co.; Major J. M. Muir, No. 3 Co., and Major H. J. Adam, No. 4 Co.

The York Rangers' band, under Bandmaster J. Hartmann, numbered 32 musicians, and played its marches in the most stirring manner. Between the playing of marches by the band, the soldiers marched to the bugle band, under Sergt. Edwards.

Nearly all those in line were returned heroes, many wearing coveted war decorations, foremost among whom was Lieutenant W. L. Rayfield, V.C., of No. 1 Co., Lieutenant Rayfield was the Victoria Cross while serving under Major Orr, M.C., with No. 4 Co. of the 7th Battalion, C.E.F., when on Sept. 2nd, 1918, during the taking of the Hindenburg line he attacked a German machine gun position single-handed and in addition to killing a number of those in charge of the position captured 40 German soldiers. It was a feat that will live long in the annals of the Canadian army.

The parade took place to the Strand Theatre, where the service was conducted under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Captain Lambert, chaplain of Christie Street Military Hospital, preached the sermon to the Canadian soldiers during the war, and recalling the many self-sacrifices which marked the service of the Canadian soldiers during the war, Captain Lambert exhorted the C.E.F. as a private and lost his leg while fighting in Flanders, afterwards continuing his service under fire as an army chaplain.

Singing was led by a song leader from the Y. M. C. A., the music being rendered by the York Rangers' Band. A tenor solo was given by Pte. Brown.

Thousands Witness Parade.

The parade was witnessed by thousands of citizens, who lined Yonge street in excess of three thousand men, north of Bloor street, south to the Strand Theatre at King and Yonge streets, and again saw the regiment after the close of the service, when it marched upon long street back to the Yorkville Armories.

NEW COLD TREATMENT BRINGS QUICK RELIEF

Druggists Instructed to Refund Money in Every Instance Where Satisfactory Results Are Not Obtained After First Few Doses.

RESULTS FROM USE ALMOST IMMEDIATE

Thousands Using It With Gratifying Results—Great Superiority Over Ordinary Remedies Is Clearly Demonstrated.

Dr. Smathers' Asprolox, the new scientific cold remedy which has been accomplishing such remarkable results, probably provides the safest, surest and quickest, as well as the most practical treatment for colds yet discovered.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up the severest cold and ends all Grippe misery. The very first dose unstops the head, relieves difficult breathing, and penetrates deep down into the air passages. It also checks running of the nose, relieves those dull headaches, sneezing, and the feverishness which so often accompanies a cold. Don't stay stuffed up. Clear your congested head. No other remedy brings such prompt relief.

Dr. Smathers' Asprolox contains no quinine or nauseating harmful drugs. It has a soothing effect on inflamed mucous membranes of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes, and a gratifying feeling of relief takes the place of distress and discomfort. Dr. Smathers' Asprolox relieves a cold by removing the cause. It is a combination treatment, and acts as an antipyretic, expectorant, laxative and antiseptic.

The next time you have a cold go to your nearest druggist and ask for a bottle of Dr. Smathers' Asprolox. Have the clerk open it on the spot, take a teaspoonful, repeat the dose in an hour and again in two hours. If you are not surprised and delighted with the result, go back to your druggist and he will refund your money without question.

Montreal, March 27.—Patrick Burns of P. Mr. Charles Chaplin, the tramp, finds the abandoned baby, and takes him to his attic room. There are scenes where domestic economy, as practiced in the household of the baby's foster-father, is turned into a well-spring of unrestricted mirth. The humor of the entire breakfast scene, the comic cleverness with which the tramp turns his sole article of bedding into a gorgeous lounging robe, and his lessons to his young charge in the refinements of table etiquette and proper use of the knife—these are all extra joyful incidents in a picture which is richly endowed with original and unforced drollery. Like all great actors of comedy, Mr. Charles Chaplin feels and understands how to express the serious chords of life. And the fun is all the better for making the tramp a human being whose honest attempts to befriend a helpless child lead to some of the best comedy in the picture. PROHIBITORY LAWS BRING DISRESPECT

R. C. Woods Outlines His Views on O.T.A. at Open Forum.

EARLS COURT

The case of the Wets, was the subject discussed by R. C. Woods in an interesting address at last night's open forum, held at the Belmont Theatre, Earls Court.

Mr. Woods contended that unpopular laws, forced upon the people, such as the O. T. A., incited young men gradually to despise them and, as a result, found themselves in the penitentiary.

The tremendous amount of crime committed in the United States and Canada during the past year, and the outrageous increase in the use of drugs, were dwelt upon by the speaker, who strongly condemned the temperance act, which, he declared, was responsible for the state of affairs he outlined.

After the lecture, numerous questions from both sides were asked, and answered by the chairman, Edward Meek, and the speaker, who informed one after another that he, himself, was a teetotaler, but, in his opinion, every man should have his rights, and prohibition only encouraged youths to deceive their parents and bring on trouble.

The streets of Earls Court were unusually lively between 7 and 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the occasion being the attendance of the residents at their respective churches for the special Easter observances.

The early communion service at St. Chad's Anglican Church was so well attended that it crowded the street in front of the church, waiting for admittance. The church was decorated with an array of tulips and Easter lilies, while words of rejoicing were dispensed over the centre aisle. Special music was included in the service.

Earls Court Central Methodist Men's Own Brotherhood held a well-attended meeting yesterday afternoon, during which Mrs. M. E. Becker of the Citizens' Social League, gave an interesting address in which she pointed out the elevation of women into every-day life and advised men and women to unite for the betterment of citizenship.

