Judge Chandler Urges Check On Intoxicated Auto Drivers

70 LOST IN SCOTCHMINE DISASTER

TRUE BILL IN CRAWFORD CASE ASKED

Court Makes Reference to Multiplicity of Automobile Accidents.
LAW IS CITED
Death of Owen McCann Recalled—The Bessie Parker Case.

The Grand Jury today returned true bills against Mrs. Bessie Parker, charged with performing an illegal operation on a young woman, and against Thomas Crawford. They returned no bill in the Amdur case.

In presenting to the Grand Jury in the Circuit Court here today the case of Thomas Crawford, charged with the killing of Owen McCann, who was struck by an automobile driven by Crawford in Prince Edward street on August 2, His Honor Judge Chandler dwelt strongly on the number of accidents in connection with which reports of drinking liquor were heard. In advising the Grand Jury that they would not be making a mistake in bringing in a true bill, so that there might be full investigation before judge and jury, His Honor said something must be done to prevent these automobile accidents which were causing deaths almost every day.

The Bessie Parker case was also placed in the hands of the Grand Jury, as well as that of Amdur's, Ltd., relative to disposal of an automobile. The Judge's Charge.
Before going into the several cases to be submitted to them, Judge Chandler instructed the Grand Jury on their duties, pointing out that they did not have to try cases, but were to determine where the indictments submitted warranted further investigation. The Crawford Case.
He then took up the case of Thomas Crawford and rehearsed the evidence as given in the Police Court. He said the indictment was for manslaughter, killing where there was no intent, or killing by accident as the result of an unlawful act. He spoke of Crawford and several men and women driving about the city, of one man buying a bottle of liquor in Fairville, of the men having two or three drinks, of two of the women being left at their homes and of Crawford, two men and one woman driving down Prince Edward street about midnight.

After reviewing the evidence as to Owen McCann being struck and of the circumstances following, Judge Chandler said the question was what was the condition of Crawford.
Ultra Vires.
Under the Criminal Code it was an offence for a man to drive an automobile while he was intoxicated. Also there was a section of the provincial legislation so declaring. The latter, His Honor in a previous case had ruled to be ultra vires, the provincial legislature. The present procedure was under the Criminal Code.
His Honor's view was that of a man unintentionally or accidentally, while committing an unlawful act, killed another, he was guilty of manslaughter. If they concluded that Crawford was intoxicated, then he was committing an unlawful act. He thought it advisable that a true bill be found, so that there would be further investigation, this in justice to Crawford as well.

His Honor said there had been many accidents to automobiles and frequently drivers were more or less under the influence of liquor. Something must be done, he said, to prevent these accidents which caused deaths almost every day. Reckless driving was bad enough when the driver was sober.
Bessie Parker Case.
Judge Chandler then addressed the Grand Jury in the case of Bessie Parker.

Thought Wife Dead, Suicided; Message Says She Is Safe

New York, Sept. 25.—When Yukunouke Inouye, chief accountant for the firm of Mitsui and Company, Japanese exporters, received a cable from a relative in Japan, informing him that his wife and two little children had perished during the earthquake, he walked to the window of his office in the American Express building, fifteen stories above Broadway, and jumped out, being instantly killed.
Today another message arrived stating that his family was safe.

BABY KILLED AND 8 PEOPLE INJURED

Motor Car, Out of Control, Hits Pole Near Montreal Yesterday.
Montreal, Sept. 25.—Laurent Renaud, a one-year-old baby, of this city, was killed, and eight other persons suffered injuries when a light touring car containing a family party of nine crashed into a pole on the Riviere des Prairies road, five miles east of Montreal, yesterday. The injured include Emile Renaud, father of the child, a fractured leg; Mrs. Renaud, 23, his wife, cuts about the face; Marcel Renaud, three, a son, broken leg; Wilfrid St. Amour, 37, driver of the car, broken wrist; Mrs. St. Amour, 28, his wife, scalp wound and bruises; Conrad, six, a son, broken nose. Others sustained slight injuries. Loss of control of the machine is given as the cause of the accident.

MURDER IS CHARGED

Valleyfield Man, Shot in Argument Over Dogs, Dies—Two Held.
Montreal, Sept. 25.—Henry Laviollette, 50, of Valleyfield, who was shot during the argument over his dog in a Valleyfield hotel Saturday, died at the hospital yesterday. Walter Muir, 24, and Edward Carroll, 26, both of New York, who were arrested in connection with the shooting will now be charged with murder. The two New Yorkers were brought into Montreal yesterday after being arraigned before a justice of the peace at Valleyfield.

Hunting Parties From U. S. Are In Province

Fredericton, Sept. 25.—Three American hunting parties are in New Brunswick. They will go into the woods with W. H. Allen of Pennac as guide. Karl P. Abbott of Bethlehem, Pa., and H. L. Johnson of Franconia, N. H., are in one party. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Friddle of Hudson, N. Y., form a second party. The third is formed by George R. Beardsell, John E. Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Breed of Lynn, Mass. The season for moose will open on Monday next, October 1st but a number of non-resident parties will enter the woods this week getting acquainted with their territory before the season begins.

Wire Briefs

London, Sept. 25.—A Reuter despatch from Riga says it is rumored there that masses of insurrectionary peasants are surrounding Moscow and Petrograd.
Vancouver, Sept. 25.—Five men are missing and believed drowned in the wreck yesterday of the tug Peggy McNeil, in Portier Pass, off the east coast of Vancouver Island. W. Ingram, the mate, escaped.
IDENTENT—WIRE BRIEFS
Fredericton, Sept. 25.—(Special)—The Court of King's Bench for York County opened this morning Judge Barry presiding. There was no business, two criminal cases having been tried under Speedy Trial arrangement.
Fredericton, Sept. 25.—(Special)—The Department of Lands and Mines on Monday declared an open season for the burning of slash under permit. Heavy rains within the past few days have improved conditions. After October 15th permits are not required.
Montreal, Sept. 24.—A communication was read from the general assembly at the Montreal Presbytery meeting yesterday stating that the annuity claim of the Rev. J. L. George, formerly pastor of the Calvin church here, now of New Glasgow, N. S., could not be allowed unless he furnished a medical certificate showing his inability for further duty.

GOVERNMENT OF BULGARIA RESIGNS

Is Reconstituted With Only One Change—Better Reports From Disturbed Areas
Paris, Sept. 25.—A delayed message from Sofia to the Havas Agency, dated yesterday reads:
"The Bulgarian Government, after resigning, has been reconstituted with the same members except Minister of Justice Smiloff. The National Liberal party, to which Hadzhalovoff, (former premier) belonged, is no longer represented in the ministry."
Official Version.
Paris, Sept. 25.—The official version of the situation in Bulgaria, as set forth in despatches received by the Bulgarian legation here this morning, is as follows:
The Soviet movement is scattered, being confined to small settlements, along which there is no cohesion and which have little power of resistance. The work of repression is very difficult because the movement is most general in the mountainous regions and the small Bulgarian army has insufficient strength to deal with such scattered uprisings over a widespread area.
When troops are able to reach the scene of an outbreak the Communists surrender immediately and generally it is not necessary for the troops to use violence.
The life of the Soviet regime in the Balkans has been between two and fourteen hours in length.
Northern Bulgaria is now the region most affected. The Soviets in the south appear to have been discouraged by the prompt action of the authorities. Their last attempt at asserting power was when they cut the communications between Sofia and Constantinople, but these lines have been re-established.
Better Reports.
Paris, Sept. 25.—A Bulgarian telegraphic agency's despatch from Sofia says that the situation in Southern Bulgaria last evening was tranquil, and that the Communists there had been suppressed.
It still continues, however, in a few communes in the northwestern part of the country, but has failed in the regions of Ferdinandovo and Berkovica. Communists that proclaimed a Soviet regime in the department of Tirovno have surrendered without bloodshed, the despatch asserts.
Uprisings Quelled.
Sofia, Sept. 25.—The Government announced today (Sunday) that the situation created by the Communist uprising, both in Northern and Southern Bulgaria, is in control of the military forces, aided by civilian volunteers. Sporadic outbreaks are continuing, however.

ST. JOHN HOTEL IS BEING PROSECUTED

Charge Laid For Advertising Moose Meat on Menu Out Of Season.
(Special to The Times).
Fredericton, Sept. 25.—Chief Game Warden L. A. Gagnon has been notified that proceedings have begun in Monday in the case of a leading St. John Hotel against which the charge is laid of advertising moose meat in the menu contrary to the game act which prohibits the advertising in bill of fare or menu, serving or selling game meat in any form or dish between the dates of December 15 in any year and October 1 in the year following. In addition to that alleged violation of the act that season for hunting moose does not open until Monday next, October 1, and prosecution for the illegal killing of moose is possible.

TURKEY EXPECTED TO FORM REPUBLIC

Mustapha Kemal Pasha Likely Will Be First President, Is Report.
Constantinople, Sept. 25.—The question of the form and name of the new Turkish state, which must be settled before Turkey is able to resume full diplomatic relations with the rest of the world is absorbing attention here and in Angora.
It is virtually certain that Turkey will be declared a republic, the head of the Government being either a president or a chief of state, as in Poland. The first occupant of the executive office is expected to be Mustapha Kemal Pasha, who in a recent interview said that Turkey was already a republic except in name and constitution, and might soon become even more democratic.
The seat of the Government is also a question of wide discussion which will be determined concurrently with the designation of the state.

EARNINGS OF C. N. R. SHOW BIG INCREASE

Gross Revenue For August 7.7 Per Cent. More Than in 1922.
Montreal, Sept. 25.—For the month of August, 1923, another substantial increase in the net earnings of the C. N. R. is shown. Gross earnings have increased $1,566,123 or 7.7 per cent. as compared with August, 1922.
After deducting operating expenses which amounted to $19,940,909, a net operating revenue is shown for the month amounting to $2,027,000 as compared with net operating revenue of $1,938,894 for the corresponding month of 1922. The net for August, 1923, shows a gain of $555,137 over the preceding month of July, 1923 and is 95.5 per cent in excess of the net shown for August, 1922.
The net earnings for the C. N. R. for the first eight months of 1923 amount to $6,911,845 as compared with a deficit of $1,166,098 for the first eight months of last year.

13-Ton Vessel Wins Sea Battle

Nome, Alaska, Sept. 25.—A story of an eleven days' battle against towering seas lashed by a Behring Sea gale was told by members of the U. S. Geological Survey party from Point Barrow, who arrived at Teller on the 13-ton schooner Teddybear.
The Teddybear, commanded by Capt. Joe Bernard, was driven from Point Hope, north of Kotzebue, to St. Lawrence Island, opposite Nome, thence to Sledge Island and back through the Behring Straits to Shimanef Inlet, a distance of 500 miles, before the storm subsided enough for the vessel to proceed on her regular course.
The schooner Kawaka, for which fears were felt during the storm that she would be wrecked, is safe at Kewallak.

C. P. CAPTAIN TELLS VIVID QUAKE STORY

Empress Commander Witnessed Thrilling Events at Yokohama.
TRIBUTE TO CREW
Chinese Sailors Particularly Brave—Empress' Narrow Escape.
(Special to The Times).
Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 24.—Captain Samuel Robinson, R. N. R., commander of the Canadian Pacific S. S. Empress of Australia heroic figure of the recent Japanese disaster was stormed by a small army of newspaper reporters last evening as his ship made a night run from Victoria to Vancouver where she docked at six o'clock this morning. On his deck lay the 16 page report which he will submit to his company, behind his chair lay "Refugee" a fine spurling dog which he had picked up by one of his men during the awful days which followed the earthquake of September 1.
Pressed for his version of experiences in connection with the disaster, Captain Robinson told the following running narrative, in which the first personal pronoun was conspicuous by its absence.
"The Empress of Australia was just on the point of leaving Pier 1 at Yokohama, tugs ahead and tugs astern were ready to pull her off. The captain had begun to take a last look along the wharf line and was about to give the order 'let go forward' when the ship began to shake. The motion on board was exactly as if the ship were being shaken by giant hands.
Earth Like Sea Waves.
"His first order was 'Sound the bells,' he then glanced along the line of the wharf and shore and from his position high up on the bridge distinctly saw the earth undulating in eight foot waves which travelled at tremendous speed from south to north like rollers in a smooth sea and in the direction of the ship, he saw people ride these earthy waves as boats ride on the sea. Then great cracks opened in the earth and swallowed them up as they closed again like relentless jaws of hell.
"By this time the sheds in the docks were swaying and the buildings of the city falling flat like a house of cards. Then a thick black cloud rose up behind the city, flames shooting out everywhere and the wind was blowing 70 miles an hour on the second column.