During the meeting an enjoyable musical program was rendered, in which the men's own orchestra, and Miss Darcy's solo, took part. J. J. Noad presided.

A memorable sight for the parishioners of St. Clare's Catholic Church, Earls Court, was the little children at the early mass, who made their first holy communion, the girls in white with wreaths and veils, and the boys with a band of white ribbon on the left arm harmonizing with the splendor of the numerous Easter lilies and white floral decorations on the altars.

Easter was indeed celebrated to the utmost in Earls Court yesterday, the streets being scenes of quiet splendor. The feature attraction was a monster parade of Boy Scouts, numbered 300, and all from troop No. 49, under Scoutmaster B. Lando. While the parade was proceeding on its route, the district special marches were rendered by H. K. Army and Navy Veterans' Band under the leadership of J. White. The sight was one of the prettiest ever witnessed in the district. The troop carried flags and banners and various boys wore their special decorations for the occasion.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBAN NEWS

TRUSTEES IN CLASH WITH RATEPAYERS

Finances of S. S. No. 15 Subject of Discussion—More Information Wanted.

FAIRBANK

"That the trustees of school section No. 15 be given the power to apply to the township of York to issue debentures amounting to $25,000" is the resolution adopted after considerable haggling at a meeting of Fairbank ratepayers on Saturday night. In fact, two different meetings of ratepayers were held, one of which came to an abrupt close in the Fairbank Central School.

Prolonged arguments took place between the large number of ratepayers and the three trustees of the section, for whom Duncan B. Hood, chairman of the board, answered.

Instead of having to state their figures, as in the previous meeting, the trustees had them chalked in large figures on the blackboard, beside the figures of the special committee, which was elected two weeks ago to examine the books of the trustees.

Altho corresponding in many items the total of the committee's figures differed from those of the trustees, and this difference promoted heated argument, which is not even yet cleared up. Trustee R. B. Goggie said that the work in the Central School had been taken from the general fund, instead of from the debenture fund, which, he said, was short, therefore things were confused. It was his desire to see everything straightened out before accepting any responsibilities.

Switching of Funds. F. Wilson, one of the ratepayers, indignantly asked: "What has part of the money been switched from one fund to the other without consulting us?" B. Hood replied: "We used our own discretion, the accounts had to be paid in the interests of the section and you yourselves I advise you to vote the required amount."

George Mills, who acted as chairman of the meeting, accused the people of lack of interest in school affairs in the past. George Prior of the special committee said the trustees had no right whatever to spend money amounting to more than what was previously voted to them.

Information Lacking. "When we require information we cannot get it," said Mr. McGregor, to which Trustee Hood replied that he had spent all evening giving information. C. T. Lacey contended that the trustees were not in order if they had taken money for alteration purposes from the building fund.

F. Milson's views were that "under the heading of repairs money has been expended on the old school, making it appear out and out camouflage, I cannot get satisfaction from the trustees. What do they want with this amount?" B. Hood replied: "Regarding the camouflage accusation, there is a limit to every man's endurance—and this is the end of mine."

Resolution Passed. Matters in connection with contractors' agreements and various details were discussed and a great deal of argument followed before a resolution was passed by a close vote on the motion of Messrs. Harvey and Walsh.

The ratepayers decided, on the motion of Miss Gardner, to hold a special meeting in three weeks' time to discuss the financial statement. Trustees Hood and McMinn demanded votes of confidence from the people before they continued with their duties on the board, and threatened to hand in their resignations, but the meeting was adjourned abruptly before the ratepayers gave the matter any consideration.

CROWDED CHURCHES AT EASTER SERVICES

Overflow Congregations at St. Barnabas' and Palace Theatre Thronged.

DANFORTH

St. Barnabas' Anglican Church, corner of Hampton and Danforth avenues, was packed to overflowing and hundreds were turned away at both services yesterday. Rev. F. E. Powell, rector, presided and preached an appropriate Easter sermon at the morning service, when over 1000 members of the congregation received communion.

Rev. J. Hiltz, superintendent of Sunday schools, presided at the evening service, which was held in the gymnasium, assisted by the rector.

Danforth Avenue Methodist Church held special Easter services yesterday, the large building being filled with overflowed congregations. The pastor, Rev. John J. Coulter, delivered an appropriate Easter message, including "The Resurrection," which was well received by the large quartet. The sacred cantata, "The Victory Divine" (Marka) was delightfully rendered by the choir under the direction of J. Redearne, in the evening, assisted by Mrs. Vandervoort and H. H. Gardner, soloists.

Easter services were held at the Palace Theatre, corner of Pape and Danforth avenues, last evening, when Rev. I. Hunter, rector of St. Barnabas' Anglican Church, preached to a capacity congregation. Special music was rendered by the choir, under the leadership of Lonn Penhall Rees, organist. Mr. Somerville contributed cornet solos and Mrs. Somerville, contralto, sang "The Day is Over," assisted by the choir.

One of the finest bands in the Salvation Army Good Friday parade was that of the Riverside corps of 50 instruments, under the leadership of Bandmaster Martin. This aggregation of players and instruments was being worn by the corps through the efforts of the St. Barnabas' church, assisted by the business men of the section since last fall.

Work is now under way in connection with the extension of St. Barnabas' Anglican Church, Danforth avenue. The plans for the extension of the Danforth avenue, and when completed the original plans of the building will show a handsome cruciform structure. The new window will be a stained glass memorial to the memory of the late Mrs. F. E. Powell, wife of the rector.

The cost of the work, it is estimated, will be $10,000. A fine pipe organ will also be installed, which was purchased from the Grovesend Presbyterian Church board of management. This instrument, which is at present stored in the Sunday school building, will be thoroughly overhauled and remodeled up to date when placed in the enlarged church. The organ, when rebuilt, will be worth $15,000, according to the statement of Mr. Courtney, church warden.

In all Catholic churches throughout the city and the suburbs, the day was spent with devout worshippers. Special Easter music was rendered by the choirs.

LEASIDE MOURNS LOSS OF AGED RESIDENT

Mrs. Mary E. Williamson, who died Saturday morning in her 82nd year, had been a life-long resident of York county and for 40 years of Leaside. Mrs. Williamson's maiden name was Pickering, she having been a member of the family of that name for three generations well known in township and county circles.

Moving to Toronto after her marriage to Joseph Williamson, the family resided in the north end of ward two until following the death of her husband, when Mrs. Williamson took up her residence with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. R. Allison, 25 Eberbeck avenue. She survived by her daughter, one son, Arthur, and a sister, Mrs. George Lea, of Leaside.

NEED NEW SCHOOL FOR SECTION NO. 27

Township Pupils Must Vacate North Pape, Necessitating Extension of Torrens'.

TODMORDEN

The school trustees and ratepayers of school section No. 27, Todmorden, are faced with a serious situation regarding further school accommodation. Notice has been received by the school board from the city board of education that the township pupils now in attendance at Kitchener school, North Pape avenue, will have to leave before September in order to make room for city children. The township school board will have to build a six-roomed extension to Torrens avenue school at a cost of at least $30,000 almost immediately to take care of the children.

Broadview avenue (formerly Don Mills road) will shortly be widened four feet by the good roads commission from the city limits northward.

Under the auspices of Todmorden Women's Liberal-Conservative Association, a concert will be held in the Community Hall, Gowanus avenue, Todmorden, tomorrow evening, when Hon. Geo. S. Henry, M.L.A., will address the gathering. St. Barnabas' Players will put on an historical sketch and the 13th Canadian Scouts will contribute a short musical program. S. Allen, president of the men's branch, will preside.

According to a prominent Todmorden resident, the installation of sewers and water mains is the live question that the eastern district, and that the ratepayers as a body are indifferent as to whether they are annexed to the City of Toronto or are incorporated into a town, provided these improvements are quickly provided. Every convenience received by the ratepayers has been on the local improvement plan, he pointed out.

MAKE EVERY ADULT AN ACTIVE WORKER

Community Association Out to Make Centre Road Attractive Thru Co-operation.

PORT CREDIT

The newly-formed Centre Road Community Association is about to launch a membership campaign, with the avowed intention of making every adult resident of the district join up. It is their aim to make Centre Road and vicinity the most attractive district in the county, and they recognize that this can only be accomplished with the co-operation of all the citizens of the locality.

A popular visitor to the village during the week-end was Melville Allen, popularly known as "Scotty," who has been for some time stationed at Camp Borden, where he is engaged in the mechanical department of the Royal Flying Corps.

The number of automobiles passing thru Port Credit on Friday and Saturday was easily the greatest on the highway this season. Rain, however, yesterday caused a falling-off as compared with the two previous days. On Saturday numerous butterflies were seen flying about. On the return trip of motorists to the city many carried armfuls of pussy-willows.

Charles Peer, one of Port Credit's best known citizens and public workers, who has been seriously ill for a considerable time, was able to be out of doors during the ideal weather of last week, and is now well on the way to complete recovery.

The North Toronto reels had a run about 8:30 Saturday evening, when a corner of Bayview and Eglington avenue, where some brush had caught fire. No damage was done.

TAXPAYERS DEMAND VIADUCT BUILDING

Controller Maguire Says If Construction Blocked Development Will Stop.

NORTH TORONTO

At a meeting of the North Toronto ratepayers, held in the old town hall Saturday evening, Controller Maguire, in a concise manner, put the whole case of the viaduct before the meeting and explained how the private council had upheld the decision of the Dominion Railway Board and had stated that the viaduct must be built. "If it was not to be built after the sum of $15,000,000 had been spent, it would stop the development of Toronto," he said, "and he did not conceive that any government of Canada would do anything but stand by the City of Toronto." There was considerable argument regarding the amount of money the city would have to expend, but following some discussion, the meeting on the motion of ex-Councillor F. Howe, went on record as endorsing the action of the city in demanding that the viaduct be built as per the agreement.

Cost Apportionment. The controller explained how it had been said that it would cost something like 25 or 30 millions of dollars to build the viaduct, but showed that the cost for the Union Station was $2,000,000, of which sum the Dominion of Canada assumed half of the cost. Land damages would amount to something like $7,000,000, of which the harbor board assumed half, and the construction would amount to about $15,000,000, of which the City of Toronto assumed something like $4,000,000. "In other words," declared the controller, "it will only cost the railway about $15,000,000. If the viaduct had been in Montreal it would have been built by now, but because it is in Toronto they try to put another one over Toronto."

Alderman Winsett told those present what he was attempting to do to get paving for the streets in that vicinity, and said that the works committee were now waiting for a report from Works Commissioner Harris regarding the sewage question, as the commissioner had told the committee that the reason the paving was being held up in North Toronto was due to this question.