ST. JOHN MAN IS MARRIED IN SUSSEX

C. W. Sullivan Takes Miss Miller as Bride—Will Reside Here.
(Special to The Times).
Sussex, Sept. 25.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller, at two o'clock this afternoon when their daughter Sue Gwendolyn was united in marriage to Charles William Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan of St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Shewen, rector of Trinity Church in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The spacious parlors were decorated with potted plants, cut flowers, ferns and rowan berries. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a travelling suit of blue with grey squirrel trimmings and hat to match and carried a bridal bouquet of roses. Little Miss Elizabeth Murray acted as ring bearer. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served and the happy couple left on the C. N. R. express for Boston and New York where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride is the recipient of many handsome presents, the groom's gift to the bride being a substantial cheque. The bride is one of Sussex's most popular young ladies and the groom, who is travelling auditor of the N. B. Telephone Co., also has many friends. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will take up their residence in Wright street St. John.

German Separatists Decide In Favor Of Independent Rhineland

Mayence, Sept. 25.—Followers of Joseph Smeets, the German Separatist leader, at a meeting here yesterday adopted a resolution in favor of joining the Rhineland Republican party and advocating an independent Rhineland.
Smeets has been a strong advocate of the secession of the Rhineland from Germany for several years. The resolution adopted by the meeting at Mayence would appear to indicate that his forces favored joining those under Dr. H. A. Dorten, who has headed the republican movement since 1919, when he assumed the title "President of the Rhine Republic." Dorten's "government" crumbled when France and the other interested powers refused recognition.

MARKS WORTH MORE AS WASTE PAPER

New York, Sept. 25.—One million German marks yesterday were worth seven-tenths of one cent as currency in New York, but 1,000,000 of the old one-mark notes, sold as waste paper here, would bring about $4.
Germany's outstanding note circulation has now exceeded a quadrillion paper marks, the latest weekly increase being more than 518,000,000,000,000 marks.

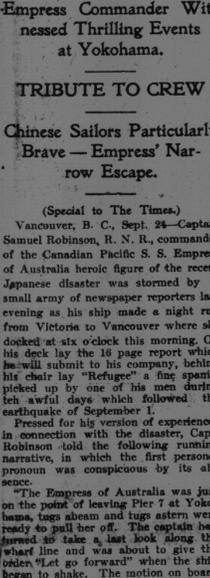

FOR EQUAL RIGHTS

Women's Political Convention Planned to Urge Amendment to U. S. Constitution.
Colorado Springs, Sept. 25.—Women representing every state will meet in a great political convention in Washington Dec. 1, 2 and 3, when the National Women's Party will concentrate all efforts on passage through the Senate of the proposed equal rights amendment to the constitution. It was announced here last night after the National Council of the party, in session here, met in executive session in the suite of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York, national president. On the first day of the convention a large delegation will ask President Coolidge to support the Laetitia Mott amendment, which reads:
"Men and women shall have equal rights throughout the U. S. and every place subject to its jurisdiction."
Labor Conference In Ottawa Is Commenced
Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The conference between Federal and Provincial authorities, called to consider draft conventions and recommendations of the International Labor Organization was formally opened this morning by Hon. James Murchick, Minister of Labor. With Mr. Murchick were Hon. E. LaPointe, Minister of Marine and Fisheries for the Dominion, while all the provinces except British Columbia and N. E. L. had delegates present.

Whiskey Valued at $1,800,000 Is Stolen

St. Louis, Sept. 25.—Federal officials have announced that 993 barrels of whiskey had been stolen from the bonded warehouse of the Jack Daniel distillery. It was said to be one of the biggest whiskey robberies since the enactment of the prohibition law.
At the drug store price of $9 a pint the stolen whiskey had a retail value of $1,800,288.

CHILD FOUND DEAD; MOTHER IS HELD

Head of Youngster Blown Off—Woman Blames Strange Visitor.
Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 25.—With the top of her head blown off by a shot from a single barrel shotgun, the lifeless body of Lena Lonandio, 20 months old, was found in the yard of her home yesterday, and Chief of Police Humstead, Dundas, after a brief investigation took Josephine Lonandio, the child's mother, into custody. An inquest will be opened today. Sam Lonandio, the child's father, resides at Ancaster, which is near Stirling Springs. There is another child aged five months.
Questioned by the police the woman stated that a strange man came to her door late yesterday afternoon and asked for the "boss." She told him that he was out in the corn field. Mrs. Lonandio said she asked to be directed to the field and when she left the house with the baby in her arms, to show him, he fired the shot.

MINERS ARE TRAPPED AS PITS FLOOD

Water Breaks Through the Walls of Pit Unused for Years.
ONLY ONE ESCAPES
Tragedy So Sudden That Workers Could Not be Warned.
(Canadian Press Cable).
Glasgow, Sept. 25.—Seventy lives are believed to have been lost early today in one of the worst colliery disasters in the history of the Scotch mines, when a deep pit at the James Nimmo Company's colliery near Falkirk was flooded.
The water which flooded the pit broke through the walls of an adjoining pit which had not been used for many years. The active pit was flooded so quickly that there was no opportunity to warn the miners. They had no chance to get to the pithead, and only one man escaped after the inrush of water began.
Little Hope For Men.
Frankie relatives of the victims rushed to the pithead, at which rescuers hastily began to work, but little, if any, hope was entertained of saving any of the unfortunates.
Is Cleared of Assault; Guilty of Conspiracy
(Special to The Times)
Fredericton, Sept. 25.—The case of The King vs. Seymour Chase was concluded last evening. His Honor Judge Slogg of the York County Court found the accused not guilty of attempt to assault John K. Sullivan, of this city, formerly of St. John, but found him guilty of conspiracy to assault and of carrying concealed weapons. He was remanded until Friday at noon when he will come up for sentence with Robert Donovan who previously pleaded guilty of assault on Police Sergeant William Hughes at the time of the other offence.
Says Mennonites To Remain In Canada
Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—With the arrival of 40 more Mennonites today, as Mennonites will have been brought to western Canada this year as left it for Mexico, according to P. H. Wiebe of the Mennonite Colony at Steinbach, Man.
Asked last night if there was any likelihood of some of the Mennonites brought in this year moving to Mexico, Mr. Wiebe smiled as he said: "Oh, no, there is no chance of any more of our people going down there."
Approximately $1,000,000 worth of land in Canada will be bought by the Mennonites, placed at the disposal of those who arrived this year, and cropping the new land will begin next spring, he said.
Delegate To League Conference Is Dead
London, Sept. 25.—The Hon. Charles Henry Tufton, who accompanied Lord Robert Cecil to Geneva for the League of Nations congress, died yesterday, according to a despatch to the Daily Telegraph from that city. He had been ill for only a short time. Mr. Tufton participated in the Peace Conference at Paris in 1919. He was the third son of Baron Hothfield, and was born in 1879.

WITNESS FROM MONTREAL HEARD IN POWER CO. INJUNCTION CASE TODAY

Says He Regards Wire Interference Situation as Dangerous.

The injunction case of the New Brunswick Power Co. vs. the City of St. John, in which the plaintiff is seeking an order to restrain the defendant from erecting a distribution system, which interferes with its system, and the removal of poles and wires already erected, was resumed this morning before Mr. Justice White.

A list of a number of alleged instances of interference was filed by the plaintiff, and R. H. Wilson of Montreal, chief engineer of the Montreal, Heat, Light and Power Co., was placed on the stand. Mr. Wilson claimed the construction in St. John was dangerous. Under cross examination by Dr. Baxter, he admitted that two systems were being operated on the same side of the street in Montreal, the last company to enter the field paying the cost of separating the wires to a safe distance.

Mr. Taylor, in opening, offered in evidence several letters written to J. V. Cunningham, acting city electrical inspector, calling attention to a number of instances of what they submitted were improper construction.

Objection was taken by Dr. Baxter to the filing of three letters on the ground that they were not relevant. His Honor ruled that the letters were admissible on the ground that they showed the attention of the city had been drawn to these conditions, and if later they were shown not to be evidence they would be ruled out.

Mr. Baxter then suggested that if letters were admissible at all they should be sent to the Civic Power Commission.

Mr. Taylor said copies had been sent to Barry Wilson as well as Mr. Cunningham, and he would file the letter to Mr. Wilson instead of to Mr. Cunningham.

Mr. Baxter suggested that letters be laid aside for the present and the schedule of alleged interferences be filed, and Mr. Taylor filed such a schedule.

Mr. Taylor said his Honor had strongly deprecated the going ahead with the construction and the city had gone ahead in defiance of the court, and to a much greater extent than before, and the letters calling attention to this should be placed in evidence.

His Honor said the most he had done was to say he thought it unwise to proceed.

Mr. Baxter said the city still hoped to convince His Honor that the city was justified in its erection of the system.

M. A. Porter was placed on the stand and identified the list of interferences covering from Sept. 4 to 24, and said that in connection with each of these he had sent a letter to J. V. Cunningham and Barry Wilson, calling attention to these alleged interferences.

At this juncture Chief Justice Hazen arrived in the court room, this date having been set as the regular sitting in Chancery, and after some discussion it was decided to adjourn the regular sitting until Thursday morning at 10.30, the hearing in the present case, if not completed then, to be adjourned until a date suitable.

A Montreal Witness.

R. M. Wilson, Montreal chief engineer of the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Co., was placed on the stand by Mr. Taylor. Mr. Wilson is a graduate of McGill, with the degree of electrical engineer. He had partially looked over the situation in St. John, and from what he saw he considered the situation very dangerous. He had been accompanied by H. A. Brown and wires pointed out to him by Mr. Brown showed primary and secondary wires in contact with city poles.

In some instances tree guards had been used, in others split porcelain in tubes used, in others knobs used, to prevent contact. He did not consider these devices safe, and instanced one on Dorchester street where the wire had come out of the groove and was resting on the outside.

In answer to His Honor, Mr. Wilson said he did not know of any tree insulator that was entirely satisfactory. In another instance he saw one pole, on Pond street, where the pole had been burned. On Water street, near McAvity's, he saw one place where the wire had been burned into the city pole and if not looked after at once the wire would be on the street, where it was likely to cause a great deal of damage.

There was also danger of the current getting into houses through secondary wires. He thought it would be safe, so far as the public were concerned, to place two systems on one pole, but it would not be safe for the workmen either company. He would not advocate placing of a new system on old poles, because it took two or three years to get a permanent set.

In answer to His Honor, he said it would be possible to set poles firmly if placed seven or more feet in the ground. He had seen one case on Wall street where the city construction prevented the Power Company from straightening their poles without bringing it into contact with the city wire.

The witness said a porcelain knob on a pole was not safe, as this was intended for inside house use. The proper thing to use was a double porcelain glass insulator. He did not think it was a safe thing for workmen of one company to interfere with the wire of another, as it created a danger to the workmen and to the public. On the corner of City road and Wall street he saw a three-pole structure where two of the poles were in contact with the company wire.

The interferences.

Mr. Taylor took up the list of alleged interferences, and Mr. Wilson testified that if conditions were such as stated they would be dangerous.

The witness said that two systems should not be placed on the same side of the street, and he would consider it safer to build on the same side of street with the Telephone Company here, placing them above. In the centre of the city he would consider it safer to use a conduit.

WIFE OF W. S. WARD ON WITNESS STAND

Mother of Murdered Sailor Also Testifies in White Plains Murder Trial.

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Two women, principals in the trial of wealthy Walter S. Ward for the murder of Clarence M. Peters, ex-sailor, faced each other for the first time with dramatic suddenness yesterday.

Beryl Curtis Ward, slight, well-gowned, wife of the defendant, was one. Inez C. Peters, tall, worn and plainly dressed, the mother of 10 children, one of whom was the man Ward killed, was the other.

They saw each other as Mrs. Peters took the witness stand shortly after Mrs. Ward unexpectedly had been called to testify. They flashed a look of recognition, stared for a moment, and then changed to expressionless.

A court room crowded to the corridors, buzzed with anticipation as Mrs. Ward was called from her place beside her husband to testify for the prosecution. There came a jan at the entrance, and woman and girl, who complained of the heat, struggled with men for places within earshot of the testimony.

Determined lawyers are gathered meanwhile to lay fine plans for the testimony to meet in defiance of the executive.

Governor Walton last night issued instructions to Adjutant-General, when the lower house of the Oklahoma Legislature called for the Oklahoma.

With the crisis approaching the executive commanded all male citizens of the state between the ages of 21 and 45 years to hold themselves in readiness to come to the assistance of the Sovereign State of Oklahoma, when summoned by the Governor or the Adjutant-General. The citizen soldiers were ordered to prepare to bear such arms as they possess or are able to obtain.

"The Australia heaved open, opened the gangways and put down the rope ladders to struggling victims in the water. The ship by this time was in a serious situation, the towing tugs had disappeared, sparks and flaming matter were blowing round her. It was impossible for her to go ahead, or to go astern having fouled two anchor chains on the ship, blinding smoke and cinders added to the difficulties of the situation. The gale was the deciding factor in the catastrophe whipping the flames up and everywhere in three hours Yokohama was a mass of ruins from end to end.

Heat is Intense

The intense heat from the burning sheds of the wharf was unbearable. Lumber lighters loading into ships at the time of the earthquake were floating all over the harbor and a number of these jamming between the ship's stern and the wharf forced her almost clear of the Steel Navigator along which the Australian slid in spite of her one fouled propeller. At this point a Japanese steamer cut loose from her buoy tried to turn round and rammed into the Canadian liner, another ship being obliged to prevent serious damage.

"At four o'clock the Empress of Australia heaved back almost to the original berth with the Steel Navigator nosing her stern; hoses were rushed on shore and the wharf fires extinguished.

"We thought we'd gone through a pretty rotten experience," said Capt. Robinson, concluding the story of the first day, "and that the worst was over."

Harbor Surface Alike

"Suddenly at dawn on Sunday morning a most frightful sight appeared. Flames shot up 300 feet into the air, thick black swaths of fuel oil moved upon the face of the water, and the horrible truth was realized. The great blazing furnace moving up in three masses crept towards a corner of the burning wharf, and the fire spread out from the corner in the direction of the ship. Capt. Robinson realized that the time had come to work out from the wharf. He put it up to the officer commanding the Steel Navigator to lash his bow to the Australian's stern and so tow out; and it was then that Capt. Kent, the Shanghai pilot, lent valuable aid directing the manoeuvring from the bridge of the Steel Navigator, giving every assistance to the youthful commander of the American freighter who, filling the post of his dead captain, did wonderful work in towing the Australia from the wharf.

A Close Squeeze

"The wind passing obliquely across the desolate ruins of the dock, fanned the onrushing flames of the Empress of Australia, with 4,000 souls aboard, refugees, crew and passengers, escaped its fensish reach by a bare ship's length. Then, by a series of jigsaw manoeuvres Capt. Robinson, who was able to steer ship only in one direction on account of his crippled propeller, worked his way out into the outer harbor, which by this time was crowded with small steamers flying flags of all nations.

"At this point the Dutch tanker Iris, in command of a young captain, Konigs, performed a deed of heroism which will go down in the annals of the sea.

"Fires over the entire surface of the harbor had been renewed by the ignited floating lighters which travelled like torches among the bodies of the dark seething pools of fuel oil upon the surface of the water. These came drifting out in the direction of the breakwater, worked by the Empress of Australia, and the Dutch skipper, without a demur he agreed and handled his ship with conspicuous carelessness succeeded after six hours of strenuous endeavor in the pitchy blackness of the night to bring the Australian to a position of comparative safety about one mile from the breakwater and a mile and a half from pier. It was later into the Empress of Australia that Capt. Robinson, the reason of the brave Dutchman's extreme carelessness. His cargo consisted of 2,000 gallons of benzine and 2,000 gallons of kerosene.

"So Sunday concluded. Meanwhile the great ship had been transformed

Conclude Miss Lindsay Met Accidental Death

St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 25.—That the tragic death of Margaret Lindsay, of Montreal, volunteer teacher at Cartwright, Labrador, public school, Aug. 22, was due either to accident or to suicide, is the conclusion reached by the Newfoundland Department of Justice. The presumption is that Miss Lindsay, on her way to take a bath in a salt water pond, stopped to shoot some muskrats, which abounded in the water, and that she fell on a log which she was supposed to have carried.

The body was fully dressed, the unfortunate having on a raincoat, riding breeches, and travelling boots. Her hand was on the bank of a small brook with her legs and body in the water. Beside her was a bathing costume. In the pocket of the coat were found about a dozen bullets that would fit a Browning pistol.

into a floating hospital. To walk through her corridors was to witness scenes so horrible to describe. It was one sweetening mass of humanity, begrimed, bloody, covered with mortar and filthy ashes. Many of the victims were naked. Stewards and passengers working like trojans, bathed the ship's deck with buckets of water, and gags torn from the ship's linen. Refugees who were unhurt turned their hands to any task in spite of the fact that almost everyone of these had lost all or some of their immediate family in the awful disaster. The uncertainty of the fate of their loved ones was somewhat alleviated by the opportunity of service which demanded continuous action on the part of all.

Days That Followed

"Monday brought the Empress of Canada and the day was spent transferring the refugees who were taken to Hong Kong."

"Tuesday a Japanese battleship and the cruiser came in, the former responding to Capt. Robinson's request for a diver by sending one who, after three hours heroic work found a broken end in the 75 fathoms of chain cable which had become entangled in the Australian's propeller. After personally leaving the Yokohama on Sept. 8 Capt. Robinson went ashore and with James Rankin, general agent for the Canadian Pacific at Yokohama, located the bodies of two of the foreign officers of the company there, Read and Weevil, whose charred and mutilated forms were tenderly removed from the bluff of their offices and buried on the bluff overlooking the desolate city. Capt. Robinson explained that the loss of life among the foreign population, was comparatively small considering the enormity of the catastrophe since the previous day, Friday had been a holiday and many had left for long weeks ends in the country, also on account of the hours thousands were saved because they were in the open streets by their way to clubs and hotels for their.

Tribute to Crew

The gallant commander paid unqualified tribute to the unquestioning devotion of his staff and crew, the Chinese crew worked marvellously, a large number of them volunteering to go ashore to loosen the ships lines when she was towed back from the flaming oil by the steel navigator.

The heroic deed which looked like certain death for the Chinese was rewarded with this little handful of men leaping into the water were hoisted aboard by the steel navigator.

Capt. Samuel Robinson joined the services of the Canadian Pacific in 1895. He has had charge of eight of this company's trans-Pacific and trans-Atlantic liners, namely his present command, The Athenian, The Montague, The Empress of Russia, The Empress of Japan, The Empress of India and the Empress of Asia which he brought to Vancouver via the Suez in 1913.

CASE OF MARITIMES AGAIN IS SUBJECTED TO CRITICISM

Montreal Gazette Returns to Discussion of Lower Provinces Grievances.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—The Case of the Maritimes is again the caption of a long editorial in the Gazette this morning, in which that paper returns to its discussion of Maritime Provinces grievances. The editorial says: "In the Nova Scotia legislature in 1920, Mr. James C. Tully delivered an address dealing exhaustively with the claims of that province respecting Northwestern lands and the matter of compensation for the non-fulfillment of certain obligations respecting the Maritime Provinces clearly set forth or implied under the terms of the British North America Act. Our attention has been called to this address at establishing the grievances of these provinces to which the Gazette alluded in a recent article, and Mr. Tully's statements may, therefore, be examined.

Return of Revenue.

His first contention is that the Maritimes pay into the Dominion treasury nearly greater sums than are received back in the shape of expenditure within those provinces. He computes that in the 51 years succeeding Confederation the three provinces contributed to the Federal revenues $463,183,000, and received back not more than $100,000,000, a one-sided arrangement that might well create discontent, if supported by fact. How Mr. Tully arrives at his figures we know not; but we do know that they are utterly fallacious. If the Maritime Provinces were entitled to the amount of expenditure calculated by him, and the other provinces to a proportionate share, the total expenditure would be about a billion dollars larger than that actually made. Moreover, there are numerous services of a Dominion character of the cost of which Mr. Tully appears to have taken no account in computing the share of the Maritimes, such as legislation, civil government, administration of justice and a score of others of common concern and mutual advantage.

The deduction made by Mr. Tully from expenditure figures is, in fact, as misleading as that other deduction sometimes made from customs collections to the effect that the people of one province pay higher tariff taxation than those of another. Dividing population into customs receipts the people of New Brunswick pay $16.48 per head, and of Quebec $14.95 per head, while the residents of Saskatchewan pay only $2.11 and of P. E. I. only $3.86 per head. What a fine case for grievance on the part of Quebec could be founded on these figures if the fact were ignored that the principal port of import is Montreal and that the duties there paid are collected from consumers in other parts of Canada.

Railway Matters.

Mr. Tully is disingenuous, too, in his treatment of railway aid, computing that the Dominion Government has spent by subsidy and purchase, upwards of $1,102,000,000 upon railways and that of this sum the Maritimes should have received $143,336,000. Instead of the $38,071,000 obtained. But he excludes the cost of the Intercolonial. It seems impossible for the publicists and politicians of these provinces to fairly consider the problem of the Intercolonial, which begins and ends with the question of cost of service. The absence of tolls on the canal neither is one cent paid for use of the road-bed in carriage of goods over the Intercolonial. The waterway and the roadbed are alike free from tolls. Upon neither, however, is freight transported without price. Operating charges are made on both, and in the case of the Intercolonial the rates do not even pay cost of carriage. Free canals and a free roadbed involve neither discrimination nor cause for complaint.

Compared With Canals.

Now, the plain fact is that as between the railway and the waterway absolutely no distinction is made. Both are free of tolls. If not one cent is paid for passage through the canal neither is one cent paid for use of the road-bed in carriage of goods over the Intercolonial. The waterway and the roadbed are alike free from tolls. Upon neither, however, is freight transported without price. Operating charges are made on both, and in the case of the Intercolonial the rates do not even pay cost of carriage. Free canals and a free roadbed involve neither discrimination nor cause for complaint.

St. John's Growth.

"It must be confessed, however, that the Intercolonial has disappointed the hope of its promoters. Halifax has not become the recipient of trade which benefits Portland, Boston and New York" as expected by Sir George Carter, nor has the prediction of Sir Leonard Tilley been realized when he said "build the road and Halifax will soon become one of the great emporiums of the world. All the great resources of the West will come over the railways of Canada to the bosom of your harbor." The only Maritime port which has greatly increased its commerce in many years is St. John, and this has been accomplished, not by the Intercolonial, but by the enterprise of a privately owned railway, the C. P. R., which spent a large sum of money in pursuance of the patriotic purpose of promoting traffic through that port. Nor can we forget that the advantageous proposal of the same company to establish a line of fast passenger steamers between Liverpool and Halifax was rejected by the Maritime members of the House of Commons.

Competition From Portland.

"Difficult as the rate question has made it for the Intercolonial to compete for through traffic, that difficulty has been immensely increased by the purchase with Canadian money of the Grand Trunk American lines. Portland remains a rival of St. John for ocean borne commerce. The late Government placed our eggs in the American basket. We have become competitors with ourselves, and if Intercolonial rates are now made low enough to attract traffic to St. John or Halifax it will be at the expense of that other property of the Canadian people, the Grand Trunk Portland section. Service below cost on the Intercolonial would hit the country on both sides by depriving our U. S. line of its trade compelling us to subsidize traffic to Mar-time Province ports. The problem is, indeed, perplexing. If British Columbia is to have traffic rates below cost through the Rockies, and if Alberta coal is to be transported to Ontario at a loss to the carrier, who not send wheat to St. John and Halifax, regardless of whether the proceeding is profitable or otherwise? All of which affords a fine illustration of the trouble when business principles are ignored and the law of economics broken."