GOVERNMENT MAY SUPPORT SECESSION

Private Bills Committee Will Decide on Township Division, Says Drury.

YORK COUNTY

Mr. Spence, solicitor of the Township of York, wrote Premier Drury for an appointment for the reeve and council to present to him and colleagues their case against the division of the township as set out in a bill now before the private bills committee, supported by the farmers resident north of the suburban area. The latter, thru their counsel, Thomas Urquhart, asked the premier to be heard at the same meeting. Mr. Drury thereupon decided to tell both parties to take the matter up with the private bills committee, which meets on Thursday morning of this week.

Some of the members of the council take this to mean that the government intend to support the petition for the division. At a meeting of the secessionist farmers' committee, held last week, it was decided that if the old council pressed for it they would be willing to agree to make Mincoullan avenue the line of division on the west side, but that the line on the east side would be as set out at the last meeting of the private bills committee, namely, a line between lots 2 and 3, 7 and 8, 12 and 13, in the third concession from the bay. This would leave four square miles on the east side and about 14 square miles on the west side for the old township.

But all these things will be discussed at the meeting of the private bills committee. Secessionist Farmers Lay Improvement Plans. The secessionist farmers in York Township are laying plans for improvement if they get their legislation. They speak of new roads, new bridges, a real local constabulary force for the preservation of property and the maintenance of order on the highways. They have also a policy in regard to schools.

Then why refuse an increase in the interest on your Savings Account? It's as simple as A.B.C." The ad also states: "The Union Trust Company will pay you interest at 4% per annum, compounded regularly. Come and open your account here. If you cannot conveniently call, open your account by mail. The company's address is listed as 140 Richmond and Victoria Streets, Toronto, with branches in London, Eng. and Winnipeg.

Plymouth Rock Hen Lays Champion Egg advertisement. The headline reads "PLYMOUTH ROCK HEN LAYS CHAMPION EGG". The text describes a hen named Bedford Park which laid a three-egg egg in 18 hours. The egg was found by John Atkinson of North York street, Toronto, on Saturday. The egg was a plymuth rock pullet which laid an egg of extraordinary size, which, on being opened, revealed a smaller egg inside. Both eggs have perfect shells, but the outer egg has no yolk. The outer egg is nine and one-quarter inches in circumference around the end and six and one-half inches around the middle. From between the shells has been drained enough white for four ordinary eggs. The whole egg weighed five and three-quarter ounces. A similar case was noted in despatches last week from Beaver, Col., where an egg inside an egg, laid by a white leghorn pullet, weighed five ounces. The inside egg, found where the yolk ought to be, was perfectly every particular, as is true of the Bedford double egg.

West Toronto Woman Badly Injured by C. P. R. Train advertisement. The headline reads "West Toronto Woman Badly Injured by C. P. R. Train". The text states: "Mrs. James Mcintosh, 238 Weston road, was struck by a southbound Owen Sound C.P.R. train at 11:15 on Saturday afternoon near the Grand Trunk station. The road at this point crosses the tracks at an angle of about 60 degrees, and the unfortunate woman was thrown from the west to the east right across the width of the track. Her left arm was broken, her jaw fractured and she received injuries to her head. She was removed to the Western Hospital in Lynette's ambulance, and her condition is considered serious."

REV. DR. BETHUNE IS SUPERANNUATED

Was For Fourteen Years on the Staff of the O.A.C. at Guelph.

An old and brilliant servant of the Ontario government has just been superannuated. He is the Rev. Dr. C. J. Bethune, who for the past four years has acted as professor of entomology. The professor, who is in his 82nd year, was born in West Flamboro, near Dundas. Prior to going to the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, he was headmaster of Trinity College School at Port Hope for 30 years.

Dr. Bethune has always taken part in the work of the Church of England and for seven years was secretary of the general synod.

It may be interesting to note that Dr. Bethune was born at Upper Canada College in 1838, and that Col. G. T. Denison, the popular police magistrate of the city, was associated in the same form with him.

My Nerves Were So Bad at Times that I Could Not Keep Back the Tears

WHEN the nerves collapse there is such a feeling of utter helplessness that strong men, as well as women, cannot do otherwise than weep.

The average physician is sadly at a loss when consulted by a nervous patient, and we have from such an eminent authority as Dr. Richard Cabot the statement that half the ordinary practitioners' work is with derangements of the nerves.

Think of the headaches, backaches, neuralgic and sciatic pains, the sleeplessness, indigestion and tired, depressed feelings that give the doctors their business, and you will realize the truth of this statement of Dr. Cabot.

The conditions under which people have lived during the last few years has meant enormous strain on the nervous system. The fear, the worry, the anxiety have wasted nerve force at such an enormous rate that persons of nervous temperament have been unable to stand the strain—the result is nervous collapse.