"IF WINTER COMES" DRAWS BIG HOUSES

Crowds Turned Away from Queen Square at First Showing of Classic.

Crowded houses attended Eastern Canada's premier presentation of "If Winter Comes" at the Queen Square Theatre last night. Unfortunately hundreds were turned away through the lack of accommodation but it may be said that they still have a treat in store.

The role of Mark Sabre as portrayed by Mr. Percy Marmont, one of the most popular actors of the English stage today, received an ovation never before witnessed in a local theatre; his acting was all that could be desired. The supporting cast consisting of a numerous list of featured stars well handled the important parts assigned to them. The audience was well supplied with humor carried along by the well known characters of High Jinks and Low Jinks played by Dorothy Allan and Eleanor Daniels.

Mrs. V. R. Henderson, well known local soloist, added greatly to the production with her rendition of the appropriate number "If Winter Comes" together with other numbers suitable to the production. Director Bayard Currie and his suggested orchestra assisted greatly with music in keeping with the picture. When it is considered that this production is at present playing the Times Square Theatre, New York and the Harris Theatre, Chicago, at a price scale ranging from $1 to $2, the Queen Square management is to be congratulated in giving the St. John public the opportunity of witnessing such an expensive production at prices within the reach of all. We advise intending patrons to be early in order to secure good seats.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

THE UNILLUMINED VERGE.

(Robert Bridges "Dorah"), author of "Overheard in Arcady." They tell you that Death's at the end of the road.

I can walk with you up to the ridge of the low hills, and we'll talk of the way we have come through the valley; Down below there a bird breaks into a fall.

You are up in the heights now, you play the slave; "Poor soul! how fate lashes him on at his rowing!"

We are almost there—our last walk on the light— I must bid you good-by at that cross on the mountain; See the sun glowing red, and the pulsating light.

And it shines in your face and illumines your soul; We are comrades as ever, right here at your going; You may rest if you will, within sight of the goal.

We must part now? Well, here is the hand of a friend; I will keep you in sight till the road makes its turning; Just over the ridge within reach of the end.

You will call to me once from the mist, on the verge, Au revoir! and Good-night! while the twilight is creeping; Up luminous peaks, and the pale stars emerge—

Yes, I hear your faint voice: "This is rest, and like sleeping!"

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

She—It must be easy to sit down and write the funny paragraphs that occur to you.

He—Oh, the sitting down and the writing are easy enough; it's the occurring that's hard.

Didn't Wait For Leapsay. He—Scientists say that blondes will disappear in a few years.

Added Labors. Hub—Well, now that we've got a girl, you can take it easy.

Wife—That's all right, I'll have to work twice as hard to make the place comfortable enough so that she'll stay.

Progressive Orthodoxy. "Mama," said a small girl who had been only a few weeks at school, "how do you spell 'hell'?"

"Why, darling," said the mother, "that is a naughty word. You should never use it. Why do you want to spell it?"

"I want to spell Helen," was the innocent reply, "and I thought I'd just write down one cylinder at a time."

STRONG PLAY AND ST. JOHN MOVIES

Imperial Opens Week With High Class Picture Offerings.

"One Week of Love" at the Imperial, which opened auspiciously yesterday is the story of a foolish butterfly, a product of society's hothouse, a fapper who has flittered here and there, tasting all of the sweets of life without sharing any of its pains, sufferings, or big emotions.

Beth Wynn had run a pretty race with the conventions for many years. She laughed and chuckled as she moved the dignified dowagers to consternation by her daring exploits.

Then followed a conflict between the Beast and the girl from civilization. He proceeded to trample her as he would any squaw woman, but she fought back valiantly with all of the weapons of civilization.

He—Scientists say that blondes will disappear in a few years. She (seeing her opportunity)—Well, if you want one, you'd better speak up now.

Added Labors. Hub—Well, now that we've got a girl, you can take it easy. Wife—That's all right, I'll have to work twice as hard to make the place comfortable enough so that she'll stay.

Heard In The Street. First Newboy—For two cents I'd punch you. Second Newboy—G'wan! I wouldn't put me mitts for a purple like dat.

Reportorial Realism. Clergyman—The couple I just married are deaf and dumb. Reporter—Ah, then I'll say it was a quiet wedding.

Sues To Dissolve House Of David

Woman Convert in $20,000 Federal Action Asks Receiver for Colony.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 25.—Another bondswoman was hauled at the walls of Shiloh House, "King" Benjamin Purnell's residence at the house of David Colony in Benton Harbor, when Mrs. Estelle R. Meldrim, a member of the cult for twenty years, filed suit in Federal Court here asking dissolution of the colony and the appointment of a receiver for its extensive properties.

Charges of abuse, fraud, the teaching of perjury, deprivation of civil rights and accusations of immorality are made in the bill against Purnell, who is a fugitive on a statutory charge.

The bill describes the conversion of Mrs. Meldrim, her husband and their two daughters at Colorado Springs, Col., in 1908. It asserts that Mrs. Meldrim was requested upon entering the colony to make a complete confession in writing covering her entire life, and supplement it with monthly confessions to Purnell, thus "placing in Purnell's hands such power over this plaintiff, as could be gained thereby."

Edith Meldrim, as the "executive director and confidante of Purnell."

The defendants named, in addition to Benjamin Purnell and Mary, his wife, are Charles Schatz, president and trustee of the association; M. T. Dewhurst, secretary and trustee; John Bulley, treasurer and trustee, and Silas Mooney, trustee.

The Meldrim suit is the second to be filed in Federal Court here against the colony. John and Edward Hance, former members of the colony, were awarded a judgment approximately $25,000 several months ago, and testimony introduced in that trial led to the one-man grand jury investigation of the cult now in progress.

FOLEY'S STONE CROCKS Keep the Butter Sweet SOLD BY ALL DEALERS Made by Canadian Workmen of Canadian Clays With Canadian Fuel.

"The position of manager is to be held by Mr. Paul Emile Piche, C.E. Mr. Piche is both a civil and a mechanical engineer who has had practical experience in the employ of the Wayss-Freitag Pulp and Paper Company and has been, since its establishment, the director of education in French with the Institute of Industrial and Domestic Arts at Gardenvale, Quebec. Mr. Piche is the chief translator for the Institute and has prepared the French texts for a number of the study papers used by the French-speaking students in the correspondence course in Pulp and Paper Making. Mr. Piche has also assisted in making some of the illustrations for the paper machine section of the textbooks."

There is a movement on foot in Canada and the United States, in the pulp and paper trade, to devise a system of apprenticeship, not along old lines, but of a nature to meet modern requirements. It is explained that there is great need for a corps of qualified leaders in manufacturing pulp and paper who know the whole industry from the bottom up by having actually performed all of the operations required, and who understand the principles on which the industry is based.

The civic banquet tendered Vice-Admiral Culme-Seymour and the officers of H. M. S. Capetown at the Union Club last evening brought together a very representative group of citizens and brought forth vigorous assertions of faith in the future of the city and port of St. John. The Vice-Admiral took occasion, since this is the last Canadian port to be visited on the cruise, to refer to the splendid reception given at every port, and to express the thanks of officers and men for the hearty welcome and the many courtesies tendered them.

The sailor who went over the side of a steamer to save a drowning kitten should be held up as an example for good Christian folk who go to the country and leave their cats behind to starve, and those also who come back from the country leaving cats to face the winter without a home.

Mr. Jennings, in his advocacy of support for the boy scouts, before the Rotary Club yesterday referred to the advantage of bringing boys whose parents are well-to-do and those whose parents are poor into comradeship. An exchange prints the following interesting item relating to this matter:—"The Duke of York has for several years presided over a boy's camp at Romney, on the Straits of Dover near where the Romans landed. The special feature is the bringing together of boys from the labor ranks and an equal number from the aristocratic schools of England. They are placed in groups of twenty, where probably ten from Eton School will eat, play and live with ten from an industrial community. Thus when the former become public position and they meet with whom they lived on equal terms as boys, there will be a bond of fellowship which will tend to their mutual benefit."

One result of the pressmen's strike in New York has been a great reduction in the consumption of newsprint. On Saturday, for example, there was issued an eight-page paper called The Combined New York Evening News. This small paper took the place of the huge Sun, Telegram, Journal, Herald, Standard Union and World, Herald, Citizen, Eagle and Times. There were no special features, the news was greatly condensed, and the largest advertisement did not take up half a column of space.

The announcement that the Governor General will come to St. John for the formal opening of the dry dock will stimulate the City Council, the Board of Trade and the business interests of the city generally to make the occasion memorable by such a celebration as will give the winter port a great deal of profitable publicity. It is an opportunity not to be overlooked.

If the Bulgarians will confine their martial activities to reducing the number of Bulgarian trouble-makers, the world will perhaps continue to read the news of disturbances in that country with a fair degree of equanimity.

The season is approaching when the fellow who rooks the boat will have to find some other way of making a fool of himself.

SHUBERTS SUE MAGAZINE. Allege They Were Labeled in an Article in Variety.

New York, Sept. 23.—Lee and Jacob J. Shubert have begun suit in the Supreme Court against Variety, Inc., publisher of the theatrical magazine of that name, for $100,000 damages, alleging through William Klein, their attorney, that on Aug. 23, 1923, in an article relative to the termination of a contract with Klein brothers, comedians, the defendant libeled them.

The article set forth that it cost the comedians $1,000 to terminate the contract, so that they might go on the Orpheum Circuit without filling out another week. The Shuberts set forth that the story complained of makes it appear that they had not acted in fairness and good faith in dealing with the team.

Who's Who of Women in Canada Planned

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 23.—Practically doubling its membership since the last triennial convention in Quebec, the Canadian Women's Press Club now numbers 808 members.

The club is planning a healthy and progressive feature of the report of the Dominion secretary, Miss Charlotte Whitten, at yesterday's session, and is indicative of the growing entry of women into the journalistic field.

A recommendation by Miss Whitten that the club take steps towards the completion of an accurate and comprehensive "who's who" of Canadian women, commencing with a full roster of members of the club, formed the basis of a resolution which was passed unanimously.

A committee representative of each province was appointed to consider the feasibility of this proposal and to report to a later session.

Some Families Are Never Ill

Fortunate are the children whose parents fully realize the seriousness of constipation. Hospital records prove that 75 per cent of all disease originates in bowel obstruction, or constipation.

Young children cry because of it; school children are hampered in their studies; grown people are made 25 per cent less efficient; elderly people's blood pressure increases 25 per cent.

Chase-Vall. The marriage of Gordon A. Chase, of Lower Cambridge, to Miss Edna May Vall, of Lower Jemseg, was solemnized yesterday at the Main street Baptist parsonage by Rev. David Hutchinson, D.D. The groom was supported by Cecil Mott while the bride-maid was the bride's sister, Miss Glens W. Vall. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Chase left on a wedding tour, which will include visits to Portland and other United States cities. Mr. and Mrs. Chase will reside at Lower Cambridge, where Mr. Chase is a well known farmer.

RECENT DEATHS

William J. Carman. Tribute to the worth of William J. Carman, a former St. John man who died recently at Hawthorn, N. J., is contained in an issue of the Hawthorne News of September 7. He was a nephew of R. H. Dockrill of this city. He left his native province when a young man and made a name for himself in the United States as a hydraulic engineer and for some years had been superintendent of the Hawthorne waterworks system. He is survived by his wife and two sons.

19TH CENTURY ROMANCE IN PRESENT-DAY CANADA

Coming Marriage of Pretty Montrealer to the Twelfth Earl of Haddington Lacks Nothing — Beauty, Youth, Chivalry, and Fortune are All Combined.