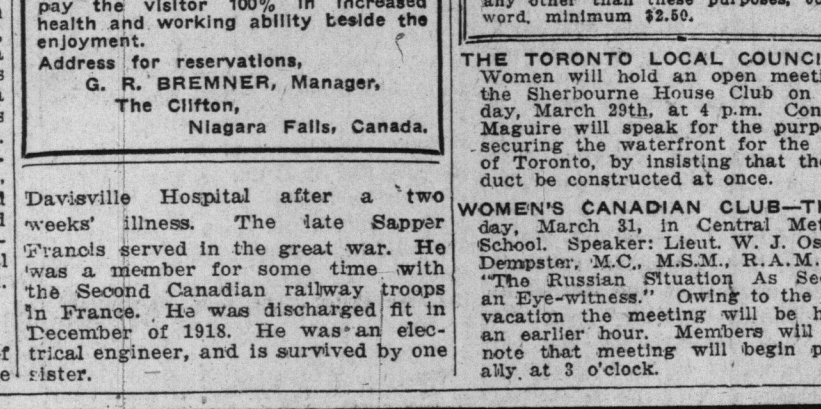

Recovery must necessarily be slow, and the average doctor, accustomed as he is to treating symptoms only, finds difficulty in bringing about restoration, and often fails to realize the helpless and discouraged condition of his patient.

Because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food supplies in condensed and easily assimilated form the vital substances with which Nature rebuilds the starved and wasted nerve cells it stands out to-day as the greatest of nerve restoratives.

A careful reading of this letter will give you an idea of just what you may expect from the use of this treatment, because it describes an average case:

Mrs. S. Sharp, Midland, Ont., writes:— "About eleven years ago I had a serious nervous breakdown, and was so bad at times that I could not keep back the tears. I also had a queer feeling in the back of my head; sometimes it seemed to be going backwards. I could not do any sewing, and finally could do no work at all. I tried other remedies and doctors' medicine, but they only gave me temporary relief. Last fall I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and had not taken very many until I found I was getting better. I kept on taking them, and am at present greatly improved. I am now able to do my work, and they have strengthened me splendidly. I can highly recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for nervous trouble of any kind."

The next step is to make the test of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in your own case. If you are careful to see the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., on the box you buy you will be sure that you are getting the genuine. 50c a box, 6 for $2.75. All dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

An Appalling Record.

Those who find anything either startling or unique in the deficits of the Canadian National Railways under public ownership should consider for a moment the appalling record made by the American railways during the year that has followed their return to private ownership. The operating expenses have increased over one billion, three hundred million dollars in the last year. The effort to reduce this year an increase in wages has been resisted by Samuel Compton and other labor leaders. The big wage increase, the McCauley award, was made over two years ago, and the burden of that fell upon the United States government railway administration. The only wage increase since the return of the roads to their owners was the railway labor board's award of June, 1920, retroactive to May 1. This raise in wages only accounts for an increase of four hundred and eighty million dollars in operating expenses, leaving nearly a round billion unaccounted for.

It is vaguely asserted that the railway companies had to expend a large part of their first year's earnings after their return to private ownership in the purchase of equipment, in maintenance and replacement work. We say it is vaguely asserted, because it has never been sustained by any bill of particulars. Rolling stock and other equipment are not paid for in cash, but by equipment certificates, which are so openly marketed that the financial editor of any newspaper can tell you what such purchases during any year have amounted to. The output of the railway shops is also well known. Reconstruction work cannot be conducted secretly. The labor unions and the people generally know when such work is going on in any locality. The real fact seems to be that the American railways have been scarcely in the market at all for equipment this past year, and have scamped maintenance and replacement work to the limit of safety. A considerable part of the one billion three hundred million dollars increase in operating expenses during the past year is absolutely unaccounted for, and the labor unions say it has either been stolen or is represented by concealed assets and deceptive bookkeeping.

Half the railways in the United States would be in the hands of the receiver today were it not for the huge financial handouts they are receiving from the federal government. We think it a hardship here for the National Railways to ask sixty million dollars from the public treasury, but the American railways, with ten or twelve times the population to serve and traffic to carry and the opportunity to make good, are receiving six hundred million dollars bonus from the United States treasury.

We in Canada can at least see some daylight ahead. The National Transcontinental and the Intercolonial are without mortgage or fixed charges. The National Railway system, consolidated with the Grand Trunk under unified management, can, and we believe will, effect many economies, if only by cutting out a duplication of services and officials which now exists. A considerable part of the debt of the National Railways is money owed the government, and the government, having foreclosed on the property, could be very well written off. Finally, the people own the system and if it ever pays they will get the profit.

In the United States the outlook is truly desperate. Since their de-control the roads have gone back to the old wasteful duplication of service that competition is bound to promote. They are all of them mortgaged up to the hilt and there are no fixed charges that can be written off. They must cling like leeches to the public treasury if they are to function at all, and if later on they get on their feet and make a profit, that profit will go to the general public, but to the corporations owning the roads.

Anyone who is blue over the railway situation in Canada, or fearful over public ownership, should make a little journey to the United States. After viewing the American railway situation under private ownership, he will return home a cheerful Canadian.

The one question that presses at our door is the immediate taking over of the Grand Trunk and its consolidation with the other government lines, to the end of cutting out all unnecessary duplication of officials, train services, equipment, stations, overhead solicitation of business. Also cutting out deadhead passenger business. Also indiscreet use of private cars by politicians and officials.

MR. PLUVIUS HAD HIS LITTLE JOKE

And public ownership will yet get a union of rail and marine transportation.

Collapse of Paper Boom.
Apologists for the fall down in the paper boom are admitting that there was some oversight regarding the future during the feverish stock market days of last summer. One of the Montreal brokerage houses, in its monthly review, points out the enormous increase in the pulp and paper production in Canada during recent years, and states that for 1920 the production was 3,022,000, against 1,507,000 tons in 1914. This means practically doubling the output.