(Toronto Star) The marriage of Miss Sarah Cook, of Montreal, and George Baillie Hamilton, Earl of Haddington, which is to take place early in October, is an affair which has stirred the imagination of the people of two continents. It is, indeed, a romance as rich and satisfying in detail as though it had been written by a fanciful lady novelist of the last century. The bride is young and lovely, the groom is handsome and gallant, and the worldly goods with which he will endow his bride from across the sea, consist of one of the largest fortunes in Scotland, and an estate of seventy thousand acres, extending across five counties of the northern kingdom. His title dates back to 1619, and he is the twelfth earl of a race that has helped to write the history of Scotland and the United Kingdom. Beauty, youth, chivalry and fortune—no element is lacking to make the romance complete. The bride-elect, with her mother, Mrs. G. W. Cook, and her sister, Miss Audrey Cook, is in Toronto this week, visiting Mrs. Phillip Gilbert on Chestnut Park road. She made her debut in society two years ago. In a few weeks' time she will be a countess, the mistress of one of the largest estates in the United Kingdom. But in both her appearance and her manner, this pretty Canadian girl seemed to the Star still to possess something of the naive charm of the schoolroom. In her straight, youthful gown of black crepe-de-chine, her dark hair demurely parted and unbobbed, she appeared to be much more closely akin to the carefully reared English school girl, or even to the convent-bred Parisienne, than to the highly-colored, sophisticated young person who has become, more or less, typical of youth in this generation and on this side of the water. The present Earl of Haddington succeeded his grandfather in the peerage in 1917, his father, Lord Binning,

Lord Binning, married the heiress of the Baillies of Jerviswood, and his descendant became the tenth earl in 1868, the family name becoming Baillie-Hamilton. The most distinguished member of the house of Jerviswood was Robert Baillie, who was executed in the "Killing Times" and who, for his zeal for civil and religious liberty, is known as the "Scottish Sydney." The sixth earl was a writer, but in this direction he was excelled by his elder son, Charles, who fought by his father's side in 1715, and afterwards died in Naples. The ninth earl was a member of Parliament from 1802 until 1827. He served under Peel as lord-lieutenant, as first lord of the admiralty, and as lord privy seal.

The Haddington Estates. Lord Haddington's principal country seat is known as Mellerston, near Kelso, in Roxburghshire, a magnificent place full of interesting relics and art treasures, including a group of paintings by Van Dyck. The estates themselves are extremely valuable, as they are very rich in minerals, which contribute in no small degree to his immense income. Moreover, his mother, the widow of General Lord Binning, is the daughter of the multi-millionaire, William B. Saltin, and was at the time of her marriage accounted the greatest heiress of her day. To be mistress over an estate of seventy thousand acres, over country houses and town houses, over servants and retainers and dependents without number is, in itself, a career of parts. Behind the glamor and romance of marriage with the twelfth Earl of Haddington there lies an impressive task for the little dark-eyed girl from Montreal. The marriage of the Countess of Minto, the most fashionable in the history of the city, was performed in the Lady Chapel of St. Patrick's church here about a year and a half ago. The second wedding will be much quieter and will also take place in the Lady Chapel, as the family are Catholics. The groom being a Protestant makes it impossible to have the ceremony performed in the church proper. Mrs. Cook is known as one of the most charming women in Montreal, and evidently her daughters have been endowed with the same savoir faire. Entirely unaffected, as if Marion had married John Jones of Toronto and Sarah were about to marry Bill Smith of Lachine. The two other daughters, Audrey and Doherty, both show evidence of the same good looks and the same friendly spirit as their sisters and their mother possess in such a marked degree. Both are said to be heart free so far. It is certain that in the near future they will

NEW EQUIPMENT IS AUTHORIZED

Authority for the purchase of necessary equipment for the new out-patient department of the General Public Hospital was given at a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners held last night with M. E. Agar, the president, in the chair. Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts presented requisitions for the various articles of equipment, including dressing cabinets, instrument cabinets, a cystoscopic table and various stands and stools. The estimated cost of the equipment was about $1,000. The matter of linen supplies was under consideration and Mrs. J. V. McLellan and Dr. Roberts were appointed a special committee to report on the matter. The greater part of the meeting was devoted to further discussion of the new by-laws. Considerable progress was made in the approving of by-laws but the work was not completed.

INFIRMARY DRAWINGS.

Start Right This Fall to Cut Down Your Coal Bill

IT'S A MISTAKE to start your furnace the first chilly day. Early Fall fires deplete the coal bin amazingly. And they overheat the house—which is equally bad. But to simply sit and shiver would be worse folly. Some heat is needed to offset the dampness, and to avoid discomfort and chills when the weather changes suddenly. The wise course is to buy early a

Majestic Electric Heater

Then you can have glowing, chill-chasing heat where and when you want it. Instead of squandering costly fuel, you can concentrate the heat in any part of the house. A single-coil Majestic Heater will work wonders in an average-sized room—a two-coil heater will solve the problem of warming that extra large "corner." By purchasing a Majestic Electric Heater now, you can save a ton of coal this Fall. That's real economy, isn't it? And all the while, and for years to come, you will enjoy the almost innumerable comforts of instant heat at trifling cost. A Majestic Heater is perfectly safe. No danger of fire. Nor will it burn your hands—the back and handle are always cool. A child can carry this seven-pound heater to the room where it is needed, and attach it to the ordinary electric socket.

Rooms Never "Stuffy" Ask for the "Majestic"—and accept no other electric heater. Every genuine Majestic Heater has the name-plate "Majestic" on the front. The Majestic gives much more heat for the power used—pure, glowing, "sunshiny" heat. The room is never stuffy, for no oxygen is consumed. Just a flood of genial, healthful warmth at the turning of the switch.

A Fighting Family. There is much that is picturesque and dramatic in the history of this famous fighting race. The title was conferred originally on one Thomas Hamilton, a lawyer, who gained the favor of James VI, and who was one of the eight men, called the Octavians, who were appointed to manage the finances of Scotland in 1596. In 1619 he was created Earl of Melrose, a title which he exchanged in 1627 for that of Earl of Haddington. The history of the Haddington family resembles in many ways that of the Mintos, into whose ancient line Miss Cook's older sister was married some years ago. Like the Mintos the Haddington family was deeply attached to the cause of the Covenanters, and in 1640, when General Leslie made his celebrated march into England, the second Lord Haddington was left in Scotland to watch the garrison of Berwick. The history of the Haddington House is, in generous part, the history of Scotland. The sixth earl accompanied the famous Duke of Argyll when he went north in 1715 to suppress the first Jacobite rebellion. His heir,

NAVY PRAISED AT UNION CLUB TABLE

Dinner in Honor of Visit of Warship—St. John Topics.

In connection with the visit of Vice-Admiral Sir Michael Culme-Seymour and officers and men of the R. C. N. V. R., a city dinner was given to the Admiral and his officers last evening at the Union Club. Appreciation of the work of the navy in war and peace was fittingly voiced by Sir Douglas Hazen, Chief Justice, in proposing the toast to the guest of honor.

Mayor Fisher presided at the dinner and after extending a welcome to the city and proposing the toast to the King, called on Chief Justice Hazen to propose the toast to the guest of honor.

He referred to the work done by the navy in peace as well as in war and expressed the hope that Canada would recognize its duty to the Empire in helping to provide for the navy and not allow Great Britain to bear the whole burden of defending the world's oceans.

He naturally felt diffident. He said that this had been his first visit to Canada and it had charmed him immensely. As St. John was the last port of call this year, he wished to thank the city for its generous hospitality and also to extend his own appreciation and that of the whole Atlantic squadron for the kindness that had been extended to them all over the Dominion.

He disagreed with the statement made by Sir Douglas Hazen that Canada had not helped the navy sufficiently, pointing out the splendid service which this country had rendered the other arm of the service during the war. He touched on the duties of the navy in times of peace, explaining that the various warships touching at ports in Canada had to instruct the officers and men about the Dominion, so that when they went home they disseminated this information, thus doing, as he believed, a lot of good.

Pleased With Visit.

Sir Michael Culme-Seymour, in replying to the toast, reminded those present that naval men were not accustomed to speaking, and finding himself among so many politicians and legal luminaries, he naturally felt diffident. He said that this had been his first visit to Canada and it had charmed him immensely. As St. John was the last port of call this year, he wished to thank the city for its generous hospitality and also to extend his own appreciation and that of the whole Atlantic squadron for the kindness that had been extended to them all over the Dominion.

Tells of Governors.

Dr. Murray McLaren, C. M. G., proposed the health of Lieutenant-Governor W. F. Todd. He went back over the history of the province, telling of the twenty-five governors we had had and the sixteen since Confederation and he felt that Governor Todd was well fitted to fill the high office to which he had been appointed.

Hon. Mr. Todd, in responding, gave voice to the great loyalty of New Brunswick to the British flag and expressed the sentiment that so far as his ability would allow during his term of office he would do everything in his power to promote the well being and prosperity of this province.

Commissioner J. H. Frink proposed the health of Captain Dewar, C. B. E., R. N., and the officers of H. M. S. Capetown, to which Engineer-Commander Garraway, in the absence of Captain Dewar, responded, assuring the gathering of the deep appreciation of the officers and men of the Capetown for their reception.

To St. John.

Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., M. P., was called upon to propose the health of "The Commercial Interests of the City of St. John." He told of the early history, the landing of the loyalists, who had come here so that they might live under the British flag, and that same spirit, he maintained, still animated the people of this city. While things sometimes happened which made us feel that our efforts were misunderstood and unappreciated in the rest of Canada, still the spirit of perseverance and determination which had helped our forefathers carve this city out of the wilderness should animate us today. By hard work the people of this city intended to stay on the map of Canada. He had every faith in the future and felt sure that the business interests which had progressed in the past and were continuing to progress would ultimately bring this city to the proud position which her natural advantages warranted.

G. E. Barbour, president of the Board of Trade, responded and spoke in a similar strain, assuring those present that although some called this the "dead end" of Canada, the hard work and industry of the citizens belief the firm as did the volume of trade done and, while it was not so great as it should be or as the proper following of the policy "Canadian trade for Canadian ports" warranted, he felt that St. John would eventually win out. On behalf of the Board of Trade he welcomed the guests to the city.

It was announced that the ship would be open to visitors from 2 to 6 on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons.

When the ship docked yesterday afternoon a detachment of the St. John company of the R. C. N. V. R., under Midshipman Wakefield Fenton, was on

GOOD REPORT ON PUPILS' HEALTH

The preliminary medical survey of all the children in the primary schools in St. John, East St. John, Fairville and Beaconsfield has just been completed and some 9,000 children have been examined for the detection of anything which should be excluded from the schools. A remarkably good bill of health has been given by the medical inspector. Not more than twenty cases of scabies were discovered and only three or four children had to be excluded because of sores. I. O. D. E. ARRANGES LECTURE COURSE

Prominent Citizens to Give Addresses—Books for Hospital Aid.

A course of four addresses on civics has been arranged by the Municipal Chapter of the I. O. D. E. and will be given in October and November. At the first meeting of the Municipal Chapter for this season, held last night in the Government rooms, with Mrs. Heber Vroom, the regent, presiding, the outline of the course was submitted by Mrs. C. B. Allan and was heartily approved. Hon. H. A. Powell is to give an address on the British North America Act; Dr. J. B. M. Baxter is to speak on "How Laws Are Made;" Miss Muriel Corkery will give an address on "Laws Affecting Women and Children;" and L. P. D. Tilley will lecture on "Voting." The regent expressed the hope that all the members of the primary chapters and their friends would attend the course of lectures.

It was decided to ask the twelve primary chapters to contribute books to the Hospital Aid book day and each chapter was asked to send books to the secretary of the Municipal Chapter. Mrs. F. R. Taylor was appointed a committee to see that the books were sent to the Hospital Aid.

Mrs. Herbert Wetmore reported that she had visited the soldier whose case was given so much prominence recently by Brunswick Chapter had given fuel and it was understood that the man had now found employment.

In response to the request of the Red Cross Society, that the chapter should help in the work of collecting for Japanese relief, it was arranged that the following chapters should take charge of collecting boxes in the hotels on the following days: Wednesday, Lady Roberts; Thursday, Loyallist; Friday, Valerian and Family.

Mrs. Heber Vroom had attended the annual meeting of the National Chapter in Quebec as the delegate of the Municipal Chapter and she gave an inspiring account of the Quebec convention, making all present feel that they were members of a great Order. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Vroom for her excellent report. It was agreed on motion that the aims and objects of the I. O. D. E. should be read at the next meeting of all primary chapters.

The fallacy of buying up to Hard Coal

ALMOST the entire West burns soft coal in furnaces. The "anthracite" fallacy was exploded by necessity.

McClary's long ago built the ideal furnace for the West, and to-day it is the ideal furnace for the East. With the famous Air Blast Ring it burns soft coal or hard coal equally well.

HAVE YOU A DAUGHTER? IF YOU HAVE THIS ARTICLE WILL INTEREST YOU!

Hamilton, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine I have ever known for the building up of girls and women who are run-down in health. It has been taken by different members of my family with great success. My daughters have been wonderfully helped during motherhood by taking Favorite Prescription; it is the best medicine the expectant mother can take for health and strength. And after having the influenza my granddaughter was left in a very bad way and nothing in the way of medicine gave her any help until she began taking Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and through the use of this medicine her health was completely restored, and she is as well as ever."—Mrs. Sarah Wilshaw, 405 Cannon St., E.

Go to your neighborhood drug store at once and obtain this Prescription of Dr. Pierce's, in tablets or liquid, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont., for trial package.

An automobile accident on Sunday in which John Driscoll was quite badly hurt, the car in which he was driving turning over on the Lorneville Road, resulted in the postponement of his wedding, which was to have taken place today. He was badly cut and his collar bone broken.

WELSH COAL

Announcing the arrival of a large shipment of Welsh Coal suitable for Furnace, Feeder, Range or any stove requiring Anthracite Coal.

Thousands of people who used Welsh Coal last year insist on a supply now, which proves conclusively that the Welsh Coal is superior fuel.

Much more heat is obtained from Welsh Coal and less than one-third the quantity of ash; this saving of labor alone makes it a very desirable fuel.

HOLDS UP FAMILY OF THE PRESIDENT AS FINE EXAMPLE

Chicago, Sept. 25.—The family life of President Coolidge was held up as a "refreshing in these days of blaz Americanism" by Win. Matthew Holdery, secretary of the Christian Family Crusade, in an address before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

"In the family of Mr. Coolidge there is honesty, thrift, tolerance, respect for parents, recognition to children and a very intense family affection," he said. "Discipline has ever been the rule, yet and fair play. It is refreshing in this day of juvenile disregard for parents and disregard for family obligations to have in the first family such honor and respect."

I did not sleep well and was nervous at the least noise. I keep house, but I was such a wreck that I could not sweep the floor nor

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

GERMAN NEWS HAS EFFECT IN WALL ST.

Gives Prices Firm Tone at Opening - Trading in Montreal Quiet.

New York, Sept. 25.—(Wall Street, opening)—Germany's decision to abandon passive resistance brought a fair volume of buying orders into today's stock market and gave opening prices a firm tone. Early gains as a rule were fractional, but they were well distributed over the entire list. Coppers, oils, steels, foods and equipments gave the best demonstrations of group strength.

Monroe Report. New York, Sept. 25.—(Wall Street, noon)—Several strong spots developed during the morning but the heavy professional selling of Studebaker which broke nearly three points to 97 1/2, a new low for the year, finally unsettled the general list before mid-day. Synthetic declines immediately took place in such active issues as Baldwin, American Can, American Woolen, Davison Chemical, Gulf States and Crucible steels, Chandler, Cuban Cane preferred, and Punta Alegre Sugar, which sold 1 1/2 to 2 points below yesterday's final figures. B. & O. was heavy on unofficial reports that the resumption of the common dividend would be delayed at least until the end of the year. Gains of 1 to 3 points in a number of the copper, food and oil shares were shaded before noon.

Call money opened at 5 per cent. Quiet in Montreal.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—(Opening)—Trading was quiet and prices slightly firmer at the opening of today's stock market. Brazilian was the most active issue and was firmer, being up one-quarter to 48 1/2. Steel of Canada was unchanged at 88 1/2. Breweries was up one point to 51. Abitibi was off one-quarter to 91, and Laurentide was unchanged at 93.

The Dollar Today. New York, Sept. 25.—Sterling exchange steady. Great Britain 4.61-4. France 2.23-4. Italy 4.61-2. Germany 2.00000000. Canadian dollars 2.3-16 per cent discount.

OPINIONS ON THE STOCK MARKET

(McDougall & Cowans) New York, Sept. 25.—Hutton & Co.—"We think that the market will show moderate volume of liquidation to carry the whole market into new low territory."

Bieck & Co.—"We have enough deterring factors to prevent any rally from being more than just that."

Hayden Stone—"The most that can be expected for the time being is a trading market, which should be in a position to recover sharply as it becomes oversold."

Thornblower and Weeks—"It is useless to attempt to stress the exact moment when selling will be sufficiently important with regard to source volume and follows through to carry prices into lower levels."

Keech & Co.—"We look for gradual gain in market activity and strength and would buy selected stocks to hold for the time being."

Evans—"The market turned strong yesterday afternoon and closed with a better tone than it has had for some time. The buying as heretofore, however, seemed to be largely covering of shorts. It was hastened by the knowledge that passive resistance in the Ruhr had ceased, causing a very strong tone in the foreign exchange. This short covering may continue today but it is not probable that any important buying for long account will cause much follow-up to the rally."

NEWS NOTES OF STOCK INTEREST

(McDougall & Cowans) New York, Sept. 25.—Gasoline in London has dropped 2d. to 10 3/4d, which is lower than 1914 prices.

Chicago City Ry. declared regular quarterly 1 1/2 per cent. Sept. 29th record Sept. 20th.

Imperial Oil Co. Ltd., subsidiary of C. N. W. and other Canadian oil co's have reduced gasoline at retail one cent, to 28 cents a gallon.

St. John's Oil Co., has sold to Carter Oil Co., S. O. N. I. subsidiary for future delivery 1,200,000 bbls of Burbank oil which it has in storage.

N. Y. C. August net operating income $7,137,420 against $5,458,807 in Aug. 1922, eight months $54,485,500, against $31,460,058.

Resigns Pulpit

Considerable surprise was expressed among the citizens when it became known that Rev. J. A. Morison, Ph.D., D.D., for the last eleven years minister of the First Presbyterian Church, West Side, had at the Sunday evening service placed his resignation before the congregation. It is understood it is the intention of Rev. Dr. Morison to resign for at least a year before taking up any further pastoral duties.

REV. DR. J. A. MORISON.

True Bill Asked In Crawford Case

(Continued from page 1.) Parker, charged with a serious offence in which a girl is involved. He reviewed the evidence and said the girl would be one of the witnesses before the Grand Jury. He thought it advisable that a true bill be found.

His Honor made less extended reference to the Amur's, Ltd. case, and said it was for the Grand Jury to determine whether or not it was a matter that required further investigation.

The Grand Jury is composed of Fred M. Keator, foreman; Robert J. Bickert, Charles L. Holder, Kenneth R. Nelson, Louis T. Hodd, James K. Allison, J. Frederick Emery, Ambrose J. Trainer, Charles T. Green and Alexander G. Gregory, Joshua E. Cowan, Jr., and Fred W. Girvan. The latter two were absent.

Of the twenty-one called on the Petit Jury panel, only ten were present in court. His Honor warned the absent jurors that unless they produced satisfactory evidence in the form of an affidavit, it would be his duty to fine them. Of the panel the following were present: Robert J. Cox, John Gillis, Isaac B. Sparks, Frederick Brookins, Fred W. Logan, Walter W. Chase, George H. Brown, James J. Garnett, P. A. Smith and Samuel J. Holder.

REV. DR. MORISON RESIGNS CHARGE

Prominent Minister Leaves Pulpit of Carleton Presbyterian Church.

Considerable surprise was expressed among the citizens when it became known that Rev. J. A. Morison, Ph.D., D.D., for the last eleven years minister of the First Presbyterian Church, West Side, had at the Sunday evening service placed his resignation before the congregation. It is understood it is the intention of Rev. Dr. Morison to resign for at least a year before taking up any further pastoral duties.

Dr. Morison had filled some of the most influential pulpits in the United States and Canada and two of the St. John churches, St. David's and West Side. He is at his up river home today and could not be communicated with.

The Reverend John Archibald Morison, Ph. D., D. D., was born in Quebec, and entered McGill University in 1886, graduating B. A. in 1888, having paid special attention to his honor year in classics, mathematics and English literature. He entered upon his theological studies in the Montreal Presbyterian College in the autumn of 1888, and graduated therefrom in the spring of 1891, having taken a first-class certificate standing throughout the entire course, and having won the class scholarship.

Returning to Canada in the autumn of 1892, he was unanimously called to the congregation of Knox Church, Listowel, Ontario, to which charge he was inducted on February 18, 1893. In this church the senior elder was John Livingstone, elder brother of David Livingstone, missionary and explorer. The following year he was unanimously called to become minister of East Church, Toronto, and was inducted into the pastorate of the same in July, 1894. He continued minister of this church till September, 1898, when he was asked the presbytery to relieve him of his charge that he might go abroad to continue his studies in philosophy and theology.

In the year 1895 he matriculated into the post graduate department of the Presbyterian University of Wooster, and for the succeeding three years pursued his regular studies in philosophy, and having passed all examinations, including those for the degree of M. A., and having submitted an approved thesis, he received the degree of Ph. D. In October, 1898, he matriculated as Ph. D. into the Kgl. Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität, Berlin, in which university he studied under Professor Friedrich D. D. and O. Pfeiffer, D. D. In January, 1899, he went to Oxford, England, and studied Old Testament Criticism in Christ Church, and under Professor S. R. Driver, D. D. and in Oriel College, under Professor T. K. Cheyne, D. D.

Dr. Morison was sometime chaplain of St. Andrew's Society in Toronto, and for a number of years honorary secretary of the Upper Canada Religious Tract and Book Society, of which he was vice-president, some six years. He was also a member of the University of Toronto, and in 1907, also the same degree was conferred on him by Hanover College in the same year.

On December 1, 1899, he was inducted as minister of St. David's Church here, and remained with that congregation until March 31, 1904, at which time he removed to Chicago, having been called to the First Presbyterian Church of that city, where he remained until November, 1912, as minister of the First Presbyterian Church, West Side, and has filled the pulpit there most acceptably ever since.

Dominion of Canada Refunding Loan 1923

5% Bonds

Dated and bearing interest from 15th October, 1923, and offered in two maturities as follows:

20 year Bonds due 15th October, 1943 5 year Bonds due 15th October, 1928

Principal payable at the office of the Receiver-General at Ottawa or that of the Assistant Receiver-General at Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary or Victoria. Semi-annual interest (15th April and 15th October) payable at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank.

Denominations: $100, $500, $1000

All bonds may be registered as to principal only, and bonds in denomination of $500 and authorized multiples thereof may be fully registered.

These bonds are authorized under Act of the Parliament of Canada, and both principal and interest are a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

To Cash Subscribers

Offering Terms

This issue presents a most attractive investment. The security is incomparable and the income return high. The bonds will occupy an investment position equal to that of Canada's Victory Bonds.

The bonds are offered for cash at the following prices:

20 YEAR BONDS 98.25 and interest yielding 5.14%

5 YEAR BONDS 99 and interest yielding 5.23%

This offer is made subject to prior sale and to advance in price.

To Holders of 1923 Victory Bonds

In addition to the bonds offered for cash it has been arranged that all owners of Victory Bonds due November 1st, 1923, may exchange their holdings for the same amount of the new issue. They will receive in cash the difference between the face value of their maturing bonds and the purchase price of the new security, namely: at the rate of $1.75 per $100 for 20 year bonds and $1.00 for 5 year bonds.