Of course, the consumption in 1920 was largely taken up on this continent, as at that time the paper mills of Europe had scarcely got on their feet following the disturbances caused by the war.

Just where this enormous surplus is to go is a problem for the Canadian producers. They undoubtedly will have to meet competition of the German, Swedish and Finland paper makers, and it is not so certain that the world's market for paper has increased during the war, in fact, there are evidences that, owing to the slaughter of many publications by the exorbitant prices charged for paper, the world's markets will be left even smaller.

Start Up the Movement.
The unduly early spring should be of considerable assistance in relieving the labor situation in Toronto and elsewhere. All kinds of improvements can now go on, and there are many of these in the city to be undertaken, both publicly and privately. Everybody should try to promote such work as is possible to be done. Householders can be of considerable assistance in taking up the surplus labor that is now available to the advantage of themselves and the public in general. Prices for the majority of things are now down to a much more reasonable level than they have been for a couple of years. This is the day for old jobs. During the war we felt constrained to conserve all our energies and avoid any expenditures that could be delayed, and there must be a lot of work to call for attention. Once started the movement and the impetus will carry itself along.

There seems to be no reason for anything but the strongest confidence for the future in the building business. There is an extremely good demand for houses and builders of homes are running few chances constructing for the present and future demand. All over the United States the wheels of factories are beginning to operate again, not quite to full, but the move has a tendency to grow, and here in Canada developments. What is wanted just now is reasonable action on the part of labor and employers, and avoid any expenditures that could be delayed, and there must be a lot of work to call for attention. Once started the movement and the impetus will carry itself along.

Remarked in Passing.
April showers have started in early enough, and they are welcome, but it was a bit unkind to turn them on Easter Sunday.

That little decline in coal prices was too much for the fuel controller. Attending all to buy coal, because it might so up, the only decent thing he could do when the drip came was to shut up his office.

Next time they have a fuel controller, better not arrange to have him paid by fees collected from coal dealers.

The fact that Judge Denton declines to act on the proposed police court investigation should in no case deter the city council from ordering a most thorough inquiry into the whole matter. And the inquiry should be brought on with all possible speed.

MAID PROBLEM AGAIN ARISES

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

Every few months a tempest in a teapot is started regarding domestic help. Either the employer or the employee decides that she is not getting the best of the bargain, or for that matter a fair deal. Then there is always a great attempt made to straighten out the tangle "once and for all." The struggle has been going on for many years and will likely continue for the rest of time.

Right now the argument is whether wages shall be reduced. The housewife feels (or so they say) that the high living craze is on its last legs it must necessarily follow that the monthly stipend of the domestic must also begin to totter and eventually fall.

One woman told us that her household allowance had been cut to meet the reduced cost of food, but just where the reduction had "happened" she was not able to say. Her maid and master had merely intimated that business was bad and was liable to become rotten, so that she had better out her garment for the future according to her cloth and not go piling up debts. Also, as he had found it necessary to reduce the wages of his maid, he would politely suggest that she do the same with her maids. And there the battle starts.

Sunshine and Drying Fields.
All over Southern Ontario, from the Ottawa to the Detroit River, the sun is shining brightly, and the fields are drying up. In the western countries the farmers are on the land. There promises to be a big sowing of spring wheat and other grains. The market gardeners and fruit men are all busy, especially on orchard, bush and grape pruning. So far the sheep farmers say that the run of lambs is above the ordinary. Farm help is coming along, with wages shaded lower than last season. All farm work is ahead of last year.

The World's LITTLE TH
By Madge Macbeth

In all that communitarian there was scarcely a person who did not attribute Kleath's coming amongst them to some reason better hidden than revealed, and no greater tribute can be paid him than to state that the very persons who had built up (for them) some personal history were more than indifferently curious; they were sympathetically interested and declared that "whatever he had done in helping him get away with it."

Even Barney McCool, whose idleness was open and abashed, looking upon Kleath as an "angler error" and loved him the more for his mysterious weakness.

It was Barney, of course, who professed an intimate knowledge of all the points which baffled the community at large. Barney professed an intimate knowledge of everything there was not a spot upon the face of the globe at which he had not touched, not a person of prominence who could matter a fair deal. Then there is always a great attempt made to straighten out the tangle "once and for all." The struggle has been going on for many years and will likely continue for the rest of time.

thought I was crazy to hold the queen, John and nine spot," he would say, "but I reasoned that my chances were better. It pleased him to be considered an immensely subtle player."

Buck sat beside him, dwarfing every other man in the room. The intense cold and the blistering heat from the glowing stove had whipped his cheeks to a beefy red which seemed too enough to singe his grizzled beard. He attacked the game much as he would have gone at a stubbornly unyielding piece of ground with pick and shovel.

Buck and Farnum were the first to resent Delany's attitude. They displayed the most determined fighting front.

"The cards weren't shuffled," cried Buck throwing his hand on the table. "A new deal."

"You've got the same chances as the rest of us," broke in Eddie Farnum, who had three tens.

"I ain't so sure of that," growled Phil.

Delany laid down the pack and turned violently toward him.

"What did you say?" he demanded in a tone of enforced smoothness.

Pinkie was sleeping peacefully under the coverings from all the other beds. Tears were frozen on the children's pinched, blue cheeks. Their skin was hard to the touch. "Done for," announced Delany.

But the children were not done for. Instead they were rubbed back to consciousness and howling discomfort. There was a great crowd at the "Hall" the following night.