Special Privilege

Interest coupons on bonds exchanged are to be retained by the owner and cashed on November 1st. As the new bonds will be dated October 15th, holders who exchange will thus receive an extra half month's interest thereby reducing the cost of 20 year bonds from 98.25, and 5 year bonds from 99, to the following:

20 YEAR BONDS 96.02 and interest yielding 5.16%

5 YEAR BONDS 98.77 and interest yielding 5.28%

Holders are urged to act promptly as this privilege is subject to withdrawal.

Dominion of Canada bonds are the most attractive investment obtainable in Canada.

Orders may be telegraphed or telephoned (collect) and exchanges made through any of the undersigned or through your usual dealer or bank.

The right is reserved to allot a less amount of bonds than applied for, and to sell for cash more than $50,000.00.

These bonds are offered for delivery in interim form on or about October 15th, 1923, when, as, and if issued and delivered to us.

M'INTYRE GETS ARENA DECISION

Groff Too Much for Young Dempsey—Three Spir- ited Bout.

The boxing card staged in the Arena last evening was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of fans. The three bouts on the programme went the limit and were all well contested. Johnny McIntyre of Glouce Bay, former welter-weight champion of the Maritime Provinces, was awarded a decision over Joe "Kid" Burns of Montreal in a ten round bout. The judges divided, one for each man and Referee James Power decided for McIntyre. "Billy" Groff outpointed "Young" Dempsey all the way in an eight round bout and E. Knox earned a decision over John Sullivan in the first preliminary.

McIntyre was first in the ring for the main bout and was given rounds of applause. Burns was also given an ovation as he stepped through the ropes. After the necessary arrangements had been made the first round started.

McIntyre earned this round by a fairly good margin. The Glouce Bay boy set a fast pace and scored heavily on the in-fighting. The visiting boxer showed the fans some of the prettiest footwork seen here for some time. His blows, however, did not land squarely in this round and appeared fast and the crowd applauded loudly when the bell rang.

The visitor assumed the aggressiveness on the opening of the second round and got home several straight jabs to the face. As Burns bored in, McIntyre clipped him heavily about the head with a left. McIntyre drove Burns into the ropes with a clean left and right. They clinched as the bell rang. It was fairly even.

The third round opened with a fast exchange in the center with the visitor having the best of it. Burns continued his rushing attacks and had Johnny swinging around missing several hooks and swings. In one of his rushes, Burns slipped and fell full length on the floor. McIntyre helped him to his feet and walked away to the ropes while the rosin was dusted off the Montreal boy's gloves. The crowd applauded McIntyre. Burns cut loose with several spurts toward the finish that earned him an even break.

The fourth round saw the Montreal boxer pulling up on an even terms. McIntyre unworked several attacks that had the Glouce Bay boy plainly disconcerted. Burns' blows were not heavy but he was reaching McIntyre too frequently for comfort. Johnny held his ground under fire and gave plenty in return especially in the clinches. Burns was persistent, however, and scored sufficiently to take the round.

In one of Burns' rushes, McIntyre whooped and caught him on his shoulders, lifting him clear of the floor. Burns was shooting in left and right jabs. McIntyre drove home a heavy left hook at the bell sounded.

The sixth round saw the fast pace slackening slightly. There was frequent clinching. McIntyre connected for several resounding left hooks but failed to slow up Burns appreciably. The Montreal boy was ducking and dodging McIntyre's swings and getting in close for several straight blows.

The seventh and eighth rounds were a toss-up. Johnny was using his left to break up Burns' rushes and occasionally would take the aggressive. Burns opened the eighth with a strong attack with McIntyre producing some nice footwork. The eighth was fairly even. The ninth saw both men working hard to earn the decision. The final round was probably the poorest of the fight—frequent clinches marring the action.

As McIntyre crossed the ring to shake hands with Burns, the crowd gave him a fine hand. Burns was congratulated by many local followers. He took his defeat smilingly as he made his way to the dressing room.

Groff Versus Young Dempsey.

As Groff entered the ring, it was announced that he weighed 146. The local boy soon followed, his weight being announced as two over Groff's poundage. Referee Power instructed the men in the centre and the bell sounded for the opening round.

From the start, it was plain that Dempsey was no match for the Winnipeg boy. Throughout the bout, he seldom took the offensive and when he did rush in, he was held. Groff's left was very much in evidence. They sparred cautiously for an opening and then fell into a clinch as Groff rushed in. After breaking, Groff shot over his left and followed with a right. Groff sank another heavy left into Young Dempsey's body and varied matters by driving over a right hook. Groff continued pounding away with his left and finally drew blood from the local boy's nose.

In the second round, Groff hit Dempsey at will and piled up a big point lead. The Winnipeg boxer missed a terrific left swing aimed for the local boy's jaw. Young Dempsey ducked in time and caught it on his shoulder.

The local boxer aroused momentary interest by cutting loose with an offensive at the start of the third round that had Groff backing across the ring. Groff soon fell into a clinch and from then on held the offensive and upper-hand. Groff started the fourth round strong and at one time had the local boxer hanging on. He kept after Dempsey, evidently trying to settle matters promptly. Dempsey took considerable pounding but refused to go down.

In the fifth the local boy weathered a severe attack and then drove home a right and left. Groff clinched and then rushed Young Dempsey to the ropes, where he pounded him heavily. In the sixth round, during a mix-up near the ropes, Young Dempsey went down on the floor. He was up quickly, however. The seventh and eighth rounds were similar to the previous ones, Groff's point lead never being threatened. The final round saw Groff following up each attack hard. Dempsey looked pretty tired as the bell sounded.

decision over Sullivan by his aggressiveness during the closing rounds. In the opening rounds Sullivan's science earned him the shade. Knox's swings were wild but he kept on trying and finally drove his left repeatedly into Sullivan's face. The first two rounds went to Sullivan but the third was fairly even. The fourth, fifth and sixth were taken by Knox.

The bouts were largely attended, with the visiting Jack/tars occupying a block of seats.

OWNED THE CAR BUT HAD TO PROVE IT

The Dodge touring car that was stolen from W. A. Sherwood, Penfield Ridge, was recovered about three miles from Sussex yesterday morning. The driver was not located and the car was left on the side of the road. On Sunday night Sergeant Detective Power received word that the stolen car had been at Apohaqui, and had been removed before the police could be notified. Mr. Sherwood recovered his car without notifying the local police department and yesterday afternoon while he was driving home Traffic Officer Howard noticed the car at the corner of Douglas avenue and Main street and held it up. Mr. Sherwood was driving but was unknown by the officer and could not get clear until word was received from the detective department that it was all right.

SAYS CONDITION OF FRANCE EXCELLENT

Budget Balanced, Reconstruction Hurried and People Working.

Paris, Sept. 24.—M. De Lasteyrie, Minister of Finance, in an address before the Chamber of Commerce of Tarn Department, dwelt upon the excellent situation of France from a financial and economic viewpoint. He produced figures to show that for the first time since 1914 the French budget had balanced.

The Minister said that France in the last four years, without receiving a franc from Germany, had accomplished the enormous task of spending 100,000,000,000 francs in the reconstruction of the devastated regions and in the restoration of the country's finances. This was made possible by voting 8,000,000,000 additional taxes, the collection of which was intensified so that, without an increase in customs tariffs, ordinary receipts were raised from 15,000,000,000 in 1920, to 19,750,000,000 in 1922.

In 1921 there were 63,963 idle workmen in France, while on Aug. 1, 1923, only 1,075 were unemployed in France, of whom 150 lived in Paris.

When Film makes teeth cloudy the lips are kept closed

End Film and the prettier teeth lead to open smiles

This Offer

May bring you a delightful surprise

Do you realize how many prettier teeth you see nowadays? Millions of people now brush their teeth in a new way. They combat the cloudy film. And those whiter, cleaner, safer teeth show what that method means.

You and yours will use it when you once learn what it does. And this free test will show you.

Those dingy coats
Your teeth are coated with a film—that viscous film you feel. Much of it resists the tooth brush, clings and stays.

Soon that film discolors, then forms dingy coats. That is how teeth lose their beauty.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Some of these troubles come to nearly all. You should fight the film.

Natural—gentle
Peppodent also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to better fight mouth acids. It multiplies the starch digester in saliva, to better digest starch deposits. So every use gives manifold power to these great natural tooth-protecting agents.

Thus Peppodent brings its amazing results in natural and gentle ways, without harsh grit.

Peppodent results are quick and apparent. They will amaze and delight you.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the cloudy coats disappear.

This means much to you and yours. Cut out coupon now.

A He-Man Combination

Mennen Shaving Cream and Mennen Talcum for Men

Mennen Shaving Cream possesses an almost miraculous power to soften the beard. Requires no rubbing in. Gives comfortable shaves and contains Boro-glycerine, which keeps the skin in great condition.

Mennen Talcum for men is as popular as the Shaving Cream. It is compounded and tinted exclusively for the masculine skin. Use it either for "after shave" or after bath. Keeps clothes from sticking and limbs from chafing.

Mennen Shaving Cream and Mennen Talcum for Men

Mennen Shaving Cream possesses an almost miraculous power to soften the beard. Requires no rubbing in. Gives comfortable shaves and contains Boro-glycerine, which keeps the skin in great condition.

Mennen Talcum for men is as popular as the Shaving Cream. It is compounded and tinted exclusively for the masculine skin. Use it either for "after shave" or after bath. Keeps clothes from sticking and limbs from chafing.

THE LONG DROUGHT

Do you realize how many prettier teeth you see nowadays? Millions of people now brush their teeth in a new way. They combat the cloudy film. And those whiter, cleaner, safer teeth show what that method means.

You and yours will use it when you once learn what it does. And this free test will show you.

Those dingy coats
Your teeth are coated with a film—that viscous film you feel. Much of it resists the tooth brush, clings and stays.

Soon that film discolors, then forms dingy coats. That is how teeth lose their beauty.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Some of these troubles come to nearly all. You should fight the film.

Natural—gentle
Peppodent also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to better fight mouth acids. It multiplies the starch digester in saliva, to better digest starch deposits. So every use gives manifold power to these great natural tooth-protecting agents.

Thus Peppodent brings its amazing results in natural and gentle ways, without harsh grit.

Peppodent results are quick and apparent. They will amaze and delight you.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the cloudy coats disappear.

This means much to you and yours. Cut out coupon now.

Two easy ways
Now dental science has discovered two easy ways to fight film.

Protect the Enamel
Peppodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent as softer than enamel. Never use a film comb that contains harsh grit.

Too Busy At Golf
To Work For Wife

New York, Sept. 25.—When Michael Rohaly, 23, gassed war veteran, of 368 Walnut street, Yonkers, was charged by his wife with non-support in Yonkers City Court, he told Judge Boote that he was so busy practicing golf for a championship contest that he couldn't look after his wife. He hoped, he said, to become a professional and to earn a large income.

The judge advised Rohaly to contribute more to his wife's support and if golf conflicted with his income to give up golf.

WHEN DUELLING
WAS PRACTISED

Account of a Fatal Meeting in Halifax a Hundred Years Ago.

(Occasional in Halifax Recorder.)

On Wednesday morning, July 21, 1819, between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock, a meeting took place near the Governor's North Farm, at Richmond, about two miles from town, between Richard John Unkake, Esq., the younger, and Mr. William Bowie, both of Halifax. After exchanging the second shot, the latter fell, mortally wounded. Assistance was immediately procured, and Mr. Bowie was conveyed to the Farm House, and a messenger despatched for a surgeon, who, upon his arrival, found Mr. Bowie's friend by his side. On examining the wound it was ascertained that the ball, which had entered a little above the right hip, had passed through to the left side, which was immediately extracted—but alas! human skill was in vain. The approaching hour of dissolution became visible, and at ten minutes before six o'clock on the evening of the same day, Mr. Bowie breathed his last, in the 38th year of his age.

The dispute to which this unhappy event is to be attributed arose from some observations made by Mr. Unkake when conducting a suit in the Supreme Court on Monday last and which were considered by Mr. Bowie as an unjustified attack upon his integrity and reputation. On the following day a correspondence passed between the parties, which, unfortunately, terminated in a challenge.

The Recorder, in his issue of July 24, 1819, made the following reference to this matter:

"It is greatly to be lamented that on account, probably, of some ungenerous words, two such worthy and respected members of the community should have allowed their passions so far to get the better of their reason as to lose sight of all considerations of religion, justice and humanity, and to risk their lives upon a point which some friendly interference or a moment's cool reflection might have prevented.

"It is a circumstance deserving of notice (the truth of which we can vouch for) that the following lines were found near the spot where Mr. Bowie fell, on the morning the duel took place; and which, in a singular manner, delineates the sad fate of that unfortunate gentleman: 'I have seen man in the pride of his strength; his cheeks glowed with beauty; his limbs were full of action; he walked, he ran; he rejoiced in that he was more excellent than these. . . . I returned;—he stood on the bare ground; his feet could no longer move, nor his hands stretch themselves out; his life was departed from him, and the breath out of his nostrils. Therefore do I sweep because Death is in the world; the spoiler is among the works of God; all that is made must be destroyed; all that is born must die; let me alone, for I will weep yet longer.'

"On Thursday morning the Coroner held an inquest on the body of the deceased, and the jurors, after a minute and strict investigation of the case, returned their verdict,—that the said William Bowie came to his death by the hand of a wound, received from a ball fired from pistol by Richard John Unkake, the younger, in a duel.

"The same evening the body was conveyed to his late residence in town. Yesterday the mortal remains of Mr. Bowie were consigned to the grave. The funeral was more than ordinary solemnity from his late residence in Marchington's Lane about 3 o'clock, followed by as numerous and respectable attendance as ever was witnessed in this town. The urbanity of his manners, and benevolent disposition, made him esteemed and respected by all who knew him. His cheerful temper rendered him affable and communicative as a companion, and in his mercantile dealings he was distinguished by an inviolable integrity. The flags of the vessel in the harbor were hoisted half-mast high on the occasion, and a general glow seemed to pervade all ranks of society.

Unkake and the two seconds were tried on the 28th July, 1821, and acquitted.

FIRPO NOW FACES
SUIT FOR $54,206

New York, Sept. 24.—Luis Angel Firpo climbed from a $125 third rate to a $125,000 championship contender in a year and a half of pugilistic enterprise in the United States, according to papers filed today in the suit brought by Andrew D. McCordiale, of Long Beach, N. Y., against the Argentine boxer for $54,206.24.

McCordiale, who obtained an attachment against Firpo's share of the purse for his title bout with Jack Dempsey at the Polo Grounds recently, charges this amount is due him under an alleged contract with the South American by the terms of which he was to receive 25 per cent. of the fighter's earnings, plus $3,000 for expenses.

A Famous Barber
Of Ye Olden Time

(Occasional in Halifax Recorder.)

In the northeast corner of St. Paul's Cemetery, Barrington St., may be seen a tombstone with the following inscription: "Sacred to the memory of Elias Joseph Hobson, who departed this life on the 9th January, 1839, aged 67 years." E. J. Hobson was a notable figure in our community. The family it was always understood, were among the original settlers who came over with Governor Cornwallis in 1749. However that may be, it is certain that in the earlier years of this country, Elias J. Hobson was well known in Halifax, and had many warm friends. Hobson was a hairdresser by trade, and kept his shop in an old one-story wooden building at the corner of Duke and Hollis streets. This was before the lake water was used in the town, and when the inhabitants were dependent for their water supply upon wells, and the rain water collected from the sooty roofs of houses. Right in front of Hobson's shop, at the corner, stood "The Sisters," two pumps, in one big public well, and another day long when the pumps were not frozen in winter or the well was not dry in summer, "The Sisters" were surrounded with boys with their water being carried with a hoop between to keep them apart—or with truckmen's horses stopping as they passed for a drink at the well on the curb. Hobson's shop was a kind of social exchange, where citizens went to meet, partly for a shave or to have their locks trimmed, but partly also, and indeed chiefly, to have a gossip with the genial proprietor and his popular son and assistant, James. Both father and son were good amateur musicians, the kindly son being afterwards well known and highly appreciated in musical circles. Hobson,

GIANTS NOW 3 UP AND SEVEN TO GO

Lost Yesterday to Cincinnati—Ruth and Heilmann Battle for Honors.

New York, Sept. 25.—The Giants lost to Cincinnati yesterday 6 to 3, and dropped to a lead of only three games in the National League race. They are now three up, with seven to go, although one of these games with St. Louis, will not be played unless ordered by the president of the league. The champions lost yesterday's game when Fowler hit a four bagger with two men on bases.

The Yankees ripped off a bunch a nine runs in one long string, defeating the Tigers 12 to 4.

Harry Heilmann and Babe Ruth, who are struggling for the batting average lead of the league, came out even in the day's play.

The Browns won two games from the Red Sox in Boston, 6 to 1, and 4 to 2, while the Cardinals were losing twice to the Robins in St. Louis, 8 to 2 and 7 to 3. Ruchter pitched his 18th victory in the second game, against the Cards, and needs but two more to collect a $1,000 bonus.

The Pirates broke even with the Phillies in Pittsburg, losing the first 4 to 2 and winning the second 4 to 3. In the second game there was one out when the winning run was scored in the last frame.

The Cubs trimmed the Braves in Chicago in a tight game, 8 to 7. The runs were almost evenly matched, in the fourth inning each team took three, in the fifth the Cubs took three and the Braves two, and in the sixth they each took two. Boeckel and Hartnett each cired.

In Washington the White Sox defeated the Senators in a fast holding game, 1 to 0. The Sox made nine hits in the Senators seven, but they were well scattered, and the men in the field took good care that they should not count for much.

FAIRVILLE TRIMS
BEACONSFIELD

The return baseball game between the Fairville Superior School and Beaconfield School was won by Fairville by a score of 11 to 8 on the Fairville diamond last evening. The umpires were N. Eanly and G. Cheney, the principals of the winning and losing schools respectively.

New York, Sept. 25.—The selection of the three-year-old to race Papyrus, English Derby winner, in the 100,000 international contest at Belmont Park, October 20, may not be made before October 6.

Under the terms of agreement with Ben Irish, owner of the English thoroughbred, the Jockey Club, under whose auspices the race will be held, has until two weeks before the contest to pick the American representative. The Jockey Club also has the privilege of naming an alternate.

Zev, Kentucky Derby victor and star of the Ranocous stable, and My Own, of Admiral C. T. Grayson's stable, stand out as the two leading candidates, with the odds favoring the selection of Zev, which has made a more impressive record for the season.

Zev won the Lawrence Realization, first official tryout, while My Own captured the National Trial Sweepstakes, the second test. They have never met and efforts so far to bring them together have failed.

ESTABLISH NEW FINANCIAL FIRM

Hon. M. W. Doherty and C. H. Easson Organize in Toronto.

Hon. Manning W. Doherty and C. H. Easson, both former prominent residents of St. John, have organized a new Canadian financial house under the style of Doherty Easson Company.

They have opened an office in the Victoria building Toronto and will deal in all classes of securities. Mr. Doherty came to New Brunswick from Toronto some years ago and after some years in Sussex with the Sussex Manufacturing Company he was manager of the A. R. Williams Machinery Co., Dock street. Later he organized the Maritime Dredging Company, but ill health compelled his retirement and he returned to Ontario where he took up farming on an extensive scale. Still later, as everybody knows, he was a member of the Grey Government in that province, and his name has been prominent in Canadian affairs.

Mr. Easson was local manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in St. John some years ago and later general manager of the Bank of New Brunswick. After amalgamation he was a supervisor for the Bank of Nova Scotia, then went to Toronto where he continued in the bank service for a time and then assumed the general management of the Standard Bank. The news of their organization of a new financial firm will be read with much interest by many friends in St. John.

INFECTION FROM LITTLE SCRATCH

Hospital Patient Here Very Ill—Injury in Hoisting an Umbrella.

Friend of Mrs. Harry Blakey (who was Miss Erina Bates) of 178 Adelaide St., who has been ill with septic arthritis for more than two weeks, will be pleased to learn that she is reported at the General Hospital as much improved today. Infection started from a small scratch on the middle finger of her right hand, occasioned by hoisting an umbrella. The hand has been lanced four times and is nearly healed, but the left knee became swollen and extremely painful. It has been asperated. Although still in a critical condition from so much suffering there are hopes for her recovery. Dr. C. M. Kelly is attending her.

Mrs. Blakey was in the Victoria Hospital, Fredericton, and came here a few days ago.

TUGS ON WAY HERE CAUGHT IN A STORM

Damaged in Terrific Gale and Make Their Way to Queenstown.

The large salvage tug Ocean Eagle, and the tug Ballindaloch, which were on their way to St. John, from the Old Country for the St. John Drydock and Shipbuilding Co., met with hard usage in a terrific storm 200 miles west of the coast of Ireland and put back to Queenstown yesterday. There they are at present.

The Ocean Eagle was towing the other tug, and the cable parted. The bridge of the larger vessel was smashed, both tugs were damaged, the coal supply was all lost, and the provisions destroyed.

A. B. Ross was in charge of the tug. The city yesterday from one of the vessels and several other St. John men who had gone across to bring the tugs to St. John were on board.

LEAVES MONEY IN POLICE STATION

Moncton Visitor Found No Lock on Boarding House Door.

"Safety first" is evidently the motto of Joseph Champagne, who arrived in the city yesterday from Moncton. After securing a meal in a restaurant near the Union Depot he set out in search of a hotel and secured a room in a house in Dock street. A close inspection of the room revealed that the lock on the door was not in order and having a sum of money in his possession, he evidently decided to take no chances. He left his boarding house and sought a policeman and explained that he had some money, but feared to leave it in his room as the lock was broken on his door. He was instructed to go the Central Police Station, and on his arrival there explained his dilemma to the deskman, Policeman Thomas. The latter agreed to become custodian of the money and entered an account of the incident in the report book.

Mr. Champagne added that in event of anything happening to him, the $89 be forwarded to his wife in Caraquet, Gloucester county.

However, nothing happened and he appeared bright and early this morning for his money. He was given quite a jolt when he found another official, John O'Neill, on duty at the station, apparently with no knowledge about the safety deposit. After some explanation the right book was located and the money was returned to the owner.

REDEMPTORIST HEAD IS HERE

Most Rev. Patrick Murray Today is Visitor at St. Peter's.

Most Rev. Patrick Murray, C.S.S.R., Superior General of the Redemptorists, accompanied by Rev. Father Cotter, C.S.S.R., and Rev. Father Lutz, C.S.S.R., all of Rome, arrived in the city this morning from Montreal, and are guests at St. Peter's rectory.

Father Murray is making a conical tour of the houses of the order in Canada, and his visit here will be confined strictly to these lines. There is to be no special celebration in connection with his visit. He will remain here until Thursday, when with Father Cotter and Father Lutz, he will leave for Boston, and thence to New York, sailing from that latter city on October 8, on his return to Rome.

For many years prior to his election as Rector Major of the Redemptorists, Father Murray was Provincial for the province of Ireland. He was elected Rector Major in 1909, and shortly after visited this city, so that this part of Canada is more or less familiar to him, and holds many memories which are dear to his heart.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walker gathered at their home last evening and tendered them a shower in honor of the ninth anniversary of their wedding. Many beautiful gifts were received and a most enjoyable evening spent in games and dancing.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "don't you think it would be a good plan to have a little bout in the Arena for the Japanese relief fund?" "You kin do better than that," said Hiram. "You jist hire that there Arena an' git the City Council an' the City Power Commission to quit firin' at long range an' come to close quarters. I callate you could git the Admiral fer a referee—or if he aint here you could git Col Sturdee an' Capt. Mulcahy. Seem it's a naval engagement, so to speak, you'd need some sea dogs on the job. If you advertised it well an' put out some pictur' posters showin' Commissioner Thornton an' Major McAvity an' some more of 'em cleared fer action you'd hev the hull town there an' they'd pay five dollars a-piece."

"But might there not be an earthquake?" anxiously queried the reporter. "No, sir," said Hiram, "jist a water-spout."