"Come into the bosom of the family, Bright Eyes," yelled one of the girls suddenly across the room. "We was jes' tryin' a little of the absent treatment, an' seein' if we couldn't bring you up to snuff."

It was Kleath. He responded to the crowd's cordiality and decided to be one of them. He swung Tiny Teas up into his arms.

"I'll have a bold, dashing two-step with this baby," he said, and he danced with her as though she were a feather.

"Little one," interrupted "Big Bill" Buck, "I'm going to lead you off to one of them gallery boxes and a quart of the fizzy stuff. If you've got any of the fizzy stuff, it's yours. I want to be on hand to catch 'em and put 'em where they'll do the most good. Kleath, you yonder don't hear all that?"

"You'll make a corpse of it," answered Kleath, "if you don't give her a drink and shut the door. He started at the work of resuscitation. "She's as nearly frozen as I ever want to be."

In a short time, however, Mrs. Wade, a half-breed who enjoyed the distinction of being the poorest resident of Dawson, revived sufficiently to explain her presence there.

Just the same, Morenz was given a lot of attention, but he was able to evade his check easier than Carson, and was the best of the red and white. Roth and Richards did a tremendous amount of work, and gave all they had. Carson, in goal, was on his good-behavior, and turned away many wicked attempts. Long shots that beat him out were Carson's, and he was easily the best of them all. This chap, Neil, on the defence, is a "wiz," and McCallum is about just as good. They poke-check wonderfully, and speed is their middle name. McMunn at right wing is another that looks like a corner. Carson is only listed as a sub, but he belongs to the first flight. Fredinson and McPherson round out one of the best lines in the east. Fredinson is a fine, thin, quick, and likely was happy on the visitors than on Stratford, but they stood the sixty minutes better than any other line in the east. Fredinson and McPherson were mainly all in, yet they went on an scored three goals in the last period. Only during a short span in the second period did the Falcons appear to have the upper hand. From 4-0 to 4-2, the Falcons were down. Stratford's lead, but Comfort, their goal-keeper, was sent to the cooler for falling on the ice to make a stop. Carson whipped the puck in from a face-off right in front of the net, and the western rally was finished.

Stratford started to bump the Falcons right from the drop of the hat, and it kept before the net, and the Falcons were busy for the rest of the evening. Morenz was the worst offender, and Woodall, left wing, was the best. Fredinson was the best of the rest. The visitors were able to look after themselves, but the budding tactics broke up their play.

TRIUMPHAL ENTRY OF VARSITY CHAMPIONS

The Varsity world's amateur hockey champions are home and will soon settle down to work after their triumphant entry on Saturday afternoon. Nothing has approached the procession, plaudits and crowds since automobiles became the vogue. True, there were more vehicles in line when the late Edward Hanlan used to return a conquering hero, but in those days there were not the people nor the crowds. However, it was getting back to old times with Ramsay, Brown, Langtry, Carson, Wright, Sullivan, Westman and Olson, the Allan Cup and the managers and mentors atop of an old-time coach, furnished, painted and motored by the owner, A. W. Miles of College street, and drawn by under grads. Decorated auto and bands and cheering students made up the cavalcade that pleased the hundred thousand that packed the route.

The champions were lauded, acclaimed and photographed on the way by President Sir Robert and Mayor Tommy. Tomorrow night the team attend the S.P.A. banquet, and some time later a feed at Hart House to finish up the scenario.

HEAVY BAIL BONDS FOR BALL PLAYERS

Who's Who of Additional Men Indicted and Their Parts Thereof.

Chicago, Ill., March 28.—Carl Zork, a shirt waist manufacturer, and Benjamin Franklin, both of St. Louis, were charged today by indictment with conspiracy in connection with the Chicago White Sox players' strike. The indictment was returned by the grand jury which today finished the second investigation into the baseball scandal.

Joseph J. Sullivan, known in the case as a gambler, Louis and Ben Levi, formerly of Des Moines, Ia., and Abe Attell were indicted today by the grand jury. Sullivan, Zork and Franklin, had been returned by the Cook County grand jury which today finished the second investigation into the baseball scandal.

The men indicted were: Eddie Cloette, pitcher, who confessed to receiving $500 to throw games. Claude Williams, pitcher, who confessed to receiving $5000. Joe Jackson, outfielder, who confessed to receiving $1000. Fred McMunn, utility infielder. Chick Gandil, first baseman. Oscar Felsch, outfielder. Buck Weaver, third baseman. Hal Chase, former major league first baseman. Abe Attell, once champion feather-weight fighter. Sullivan, alleged gambler. Joseph J. Sullivan, alleged gambler. The cases against Jackson, Felsch, Weaver, Chase and Williams recently were dismissed by the state on grounds that there was insufficient evidence available to convict. The cases against the other men indicted last fall were taken off the court call.

HOME RUN IN NINTH BEAT BIRMINGHAM

Wagner Hit It With Two On, and Then Leafs Got Out of Hole.

Birmingham, March 27.—Toronto won a hectic contest from Birmingham on Saturday night. With the Leafs leading by one run in the ninth, Wagner hit for a homer, scoring Matthews and Davis, who had singled previously, and the home club had three men on the bases with one out, the score remained unaltered. Bates, who succeeded Woodie, pitched himself out of a great hole and saved the game by fanning both Clarke and Carson, who were on base. Woodie had been made before he settled down.

Both teams had their batting clothes, but the Leafs wielded the heavier clubs and hit for many extra bases. Anderson had two timely triples, and Wagner in addition, by striking the longest home run ever seen at the park, had two singles. Doyle did not play on account of a sore knee. Williams, the longest home run ever seen at the park, had two singles. Doyle did not play on account of a sore knee. Williams, the longest home run ever seen at the park, had two singles. MANY PROBLEMS AWAIT MEMBERS

Lengthy Program Will Keep Ontario House in Session Some Weeks.

KNOTTY QUESTIONS

Hydro Legislation and O.T.A. Amendments Among Matters for Decision.

The Ontario legislature enters upon its tenth week of the second session tomorrow afternoon, when the members, fresh from their Easter holidays, face a lengthy program of business, which, under ordinary circumstances, will take fully four weeks to get thru, although, if they maintain the same rate of progress which characterized the first eight weeks, the legislative wheels may be running strong at Whitsuntide, which is seven weeks away.

Hydro Legislation Due. There is far more business yet to be tackled than the average citizen is aware of. Legislation has been promised by the government, for instance, on the Hydro committee's famous report, which, among other things, recommended a $2 tax per horse power developed within the province. Dr. Drury has already publicly announced his opposition to the $2, but he is known to be in favor of a modified sum ranging between fifty cents and a dollar.

Wants Backus Letters. Howard Ferguson has also called for a return of correspondence with friend Backus and others relating to the Lake of the Woods pulp concession, and the White Dog Rapids water power and the recent sale of pulp wood and timber of the English River concession—and this might lead anywhere in the matter of discussion. Some important changes are also to be made in the workmen's compensation act, and Hartley Dewar has a responsible government bill which may hit the administration rather hard.

Urges Tight Check on Immigration. Rabbi Brickner would keep out Bolsheviks and other Undesirables. Rabbi B. R. Brickner, in addressing the Open Forum, Victoria Theatre, yesterday afternoon, on the subject of "Immigration and the Racial Problem," endeavored to argue to some extent the case for the immigrants. Two great objections were put forward as to why these foreigners should be barred from the country were, that they contributed to the unemployment list and were responsible for much of the crime.

Printer Drops Dead Working at Case. Suddenly stricken with heart failure while at work in the printing establishment of F. H. Best & Co., 206 West Adelaide street, on Saturday morning, Richard Hammond, aged about 40, living at 170 John street, some time later lying face downwards on a type box by Alexander Treloar, 1-2 Danforth avenue, Dr. McCormack, 113 The market street, called in, pronounced death due to natural causes, after which the body was removed to the morgue. The head coroner was notified, although it is not probable that an inquest will be held.

R. H. Greer, K.C., former county crown attorney, is well-known among the younger set of the legal profession in Toronto. Before becoming crown attorney he mixed actively in politics and was president of the West One Liberal-Conservative Association. It is not such a great stretch of time since "Dick" Greer was one of the best amateur baseball players in Toronto, and he was a popular choice to organize and command the Department Overseas Battalion, Mr. Greer has lately been prominently in the public eye as crown prosecutor in the Doughty case.

RELIEF STATION TO CLOSE THURSDAY

Men Getting Free Meals Will Have to Provide for Themselves.

WORK ON FARMS

Salvation Army Will Look After the Real Cases of Need.

Krausmann House closes on Thursday next, and relief activities close on the Monday following, except for the most deserving cases. During the past ten days, if not longer, there have been an average of more than 2,000 applications for relief. After Monday week the applications will likely have dwindled from 2,000 to 200. Officials at the Krausmann House stated on Saturday that there were large numbers of men who would apply for relief and would refuse to work just as long as this door was open. They pointed out that every day there were easily 50 or more men who, if granted work, suddenly made themselves scarce.

City's Powers Limited. The petition has to go to the lieutenant-governor-in-council, said the attorney-general, and I do not know the procedure under the public utilities act. He believes nothing definite can be decided before the matter has been reported to the city council.

Plenty of Farm Work. Rev. J. A. Miller, superintendent of the Ontario Labor Employment Bureau at 49 West Front street, stated to The World that farm jobs were offered plentifully and at very fair wages. The average scale of wages was $20 to $25 a month for inexperienced and $30 to $40 a month for experienced men. Men had been placed at the rate of about twenty-five a day.

Neither Side Is Taking Any Chance of Voting Being Upset.

THRILLS IN RANKS

Liberty League Will Go Ahead With the Injunction Proceedings.

"Each person must apply personally to be placed on the voters' list. This was decided at a meeting of the registration revisers held today." This was the statement given out by Judge Coatsworth. This was relative to the possible privilege of independent petitioners, enabled by law to apply to have certain names put on the voters' lists. This ruling will prevent registration by proxy.

Complaining to his landlady of feeling ill and expressing the desire for a doctor, Thomas Hamden, aged 65, of 124 Sherbourne street, sat down on a chair, collapsed and died almost immediately on Saturday evening.

EXPECT AGREEMENT WITH THE PAINTERS

Wages Will Not Be Cut Appreciably by Master Painters.

Stewart N. Hughes, secretary of the Master Painters' Association, stated to The World on Saturday afternoon that the chances of reaching an amicable agreement with the officials of the trades unions in the building industry were good. He said that the association and the representatives of the trades unions affected were now negotiating for a wage scale for the year. He did not believe that there would be any appreciable decrease in wages on the other hand, his association was opposed to the principle of the closed shop, and would stand solid for the principle of the open shop.
